THE whole volume of ſtatutes at large, which at anie time heeretofore haue beene extant in print, ſince Magna Charta, vntill the xxix. yeere of the reigne of our moſt gratious ſoueraigne Ladie Elizabeth by the grace of God, Queene of England, France and Ireland, defender of the faith, &c.

With marginall notes, and a table of neceſſarie vſe new-lie added hereunto.

AT LONDON
Printed for Chriſtopher Barker, Printer to the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie.
1587.

Cum priuilegio Regiæ Maieſtatis.

A table of all and euerie the ſtatutes compriſed in the bodie of this booke: with the numbers of the chapters and pages where they are to be found.

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the third.

Chapter. Folio.

Magna Charta. 1.
The charter of the forreſts. 4.
The ſtatute of Ireland. 5.
The ſtatute made at Merton. 6.
The ſtatute of the leape yeare. 7.
The ſtatute of bread and ale. 8.
The ſtatute concerning generall daies in the bench. 8.
The ſtatute of daies generall in a writ of dower. 8.
The ſtatute of diſtreſſes of the excheker. 9.
The ſtatute for the excheker. 9.
The ſtatute of pillerie. 11.
The ſtatute at Marlbridge or Marlborough. 11.
The award made betweene the king and his commons at Kenelworth. 15.
The ſentence of curſſe giuen by the biſhops againſt the breakers of the great charter. 18

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Edward the firſt.

The ſtatute of Weſtminſter the firſt. 18.
A ſtatute for the extinct of a manor. 26.
A ſtatute touching the office of coroners. 26.
The ſtatute of bigamie. 27.
The ſtatute made at Gloceſter. 28.
Expoſition vpon the ſtatute of Gloceſter. 30.
An eſtatute forbidding bearing of armor. 30.
The ſtatute of mortmaine. 31.
The correction of the xii. chapter of the ſtatute of Gloceſter, concerning forreins being vouched to warrant in the hoſtages of London. 31.
The new ſtatute of the excheker, otherwiſe called the ſtatute of Rutland. 32.
The ſtatute of Acton Burnell. 33.
The ſtatute of Weſtminſter the ſecond. 34.
The ſtatute of Wincheſter. 49.
The ſtatute of merchants. 50.
The ſtatute of Circumſpectè agatis. 52.
The ſtatute of Weſtminſter. 52.
The ſtatute vpon the writ of Quo warranto. 53.
The new ſtatute of Quo warranto. 53.
The maner of leuieng of fines. 53.
The ſtatute of vowchers. 54.
The ſtatute of waſt. 54.
The ſtatute of defending rights. 55.
The ſtatute of perſons to be put in aſſiſes. 55.
The ſtatute of treſpaſſes in parks. 56.
The ſtatute vpon the writ of conſultation. 56.
A confirmation of the charters of the liberties of England and of the forreſt. 56.
The ſentence of the cleargie giuen againſt the breakers of the articles aboue written. 57.
The ſtatutes of fines leuied. 57.
An ordinance of purchaſing liberties. 58.
The ſtatute of wards and releefe. 59.
A ſtatute for perſons appealed. 59.
Articles vpon the charters. 59.
A ſtatute for eſchetors. 62.
The new ſtatute of Quo warranto. 63.
The ſtatute of protection. 64.
A definition of conſpirators. 64.
The ſtatute of conſpirators. 65.

Chapter. Folio.

An ordinance of inqueſts. 65.
An ordinance of the forreſt. 65.
Ordinances of meaſuring of land. 66.
The ſtatute of iointtenants. 66.
Articles of inquiſition made vpon the ſtatute of Wincheſter. 67.
A ſtatute for amortiſment of lands. 67.
A ſtatute concerning certeine liberties granted by the king to his commons. 67.

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Edward the ſecond.

A Statute for knights. 68.
The ſtatute of breaking priſons. 68.
Articles for the clergie. 68.
A ſtatute for ſhiriffes. 71.
A ſtatute of gaulet in London. 71.
The ſtatute of Yorke. 71.
The ſtatute of eſſoines. 73.
A ſtatute of Carlile. 73.
The kings prerogatiue. 73.
The maner of dooing homage and fealtie. 75.
A ſtatute for view of franke pledge. 75.
The ſtatute of priſes. 75.
Articles againſt the kings prohibition. 75.
An ordinance for bakers and bruers, ⁊ other vittellers, and for elles, buſhels, and foreſtallers. 76.
An ordinance for meaſures. 77.

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Edward the third.

Anno primo.

1 An act that none be greeued for the purſuit of king Edward the ſecond. 78.
2 A confirmation of the exile of ſir Hugh Spenſer and his ſonne. 78.
3 An adnullation of fines leuied to the Spenſers. 78.
4 Triall of auerment in writs of falſe iudgement. 78.
5 Auerment againſt returns of bailifs of franchiſes. 79.
6 Attaint aſwell for the principall as the damages in treſpaſſes. 79.
7 Againſt gailors that compell priſoners to make appeales. 79.
8 Againſt offendors in forreſts. 79.

Other ſtatutes made in the ſame yeere.

1 A confirmation of the great charter, and the charter of the forreſts. 79.
2 For ſeizing of the temporalties of Biſhops and for houſbot, ⁊c. 80.
3 A confirmation of king Edward the ſecond his pardon, and a pardon of Iewes debts. 80.
4 For ordering the kings debts. 80.
5 For arming of men. 80.
6 For the tax of the aid granted to the king. 80.
7 For wages to be giuen to ſouldiors, ⁊c. 80.
8 No monie to be taken for faire pleading. 80.
9 A cõfirmation of liberties of all cities ⁊ boroughs. 80.
10 That the king doo not deſire of biſhops by threats to haue promotions for his chapleins. 80.
11 No ſute to bee made againſt auditors in ſpirituall courts. 80.
12 Fine to be made for alienation of lands holden of the king in cheefe. 80.
13 For purchaſing of lands holden of the king as of owners. 80.
14 For maintenance of quarels. 81.

15 None to be bound by writing to come to the king with men of armes. 81
16 For keeping of the peace. ibid.
17 Indictments to be taken by indenture. ibid.

Anno ſecundo Edwardi tertij.

1 A confirmation of the great charter, and the charter of the forreſt. 81
2 For granting of charters of pardon. ibid.
3 For comming before the kings iuſtices with force of armes. ibid.
4 A confirmation of the ſtatute of Lincolne for ſhiriffs. 82
5 For deliuerie of writs to ſhiriffs in their counties. ib.
6 A confirmation of the ſtatute of Wincheſter. ibid.
7 For puniſhment of felons and murderers. ibid.
8 That right be not delaied. ibid.
9 That all ſtaples ſhall ceaſe. ibid.
10 A pardon of all fines for writs. ibid.
11 The common bench not to be remooued without warning by adiournments. ibid.
12 Hundreds and wapentaks let to farme to be reioined to counties. ibid.
13 For proceſſe in treſpaſſe doone in the time of king Edward the ſecond. 83
14 For the meaſuring and aſſiſe of cloth. ibid.
15 For faires to be holden in their time accuſtomed.
16 For Niſi prius to be granted aſwell at the tenants ſute as at the demand. ibid.
17 A writ of deceipt giuen in a Scire facias in a plee of land. ibid.

Anno quarto Edwardi tertij.

1 A confirmation of all ſtatutes not repealed. 84
2 For taking of aſſiſes, iuries, &c: of gaoles. ibid.
3 For purueiance of the king and queenes houſes. ibid.
4 That purueiors paie in hand and haue warrant vnder the great or ſmall ſeale. ibid.
5 The kings pardon. ibid.
6 A confirmation of the ſtatute of Carliſle. 85
7 An action of treſpaſſe giuen to the executors for goods taken awaie in the teſtators life. ibid.
8 For paſſage at Douer. ibid.
9 That ſhiriffes and bailiffes ſhall haue ſufficient in the counties. ibid.
10 Againſt ſhiriffes and gailors that will not receiue theeues and ſuch others into their gailes. ibid.
11 Iuſtices of aſſiſes ſhall inquire of maintenours, &c. ib
12 An act for the ſale of wines. ibid.
13 A confirmation of the ſtatute of Northampton for granting of charters of pardon. 86
14 For a parlement to be holden once euerie yeare. ibid.
15 For wapentakes and hundreds to be letten at the old farme. ibid.

Anno quinto Edwardi tertij.

1 A confirmation of the great charter, and the charter of the forreſt. 86
2 Againſt the kings purueiors, &c. ibid.
3 A confirmation of the ſtatute of Carliſle. 87
4 Shiriffes and other officers ſhal haue ſufficient in the countie. ibid.
5 For cloſing ſtalles and boothes in faires after the daies expired. ibid.
6 Eſſoins and protections put out in attaints. ibid.
7 Attaint to lie in treſpaſſe if the damages paſſe fortie ſhillings. ibid.
8 For letting theeues and felons to baile by the marſhals of the kings bench. ibid.
9 That none be attached or iudged nor out of his lands contrarie to the great charter. ibid.
10 Iurors that take monie ſhall no more paſſe vpon iuries. ibid.
11 That iuſtices aſſigned to determine felonies haue power to write to forren counties. 88
12 For allowances of charters of pardon in outlawries at the ſute of the partie. ibid.
13 For auoiding of outlawries by impriſonment. ibid.
14 For night walkers. ibid.

Anno nono Edwardi tertij.

1 That merchant ſtrangers may freelie ſell all maner of merchãdizes to whom they wil, with other things. 89
2 Nonpleuin of land put out. ibid.
3 That executors ſhall not ſourche. ibid.
4 For triall of deeds dated within franchiſes. 90
5 That iuſtices of aſſiſe, &c: ſhall ſend their records to the excheker. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeere.

1 An act that no ſterling monie nor plate be carried out of the realme. ibid.
2 That no falſe monie be brought into the realme. ibid.
3 That no ſterling halfepenſe nor farthings be moulten by goldſmiths. ibid.
4 Blacke monie excluded. ibid.
5 Puniſhment for the offendors of this ſtatute. ibid.
6 An oth of ſhipmaſters that they ſhall not offend this ſtatute. ibid.
7 For the tables of exchange. ibid.
8 For paſſage of pilgrims. ibid.
9 For ſearch that no monie or plate be carried out of the realme. ibid.
10 The wages of ſerchers. 91
11 That hoſtellors in euerie port be ſworne to make ſearch. ibid.

Anno x. Edwardi tertij.

1 A confirmation of all ſtatutes not repealed. 91
2 No pardon to be granted againſt the ſtatute of Northampton. ibid.
3 They that haue charters ſhall find ſuertie of their good abearing. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 Purueiance to be made in the preſence of the conſtables. 92
2 For inqueſts to be taken before the ſteward and marſhall of the kings bench. ibid.
3 Error before the ſteward and marſhall to be redreſſed in the kings bench. ibid.
4 For purueiance of the kings horſſes. ibid.
5 For puniſhmẽt of the keepers of the kings horſſes. ib.

Anno xj. Edwardi tertij.

1 For carriage of wools out of the realme. 92
2 For wearing of outlandiſh cloth. 93
3 For bringing of ſtrange clothes into the realme. ibid.
4 For wearing of furs. ibid.
5 For clothworkers of ſtrange lands to come and dwell in England. ibid.

Anno xiiij. Edwardi tertij.

1 A confirmation of the great charter. 93
2 & 3 The kings pardon. ibid.
4 Preſentment of Engliſhcherie put out. 94
5 A redreſſe for delaies of iudgements in the kings great courts. ibid.
6 For amendment of records. ibid.
7 How long ſhiriffes ſhall tarrie in their offices. ibid.
8 Diuerſe eſcheators to be in the realme. ibid.
9 That hundreds and wapentakes be no more let to farme. ibid.
10 Gailes of the counties to be annexed to the ſhiriffs. 95
11 That the clearks of the ſtatute merchant be reſident vpon his office. ibid.
12 For true weights and meaſures. ibid.
13 For waſte doone by eſcheators in the lands which the king holdeth in ward. ibid.
14 For ſearch in ſute by petition. 96
15 For granting of charters to murderers & theeues. ibi.
16 For grãting of Niſi prius before anie maner iuſtices. ib.
17 A Iuris vtrum for perſons, vicars, prouoſts, &c. 97
18 For vouching to warrantie a dead perſon. ibid.

19 An act againſt purueiors. ibid.
20 The kings pardon. ibid.
21 A ſubſidie. 98

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 An act touching the ſubſidie. 98
2 That all merchant ſtrangers may haue ſafecōduit. 99

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare for the cleargie.

1 That ſpirituall perſons goods be not taken by the kings takers. 99
2 For preſentments to churches made by the king in an others right. ibid.
3 For ſeizing the biſhops temporalties into the kings hands. ibid.
4 For waſte doone by eſcheators in biſhops temporalties. ibid.
5 For letting the vacation of biſhopriks and other ſpirituall dignities. 100
6 That the ſubiects of England ſhall be out of ſubiection of the kings of France. ibid.

Anno xv. Edwardi tertij.

1 For the maintenance of the great charter. 101
2 Triall by peeres. ibid.
3 For maintenance of the charter in all points. ibid.
4 An act for officers. ibid.
5 Conuſance for vſurie. ibid.
6 For monie to be taken by prieſts. ibid.
7 A reuocation of certeine ſtatutes. 102
8 An act for a ſubſidie of wools, and other things concerning wools. ibid.

Anno xviij. Edwardi tertij.

1 A declaration of exigents. 103
2 For ceaſing of commiſſions of new inquiries. 104
3 Iuſtices of peace to be made. ibid.
4 For ſorting and buieng of wools. ibid.
5 For weights and meaſures. ibid.
6 For exigends in treſpaſſe. ibid.
7 For the new monie and the mine. ibid.
8 A confirmation of the ſtatute of purueiors and ſteward and marſhall. ibid.

Other ſtatutes the ſame yeare for the clergie.

1 That no prelat be impeached of crime before the iuſtices. 104
2 For triall of bigamie. 105
3 For purchaſing lands into mortmaine. ibid.
4 The ſtatute of purueiors confirmed. ibid.
5 For prohibitions. ibid.
6 That temporall iuſtices ſhall not inquire of proceſſe made by ſpirituall iudges. ibid.
7 For Scire facias for tithes. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 An act concerning the oth of iuſtices. 105
2 An act for the oth of the clearks of the chancerie. 106

Anno xx. Edwardi tertij.

1 An act that right be doone by the iuſtices. 106
2 That right be doone by the barons of the excheker. ib.
3 An oth to be made by the iuſtices in oier of aſſiſes and gaole deliuerie. 107
4 For mainteining of quarels. ibid.
5 Iuſtices of aſſiſes ſhall inquire of the demeanour of ſhiriffes and other officers. ibid.

Anno xxiij. Edwardi tertij.

1 What perſons ſhall be compelled to labour. 107
2 That labourers reteined depart not within their terme. 108
3 Labourers wages. ibid.
4 For vittellers. ibid.
5 For beggers. ibid.
6 For artificers. ibid.

Anno xxv. Edwardi tertij.

1 What wages labourers and others ſhall take. 109
2 For cordwainers. ibid.
3 For goldſmiths, ſadlers, and ſuch like. 110
4 For puniſhment of the offenders of this ſtatute. ibid.
5 For extortions of ſhiriffes. ibid.
6 For holding of ſeſſions. ibid.

Another ſtatute made the ſame yeare.

1 An act touching ſuch as be borne beyond the ſeas. 111

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 A confirmation of all liberties granted to the cleargie, and for preſentments to benefices by the king in an others right. 112
2 For clearks conuict of treaſons and felonies. ibid.
3 For remaunding of clerks to the gaole. ibid.
4 For ſeizing of temporalties, and taking fines of biſhops for contempts. ibid.
5 That the incumbent may plead againſt the king in a Quare impedit. ibid.
6 For conuſance perteining to the church. ibid.
7 Inditement of the extortions of ordinaries. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made in the ſame yeere.

1 For meaſuring of clothes. 113
2 For vittels and other merchandizes to be ſold by merchant ſtrangers. 114
3 For foreſtalling of wines. ibid.
4 For pulling downe of weares and mils ſet vp in diſturbance of the paſſage of veſſels. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 For purueiors for the kings houſe. 114
2 Determination of treaſons. 115
3 That no inditors be put vpon the inqueſt of the inditees. ibid.
4 That no man be taken by ſuggeſtion but by inditement or preſentment. ibid.
5 Actions for the executors of executors. 116
6 Againſt takers of wood or timber for the king. ibid.
7 For the gathering of the foreſters. ibid.
8 For finding of men of armes. ibid.
9 Auncell weight put out. ibid.
10 For weight and meaſuring. ibid.
11 For reaſonable aid. ibid.
12 For exchange of gold and ſiluer. ibid.
13 For not impairing of monie. ibid.
14 Proceſſe againſt men indicted of felonie. ibid.
15 For takers of ſheepe. 117
16 That nontenure of parcell ſhall not abate the whole writ. ibid.
17 Proceſſe of outlawrie in actions of debt, detinue, and replegiare. ibid.
18 For exception of villenage. ibid.
19 For protections. ibid.
20 Plate to be receiued into the mint by weight. ibid.
21 For taking wines for the king. ibid.
22 Againſt prouiſors to the court of Rome. ibid.
23 For Lombards that eſcape out of the realme being in debt. 118

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 Againſt prouiſors of benefices. 118
2 Another for leuieng of the fifteene. 120

Anno xxvij. Edwardi tertij.

1 Againſt prouiſors to the court of Rome. 121
2 For charters of pardon for felonies. ibid.
3 For vittellers and dearth of vittell. ibid.
4 For aulnage and aſſiſe of clothes. ibid.
5 For foreſtalling of Gaſcoigne wines. 122
6 For merchants of Gaſcoigne ſafelie to bring their wines. ibid.
7 For ſoiourning in Gaſcoigne, and buieng of wines there by Engliſh merchants. ibid.
8 For gaging of wines. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 An act where the ſtaple ſhall be kept. 123
2 That all merchants may freelie ſell all their mer-chandizes in the ſtaple. 123

3 That all merchants may buie wools, lether, fels, & lead in England, ſo that they be carried to the ſtaple. ibid.
4 None going to the ſtaple be diſturbed by the kings takers. 124
5 The kings iuſtices to haue no conizance of that which perteineth to the ſtaple. ibid.
6 No marſhall or other miniſter to meddle within the ſtaple. ibid.
7 For licence of paſſage of wools, lether, fels, nor lead. fol. 125
8 The iuriſdiction and conizance of the ſtaple. ibid.
9 For recognizance of ſtatutes of the ſtaple. ibid.
10 For weights of the ſtaple. 126
11 For foreſtalling of merchandizes. ibid.
12 That no wools, fels, lether, nor lead be brought into Scotland. ibid.
13 For goods robbed vpon the ſea comming into the realme. ibid.
14 For bringing of bullion in the kings exchanges. ibi.
15 Indentures to be made betweene carriers of merchandizes to the ſtaple by freſh riuers, and the bailiffes of the townes where they be ſhipped. 127
16 For places in the ſtaple where wools and other merchandizes ſhall be ſet. ibid.
17 That no merchant ſtranger be impeached for others debt. ibid.
18 For merchant ſtrangers to reſort into Ireland and Wales. ibid.
19 That none looſe his goods by forfeit of his ſeruants. pag. ibid.
20 Merchant ſtrangers taken into yͤ kings protectiō. 128
21 The ordinances of the maior and conſtables in the ſtaple. ibid.
22 Correctors of ſtrangers & denizens to be in yͤ ſtaple. ib
23 A certeine number of porters and other officers to be in the ſtaple. ibid.
24 Aſſociation of ſtrangers to the maior of the ſtaple, where an alien is partie. ibid.
25 Nothing to be doone in diſtreſſe of the ſtaple. 129
26 Credence to be giuen to the letters of the owners of merchandizes commen into the realme, teſtifieng the true valour of them. ibid.
27 The penaltie of them that be conuict for ſhipping of wools, &c. ibid.
28 A confirmation of priuileges and cuſtoms ibid.

Another ſtatute made the ſame yeere.

1 An other ſtatute of the ordinances and fees of the maiors and conſtables of the ſtaple. ibid.

Anno xxviij. Edwardi tertij.

1 A confirmation of all ſtatutes not repealed. 130
2 That the lords marchers in Wales be intending to the crowne. ibid.
3 None out of land to be taken or impriſoned without due proceſſe of the law. ibid.
4 How eſchetors and other officers ſhall anſwer the king of the profits of lands come to him by the death of his tenants. ibid.
5 That no iron be ſent out of this realme. ibid.
6 The election of coroners. ibid.
7 How long ſhiriffes ſhall abide in their offices. ibid.
8 Attaint giuen vpon a bill of treſpaſſe, not hauing regard to the damages. 131
9 Againſt ſhiriffs vſing to take inqueſt to indict people. ibidem.
10 Redreſſe of errors & miſpriſions in yͤ citie of Londō. ib.
11 For ſafegard of merchants aliens, comming within this realme. ibid.
12 Againſt puruciors, and that of euerie taking vnder xx. ſhillings they make readie paiment. 132.
13 The warrant of packing of wools put out. ibid.
14 Shewing of wools [illegible] at the ſtaple except ſundaie. 133
15 The bounds of the ſtaple. ibid.

Anno xxxj. Edwardi tertij.

1 The great charter and the charter of the foreſt confirmed. 133
2 Againſt the abating of the priſes of wools. ibid.
3 Diſcharge of the eſtreats in the exchecker. ibid.
4 For fines of probats of teſtaments. ibid.
5 The meaſures of a tun of wine, and the true gaging of the ſame. ibid.
6 The fines and amerciaments of labourers. ibid.
7 The ſtatute of labourers to hold places in London and the ſuburbs. 134
8 For carrieng of wools ouer the ſea. ibid.
9 The chancellor and treaſuror to defer the paſſage of wools. ibid.
10 Againſt victellors of London. ibid.
11 The ordinarie to commit adminiſtration wher a man dieth inteſtat and the adminiſtrators to haue actions as executors ſhould. ibid.
12 For errors in the exchecker. ibid.
13 The kings pardon. ibid.
14 The leuieng of eſcapes. 135
15 What time the ſhiriffe ſhall hold his turne. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made the ſame yeare.

1 For herrings and the manner of ſelling thereof. 135
2 For ſtockefiſh. ibid.
3 For fiſh comming within the hauen of Blackney and of the banks holden. 136
4 Ordinances for fiſh. ibid.

Anno xxxiiij. Edwardi tertij.

1 For iuſtices of peace. 137
2 & 3 For puruciors. ibid.
4 For making of pannels. ibid.
5 & 6 Iuſtices of peace to inquire of meaſures. 137, 138
7 Attaint aſwell in plee reall as plee perſonall. ibid
8 Againſt iurors for taking monie for ſaieng their verdict. ibid.
9, 10 & 11 For labourers. 139
12 For eſcheators diſſeiſing men by coulour of their offices. ibid.
13 How eſcheators ſhall take their inqueſts. ibid.
14 For trauerſe of offices. ibid.
15 For alienations made by tenants of king Henrie the third. ibid.
16 No claime of fines to be no bar heerafter. ibid.
17 Merchants aliens or denizens may come into Ireland without fine or ranſome. ibid.
18 An act for them that haue poſſeſſions in Ireland. ibid.
19 No cuſtome for canuaſes. 140
20 For paſſage of corne. ibid.
21 For paſſage of wools. ibid.
22 For hawks found. ibid.

Anno xxxv. Edwardi tertij.

1 For herrings comming to Yarmouth, and the hoſtellers there. ibid.

Anno xxxvj. Edwardi tertij.

1 A confirmation of all ſtatutes not repealed. 141
2, 3, 4, 5, 6 Againſt puruciors. 141, 142
7 Of what things the maior and conſtables of the ſtaple ſhall haue conizance. ibid.
8 For the wages of preeſts. 142
9 Puniſhment for the offendors of anie of the ſaid ſtatutes. 143
10 A parlement to be holden once euerie yeere. ibid.
11 A pardon of the ſubſidie. ibid.
12 For the ſeſſions of the peace. ibid.
13 For waſt doone by eſchetors. ibid.
14 The fines and amerciaments of laborers to be leuied to the commons. ibid.
15 Pleading to be in the Engliſh toong. 144
16 The kings generall pardon. ibid.

Anno xxxvii. Edwardi tertij.

1 All ſtatutes before made confirmed. 145
2 For writers of Identitati nominis. ibid.
3 The price of poultrie. ibid.
4 An order for clerks of the excheker. ibid.
5 Againſt groſers ingroſing merchandizes. ibid.
6 Handicraftſmen to hold them to one occupation. 146
7 For ſiluer veſſell. ibid.
8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, For apparell. 146, 147
16 An act for wines. 147
17 No writ to be abated by exception of villinage vpon auerment, that he was free the daie of the writ purchaſed. ibid.
18 Suggeſtions to be purſued before the counſell. ibid.
19 For finding of hawks. ibid.

Anno xxxviii. Edwardi tertij.

1 All ſtatutes not repealed confirmed. 148
2 For all merchants to buie anie merchandizes to carrie them whither they will. ibid.
3 Fines to be taken in the preſence of the pledges. ibid.
4 That penall bonds in the third perſon are void. ibid.
5 Waging of law in London againſt papers. ibid.
6 The penaltie of death put out for carrieng wools ouer the ſea. ibid.
7 The ſtaple to be in England. ibid.
8 The whole ſhip not to be loſt for a little thing therein not cuſtomed. ibid.
9 For them that make greeuous complaints to the king and then cannot prooue them true. ibid.
10 For ſeeking wines in Gaſcoigne. ibid.
11 For iurors and imbracers of iuries. 149
12 A ſtatute made againſt prouiſors. ibid
13 Statutes of prouiſors. 149, 150

Anno xlij. Edwardi tertij.

1 The great charter and the charter of the foreſt confirmed. 150
2 A confirmation of a pardon. ibid.
3 That none be put to anſwer without preſentment or other thing of record. ibid.
4 That commiſſions be made to ſome of the iuſtices for all inquiries. 151
5 Euerie eſchetor muſt haue twentie pounds land. ibid.
6 A confirmation of the ſtatute of laborers. ibid.
7 They of London to ſell vittle at retaile & none other. ibid.
8 That no Engliſh merchant go to ſeeke wines in Gaſcoigne. ibid.
9 For leuieng of the greene wax. ibid.
10 Children borne beyond the ſea within the kings dominions ſhall inherit lands in England. ibid.
11 For arraieng of pannels. ibid.

Anno xliij. Edwardi tertij.

1 The ſtaple had from Calis & brought into England. 152
2 A repeale of the act that no Engliſhman ſhould ſeeke wines in Gaſcoigne. ibid.
3 For arreſting of wines by the kings butler. 153
4 The kings pardon. ibid.

Anno xlv. Edwardi tertij.

1 The great charter and the charter of the foreſt confirmed. 153
2 For pulling downe of weeres, mils and kiddles. ibid.
3 A prohibition to ſpirituall iudges that hold plee of tithes of wood of twentie yeers groth and aboue. 154
4 No impoſition to be laid vpon wools and lether other than the cuſtome. ibid.

Anno xlvij. Edwardi tertij.

1 For meaſures of cloths. 154
2 How Scotiſh monie ſhalbe currant. ibid.

Anno L. Edwardi tertij.

1 The liberties of the church confirmed. 154
2 The great charter and the charter of the foreſt confirmed. ibid.
3 The kings pardon. ibid.
4 That after a conſultation once granted no prohibition be awarded. 155
5 That no miniſter of holie church be arreſted at ſeruice time. ibid.
6 For gifts of goods by colluſion. ibid.
7 That woollen cloths be not brought out of the realme till they be fulled. ibid.
8 No ſubſidie nor alnage to be leuied of Iriſh freeze. ib.

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Richard the ſecond.

Anno primo.

1 A confirmation of the liberties of the church and of all ſtatutes not repealed. 156
2 For keeping of the peace. ibid.
3 All ſtatutes of purueiors confirmed. ibid.
4 For maintenance of quarels. ibid.
5 After tailes of debts allowed in the excheker, the debts neuer after to renue in demand. ibid.
6 Againſt villains that withdraw their ſeruices. ibid.
7 For giuing of liueries. 157
8 For protections Cum clauſula volumus. ibid.
9 Aſſiſe againſt the prououre of the profits. ibid.
10 A confirmation of a pardon granted in the fiftith yeere of Edward the third. ibid.
11 None that hath beene ſhiriffe ſhall be ſhiriffe within three yeers after. ibid.
12 For priſoners of the fleet ſuffered to go at large. 158
13 That obligations made by ſpirituall men to doo contrarie to the lawes of the church be void. ibid.
14 An act concerning tithes. ibid.
15 That no ſpirituall miniſters be arreſted during diuine ſeruice. ibid.

Anno ſecundo Richardi ſecundi.

1 That merchants ſtrangers maie ſafelie bring anie merchandizes into this realme. 158.
2 For foreſtalling of wines. 160.
3 An act for merchants of Ieane, &c: & others towards the weſt parts. ibid.
4 For mariners flieng out of the kings ſeruice without licence vpon the ſea. ibid.
5 For counterfeiters of newes. ibid.
6 For Welſhmen taking away women and maidens out of England. ibid.
7 An act that pope Vrban ſhould be taken for Indubitat pope. 161.
8 The ſtatute of laborers confirmed. ibid.

Other ſtatutes made in the ſame yeere.

1 A confirmation of the liberties of the church and of all ſtatutes. 161
2 The article of aſſemblies conteined in the laſt ſtatute made at Glouceſter put out. ibid.
3 Proceſſe againſt them which after gifts made of their goods by colluſion flie to ſanctuarie. ibid.

Anno quinto Richardi ſecundi.

1 All liberties and ſtatutes confirmed. 164.
2 For cariage of monie out of the realme. ibid.
3 For maintenance of the Engliſh nauie. 165.
4 The price of wines to be ſold within the realme. ibid.
5 The kings pardon. ibid.
6 For manumiſſions made by manace at the inſurrection 166.
7 For entring into lands where it is not lawfull, ibid
8 For charters elonged at the inſurrection. ibid.
9 For impeachments of debts and accounts in the excheker. ibid.
10 The couenant of them that ſhall ſee the king to bee put in writing. ibid.
11 That accounts in the excheker be ſhortlie heard, 167.
12 Two clearks to be aſſigned to make parcell of the accounts counts in the excheker. 167.

13 Accounts of Nihil to be put out, ibid.
14 The clarke of the pipe and the two remembrancers from the entrie of writs of the great and priuie ſeale euerie terme, ibid.
15 When the iudgement of liuerie commeth into the excheker by Mittimus the remembrancer ſhall diſcharge the partie of any account for the ſame land, ibid.
16 The fee of the clarks of the excheker for making a commiſſion or Niſi prius. ibid.

Anno tertio Richardi ſecundi.

1 All liberties and good ſtatutes confirmed. 162
2 For meaſure of wollen clothes. ibid.
3 For receiuing procurarie letter of atturnie nor ferme of anie benefice but of Engliſhmen. ibid.

Anno quarto Richardi ſecundi.

1 For gauging of wines. 163
2 The kings pardon. 164

Anno quinto Richardi ſecundi.

1 For well intreating of merchant ſtrangers in this realme. 168
2 For paſſing of wools, lether and fels. ibid.
3 A ſubſidie granted to the king. ibid.
4 For comming to the parlement. ibid.
5 For preachers of hereſies. 169

Anno ſexto Richardi ſecundi.

1 The liberties of the church with all ſtatutes not repealed confirmed. 169
2 For actions to be purſued in their proper counties. ib.
3 For writs of noiſances. ibid.
4 For deeds inroled that were deſtroied in the laſt inſurrection. ibid.
5 For ſeſſions to be holden in the principall townes. 170
6 An act for rauiſhing of women. ibid.
7 For ſweet wines to be ſold by retale. ibid.
8 A molliſieng of the act touching the nauie. ibid.
9 Vittellers to beare no office in townes where they dwell. ibid.
10 Vittellers to be vnder the kings protection. ibid.
11 That hoſts vſe no more forſtalling. ibid.
12 Maiors to be ſworne to keepe the ordinances of fiſhmongers and vittellers. 171
13 The kings pardon. ibid.

Another parlement made the ſame yeare.

1 A ſtatute inlarging the ſame pardon. 171
2 For them that feele themſelues greeued by the laſt inſurrection. 172

Anno ſeptimo Richardi ſecundi.

1 The liberties of the church confirmed. 172
2 All ſtatutes confirmed. ibid.
3 For calling of iurors. ibid.
4 For impriſonment by miniſters of the forreſt. ibid.
5 For vagabonds. 173
6 For proclamation to be made of the ſtatute of Wincheſter. ibid.
7 Niſi prius to bee granted at the ſute of any of the iurors. ibid.
8 For purueiors. ibid.
9 For deceit in clothes. ibid.
10 Aſſiſe for a rent going out of lands lieng in two counties. ibid.
11 The ſtatute of vittellers made the fift & ſixt yeeres of king Richard repealed. 174
12 Againſt prouiſors. ibid.
13 For riding in harneſſe. ibid.
14 For atturnies of defendants in writs of Premunire facias. ibid.
15 For champertie and maintenance. ibid.
16 For ſending armor or victuall into Scotland. ibid.
17 The mainpernors to ſatiſfie the plantife for his delaie where the defendant keepeth not his daie by the Superſedeas vpon maineprize. 175

Anno octauo Richardi ſecundi.

1 The liberties of ẏ church & all ſtatutes confirmed. 175
2 None to be iuſtice of aſſiſe nor goale deliuerie in his owne countrie. ibid.
3 Iuſtices nor barons of the excheker ſhall take fee nor reward. ibid.
4 For falſe entring of plees, raſing of roles, and changing of verdicts. ibid.

Anno nono Richardi ſecundi

1 A confirmation of all ſtatutes not repealed. 176
2 For vilains flieng to cities and boroughs. ibid.
3 For writs of attaint & error for them in the reuerſiō. ib
4 The triall whether a Priour be perpetuall or datiffe and remooueable. ibid.
5 For fees of preeſts taken in the marſhalſie of the kings houſe. ibid.

Anno decimo Richardi ſecundi.

1 For the good gouernance of the realme. 177, 178

Anno xii. Richardi ſecundi.

1, 2, 3, & 4 For the good gouernance of the realme. 179
5 & 6 The forfeits of diuers perſons giuen to the king. pag. 181, 182
7 That all merchants may ſell their merchandize where and to whome they will. 183
8 Certeine annuities granted by the K. made void. 184
9 No impoſitions to be put vpon wools, lether nor fels other than the cuſtome. ibid.
10 No letters to be ſent in damage of the realme. ibid.
11 For keeping ſeſſions in cheefe townes. ibid.

Statutes made the ſame yeare.

1 A confirmation of the liberties of the church and of all ſtatutes. 184
2 For making of officers. ibid.
3 A confirmation of all ſtatutes for laborers and vittellers and ſtocks to be in euerie towne and for demeanor of laborers. ibid.
4 & 5 For wages for laborers and how they ſhall behaue themſelues. 185
6 For vnlawfull games. ibid.
7 & 8 For beggers. ibid.
9 For trauellers out of the realme hauing no teſtimonials. 186
10 Iuſtices of peace to puniſh vagabonds and for holding their ſeſſions. ibid.
11 For tellers of new tidings. ibid.
12 For leuieng knights expenſes comming to the parlement. ibid.
13 For auoiding of dung and carren in infection, &c. ib.
14 For the meaſure of clothes. 187
15 That none paſſe out of the realme to obteine any benefit of holie church. ibid.
16 For remoouing the ſtaple from Middleborough to Callis. ibid.

Anno xiii. Richardi ſecundi.

1 The kings preſentee be not receiued to a church full of incumbents till he hath recouered it by the law. 187
2 The iuriſdiction of the court of the conſtables & marſhals. ibid.
3 The iuriſdiction of the ſteward and marſhall of the court not to exceed xii. mile from the kings lodging. 188
4 For the clearke of the market of the kings houſe. ibid.
5 The iuriſdiction of the admerall. ibid.
6 For ſargeants at armes. ibid.
7 Iuſtices of peace to be made anew. ibid.
8 For price of vittels and for laborers. ibid.
9 For weights. 189
10 For meaſures of clothes. ibid.
11 For making of clothes. ibid.
12 For tanners and cordwainers. ibid.
13 For hunters. ibid.
14 For double bonds in ẏ excheck. & recogn. of debts. 190
15 For ioining gaoles to the counties. ibid.

16 For protections. 190
17 For receipt vpon faint pleading. ibid.
18 For attaint in Lincolne. ibid.
19 For ſafegard of fiſh. 191
20 For pilgrims. ibid.

Another parlement made the ſame yeare.

1 For charters of pardon. 191
2 & 3 Againſt prouiſors. 192,193

Anno xiiij. Richardi ſecundi.

1 The ſtaple remooued from Calis. 193
2 For exchange at the court of Rome. ibid.
3 The maior of the ſtaple & others firſt ſworn to yͤ k.ibi.
4 For regrating of wools. ibid.
5 For carieng of wooll and lead out of the realme. ibid.
6 For fraighting of Engliſh ſhips. ibid.
7 For ſhipping of tin. ibid
8 Gauging of Rheniſh wine. ibid.
9 Merchant ſtrangers to be well intreated. ibid.
10 No cuſtomer nor controler to haue ſhip of his owne nor to fraight ſhip. 194
11 For aſſigning of iuſtices of peace. ibid.
12 For how much Scottiſh monie ſhall run. ibid.

Anno xv. Richardi ſecundi.

1 All good ſtatutes confirmed. 194
2 For forcible entrees. ibid.
3 For the admerals iuriſdiction. ibid.
4 For meaſuring corne in London. 195
5 For making of churchyards. ibid.
6 For appropriation of churches. ibid.
7 For carieng of vittels or merchandizes into Scot. ib.
8 For paſſage of tin. 196
9 For recognizances of the ſtaple. ibid.
10 For cloth made in Sur. Suſſex & Southhamp. ibid.
11 For girdlers. ibid.
12 For anſwering before the counſel of lords & ladies.ib.

Anno xvj. Richardi ſecundi.

1 For merchants aliens retaling merchandizes within the realme. 196
2 For appearing before the counſell of lords and ladies to anſwer. 197
3 The clarke of the market to haue readie his weights according to the ſtandard. ibid
4 For liueries of companies. ibid.
5 For prouiſions to the court of Rome. ibid.
6 For charters of pardon. 198

Anno xvij. Richardi ſecundi.

1 For melting monie to make plate. 199
2 For clothes called karſies. ibid.
3 For worſteds. ibid.
4 For clenſing and purifieng of malt. ibid.
5 For certeine officers to haue no eſtate in their offices for life nor yeeres. ibid.
6 For damage for them that be vexed before the counſell by vntrue ſuggeſtion. 200
7 For carieng of corne out of the realme. ibid.
8 For riots and vnlawfull aſſemblies. ibid.
9 That iuſtices of peace be conſeruators of the ſtatute made for weares. ibid.
10 Two men of law aſſigned,&c:to deliuer gaoles. 201

Anno xx. Richardi ſecundi.

1 For riding araied in the realme &c: 201
2 For wearing of liueries. ibid.
3 Lords nor other to ſit with iuſtices of aſſiſe. ibid.
4 That no ſhip fraighted towards England be compelled to come to any other port. ibid.
5 For taking of horſſes. 202
6 Licence,&c:to Belknapt & others to come into Eng.ib

Anno xxj. Richardi ſecundi.

1 All liberties confirmed. 202
2 An act touching the commiſſion made to the erle of Arundell and others. ibid.
3 Againſt ſuch as compaſſed the kings deſtruction. 203.
4,5,6,7,8,9,10,11,12,13,14, Touching the king and conſeruation of the realme. 203,204,205,206,207
15 The kings pardon. ib.
16 For determination of certeine matters. ib.
17 For licences to ſhip merchandizes of the ſtaple. 208
18 For bringing laſtage of good ſtones to Calis. ib.
19 For leuieng weres, &c: in diſturbance of the paſſage of veſſels. ib.
20 Againſt them that procure to reuerſe any thing made in the parlement. 209

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the fourth.

Anno primo.

1 All liberties of the church and ſtatutes heretofore made confirmed. 209
2 For the ſafegard of them which came in with king Henrie the fourth. 210
3 A repeale of the parlement made in the xxi. yeare of king Richard confirmed. ib.
4 The ſtatute made in the xi. yeere of king Richard confirmed. ib.
5 For reſtitution of thoſe which were attainted in the ſaid xxi. yeere of Richard the ſecond. ib.
6 For letters patents to be made by the king. ib.
7 For giuing of liueries. ib.
8 For them that be put out of their lands by ſuggeſtion made to the king. 211
9 For the ſales of forfeitures made by great officers of king Richard the ſecond. ib.
10 For paines of treaſon made the xxi. yeare of king Richard the ſecond. ib.
11 For ſhirifs to bee charged after the old farms of the countie. ib.
12 For weres,&c: leuied in diſturbance of paſſage. 212
13 For what ſeaſon ſerchers and other officers ſhall abide in their offices. ib.
14 For determination of appeales. ib.
15 For errors in London. ib.
16 For Londoners to be free of packing of clothes. 213
17 That aliens vittellers be in the kings protection. ib.
18 For murders and other offenſes doone,&c: ib.
19 For making of clothes. 214
20 The kings pardon. ib.

Anno ſecundo Henrici quarti.

1 A confirmation of all ſtatutes and liberties. 214
2 For gifts and grants to be made by the king. ib.
3 For prouiſions made to the court of Rome. ib.
4 For religious men of the order of Ceſteaux. ib.
5 For cariage of monie out of the realme. ib.
6 For deceipt in Flemiſh and Scottiſh monie. 216
7 For nonſutes in aſſiſe after verdict. ib.
8 The fee of the chirographer. ib.
9 For commiſ. awarded in the time of king Ric. ib.
10 For the clearke of the crowne of the kings bench. ib.
11 The iuriſdiction of the admerall. ib.
12 For Welſh. purchaſing lands and being in office. 217
13 The pardon made the xxi of king Ric. confirmed. ib.
14 For purueiors. ib.
15 For hereſies. ib.
16 For Welſhmen comming by night,&c. 219
17 For Welſhmen burning houſes, &c. ib.
18 For ſtuffing of the caſtels in Wales. ib.
19 For Engliſhmen conuict by Welſhmen in Wales. ib.
20 For Welſhmen purchaſing lands, &c. ib.
21 For giuing of liueries. ib.
22 For ſutes contrarie to the ſtatute made the xi. yeere of Richard the ſecond. 220
23 The fees of the marſhall of the marſhalſeie of the kings houſe. ib.
24 For proceſſe made againſt them that were in the kings wages with the duke of Yorke, ib.

Anno quarto Henrici quarti.

1 All liberties and ſtatutes confirmed. 221
2 Foꝛ indictments of Inſidiatores viarum, & depopulatores agrorum. ibid.
3 Foꝛ clearks conuict. ibid.
4 Foꝛ reuenues of the crowne without deliberation. 222
5 Shirifs to be reſident within their bailiwicks. ibid.
6 Foꝛ ſealing of clothes. ibid.
7 Actions againſt the ſuters of the pꝛofits. ibid.
8 Foꝛ diſſeiſſens with robberie. ibid.
9 Foꝛ commiſſions of inquirie. 223
10 Foꝛ halfepenſe and farthings. ibid.
11 Foꝛ pulling downe of weares,&c. ibid.
12 Foꝛ appꝛopꝛiations of benefices. ibid.
13 Foꝛ dooing ſeruice in warre. 224
14 Foꝛ reteining of labourers and other craftſmen. ibid.
15 That merchants aliens beſtow their monie which they receiue within the realme. ibid.
16 Foꝛ carrieng of monie oꝛ plate out of the realme. ibid.
17 Foꝛ the foure oꝛders of friers. ibid.
18 & 19 Foꝛ atturneis of the law. 225
20 Cuſtomers and comptrollers to be reſident vpon their offices. ibid.
21 Serchers to occupie in pꝛoper perſon. ibid.
22 Foꝛ incumbents put out by the kings pꝛeſentees. ibid
23 Foꝛ examination of iudgements,&c. 226
24 Foꝛ aulnage of clothes. ibid.
25 Foꝛ hoſtellers and vitulers. ibid.
26 That Engliſhmen be not conuict by Welſhmen. ibid.
27 Foꝛ commots in Wales. ibid.
28 Foꝛ congregations of Welſhmen. ibid.
29 Foꝛ bearing armoꝛ in Wales. ibid.
30 Foꝛ ſending armoꝛ oꝛ victuals into Wales. ibid.
31 Welſhmē to haue no foꝛtreſſes noꝛ caſtels in Wales.ib.
32 Welſhmen not to be in certeine offices in Wales. ibid.
33 Caſtels and walled townes in Wales to be inſtoꝛed with Engliſhmen. ibid.
34 Foꝛ Engliſhmen married to anie of the aliens of Owen Glendoure. 227
35 Foꝛ tanners and ſhoomakers.. ibid.

Anno quinto Henrici quarti.

1 The foꝛfeitures of ſir Henrie & ſir Thomas Perſi .227
2 Foꝛ charters to be granted to appꝛoouers. ibid.
3 Foꝛ watch vpon the ſea coſts. ibid.
4 Multiplication made felonie. 228.
5 Foꝛ cutting toongs,and putting out of eies. ibid.
6 Foꝛ batteries doone to ſuch mens ſeruants as come to the parlement. ibid.
7 Foꝛ intreating of merchants ſtrangers. ibid.
8 Foꝛ examinations of atturneis in actions of debt vpon arreragies of account. ibid.
9 Foꝛ keeping of gold and ſiluer within the realme,ibid.
10 Juſtices of peace to impꝛiſon men in cōmon gails.229
11 Foꝛ paieng of tithes by farmars where the lands be ſeized in the kings hands. ibid.
12 Foꝛ not ſhewing againe the ſtatute merchant after it is once ſhewed. ibid.
13 Foꝛ guilting of diuerſe wares. ibid.
14 Foꝛ imbeſſelling of fines. ibid.
15 The kings pardon. ibid.

Anno ſexto Henrici quarti.

1 Foꝛ pꝛouiſions of biſhopꝛiks. 230
2 Foꝛ letters patents to be made to the queene and the kings ſonne. ibid.
3 Againſt ſhiriffes & other officers that ſeeke to deceiue the king. ibid.
4 Foꝛ ſelling merchandizes by merchants aliens. 231

Anno ſeptimo Henrici quarti.

1 All liberties and ſtatutes not repealed confirmed. 231
2 Foꝛ the inheritance of the crowne of England. ibid.
3 Foꝛ the charge of the clearks of the eſtreats. ibid.
4 Foꝛ ſuffering pꝛiſoners condemned to go at large.232
5 Foꝛ the foꝛfeiture of the erle of Noꝛthumberland and the loꝛd Bardolfe. ibid.
6 Foꝛ purchaſing buls to be diſcharged of diſmes. ibid.
7 Foꝛ arrow heads. ibid.
8 Foꝛ pardons to benefices full of incumbents by pꝛouiſion. ibid.
9 Foꝛ ſales of clothes in London. ibid.
10 Foꝛ the meaſure of clothes. 233.
11 Foꝛ certifieng of commiſſions. ibid.
12 Foꝛ the foꝛfeiture of John earle of Saliſburie and ſir Thomas Blunt. ibid.
13 Foꝛ atturnies of impotent perſons. ibid.
14 Foꝛ giuing of liueries. 234.
15 Foꝛ election of burgeſſes and knights of the parlement. ibid
16 Foꝛ annuities granted to kings ſeruants out of counties. ibid.
17 Foꝛ making of appꝛentiſes. 235
18 The kings pardon. ibid.

Anno nono Henrici quarti.

1 A confirmatiō of all liberties & ſtatutes not repeled.235
2 Foꝛ Kendall cloth. 236
3 Foꝛ felonies in Southwales. ibid.
4 Foꝛ diſclamoꝛ of felonies in Wales. ibid.
5 Foꝛ naming loꝛds and bailiffes of ancient demeſne in aſſiſes. ibid.
6 Foꝛ the meaſure of raw clothes. ibid.
7 Foꝛ foꝛrens to be contributoꝛs to the tax of the diſms and quinziſme. ibid.
8 Foꝛ free elections. ibid.

Anno xi. Henrici quarti.

1 Juſtices of aſſiſes to inquire of ſhiriffes returns of wꝛits of the parlement. 237
2 That no common hoſteller be comptroller,&c. ibid.
3 Foꝛ recoꝛds of aſſiſes,&c. ibid.
4 Foꝛ labourers vſing vnlawfull games. ibid.
5 Foꝛ voiding of gallie halfepenſe. 238
6 Foꝛ aulnage of clothes. ibid.
7 Foꝛ conueieng grained clothes out of the realme in ſmall peeces. ibid.
8 Foꝛ exchanges. 239
9 Foꝛ taking inqueſts not returned by the ſhiriffe. ibid.

Anno xiij. Henrici quarti.

1 A confirmatiō of all liberties & ſtatutes not repealed.ib.
2 Foꝛ iuſtices of aſſiſe. ibid.
3 Foꝛ giuing of liueries. 240
4 Foꝛ meaſure of clothes. ibid.
5 Foꝛ cuſtomers,&c: to be reſident vpon their offices.ib.
6 Foꝛ voiding of gallie halfepenſe. ibid.
7 Foꝛ determination of riots and routs. 241

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the fift.

Anno primo.

1 FOꝛ election of knights and burgeſſes of the parlement. 241
2 Foꝛ leuieng of weares and kidles. ibid.
3 Foꝛ foꝛging of falſe deeds. 242
4 Foꝛ extoꝛtions of ſhiriffes. ibid.
5 Foꝛ addition to be giuen in caſe where pꝛoceſſe of outlawꝛie lieth. ibid.
6 Foꝛ Engliſhmens miſdemenoꝛ in Wales. ibid.
7 Foꝛ Frenchmen beneficed in England. 243
8 Foꝛ the inſtoꝛing of Ireland. ibid.
9 Foꝛ reuocation of certeine grants of lands and offices in Calis. ibid.
10 Foꝛ weights and meaſures of coꝛne. ibid.

Anno ſecundo Henrici quinti.

1 Commiſſions to inquire of hoſpitals. 244
2 Foꝛ wꝛits of Certiorari and Corpus cum cauſa granted foꝛ perſons in execution. ibid.
3 Foꝛ granting a copie of a libell to the intent to obteine a pꝛohibition. 245

4 Foꝛ labourers. ibid.
5 Foꝛ Tindale and Examſhire. ibid.
6 Foꝛ truce and ſafe conducts. 246
7 Foꝛ refoꝛmation of hereſie and lollardie. 247 & 248
8 Foꝛ refoꝛmation of riots and routs. 249
9 Pꝛoceſſe againſt riotoꝛs that flee into woods. 250

Another parlement made the ſame yeare.

1 Foꝛ iuſtices of peace. 251
2 Foꝛ wages of pꝛeeſts. ibid.
3 Foꝛ the ſufficiencie of iuroꝛs. ibid.
4 Foꝛ Goldſmiths. ibid.
5 Foꝛ the rebellion of Welſhmen. ibid.
6 Foꝛ ſhippiug of ſtaple ware. 252

Anno tertio Henrici quinti.

1 Foꝛ baniſhing of gallie halfepenſe, ſuſkins and dotkins. 252

An other parlement the ſame yeare.

1 All liberties and franchiſes confirmed. 253
2 Foꝛ abbats and pꝛioꝛs being ſutoꝛs to court barons in Yoꝛkeſhire. ibid.
3 Foꝛ auoiding of Bꝛitons out of the land. ibid.
4 Againſt pꝛouiſoꝛs. ibid.
5 An act foꝛ the citie of Lincolne. 256
6, 7 Foꝛ clipping, waſhing and filing of monie. 256
8 Foꝛ pꝛobats of teſtaments. 257

Anno quarto Henrici quinti.

1 A confirmation of all ſtatutes. 257
2 Foꝛ ſhiriffes to haue allowance of certeine eſtreats. ib.
3 Foꝛ patenmakers. ibid.
4 Foꝛ the wages of ſeruants of huſbandꝛie. ibid.
5 Foꝛ hoſts to be aſſigned to merchants ſtrangers. ibid.
6 Foꝛ benefices in Ireland. ibid.
7 Foꝛ bꝛeaking of truce and ſafeconduicts. ibid.
8 The kings pardon. ibid.

Anno quinto Henrici quinti.

1 Foꝛ abbats and pꝛioꝛs to make atturneis in certeine court barons and wapentakes in Yoꝛkeſhire. 257

Anno ſeptimo Henrici quinti.

1 Foꝛ appealing and indicting men of Lancaſterſhire. page. 258

Anno octauo Henrici quinti.

1 That in the kings abſence the teſte of the wꝛits be in the name of the lieutenant. ibid.
2 Foꝛ bullion to be bꝛought to the mint by merchants of the weſt parts. 259
3 Foꝛ gilting and ſiluering. ibid.

Anno nono Henrici quinti.

1 Foꝛ appeales and indictments in Lanckiſhire. 259
2 Foꝛ exigents againſt any in Lancaſhire. ibid.
3 Foꝛ pꝛotections in aſſiſes. ibid.
4 Foꝛ amending of recoꝛds. ibid.
5 Foꝛ making of ſhiriffes and eſcheatoꝛs. 260
6 Foꝛ the mint and coining at Calis. ibid.
7 Foꝛ men of Reddeſdaile offending in Noꝛthumberland and other places. ibid.
8 Foꝛ ſcholers of Oxfoꝛd hunting by night. 261
9 Foꝛ abbats, &c: to be diſcharged of collection of diſmes out of the countie where they dwell. ibid.
10 Foꝛ ſeacoles. ibid.
11 Foꝛ waſhers and clippers of monie. ibid.
12 Foꝛ Rocheſter bꝛidge. ibid.

Another parlement made the ſame yeare.

1 All ſtatutes touching gold and ſiluer confirmed. 262
2 Foꝛ the exchange in London. ibid.
3 Foꝛ paiment of exchange. ibid.
4 Foꝛ bꝛinging of the monie receiued foꝛ the exchange to the Tower of London. ibid.
5 Foꝛ the mint at Calis. ibid.
6 Foꝛ good allaie in the monie. ibid.
7 Foꝛ nobles halfenobles and farthings of gold. ibid.
8 Foꝛ counterfetoꝛs and makers of falſe weights. ibi.
9 Foꝛ exchange in the court of Rome. ibid.
10 Foꝛ the account of the collectoꝛs of diſmes and quinziſmes. 263

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the ſixt.

Anno primo.

1 Foꝛ the mint at Yoꝛke and Bꝛiſtow. 263
2 The ſhiriffes to make pꝛoclamatien of the ſtatutes. ib.
3 Foꝛ riots made by Iriſhmen. ibid.
4 That the men of the mint ſhould not hold the exchanges. 264
5 Foꝛ the gaines of the wars to be deducted foꝛ the wages of ſuch as haue indented with the king. ibid.

Anno ſecundo Henrici ſexti.

1 All liberties confirmed. 264
2 Foꝛ the hoſpitall of S. Leonard in Yoꝛke. ibid.
3 Foꝛ Iohn duke of Bedfoꝛd to be receiued by his atturneie to defend his right in any action. 265
4 The repaire of wools, &c: to be at Calis. ibid.
5 Foꝛ ſhiping in Fodꝛay pill. 266
6 Foꝛ carrieng of gold and ſiluer out of the realme. ibi.
7 Foꝛ coꝛdwainers vſing the myſterie of tanners. ibid.
8 Foꝛ auoiding of Iriſhmen out of the land. ibid.
9 Foꝛ the auoiding of the monie of blanks. 267
10 Foꝛ making of miniſters and clearkes in the courts. ibidem.
11 Foꝛ the meaſure of wines. ibid.
12 Foꝛ the aſſaie of white monie accoꝛding to the indenture. ibid.
13 Foꝛ the increaſe of white monie. 268
14 Foꝛ goldſmiths ſelling woꝛke of ſiluer. ibid.
15 Foꝛ nets and engins in Thames. ibid.

Anno tertio Henrici ſexti.

1 Foꝛ chapiters and congregations of maſons. ibid.
2 Foꝛ carrieng of ſheepe into Flanders. ibid.
3 Foꝛ concealing of the kings cuſtoms and ſubſidies. ib.
4 Foꝛ butter and cheeſe. ibid.
5 Foꝛ the riuer of Lee. ibid.

Anno quarto Henrici ſexti.

1 Foꝛ imbeaſeling of wꝛits. 269
2 Foꝛ pꝛotections in aſſiſes. ibid.
3 Foꝛ amendment of recoꝛds. 271
4 Foꝛ certeine knights newlie made. ibid.
5 Foꝛ reſtraint of paſſage. ibid.

Anno ſexto Henrici ſexti.

1 Foꝛ pꝛoceſſe of indictments. 271
2 Foꝛ pannels of aſſiſes. 272
3 Foꝛ wages of huſbandmẽ, and puniſhment of labourers. ibid.
4 Foꝛ election of knights and burgeſſes of the parlement. 273
5 Foꝛ commiſſion of ſewers. ibid.
6 Foꝛ ſhipping in Melcombe. 274

Anno octauo Henrici ſexti.

1 Foꝛ arreſting of clearkes comming to the conuocation. ibid
2 An act foꝛ the ſtaple of Denmarke. 275
3 Foꝛ ſewers. ibid.
4 Foꝛ giuing of liueries. ibid.
5 Foꝛ weights. 276
6 Foꝛ caſting of bils into mens houſes. 277
7 Foꝛ elections of knights of the parlement. ibid.
8 Foꝛ labourers. ibid.
9 Foꝛ foꝛcible entries. 278
10 Foꝛ pꝛoceſſe in indictments and appeales. 279
11 Foꝛ taking of appꝛentiſes. 280
12 & 13 Foꝛ amendment of recoꝛds. 280 & 281
14 Foꝛ pꝛotections foꝛ ſuch as ſhall go ouer ſea with the king. 282
15 Foꝛ felons and murderers that void themſelues into woods. ibid.

16 For inquiſition taken by eſcheators. 282
17 For ſhipping to the ſtaple. 283
18 For the priſe of ſtaple ware, & for yͤ mint at Calis. ib.
19 For priuie cōueiance of merchādize out of yͤ relme. 284
20 For inhabitāts of Calis vſing to buy ſtaple wares. ib.
21 For men of Newca. and War. ſhipping to Calis. ib.
22 For clacking and forcing of wools. ibid.
23 For cutting woollen threds and ſending them beyond ſea for thrums. ibid.
24 For paiments in gold made to merchants aliens. 285
25 For continuance of the maior of the ſtaple in his office for a ſeaſon. 285
26 For aſſiſes ſued in the benches of lands lieng within a franchiſe. ibid.
27 For paſſage of trows through yͤ riuer of Seuerne. ib.
28 For the waie betwixt Abbington & Dorcheſter. 287
29 For inqueſts betwixt aliens and denizens. ibid.

Anno decimo Henrici ſexti.

1 For recognizance of debts before the maior of the ſtaple. 293
2 For elections of the knights of the parlement. ibid.
3 For reſtitutiō of goods takē by them of Denmarke. ib.
4 For entring of rols by philizers and exigenters. 294
5 For reparation of the banks & beacons at Calis. ibi.
6 Proceſſe vpon indictments & appeales in forren counties. ibid.
7 For ſhipping of ſtaple ware to other places than to Calis. 295

Anno xi. Henrici ſexti.

1 For impanelling men dwelling about the court. 295
2 For nanning yͤ ſhirifs in writs aſſiſe of colluſion. 296
3 For writs vpon diſſeiſon againſt the pernours of the profits. ibid.
4 For damage of the plaintifs in writs of attaint. 296
5 For actions of waſt againſt the pernours of the profits. 297
6 For commiſſions of peace. ibid.
7 For indictments in ſhiriffes turnes. ibid.
8 For weights and meaſures. 298
9 For aulnage of clothes. 299
10 For purſute of Scire facias ſued by recogniſoures of the ſtatute of the ſtaple arreſted vpon the ſame. ibid.
11 For affaires made vpon lords comming to the parlement. 300
12 For warchandlers. ibid.
13 A confirmation of an act for ſelling wares for readie monie. ibid.
14 For ſhipping in creekes. ibid.
15 For imbeſiling of yͤ kings cuſtoms by cuſtomers. 301
16 For cuſtomers making blancke ſcrowles to merchants. ibid.

Anno xiiij. Henrici ſexti.

1 That iuſtices of Niſi prius giue iudgement aſwell where felons be acquited as where they be conuicted or attainted. 301
2 Againſt licences for ſhipping of wools. ibid.
3 The ſeſſions for the countie of Cumberland to be at Carliſle. 302
4 For ſeſſions in Middleſex. ibid.
5 For ſhipping to the ſtaple. 303
6 For aliens vittellers to ſell fiſh by retaile. ibid.
7 For priſes vpon the ſea. 304
8 For breaking of ſafe conducts. ibid.

Anno xv. Henrici ſexti.

1 An act for ſutes before the ſtewards and marſhals of the kings houſe. 304
2 For carrieng of corne ouer the ſea. 305
3 For the clauſe of vidimus to put in ſafe conducts. ibid.
4 For ties to be found by them yͭ ſue writs of ſub pena. ib.
5 For writs of attaint. ibid.
6 For ordinances made by guilds & fraternities. 306
7 Touching the wapentakes of Sandcliffe & Frendles in Yorke. ibid.
8 For cariage of ſtaple ware not cuſtomed. 307

Anno xviij. Henrici ſexti.

1 For warrantiſes of letters patents ſent to the chancellor to be entred of record. 307
2 For iurors in attaints. ibid.
3 For licences to carie ſtaple ware to other places than Calis. 308
4 For merchandizes forren bought and forren ſold. ibid.
5 For collectors of diſmes 310
6 Lands to be let to ferme to him that trauerſeth the office and to none other. ibid
7 For returning of offices by eſchetors. ibid.
8 For Spaniſh ſhips taken vpon the ſeas by denizens. ib.
9 For entrees of the philizers and exigenters. 311
10 For commiſſions of ſewers. ibid.
11 A iuſtice of peace to haue xx. pounds land. 312
12 For indictments ſuppoſed in a place where there is none ſuch in that countie. ibid.
13 For outlawries in the countie of Lancaſter. ibid.
14 For making of araies and pannels. 313
15 For cariage of wolles to other places beyond the ſeas than Calis. ibid.
16 For deceipt in clothmaking. ibid.
17 For gauging of veſſels of oile and wine. 314
18 Againſt capteines abating ſoldiors wages. ibid.
19 For ſoldiors departing without licence. ibid.

Anno xx. Henrici ſexti.

1 For inrolment of ſafeconducts. 315
2 For forfeiture of goods by reaſon of outlawries in Lancaſter. 316
3 For robberies doone by welſhmen in the counties ioining to wales. ibid
4 For cuſtomes and ſubſidies to be paid by denizens. 317
5 That no cuſtomers, ſerchers, &c: haue anie ſhip of their owne. ibid.
6 For ſhipping of corne ouer the ſea. ibid.
7 For not cuſtoming goods brought firſt from beyong the ſea into wales and from thence into England. 318
8 For reſiſtance of purueiors. ibid
9 For women of hie eſtate to be iudged by their peeres. ib
10 For true making of worſteds. ibid.
11 The paine of treaſon put out in caſe of breaking of ſafe conducts. 319
12 For reformation of partition of wools by the maior of the ſtaple. 320

Anno xxiij. Henrici ſexti.

1 & 2 Againſt purueiors. 321
3 For ſhipping thrums and woollen threads out of this realme. ibid.
4 For true making of worſteds. 322
5 For taking outlawes of wales reſorting into Heref. 323
6 The ſtatute for conueieng corne ouer yͤ ſea cōfirmed. ib.
7 For gathering hed penſe by the ſhiriffe of Northumberland. 324
8 For the occupieng of ſhirifs. ibid
9 For commiſſions of ſewers. 325
10 For extortion of ſhirifs. ibi.
11 For leuieng knights wages for the parlement. 326
12 For the triall of new forren pleas pleaded after an iſſue once ioined. ibid.
13 For wages for ſeruants of huſbandrie. 326
14 Againſt purueiors. 327
15 For election of knights for the parlement. 328
16 For paiment of gage penſe to the gagers. 329
17 For inqueſts to be taken by eſcheators & their fees. ib.
18 For buieng of wines of the high countrie. ibid.

Anno xxv. Henrici ſexti.

1 An act againſt Welſhmen. 330

Anno xxvij. Henrici ſexti.

1 For reſtraint of clothes in Brabant, &c. 330
2 The liberties of the ſtaple confirmed. ibid.
3 For vittuall and corne carried out of the realme by merchants aliens. 332
4 An act againſt welſhmen confirmed. 333
5 For holding faires vpon feſtiuall daies & ſundaies. ib.
6 The kings pardon made to the cleargie. 334

Anno xxviij. Henrici ſexti.

1 For the reſtraint of woollen clothes in Brabant. 334
2 For letters patents of priſes made to hoſtlers and brewers. 335
3 The kings pardon to ſhiriffes for occupieng aboue a yeare. ibid.
4 For Welſhmen and Lancaſhire men taking goods and cattell vnder colour of diſtreſſe. ibid.
5 For extortions done by ſerchers,&c. to ſtrangers. 336

Anno xxix. Henrici ſexti.

1 For attaindor of Iacke Cade. 336
2 For proceſſe againſt breakers of truſe. 337
3 For letters patents made to citizens of Yorke. ibid.

Anno xxxj. Henrici ſexti.

1 Touching the ſaid attaindor of Iacke Cade. 338
2 Againſt riotors diſobeieng priuie ſeales. ibid.
3 For attachments made by the wardens of the marches. 339
4 For breaking of truſe. ibid.
5 For letters patents made to gagers,&c. 340
6 For outlawries in Lanckaſhire. ibid.
7 An act of the generall reſumption. ibid.
8 For the ſhipping of wools. 341
9 For taking awaie of ladies and gentlewomen inheritors. ibid.

Anno xxxiij. Henrici ſexti.

1 For ſeruants ſpoiling their maiſters goods after his death. 342
2 A repeale of an act made at Reading for outlaries in Lanckiſhire. 343
3 For extortioners of the office of the excheker. 344
4 For brewers in Kent. 345
5 For ſilke women. ibid.
6 For the vexation of the abbat of Foũtaine in diuerſe wapentakes. 346
7 For atturneis in Norffolke and Suffolke. 346

Anno xxxix. Henrici ſexti.

1 A reuocation of a parlement holden at Couentrie. 347
2 That women of fourteene yeares of age to haue liuerie of their lands. 348

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Edward the fourth.

Anno primo.

1 For letters patents made by king Henrie the fourth, Henrie the fift, and Henrie the ſixt. 348
2 For indictments and preſentments in ſhiriffes turnes and leetes. 352

Anno tertio Edwardi quarti.

1 For ſhipping of wools. 354
2 For corne not to be brought into this land. 355
3 For ſilkewomen. ibid.
4 For artificers and handicraftſmen. 356
5 For apparell. 357

Anno quarto Edwardi quarti.

1 For clothmaking. 359
2 For ſhipping of merchandizes of the ſtaple. 361
3 For ſhipping clothes at Newcaſtell. 362
4 For buieng of wools. 363
5 For merchandizes of the dutchie of Burgundie. ibid.
6 For ſuerties found to cuſtomers & comptrollers. 364
7 For cordwainers and coblers. 365
8 For horners. ibid.
9 For patten makers. 366
10 For paſſage from Douer to Calis. ibid.

Anno ſeptimo Edwardi quarti.

1 For making of Worſteds. 367
2 For clothes made in the hundreths of Liſtone, Taueſtocke and Loughbourgh in Deuonſhire. 368
3 For woollen yarne, clothes vnfulled, not to be carried out of the realme. 369
4 For grants made by the king. ibid.
5 For reuiuing the ſignories of attainted lands. ibid.

Anno octauo Edwardi quarti.

1 An act for ſet clothes. 370
2 For liueries of companie. 371
3 For iuries in Middleſex. 372
4 For ſhiriffes. 373

Anno xij. Edwardi quarti.

1 For returnes of ſhiriffes. 373
2 An act for bowſtaues. 374
3 An act for the ſubſidies. ibid.
4 For liueries to be giuen by the prince. 376
5 For ſhipping of wools. ibid.
6 For ſewers. 377
7 For weares and fiſhgarths. ibid.
8 For adnulling letters patents made to ſearchers and ſuruciors of vittels. 379
9 For eſcheators. ibid.

Anno xiiij. Edwardi quarti.

1 For the kings tenants going in his wars. 380
2 Protections for ſuch as go in the kings wars. 381
3 For ſhipping of wools and fels. 382
4 A confirmatio of ſtatutes made for breaking truce. 383

Anno xvij. Edwardi quarti.

1 An act for monie. 383
2 For courts of piepowders. 388
3 For vnlawfull games. ibid.
4 For making of tile. 389
5 For ſealing of clothes. 390
6 For ſhiriffes returnes. 391
7 A repeale of the parlement holden the tenth yeare of the kings reigne. 391

Anno xxij. Edwardi quarti,

1 An act for apparell. 391
2 For packing of barreled fiſh. 392
3 For ſilke workers. 393
4 For the priſe of bowes. 394
5 For fulling of hats and caps. ibid.
6 For ſwans. 394
7 For incloſing woods in the forreſts. 395
8 For the towne of Barwicke. ibid.

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Richard the third.

Anno primo.

1 For eſtates to be made by the feoffors in vſe. 396
2 Diſcharge of the beneuolence. 396
3 For letting of ſuſpects of felonie to baile. ibid.
4 For iurors. 397
5 For adnulling of feofments made to king Richard to anie vſe. ibid.
6 For ſutes in courts of piepowders. ibid.
7 For fines. 398
8 For clothmaking. 399
9 Againſt Italians that ſell their wares in groſſe. 401
10 For bowſtaues. 403
11 For ſetting handicrafts m̃ of this relme a worke. ib.
12 For the meaſure of wine and oile. 403
13 Priuilege of collectors of diſme. 404
14 An act againſt the ladie Elizabeth Graie. ibid.

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the ſeuenth.

Anno primo.

1 Forme dewne. 405
2 Againſt ſtrangers made denizens to pay cuſtoms. 405
3 No protection allowed in anie court at Calis. 406
4 Correction of preeſts for incontinencie. ibid.
5 Againſt tanners and cordwainers. ibid.
6 Field. ibid.
7 Againſt hunters. ibid.
8 For reparation of the nauie. 408
9 Silkeworke. ibid.
10 A reuocatiō of K. Richard his act againſt Italians. ib

Anno tertio Henrici ſeptimi.

1 Giuing of liuerie. 409
2 Taking maidens, widowes or wiues against their wils made treaſon. 411
3 For letting to baile of perſons arreſted for light ſuſpicion. 411
4 Deeds of gifts of goods to the vſe of the maker of ſuch gifts be void. ibid.
5 Drie exchange. ibid.
6 Exchange and rechange. 412
7 Concerning cuſtomers. ibid.
8 Emploiment. 413
9 Againſt yͤ ordinance of London for going to faires. ib.
10 Dammage giuen in a writ of error. 414
11 Clothes to be caried ouer the ſea be barbed, rowed and ſhorne, except. ibid.
12 Retaindor. ibid.
13 Felonie. 415

Anno quarto Henrici ſeptimi.

1 For commiſſions of ſewers. 416
2 Finours. 417
3 Againſt butchers. ibid.
4 Protections for paſſers into Britaine. 418
5 Adnulling letters patents made to anie ſpirituall perſon for paieng or gathering diſmeze. 419
6 Adnulling letters patents of any office in the forreſt of England. ibid.
7 That letters patents made to certeine officers about the king be void. ibid.
7 For ſaile of cloth by drapers and tailors. ibid.
8 Priſe of hats and bonnets. ibid.
9 Of wine and Tolowſe woad. ibid.
10 An act vpon buieng of wools. 420
11 Actus ſuper proclam. ibid.
12 De proclamatione facienda. 421
13 Againſt theeues. ibid.
14 Adnulling of the ſaile of the earldome of March. 422
15 For the maior of London. ibid.
16 The ile of Wight. ibid.
17 Wards. 423.
18 Forging and counterfeiting of gold and ſiluer made treaſon. ibid.
19 For keeping vp of houſes of huſbandrie. ibid.
20 Actions popular. 424
21 Carrieng of gold and ſiluer ouer the ſea. 425
22 Nota de finibus. ibid.

Anno ſeptimo Henrici ſeptimi.

1 For ſouldiers in the war. 428
2 For ſoldiors to be in the kings protection. 428
3 For weights and meaſures. 428, 429
4 For trials in London. 430
5 For letters patents of diſcharge of diſmeze and quinzimeſe. ibid.
6 For Scots to auoid the land. ibid.
7 For malmſies of Candie. 431

Anno xi. Henrici ſeptimi.

1 That men going to battell with the prince, &c: ſhall not be attainted. 431
2 For puniſhment of vagabonds and beggers. 432
3 Acts againſt vnlawfull reteinors, riots, &c: to be put in execution. ibid.
4 One weight and meaſure to be vſed through the realme. 433
4 The name of the townes limited for the keeping of weights and meaſures. 435
5 For putting away wares in Southhampton. ibid.
6 For packing & paieng cuſtoms of woollen clothes. ib.
7 For puniſhment of riots. ibid.
8 For puniſhment of vſurers. 437
9 For the inhabitants of the north & ſouth tindall. ibid.
10 For leuieng of the arrerages of beneuolence laſt granted. 439
11 For taking of apprentiſes in Norwich. 440
12 For writs giuen and counſell aſſigned to poore people. 441
13 No horſſes nor mares aboue ſix ſhillings eight penſe, to be conueied out of the realme without the kings licence. ibid.
14 That ſtrangers made denizens ſhall paie cuſtome as ſtrangers. ibid.
15 Againſt vntrue demeanor of ſhirifs and their officers in holding their counties. 442
16 For keeping of the watch in Calice. 443
17 Againſt deſtroieng of feſants and partridges. ibid.
18 Not being with the king in time of need, &c: ſhall loſe their fees and annuities to them granted. 444
19 Againſt vnlawfull making of fetherbeds, pillowes and mattriſes. ibid.
20 Againſt women couert making alienation of lands moued by the baron. 445
21 For inqueſts hereafter to be charged within London. pag. ibid.
22 For wages of hindes in huſbandrie and of artificers and laborers. 447
23 For gauging & packing of ſamon, eles & herrings. 449
24 For puniſhment of periurie and leſſing the penaltie in attaint. 450
25 For puniſhment of periury by examination of the chancellor, treſorer, &c: 451
26 For holding the ſhirifs turnes within the countie of ſouth Surreie and Suſſex. 452
27 For fuſtians to be ſhorne with the broad ſhere. 453.

Anno xii. Henrici ſeptimi.

1 For apprentiſes in the countie of Norffolke. 453
2 For continuance of certeine acts made in the laſt parlement. 454
3 A repeale of a ſtatute made the laſt parlement for laborers wages. ibid.
4 For repealing of forfeits growing by clothmaking to the ſtatute of Richard the third. ibid.
5 For weights and meaſures. ibid.
6 For a fine paied by the merchants aduenturers at the marts. 455
7 For ſeruants murdring their maiſters or ſtrangers not to inioy the benefit of their clergie. 456

Anno xix. Henrici ſeptimi.

1 For attendance vpon the king in his wars. 457
2 For not paieng of cuſtome for bowſtaues. ibid.
3 For the continuance of attaint. ibid.
4 For vſing of longbowes and leuing of croſbowes. 458.
5 For coine currant within the realme. ibid.
6 For pewterers and braſiers. 459.
7 For making ordinances by bodies incorporat. 460
8 For taking of ſcauage in cities and boroughs. 461
9 For delaies in actions vpon the caſe. ibid.
10 For keeping of goales and eſcapes of priſoners. ibid.
11 For keeping of deere, haies and buckſtales. 463
12 For puniſhment of vagabonds. ibid.
13 For puniſhment of riot. 464
14 For puniſhment of vnlawfull reteinors. 465
15 For execution of feofments of truſt. 467
16 For ſhirifs turns in Surreie and Suſſex. 468
17 For repeale of an act for worſted ſhearers. 469
18 For Seuerne. 470
19 For curriers and cordwainers. 471
20 For writs of error. ibid
21 For ſilke women. ibid.
22 For repeale of an act for atturnies in Calice. 472
23 For merchants of the ſtillard. ibid.
24 For holding the ſhire court at Chicheſter. ibid.

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the eight.

Anno Primo.

1 A reuocation of an act made the eight yeere of K. Henrie the ſixt for going into Denmarke and Iſland. 473
2 A reuocation of an act made the firſt yeere of king Richard the third for clothmaking. ibid.
3 An act concerning paiments to be made to Iohn Heron rone generall receiuoꝛ to our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king. fol. 473

Foꝛ penalties vpon actions popular. 474
A reuocation made of an act the third yeare of king Henrie the ſeuenth, concerning the entring of merchandizes in the cuſtomers books. 474
5 A reuocation of a ſtatute made concerning infoꝛmations to be made befoꝛe iuſtices of aſſiſe and iuſtices of peace. 475
Foꝛ the office of coꝛoners. 476
Foꝛ the eſchetoꝛs and commiſſioners. ibid.
Foꝛ the bꝛidge of Staines. 477
10 An act inlarging a ſtatute concerning the trauers of lands ſeized into the kings hands by inqueſts befoꝛe eſchetoꝛs and commiſſioners. 478
11 Foꝛ the confirmation of the act of attaint to continue. ibidem.
12 Concerning vntrue inquiſition pꝛocured by Empſon and Dudley. 479
13 That no coine, plate, veſſell, bullion noꝛ iewels, be carried out of this land. ibid.
14 Foꝛ refoꝛmation of apparell vſed within this realme. fol. 480
15 An act adnulling and reuoking of all feofments made to Empſon and Dudley. 481
Anno tertio Henrici octaui.
1 That no monie, coine, plate, veſſell, bullion, noꝛ iewels, be carried out of this realme. 482
2 Foꝛ eſchetoꝛs and commiſſioners foꝛ true finding of offices to indure foꝛ euer. ibid.
3 Foꝛ the maintenance of archerie and ſhooting in long bowes within this realme. 484
4 Of pꝛotections and licence of alienation foꝛ ſuch perſons as ſhall be in the kings warres. 485
5 Foꝛ paiment of wages to ſouldiours being in the kings warres. 486
6 Foꝛ the true making and dꝛaping of woollen clothes. fol. 487
7 Foꝛ wollen clothes to be full wꝛought, barbed, rowed and ſhoꝛne yer they be carried out of this realme. 488
8 Foꝛ repealing the act made at Yoꝛke foꝛ ſelling of victuals by head officers. 489
9 An act againſt mummers. 490
10 Foꝛ curriers to haue ſearch of lether. 490
11 An act concerning the appꝛobation of phyſicians and chirurgians. 491
12 An act concerning refoꝛmation foꝛ impannels foꝛ the king. 492
13 Foꝛ adnulling the ſhooting in croſbowes. 492
14 Foꝛ vnlawfull oiles to be ſearched and ſeene that they be good and lawfull. 493
15 Foꝛ the making of hats and caps. 493
Anno quarto Henrici octaui.
1 An act concerning the making of bulwoꝛks on the ſea ſide. 494
2 Foꝛ puniſhment of murder. 495
3 Foꝛ iuries in London. ibid.
4 Of pꝛoclamations to be made befoꝛe exigents be awarded in foꝛren counties. 496
5 An act repealing penalties foꝛ giuing wages to labourers and artificers. 497
6 Foꝛ cuſtomers and comptrollers foꝛ ſealing of cloth of gold, ſiluer, and all other manner of ſilkes. ibid.
7 Foꝛ pewterers true weights and beames. 498
8 Foꝛ Richard Stroed. 499
Anno quinto Henrici octaui.
1 Foꝛ miniſtration of iuſtice to the kings ſubiects of his citie of Turney. 501
2 Foꝛ true making of clothes in Deuonſhire, called white ſtraits. 502
3 Foꝛ white clothes of fiue markes and vnder may be carried ouer the ſeas vnſhoꝛne. 502
4 Foꝛ auoiding deceipts in woꝛſteds. 503
5 Foꝛ iuries in London. ibid.
6 Foꝛ ſurgions to be diſcharged of queſts and other things. 504
7 An act foꝛ ſtrangers foꝛ buieng of lether in open market. ibid.
8 An act concerning the maner and foꝛme of ſute foꝛ the kings moſt gratious letters of generall pardon. 505
Anno ſexto Henrici octaui.
1 An act concerning apparell to be vſed and woꝛne. fol. 506
2 An act concerning the maintenance of archers. fol. 508
3 Foꝛ artificers and labourers. 509
4 Foꝛ pꝛoclamations to be made befoꝛe the exigents be awarded in foꝛren ſhires. 511
5 Foꝛ auoiding deſtructions, and pulling downe of townes. 712
6 An act foꝛ the remitting of pꝛiſoners with their inditments to the places where the crimes were committed. 513
7 Foꝛ wages foꝛ botemen. ibid.
8 Foꝛ the making of woollen clothes in the countie of Deuonſhire. 515
9 An act auoiding deceits in making of woollen clothes. ibidem.
10 Foꝛ commiſſions of ſewers. 516
11 Foꝛ bowſtaues to be bꝛought into this realme by ſtrangers. 517
12 Foꝛ Noꝛffolke wools not to be carried out of the land. ibid.
13 Foꝛ auoiding of ſhooting and keeping of croſbowes and handguns. 518
14 An act foꝛ the kings ſubſidie of tunnage and poundage. 519
15 An act adnulling ſecond letters patents during the kings pleaſure, making no mention of the firſt letters patents. 519
16 That no knights of ſhires noꝛ burgeſſes depart befoꝛe the end of the parlement. 520
17 An act concerning the clenſing the riuer of Canturburie. ibid.
18 Foꝛ the continuance of the vnder ſhiriffe at Bꝛiſtow. fol. 521
Anno ſeptimo Henrici octaui.
1 Againſt pulling downe and deſtruction of houſes and townes. 521
2 An act concerning the maintenance of the kings nauie. 522
3 Concerning actions popular and ſtatutes penall. 523
4 An act concerning aduowꝛies foꝛ rents and ſeruices. ibidem.
5 Foꝛ artificers and labourers. 524
6 Foꝛ artificers and labourers within the citie of London. 524
7 An act concerning apparell to be vſed & woꝛne. 524
Anno xiiij. & xv. Henrici octaui.
1 An act concerning bꝛoad white wollen clothes. fol. 528
2 Foꝛ ſtrangers artificers, foꝛ taking of appꝛentiſes, ioꝛniemen, and couenant ſeruants. 530
3 An act concerning woꝛſted weauers in Yarmouth and Lin. 531
4 An act concerning Engliſhmen being ſwoꝛne to foꝛren pꝛinces. 534
5 Foꝛ phyſicians. 535
6 An act concerning high waies in the weild of Kent. fol. 537
7 An act foꝛ ſhooting in croſbowes and handguns. fol. 538
8 An act foꝛ the ſix clearkes of the chancerie to be married. 538

9 An act concerning the libertie of cordwainers and ſhoomakers. 539
10 An act for the hunting of the hare. ibid.
11 An act concerning clothes called veſſels made in the countie of Suffolke. 540
12 An act concerning coiners that ſhall coine and make monie at any mint within this realme of England. fol. 540
13 An act for the hauen and port of Southhampton. fol. 541
14 An act for ſuch as be in the kings wars ouer or vpon the ſea. ibid.

Anno xxj. Henrici octaui.

1 An act concerning the kings moſt gratious & generall pardon. 542
2 That abiured perſons ſhall be marked in the right hand with the ſigne of an A. 544
3 An act concerning abbridgments of plaints in aſſiſe. ibidem.
4 For the ſale of lands by executors. ibid.
5 For probat of teſtaments. 545
6 For taking of mortuaries. 548
7 Againſt ſeruants imbeſiling their maiſters goods. fol. 549
8 For killing of calues. ibid.
9 For limitting the price of hats and caps brought from beyond the ſea. 550
10 Againſt carrieng out of braſſe, lattin, and copper. fol. ibid.
11 For reſtitution of goods fellonionſlie ſtolne. ibid.
12 For making cables, halters and ropes. 551
13 Againſt pluralities of benefices or taking of farmes by ſpirituall men, and for reſidence. ibid.
14 An act concerning linnen cloth called Dowlas and Lokoram. 556
15 An act that all farmars may inioy their leaſes againſt recoueries had by feigned titles and falſifie the ſame recoueries. ibid.
16 For artificers ſtrangers. 557
17 A decree made in the ſtarchamber for artificers ſtrangers. 558
18 For the adnulling of the letters patents made to the cittie of Yorke concerning ſhipping of wools. 561
19 For Newcaſtell vpon Tine, and the port and hauen thereunto belonging. 562
20 For auowries. 563
21 That the preſident of the kings counſell ſhall be aſſociat with the chancellor and treaſuror of England, & keeper of the kings priuie ſeale. 564
22 For Yarmouth concerning making of worſteds. fol. 565

Anno xxij. Henrici octaui.

1 For maintenance of draperie and againſt regrating of wools. 568
2 An act concerning the triall of forren plees pleaded by felons. 569
3 For Plumſted marſh. ibid.
4 For exactions leuied on prentiſes. 571
5 For reparing and amending of bridges in high waies ibidem.
6 For tanners and butchers. 573
7 For carrieng and conueieng horſſes and mares out of this realme. ibid.
8 For denizens ſtrangers to paie ſtrangers cuſtomes, towles, and other duties. 575
9 Againſt poiſoning. 576
10 For outlandiſh people calling themſelues Egyptians. fol. 577
11 For Powdike in marſhland. ibid.
12 How aged, poore, and impotent perſons compelled to liue by almes ſhall be ordered, and how vagabonds and mightie ſtrong beggers ſhall be puniſhed. 578
13 That no perſon or perſons ſtrangers, being a common baker, brewer, ſurgion, or ſcriuener, ſhall be expounded handicrafts men. 582
14 How perſons committing pettie treaſon, murther or felonie, ſhall abiure. 583
15 The kings generall pardon for his ſpirituall ſubiects. fol. 585
16 The kings generall pardon for his temporall ſubiects. 589

Anno xxiij. Henrici octaui.

1 That no perſon committing pettie treaſon, murther, or felonie ſhall be admitted to his cleargie vnder a ſubdeacon. 590
2 Where and vnder what maner the gailes within this realme ſhall be edified and made. 591
3 For periurie and puniſhment of vntrue verdicts. fol. 593
4 That no brewers of beere or ale ſhall make their barrels, kilderkins, and firkins within them, & how much the ſame barrels, kilderkins and firkins ſhall conteine. 594
5 For commiſſions of ſewers to be directed in all parts within this realme. 596
6 Before whome recognizances of debt ſhall be made, and the forme of obligation. 600
7 That the ſtatutes made for the maintenance of the nauie of this realme ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength, & how Gaſcoine and French wines ſhall be brought in, and the ſame and others be ſold. 602
8 That the hauens of Plimmouth, Dartmouth, Tingmouth, Falmouth, and Fowey in the counties of Deuonſhire and Cornwall, ſhall be amended and mainteined. 604
9 That no perſon ſhall be cited out of the dioceſſe where he or ſhee dwelleth, except in certeine caſes. 605
10 For feoffments and aſſurance of lands or tenements to the vſe of any pariſh church, chappell, or ſuch like. fol. 607
11 For breaking of priſons by clerks conuict. 608
12 Againſt taking of exactions for the pathes by Seuerne ſide. ibid.
13 That men in cities, boroughs, or townes, which be cleerelie worth fortie pounds in goods, ſhall paſſe in triall for murthers. ibid.
14 For proceſſes of outlawrie to lie in actions of the firſt yeare of Richard the ſecond in couenant & annuitie, fol. 609
15 That the defendant ſhall recouer coſts againſt the plaintiffe, if the plaintiffe be non ſuted, or if the verdict paſſe againſt him. ibid.
16 That no Engliſhman ſhall ſell, exchange, or deliuer to be conueied into Scotland, any horſſe, gelding, or mare without the kings licence. 609
17 For the true winding of wools. 610
18 Pulling downe and auoiding of fiſhgarths, piles, ſtakes, hecks, and other engines, ſet in the riuer & water of Owſe and Humber. 610
19 The kings gratious and free pardon. 611

Anno xxiiij. Henrici octaui.

1 For true tanning and currieng of lether. 615
2 For the true dieng of woollen clothes. 617
3 For fleſh to be ſold by weight. 618
4 For ſowing of flax and hempe. 619
5 An act where a man killing a theefe ſhall not forfeit his goods. 620
6 For ſale of wines. ibid.
7 An act to continue & renew the act made againſt killing of calues. 621
8 An act where defendants ſhall not recouer anie coſts. fol. 622
9 Againſt killing of yoong beaſts called weinlings. fol. 622
10 An act ordeined and made to deſtroie choughs, crows, and rookes. 623

11 For pauing the high waie betweene the Strand and Charingcroſſe. 624
12 That appeales in ſuch caſes as beene vſed to be purſued to the ſee of Rome, ſhall not be from henſefoorth had ne vſed but within this realme. 625
13 For reformation of exceſſe in apparell. 628

Anno xxv. Henrici octaui.

1 Concerning graſiers and butchers. 631
2 Of proclamation to bee made concerning victuals. fol. 633
3 An act concerning ſtanding mute and peremptorie challenge. 634
4 Againſt foreſtalling and regrating of fiſh. 635
5 For chaleyndring of worſteds. 636
6 For the puniſhment of the vice of buggerie. 637
7 Againſt killing of yoong ſpawne or frie of eeles and ſammon. ibid.
8 For pauing of Houlburne and other pauements within the citie, and ſuburbs of London. 638
9 For pewterers. ibid.
10 An act concerning the oth of commiſſioners of ſewers. 640
11 To auoid deſtruction of wild foule. ibid.
12 For the attaindor of Elizabeth Barton and others, which vnder the color of hypocriſie, diſſembled ſanctitie and falſe feigned miracles traitorouſlie intended to deſtroie our ſoueraigne lord the king, and to depriue him of his realme and dignitie roiall. 641
13 An act limitting what number of ſheepe men ſhall keepe, occupie, and haue in their owne poſſeſſion at one time. 647
14 For puniſhment of hereſie. 650
15 For printers and buiers of bookes. 652
16 That euerie iudge of the high courts, and certeine others, may haue a chapleine beneficed with cure. fol. 653
17 For ſhooting in croſbowes & handguns. ibid.
18 For clothiers or makers of woollen clothes within the ſhire of Worceſter. 655
19 For the ſubmiſſion of the cleargie to the kings maieſtie. 656
20 For reſtraining the annates or firſt fruits to the biſhop of Rome, and of the electing and conſecrating of archbiſhops and biſhops within this realme. fol. 657
21 For the exoneration of the kings ſubiects from exactions and impoſitions heeretofore paied to the ſee of Rome, and for hauing licences and diſpenſations within this relme, without ſuing further for the ſaine. fol. 660
22 An act declaring the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie in the imperiall crowne of this realme. 667

Anno xxvi. Henrici octaui.

1 Concerning the kings highneſſe to be ſupreame head of the church of England, and to haue authoritie to reforme and redreſſe all errors, hereſies, and abuſes in the ſame. 671
2 An act ratifieng the oth that euerie of the kings ſubiects hath taken, and ſhall heereafter be bound to take for due obſeruation of the act made for the ſuretie of the ſucceſſion of the kings highneſſe in the crowne of the realme. ibid.
3 For paiments of firſt fruits of all dignities, benefices, and promotions ſpirituall, and alſo concerning one annuall penſion of the tenth part of all the poſſeſſions of the church ſpirituall and temporall granted to the kings highneſſe and his heires. 672
4 For puniſhment of periurie of iurors in the lordſhips marchers in Wales. 676
5 That keepers of ferries in the water of Seuerne, ſhall not conueie in their ferrie botes anie manner of perſon, goods or chattels after the ſun going downe till the ſun be vp. 679
6 An act that murders and felonies doone or committed within any lordſhip marcher in Wales ſhall be inquired of at the ſeſſions holden within yͤ ſhiregrounds next adioining, with manie good orders for miniſtration of iuſtice there to be had. 680
7 For amending of hie waies in Suſſex. 683
8 For the reedifieng of void ground in the citie of Norwich. 684
9 For reedifieng of void grounds within the towne of Lin. ibid.
10 An act whereby the kings highneſſe hath authoritie to repeale the ſtatute made for reſtraint of wines to come in afore Candlemaſſe. 685
11 An act for puniſhment of Welſhmen attempting anie aſſalts or fraies vpon any inhabitants of Hereford, Gloceſter and Shropſhire. 686
12 An act for purgation of conuicts in Wales. ibid.
13 An act whereby certeine offenſes be made high treaſon and taking awaie all ſanctuaries for all maner of high treaſons. 687
14 For nomination and conſecration of ſuffragans within this realme. 688
15 For taking awaie certeine exactions taken within the archdeconrie of Richmond by ſpirituall men. 690
16 An act for making of worſteds in the citie of Norwich and in the townes of Lin and Yarmouth. 690
17 An act that no farmers of ſpirituall perſons ſhall bee cōpelled or charged to paie for their leſſors firſt fruits or yeares penſion of the tenths granted to the kings highneſſe. 693
18 An act concerning the kings generall and free pardon. 693

Anno xxvij. Henrici octaui.

1 An act for the reparation and amending of the townes of Gloceſter, Notingham, Northhampton & other. 696
2 For counterfeiting of the ſigne manuell, ſignet, or priuie ſeale of our ſoueraigne lord the king, to bee from henſefoorth taken and adiudged high treaſon. ibid.
3 An act taking awaie exactions taken by the maior and commonaltie of the towne of Hull. 697
4 An act declaring the order and puniſhment of pirats & robbers on the ſea. 698
5 For making iuſtices of peace in Cheſter & Wales. pag. 699
6 For increaſe and breed of good horſſes. 700
7 Againſt vnlawfull exactions and vſages taken and vſed in the forreſts of Wales. 701
8 That the kings ſpirituall ſubiects ſhall paie no tenths of their ſpirituall promotions for that firſt yeare for which they paie their firſt fruits. 702
9 An act whereby all butchers be licenced to ſell fleſh by retaile vnto the xxiiii. day of Aprill which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord 1540. 703
10 An act expreſſing an order for vſes and wils. 704
11 An act concerning clearks for the ſignet and priuie ſeale. 707
12 For true making of wollen cloth. 709
13 An act that white wollen clothes of foure li. and vnder and coloured clothes of three li. and vnder maie be from henſefoorth carried ouer the ſea. 710
14 Concerning the cuſtome of lether. 711
15 An act whereby the kings maieſtie ſhall haue power to nominat xxxii. perſons of his cleargie and laietie for making of eccleſiaſticall lawes. 713
16 Concerning inrolments of bargains and contracts of lands and tenements. 714
17 Concerning ſuch as be put in truſt by their maiſters and after doo rob them. ibid
18 An act for the preſeruation of the riuer of Thames. pag. 715

19 An act limiting an order for ſanctuaries and ſanctuarie perſons. 715
20 An act conteining an order for tithes throughout the realme. 716
21 An act limiting an order for paiment of tithes within the citie of London. 717
22 For decaie of houſes and incloſers. ibid.
23 For the preſeruation of the hauens and ports in the counties of Deuonſhire and Cornwall. 719
24 For recontinuing of certeine liberties and franchiſes heeretofore taken from the crowne. 720
25 An act for puniſhment of ſturdie vagabonds and beggers. 723
26 For lawes and iuſtice to be miniſtred in Wales, in like forme as it is in this realme. 728
27 An act eſtabliſhing the court of augmentations. 735

Anno xxviij. Henrici octaui.

1 That felons abiuring for pettie treaſon, murther or fellonie, ſhall not be admitted to the benefit of their cleargie. 740
2 For continuing of two ſtatutes made in the laſt parlement touching ſuch as go away with caskets and iewels, goods or plate of their maiſters. 742
3 An act giuing the kings highneſſe authoritie newlie to alot the townſhips in the ſhires & marches of Wales at any time within three yeares next inſuing. ibid.
4 An act repealing the ſtatute latelie made for the bringing in of Dowlas and Lokorams. 742
5 For auoiding of exactions taken vpon prentiſes in the cities, boroughs and townes corporat. 743
6 For continuance of the ſtatutes for beggers and vagabonds, and againſt conueiance of horſſes and mares out of this realme, and againſt Welſhmen making affraies in the counties of Hereford, Glouceſter, & Salop, and againſt the vice of buggerie. 744
7 For the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the crowne of this realme. 745
8 For the continuance of the ſtatute againſt the carriage of braſſe, lattin, and copper out of this realme: and for making of cables & ropes: for the winding of wools, and againſt killing of weinlings vnder the age of two yeares. 753
9 An act for continuance of the ſtatutes of periurie, for making of gailes, for pewterers, and for ſowing of flax and hempe. ibid.
10 An act extinguiſhing the authoritie of the biſhop of Rome. 754
11 For the reſtitution of the firſt fruits in time of vacation to the next incumbent. 756
12 An act declaring the limits of the kings palace at Weſtminſter. 758
13 For compelling ſpirituall perſons to keepe reſidence vpon their benefices. 759
14 An act limiting the priſes of wines. 760
15 For puniſhment of pirats and robbers on the ſea. fol. 761
16 An act for the releaſe of ſuch as haue obteined pretenſed licences and diſpenſations from the ſee of Rome. 762
17 An act giuing authoritie to ſuch as ſhall ſucceed to the crowne of this realme when they come to the age of twentie foure yeares to make fruſtrat ſuch acts as ſhall be made before in their time. 764
18 For treaſon in certeine caſes. ibid.

Anno xxxj. Henrici octaui.

1 An act concerning ioint tenants and tenants in common. 765
2 An act that fiſhing in anie ſeuerall pond, ſtew or mote with an intent to ſteale fiſh out of the ſame, is fellonie. ibidem.
3 An act changing the cuſtome of gauelkind. 766
4 For the amending of the riuer and port of Exceſter. fol. 767
5 An act whereby the kings manor of Hampton court is made an honor and a new chaſe thereunto belonging. 768
6 That ſuch as were religious perſons, may purchaſe, purſue, and be ſued in all maner of actions. 772
7 An act concerning the continuance of the ſtatutes for puniſhment of beggers and vagabonds, and of certeine other ſtatutes. 773
8 That proclamations made by the kings highnes with the aduiſe of his honorable counſell, ſhall be obeied and kept as though they were made by act of parlement. 773
9 An act authorizing the kings highneſſe to make biſhops by his letters patents. 776
10 For placing of the lords in the parlement chamber & other aſſemblies and conferences of counſell. 776
11 An act authorizing the kings highneſſe newlie to allot certeine townſhips in Wales. 777
12 For wrongfull taking of hawkes egs and birds out of the neſt, finding & taking vp of the kings hawkes, hunting in the kings forreſt, parke, or chaſe, or other ground incloſed, and killing of connies within anie lawfull warren of the kings. 778
13 An act whereby all manors, lands, profits, and hereditaments, belonging to anie the monaſteries or other religious houſes diſſolued, or heerafter by anie means to be diſſolued and aſſured to the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, and how and in what wiſe leaſes and grants heeretofore made, or heereafter to be made of them or anie part of them, ſhall take effect. 780
14 An act for aboliſhing of diuerſitie of opinions in certeine articles concerning chriſtian religion. 787

Anno xxxij. Henrici octaui.

1 An act how by the kings grant, lands, tenements, &c. may be by will, teſtament, or otherwiſe diſpoſed, and concerning wards and primer ſeiſons. 792
2 For limitation of preſcription. 795
3 For the continuance of certeine acts. 797
4 For triall of treaſons in Wales, &c. 796
5 For contentations of debts vpon executions. 798
6 For triall of felonies vpon conueieng of horſſes into Scotland. 799
7 For true paiment of tithes and offerings. ibid.
8 Againſt ſellers and buiers of pheſants and partriges. fol. 801
9 Againſt maintenance, imbracerie, &c: and againſt vnlawfull buieng of titles. 801
10 For the moderation of the puniſhment of the incontinencie of preeſts and women offendors with them. fol. 802
11 For ſtealing of hawks egs, connies and deere. 804
12 For ſanctuaries, priuileges of churches and churchyards. 805
13 An act concerning the breed of horſſes of higher ſtature. 807
14 For the maintenance of the nauie of England & for certeine rates of fraights. 809
15 For archbiſhops and biſhops, their chancellors, commiſſaries, archdeacons, and their officials, to be in the commiſſion of the act concerning the abolition of erronious opinions in chriſtian religion. 813
16 For ſtrangers. 814
17 For pauing of Algate to Whitechappell, high Holborne, Chancerie lane, Graies inne lane, Shooe lane, and Fewter lane. 816
18 For reediſieng of decaied houſes in ſundrie townes and places of the realme. 817
19 An other act for reediſieng of decaid houſes in ſundrie townes of the weſt parties. 819
20 For priuileges and franchiſes. 820

21 An

21 An act for the abreuiation and limitation of Trinitie terme. 823
22 An act concerning the account of biſhops and others for the tenth granted to the kings maieſtie. 824
23 An act for the ſubſidie of the clergie of the prouince of Canturburie. 826
24 An act concerning the lands and the goods of the hoſpitall of S. Iohns of Ieruſalem, of England and Ireland, ſhall be heereafter in the hands and diſpoſition of the king. 828
25 An act declaring the diſſolution of the kings pretenſed mariage with the ladie An of Cleue. 831
26 An act concerning true opinions and declarations of Chriſtes religion. 834
27 An act for the reſumption of extraordinarie grants and licences of abſence and reuerſions in the towne of Calis, and the marches of the ſame, and in Barwicke, and of ſhiriffes for life in Wales. ibid.
28 An act that leaſees ſhall inioy their farmes againſt their tenants in taile or of the right of their wiues and churches. 835
29 Concerning cuſtomable lands in Oſwel Beke. 836
30 An act concerning miſpleading ioyfailes atturn. 837
31 An act for the auoiding of recoueries by colluſion by tenants for terme of life. ibid.
32 An act concerning ioint tenants for terme of life or yeares. 838
33 An act that wrongfull diſſeiſon is no deſcent in the law. ibid.
34 An act concerning grants or reuerſions to take aduantage of the conditions to be performed by the leaſors. 839
35 An act that iuſtices of the forreſts may take deputies. ibid.
36 An act for the expoſition of the ſtatute of fines. 840
37 An act for the recouerie of arrerages of rents by execution of tenant in fee ſimple. 841
38 An act concerning precontracts of marriages, and touching degrees of conſanguinitie. 842
39 An act concerning the iuriſdiction of the great maiſter of the kings houſhold. 843
40 An act concerning the priuileges of phyſicians. ibid.
41 An act concerning baking of horſſebread. 844
42 An act concerning barbers and chirurgions to be both of one companie. ibid.
43 An act concerning ſhire daies in the countie palantine of Cheſter. 846
44 An act that the towne of Roiſton is one new pariſh. fol. 847
45 The erection of the court of the firſt fruits & tenths. fol. 848
46 The eſtabliſhment of the court of the kings wards. fol. 852
47 An act that the biſhop of Norwich ſhall be charged with the collection of the kings tenths in his dioceſſe. fol. 858
48 An act concerning the kings moſt gratious generall and free pardon. ibid.

Anno xxxiij. Henrici octaui.

1 An act concerning counterfeit letters or priuie tokens to receiue monie or goods in other mens names. 863
2 An act concerning buieng of fiſh vpon the ſea. 864
3 An act for folding of clothes in Northwales. 865
4 An act concerning pewterers. ibid.
5 An act concerning keeping of great horſſes. 867
6 An act concerning croſbowes and handguns. 869
7 An act concerning conueiance of braſſe, latin, and bell mettall ouer the ſea. 872
8 An act againſt coniurations, witchcrafts, ſorceries, and inchantments. 877
9 An act for the maintenance of artillerie, debarring vnlawfull games. 878
10 An act concerning the execution of certeine ſtatutes. fol. 879
11 An act for butchers to ſell at their pleaſure by weight or otherwiſe. 881
12 An act for murther and malicious bloudſhed within the court. 881
13 An act concerning certeine lordſhips tranſlated from the countie of Denbigh to the countie of Flintſhire. fol. 885
14 An act concerning falſe propheſies vpon declaration of names or badges. 886
15 An act touching the tranſlation of the ſanctuarie from Mancheſter to Wincheſter. ibid.
16 An act for Worſted yarne in Norffolke. 888
17 An act for continuation and confirmation of certeine acts. 889
18 An act for true making of karſies. 890
19 An act expounding a certeine ſtatute concerning ſhipping of clothes. 891
20 An act for due proceſſe to be had in high treaſons, in caſes of lunaſie or madneſſe. 892
21 An act concerning the attaindor of the late queene Katharine and hir complices. 893
21 An act concerning the order of wards & liueries. 896
23 An act to proceed by a commiſſion of Oyer & Determiner againſt ſuch perſons as ſhall confeſſe treaſons, &c: without remanding the ſame to be tried in the ſame ſhire where the offenſe was committed. 900
24 An act that no man ſhall be iuſtice of aſſiſe in his own countrie. ibid.
25 An act for making free of certeine children borne beyond the ſea, & to put the ſame children in the nature of meere Engliſhmen. 901
26 An act to make fruſtrate certeine conueiances deuiſed by S. Iohn Shelton. 902
27 An act for leaſes of hoſpitals, colleges and other corporations to be good and effectuall with the conſent of the more partie. 903
28 An act for the chancellor of the dutchie of Lancaſter, the chancellor of the augmentation and certeine other noblemen to reteine chapleins. 904
29 An act to enable perſons late religious to ſue and to be ſued. ibid.
30 An act confirming the authoritie of the deane and chapter of Lichfield in making leaſes & other grants. pag. 905
31 An act diſſeuering the biſhoprike of Cheſter and of the ile of Man from the iuriſdiction of Canturburie to the iuriſdiction of Yorke. 906
32 An act for the pariſh church of Whitgate to be made a pariſh church of it ſelfe, and no part of the pariſh of Ouere. 907
33 An act concerning the priuileges of Kingſtone vpon Hull. 908
34 An act for the towne of Lin touching the reuocation of two faires. 909
35 An act concerning the conducts of Gloceſter. 910
36 An act for the reparing of Cantur burie, Stamford, and diuerſe other townes. 911
37 An act touching the honor of Ampthill. 913
38 An act concerning the honor of Grafton. 914
39 An act concerning the erection of the court of ſurueiors. 916

Anno xxxiiij. & xxxv. Henrici octaui.

1 An act for the aduancement of true religion, and for the aboliſhment of the contrarie. 931
2 An act concerning collectors and receiuors. 935
3 An act for the aſſiſe of cole and wood. 936
4 An act againſt ſuch perſons as doo make themſelues banckrupts. 937
5 An act for the explanation of the ſtatutes of wils. pag. 939

6 An act for the true making of pins. 942
7 An act to authorize certeine of the kings maieſties counſell to ſet priſes vpon wines to be ſold by retaile. fol. 342
8 An act that no perſon being no cōmon chirurgion may miniſter outward medicines. 943
9 An act for the preſeruation of yͤ riuer of Seuerne. 944
10 An act for the true making of couerlets at Yorke. 945
11 An act for the true making of freezes and cottons in Wales. ibid.
12 An act for pauing of certeine ſtreets and lanes in London and Weſtminſter. 943
13 An act for knights and burgeſſes to haue places in the parlement for the countie palantine and citie of Cheſter. 949
14 An act for the certificat of conuicts to be made in the kings bench. 951
15 An act touching the deane and chapter of Wels, to be one ſole chapiter of it ſelfe. 952
16 An act for ſhiriffes to be diſcharged vpon their accounts and to haue allowances of their reaſonable expenſes in the court of excheker. ibid.
17 An act for the new erected biſhops to paie their tenths into the court of firſt fruits. 954
18 An act for Canturburie concerning the priuileges of the ſame. 955
19 An act for the paiment of penſions & portions granted out of the late abbies. 956
20 An act to inbar feigned recoueries of lands wherein the kings maieſtie is in reuerſion. 958
21 An act for the confirmation of letters patents notwithſtanding miſnaming anie thing conteined in the ſame. ibid.
22 An act that fines in townes corporat ſhall be made as the ſame heeretofore haue beene. 961
23 An act for the true execution of proclamations. ibid.
24 An act for the aſſurance of certeine lands to John Hind ſeriant at law, and to his heires paieng therefore yeerelie ten pounds towards the charges of the knights of the parlement for Cambridgeſhire. 962
25 An act that the inhabitants of Poole may erect a wind mill and a conduict within the kings maieſties waſt ground of Bailer. 964

The third ſeſſion of the ſame parlement.

1 An act concerning the eſtabliſhment of the kings maieſties ſucceſſiō in the imperiall crown of the relme. 978
2 An act concerning the triall of treaſons committed out of the kings maieſties dominions. 981
3 An act for the ratification of the k. maieſties ſtile. 982
4 An act touching the repairing and amending of certeine decaied houſes and tenements aſwell in England as in Wales. ibid.
5 An act concerning the qualification of the ſtatute of the ſix articles. 984
6 An act concerning the appearance of iurors in the Niſi prius. 985
7 An act for the repealing of a certeine ſtatute concerning the bringing in of ſaltfiſh and ſtockfiſh. 987
8 An act concerning coopers. 988
9 An act concerning the partition of Waping marſh. 989
10 An act concerning the reparing, making, and amending of the conduicts in London. 990
11 An act for the due paiment of the fees and wages of knights & burgeſſes for the parlement in Wales. 993
12 An act for the remiſſion of the lone. 994
13 An act that the demaine lands & tenements in Walſingham belonging to the late priorie there may be let by copie of court roll. 996
14 An act for the reſeruation of tenures vpon houſes with lands belonging to the ſame vnder the cleere yeerelie value of fortie ſhillings. 997
15 An act for pauing of Cambridge. 998
16 An act concerning the examination of the cannon lawes, by thirtie two perſons to be named by the kings maieſtie during his highneſſe life. 1000
17 An act for the preſeruation of woods. 1001
18 An act concerning the kings generall pardon. 1005

Anno xxxvij. Henrici octaui.

1 An act for the officers of Cuſtos rotulorum & clearks of the peace. 1008
2 An act for the partition of Hownſlow heath. 1009
3 An act for the amending of the high way beſides Cheſter called Huntington lane. 1010
4 An act that all colleges, chantries, free chapels, &c. ſhall be in the kings maieſties diſpoſition. 1011
5 An act that the inhabitants of London, hauing goods to the value of foure hundred marks, may paſſe in attaints. 1017
6 An act againſt burning of frames. 1018
7 For abrogation of ſix weekes ſeſſions. 1019
8 An act for any indictment lacking theſe words Vi & armis ſhalbe good and ſufficient in the law. 1020
9 An act againſt vſurie. 1021
10 An act againſt ſlanderous bils. 1022
11 An act for the marſhes beſides Greenwich. 1022
12 An act for tithes in London. 1023
13 An act repealing the act made for pins. 1023
14 For the maintenance of the peere of Scar. 1023
15 An act againſt regrating of wools. 1026
16 An act for annexing of certeine lands to the dutchie of Lancaſter, and an exchange betweene the kings maieſtie, the archbiſhop of Canturburie and Yorke, and the biſhop of London. 1028
17 An act that doctors of ciuill law being married, may exerciſe eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction. 1032
18 An act for the erecting of foure honors, Weſtminſter, Kingſton vpon Hull, S. Sithes, & Dunington. 1033
19 An act that fines taken in the countie palantine of Lancaſter, ſhall be of like force as fines knowledged before iuſtices of the common place. 1036
20 An act for the tenures of lands of fortie ſhillings or vnder. 1036
21 An act for the vnion of churches not exceeding the yearlie value of fiue pounds. 1037
22 An act to fill vp the iuries De circumſtantibus. 1038
23 An act for the continuation of certeine ſtatutes. 1038
24 An act for the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 1040

¶ Statutes made in the time of king Edward the ſixt.

Anno primo.

1 An act againſt ſuch as ſhall vnreuerentlie ſpeake againſt the ſacrament of the bodie and bloud of Chriſt commonlie called the ſacrament of the altar, and for the receiuing thereof in both kinds. 1
2 An act for the election of biſhops, and what ſeales and ſtiles they and other ſpirituall perſons exerciſing iuriſdiction eccleſiaſticall ſhall vſe. 3
3 An act for puniſhment of vagabonds, and for the releefe of the poore and impotent perſons. 4
4 An act for tenures holden in capite. 9
5 An act that no horſſes ſhall be conueied out of this realme & other the kings dominions without licence. 9
6 An act for the continuance of making of Worſted yarne in Norffolke. 11
7 An act for the continuance of actions after the death of anie king of this realme. 12
8 An act for the confirmation of letters patents. 13
9 An act for the vniting of certeine churches within the citie of Yorke. 15
10 An act for exigents & proclamations in Wales, & in the countie palantine of Cheſter, & in yͤ citie of Cheſter. 15
11 An act for the repeale of a certeine ſtatute made in the xxviii.

xxviii. yere of the reigne of the late king of moſt famous memorie Henrie the eight for reuoking of acts of parlement. 17
12 An act for the repele of certeine ſtatutes concerning treſons, felonies, &c. 19
13 An act for a ſubſidie of tunnage and poundage of merchandizes, with a prouiſo for the confirmation of the priuileges of the merchants of the ſtilliard, which prouiſo ſhall indure but onlie to the end of this parlement. 23
14 An act whereby certeine chantries, colleges, free chapels and the poſſeſſions of the ſame bee giuen to the kings maieſtie. 25
15 For a generall pardon. 34

Anno ſecundo & tertio Edwardi ſexti.

1 An act for the vniformitie of ſeruice and adminiſtration of the ſacraments throughout the realme. 37
2 An act touching the true ſeruice required in capteines and ſoldiors. 40
3 An act touching puruciors. 42
4 For ſhirifs to haue certeine allowances vpon their accounts. 43
5 Touching the remitting of fee farms for three yeares. page. 44
6 An act againſt the exaction of monie and other things by anie officer for licence to traffike into Ireland. 45
7 Againſt the craftie and deceiptfull buieng of penſions. pag. 46
8 Touching the fining of offices before the eſchetor. 47
9 For the true currieng of lether. 49
10 For the true making of malt. 52
11 For the true tanning of lether. 53
12 An act for the aſſurance to the tenants of grants and leaſes made of the duke of Summerſets demeane lands. 54
13 For the true paiment of tithes. 56
14 Againſt the ſhooting of haileſhot. 58
15 An act touching vittellers and handie craftſmen. 59
16 For the remoouing of ſuch as haue the cuſtodie of caſtels and fortreſſes vpon the borders of beyond the ſeas. 60
17 For the confirmation of the attaindor of ſir William Sharington knight. ibid.
18 For the attaindor of ſir Thomas Seimor knight, lord Seimor of Sudleie, and high admerall of England. 62
19 For abſtinence from fleſh. 66
20 For the qualifieng of the ſtatute of recuſants. 67
21 To take awaie all poſitiue lawes made againſt the mariage of preeſts. 68
22 An act for the colouring of cuſtoms in other mens names. ibid.
23 For the repeale of a ſtatute touching precontracts. 69
24 For the trials of murders and fellonies, &c. 70
25 For the keeping of countie daies. 71
26 An act againſt the carieng of white aſhes out of this realme. 72
27 Againſt the falſe forging of gads of ſteele. ibid.
28 For fines with proclamations in the countie palantine of Cheſter. ibid.
29 An act againſt ſodomie. ibid.
30 For the townes of Rie and Winchelſeie and for the caſting of ballace into the Camber. 73
31 For the citie of Cheſter touching the taking of recogniſances. ibid
32 For the continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 74
33 That no man ſtealing horſſe or horſſes ſhall inioy the benefit of his clergie. ibid.
34 That the ſhiriffe of Northumberland ſhalbe accountable for his office as other ſhirifs be. ibid.
35 For the confirmation of the ſubſidie of the clergie. 75
36 An act for a releefe granted to the kings maieſtie. 79
37 An act againſt the carrieng of bell mettall out of the realme. 96
38 An act for the pauing of Calis. 97
39 The kings maieſties free and generall pardon. 98

Anno tertio & quarto Edwardi ſexti.

1 An act that the lord chancellor or lord keeper of the great ſeale for the time being ſhall name and appoint the Cuſtos Rotulorum throughout all ſhires of England according as in times paſt it hath beene accuſtomed. 101
2 For the true making of woollen clothes. 102
3 Concerning improouement of common and waſte grounds. 104
4 An act concerning grants & gifts made by patentees out of letters patents. 105
5 An act for the puniſhment of vnlawfull aſſemblies and riſing of the kings ſubiects. 106
6 An act concerning the repeale of a branch in the act of parlement made for buieng of tanned lether. 110
7 An act made for the repeale of a ſtatute in the 25 yeere of king Henrie the eight, touching the taking of wildfoule at certeine times of the yeere. 111
8 For the continuance of the ſtatute for ſewers ibid
9 For the buieng of raw hides and calfe ſkins. 112
10 For the aboliſhing & putting awaie of diuers bookes and images. ibid.
11 That the kings maieſtie may nominat and appoint 32. perſons to peruſe & make eccleſiaſticall lawes. 113
12 For the ordring of eccleſiaſticall miniſters. 114
13 For the reſtitution in bloud of ſir William Sharington knight. 114
14 For the reſtitution in bloud of Mа. Seimor daughter to ſir Thomas Seimor knight lord Seimor of Sudleie late admerall of England. 115
15 Againſt fond and fantaſticall propheſies. 116
16 Touching the puniſhment of vagabonds and other idle perſons. ibid.
17 An act againſt vnlawfull hunting in anie parke, foreſt, chaſe or other incloſed ground. 119
18 Concerning fee farms mentioned in the laſt ſeſſion. pag. 120
19 For the buieng of rother beaſts and cattell. 121
20 An act touching the repeale of a certeine branch of an act paſſed in the laſt ſeſſion of this parlement, concerning vittellers and artificers. ibid.
21 For the buieng and ſelling of butter and cheeſe. 122
22 An act touching the reteining of iorniemen by diuers perſons. ibid.
23 An act concerning the releaſe of the branches in the laſt act of releefe for the paiments of ſheepe & clothes & alſo a grant of a ſubſidie to be paid in one yeare. 123
24 An act of the kings maieſties moſt free and generall pardon. 126

Anno quinto & ſexto Edwardi ſexti.

1 An act for the vniformitie of common praier and adminiſtration of the ſacraments. 130
2 For the prouiſion and releefe of the poore. 131
3 An act for the keeping of holie daies and faſting daies. 132
4 An act againſt quarrelling and fighting in churches & churchyards. 134
5 An act for the maintenance of tillage and increaſe of corne. ibid.
6 For the true making of woollen cloth. 136
7 An act limitting the times for buieng and ſelling of wools. 141
8 An act limitting what perſons ſhall weaue or make broad woollen cloth. 142
9 An act that no man robbing any houſe, booth or tent, ſhall be admitted to the benefit of his clergie. 143
10 An act to take awaie the benefit of clergie from ſuch as rob in one ſhire and flie into another. 144
11 An act for the puniſhment of diuers treaſons. 145

12 An act for the declaration of a ſtatute made for the mariage of prieſts and for the legitimation of their children. pag. 147
13 An act for the declaration of a ſtatute made in the xxxi. yeere of king Henrie the eight, touching religious perſons. 148
14 An act againſt regrators, foreſtallers & ingroſers. 149
15 An act againſt regrators of tanned lether. 151
16 An act againſt buiyng and ſelling of offices. 152
17 An act for the continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 153
18 An act repealing a ſtatute made in the 4. yeere of Henrie the vij. againſt the bringing in of wine and woad in ſtrange bottoms. 154
19 An act touching the exchange of gold & ſiluer. 155
20 An act againſt vſurie. ibid.
21 An act for tinkers and pedlers. 156
22 An act for the putting downe of gig mils. ibid.
23 An act for the true ſtuffing of fetherbeds mattreſſes and cuſhions. 156
24 An act for the making of hats, dornecks and couerlets at Norwich in the countie of Norfolke. 156
25 An act for keepers of alehouſes to be bound by recogniſance. 157
26 An act for writs vpon proclamations & exigents to be currant within the countie pallantine of Lancaſter. 185

Anno ſeptimo Edwardi ſexti.

1 An act for the true anſwering of the kings maieſties reuennes. 160
2 An act for the diſſoluing vniting or annexing of certeine courts latelie erected by the king that dead is. 163
3 An act for the confirmation of the kings maieſties letters patents of bargaines and ſales, notwithſtanding the lacke or loſſe of the particulars or the bill aſſigned of the patentee. 165
4 An act that all patents of collectorſhips of tenths ſhalbe bound for their collections. 167
5 An act to auoid great priſes and exceſſe of wines. 168
6 An act reuiuing a ſtatute made in the xvij. yeare of king Edward the fourth touching the carieng of gold and ſiluer out of the realme. 170
7 An act for the aſſiſe of fuell. 171
8 An act for the true fulling and thicking of caps. 172
9 An act for the true making of white plaine ſtreights & pinned white ſtreights in Deuonſhire and Cornewall. pag. 172
10 An act for the vniting and annexing of the towne of Gateſide to the towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine. 173
11 An act for the continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 175
12 An act for a ſubſidie and two fifteens granted to the kings maieſtie by the temporaltie. 176
13 An act for the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 192
14 An act for the kings maieſties moſt gracious, generall and free pardon. 195

¶ Statutes made in the time of queene Marie.

Anno primo.

1 An act repealing certeine treaſons, felonies, and Premunire. 199
2 An act declaring the queenes highneſſe to haue beene borne in a moſt iuſt and lawfull matrimonie and repealing all acts of parlement and ſentences of diuorſe had & made to the contrarie. 200
3 For the repeale of certeine ſtatutes made in the time of the reigne of king Edward the ſixt. 202
4 Againſt offendors of preachers and other miniſters in the church. 203
5 Touching writings made from the 6 day of Iulie laſt paſt and before the firſt daie of Auguſt next inſuing. 204
6 For the limitation of preſcription in certeine cauſes. 205
7 Againſt counterfeiting of ſtrange coines being currant within this realme of the queenes highnes ſigne manuell ſignet or priuie ſeale. 206
8 Touching proclamations vpon fines. ibid.
9 That ſhirifs ſhall not be iuſtices of peace during that office. 207
10 Touching the incorporation of the phyſicians of London. ibid.
11 For the vniting, diſſoluing, or new erecting of courts. pag. 208
12 For the ſale of hats and caps made beyond the ſea. 210
13 An act againſt vnlawfull and rebellious aſſemblies. 211
14 For the continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 215
15 For the continuance of a ſtatute made for the reparation of goales. 216
16 For the reedifieng of the pariſh church of S. Elens in Stane gate within the citie of yorke. 217
17 For the confirmation of the attaindor of Ioh. late duke of Northumberland and others. ibid.
18 For the releaſe of the laſt ſubſidie of the temporalty. 219
19 An act of a ſubſidie of tunnage and poundage of diuers merchandizes. ibid.

The ſecond ſeſſion of parlement.

1 An act declaring that the regall power of this realme is in the queenes maieſtie as fullie and abſolutelie as euer it was in any of hir moſt noble progenitors kings of this realme. 221
2 Touching the articles of the queenes highnes moſt noble mariage. 222
3 For the repeale of two ſeuerall acts made in the ſeuenth yeare of king Edward the ſixt touching the diſſolution of the biſhopprike of Durham. 226
4 For the eſtabliſhing of the office of the lord ſteward of the queenes moſt honorable houſhold. 229
5 For the continuation of a ſtatute made for the reparing of Sherborne cawſeie. 230
6 For the reparing of a cawſeie betwixt Briſtow and Glocester. 231
7 Touching clothmaking in corporat townes and market townes. 232
8 Touching the buieng and currieng of lether. ibid.
9 Touching ordinances and rules in cathedrall churches and ſchooles. 233
10 For the repeale of a ſtatute made for the vniting of the pariſh churches of Onger and Greenſted in the countie of Eſſex. 234
11 Touching the ſea ſands in Clamorganſhire. 236
12 For the continuation of certeine ſtatutes. ibid.

Anno primo & ſecundo Philippi & Mariæ.

1 An act touching letters patents and other writings to be ſigned by the queenes maieſtie. 238
2 For the reformation of exceſſe in apparell. 239
3 An act againſt ſeditious words and rumors. ibid
4 For the puniſhment of certeine perſons calling themſelues Egyptians. 241
5 To reſtraine carrieng of corne, vittels and wood ouer the ſea. 243
6 For the reuiuing of three ſtatutes made for the puniſhment of hereſies. 244
7 That perſons in the countrie ſhal not ſell diuers wares in cities and townes corporat by retaile. 247
8 An act repealing all ſtatutes, articles, and prouiſions made againſt the ſee apoſtolike of Rome, ſince the xx. yeare of king Henrie the eight and alſo for eſtabliſhment of all ſpirituall and eccleſiaſticall poſſeſſions and hereditaments conueied to the laietie. 248
9 For puniſhment of traiterous words againſt the Q. maieſtie. 258
10 An act whereby certeine offenſes be made treaſons and alſo for the gouernment of the kings and the queenes maieſties iſſues. 259
11 For puniſhment for bringing in of counterfet coine of forren realmes being currant within this realme. 262
12 For the impounding of diſtreſſes. ibid.
13 An act appointing an order to iuſti. of peace touching the bailement of priſoners. 263
14 For the making of ruſſet ſattins, ſattins reuerſes and fuſtian of Naples in Norwich. ibid.
15 An act to confirme the liberties of the lord marchers in wales. 266
16 For the continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 267
17 Touching leaſes hereafter to be made by certeine ſpirituall perſons. 268

Anno ſecundo & tertio Philippi & Mariæ.

1 An act for the reedifieng of caſtels and forts for the incloſing of grounds vpon the borders towards Scotland. 268
2 An act for the reedifieng of decaied houſes of huſbandrie and for the increaſe of tillage. 272
3 For keeping of milch kine and for the breeding & rearing of calues. 278
4 For the extinguiſhment of the firſt fruits and touching order and diſpoſition of the tenths of ſpirituall and eccleſiaſticall promotions, and of rectories and parſonages impropriat remaining in the queenes maieſties hands. 279
5 An act for the releefe of the poore. 284
6 An act againſt the exceſſiue taking of the kings and queenes maieſties puruiors. 286
7 Againſt the buieng of ſtollen horſſes. 288
8 For the mending of high waies. 289
9 An act to make void diuers licences of houſes wherein vnlawfull games be vſed. 290
10 An act to take examination of priſoners ſuſpected of felonie or manſlaughter. ibid.
11 Touching weauers. 291
12 For the buieng and ſelling of clothes commonlie called Bridgewaters. 292
13 For the inhabitants of Halifax touching the buieng of wools. ibid.
14 An act for the reedifieng of foure mils neere to the citie of Hereford. 293
15 An act that the puruiors ſhall not take vittels within fiue miles of Oxford and Cambridge. pag. ibid.
16 An act touching watermen and bargemen vpon the riuer of Thames. 294
17 An act to take awaie the benefit of clergie from Bennet Smith for the murther of Rufford. pag. 296
18 An act touching commiſſions of the peace and goale deliuerie in townes corporat not being counties. 298
19 Touching Powdike in Marſhland. ibid.
20 An act for the inlarging of the dutchie of Lancaſter. 299
21 For the continuation of certeine ſtatutes. 300
22 For the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the cleargie. 302
23 Of a ſubſidie granted to the kings and queenes maieſties by the temporaltie. 306

Anno quarto & quinto Philippi & Mariæ.

1 An act for the confirmation of letters patents. 320
2 For the hauing of horſſe, armor, and weapon. 322
3 For the taking of muſters. 326
4 That acceſſaries in murder and diuers felonies ſhall not haue the benefit of clergie. 328
5 Touching the making of wollen clothes. ibid.
6 To inquire of the behauior of Frenchmen beeing denizens. 332
7 To make vp the iurie with circumſtantibus where the kings and the queens maieſties or the queenes maieſtie is as partie. 334
8 An act for the puniſhment of ſuch as ſhall take awaie maidens that be inheritors being within the age of xvi. yeares or that marrie them without the conſent of their parents. ibid.
9 For the continuation of certeine ſtatutes. 336
10 For the confirmation of the ſubſidie of the clergie. 337
11 Of a ſubſidie and one fifteene granted by the temporaltie. 342

¶ Statutes made in the time of queene Elizabeth.

Anno primo.

1 An act reſtoring to the crowne the ancient iuriſdiction ouer the ſtate eccleſiaſticall and ſpirituall and aboliſhing all forren power repugnant to the ſame. 356
2 An act for the vniformitie of common praier and ſeruice in the church and the adminiſtration of the ſacraments. 361
3 An act of recognition of the queenes highneſſe title to the imperiall crowne of this realme. 364
4 For the reſtitution of the firſt fruits and tenths and rents reſerued Nomine decimæ, and of parſonages impropriat to the imperiall crowne of this realme. 365
5 An act whereby certeine offenſes be made treaſon. 371
6 For the explanation of the ſtatute of ſeditious words and rumors. 372
7 An act to reuiue a ſtatute made in the xxiii. yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, touching the conueieng of horſſes, geldings, & mares, into Scotland. 373
8 An act touching ſhoomakers and curriors. 374
9 An act touching tanners and the ſelling of tanned lether. ibid.
10 That the carrieng of lether, tallow, or raw hides out of ẏ realme for merchandize ſhalbe felonie. 376
11 An act limiting the times for laieng on land merchandize from beyond the ſeas, and touching cuſtoms for ſweet wines. 377
12 Againſt the deceiptfull vſing of linnen cloth. 379
13 For the ſhipping of Engliſh bottoms. 380
14 For the continuance of making of woollen cloth in diuerſe townes in the countie of Eſſex. 381
15 That timber ſhall not be felled to make coles for the burning of iron. 382
16 An act to continue the act made againſt rebellious aſſemblies. ibid.
17 For the preſeruation of ſpawne & frie of fiſh. 383
18 For the continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 384
19 Of a ſubſidie of tunnage and poundage. 386
20 Of a ſubſidie and two fifteens and tenths granted by the temporaltie. 387

Anno quinto Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 For the aſſurance of the queenes maieſties roiall power ouer all ſtates & ſubiects within hir highneſſe dominions. 402
2 An act for the maintenance and increaſe of tillage. 405
3 For the releefe of the poore. 411
4 An act touching diuerſe orders for artificers, labourers, ſeruants of huſbandrie and apprentiſes. fol. 415
5 Touching certeine politike conſtitutions made for the maintenance of the nauie. 423
6 Againſt all ſuch as ſhall ſell anie ware for apparell without readie monie. 429
7 For the auoiding of diuerſe forren wares made by handicraftſmen beyond the ſeas. 430
8 An act touching tanners, curriors, and ſhoomakers and other artificers, occupieng the cutting of lether. 430
9 For the puniſhment of ſuch perſons as ſhall procure or commit any wilfull periurie. 438
10 An act to reuiue a ſtatute made in the one and twentith yeere of H. the eight touching ſeruants imbezeling

imbeazling their maiſters goods. 440
11 An act againſt the clipping, waſhing, rounding or filing of coines. ibid.
12 Touching badgers of corne and drouers of cattell to be licenced. 441
13 For the reuiuing of a ſtatute made in the ſecond and third yeare of Philip and Marie for the amending of high waies. 443
14 An act againſt the forging of euidences and writings. 445
15 Againſt fond and phantaſticall propheſies. 447
16 Againſt coniurations, inchantments, and witchcrafts. 448
17 For the puniſhment of the vice of buggerie. 449
18 An act declaring the office and authoritie of the lord keeper of the great ſeale of England and the L. chācellor to be one. ibid.
19 An act for the repeale of a branch of a ſtatute made in the firſt yeare of Edward the ſixt touching the conueieng of horſſes and geldings out of the relme. pag. 449
20 For the puniſhment of vagabonds calling themſelues Egyptians. 450
21 For the puniſhment of vnlawfull taking of fiſh, deere, or hawks. ibid
22 An act againſt the carieng of ſheeps ſkins and pelts ouer the ſea not being ſtaple ware. 453
23 For the due execution of the writ De excommunicato capiendo. ibid.
24 For the reuiuing of a ſtatute made in the three and twentie yeere of king Henrie the eight touching the reparing of goales. 455
25 To fill vp iuries De circumſtant, lacking in Wales pag. 456
26 For the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 457
27 For a ſubſidie and two fifteens and tenths granted by the temporaltie. 465
28 For the queenes maieſties moſt gratious, generall, and free pardon. 461

Anno octauo Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act declaring the maner of making and conſecrating of the archbiſhops and biſhops of this realme to be good lawfull and perfect. 480
2 An act whereby the defendant may recouer his coſts being wrongfullie vexed. 484
3 An act againſt carrieng ouer ſea rams, lambs, and other ſheepe aliue. 482
4 An act to take awaie the benefit of clergie from certeine felonious offendors. 484
5 For the abbridgement of appeals in ſutes of ciuill & marine cauſes. 485
6 Touching clothworkers and cloths readie wrought to be ſhipped ouer the ſea. ibid.
7 Touching drapers, cottoners and frezers, in the towne of Shrewesburie. 486
8 For the repeale of a branch of a ſtatute made in the xxxij yeare of king Henrie the eight for the ſtatute of horſſes within the iſle of Elie and other places confining thereunto. 487
9 To repeale a branch of a ſtatute made in the three and twentie yeere of Henrie the eight touching the priſes of barrels and kilderkins. 488
10 For bowyers and the priſes of bowes. 489
11 An act for the true making of hats and caps. 490
12 For the aulnagers fees in Lācaſhire and for length bredth, and weight of cottons, frezes and rugs. 491
13 Concerning ſea marks and mariners. 493
14 An act touching tranſporting of tanned lether. ibid
15 For the preſeruation of graine. 494
16 An act that in diuers counties there ſhalbe but one ſhiriffe in one countie. 495
17 For the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 496
18 An act of a fifteene and tenth and ſubſidie granted by the temporaltie. 420
19 An act of the queenes moſt gratious, free and generall pardon. 517

Anno xiij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act whereby certeine offenſes be made treaſon. pag. 520
2 An act againſt the bringing in and putting in execution of buls and other inſtruments from the ſee of Rome. 522
3 Againſt fugitiues ouer the ſea. 525
4 To make the lands, tenements, goods and chattels of tellers, receiuers, &c: liable to the paiment of their debts. 529
5 An act againſt fraudulent deeds, gifts, alienations, &c. 531
6 An act that the conſtats and exemplification of letters patents ſhalbe as good and auailable as the letters patents themſelues. 532
7 An act touching orders for bankerouts. 533
8 Againſt vſurie. 536
9 For the commiſſion of ſewers. 537
10 Againſt frauds defeting remedies for dilapidations &c. 538
11 For the maintenance of nauigation. 539
12 An act to reforme certeine diſorders touching miniſters of the church. 540
13 For the increaſe of tillage. 541
14 An act for the bringing in of bowſtaues into this realme. 542
15 That no hoie or plat ſhall croſſe the ſeas. 543
16 An act for the confirmation of the attaindors of Charles earle of Weſtmerland, Thomas earle of Northumberland and others, &c. ibid.
17 An act to licence the erle of Leiceſter to found an hoſpitall. 546
18 For the bringing of the riuer of Lee to the north ſide of the citie of London. 546
19 An act for the making of caps. 548
20 Touching leaſes of benefices and other eccleſiaſticall liuings with cure. 549
21 An act that puruetors may take graine, corne or victels within fiue miles of Oxford and Cambridge in certeine caſes. 550
22 An act to continue the ſtatute for the diuiſion of ſhirifs. 551
23 An act for pauing of a ſtreet without Algate. ibid.
24 For pauing of the towne of Ipſwich. 552
25 An act for the reuiuing and continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 553
26 For the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 556
27 For a ſubſidie and two fifteenes and tenths granted by the temporaltie. 562
28 An act of the queenes highneſſe moſt gratious and free pardon. 577

Anno xiiij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act for the puniſhment of ſuch as ſhall rebelliouſlie take or deteine, &c: from the queenes maieſtie anie of hir caſtels, towres, fortreſſes or holds, &c. pag. 581
2 Againſt ſuch as ſhall conſpire or practiſe the inlargement of anie priſoner committed for high treſon. 582
3 An act againſt the forging and counterfeiting of forren coine, being not currant within this realme pag. 582
4 To reuiue a ſtatute made in the firſt yeare of the queenes maieſties reigne, inhibiting the carrieng of lether, tallow or raw hides out of the relme. 582
5 For puniſhment of vagabonds and for the releefe of the poore and impotent. ibid

6 For

6 Foꝛ the explanation of a ſtatute made againſt fugitiues ouer the ſeas in the xiii. yeere of the queenes maieſties reigne. 590
7 An act againſt the deceipts of vnder collectoꝛs of the tenths and ſubſidies of the clergie. 591
8 Foꝛ the auoiding of recoueries ſuffered by colluſion by tenants foꝛ terme of life and ſuch others. 592
9 An act declaring that the tenant and defendant may haue a Tales de circumſtantibus aſwel as the demandant oꝛ plaintiffe. ibid.
10 To refoꝛme the exceſſiue length of karſies. 593
11 Foꝛ the continuation, explanation, perfecting and inlarging of diuers ſtatutes. ibid
12 Foꝛ the repeale of a ſtatute made the eight of the queenes maieſties reigne touching the towne of Shꝛewesburie. 595
13 Foꝛ the annexing of Hexam and Hexamſhire to the countie of Noꝛthumberland. 596

Anno xviij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act againſt the imparing and diminiſhing of the queenes maieſties coines and other coines lawfullie currant within this realme. 597
2 Foꝛ the confirmation of all grants made to the queenes maieſtie as of letters patents made by hir maieſtie to others. ibid.
3 Foꝛ the ſetting of the pooꝛe on woꝛke and foꝛ the auoiding of idlenes. 599
4 Foꝛ the auoiding of frauds in certeine conueiances and aſſurances made by the late rebels in the Noꝛth. 602
5 To redꝛeſſe diſoꝛders in common infoꝛmers vpon penall lawes. 604
6 Foꝛ the maintenance of the colleges in both the vniuerſities and alſo in Wincheſter and Eaton. 606
7 To take awaie clergie from the offendoꝛs in rape and burglarie & an oꝛder foꝛ the deliuerie of clerks conuict without purgation. 606
8 Foꝛ the appointing and authoꝛiſing of iuſtices of aſſiſes in the ſhires of Wales. 607
9 An act againſt the tranſpoꝛting of lether, tallow & raw hides out of the realme. 608
10 An act of addition vnto the foꝛmer acts foꝛ the amending and reparing of high waies. 609
11 Foꝛ the explanation of the ſtatutes intituled againſt the defeating of dilapidations and againſt leaſes to be made of ſpirituall pꝛomotions in ſome reſpects. 611
12 Foꝛ the triall of Niſi prius in the countie of Middleſex. 612
13 Concerning offices found within the countie palantines. 613
14 Foꝛ refoꝛmation of ioyfals. 614
15 Foꝛ refoꝛmation of the abuſes in goldſmiths. ibid.
16 Foꝛ the tolleration of certeine clothiers in the counties of Wels Summerſet & Gloceſter to inhabit out of townes coꝛpoꝛat. 615
17 Foꝛ the perpetuall maintenance of Rocheſter bꝛidge. 616
18 Foꝛ the reparing of Chepſtow bꝛidge. 617
19 Foꝛ the pauing of the citie of Chicheſter. 618
20 Foꝛ the reparing and amending of the bꝛidges and high waies neere to the citie of Oxfoꝛd. 619
21 Foꝛ the releefe and reedifieng of the boꝛough of new Woodſtock in the countie of Oxfoꝛd. 620
22 Foꝛ confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 621
23 Foꝛ two fifteens and tenths and one ſubſidie grãted by the tempoꝛaltie. 627
24 Foꝛ the queenes maieſties moſt free and generall pardon. 642

Anno xxiij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act to reteine the queenes maieſties ſubiects in their due obedience. 646
2 Againſt ſeditious woꝛds and rumoꝛs vttered againſt the queenes moſt excellent maieſtie. 648
3 Foꝛ the refoꝛmation of erroꝛs in fines and recoueries. 650
4 Foꝛ the foꝛtifieng of the boꝛders towards Scotland. 652
5 Touching iron mils neere vnto the citie of London and the riuer of Thames. 656
6 Foꝛ the reparing of Douer hauen. ibid.
7 Foꝛ the increaſe of mariners and foꝛ the maintenance of the nauigation. 657
8 Foꝛ the true melting, making and woꝛking of wax. 658
9 Foꝛ the aboliſhing of certeine deceitfull ſtuffe vſed in dieng of cloth. 659
10 Foꝛ the pꝛeſeruation of feſants and partridges. pag. 660
11 Foꝛ the reedifieng of Cardiffe bꝛidge in the countie of Glamoꝛgan. 661
12 Foꝛ an addition to a foꝛmer act made the xiii. yeere of hir maieſties reigne, foꝛ the pauing of a ſtreet without Algate leading to hir highneſſe ſtoꝛehouſes at the minoꝛies and other places. 663
13 Foꝛ a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 664
14 Foꝛ a ſubſidie and two fifteenes granted by the tempoꝛaltie. 667
15 Foꝛ the queenes maieſties moſt gratious par. 673
16 Foꝛ the inning of Erith & Plumſted marſh. 688

Anno xxvij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act foꝛ pꝛouiſion to be made foꝛ the ſuretie of the queenes maieſties moſt roiall perſon and the continuation of the realme in peace. 694
2 An act againſt Ieſuits, ſeminarie pꝛeeſts and ſuch other like diſobedient perſons. 695
3 Foꝛ the explanation of a ſtatute made the xiii. of hir maieſties reigne intituled an act to make lands tenements, goods and chattels of telloꝛs, receiuoꝛs &c: liable to the paiments of their debts. 697
4 Againſt couenous and fraudulent conueiances. pag. 699
5 Foꝛ the expedition of iuſtice in caſes of demurs in pleadings. 701
6 Foꝛ the returning of ſufficient iuroꝛs and foꝛ the better expedition of trials. 701
7 Foꝛ the leuieng of iſſues loſt by iuroꝛs. 702
8 Foꝛ the redꝛeſſe of erronious iudgements in the court commonlie called the kings bench. 703
9 Foꝛ refoꝛmation of erroꝛs in fines and recoueries in the xii. ſhires of Wales, towne and counties of Herefoꝛd weſt with the counties palantine. 703
10 Foꝛ the continuance of a foꝛmer ſtatute intituled an act to redꝛeſſe diſoꝛders in common infoꝛmers vpon penall ſtatutes made in the eighteenth yeare of hir maieſties reigne. 709
11 An act foꝛ the reuiuing, continuation, explanation and perfecting of diuers ſtatutes. ibid.
12 Foꝛ the ſwearing of vnderſhiriffs and other vnder officers and miniſters. ibid.
13 Foꝛ the following of hue and crie. ibid
14 Foꝛ the reuiuing of a foꝛmer ſtatute foꝛ the true making of malt. 711
15 An act foꝛ the bꝛinging in of ſtaple fiſh & herings into this realme. ibid.
16 An act touching artificers vſing cutting of lether. pag. 712

imbeazling their maiſters goods. 440
11 An act againſt the clipping, waſhing, rounding or filing of coines. ibid.
12 Touching badgers of corne and drouers of cattell to be licenced. 441
13 For the reuiuing of a ſtatute made in the ſecond and third yeare of Philip and Marie for the amending of high waies. 443
14 An act againſt the forging of euidences and writings. 445
15 Againſt fond and phantaſticall propheſies. 447
16 Againſt coniurations, inchantments, and witchcrafts. 448
17 For the puniſhment of the vice of buggerie. 449
18 An act declaring the office and authoritie of the lord keeper of the great ſeale of England and the L. chācellor to be one. ibid.
19 An act for the repeale of a branch of a ſtatute made in the firſt yeare of Edward the ſixt touching the conueieng of horſſes and geldings out of the relme. pag. 449
20 For the puniſhment of vagabonds calling themſelues Egyptians. 450
21 For the puniſhment of vnlawfull taking of fiſh, deere, or hawks. ibid
22 An act againſt the carieng of ſheeps ſkins and pelts ouer the ſea not being ſtaple ware. 453
23 For the due execution of the writ De excommunicato capiendo. ibid.
24 For the reuiuing of a ſtatute made in the three and twentie yeere of king Henrie the eight touching the reparing of goales. 455
25 To fill vp iuries De circumſtant, lacking in Wales pag. 456
26 For the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 457
27 For a ſubſidie and two fifteens and tenths granted by the temporaltie. 465
28 For the queenes maieſties moſt gratious, generall, and free pardon. 461

Anno octauo Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act declaring the maner of making and conſecrating of the archbiſhops and biſhops of this realme to be good lawfull and perfect. 480
2 An act whereby the defendant may recouer his coſts being wrongfullie vexed. 484
3 An act againſt carrieng ouer ſea rams, lambs, and other ſheepe aliue. 481
4 An act to take awaie the benefit of clergie from certeine felonious offendors. 484
5 For the abbridgement of appeals in ſutes of ciuill & marine cauſes. 485
6 Touching clothworkers and cloths readie wrought to be ſhipped ouer the ſea. ibid.
7 Touching drapers, cottoners and frezers, in the towne of Shrewesburie. 486
8 For the repeale of a branch of a ſtatute made in the xxxij yeare of king Henrie the eight for the ſtatute of horſſes within the iſle of Elie and other places confining thereunto. 487
9 To repeale a branch of a ſtatute made in the three and twentie yeere of Henrie the eight touching the priſes of barels and kilderkins. 488
10 For bowyers and the priſes of bowes. 489
11 An act for the true making of hats and caps. 490
12 For the aulnagers fees in Lācaſhire and for length bredth, and weight of cottons, frezes and rugs. 491
13 Concerning ſea marks and mariners. 493
14 An act touching tranſporting of tanned lether. ibid
15 For the preſeruation of graine. 494
16 An act that in diuers counties there ſhalbe but one ſhiriffe in one countie. 495
17 For the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 496
18 An act of a fifteene and tenth and ſubſidie granted by the temporaltie. 420
19 An act of the queenes moſt gratious, free and generall pardon. 517

Anno xiij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act whereby certeine offenſes be made treaſon. pag. 520
2 An act againſt the bringing in and putting in execution of buls and other inſtruments from the ſee of Rome. 522
3 Againſt fugitiues ouer the ſea. 525
4 To make the lands, tenements, goods and chattels of tellers, receiuers, &c: liable to the paiment of their debts. 529
5 An act againſt fraudulent deeds, gifts, alienations, &c. 531
6 An act that the conſtats and exemplification of letters patents ſhalbe as good and auailable as the letters patents themſelues. 532
7 An act touching orders for bankerouts. 533
8 Againſt vſurie. 536
9 For the commiſſion of ſewers. 537
10 Againſt frauds defeting remedies for dilapidations &c. 538
11 For the maintenance of nauigation. 539
12 An act to reforme certeine diſorders touching miniſters of the church. 540
13 For the increaſe of tillage. 541
14 An act for the bringing in of bowſtaues into this realme. 542
15 That no hoie or plat ſhall croſſe the ſeas. 543
16 An act for the confirmation of the attaindors of Charles earle of Weſtmerland, Thomas earle of Northumberland and others, &c. ibid.
17 An act to licence the erle of Leiceſter to found an hoſpitall. 546
18 For the bringing of the riuer of Lee to the north ſide of the citie of London. 546
19 An act for the making of caps. 548
20 Touching leaſes of benefices and other eccleſiaſticall liuings with cure. 549
21 An act that purueiors may take graine, corne or vittels within fiue miles of Oxford and Cambridge in certeine caſes. 550
22 An act to continue the ſtatute for the diuiſion of ſhirifs. 551
23 An act for pauing of a ſtreet without Algate. ibid.
24 For pauing of the towne of Ipſwich. 552
25 An act for the reuiuing and continuance of certeine ſtatutes. 553
26 For the confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 556
27 For a ſubſidie and two fifteenes and tenths granted by the temporaltie. 562
28 An act of the queenes highneſſe moſt gratious and free pardon. 577

Anno xiiij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act for the puniſhment of ſuch as ſhall rebelliouſlie take or deteine, &c: from the queenes maieſtie anie of hir caſtels, towres, fortreſſes or holds, &c. pag. 581
2 Againſt ſuch as ſhall conſpire or practiſe the inlargement of any priſoner committed for high treaſon. 582
3 An act againſt the forging and counterfeiting of forren coine, being not currant within this realme pag. 582
4 To reuiue a ſtatute made in the firſt yeare of the queenes maieſties reigne, inhibiting the carrieng of lether, tallow or raw hides out of the relme. 582
5 For puniſhment of vagabonds and for the releefe of the poore and impotent. ibid

6 For

6 For the explanation of a ſtatute made againſt fugitiues ouer the ſeas in the xiii. yeere of the queenes maieſties reigne. 590
7 An act againſt the deceipts of vnder collectors of the tenths and ſubſidies of the clergie. 591
8 For the auoiding of recoueries ſuffered by colluſion by tenants for terme of life and ſuch others. 592
9 An act declaring that the tenant and defendant may haue a Tales de circumſtantibus aſwel as the demandant or plaintiffe. ibid.
10 To reforme the exceſſiue length of karſies. 593
11 For the continuation, explanation, perfecting and inlarging of diuers ſtatutes. ibid
12 For the repeale of a ſtatute made the eight of the queenes maieſties reigne touching the towne of Shrewſburie. 595
13 For the annexing of Hexam and Hexamſhire to the countie of Northumberland. 596

Anno xviij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act againſt the impairing and diminiſhing of the queenes maieſties coines and other coines lawfullie currant within this realme. 597
2 For the confirmation of all grants made to the queenes maieſtie as of letters patents made by hir maieſtie to others. ibid.
3 For the ſetting of the poore on worke and for the auoiding of idlenes. 599
4 For the auoiding of frauds in certeine conueiances and aſſurances made by the late rebels in the North. 602
5 To redreſſe diſorders in common informers vpon penall lawes. 604
6 For the maintenance of the colleges in both the vniuerſities and alſo in Wincheſter and Eaton. 606
7 To take awaie clergie from the offendors in rape and burglarie & an order for the deliuerie of clerks conuict without purgation. 606
8 For the appointing and authoriſing of iuſtices of aſſiſes in the ſhires of Wales. 607
9 An act againſt the tranſporting of lether, tallow & raw hides out of the realme. 608
10 An act of addition vnto the former acts for the amending and repairing of high waies. 609
11 For the explanation of the ſtatutes intituled againſt the defeating of dilapidations and againſt leaſes to be made of ſpirituall promotions in ſome reſpects. 611
12 For the triall of Niſi prius in the countie of Midleſex. 612
13 Concerning offices found within the countie palantines. 613
14 For reformation of ioyfals. 614
15 For reformation of the abuſes in goldſmiths. ibid.
16 For the tolleration of certeine clothiers in the counties of Wels Summerſet & Gloceſter to inhabit out of townes corporat. 615
17 For the perpetuall maintenance of Rocheſter bridge. 616
18 For the repairing of Chepſtow bridge. 617
19 For the pauing of the citie of Chicheſter. 618
20 For the repairing and amending of the bridges and high waies neere to the citie of Oxford. 619
21 For the releefe and reediſieng of the borough of new Woodſtock in the countie of Oxford. 620
22 For confirmation of a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 621
23 For two fifteens and tenths and one ſubſidie granted by the temporaltie. 627
24 For the queenes maieſties moſt free and generall pardon. 642

Anno xxiij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act to reteine the queenes maieſties ſubiects in their due obedience. 646
2 Againſt ſeditious words and rumors vttered againſt the queenes moſt excellent maieſtie. 648
3 For the reformation of errors in fines and recoueries. 650
4 For the fortifieng of the borders towards Scotland. 652
5 Touching iron mils neere vnto the citie of London and the riuer of Thames. 656
6 For the repairing of Douer hauen. ibid.
7 For the increaſe of mariners and for the maintenance of the nauigation. 657
8 For the true melting, making and working of wax. 658
9 For the aboliſhing of certeine deceitfull ſtuffe vſed in dieng of cloth. 659
10 For the preſeruation of feſants and partridges. pag. 660
11 For the reediſieng of Cardiffe bridge in the countie of Glamorgan. 661
12 For an addition to a former act made the xiii. yeere of hir maieſties reigne, for the pauing of a ſtreet without Algate leading to hir highneſſe ſtorehouſes at the minories and other places. 663
13 For a ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 664
14 For a ſubſidie and two fifteenes granted by the temporaltie. 667
15 For the queenes maieſties moſt gratious par. 673
16 For the inning of Erith & Plumſted marſh. 688

Anno xxvij. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act for prouiſion to be made for the ſuretie of the queenes maieſties moſt roiall perſon and the continuation of the realme in peace. 694
2 An act againſt Ieſuits, ſeminarie preeſts and ſuch other like diſobedient perſons. 695
3 For the explanation of a ſtatute made the xiii. of hir maieſties reigne intituled an act to make lands tenements, goods and chattels of tellors, receiuors &c: liable to the paiments of their debts. 697
4 Againſt couenous and fraudulent conueiances. pag. 699
5 For the expedition of iuſtice in caſes of demurrs in pleadings. 701
6 For the returning of ſufficient iurors and for the better expedition of trials. 701
7 For the leuieng of iſſues loſt by iurors. 702
8 For the redreſſe of erronious iudgements in the court commonlie called the kings bench. 703
9 For reformation of errors in fines and recoueries in the xii. ſhires of Wales, towne and counties of Hereford weſt with the counties palantine. 703
10 For the continuance of a former ſtatute intituled an act to redreſſe diſorders in common informers vpon penall ſtatutes made in the eighteenth yeare of hir maieſties reigne. 709
11 An act for the reuiuing, continuation, explanation and perfecting of diuers ſtatutes. ibid.
12 For the ſwearing of vnderſhiriffs and other vnder officers and miniſters. ibid.
13 For the following of hue and crie. ibid
14 For the reuiuing of a former ſtatute for the true making of malt. 711
15 An act for the bringing in of ſtaple fiſh & herings into this realme. ibid.
16 An act touching artificers vſing cutting of lether. pag. 712

17 An act touching yͤ bredth of white wollen clothes made in the counties of Summerſet, Wiltſhire, Gloceſter and Oxford. 712
18 Concerning making of wollen clothes in the counties of Deuonſhire and Cornewall called plaine white ſtreightes and pinned white ſtreightes. 713
19 For the preſeruation of timber in the welds of the counties of Suſſex, Surreie & Kent, & for the amendment of high waies decaied by cariage to & fro iron mils there. 714
20 An act for the preſeruation of the hauen at Plimmouth. 716
21 For the preſeruation of Orford hauen. 717
22 For the bringing of the hauen of the citie of Chicheſter by a new out chanell to the ſuburbs of the ſame citie. ibid.
23 For cloth making in the townes of Woarſted and Langham in the countie of Eſſex. 721
24 For the keeping of the ſea banks and ſea works in the countie of Norffolke. 722
25 For the explanation of the ſtatute for the mainteinance of Rocheſter bridge. ibid.
26 An act for explaning of a ſtatute for the amending of high waies betweene Middleton and the kings ferrie leading into the iſle of Sheppeie in the countie of Kent. 723
27 An act of one ſubſidie granted by the clergie. 724
28 An act of one ſubſidie and two fifteens and tenths granted by the temporaltie. 725
29 An act of the queenes moſt gratious, generall and free pardon. 732

Anno xxix. Reginæ Elizabeth.

1 An act for the attaindors of Thomas late L. Paget and others. 752
2 An act concerning errors in records of attaindors of high treaſon. 754
3 An act to auoid fraudulent aſſurances made in certeine caſes by traitors. ibid.
4 An act to preuent extortion in ſhiriffs, vnderſhiriffs and bailiffs of franchiſes or liberties in caſes of execution. 755
5 An act for the continuance and perfecting of diuers ſtatutes. ibid.
6 An act for the more ſpeedie and due execution of certeine branches of the ſtatute made in the xxiii. yeere of the queenes maieſties reigne intituled an act to reteine the queenes maieſties ſubiects in due obedience. 756
7 An act of one ſubſidie granted by the cleargie. 757
8 An act of one intire ſubſidie and two fifteens and tenths granted by the temporaltie. 765
9 An act for the queenes maieſties pardon. 780

FINIS

The great Charter made in the ix. yeere of king Henrie the third, and confirmed by king Edward the firſt, in the xxviii. yeere of his reigne.

EDward by the grace of God King of England, Lord of Ireland, and Duke of Guyan. To all archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, iuſticers, ſhirifes, prouoſts, officers, and to all bailifes, and other our faithfull ſubiects gréeting. Wée haue ſéene the great Charter of the lord Henrie, ſometime King of England our father, of the liberties of England in theſe words.

Henrie by the grace of God king of England, lord of Ireland, duke of Normandie, and Guian, and earle of Angeoy. To all archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, ſhirifes, prouoſts, officers, & to all bailifes, & other our faithfull ſubiects, which ſhall ſée this preſent charter, greeting. Knowe ye that we vnto the honor of almightie God and for the ſaluation of the ſoules of our progenitors and ſucceſſors kings of England, to the aduancement of holie church, and amendment of our realme, of our mere and frée will haue giuen & granted to all archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, and to all frée men of this our realme theſe liberties vnder written, to be holden and kept in this our realme of England for euermore.

Chap. 1. Church.

FIrſt we haue granted to God and by this our preſent charter haue confirmed for vs and our heires for euermore, that the church of England ſhal be frée, and ſhall haue all her whole rights and liberties inuiolable. We haue granted alſo and giuen to all the fréemen of our realme for vs and our heires, for euermore theſe liberties vnder written, to haue and to hold to them and to their heires, of vs and our heires for euermore.

Chap. 2. Releefe.

If anie of our earles, or barons, or anie other our tenantes, which holde of vs in chéefe by knights ſeruice die, and at the time of his death his heire be of full age, and oweth to vs reléefe, he ſhall haue his inheritance by the old reléefe, that is to ſaie, the heire or heires of an earle for an whole earledom one hundreth pounds, the heire or heires of a baron, for an whole barony one hundred markes. The heire or heires of a knight for one whole knights fee, one hundreth ſhillings at the moſt. And he that hath leſſe, ſhall giue leſſe, according to the old cuſtome of the fées.

Chap. 3. Warde.

But if the heire of anie ſuch be within age, his lord ſhall not haue the ward of him, nor of his land, before that he haue taken of him homage. And after that ſuch an heire hath bene in warde (when he is come to full age) that is to ſaie, to the age of one and twentie yéeres, he ſhall haue his inheritance without reléefe and without fine, ſo that if ſuch an heire being within age be made knight, yet neuertheles his land ſhall remaine in the kéeping of his lord vnto the terme aforeſaid.

Chap. 4. Gardein. Waſte.

The keeper of the land, of ſuch an heire being within age, ſhall not take of the lands of the heire, but reaſonable iſſues, reaſonable cuſtomes, and reaſonable ſeruices, and that without deſtruction, and waſte of his men and his goods. And if we commit the cuſtodie of anie ſuch land to the ſhirife, or to anie other, which is anſwerable vnto vs for the iſſues of the ſame land, and he make deſtruction or waſte of thoſe things that he hath in cuſtodie, we ſhall take of him amendes and recompence therefore, and the land ſhall be committed to two lawfull and diſcréete men of that fée, which ſhall anſwere vnto vs for the iſſues of the ſame land, or vnto him whom we ſhall aſſigne. And if we giue or ſell to anie man the cuſtodie of anie ſuch land, and he therein doe make deſtruction or waſte, he ſhall loſe the ſame cuſtodie. And it ſhall be aſſigned to two lawfull and diſcréete men of that fée, as it is aforeſaid, which alſo in like maner ſhall be anſwerable to vs, as afore is ſaid.

Cuſtodie.

Chap. 5. Weſt. 1. Cap. 21. Gardeine.

The kéeper ſo long as he hath the cuſtodie of the land of ſuch an heire ſhall kéepe vp the houſes, parkes, warrens, ponds, milles, and other things perteining to the ſame land with the iſſues of the ſaid land, and he ſhall deliuer to the heire when he commeth to his full age, all his land ſtored with ploughes and all other things, at the leaſt as he receiued it. All theſe things ſhall be obſerued in the cuſtodies of archbiſhoprickes, biſhoprickes, abbeies, priories, churches and dignities vacant, which apperteine to vs: except this that ſuch kéepings ſhall not be ſold.

Chap. 6. Diſparagement.

Heires ſhall be married without diſparagement.

Chap.7. Widowe. Quarentine. A widowe after the death of her huſband, incontinent and without anie difficultie, ſhall haue her mariage and inheritance, & ſhal giue nothing for her dower, her marriage, or her inheritance, which her huſband and ſhe held the daie of the death of her ſaid huſband. And ſhe ſhall tarie in the cheeſe manſion of her huſbande, the ſpace of fortie daies after the death of her huſband, within which daies her dower ſhall be aſſigned her (if it were not aſſigned her before) or that the houſe be a caſtle. And if ſhe depart from the caſtle, then a competent houſe ſhall be forthwith prouided for her, in the which ſhe maie honeſtlie dwell, vntill her dower be to her aſſigned, as it is aforeſaid. And ſhe ſhall haue in the meane time her reaſonable eſtouers of the common. Dower. And for her dower ſhalbe aſſigned the third part, except ſhe were indowed of leſſe at the church doore. No widow ſhall be diſtrained to marie her ſelfe, neuertheles ſhe ſhall find ſuertie that ſhe ſhall not marie without our licence and aſſent (if ſhe hold of vs) not without the aſſent of the lord, if ſhe hold of another.

Chap. 8. Debt. We nor our bailiffes ſhall not ſeaſe anie land or rent for anie debt, as long as the preſent goods and cattels of the debtter, do ſuffice to paie the debt, and the debter himſelfe be readie to ſatiſfie therefore. Debtour. Neither ſhall the pledges of the debter be diſtrained, as long as the principall detter is ſufficient for the paiment of the debt. And if the principall debter faile in paiment of the debt, Suerties. hauing nought wherewith to paie, or will not paie where he is able inough, then the pledges ſhall anſwere for the debt. And if they will they ſhall haue the lands and rents of the debter, vntill they be ſatiſfied of that which they before paied for him, except that the debter can ſhew him ſelfe to be acquited againſt the ſaid ſuerties.

Chap.9. London liberties. The citie of London ſhall haue all the old liberties and cuſtomes, which it hath bene vſed to haue. Moreouer we will and graunt, that all other cities, boroughes, townes, and the barons of the fiue ports, and all other ports, ſhall haue all their liberties and free cuſtomes.

Chap.10 Knights fee. No man ſhall be diſtrained to doe more ſeruice for a knights fee, nor for anie freeholde, then therefore is due.

Chap.11 Common pleas. Common pleas ſhall not follow our court, but ſhall be holden in ſome place certaine.

Chap.12 Aſſiſes of nouel diſſeiſin and mortdaunceſter. Aſſiſes of new diſſeiſin, & of mortdanceſtour ſhall not be taken but in their ſhires, & after this maner. If we be out of this realme, our cheefe iuſticers ſhall ſend out our iuſticers through euerie countie once in the yeere, which with the knights of the ſhires ſhall take the ſaide aſſiſes in thoſe counties, and thoſe things that at the comming of our foreſaide iuſticers being ſent to take thoſe aſſiſes in the counties, can not be determined, ſhall be ended by them in ſome other place in their circuite. And thoſe things which for difficultie of ſome articles can not be determined by them, ſhall be referred to our iuſticers of the bench, and there ſhall be ended.

Chap.13 Aſſiſes of darraine preſentment. Aſſiſes of darreine preſentment ſhall be taken alwaie before our iuſticers of the bench, and there ſhall be determined.

Chap.14 West.1. Chap.6. Amerciament. A free man ſhall not be amerced for a ſmall fault, but after the quantitie of the fault. And for a great fault after the maner thereof, ſauing to him his contenement or freehold. And a marchant likewiſe ſhall be amerced, ſauing to him his marchandiſe. And anie others villane then ours ſhal be likewiſe amerced, ſauing his wainage, if he fall into our mercie. And none of the ſaid amerciaments ſhall be aſſeſſed, but by the othe of good and honeſt men of the vicinage. Earles and barons ſhall not be amerced but by their peeres, and after the quantitie of their treſpaſſe. No man of the church ſhall be amerced after the rate of his ſpirituall benefice, but after his laie tenement, and after the quantitie of his treſpaſſe.

Chap.15 Bridges. Bankes. No towne nor free man ſhall be diſtrained to make bridges nor bankes, but ſuch as of olde time & of right haue bene accuſtomed to make them in the time of king Henrie our grandfather.

Chap.16 Bankes. No bankes ſhalbe defended from henceforth, but ſuch as were in defence in the time of king Henrie our grandfather, by the ſame places and the ſame bounds, as they were wont to be in his time.

Chap.17 Pleas of the crowne. No ſhiriffe, conſtable, eſchetour, coroners, nor anie other our bailiffes ſhall holde pleas of our crowne.

Chap.18 Laifee. If anie man that holdeth of vs laie fee, doe die, and our ſhiriffe or bailiffe doe ſhew our letters patents of our ſummons for debt which the dead man did owe vnto vs: it ſhall be lawfull to our ſhiriffe or bailiffe to attache and arreſt all the goods and cattels of the dead man, being found in the ſaid fee to the value of the ſame debt, by the ſight and record of lawfull men. So that nothing thereof ſhall be taken awaie, vntill we be cleerelie paide of the debt. And the reſidue ſhall remaine to the executours to performe the will of him that is dead. And if it be found that he owe nothing vnto vs, all the goods and cattels ſhall go to the vſe of the dead man, ſauing to his wife and children their reaſonable parts.

Chap.19 Conſtable. Caſtell. No conſtable or his bailiffe ſhall take corne or other cattell of anie man for to vittaile his caſtle, if the man be not of the towne where the caſtle is, but he ſhall forthwith paie for the ſame, vnleſſe it maie appeare that the will of the ſeller was to reſpite the paiment. And if he be of the ſame towne, the price of that corne and cattell ſhall be paied vnto him within fortie daies.

Chap.20 No conſtable ſhall diſtraine anie knight for to giue monie for keeping of his caſtle, if he him ſelfe will doe it in his proper perſon, or cauſe it to be done by anie other ſufficient man, if he maie not do it himſelfe for a reaſonable cauſe. And if we do command or ſend him to our wars, he ſhall Caſtell ward. be free from caſtle ward for the time that he hath bene with vs in fee of our hoſt, for the which he hath done to vs knights ſeruice in our warres.

Cap.21. Takers of horſe and carts.

No ſhirife nor bailife of ours, or anie other ſhal take the horſes or carts of anie man to make carriage, except he paie the old price limitted, that is to ſaie for carriage with two horſe ten pence a daie, for three horſe fourteene pence a daie. No demeane cart of anie ſpirituall perſon or knight, or anie other lord ſhall be taken by our bailifes, nor we, nor our bailifes nor anie other ſhall take anie mans wood for our caſtles or other our neceſſaries to be done, but by the licence of him, whoſe the wood is.

Cap.22. Lands of felons.

We ſhall not hold the lands of them that be conuict of felonie but one yeere and one daie and then thoſe lands ſhall be deliuered to the lords of the fee.

Cap.23. Weares.

All weares from henceforth ſhall be vtterlie put downe by Thamis & Medwaie, and through all England but onelie by the ſea coſtes.

Cap.24. Precipe in capite.

The writ that is called (Precipe in capite) ſhall be from henceforth granted to no man vpon anie free hold whereby anie free man maie leſe his court.

Cap.25. Meaſure.

One meaſure of wine ſhall be through our realme, and one meaſure of corne, that is to ſaie according to the quarter of London, and one breadth of died cloth, ruſſets, and haberiects, that is to ſaie two yards within the liſts. And as it is of weights, ſo ſhall it be of meaſures.

Cap.26. Inquiſitiõ

Nothing from henceforth ſhal be giuen for a writ of inquiſition, nor taken of him that praieth inquiſition of life or of member, but it ſhall be granted freelie.

Cap.27. Socage. Burgage.

If anie do hold of vs by fee ferme or by ſocage, or burgage, and he holdeth landes of an other by knights ſeruice, we ſhall not haue the cuſtodie of his heire nor of his land which is holden of the fee of an other man, by reaſon of that fee ferme, ſocage, or burgage. Neither we ſhall haue the cuſtodie of ſuch fee ferme, or ſocage, or burgage, except knights ſeruice be due vnto vs out of the ſame fee ferme. Nor we ſhall not haue the cuſtodie of the heire or of anie land, by occaſion of anie petie ſeriantie that anie man holdeth of vs by ſeruice to paie a knife, an arrow, or other like, in caſe the land be holden of an other lord by knights ſeruice.

Peti ſergeantie.

Cap.28. Bailiffe Open law.

No bailife from henceforth ſhall put anie man to his open law, nor to an othe, vpon his own bare ſaying, without faithfull witneſſes brought in for the ſame.

Cap.29. Free man.

No free man ſhall be taken or impriſoned or be diſſeſſed of his free hold or liberties, or free cuſtomes, or be outlawed, or exiled, or anie otherwiſe deſtroied, nor we ſhall not paſſe vpon him, nor condemne him, but by lawfull iudgement of his peeres, or by the law of the land, we ſhall ſell to no man, we ſhall denie nor deferre to no man, either iuſtice or right.

Cap.30. Marchãt ſtrangers.

All marchants (if they were not openlie prohibit before) ſhall haue their ſafe and ſure conduite, to enter and depart, to go, and tarie in the realme as well by land as by water, to buy & ſell without anie maner of euill tolles by the old and rightfull cuſtomes, except in time of warre. And if they be of the lande making warre againſt vs, & be found in our realme at the beginning of the warres they ſhall be attached without harme of bodie or goods vntill it be knowne vnto vs or our iuſticers, how our marchants be intreated there in the land making warre againſt vs. And if our marchants be well intreated there, theirs ſhall be likewiſe with vs.

Cap.31. Eſchete.

If anie man hold of anie eſchet as of the honor of Walingford, Notingham, Boloin, or of anie other eſchetes which be in our hands, and are baronnies, and die, his heires ſhall giue none other reliefe, nor do none other ſeruice to vs, then he ſhould to the baron, if it were in the barons hand. And we in the ſame wiſe ſhall hold it as the baron held it, neither ſhall we haue by occaſion of any ſuch baronie or eſcheate, anie eſcheate or keeping of anie of our men, vnleſſe they do hold of vs other where in cheefe, or elſe he that helde the barronie, or eſcheate, other where helde of vs in cheefe.

Cap.32. Seruice.

No freeman from henceforth ſhall giue nor ſell anie more of his land, but ſo that of the reſidue of the lands the lord of the fee may haue the ſeruices due to him which belongeth to the fee.

Cap.33. Patrons of abbeies.

All patrons of abbeies which haue the kings charters of England of aduouſon, or haue old tenure or poſſeſſion in the ſame, ſhall haue the cuſtodie of them when they fall voide, as it hath bene accuſtomed and as it is afore declared.

Cap.34. Appeale.

No man ſhal be taken or impriſoned vpon the appeale of a woman, for the death of anie other then of her huſband.

Cap.35. Countie. Tourne.

No countie from henceforth ſhall be holden, but from moneth to moneth, and where greater time hath bene vſed, it ſhall be kept ſo ſtill, nor no ſhirife nor his bailif ſhall keep his tourne in the hundreth but twiſe in a yeere. And no where but in due place and accuſtomed, that is to ſaie, once after Eaſter, and againe after Michaelmas. And the view of frankpledge ſhall be likewiſe at the feaſt of Michaelmas without occaſion. So that euerie man maie haue his liberties, which he had or vſed to haue in the time of king Henrie our grandfather, or which he hath purchaſed ſince. The view of frankpledg ſhal be ſo don that our peace may be kept. And that the tithing be wholie kept as it hath bene accuſtomed. And that the ſhirife ſeeke no occaſions, and that he be content with ſo much as the ſhirife was wont to haue for his viewe making in the time of king Henrie our grandfather.

View of frãkpledge.

Cap.36.

It ſhall not be lawfull from henceforth to anie man to giue his landes to anie religious houſe, and to take the ſame land againe to hold of the ſame houſe. Nor it ſhall not be lawfull to anie houſe of religion to take the lands of anie man, and to leaſe the ſame to him of whom he receiued it. If anie man from henceforth giue his lands to anie religious houſe, and thereupon be conuict, the gift ſhall be vtterlie voyd, and the land ſhall returne to the lord of the fee.

Chap. 37. Eſcuage. Eſcuage from henceforth ſhall be taken, like as it was wont to be in the time of king Henrie our grandfather, reſeruing to all archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, templers, hoſpitelers, earles, barons, and all perſons, aſwell ſpirituall as temporall, all their liberties and frée cuſtomes, which they haue had in time paſſed. And all theſe cuſtomes and liberties aforeſaide, which we haue granted to be holden within this our realme as much as apperteineth to vs & our heires, we ſhall obſerue. And all men of this our realme as well ſpirituall as temporall (as much as in them is) ſhall obſerue the ſame againſt all perſons in likewiſe. And for this our gift and grant of theſe liberties and of other conteined in our charter of liberties of our foreſt, the archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, knights, freeholders, & other our ſubiects, haue giuen vnto vs the fiftéenth part of all their moueables: And we haue granted vnto them on the other part, that neither we nor our heires ſhall procure or doe anie thing, whereby the liberties in this charter conteined ſhall be infringed or broken. And if anie thing be procured by anie perſon contrarie to the premiſſes, it ſhall be had of no force nor effect. Theſe being witneſſes, Boniface archbiſhop of Canterburie, and biſhop of London, and other. Giuen at Weſtminſter the tenth daie of Februarie, the ninth yéere of our reigne.

We ratifieng and approuing theſe gifts and graunts aforeſaid confirme and make ſtrong all the ſame for vs and our heires perpetually. And by the tenor of theſe preſents do renew the ſame, willing and granting for vs and our heires, that this charter in all and ſinguler his articles for euermore ſhall be ſtedfaſtlie, firmlie, and inuiolablie obſerued. And if anie article in the ſame charter conteined, yet hitherto peraduenture haue not bene obſerued nor kept, we will and by our authoritie roiall commande from henceforth firmlie they be obſerued. Theſe reuerend fathers being witneſſes. R. Archbiſhop of Canterburie primate of England. A. biſhop of Dureſme, and other. Giuen at Weſtminſter with our owne hande the xxviii. daie of the moneth of March, the xxviii. yéere of our reigne.

Charter of Foreſts.

EDward by the grace of God, king of England, lord of Ireland, and duke of Guyen, to all archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, iuſticers, ſhirifes, prouoſts, miniſters, and to all our bailifes, and faithfull ſubiects, gréeting. We haue ſéene the charter of the lord Henrie our father ſometime king of England, concerning the foreſt in theſe words.

Henrie by the grace of God, king of England, lord of Ireland, duke of Normandie, and of Guyen, &c. as in the beginning of the great charter.

Chap. 1. Foreſtes. FIrſt we will that all foreſtes which king Henrie our grandfather afforeſted and made, ſhall be viewed by good and lawfull men. And if he haue made foreſt of anie other wood more then of his owne demeane whereby the owner of the wood hath hurt, we will that forthwith it be diſaforeſted. And if he haue made foreſt of no mans wood but of his owne, then we will that it remaine foreſt ſtill. Sauing the common of herbage and of other things in the ſame foreſt to them which before were accuſtomed to haue the ſame.

Chap. 2. Iuſticers of foreſtes. Men that dwel out of the foreſt from henceforth ſhal not come before the iuſticers of our foreſt by no common ſummons, vnleſſe they be impleaded there, or be ſuerties for ſome other that were attached for the foreſt.

Chap. 3. Woods. All woods which haue bene made foreſt by king Richard our vncle, or by king Iohn our father vnto our firſt coronation, ſhall be forthwith diſaforeſted, vnleſſe it be our demeane wood.

Chap. 4. Woods. All archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, knights, and other our fréeholders, which haue their woods in foreſts, ſhal haue their woods as they had them at the time of the firſt coronation of K. Henrie our grandfather, ſo that they ſhalbe quit for euermore of all purpreſtures, waſtes, and aſſertes made in thoſe woods after that time vntill the beginning of the ſecond yéere of our coronation & thoſe that from henceforth doe make purpreſture without our ſpeciall licence, or waſte, or aſſart in the ſame, ſhall anſwere vnto vs for the ſame waſtes, purpreſtures & aſſarts.

Chap. 5. Raungers. Our rangers ſhall goe through the foreſt to make raunge, as it hath bene accuſtomed at the time of the firſt coronation of king Henrie our grandfather, and none otherwiſe.

Chap. 6. Lawing of dogges. The inquirie or view for lawing of dogges within our foreſt ſhall be made from henceforth, when the raunge is made, that is to ſaie, euerie thrée yéere, and then it ſhall be done by the viewe and teſtimonie of honeſt men and not otherwiſe. And he whoſe dogge is not lawed and ſo founde ſhall be amercied, and ſhall paie for the ſame thrée ſhillings. And from henceforth no oxe ſhall be taken for lawing of dogges. And ſuch lawing ſhall be done by the aſſiſe commonlie vſed, that is to ſaie that thrée clawes of the forefoote ſhall be cut off by the ſkin. But from henceforth ſuch lawing of dogges ſhall not be done, but in places where it hath bene accuſtomed from the time of the firſt coronation of the foreſaide king Henrie our grandfather.

Chap. 7. Scotall. No foſter or bedill from henceforth ſhall make ſcotall, or gather, garbe of otes, or anie corne, lambe, or pigge, nor ſhall make no gathering, but by the ſight, and vpon the oth of the twelue raungers, when they ſhall make their range. Foreſtes. So manie foreſters ſhall be aſſigned to the kéeping of the foreſts, as reaſonablie ſhall ſéeme ſufficient for the kéeping of the ſame.

Chap. 8. Swanimote. No ſwanimote from henceforth ſhall be kept within this our realme, but thriſe in the yéere. Firſt the fiftéenth daie afore Michaelmas, when that our geſt takers and walkers of our woods come come togither to take ageſtment in our demeane woods, & about the feaſt of S. Martin in winter when that our geſt takers ſhall receiue our pawnage. And to theſe two ſwanimotes ſhall come our foſters, vierders, geſt takers, and none other by diſtreſſe. The third ſwanimote ſhall be kept in the beginning fifteene daies before the feaſt of ſaint John Baptiſt, when that our geſt takers, or walkers doe meete to hunt our deere. And at this ſwanimote ſhall meete our foſters, vierders, and none other by diſtreſſe. Moreouer euerie fortie daies through the yeere our foſters and vierders ſhall meete to ſee the attachments of the foreſt as well for greenehue as for hunting, by the preſentment of our foſters. And afore them ſhall be attached. And the ſaide ſwanimotes ſhall not be kept but within the counties in which they haue beene vſed to be kept.

Chap. 9. Ageſtment Pawnage.

Euerie free man maie take ageſtment in his owne wood within our foreſt at his pleaſure, and ſhall take his pawnage. Alſo we doe grant that euerie free man maie driue his ſwine freelie and without impediment through our demeane woods, for to ageſt them in their owne woods, or elſe where they will. And if their ſwine tarie one night and lie within our foreſt, there ſhall be no occaſion taken thereof, whereby he may leeſe anie of his owne.

Chap. 10 Veniſon.

No man from henceforth ſhall loſe neither life nor member for killing of our deere, but if anie man be taken therewith, and conuict for taking of our veniſon, he ſhall make a greeuous fine, if he haue anie thing whereof: And if he haue nothing to leeſe, he ſhall be impriſoned a yeere and a daie. And after the yeere and daie expired (if he can find ſufficient ſuerties) he ſhall be deliuered. And if not, he ſhall abiure the realme.

Chap. 11 Deere.

Whatſoeuer archbiſhop, biſhop, earle, or baron comming to vs at our commandement, and paſſing by our foreſt, it ſhall be lawfull for him to take and kill one or two of our deere with our foſter, if he be preſent, or elſe he ſhall cauſe one to blowe an horne for him, that he ſeeme not to ſteale our deere. And likewiſe they ſhall do returning home from vs.

Chap. 12 Milles. &c

Euerie free man from henceforth without daunger ſhall make in his owne wood, or in his land, or in his water, which he hath within his forreſt, milles, ſprings, pooles, marſhes, dikes, or earable ground, without incloſing that earable ground, ſo that it be not to the annoiance of his neighbours.

Chap. 13 Haukes. Herons. Honie.

Euerie free man ſhall haue within his owne woods, ayries of haukes, ſparowhaukes, fawcons, eagles, and herons, and ſhall haue alſo the honie that is found within his woods.

Chap. 14 Foſter. Chiminage. Tolle.

No foſter from henceforth, which is not foſter in fee, paieng to vs ferme for his bailiwike, ſhall take anie chiminage or tolle within his bailiwike: But a foſter in fee paieng vs ferme for his bailiwike ſhall take chiminage, that is to ſaie, for carriage by cart, the halfe yeere two pens, and for an other halfe yeere two pens, for an horſe that beareth lodes, euerie halfe yeere an halfe penie. and but of thoſe onlie that come as merchants through his bailiwike by licence to buie buſhes, timber, barke, cole, & to ſell it againe at their pleaſure. But for none other carriage by cart, chiminage or tolle ſhalbe taken. Nor chiminage ſhal not be taken, but in ſuch places only where it hath bene vſed to be. Thoſe which beare vpon their backes bruſhment, barke, or cole, to ſell, though it be their liuing, ſhall paie no chiminage to our foſters except they take it within our demeane woods.

Chap. 15 Treſpaſſe.

All that be outlawed of treſpaſſe within our foreſt, ſince the time of king Henrie our grandfather, vnto the firſt yeere of our coronation, ſhall come to our peace without let, and ſhall finde to vs ſureties, that from henceforth they ſhall not treſpaſſe vnto vs within our foreſt.

Chap. 16 Plea. Foſter.

No conſtable, caſtellaine, or bailife, ſhall hold plea of foreſt neither for greene hue nor hunting, but euerie foſter in fee ſhall make attachments for plea of foreſt, as well for greene hue as hunting, and ſhall preſent them to the vierders of the prouinces. And when they be inrolled and incloſed vnder the ſeales of the vierders, they ſhall be preſented to our cheefe iuſticers of our foreſt, when they ſhall come thither to hold plea of forreſt, and before them they ſhall be determined. And theſe liberties of foreſt we haue granted to all men. Sauing to all archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, knights, and to all other perſons, as well ſpirituall as temporall, templers, hoſpitallers, their liberties and free cuſtomes as well within the foreſt as without, and in warrens, and other places, which they before haue had. All theſe liberties and cuſtomes we, &c. as it followeth in the end of the great Charter. And we do confirme & ratifie theſe gifts, &c. as in the end of the ſaid great Charter is ſpecified, &c.

The ſtatute of Ireland made the xiiii. yeere of king Henrie the third.

HEnrie by the grace of God, king of England, lord of Ireland, duke of Guian & Normandie, earle of Angeo, to his truſtie & well beloued Gerard ſonne of Maurice iuſticer of Ireland, greeting. Where as certeine knights of the parties of Ireland haue latelie informed vs, that when anie land doeth diſcend vnto ſiſters within our dominion of Ireland, the iuſtices errant in thoſe parties are in doubt whether the yonger ſiſters ought to holde of the eldeſt ſiſter, and do homage vnto her or not. And for as much as the ſaide knights haue made inſtance to be certified howe it hath bene vſed heretofore within our realme of Englande in like caſe: at their inſtance we doe you to wit, that ſuch a law and cuſtome is in England in this caſe, that if anie holding of vs in cheefe, happen to die hauing daughters to his heires, our auncetors & we after the death of the father, haue alwaie had and receiued homage of all the daughters, and euerie of them in this caſe did hold of vs in cheefe. And if they happened to be within age, we haue alway had the ward and marriage of them. And if he be tenaunt to an other lord (the ſiſters being within age) the lord ſhall haue the ward and marriage of them all, and the eldeſt onely ſhall doe homage for her ſelfe and all her ſiſters. And when the other ſiſters come to full age, they ſhall do their ſeruice to the lords of the fée by the hands of the eldeſt ſiſter. Yet ſhall not the eldeſt by this occaſion exact of her yonger ſiſters homage ward or any other ſubiection, for when they be all ſiſters and in maner as one heyre to one inheritance, if the eldeſt ſhould haue homage of the other ſiſters, or demaund ward, then the inheritance ſhould ſéeme to be deuided, ſo that the eldeſt ſiſter ſhould be ſegniores and tenant of inheritannce (ſimul & ſemel) that is to ſay, heyre of her owne part and ſegniores to her ſiſters, which could not ſtand well together in this caſe, for the eldeſt can demaund no more than her ſiſters, but the chiefe meaſe by reaſon of her ancientie. Moreouer if the elder ſiſter ſhould take homage of the yonger, ſhe ſhould be as a ſegniores to them all and ſhould haue the ward of them and their heires, which ſhould be none other but to caſt the lambe to the wolfe to be deuoured. And therefore we commaund you, that you cauſe the foreſaid cuſtomes that be vſed within our realme of England in this caſe, to be proclaimed throughout our dominion of Ireland, and to be ſtraitly kept and obſerued. In teſtimonie whereof. &c. I witnes my ſelfe at Weſtminſter, the ix. day of Februarie, the xiiii. yéere of our reigne.

The ſtatutes made at Merton, in the xx. yeere of king Henrie the third.

IT was prouided in the court of our ſoueraigne lord the king, holden at Merton, the morowe after the feaſt of ſaint Vincent, the xx. yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the ſonne of king Iohn, before William archbiſhop of Canterburie, and other his biſhoppes and ſuffragans, and before the greater partie of the earles and barrons of England there being aſſembled for the coronation of the ſaid king and Alianore the quéene, about which they were al called where it was treated for the common welth of the realme, vpon the articles vnder written. Thus it was prouided and graunted as well of the foreſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, earles, and barons, as of the king himſelfe and other.

Chap. 1. Dower. Quarentine. Widowe. FIrſt of widowes which after the death of their huſbands are deforced of their dowers, and may not haue their dowers or quarentine without plea, we wil that whoſoeuer deforce them of their dowers or quarentine in the lands whereof their huſbands died ſeaſed, & that the ſame widowes haue recouered after by plea, they that be conuict of ſuch wrongful deforcement ſhall yéeld damages to the ſame widowes, that is to ſay, the value of the whole dower to them belonging, from the time of the death of their huſbands vnto the daie that the ſaid widowes by iudgement of our court haue recouered ſeaſon of their dowers, and the deforcers neuertheleſſe ſhalbe amerced at the kings pleaſure.

Chap. 2. Widowes. Alſo from henſforth all widowes may bequeath the crop of their ground as well of their dowers, as of other their lands and tenements. Sauing to the lords of the fée all ſuch ſeruices as be due for their dowers and other tenements.

Chap. 3. Diſſeiſin. Alſo if anie be diſſeiſed of their fréehold & before the iuſticers in eyre haue recouered ſeaſin by aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin, or by confeſſion of them which did the diſſeiſin, and the diſſeiſie hath had ſeaſin deliuered by the ſhirife, if the ſame diſſeiſours after the circuite of the iuſticers or in the meane time haue diſſeiſed the ſame plaintife of the ſame fréehold, and thereof be conuict, they ſhalbe forthwith taken and kept in the kings priſon, vntill the king hath diſcharged them by fine, or by ſome other meane. And this is the forme how ſuch conuict perſons ſhalbe puniſhed, when the plaintifes come in to the court, they ſhall haue the kings writte directed to the ſhirife, in which muſt be conteined the plaint of diſſeiſin done vpon diſſeiſin. And then it ſhall be commanded to the ſhirife that he taking with him the kéepers of plées of the kings crowne and other lawfull knights, in his proper perſon, ſhall goe vnto the land or paſture, for which the plaint ratifie and approue hath bene made. And that he make by the firſt iurors and other neighbours and lawfull men diligent inquiſition therof. And if they find him diſſeiſed againe (as before is ſaid) then let him doe according to the prouiſion afore mencioned. And if it be found otherwiſe, the plaintife ſhall be amerced, and the other ſhall go quite, neither ſhall the ſhirife execute anie ſuch plaint without ſpeciall commaundement of the king. In the ſame maner ſhall be done to them that haue recouered their ſeaſin by aſſiſe of mortdauncetor. And ſo ſhall it be of all lands and tenements recouered in the kings court by enqueſts, if they be diſſeiſed after by the firſt deforceors againſt whome they haue recouered anie wiſe by enqueſt.

Chap. 4. Weſt. 2. Cap. 46. Alſo becauſe manie great men of England (which haue infeffed knights and their fréeholders of ſmall tenements in their great maners) haue complained, that they cannot haue profite of the reſidue of their maners as of waſt woods and paſtures, becauſe the ſame feffées ought to haue ſufficient paſture according to their hold. Thus it is prouided and graunted, that when ſo euer ſuch feffées doe bring an aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin for their common of paſture, And it is knowledged before the iuſticers, that they haue as much paſture as ſufficeth to their hold, and that they haue frée egreſſe and regreſſe from their land vnto the paſture: then let them be contented therewith, and they on whome it was complained, ſhall go quite of as much as they haue made their profite of their lands waſte woods and paſtures. And if they alledge that they haue not ſufficient paſture, or ſufficient egreſſe and regreſſe according to their hold, then let the trueth be inquired by aſſiſe. And if it be found by the aſſiſe, that the ſame deforceors haue diſturbed them, of their egreſſe or regreſſe in anie thing, or that they had not ſufficient paſture (as before is ſaid) then ſhall they recouer their ſeaſin by vyen of the inqueſt, ſo that by their diſcretion and othe the plaintifes ſhall haue ſufficient paſture and ſufficient egreſſe and regreſſe in forme aforeſaid. And the diſſeiſours ſhall be amerced, and ſhall yeeld damages as they were wont before this prouiſion. And if it be certified by the aſſiſe, that the plaintifs haue ſufficient paſture with free egreſſe and regreſſe, as before is ſaid, let the other make their profite or approuement of the reſidue and go quite of that aſſiſe. Aſſiſe.

Chap. 5 Vſurie.

Likewiſe it is prouided and graunted by the king, that from henſforth vſuries ſhall not turne againſt anie being within age from the time of the death of his anceſtor (whoſe heire he is) vnto his lawfull age. So neuertheleſſe that the paiment of the principall det, with the vſurie that was before the death of his anceſtor (whoſe heire he is) ſhall not remaine.

Chap. 6 1. Weſt. Cap. 22. Weſt. 2. Cap 35. Ward. Marriage

Of heires that be led awaie withholden or maried by their friends or by other with force againſt our peace, Thus it is prouided, that whatſoeuer laie man be conuict therof that he hath ſo withholden anie child led awaie or maried, he ſhall yeeld to the loſer the value of the mariage. And for the offence his bodie ſhall be taken and impriſoned, vntill he haue recompenſed the loſer, if the child be maried, and further vntill he hath ſatiſfied the king for the treſpaſſe. And this muſt be done, the heire being within the age of fourteene yeeres. And touching an heyre being fourteene yeeres olds, or aboue vnto his full age if he marie without the licence of his lord to defraude him of the marriage, and his lord offer him reaſonable and conuenient marriage (without diſperagement) then his lord ſhall hold his land beyond the terme of his age, that is to ſay, xxi. yeeres, ſo long that he maie receiue the double value of the marriage after the eſtimation of lawfull men, or after as it hath ben offered him before without fraude and colluſion, and after as it maie be proued in the kings court. And as touching lords which marrie thoſe that they haue in ward to villaines or other, as burgeſſes where they be diſperaged, if ſuch an heire be within the age of fourteene yeeres, and of ſuch age that he can not conſent to marriage: than if his friends complaine thereof, the lord ſhall loſe the wardſhip, vnto the age of the heire. And all the profite that thereof ſhall be taken, ſhall be conuerted to the vſe of the heire being within age, after the diſcretion and prouiſion of his friends for the ſhame done to him, but if he be fourteene yeeres and aboue, ſo that hee maie conſent, and do conſent to ſuch marriage, no peine ſhall followe. Diſperagement.

Chap. 7 Heire.

If anie heire (of what age ſo euer he be) will not marrie at the requeſt of his lord, he ſhall not be compelled therto, but when he commeth to full age, he ſhall giue to his lord and paie him as much as anie would haue giuen him for the marriage before the receite of his lande, and that whether he will marrie him ſelfe or not, for the marriage of him that is within age of mere right perteineth to the lord of the fee.

Chap. 8. Weſt. 1. Cap. 38. Diſcent.

Touching conueiance of diſcent in a writte of right from any aunceſtour, from the time of king Henrie the elder, the yere and day. It is prouided, that from henſforth there be no mention made of ſo long time, but from the time of king Henrie our graundfather. And this act ſhal take effect at Penthecoſt, the xxi. yere of our reigne, and not afore. And the writtes before purchaſed ſhall proceede writtes of Mortdancetour, of Natiuis and of entre, ſhal not paſſe the laſt retorne of king Iohn, from Irelande into Englande. And this act ſhall take effect as before is declared, writtes of nouel diſſeiſin ſhall not paſſe the firſt voiage of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is into Gaſcoyne. And this prouiſion ſhal take his effect from the time aforeſaid, and all writs purchaſed before ſhall proceede.

Chap. 9 Baſtardie.

To the kinges writ of baſterdie, whether one being borne afore matrimonie, may inherite in like maner as he that is borne after matrimonie, all the biſhops anſwered, that they would not, nor could not aunſwere to it, becauſe it was directly againſt the common order of the church. And all the biſhops inſtanted the lordes, that they would conſent, that all ſuch as were borne afore matrimonie, ſhould be legittimate, as wel as they that be borne within matrimonie, as to the ſucceſſion of inheritance, for ſo much as the church accepteth ſuch for legittimate. And all the Erles and Barons with one voice anſwered, that they would not change the lawes of the realme which hitherto haue beene vſed and approued.

Chap. 10 Attourney

Moreouer it is prouided that euerie freeman, which oweth ſuite to the countie, tything, hundred, and wapentake, or to the court of his lorde, may freely make his attourney to do thoſe ſuits for him.

Chap. 11 Parkes.

Concerning treſpaſſers in parkes and pondes, it is not yet diſcuſſed: for the lords demaunded the proper impriſonment of ſuch as they ſhould take in their parks and ponds, which the king denied wherefore it was deferred.

A Statute of the Leape yeare made the xxi. yere of king Henrie the third.

The king vnto his Iuſtices of the bench, greeting. Know ye that where within our realme of England, it was doubted of the yere & day that were wont to be aſſigned vnto ſicke perſons being impleaded, when and from what day of the yere going before vnto another day of the yere folowing, the yere and day in a leape yere ought to be taken and reckoned howe long it was, Wee therefore willing that a conformitie be obſerued in this behalfe euerie where within our realme, and to auoide all danger from ſuch as be in plea, haue prouided and by the counſell of our faithfull ſubiects haue ordeined, that to eſchewe from henceforth all doubt and ambiguitie that might ariſe hereupon, the daie increaſing in the leape yeere ſhall be accompted for one yeere, ſo that becauſe of that daie none ſhall be preiudiced that is impleaded, but it ſhall be taken and reckened of the ſame moneth wherein it groweth, and that daie and the daie next going before ſhalbe accounted for one daie. And therefore we command you that from henceforth you doe cauſe this to be publiſhed afore, you and to be obſerued. Witneſſe my ſelfe at Weſtminſter, &c.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of bread and ale made the LI. yeere of king Henrie the third.

WHen a quarter of wheate is ſolde for xij.d. then waſtell bread of a farthing ſhall waie, vi.li. and xvi.s. Bread coket of a farthing of the ſame corne and bultell, ſhall waie more than waſtell by ii.s. Coket bread made of corne that is of leſſe price, ſhall waie more then waſtell by v.s. A ſimnell of a farthing ſhall waie ii.s. leſſe then waſtell. Bread made of the whole wheat ſhall waie a coket and an halfe, ſo that a coket ſhal waie more then a waſtell by v.s. Bread of trete ſhall waie ii. waſtels. Bread of common wheate ſhall waie two great cokets. When a quarter of wheate is ſolde for xviii.d. then a waſtell loſe of a farthing ſhall waie, iiii.li.x.s.viii.d. When a quarter of wheate is ſold for ii.s. then a waſtell loſe of a farthing ſhall waie iii.li.viii.s.

when it is ſold for ii.s.vi.d.	liiii.s.iiii.d.ob.q.	when for vii.s.vi.d.	xviii.s.i.d.ob.
when for iii.s.	xlviii.s.	when for viii.s.	xvii.s.
when for iii.s.vi.	xlii.s.	when for viii.s.vi.d.	xvi.s.
when for iiii.s.	xxxvi.s.	when for ix.s.	xv.s.q.
when for iiii.s.vi.d.	xxx.s.	when for ix.s.vi.d.	xiiii.s. iiii.d.ob.q.
when for v.s.	xxviii.s.ii.d.ob.	when for x.s.	xiii.s. vii.d.ob.
when for v.s.vi.d.	xxiiii.s. viii.d.q.	when for x.s.vi.d.	xii.s.xi.d.q.
when for vi.s.	xxii.s.viii.d.	when for xi.s.	xii.s.iiii.d.q.
when for vi.s.vi.d.	xix.s.xi.d.	when for xi.s.vi.d.	xi.s.x.d.
when for vii.s.	xix.s.i.d.	when for xii.s.	xi.s.iiii.d.

Baker.

Bruer.

And then a baker of euerie quarter of wheate (as it hath bene proued by the kings bakers) maie gaine iiii.d. and the bran, and ii. loues for aduantage, for thrée ſeruants.i.d.ob. for two lads.ob. in ſalt.ob. for kneading.ob. for candell.q. for wood.ii.d. for his bultell.ob. when a quarter of wheate is ſold for iii.s. or iii. and iiii.d. And a quarter of barlie at the price of xx.d. or. ii.s. And a quarter of otes at xvi.d. then brewers in cities ought and maie well aforde and ſell.ii. gallons for i.d. And out of cities they maie ſell iii. or iiii. gallons for i.d.

Here beginneth a ſtatute concerning generall daies in the bench, made the li. yeere of king Henrie the third.

Daies in banke.

IF a writ come within the vtas of ſaint Michael, a daie ſhall be giuen thereupon vnto the vtas of ſaint Hillarie, & if it come in the quinzime of ſaint Michael, daie ſhall be giuen vnto the quinzime of ſaint Hillarie. If it come in the iii. wéekes after ſaint Michael the daie ſhall be craſtino purificationis. If within a moneth after Michaelmas, in the vtas of the purification. If in craſtino animarum, then in the quinzime of Eaſter. If in craſtino Martini, then in the thrée wéekes after Eaſter. If in the vtas of ſaint Martine, then in Eaſter moneth. If in the quinzime of ſaint Martine, then within fiue wéekes after Eaſter, & alſo there is a day ſpecially giuen in craſtino aſcenſionis, and it counteruaileth as much as within v. wéekes after Eaſter. If in the vtas of ſaint Hillarie, in the vtas of the Trinitie. If in quindenaHillarii, then in quindena Trinitatis, & ſometime in craſtino of S. Iohn Baptiſt. If in craſtino purificationis, then in craſtino and vtas of S. Iohn Baptiſt. If in the vtas of the purification, then in quindena of Iohn Baptiſt. If in quindena paſche, then in the vtas of S. Michael. If within thrée wéekes after Eaſter, then in quindena of S. Michaell. If within Eaſter moneth, then within thrée wéekes of the feaſt of ſaint Michaell. If within fiue wéekes after Eaſter, or in craſtino aſcenſionis, then within a moneth after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell. If in the vtas of the Trinitie, then in craſtino animarum. If in quindena Trinitatis, or in craſtino of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, then in craſtino Martini. If in the vtas of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, then in the vtas of ſaint Martine. If in quindena of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, then daie ſhall be giuen vnto quindena Martini.

A ſtatute of daies generall in a writ of dower made in the LI. yeere of King Henrie the third.

Daies in a writ of dower.

IF the writ do come in octabis Michaelis, day ſhalbe giuen vntill craſtino animarum. If it come in quindena Michaelis, day ſhalbe giuen vntill the craſtino Martini. If in menſe Michaelis, then in quindena Martini. If in craſtino animarum, then in octauis Hillarii. If in craſtino Martini, then in quindena Hillarii. If in octauis Martini, then in craſtino purificationis. If in quindena Martini, then in octauis purificationis. If in octauis Hillarii. then in 15. paſche. If in quindena Hillarii, then in tribus ſeptimanis paſche. If in craſtino purificationis, then in menſe paſche. If in octauis purificationis, then in craſtino aſcenſionis. If in quindena paſche, then in octauis Trinitatis. If in tribus ſeptimanis paſche, then in quindena Trinitatis. If in menſe Paſche, then in craſtino Iohan. Bap. If in quinque ſeptimanis paſche, then in octauis Iohannis. If in craſtino aſcenſionis, then in quindena Iohannis. If in octauis Trinitatis, then in octauis Michaelis. If in quindena Trinitatis, then in quindena Michaelis. If in craſtino Iohannis Baptiſte, then in tribus ſeptimanis Michaelis. If in octanis Iohannis Baptiſte, then in menſe Michaelis. If in quindena Iohannis Baptiſte, then in craſtino animarum.

The ſtatute of diſtreſſes of the Eſchequer, made in the LI. yeere of king Henrie the third.

Diſtreſſe.

For as much as the communaltie of the realme hath ſuſteined great loſſe and dammage by wrongfull taking of diſtreſſes, which haue bene made by ſhirifes & by other the kings bailifes for the kings debt, or for anie other cauſe. It is therefore prouided and ordeined, that when a ſhirife or anie other man doeth take the beaſtes of other, they to whom the beaſts do belong maie giue them their féeding without diſturbance (ſo long as they be impounded) without giuing anie thing for their kéeping. And that the beaſtes nor no other diſtreſſe taken for the kings debt, nor for anie other cauſe, be giuen ne ſold within fiftéene daies after the taking, and if anie bring a taile of a paiement made in the eſchequer, the diſtreſſe ſhall ſeaſe. And if he bring the tale of anie ſhirife or bailife, of paiement made to them of the thing demaunded, and will finde pleadges that he appeare in the eſchequer, vpon the next accompt to do as right ſhall require, then the diſtreſſe ſhall ſeaſe. And the ſhiriffe or bailiffe ſhall cauſe him to be attached that ought to haue acquitted him, that he appeare vpon the ſame accompt to do as right ſhall require, and there ſhall haue the names of the pledges. Yet it is prouided that no man of religion, nor other, ſhall be diſtreined by his beaſtes that gaine his lande, nor by his ſhéepe for the kings debt, nor for anie other man, but vntill they can, finde an other diſtreſſe or cattels ſufficient, whereof they maie leuie the debt or that is ſufficient for the demaunde, except impounding of beaſtes that a man findeth in his grounde dammage feſaunt after the vſe and cuſtome of the realme, and that ſuch diſtreſſes be reaſonable after the value of the debt or demaund, and after conuenient eſtimation and not outragious, howe be it the king willeth and commaundeth that ſhiriffes or their bailiffes that haue receiued the kings debt, of the ſummes of the eſchequer and haue not acquited the debtors thereof, at the next accompt ſhall be puniſhed after the ſtatutes made thereupon, & the king willeth that all debts of ſummons of the eſchequer that the ſhiriffe or baieliffe confeſſeth, receite ſhall be allowed him forthwith: ſo that whether he receiued all the debt or part, it ſhall neuer come more in demaund nor ſummons after the ſheriffe hath confeſſed the paiment.

A ſtatute for the Eſchequer.

The king commaundeth that all maner of bailiffes ſhiriffes and other officers, as well the iuſtices of Cheſter and other bailiffes of theſe counties, as other that be receiuers of wardes, of eſchetes, and other bailiwikes, ſhall be anſwerable in the eſchequer, and there ſhall make account to the treaſuror and barons of the ſame place. And that all ſhiriffes, farmours, bailiffes of fraunchiſes and other ſhall come to the profit in the eſchequer the mundaie after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell, and the mundaie after the vtas of Eaſter, for to paie their farmes, rentes, and iſſues belonging to the king. And ſhall bring at the foreſaide termes, the foreſaide farmes, rentes and iſſues due wholie into the eſchequer as before is mentioned. And if they make defaulte, their bodies ſhall remaine without departing from thence vntill they haue paide or made agréement. And he that will not come at the termes aforeſaid, ſhall be amerced after the cuſtome of the eſchequer, and the ſhiriffes and bailiffes at the ſame termes ſhall bring and paie ſuch monie as they haue receiued of the ſummons of the eſchequer and other the kings debts, and ſhall be prepared and ready to make full account of the things aforeſaide. And that all bailiffes of franchiſes which ought to leuie the kings debts, and be anſwerable to the ſhiriffes thereof, ſhall come and account ſufficientlie according to the extreates of the ſummons of the eſchequer. And ſuch as do not, their bodies ſhall remaine in warde of the ſherifs, and for default of them, the ſhirife ſhall cauſe the debts to be leuied by their owne bailiffes where they haue power as they haue vſed to doe in time paſſed. And if the bailiffes doe not come in at the daie that the ſhiriffe ſhall giue them knowledge, the ſhirife ſhall enter into the ſame franchiſes and leuie the debts with his owne hand. Concerning iuſtices of Cheſter and bailiffes thereof, the king willeth, that they or one of them ſhall come at the profer of ſaint Michaell euerie yéere when they ought to giue account vnto the king, and at the profer of the vtas of Eaſter they ſhall come likewiſe, and bring in that that they owe to the king for that terme, and the iuſtices of Cheſter ſhall haue daie to account from yéere to yéere in quindena Paſche, and the bailiffes thereof the mundaie of Eaſter vtas. And that all ſhiriffes of England except the ſhiriffes of Weſtmerland, Lancaſter, Worceſter, Rutland, and Cornewall, ſhall from henceforth kéepe al ſuch wards & eſchetes as belong to the king (which be within their ſhires and doe not holde of other fées) of the iſſues whereof they ſhall be anſwerable in the eſchequer at the termes aforeſaid. And at their turnes that they make in their ſhires, they ſhall finde office of ſuch things as the kings eſchetors haue not vſed to finde of that that belongeth to the king, once or twiſe in the yéere to as little greeuance of the people as they can. And the ſhiriffes ſhall ſeiſe the eſchetes that fall to remaine vnto the king in fee, and ſhall certifie the king of them without delaie. And the king ſhall aſſigne thrée able perſons, that ſhall goe through out the realme to ſuruey and finde the wardes and eſchetes aforeſaide, from yeere to yeere when they ſhall thinke requiſite. And the ſhiriffes by their counſell ſhall approue and let to ferme, or otherwiſe, ſuch wardes and eſchetes as they ſhall thinke moſt for the kings aduantage. Touching the fiue ſhires before named, the king will, that the ſhiriffe of Cumberland ſhall execute the office of the eſchetor in the ſhiers of Weſtmerland and Lancaſter. And the ſhiriffe of Nothingham in Rutlande. And the ſhiriffe of Glouceſter in Worceſtre. And the ſhiriffe of Deuonſhire in Cornewall, and ſhall ſafelie kéepe the king his wardes and eſchetes in the ſame ſhires and ſhall be anſwerable in the eſchequer for the iſſues of them as well as for their owne ſhires. And the thrée perſons aforeſaide ſhall ſuruey and extende ſuch wardes and eſchetes as well there as in other places, and ſhall be approoued by their counſell. And when the ſhiriffes do account, they ſhall account for ſuch wardes and eſchetes. And in like maner ſhall the iuſtices of Cheſter do, and their bailiffes alſo euerie one for his baieliwike. And the ſaid thrée perſons ſhall kéepe the kings demeanes, and ſhall approue them as they ſhall thinke beſt for the kings aduantage and ſhall be anſwerable for the iſſues: and they ſhal haue power to let forth ſmal manors or demeanes to folke of the ſame places, or to other according to their diſcretion, and ſhall let them to ferme from yéere to yéere as they ſhall thinke moſt to the kings profit. And the fermors ſhall be chargeable for their fermes vnto the principall approouers, and they vnto the eſchequer the mundaie next after the Aſcention from yéere to yéere. And the principall collectors of the cuſtome of wolles, at the two termes before mencioned, ſhall paie all ſuch monie as they haue receiued of the ſaide cuſtome and ſhall make accompt from yéere to yéere clearelie of all parcels receiued in anie of the portes or other places of the realme, ſo that they ſhall anſwere for euerie ſhip where it was charged, and how much it caried, and whoſe the wolles were, and for euerie other charge, in the ſhip, whereof cuſtome is due, and for the whole receite.

And the wardeine of the kings wardrobe ſhall make account yéerelie in the eſchequer in the feaſt of ſaint Margaret, and the treaſuror and barons ſhall be charged by othe, that they ſhall not attend to heare the pleas or matters of other men whiles they haue to doe with the kings owne debt. And when a ſhiriffe or bailiffe hath begun his account, none other ſhall be receiued to account, vntill he that was firſt appointed hath clearelie accounted: and his monie receiued: and that the conſtable, marſhall, chamberlaine, and other that are of fee in the eſchequer, from henceforth ſhall preſent vnto the king ſuch as they haue put in their places to do their offices, which muſt be of good fame, and ſufficient, for whoſe acts them ſelues will anſwere. And the king commandeth the treaſurer and barons of the eſchequer vpon their allegeance, and by the othe that they haue made to him, that they ſhall not aſſigne anie in their roumes, but ſuch as this act meaneth of, and that the eſchequer be not charged with moe perſons then is neceſſarie. And that none of them that be ſworne to the king ſhall put in his roome any other clerke or laie perſon except he be ſworne without ſpeciall licence of the treaſurer, and if anie be, he ſhalbe forthwith remooued from his office, And none other ſhall be receiued in his ſtead without the kings licence. And if anie that is receiued without the treaſurers licence, doe treſpaſſe afterwarde, puniſhment ſhall be done aſwell to the aſſignor as to him that is aſſigned according to the treſpaſſe. And if both be vnſufficient thir ſuperior ſhall be puniſhed, whether he be officer of fée or other. And the treaſurer ſhal put no other in his roume, vntill he hath commandement from the king. And if he that kéepeth the rome of an other by licence of the treaſurer, doth anie thing that he ought not to doe, he ſhall be puniſhed according to the treſpaſſe, if he haue whereof, and if he haue not, he that put him in office ſhall be charged for his treſpas, and if he that put him in office bee not ſufficient, his ſuperior ſhall be charged whether he be of fée or otherwiſe.

And they of the woolſtaple ſhall make othe, that if anie of them maie perceiue that another doth commit anie offence, or other thing diſhoneſt in the office of the woolſtaple, or that he hath done before, that they ſhall certifie it to the treſurer or to the barons, or to ſome of them, or to the king him ſelfe if néede require. And that about the feaſt of ſaint Margaret, before that the eſchequer be cloſed, thy ſhall cauſe a ſearch to be made whether anie ſhiriffe or bailiffe, that ought to haue accounted the ſame yeere, haue not, and thereupon a remembrance as a rolle ſhall be made by it ſelfe. And if it be a ſhiriffe his account ſhall be firſt heard after Michaelmas, before that anie other be receiued to account. And if he be a bailiffe, he ſhall be ſommoned or diſtreined to come to a certeine daie for to account, ſo that no account ſhall be ſuffered to ſléepe. And for as much as ſhiriffes, conſtables, and other, obteine manie times outragious allowances, by pretence of the kings workes, and other things done and prouided by his commandement: It is prouided that all ſurueiors of the kings workes ſhall be choſen by the othe of twelue men, and of ſuch as will and maie attende beſt to that office. And that they be ſufficient to anſwere the king if néede be, and ſhall ſweare, that they bare true and lawfull witneſſe. And if the treaſurer or barons of the eſchequer haue anie ſuſpicion of ſale, allowances of charges or other things, the truth muſt bée inquired, and he that is attainted ſhall anſwere to the king for as much as the allowance amounteth vnto, and ſhall bee impriſoned one yeere and fortie daies, and ſhall be puniſhed at the kings pleaſure. And the ſurueiors ſhall be puniſhed for their conſent: And likewiſe, he that vpon the account did conceale and kéepe ſecrete ſuch things, whereof he ought to haue charged him ſelfe, ſhal be puniſhed in likewiſe, as he that admitted ſuch falſe alowances. And that the iuſticers, commiſſioners, & other ſhall from henceforth deliuer into the eſchequer, at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell from yere to yere, the extreates of fines and amercements made and taxed before them, and of all thinges, wherefore thextreates are wont to be deliuered there. And they of the eſchequer ſhall make extreates of the ſommons through all ſhires, ſauing that the extreates in eire of all pleas ſhall be deliuered immediatlie after the eire made.

Extreates.

A ſtatute of pillorie, made the Li. yeare of king Henrie the third.

If a baker or a bruer be conuict, becauſe he hath not obſerued the aſſiſe of bread and ale, the firſt ſecond & third time he ſhall be amerced according to his offence, if it be not ouer gréeuous but if the offence be gréeuous & often, & be not amended, then he ſhall ſuffer puniſhment of the bodie, that is to wit, a baker to the pillorie, & a bruer to the tumbrell, or ſome other correction. Firſt ſix lawfull men ſhall be ſworne truelie to gather all meaſures of the towne, that is to wit, buſhels, halfe and quarter buſhels, galons, pottels & quartes, as well of tauernes as of other places. Meaſures & weightes, that is to wit, pounds, halfe pounds, & other little weightes, wherewith bread of the towne or of the court is waied, that is to ſaie, one loſe of euerie ſort of bread. And vpon euerie meaſure, buſhell, weight, and alſo vpon euerie loſe the name of the owner ſhall be written. And likewiſe they ſhall gather the meaſures of milles. After which thing doone, twelue lawfull men ſhall ſwere to make true aunſwere to all ſuch thinges as ſhall be demaunded of them in the kings behalfe vpon articles here folowing, and ſuch thinges as be ſecrete, they ſhall vtter ſecretlie. And the bailiffe ſhall be commaunded to bring in all the bakers and bruers with their meaſures, and all thinges vnderwritten. Firſt they ſhall inquire the price of wheate, that is to wit, how a quarter of the beſt wheate was ſolde the laſt market daie, and how the ſecond wheate, and how the thirde: and how a quarter of barley and otes. Afterward how the bakers bread in the court doth agrée, that is to wit, waſtell and other bread after wheate of the beſt, or of the ſecond, or of the third price. Alſo vpon how much encreaſe or decreaſe in the price of wheate, a baker ought to change the aſſiſe and weight of his bread. Alſo how much the waſtell ought to waie, and all other maner of bread after the price of a quarter of wheate that they preſent. Alſo for default in the weight of the bread, a baker ought to be amerced, or to be iudged vnto the pillorie according to the law and cuſtome of the court. Alſo if anie ſteward or bailiffe for anie bribe doth releaſe puniſhment of the pillorie and tumbrell, being all readie iudged, or to be iudged of right. Alſo if they haue in the towne a pillorie of conuenient ſtrength, as apperteineth to the libertie of their market, which they may vſe (if néede be) without bodilie perill either of man or woman. Afterward they ſhall enquire of the aſſiſe and price of wine after the departure of the iuſtices in eyre, or of them that were laſt in office of the market of the towne, that is to ſaie of the vintenars names, and how they ſell a galon of wine. And if anie corrupted wine be in the towne, or ſuch as is not holſome for mans bodie. Alſo of the aſſiſe of ale in the court of the towne how it is, and whether it be obſerued, and if not, how much bruers haue ſold contrarie to the aſſiſe, and they ſhall preſent their names diſtinctlie and openlie, and that they be amerced for euerie default, or to be iudged to the tumbrell, if they ſell contrarie to the aſſiſe. Alſo if there be anie that ſell by one meaſure, and buie by an other. Alſo, if anie doo vſe falſe elles, weights or meaſures. Alſo if anie boucher doo ſell contageous fleſh, or that died of the murren. Alſo they ſhall enquire of cookes that ſéethe fleſh or fiſh with bread or water, or anie otherwiſe that is not holſome for mans bodie, or after that they haue kept it ſo long that it léeſeth his naturall holſomneſſe, and then ſéeth it againe and ſell it. Alſo of foreſtallers, that buie anie thing afore the due & accuſtomed houre againſt the good ſtate and weale of the towne and market, or that paſſe out of the towne to méete ſuch thinges as come to the market, being out of the towne, to the intent that they may ſell the ſame in the towne more déere vnto regratours that vtter it more déere then they would that brought it, in caſe they had come to the towne or market. When a quarter of barleie is ſold for ii. s. then iiii. quartes of ale ſhall be ſold for i. d. when for ii. s. vi. d. then vii. quarts of ale ſhall be ſold for ii. d. when for iii. s. then iii. quartes for i. d. when for iii. s. vi. d. then v. quartes for ii. d. when it is ſold at iiii. s. then ii. quartes at i. d. And ſo from henceforth the prices ſhall increaſe and decreaſe after the rate of vi. d.

The ſtatutes of Marlebridge or Malebrough, in the Lii. yeere of king Henrie the third.

The yéere of grace. M.cclxvii. the lii. yéere of the reigne of king Henrie, ſonne of King Iohn, in the vtas of ſaint Martine for the better eſtate of this realme of England, and for the more ſpéedie miniſtration of iuſtice, as belongeth to the office of a king, the more diſcrete men of the realme being called togither, as well of the higher as of the lower eſtate. It was prouided, agreed, & ordeined, that where as the realm of England of late had bene diſquieted with manifolde troubles and diſſentions, for reformation whereof ſtatutes and lawes be right neceſſarie, whereby the peace and tranquillitie of the people muſt be obſerued, wherein the king entending to deuiſe conuenient remedie, hath made theſe acts, ordinances and ſtatutes vnder written, which he willeth to be obſerued for euermore, firmelie and inuiolablie of all his ſubiects as well high as lowe.

Chap. 1 WHere as at the time of a commotion late ſtirred vp within this realme, and alſo ſithence manie great men, and diuerſe other refuſing to be iuſtified by the king & his court, like as they ought and were woont in the time of the kings noble progenitors, and alſo in his time, but toke great puniſhments and diſtreſſes of their neighbors and of other, vntill they had amends and fines at their own pleaſure. And further, ſome of them would not be iuſtified by the kings officers, nor would not ſuffer them to make deliuerie of ſuch diſtreſſes as they had taken of their owne authoritie: It is prouided, agreed and granted: that all perſons, as well of high as of lowe eſtate, ſhall receiue iuſtice in the kings court. And none from hence forth ſhall take anie ſuch diſtreſſe of his owne authoritie, without award of our court, though he haue dammage or iniurie, whereby he ought to haue amendes of his neighbor other higher or lower. And vpon the foreſaide article it is prouided and graunted, that if anie from henceforth take ſuch diſtreſſes of his owne authoritie, without award of our court (as before is ſaid) and be conuict thereof, he ſhall be puniſhed by fine, and that according to the treſpaſſe. And likewiſe if one neighbour take a diſtreſſe of another without award of our court, whereby he hath dammage, he ſhall be puniſhed in the ſame wiſe and that after the quantitie of the treſpaſſe. And neuertheleſſe ſufficient and full amendes ſhall be made to them that haue ſuſteined loſſe by ſuch diſtreſſes.

Diſtreſſe.

Chap. 2 Moreouer none (of what eſtate ſo euer he be) ſhal diſtreine any to come to his court, which is not of his fee, or vpon whom he hath no iuriſdiction by reaſon of hundred or bailiwike, nor ſhal take no diſtreſſes out of the fee or place, where he hath no bailiwike nor iuriſdiction. And he that offendeth againſt this ſtatute, ſhal be puniſhed in like maner, & that according to the quantity of the treſpas.

Diſtreſſe.

Chap. 3 If anie of what eſtate ſoeuer he be, will not ſuffer ſuch diſtreſſes as he hath taken, to be deliuered by the kings officers, after the law & cuſtome of the realme, or wil not ſuffer ſummons, attachments, or executions of iudgementes giuen in the kings court to be done, he ſhall be puniſhed in maner aforeſaide, as one that will not obey the lawe. And if anie, of what eſtate ſoeuer he be, diſtreine his tenant for ſeruices and cuſtomes, being due vnto him, or for anie other thing, whereby the lord of the fee hath cauſe to diſtreine, and after it is found, that the ſame ſeruices are not due, the lord ſhal not therfore be puniſhed by fine, as in the caſes aforeſaid (if he do ſuffer the diſtreſſes to be deliuered according to the law and cuſtome of the realme,) but ſhall be amerced as hitherto hath bene vſed, and the tenant ſhall recouer his dammages againſt him.

Diſtreſſe.

Chap. 4 None from henceforth ſhall cauſe anie diſtreſſe that he hath taken, to be driuen out of the countie where it was taken: And if one neighbour do ſo to an other of his owne authority and without iudgement, he ſhall make fine (as aboue is ſaid) as for a thing done againſt the peace. Neuertheleſſe if the lorde preſume ſo to do againſt his tenant, he ſhall be greeuouſlie puniſhed by amerciament. Moreouer the diſtreſſes ſhall be reaſonable, and not too great. And he that taketh great and vnreaſonable diſtreſſes, ſhall be greeuouſlie amerced for the exceſſe of ſuch diſtreſſes.

Diſtreſſe

Chap. 5 The great charter ſhall be obſerued in all his articles, as well in ſuch as perteine to the king, as to other, and that ſhal be enquired afore the iuſticers in eyre in their circuites, and afore the ſhiriffes in their counties, when neede ſhall be. And writs ſhall be freelie granted againſt them that do offende, before the king, or the iuſticers of the bench, or before iuſticers in eyre when they come into thoſe parts. Likewiſe the charter of foreſts ſhall be obſerued in all his articles, and the offendors, when they be conuict, ſhall be greeuouſlie puniſhed by our ſoueraigne lord the king in forme aboue mentioned.

Charter.

Chap. 6 As touching them that vſe to infeffe their eldeſt ſonnes and heires, being within age, of their heritage, for to defraude the lords of the fee of their wardſhips: It is prouided and agreed, that by occaſion of anie ſuch feoffement no cheefe lorde ſhall leeſe his warde. Moreouer touching them that feine falſe feoffementes of their landes which they will leaſſe for tearme of yeeres for to defraud the cheefe lords of their wardes, wherein it is conteined, that they are ſatiſfied of the whole ſeruice due vnto them, vntill a certeine terme: ſo that ſuch feffees are bound at the ſaid terme to paie a certeine ſumme to the value of the ſame landes or farre aboue, ſo that after ſuch terme, the land ſhall returne to them or to their heires, becauſe no man will be content to hold it vpon the price: It is prouided and agreed, that by ſuch fraud no cheefe lord ſhall leeſe his ward, neuertheleſſe it ſhall not be lawfull to them to diſſeiſſe ſuch feffees, without iudgement, but they ſhall haue a writ, for to haue ſuch a ward reſtored vnto them, and by the witneſſes conteined in the deede of feoffement, with other free and lawfull men of the countrie, and by the value of the land, and by the quantitie of the ſumme paiable after the terme, it ſhall be tried, whether ſuch feoffementes were made vpon verie confidence or by colluſion to defraude the cheefe lords of the fee of their wardes. And if the cheefe lordes in ſuch caſes recouer their wardes by iudgement, the feffees ſhall neuertheleſſe haue their action to recouer ſuch terme or fee (which they had therein) when the heires come to their lawful age. And if anie chiefe lords do maliciouſlie implead ſuch feffees, feigning this caſe, namelie where the feoffements were made lawfullie, and vpon verie truſt, then the feffees ſhall haue their dammages awarded and their coſtes, which they haue ſuſteined by occaſion of the foreſaid plea, and the plaintiffes ſhall be greeuouſlie puniſhed by amerciament.

Feoffement.

In

Chap.7. Sorten

In a common plea of ward, if the deforceours come not at the great diſtres, then the ſaid writ ſhal be renewed twiſe or thriſe at ſuch termes as it may be done within the halfe yéere following, ſo that euerie time the writ ſhall be red in the open countie (if the deforceour be not found before) and there openlie be proclaimed, that he maie come at the daie limitted: ſo that if he abſent himſelfe then, and come not to anſwere within the ſaide halfe yéere, nor the ſhiriffe can not get his bodie, to haue it before our iuſticers, to anſwere according to the law and cuſtome of the realme: then as a rebell & ſuch one as will not be iuſtified, he ſhall léeſe the ſeiſon of the ward: ſauing to him his action at an other time, if he haue anie right to the ſame. But in ſuch caſes, where the wardſhips belong to the kéepers of wardes, being within age, and where the kéepers demaund a wardſhippe, which belongeth to the heire, or as apperteining to their inheritance: ſuch heires within age ſhall not léeſe their inheritance by the negligence or rebellion of their kéepers, as in the caſe afore rehearſed, but let the common law runne in like maner as it hath bene accuſtomed to doe.

Chap.8. Shiriffe. Impriſonment.

They which be taken and impriſoned for rediſſeſin, ſhall not be deliuered without ſpeciall commandement of the king, and ſhall make fine with the king for their treſpaſſe. And if it be found, that the ſhiriffe deliuereth anie contrarie to this ordinance, he ſhall be gréeuouſlie amerced therefore. And neuertheleſſe they which are ſo deliuered by the ſhiriffe without the kings commandement, ſhall be gréeuouſlie puniſhed for their treſpaſſe.

Cap.9. Merton. Cap.3. Weſt.1. Cap.26. Suite.

For doing ſuites vnto the courts of great lords, or of meaner perſons, from henceforth this order ſhall be obſerued, that none that is infeffed by déede, from henceforth ſhall be diſtreined to doe ſuch ſuite in the court of his lorde, without he be ſpeciallie bound thereto by the forme of his déede. Theſe onelie being except, whoſe ancetors, or they themſelues, haue vſed to doe ſuch ſuite before the firſt voiage of the ſaid king Henrie into Britaine, ſithens which xxxix. yéeres, and an halfe are paſſed vnto the time that theſe ſtatutes were enacted. Likewiſe from henceforth none that is infeffed without déede, from the time of the conqueſt, or anie other auncient feffement ſhall bee diſtreined to doe ſuch ſuites, vnleſſe that hee or his auncetors vſed to do it before the ſaid voiage. And they that are infeffed by déede to do a certeine ſeruice, as for ſeruice of ſo manie ſhillings by yéere, to be acquited of all ſeruice from henceforth, ſhall not be bounden to ſuch ſuites or other like, contrarie vnto the forme of their feffement. And if anie inheritance whereof but one ſuite is due) diſcende vnto manie heires, as to partners, who ſo that hath the eldeſt part of the inheritance ſhall doe that one ſuite for him ſelfe and his fellowes, and the other coheires ſhall be contributaries according to the portion for doing ſuch ſuit. And if manie feffées be ſeaſed of an inheritance, (whereof but one ſuite is due) the lord of the fée ſhall haue but that one ſuite, and ſhall not exact of the ſaid inheritance but that one ſuit as hath bene vſed to be done before. And if thoſe feffées haue no warrant or meane, which ought to acquit them, then all the feffées according to their portion, ſhall be contributaries for doing the ſuite for them. And if it chaunce that the lords of the fée do diſtraine their tenants for ſuch ſuites, contrarie to this act, then at the complaint of the tenants the lords ſhall be attached, to appeare in the kings court at a ſhort daie, to make anſwere thereto, and ſhall haue but one eſſoine therein (if they be within the realme) and immediatlie the beaſtes or other diſtreſſes taken by this occaſion ſhall be deliuered to the plaintife, and ſo ſhall remaine vntill the plea betwixt them be determined. And if the Lordes of the courtes, which toke diſtreſſes come not at the day, that they were attached, or do not kepe the daie giuen to them by eſſoine: then the ſhiriffes ſhalbe commaunded, to cauſe them to come at another daie, at which day if they come not, then he ſhal be commanded, to diſtraine them by all the góodes & cattels that they haue in the ſhire, ſo that the ſhiriffe ſhal anſwere to the K. of the iſſues of the ſaid inheritance. And that he haue their bodies before our iuſticers at a certeine daie limited. So that if they come not at that daie, the partie plaintiffe ſhall go without daie, and his beaſtes or other diſtreſſes taken by that colour ſhall remaine deliuered, vntill the ſame lords haue recouered the ſame ſuite by award of the kings courte, and in the meane time ſuch diſtreſſes ſhall ceaſe. Sauing to the lordes of the court their right to recouer thoſe ſuites in forme of lawe, when they will pleade therefore. And when the lords of the courtes come in to anſwere the plaintiffes of ſuch treſpaſſes, and be conuict thereupon, then by award of the kings court the plaintiffes ſhall recouer againſt them the dammages, that they haue ſuſteined by occaſion of the ſaid diſtreſſe. Likewiſe if the tenantes after this act withdraw from their lords ſuch ſuites as they were wont to do, and which they did before the time of the ſaid voiage, and hitherto vſed to do, then by like ſpedineſſe of iuſtice as to the limitting of daies, and awarding of diſtreſſes, the lordes of the courtes ſhall obteine iuſtice to recouer their ſuites with their dammages in like maner as the tenantes ſhoulde recouer theirs. And this recouering of dammages muſt be vnderſtande of withdrawing from them ſelues, and not of withdrawing from their anceſtors, neuertheleſſe the lords of the courtes ſhall not recouer ſeiſon of ſuch ſuites againſt their tenants by defaulte, as they were wont to doe. And touching ſuites withdrawne before the time afore mentioned, let the common law runne as it was wont before time.

Diſtreſſe.

Suites.

Chap.10 Turne.

For the turnes of ſhiriffes it is prouided, that archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, nor anie religious men or women ſhall not néede to come thither, except their apparance be ſpeciallie required thereat for ſome other cauſe, but the turne ſhall be kept as it hath bene vſed in the times of the kings noble progenitors. And they that haue hundreds of their owne to be kept, ſhall not be bound to appeare at anie ſuch turnes, but in the baileliwikes where they be dwelling. And the turnes ſhall be kept after the forme of the great charter, and as they were vſed in the times of king Richard and king John.

Cha.11. Beaupleder. It is prouided alſo, that from henceforth, neither in the circuite of iuſticers, nor in counties, courts, hundreds, and court barons anie fines ſhall be taken of anie man for faire pleading, nor ſo that anie occaſion ſhall be. And it is to be knowne that by this act certeine fines or lones aſſeſſed ſince the time that our ſoueraigne lord the king firſt paſſed into Britaine are not taken.

Cha.12. Plea of Dower Darraine preſentment. In a plea of dower, that is called (Vnde nihil habet) from henceforth foure daies ſhall be giuen in the yeere at the leaſt, and mo, if it maie conuenientlie be. So that they ſhall haue foure or ſixe daies at the leaſt in the yeere. In aſſiſes of daraine preſentment, and in a plea of Quare impedit of churches vacant, daies ſhall be giuen from 15. to 15. or from 3. weekes to 3. weekes, as the place ſhall hap to be neere or far. And in a plea of Quare impedit, if the diſturber come not at the firſt daie that he is ſommoned, nor caſt no eſſoine, then he ſhall be attached at an other daie, at which daie if he come not, nor caſt no eſſoine, he ſhall be diſtreined by the great diſtreſſe aboue giuen: And if he come not then, by his default a writ ſhall go to the biſhop of the ſame place, that the claime of the diſturber for that time, ſhall not be preiudiciall to the plaintiſe. Sauing to the diſturber his right at an other time, which will plead therefore. Attachments. The ſame law, as to the making of attachments ſhall from henceforth be obſerued in all writs where attachements lie, as in making diſtreſſes, ſo that the ſecond attachment ſhal be made by better pledges, & at the leaſt a diſtreſſe.

Cha.13. Enqueſt. And it is to be knowne that after that a man hath put him ſelfe vpon anie enqueſt, the which hath or muſt paſſe in ſuch maner of writs, he ſhall haue but one eſſoine, or one default, ſo that if he come not at the daie giuen to him by the eſſoine, or make default the ſeconde daie, then the enqueſt ſhall be taken by his defaulte, and according to the ſame inqueſt they ſhall procéede to iudgement. And if ſuch enqueſt be taken in the countie, before the ſhiriffe or coroners, it ſhall be returned vnto the kings iuſticers at a certaine daie, and if the partie defendant come not at that daie, then vpon his default an other daie ſhall be aſſigned to him after the diſcretion of the iuſticers. And it ſhall bee commaunded to the ſhiriffe, that he cauſe him to come to heare the iudgement, if he will according to the enqueſt, at which daie if he come not, vpon his default they ſhall procéede to iudgement. In like maner it ſhall be done, if he come not at the daie giuen vnto him by his eſſoine.

Cha.14. Exemption. Concerning Charters of exemption & liberties, that the purchaſours ſhall not be impanelled in aſſiſes, iuries, & enqueſts. It is prouided, that if their othes be ſo requiſite, that without them, iuſtice can not be miniſtred, as in great aſſiſes, perambulations, and in déedes or writings of couenants (where they be named for witneſſes) or in atteintes, and in other caſes like, they ſhall be compelled to ſweare. Sauing to them at an other time their forelaide libertie and exemption.

Cha.15. Diſtreſſes. It ſhall be lawfull for no man from henceforth for anie maner of cauſe to take diſtreſſes out of his fée, nor in the kings high waie, nor in the common ſtréete, but onelie to the king or his officers, hauing ſpeciall autoritie to doo the ſame.

Cha.16. Heire. If anie heire after the death of his aunceſtour be within age, and his lorde haue the ward of his landes and tenements, if the lord will not render vnto the heire his land (when he commeth to his full age) without plea, the heire ſhall recouer his land by aſſiſe of Mortedauncetour, with the damages that he hath ſuſteined by ſuch withholding, ſince the time that he was of full age. And if an heire at the time of his aunceſtours death be of full age, and he is heire apparant, and knowen for heire, and be found in the inheritance: the chiefe lord ſhall not put him out, nor take, nor remoue anie thing there, but ſhall take onelie ſimple ſeiſin thereof for the recognicion of his ſegniorie, that he may be knowen for lord. And if the chiefe lord doo put ſuch an heire out of the poſſeſſion maliciouſlie, whereby he is driuen to purchaſe a writ of Mortdaunceſtour, or of coſinage, then he ſhall recouer his damages as in aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin. Touching heires, which holde of the king in chiefe, this order ſhall be obſerued, that our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall haue the firſt ſeiſin of their lands, like as he was wont to haue before time. Primer ſeiſin. Neither ſhall the heire, nor anie other intrude inheritance, before he hath receiued it out of the kings hands as the ſame inheritance was woont to be taken out of his hands and his auncetours. And this muſt be vnderſtanded of landes and fées, the which were accuſtomed to be in the kings handes, by reaſon of knights ſeruice, or ſeriauntie, or right of patronage.

Cha.17. Gardein in ſocage. It is prouided, that if land holden in ſocage be in the cuſtodie of the fréendes of the heire, becauſe the heire is within age, the kéepers ſhall make no waſte, nor ſale, nor anie deſtruction of the ſame inheritance, but ſafelie ſhall kéepe it to the vſe of the ſaid heire, ſo that when he commeth to his lawfull age, they ſhall aunſwere to him for the iſſues of the ſaid inheritance by a lawfull accompt, ſauing to the ſame kéepers their reaſonable coſtes. Neither ſhall the ſaid kéepers giue or ſell the mariage of ſuch an heire, but to the aduauntage of the foreſaid heire. But the next fréends, which had the ward (for all that time that writes of impleading did not lie) ſhall haue ſuch wardſhip vnto the aduantage of the heire, as is ſaid before, without waſte, ſale, or deſtruction making.

Cha.18. Amcia. No eſcheator, commiſſioner, or iuſticer ſpeciallie aſſigned to take aſſiſes, or to heare and determine matters, from henceforth ſhall haue power to amerce for default of common ſommons, but the chiefe iuſticers, or the iuſticers in eire in their circuites.

Touching

Chap. 19 Eſſoine. Touching eſſoines, it is prouided, that in counties, hundreds, court barons, or in other courts, none ſhall neede to ſweare to warrant his eſſoine.

Chap. 20 Corone. None from henſforth (except our ſoueraigne lord the king) ſhall hold in his court anie plea of falſe iudgement giuen in the court of his tenants. For ſuch plea ſpecially belongeth to the crowne and dignitie of our ſoueraigne lord the king.

Chap. 21 Repleuin. It is prouided alſo, that if the beaſts of anie man be taken, and wrongfullie withholden, the ſhirife after complaint made to him thereunto, maie deliuer them without let or gainſaying of him that tooke the beaſts, if they were taken out of liberties. And if the beaſts were taken within anie liberties, and the bailifes of the libertie will not deliuer them, then the ſhirife for defaute of thoſe bailifes ſhall cauſe them to be deliuered.

Chap. 22 Diſtreſſe. Othe. None from henſforth maie diſtreine his freeholders to anſwere for their freeholdes, nor for anie things touching their freehold without the kings writ nor ſhall cauſe his freeholders to ſweare againſt their wils for no man maie do that without the kings commandement.

Chap. 23 Accompt. Shirife. It is prouided alſo, that if bailifes, which ought to make accompt to their lords, do withdrawe themſelues, and haue no lands nor tenements whereby they may be diſtrained, than they ſhall be attached by their bodies ſo that the ſhirife, in whoſe bailiwike they be found, ſhall cauſe them to come to make their accompt. Alſo fermers, during their termes ſhall not make waſte, ſale, nor exile of houſes, woods, and men, nor of any things belonging to the tenements. that they haue to ferme, without ſpeciall licence had by writing of couenant, making mencion, that they may do it, which thing if they do, and thereof be conuict, they ſhall yelde full dammage, and ſhalbe puniſhed by amerciament greeuouſlie. Fermers.

Chap. 24 Amerciament. The Juſticers in eyre from henceforth ſhall not amerce towneſhips in their circuites, becauſe all being twelue yeres olde, come not afore the ſhirifes and coroners, to make inquirie of robberies, burnings of houſes, or other things perteining to the crowne, ſo that there come ſufficient out of thoſe townes, by whome ſuch enqueſtes may be made full, except enqueſtes for the death of man, whereat all, being twelue yeres of age, ought to appeare vnleſſe they haue reaſonable cauſe of abſence. Enqueſt.

Chap. 25 Murder. Murder from henceforth ſhall not be iudged before our Juſticers, where it is found miſfortune onely, but it ſhall take place in ſuch as are ſlaine by felonie, and not otherwiſe.

Chap. 26 Voucher. Warrant. It is prouided that none, being vouched to warrantie before our Juſticers, in plea of land or tenement, ſhall be amerced from henceforth, becauſe he was not preſent when he was vouched to warrantie, except the firſt day of the comming of the Juſticers. But if the partie vouched be within the ſhire, then the ſhirife ſhal be commaunded to cauſe him to come within the third or fourth day, according to the diſtance of the place, as it was wont to be done in the circuite of the Juſticers. And if he dwell without the ſhire, then he ſhal haue reaſonable ſommons of xv. dayes at the leaſt, after the diſcretion of the Juſticers, and the common lawe.

Chap. 27 Clerke. If a clerke, for anie crime or offence touching the crowne, bee arreſted, and afterwarde by the kings commaundement let to baile or repleuized, ſo that they, to whome he was let to bayle, haue him before our Juſticers: The ſureties from henſforth, nor they to whome he was let to bayle, ſhall not be amerced (if they haue his bodie before our Juſticers) although he will not, nor cannot anſwere before them, by reaſon of clerkes priuilege.

Chap. 28 Prelates. It is prouided, that if anie wrongs or extorcions be done to abbots, or other prelates of the church, and they haue ſued their right for ſuch extortion, and be preuented with death before iudgement giuen therein, their ſucceſſours ſhal haue actions to demaund the goods of their church out of the hands of ſuch treſpaſſers. Moreouer the ſucceſſours ſhall haue like action for ſuch things as were lately withdrawen by ſuch violence from their houſe and church, before the death of their predeceſſours, though if ſo be, that their ſaid predeceſſours did not purſue their right during their liues. And if anie intrude into the lands or tenements of ſuch religious perſons in time of vacation, of which lands their predeceſſours died ſeiſed, as in the right of their church, the ſucceſſours ſhal haue a writ to recouer their ſeiſin: And damages ſhalbe awarded them, as in aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin is wont to be. Intruſion.

Chap. 29 Alienation. It is prouided allſo, that if thoſe alienations (whereupon a writ of entrie was wont to bee granted) hap to be made in ſo manie degrees, that by reaſon thereof, the ſame writ cannot be made in the forme before times vſed, the plaintifes ſhall haue a writ to recouer their ſeiſin, without anie making mencion of the degrees into whoſe hands ſoeuer the ſame thing ſhall happen to come by ſuch alienations, and that by an originall writ to be prouided therefore by the counſell of our ſoueraigne lord the king.

The awarde made betweene the King and his commons, at Kenelwoorth, the 51. yere of King Henrie the third.

IN the name of the holie and vndeuided Trinitie, Amen. To the honor and glorie of almightie God, the father, the ſonne, and the holie ghoſt, of the glorious and moſt excellent mother of God, and virgin Marie, and of all ſaints, by whoſe merites and meanes we are gouerned in earth, to the honor and good proſperous and peaceable eſtate of the moſt chriſtian prince, lord Henrie the noble king of Englande, and of all the English church: we William biſhop of Oxenforde, William of Bathe and Welles, Henrie

Worceſter and Meneuen biſhops, Gilbert de Clare earle of Gloceſter, Humfrey earle of Hereford, Philip Baſſet, John Bailoffe, Robert Walop, Alein de la Suche, Roger de Somery, and Warrin de Baſingburne, appointed to prouide for the good eſtate of the land, and namelie for certeine perſons diſherited, hauing thereunto full power of our ſaid lord the king, and the other barons and councelors, according to the forme written and confirmed in the letters generall and ſpeciall of the ſaid king, and the other afore named, willing to procéede according to the path of equitie by the aſſent of the reuerend father Othobone, Deacon Cardinall of ſaint Adrian, and legat of the apoſtolique ſée, and the noble man, H. of Almaine hauing like power and authoritie, we haue thought it good to be prouided in this wiſe, that there ſhall be made no diſheriſon but redemption, that is to wit.

Firſt concerning them that began the warre, and yet continue.

Item they that were at Cheſter fielde againſt the king in battell.

Item they that forciblie and maliciouſlie withheld Northampton againſt the king.

Item they that were taken at Kenelworth, which came from the ſacking of Wincheſter, or that otherwhere were againſt the king, whom he hath not pardoned.

Item they that warred at Eueſham againſt the king.

Item they that fréelie, wilfullie, and vncompelled, ſent anie aide againſt the king or his ſonne.

Item the bailiffes and officers of the earle of Leiceſter, which robbed their neighbors, and procured manſlaughter, houſeburnings, and other euils to be done, ſhall paie as much as their lands be worth by the ſpace of fiue yéeres. And that they paieng their raunſomes, ſhall haue their landes againe, ſo that if their landes ſhoulde be ſolde, none ſhall haue them but he that holdeth the ſame of the gift of the king, in caſe he will giue ſo much as a common purchaſour, and with thoſe termes, that if the partie ſo redéeming his land, do ſatiſfie for his whole land from the beginning he ſhall forthwith haue his whole lande: & likewiſe he that ſatiſfieth for the halfe or the thirde part, ſhall forthwith haue the halfe, or the third part. But if at the laſt terme appointed, the partie redéeming, doe not ſatiſfie, the halfe of the landes remaining, ſhall remaine to them, to whom they were giuen by the kings gift. Alſo the partie redéeming ſhall be at libertie within that terme to ſell all or part of his land, and in like maner to let it to ferme. And if anie haue woods, and will ſell them towards their raunſome, he that holdeth the lande by the kings gift, ſhall haue a competent ſeruant, that ſhall receiue the monie. And the partie diſherited, which ſelleth the wood, muſt haue one (in whom he truſteth) and theſe two receiuers in the preſence of the whole ſhire ſhall paie the monie receiued for the wood, to them to whom redemption ought to be giuen.

The paiment of this redemption muſt be done by thrée yéeres.

Knights and eſquiers which were robbers, and among the principall robbers in warres and rodes, if they haue no lands, but haue goods, ſhal paie for their ranſome the halfe of their goods, and ſhall finde ſufficient ſuerties to kéepe the peace of the king and of the realme from henceforth.

They that haue nothing ſhall come and ſweare by holie goſpels of God, finding ſufficient ſuertie, that from henceforth they ſhall kéepe the peace, and ſuffer ſatiſfaction and penance after the iudgement of the church, Except perſons baniſhed, to whom the king onelie maie remit.

The lords of heires within age, ſhall paie raunſome for them, and the heires, when they ſhall come to full age, ſhall paie raunſome to the lords at the ſame termes, whereat other paied by thrée or two yéeres. So that the lordes of ſuch lands ſhall haue the warde of the heires with marriages without diſparagement, vntill their lawfull age, and the heires ſhall paie raunſome, as other haue paide, and at the ſame termes.

The cuſtodies which are due to the king, ſhall remaine to them to whom they were giuen by the king, and when the heires ſhall come to lawfull age, they ſhall raunſome at the ſame termes as other did, and no waſte muſt be done by them that haue the cuſtodie, & if there be, iuſtice ſhall be done againſt them, according as is conteined in Magna carta.

If anie before the battell of Lewes ſtood on the kings part, and after the battell be diſherited, becauſe he would not come to the kings ſonne, to his ſuccour: let the king ſaie his pleaſure touching ſuch vpon his fidelitie.

Woods maie not be ſolde ne waſted by them that holde them nowe in anie wiſe, but if it be for not kéeping the laſt terme of paiment, notwithſtanding they to whom the lands were giuen by the king, ſhall haue neceſſaries for the kéeping or reparation of the houſes, and otherwiſe doing they ſhall be gréeuouſlie puniſhed.

If there be anie, of whom it is ſuppoſed, that he will make or procure warre, the lord legat and the king ſhall prouide ſuch ſuertie as ſhall ſéeme expedient, by ſending them out of the realme for a time, or otherwiſe as they ſhall thinke conuenient, ſo neuertheleſſe if it fortune ſuch a one to be let from his paiment or raunſome, he ſhall not be diſherited therefore.

If there be anie not content with this ordinance, let him abide the iudgement of the kings court within the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie. Such as be out of the realme vpon lawfull cauſe, ſhall haue their ſafecondit according to the lawe and cuſtome of the realme for being beyond the ſea, ſo that they kéepe them ſelfe in peace, for elſe they ſhall not be in the forme of this peace.

Becauſe the king is bounden to manie that holpe him, and faithfullie ſtood by him, for whome he hath prouided no lands, and ſome haue more then they ſhould haue, let the king prouide, that he largely reward them of the ranſomes that are to be taken, leſt it turne to a matter of new war.

Let the lord Legat, the king, and Henrie of Almaine prouide, that there be choſen twelue, which diligentlie and faithfullie may execute theſe things, and that the king and his heires may cauſe them firmelie to be kept and mainteined. Let them alſo enquire and fulfill thoſe thinges, that ſhall be ordeined of the foreſaid twelue, according to reaſonable and true eſtimations, and after as the ſaid twelue ſhall thinke good to be doone.

Fermours that were againſt the king, ſhall leeſe their fermes, ſauing the right of their lords, to whome they paie their yeerelie rent, and they that ſhall haue the fermes after the termes expired, ſhall render them to the true lords.

Concerning caſtels builded by the kings charters, and by his conſent, and yet diſherited without his conſent, we award, that after the raunſome paied within the ſpace of three yeares the lord of the land ſhall paie within ſix yeares the coſtes which were laid vpon them afore this generall proclamation by conſent of the king, or by reaſonable exchange of land.

Lay men that openlie procured the buſines of the earle of Leiceſter, his complices drawing men by lies and falſe tales, and ſtiring them to the part of the earle and his adherents, and withdrawing them from the part of the king and his ſonne, ſhall be puniſhed by as much as the two yeares value of their land dooth amount.

Such as were compelled, or driuen by feare vnto the battell, and neither fought, ne did hurt: Likewiſe impotent perſons, which either by force or feare ſent their ſeruants againſt the king and his ſonne: And thoſe which being conſtrained or led by feare were robbers, and did robberies with the principall robbers, and when they ſawe oportunitie withdrew, and returned to their houſes, and thoſe alſo that wittinglie bought others goods, ſhall reſtore the value of the goods, which they robbed or bought in ſuch maner, and ſhall be amerced to the king, for that they did againſt iuſtice, and becauſe the king did forbid the ſame, halfe a yeare now paſſed.

They that by the commaundement of the earle of Leiceſter, entred into Northhampton, and neither faught, ne did harme, but fled to the church when they eſpied the king comming, and that being found by lawfull perſons: Likewiſe, they that held not of the ſaid earle, and come at his commaundement, ſhall paie the halfe yeares value of their land: But they that held of the earles fee, ſhall onelie be amerced to the king.

Impotent men and other, which did no harme, ſhall be reſtored to their lands without delaie, and recouer their damages in the kings court. Let falſe accuſers be puniſhed againſt the king in ſuch wiſe as he beleeue them not lightlie thereafter. And ſuch puniſhment muſt be done of them as belongeth to them that wrongfullie haue cauſed the kings lieges to be diſherited and vndoone, without perill of life, maiming, and diſheriſon.

They that were accuſed by malice, ſhall forthwith haue againe their landes, and recouer their damages in the kings court, as is conteined in the article next afore.

Women ſhall haue their heritages and dowers of the firſt lordes. Touching their huſbands, which were againſt the king, they ſhall haue as the king hath ordeined, and be raunſomed.

The raunſome of them that were againſt the king ſhall ſtand in force, but of thoſe, which in nothing were againſt the king, no raunſome ſhall ſtand: But forthwith ſhall haue their landes againe, and recouer damages, as afore. &c.

Touching perſons maliciouſlie accuſed, it hath bene alreadie ſpoken, and that the accuſers ſhould be puniſhed, as afore is ſaid, by ſubmitting them ſelfe to the award of the king and of other lordes, or elſe the thing by concord or peace made, ſhall ſtand in his force.

All perſons receiued to the peace by thoſe that had commiſſion thereunto, ſhall remaine in ſuch eſtate as when they were receiued.

All that be raunſomed, ſhall not be bounden to aunſwere for the harmes and treſpaſſes doone by them in the time of the commotion aforeſaid, but hurtes and treſpaſſes ſhall be forgiuen of either partie, ſauing neuertheleſſe, the exaction to euerie man that he ſhall not intermeddle of the ſaid commotion, ſauing that that perteineth to the church.

Becauſe it ſeemed dangerous that caſtels ſhould be in the power of them, which offended againſt the king, we award and ordeine touching the caſtels of Herdleie, Byham, and Chertſeie, that a reſonable exchange ſhall be giuen for them.

Touching Simon de Mountford, earle of Leiceſter, his counteſſe and children we ſaie nothing, for the king hath put their matter into the hands of the king of Fraunce.

Touching London we commend it, and exhort the king, that he by his counſell will prouide a reformation for the ſtate of the citie, as concerning their lands, rents, houſes, and liberties, and that the ſame prouiſion may be made immediatlie.

Concerning the earle de Ferris, we award that he be puniſhed by as much as the value of his landes ſhall amount vnto in ſeuen yeares.

All thoſe of the caſtell ſhall be in the common fourme of peace, except Henrie de Haſtings, and thoſe that maimed the kings meſſenger, which ſhall be impriſonned ſeuen yeares, or elſe put them ſelues in the kings mercie.

Let all men from henceforth keepe the peace firmelie, & let none commit burning of houſes, robberies, nor other outrages againſt the peace, and who ſo doeth, and be conuict thereof, ſhall haue iudgement according to the lawe of the land.

Moreouer, all that haue to doo in this behalfe, ſhall ſweare vpon the holie goſpels of God, that none ſhal take reuengement, ne procure to be taken, nor conſent or ſuffer, that any reuengement be taken by occaſion of the commotion aforeſaid. And if anie take reuengement, he ſhall be puniſhed after the cuſtome of the kings court.

Let the church be ſatiſfied by them that haue hurt hir in anie point.

If there be anie that will not obſerue this award, nor abide the iudgement of the king by his péeres: all that be ſuch ſhall be of the number of the diſherited, and ſhall haue no law to recouer their lands. And if anie holding the lands of anie perſon diſherited, be found rebell to this award: he ſhall not be admitted to chalenge anie right in the land or raunſome giuen him by the king.

Moreouer, who ſo will not agrée to this awarde, let him be had as enimie of the king, and his ſonnes, and of all the communaltie. And people, and cleargie (as farforth as the lawes and commons do permit) ſhall purſue him as enimie of the peace of the church and of the realme.

Such as be impriſoned, and in ward, finding ſufficient and reaſonable ſuretie, ſhall be deliuered by pledges, or by other aſſurance competent and reaſonable, according to the prouiſion of the lord Legat and the king.

Moreouer, no man by occaſion of the foreſaid commotion, may hereafter diſherit anie perſon, that by anie law ought to ſuccéede him.

Giuen and proclaimed in the caſtell of Kenelworth the daie before the kalends of Nouember, in the yeare of our Lord. M.CC.lxvi. the li. yéere of the reigne of the lord, Henrie the noble king of England of that name the third.

The ſentence of curſſe giuen by the byſhops, againſt the breakers of the great charter.

The yeare of our Lord, M.CC.liii. the third daie of Maie, in the great haule of the king at Weſtminſter, in the preſence & by the aſſent of the lord Henrie by the grace of God, king of England, and the lord Richard earle of Cornewall his brother, Roger Bigot earle of Northfolke & Suffolke marſhall of England, Humfreie earle of Herford, Henrie earle of Oxford, John earle Warren, and other eſtates of the realme of England: We Boniface by the mercie of God archbiſhop of Canterburie, primat of all England, F. of London, H. of Elie, S. of Worceſter, E. of Lincolne, W. of Norwich, P. of Herford, W. of Saliſburie, W. of Durham, R. of Exceſter, M. of Carlile, W. of Bathe, E. of Rocheſter, T. of ſaint Dauids, biſhops apparelled in pontificals with tapers burning, againſt the breakers of the churches liberties, and of the liberties or other cuſtomes of the realme of England, and namelie of thoſe which are conteined in the charter of the common liberties of England and charter of the foreſt, haue denounced the ſentence of excommunication in this forme: By the auctoritie of almightie God, the father, the ſonne, and the holie ghoſt, and of the glorious mother of God and perpetuall virgin Marie, of the bleſſed apoſtles Peter and Paule, and of all apoſtles, and of all martirs, of bleſſed Edward king of England, and of all the ſaintes of heauen: we excommunicate, accurſe, and from the benefits of our holie mother the church we ſequeſter, all thoſe that hereafter willinglie and malicIouſlie depriue or ſpoile the church of hir right. And all thoſe that by anie craft or wilines do violat, breake, diminiſh, or change the churches liberties, and free cuſtomes conteined in the charters of the common liberties, and of the foreſt, graunted by our lord the king, to archbiſhops, biſhops, and other prelates of England, and likewiſe to the earles, barons, knights, and other fréeholders of the realme. And all that ſecretlie or openlie, by déede, word, or counſell do make ſtatutes, or obſerue them being made, & that bring in cuſtomes, or kéepe them when they be brought in againſt the ſaid liberties, or anie of them, the writers, lawmakers, counſellers, and the executours of them, and all thoſe that ſhall preſume to iudge againſt them. All and euerie which perſons before mencioned, that wittinglie ſhall commit anie thing of the premiſſes, let them well know that they incurre the foreſaid ſentence Ipſo facto.i. vpon the déede done. And thoſe that commit ought ignorantlie, & be admoniſhed, except they reforme themſelues within xv. daies after the time of the admonition, and make full ſatiſfaction for that they haue done, at the will of the ordinarie, ſhall be from that time forth wrapped in the ſame ſentence. And with the ſame ſentence, we burden all thoſe that preſume to perturbe the peace of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and of the realme. To the perpetuall memorie of which thing, we the foreſaid prelats haue put our ſeales to theſe preſents.

The ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the third yeare of the reigne of king Edward the firſt.

Weſt. 1. These be the acts of king Edward ſonne to king Henrie, made at Weſtminſter at his firſt parliament generall, after his coronation on the mundaie of Eaſter vtas, the iii. yeare of his reigne by his counſell, and by the aſſent of archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, earles, barons, and all the communaltie of the realme, being thither ſommoned, becauſe our ſoueraigne lord the king had great zeale and deſire to redreſſe the ſtate of the realme, in ſuch things as required amendment, for the common profit of holie church, and of the realme. And becauſe the ſtate of holie church had bene euill kept, and the prelats and religious perſons of the land greeued manie waies, and the people otherwiſe intreated then they ought to be, and the peace leſſe kept, and the lawes leſſe vſed, and the offenders leſſe puniſhed then they ought to be, by reaſon whereof, the people of the land feared the leſſe to offend, the king hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed theſe actes vnder written, which he intendeth to be neceſſarie and profitable vnto the whole realme.

Firſt

Chap.1.

Hoſpitalitie. Prelate. Taking. Diſtreſſe. Lodging. Shiriffe.

FIrſt the king willeth and commandeth, that the peace of holie church, and of the land be well kept and mainteined in all points. And that common right be done to all, as well poore as rich, without reſpect of perſons. And becauſe that abbats, & the religious of the land haue bin ouercharged & ſore gréeued by the reſort of great men and other, ſo that their goods haue not bin ſufficient for themſelues, wherby they haue bin greatlie hindred and impouerished, that they can not mainteine themſelues, nor ſuch charity, as they haue bin accuſtomed to do: It is prouided, that none ſhal come to eat or lodge in anie houſe of religion of anie others foundation, then of his owne at the coſts of the houſe, vnles he be required by the gouernour of the houſe before his comming thither. And that none of his owne coſts, ſhall enter & come to lie there againſt the will of them that be of the houſe. And by this ſtatute the king intendeth not, that the grace of hoſpitalitie ſhoulde be withdrawne from ſuch as néed, nor that the founders of ſuch monaſteries ſhould ouercharge, or gréeue them by their often comming. It is prouided alſo that none high nor low, by colour of kindred, affinitie, or alliance or by anie other occaſion, ſhal courſe in anie parke nor fiſh in anie pond, nor come to eat, or to lodge in the houſe or manor of a prelat, or anie other religious perſon, againſt the will of the lord or his bailife, neither at the coſt of the lord, nor at his own. And if he come in, or enter with the good will or againſt the will of the lord, or bailife, he ſhal cauſe no dore, locke, nor windowe, nor nothing that is ſhut, to be opened or broken by himſelf nor anie other, nor no maner of vitaile nor other thing ſhal take by colour of buieng nor otherwiſe. And that none ſhall threſh corne, nor take corne, nor anie maner of vitaile, nor other goods of prelate, man of religion, or anie other clarke, or laie perſon by colour of buieng nor otherwiſe againſt the will & licenſe of him, to whom the thing belongeth, or of the keeper, be it within market towne or without. And that none ſhal take horſes, oxen, ploughes, cartes, ſhips, nor barges, to make cariage without the aſſent of him to whom ſuch things belong. And if he do it by the aſſent of the partie, then incontinent he ſhal paie according to the couenant made betwene them. And they that offend againſt theſe acts, and therof be attainted, ſhalbe committed to the kings priſon, and after ſhall make fine and be puniſhed according to the quantitie and maner of the treſpas, and after as the king in his court ſhal thinke conuenient. And it is to be knowne that if they to whom ſuch treſpas was done, will ſue for damages, they ſhall be therto receiued, & ſhalbe awarded & reſtored to the double. And they that haue done the treſpas ſhal be likewiſe puniſhed in the maner aboue ſaid. And if none will ſue, the king ſhall haue the ſuite as for a thing committed againſt his commandement and againſt his peace. And the king ſhal make inquirie from yéere to yeere what perſons do ſuch treſpaſſes, after as he ſhall thinke neceſſarie and conuenient. And they that be indited by ſuch inqueſts, ſhall be attached and diſtrained by the great diſtreſſe, to come at a certeine daie conteining the ſpace of a moneth in the kings court, or where it ſhall pleaſe the king. And if they come not at that daie, they ſhall be diſtreined againe of new by the ſame diſtreſſe, for to come at an other daie, conteining the ſpace of 6. wéekes at the leaſt, and if they come not, then they ſhalbe iudged as attainted, and ſhal yéelde double damages (at the kings ſuite) to ſuch as haue taken hurt or damage, and ſhal make a gréeuous fine after the maner of the treſpas. And the king forbiddeth and commandeth, that none from henceforth do hurt, damage or gréeuance to anie religious man or perſon of the church or anie other becauſe they haue denied meate or lodging vnto them, or becauſe that anie complaineth in the kings court that they haue bene gréeued in anie of the things aboue mentioned. And if anie do, & thereof be attainted, he ſhal incur the paine aforeſaid. And it is further prouided, that the points aforeſaid ſhal as wel bind our counſellours, iuſticers of foreſts, & other our iuſticers, as anie other perſons, and that the foreſaid points be mainteined, obſerued & kept. Likewiſe the king forbiddeth vpon gréeuous forfeitures, that no prelat, abbat, man of religion, or bailife of anie of them, or of other receiue anie man contrarie to the forme aforeſaid. And that none ſhall ſend to the houſe or maner of a man of religion or of anie other perſon, his men, horſe, or dogs to ſoiourne, nor none ſhall them receiue, and he that doth (ſéeing the king hath commanded the contrarie) ſhalbe gréeuouſlie puniſhed. Yet is it further prouided, that ſhiriffes from henceforth ſhall not lodge with anie perſon, with anie mo then 5. or 6. horſes. And that they ſhall not gréeue religious men nor other by often comming or lodging, neither at their houſes, nor their maners.

Chap.2.

Clarke giltie of felonie. Prelates. Purgation.

It is prouided alſo, that when a clarke is taken for giltie of felonie, and is demanded by the ordinarie, he ſhall be deliuered to him according to the priuiledge of holie church in ſuch parell as belongeth to it, after the cuſtome aforetimes vſed. And the king admoniſhed the prelats, and enioyned them vpon the faith that they owe him, and for the common profit & peace of the realme that they, which be indicted of ſuch offences by ſolemne inqueſt of lawfull men in the kings court, in no maner ſhall be deliuered without due purgation, ſo that the king ſhall not néede to prouide anie other remedis therein.

Chap.3.

Eſcape.

It is prouided alſo, that nothing be demanded nor taken from henceforth nor leuied by the ſhiriffe, nor by none other, for the eſcape of a théefe, or a felon vntill it be iudged for an eſcape by the iuſticers in eyre. And he that otherwiſe doth, ſhall reſtore to him, or them that haue paide it, as much as he or they haue taken or receiued, and as much alſo vnto the king.

Chap.4.

Wrecke of the ſea.

Concerning wreckes of the ſea it is agréed, that where a man, a dogge, or a cat eſcape quicke out of the ſhip, that ſuch ſhip nor barge, nor any thing within them, ſhalbe adiudged wrecke, but the goods ſhalbe ſaued and kept by view of the ſhiriffe, coroner, or the kings bailiffe, and deliuered into the hands of ſuch as are of the towne, where the goods were found, ſo that if anie ſue for thoſe goods, and after proue that they were his, or periſhed in his kéeping within a yéere and a daie, they ſhall be reſtored to him without delaie. And if not, they ſhall remaine to the king, & be ſeaſed by the ſhiriffes, coroners and bailiffes of the towne, which ſhal anſwere before the iuſticers for a wrecke belonging to the king. And where wrecke belongeth to an other then to the king, he ſhall haue it in like maner. And he that otherwiſe doth, and thereof be attainted, ſhalbe awarded to priſon, & make fine at the kings will, and ſhall yéelde damages alſo. And if a bailiffe do it, and it be diſalowed by his lord, and the lord will not diſcharge him thereof, the bailiffe ſhall anſwere (if he haue whereof) and if he haue not whereof, the lord ſhall deliuer his bailiffes bodie to the king.

Chap.5. Election.

And becauſe elections ought to be frée, the king commandeth vpon great forfaiture, that no great man nor other by force of armes or menacing ſhall diſturbe anie to make frée election.

Chap.6. Amerciament.

And that no citie borough, towne, nor anie man be amercied without reaſonable cauſe, & according to the quantitie of his treſpas, that is to ſaie, euerie frée man ſauing his frée holde, a merchant ſauing his merchandize, a villaine ſauing his ganure, and that by his or their pieres.

Chap.7. Priſe.

Of priſes taken by conſtables, or caſtellaines vpon ſuch folke as be not of the towne where the caſtell is, it is prouided, that no conſtable nor caſtellaine from henceforth exact anie priſe or like thing of anie other, then of ſuch as be of their towne or caſtell; And that to be paide or els agréement to be made within xl. daies, if it be not auncient priſe due to the king, or to the caſtell, or to the lord of the caſtell.

Chap. 8. Faire pleading.

And that nothing be taken for faire pleading, as hath bene prohibit heretofore in the time of king Henrie father to our ſoueraigne lord that now is.

Chap.9. Freſh ſuite. Felons.

And for as much as the peace of this realme hath bene euill obſerued heretofore for lacke of quicke & freſh ſuite making after fellons in due maner, and namelie becauſe of franchiſes, where felons are receiued. It is prouided, that all generallie, be readie and apparelled at the commaundement & ſummons of ſhiriffes, and at the crie of the countrie, to ſue & arreſt felons (when anie néed is) as well within franchiſe as without, & they that will not ſo do, & thereof be attainted ſhal make a gréeuous fine to the king. And if default be found in the lord of the fraunchiſe, the king ſhal take the ſame fraunchiſe to himſelfe. And if defaulte be in the bailiffe, he ſhall haue one yéeres impriſonment, & after ſhall make a gréeuous fine. And if he haue not whereof, he ſhall haue impriſonment of two yéeres. And if the ſhiriffe, coroner, or anie other bailiffe within ſuch franchiſe or without, for reward, or for praier, or for anie maner of affinitie, conceale, conſent, or procure to conceale the felonies done in their liberties, or otherwiſe wil not attach nor arreſt ſuch felons (there as they may) or otherwiſe will not doe their office for fauour borne to ſuch miſdoers, and be attainted thereof, they ſhall haue one yéeres impriſonment and after make a gréeuous fine. And if they haue not whereof to make fine, they ſhall haue impriſonment of thrée yéeres.

Felonie.

Chap.10 Coroner.

And for as muth as meane perſons and vndiſcréete, now of late are commonlie choſen to the office of coroners, where it is requiſite that perſons wiſe, lawfull, and diſcrete ſhould occupie ſuch offices. It is prouided, that through all ſhiers, ſufficient men ſhall be choſen to be coroners of the moſt wiſe and diſcret knights, which know, will, and maie beſt attend vpon ſuch offices, & which lawfullie ſhall attach and preſent pleas of the corone. And that ſhiriffes ſhall haue counterpanes with the coroners, as wel of appeales as of enqueſts of attachments, and of other things, which to that office do belong. And that no coroner demand nothing nor take nothing of any man to do his office, vpon paine of great forfaiture to the king.

Shiriffe.

Chap.11 Inqueſt. Odio & acia.

And for as much as manie being indicted of murther, and culpable of the ſame by fauourable inqueſtes taken by the ſhiriffe, and by the kings writ of Odio & acia, be repleniſhed vnto the comming of the iuſticers in eyre: It is prouided, that from henceforth ſuch inqueſtes ſhall be taken by lawfull men choſen & tried out by the oth of twelue men (of whom two at the leaſt ſhal be knights) which by no affinitie touching the priſoners, nor otherwiſe are to be ſuſpected.

Chap.12 Felons.

It is prouided alſo, that notorious felons, and which openlie be of euil name, & wil not put themſelues in enqueſts of felonies, that men ſhal charge them with before the iuſticers at the K. ſuite, ſhal haue ſtrong & hard impriſonment, as they which refuſe to be iuſtified by the common lawe of the land. But this is not to be vnderſtanded of ſuch priſoners as be taken vpon light ſuſpicion.

Chap.13 Rauiſhment.

And the king prohibiteth that none do rauiſh, nor take awaie by force anie maiden within age (neither by her owne conſent, nor without) nor anie wife, or maiden of full age, nor anie other woman againſt her will. And if anie do, at his ſuite that wil ſue within xl. daies the king ſhall do common right, & if none comence his ſuite within xl. daies, the king ſhall ſue. And ſuch as be found culpable, ſhall haue two yéeres impriſonment, and after ſhal make fine at the kings pleaſure. And if they haue not whereof, they ſhall be puniſhed by longer impriſonment, according as the treſpas requireth.

Chap.14 Outlawrie. Appeals.

And for as much as it hath bene vſed in ſome countries to outlaw perſons being appealed of commandement, force, aide and receite within the ſame time that he which is appealed for the déed, is outlawed. It is prouided & commanded by the king, that none be outlawed vpon appeale of commandement, force, aide, or receit, vntil he that is appealed of the déed be attainted: ſo that one like law be vſed therein through al the realme. Neuertheles he that will ſue appeale, ſhal not by reaſon of this intermit or leaue to comence his appeale at the next countie, againſt them, no more then againſt their principals, which be appealed of the déede, but their exigent ſhal remaine, vntill ſuch as be appealed of the déede, be attainted by outlawrie or otherwiſe.

And

Cap. 15. Priſon. Repleuiſ. Prouour. Shiriffe.

And for as much as ſhiriffes, and other, which haue taken and kept in priſon perſons detected of felonie, and incontinent haue let out by pleuin ſuch as were not repleuiſable, and haue kept in priſon ſuch as were repleuiſable, becauſe they would win of the one partie, and greeue the other: And for as much as before this time it was not determined, what perſons were repleuiſable and which not, but onelie for them that were taken for the death of man, or by commaundement of the king or of his iuſticers, or for the foreſt: It is prouided, and by the king commaunded, that ſuch priſoners as before were outlawed, and they which haue abiured the realme, prouors and ſuch as be taken with the manour, and ſuch as haue broken the kings priſon, theeues openlie defamed and knowen, and ſuch as be appealed by prouors, ſo long as the prouors be liuing (if they be not of good name) and ſuch as be taken for houſe burning felonouſlie doone, or for falſe monie, or for counterfaiting the kings ſeale, or perſons excommunicat, taken at the requeſt of the biſhop, or for manifeſt offences, or for treaſon touching the king, ſhall be in no wiſe repleuiſable by the common writ, nor without writ. But ſuch as be indited of larcenie by enqueſts taken afore ſhiriffes or bailiffes by their office, or for light ſuſpection, or for petie larcenie, that amounteth not aboue the value of xii. d. if they were not giltie of ſome other larcenie afore time, or gift of receite of theeues, or felons, or of commaundment or force, or of aide in felonie doone, or giltie of ſome other treſpaſſe, for which one ought not to leeſe life nor member, and a man appelled by a prouour after the death of the prouour (if he be no common theefe nor defamed) ſhal from henceforth be let out by ſufficient ſuretie, whereof the ſhiriffe will be aunſwerable, and that without geuing ought of their goods. And if the ſhiriffe or anie other let anie go at large by ſuretie, that is not repleuiſable, if he be ſhiriffe or conſtable, or anie other bailiffe of fee, which hath keeping of priſons, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall leeſe his fee and office for euer. And if the vnderſhiriffe, conſtable, or bailiffe of ſuch as haue fee for keeping of priſons, doo it contrarie to the will of his lord, or anie other bailiffe being not of fee, they ſhall haue three yeares impriſonment, and make fine at the kings pleaſure. And if anie withhold priſoners repleuiſable, after that they haue offered ſufficient ſuretie, he ſhall pay a greeuous amercement to the king. And if he take any reward for the deliuerance of ſuch, he ſhall pay it double to the priſoner, and alſo ſhall pay a greeuous amercement vnto the king.

Cap. 16. Marleb. Cap. 4. Diſtreſſe.

In right of that that diuers perſons take and cauſe to be taken the beaſtes of other, chaſing them out of the ſhire where the beaſtes were taken: It is prouided, that none from henceforth doo ſo, and if anie doo, he ſhall make a greeuous fine, as is conteined in the ſtatute of Marlebridge made in the time of king Henrie, father to the king that now is. And likewiſe it ſhall be doone to them which take beaſtes wrongfullie, and diſtraine out of their fee, and ſhall be more greeuouſlie puniſhed, if the maner of the treſpas doo ſo require.

Cap. 17. Diſtreſſe. Pleuin. Caſtell. Shiriffe. Marches of Wales.

It is prouided alſo, that if anie from henceforth take the beaſtes of other, ⁊ cauſe them to be driuen into a caſtell or fortreſſe, ⁊ there within the cloſe of ſuch caſtell or fortres, doo withhold them againſt gage ⁊ pledges, whereupon the beaſtes be ſolemlie demaunded by the ſhiriffe, or by ſome other bailiffe of the kings at the ſuite of the plaintiffe, and the ſame ſhiriffe or bailiffe taking with him the power of his ſhire or bailiwike doo aſſaie to make pleuin of the beaſts from him that tooke them, or from his lord, or from other being ſeruants of the lord (whatſoeuer they be) that are found in the place, whereunto the beaſtes were inchaſed: If anie deforce him of the deliuerance of the beaſtes, or that no man be found for the lord, or for him that tooke them, for to anſwere and make the deliuerance, after ſuch time as the lord or taker ſhall be admoniſhed to make deliuerance by the ſhiriffe, or bailiffe, if he be in the countrie, or neere, or there where as he maie be conuenientlie warned by the taker, or by anie other of his to make deliuerance, if he were out of the countrie when the taking was, and did not cauſe the beaſtes to be deliuered incontinent: then the king for the treſpas and deſpite, ſhall cauſe the ſaid caſtell or fortres to be beaten downe without recouerie: And all the damages that the plaintiffe hath ſuſteined in his beaſtes, or in his gainure, or anie otherwiſe (after the firſt demaund made by the ſhiriffe or bailiffe for the beaſtes) ſhall be reſtored to him double by the lord, or by him that tooke the beaſtes, if he haue whereof, and if he haue not whereof, he ſhall haue it of the lord, at what time, or in what maner the deliuerance be made after that the ſhiriffe or bailiffe ſhall come to make deliuerance. And it is to wit, that where the ſhiriffe ought to returne the kings writ to the bailiffe of the lord of the caſtell or fortres, or to anie other (to whom the returne belongeth) if the bailiffe of the franchiſe will not make deliuerance after that the ſhiriffe hath made his returne vnto him, then ſhall the ſhiriffe execute and doo his office without further delaie, and vpon the foreſaid peine, notwithſtanding anie ſuch libertie. And if that be done in the marches of Wales, or in anie other place, where the kings writs be not currant, the king which is chiefe and ſoueraigne lord ouer all, ſhall doo right there vnto ſuch as will complaine.

Cap. 18. Fines. Amercement. Oth.

For as much as the common fine ⁊ amercement of the whole countie in eire of the iuſticers for falſe iudgements, or for other treſpaſſers, is vniuſtlie aſſeſſed by ſhiriffes ⁊ extorcioners in the ſhires, ſo that the ſum is many times increaſed; ⁊ the parcels otherwiſe aſſeſſed then they ought to be, to the damage of the people, which be manie times paied to the ſhiriffes ⁊ extortioners, which doo not acquit the paiers: It is prouided, and the king wil that from henceforth, ſuch ſums ſhall be aſſeſſed before ⁊ iuſticers in eire, afore their departure, by the oth of knights ⁊ other honeſt men, vpon all ſuch as ought to paie. And the iuſticers ſhall cauſe the parcels to be put in their eſtreats, which ſhall be deliuered vp into the eſchequer, and not the whole ſumme.

Cha. 19. Shiriffes. Debt. Tailes.

In right of ſhiriffes or other, which aunſwere by their owne hands vnto the eſchequer, & which haue receiued of the kings fathers debts, or the kings owne debts before this time, and haue not acquited the debtors in the eſchequer: It is prouided, that the king ſhall ſend good & lawfull men thorowe euery ſhire, to heare all ſuch as wil complaine thereof, & to determine the matters there, that all ſuch as can proue, that they haue paied, ſhall be thereof acquited for euer, which (whether the ſhiriffes or other be liuing or dead) ſhal haue reſtitution of their own in a certaine forme that ſhall be deliuered them. And ſuch as haue not ſo doone (if they be liuing) ſhall be greeuouſlie puniſhed. And if they be dead, their heires ſhall aunſwere and be charged with the debt. And the king hath commaunded, that ſhiriffes and other aforeſaid, ſhall from henceforth lawfullie acquite the debtors at the next account after they haue receiued ſuch debts, and then the debt ſhal be alowed in the eſchequer, ſo that it ſhall no more come in the ſommons. And if the ſhriffe otherwiſe doo, & thereof be attainted, he ſhall paie to the plaintiffe thriſe as much as he hath receiued, & ſhall make fine at the kings pleaſure. And let euerie ſhiriffe take heede that he haue ſuch a receiuer, for whom he will anſwere, for the king will be recompenced of all, of the ſhiriffes & their heires. And if anie other that is anſwerable to the eſchequer by his owne hands ſo doo, he ſhall render thriſe ſo much to the plaintiffe, & make fine in like maner. And that the ſhiriffes ſhall make tales to all ſuch as had paied their debt to the king, and that the ſommons of the eſchequer be ſhewed to all debtors that demaund a ſight thereof, without denieng to anie, and that without taking anie monie or reward, and he that dooth contrarie, the king ſhall puniſh him greeuouſlie.

Cha. 20. Parkes. Ponds.

It is prouided alſo for treſpaſſers in parkes and ponds, that if anie be thereof atteinted at the ſuite of the partie, great and large amends ſhall be awarded according to the treſpas, and three yeares impriſonment, and after, ſhall make fine at the kings pleaſure (if he haue whereof) and then ſhall finde good ſuretie that after he ſhall not commit like treſpas. And if he haue not whereof to make fine, after three yeares impriſonment, he ſhall finde like ſuretie: & if he cannot finde like ſuretie, he ſhall abiure the realme. And if anie being giltie thereof, be fugitiue, and haue no land nor tenement ſufficient (whereby he may be iuſtified) ſo ſoone as the king ſhall finde it by enqueſt, he ſhall be proclaimed from countie to countie, and if he come not, he ſhall be outlawed. It is prouided alſo and agreed, that if none doo ſue within a yeare and a daie, for the treſpas done, the king ſhall haue the ſuite. And ſuch as be found giltie thereof by lawfull enqueſt, ſhall be puniſhed by like maner in all points as aboue is ſaid. And if anie ſuch treſpaſſer be attainted, that he hath taken tame beaſts or other thing in his parkes by maner of robberie, in comming, tarieng, or returning, let the common lawe be executed vpon him, as vpon him that is attainted of open theft and robberie, as well at the ſuite of the king, as of the partie.

Cha. 21. Gardeine. Magna carta Cap. 4. & 5.

In right of lands, of heires being within age, which be in warde of their lordes: It is prouided, that the wardens ſhall keepe and ſuſteine the lands without making diſtruction of any thing. And that of ſuch maner of wardes ſhall be doone in all points as is conteined in the great charter of liberties made in the time of king Henrie, father of the king that now is, and that it be ſo vſed from henceforth. And in the ſame maner ſhall archbiſhoprikes, biſhoprikes, abbacies, churches, and all ſpirituall dignities be kept in time of vacation.

Cha. 22. Warde. Mariage. Merton. Cap. 6. 2. West. cap. 35. Gardein. Heires females.

Of heires maried within age, without the conſent of their keepers, afore that they be paſt the age, of xiiii. yeares, it ſhall be doone according as it is conteined in the ſtatute of Merton. And of them which ſhall be maried without the conſent of their keepers, after they be paſt the age of xiiii. yeares, the keeper ſhall haue the double value of their mariage after the tenour of the ſame acte. Moreouer, ſuch as haue withdrawen their mariage, ſhall pay the full value thereof vnto their keeper for the treſpas & neuertheleſſe, the king ſhall haue like amends according to the ſame acte, of him that hath ſo withdrawen. And of heires females, after they haue accompliſhed the age of xiiii. yeares, and the lord (to whome the mariage belongeth) will not marie them, but for couetiſe of the land will keepe them vnmaried: It is prouided, that the lord ſhall not haue nor keepe by reaſon of mariage, the lands of ſuch heires females more than two yeares after the terme of the ſaid xiiii. years. And if the lord within the ſaid two years doo not marie them, then ſhall they haue an action to recouer their inheritance, quite without giuing anie thing for their wardſhip, or their mariage. And if they of malice, or by ill counſell will not be maried by their chiefe lordes (where they ſhall not be diſparaged) than their lordes may hold their land and inheritance, vntill they haue accompliſhed the age of an heire male, that is to wit, xxi. years, & further vntil they haue taken the value of the mariage.

Cha. 23. Diſtreſſe. Debt.

It is prouided alſo, that in no citie, borough, towne, market, nor faire, there be no forcine perſon (which is of this realme) diſtrained for anie debt, wherefore he is not debtour or pledge. And who ſoeuer dooth it, ſhall be greeuouſlie puniſhed without delaie, and the diſtres ſhall be deliuered vnto him by the bailiffes of the place, or by the kings bailiffes, if neede be.

Cha. 24. Diſſeiſin.

It is prouided alſo, that no eſchetour, ſhiriffe, nor other bailiffe of the king by colour of his office, without ſpeciall warrant or commaundement, or auctoritie, certeine pertaining to his office, diſſeſe no man of his freehold, nor of anie thing belonging to his freehold. And if anie doo, it ſhall be at the election of the diſſeſie, whether that the king by office ſhall cauſe it to be amended at his complaint, or that he will ſue the common lawe by an aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin, and he that is attainted thereof, ſhall paie double damages to the plaintiffe, and ſhall be greeuouſlie amerced vnto the king.

Cha. 25. Weſt. 2. Cap. 49. Maintenance.

No officer of the kings by themſelues, nor by other, ſhall maintaine pleas, ſuites, or matters, hanging in the kings court for lands, tenements, or other things, for to haue part or profit thereof by couenant made betwene them, and he that doth, ſhall be puniſhed at the king pleaſure.

Chap. 26 Shiriffe.

And that no ſhiriffe, nor other the kings officer ſhall take anie reward to do his office, but ſhal be paied of that they take of the king, and he that ſo doth, ſhall yéeld twiſe ſo much, and ſhall be puniſhed at the kings pleaſure.

Chap. 27 Clarke.

And that no clarke of anie iuſticer, eſchetour, or commiſſioner in eyre, ſhall take anie thing for deliuering chapters, but onelie clarkes of iuſticers in their circuites, which ſhall take ii. s. and no more. Of euerie wapentake hundred or towne that anſwereth by xii. or by vi. according as it hath bene vſed of olde time. And he that doth contrarie, ſhall paie thriſe ſo much as he hath taken, and ſhall léeſe the ſeruice of his maſter for one yéere.

Chap. 28 Clarke. Preſentment. Maintenance.

And that none of the kings clarkes, nor of anie iuſticer, from henceforth ſhall receiue the preſentment of anie church, for the which anie plea or debate is in the kings court, without ſpeciall licence of the king, and that the king forbiddeth vpon paine to léeſe the church & his ſeruice. And that no clarke of anie iuſticer or ſhiriffe take part in anie quarels or matters depending in the kings court, nor ſhal worke anie fraud, whereby common right maie be delaied or diſturbed, & if anie ſo doe, he ſhal be puniſhed by the paine aforeſaide, or more gréeuouſlie, if the treſpaſſe doe ſo require.

Chap. 29 Diſceit. Colluſion.

It is prouided alſo, that if anie ſeriant pleader or other, do anie maner of diſceite or colluſion in the kings court, or conſent to do it in diſceite of the court, or to begile the court or the partie, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall be impriſoned for a yéere and a daie, and from thenceforth ſhall not be heard to pleade in that court for anie man. And if he be no pleader, he ſhall be impriſoned in like maner by the ſpace of a yéere and a daie at the leaſt. And if the treſpaſſe require greater puniſhment, it ſhall be at the kings pleaſure. And for as much as manie complaine them ſelues of officers, crieours of fée and the marſhals of iuſticers in eyre, taking monie wrongfullie of ſuch as recouer ſeaſon of lande, or of them that obteine their ſuites, and of fines leuied, and of iurours, townes, priſoners, and of other attached vpon pleas of the crowne, otherwiſe then they ought to doe in diuers maners. And for as much as there is a greater number of them then there ought to be, wherby the people are ſore gréeued, the king commandeth, that ſuch things be no more done from henceforth. And if any officer of fée do it, his office ſhall be taken into the kings hands. And if anie of the iuſticers marſhals doe it, they ſhall be gréeuouſlie puniſhed at the kings pleaſure, and as well the one as the other ſhal paie vnto al complainants the treble value of that they haue receiued in ſuch maner.

Officer of fee.

Chap. 30 Tolle.

Touching them that take outragious tolle, contrarie to the common cuſtome of the realme in market townes: It is prouided, that if anie do ſo in the kings townes, which is bailiffe in fée ferme, the king ſhall ſeaſe into his owne hand the franchiſe of the market: And if it be an other towne and the ſame be done by the Lord of the towne, the king ſhall do in like maner. And if it be done by a bailiffe, or anie meane officer, without the commandement of his lord, he ſhal reſtore to the plaintiſe as much more for the outragious taking, as he had of him if he had caried his tolle, and ſhall haue fortie daies impriſonment. Touching citizens and burgeſſes, to whom the king or his father hath granted murrage to incloſe their townes, which take ſuch murrage otherwiſe then it was granted vnto them, and thereof be attainted: It is prouided, that they ſhall léeſe their grant for euermore, and ſhall be greeuouſlie amerced vnto the king.

Murrage

Chap. 31 Magna carta. Cap. 21. Weſt. 1. Cap. 2. Purueior. Taker.

Of ſuch as take vittaile or other things to the kings vſe vpon credence, or to the garriſon of a caſtel, or otherwiſe, and when they haue receiued their paiment in the eſchequer, wardrobe or otherwhere, they withholde it from the creditours to their great damage, and ſlaunder of the king: It is prouided for ſuch as haue lands or tenements, that incontinent it ſhall be leuied of their lands, or of their goods, and paied vnto the creditours, with the damages that they haue ſuſteined, and ſhall make fine for the treſpaſſe, and if they haue no lands nor tenements, they ſhall be impriſoned at the kings will. And of ſuch as take part of the kings debts, or other rewardes of the kings creditours, for to make paiement of the ſame debts: It is prouided, that they ſhall paie the double thereof, and be gréeuouſlie puniſhed at the kings pleaſure. And of ſuch as take horſe or carts for the kings carriage more then is néede, and take rewardes to let ſuch horſe or carts go: It is prouided, that if anie of the court ſo do, he ſhall be gréeuouſlie puniſhed by the marſhals: and if it be done out of the court, or by one that is not of the court, and be thereof attainted, he ſhall paie treble damages, and ſhall remaine in the kings priſon fortie daies.

Chap. 32 Shiriffe Barretour. Mainteinour.

It is prouided, that no ſhiriffe ſhall ſuffer anie barretours or mainteiners of quarels in their ſhires, neither ſtewards of great lords nor other (vnleſſe he be atturnie for his lord) to make ſuite nor to giue iudgements in the counties, nor to pronounce the iudgements, if he be not ſpeciallie required and praied of all the ſutours, and attournies of the ſutours which ſhall be at the court. And if anie do, the king ſhall puniſh greeuouſlie both the ſhiriffe and him that ſo doth.

Chap. 33 Newes. Tale.

For as much there haue bene oftentimes found in the countrie, tellers of tales, wherby diſcord or occaſion of diſcord hath manie times ariſen betwéene the king and his people, or great men of this realme: For the damage that hath & maie thereof enſue, it is commanded, that from henceforth none be ſo hardie to tell or publiſh anie falſe newes or tales, wherby diſcord or occaſion of diſcord or ſlander may grow betwéene the king and his people, or the nobles. And he that ſo doth, ſhal be kept in priſon, vntill he hath brought him into the court, which was firſt author of the tale.

Chap.34 Attachmẽt

Of great men and their bailiffes and other (the kings officers onelie excepted, vnto whom ſpeciall authoritie is giuen) which at the complaint of ſome, or by their owne authoritie, attache other paſſing through their iuriſdiction with their goods, compelling them to anſwere afore them vpon contracts, couenants, and treſpaſſes done out of their iuriſdiction where in déede they holde nought of them, nor within the franchiſe (where their power is) in preiudice of the king and his crowne, and to the dammage of the people: It is prouided, that none from henceforth ſo do, and if anie do, he ſhall paie to him that by this occaſion ſhall be attached, his dammages double, and ſhal be gréeuouſlie amercied to the king.

Chap.35 Aide.

For aſmuch as before this time reaſonable aide to make ones ſonne knight, or to marrie his daughter, was neuer put in certeine, nor how much ſhoulde be taken, nor at what time, whereby ſome leuied vnreaſonable aide, & more often then ſéemed neceſſarie, whereby the people were ſore greeued; It is prouided, that from henceforth of an whole knights fée there be taken but xx.s. And of xx. pound land holden in ſocage xx.s. and of more, more; and of leſſe, leſſe; after the rate. And that none ſhall leuie ſuch aide to make his ſonne knight, vntill his ſonne be fiftéene yéeres of age, nor to marrie his daughter, vntill ſhe be of the age of ſeuen yéeres. And of that there ſhall be made mention in the kings writ, formed on the ſame, when anie will demande it. And if it happen, that the father, after he hath leuied ſuch aide of his tenantes, die before he hath married his daughter, the executours of the father ſhall be bound to the daughter, for ſo much as the father receiued for the aide. And if the fathers goods be not ſufficient, his heire ſhall be charged therewith vnto the daughter.

Executors.

Chap.36 Diſſeiſin.

It is prouided alſo and agréed, that if anie man be attainted of diſſeiſin done in time of the king that now is, with robberie of anie maner of good or moueables, and be found againſt him by recogniſance of aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin, the iudgement ſhall be ſuch, that the plaintiffe ſhall recouer ſeaſon for the lande with his dammages aſwell of the goods and moueables aforeſaid, as for the fréehold, & the deſſeſour ſhal make fine, which whether he be preſent or not (ſo it be preſented) ſhal firſt be awarded to priſon. And in like maner it ſhall be done of diſſeiſing with force and armes, although there be no robberie.

Chap.37 Attaint.

For aſmuch as certeine people of this realme doubt verie little to make a falſe othe (which they ought not to do) whereby much people are diſherited and léeſe their right; It is prouided, that the king of his office ſhall from henceforth grant attaints vpon enqueſtes in plea of lande, or of fréehold, or of anie thing touching fréehold, when it ſhall ſéeme to him neceſſarie.

Chap.38 Merton. Cap 8. Diſcent. Nuper obiit.

And for aſmuch as it is long time paſſed ſince the writs vndernamed were limitted: It is prouided, that in conueieng a diſcent in a writ of right, none ſhall preſume to declare of the ſeaſon of his anceſtour, further or beyond the time of K. Richard vncle of king Henrie, father to the king that now is, and that a writ of nouell diſſeiſin, of particion, which is called Nuper obiit, haue their limitation ſince the firſt voiage of king Henrie, father to the king that now is, into Gaſcoine. And that writs of Mordancetour, of coſinage, of aiell, of entre, and of Natiuis, haue their limitation from the coronation of the ſame K. Henrie, & not before. Neuertheles all writs purchaſed now by them ſelues, or to be purchaſed betwéene this & the feaſt of ſaint Iohn for one yéere complet, ſhalbe pleaded from as long time as heretofore they haue béene vſed to be pleaded.

Chap.39 Voucher.

For aſmuch as manie people are delaied of their right by falſe vouching to warrantie: It is prouided, that in writs of poſſeſſion, firſt of all in a writ of Mortdauncetour, of coſinage, of aiell, Nuper obiit, of intruſion, and other like writs, whereby lands or tenements are demaunded, which ought to diſcend, reuert, remaine or eſchete by the death of anie auncetor, or otherwiſe, if the tenant vouch to warrantie, and the demaundant counterpleadeth him, and will auerre by aſſiſe, or by the countrie, or otherwiſe, as the court will award, that the tenant or his anceſtour (whoſe heire he is) was the firſt that entered after the death of him, of whoſe ſeaſon he demaundeth: The auerment of the demaundant ſhall be receiued, if the tenaunt will abide therupon, & if not, he ſhal be further compelled to another anſwere, if he haue not his warrantour preſent that will warrant him fréelie, and incontinent enter into the warrantie. Sauing vnto the demaundant his exceptions againſt him, if he will vouch further, as he had before againſt the firſt tenant. From henceforth in all maner of writs of entre, which make mention of degrées, none ſhall vouch out of the line or in other writs of entre, where no mention is made of degrées, which writtes ſhall not be mainteined, but in caſes where the other writs of degrées can not lie nor hold place. And in a writ of right, it is prouided, that if the tenaunt vouche to warrantie, & the demaundaunt will counterpleade him, and be readie to auerre by the countre, that he that is vouched, nor his auncetours, had neuer ſeaſon of the lande or tenement, demaunded fée or ſeruice by the hands of the tenaunt or his ancetours, ſince the time of him, on whoſe ſeaſon the demaundaunt declareth, vntill the time that the writ was purchaſed, and the plea moued, whereby he might haue infeffed the tenaunt or his auncetours: Then let the auerment of the demandant be receiued, if the tenant will abide therupon, and if not, the tenant ſhalbe further compelled vnto an other anſwere, if he be not preſent that will warrant him fréelie, and incontinent entre in anſwere. Sauing vnto the demandant his exceptions againſt him, as he had afore againſt the firſt tenant. And the ſaide exception ſhall haue place in a writ of Mortdauncetour, and in the other writs before named, as well as in writs that concerne right. And if percaſe the tenaunt haue a déede that compriſeth warrantie of an other man, which is bound in anie of theſe caſes before mentioned to the warrantie of his elder degrée, his recouerie by a writ of warrantie of charters out of the kings chauncerie ſhal be ſaued to him, at what time ſoeuer he will purchaſe it, howbeit the plea ſhall not be delayed therefore.

Warranty.

Cap.40. Champion Othe.

Touching the othes of champions it is thus prouided, becauſe it ſeldome happened, but that the champion of the demaundant is forſworne, in that he ſweareth that he or his father ſaw the ſeaſon of his lord, or his auncetour, and that his father commaunded him to deraigne the right: that from henceforth the champion of the demeaundant ſhall not be compelled ſo to ſweare. Neuertheleſſe his othe ſhall be kept in all other points.

Cap.41. Eſſoine.

For aſmuch as in a writ of aſſiſe, attaints, and Iuris vtrum, the iurours beene often troubled by reaſon of the eſſoines of tenants: It is prouided, that after that the tenaunt hath once appeared in the court, he ſhall be no more eſſoined, but ſhall make his attourney to ſue for him if he will, and if not, the aſſiſe or iurie ſhall be taken through his default.

Cap.42. Parceners Fourch. Eſſoine.

For aſmuch as demaundants be often times delaied of their right, by reaſon that manie parceners be tenants, of which none may be compelled to anſwere without the other, or that there be manie iointlie infeffed (where none knoweth his ſeuerall, and ſuch tenants oftentimes fourche by eſſoine, ſo that euerie of them hath a ſeuerall eſſoine: It is prouided, that from henſforth ſuch tenants ſhall not haue eſſoine but at one daie, no more then one ſole tenant ſhoulde haue, ſo that from henſforth they ſhall no more fourche, but onlie ſhall haue one eſſoine.

Cap.43. Eſſoine.

For aſmuch as diuers perſous cauſe them ſelues falſelie to be eſſoined (for being ouer the ſea) where in déede they were within the realme the daie of the ſommons: It is prouided from henſforth, that this eſſoine be not allwaies allowed, if the demaundant will challenge it, and will be readie to auerre that he was in England, the daie of ſommons and thrée wéekes after, but ſhal be adiourned in this forme, that if the demaundant be readie at a certaine daie by auerment of the countrie, or otherwiſe, as the court ſhall awarde, to proue that the tenant was within the foure ſeas the daie that he was ſommoned, and thrée wéekes after, ſo that he might be reaſonablie warned by the ſommons, the eſſoine ſhall be tourned into a default. And that is to be vnderſtanded onlie before Iuſticers.

Cap.44. Delayes.

Concerning delaies in all maner of writs and attachements, it is thus prouided, that if the tenant or defendant after the firſt attachement retourned, make default, that incontinent the great diſtreſſe ſhall be awarded. And if the ſhirife do not make ſufficient retourne by a certeine daie, he ſhall be gréeuouſlie amerced, and if he retourne that he hath done execution in due maner, and the iſſues deliuered to the ſureties, then the ſhirife ſhall be commaunded, that he retourne iſſues at an other daie before the Iuſticers. And if the partie being attached come in at his daie to ſaue his defaults, he ſhall haue the iſſues, and if he come not, the king ſhall haue them. And the kings Iuſticers ſhall cauſe them to be deliuered in the wardrobe. And the Iuſticers of the bench at Weſtminſter, ſhall deliuer them in the eſchequer, and Iuſticers in eyre vnto the ſhiriffe of the ſhire (where they pleade) as well of that ſhire as of foreine ſhires, and ſhall be charged therewith in ſommons by the rolles of Iuſticers.

Iſſues.

Cap.45. Plea.

It is prouided alſo, and commaunded by the king, that the Iuſticers of the kings bench at Weſtminſter from henſforth ſhall decyſe all pleas determinable at one daie before anie matter be arrainted or plea commenced, the daie following, ſauing that their eſſoines ſhall be entred, iudged, and allowed. Yet by reaſon hereof let none preſume to abſent himſelf, but let him come at the daie to him limitted.

Cap.46. Diſſeiſin.

It is prouided alſo, that if anie from henſforth purchaſe a write of nouel diſſeiſin, and he againſt whome the writ was brought as principall diſſeiſor, dyeth before the aſſiſe be paſſed, that then the heire ſhall haue his writ of entre vpon diſſeiſin againſt the heire of the diſſeiſor, or diſſeiſors (of what age ſo euer they be.) In the ſame wiſe the heire or heires of the diſſeiſie ſhall haue their writtes of entre againſt the diſſeiſors or their heires, of what age ſoeuer they be. And if peraduenture the diſſeiſie dye before that he hath purchaſed his writ, ſo that for the nonages of the heires of the partie or the other, the writ be not abated, nor the plea delayed, but as much as may be without offending the lawe, it muſt be haſted to make freſh ſuite after the diſſeiſin. And in like maner this ſhall be obſerued in all points, for the right of prelates, men of religion, and other to whome lands nor tenements can no wiſe diſcend after others death, whether they be diſſeiſies or diſſeiſors. And if the parties in pleading come to an enqueſt, and it paſſeth againſt the heire within age, and namely againſt the heire of the diſſeiſie, that in ſuch caſe he ſhall haue an attaint of the kings ſpeciall grace.

Freſh ſuite

Attaint.

Cap.47. Wardein. Nonage.

If a wardein or a chiefe lord infeffe anie man of land that is the inheritance of a childe within age & in his ward, to the diſheritance of the heire: It is prouided that the heire ſhal forthwith haue his recouerie by aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin againſt his wardein & againſt the tenant. And the ſeaſon ſhall be deliuered by the Iuſticers (if it be recouered) to the next friend of the heire (to whome the inheritance cannot diſcend) for to improue to the vſe of the heire, & to anſwere for the iſſues vnto the heire when he ſhall come vnto full age, & the wardein during his life, ſhall loſe the cuſtodie of the thing recouered, & al the inheritance that he holdeth by reaſon of the heire. And if another wardeine than the chiefe lord do it, he ſhal loſe the wardſhip of al togither, and be gréeuouſlie puniſhed by the king. And if the infant be carried awaie, or diſturbed by the wardein or by the feffor, or by other, by reaſon whereof he cannot ſue his aſſiſe, then may one of his next friends (that will) ſue for him which ſhall be thereto admitted.

Wardſhip.

In

Cap.48. Dower. In a writ of dower called (vnde nihil habet) the writ ſhall not abate by the exception of the tenant, becauſe ſhée hath receiued her dower of another man before her writte purchaſed, vnleſſe he can ſhewe that ſhée hath reſeiued part of her dower of himſefe and in the ſame towne, before the writ purchaſed. And for as much as the king hath ordeined theſe things vnto the honour of God and holie Church, and for the common wealth, and for the remedie of ſuch as be grieued, hée would not that anie other time it ſhould turne in preiudice of him ſelfe, or of his crowne, but that ſuch rights as appertaine to him ſhould be ſaued in all points. And for as much as it is great charitie to do right vnto all men at all times (~~when nede~~ ſhall be) by the aſſent of all the prelats it was prouided that aſſiſes of nouel diſſeiſin, Mortdanceſtour, and darreine preſentment ſhoulde be taken in Aduent, Septuageſime, and lent, euen as wel as enqueſtes may be taken, and that at the ſpeciall requeſt of the king, made vnto the biſhops.

A Statute of the extent of a manour made the fourth yeere of King Edward the firſt.

First it is to be inquired of caſtels and alſo of other buildings, dyched about, what the walles, buildings, tymber, ſtone, lead, and other maner of couering is worth. And howe they maie be ſold according to the verie value of the ſame walles & building. And for how much the buildings without the dych maie be ſold, and what they be worth with the gardeins, curtilages, doue houſes, and all other iſſues of the court by yéere. It is to be inquired alſo howe manie fieldes are of the demeanes, and how manie acres are in euerie field, & what euery acre is worth by the yéere. Alſo how manie acres of medowe are of the demeanes and how much euerie acre by it ſelfe is worth by the yéere to be let out. Alſo howe manie acres of paſture there be and for what beaſtes or cattels the ſame paſture is moſt neceſſarie, and how manie it will find and of what maner, and what the paſture of euerie beaſt is worth to be let out by the yéere. Alſo forreine paſture that is common how manie & what beaſts & cattel the lord maie haue in the ſame, & how much the paſture of euerie beaſt is worth by the yeere to let. Alſo it is to be inquired of parkes and demeane woods which the lorde maie aſſart and improue at his pleaſure and how manie acres they containe, and how much the veſture of an acre is worth, and how much the land is worth after the wood is felled, and how manie acres it conteineth, and how much euerie acre is woorth by yéere. Alſo it is to be inquired of forreine woods where other men haue common and how much the lord may improue to him ſelfe of the ſame woods, and how manie acres and for how much the veſture of euerie acre may be ſold, and how much the ground is worth yerely after that the wood is felled, and how manie acres it conteineth, and what euerie acre is worth by the yéere. Alſo it is to be inquired whether the lord may giue or ſell anie thing of the reſidue of the foreſaid woods, and what ſuch giftes or ſales are worth by the yéere. Alſo it is to be inquired pawnage and herbage of the towne and all other profits of foreſtes, woods, riuers, mores, hethes, and waſte, and how much it is worth by the yere. Alſo of milles, fiſh, ponds, ſeuerall and common, what they be worh by the yéere. Alſo it is to be inquired of fréeholders the which dwell without as well as within, that is to ſay, how manie fréeholders there be, and what maner lands and tenements, and what fées they hold, And by what ſeruices, whether it be by Socage, or knights ſeruice, or otherwiſe. And what they paie yéerely of rent of aſſiſe, and who hold by charter, and who not, and who by old tenure, and who by newe feffement. Alſo it is to be inquired of the ſaide frée tenants, which ſhall follow the court of the countie, and which not, and what and how much falleth to the lord after the death of ſuch frée tenants. It is to be inquired alſo of cuſtomarie tenants, that is to wite howe manie there be, and how much lande euerie of them holdeth, and what workes and cuſtomes he doth, and what the workes and cuſtomes of euerie tenant be worth yerely, and howe much rent of aſſiſe he paied yerely, beſides the works and cuſtomes, and which of them may taxe at the will of the lord and which not. It is alſo to be inquired of cotages, that is to ſaie, what cottages, and curtelages they hold, and by what ſeruice, and how much they do paie by the yeere for all their cottages and curtelages. It is alſo to be inquired of pleas and perquiſites of the counties of the courts of the foreſtes, with lawing of dogges, and how much they be worth by the yeere in all the iſſues. It is alſo to be inquired of churches that belong to the lordes gift, how manie there be, and what and where, and how much euerie church is woorth by the yere after the true eſtimation of the ſame. It is alſo to be inquired what be the value of heriots, faires, markets, eſchetes, cuſtomes, ſeruices, and forreine workes and cuſtomes, & what the pleas and the perquiſites of courts, fines, reliſes, and all other caſualties are woorth by the yere that may fall in anie of theſe things.

A Statute touching the office of coroners made the fourth yere of King Edward the firſt.

Coroner. A Coroner ought to inquire theſe things, if he be certified by the kings bailifes or other honeſt men of the countrie. Firſt he ſhall go to the places where anie be ſlaine, or ſodenly dead, or wounded, or where houſes are broken, or where treaſure is ſaide to be found, and ſhal forthwith commaund foure of the next townes, or fiue or ſixe to appeare before him in ſuch a place, and when they are come thither, the Coroner vpon the oth of them ſhal inquire in this maner: That is to wite, if they know where the perſon was firſt ſlaine, whether it were in anie houſe, field, bed, tauerne, or in companie, and who were there, likewiſe it is to be inquired, who were culpable, either of the act, or of the force, and who preſent, either men or women, and of what age ſo euer they be, if they can ſpeake, or haue anie diſcretion) and how manie be found culpable by the enqueſt in anie of the ſaid manors, whervpon they ſhalbe taken & deliuered to the ſhirife, & ſhalbe committed to the gaile, & ſuch as bee found & be not culpable, ſhalbe attached vntill the comming of the iuſtices, & their names ſhalbe written in rolles. If it fortune anie man to be ſlaine ſodenly, which is found in the fields or in the woods, firſt it is to be ſéene, whether he were ſlaine in the ſame place or not. And he were brought & laid there, they ſhall do as much as they can, to follow their ſteps that brought him thither, whither hee were brought vpon a horſe or in a cart. It ſhall be inquired alſo if the dead perſon were knowne, or elſe a ſtranger, and where he lay the night before. And if any be found culpable of the murder, the coroners ſhall immediatly go vnto his houſe, and ſhall inquire what goods he hath, and what corne hee hath in his grange: and if he be a frée man, they ſhall inquire how much land he hath, and what it is worth yeerely, and further what crop he hath vpon the ground. And when they haue thus inquired vpon euerie thing, they ſhal cauſe all the land, corne, and goods to be valued, in like maner as if they ſhould be ſold incontinently, and therupon they ſhall be deliuered to the whole towneſhip, which ſhalbe anſwerable before the iuſtices for all. And likewiſe of his fréeholde how much it is worth yéerely ouer and aboue the ſeruice due to the lords of the fée, and the land ſhal remaine in the kings hands, vntil that the lords of the fée haue made fine for it. And immediatly vpō theſe things being inquired, the bodies of ſuch perſons being dead or ſlaine ſhalbe buried. In like maner it is to be inquired of them that be drowned, or ſodenly ſlaine, or ſtrangled by the ſigne of a cord tied ſtraite about their necks, or about any of their members, or vpon any other hurt found vpon their bodies, whereupon they ſhal procéede in the forme aboueſaid, & if they were not ſlaine, then ought the coroner to attach the finders and all other in the companie. A coroner alſo ought to inquire of treſure that is found, who were the finders & likewiſe who is ſuſpected therof, and that may be wel perceiued where one liueth riotouſly haunting tauernes, & hath done ſo of long time, hereupon he may be attached for this ſuſpection by iiij. vj. or two pledges if he may be found. Further if any be appealed of rape, he muſt be attached if the appeale be freſh, and they muſt ſe an apparant ſigne of truth by effuſion of blood, or an open crie made, and ſuch ſhalbe by iiii. or vi. pledges if they may be found. If the appeale were without crie, or without anie manifeſt ſigne or token, two pledges ſhall be ſufficient. Vpon appeale of wounds, ſpecially if the wounds be mortall, the parties appealed ſhalbe taken immediatly, and kept vntill it be knowne perfitly, whither he that is hurt ſhal recouer or not. And if he die the defendant ſhalbe kept. And if he recouer health, they ſhalbe attached by iiii. or vi. pledges, after as the wound is great or ſmall. If it be for a maime, he ſhal find no leſſe then iiii. pledges, if it be for a ſmal wound or a maime ii. pledges ſhall ſuffice. Alſo all wounds ought to be viewed the length, bredth, & déepenes, & with what weapons, & in what part of the bodie the wound or hurt is, and how manie be culpable, and how manie wounds there be, and who gaue the wound, al which things muſt be inrolled in the roll of the coroners. Moreouer if anie be appealed of an act done as principall, they that be appealed of the force ſhalbe attached alſo, and ſurely kept in ward, vntill the principals be atteinted. Concerning horſes, botes, cartes. &c. whereby anie are ſlaine, that properly are called deodande, they ſhall be valued and deliuered vnto the townes as before is ſaid. Concerning wrecke of the ſea, whereſoeuer it be found, if anie laie hands on it, he ſhalbe attached by ſufficient pledges, and the price of the wrecke ſhalbe valued and deliuered to the townes. If anie be ſuſpected of the death of anie man being in danger of life, he ſhall be taken and impriſoned as before is ſaid. In like maner hue ſhall be leuied for all murders, burglaries, and for men ſlaine, or in perill to be ſlaine, as other where is vſed in England, and all ſhal followe the hue and ſteppes, as neere as can be. And he that doth not, and is conuict therupon, ſhalbe attached to be afore the iuſtices of the gaile. &c.

Appeale. Rape.

Pledges.

Wrecke of the ſea.

Hue.

The ſtatute of Bigamie made the iiij. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

In the preſence of certaine reuerend fathers biſhops of England and other of the kings counſell, the conſtitutions vnderwritten were recited, and after hard and publiſhed before the king and his counſell for as much as all the kings counſell as well iuſticers as other did agrée that they ſhould be put in writing for a perpetuall memorie, and that they ſhould be ſtedfaſtlie obſerued.

Chap. 1. Feffement

Concerning pleas where the tenant ſaith that he can anſwere without the king. It is agréed by the iuſticers and otherwiſe men of the kings counſel, which heretofore haue had the vſe and practiſe of iudgements, that where a feffement was made by the king with a déede thereupon, that if another perſon by a like feffement and like déede be bounden to warrantie. The iuſtices coulde not heretofore haue procéeded anie further without the kings commandement had therefore. And it ſéemeth alſo that they could not.

Chap. 2. Warrantie

In certaine caſes as where the king hath confirmed, or ratified the déede of an other man to the vſe of an other, or hath granted anie thing aſmuch as in him is, or where a deede is ſhewed and clauſe conteined therein, whereby he ought to warrantiſe and in like caſes they ſhall not ſurceaſe by occaſion of a confirmation grant or ſurrender or other like, but after aduertiſement made thereof to the king they ſhall procéede without delaie.

Chap. 3. Dower.

Concerning the endowment of women where the wardens of their huſbandes inheritance haue wardſhip by the gift or grant of the king or where ſuch wardens be tenants of the thing in demande, or if the heires of ſuch lands be vouched to warrantie, if they ſay that they cannot anſwere without the king, they ſhall not ſurceſſe vpon the matter therefore, but ſhall procéede therin according to the right.

Chap. 4. Purpreſtures.

Concerning purpreſtures or anie maner of vſurpations made vpon the king within franchiſes or els where, it was agréed and determined in the time of king Henrie, that where ſuch vſurpours were liuing, the king ſhould reſeaſe of new the land ſo vſurped out of the handes of vſurpours, the which thing alſo ſhalbe from henſforth obſerued in the realme, and if anie do complaine vpon ſuch reſeaſers he ſhalbe heard like as right requireth.

Chap. 5. Bigamie. Clerkes.

Concerning men twiſe married, called bigamie, whom the biſhop of Rome by a conſtitution made at the counſell of Lions hath excluded from all clerkes priuilege, whereupon certaine prelates (when ſuch perſons haue bene attainted for felons) haue praied for to haue them deliuered as clerkes which were made bigamie before the ſame conſtitution. It is agréed and declared before the king and his counſell that the ſame conſtitution ſhall be vnderſtanded in this wiſe, that whether they were bigamie before the ſame conſtitution or after they ſhall not from henſforth be deliuered to the prelates, but iuſtice ſhall be executed vpon them as vpon other lay people.

Chap. 6. Deede of gift.

In déedes alſo where is conteined Dedi & conceſsi tale tenementum without homage, or without a clauſe that containeth warrantie, and to be holden of the giuers & their heires by a certaine ſeruice. It is agréed that the giuers and their heires ſhall be bound to warrantie. And where is contained dedi & conceſsi &c. to be holden of the chiefe lords of the fee or of other and not of the feffors or of their heires, reſeruing no ſeruice without homage, or without the foreſaid clauſe, their heires ſhal not be bounden to warrantie, notwithſtanding the feffor during his owne life by force of his owne gift ſhalbe bounden to warrantie. All theſe conſtitutions aforeſaid were made at Weſtminſter, in the parliment holden next after the feaſt of S. Michael, the iiii. yéere of the reigne of king Edward ſonne of king Henrie. And from that time forth they ſhall take effect.

The ſtatutes made at Gloceſter, in the vi. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

FOr the great miſchiefs and diſheriſons that the people of the realme of England haue heretofore ſuffred through default of the lawe that failed in diuers caſes within the ſame realme. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, for the amendment of the land, for the reliefe of his people, and to eſchewe ſuch miſchiefes, damages, and diſheriſons, hath prouided and eſtabliſhed theſe actes vnder written, willing and commanding, that from henſforth they be firmely obſerued within this realme.

Chap. 1. Damages.

WHere as heretofore damages were not awarded in aſſiſes of nouell diſſeiſin, but onely againſt the diſſeſours. It is prouided, that if the diſſeſours do aliene the lands, and haue not whereof, there may be damages leuied, that they to whoſe hands ſuch tenements ſhall come, ſhall be charged with the damages, ſo that euerie one of them ſhal be charged with the damages for his time. It is prouided alſo, that the diſſeſie ſhall recouer damages in a writ of entre grounded vpon diſſeſon, againſt him that is found tenant after the diſſeiſour. It is prouided alſo, that where before this time damages were not awarded in a plea of Mortdancetour (but in caſe where landes were recouered againſt chiefe lords (that from henſforth damages ſhall be awarded in all caſes, where a man recouereth by aſſiſe of Mortdancetour, as before is ſaid in aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin. And likewiſe damages ſhall be recouered in writtes of coſinage, aiel, and beſaiel. And where as before time damages were not taxed, but to the value of the iſſues of the land. It is prouided, that the demaundant ſhall recouer againſt the tenant the coſtes of his writ purchaſed together with the damages aboueſaid. And this act ſhal hold place in al caſes where the partie is to recouer damages. And euerie man from henſforth ſhall be compelled to render damages, where the land is recouered againſt him, vpon his owne intruſion, or other his owne act.

Diſſeiſin.

Chap. 2. Infant. Inqueſt.

If a childe within age be holden from his heritage after the death of his father, graundfather, or great graunfather, wherby he is driuen to his writ, and his aduerſarie commeth into the court, and for his anſwere allegeth a feffement, or pledeth ſome other thing, wherby the iuſticers award an inqueſt there where as the full inqueſt was deferred vnto the full age of the infant, nowe the inqueſt ſhall paſſe as well as if he were of full age.

Chap. 3. Alienation

It is eſtabliſhed alſo, that if a man aliene the land that he holdeth by the law of England, his ſonne ſhall not be barred by the déede of his father (from whom no heritage to him deſcended) to demaund and recouer by writ of Mortdancetour of the ſeaſon of his mother, although it be mencioned in the déede, that his father did bind him and his heires to warrantie. And if anie heritage diſcend to him of his fathers ſide, then he ſhall be barred for the value of the heritage that is to him diſcended. And if in ſuch caſe, after the death of his father, anie inheritance diſcend to him by the ſame father, then ſhall the tenant recouer againſt him of the ſeaſon of his mother by a iudicial writ, that ſhall iſſue out of the rolles of the iuſticers before whom the plea was pleaded, to reſommon his warranty as before hath bene done in like caſes, where the heire of the warrantour commeth into the court, ſaying that naught diſcended from him, vpon whoſe déede he is vouched. And in like maner the iſſue of the ſonne ſhall recouer by writ of coſinage, aiel, and beſaiel. Likewiſe and in like maner the heire of the wife ſhall not be barred after the death of his father and mother for to demaund by action, the inheritance of his mother by writ of entre, which his father did aliene in the time of his mother, whereof no fine is leuied in the kings court.

Warrantie

Chap. 4 Diſtreſſe. Leaſe. Barre.

Alſo if a man let his land to ferme, or to find eſtouers, in meate or in cloth, amounting to the fourth part of the verie value of the land ſo charged, and letteth it lye freſh, ſo that the partie can finde on diſtreſſe there by the ſpace of two or thrée yeres to compell the fermour to render, or to do as is conteined in the writing or leaſe. It is eſtabliſhed that after the two yeres paſſed the leſſour ſhall haue an action to demaund the land in demeane by a writ out of the Chauncerie. And if hee againſt whome the land is demaunded, come before iudgement and paie the arrerages, and the dammages, and find ſuretie (ſuch as the court ſhall thinke ſufficient) to paie from thenceforth, as is contained in the writing of his leaſſe, he ſhall kéepe the land. And if he tarrie vntill it be recouered by iudgement, he ſhall be barred for euer after.

Chap. 5. Waſt. Wardſhip.

It is prouided alſo, that a man from henſforth ſhall haue a writ of waſte in the Chauncerie againſt him that holdeth by lawe of Englande, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or of yeres, or a woman that holdeth in dower. And who that is attainted of waſte, ſhal léeſe the thing waſted, and moreouer ſhall recompence thriſe ſo much as the waſte ſhall be taxed at. And for waſte made in the time of wardſhip, it ſhall be done as is conteined in the ſaid great charter, that is to ſaye, that he which did waſte, during the cuſtodie, ſhall léeſe the wardſhip. It is agreed, that he ſhall recompence the heire his dammages for the waſte, if ſo be that the wardſhip loſt, do not amount to the value of the dammages of the heire of the ſame ward.

Chap. 6. Mortdanccetour.

It is prouided, alſo, that if a man die, hauing manie heires, of whom one is ſonne or daughter, brother or ſiſter, nephewe or néece, and the other be of a further degree, all the heires ſhall recouer from henceforth by a writ of Mortdanccetour.

Chap. 7 Dower.

Alſo if a woman ſell or giue in fée or for terme of life, the land that ſhée holdeth in dower. It is ordeined, that the heire, or he to whome the lande ought to reuert after the death of ſuch woman, ſhall immediately recouer by a writ of entre in the Chauncerie.

Chap. 8. Shirifes. Treſpas. Wound. Mayme. Attourney. Eſſoins.

It is prouided alſo, that ſhirifes ſhall pleade pleas of treſpas in their counties, as they haue béene accuſtomed to be pleaded. And that none from henſforth ſhall haue writtes of treſpas before Iuſticers, vnleſſe he ſweare by his faith, that the goods taken away were worth fourtie ſhillings at the leaſt. And if he complaine of beating, he ſhall ſweare by his faith that his pleint is true. Touching woundes and maymes, a man ſhall haue his writ as before hath béene vſed. And it is agreede, that the defendants in ſuch pleas may make their attourneys, where appeale lyeth not, ſo that if they be attainted being abſent, then the ſhirife ſhall be commaunded to take them, and ſhall haue like peine as they ſhould haue had, if they had beene preſent at the iudgement giuen. And if the plaintifes, from henſforth in ſuch treſpaſſes cauſe themſelfe to be eſſoined after the laſt apparance, daie ſhall be giuen them vnto the comming of the Iuſticers in eyre, and the defendants in the meane time ſhalbe in peace. In ſuch pleas and other, where as attachements and diſtreſſes do lye, if the defendant eſſoine him ſelfe of the kings ſeruice, and do not bring his warrant in, at the daie giuen him by the eſſoine: It is prouided, that he ſhall recompence the plaintife dammages for his iourney twentie ſhillings, or more after diſcretion of the Iuſticers, and neuertheles ſhall be gréeuouſlie amerced vnto the king.

Chap. 9 Death of man. Felonie. Appellour.

It is prouided alſo, that no writ ſhall from henſforth iſſue out of the chauncerie for the death of man, to enquire whether he were ſlaine by miſfortune, or in his defence, or otherwiſe without felonie. And if he be in priſon before the comming of the Iuſticers in eyre, or Iuſticers aſſigned to the gayle deliuerie, and putteth him ſelfe before them for good and euil: in caſe it be founden by the countrey, that he did it in his defence, or by miſfortune, then the Iuſticers ſhall do the king to wite thereof, and the king ſhall take him to his grace, if it pleaſe him. It is prouided alſo, that no appeale ſhall be abated ſo ſoone as they haue bene heretofore, but if the appealor declare the déede, the yere, the daie, the houre, the time of the king, and the towne where the déede was done, and with what weapon he was ſlaine, the appeale ſhall ſtand in effect, and ſhall not be abated for default of freſh ſuite, whereby the partie ſhall ſue within the yeere & the daie after the déede done.

Chap. 10 Parceners. Fourcher.

Where as it is conteined in the ſtatute of the king, that now is, that two parceners, or two that hold in common, may not forche by eſſoine, after that they haue once appeared in the court: It is prouided that the ſame be obſerued and kept, in caſe where a man and his wife be impleaded in the kings court.

Chap. 11 London. Colluſion. Leaſſe. Termour.

It is prouided alſo, that if a man leſſe his lands for terme of yeres within the citie of London and he to whome the frée hold belongeth, cauſeth him ſelfe to be impleded by colluſion and maketh default after default, or commeth into the court, and giueth it vp, for to make the termour léeſe his terme, and the demaundant obteineth his ſuite, ſo that the termour may recouer by writ of couenant. The Mayre, and the bailifes may inquire by a good inqueſt in the preſence of the termour & of the demaundant, whither the demaundant moued his plea vpon good right that he had, or by colluſion and fraud, to make the termour léeſe his terme. And if it be found by the inqueſt, that the demaundant moued his plea vpon good right that he had, the iudgement ſhalbe giuen forthwith. And if it be found by inqueſt, that hee impleded him by fraud to put the termour from his terme, then ſhal the termour enioy his terme, and the execution of iudgement for the demaundant ſhall be ſuſpended vntill the terme be expired. And in like maner it ſhall be of equitie before Iuſticers in ſuch caſe, if the termour do challenge it afore the iudgement giuen.

Cap.12. London. Forein. Voucher. Warrantie.

It is prouided alſo, that if a man be impleaded for lande in the ſame citie, and doth vouch a forreine to warrantie, he ſhall come into the Chauncerie, and haue a writ to ſommon his warrantor at a certeine daie before the Iuſticers of the bench, and an other writ to the Maior and bailifes, that they ſhall ſurceſſe in the matter that is before them by writ, vntil the cauſe of the warrantie be determined before the Iuſticers of the bench. And when the warrantie ſhall be once determined before the Iuſticers of the bench, then ſhall he that is vouched be commaunded to go into London, to anſwere vnto the chiefe plea. And a writ ſhall be awarded for the demaundant by the Iuſticers vnto the Maior and bailifes, that they ſhall procéede in the plea. And if the demaundant recouer againſt the tenant, the tenannt ſhall come before the Iuſticers of the bench, which ſhall direct a writ to the Maior and bailifes, that if the tenant haue loſt his lande, that they ſhall cauſe the land to be extended, and valued, and ſhall returne the extent at a certeine daie into the bench, and after it ſhall be commaunded to the ſhirife of the ſhire (where the warrantie was ſommoned) that he ſhall cauſe the partie that doth vouch, to haue as much of the land of the warrantour in value as he loſt.

Cap.13. London. Waſt. Eſtripament.

It is prouided alſo, that after ſuch time as a plea is moued in the citie of London by writ, the tenant ſhall haue no power to make anie waſte or eſtripament of the lande being in demaund (hanging the plea) and if he do, the Maior and bailifes ſhall cauſe to be kept at the ſuite of the demaundant. And the ſame ordinance and ſtatute ſhal be obſerued in other cities, burghes, and euerie where throughout the realme.

Cap.14. London. Diſſeiſin. Eſchequer. Amerciament.

The king of his ſpeciall grace graunteth vnto his citizens of London, that where as before times they that were diſſeaſed of their fréeholde in the ſame citie, could not recouer their dammages before the comming of the Iuſticers to the towre, that from henſforth the diſſeiſies ſhall haue dammages by recogniſance of the ſame aſſiſe, whereby they recouered their lands. And the diſſeiſours ſhall be amerced before two barons of the Eſchequer, which ſhall reſort once a yéere into the citie to do it. And it ſhall be commaunded vnto the Barons, and to the treaſurer of the Eſchequer, that they ſhall cauſe it euerie yéere to be leuied by two of them at their vpriſing. And the amerciaments by the ſommons of the Eſchequer ſhall be leuied to the kings vſe, and be deliuered vp in the Eſchequer.

Cap.15. London. Wynes.

It is prouided alſo, that the Maior, and bailifes before the comming of thoſe Barons, ſhall inquire of Wines ſolde againſt the aſſiſe, and ſhall preſent it before them at their comming, and then ſhall be amerced where before they were wont to tarrie vnto the comming of the Iuſticers in eyre. Giuen at Glouceſter, the iiii. daie of October, the vi. yéere of the reigne of king Edward the ſonne of king Henrie.

Expoſitions vpon the Statute of Glouceſter.

Afterward by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and his Iuſticers, certeine expoſitions were made vpon ſome of the articles aboue mencioned, that is to wite, to the firſt article, that for entries by diſſeiſin, dammages ſhall runne from the time of the ſtatute publiſhed. In the ſame wiſe, for dammages in writtes of entre vpon diſſeiſin, and in all writtes of Mortdancetour, couſinage, ayel, or beſayel. Touching intruſion by ones owne act by anie maner of writte, dammages ſhall runne after the writ purchaſed againſt them that held by ſtatute, albeit that their auncetours died ſeaſed thereof. Touching inqueſtes to be made of ſuch as be within age, the ſtatute ſhal runne without limitation of time. Touching alienation of lands holden by the law of England, the ſtatute ſhall runne for ſuch lands being aliened after the time of the ſtatute publiſhed. In like maner the ſtatute ſhall extend and runne vpon the lands of a wife aliened by her huſband (where as no fine was leuied.) Touching lands being let in fée ferme, vppon condition to paie therefore yeerelie the fourth part of the verie value thereof, the ſtatute ſhall runne and extend as well vnto landes that were leaſſed before the making of the ſtatute as after, in caſe that the tenant haue withholden aboue the ſpace of two yeres that, that he ſhould haue paide to his leſſour yerelie according to the forme of his couenant. And as to the puniſhment of waſte in all caſes (except it be of dowers and wardes) it ſhall be vnderſtanden of waſtes done ſithens the ſtatute publiſhed. And as concerning them which do aliene their dowers, it ſhall be alwaies vnderſtanden after the publiſhing of the ſtatute. Giuen at Glouceſter the ſondaie next after the feaſt of ſaint Peter ad vincula, the vi. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the firſt.

A Statute forbidding bearing of armour, made the vii. yere of Edward the firſt.

Edward by the grace of God king of England, lorde of Irelande, duke of Acquitaine, to his Iuſtices of his bench, greeting. Whereas of late certaine perſons deputed to treate vpon ſundrie debates had betwéene vs and certeine great men of our realme. Amongeſt other things it was accorded, that in our next parliament after prouiſions being made by vs and by the common aſſent of the prelates Erles, and Barons, that in all parliaments, treaties, and other aſſemblies, which ſhoulde bee made in the realme of Englande for euer, that euerie man ſhall come without all force and armour well and peacibly to the honor of vs, and of the peace of vs and our realme. And now in our parliament at Weſtminſter after the ſaid treatiſe, the prelates, earles, barons and the communialtie of our realme there aſſembled, to take aduiſe of this buſines, haue ſaid, that to vs it belongeth, and our part is through our royall ſegniorie, ſtraitlie to defend force of armour, and all other force againſt our peace, at all times when it ſhall pleaſe vs, and to puniſh them which ſhall doe contrarie, according to the lawes and vſages of our realme. And hereunto they are bound to aide vs as their ſoueraigne lord at all ſeaſons when neede ſhall be. We commande you, that ye cauſe theſe things to be red afore you in the ſaid bench, and there to be enrolled. Giuen at Weſtminſter the xxx. daie of October, the ſeuenth yeere of our raigne.

The ſtatute of Mortmaine, made the vij. yeere of Edward the firſt.

WHere of late it was prouided that religious men ſhould not enter into other mens fees without ſpeciall licence of the chiefe lords of whom ſuch fees be holden immediatlie. And afterward religious men haue entred as well into their owne fees as in the fees of other men approprying & buying them, and ſometime receiuing of the gift of other men, whereby the ſeruices that are due of ſuch fees, and which at the beginning were prouided for defence of the realme are wrongfullie withdrawne, and the chiefe lords do leſe their eſchetes of the ſame, we therefore intending to prouide conuenient remedie in the premiſſes by the aduiſe of our prelates, earles, barons, & other our ſubiects being of our counſell, haue prouided made and ordeined that no perſon religious or other whatſoeuer he be that wil buie or ſel anie lands or tenements, or vnder the colour of gift or leaſe, or that wil receiue by reaſon of anie other title, whatſoeuer it be lands or tenements, or by anie other craft or engin will preſume to approper to himſelfe vnder peine of forfeiture of the ſame, whereby ſuch lands or tenements maie anie wiſe come into Mortmaine. We haue prouided alſo, that if anie perſon religious or other, do preſume either by craft or engin to offend againſt this ſtatute, it ſhalbe lawful to vs and other chiefe lords of the fee immediate to enter in the land ſo aliened within a yeere from the time of the alienation and to hold it in fee and as inheritance. And if the chiefe lord immediate be negligent and will not enter within the yeere, then it ſhall be lawful to the next chiefe lord immediate of the fee, to enter in the ſame land within halfe a yeere next following, and to holde it as before is ſaid. And ſo euerie chiefe lord immediate maie enter in ſuch lands if the next lord immediate be negligent to enter into ſuch lands as before is ſaid. And if all the chiefe lords of ſuch fees being of full age, within the iiii. ſeas, and out of priſon be negligent or ſlacke in this behalfe, wee immediatelie after the yeere accompliſhed from the time that ſuch purchaſes, gifts, or appropriations hap to be made ſhall take ſuch lands and tenements into our hand, and ſhall infeffe other therin by certaine ſeruices to be done to vs for the defence of our realme, ſauing the chiefe lordes of the fees, their wards and eſchetes and other ſeruices thereunto due and accuſtomed. And therfore we commande you, that ye cauſe the foreſaid ſtatute to be red before you, and from henceforth to be kept firmelie and obſerued, witneſſe of my ſelfe at Weſtminſter the xiiii. daie of Nouember, the vii. yeere of our raigne.

The correction of the xij. chapter of the ſtatute of Gloceſter, concerning foreines being vouched to warrantie in the huiſtings of London, made in the ix. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

IT is prouided alſo, that if one being impleaded in the citie of London, do vouch a foreine to warrantie, the maior, and the bailifes ſhall aiourne the parties before the iuſticers of the bench at a certaine daie, and ſhall ſend their record thither. And the iuſticers ſhall cauſe the warrantour to be ſommoned before them, and ſhall trie the warrantie. And the maior and the bailifes in the meane time ſhall ſurceaſe in the matter that dependeth afore them by writ, vntill ſuch time as the warrantie be determined before the iuſticers of the bench. And when the matter ſhall be determined, commandement ſhall be giuen to the vouchee, to depart into the citie, and to anſwere vnto the firſt plea. And the demandant at his ſuite ſhall haue a writ from the iuſticers of the bench vnto the maior and bailifes, that they ſhall proceede in the plea. And if the demandant recouer, the tenant ſhall come to the iuſticers of the bench, and haue a writte to the maior and bailiffes, that in caſe the tenant haue loſt his lande, they ſhall cauſe it to be extended, and returne the ſame extent vnto the bench at a certaine daie, & after it ſhal be commanded to the ſhirife of the ſhire, where the warrantie was ſommoned, that he ſhall cauſe the tenant to haue of the landes of the warrentour to like value. And if it fortune that the tenant make default at the daie that is aſſigned him in the bench, then ſhall there go forth a writ from the iuſticers of the bench to the maior and bailifes, to ſeaſe the land demanded into the kings hands by a petie Cape, and to ſommon the tenant that he be at the huiſtings at a certaine daie, whereat the iuſticers ſhall be aduiſed to giue iudgement vpon the ſame default, if hee can not ſaue it: and in caſe he can ſaue it, then the iuſticers ſhalbe certified thereof by their record and by the ſame record they ſhall pleade the warrantie.

It is to be remembred, that this article in forme afore mencioned, was ſigned vnder the great ſeale of king Edward, ſonne of king Edward, in the ix. yeere of his raigne, and ſent vnto the iuſticers of the bench after the maner of a writ patent, with a certaine writ cloſed, dated by the kings hand at Weſtminſter, the ſecond daie of Maie, the yeere afore mentioned, that they ſhould do and execute all and euerie things conteined in the article aforeſaid, albeit that the ſame doe not accord with the ſtatute of Gloceſter in all things.

The new ſtatute of the eſchequer, otherwiſe called the ſtatute of Rutland.

EDward by the grace of God, &c. To our treaſurer and barons of the eſchequer, greting. To thintent that prouiſion maie be had for the indemnitie of vs and our people in certaine caſes touching vs and our people aforeſaid in our ſaid court of eſchequer: We will and prouide from henſforth the bodies of ſhires ſhall not be written in ſeuerall rolles, but ſhall be written in a certaine rolle annuall, and ſhall be red euerie yéere vpon the ſeuerall accompts of ſhirifes, that is to wit in the ſeuerall counties, that it maie be knowne, if ought maie eſcheate vnto vs by anie maner meane. The remanents of the ſame ſhire ſhall be written by latter dates in the annuall rolles, and the ſhirifes ſhall be charged therwith, in which remanents the liueries and almes ordinarie or allowed, and other allowances (if ſhirifes haue had anie) of the iſſues of their bailiwékes by our writtes of diuers allowances vnto our grieuous damage: we will and prouide that of ſuch maner allowances ſo to be made, from henſforth viewe ſhall be made in our eſchequer, and the ſame viewe being faithfully made, the ſame treaſurer and barons ſhall certifie the chauncellour of the ſaid allowances ſo to be made, and that writtes of allowances ſhall be made according to the ſame certificate. Moreouer there ſhall be written in the ſame annuall rolles, the fermes of the ſhirifes, the profits of counties, the fermes of ſeriantíes and aſſertes, the fermes of cities boroughes and townes, and other fermes whereof there is anſwere made yéerely in the eſchequer. And in them alſo ſhall be written all dettes determined, and all groſſe debts, whereof is hope that ſome what ſhall be paied againe.

Item all debtes that ſeeme to be cléere, when it is come vnto accompt, or to the title of new oblations.

Nothing ſhall be written in the annuall rolle, but thoſe debts whereof there is hope of payment, and whereof the ſhirife is anſwerable, and debts that ſéeme cléere in the originalles.

Of dead fermes, and debts deſperate, one rolle ſhall be made, and ſhall be inrolled and red euerie yéere vpon the accompts of ſhirifes, and the debts whereof the ſhirife is anſwerable, ſhall be written in the annuall rolle, and there ſhall be acquited.

Moreouer we will and prouide that it ſhall be proclaimed in euerie countie, that all they that haue tailes of the eſchequer for the debts of them ſelues or their anceſters hitherto paied vſuallie there, and not yet allowed, whereof ſhall come in the ſomons of the eſchequer, that ſuch tailes ſhal be deliuered to their ſhirifes, to be allowed at the eſchequer at their accompts. And the ſhirifes ſhal make to them (of whome they ſhall ſo receiue tailes) there writings witneſſing the receipt of thoſe tailes.

Two faithfull knights deputed therunto betwéene whom and the ſaide ſhirifes indentures ſhall be made of ſuth receipts with the ſeales of them both interchangeably.

The foreſaid knights deputed thereunto, ſhall ſend the partes of their indentures, at the terme appointed vnto the eſchequer in forme aforeſaid, to the end that by the viewe and witnes of them, the ſaid tailes ſo receiued by the ſhirifes, may be ſhewed, & be allowed vpon their accompts.

Moreouer it ſhall be proclaimed that except thoſe that haue ſuch tailes do ſhewe them to the ſhirifes and knights to be executed as afore is ſaid that they ſhal be diſtrained for the whole debt, and the tailes to be reputed for vnpaied.

Moreouer that debts which yet are to come in the ſommons of the eſchequer, whereof the debtours do profer tailes againſt diuers ſhirifes, ſhall be defaulked and acquited.

Moreouer we prouide that certaine perſons aſſigned thereunto on our behalfe ſhal be ſent vnto euerie ſhire, which ſhall haue full power to enquire of ſuch maner debts, and alſo to call afore them ſolemly as well the ſhirifes as their heires and aſſignes, and the tenants of their landes, in caſe they be dead that haue receiued the debts, and alſo if néede be to procéede to the taking of ſuch maner inqueſts, whether the parties (againſt whome the foreſaid tailes were ſhewed) do come or not. So that the ſhirife do returne a reaſonable ſommons made to them therfore and ſo the truth being inquired and diſcuſſed in preſence of the parties (if they will be there) the inquiſitours ſhall make rolles of them that ſhalbe conuict before them, ſo that the foreſaid debts being confeſſed and inrolled, the tailes of the ſame ſhall be forthwith broken. And the ſhirifes ſhall haue in their cuſtodie the tranſcripts of the ſame rolles vnder the ſeales of the inquiſitour, and ſhall ſurceaſe in making diſtreſſes for the debts conteined in the ſame vntil they ſhal haue otherwiſe in commandement from vs therefore. And the foreſaid inquiſitours ſhall ſend vnto the eſchequer the foreſaid rolles vnder their ſeales, that it may be examined there by a ſerch to be made therfore what debts be paide in the whole, and what are paide in part, and what debts there be whereof the debtours be not acquited, according as ſhall be conuenient to be done.

Moreouer we will and prouide that the chamberlaines from henceforth ſhall not make to the ſhirifes or anie of their bailifes, tailes of diuidendis vnleſſe they firſt receiue of them writinges conteining the particuler ſummes of the actions of debts and the names of them that paide them, in to the which particulers he may part the names of ſuch maner diuidendis, which being ſo receiued vnder their ſeales it ſhall not be lawfull to number them in to other particulers.

Moreouer we prouide that all debts whereunto the ſhirifes make returne, that the debters haue nothing in their bailiwéekes, ne had not at ſuch time as they were charged with the ſame debts, or that the debtours be not founden: that the ſame debts ſhall be extreated in rolles, and the ſame rolles to bee deliuered vnto faithfull and circumſpect men which ſhall make inquirie thereof after ſuch forme as ſhall be prouided by the treaſurer and barons.

But for ſo much as certaine pleas heretofore hold in the eſchequer which did not concerne vs nor our miniſters of the eſchequer, whereby as well our pleas, as the cauſes of our people are vndulie prorogued and letted. We will and ordeine that no plea ſhall be holden or pleaded in the eſchequer aforeſaid, vnleſſe it do ſpeciallie concerne vs or our miniſters aforeſaid. And therefore wee commande that ye cauſe the premiſſes to be diſtinctly and openlie red afore you, and to enrolle it, cauſing the ſame to be ſtreitlie obſerued in our coart of eſchequer aforeſaid. In witneſſe of which. &c. Giuen at Rutland. the xxiiii. daie of the moneth of Maie, in the x. yeere. &c.

The ſtatute of Acton Burnell made the xiij. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

FOrasmuch as marchants which heretofore haue lent their goods to diuers perſons bee greatlie impoueriſhed, becauſe there is no ſpéedie lawe prouided for them to haue recouerie of their debts at the daie of paiment aſſigned. And by reaſon hereof manie marchants haue withdrawne to come into this realme with their marchandiſes to the great damage as well of the marchants as of the whole realme. The king him ſelfe and his counſel hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed that euerie marchant which will be ſure of his debt, ſhall cauſe his debtour to come before the maior of London or of Yorke or Briſtow, or before the maior and a clerke (which the king ſhall appoint for the ſame) for to knowledge the debt and the daie of paiment, and the recogniſance ſhall be entred into a rolle with the hand of the ſaid clerke, which ſhall be knowne. Moreouer the ſaid clerke ſhall make with his owne hand a bill obligatorie whereunto the ſeale of the debtour ſhal be put, with the kings ſeale that ſhalbe prouided for the ſame purpoſe, the which ſeale ſhall remaine in the kéeping of the maior and clerke abouesaid. And if the debtour doth not paie at the daie to him limitted, the creditour ſhall come before the ſaid maior and clerke with his bill obligatorie. And if it be found by the rolle and by the bill that the debt was knowledged and that the day of paiment is expired, the maior ſhall incontinent cauſe the moueables of the debtour to be ſold as farre as the debt doth amount at the preiſing of honeſt men, after the maner of borough goods deuiſeable vntill the whole ſumme of the debt and the money be fullie paide to the creditour. And if the maior can finde no buier, he ſhall cauſe the moueables to be deliuered to the creditour at a reaſonable price, as much as doth amount to the ſumme of the debt. And the kings ſeale ſhall be put vnto the ſale and deliuerance of the goods deuiſable for a perpetuall witneſſe. And if the debtour haue no moueables within the iuriſdiction of the maior whereupon the debt may bee leuied, but peraduenture hath ſome otherwhere within the realme, then ſhall the maior returne the recogniſance made before him and the clerke aforeſaide vnto the chauncellour vnder the kings ſeale. And the chauncellour ſhall direct a writ vnto the ſhirife in whoſe bailiweeke that the moueables of the debtour hap to bee, and the ſhirife ſhall cauſe him to agree with his creditour in ſuch forme as the maior ſhuld haue done in caſe that the moueables of the debtour had ben within his power. And let them that haue preiſed the moueable goods to be deliuered vnto the creditour, take good héede, that they do ſet a reaſonable price vpon them, for if they do ſet an ouer high price for fauour borne to the debtour to the damage of the creditour, then ſhall the thing ſo preiſed be deliuered vnto them ſelues at ſuch price as they haue limited, & ſhall be forthwith anſwerable vnto the creditour. And if the debtour will ſaie that the moueable goods were deliuered or ſold for leſſe then they were worth, yet ſhall he haue ſmall remedie therby for when the maior or the ſhirife haue ſold the moueable goods lawfullie to him that offered moſt, he maie accompt it his owne follie that he did not ſell his owne moueable goods him ſelfe before the daie of the ſuite (when he might well enough) & ſo haue leuied the money with his owne hands. And if the debtour haue no moueables whereupon the debt maie be leuied then ſhall his bodie be taken where it maie be founden and kept in priſon vntill that he hath made agréement, or his friends for him. And if he haue not wherewith he maie ſuſteine himſelfe in priſon, the creditour ſhall finde him bread and water to the end that he die not in priſon for default of ſuſtenance, the which coſtes the debtour ſhall recompence him with his debt, before that hee bee let out of priſon. And if the creditour be a marchant ſtranger he ſhal remaine at the coſts of the debtour for ſo long time as he tarieth about the ſuite of his debt, and vntill the moueable goods of the debtour be ſolde or deliuered vnto him. And if the creditour do not take the debtour alone for the ſuretie of his paiment, by reaſon whereof pledges or mainpernours be found, then thoſe pledges or mainpernours ſhall come before the maior and clerkes abouesaid, and ſhall bind them ſelues by writings and recogniſances, in like maner as the principall debtour. And in like maner if the debt be not paide at the daie limitted, ſuch execution ſhall be awarded againſt the pledges or mainpernours, as before is appointed for the debtour. Prouided neuertheleſſe that ſo long as the debt maie be fullie taken and leuied of the goods moueable of the debtour in forme aboue mencioned the mainpernours or pledges, ſhall be without damage notwithſtanding for default of moueable goods of the debtour, the creditour ſhal haue execution of his recogniſance vpon the mainpernours or pledges in ſuch maner and forme as before is limitted againſt the principall debtour.

The ſtatutes made in the ſecond parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xiii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

WHere as of late our ſoueraigne lord the king, in the quinzime of S. John Baptiſt, the ſixt yeere of his raigne, calling together the prelates, earles, barons, and his counſell at Gloceſter, and conſidering that diuers of this realme were diſherited, by reaſon that in manie caſes, where remedie ſhould haue ben had, there was none prouided by him nor his predeceſſours, ordeined certaine ſtatutes right neceſſarie and profitable for his realme, whereby the people of England and Ireland, being ſubiects vnto his power, haue obteined more ſpeedie iuſtice in their oppreſſions then they had before, and certaine caſes (wherein the lawe failed) did remaine vndetermined, and ſome remained to be enacted, that were for the reformation of the oppreſſions of his people. Our ſoueraigne lord the king in his parliament, after the feaſt of Eaſter, holden the xiii. yeere of his raigne at Weſtminſter, cauſed manie oppreſſions of the people, and defaults of the lawes, for the accompliſhment of the ſaid ſtatutes of Gloceſter, to be rehearſed, and thereupon did prouide certaine actes, as it ſhall appeare more plainelie here following.

Chap. 1.

FIrſt concerning lands, that manie times are giuen vpon condition, that is to wit, where anie giueth his land to anie man and his wife, and to the heires begotten of the bodies of the ſame man and wife, with ſuch condition expreſſed, that if the ſame man and his wife die without heires of their bodies betweene them begotten, the land ſo giuen ſhould reuert to the giuer or his heire. In caſe alſo where one giueth lands in free mariage, which gift hath a condition annexed, though it be not expreſſed in the deede of gift, which is this: That if the ſame huſband and wife die without heire of their bodies begotten, the land ſo giuen ſhall reuert to the giuer or his heire. In caſe alſo where one giueth land to another, and to the heires of his bodie iſſuing. It ſeemed verie hard, and yet ſeemeth vnto the giuers and their heires, that their will being expreſſed in the gift, was not heretofore, nor yet is obſerued. In all the caſes aforeſaid, after iſſue begotten and borne betweene them (to whome the landes were giuen vnder ſuch condition) heretofore ſuch feffees had power to alien the land ſo giuen and to diſherit their iſſue, contrarie to the mindes of the giuers, and contrarie to the forme expreſſed in the gift. And further where as the iſſue of ſuch feffee is failing, the land ſo giuen ought to returne to the giuer or his heire, by forme of the gift expreſſed in the deede, though the iſſue (if anie were) had died: yet by the deede and feffement of them (to whom land was ſo giuen vpon condition) the donours haue hitherto bene barred of their reuertion, which was directlie repugnant to the forme of the gift. Wherefore our ſoueraigne lord the king, perceiuing how neceſſary and expedient it ſhould be to prouide remedie in the foreſaid caſes, hath ordeined, that the will of the giuer, according to the forme in the deede of gift manifeſtly expreſſed, ſhal be from henceforth obſerued, ſo that they to whom the land was giuen vnder ſuch condition, ſhall haue ne power to alien the land ſo giuen, but that it ſhal remaine vnto their iſſue after their death, or ſhall reuert vnto the giuer or his heires (if iſſue faile) where as there is no iſſue at all, or if anie iſſue be, and faile by death, or heire of the bodie of ſuch iſſue failing: Neither ſhall the ſecond huſband of anie ſuch woman from henceforth haue anie thing in the land ſo giuen vpon condition after the death of his wife by the lawe of England, nor the iſſue of the ſecond huſband and wife ſhall ſucceede in the inheritance, but immediatlie after the death of the huſband and wife (to whom the land was ſo giuen) it ſhall returne to their iſſue, or to the giuer, or his heire, as before is ſaid. And for as much as in a new caſe, new remedie muſt be prouided, this maner of writ ſhall be granted to the partie that will purchaſe it.

Reuerter.
Deede of gift.
Alienation
Remainder.

Precipe A, quod iuſte &c. reddat B. manerium de F. cum ſuis pertinentiis quod C. dedit tali viro, & tali mulieri, & heredibus de ipſis viro, & muliere exeuntibus. Or thus. Quod C, dedit tali viro, in liberum maritagium, cum tali muliere. &c. & quod poſt mortem predictorum viri & mulieris, predicto B, filio eorundem viri & mulieris deſcendere debeat per formam donationis predictæ, vt dicit, &c. vel quod C, dedit tali & heredibus de corpore ſuo exeuntibus, & quod poſt mortem illius talis, predicto B, filio predicti talis, deſcendere debeat per formam. &c.

The writ whereby the giuer ſhall recouer (when iſſue faileth) is common enough in the chauncerie. And it is to wit, that this eſtatute ſhall hold place touching alienation of land contrarie to the forme of the gift hereafter to be made, and ſhall not extend to gifts made before. And if a fine be leuied hereafter vpon ſuch lands, it ſhall be voide in the lawe. Neither ſhall the heires, or ſuch as the reuertion belongeth vnto, though they be of full age within England, and out of priſon, need to make their claime.

Cap. 2.
Diſtreſſe.
Replevie.
Withernam.

For as much as lords of fees diſtreining their tenants for ſeruices and cuſtomes due vnto them are manie times grieued, becauſe their tenants do replevie the diſtreſſe by writ or without writte. And when the lordes at the complaint of their tenants, doe come by attachment into the countie, or vnto an other court, hauing power to holde pleas of withernam, and do auowe the taking good and lawfull: by reaſon that the tenants diſauowe and do diſclaime to holde ought of him (which tooke the diſtreſſe) and auowed it he that diſtrained is amercied, and the tenants goe quite, to whome puniſhment can not bee aſſigned for ſuch diſauowing by recorde of the countie, or of other courtes hauing no record: It is prouided and ordained from henceforth, that where ſuch lordes can not obtaine iuſtice in counties and ſuch maner of courts againſt their tenaunts, as ſone as they ſhall be attached at the ſuite of their tenants, a writ ſhall be graunted them, to remoue the matter before the iuſticers, afore whome, and none otherwhere, iuſtice may be miniſtred to ſuch lordes. And the cauſe ſhall be put in the writ, becauſe ſuch a man diſtrained in his fee for ſeruices & cuſtomes to him due. Neither is this act preiudiall to the law commonlie vſed, whereby it is prohibit, that no plea ſhall be moued before iuſticers at the ſuite of the defendant. For though it appeare at the firſt face, that the tenant is plaintiffe, and the lorde defendant: nouertheleſſe, hauing reſpect to that, that the lorde hath diſtrained and ſueth for ſeruices and cuſtomes being behinde, he appeareth in déede to be rather plaintiffe than defendant. And to the intent the iuſticers may know, vpon what freſh ſeaſon the lordes may aduow the diſtres good and lawfull vpon their tenants: From henceforth it is agréed and enacted, that a reaſonable diſtreſſe may be aduowed vpon the ſeaſon of anie aunceſtour or predeceſſour ſince the time that a writ of nouell diſſeiſin hath runne. And becauſe it chaunceth manie times, that the tenant, after that he hath repleuied his beaſtes, doth ſell or alien them, whereby returne can not be made vnto the lorde that diſtrained, if it be adiudged: It is prouided, that ſhiriffes or bailiffes from henceforth, ſhall not onelie receiue of the plaintiffes pledges for the ſuite, before they make deliuerannce of the diſtres, but alſo for the returne of the beaſtes, if returne be awarded. And if anie take pledges otherwiſe, he ſhall aunſwere for the price of the beaſtes, and the lorde that diſtraineth ſhall haue his recouerie by writ, that he ſhall reſtore vnto him ſo manie beaſtes or cattell. And if the bailiffe be not able to reſtore, his lord ſhall reſtore. And for as much, as it happeneth ſometime, that after that returne of the beaſtes is awarded vnto the diſtrainer, and the partie ſo diſtrained, after that the beaſtes be returned, doth repleuie them againe, and when he ſéeth the diſtrainer appearing in the court readie to anſwere him, doth make default, whereby returne of the beaſtes ought to be awarded againe vnto the diſtrainer: And ſo the beaſtes be repleuied twiſe or thriſe, and infinitlie, and the iudgements giuen in the kings court take no effect in this caſe, wherevpon no remedie hath bene yet prouided: In this caſe ſuch proces ſhall be awarded, that ſo ſone as returne of the beaſtes ſhall be awarded to the diſtrainer, the ſhiriffe ſhall be commaunded by a iudicial writ to make returne of the beaſts vnto the diſtrainer, in which writ, it ſhal be expreſſed, that the ſhiriffe ſhall not deliuer them without writ, making mention of the iudgement giuen by the iuſticers, which can not be without a writ iſſuing out of the rolles of the ſaid iuſticers before whom the matter was moued. Therefore, when he commeth vnto the iuſticers, & deſireth repleuin of his beaſtes, he ſhall haue a iudiciall writ, that the ſhiriffe taking ſuretie for the ſuit, & alſo of the beaſtes or cattell to be returned, or for the price of them (if returne be awarded) ſhal deliuer vnto him the beaſtes or cattel before returned, and the diſtrainer ſhall be attached to come at a certaine daie before the iuſticers, afore whome the plea was moued in preſence of the parties. And if he that repleuied make default againe, or for an other cauſe returns of the diſtres, being now twiſe repleuied be awarded, the diſtres ſhal remaine irrepleuiable, but if a diſtres be taken of new, and for a new cauſe, the proces abouesaid ſhal be obſerued in the ſame new diſtres.

Pledges.

Shiriffe.

Cap. 3.
Entre.

In caſe when a man being impleded of lands that he holdeth in right of his wife, had loſt the ſame by default, it was verie hard, that the wife after the death of hir huſband had none other recouerie but by a writ of right, wherefore our ſoueraigne lord the king hath ordained, that a woman after the death of hir huſband, ſhall recouer by a writ of entrie (whereto ſhe could not diſagrée during his life,) which ſhall be pleaded in forme vnder written. If the tenant do except againſt the demaand of the wife, that he entered by iudgement, and it be found that his entrie was by default (whereto the tenant might be bound to anſwere, if it were demaunded of him) then he ſhall be compelled to make further anſwere, and to ſhew his right according to the forme of the writ that he purchaſed before againſt the huſband and the wife. And if he can verifie, that he hath or had right, in the land demaunded, the woman ſhall gaine nothing by hir writ, which thing if he can not ſhew, the woman ſhall recouer the land being in demaund. Prouided alwaies, that if the huſband abſented himſelfe, and would not defend his wiues right, or otherwiſe in his life would not aunſwere, if the wife do come in before iudgement readie to anſwere the demaundant, and to defend hir right, the wife ſhall be admitted. Likewiſe tenant in dower, tenant by the lawe of the land, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or by gift (where a reuerſion is reſerued) do make default, or will giue vp: the heires, or they to whome the reuertion belongeth, ſhall be admitted to their aunſwere, if they come in before iudgement. And if vpon ſuch default or ſurrender, iudgment hap to be giuen: then the heires, or they vnto whome the reuertion belongeth after the death of ſuch tenants, ſhall recouer by a writ of entre, in which like proces ſhall be obſerued, as is aforeſaid, in caſe where the huſband léeſeth his wiues land by default. And ſo in the caſes aforeſaid, two actions do concurre, one betwéene the demaundant and tenant, and an other betwéene the tenant ſhewing his right, and the demaundant.

Cap. 4.
Couin.
Dower.

In caſe where the huſband being impleded for land, giueth vp the lande, demaunded vnto his aduerſarie by couin: after the death of the huſbande the iuſticers ſhall awarde the wife hir dower, if ſhe demaunde it by writ. But in caſe where the huſband léeſeth it by default the land being in demaund, and the wife after the death of hir huſband, demaundeth hir dower, it hath béene ſéene that ſome iuſticers haue awarded vnto the woman hir dower, notwithſtanding the Vouch.

Aſſiſe.

Dower.
Gardeine.

default, which hir huſband made, other iuſticers being of the contrarie opinion, and iudging otherwiſe: To the intent that from henceforth, ſuch ambiguitie ſhall be taken away and put in certaine: It is prouided, that in both caſes, the woman demaunding hir dower ſhall be heard. And if it be alledged againſt hir, that hir huſband loſt the lande, (whereof the dower is demaunded,) by iudgement whereby ſhe ought not to haue dower, and then it be inquired by what iudgement, and it be found that it was by default, whereunto the tenaunt muſt aunſwere: then it behoueth him to aunſwere further, and to ſhewe that he had right, and hath in the foreſaide lande, according to the forme of the writ that the tenant before purchaſed againſt the huſband. And if he can ſhewe, that the huſband of ſuch wife had no right in the lands, nor none other but he, the tenaunt ſhall go quite, and the wife ſhall recouer naught of hir dower, which thing if he can not ſhew, the wife ſhall recouer hir dower. And ſo in theſe caſes, and in certaine other folowing, that is to ſaie, when the wife being indowed leeſeth hir dower by default, and tenaunts in free mariage, by the lawe of England, or for terme of life, or in fee taile, diuers actions doo concurre, for ſuch tenaunts, when they muſt demaunde the lande loſt by default. And when it is come to that point, that the tenaunt muſt be compelled to ſhew his right (for as much as the law will not compell them to make aunſwere without them to whome the reuerſion belongeth) therefore they are ſuffered to vouche to warrantie according to the tenour of the writ, as if they were tenaunts. And if they haue a warrantie, when the warrantour hath warranted, the plea ſhall paſſe betweene him that is ſeaſed, and the warrantour according to the tenour of the writ, that the tenaunt purchaſed before, and by which he recouered by default, and ſo from manie actions, at length they ſhal reſort to one iudgement, which is this, that either the demaundants ſhall recouer their demaund, or the tenaunts ſhall go quit. And if the action of ſuch a tenaunt, which is compelled to ſhew his right, be moued by a writ of right, though that the great aſſiſe or battell can not be ioined by the words accuſtomed, yet it ſhall be ioined by words conuenient and vſed, for when the tenaunt in that that he ſheweth his right (which belongeth to him by the writ that he before purchaſed) in ſtead of a demaundaunt, the warrantour may well defend the right of the tenaunt, which commeth in place of the demaundaunt, as before is ſaid, and alledge the ſeaſon of his anceſtor, and to defend it by the bodie of a freeman, or put himſelfe in the great aſſiſe, and praie recogniſance to be made thereof, whether he hath more right to the lande being in demaunde, or elſe the partie before named, or it may be ioined otherwiſe by the great aſſiſe: and ſo the warrantour may defende the right, and knowledge tho ſeaſon of his aunceſtour, and put himſelfe in the great aſſiſe. &c. and praie recogniſaunce to be made, whether he hath more right in the foreſaid lande, as in that whereof he infeffed ſuch a man, or that ſuch a one releaſed and quite claimed. &c. or elſe the foreſaid partie &c. And where ſometime it chaunceth that a woman, which is not indowed of the lande of an heire being within age, doth purchaſe a writ of dower againſt a gardeine, and the gardeine indoweth the lande by fauour, or maketh defaulte, or by colluſion defendeth the plea ſo faintlie, whereby the wife is awarded hir dower in preiudice of the heire: It is prouided, that the heire when he commeth to full age, ſhall haue an action to demaund the ſeaſon of his aunceſtour againſt the wife, like as he ſhould haue againſt anie other deforceour. Prouided alwaies, that the wife ſhall haue hir exception ſaued againſt the demaundaunt, to ſhew that ſhe had right to hir dower, which if ſhe can ſhew, ſhe ſhall go quit and retaine her dower, and the heire ſhall be greeuouſlie amerced according to the diſcretion of the iuſticers. And if not, the heire ſhall recouer his demaund. &c. In like maner, the wife ſhall be aided, if the heire or anie other doo implead hir for hir dower, or if ſhe leeſe hir dower by default, in which caſe the default ſhall not be ſo preiudiall to hir, but that ſhe ſhall recouer hir dower, if ſhe haue right thereto, and ſhe ſhall haue this writ.

Precipe A, quod iuſte. &c. reddat B quæ fuit vxor F, tantam terram cum pertinentiis in C, quam clamat eſſe rationabilem dotem ſuam, vel de rationabili dote ſua, & quod predictus A, ei deforceat. &c. And to this writ the tenant ſhall haue his exception, for to ſhew that ſhe had no right to be indowed, which if he can verifie, he ſhall go quit, and if not, the wife ſhall recouer the land, whereof ſhe was indowed before. And where as before time, if a man had loſt his land by default, he had none other recouerie then by a writ of right, which was not maintenable by anie that could not claime of meere right, neither of tenants for terme of life, in free mariage, nor in taile, in which eſtates, a reuerſion is reſerued. It is prouided that from henceforth their default ſhall not be preiudiciall, but that they may recouer their eſtate by an other writ, then by a writ of right, (if they haue right.) For land in free mariage loſt by default, ſuch a writ ſhall be made.

Precipe A, quod iuſte, &c. reddat B, manerium de C. cum pertinentiis, quod clamat eſſe ius & maritagium ſuum, & quod predictus A, ei deforceat. Likewiſe of land for terme of life loſt by default, this writ ſhall be made.

Precipe A, quod iuſte, &c. reddat B, manerium de C, cum pertinentiis, quod clamat tenere ad terminum vitæ ſuæ, & quod predictus A, ei deforceat. Likewiſe, quod clamat tenere ſibi, & heredibus de corpore ſuo legittime procreatis, & quod predictus A, ei deforceat.

Chap. 5.
Auouſon.

Where as for aduouzons of churches there be but three originall writs, that is to ſaie, one writ of right, and two of poſſeſſion (which be darreine preſentment and Quare impedit) and hitherto it hath beene vſed in the realme, that when anie hauing no right to preſent, had preſented to anie church, whoſe clerke was admitted: he that was verie patrone, could not recouer his aduouſon, but onelie by a writ of right, which ſhould be tried by battaile or by great aſſiſe, whereby heires within age either by fraude, or elſe by negligence of their wardeines, and heires both of high and meane eſtate, either by negligence, or els by fraude of tenants by the curteſie, tenants in dower, or otherwiſe, for terme of life, or for yéeres, or in fée taile, were manie times diſherited of their aduouſons, or at the leaſt (which was the better for them) were driuen to their writ of right, in which caſe hitherto they were without remedie: It is prouided, that ſuch preſentments ſhall not be ſo preiudiciall to the right heires, or to them vnto whom ſuch aduouſons ought to reuert after the death of other perſons. For as often as anie hauing no right, doth preſent (during the time that ſuch heires are in warde) or during the eſtate of tenants in dower, by the curteſie, or otherwiſe for terme of life or of yéeres, or in taile, at the next auoidance when the heire is come to full age, or when after the death of the tenants before named, the aduouſon ſhall reuert vnto the heire being of full age, he ſhall haue ſuch action and receite by writ of aduouſon poſſeſſorie, as his laſt ancetour ſhould haue had at the laſt auoidance, happening in his time being of full age before his death, or before the demiſe was made for terme of life, or in fée taile, as before is ſaid. The ſame ſhall be obſerued in preſentments made vnto the churches being of the inheritance of women, what time they ſhall be vnder the power of their husbands, which muſt be aided by this eſtatute by the remedie aforeſaid. Alſo religious men, as biſhops, archdeacons, parſons of churches, and other ſpirituall men ſhall be aided by this eſtatute, in caſe anie hauing no right do preſent vnto churches belonging to prelacies, ſpirituall dignities, perſonages, or to houſes of religion, what time ſuch houſes, prelacies, ſpirituall dignities, or perſonages be vacant. Neither ſhall this acte be ſo largelie vnderſtanded that ſuch perſons (for whoſe remedie this ſtatute was ordained) ſhall haue the recouerie aforeſaid, ſurmiſing that Gardeines of heires, tenants in taile, by the curteſie, tenants in dower, for terme of life or for yéeres, or husbands which faintlie haue defended pleas moued by them or againſt them, becauſe the iudgements giuen in the kings courtes ſhould not be adnulled by this eſtatute the iudgement ſhall ſtand in his force, vntill it be reuerſed in the court of the king as erronious (if error be found) or by aſſiſe of darreine preſentment, or by enqueſt in Quare impedit, if it paſſe by attaint, or be adnulled by certification, which ſhalbe fréelie granted. And from henceforth one forme of pleading ſhal be obſerued amongſt iuſticers in writs of darreine preſentment & Quare impedit, ſo that where the defendant alledgeth plenartie in the church of his owne preſentation, the plea ſhall not fall by reaſon of the plenartie (ſo that the writ be purchaſed within the vi. monethes) though he can not recouer his preſentation within the vi. moneths. And ſometimes where a fine is leuied betwéene manie, claiming one aduouſon, and inrolled before the iuſticers in the roll or fine in this forme, that one ſhall preſent the firſt time, and at the next auoidance an other, and the third time an other, and ſo of manie, in caſe there be manie. And when one hath preſented for his turne, according to the forme of their agreement, and fine, and at the next auoidance he to whome the ſecond preſentation belongeth, is diſturbed by anie that was partie to the ſaid fine or in his ſted. It is prouided, that from henceforth he that is ſo diſturbed ſhall haue no neede to ſue a Quare impedit, but ſhall reſort to the roll or fine. And if the ſaid concord, or agrement be found in the rolle or fine: then the ſhirife ſhallbe commanded, that he giue knowledge vnto the diſturber, that he be readie at ſome ſhort daie, conteining the ſpace of fiftéene daies, or thrée weekes (as the place hapneth to be neere or farre) for to ſhew if hee can alledge anie thing, wherefore the partie that is diſturbed ought not to preſent. And if he come not, or peraduenture doth come, and can nothing alledge to barre the partie of his preſentation by reaſon of anie déede made or written ſince the fine was made or inrolled, he ſhall recouer his preſentation with his damages. And where it chanſeth, that after the death of the ancetour of him that preſented his clerke vnto a church, the ſame aduouſon is aſſigned in dowre to anie woman, or to tenant by the curteſie, which do preſent, and after the death of ſuch tenants, the verie heire is diſturbed to preſent, when the church is voide: It is prouided, that from henceforth it ſhall be in the election of the partie diſturbed, whither he will ſue a writ of Quare impedit, or of darreine preſentment. The ſame ſhall be obſerued in aduouſons dimiſed for terme of life, or yéeres, or in fée taile. And from henceforth in writtes of Quare impedit, and darraine preſentment, damages ſhall be awarded, that is to wit, if the time of ſixe moneths paſſe, ſo that the biſhop do preſent, and the verie patrone léeſeth his preſentation for that time, damages ſhall be awarded for two yéeres value of the church. And if the vi. moneths be not paſſed, and the preſentment be derained within the ſaid time, then damages ſhall be awarded to the halfe yéeres value of the church. And if the diſturber haue not whereof he maie recompence damages (in caſe where the biſhop preſenteth by lapſe of time) he ſhall be puniſhed by two yéeres impriſonment. And if the aduouſon be derained within the halfe yéere, yet the diſturber ſhall be puniſhed by the impriſonment of halfe a yéere. And from henceforth writtes ſhall be granted for chapels, prebends, vicarages, hoſpitals, abbeis, priories, and other houſes, which be of the aduouſons of other men that haue not bene vſed to be granted before. And when the parſon of anie church is diſturbed to demande tithes in the next pariſh by a writ of Indicauit, the patrone of the parſon ſo diſturbed, ſhall haue a writte to demande the aduouſon of the tithes, being in demande, and when it is derained, then ſhall the plea paſſe in the court chriſtian, as farreforth as it is derained in the kings court. When an aduouſon diſcendeth vnto parceners, though one preſent twiſe, and vſurpeth vpon his coheire, yet he that Preſent[illegible] tion.

Iudgement.

Sherife.

Damages

Diſturber.

Tithes

was negligent, ſhall not be cleerelie barred, but an other time ſhall haue his turne to preſent when it falleth.

Chap.6.
Voucher.
Warrantie.

When anie demaundeth land againſt another, and the partie that is impleaded voucheth to warrantie, and the warrantour denieth his warrantie, and the plea hangeth long betwéene the tenant and the warrantour: And at length when it is tried, that the vouchee is bounden to warrantie by the law and cuſtome of the realme hitherto vſed, there was none other puniſhment aſſigned for the vouchee that denied his warranie, but onelie that he ſhould warrantiſe, and ſhould be amerced, becauſe he did not warrant before, which was preiudiciall vnto the demaundant, becauſe he ſuffred oftentimes great delaies by colluſion betwéene the tenant and the warrantour. Wherefore our ſoueraigne lord the king hath ordeined, that like as the tenant ſhould léeſe the land being in demaund, in caſe where he vouched, and the vouchee could diſcharge him ſelfe of the warranty, in the ſame wiſe ſhall the warrantour leeſe, in caſe where he denieth his warrantie, & it be found and tried againſt him, that he is bounden to warrantiſe. And if an inqueſt be depending betwene the tenant and the warrantour, and the demaundant will require a writ for to cauſe the iurie to come, it ſhall be granted him.

Chap. 7.
Admeaſurement of dower.
Gardeine.

A writ of admeaſurement of dower ſhall be from henceforth granted to a wardeine, neither ſhall the heire when he commeth in full age, be barred by the ſuite of ſuch a wardeine that ſuch againſt the tenant in dower fainedlie and by colluſion, but that he maie admeaſure the dower after as it ought to be admeaſured by the law of the land. And as well in this writ as in a writ of admeaſurement of paſture more ſpéedie proces ſhalbe awarded then hath bene vſed hitherto, ſo that when it is come vnto the great diſtreſſe, daies ſhall be giuen, within which two counties maie be holden, at the which open proclamation ſhall be made, that the defendant ſhall come in at the daie conteined in the writ, to anſwere to the plaintife, at which daie if he come in, the plea ſhall paſſe betwéene them. And if he do not come, and the proclamation be returned by the ſhirife in maner aboueſaid, vpon his default they ſhall make admeaſurement.

Chap. 8.
Admeaſurement of paſture.

Where as by a plea moued vpon a writ of admeaſurement of paſture, the paſture was ſometime admeaſured before the iuſticers, ſometime before the ſhirife in the countie, & it chaunced manie times after ſuch admeaſurement made, the paſture to be ouercharged againe by him that firſt did it, with mo beaſts then he ought to kéepe, whereupon no remedie hath bene yet prouided: It is ordeined, that vpon the ſecond ouercharge the plaintife ſhall haue remedie in this maner. If the admeaſurement were before the iuſticers, the plaintife ſhal haue a writ iudiciall, that the ſhirife in preſence of the parties being ſommoned (if they will come) ſhall inquire vpon the ſecond ouercharge, which if it be found, it ſhalbe returned before the iuſticers vnder the ſeales of the ſhirife and of the iurors.: And the iuſticers ſhal award the plaintife damages, and ſhal put in the extreats the value of the beaſts, which were put into the paſture after ſuch admeaſurement aboue the due number, and ſhal deliuer the extreats vnto the barons of the eſchequer, whereof they ſhal anſwere vnto the king. If ſuch admeaſurement be made in the countie, then at the requeſt of the plaintife a writ ſhal go out of the chancerie, that the ſhirife ſhal inquire vpon ſuch maner of ouercharge, and for the beaſts being put in, aboue the due number, and for the value of them he ſhal anſwere to the king at the eſchequer. And leaſt the ſhirife might defraud the king in this caſe, it is agréed, that all ſuch writs De ſecunda ſuperoneratione, that paſſe out of the chancerie, ſhalbe inrolled, and at the yéeres end the tranſcripts ſhalbe ſent into the eſchequer vnder the chancellours ſeale, that the treaſurer and barons of the eſchequer maie ſée how the ſhirife ſhal anſwere of the iſſues of ſuch writs. In the ſame wiſe writtes of rediſſeiſin ſhalbe inrolled & ſent into the eſchequer at the yéeres end.

Shirife.
Rediſſeiſin.
Eſchequer.

Chap. 9.
Diſtreſſe.

When chiefe lords diſtreine in their fée for cuſtomes and ſeruices to them due, and there is a meane which ought to acquite the tenant, ſithens it lieth not in the mouth of the tenant, after that he hath repleuied the diſtreſſe, to denie the demande of the chiefe lord, which auoweth in the kings court, that the diſtreſſes is lawfullie taken vpon his tenant, which is vpon the meane, and many haue bene ſore grieued by ſuch diſtreſſes, in ſo much as the meane (notwithſtanding that he hath ſufficient, whereby he maie bee diſtrained) doth make long delaies, before he will come into the court to anſwere for his tenant vnto the writ of meane, and moſt hard of all when the meane had nothing. In caſe alſo when the tenant was readie to do his ſeruices & cuſtomes vnto his lord, and the chiefe lord would refuſe to take ſuch ſeruices & cuſtomes by the hands of anie other then of his next tenant, and ſo ſuch tenants in demeane loſt ſomewhiles the profites of their lands for a time, and ſomewhiles for their whole time, and hitherto no remedie hath bene prouided in this caſe. A remedie is prouided and ordeined in this forme, that ſo ſone as the tenant in demeane (hauing a meane betwéene him & the chiefe lord) is diſtrained, incontinent the tenant ſhal purchaſe his writ of meane. And if the meane hauing land in the ſame countie, abſent him ſelfe vntil the great diſtreſſe be awarded, the plaintife ſhal haue ſuch daie giuen him in his writ of great diſtreſſe, afore the comming whereof two counties maie be holden, & the ſhirife ſhalbe commanded to diſtreine the meane by the great diſtreſſe, like as it is conteined in the writ and neuertheleſſe the ſhirife in two full counties ſhal cauſe to be proclaimed ſolemnely, that the meane do come at a daie conteined in the writ for to anſwere his tenant, at which day if he come, the plea ſhal paſſe betwéene them after the common vſage, And if he do not come, then ſhall he leeſe the ſeruices of his tenant, and from thenceforth, the tenant ſhall not anſwere him anie thing, but (the ſame meane being excluded) hee ſhall anſwere vnto the chiefe lord for ſuch ſeruices & cuſtomes, as the meane vſed to do before that time. Neither ſhall the chiefe lord haue power to diſtraine, ſo long as the foreſaid tenant doth offer him the ſeruices and cuſtomes due. And if the chiefe lord exact more then the meane ought to doo, the tenant in ſuch caſe ſhall haue againſt him all ſuch exceptions as the meane ſhoulde. And if the meane haue nothing within the kings dominion, the tenant ſhall neuertheleſſe purchaſe his writ of meane, of the ſhiriffe of the ſame ſhire, wherein he is diſtreined. And if the ſhiriffe returne that he hath nothing whereby he may be ſommoned, then ſhall the tenant ſue his writ of attachment. And if the ſhiriffe returne, that he hath nothing for to be attached by, he ſhall neuertheles ſue his writ of great diſtres, & proclamation ſhall be made in forme aboue ſaid. And if the meane haue no land in the ſhire where the diſtres is taken, but hath land in ſome other ſhire: then a writ original ſhal iſſue to ſommon the meane, vnto the ſhiriffe of the ſame ſhire (where the diſtres is taken) & when it is returned by the ſhiriffe, that he hath nothing in his ſhire, a writ iudiciall ſhall iſſue to ſommon the meane, vnto the ſhiriffe of the ſame ſhire, in which it ſhall be teſtified that he hath land, and ſuite ſhall be made in the ſame ſhire, vntill they haue paſſed vnto the great diſtres, & proclamation as aboue is ſaid where the meane hath land in the ſame ſhire in which the diſtres is taken. And neuertheles, ſuite ſhall be made in the ſame ſhire where he hath nothing, as aboue is ſaid of the meane that hath nothing, vntill the proces come to the great diſtres & proclamation, & ſo after proclamation made in both counties, the meane ſhall be forindged of his fee & ſeruice. And where it happeneth manie times, that the tenant in demeane is infeffed to hold by leſſe ſeruice, than the meane ought to doo vnto the chiefe lord, when after ſuch proclamation, the tenant hath attourned to the chiefe lord, and the meane being excluded, the tenant muſt of neceſſitie anſwere vnto the chiefe lord for all ſuch ſeruices & cuſtomes, as the meane was wont to doo to him. And after that the meane is come into the court, & hath confeſſed that he ought to acquit his tenant, or be compelled by iudgement to acquit, if after ſuch confeſſion or iudgement it is complained, that the meane doth not acquit his tenant, then ſhall iſſue a writ iudiciall, that the ſhiriffe ſhal diſtraine the meane to acquit the tenant, & to be at a certaine daie before the iuſticers, for to ſhew why he hath not acquited him before, & when they haue proceeded vnto the great diſtres, the plaintiffe ſhal be heard. And if the plaintiffe can proue that he hath not acquited him, he ſhall yeeld damages, and by award of the court, the tenant ſhall go quit from the meane, & ſhal atturne vnto the chiefe lord. And if he come not at the firſt diſtres, a writ ſhal go forth to diſtrein him againe, & proclamation ſhall be made, & as ſoone as it is returned, they ſhall proceede to iudgement as before is ſaid. And it is to be vnderſtanden, that by this eſtatute, tenants are not excluded, but they ſhal haue a warrantie of the meanes and their heires, if they be impleaded as they haue had before, nor alſo the tenants, but that they may ſue againſt their meanes, as they vſed heretofore, if they ſee that their proceſſe may be more auailable by the old cuſtome, than by this eſtatute. And it is to wite, that by this eſtatute no remedie is prouided to anie meanes, but onelie in caſe where there is but one meane betweene the lord that diſtreineth, & the tenant, & but in ſuch caſe onelie where the meane is of full age, & but in ſuch caſe where the tenant may attourne vnto the chiefe lord without preiudice of an other then of his mean, which is ſpoken for women holding in dower, & tenants by the curteſie, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or in fee taile, vnto whome for certaine cauſes, remedie is not yet prouided, but (god willing) there ſhall be at an other time.

Meane.
Shirife.

Demeſne.

Warranty

Dower.

Cap. 10.
Deliuering of writs.

Where as in the circuit of the iuſticers, it was proclaimed, that all ſuch as would deliuer writs, ſhould deliuer them within a certaine time, after which no writ ſhould be receiued: manie truſting vpon the ſame, and tarieng vntill the ſaide time, and no writ ſerued vpon them, departed by licence of the ſaid iuſticers, after whoſe departure their aduerſaries perceiuing their abſence, deliuered their writs in ware, which manie times by fauour, and ſometimes for rewards, be receiued of the ſhiriffe, and they that thought to haue departed quite, leeſe their lands. For the remedie of ſuch fraude, from henceforth the king hath ordained, that the iuſticers in their circuits ſhall appoint a time of fifteene daies, or of a moneth, or a time more or leſſe, (after as the countie ſhall happen to be more or leſſe) within which time, it ſhall be openlie proclaimed, that all ſuch as will deliuer their writs, ſhall deliuer them before the ſame time. And when the time commeth, the ſhiriffe ſhall certifie the chapters before the iuſticers in eire, how manie writs he hath, and what, and that no writ be receiued after the ſame time; and if it be receiued, the proceſſe iſſuing thereupon ſhall be of none effect, but onelie that a writ abated anie time during the circuit, ſhall be amended. Alſo, writs of dower of men that died within the ſommons of the circuit, aſſiſes of darraine preſentment, Quare impedit, of churches vacant, within the foreſaid ſommons, ſhall be receiued at anie time before the departure of the iuſticers. Alſo writs of nouel diſſeiſin ſhall be receiued in the circuit of iuſticers. The king of his ſpeciall grace graunteth, that ſuch as haue land in diuers ſhires where the iuſticers make their circuit, and that haue land in ſhires where the iuſticers haue no circuit, that feare to be impleaded, and are impleaded of other lands in ſhires, where they haue no circuit, as before the iuſticers at Weſtminſter, or in the kings bench, or before iuſticers aſſigned to take aſſiſes, or in anie countie before ſhiriffes, or in anie court baron, may make a generall attourneie to ſue for them in all pleas in the circuit of iuſticers moued, or to be moued for them, or againſt them, during the circuit, which attourneie or attourneies ſhall haue full power in all pleas moued during the circuit, vntill the plea be determined, or that his maiſter remoue him, yet ſhall they not be excuſed thereby, but that they ſhall be put in iuries and aſſiſes, before the ſame iuſticers.

Shiriffe.

Attourney
Circuit.

Cap. 11.
Receiuers.
Auditors.
Account.
Shiriffe.
Diſtreſſe.
Gailer.
Replegiare.
Debt.

Concerning ſeruaunts, bailiffes, chamberlaines, and all maner of receiuers, the which are accountable. It is agreed and ordeined, that when the maiſters of ſuch receiuers do aſſigne auditours to take their account, and they be found in arrerages vpon their account (all thinges alowed which ought to be alowed) their bodies ſhall be arreſted, and by the teſtimonie of the auditours of the ſame account, ſhall be ſent vnto the next gaile of the kings in thoſe parties, and ſhall be receiued of the ſhiriffe or gailer, and impriſoned in yron and vnder ſafe cuſtodie, and there ſhall remaine at their owne coſt, vntill they haue ſatiſfied their maiſters clearelie of arrerages. Neuertheleſſe, if anie perſon being ſo committed to priſon, do complaine, that the auditors of his account haue greeued him vniuſtlie, charging him with receits that he hath not receiued, or not alowing him expences, and liberaties reaſonable, and can finde freendes that will vndertake to bring him before the barons of the eſchequer, the partie ſhall be bailed vnto them. And the ſhiriffe (in whoſe priſon he is kept) ſhall giue knowledge vnto his maiſter, that he appeare before the barons of the eſchequer at a certaine daie, with the roles and tailes, by which he made his account, and in the preſence of the barons or the auditors, that they ſhall aſſigne him, the account ſhall be rehearſed, and iuſtice ſhall be done to the parties, ſo that if he be found in arrerages, he ſhall be committed to the Fleete, as aboue is ſaid. And if he flee and will not giue account willinglie as is contained in the other ſtatutes, he ſhall be diſtrained to come before the iuſticers to make his account, if he haue whereof to be diſtrained, and when he commeth into the court, auditours ſhall be aſſigned to take his account, before whome if he be found in arrerages, and cannot paie the arrerages forthwith, he ſhall be committed to the gaile in maner aforeſaid. And if he flee, and it be returned by the ſhiriffe, that he cannot be found, exigents ſhall go againſt him from countie to countie, vntill he be outlawed, and the priſoner ſhall not be repleuiſable. And let the ſhiriffe or gailor take heede, if it be within a franchiſe, or without, that he do not ſuffer him to go at large by the common writ called replegiare, or otherwiſe without aſſent of his maiſter. And if he do, and thereof be conuict, he ſhall be aunſwerable to the partie greeued of the damages done to him by ſuch his ſeruant, after as it may be found by the countrie, and ſhall haue his recouerie by a writ of debt. And if the gailer haue not wherewith he may be iuſtified, or not able to paie his debt, his ſuperior that committed the cuſtodie of the gaile vnto him, ſhall be anſwerable by the ſame writ.

Cap. 12.
Appeale.
Appealour.
Abbettor.
Eſſoine.

For as much as manie through malice intending to greeue other, do procure falſe appeales of murder, and felonie to be ſued by appealours, hauing nothing to ſatiſfie our ſouereigne lord the king, nor to the parties appealed for the damages ſuſtained by their falſe appeale: It is ordained, that when anie being appealed of felonie ſurmiſed vpon him, doth acquite him ſelfe in due maner, either at the ſuite of the appealour, or the kings: the iuſticers, before whome the appeale was heard and tried, ſhall puniſh the appealour by a yeares impriſonment, and the appealours ſhall neuertheleſſe reſtore to the parties appealed their damages according to the diſcretion of the iuſticers, hauing reſpect to the priſonment and trouble that the partie hath ſuſtained by reaſon of ſuch appeales, and to the ſlaunder and infamie that they haue incurred by the impriſonment, or otherwiſe, and ſhall neuertheleſſe make a greeuous fine vnto the king. And if the appealours be not able to recompence the damages, it ſhall be inquired by whoſe abbetment and malice the appeale was commenced, if the partie appealed deſire it. And if it be found by the ſame inqueſt, that anie man is abbettour through malice, at the ſuite of the partie appealed, he ſhall be diſtreined by a iudiciall writ to come before the iuſticers. And if he be lawfullie conuict of ſuch malicious abbetment, he ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment, and ſhall paie damages, as before is ſaid of the appealour. And from henceforth in appeale of the death of man, there ſhall no eſſoine lie for the appealour for anie cauſe, in what ſoeuer court the appeale ſhall hap to be determined.

Cap. 13.
Shiriffe.
Inqueſt.
Falſe impriſonment.
Bailiffes.

For as much alſo, as ſhiriffes faining manie times certaine perſons to be indited before them in their turnes of felonies and other treſpaſſes, do take diuers perſons that are not culpable nor lawfullie indited, and impriſon them, to the intent that they may exacte monie from them, where as they were not lawfullie indited by twelue men. It is ordained, that ſhiriffes in their turnes, and in other places where they haue power to enquire of treſpaſſers by the kings precept, or by office, ſhall cauſe ſuch inqueſts to be taken by lawfull men, and by twelue at the leaſt, which ſhall put their ſeales to ſuch inquiſitions, and ſuch as ſhall be found culpable by ſuch inqueſts, they ſhall take and impriſon as they haue vſed afore times to do. And if they do impriſon other then ſuch as haue bene indited by inqueſt: the parties impriſoned, ſhall haue their action by a writ of falſe impriſonment againſt the ſhiriffes, as they ſhould haue againſt anie other perſon that ſhould impriſon them without warrant. And as it hath bene ſaid of ſhiriffes, ſo ſhall it be obſerued againſt the bailiffes of anie franchiſe.

Cap. 14.
Waſte.
Prohibition.

Where as for waſt done in the inheritance of anie perſon, by gardeins, tenants in dower, tenants by the curteſie, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or yeares, a writ of prohibition of waſte hath bene vſed to be graunted, by which writ manie were deceiued, thinking that ſuch as had done the waſte ſhould not neede to anſwere, but onelie for waſte done after the prohibition to them directed: Our ſouereigne lord the king, to put this caſe out of doubt, from this time forth hath ordained, that of all maner of waſte done to the damage of anie perſon, there ſhall be from henceforth, not onelie a writ of prohibition, but alſo of ſommons, ſo that he of whom complaint is, ſhall anſwere for waſte done at anie time. And if he come not after the ſommons, he ſhall be attached, and after the attachment he ſhall be diſtreined, & if he come not after the diſtreſſe, the ſhiriffe ſhalbe commanded, that in proper perſon he ſhall take with him twelue, &c. & ſhal goe to the place waſted, and ſhall inquire of the waſte done, and ſhall returne an inqueſt, and after the inqueſt returned, they ſhall paſſe vnto iudgement, like as it is conteined in the ſtatute made at Gloceſter. Chapter. 5.

Shiriffe.

Chap. 15 Infant. Eloinement.

In euerie caſe where as ſuch as being within age maie ſue, it is ordeined, that if ſuch be eloined, ſo that they can not ſue perſonallie, their next friends ſhall be admitted to ſue for them.

Chap. 16 Infant. Feffement.

In caſe where inheritance diſcendeth to one being within age of the fathers ſide, that helde of one lord, and the mothers ſide that helde of an other lorde, there hath bene hitherto great doubt for the marriage of ſuch an heire to which of them two lordes it ſhoulde belong: It is agreed, that the ſame lorde ſhall from henceforth haue the marriage, of whom the childes auncetour was firſt infeffed, not hauing reſpect to the ſexe, nor to the quantitie of the lande, but onelie to the more ancient feffement by knights ſeruice.

Chap. 17 Eſſoine.

In the circuite of the iuſticers, an eſſoine De malo lecti, ſhall not be from henceforth allowed for lands in the ſame ſhire, vnleſſe he that cauſed him ſelfe to be eſſoined, be ſicke in deede, for if the demandant except, that the tenant is not ſicke, nor in ſuch plite, but that he maie come before the iuſticers, his exception ſhall be admitted. And if it can be ſo proued by inqueſt, the eſſoine ſhall be turned to a default. And from henceforth ſuch eſſoine ſhall not lie in a writ of right betweene two claiming by one diſcent.

Chap. 18 Debt. Extent.

Where debt is to be recouered or knowledged in the kings court, or damages awarded, it ſhal be from henceforth in the election of him that ſueth for ſuch debt or damages, to haue a writ of Fieri facias vnto the ſhiriffe, for to leuie the debt vpon the lands and goods of the debtor, or that the ſhiriffe ſhall deliuer to him all the lands and goods of the debtor (ſauing onelie his oxen and beaſts of his plough) and the one halfe of his lande vntill the debt be leuied vpon a reaſonable price and extent. And if he be put out of the land, he ſhall recouer by a writ of nouell diſſeiſin, and after that by a writ of rediſſeiſin if neede be.

Chap. 19 Debt. Ordinarie.

Where as after the death of a perſon dieng inteſtat, which is bounden to ſome other for debt, the goods come to the hands of the ordinarie to be diſpoſed: The ordinarie from henceforth ſhall be bound to anſwere as farforth as the goods of the deade will extende, in ſuch ſort as the executors ſhould haue bene bounden, if the partie had made teſtament.

Chap. 20 Mortdauncetor.

Where as the iuſticers in a plea of Mortdauncetour haue vſed to admit the anſwere of the tenant, that the plaintiffe is not next heire of the ſame ancetour, by whoſe death he demaundeth the lande, and is readie to enquire the ſame by aſſiſe: It is agreed, that in writs of coſinage, aiell, and beſaill, which be of the ſame nature, his anſwere ſhall be admitted and inquired, and according to the ſame inquiſition, they ſhall proceede to iudgement.

Chap. 21

Where as in a ſtatute made at Gloceſter it is conteined, that if anie leaſe his land to an other to paie the value of the fourth part of the lande or more, the leſſour or his heire after that the paiment hath ſeaſſed by two yeeres ſhall haue an action to demaunde the lande ſo leaſſed in demeane. In like maner it is agreed that if anie withhold from his lorde his due and accuſtomed ſeruice by the ſpace of two yeeres, the lorde ſhall haue an action to demaunde the land in demeane by ſuch a writ. Precipe A, quod iuſte, &c. reddat B, tale tenementum quod A, de eo tenuit per tale ſeruicium, & quod ad perdictum, B, reuerti debet eo, quod predictus A, in faciendo predictum ſeruicium per biennium ceſſauit, vt dicitur. And not onelie in this caſe, but alſo in the caſe whereof mention is made in the ſaide ſtatute of Gloceſter, writs of entre ſhall be made for the heire of the demandant againſt the heire of the tenant, & againſt them to whom ſuch lande ſhalbe aliened.

Chap. 22

Where as two or mo do holde wood, turfelande, or fiſhing in common, wherein none knoweth his ſeuerall, and ſome of them do waſte againſt the mindes of the other, an action maie lie by a writ of waſte. And when it is paſſed vnto the iudgement, the defendant ſhall chuſe either to take his part in a place certeine by aſſignement of the ſhiriffe, and by the viewe and othe of his neighbours ſworne and tried for the ſame intent, or elſe he ſhall graunt to take nothing from henceforth in the ſame wood, turfeland, and ſuch other, but as his fellowes will. And if he doe chuſe to take his part in a place certeine, the place waſted ſhall be aſſigned for his part after as it was before the waſte done. And there is ſuch a writ in this caſe, that is to ſaie. Cum A, & B, teneant boſcum pro indiuiſo, B, fecit vaſtum. &c.

Chap. 23 Accounts.

Executours from henceforth ſhall haue a writ of account, and like action and proceſſe in the ſame writ, as their teſtator had and ſhould haue if he had liued.

Chap. 24

In caſes where as a writ is granted out of the Chauncerie for a thing done to the noiſaunce of an other, the plaintiffes from henceforth ſhall not depart from the kings court without remedie, becauſe the lande is aliened from one to an other. And in the regiſter of the chauncerie there is no ſpeciall writ found in this caſe, as of a houſe, a wall, a mercat, but the writ is graunted againſt him that firſt leuied the noiſaunce. And though the houſe, wall, or ſuch like be aliened to another, the writ ſhall not be denied, but from hence forth, where in one caſe a writ is granted, in like caſe when like remedie falleth the writte ſhall be made as hath bene vſed before. Queſtus eſt nobis A, quod B, iniuſte &c. leuauit domum, murum, mercatum, & alia que ſunt ad nocumentum liberi tenementi ſui. &c. And if ſuch things leuied be aliened from one to another, the writ ſhalbe thus.

Queſtus eſt nobis, A, quod B & C, leuauerunt, &c. In like maner as a perſon of a church maie recouer common of paſture by a writ of nouel diſſeiſin, likewiſe from henceforth his ſucceſſor ſhall haue a Quod permittat, againſt the diſſeiſour or his heire, though a like writ were neuer granted out of the chauncerie before. And in like maner as a writ is granted to trie whether land be the free almes of ſuch a church, or elſe laie fee: euen ſo from henceforth a writ ſhalbe made to trie, whether it be the free almes of this church, or of an other church, if it be aliened to the poſſeſſion of an other church. And from henceforth as often as it ſhall fortune in the chauncerie, that in one caſe a writ is founde, and in like caſe falling vnder like law, and requiring like remedie is found none:
the clarkes of the chauncerie ſhal agree in making the writ, or the plaintiffes may adiourne it vntill the next parliament, and let the caſes be written in which they can not agree, and let them refer them ſelues vntill the next parliament, by conſent of men learned in the lawe, a writ ſhall be made, leaſt it might happen afterward that the kings court ſhould faile to miniſter iuſtice vnto complainants.

Chap. 25 For as much as there is no writ in the chancerie, whereby plaintiffes can haue ſo ſpeedie remedie as by a writ of nouell diſſeiſin, our ſoueraigne lorde the king, to the intent that iuſtice may be more ſpeedilie miniſtred, and that delaies in pleas may be abridged and taken awaie, graunteth, that a writ of nouell diſſeiſin ſhall holde place in mo caſes then it hath done heretofore, and granteth that for eſtouers of wood, profit to be taken in woods by gathering of nuts, acornes and other fruites, for a corrodie, for deliuerie of corne and other vitailes and neceſſaries to bee receiued yeerelie (in a place certeine) tolle, tronage, paſſage, pontage, pawnage, and ſuch like to be taken in places certeine, keepings of woods, parkes, foreſts, chaſes, warrens, yates, and other bailiweekes, Aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin. and offices in fee, from henceforth an aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin ſhall lie. And in all the caſes afore rehearſed the writ ſhall be De libero tenemento. And as before times it hath lien and holden place for common of paſture, ſo ſhall it from henceforth hold place for common of turfeland, fiſhing, and ſuch like commons, which anie man hath appendant to free hold, or without free holde by ſpeciall deede, at the leaſt for terme of life. In caſe alſo when anie holding for terme of yeeres, or in ward alieneth the ſame in fee, & by ſuch alienation the free hold is transferred to the feffee, the Alienation. remedie ſhall be by a writ of nouell diſſeſin, and as well the feffour as the feffee ſhall be had for diſſeiſours, ſo that during the life of anie of them, the ſaid writ ſhall hold place, And if by the death of the parties remedie happen to faile by that writ, then remedie ſhall be obteined by a writ of entre.
And albeit that aboue mention is made of ſome caſes wherein a writ of nouell diſſeiſin helde no place before, let no man thinke therefore that this writ lieth not now where it hath lien before. And though ſome haue doubted whether a remedie be had by this writ, in caſe where one commoneth in the ſeuerall of an other, let it be had for certeine, that a good & a ſure remedie is giuen in that caſe Diſſeiſour. by the ſaid writ. Let them that be named diſſeiſors beware from henceforth, they alledge not falſe exceptions, whereby the taking of the aſſiſe may be deferred, ſaieng that an other time an aſſiſe of the ſame land paſſed betweene the ſame parties, or ſaieng & lieng that a writ of more high nature hangeth betweene the ſame parties for the ſame lande, and vpon theſe and like matters doe vouch rolles or records to warrantie, to the ende that by the ſame vouching they may take away the veſture of the land, and receiue the rents and profits, to the great damage of the plaintiffe. And where Exception. before none other paine was limitted againſt him that falſlie had alledged ſuch vntrue exceptions, but onelie that after ſuch falſe ſurmiſes diſproued, the aſſiſe ſhould paſſe: Our ſouereigne lord the king to whom ſuch falſe exceptions be odious, hath ordeined, that if anie being named diſſeiſour do Voucher. perſonally allege the exception at the day to be giuen (if he faile of the warranty that he hath vouched) he ſhalbe adiudged for a diſſeiſour without taking of the aſſiſe, & ſhal reſtore the damages before inquired or to be required after the double, & ſhall neuertheles haue a yeres impriſonment for Bailiffe. his falſhood. And if the exception be alledged by a bailife, the taking of the aſſiſe ſhal not be delaied therefore, nor the iudgement vpon the reſtitution of the lands and damages. Prouided neuertheleſſe, that if the maiſter of ſuch a bailiffe, that was abſent, come afterward before the ſame iuſticers, that tooke the aſſiſe, and offer to proue by the record and rolles, that an other time an aſſiſe paſſed betweene the ſame parties for the ſame lande, or that the plaintiffe at an other time did withdraw his ſuite in a like writ, or that a plea hangeth by a writ of more high nature: a writ of Venire facias ſhall be made to him vpon the ſame record, and when he hath the ſame, & the iuſticers do perceiue, that the record ſo ſhewed by him before the iudgement ſhould be ſo auaileable, that the plaintiffe by force of the ſame, ſhoulde be barred of his action: the iuſticers ſhall awarde immediatlie a Scire facias againſt him that firſt recouered, that he be afore them at a certeine daie:
at the which the defendaunt ſhall recouer his ſeaſing and damages (if he ought to haue paied anie Damages. by the firſt iudgement) with the damages alſo that he had after the firſt iudgement giuen, which he ſhall recouer to the double as before is ſaide, and he that firſt recouered ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment after the diſcretion of the iuſticers. In the ſame maner if the defendaunt, againſt whom the aſſiſe paſſed in his abſence, ſhewe anie deedes, or releaſſes, vpon the making whereof the iurie were not examined, nor coulde bee examined, becauſe there was no mention of likeliehoode made of them in pleading, and myght bee ignorant of the making of thoſe writings:
The iuſticers vpon the ſight of thoſe writings ſhall awarde a Scire facias to the partie that recouered, that he appeare before them at a certeine daie, and ſhall cauſe the iurours of the ſame aſſiſe to come. And if they finde thoſe writings true by their verdict, or by inrolement, he that purchaſed the aſſiſe contrarie to his owne déede ſhall be puniſhed by the paine aforeſaide. Neither ſhall the ſhirife from henſforth take an oxe of the diſſeiſie, but of the diſſeiſour onelie, and if there be manie diſſeiſours named in one writ: yet ſhall he be contented with one oxe, nor ſhall not aſke anie oxe but of fiue ſhillings price, or the value.

Shirife.

Cap.26. Reddiſſeiſin.

In writtes of rediſſeiſin from henſforth double dammages ſhall be awarded, and the rediſſeiſours ſhall not be repleuiable hereafter by the common writte. And like as in the ſtatute of Merton the ſame writ was prouided for ſuch as were diſſeiſed after they had recouered by aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin, of Mortdauncetour, or other iuries: euen ſo from henſforth the ſame writ ſhall further holde place for them that haue recouered by default, reddition, or otherwiſe without recognition of aſſiſes or iuries.

Cap.27. Eſſoine.

After ſuch time as anie hath put him ſelſe to anie inqueſt, an eſſoine ſhall be allowed him at the next daie, but the other daies following the taking of the inqueſt ſhall not be delaied by the eſſoine, whether he were eſſoined before or no. Neither ſhall anie eſſoine be allowed after a daie giuen by Prece partium, in caſe where the parties conſent to come without eſſoine.

Cap.28. Eſſoine.

Whereas by the ſtatute of Weſtminſter firſt, it was prouided that after the tenaunts haue once appeared in the court, no eſſoine ſhould be allowed them in writtes of aſſiſes. In like maner it ſhal be from henceforth obſerued againſt the demaundants.

Cap.29. Treſpas.

A writ of treſpas (Ad audiendum & terminandum) from henſforth ſhall not be graunted before anie Iuſticers, except Iuſticers of either bench, and Iuſticers in Eyre, or els it be for an hainous treſpas, where it is neceſſarie to ſet ſpedie remedie: and our ſoueraigne lord the king of his ſpeciall grace hath thought this good to be graunted. And from henſforth a writ (to heare and determine appeales before Iuſticers aſſigned) ſhall not be graunted but in a ſpeciall caſe, and for a cauſe certeine, when the king commaundeth, but leaſt the parties appealed or indited be kept long in priſon, they ſhall haue a writ of Odio & atia, like as it is declared in Magna carta and other ſtatutes.

Appeales.

Cap.30.

From henſfoorth two Iuſticers ſworne ſhall be aſſigned, before whome and none other, aſſiſes of nouel diſſeiſin, Mortdauncetour, and attaintes ſhall bee taken, and ſhall aſſociate with them two, or one of the diſcreteſt knightes of the ſhire into which they ſhall come, and ſhall take the foreſaide aſſiſes, and attaintes but thriſe in the yéere at the moſt, that is to ſay, Firſt between the quinzime of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, & the gule of Auguſt, and the ſecond time, betwéene the feaſt of the exaltation of the croſſe, and the vtas of ſaint Michael, and the third time betwéene the feaſt of the Epiphanie, and the feaſt of the purification. And in euerie ſhire at euerie taking of aſſiſes, before their departure, they ſhall appoint the daie of their retourne, ſo that euerie one of the ſhire maie knowe of their comming, and ſhall aiourne the aſſiſes from terme to terme, if the taking of them be deferred at anie daie by vouching to warrantie, by eſſoine, or by default of iurours. And if they ſée that it be profitable for anie cauſe that aſſiſes of Mortdauncetour being reſpited by eſſoine, or voucher ought to be adiourned into the bench, it ſhall be lawfull for them to do it, and then they ſhall ſend the record with the originall writ before the Iuſticers of the benche. And when the matter is come to the taking of the aſſiſe, the Iuſticers of the bench ſhall remitte the matter to the firſt Iuſticers before whome the aſſiſe ſhall be taken. But from henſforth the Iuſticers of the bench in ſuch aſſiſes ſhall giue foure daies at the leaſt in the yéere, before the ſaide Iuſticers aſſigned for to ſpare expence and labour. Inquiſitions of treſpas ſhall bee determined before the Iuſticers of both benches, except the treſpas be ſo heinous that it ſhal require great examination. Inquiſitions alſo of other pleas pleaded in either of the benches ſhall be determined before them wherein ſmall examination is required, as when the entre or ſeaſon of anie is denyed, or in caſe when one article is to be inquired. But inquiſitions of manie and great articles the which require great examination, ſhall be taken before Iuſticers of the benche except that bothe parties deſire that the inquiſition maie bee taken afore ſome of the aſſociates, when they happen to come into thoſe parties, ſo that from henſfoorth it ſhall not be done but by two Iuſticers, or one with ſome knight of the ſhire, vppon whome the parties can agrée. And ſuch inquiſitions ſhall not be determined before anie Iuſticers of the bench, vnleſſe a daie and a place certaine be appointed in the ſhire in preſence of the parties, and the daie and place ſhall be mencioned in a writ iudicial by theſe wordes.

Precipimus tibi, quod venire facias coram iuſticiariis noſtris apud Weſtmonaſterium in octauis ſancti Michaelis (niſi talis & talis tali die & loco ad partes illas prius venerunt) duodecim, &c. And when ſuch maner of inqueſtes be taken, they ſhall be returned into the bench, and there ſhall iudgement be giuen and inrolled. And if anie inquiſitions be taken otherwiſe then after this forme, they ſhall be of no effect, except that aſſiſe of darreine preſentment, and inquiſitions of Quare impedit ſhall be deliuered in their owne ſhire before one Iuſticer of the bench, & one knight at a day & place certain in the bench aſſigned, whither the defendant conſent or not, & there the iudgement ſhalbe giuen immediatly. Al Iuſticers of the benches from henſfoorth ſhal haue in their circuits clerks to inroll all pleas pleded before them, like as they haue vſed to haue in time paſſed. Alſo it is ordeined that the Iuſticers aſſigned to take aſſiſes, ſhal not compel the iurors to ſay preciſely, whither it be diſſeiſin or not, ſo that they do ſhewe the truth of the déede, & require aide of the Iuſticers. But if they of their own head wil ſay, that it is diſſeiſin, their verdit ſhall be admitted at their own peril. And from henſforth the Iuſticers ſhall not put in aſſiſes or iuries anie other, then then were ſommoned to the ſame at firſt.

Iuſticers of the bẽch. Enrolmẽt.

Diſſeiſin. Iurie.

Cap.30. Exception. When anie that is impleaded before anie Iuſticers doth allege an exception, praying that the Iuſticers will allow it, which if they will not allow, if he that alleageth the exception do write the ſame exception, and require that the Iuſticers will put to their ſeales for a witneſſe, they ſhall ſo do, and if one will not, an other of the companie ſhall. And if the king vpon complaint made againſt the Iuſticers cauſe the record to come before him, and the ſame exception be not found in the roll, and the plaintife ſhewe the exception written vnder the ſeale of a Iuſticer, the Iuſticer ſhal be commaunded to bee readie at a certeine daie either to confeſſe or denie his ſeale. And if the Iuſticer cannot denie his ſeale, they ſhall proceede to iudgement according to the ſame exception, and after as it ought to be allowed or diſallowed.

Cap.31. Colluſion. Default. When religious men and other eccleſiaſticall perſons do implede any, and the partie impleaded maketh default, wherby he ought to leeſe the land, for as much as the Iuſticers haue thought hitherto, that if the partie impleaded make default by colluſion, that where the demaundant by occaſion of the ſtatute could not obteine ſeaſon of the lande by title of gift or other alienation, he ſhall now by reaſon of the default, & ſo the ſtatute is defrauded: It is ordeined by our ſoueraigne lord the king in this caſe, that after the default made, it ſhall be inquired by the countrey, whether the demaundant had right in the thing demaunded or no, and if it be found, that the demaundant had right, the iudgement ſhall paſſe with him and ſhall recouer ſeaſin: and if he had no right, the land ſhal accrue to the next lord of the fee, if he demaund it within a yere from the time of the inqueſt taken. And if he do not demaund it within the yere, it ſhall accrue to the next lorde aboue, if he do demaund it within halfe a yeere after the ſame yeere. And ſo euerie lorde after the next lord immediate, ſhall haue the ſpace of halfe a yeere for to demaund it ſucceſſiuelie, vntill it come to the king, to whome at length thorough default of other lords the land ſhall accrue. Challenge. And to challenge the iurors of the inqueſt euerie of the chiefe lords of the fees ſhall be admitted, and likewiſe for the king they that will ſhall challenge. And after the iudgement giuen (the land ſhall remaine in the kings hands) vntill it be dereigned by the demaundant or ſome other chiefe lord, Shirife. and the ſhirife ſhall be charged to anſwere therefore at the eſchequer.

Cap.32. Croſſes. For as much as manie tenants ſet vp croſſes, or cauſe to be ſet vp in their lands in preiudice of their lordes, to the intent that the tenants ſhould defend themſelues againſt the chiefe lords of the fee, by the priuileges of templars and hoſpitelers: It is ordeined that ſuch lands ſhall be forfeit to the chiefe lordes or the king, in the ſame manner as is prouided for landes aliened in mortmaine.

Cap.33. Rauiſhment. It is prouided, that if anie man from henſforth do rauiſh anie woman married, maide, or other (where ſhee did not conſent neither before nor after) he ſhall haue iudgement of life and of member. And likewiſe where a man rauiſheth a woman married, ladie, damoſel, or other with force (although ſhee conſent afterward) he ſhal haue ſuch iudgement as before is ſaid, if he be attainted at the kings ſuite, for the king ſhall haue the ſuite. And for women carried awaie with the goods of their huſbands, the king ſhall haue the ſuite for the goods taken awaie. And in caſe the wife wilfullie forſake her huſband, and go awaie and continue with her paramour, ſhee ſhall Dower. be barred for euer of action to demaund her dower that ſhee ought to haue of her huſbands landes, if ſhee be conuict therevpon, except that her huſband willinglie and without cohertion of the church, reconcile her, and ſuffer her to dwell with him, in which caſe ſhee ſhall be reſtored to her action. He that carrieth awaie a Nunne from her houſe, although ſhee conſent, ſhall bee puniſhed by three yeres impriſonment, and ſhall make conuenient ſatiſfaction to the houſe, from whence ſhee was taken, and neuertheleſſe ſhal make fine at the kings will.

Cap.34. Rauiſhment de gard. Concerning children males or females (whoſe marriage belongeth to another) taken and carried awaie, if the rauiſher haue no right in the marriage, though afterward he reſtore the childe vnmarried, or els pay for the marriage, he ſhall neuertheleſſe be puniſhed for his offence by two yeeres impriſonment, and if he do not reſtore, or do marrie the child after the yeeres of conſent, and be not able to ſatiſfie for the marriage, he ſhall abiure the realme, or haue perpetuall impriſonment, and thereupon the plaintife ſhall haue ſuch a writ.

Si A.fecerit te ſecurum de clamore ſuo, &c.tunc pone per vadium, &c. B. quod ſit coram iuſticiariis noſtris, &c. oſtenſurus, quare talem heredem infra etatem exiſtentem, cuius maritagium ad ipſum pertinet tali loco inuentum rapuit & adduxit, contra voluntatem ipſius A. & contra pacem noſtram, &c.

And if the heire be in the ſame countie, then this clauſe muſt be thereto added. Et diligenter inquiras, vbi ille heres ſit in balliua tua: Et ipſum, vbicunque inuentus fuerit, capias, & ſaluo & ſecure cuſtodias, ita quod eum habeas coram prefatis iuſticiariis noſtris ad prefatum terminum ad reddendum cui predictorum A. & B. reddi debeat. And ſuite ſhall be made againſt the partie, on whome complaint is made, vntil he come in by diſtreſſe, if he haue whereof he may be diſtrained, or els for his contumacie, in caſe he be not iuſtifiable, he ſhal be outlawed. And if percaſe the heire be married or carried into another countie, then a writ ſhall be directed to the ſhirife of the ſame ſhire in this forme.

Queſtus eſt nobis A. quod B. nuper talem heredem infra etatem & in cuſtodia ſua exiſtentem, tali loco in comitatu tali capuit, & de comitatu illo ad talem locum in comitatu tuo adduxit, contra voluntatem ipſius A. & contra pacem, &c. Et ideo tibi precipimus, quod prædictum heredem (vbicunque eum in balliua tua inuenire poteris) capias, & ſaluo & ſecure eum cuſtodias, ita quod eum habeas coram iuſticiariis noſtris.&c.tali die quam idem A, habet verſus prædictum B, ad reddendum cui de iure reddidebat.

And if the heire happen to die, (before he be reſtored, or afore he can be founde) the plea ſhall paſſe betwene them neuertheleſſe, vntill it be tried who ought to haue had it, if he had bene liuing. Neither ſhal the rauiſher be excuſed or eaſed of the puniſhment aforeſaid, by the death of the heire, whom he did withhold by wrong during his life. And if the plaintife die before the plea tried, if the right belong to him by reaſon of his proper fee, the plea ſhall be reſomoned at the ſuite of the heire of the plaintiffe, and the plea ſhall paſſe in due order. But if the right belonged to him by an other title as by a title of gift, ſale, or other like, then the plea ſhall be reſomoned at the ſuite of the executors of the plaintife, & the plea ſhal paſſe as before is ſaid. In the ſame maner if the defendant die before the plea be tried, or the plea be reſtored, the plea ſhall paſſe by reſomons betweene the plaintiffe his heires or executors, and the executors of the defendant or his heires, if the executors be not ſufficient to ſatiſfie for the value of the marriage, after as it is conteined in other ſtatutes, but not as to the paine of impriſonment: for none ought to be puniſhed for the offence of an other. In the ſame maner when a plea hangeth betweene parties for the ward of land or of an heire or of both, by the common writ that beginneth: Precipe tali &c.quod reddat.&c. Reſomons ſhall be made betweene the heires and executours of the plaintiffe, and likewiſe the heires or executours of the defendant, if death preuent anie of the parties afore the plea determined. And when they haue paſſed vnto the great diſtreſſe, a daie ſhall be giuen, within which three courtes may be holden at the leaſt, in euerie of which open proclamation ſhall be made, that the deforceour ſhall come into the bench at the daie conteined in the writ, to anſwere the plaintiffe, at which daie if he come not, and the proclamation be ſo returned once, twiſe, or thriſe, the iudgement ſhall paſſe for the plaintiffe, ſauing the right of the defendant, if afterwarde he will claime it. In the ſame maner it ſhall be done in a writ of treſpas, when anie complaineth him ſelfe to be eiected from ſuch wardſhips.

Reſomons.

Warde of land or of heire.

Chap. 35. Courtes. For as much as lordes of courtes and other that keepe courtes, and ſtewardes intending to greeue their tenants (where they haue no lawfull meane ſo to doe) procure other to moue matters againſt them, and to put in ſuertie and other pledges, or to purchaſe writs, and at the ſuite of ſuch plaintiffes compell them to follow the countie, hundred, wapentake, and other like, vntill they haue made fine with them at their will: It is ordeined, that it ſhall not be ſo vſed hereafter. And if anie be attached vpon ſuch falſe complaints, he ſhall replenie his diſtreſſe ſo taken, and ſhall cauſe the matter to be brought afore the iuſticers, before whom if the ſhiriffe, bailiffe, or other lord (after that the partie diſtrained hath formed his plaint) will aduow the diſtreſſe lawfullie taken by reaſon of ſuch complaints made vnto them, and it be replied, that ſuch plaints were moued maliciouſlie againſt the partie by the ſolicitation or procurement of the ſhiriffe, bailiffe, or lord, the ſame replication ſhall be admitted, and if they be conuict herevpon, they ſhall make fine to the king, and neuertheleſſe reſtore treble damages to the parties greeued.

Attachement.

Chap. 36. Bailiffe. Diſtreſſe. For as much alſo as to the bailiffes office it belongeth to take diſtreſſes, intending to greeue their ſubiects that they might exact monie of them, do ſend ſtraungers to take the diſtreſſes, to the intent that they woulde greeue the tenants, by reaſon that the parties ſo diſtreined, not knowing ſuch perſons, will not ſuffer the diſtreſſes to be taken: It is prouided that no diſtreſſe ſhall be taken, but by bailiffes ſworne and knowne. And if they take diſtreſſes otherwiſe, and therevpon be conuict, if the parties greeued will purchaſe a writ of treſpaſſe, they ſhall be reſtored to their damages, and be greeuouſlie puniſhed towards the king.

Chap. 37. Iurie. For as much alſo as ſhiriffes, hundredars, and bailiffes of liberties haue vſed to greeue their tenantes putting in aſſiſes and iuries men diſeaſed and decrepite, and hauing continuall or ſuddeine diſeaſe, and men alſo dwelled not in the countrie at the time of the ſommons, and ſommon alſo an vnreaſonable multitude of iurours, for to extort monie from ſome of them for letting them go in peace, and ſo the aſſiſes and iuries paſſe manie times by poore men, and the rich men abide at home by reaſon of their bribes: It is ordeined, that from henceforth in one aſſiſe no mo ſhall be ſommoned then xxiiii. And olde men aboue lxx. yeeres, being continuallie ſicke, or being diſeaſed at the time of the ſommons, or not dwelling in the countrie, ſhall not be put in iuries or petie aſſiſes, nor alſo ſhall be put in aſſiſes and iuries, though ſome ought to be taken in their owne ſhire, that may diſpend leſſe then xx.s. yerely. And if ſuch aſſiſes & iuries be taken out of the ſhire, none ſhall paſſe in them, but that may diſpende xl.s. yerely at the leaſt, except ſuch as be witneſſes in deedes or other writings, whoſe preſence is neceſſary, ſo that they be able to trauaile. Neither ſhal this ſtatute extend to great aſſiſes, in which it behoueth manie times knights to paſſe (not reſident in the countrie) for the ſcarſitie of knights ſo that they haue land in the ſhire. And if the ſhiriffe or his vnderbailiffes, or bailiffes of liberties, offend in anie point of this ſtatute, & therevpon be conuict, damages ſhalbe awarded to the parties greeued, & ſhal neuertheles be amerced to the king. And iuſtices aſſined to take aſſiſes, when they come into the ſhire, ſhal haue power to heare the plaints of al complainants, as to the articles conteined in this ſtatute, & to miniſter iuſtice in forme aforeſaid.

Graunde aſſiſe.

Shiriffe.

Chap. 38. Shiriffe. Returne of writs. For as much as iuſtices, to whoſe office it belongeth to miniſter iuſtice to all that ſue before them, are manie times diſturbed in due execution of their office, for that ſhiriffes doe not returne writs originall and iudiciall, and alſo for that they make falſe returnes vnto the kings writs:

Seale.
Libertie.
Returne.
Reſiſtance.

writs: Our ſoueraigne lord the king hath prouided and ordeined, that ſuch as do feare the ſubtiltie of ſhiriffes, ſhal deliuer their writs original and iudiciall in the open countie, or againe in the ſhire where the collection of the kings monie is, and maie take of the ſhiriffe or vnderſhiriffe being preſent a bill, wherein the names of the demandants and tenants mencioned in the writ, ſhall be conteined and at the requeſt of him that deliuered the writ, the ſeale of the ſhiriffe or vnderſhiriffe ſhal be put to the bill for a teſtimonie, and mencion ſhall bee made of the daie of the deliuerance of the writ. And if the ſhiriffe or vnderſhiriffe will not put his ſeale to the bill, the witnes of knights and other credible perſons being in preſence, ſhall be taken, that put their ſeales to ſuch bill. And if the ſhiriffe will not returne writs deliuered vnto him, and complaint thereof be made to the iuſtices, a writ iudiciall ſhall go vnto the iuſticers aſſigned to take aſſiſes, that they ſhall inquire by ſuch as were preſent at the deliuerance of the writ to the ſhiriffe, if they knew of the deliuerance, and the inqueſt ſhall be returned. And if it be founde by the inqueſt, that the writ was deliuered to him, damages ſhall be awarded to the plaintiffe or demandant, hauing reſpect to the qualitie & quantitie of the action, and to the perill that might haue come to him by reaſon of the delaie that hee ſuſteined, and by this meane there is remedie when the ſhiriffe returneth, that the writ came to late, whereby he could not execute the kings commandement. Oftentimes alſo pleas be delaied by reaſon that the ſhiriffe returneth, that he hath commanded the bailiffes of ſome libertie, which did nothing therein, and nameth liberties, that neuer had the returne of writs, wherupon our ſoueraigne lord the king hath ordeined, that the treaſurer and barons of the eſchequer ſhall deliuer in a rolle all the liberties in all maner of ſhires that haue returne of writs. And if the ſhiriffe anſwere, that he hath made returne to a bailiffe of an other libertie, then is conteined in the ſaide rolle, the ſhiriffe ſhall be forth whith puniſhed as a diſheritour of the king and his crowne. And if peraduenture he returne, that he hath deliuered the writ to a bailiffe of ſome libertie, that in deede hath returne, the ſhiriſe ſhalbe commanded, that he ſhal not ſpare for no libertie, but to execute the kings precept, and that he doe the bailiffes to wit, to whom he returned the writ, that they be readie at a daie conteined in the writ, to anſwere why they did not execute the kings precept. And if they come at the daie and acquit themſelues, that no returne was made to them, the ſhiriffe ſhalbe forthwith condemned to the lorde of the ſame libertie, and likewiſe to the partie greeued by the delaie for to render damages. And if the bailiffes come not in at the daie, or do not acquit themſelues in maner aforeſaid in euerie iudiciall writ, ſo long as the plea hangeth, the ſhiriffe ſhall be commanded to ſpare for no libertie &c. Manie times alſo ſhiriffes make falſe returnes as touching theſe articles. Quod de exitibus &c. returning ſometime and lying, that there be no iſſues (ſome time that there are ſmall iſſues (when they maie returne great) & ſome time do make mention of no iſſues, wherefore it is ordeined and agreed, that if the plaintiffe demand of the ſhiriſes returne, it ſhall be granted him. And if he offer to auer, that the ſhiriſe might haue returned greater iſſues vnto the king, he ſhall haue a writ iudiciall vnto the iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes, that they ſhall inquire in preſence of the ſhiriffe (if he will be there) of what and howe great iſſues the ſhiriffe might haue made returne from the day of the writ purchaſed vnto the day conteined in the writ. And when the inqueſt is returned, if he haue not afore anſwered for the whole, he ſhall be charged with the ouerplus by the eſtreates of the iuſtices deliuered in the eſchequer, and neuertheleſſe ſhall be greeuouſlie amerced for the concealement. And let the ſhiriffe knowe, that rentes, corne in the graunge, and all moueables (except horſe, harneis, and houſholde ſtuffe) be conteined within the name of iſſues. And the king hath commaunded, that ſhiriffes ſhall be puniſhed by the iuſtices once or twiſe (if neede be) for ſuch falſe returnes. And if they offende the thirde time, none ſhall haue to do therewith but the king. They make alſo manie times falſe anſweres, returning that they coulde not execute the kings precept, for the reſiſtance of ſome great man, wherefore let the ſhiriffes beware from henceforth, for ſuch maner of anſweres redound much to the diſhonour of the king and of his crowne. And as ſone as his vnderbailiffes do teſtifie, that they founde ſuch reſiſtance, forthwith all things ſet apart (taking with him the power of the ſhire) he ſhall go in proper perſon to doe execution and if he finde his vnderbailiffes falſe, he ſhall puniſh them by impriſonment, ſo that other by their example maie be reformed. And if he do find them true, he ſhall puniſh the reſiſters by impriſonment, from whence they ſhall not be deliuered without the kings ſpeciall commandement. And if percaſe the ſhiriffe when he commeth, doe finde reſiſtance, he ſhall certifie to the court the names of the reſiſters, aiders, conſenters, commanders, and fauourers, and by a writ iudiciall they ſhall be attached by the bodies to appeare in the kings court, and if they be conuict of ſuch reſiſtance, they ſhall be puniſhed at the kings pleaſure, neither ſhall anie officer of the kings meddle in aſſigning the puniſhment, for our ſoueraigne lord the king hath reſerued it ſpeciallie to him ſelfe, becauſe that reſiſters bene reputed diſturbers of his peace and of his realme.

Chap.39
Alienation
Warrantie

Where anie doth aliene the right of his wife, it is agreed, that from henceforth the ſuite of the wife, or her heire after the death of her huſband, ſhall not be delaied by the nonage of the heire that ought to warrantiſe, but let the purchaſer tarie (which ought not to haue bene ignorant that he bought the right of another) vntill the age of his warrantour, to haue his warrantie.

Chap.40
Alienation
Purchaſe.

Our ſoueraigne lord the king hath ordeined, that if abbats, priors, keepers of hoſpitalles, and other religious houſes, founded by him or by his progenitors, doe from hence forth aliene the landes giuen to their houſes by him, or by his progenitours: the lande ſhall bee taken into the kings handes, and holden at his will, and the purchaſer ſhall leeſe his recouerie as well of the lands as of the money that he paied. And if the houſe were founded by an Earle, baron, or of other perſons, for the lands ſo aliened, he (from whome, or from whoſe aunceſtour the lande ſo aliened was giuen) ſhall haue ſuch a writ to recouer the landes in demeane. Precipe tali Abbati quod iuſte, &c. reddat, G.F. tale tenementum, quod eidem domui collatum fuit in liberam elimoſinam per predictum, G. vel anteceſſores ſuos, & quod ad predictum G. reuerti debet, per alienationem, quam prædictus Abbas fecit de prædicto tenemento contra formam collationis prædicte, vt dicit. In like maner for lands giuen for the maintenance of a Chaunterie or of light in a church, or chapel, or other almes to be mainteined, if the land giuen be aliened. But if the land ſo giuen for a Chaunterie, light, ſuſtenance of poore people, or other almes, to bee maintained or done be not aliened, but ſuch almes is withdrawen by the ſpace of two yeeres, an action ſhall lye for the donour or his heire to demaund the land ſo giuen in demeane, as it is ordeined in the ſtatute of Gloceſter for lands leaſſed to do or to rendre the iiii. part of the value of the land, or more.

Chauntrie.

Cap. 41.
Vierger.

Concerning the kings marſhals of fee, chamberlaines, porters in the circuite of Iuſtices & ſeriants bearing vierge before Iuſtices at Weſtminſter which haue the ſame office in fee, and that aſke more by reaſon of their fee, than they haue vſed to aſke, whereupon manie do complaine on them, that haue knowen and ſeene the order of the court of long time. Our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath cauſed to be inquired by an inqueſt what the ſaid officers of fee haue vſed to haue in times paſſed, and hath ordeined and commaunded that a marſhall of fee which of newe aſketh a palfray of Earles, Barons, and other holding by a parte of a baronie when they haue done homage, and neuertheleſſe an other palfraye when they are made knightes, and of ſome that ought not to giue anie, aſke a palfraye. It is in like manner ordeined that the ſaide marſhall of euerie Earle and Baron holding by an entire Baronie, ſhall bee contented with one palfraye, or with the price of it, ſuch as he hath vſed to haue of olde, ſo that if he tooke a palfray or the price of one at the doing of his homage in fourme aforeſaide, hee ſhall take nothing when he is made knight, and if he tooke nothing at the doing of his homage, when hee is made knight, hee ſhall take. Of Abbots and Priours, holding an whole Baronie, when they do homage or fealtie for their Baronies, he ſhall take one palfraye or the price as afore is ſaide, and this ſhall alſo be obſerued amongeſt Archbiſhops and Biſhops of ſuch as hold but a part of a Baronie, whither they be religious or ſecular, hee ſhall take according to the portion of the parte of the Baronie that they holde. Of religious men that holde in free almes and not by a Baronie, nor parte of a Baronie, the marſhall from henſfoorth ſhall demaund nothing. And our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath graunted that by this eſtatute a marſhall of fee ſhall not be barred hereafter to demaunde more, if hee can ſhewe that he hath right vnto more. The kings chamberlaines from henſforth ſhall haue of Archebiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priours, and other perſons ſpirituall, of Earles and Barons holding an entire Baronie, a reaſonable fine when they do their homage or fealtie. And if they hold by a part of a baronie, they ſhal take a reaſonable fine according to the portion to them belonging. Other Abbots, Priours, perſons ſpiritual & temporal that hold no entire Baronie, nor part of a Baronie, ſhal not be diſtrained to make fine, as it is ſaid by them that hold by a Baronie, or part of a baronie, but the chamberlaine ſhal be contented with his vpper garment, or with the price thereof, which is don in fauor of perſons religious more then of lay perſons, for it is more conuenient that religious men ſhould fine for their vpper garment, then to be ſtripped.

Marſhall office.

Biſhops.

Chamberlaines.

Cap. 42.
Hoſpitelers.
Templers.

Be it prohibited from henſforth to hoſpitelers and templars that hereafter they bring no man in plea before the kepers of their priuileges for anie matter (the knowledge whereof belongeth to the kings court) which if they do, firſt they ſhal yeld dammages to the partie grieued, and be grieuouſly puniſhed vnto the king. The king alſo prohibiteth to the keepers of ſuch priuileges, that from henſforth they graunt no citations at the inſtance of hoſpitelers, templars, or other perſons priuileged, afore it be expreſſed vpon what matter the citation ought to be made. And if the kepers do ſee that a citation is required vpon anie matter (the knowledge wherof belongeth to the kings court) the keepers ſhall neither make nor knowledge the citation. And if the kepers do otherwiſe they ſhall yeld dammages to the partie greeued, and neuertheleſſe ſhalbe greeuouſlie puniſhed by the king. And for as much as ſuch perſons priuileged depute kepers, ſubpriors, chantors, ſertens, which be religious men & which haue nothing to ſatiſfie the parties greeued, nor the king, which be more bold to offend the kings dignitie, then their ſuperiors, to whom puniſhment may be aſſigned by their temporalties. Let the prelats of ſuch obedients therefore beware from henſforth that they do not ſuffer their obedients to vſurpe anie iuriſdiction in preiudice of the king and his crowne, & if they do, their ſuperiors ſhal be charged for their fact as much as if they had beene conuict vpon their proper act.

Cap. 43.
Viergers.

Concerning porters bearing Vierge before Iuſticers of the bench in the circuite. It is prouided that of euerie aſſiſe and iurie that they keepe they ſhal take x. d. onelie, and for the bils nothing. Of ſuch as recouer their demaunds againſt manie by default, confeſſion, or otherwiſe by iudgement without aſſiſe or iurie, they ſhall take nothing. Of ſuch as go without daie by default of the demaundant or plaintife, nothing. And if anie recouer his demaund againſt manie, by one writ, and by recogniſance of aſſiſe or iurie, they ſhall bee content with iiii. pence. And likewiſe, if manie named in one writte do recouer their demaunde by recogniſance of aſſiſe or iurie, they ſhall take iiii. pence. Of ſuch as doe homage in the benche, they ſhall bee content with their vpper garment. Of great aſſiſes, attaints, iuries, and battaile waged, they ſhal take xii. d. onelie.

Cyrographers. Clerkes.

Of ſuch as be called before Iuſtices to ſue or to defend their plea, their comming in or foorth, At the pleas of the crowne, for euerie douſen xii.d. ſhall be taken. Of euerie gayle deliuerie iiii.d. ſhall be taken. Of euerie one whoſe peace is proclaimed xii.d. onely ſhall be taken. Of the finders of men ſlaine, and other of a towne attached iiii.d. Of tything men nothing ſhall be taken. Of Cyrographers for making a Cyrografe, it is ordeined that they ſhal be contented with iiii.s. Of clerkes writing writs originall and iudiciall, it is ordeined that for one writte they ſhall take but i.d. And the king chargeth all his Iuſticers vpon their faith and othe, that they owe him, that if ſuch manner of officers offend in anie article againſt this ſtatute, and complaint come to them thereof, they ſhal execute on them reaſonable puniſhment. And if they offend the ſecond time, they ſhal award greater puniſhment, that they may be duely corrected, & if they offend the third time, & be thereupon conuicted (if they be officers of fee) they ſhall leeſe their fee, and if they be other they ſhall auoid the kings court, and ſhall not be receiued againe without the ſpeciall grace and licence of the king him ſelfe.

Cap.44. Enrolmēt. Fynes.

Becauſe that of ſuch things as be recorded before the Chauncellour & Iuſticers of the king, that haue recorde, and be inrolled in their rolles, proceſſe of plea ought not to be made by ſommons, attachements, eſſoine, viewe of land, and other ſolemnities of the court as hath beene vſed to be done in bargaines and couenants made out of the court: From henſforth it is to be obſerued, that thoſe things which are found inrolled before them that haue record, or conteined in fines, whether they be contractes, couenants, obligations, ſeruices, or cuſtomes knowledged or inrolled, wherein the kings court without offence of the lawe and cuſtome may execute their authoritie, from henſforth they ſhall haue ſuch vigor, that hereafter it ſhall not neede to pleade for them. But when the plaintife commeth to the kings court (if the recogniſance or fine leuied be freſh) that is to ſaie within the yere, he ſhall forthwith haue a writte of execution of the ſame recogniſance made. And if the recogniſance were made, or the fine leuied of a further time paſſed, the ſhirife ſhall be commaunded, that he giue knowledge to the partie (of whome it is complained) that he be afore the Iuſtices at a certaine daie, to ſhewe if he haue anie thing to ſhewe, why ſuch matters inrolled or conteined in the fine ought not to haue execution. And if he do not come, or peraduenture do come, and can nothing ſaie why execution ought not to be done, the ſhirife ſhal be commaunded to cauſe the thing inrolled or conteined in the fine to be executed. In like manner an ordinarie ſhall be commaunded in his caſe, obſeruing neuertheleſſe as before is ſaid of a meane, which by recogniſance or iudgement is bound to acquite.

Cap.45. Improwement. Paſture. Waſt woods. Mill. Dyke. Hedge. Common.

Where as in a ſtatute made at Merton, it was graunted that lords of waſte woods and paſtures might improwe the ſaid waſte woodes and paſtures not withſtanding the contradiction of the tenants, ſo that the tenants had ſufficient paſture to their hold with free egreſſe and regreſſe to the ſame. And for as much as no mention was made betweene neighbours, manie lordes of waſte woods and paſtures haue beene troubled heretofore by the tradition of neighbours hauing ſufficient paſture. And for becauſe forreine tenants haue no more right to commune in waſte woods, or paſtures of anie lord, then the lords owne tenants. It is ordeined that the ſtatute of Merton prouided betweene the lord and his tenants, from henſforth ſhall holde place betweene lords of waſte woods and paſtures, and neighbours ſauing ſufficient paſture to their tenants and neighbours, ſo that the lords of ſuch waſt woods, and paſtures maie make improuement of the reſidue, and this ſhal be obſerued for ſuch as claime paſture as appurtenant to their hold. But if anie do claime common of paſture by ſpeciall feffement or grant for a certein number of beaſts, or otherwiſe which he ought to haue of common right, where as couenant barreth the law he ſhall haue ſuch recouerie as ought to be had by forme of the graunt made vnto him. By occaſion of a mille, windmill, berkarie, weire, deyrie, inlarging of a court or curtilage, from henſforth no man ſhall be greeued by aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin, for common of paſture. And where ſometime it chanceth that one hauing right to improue, do leuie a dyke or an hedge, and ſome by night or at another ſeaſon when they ſuppoſe not to be eſpied, do ouerthrow the hedge or dyke, and it can not be knowen by verdit of the aſſiſe or iurie, who did ouerthrowe the hedge or dike, & men of the townes neere will not indite ſuch as be guiltie of the fact, the townes neere adioyning ſhal be diſtrained to leuie the hedge or dyke at their owne coſt, and to yeeld dammages. And where one hauing no right to common vſurpeth common, what time an heire is within age, or what time a woman is couert, or whileſt the paſture is in the hands of tenants in dower, by the curteſſe, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or yeeres, or in fee taile, and the paſture be long vſed, manie hold oppinion that ſuch paſtures ought to be ſaide appurtenant to free hold, and that the poſſeſſioner ought to haue action by a writ of nouel diſſeiſin, if he be deforſed of ſuch paſture: but from henſforth this muſt be holden for lawe, that ſuch as haue entred within the time that an aſſiſe of Mortdauncetour hath lien, if they had no common before, ſhall haue no recouerie by a writte of nouel diſſeiſin if they be deforced.

Cap.46. Salmon. Nettes.

It is prouided that the waters of Humbre, Owſe, Trent, Done, Arre, Derewent, Wherfe, Nydiore, Swale, Teſe, Tyn, Eden, and all other waters (wherein Salmons be taken) ſhal be in defence for taking Salmons from the Natiuitie of our Ladie vnto ſaint Martines daie. And likewiſe that yong Salmons ſhall not be taken nor deſtroied by nettes, nor by other engins at mille pooles, from the middeſt of April vnto the natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt. And in places where as freſh waters be, there ſhall be aſſigned ouerſeers of this ſtatute, which being ſworne ſhal often

oftentimes ſée and inquire of the offenders, and for the firſt treſpaſſe they ſhall be puniſhed by burning of their nettes and ingins. And for the ſecond time, they ſhall haue impriſonment for a quarter of a yeere. And for the third treſpas, they ſhall be impriſoned a whole yeere. And as the treſpas increaſeth ſo ſhall the puniſhment.

Cap. 47. Uiewe of land. For viewe of land it is ordeined and prouided, that from henſforth viewe ſhall not be graunted, but in caſe where the viewe is neceſſarie. As if one loſe land by default, and he that loſt moueth a writ to demaund the ſame land. And in caſe where one by an exception delatorie abateth a writ after the viewe, as by nontenure, or miſnaming of the towne, or ſuch like, if he purchaſe an other writ, in this caſe and in the caſe before mentioned, from henſforth the viewe ſhall not be graunted, if he had viewe in the firſt writs. In a writ of dower, where the demaund is of lande that the huſband aliened to the tenant or his aunceſtors (where the tenant ought not to be ignorant what land the huſband did alien to him or his aunceſtor) though the huſband died not ſeaſed, yet from henſforth viewe ſhall not be graunted. In a writte of entre alſo that is abated becauſe the demaundant miſnamed the entre, if he purchaſe another writ of entre, if the tenant had view in the firſt writ, he ſhall not haue it in the ſecond. In all writs alſo where lands be demaunded by reaſon of a leaſſe made by the demaundant or his aunceſtor, vnto the tenant and not to his aunceſtor, as that which he leaſſed to him being within age, not whole of minde, being in priſon, & ſuch like, viewe ſhall not be graunted hereafter, but if the demiſe were made to his aunceſtor, the viewe ſhall lye as it hath done before.

Cap. 48. Church. Aduowſon. The Chauncellor, Treaſurer, Juſtices, nor none of the kings counſell, no clerke of the chancerie, nor of the eſchequer, nor of anie Juſtice or other officer, nor none of the kings houſe, clerke, ne lay, ſhall not receiue anie church, nor aduowſon of a church, land nor tenement by gift in fée, nor to ferme, ne for purchaſe, nor otherwiſe, ſo long as the thing is in plea before vs, or before anie of our officers, nor ſhall take no reward thereof. And he that doth contrarie to this act, either himſelfe, or by another, or make anie bargaine, ſhall be puniſhed at the kings pleaſure, as well he that purchaſeth as he that doth. All the ſaid ſtatutes ſhall take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming, ſo that by occaſion of anie offences done on this ſide the ſaide feaſt contrarie to anie of theſe eſtatutes, no puniſhment (mention wherof is made within theſe eſtatutes) ſhall be executed vpon the offenders. Moreouer concerning the ſtatutes prouided where the lawe failed, and for remedies, leſt ſuters comming to the kings court ſhould depart from thenſe without remedie, they ſhall haue writtes prouided in their caſes, but they ſhall not be pleaded vntill the feaſt of ſaint Michael aforeſaid.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of Wincheſter, made the xiii. yere of Edward the firſt.

Cap. 1. FOr as much as from day to daie robberies, murders, burning of houſes and theft be more often vſed than they haue beene heretofore, and felons can not be attainted by the othe of Jurors which had rather ſuffer ſtrangers to be robbed, and ſo to paſſe without peine, than to endite the offenders, of whome great part be folke of the ſame countrie, or at the leaſt if the offenders be of an other countrie, the receiuers be of places néere. And they do the ſame becauſe the othe is not put vnto Jurors of the ſame countrey, where ſuch felonies were done, and to the reſtitution of dammages hitherto no peine hath béene limitted for their concelement and latches. Felonies. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, for to abate the power of felons, hath eſtabliſhed a peine in this caſe, ſo that from henſforth for feare of the peine more than for feare of anie othe, they ſhall not ſpare anie, nor conceale no felonies. And from henſforth cryes ſhall be made in all countries, hundreds, markets, faires, and all other places (where great reſort of people is) ſo that none ſhall excuſe himſelfe by ignorance, that from henſforth euerie countrie be ſo wel kept, that immediatlie vpon ſuch robberies and felonies committed, freſh ſuite be made from towne to towne, and from countrie to countrie. Freſh ſuite

Cap. 2. Inqueſt. Felonies. Likewiſe when néede requireth inqueſtes ſhall be made in townes by him that is lord of the towne, and after in the hundred, and after in the fraunchiſe and in the countie, and ſometime in two, thrée, or foure counties, in caſe where felonies be committed in the marches of ſhires, ſo that the treſpaſſers may be attainted. And if the countrie will not aunſwere for the bodies of ſuch treſpaſſers, the peine ſhall be ſuch, that is to wite, that the people dwelling in the countrie ſhall be anſwerable for the robberies done, and alſo the dammages, ſo that the whole hundred, where the robberie happeneth to be done, or the franchiſes being within the precinct of the ſame hundred, ſhall be anſwerable for the robberies done. And if the robberie chaunce to be done in the diuiſion of two hundreds, in ſuch caſe both hundredes and the franchiſes which alſo be within the precinctes of them, ſhall be anſwerable. And after that the felonie or robberie is done, the countrie ſhall haue no longer ſpace than halfe a yeere, within which halfe yéere it ſhall behoone them to agree for the robberie or treſpas, or els that they will aunſwere for the bodies of the offenders.

Cap. 3. And for as much as the king wil not that his people ſhould be ſuddenly impoueriſhed by reaſon of this penaltie, that ſéemeth verie hard to manie, the king graunteth, that they ſhall not incurre it immediatlie, but it ſhall be reſpited vntill the Eaſter next following, within which time Felonie. Robberie. the king may ſée how the countrie wil order them ſelues, and whether ſuch felonies and robberies do ſeaſe. After which terme let them all be aſſured, that the foreſaid penaltie ſhall runne generally, that is to wit, that the people of the countrie ſhall be aunſwerable for felonies and robberies done among them.

Chap. 4 Townes walled. Watch. Shirife. Hue & cry.

And for the more ſuretie of the countrie the king hath commaunded, that in great townes being walled, the gates ſhall be cloſed from the Sunne reſting untill the Sunne riſing, and that no man do lodge in the ſuburbes, nor in anie place out of the towne from ix. of the clocke untill day, without his hoſt will anſwer for him, and the bailifes of townes euerie weeke or at the leaſt euerie xv. daie, ſhal make inquirie of all perſons being lodged in the ſuburbes or places out of the townes. And if they do find anie that haue lodged or receiued anie ſtraungers or ſuſpicious perſons, contrarie to this, they ſhall do right therein. And the king commandeth, that from henſforth all townes be kept as it hath beene uſed in times paſſed, that is to wit, from the feaſt of Aſcenſion unto Michaelmas in euerie citie vi. men ſhall keepe at euerie gate, in euerie borough, xii. men, euerie towne vi. or iiii. according to the number of inhabitants of the towne, and ſhall watch the towne all night from the Sunne reſting unto the Sun riſing. And if anie ſtrangers do paſſe by them, they ſhall be arreſted unto morning. And if no ſuſpition be found, they ſhall go quite, and if they find cauſe of ſuſpition, they ſhall forthwith deliuer him to the ſhiriſe, and the ſhiriſe may receiue him without dammage and ſhall keepe him ſafelie untill he be acquited in due manner, & if they will not obey the arreſt, they ſhall leuie hue and cry upon them, and ſuch as keepe the towne ſhall follow with hue and crye with all the towne and the townes nere, & ſo from towne to towne untill that they be taken and deliuered to the ſhiriſe, as before is ſaid, and for the arreſtments of ſuch ſtrangers none ſhall be puniſhed.

Chap. 5. Wayes. Underwoods. Parke.

And further it is commaunded, that high waies leading from one market town to another, ſhal be from henſforth inlarged whereas buſhes, woods, or dykes be, ſo that there be neither dyke, tree, nor buſh, wherby anie treſpaſſer may eſcape within CC. foote of ech ſide the waie, ſo that this ſtatute ſhal not extend unto aſhes, nor unto great trees, for that it ſhal be underſtanden cleerelie out of this. And if by the default of the lord that will not auoid the dyke, underwood, or buſhes in the maner aforeſaid, any robberies be done therein, the lord ſhal be anſwerable for the felony. And if murder be done, the lord ſhall make a fine at the kings pleaſure. And if the lorde be not able to fell the underwoods, the countrie ſhal aide him therein. And the king willeth that in his demeane lands and woods within his foreſt & without, the waies ſhal be inlarged (as before is ſaide.) And if percaſe a parke be taken from the high waie, it is requiſite that the lorde ſhall ſet his parke the ſpace of CC. foot from the high waies, as before is ſaid, or that he make ſuch a wall, dike, or wood, that the euil doers may not paſſe ne retourne for to do euil.

Chap. 6. Harneis. Bowes & arrowes. Armor. Conſtables. Shiriſe. Bailiſe. Faires & markets. Churchyardes.

And further it is commaunded, that euerie man haue in his houſe harneys for to keepe the peace after the auncient aſſiſe, that is for to ſaie, euerie man betwixt xv. yeres of age and lx. yeres ſhall be aſſeſſed and ſworne to armor according to the quantitie of their landes and goods, that is to wit from xv. li. lands, and goods xl. markes, that is to wit, an hawberke, a breſt plate of Iron, a ſword, a kniſe, and an horſe. And from x. li. of lands, and xx. markes goods, a hawberke, a breſt plate of Iron, a ſworde and a kniſe, and from v. li. landes, a dublet, a breſt plate of Iron, a ſword, and a kniſe, and from xl. ſhillings land and more unto C. s. of lande, a ſwoorde, a Bowe and arrowes, and a kniſe. And he that hath leſſe than xl. ſhillings yeerelie, ſhall be ſworne to keepe gyſarmes, knyues, and other leſſe weapons. And he that hath leſſe than twentie markes in goods ſhall haue ſwordes, kniues, and other leſſe weapons, and all other that maie ſhall haue Bowes and arrowes out of the foreſt, and in the foreſt bowes & boltes. And that viewe of armour be made euerie yeere two times. And in all hundredes and franchiſes two Conſtables ſhall be choſen to make the viewe of armour, and the Conſtables aforeſaide ſhall be preſent before Juſtices aſſigned for ſuch defaultes as they doe ſee in the countrie about armour, & of the ſuites of townes and of high waies, and alſo ſhall preſent all ſuch as doe lodge ſtrangers in uplandiſh townes, for whome they will not aunſwere. And the Juſtices ſhall preſent alſo at euerie parliament unto the king ſuch defaultes as they haue founde, and the king ſhall prouide remedie therein. And from henſforth let ſhiriſes take good heede, and bailiſes within their franchiſes and without, bee they higher or lower, that haue anie bailiwike or foreſtrie in fee or otherwiſe, that they ſhall follow the crye with the countrie, and after as they are bounden to keepe horſes and armour ſo to do, and if there be anie that do not, the defaultes ſhall be preſented to the Juſtices aſſigned, and after by them to the king, as before is ſaid. and the king ſhall prouide remedie. And the king commaundeth and forbiddeth, that from henſforth neither faires nor markets be kept in churchyardes, for the honor of the Church. Giuen at Weſtminſter the viii. day of October the xiii. yeere of king Edwardes raigne.

Here beginneth the Statute of Merchants, made the xiii. yere of king Edwarde the firſt.

Merchāts

FOR as much as Merchauntes which heretofore haue lent their goods to diuerſe perſons, bee nowe fallen in pouertie, becauſe there is no ſpeedie remedie prouided, whereby they may ſhortly recouer their debt at the daye of paiement aſſeſſed: And for this miſchiefe manie merchants are loth to come into the realme with their merchandiſe, to the great dammage of ſuch merchants and of all the Realme:

The king and his counſell, at his parliament holden at Acton Burnell, after the feaſt of ſaint Michael, the xi. yéere of his raigne, hath ordeined theſe eſtabliſhments thereupon for the remedie of ſuch marchants, which ordinances and eſtabliſhments the king commandeth that they ſhall be firmelie kept and obſerued throughout his realme, whereby marchants maie haue remedie and leſſe trouble and buſineſſe to recouer their debts then they haue had heretofore. But foraſmuch as marchants afterward complained vnto the king, that ſhirifes miſinterpreted his ſtatutes, and ſometime by malice and falſe interpretation delaied the execution of the ſtatute, to the great damage of marchants: The king at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter after Eaſter, the xiii. yéere of his raigne cauſed the ſaid ſtatute made at Acton Burnell, to be rehearſed. And for the declaration of certaine articles in the ſtatute aforeſaid hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that a marchant for the aſſurance of his debt, ſhall cauſe his debtour to come before the maior of London, or before ſome chiefe wardeine of the citie, or of another good towne, where the king ſhal appoint, and before the maſter, chiefe wardeine, or other ſufficient men choſen and ſworne thereto, when the maior or chiefe wardeine can not attend thereto, and before one of the clerkes that the king ſhall thereto aſſigne, when both can not be attendant, he ſhall knowledge the debt and the daie of payment, & the recogniſance ſhall be inrolled by one of the clerkes hands being knowne and the rolle ſhall be double, whereof one part ſhall remaine with the maior or chiefe wardein, and the other with the clerkes that therto ſhal be firſt named. And further one of the ſaid clerkes with his owne hand ſhall write an obligation, whereupon the ſeale of the debtour ſhalbe put with the kings ſeale, prouided for the ſame intent, which ſeale ſhall be of two péeces, whereof the greater péece ſhall remaine with the maior or the chiefe wardeine, and the other in the kéeping of the foreſaid clerkes. And if the debtour do not paie the debt at the daie limited vnto him, then ſhall the marchant come before the maior and clerke with his obligation, and if it be found by the rolle or writing, that the debt was knowledged, and the daie of paiment expired, the maior or chiefe wardeine ſhall cauſe the bodie of the debtour to be taken (if he be laie) whenſoeuer he hapneth to come in their power, and ſhall commit him to the priſon of the towne, if there be anie, and ſhall remaine there at his owne coſtes, vntill he hath agréed for the debt. And it is commanded, that the kéeper of the towne priſon ſhall retaine him vpon the deliuerie of the maior or chiefe wardeine. And if the kéeper will not receiue him, he ſhall be anſwerable for the debt if he haue wherof, and if he haue not wherof, he that committed the priſon to his kéeping ſhall anſwere. And if the debtour can not be found by the maior or chiefe wardeine, then ſhal they or any of them returne into the chancerie vnder the kings ſeale, the recogniſance of the debt: and the chancellour ſhall direct a writ vnto the ſhirife, in whoſe ſhire the debtour hapneth to be, for to take his bodie (if he be laie) and ſafely to kéepe him in priſon, vntill he hath agréed for the debt. And within a quarter of a yéere after that he be taken, his lands ſhall be deliuered him, ſo that by the profits he may leuie and paie the debt. And it ſhall be lawfull vnto him, during the ſame quarter, to ſell his lands and tenements for the diſcharge of his debts, and his ſale ſhall be good and effectuall. And if he do not agree within the quarter next after the quarter expired, all the lands & goods of the debtour ſhall be deliuered vnto the marchant by a reaſonable extent, to hold them vntill ſuch time as the debt is wholie leuied. And neuertheleſſe the bodie ſhall remaine in priſon, as before is ſaid. And the marchant ſhall find him bread and water, and the marchant ſhall haue ſuch ſeiſin in the lands and tenements deliuered vnto him, that hée maie maintaine a writ of nouell diſſeiſin, if he be put out, and rediſſeiſin alſo, as of fréeholde, to hold to him and his aſſignes vntill the debt be paide. And as ſoone as the debt is leuied, the bodie of the debtour ſhall be deliuered with his lands, and in ſuch writtes as the chancellour doth awarde, mention ſhall be made, that the ſhirife ſhall certifie the iuſtices of either bench, how he hath performed the kings commandement at a certaine daie, at which daie the marchant ſhall be afore the iuſtices, if agréement be not made. And if the ſhirifes do not returne the writte, or do returne that the writ came to late, or that they haue directed it to the bailifes of ſome franchiſe, the iuſtices ſhall do as it is conteined in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter. And if the ſhirife returne, that the debtour can not be found, or that he be clerke, the marchants ſhall haue writtes to all the ſhirifes, or he ſhall haue the land, and that they ſhall deliuer all the goods and lands of the debtour by a reaſonable extent, to hold vnto him and his aſſignes in the forme aforeſaid and at the leaſt he ſhall haue a writ to what ſhirife that he will, to take his bodie (if he be laie) and to retaine it in maner aforeſaid, and the kéeper of the priſon ought to take héede that he muſt anſwere for the bodie, or for the debt. And after that the debtours lands be deliuered to the marchant, the debtour maie lawfullie ſell his land, ſo that the marchant haue no damage of the approuements, and the marchants ſhall alwaies be allowed for their damages and all coſts, labours, ſuites, delaies and expences reſonable. And if the debtour find ſureties, which knowledge themſelues to be principall debtours after the daie paſſed, the ſureties ſhall be ordred in all things as is ſaid of the principall debtour, as to the arreſt of bodie, deliuerie of lands and other things. And when the lands of the debtours be deliuered vnto the marchant, he ſhal haue ſeaſon of all the lands that were in the hand of the debtour the daie of the recogniſance made, in whoſe hands ſo euer that they come afterward, either by feffement or otherwiſe, and after the debt paid, the debtours lands and the iſſues thereof by feffement ſhall returne againe, as well to the feffée as the other lands vnto the debtours. And if the debtour or his ſureties die, the marchant ſhall haue none auctoritie to take the bodie of his heire, but he ſhall haue his lands as before is ſaid, if he be of age, or when he ſhalbe of ful age, vntill ſuch

Acton Burnell.

Shirife.

Debt.

Maior of London.

Recogniſance.

Seale.

Gailour.

Extent.

Fayres. London.

time as he hath leuied of the lands the amountance ⁊ value of the debt. And alſo an other ſeale ſhal be prouided, that ſhall ſerue for faires, and the ſame ſhal be ſent vnto euerie faire vnder the kings ſeale by a clerke ſworne, or by the kéeper of the faire. And of the communaltie of London two marchaunts ſhall be choſen, that ſhall ſweare, and the ſeale ſhall be opened before them, and the one péece ſhall be deliuered vnto the foreſaid marchaunts, and the other ſhall remaine with the clerke. And before them or one of the marchauts (if both cannot attend) the recogniſaunces ſhall be taken, as before is ſaide, and before that the recogniſaunces be inrolled, the peine of the ſtatute ſhall be openlie read before the debtour, ſo that afterward he ſhall not excuſe himſelfe by ignorance of the peine, whereto he bound himſelfe: and to maintaine the coſtes of the ſaid clerke, the king ſhall take of euerie pound a penie in euerie towen where the ſeale is, except faires, where he ſhall take i.d.ob. of the pound. This ordinance and act the king willeth to bee obſerued from henceforth throughout his realme of England and Ireland, amongſt the which people they that will, maie make ſuch recogniſances (except Iewes) to whom this ordinance ſhall not extend, and by this ſtatute a writ of debt ſhall not be abated, and the chancellour, iuſtices of either bench, and iuſtices errants, ſhall not be eſtopped to take recogniſances of debts before them knowledged and made, but the execution of recogniſances made before them ſhall not be done in the forme aforeſaid, but by the lawe and maner before vſed, and otherwiſe prouided in other ſtatutes: Rex vic. ſalutem. Quia coram tali maiore vel cuſtode talis ville, vel coram cuſtode ſigilli noſtri de mercatoribus in nundinis de tali loco, & tali clerico noſtro A, recognouit debere B, tantum, quod ſoluiſſe debuit tali die & tali anno, quod eidem B, nondum ſoluit, vt dicit. Tibi precipimus, quod corpus predicti A, ſi laicus ſit capias, & in priſona noſtra ſaluo cuſtodire facias, quouſque de predicto debito ſatisfecerit. Et qualiter hoc preceptum noſtrum fueris executus, ſcire facias iuſticiariis noſtris apud Weſtmonaſterium per literas tuas ſigillatas, & habeas ibi hoc breue. Teſte. &c.

The ſtatute of circumſpecte agatis, made the xiij. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

The king to his iudges ſendeth gréeting. Vſe your ſelfe circumſpectlie in all matters concerning the biſhop of Norwith and his clergie, not puniſhing them if they holde plea in court chriſtian of ſuch things as be méerely ſpirituall, that is to wit of penance enioyned for deadly ſinne as fornication, adulterie, and ſuch like for the which manie times corporall penance or pecuniarie is enioyned, ſpeciallie if a frée man be conuict of ſuch things. Alſo if prelates do puniſh for leuing churchyardes vncloſed or for that the church is vncouered or not conueniently decked, in which caſes none other penance can be enioyned but pecuniarie.

Tithes.

Item if a parſon demaund of his pariſhioners, oblations and tithes due and accuſtomed, or if anie perſon pleade againſt another for tithes more or leſſe ſo that the iiii. part of the value of the benefice be not demaunded.

Mortuaries. Penſion. Defamation.

Item if a parſon demaunde mortuaries in places where a mortuarie hath vſed to be giuen.

Item if a prelate of a church or of a patrone demaunde a penſion due to themſelues, all ſuch demaunds are to be made in a ſpirituall court. And for laying violent hands on a prieſt, and in cauſe of defamation it hath bene granted alreadie that it ſhall be tried in a ſpirituall court, when money is not demaunded, but a thing done for puniſhment of ſinne, ⁊ likewiſe for breaking an oth. In all caſes afore rehearſed the ſpirituall iudge ſhall haue power to take knowledge notwithſtanding the kings prohibition.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of Weſtminſter made the xiij. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Purchaſor

Foraſmuch as purchaſers of lands and tenements, holden of great men and other lords, haue manie times heretofore entred into their fées, to the preiudice of the lords, when the fréeholders of ſuch great men haue ſold their lands to ſuch purchaſers to be holden in fée of their feffours and not of the chiefe lords of the fées whereby the ſame chiefe lords haue manie times loſt their eſchetes, mariages, wardſhips of lands and tenements, belonging to their fées, which thing ſéemed verie hard and extréeme vnto thoſe lords and other great men, and moreouer in this caſe manifeſt diſheritance: Our ſoueraigne lord the king in his parliament at Weſtminſter after Eaſter the xviii. yéere of his raigne, that is to wit in the quinzime of S. Iohn Baptiſt, at the inſtance of the great men of the realme, hath prouided and ordeined, that from henceforth it ſhall be lawfull to euerie frée man to ſell at his owne pleaſure, his lands and tenements or part of them, ſo that the feffée ſhall hold the ſame lande or tenement of the chiefe lord of the fée, by ſuch ſeruice and cuſtomes as his feffour held before.

Free man. Feffee.

Chap. 2. Feffee.

And if he ſell anie part of ſuch lands or tenements to anie, the feffée ſhall immediatlie hold it of the chiefe lord, ⁊ ſhalbe forthwith charged with the ſeruices, for ſo much as perteineth, or ought to perteine to the ſaid chiefe lord for the ſame parcel according to the quantitie of the land or tenement ſo ſold. And ſo in this caſe the ſame part of the ſeruice ſhall remaine to the lord to be taken by the hands of the feffée, for the which he ought to be attendant and anſwerable to the ſame chiefe lord, according to the quantitie of the land or tenement ſold for the parcell of the ſeruice ſo due.

And

Cap. 3.

Mortmaine.

And it is to be vnderſtanden, that by the ſaide ſales or purchaſes of lands or tenements, or anie parcels of them, ſuch lands or tenementes ſhall in no wiſe come into mortmaine, either in parte or in whole, neither by pollicie, ne craft, contrarie to the forme of the ſtatute made thereupon of late. And it is to wite, that this ſtatute extendeth but onely to lant s holden in fee ſimple. And that it extendeth onelie to the time comming, and it ſhall beginne to take effect at the feaſt of ſaint Andrewe the Apoſtle next comming. Giuen the xviii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward ſonne to king Henrie.

Fee ſimple.

A Statute vpon the writ of Quo warranto.

Quo warranto.

For as much as writs of Quo warranto, and iudgements giuen vpon pleas of the ſame, were greatly delayed, becauſe the Iuſtices in giuing iudgement were not certified of the kings pleaſure therein. Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter after the feaſt of Eaſter, the xviii. yeere of his reigne, of his ſpeciall grace, and for the ſingular affection that he beareth vnto his prelates, Earles, and barons, and other of his realme, hath graunted that all vnder his allegeance, as well ſpirituall as other, which can proue and verifie by inqueſt in the entre, or otherwiſe, that they and their auncetors or predeceſſours haue vſed anie manner of liberties, whereof they were impleaded by the ſaide writs before the time of king Richard our coſin, or in our time, and haue continued hitherto (ſo that they haue not miſuſed ſuch liberties) that the parties ſhall be aiourned further vnto a certaine daie reaſonable before the ſame Iuſtices, within the which they maie go to our ſoueraigne lord the king with the record of the Iuſtices ſigned with his ſeale, and alſo returne. And the king by his letters patents ſhall confirme their eſtate. And they that can not proue the ſeaſon of their auncetors in ſuch manner as is before declared, ſhall be ordered and iudged after the lawe and cuſtome of the realme, and ſuch as haue the kings charters, ſhall be iudged according to their charters. Moreouer the king of his ſpeciall grace hath graunted, that all iudgements that are to be giuen in pleas of Quo warranto, by his Iuſtices at Weſtminſter, after the foreſaid Eaſter, for the king him ſelfe, if the parties grieued will come againe before the king, he of his grace ſhall giue them ſuch remedie, as before is mencioned. Alſo our ſoueraigne lord hath graunted for ſparing the coſtes and expenſes of his people, that pleas of Quo warranto from henſforth ſhall be pleaded and determined in the circuit of the Iuſtices, and that al pleas now depending ſhalbe aiourned into the ſhires, vntill the comming of the Iuſtices into thoſe parties.

Letters patents.

Charter.

Iudgemẽts.

The newe ſtatute of Quo warranto, made the xviii. yere of the reigne of Edward the firſt.

Inqueſt.

Concerning the writ that is called Quo warranto, Our ſoueraigne lord the king at the feaſt of Pentecoſt, in the xviii. yeere of his raigne hath eſtabliſhed, that all thoſe which claime to haue quiet poſſeſſion of anie franchiſe, before the time of king Richard, without interruption, and can ſhewe the ſame by a lawful inqueſt, ſhall well enioy their poſſeſſion. And in caſe that ſuch poſſeſſion be demaunded for cauſe reaſonable, the king ſhall confirme it by title. And thoſe that haue old charters of franchiſe, ſhal haue the ſame charters allowed according to the tenour and forme of them, & thoſe that haue loſt their liberties ſith Eaſter laſt paſt by the foreſaid writ, according to the courſe of pleading in the ſame writ heretofore vſed, ſhall haue reſtitution of their franchiſe loſt. And from henſfoorth they ſhall haue according to the nature of this preſent conſtitution.

The maner of leuying of fines, made the xviii. yere of king Edward the firſt.

Fines leuied.

When the writ originall is deliuered in preſence of the parties, a pleader ſhall ſaie this: Sir Iuſtice conge daccorder. And the Iuſtice ſhall ſaie to him. Sir R. And ſhall name one of the parties, then when they be agreed of the ſumme of money, that muſt be giuen to the king, the Iuſtice ſhall commaund the peace to be cryed, & after the pleader ſhall ſaie: In ſo much as the peace is licenced thus vnto you W. S. and A. his wife, that here be to knowledge the manner of B. with the appurtenance, conteined in the writ, to be the right of our ſoueraigne lord the king, which he hath of their gift: To haue and to holde, to him and to his heires, of the ſaid W. and A, and of the heires of the ſaid A. as in demeanes, rents, ſeignories, pleas, purchaſes, wardes, marriages, reliefes, eſchetes, milles, aduowſons of churches, & al other franchiſes and free cuſtomes to the ſaide maner belonging, paying yeerely to R. and his heires, as chiefe lordes of the fee, the ſeruices and cuſtomes due for all ſeruices. And it is to be noted, that the order of the lawe will not ſuffer a finall accorde to be leuied in the kings court without a writ orignall, and that muſt be at the leaſt before foure Iuſtices in the bench or in eire, and not otherwiſe, and in preſence of the parties named in the writ, which muſt be of full age, of good memorie, and out of priſon. And if a woman couert be one of the parties, then ſhee muſt bee firſt examined by foure of the ſaid Iuſtices. And if ſhe doth not aſſent thereto, the fine ſhall not be leuied. And the cauſe wherefore ſuch ſolemnitie ought to be done in a fine, is becauſe a fine is ſo high a barre, of ſo great force, and of ſo ſtrong nature in him ſelfe, that it concludeth not onelie ſuch as be parties and priuies thereto and their heires, but all other people of the world, being of full age, out of priſon, of good memorie, and within the foure ſeas, the daie of the fine leuied, if they make not their claime of their action within a yéere and a daie by the countrie.

The Statute of Vouchers made the twentieth yere of king
Edwarde the firſt.

Voucher.

WHere as the tenant in a plea of land heretofore had vouched one to warrantie, and thereupon the demaundant would auerre, that he nor none of his auncetors (ſince the time that the auncetor of the demaundant was ſeaſed) was in poſſeſſion of the ſaide lands, neither in demeane nor in ſeruice, if the partie vouched were preſent, and would warrantiſe the land fréelie vnto the tenant, ſuch auerrement of the demaundant hath not béene vſed to be admitted, except the partie vouched had beene abſent, and that by reaſon of a certaine ſtatute of the kings latelie made amongeſt other ſtatutes of Weſtminſter firſt. Ca.xxxix.

Wherefore our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the fraud, deceit and malice, and alſo his owne dammage and diſheriſon of his crowne, that in the ſaide caſe hath manie times happened in his court, and dailie doth, whereas ſome holding of the king in chiefe by an whole Baronie, in a plea hanging before the Iuſtices of the benche vpon their demaund doe vouch particuliarly knaues vnknowen and ſtrangers (which they will bring forth) of whome neither they nor their auncetors had neuer anie thing in the lands, that they warranted, nor in anie other landes or tenements within this realme, neither in demeane nor in ſeruice, as hath béene teſtified by diuers of the kings faithfull ſubiects, ſo that by ſuch cautel, fraude, and malice the ſame tenants holding by an entire Baronie, do defraud the king of the amerciament that they ſhould incurre, if the demaundant ſhould recouer againſt them. And likewiſe when ſuch perſons haue warranted, that is to wit, euerie one for his portion that he ought to warrant, he maie defend himſelfe by the bodie of his ſeruant procured and hired by them that holde Baronies, and ſo vpon one writ and one demaunde, there were two or thrée wages of battailes, the which was a right hard and a perilous example for poore men in time comming that ſhall be demaundants againſt great and rich men, which will defend them ſelues by the malice aforeſaide. And the demaundant can not haue his auerment againſt ſuch warranters, when they be vouched in forme aforeſaid, becauſe they be preſent, and will warrantiſe fréelie, by his common counſaile hath ordeined, and from henſforth that is to ſay from the feaſt of S. Hillarie, the xx. yéere of his reigne he hath ſtraitlie commaunded that whatſoeuer tenant do vouche, and the demaundant will auerne in forme before rehearſed, his auerrement ſhall be admitted whither the partie vouched be abſent or preſent without any reſpect had thereunto.

Warrantiſe.
Auerrement.

A Statute of Waſt, made the xx. yere of king Edward the firſt.

Waſt.

WIlliam Butteler, which is within age and in ward of our ſoueraigne lord the king, hath ſhewed vnto his highneſſe, that where Gawin Butteler his brother (whoſe heire he is) had impleded one Walter de Hapeton by the kinges writ for Waſte and deſtruction made by him in certaine his landes and tenementes, which the ſame Walter helde for terme of his life of the inheritance of the foreſaid Gawin in Wymme and Thyrke. And the aforeſaide Gawin before he had obtained iudgement died. After whoſe death the aforeſaid William by a like writ inpleaded the foreſaide Walter, for the waſt and deſtruction made by him of long time. The ſame Walter before Gilbert Thorneton and his companions aſſigned to heare the kings pleas, came in and ſaid, that he ought not to anſwere to the ſame William for the waſt and deſtruction made in the time of an other, before the right of the ſaide inheritance deſcended vnto him, and thereupon demaunded iudgement. And for as much as certaine Iuſticers did not agrée in giuing of the ſaide iudgement, becauſe it ſéemeth to ſome that it ſhould not be agréeable to the lawe, that anie perſon ſhould obtaine auantage and compenſe by the foreſaid writ, which is a writ of treſpas den to a perſon certaine, but onelie the ſame perſon to whome and in whoſe time the treſpas was done. Other Iuſtices with the more part of the kings counſell were in the contrarie opinion, alleaging by diuerſe reaſons that the ſaid William ought to be heard and aunſwered vnto, and all other what ſo euer they be in like caſes or in like treſpaſſes. And for becauſe like matters haue remained not amended, and treſpaſſes vnpuniſhed which was inconuenient, Our ſoueraigne lord the king in his full parliament holden the daie after the feaſt of the Purification, in the xx. yéere of his reigne by a generall counſaile hath ordeined, and from henſforth hath commaunded to be ſtraitlie obſerued, that euerie heire in whoſe warde ſo euer he be, and as well within age, as of full age ſhall haue his recouerie by a writ of waſt in the foreſaid caſe, and alſo in other where the ſame writte ought to hold place, ⁊ it ſhal hold place as wel for waſt ⁊ deſtruction made in landes ⁊ tenements of his own inheritance, ⁊ as wel in the times of his auncetors as at anie other time that the fée ⁊ inheritance diſcended vnto him, ⁊ ſhall be anſwered vnto therefore. And that he ſhal recouer the lands waſted and dammages, as it is ordeined in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter of dammages to be recouered in a writ of waſt, if the tenant be conuict for the waſt. And it is commanded by the king him ſelfe vnto the ſame Gilbert Thorneton ⁊ his companions that they do procéed in the foreſaid matter, and in other like from henceforth, and iudgement ſhall be giuen according as the matter is found. And likewiſe it is commanded vnto the iuſtices, that they ſhall cauſe all the aforeſaid things to be ſtraitlie obſerued before them from henceforth.

The ſtatute of defending right, made the xx. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Vhen that any purchaſeth a writ againſt the tenants by the curteſie, in taile, in dower, for terme of life, or of yeeres, and the demandant ſueth ſo farre that the landes be in maner recouered whereupon another commeth in before iudgement giuen and ſaith that he hath fée and right in thoſe landes, and praieth the court that in as much as he is come before iudgement, he maie be receiued to defend his right, and to make anſwere vnto the demandant thereof by force of a certaine ſtatute latelie made by the king that now is at Weſtminſter, whereby as well ſuch as had no right as they that had right often times in the caſe afore mencioned, falſelie and in diſceit of the court did come in and praie to be receiued to make anſwere, to the intent that their admiſſion might prolong the demandant from the attaining vnto iudgement and ſeaſon of his lande, and for to cauſe thoſe demandants to repleade of new, whereby ſuch demandants are greatlie deferred in the caſe aforeſaid for to recouer their right in the kings court by reaſon of ſuch malice, as well by miſtaking of the ſaid ſtatute for anie other cauſe iuſt and reaſonable, and this is vſed and found dailie before our iuſtices. In conſideration whereof our ſoueraigne lord the king for to withſtand all ſuch malice in the foreſaid caſe, and intending to prouide a remedie therein, in his full parliament hath ordeined, and from henceforth commandeth ſtraitlie to be obſerued, that is to wit, the mondaie next after the feaſt of the purification of our Ladie, the xx. yeere of his raigne, that if anie before iudgement in the foreſaid caſe commeth in by a collaterall title, and deſireth to be receiued, before his receit he ſhall finde ſufficient ſuretie, (as the court will award) to ſatiſfie the demandant of the value of iſſues of the lands ſo to be recouered from the daie that he is receiued to make anſwere vntill the time that finall iudgement be giuen vpon the petition of the demandant. And if the demandant recouer his demande, the defendour ſhall be grieuouſlie amerced if he haue whereof. And if he haue not, he ſhall be impriſoned at the kings pleaſure. And if he can proue his right to be as good as he affirmed at ſuch time as he was receiued, he ſhall go quite.

Right.

Collaterall title.

The ſtatute of perſons to be put in aſſiſes.

FOr as much as our ſoueraigne lord the king by the continuall and grieuous complaint of his poore ſubiects doth perceiue that diuers perſons being of leaſt abilitie of his realme, are manie times intollerably troubled by ſhirifs and their bailifes, bailifes of liberties which impanell them to the recogniſances of aſſiſes, iuries, inqueſts, and attaints triable out of the ſhires where they be dwelling. And do ſpare the rich people and ſuch as be more able by whom the trueth of the matter might be better knowne, whereby great expences and trouble doth dailie and manifeſtly enſue to the impoueriſhment of the ſaid people and vtter diſheriting. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord prouiding for the indempnitie of his people and deſiring to ſet conuenient remedie in the premiſſes for the publike weale of his realme in his parliament holden in the terme of ſaint Michael the xxi. yéere of his raigne hath ordeined in this behalfe that no ſhirife, vnderſhirife, or their bailifes, nor bailifes of liberties, ſhall from henceforth put in anie recogniſance aboueſaid that ſhall paſſe out of their proper counties, anie of their bailifes, except they haue lands and tenements to the yéerely value of an hundreth ſhillings at the leaſt. And the king intendeth not by this ſtatute to reſtraine the laſt ſtatute of Weſtminſter wherein mencion is made of recogniſours to be put in iuries and aſſiſes, but of ſuch onelie as ought to paſſe in aſſiſes, iuries, and recogniſances triable out of their proper counties, ſo that within the countie before iuſtices of our ſoueraigne lord the king aſſigned to the taking of anie ſuch inqueſts, iuries, or other recogniſances none ſhall be impanelled, except he haue lands and tenements to the yéerely value of fortie ſhillings. And likewiſe ſauing that before iuſtices errant that hold common pleas in their circuite, and alſo in cities, boroughs, and other market townes where recogniſances, aſſiſes, and iuries do paſſe vpon any matter touching the ſaid cities, boroughs, and other townes, a writ ſhall be made like as it hath bene accuſtomed in times paſſed.

Rex &c. Quia ad communem vtilitatem populi noſtri & regni de communi conſilio eiuſdem regni ſtatuerimus ne aliquis ponatur in iuratis, aſſiſis, ſeu recognitionibus aliquibus extra comitatum ſuum proprium faciendis niſi habeat terras aut tenementa ad valenciam centum ſolidum per annum ad minus, nec infra comitatum ſuum niſi habeat terras ad tenementa ad valentiam .xl. ſolidorum per annum ad minus, prout in ſtatuto illo quod tibi mittimus ſub ſigillo noſtro, & quam in omnibus & ſingulis articulis ſuis de cetero obſeruare volumus & firmiter teneri plenius continetur, tibi precipimus & firmiter iniungimus quod ſtatutum illud in pleno comitatu tuo & in ciuitatibus burgis, & villis mercatoriis, & aliis locis publicis & ſolempnibus in balliua tua vbi neceſſe fuerit, & expedite videris legi & publice proclamari, & illud in omnibus & ſingulis ſuis articulis (quantum in te eſt) obſeruari facias & firmiter teneri. Et hoc ſicut graue damnum tuum vitare volueris, nullo modo omittas. Teſte, &c.

7

The ſtatute of treſpaſſers in parkes made the xxi. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the firſt.

To the intent that treſpaſſers in foreſts, chaſes, parkes, and warrens maie more warelie eſchewe and feare hereafter to enter and treſpaſſe in the ſame, then they haue heretofore. Our ſoueraigne lord the king at his parliament after Eaſter the xxi. yeere of his raigne at the inſtance of the nobles of his realme hath granted and commanded to be from henceforth firmelie obſerued, that if anie foreſter, parker, or warrenner do finde anie treſpaſſer wandering within his libertie intending to do damage therein, and that after hue and crie made to him to ſtand vnto the peace, will not yéeld him ſelfe, but doeth continue and executeth his malice, and diſobeying the kings peace, doth flée, or defendeth him ſelfe with force and armes, although ſuch foreſters, parkers, and warrenners or anie other comming in their companie, and aiding ſuch foreſters, parkers and warrenners in the kings peace, do kill anie offender or offenders being ſo found either in arreſting or taking them, or anie of them, they ſhall not be arraigned vpon the ſame before the king and his iuſtices, or before anie other the king his bailifes, or anie other within anie franchiſe or without. Nor ſhall not léeſe for ſo doing either life or limme, or ſuffer anie other puniſhment, but ſhal enioy the kings peace as they did before. Notwithſtanding let all ſuch foreſters, parkers, warrenners and all other beware that by reaſon of anie malice, diſcord, debate, or other euill will had before time they do not lie, nor maliciouſlie pretend againſt anie perſon paſſing through their liberties, that they came thither for to treſpaſſe or miſdo, when of trueth they did nothing, nor were not founden as treſpaſſers, and ſo kill them, for if they do and be conuict thereupon the death of ſuch perſons ſhall be inquired and execution ſhall bee done in like maner, as is done for other of the kings ſubiects ſtanding in his peace, and like as it ought to be done of right, and according to the lawe and cuſtome of the realme.

The ſtatute vpon the writte of conſultation, made the xxiiij. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Prohibition.

Where as eccleſiaſticall iudges haue oftentimes ſurceaſed to procéede in cauſes moued before them, by force of the kings writ of prohibition, in caſes where as remedie could not be giuen vnto complainants in the kings court by any writ out of the chancerie, becauſe that ſuch plaintifes were deferred of their right and remedie in both courts, as well temporall as ſpirituall to their great damage, like as the king hath bene aduertiſed by the grieuous complaint of his ſubiects: Our ſoueraigne lord the king commandeth, that where eccleſiaſticall iudges do ſurceaſſe in the aforeſaid caſes, by the kings prohibition directed vnto them, that the chancellour, or the chiefe iuſticer of the king for the time being, vpon ſight of the libell of the ſame matter, at the inſtance of the plaintife (if they can ſee that the caſe can not be redreſſed by anie writ out of the chancerie, but that the ſpirituall court ought to determine the matters) ſhall write to the iudges, before whom the cauſe was firſt moued, that they procéede therein, notwithſtanding the kings prohibition directed to them before.

A confirmation of the charters of the liberties of England, and of the foreſt made the xxv. yeere of Edward the firſt.

Chap. 1. Charters.

Edward by the grace of God, king of England, lord of Irelande, and duke of Guyan, to all thoſe that theſe preſent letters ſhall heare or ſee, gréeting. Know ye that we to the honour of God, and of holie church, and to the profit of our realme haue granted for vs and our heires, that the charter of liberties, and the charter of the foreſt, which were made by common aſſent of all the realme, in the time of king Henrie our father, ſhall be kept in euerie point without breach. And we will that the ſame charters ſhall be ſent vnder our ſeale, as well to our iuſticers of the foreſt, as to others, and to all ſhirifes of ſhires, & to all our other officers, and to all our cities throughout the realme, together with our writtes, in the which it ſhall be contained that they cauſe the foreſaid charters to be publiſhed, and to declare to the people that we haue confirmed them in all points. And that our iuſticers, ſhirifes, maiors, and other miniſters which vnder vs haue the lawes of our lande to guide, ſhall allowe the ſame charters pleaded before them in iudgement in all their points, that is to wit, the great charter as the common lawe, and the charter of the foreſt for the wealth of our realme.

Chap. 2. Iudgement.

And we will that if anie iudgement be giuen from henceforth contrarie to the points of the charters aforeſaid by the iuſticers, or by any other our miniſters that hold plea before them againſt the points of the charters, it ſhall be vndone and holden for nought.

Chap. 3.

And we will that the ſame charters ſhall be ſent vnder our ſeale, to cathedrall churches throughout our realme there to remaine, and ſhalbe read before the people two times by the yéere.

Chap. 4. Excommunication.

And that al archbiſhops and biſhops ſhal pronounce the ſentence of excommunication againſt all thoſe that by word, déede, or counſell, do contrarie to the foreſaid charters, or that in anie point breake or vndo them. And that the ſaid curſes, be twiſe a yéere denounced and publiſhed by the prelates aforeſaid. And if the ſame prelates or anie of them, be remiſſe in the denunciation of the ſaid ſentences, the archbiſhops of Canterburie and Yorke for the time being, ſhal compel and diſtraine them to the execution of their duties in forme aforeſaid.

Cap.5, Aides. Taſkes. And for ſo much as diuers people of our realme are in feare, that the aides and taſkes which they haue giuen to vs before time towardes our warres, and other buſines, of their owne graunt and good will (howſoeuer they were made) might turne to a bondage to them and their heires, becauſe they might be at an other time found in the rolles, and likewiſe for the priſes taken throughout the realme by our miniſters: We haue graunted for vs and our heires, that we ſhall not drawe no ſuch aides, taſkes, nor priſes into a cuſtome, for anie thing that hath bene done Priſes. heretofore, be it by rolle, or anie other precedent that may be founden.

Cap.6. Moreouer, we haue graunted for vs and our heires, as well to archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, and other folke of holie church, as alſo to earles, barons, and to all the communaltie of the land, that for no buſines from henceforth, we ſhall take ſuch maner of aides, taſkes, nor priſes, but by the common aſſent of all the realme, and for the common profit thereof. Sauing the auncient aides and priſes due and accuſtomed.

Cap.7. And for ſo much, as the more part of the communaltie of the realme finde them ſelues ſore greeued with the maletent of woolles, that is to wit, a tole of fortie ſhillings for euerie ſacke of woolle, and haue made petition to vs for to releaſe the ſame: we at their requeſt haue clearelie releaſed it, and haue graunted for vs and our heires, that we ſhall not take ſuch thinges without their common aſſent and good will. Sauing to vs and our heires the cuſtome of wolles, ſkins, and leather graunted before by the communaltie aforeſaid. In witnes of which things, we haue cauſed theſe our letters to be made patent. Witnes Edward our ſonne at London the x. day of October, the xxv. yeare of our reigne.

The ſentence of the clergie giuen againſt the breakers of the articles aboue written.

IN the name of the father, the ſonne, and the holie ghoſt, Amen. Where as our ſouereigne lord the king to the honor of God, and of holie church, and for the common profit of the realme, hath graunted for him & his heires for euer theſe articles aboue written, Robert archbiſhop of Canterburie, primat of all England admoniſhed all his prouince once, twiſe, and thriſe. Becauſe that ſhortnes will not ſuffer ſo much delaie, as to giue knowledge to all the people of England of theſe preſents in writing: We therefore enioine all perſons, of what eſtate ſo euer they be, that they and euerie of them, as much as in them is, ſhall vphold and maintaine theſe articles graunted by our ſouereigne lorde the king in all points. And all thoſe that in anie point doo reſiſt or breake, or in anie maner hereafter procure counſell, or anie wiſe aſſent to reſiſt or breake thoſe ordinances, or go about it, by word or deede, openlie or priuilie, by anie maner of pretence or colour: We the foreſaid archbiſhop by our autoritie in this writing expreſſed, doo excommunicat and accurſe, and from the bodie of our lord Ieſu Chriſt, and from all the companie of heauen, and from all the ſacraments of holie church doo ſequeſter and exclude.

The ſtatute of fines leuied made the XXVII. yeare of king Edward the firſt.

Cap.1. Fines leuied. FOr as much as fines leuied in our court ought and doo make an ende of all matters, and becauſe therof are called fines, where after waging of battell or the great aſſiſe in their caſes euermore they hold the laſt and finall place. And now by a certaine time paſſed, as well in the time of king Henrie of famous memorie our graundfather, as in our time the parties of ſuch fines, and their heires contrarie to the lawes of our realme of auncient time vſed, were admitted to adnull and defeate ſuch fines, alledging that before the fine leuied and at the leuieng thereof, and ſince, the demaundaunts or plaintiffes or their aunceſters were alway ſeaſed of the lands contained in the fine or of ſome parcell thereof. And ſo fines lawfullie leuied were manie times vniuſtlie defeted and adnulled by iurours of the countrie falſelie and malicioſlie procured. We therefore intending to prouide a remedie in the premiſſes in our parlement at Weſtminſter haue ordained, that ſuch exceptions, aunſwers, or inquiſitions of the countrie, ſhall from henceforth in no wiſe be admitted contrarie to ſuch recogniſances or fines. And further, we will that this ſtatute ſhall as well extend vnto fines heretofore leuied, as to them that ſhall be leuied hereafter. And let the iuſtices ſee that ſuch notes and fines as hereafter ſhall be leuied in our court be read openlie and ſolemnelie, and that in the meane time all pleas ſhall ceaſe. And this muſt be at two certaine daies in the weeke, according to the diſcretion of the iuſtices.

Cap.2. Shiriffes. We haue alſo ordeined by the aduice of our councell, that from henceforth, ſhiriffes ſhall not be charged of any iſſues to be leuied, nor ſhal leuie any before they paſſe out of the eſchequer, there to be deliuered by the extreates of the iuſtices. And that in the eſtrates of iuſtices euerie head ſhall be charged for iſſues forfeited like as of amerciaments, and if peraduenture anie ſhiriffe will anſwere for the iſſues of anie recogniſer, pledge, or mainpernour by him aſſigned and returned into our court, which at the time of the returne is not able to paie ſuch iſſues or amerciaments, the ſhiriffe ſhall be charged, and ſhall anſwere therefore in our eſchequer. And let the ſhiriffes beware vnder paine of great forfeiture, that from henceforth they doo make Tailes. tailes of all ſuch monie as they or their officers haue receiued by our commaundement. And that they doo not returne anie where, the names of anie mainepernours, or ſureties, iurors, or anie other, except ſuch ſureties, mainepernors or other, according to the tenour of our writs being directed to the ſhiriffes for the ſame cauſe, be lawfullie and manifeſtlie impanelled thereupon. And they ſhall not returne the names of anie free men as pledges, without that they will plainelie conſent and agree to the ſame. And hereupon we haue enacted, that at one time certaine euerie yeare one baron, & one clerke of our ſaid eſchequer, ſhall be ſent throughout euerie ſhire of England, to enrole the names of all ſuch as haue paied that yeare debts exacted of them by a greene ware. And the ſame baron and clerke, ſhall view all ſuch tailes & inrole them. And ſhall here and determine complaints made againſt ſhiriffes and their clerkes, and bailiffes that haue doone contrarie to the premiſſes, and the offenders ſhall be greeuouſlie puniſhed.

Chap. 3. Shiriffes. Pleuin. For as much, as ſhiriffes and other heretofore, haue let out by pleuin common felons and openlie defamed, being taken and impriſoned for murder and felonie, and ſuch as be not repleuiſable, contrarie to the forme of our ſtatute made at Weſtminſter of perſons repleuiſable and not repleuiſable, whereby ſuch tranſgreſſors not repleuiſable be let out, and for to deliuer them deceitfullie before the comming of the iuſtices errant or other aſſigned for their deliuerance, they procure by themſelues, and by their freendes iurers of the countrie, and ſome they threat, whereby, as well for feare of the ſhiriffes and other that let them at large by ſuch pleuin as for Felons. feare of the theeues being ſo deliuered before iuſtices aſſigned for gaile deliueries, ſuch felonies and murders are concealed, and ſo being concealed remaine ſtill vnpuniſhed. We for the vtilitie of our realme, and for the more aſſured conſeruation of our peace, haue prouided and ordained, that iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes in all ſhires where they take aſſiſes, as it is ordained, incontinent after the aſſiſes taken in the ſhires, ſhall remaine both togither if they be laie. And if one of them be a clerke, then one of the moſt diſcreete knightes of the ſhire being aſſociat to him that is a laie man, by our writ ſhall deliuer the gailes of the ſhires, as well within the liberties as without of all maner of priſons after the forme of the gaile deliueries of thoſe ſhires before times vſed. And the ſame iuſtices ſhall inquire then, if ſhiriffes or anie other haue let out by pleuin priſoners not repleuiable, or haue offended in anie other thing, contrarie to the forme of the foreſaid ſtatute latelie made at Weſtminſter, and they ſhall reforme and puniſh them in all things according to the forme of the ſtatute aforeſaid.

Cap. 4. Inqueſt. Alſo where we haue prouided, that none ſhall be impanelled anie where out of the ſhire where he is dwelling in recogniſances, inqueſts, and iuries that hath leſſe than C. s. of land or rent, whereby, as well they that haue more lands by too often appearing as well in our eſchequer as before our iuſtices of either bench, are much impoueriſhed. We therefore conſidering the intollerable damage of our people, not onelie for the diſcharge of ſuch iurers, but alſo for the more ſpeedie miniſtration of iuſtice to all parties ſuing in our court, haue prouided and ordained, that in- Recogniſance. queſts and recogniſances determinable before iuſtices of either bench from henceforth ſhall be taken in time of vacation before anie of the iuſtices before whome the plea is brought, being aſſociat to one knight of the ſame ſhire where ſuch inqueſts ſhall paſſe, vnleſſe it be an inqueſt that requireth great examination. And ſo from henceforth, in taking ſuch inqueſts, the iuſtices ſhall doo as to them ſhall ſeeme moſt expedient for the common vtilitie of our realme, notwithſtanding, the ſtatute latelie made at Weſtminſter, vpon the taking of ſuch inqueſts, containing, that if anie inqueſts be taken contrarie to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute, they ſhould be of none effect. And therefore we commaunde, ſtraitelie charging thee, that incontinent without further delaie, thou ſhalt cauſe to be read and publiſhed in cities, borowes, market townes, and other ſolemne places throughout thy libertie, where thou ſhalt thinke moſt neceſſarie of the articles aboue ſaid, the wich we haue graunted, willing them to be kept and obſerued ſtedfaſtlie and without contradiction, and that thou notifie and declare all and ſingular the premiſſes to all our liege people without delaie, witneſſe. &c.

An ordinance of purchaſing liberties, made the xxvii. yeare of king Edward the firſt.

Purchaſe. IT is to be vnderſtanden, that the king ordained at Weſtminſter the firſt day of Aprill the xxvii. yeare of his raigne, that ſuch as would purchaſe a new purchaſe, as men of religion that would amortiſe landes or tenements, ſhould haue writs, out of the kings chauncerie for to enquire vpon the points accuſtomed in all things, and that inqueſts of landes or tenements that be worth yearelie more than xx. li. that is to wit by extent, be returned into the eſchequer, & there to make fine for the amortiſments or for the purchaſe hauing, if the inqueſts doo paſſe for him that purchaſed them, and afterward it ſhall be certified vnto the chauncellor or his deputie, that he take a reaſonable fine therefore according to the quantitie of the thing, and after to deliuer it. In like maner they ſhall doo that will purchaſe lands or tenements holden of the king in chiefe. Alſo folke dwelling beyond the ſea, that haue lands, tenements, or rents in England, and will purchaſe letters of protection, or will make Atturneie. generall atturneies, they ſhall be ſent vnto the eſchequer, and there ſhall make their fines, and from thenſe ſhall be ſent vnto the chauncellor, or his deputie, for that that he ought to doo therein. In like maner they ſhall doo that will purchaſe anie faire, market, marreine, or anie other libertie. Alſo ſuch as wil purchaſe atterminement of their debts, ſhal be ſent into the eſchequer. Alſo ſuch as be not able to trauaile, and folke that dwell in farre countries, which pleade or be impleaded ſhall haue a writ out of the chauncerie to ſome ſufficient man, that ſhall receiue their atturneies, when neede is. And for a remembrance of theſe thinges there is an indenture made deuided into three partes, whereof one part remaineth in the chauncerie, an other in the eſchequer, and the third in the garderobe.

The ſtatute of wardes and releeſes, made the xxviii. yeere of King Edward the firſt.

Releeſe. Wardſhip. Seriauntie.

It is to wit, that where anie releeſe is giuen, there wardſhip is incident, and contrarie wiſe. And ſuch as holde by ſeriauntie to go with the king in his hoſt, there warde and releeſe are incident. And ſuch as holde by petie ſeriauntie, as to beare ſhielde or ſpeare in the kings hoſte, to beare or to carie, there lieth neither warde, marriage, nor releeſe. Alſo a free ſokeman ſhall not giue warde nor releeſe, but he ſhall double his rent after the death of his anceſtor, according as he hath vſed to paie, and ſhall not be vnmeaſurablie greeued. Now ſomewhat is to be ſaid of the nature of hauing wardes. There be two maners of writs to haue wardes, one is where lands be holden in knights ſeruice, the other is where lands be holden in ſocage. The warde of land that is holden in knights ſeruice belongeth to the cheefe lord, and the marriage, which ought to be without diſperagement, as the great charter limiteth, vntill he commeth to the age of xxi. yeeres. The warde of an heire that holdeth in ſocage, if the inheritance diſcende of his mothers ſide, then it belongeth to the next freende of the fathers ſide, and contrarie wiſe. And a writ to recouer warde, maie be brought in three maners, one is when a man demaundeth warde of the lande and of the heire, ⁊ that is in caſe when a man holdeth lande of an other by knightes ſeruice, and the tenant dieth, then maie the cheefe lorde (if he be deforced) demaunde the warde of his land and heire, and ſhall haue both warde and marriage. An other manner is when a man is infeffed of a rode of lande by one man, and by an other of an other rode, the ſecond lorde maie not bring a writ of warde to recouer either the land or the heire, for the warde belongeth to the lorde, of whom he was firſt infeffed. The thirde maner is where a man hath land in his hands by reaſon of a warde, and hath not the heire, then he may bring a writ to demand the heire and not the land.

Knights ſeruice.

Socage.

A ſtatute for perſons appealed made the xxviii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Whereas certeine iuſtices of late were aſſigned to take aſſiſes in all ſhires of the realme, ⁊ alſo to deliuer the gailes of the ſame ſhires at euerie of their commings after the taking of ſuch aſſiſes, as more plainelie is conteined in a ſtatute made by the king therevpon, our ſouereigne lord the king, at his parliament at Weſtminſter, the xxviii. yeere of his reigne, for more ſure obſeruation of his peace, and felonies to be more quicklie puniſhed, and priſoners to be ſooner deliuered hath granted, ordeined, and prouided, that who ſo euer be appealed by prouers, being in priſons, which the ſame iuſtices do deliuer (where ſo euer in our realme that ſuch appealles be dwelling or lurking) that immediatlie it ſhall be commanded to the ſhiriffe, in whoſe libertie the parties ſo appealed bee conuerſant or maie be founde by the kings writ, vnder the teſtimonie of the ſame iuſtices, that he doe take ſuch perſons appealed, and cauſe them to be brought vnto the gailes, where the appealors be kept, that appealed them, and ſhall anſwere there before the ſame iuſtices. And if they that be appealed will put them ſelues vpon the countrie, it ſhall be commanded in like maner by a iudiciall writ, from the iuſtices to the ſhiriffe, in whoſe libertie the felonies were done, of which they are appealed, that he ſhall cauſe an inqueſt of the country to come before the ſame iuſtices, vnto the ſame place where the appealers be kept, vnto a certeine daie. And the ſhirifes ⁊ other (in whoſe keeping ſuch appealors be deteined) ſhall receiue without contradiction, thoſe that be appealed by ſuch prouers, where the parties appealed be taken in the forme abouesayde, and brought vnto the ſame appealors.

Appeale. Shiriffes.

Appealor.

Articles vpon the charters made the xxviij. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

For as much as the articles of the great charter of the liberties of Englande and of the tharter of foreſt, the which king Henrie, father to our ſouereigne lorde the king graunted to his people for the weale of his realme, haue not bene heretofore obſerued ne kept, and all becauſe there was no puniſhment executed vpon them which offended againſt the points of the charters before mencioned. Our ſouereigne lord the king hath againe graunted, renewed, and confirmed them, at the requeſts of his prelats, earles, and barons, aſſembled in his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xxviii. yeere of his reigne. And hath ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed certeine articles againſt all them that offend contrarie to the pointes of the ſaide charters or anie part of them, or that in anie wiſe tranſgreſſe them in the forme that enſueth.

Chap. 1. Confirmation.

First of all that from henceforth the great charter of the liberties of Englande graunted to all the commonaltie of the realme and the charter of foreſt in like maner granted, ſhall be obſerued, Iuſtices of oyre & terminer.

Shiriffes.

obſerued, kept, and mainteined in euery point, in as ample wiſe as the king hath granted, renewed, and confirmed by them his charter. And that the charters be deliuered to euerie ſhirife of England vnder the kings ſeale to be red 4. times in the yere before the people in the ful countie, that is to wit the next countie daie after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell, and the next countie daie after the feaſt of the circumciſion, and after Eaſter, and after the feaſt of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt. And for theſe two charters to be firmelie obſerued in euerie point and article (where before no remedie was at the common lawe) there ſhall be choſen in euerie ſhire court by the cominaltie of the ſame ſhire thrée ſubſtantiall men, knights, or other lawfull wiſe, and well diſpoſed perſons to be iuſtices, which ſhall be aſſigned by the kings letters patents vnder the great ſeale to heare and determine (wihout anie other writ, but onelie their commiſſion) ſuch plaintes as ſhall be made vpon all thoſe that commit or offende againſt anie point conteined in the foreſaide charters, in the ſhires where they bee aſſigned, as well within franchiſes as without. And as well for the kinges ſeruants out of their places as for other, and to heare the plaints from daie to daie without anie delaie, and to determine them without allowing the delaies which be at the common lawe. And the ſame knights ſhall haue power to puniſh all ſuch as ſhall be attainted of anie treſpaſſe done contrarie to anie point of the foreſaid charters (where no remedie was before at the common lawe) as before is ſaide by impriſonment, or by fine, or by amerciament according to the treſpaſſe. Neuertheleſſe the king nor none of his counſell that made this ordinance entende that by vertue hereof anie of the foreſaide knights ſhall holds anie maner of plea by power for to admit anie ſuite in ſuch caſes, wherein there hath bene remedie prouided in times paſſed after the courſe of the common lawe by writ. Nor alſo that the common lawe ſhoulde be preiudiced, nor the charters aforeſaide in anie point. And the king willeth that if all thrée be not preſent, or can not at all times attende to doe their office in forme aforeſaide, the king commandeth that two of them ſhall do it. And it is ordeined that the kings ſhiriffes and bailiffes ſhall be attendant to do the commandements of the foreſaid iuſtices as farre forth as apperteineth vnto their offices. And beſides theſe things granted vpon the articles of the charters aforeſaide. The king of his ſpeciall grace for redreſſe of the gréeuances that his people hath ſuſteined by reaſon of his warres, and for the amendment of their eſtate, and to the intent that they maie be the more readie to do him ſeruice, and the more willing to aſſiſt and aide him in time of néed, hath granted certeine articles the which he ſuppoſeth, ſhall not onelie be obſerued of his liege people, but alſo ſhall be as much profitable or more then anie of the articles heretofore granted.

Chap. 2.

Priſes.

Purueiors

Priſes.

Secondarilie for as much as there is a common gréeuance throughout the whole realme, and damage without meaſure, for that the king and his miniſters exact great priſes as well of aliens as of denizens where as they paſſe through the realme, and take the goods as well of clarkes as of laie people, which either paie nothing at all, or elſe much leſſe then the value. It is ordeined that from henceforth none do take anie ſuch priſes within the realme, but onelie the kings takers and the purueiors for his houſhold, & that the takers and purueiors of his houſe ſhall take nothing, but onelie for his houſholde. And touching ſuch things as they ſhall take in the countrie of meate and drinke and ſuch other meane things neceſſarie for the houſholde, they ſhall paie or make agréement with them of whom the things were taken. And that all the kings takers, purueiors, or cators from henceforth ſhall haue their warrant with them vnder the kinges great or petie ſeale declaring their authoritie and the things whereof they haue power to make priſe or purueiance, the which warrant they ſhall ſhewe to them whoſe goods they take before that they take anie thing. And that thoſe takers, purueiors, or cators for the king ſhall take no more then is néedfull for the king his houſholde, and his children. And that they ſhall not take anie thing for them that be in wages, nor for anie other. And that they ſhall make full anſwere in the court or in the wardrobe for all things taken by them, without making their larges anie other where, or liueries of ſuch things as they haue taken for the king. And if anie taker for the kings houſe by reaſon of his warrant make anie priſe or liuerie otherwiſe then before is mentioned, vpon complaint made to the ſtewarde and to the treaſurer of the houſe, the trueth ſhall be inquired. And if he be attainted thereof, he ſhall forthwith make agréement with the partie, and ſhall auoide the court for euermore, and ſhall remaine in priſon at the kings pleaſure. And if anie make priſe without warrant, and carie it awaie againſt the will of the owner, he ſhall immediatlie be arreſted by the towne where the priſe was made and ſhall be had vnto the next gaile, and if he be attainted thereupon, it ſhall be done to him as vnto a théefe, if the quantitie of the goods do ſo require. And concerning priſes made in faires, good townes, and in ports for the kinges wardrobe, the takers ſhall haue their common warrant vnder the great ſeale. And for the thinges that they ſhall take, it ſhall be teſtified vnder the ſeale of the kéeper of the wardrobe, and the number of the things taken, the quantitie and the value, whereof there ſhall be an indenture made betwéene the takers and the kéepers of faires, maiors, or chéefe bailiffes of townes and ports by the viewe of marchantes whoſe goods ſhall be ſo taken, and they ſhall not be ſuffered to take anie more then is conteined in their diuidende, which diuidende ſhall be had into the wardrobe vnder the ſeale of the wardeine, maior, or chéefe bailiffe aforeſaide, and there ſhall remaine vntill the account of the wardrobe to the king. And if it be found that anie hath taken otherwiſe then he ought to doe, vpon his account he ſhall be puniſhed by the kéepers of the kinges wardrobe after his deſert, and if anie make ſuch priſes without warrant and be attainted thereupon, he ſhall incurre the ſame paine, as they which take priſes without warrant as before is ſaid. Neuertheleſſe, the king and his counſell doo not intend by reaſon of this eſtatute to diminiſh the kings right for auncient priſes due and accuſtomed, as of wines and other goods, but that his right ſhall be ſaued to him whole in all points.

Chap. 3. Stewards. Marſhals of the kings houſe.

Concerning the auctoritie of ſtewards and marſhals, and of ſuch pleas as they may hold, and in what maner. It is ordained that from henceforth, they ſhall not keepe plea of freehold, neither of debt, couenant, nor of anie contract made betweene the kings people, but onelie of treſpas doone within the houſe, or within the vierge, and of ſuch contracts and couenants that one of the houſe maketh with another within the houſe, and none other where. And they ſhall pleade no plea of treſpas, except the partie were attached by them before the king departed from the place where the treſpas was committed, and ſhall pleade them ſpeedilie from daie to daie, ſo that they may be pleaded & determined before that the king depart out of the limits of the ſame vierge, where the treſpas was doone. And if it ſo chance, that they can not be determined within the limits of the ſame vierge, then ſhall the ſame pleas ceaſe before the ſteward, and be matters determinable at the common law: And from henceforth, the ſteward ſhall not take conuſaunce of debts nor of other thinges but of ſuch onelie as concerne them of the kings houſe, nor ſhall hold none other plea by obligation of the determination of the ſteward or the marſhall. And if they attempt anie thing contrarie to this ordinance, it ſhall be holden as voide. And for as much as heretofore, manie felonies that haue beene committed within the vierge haue bene vnpuniſhed, and all becauſe the coroners of the countrie hath not bene auctoriſed to inquire of felonies doone within the vierge, but onelie the coroner of the kings houſe, which neuer continueth in one place, by reaſon whereof, there can be no triall made in due maner, nor the felons put in exigent nor outlawed, nor nothing preſented in the circuit, the which hath bene as well to the great damage of the king, as to the diſturbance of his peace. It is ordained, that from henceforth in caſes of the death of men, whereof the coroners office is to make view and inqueſt, it ſhall be commaunded to the coroner of the countrie, that he with the coroner of the kings houſe, ſhall doo as belongeth to his office and enrolle it. And that thing that can not be determined before the ſteward (where the felons can not be attached) or for other like cauſe, ſhall be remitted to the common law. So that exigends, outlawries, & preſentments ſhall be made thereupon in the circuit by the coroner of the countrie as well as of other felonies doone out of the vierge, neuertheles, they ſhall not omit by reaſon hereof to make attachments freſhlie vpon the felonies doone.

Chap. 4. Common plea.

Moreouer, no common plea ſhall be from henceforth hold in the eſchequer contrarie to the forme of the great charter.

Chap. 5.

And on the other partie the king will, that the chauncellour and the iuſtices of his bench ſhall folow him ſo that he may haue at all times neere vnto him ſome that be learned in the lawes, which be able dulie to order all ſuch matters as ſhall come vnto the court at all times, when neede ſhall require.

Chap. 6. Writ.

There ſhall no writ from henceforth that toucheth the common law go forth vnder anie of the pettie ſeales.

Chap. 7. Conſtable of Douer. Fiue ports.

The conſtable of the caſtle of Douer ſhall not from henceforth, hold anie plea of a forren countie within the caſtell gate, except it touch the keeping of the caſtell, nor the ſaid conſtable ſhall not diſtraine the inhabitants of the fiue ports to pleade anie other where, nor otherwiſe, then they ought after the forme of their charters obteined of kings, for their old franchiſes confirmed by the great charters.

Chap. 8.

The king hath graunted vnto his people, that they ſhall haue election of their ſhirife in euerie ſhire (where the ſhriualtie is not of the fee) if they liſt.

Chap. 9.

The king willeth and commaundeth, that no ſhiriffe nor bailiffe, ſhall impanell in inqueſts and iuries ouer manie perſons, nor otherwiſe then it is ordained by the eſtatute, and that they ſhall put in the iurie ſuch as be next neighbors, moſt ſufficient, and leaſt ſuſpicious. And he that otherwiſe doth, and is attainted thereupon, ſhall pay vnto the plaintiffe his damages double, and ſhall be greeuouſlie amerced vnto the king.

Chap. 10

In right of conſpirators, falſe informers, and imbracers of aſſiſes, inqueſts and iuries, the king hath prouided remedie for the plaintiffes by a writ out of the chancerie. And from henceforth, the king will that the iuſtices of either bench aſſigned to take aſſiſes, when they come into the countrie to doo their office, ſhall vpon euerie plaint made vnto them, awarde inqueſts thereupon without writ, and ſhall doo right vnto the plaintiffes without further delay.

Cap. 11.

And for becauſe the king hath heretofore ordained by eſtatute, that none of his miniſters ſhall take no plea for maintenance, by which eſtatute, other officers were not bounden before this time. The king will that no officer nor anie other (for to obtaine part of the thing in plea) ſhall bere anie matter that is in ſuite. Nor none vpon anie ſuch couenant ſhall giue vp his right to another, and if anie doo, and be attainted thereof, the taker ſhall forfeit vnto the king ſo much of his lands and goods as doth amount to the value of the part that he hath purchaſed for ſuch maintenance. And for this attaindre, whoſoeuer will ſue for the king before the iuſtices afore whome the plea hangeth, ſhall be admitted thereto, and the iudgement ſhall be giuen by them. But it may not be vnderſtanden hereby, that anie perſon ſhall be prohibit to haue counſell of pleaders or of learned men in the law for his fee, or of his next freends.

Chap. 12

From henceforth the king will that ſuch diſtreſſes as are to be taken for his debts, ſhall not be Diſtreſſes.

be made vpon beaſtes of the plough, ſo long as they may finde anie other, vpon the ſame paine that is ordained by eſtatute. And will not that ouer great diſtreſſes be taken for his debts, nor driuen too farre, and if the debtor can finde able and conuenient ſuretie for a day, within which a man may purchaſe remedie for to agree for the demaund, the diſtres ſhal be releaſed in the meane time, and he that otherwiſe doth ſhall be greeuouſlie puniſhed.

Cap. 13. Electiō of ſhiriffes.

And for as much, as the king hath graunted the election of ſhiriffes to the commons of the ſhire, the king will that they ſhall chooſe ſuch ſhiriffes, that ſhall not charge them, and that they ſhall not put anie officer in auctoritie for rewardes or bribes. And that they ſhall not lodge too oft in one place, nor with poore perſons, or men of religion.

Cap. 14. Bailiwiks &c.

From henceforth the king wil that bailiwikes and hundreds of his, nor of other great lords of the land be not let to ferme at ouer great ſummes, whereby the people is ouercharged by making contribution to ſuch fermes.

Cap. 15. Attachments.

In ſommons and attachments in plea of land, the writs from henceforth ſhall conteine xv. daies ful at the leaſt after the common law, if it be not in attachment of aſſiſes taken in the kings preſence, or of pleas before iuſtices in eire during the eire.

Cap. 16. Falſe retaine of writs.

Such execution ſhal be doon of them that make falſe returns of writs (whereby right is deferred as it is ordained in the 2. ſtatute of Weſtminſter, with like peine at the kings commandement.

Cap. 17. Execution of the ſtatute of Wincheſter.

And for as much, as there is more increaſe of malefactors in the realme then is expedient for the common wealth, and that robberies, murders, and manſlaughters are committed out of meaſure, and the peace little obſerued, by reaſon that the ſtatute which the king not long paſt made at Wincheſter, is not obſerued. The king will that the ſame ſtatute be ſent againe into euerie countie to be read and publiſhed foure times in the yeare, and kept in euerie point as ſtraitelie as the two great charters, vpon the peines therein limited. And for the obſeruing and maintenance of the ſtatute, the knights that be aſſigned in the ſhires for to redreſſe things doone againſt the ſaid great charters, ſhall be charged, and ſhall haue their warrant therefore.

Cap. 18. Waſt.

For redreſſe of waſtes and deſtructions doone by eſchetours, or ſubeſchetours in the lands of wardes, as of houſes, woods, parkes, warrens, and of all other things that fall into the kings hands. The king will, that he which hath ſuſtained damage ſhall haue a writ of waſt out of the chauncerie againſt the eſchetour for his acte, and the ſubeſchetour for his acte (if he haue whereof) and if he haue not, his maiſter ſhall be aunſwerable by like peine concerning damages, as is ordained by the ſtatute for them that doo waſt in wardſhips.

Eſchetour.

Cap. 19. Seiſure of landes.

From henceforth where the eſchetour or the ſhiriffe ſeaſe lands into the kings hands (where there is no cauſe of ſeiſer. And after when it is found no cauſe, the profits taken in the meane time haue bene ſtill retained and not reſtored, when the king hath his ouſtre le maine. The king will that if hereafter anie landes be ſeaſed, and after it be out of his hands by reaſon that he hath no cauſe to ſeaſe nor to hold it, the iſſues ſhall be fully reſtored to him, to whome the land ought to remaine, and which hath ſuſteined the damage.

Cap. 20. Goldſmith

It is ordained that no goldſmith of England, nor none otherwhere within the kings dominion, ſhall from henceforth gilde, nor cauſe to be gilded no maner of veſſell, iewell, or anie other thing of gold or ſiluer, except it be of the verie beſt alaie, and ſiluer of the ſterling alaie, or of better, at the pleaſure of him to whome the golde belongeth, and that none gild worſe ſiluer then ſterling. And that he ſuffer no maner of veſſell of gold or ſiluer to depart out of his hands, vntill it be aſſaied by the wardens of the craft, and further, that it be marked with the libardes head. And that they worke no worſe gold than of the touch of Paris. And that the wardens of the craft ſhall go from ſhop to ſhop among the goldſmithes, to aſſaie if their gold be of the ſame touch that is ſpoken of before. And if they finde anie other then of the touch aforeſaid, the gold ſhall be forfeit to the king. And that none ſhall make rings, croſſes, nor lockes. And that none ſhall ſet anie ſtone in gold, except it be naturall. And that grauers or cutters of ſtones and of ſeales ſhall giue to each their weight of ſiluer (as neere as they can) vpon their fidelitie. And the iewels of baſe gold which they haue in their hands, they ſhal vtter as faſt as they can. And from henceforth if they buie any of the ſame worke, they ſhal buie it for to worke vpon & not to ſell againe. And that all the good townes of England where anie goldſmithes be dwelling ſhall be ordered according to this ſtatute, as they of London be. And that one ſhall come from euerie good towne for all the reſidue that be dwelling in the ſame, vnto London for to be aſcertained of their touch. And if anie goldſmith be attainted hereafter, becauſe that he hath doone otherwiſe than before is ordained, he ſhal be puniſhed by impriſonment, & ſhall make fine at the kings pleaſure. And not withſtanding all theſe thinges before mentioned or anie point of them, both the king and his counſell, and all they that were preſent at the making of this ordinance will and intend that the right, and prerogatiue of his crowne ſhall be ſaued to him in all things.

A ſtatute for Eſchetours, made the xxix yeare of king Edward the firſt.

Eſcheters

AT the parliament of our ſoueraigne lord the king, holden at Lincolne in the vtas of ſaint Hillarie, the xxix. yeare of his reigne, by his counſell it was agreed, and alſo commaunded by the king himſelfe, that from thence it ſhould be obſerued & doone, according to the aduiſe of the reuerend father W. Langeton then biſhop of Couentry & Litchfield, & treſurer to the king, John Langeton then being chauncellor, & other of the counſel there preſent before the king, that where inqueſts taken by his eſchetors by any of the kings writs purchaſed out of the chancery being returned, ⁊ it be found by ſuch inqueſts, that nothing is holden of the king whereby the king ought to haue the ward of ſuch lands ⁊ tenements by reaſon of the inqueſt taken by his eſchetors, that immediatly ⁊ without any delay the eſchetors ſhalbe commanded by the kings writ, had out of the kings chauncery, to put from their hands all the lands and tenements ſo taken into the kings poſſeſſion, ⁊ if they haue taken any profits of ſuch lands ⁊ tenements ſo taken into the kings hands by them, from the time that ſuch lands ⁊ tenements fel into the kings hands (they ſhal make full reſtitution to him or them, for whom it was founde by inqueſtes taken by the ſame eſchetors, that ſuch landes ought to remaine, ſauing alway to the king in caſe that, (after ſuch time as his eſchetors haue diſcharged their hands by force of the kings writ, as before is ſaid, if any thing happen to be found in the chauncery, or the eſchequer, or in any other of the kings courtes, whereby the ward of ſuch lands, whereof the eſchetors haue diſcharged their hands, in forme abouesaid ſhould belong vnto the king, that immediatly he in whoſe poſſeſſions ſuch lands happen to be, ſhall be ſomoned by a writ out of the chauncery, to be afore the king at a certain day where ſo euer. ⁊c. to ſhew if he can ſay any thing wherfore the king ought not to haue the warde of ſuch lands, according to the forme of the euidences or remembrances found for the king. And if he come in, and ſhew why the ward of ſuch lands doth not belong vnto the king, but doth ſhew that it ought to belong ⁊ remaine to himſelf, he ſhal go quit, ⁊ ſhal retaine the ward. But in caſe that the party warned do not come, or if that he come ⁊ can ſhew nothing to put the king from the ward, the lands ⁊ tenements ſhalbe forthwith reſeaſed into the kings handes, to be kept in name of wardſhip vnto the lawfull age of ſuch heires, as before is ſaid. And if it be found vpon the inqueſts taken by the eſchetors ⁊ returned, that the ward of the ſame lands ⁊ tenements conteined in the inquiſt, ⁊ ſeaſed into the kings hands, ought not to remaine vnto the king, then the eſchetor ſhalbe commanded forthwith to diſcharge his handes thereof, ⁊ to reſtore the iſſues wholly. In like maner if it be found afterward by the euidences and remembrances in the chauncery, eſchequer, or other where, as before is ſaid, that our ſouereigne lord the king ought to haue the ward thereof, the king ſhall be anſwered vnto for the whole iſſues ⁊ profits, by the handes of ſuch as helde the ſame lands ⁊ tenements from the time they were firſt taken into the kings hands by his eſchetors by the writs abouesaid. And this order ſhall be obſerued from henceforth in the chauncery, notwithſtanding a certein ordinance lately made by our ſouereigne lord the king, concerning lands ⁊ tenements taken into his hands by his officers, ⁊ not to be deliuered but by the king him ſelfe, ⁊ as it is conteined in a certeine diuidenda or indenture made betwene the king himſelfe ⁊ his chauncellor, whereof one part remaineth in the cuſtodie of the chancellor.

The newe ſtatute of Quo warranto made the xxx. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Quo Warranto.

The yeere of our lord 1278. the 6. yeere of the reigne of king Edward at Gloceſter, in the moneth of Auguſt, the king him ſelfe prouiding for the wealth of his realme, ⁊ the more full miniſtration of iuſtice as to the office of a king belongeth (the more diſcrete men of the realme, as well of high as of low degrée, being called thither) It was prouided ⁊ ordeined, that where the realme of England in diuerſe caſes, as wel vpon liberties as otherwiſe, wherin the law failed, to auoid the gréeuous damages ⁊ innumerable diſherisons that the default of lawe did bring in, had néed of diuerſe helpes of new lawes ⁊ certeine new prouiſions, that theſe prouiſions, ſtatutes, ⁊ ordinances vnderwritten ſhal from henſforth be ſtraitly ⁊ inuiolably obſerued of al the inhabitants of his realme, where as prelats, earles, barons, ⁊ other of our realme that claime to haue diuers liberties, which to examine ⁊ iudge, the king had prefixed a day to ſuch prelats, earles, barons, ⁊ other. It is prouided, agréed, ⁊ ordeined, that the ſaid prelats, earles, barons, ⁊ other ſhall vſe ſuch maner of liberties, after the forme of the writ here following. Rex vic. ſalutem. Cum nuper in parliamento noſtro apud Weſtmonaſterium, per nos & conſilium noſtrum prouiſum ſit & proclamatum, quod prelati, comites, barones, & alii de regno noſtro, qui diuerſas libertates per cartas progenitorum noſtrorũ regum Anglie habere clamant, ad quas examinandas & iudicãdas diem prefixerimus in eodem parliamento, libertatibus illis taliter vterentur, quod nihil ſibi per vſurpationem ſeu occupationem accreſſerent, nec aliquid ſuper nos occuparent. Tibi precipimus, quod omnes illos de com. tuo libertatibus ſuis quibus hucuſque rationabiliter vſi ſunt vti & gaudere permittas in forma predicta, vſque ad proximũ aduentum noſtrũ per comitatum predictum, vel vſque ad proximum aduentum iuſticiariorum itinerantium ad omnia placita in comitatu, vel donec aliud inde preceperimus ſaluo ſemper iure noſtro cum inde loqui voluerimus. Teſte. &c. In like maner and in the ſame forme writs ſhalbe directed to ſhiriffes and other bailiffes for ruerie demandant, ⁊ the forme ſhalbe changed after the diuerſitie of the libertie which anie man claimeth to haue, in this wiſe: Rex vic. ſalutem. Precipimus tibi, quod per totam balliuam tuam videlicet tam in ciuitatibus quã in burgis & aliis villis mercatoriis & alibi, publice proclamari facias quod omnes illi qui aliquas libertates per cartas progenitorũ noſtrorũ regũ Anglie vel alio modo habere clamãt, ſint corã iuſticiariis noſtris ad primã aſſiſam, ad oſtẽdendũ cuiuſmodi libertates habere clamãt, & quo warrãto, & tu ipſe ſis ibidẽ perſonaliter cũ balliuis & miniſtris, ad certificãdũ ipſos iuſticiarios ſuper his & aliis negociis illud tãgẽtibus. This clauſe of liberties that beginneth in this wiſe, Precipimus tibi, quod publice proclamari facias. &c. is put in the writ of cõmon ſomons of the iuſtices in eire, ⁊ ſhall haue a promotiõ or warning before by the ſpace of xl. daies, as the cõmon ſomõs hath, ſo that if any party that claimeth to haue liberty be afore ẏ king, it ſhal not be in default before any iuſtices in their circuits: for the king of his ſpecial grace hath grãted, that he wil ſaue ẏ party harmles as cõcerning ẏ ordinance. And if the ſame party be impleaded vpon ſuch maner of liberties before 1. or 2. of the forſaid iuſtices, the ſame iuſtices, before whom the party is impleded ſhal ſaue him harm-

Liberties.

leſſe

Diſtreſſe.
Repleuin.
Iudgemēt.
Bailiffes.
Cōplaint.

leſſe before the other iuſtices. And if the foreſaide partie be afore the king, ſo that he can not be the ſame daie afore the ſaide iuſtices in their circuits, the king ſhall ſaue that partie harmeles before the foreſaide iuſtices in their circuites for the daie, there as he was before the king. And if he doe not come in at the ſame daie, then thoſe liberties ſhall be taken into the kings handes in name of diſtreſſe by the ſhiriffe of the place, ſo that they ſhall not vſe them vntill they come to anſwere before the iuſtices. And when they do come in by diſtreſſe, their liberties ſhall be repleuiſhed (if they demaunde them) in the which repleuins they ſhall anſwere immediatlie after the forme of the writ aforeſaide. And if percaſe they will chalenge, and ſaie that they are not bounde to anſwere in the originall writ, then if it maie appeare by anie meane, that they haue vſurped anie liberties vpon the king or his predeceſſors, of their owne head or preſumption, they ſhall be commanded to anſwere incontinent without writ. And moreouer they ſhall haue ſuch iudgement as the court of our ſouereigne lorde the king will awarde. And if they will ſaie further, that their anceſtors died ſeaſed thereof, they ſhall be hard : and the trueth ſhall be inquired incontinent, and according to that, iudgement ſhall be giuen. And if it appeare, that their ancetors died ſeaſed thereof, then the king ſhall haue a writ out of the chauncerie in this forme. Rex vicec. ſalutem, Sum. per bonos ſummon. in talem, quod ſit coram nobis apud talem locum in proximo aduentu noſtro in comitatu predicto, vel coram iuſticiariis noſtris ad proximam aſſiſam, cum in partes illas venerint, oſtenſurus, quo warranto tenet viſum francipleg. in manerio ſuo de N. Vel ſic: quo warranto tenet hundredum de S. in comitatu predicto, vel quo warranto clamat habere thelonium pro ſe & heredibus ſuis per totum regnum noſtrum. Et habeas ibi hoc breue. Teſte, &c. And if they come in at the ſame daie, they ſhall anſwere, and if they do not come, nor be eſſoined before the king, and the king doe tarie longer in the ſame ſhire, ſuch order ſhall be taken as is in the circuite of iuſtices. And if the king depart from the ſame ſhire, they ſhall be aiourned vnto ſhort dates, and ſhall haue reaſonable delaies according to the diſcretion of the iuſtices, as it is vſed in perſonal actions. Alſo the iuſtices erraunt in their circuite ſhall do according to the foreſaide ordinance, and according as ſuch maner of pleas ought to be ordered in the circuite. Concerning complaintes made and to bee made of the kings bailiffes and of other, it ſhall be done according to the ordinance made before therevpon, and according to the inqueſtes taken therevpon heretofore, and the clauſe ſubſcribed ſhall be put in a writ of common ſomons, in the circuite of the iuſtices aſſigned to common pleas directed to the ſhiriffe, ⁊c. and that ſhall be ſuch. Rex vicecomiti ſalutem. Precipimus tibi, quod publice proclamari facias, quod omnes conquerentes ſeu conqueri volentes, tam de miniſtris & aliis balliuis noſtris quibuſcunque, quam de miniſtris & balliuis aliorum quorumcunque & aliis veniant coram iuſticiariis noſtris ad primam aſſiſam, ad quaſcunque querimonias ſuas ibidem oſtendendas, ad competentes emendas inde recipiendas ſecundum legem & conſuetudinem regni noſtri, & iuxta ordinationem per nos inde factum, & iuxta tenorem ſtatutorum, & iuxta articulos eiſdem iuſticiariis noſtris inde traditos prout predicti iuſticiarii tibi ſcire faciant ex parte noſtra Teſte meipſo. &c. decimo die Septembris. Anno regni noſtri trigeſimo.

The ſtatute of protections made the xxxiii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Protection
Chalenge.

EDward by the grace of God, ⁊c. To all his true and faithfull ſubiects, greeting. For as much as manie do purchaſe the protection of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, affirming that they were out of the realme in the kings ſeruice: It is prouided, that if their aduerſarie will chalenge the protection, ⁊ immediatly when it is ſhewed in the court, will auerre that they were within the foure ſeas, and out of the kings ſeruice in a place certeine, ſo that they might haue conuenientlie appeared, their chalenge ſhall be entred, and the matter ſhall remaine without daie according to the nature of the protection. And when it ſhall be reſomoned, and the partie commeth into the court, he ſhall demaunde iudgement and hearing of the proceſſe, and offer to auerre his chalenge, if his aduerſarie will attende. And if the countrie do paſſe againſt him, that caſt it, the protection ſhall turne as a deſaulte to him caſt it, if he be tenant. And if he be demandant, he ſhall leeſe his writ, and ſhall be amercied vnto the king. Giuen at Weſtminſter the xviii. daie of Nouember, the xxxiii. yeere of king Edward, ſonne of king Henrie.

A diffinition of conſpirators, made the xxxiii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Conſpirators.
Champertors.

COnſpiratours be they that do confeder or binde themſelues by oth, couenant or other aliance, that euerie of them ſhall aide and beare the other falſlie and maliciouſlie to indict, or falſlie to moue or mainteine pleas, and alſo ſuch as cauſe children within age to appeale men of felonie whereby they are impriſoned and ſore greeued, and ſuch as retaine men in the countrie with liueries or fees for to mainteine their malicious enterpriſes, and this extendeth as well to the takers as to the giuers. And ſtewardes and bailiffes of great lordes which by their ſeignorie office or power vndertake to beare or maintaine quarels pleas or debates that concerne other parties then ſuch as touchen the eſtate of their lords or themſelues. This ordinance and final diffinition of conſpiratours was made by the king and his counſel in his parliament at Weſtminſter in the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint Marie the xxvii. yeere of his reigne. And it was further ordeined that iuſtices aſſigned to the hearing and determining of felonies and treſpaſſes in the ſhires of England ſhoulde haue the tranſcript hereof. Champertors be they that moue pleas and ſuites oꝛ cauſe to be moued either by their owne pꝛocurement oꝛ by others, and ſue them at their pꝛoper coſtes foꝛ to haue part of the land in variance oꝛ part of the gaines.

A ſtatute of conſpirators made the xxxiii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Where it is conteined in our eſtatute, that none of our court ſhoulde take anie plea to Champertie by craft noꝛ by engin. And that no pleaders, appꝛentiſes, atturneies, ſtewardes of great men, bailiffes, noꝛ anie other of the realme ſhoulde take foꝛ maintenance oꝛ other like bargaine, anie maner of ſuite oꝛ plea againſt other, whereby all the realme is vnmeaſurablie greeued, and both rich and poꝛe troubled in diuerſe maners. It is pꝛouided by a common accoꝛde, that all ſuch as from henceforth ſhall be attainted of ſuch impꝛiſes, ſuites, oꝛ bargaines, and ſuch as conſent to ſuch maner of dealing, ſhall haue impꝛiſonment of thꝛee yeeres, and ſhall make fine at the kings pleaſure. Giuen at Berwike vpon Twede the twentie yeere of the reigne of king Edwarde. Our ſouereigne loꝛde the king, at the infoꝛmation of Gilbert Rowberie clarke of his counſell, hath commanded, that who ſo euer will complaine him ſelfe of conſpiratoꝛs, of falſe quarels, vpholders, inuentoꝛs, and mainteinoꝛs of falſe matters and partakers thereof and bꝛokers of debates, that Gilbert of Thoꝛnton ſhall cauſe them to be attached by his wꝛit, that they be afoꝛe our ſouereigne loꝛd the king, to anſwere vnto the plaintiffes by this wꝛit following.

Champertie.

Conſpiratoꝛs.

Rex vic. ſalutem. Precipimus tibi, quod ſi A, de G, fecerit te ſecurum de clamore ſuo proſequendo, tunc pone per vadium & ſaluos plegios G, de C, quod ſit coram nobis in octauis ſancti Iohannis Baptiſte, vbicunque tunc fuerimus in Anglia, ad reſpondendum predicto A, de placito conſpirationis & tranſgreſſionis ſecundum ordinationem noſtram nuper inde prouiſam, ſicut idem A, rationabiliter monſtrare poterit, quod ei inde reſpondere debeat. Et habeas ibi nomina plegiorum & hoc breue. Teſte, &c.

An ordinance of inqueſts, made the xxxiii. yeere of the reigne of Edward the firſt.

If inqueſſes to be taken befoꝛe anie of the iuſtices, wherein our ſouereigne loꝛde the king is partie, howe ſo euer it be: It is agreed and oꝛdeined by the king and all his counſell, that from henceforth notwithſtanding it be alledged by them that ſue foꝛ the king, that the iurours of thoſe inqueſſes oꝛ ſome of them be not indifferent foꝛ the king, yet ſuch inqueſſes ſhall not remaine vntaken foꝛ that cauſe, that is to ſaie if anie of them that ſue foꝛ the king will chalenge anie of thoſe iurours, they ſhall aſſigne foꝛ their chalenge a cauſe certeine, and the trueth of the ſame chalenge ſhall be inquired, whether it be true oꝛ not, after the diſcretion of the iuſtices, ſo that the oꝛdinance pꝛecedent, ⁊ the oꝛdinance following of the foꝛeſt were made in the parliament at Weſtminſter, the Sundaie next befoꝛe the feaſt of ſaint Matthewe Apoſtle, the xxxiii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward ſonne of king Henrie.

Inqueſt. Chalenge.

An ordinance of the foreſt made the xxxiii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Where as certeine people that be put out of the foꝛeſt foꝛ the purliewe, and by the great men haue made requeſt to our ſouereigne loꝛde the king at this parliament, that they might bee acquitted of their charge and of thinges that the foꝛeſters demaunde of them, as they were wont to be: our ſouereigne loꝛde the king anſwered, firſt that where he had granted purliewe that he was pleaſed, that it ſhoulde ſtande in like maner as it was granted, all be it that the thing were ſued and demaunded in an euill point. Neuertheleſſe he willeth and intendeth, that all his demeane lands where ſo euer they be, that haue bene of the crowne, being returned by waie of eſcheate oꝛ other wiſe, ſhall haue eſtate of free chaſe ⁊ free warren, and in ſuch maner ſhall be ſaued ⁊ kept to his vſe foꝛ all maner of eſchetes and foꝛ all maner of thinges that pleaſeth him. And in right of them that haue lands and tenements diſafoꝛeſted foꝛ the ſaid purliewe, and ſuch as demaunde to haue common within the boundes of foꝛeſtes. The intent and will of our ſouereigne loꝛde the king is that from henceforth (where purliew is) they may claime to be quite of charge of the foꝛeſtes. And where as the kings beaſts can not haue their haunte and repaire vnto the foꝛeſt ground as they had ſo long as they were within the foꝛeſtes, that ſuch folke ſhall not haue common noꝛ other eaſement within the boundes of the woodes noꝛ of the lands, the which remaine in foꝛeſt, but if anie of them that be diſafoꝛeſted by the purliewe, woulde rather be within the foꝛeſt as they were befoꝛe, then to be out of the foꝛeſt, as they be nowe. It pleaſeth the king verie well, that they ſhall be receiued therevnto, ſo that they ſhall remaine in their ancient eſtate, and ſhall haue common and other eaſement as well as they had befoꝛe. Wherevpon our ſouereigne loꝛde the king willeth and commandeth, that his iuſtices of the foꝛeſtes on this ſide Trent and beyond Trent, in like maner ſhall keepe and holde and cauſe to be kept and holden ſtraitlie the foꝛeſaide pointes within their liberties in the foꝛme aboue mentioned.

Freechaſe.

Foꝛeſt.

Trent.

An ordinance of meaſuring of land made the xxxiii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Acre of land.

When an acre of lande conteineth 10. perches in length, then it ſhall be in breadth 16. perches, when it conteineth 11. perches in length, then it ſhall be in breadth 14. dim. qr. one foote, when it is 13. then 13. 5. foote 1. inch, when 14. then 11. 7. foote 1. inch, when 15. then 10. and dim. 2. foote and dim. when 16. then 10. when 17. then 9. 3. foote 3. inches and dim. when 18. then 8. dim. 6. foote and dim. 5. inches, when 19. then 8. 6. foote 4. inches and dim. when 20. then 8. perches, when 21. then 8. perches and dim. 2. foote 1. inch, when 22. then 7. 1. qr. 8. inches and dim. when 23. then 6. and dim. 3. inches 6. foote and dim. when 24. then 6. and dim. 2. foote, & dim. and 3. inches, when 25. then 6. and 1. qr. 2. foote and dim. inch, when 26. then 5. and dim. 6. foote 2. inches, when 27. then 5. and dim. 3. foote, when 28. then 5. 7. foote and dim. when 29. then 5. 6. foote and dim. when 30. then 5. 6. foote, when 31. then 5. 2. foote and dim. when 32. then 5. when 33. then 4. dim. 1. qr. 1. foote. and dim. 1. inch, when 34. then 4. and dim. 3. foote 4. inches, and dim. 1. qr. when 35. then 4. and dim. 1. foote 2. inches, and dim. when 36. then. 4. 1. qr. 3. foote and 5. inches, and dim. when 37. then 4. 1. qr. 3. foote and dim. when 38. then 4. 4. foote and dim. when 39. then 4. 1. foote, and dim 2. inches and dim. when 40. then 4. when 41. then 3. 1 qr. 2. foote and dim. when 42. then 3. 1. qr. 2. foote, when 43. then 3. 1. foote and dim. when 44. then 3. and dim. foote, and 5. inches, when 45. then 3. and dim.

The ſtatute of iointenantes, made the xxxiiii. yeere of king Edward the firſt.

Iointenant.

Aſſiſe de nouell diſſeſin.

Feffement.

Exception.

Aſſiſe.

Exception.

The king our ſoueraigne lorde vnto all, to whom theſe &c. gréeting. It is well knowne, that among diuerſe eſtabliſhments of lawes, which we haue ordeined in our owne time vpon the great & heinous miſcheefes that happen in writs of nouell diſſeiſin chéefelie aboue other, we haue deuiſed more ſpéedie remedie in thoſe writs, then was before. And for as much as it chanceth manie times in aſſiſes of nouell diſſeiſin, that the tenant doth plead againſt the plaintife, that he holdeth the lands being in demaund iointlie with his wife, not onelie named in the writ, & ſome time with a ſtraunger not named in the writ, & ſheweth forth a déed teſtifieng the ſame, and demandeth iudgement of the writ: It is agréed and ordeined, that if the plaintiffe will offer to auerre by aſſiſe, that the daie of his writ purchaſed, he that alledged the exception was ſole tenant, ſo that neither his wife nor any other had anie thing in the ſaid lands, then the iuſtices, before whom the aſſiſe is arrained, ſhall retaine the ſame deede ſafely in their kéeping, vntill the aſſiſe be tried betwéene them therevpon. And they ſhall let the partie abſent to vnderſtand by our writ vnder their witneſſing, & alſo to the iointenant that is preſent, of whom the déed maketh mention, that he be preſent at a certeine day with the other tenant, for to anſwere vnto the partie plaintiffe, as well vpon the exception alledged, as of the lands demaunded and put in view, if it ſéeme expedient for him, at which day if both that are named tenants do come in, and do iuſtifie the ſame feffement, they ſhall anſwere and mainteine the exception alledged by one of them, & further ſhal anſwere vnto the aſſiſe as though the original had bene purchaſed againſt both of them iointlie. And if it be proued by aſſiſe, that the exception was alledged maliciouſly for to delay the plaintife of his right, ſo that they held not the ſame land iointly the day of the writ purchaſed, then albeit the ſame aſſiſe doe paſſe for the tenants, & againſt the plaintife, yet they that alleadge the exception ſhall be puniſhed by one yéeres impriſonment, whence they ſhall not be deliuered without a greeuous fine. And let the iuſtices be well aduiſed, that from hence forth they doe not allowe an exception alledged by the bailiffes of anie ſuch tenants: and if he that alledged the exception abſent himſelfe at his daie, & the other that is named iointenant do appeare, although he iuſtifie the ſame déede, and ſaie that he hath nothing in the foreſaid landes, &c. neuertheleſſe. the aſſiſe ſhall paſſe againſt him that is abſent by default. And if it be found by aſſiſe, that they were not iointlie ſeaſed the daie of the writ purchaſed, and like wiſe that the tenant againſt whom the writ was purchaſed, or an other named in the writ did diſſeaſe the plaintiffe, then hauing regarde to them that was falſly & maliciouſly alledged to the hurt of the partie, & to the diſſeiſin that they made, the plaintiffe ſhall recouer his ſeiſin and double damages, and they that alleadge the falſe exception ſhall haue the puniſhment aforeſaide. But if neyther of the tenantes doe come in at the daie, then vpon their defaulte the aſſiſe ſhall paſſe againſt them. And if it bee founde, that the ſame exception was lawfullie and truelie alleaged, and that they that alleadged it were iointlie ſeaſed before the plaintiffe purchaſed his writ againſt them, the aſſiſe ſhall paſſe no further, but the writ ſhall be abated. The ſame ſhall be obſerued if both or one doe appeare, if it be founde by aſſiſe, that the exception was truelie alleadged, as before is ſaide. The ſame order ſhall bee obſerued in aſſiſes of Mortdaunceſtour and writs of Iuris vtrum that the firſt daie that the parties appeare in court, if the tenaunt alleadge the exception againſt the demandant: ſhewing a déede thervpon, and the demaundant will offer to auerre by the aſſiſe or iurie, that the day of his writ purchaſed, he that alleadged the exception was ſole tenaunt, hereafter the ſame maner of proceſſe ſhall bee vſed in aſſiſes of Mortdaunceſtour, and writtes of Iuris vtrum, as before is ordeined in aſſiſes of nouell diſſeiſin, and like puniſhment ſhall bee awarded to the offendours. But in other writtes, whereby landes are demaunded, ſuch pꝛoceſſe ſhall be made at the firſt daie, that the parties appeere in court, if the tenant do alledge the foꝛeſaid exception of a ioynt feffement, and the demaundant will offer to auerre by the countrie, that the daie of the wꝛitte purchaſed he that alledged the exception, was ſole tenaunt, then the ſame maner of pꝛoceſſe ſhall be obſerued betwixt the parties vntill a iurie haue paſſed betweene them thereupon. And if it be founden by the iurie, that the ſame exception was truely alledged, then the wꝛit of the demaundant ſhall abate: And if it be founden by the iurie, that the ſame exception was falſely and maliciouſly alledged to the hinderance of the partie, then the demaundant ſhall recouer his ſeiſin of the lands in demaund, and the tenant ſhall be puniſhed by the peine abouesaid in a wꝛit of Nouel diſſeiſin, as to the impꝛiſonment, and as to the dammages accoꝛding to the diſcretion of the Juſtices. And we will ⁊ graunt, that this ſtatute ſhall take his effect the moꝛrow after the feaſt of ſaint Peter ad vincula next comming. Foꝛ as much alſo as pleas in court ſpirituall haue heeretofoꝛe had manie times vnreaſonable delaies by reaſon that our wꝛit that is called Indicauit, was manie times bꝛought befoꝛe the Judges of ſuch matters when they were begonne: And thereupon our cheefe Juſtices could not pꝛoceede lawfully noꝛ in due manner to award a wꝛit of Conſultation vpon ſuch maner of pꝛoces. It is agreede that ſuch a wꝛit of Indicauit ſhall not be graunted from henſfoꝛth to anie man, befoꝛe the matter hanging in the ſpirituall court betweene the parties be recoꝛded, and that our Chauncelloꝛ ſhall be certified thereupon vpon the ſight and inſpection of a libel. In witneſſe of which thing we haue cauſed theſe our letters to be patent. I my ſelfe being witneſſe at Weſtminſter. Giuen the xxvii. daie of the moneth of May, the xxxiiii. yeere of our raigne.

Delayes. Indicauit.

Conſultation.

Libell.

Articles of inquiſition vpon the Statute of Wincheſter, made in the time of King Edward the firſt.

The maner of inquiring vpon the ſtatute of Wincheſter, when it is obſerued ⁊ when not, and of ſuch as haue obſerued the ſaid ſtatute, and of ſuch as haue not ſuffred the contents thereof to be obſerued. Of felonies and robberies committed after Eaſter the xiii. yeere of the reigne of king Edward, and in what manner ſuch felonies were done where and by whom and the ſuites of them by inqueſtes, accoꝛding to the tenure of the ſtatutes made therevpon afterward. And if the ſhiriſe haue anſwered foꝛ the bodies of ſuch offenders oꝛ not. Alſo if the gates of the cities oꝛ great townes were ſhutte from the time of the Sunne going downe vntill the Sunne riſing. And if anie ſtrangers were lodged in the ſuburbs oꝛ in the out parties of the citie foꝛ whom their hoſtes will not anſwere. And alſo how bailiſes and other officers of townes haue made inquirie thereof. And if watches haue beene kept after as is conteined in the ſaid ſtatute oꝛ not, ⁊ how the watchmen haue kept their watch. And if the kings high waies from one merchant towne to another be inlarged, as well in the kings owne townes as els where accoꝛding to the ſtatute, and if they be not inlarged, to inquire what waies, ⁊ where they be, and who ought to haue inlarged them. And of ſuch as let ſuch inlargements, as well in parkes as in other woods. Alſo if all betweene the age of xv. and lx. be ſwoꝛne to keepe the peace. Alſo if they haue weapous in their houſes accoꝛding to the quantitie of their lands and goods foꝛ maintenance of the peace accoꝛding to the ſtatute. And alſo if Conſtables do make viewe of armour in due maner, and of other things belonging to their office oꝛ not. Alſo if ſhiriſes, hundꝛeders, bailiſes of liberties, and foſters come at hue and cry leuied, and if they make purſuite foꝛ keeping the kings peace, accoꝛding to the ſtatute oꝛ not.

A Satute of Amortiſment of lands.

TOuching the graunt of our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king to be obteined vpon Inqueſtes returned in the Chauncerie foꝛ lands to be abꝛeued into Moꝛtmaine. The king commaundeth, that nothing ſhall be done (where there be anie loꝛdes meane) except the religious perſons can ſhewe to our ſoueraigne loꝛde the king, their aſſent vnder their patents ſealed with their ſeales. And that nothing ſhall paſſe, in caſe where the donoꝛ reſerueth nothing to him ſelfe. And likewiſe where inquiſitions be made and returned without warrant, that is to wite the wꝛit oꝛiginall without the inqueſt, and except that the wꝛit oꝛiginall make mention of euerie thing accoꝛding to the newe oꝛdinance deuiſed by the king.

A Statute concerning certaine liberties graunted by the King to his Commons.

Cap. 1. Ayde.

NO tallage oꝛ ayde ſhall be taken oꝛ leuied by vs oꝛ our heires in our realme, without the good will and aſſent of Archbiſhops, biſhops, Earles, barons, knights, burgeſſes, and other free men of the land.

Cap. 2. Takings.

No officer of ours oꝛ of our heires ſhall take coꝛne, lether, catell, oꝛ anie other goods of anie manner perſon without the good wil and aſſent of the partie to whom the goods belonged.

Cap. 3. Maltent.

Nothing from henſfoꝛth ſhall be taken of ſackes of woll, by colour oꝛ occaſion of Maltent.

Cap. 4. Liberties.

We wil and graunt foꝛ vs and our heires that all clerkes ⁊ lay men of our lande, ſhall haue their lawes, liberties, and free cuſtoms as largely ⁊ wholie, as they haue vſed to haue the ſame at anie time when they had them beſt. And if anie ſtatutes haue been made by vs oꝛ our anceſtoꝛs, oꝛ any cuſtoms bꝛought in contrary to them, oꝛ anie maner article conteined in this pꝛeſent charter:

We will and graunt that ſuch manner of ſtatutes and cuſtomes ſhall be void and fruſtrate, for euermore.

Chap. 5. Pardon. Moreouer, we haue pardoned Humfrey Bohun Earle of Hereford and Eſſex, Conſtable of England, Roger Earle of Norfolke and Suffolke Marſhall of England, and other Earles, Barons, knightes, eſquires, and namelie John de Ferrariis, with all other being of their fellowſhip, confederacie, and band, and alſo to all other that hold xx.li. land in our realme, whether they hold of vs in chiefe or of other, that were appointed at a daie certaine to paſſe ouer with vs into Flaunders, the rancor and euil will borne againſt vs, & all other offences that they haue done againſt vs vnto the making of this preſent charter.

Chap. 6. Curſe. And for the more aſſurance of this thing we wil and graunt that all archbiſhops and biſhops for euermore ſhall read this preſent charter in their cathedrall churches twiſe in the yeere, & vpon the reading therof in euerie of their pariſh churches ſhall openly denounce accurſed all thoſe that willinglie do, or procure to be done anie thing contrarie to the tenor, force and effect of this preſent charter in anie point and article. In witneſſe of which thing we haue ſet our ſeale to this preſent charter, togither with the ſeales of the archbiſhops, biſhops, &c. which volantarily haue ſworn that as much as in them is, they ſhal obſerue the tenor of this preſent charter in all cauſes and articles, and ſhal extend their faithful aide to the keeping thereof. &c.

A Statute for knightes made the firſt yeere of king Edward the ſecond.

OUR ſoueraigne Lorde the King hath graunted that all ſuch as ought to be knightes, and be not, and haue beene diſtrained to take vpon them the order of a knight within the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our lorde, ſhall haue reſpite to take the foreſaid armes of a knight, vntill the vtas of ſaint Hillarie without occaſion, and after that they ſhall be diſtrained except they make ſome other meane. Alſo he hath graunted that if anie will complaine in the chauncerie, becauſe he was diſtrained, &c. and hath not xx.li. yéerelie in fée, or for terme of life, and will proue that by the countrie, then it ſhall be written vnto the more diſcréete and ſage knightes of the ſhire, to take the ſaide inquiſition, and if it fortune to be tryed ſo by the ſame inqueſt, he ſhall haue remedie and the diſtreſſe ſhall ceaſſe. Alſo if anie be impleaded for all his land or for part of the ſame, ſo that the reſidue be not ſufficient to the value of xx. li. and can proue the ſame, then the diſtreſſe ſhall ceaſe vntill the ſame plea be determined. Alſo if anie of them be bounden in certaine debtes awarded in the eſchequer for a certaine ſumme to be receiued yéerelie out of his landes, ſo that the reſidue thereof doth not amount to the yeerelie value of xx.li. beſides the ſame ſumme: the diſtreſſe ſhall ceaſe vntil the foreſaid debte be cléerely paide. And none ſhall be diſtrained to take vpon him the order of a knight before that he come vnto the age of xxi. yéeres. Alſo none by reaſon of anie land that he holdeth in manners which be nowe in auncient demeane of the crowne as a ſockeman, and which lands muſt alſo giue tallage when the kings demeanes are tayled, ſhall be diſtrained to take vpon him the order of a knight. Alſo of them that holde their lands in ſocage of other manors than of the manors of the king, doing no forreine ſeruice, the rolles of the Chauncerie ſhall be ſearched for the time of the kings predeceſſors. And it ſhall be done as it hath vſed to be done. In like manner ſhall be done of clerkes being within orders, holding laye fée which ſhould be knightes if they were laye. Alſo none ſhall be diſtrained for his burgage lands, although they do amount to the value of xx. li. yeerely or more. Alſo they that ought to be knightes and be not, which haue holden their lands in their hands but a ſmall time, and likewiſe ſuch as ſhould be knights that do pretend great age, or default of their members, or anie other incurable diſeaſe, or charge of their children, or of ſuites, or do alledge ſuch neceſſarie excuſes, they ſhall reſort vnto Robert Typtofte and Anthonie de Berke, and ſhal make fine before them, to whome it is enioyned that according to their diſcretions they ſhall admitte the reaſonable fines of all ſuch perſons.

The ſtatute of breaking priſons made the firſt yere of Edward the ſecond.

CONcerning priſoners, which breake the priſon, our ſoueraigne lorde the king willeth and commaundeth, that from henſforth he that breaketh his priſon, ſhall not haue puniſhment of life or member for breaking of the priſon onely, except the matter or cauſe for which he was impriſoned and taken, did require ſuch iudgement, if he had beene conuict thereupon after the lawe and cuſtome of the realme, all be it that in times paſſed it hath beene done and vſed otherwiſe.

Articles for the Clergie, made the ix. yere of Edward the ſecond.

EDward by the grace of God king of England, &c. Unto all to whome theſe our preſent letters ſhall come, gréeting. Underſtand yee that whereas of late in the times of our progenitors ſometimes kings of England in diuerſe their parliaments, and likewiſe after that we had vndertaken the gouernance of the realme in our parliaments manie articles conteining diuers gréeuances committed againſt the church of Englande the prelats and clergie were purpoſed, and further great inſtance made that conuenient remedie might be prouided therein. And of late in our parliament holden at Lincolne the ninth yéere of our reigne we cauſed the articles vnder written, with certeine anſweres made to ſome of them heretofore to be rehearſed before our counſell, and made certeine anſweres to be corrected, & to the reſidue of the articles vnderwritten anſweres were made by vs and our counſell, of which ſaid articles with the anſweres to the ſame the tenours here enſue.

Chap. 1. Prohibition.

FIrſt where laie men doe purchaſe prohibitions generallie vpon tithes obuentions, oblations, mortuaries, redemption of penance, violent laying hande on clarkes or bigamies and in cauſes of diffamation, in which caſes, ſpirituall penance ought to be enioined. Our ſouereigne lorde the king hath anſwered to this article, that in tithes, oblations, obuentions, mortuaries (ſithence they are purpoſed vnder theſe names) the kings prohibition ſhall holde no place, although for the long withholding of the ſame the mony may be eſtéemed at a ſumme certeine. But if a clarke or a religious man do ſell his tithes being in his barne, or otherwhere to anie man for monie, if the monie be demanded before a ſpirituall iudge, the kings prohibitions ſhall lie, for by the ſale the ſpirituall goods are made temporall, and the tithes turne into cattels.

Chap. 2. Prohibition. Penance.

Alſo if the debate do ariſe vpon the right of tithes hauing his originall of the right of the patronage and the quantitie of the ſame tithes do paſſe the foure part of the goods of the church, the kings prohibition ſhall hold place, if the cauſe come before a iudge ſpirituall. Alſo if a prelat enioine a penance pecuniarie to anie man for his offence and it be demanded, the kings prohibition ſhall hold place. Notwithſtanding if prelats enioine a penance corporall and the partie will remedie ſuch penances by monie, if monie be demanded before a iudge ſpirituall, the kinges prohibition ſhall hold no place.

Chap. 3. Penance.

Moreouer if anie laie violent handes on a clarke, the amendes for the violence done ſhall be made in the kings courte. And for excommunication before a prelate where penance corporall is inioined, if the defendoure will redéeme his penance by giuing monie to the prelate or to the partie gréeued, it ſhall bée required before the prelate, and the kinges prohibition ſhall not lie.

Chap. 4. Diffamation.

In diffamation alſo prelates ſhall correct in maner aboueſaid, the kings prohibition notwithſtanding, firſt enioining a penance corporall which if the offendor will redéeme, the prelat may fréelie receiue the monie, though the kings prohibition be ſhewed.

Chap. 5. Mill.

Alſo if anie do arere in his ground a mill of newe. And after the perſon of the ſame prelate demaundeth tithe for the ſame, the kings prohibition doth iſſue in this forme. Quia de tali molendino hactenus decime non fuerunt ſolute prohibemus, &c. Et ſententiam excommunicationis, ſi quam hac occaſione promulgaueritis, reuocetis omnino. The anſwere. In ſuch caſe the kings writ of prohibition was neuer yet granted by the kings aſſent, nor neuer ſhall which hath decréed that it ſhall not hereafter lie in ſuch caſes.

Chap. 6.

Alſo if anie cauſe or matter, the knowledge whereof belongeth to a court ſpirituall, and be diffinitiuelie determined before a ſpirituall iudge, ſo that it paſſe into a iudgement, nor was not in ſuſpence by reaſon of anie appeale, and afterwarde vpon the ſame thing a caſe is moued before a temporall iudge and betwéene the ſame parties, and it be proued by witneſſe or inſtruments. The exception ſhall not be admitted in a temporall court. The anſwere. When anie one caſe is debated before iudges ſpirituall and temporall as aboue appeareth vpon the caſe of laieng violent handes on a clarke. It is thought that notwithſtanding the ſpirituall iudgement, the kings court ſhall diſcuſſe the ſame matter, as the partie ſhall thinke moſt expedient for himſelfe.

Chap. 7. Excōmunication.

Alſo the kings letter directed vnto ordinaaries that haue wrapped their clientes in the ſentence of excommunication that they ſhould aſſoile them by a certeine daie, or elſe that they do appeare and ſhewe wherefore they haue excommunicated them. The anſwere. The king decréeth that hereafter no ſuch letter ſhall be ſuffred to go forth, but in caſe where it is found that the kings libertie is preiudiced by the excommunication.

Chap. 8.

Alſo barons of the kings eſchequer claiming by their priuiledge, that they ought to make anſwere to no man out of the ſame place extende the ſame priuiledge vnto the clarkes abiding there being called to orders or vnto reſidence, and inhibite the ordinaries leaſt in anie wiſe or for anie cauſe (ſo long as he is of the eſchequer) they ſhall not call them to their courtes. The aunſwere. It pleaſeth our ſouereigne lorde the king that ſuch clarkes as attende in his ſeruice ſhall be corrected by their ordinaries like as other, but ſo long as they are occupied about his buſineſſe they ſhall not be bounden to kéepe reſidence in their churches. This is added of newe by the kinges counſell. The king and his anceſtors ſince time out of minde haue vſed that clarkes during ſuch time as they are in his ſeruice ſhal not be compelled to kéepe reſidence at their benefices. And ſuch things as be thought neceſſarie for the king and the common wealth, ought not to be called preiudiciall to the libertie of the church.

Chap. 9.

Alſo the kings officers as ſhiriffes and other doe enter ſpirituall fées to take diſtreſſes, and ſome time they take the perſons beaſtes in the kings high waie, where they haue nothing but their glebe lands. The anſwere. The kinges pleaſure is that from hence forth ſuch diſtreſſes ſhall neither be taken in the kinges high waie nor in the fées wherewith churches hath bene indowed, neuertheleſſe he willeth diſtreſſes to be taken in poſſeſſions of the church newlie purchaſed by the parſon.

Chap.10 Alſo where ſome that flie vnto the church to abiure the realme, according to the cuſtome of the land, and laie men of their enimies do purſue them and plucke them from the kinges high waie, and are hanged and headed, and whileſt they be in the church are kept in the churchyarde with armed men, and ſome time in the church ſo ſtraitlie that they can not depart from the hallowed ground to emptie their bellie, and can not be ſuffered to haue neceſſaries for their liuing. The anſwere. They that abiure the realme ſo long as they be in the common waie ſhall be in the kings peace nor ſhall be diſturbed of anie man, & when they be in the church, their kéepers ought not to abide in the churchyard except neceſſitie or peril of eſcape do require ſo. And ſo long as they be in the church, they ſhall not be compelled to auoide, but that they ſhall haue neceſſaries for their liuing and maie go forth to emptie their bellie. And the kings pleaſure is, that théeues or appealors (when ſoeuer they will) maie confeſſe their offences vnto préeſts, but let the confeſſors beware that they informe not ſuch appealors erroniouſlie.

Chap.11 Alſo it is deſired that our ſouereigne lorde the king and the great men of the realme doe not charge religious houſes and ſpirituall perſons, for corrodes, penſions, or ſoiourning in religious houſes, and other places of the church, or with taking vp horſe and cartes whereby ſuch houſes are impoueriſhed and Gods ſeruice diminiſhed, and by reaſon of ſuch charges, préeſts, and other miniſters of the church deputed vnto diuine ſeruice are oftentimes compelled to depart from the places aboueſaide. The anſwere. The kings pleaſure is that vpon the contents in their petition from henceforth they ſhall not be vnduelie charged. And if the contrarie be done by great men or other, they ſhall haue remedie after the forme of the ſtatutes made in the time of king Edwarde father to the king that nowe is. And like remedie ſhall be done for corrodies and penſions exacted by compulſion, whereof mention is made in theſaide ſtatutes.

Chap.12 Excommunication. Alſo if anie of the kings tenure be called before their ordinaries, out of the pariſh, where they dwell, if they be excommunicate for their manifeſt contumacie, and after fourtie daies a writ goeth out to take them, and they pretende their priuiledge that they ought not to be cited out of the towne and pariſh where their dwelling is. And ſo the kings writ that went out for to take them is denied. The anſwere. It was neuer yet denied nor ſhall be hereafter.

Chap.13 Alſo it is deſired that ſpirituall perſons whom the king doeth preſent vnto benefices, if the biſhop will not admit them either for lacks of ſcience or for other cauſe reaſonable they ſhall not bee vnder the examination of laie perſons in the caſes aforeſaide, as for a thing contrarie to the decrées canonicall attempted, but they ſhall ſue vnto a ſpirituall iudge for remedie as right ſhall require. The anſwere. Of the abilitie of a perſon preſented vnto a benefice eccleſiaſticall, the examination belongeth to a ſpirituall iudge, and ſo it hath bene vſed heretofore, and ſhall be hereafter.

Preſentation.

Chap.14 Free election. Alſo if anie dignitie be vacant where election is to be made, it is moued that the electors or choſers may fréelie make their election without feare of anie power temporall and that all praiers and oppreſſions ſhall in this behalfe ceaſe. The anſwere. They ſhall be made frée according to the forme of ſtatutes and ordinances.

Chap.15 Moreouer though a clarke ought not to be iudged by a temporall iudge nor anie thing maie be done againſt him that concerneth life or member, neuertheleſſe, temporall iudges cauſe that clarkes fleeing vnto the church and confeſſing their offences, doe abiure the realme, and for the ſame cauſe admit their abiurations although hereupon they can not be their iudges, and ſo power is wrongfullie giuen to laie perſons in the puniſhment of ſuch clarkes. And if ſuch chaunce to returne after into the realme, the prelates and clergie deſire ſuch remedie to be prouided herein, that the immunitie or priuiledge of the church and ſpirituall perſons may be ſaued vnbroken. The anſwere. A clarke fleeing to the church for felonie, for to obteine the priuiledge of the church, if he affirme him ſelfe to be a clarke, he ſhall not be compelled to abiure the realme, but yelding himſelfe to the law of the realme, ſhall enioy the priuiledge of the church according to the laudable cuſtome of the realme heretofore vſed.

Clarke.

Chap.16 Alſo notwithſtanding that a confeſſion made before him that is not lawfull iudge thereof, be not ſufficient whereon proceſſe may be awarded or ſentence giuen, yet ſome temporall iudges (though they haue bene inſtantlie deſired thereto) do not deliuer to the ordinaries according to the premiſſes ſuch clarkes as confeſſe before them their moſt heinous offences, as theft, robberie, and murther, but admit their accuſation which commonlie they call an appeale, all be it to this reſpect they be not of their court, nor can be iudged or condemned before them, vpon their owne confeſſion without breaking of the churches priuiledge. The aunſwere. The priuiledge of the church being demaunded in due forme by the ordinarie ſhall not be denied vnto the appealor as to a clarke, we deſiring to prouide for the ſtate of holie church of Englande, and for the tranquilitie and quiet of the prelats and clergie aforeſaide, as farforth as we maie lawfullie do to the honor of God and emendation of the church prelats, and clergie of the ſame. Ratefieng, confirming, and approuing all and euerie of the articles aforeſaid with all and euerie of the anſweres made and conteined in the ſame, do grant and command them to be kept firmelie and obſerued for euermore, willing and graunting for vs and our heires that the foreſaide prelats and clergie and their ſucceſſors ſhall vſe, execute,and practiſe for euermore the iuriſdiction of the church in the premiſſes, after the tenure of the anſwere aforeſaid without quarel inquieting, or vexation of our heires or anie of our officers whatſoeuer they be. In teſtimonie whereof,&c. witneſſe,&c.

Shirifes.

FOraſmuch as our ſoueraigne lord Edward,ſonne to king Edward,firſt of the name, at his parliament holden at Lincolne in quindena Hillarii, in the ix. yéere of his reigne, by the information of his prelates, Earles, Barons, and other great men of the realme, being ſommoned to the ſame parliament, and alſo by the grieuous complaint of his people, did perceiue great dammage to be done to him, and great oppreſſions and diſheritances to his people,by reaſon of vnſufficient ſhirifes and hundreders haue béene before this time in the realme and yet be: Our ſoueraigne lord the king,intending to auoid and eſcheiwe ſuch euil oppreſſions and diſheritances, by the aſſent of his prelates, Barons, and other great eſtates aforeſaid,hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed in his ſaid parliament, that the ſhirifes from henſforth ſhall be aſſigned by the chauncellor, treaſurer,barons of the eſchequer, and by the Iuſtices. And in the abſence of the chauncellor, by the treaſurer,barons and Iuſtices. And that none ſhall be ſhirife,except he haue ſufficient land within the ſame ſhire where he ſhall be ſhirife, for to anſwere the king and his people. And that none that is ſteward or bailife to a great lorde, ſhall be made ſhirife, except he be out of ſeruice, ſo that he may attend to the office of a ſhirife for the king and his people. And in like manner it is agréed and eſtabliſhed,that hundreds, whither they belong to the king or to other, ſhall be kept by conuenient and able perſons, that haue ſufficient lands within the ſame hundred or ſhire where the hundred is, and that the chancellor, treaſurer, barons and iuſtices ſhall do aſſigne in manner aforeſaid, without hauing anie other regard. And if anie ſhirifes or hundreders be vnſufficient at this time, they ſhall be remoued, and other more conuenient put into their romes. And that ſuch hundreds be leaſſed to ſuch perſons as are ſufficient, ſo that they néed not to vſe extortion vpon the people by reaſon of to outragious ferme. And that no ſhirife nor hundreder ſhal leaſſe his land to anie other in ferme or otherwiſe, and that the executions of writs that come to the ſhirifes, ſhall be done by the hundreders ſworne & known in the ſhire,and not by other, if it be not the open default and diſturbance of the hundreders, and then execution ſhall be done by other perſons more conuenient,being ſworne, ſo that the people may knowe to whom to ſue ſuch executions,ſauing alwaies the returnes of the writs to them that haue them or ought to haue them.

Shirifes.

Hundreds.

A Statute of Gauelet in London, made the x. yere of King Edward the ſecond.

IT is prouided by our ſoueraigne lorde the king and his iuſtices, and alſo graunted vnto the citizens of London, that archbiſhops, biſhops, Earles, barons, and other that haue rents in London, and for ſome tenements the rents are behind, and can not recouer thoſe rents, that it ſhall be lawfull for them to diſtrain their tenants for the arrerages, ſo long as anie thing is found in the fée, whereby they may be diſtrained, and the tenants ſhall be impleaded by a writ of gauelet of cuſtomes and ſeruices, which may be well done by their frée men of the citie preſented in their huiſtings,for the kéeping of their ſuite, to gather their rents, ſo that if the tenants do knowledge their ſeruices, they ſhall incontinent and without delaie ſatiſfie their lords of their arrerages. And if they denie them their ſeruices,the demaundants ſhall immediatly name two witneſſes, whoſe names ſhall be inrolled, & ſhall haue a daie to bring them forth at the next huiſtings, at which daie if they bring forth witneſſes,and it is ſhewed by them in the full court of their owne ſight and hearing, that the ſame plaintifes haue anie time receiued the rents,which they demaund of the tenements, then the tenants ſhall léeſe their fées by award of the court, and the plaintifes ſhall recouer their tenements in demeane,if they will not knowledge the ſeruices vnto their lordes as before is ſaid, and likewiſe they ſhall recouer the arrerages,which ſhall be doubled, and they ſhall giue to the ſhirife for the wrongfull withholding (if they be worth ſo much) the ſumme of an hundred s. without anie grudging. And if they do not come in after due ſommons in the huiſtings,then the ſame fées ſhall be deliuered vnto the plaintifes in the full huiſtings, to be holden and kept in their owne handes for one yéere and a daie, within the which time if the tenants do come vnto them: and do offer to ſatiſfie them of the arrerages double, and to the ſhirife for his amerciament, as before is ſaide: then they ſhall haue their tenements againe. But if it be after one yéere and a daie accompliſhed, ſuch tenements ſhall remaine vnto the lords of thoſe fées by iudgement of the court in their demeane for euermore. And then ſuch lands ſhal be called forſchoke,becauſe ſuch tenements ſhal remaine for euer in demeane to the lords of the fées for the default to the ſeruice. The ſame ordinance ſhall be kept and obſerued, if the tenants do confeſſe or knowledge the arrerages, and be not able to make ſatiſfaction therefore, as it is ſaid before.

London.

Gauelet.

Huiſtings.

Forſchoke.

The Statute of Yorke, made the xii. yere of King Edward the ſecond.

FOR as much as people of the Realme of Englande and Irelande haue héeretofore manie tymes ſuffered great miſchieſes, dammage, and diſheriſon, by reaſon that in diuerſe caſes where the lawe failed, no remedie was purueied. And alſo for as much as ſome pointes of the ſtatutes heretofore made, had neede of expoſition, our ſoueraigne lord the king Edward, ſonne to king Edward deſiring that right be done to his people, at his parliament holden at Yorke the third weeke after the feaſt of ſaint Michael, the xii. yeere of his reigne by the aſſent of the prelates, Earles, Barons, and the commonaltie of his realme there aſſembled hath made theſe actes & ſtatutes here following, the which he willeth to be ſtraitlie obſerued in his ſaid realme and land.

Cap. 1. Attorney.

First for diuerſe miſchiefes, that where tenants in an aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin might not take attorneis heretofore, it is agreed, that the tenants in aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin from henſforth may make attorneis, yet the king intendeth not hereby that the tenants and defendants in aſſiſes of nouel diſſeiſin, ſhall pleade by bailiſes at their own pleaſure as they haue done heretofore.

Cap. 2. Witnes. Inqueſt.

Alſo it is agreed, that when a deede, releſe, acquitance, or other writing is denied in the kinges court, wherein witneſſes be named, proces ſhal be awarded for to cauſe ſuch witneſſes to appeere, as before hath beene vſed, ſo that if none of them come in at the great diſtreſſe returned, or if it be returned, that they haue nothing, or that they cannot be found, yet the taking of the inqueſt ſhall not be deferred by the abſence of ſuch witneſſes. And if the witneſſes doe come in at the great diſtres, and the inqueſt for ſome cauſe remaineth vntaken, the witneſſes that come in ſhal haue like daie giuen them as is aſſigned for the taking of the inqueſt, at which daie if the witneſſes do not appeare the iſſues that were firſt returned vpon them ſhall be forfeit. And the taking of the inqueſt ſhall not be deferred becauſe of their abſence. And for abſence of witneſſes dwelling within franchiſes where the kings writ originall doth not lye, the taking of an inqueſt ſhall not be deferred.

Cap. 3. Inqueſt. Recogniſance. Iurie. Plea of land.

And where it is conteined in a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the ſecond daie of April, the xxvii. yeere of the raigne of the kings father that now is, that inqueſts and recogniſances taken before the Iuſtices of either bench, ſhould be taken before anie Iuſtice of the places, accompanied with ſome knight of the ſhire where ſuch inqueſtes hap to be taken, if they haue not neede of great examination. And that in ſuch inqueſtes the Iuſtices ſhall do as they ſhall thinke moſt expedient for the weale of the realme, the which ſtatute needeth to be better declared: It is agreed, that inqueſts and iuries that hap to be taken hereafter in pleas of land, that require not great examination ſhal be taken in the countrie before a Iuſtice of the place where the plea is, accompanied with a ſubſtanciall man of the countrie knight or other, ſo that a certaine daie be giuen in the bench, and a certaine daie and place in the countrie in preſence of the parties demaunding the ſame. And alſo inqueſtes and iuries in pleas of land that require great examination, ſhall be taken in the countrie (in the maner abouesaid) before two Iuſtices of the bench.

Cap. 4. Enrolmẽt. Iuſtices. Nonſuit.

And the Iuſtices or Iuſtice ſhall haue power to record nonſuites and defaults in the countrie at the daies and places aſſigned as afore is ſaide. And that that they ſhall do in the things aboue mentioned ſhall be reported in the bench at a daie certain, there to be enrolled, & thereupon iudgement ſhall be giuen, and the king intendeth not, that the ſaid inqueſts and iuries ſhould not be taken in the bench if they come, nor that this ſtatute ſhould extend vnto great aſſiſes. And alſo a Iuſtice of the one place and of the other, being aſſociate with a diſcrete man of the countrie knight or other, at the requeſt of the plaintife ſhall take inqueſtes vpon pleas pleaded and to be pleaded, that be moued by attachement and diſtreſſe, and ſhall haue power to record nonſuites, as aboue is ſaid, and to take inqueſtes vpon defaultes there made. And as to ſuch inqueſtes as are to be taken vpon writs of Quare impedit, the forme conteined in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter ſecond ſhall be kept, and the Iuſtices ſhall haue power to record nonſuites and defaults in the countrie, and to giue iudgement thereupon, as they do in the bench, and there to report that that they haue done, there to be inrolled. And if it happen that the Iuſtice or Iuſtices that ſhal be aſſigned to take ſuch inqueſtes in the countrie, do not come, or if they come in to the countrie at the daie aſſigned, yet the parties and perſons of ſuch inqueſtes ſhall keepe their daie in the bench.

Chap. 5. Returne. Bailiſe. Shiriffe.

And becauſe it is manie times complained in the kings court, vpon returnes that bailiffes of franchiſes (hauing full power to returne the kings writtes) haue deliuered to ſhirifes, that haue beene afterward changed, and otherwiſe returned in the kings court, to the dammage of the parties, and the delay of right: It is agreede, that for ſuch returnes as hereafter bee deliuered to ſhiriffes by ſuch bailiffes of franchiſes, an Indenture ſhall be made betweene the bailiffe of the franchiſe by his proper name and the ſhiriffe by his proper name. And if the Shiriffe change the returne ſo deliuered to him by Indenture, and be thereof conuict at the ſuite of the lorde of the franchiſe, of whome he receiued the returne, if the lorde haue had anie dammage, or if his franchiſe be diſtrained, or at the ſuite of the partie that hath ſuſteined loſſe through that occaſion, hee ſhall be puniſhed by the king for his falſe returne, and ſhall yeelde vnto the lorde and to the partie double dammages. Alſo it is agreede, that from henſfoorth ſhiriffes and other bailiffes, that receiue the kings writtes, returnable in his court, ſhall ſende their owne names with the returnes, ſo that the court maye knowe, of whome they tooke ſuch returnes, if neede bee. And if anie ſhiriffe or other bailiſe leaue out his name in his returnes, he ſhall be grieuouſlie amerced to the kings vſe.

Cap. 6. Winꝭ. Vitailes.

Alſo for the common profit of the people it is agreed, that no officer in citie or towne, that by reaſon of his office ought to keepe aſſiſes of Wines and vitailes in as much as he is attendant to his office, ſhall not buy Wines nor vitailes neither in groſſe, nor by retaile. And if anie do, & be thereof conuict, the merchandiſe, wherfore he is conuict, ſhal be forfait to the king & the third part thereof ſhall be deliuered to the partie that ſued the offendor as the kings gift, & in ſuch caſe he that will ſue for a thing ſo forfaited, ſhall be receiued. And the chancellour, treaſurer, barons of the eſchequer, iuſtices of either bench, and iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes, ſhall admit ſuch plaints by writtes and without writtes, and ſhall determine them, and ſhall performe all things conteined in theſe articles, in forme aboueſaid, and neuertheleſſe the king maie aſſigne his iuſtices to execute this thing in cities and boroughs, when and where it pleaſeth him.

The ſtatute of Eſſoines made the xij. yeere of Edward the ſecond.

Eſſoine.

Here is declared how many waies eſſoins may be challenged, & in what caſes eſſoins do not lie. An eſſoine lieth not, where the land is taken into the kings hands. Eſſoine lieth not where the partie is diſtrained by his lands. Eſſoine lieth not where anie iudgement is giuen thereupon, if the iurors do come. Eſſoine lieth not where the partie was ſéene in the court. Eſſoine of Vltra mare lieth not where an other time the partie hath bene eſſoined of Malo veniendi. It lieth not where the partie hath eſſoined himſelfe an other daie. It lieth not where the ſhirife was commanded to make the partie to appéere. Eſſoine of Seruicio regis lieth not where the partie is a woman. It lieth not in a writ of dower where it ſéemeth to be but a delaie of right. It lieth not for that the plaintife hath not found pledges of ſuite. It lieth not where the attourney was eſſoined. It lieth not where the partie hath an attourney in his matter. It lieth not where the eſſoiner confeſſeth that hee is not in the kings ſeruice. It lieth not where the ſommons is not returned, or the partie not attached, for that the ſhirife hath returned non eſt inuentus. It lieth not where the partie an other time was eſſoined de ſeruicio regis, that is to wit ſuch a daie, and now he hath not put in his warrant. It lieth not where he was reſommoned in aſſiſe of mortdancetour, or darreine preſentment. It lieth not becauſe ſuch one is not named in the writ. It lieth not where the ſhirife had a precept to diſtraine the partie for to come, by his lands and goods. It lieth not where the biſhop was commanded to cauſe the partie to appéere. It lieth not for that the terme is paſſed. And it is to be noted, that eſſoines de ſeruicio domini regis, are allowed after the graund cape, petie cape, and after diſtreſſes taken vpon the lands and goods.

The ſtatute of Carlil made the xv. yeere of Edward the ſecond.

Fines leuied.

The king vnto the iuſtices of his bench, gréeting. Where as of late we haue ordeined that all ſuch fines as are to be leuied in our court, be lawfully leuied which we will in no wiſe to be broken or to be adnulled of their power, we haue ſent vnto you our mind in writing firmelie to be obſerued, that is to wit, that as well the parties demandant or plaintife as the tenants or defendants that will yéeld or knowledge right, of lands or tenements vnto other in pleas of warrantie, of charter couenant and other whereupon fines are to be leuied afore you, before ſuch fines do paſſe, the parties ſhal appéere perſonally ſo that their age, idiocie, or anie other default being in them may be iudged & diſcerned by you. Prouided alway that if any perſon aged or decrepite, or impotent by caſualtie be ſo oppreſſed and holden that by no meane he is able to come before you in our court, then in ſuch caſe we will that two or one of you by aſſent of the reſidue of the bench ſhall viſite the partie ſo diſeaſed and ſhal receiue his recogniſance vpon the plea and forme of plea that he hath in our court whereupon the ſame fine ought to be leuied, and if there go but one he ſhall take with him an abbot, a prior, or a knight, a man of good fame and credence, and ſhal certifie you thereof by record, ſo that all things incident to the ſame fine being examined by him or them, the ſame fines, according to our former ordinance maie bee lawfullie leuied. Yet wee will not that anie of our barons of the eſchequer or our iuſtices ſhall admit anie atturneies but onelie in pleas and matters that paſſe afore them in the benches and in places where they be aſſigned by vs. And the ſame power of admitting atturneies wee prohibite and denie to the clerkes & ſeruants of the ſaid barons and iuſtices. And do ordeine that if anie atturneis be admitted hereafter by anie of the perſons aforeſaid, their admiſſion ſhall be of none effect. Reſerued alway to the chancellour for the time being his auctoritie in admitting atturneies, according to whoſe diſcretion they ſhal be admitted, and to our thoſe iuſtices as heretofore hath bene obſerued in the admiſſion of atturneies. We will alſo that this our ordinance ſhal take effect and beginning at the vtas of the Trinitie next enſuing. Giuen in our parliament at Carlill the xv. yéere of our raigne.

Atturneis.

The kings prerogatiue made the xvij. yeere of Edward the ſecond.

Chap. 1. Ward. Knights ſeruice.

Our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall haue the ward of all the lands of ſuch as hold of him in chiefe by knights ſeruice, where of the tenants were ſeaſed in their demeane as of fée at the daie of their death (of whom ſo euer they holde els by like ſeruice, ſo that they held of ancient time anie land of the crowne) vntill the heire come to his lawfull age, except the fées of the archbiſhop of Canterburie, the biſhop of Durham betwéene Tine and Téeſe, fées of earles and barons in the marches, where the kings writtes do not lie, and whereof the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, earles, and barons ought to haue ſuch wardes, though they held of the king in ſome other place.

Cap. 2. Mariage.

Alſo the king ſhall haue the mariage of an heire being within age and in his warde, whether the lands of ſuch heires haue appertained to the crowne of ancient continuance, or that it came by reaſon of eſchete being in the kings hands, or that he had the mariage by reaſon of the ward of the lords of ſuch heires without anie reſpect to the prioritie of feffement, albeit they held of other.

Cha. 3. Primer ſeiſin.

Alſo the king ſhall haue primer ſeiſin after the death of ſuch as held of him in chief of all lands and tenements whereof they were ſeaſed in their demeane as of fee of what age that their heires be taking the iſſues of the ſame lands and tenements, vntill inquiſition be made (as the maner is) and vntill he hath taken homage of ſuch heires.

Chap. 4. Widowes. Dower.

Women holding in chiefe.

Alſo he ſhall aſſigne to widowes after the death of their huſbands that held of him in chiefe the dower that to them belongeth, &c. though the heires be of ful age (if the widowes wil) And ſuch widowes before aſſignement of their dower ſhall ſweare that they ſhall not marrie themſelues without yͤ kings licence, whither the heires be of ful age or not. And if they marie without licence then the king ſhal take into his hands by way of diſtres al ſuch lands & tenements as they hold of him in dower vntil he be ſatiſfied at his owne wil, ſo that ſhe ſhal take nothing of the iſſues, &c. for after ſuch diſtreſſes they or their huſbands muſt fine at the kings wil. And his wil in the time of king Henry father of king Edward was eſteemed to the ons yeeres value of her dower, vnleſſe they had the greater fauour. Women that hold of the king in chief of whatſoeuer age that they be, ſhall ſweare likewiſe that they ſhal not marie themſelues without the kings licence. And if they do their lands & tenements ſhalbe taken in like maner into the kings hands, vntill they haue ſatiſfied at the kings will.

Chap. 5. Inheritance in chiefe.

And if one inheritance that is holden of the king in chiefe diſcend to manie partners then all the heires ſhall do homage to the king, and the ſame inheritance ſo holden of the king ſhalbe deuided among thoſe heires, ſo that euerie of them after that ſhall hold their part of the king.

Cap. 6.

Alienation

If a woman (before the death of her anceſtour that held of the king in chiefe) be married before ſhe be mariable, then the king ſhall haue the ward of the bodie of the ſame woman vntill ſhe be of age able to conſent, & then ſhe maie choſe, whether ſhe will haue him to whom ſhe was firſt married, or him that the king wil offer her. None that holdeth of the king in chiefe by knights ſeruice may aliene the more part of his lands, ſo that the reſidue therof be not ſufficient to do his ſeruice, except he haue the kings licence, but this maie not be vnderſtanded of members and parcels of ſuch lands.

Chap. 7. Serieanties.

Of ſerieanties aliened without the kings licence the king hath vſed to rate ſuch ſerieanties at a reaſonable extent thereof to be made.

Cap. 8. Aduowſons.

Of churches being vacant, the aduowſons whereof belong to the king and other preſent to the ſame, whereupon debate ariſeth betweene the king and other, if the king by award of the court do recouer his preſentation though it be after the lapſe of ſixe moneths from the time of the auoidance no time ſhall preiudice him, ſo that he preſent within the ſpace of vi. moneths.

Cap. 9. Idiots.

The king ſhall haue ward of the lands of naturall fooles, taking the profits of them without waſt or deſtruction, and find to them their neceſſaries of whoſe fee ſo euer that the lands be holden. And after the death of ſuch idiotes he ſhall render it to the right heires, ſo that ſuch idiots ſhall not alien, nor their heires ſhalbe diſherited.

Chap. 10 Mad-men

Alſo the king ſhal prouide, when any (that before time hath had his wit & memorie) happen to faile of his wit, as ther are many per lucida interualla, i. by euident ſpaces that their lands & tenements ſhalbe ſafely kept without waſt or deſtruction, & that thei & their houſhold ſhal liue & be conueniently maintained with yͤ profits of the ſame, & the reſidue beſides their ſuſtentatiõ ſhalbe kept to their vſe to be deliuered vnto them when they come to right mind. So that ſuch landes and tenements ſhall in no wiſe be aliened. And the king ſhal take nothing to his owne vſe, & if the partie die in ſuch eſtate then the reſidue ſhall be diſtributed for his ſoule by the aduiſe of the ordinarie.

Cap. 11. Wrecke of the ſea.

Alſo the king ſhal haue wrecke of the ſea throughout the realme, whales & great ſturgeons taken in the ſea or elſewhere within the realme, except in certaine places priuileged by the king.

Cap. 12. Eſchete.

Alſo the king ſhall haue eſchetes of the lands of Normans, to whoſe fee ſoeuer they belong, ſauing the ſeruice appertaining to the chiefe lords of the ſame fee. And this alſo is to be vnderſtanded where anie inheritance diſcendeth to any that is borne in the parties beyond the ſea, whoſe anceſtours were from the time of king Iohn vnder the allegeance of the kings of France, & not of the kings of England, as late it hapened by the baronie of Monmouth after the death of Iohn Monmouth whoſe heires were of Britaine & other places. King Henrie by the foreſaid occaſion recouered manie eſchetes of Normans lands out of the fees of other men, & gaue them to be holden of the chiefe lords of the fee by ſeruices and cuſtomes due and accuſtomed thereunto.

Chap. 13

When anie (that holdeth of the king in chiefe) dieth and his heire entreth into the land that his anceſtour held of the king the daie that he died, before he hath done homage to the king and receiued ſeiſin of the king, he ſhall gaine no freehold thereby, and if he die ſeaſed during that time his wife ſhall not be indowed of the ſame land, as it came late in vre by Maude daughter to the earle of Herford wife of Maunſell the marſhall, which after the death of William marſhall of England his brother tooke his ſeiſin of the caſtell and maner of Scrogoill and died in the ſame caſtell before he had entred by the king and before he had done homage to him. Whereupon it was agreed that his wife ſhould not be indowed, becauſe that her huſband had not entred by the king but rather by intruſion, howbeit this ſtatute doth not meane of ſocage and other ſmall tenures.

Cap. 14. Eſchetes of the temporalties of biſhops.

Alſo the king ſhall haue eſchetes of lands of the freeholders of archbiſhops and biſhops, when ſuch tenants be attainted for felonie in time of vacation, whiles their temporalties were in the kings hands, to giue at his pleaſure, ſauing to ſuch prelats the ſeruice that thereto is due and accuſtomed.

Cha. 15.

When our ſoueraigne lord the king giueth or graunteth land or a manour with the appurtenances without he make expreſſe mencion in his deede or writing of knights fee, aduowſons of churches, and dowers when they fall belonging to ſuch manours or lands, then at this day the king reſerueth to himſelfe ſuch fees, aduowſons, and dowers, all be it that among other perſons there ſhall be impleaded no ſuch reſeruation.

Cha. 16. Goods of felons.

Alſo the king ſhall haue the goods of all felons attainted, or that run away where ſoeuer they be found. And if they haue freehold, then it ſhall be forthwith taken into the kings hands. And the king ſhall haue all profits of the ſame by one yeare and one day, and the land ſhall be waſted and deſtroied in the houſes, woodes, gardens, & in all maner of things belonging to the ſame land, excepting men of certaine places priuileged by the king therefore. And after the king hath had the yeare, day, and waſte, then the land ſhall be reſtored to the cheefe lord of the ſame fee vnleſſe that he fine before with the king for the yeare, the day, and the waſte. Neuertheleſſe it is vſed in the countie of Glocester by cuſtome, that after one yeare and one day the lands and tenements of felons ſhall reuert and be reſtored to the next heire, to whom it ought to haue diſcended if the felonie had not bene done. And in Kent in Gauelkinde, The father to the bough, the ſonne to the plough. There all heires males ſhall deuide their inheritance, but women ſhall not make partition with men. And a woman after the death of hir huſband ſhall be indowed of the moitie. And if ſhe commit fornication in hir widowhead, or take an huſband afterward ſhe ſhall leeſe hir dower.

The maner of doing homage and fealtie made the xvij. yeare of king Edward the ſecond.

Dooing of homage and fealtie.

When a free man ſhall doo homage to his lord of whom he holdeth in cheeſe, he ſhall hold his hands together betweene the hands of his lord and ſhall ſay thus: I become your man from this day forth for life for member, and for worldlie honor and ſhall owe you my faith for the lands that I hold of you, ſauing the faith that I doo owe vnto our ſoueraigne lord the king and to mine other lordes.

When a free man ſhall doo fealtie to his lorde he ſhall hold his right hand vpon a booke, and ſhall ſay thus. Heare you my lord R. that I P. ſhall be to you both faithfull and true, and ſhall owe my fidelitie vnto you for the land that I hold of you, and lawfullie ſhall doo ſuch cuſtomes and ſeruices as my dutie is to you at the termes aſſigned, ſo helpe me God and all his ſaintes.

When a villaine ſhall doo fealtie vnto his lord, he ſhall hold his right hand ouer the booke, and ſhall ſay thus. Here you my lord A. that I B. from this day forth vnto you ſhall be true and faithfull, and ſhall owe you fealtie for the land that I hold of you in villenage, and ſhall be iuſtified by you in bodie and goods, ſo helpe me God and all his ſaints.

The ſtatute for view of frankepledge, made the xvij. yeare of Edward the ſecond.

First you ſhall ſay vnto vs by the oth that you haue made if all the iurers that owe ſuite to this court, be come & which not. And if all the cheefe pledges or their doſens be come & which not. And if all the doſens be in the aſſiſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king & which not, & who receiued them, & if there be any of the kings villains fugitiue dwelling otherwhere than in the kings demeans and of ſuch as be within the kings demeanes & haue not abiden a yeare & a day. And if there be anie of the lords villaines in frankepledge otherwhere then in this court. Of cuſtomes and ſeruices due to this court withdrawen, how & by whome & in what bailiffes time. Of purpreſtures made in landes, woods, & waters to the annoiance of walles, houſes, dikes, and hedges ſet vp or beaten downe to the annoiance. Of boundes withdrawen & taken away. Of waies & pathes opened or ſtopped, of waters turned or ſtopped & brought from their right courſe, of breakers of houſes and of their receiuers, of common theeues & of their receiuers, of pettie bribers as of geeſe, hennes, or ſhewes, of theeues that ſteale clothes or ſheſes, and of ſuch as go in meſſage for theeues, of cries leuied and not purſued, of bloudſhed and of fraies made, of eſcapes of theeues or felons, of perſons outlawed not hauing the kings warrant, of women rauiſhed not preſented before the coroners, of clippers and forgers of monie, of treſure found, of the aſſiſe of bread and ale broken, of falſe meaſures as of buſhels, galons, perdes, and elles, of falſe balances, & weights, of ſuch as haue double meaſure and buie by the great, and ſell by the leſſe. Of ſuch as continuallie haunt tauernes, & no man knoweth whereon they doo liue, of ſuch as ſleepe by date and watch by night, and fare well and haue nothing, of cloth ſellers and curriors of lether dwelling out of marchant townes, of ſuch as take church or churchyard and afterward depart without making laſſeſſe. Of perſons impriſoned and after let go without maineprise, of ſuch as take doues in winter by dorefalls or engins. And of all theſe thinges you ſhall doo vs to wit by the oth that you haue taken.

The ſtatute of priſes.

This article concerning priſes, was made by king Edward father to our ſoueraigne lords the king that now is, among other articles deuiſed by him in like maner, for the amendment of his people at his parliament at Weſtminſter the xxviii. yeres of his raigne, which article our ſoueraigne lord the king willeth to be kept, to the profit of his people vpon the paines contained in the ſame article. For as much as there is a great greeuance in the realme and damage without meaſure by reaſon that the officers of the kings houſhold as well vpon aliens as denizens make their priſes there where they paſſe through the realme, and take the goods of the people as well ſpirituall as temporall, without paieng anie thing or much leſſe then the value. It is ordained from henceforth, that none ſhall make priſes for the king through the realme, but the purueiors for the kings houſe, and for priſes that they ſhall make in the countrie of meate and drinke and other neceſſarie things for the houſe, they ſhall paie or agree with them, of whoms the things were taken. And that all the kings takers and purueiors ſhall haue from henceforth their warrant with them of the kings great or pettie ſeale conteining their power, and the thinges, whereof they ſhall make priſes or purueiance, the which warrant they ſhall ſhew to them of whome they doo make their priſes before they doo take anie thing. And that ſuch takers or purueiors for the king ſhall not take anie more then is neceſſarie or needefull for the king his houſhold, and his children. And that they take nothing for ſuch as be in wages, nor for none other, and that he ſhall aunſwere fullie in the wardrobe of the houſe without making anie other where larges or liuerie of thinges taken for the king. And if anie purueior for the kings houſe by warrant hath made priſes otherwiſe than is limited before, vpon complaint made to the ſteward and to the treſurer of the kings houſe the truth ſhall be inquired, and if he be attainted thereof, agreement ſhall be made to the plaintiffe immediatlie, and he ſhall be put out of the kings ſeruice for euer, and ſhall remaine in priſon at the kings pleaſure. And if anie make priſes without warrant and doth carrie them away againſt the will of him to whome the goods did belong, he ſhall be arreſted forthwith by the towne where the priſe was made, and carried vnto the next gaole, and if he be thereof attainted he ſhall be puniſhed as he ſhould be for felonie, if the value of the goods doo ſo require.

Priſes. Purueiors. Felonie.

Statutes vncertaine when or by whome they were made.

Articles againſt the kings prohibition

VNder that forme ſhall laie men purchaſe prohibitions generallie vpon tithes, oblations, obuentions, redeeming of penances, mortuaries, violent hands laieng on a clerke or laie brother and in cauſes of defamation, in which caſes, ſpirituall penance muſt be enioined. The king aunſwered to theſe articles that in tithes, oblations, obuentions, and mortuaries when they be pleaded, as before is ſaid the kings prohibition doth not ly. And if a clerke or a perſon religious doo ſell his corne being in his barne or otherwhere to anie man for monie, if the priſe thereof be demaunded afore a ſpirituall iudge, the kings prohibition doth ly, for by the ſale the ſpirituall are become temporall, and ſo tithes paſſe into cattels. Alſo if debate hang in a ſpirituall court for the right of tithes, hauing his originall from the right of the patronage and the quantitie of the ſame tithes doo paſſe the iiii. part of the value of the benefice a prohibition ſhall ly. Alſo if a prelat enioined penance pecuniarie to anie man for his ſinne, if the monie be demaunded afore prelats a prohibition ſhall ly. Alſo if anie laie violent hands on a clerke or laie brother, for the peace broken amends ſhall be made before the king, and for the excommunication before a biſhop or prelat. And if a corporall penance be enioined which the offender will redeeme by giuing monie to the prelat or to the partie greeued, a prohibition ſhall not ly. In cauſes of diffamation prelats may freelie correct, the kings prohibition notwithſtanding firſt enioining a corporall penance, which if the partie will redeeme, the prelat may lawfullie receiue the monie, though a prohibition be ſhewed.

An ordinance for bakers and bruers and other vittellers, and for elles buſhels and foreſtallers.

Chap. 1. THe aſſiſe of bread ſhall be kept according as it is conteined in the writing of the marſhalſie of our ſoueraigne lorde the king deliuered vnto them after the ſale of wheate, that is to wit the better the worſe and the worſt. And as well waſtell bread as other of what ſort ſo euer they be ſhall be waied according as it is ſaid of the ſale of the meaner wheate, neither ſhall the aſſiſe or weight of wheate be changed, more then ſixe pence increaſing or decreaſing as it is in the ſelling of the quarter.

Chap. 2. A baker, if his bread be founden a ferthing weight lacking in ii. s. vi. d. or vnder, ſhall be amerced, and if it paſſe the ſame number, he ſhall ſuffer puniſhment of the pillorie which ſhall not be remitted, neither for gold nor ſiluer. And euerie baker ſhall haue a marke of his owne for his bread.

Chap. 3. Euerie pillorie or ſtretchnecke muſt be made of conuenient ſtrength, ſo that execution may be doone vpon offenders without peril of their bodies.

Chap. 4. The tole at mill ſhall be taken according to the cuſtome of the land, and according to the ſtrength of the watercourſe, either to the xx. or xxiiii. corne. And the meaſure whereby the tole muſt be taken, ſhall be agreeable to the kings meaſure, and tole ſhall be taken by the raſe, and not by the heape or cantell. And in caſe that the fermours finde the milners their neceſſaries, they ſhall

ſhal take nothing beſides their due tolle. And if they do otherwiſe, they ſhalbe grieuouſly puniſhed.

Chap. 5 The aſſiſe of wine ſhall be kept, according to the aſſiſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, that is to wit, a galon at xii.d. And if the tauerners exceede the ſame aſſiſe, their dores ſhall be ſhut by the maior, and bailiffes, & ſhal not be ſuffred to ſell wine, vntill they haue obteined licence of the king.

Chap. 6. The aſſiſe of ale ſhall be aſſeſſed proclaimed and kept according to the price of corne whereof the malt is made. And the brewer ſhall not increaſe more in a galon, but according to the rate of vi.d. riſing in a quarter of malt. And if he breake the aſſiſe, the firſt, ſecond, and third time he ſhall be amerced, but the fourth time he ſhall ſuffer iudgement of the pillorie without redemption.

Chap. 7. A butcher that ſelleth ſwines fleſh mezeld, or fleſh dead of the morrin, or that buieth fleſh of Iewes, and ſelleth the ſame vnto chriſtians, after he ſhall be conuict thereof, for the firſt time hee ſhall be grieuouſly amerced, the ſecond time, he ſhall ſuffer iudgement of the pillorie, and the third time he ſhall be impriſoned and make fine. And the fourth time he ſhall forſweare the towne. And in this maner ſhall it be done of all that offend in like caſe.

Chap. 8. The ſtanderd of buſhels, galons, and elnes ſhall be ſigned with an iron ſeale of our ſoueraigne lord the king and ſafe kept vnder the peine of an hundred li. And no meaſure ſhall be in anie towne, vnleſſe it do agree with the kings meaſure, & marked with the ſeale of the ſhire towne. If anie do ſell or buie by meaſures vnſealed and not examined by the maior or bailiffes, he ſhall be grieuouſlie amerced. And all the meaſures of euerie towne both great and ſmall ſhall be viewed and examined twiſe in a yeere. If anie be conuict for a double meaſure, that is to wit, a greater for to buie with, and a ſmall to ſell with, he ſhall be impriſoned for his falſhod and ſhall be grieuouſlie puniſhed.

Chap. 9. The ſtandard buſhels and elles ſhall be in the cuſtodie of the maior and bailiffes and of ſix lawfull perſons of the ſame towne being ſworne, before whom all meaſures ſhall be ſealed. No maner of graine ſhall be ſold by the heape or cantell, except it be otes malt and meale.

Chap. 10 Foreſtallers. But ſpecially bee it commaunded on the behalfe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, that no forſtaller be ſuffered to dwell in anie towne which is an open oppreſſour of poore people and of all the commonaltie, and an enemie of the whole ſhire and countrie which for griedineſſe of his priuate gaine both preuent other in buying graine, fiſh, hearing, or anie other thing to be ſolde comming by land or water oppreſſing the poore and deceiuing the rich, which carieth alway ſuch things entending to ſell them more deere. The which come to marchants ſtrangers that bring marchandiſe, offering them to buie, and informing them that their goods might be deerer ſold then they intended to ſell, and an whole towne or a countrie is deceiued by ſuch craft and ſubtiltie. He that is conuict thereof, the firſt time ſhalbe amerced and ſhall leeſe the thing ſo bought, & that according to the cuſtome and ordinance of the towne, he that is conuict the ſecond time, ſhall haue iudgement of the pillorie. At the third time he ſhalbe impriſoned and make fine, the fourth time he ſhall abiure the towne. And this iudgement ſhalbe giuen vpon all maner of foreſtallers, and likewiſe vpon them that haue giuen them counſell, helpe, or fauour.

An ordinance for meaſures.

Meaſures. BY the conſent of the whole realme of England the meaſure of our ſoueraigne lord the king was made, that is to ſay, an engliſh penie, called a ſterling, round and without anie clipping, ſhall waye xxxii. wheate cornes in the middes of the eare, and xx.d. ſhall make an ounce, and xii. ounces. i. li. and viii. li. ſhall make a galon of wine, and viii. galons of wine ſhal make. i. buſhel London, which is the eight part of a quarter. Ounce. Pound. Galon. Buſhel.

Statutes made at VVeſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the raigne of the noble king Edward the third.

WHere as Hugh Spenſer the father and Hugh Spenſer the ſonne, late at the ſuite of Thomas than earle of Lancaſter and of Leiceſter, and ſteward of England, by the common aſſent and awarde of the peeres and commons of the realme, and by the aſſent of king Edward father to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, as traitours and enemies of the king and of his realme, were exiled, diſherited, & baniſhed out of the realme for euer, And afterward, the ſame Hugh and Hugh by euill counſell which the king had taken of them without the aſſent of the peeres and commons of the realme, came againe into the realme. And they with other procured the ſaid king to purſue the ſaid earle of Lancaſter, and other great men and people of this realme, in which purſuite, the ſaid earle of Lancaſter, and other great men and people of the realme were willingly dead and diſherited, & ſome outlawed, baniſhed, and diſherited, and ſome diſherited and impriſoned, and ſome raunſomed and diſherited. And after ſuch miſchiefe, the ſaid Hugh and Hugh, maſter Robert Baldocke, and Edmond late earle of Arundel vſurped to them the royall power, ſo that the king nothing did nor would do, but as the ſaid Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond earle of Arundell did counſell him, were it neuer ſo great wrong, during which vſurpation, by dureſſe & force againſt the will of the commons, they purchaſed lands aſwell by fines leuied in the court of the ſaid king Edward, as otherwiſe, And where as after the death of the ſaid earle of Lancaſter, and of other great men, our ſoue- Exile.

raigne Lord the king that now is, and dame Iſabel Quéene of England his mother, by the kings will and common counſell of the realme, went ouer into France, to treat a peace betwéene the two realmes of England and France, vpon certaine debates then moued: The ſaid Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond earle of Arundell continuing their michiefe, encouraged the ſaid king Edward againſt our ſoueraigne Lord the king that nowe is, his ſonne, and the ſaid quéene his wife, and by the royall power which they had to them encroched, as afore is ſaide, procured ſo much grieuance by the aſſent of the ſaid king Edward, to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, and the Quéene his mother, then being beyong the ſea: that they remained as forſaken of the ſaid king Edward, and as exiled from this realme of England. Wherfore it was neceſſarie for our ſouraigne lord the king that now is, and the Quéene his mother, being in ſo great ieopardie of them ſelfe, in a ſtrange countrey, and ſéeing the deſtruction, damage, oppreſſions, & diſheriſons which were notoriouſly done in the realme of England, vpon holy church, prelates, earles, barons, and other great men and the communaltie, by the ſaid Hugh and Hugh, Robert, & Edmond earle of Arundell by the encrothing of ſuch royall power to them, to take as good counſell therein as they might. And ſéeing they might not remedie the ſame, vnleſſe they came into England with an armie of men of warre, And by the grace of God with ſuch puiſſanſe and with the helpe of great men and the commons of the realme, they haue vanquiſhed and diſtroyed the ſaide Hugh & Hugh, Robert, and Edmond. Wherefore our ſoueraigne lord king Edward that now is, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the time of his coronation on the morowe after Candelmas, in the firſt yéere of his raigne, vpon certaine petitions and requeſts made to him in the ſaid parliament, vpon ſuch articles aboue rehearſed, by the common counſell of the prelates, earles, barons, and other great men, and by the commonaltie of the realme there being by his commaundement, hath prouided, ordeined and eſtabliſhed in forme following.

Chap. 1. Purſuites.

FIrſt, that no great man nor other of what eſtate, dignitie, or condition he be, that came with the ſaid king that now is, and with the queene his mother into the realme of England, nor none other, then dwelling in England that came with the ſaid king that now is, and the quéene, in aide of them to purſue their ſaid enemies, in which purſuite the king his father was taken and put in ward, and yet remaineth in warde: ſhall not be empeched, moleſted, nor grieued in perſon nor in goods, in the kings court, nor other court for the purſuite of the ſaid king, taking and withholding of his bodie, nor purſuite of anie other nor taking of their perſons, goods, nor death of anie man, or anie other things perpetrate or committed in the ſaid purſuite, from the daie that the ſaid king & quéene did arriue, til the daie of the coronation of the ſame king. And it is not the kings minde, that ſuch offenders that committed any treſpas, or other offence out of the ſaid purſuite ſhould go quite or haue aduantage of this ſtatute, but they ſhal be at their anſwere for the ſame at the lawe.

Chap. 2. Exile.

Item that the repele of the ſaid exile, which was made by dures and force be adnulled for euermore. And the ſame exile made by award of the péeres and the commons by the kings aſſent as afore is ſaid, ſhall ſtand in his ſtrength in all points, after the tenure of euerie article therein conteined.

Chap. 3. Force and dures.

Item that the executors of the teſtament of all thoſe that were of the ſame quarell dead, ſhall haue actions and recouer the goods and cattels of them being of the ſaid quarell whoſe executors they be, as they of the ſame quarell ſhould. And that fines, ſales, and gifts of land, and recogniſances of debts after the time of the exile of the ſaid Hugh and Hugh, made by force and dures to the ſaid Hugh and Hugh, Edmond earle of Arundell, Robert Baldocke, and Walter Stapleton late biſhop of Exceter, or to anie of them, be defeated It is alſo agréed and ſtabliſhed that if anie man will by waie of action, defete anie fine, ſale or gift of land, and recogniſances of debts, made by force or dures to the ſaid perſons as aboue is ſaid: he ſhall haue a writ out of the chancerie to cauſe the tranſcript of the fote and of the fine, and the tenure of the recogniſance to be had before the king and his iuſtices, aſſigned to hold pleas before the king with two biſhops, two earles, and two barons aſſociate vnto them, or els of euerie eſtate one, to warne the tenant of the land, whereof ſuch fine is leuied or gift or ſale made. And if it be found in the kings court by confeſſion of the partie, or by a lawfull enqueſt to be taken, that ſuch fine, ſale, or gift, was leuied or made by dures of impriſonment, or els for feare of death: it ſhall then be defeted. And execution to be made for the plaintife as pertaineth by reſtitution of landes and tenements, being in other mens handes than the kings. And like proces ſhalbe made of lands being in the kings hands, whereof fines bee leuied to warne the kéepers of the ſaid lands. And in caſe where anie will demaund lande by the common lawe, and ſuch fine or déede be pleaded in barre of his demaund, then it ſhall be done as hath bene vſed in times paſt where a releſſe or quite claime hath bene pleaded in barre, of ſuch actions betwéene the parties, or impriſonment hath bene alledged. But it is not the minde of the king nor of his counſell, that they which haue ſolde their landes, and releaſed or quite claimed of their owne frée will, ſhould haue anie benefite by this ſtatute.

Chap. 4. Record.

Item it is accorded in amendement of the law, that when anie record commeth into the kings court by writ of falſe iudgement, in caſe where the partie alledgeth that the record is otherwiſe, than the court doth record the ſame: the auerrement ſhalbe receiued of the good countrey, and of them which were preſent in the court when the record was made, if they do come: and by other of the countrie by the ſhirifes returne. And if they come not, the enqueſt ſhall be taken by the good countrey.

Chap.5. Auerment.

Item it is prouided, that from henceforth againſt the falſe returns of bailiffes of franchiſes, which haue full returne of writs, a man ſhall haue auerrement, and recouer aſwell againſt them, as againſt the kings ſhiriffe: as well of too little iſſues returned, as in other caſes, ſo that it falleth not in preiudice of the lordes, nor in blemiſh of their franchiſe. And that the eſtate of holie church be alwaies ſaued. And that all the puniſhment fall onelie vpon the bailiffes by puniſhment of their bodies, if they haue not whereof to aunſwere.

Chap.6. Attaint.

Item it is prouided that for the great miſchiefes domage & deſtruction that hath happened to diuers perſons, as well of holie church, as of other, by the falſe othes of iurers in writs of treſpas: from henceforth a writ of attaint ſhall be graunted aſwell vpon the principall, as vpon the damages in ſuch writ of treſpas. And that the chauncellor which ſhall be for the time, ſhall haue power to graunt ſuch writs of atteints without ſpeaking therefore to the king. And in ſuch and all other caſes of atteints the iuſtices ſhall not let to take the atteints for the damages not paied.

Chap.7. Jailors

Item to eſchue the damage and deſtruction that often doth happen by ſhiriffes, iaylers, and keepers of priſons within franchiſes and without, which hath pained their priſoners, and by ſuch euill meanes compell and procure them to become appealers, and to appeale harmeles and giltles people, to thentent to haue raunſome of ſuch appealed perſons, for feare of impriſonment or other cauſe: The iuſtices of either bench, and iuſtices of aſſiſes and gaiol deliuerie, ſhall by force of this ſtatute enquire of ſuch compulſions, puniſhments, and torments, and here the complaints of all them that will complaine by bill, and to heare and determine ſuch plaints aſwell at the ſuit of the partie, as at the kings ſuite.

Chap. 8. Officers in foreſts.

Item where as diuers people be diſherited, raunſomed, and vndone by the chiefe keepers of the foreſts on this ſide Trent and beyond, and by other miniſters, againſt the forme of the ſtatute of the great charter of the foreſt, and againſt the declaration made by king Edward ſonne of king Henrie in forme folowing, that is to ſaie: we will and graunt for vs and our heires, that for anie treſpas done in the foreſt of vert and veniſon, That the foreſters in whoſe bailiwike ſuch treſpas ſhall be committed, ſhall preſent the ſame treſpaſſes at the next ſwanimote before the foreſters, verders, regarders, agiſters & other miniſters of the ſame foreſt. And that ſuch preſentment be made before the ſaid foreſters, verders, regarders, agiſters & other miniſters aforeſaid, aſwell by the othes of knightes as of other diſcreete & lawfull men & not ſuſpicious, of the parties ioining or neere, where ſuch offences ſhall be preſented, & where the truth may beſt & moſt cleerelie be knowen: And the truth perfectlie knowen, then ſuch preſentments by the common aſſent and conſent of all the ſaid miniſtres ſhall be ſolemnlie written and with their ſeales enſealed. And if anie enditement be in anie other maner made: the ſame ſhall be voide. And therefore, becauſe the cheefe wardens of the foreſts hath not obſerued the ſame forme hitherto: It is agreed and ordained, that from henceforth no man ſhallbe taken nor impriſoned for vert nor veniſon, vnles he be taken with the maner, or elſe endited after the forme before ſpecified. And then the cheefe warden of the foreſt ſhall let him to mainepriſe, till the eire of the foreſt, without anie thing taking for his deliuerance. And if the ſaid warden will not ſo doo, he ſhall haue a writ out of the chauncerie, which hath bene in old time ordained for ſuch perſons endited, to be at mainepriſe till the eire. And if ſuch warden after he hath receiued the writ, doo not incontinentlie deliuer ſuch perſons endited, to mainepriſe without taking anie thing: then the plaintiffe ſhall haue a writ out of the chauncerie to the ſhiriffe to attach the ſaid warden, to be before the king, at a certaine day to aunſwere, wherefore he hath not repleuied him that is ſo taken. And the ſhiriffe the werders being called to him, ſhall deliuer him that is ſo taken by good mainepriſe, in the preſence of the werders, and ſhall deliuer the names of the mainepernours to the ſame werders, to aunſwere in the eire of the iuſtices. And if the cheefe warden be thereof atteinted, the plaintiffe ſhall recouer his treble damages, and the ſaid warden to be committed to priſon, and raunſomed at the kings will. And from henceforth it ſhall be written to them as to the cheefe wardens of the foreſt, becauſe they may not be iuſtices nor to haue any record. Dated at Weſtminſter the vii. day of March, in the firſt yeare of our reigne.

An other ſtatute made in the ſaid firſt yeare of king Edward the third.

TO the honor of God and of holie church, and to the redreſſe of the oppreſſions of the people: king Edward the third at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter after the purification of our ladie, in the firſt yeare of his raigne, at the requeſt of the communaltie of his realme, by their petition made before him and his counſell in the parliament, by aſſent of the prelats, earles, barons, and other great men aſſembled at the ſaid parliament, hath graunted for him and his heires for euer theſe articles vnder written.

Chap.1. Charter.

FIrſt that the great charter of the liberties, and the charter of the foreſt be obſerued and kept in euerie article. And that the old perambulations of the foreſt in the time of king Edward graundfather to the king that now is, be from henceforth holden in like forme, as it was then riden and bounded. And thereupon a charter to be made to euerie ſhire where it was riden and bounded. And in ſuch places where it was not bounded, the king will that it ſhall be bounded by good men and lawfull, and that a charter be thereupon made as aboue is ſaid.

Chap.2. Houſbot and heibot. Item euerie man that hath anie wood within the forreſt may take houſbot and heibot in his ſaid wood, without being attached for the ſame by anie miniſters of the forreſt, ſo that he doo the ſame by the vertue of the foreſters. And becauſe before this time in the time of king Edward father to the king that now is, he by euill councellers cauſed to be ſeiſed into his hands the temporalties of diuers biſhops, with all their goods and cattels therein found without anie cauſe, and the ſame held in his hands by a long ſeaſon, and continuallie thereof tooke the profits, to the great damage of the ſame biſhops, waſtes and deſtructions of all their cattels, maners, parks, and woods: The king will and graunteth that from henceforth it ſhall not be doone.

Temporalties of biſhops.

Chap. 3. Pardon. Item where as king Edward father to the king that now is, in times paſt had pardoned his people of all iſſues and amerciaments, till the xx. yeare of the reigne of his father, and afterward without hauing regard to the ſaid pardon, the ſaid iſſues and amerciaments haue bene leuied to the great damage of the people: The king will that as touching the ſame iſſues and amerciaments, his fathers graunt ſhall be executed. And that the Iewes debts be alſo pardoned.

Chap.4. Kings debts. Item for the eaſe of the people which hath bene before this time greeued by outrageous leuieng of the kings debts: The king will and graunteth, that the treſurer and barons of the eſchequer may determine and ordaine euerie debt due to the king to the ſumme of ccc.li. according to the eſtate of the debtors, ſauing alwaies their countenance. And that they ſhall not charge the ſhiriffes, bailiffes of liberties, nor none other accomptantes in the eſchequer to leuie anie ſumme of anie perſon, if he doo charge him of aſmuch as he may leuie by his oth, without abating the debtors countenance, but the anſwerers of the ſhiriffes and of other miniſters ſhall be taken according to the point of their othes.

Chap.5. Armour. Item the king will that no man from henceforth ſhall be charged to arme himſelfe, otherwiſe than he was woont in the time of his progenitors kings of England. And that no man be compelled to go out of his ſhire, but where neceſſitie requireth and ſodaine comming of ſtrange enimies into the realme. And then it ſhall be doone as hath bene vſed in times paſt for the defence of the realme.

Chap.6. Taxers. Item becauſe the commons hath felt great greefe where as they graunted anie aide to the king of their goods, and certaine were aſſigned to taxe their goods, and the taxers haue leuied the ſame taxe, and yeelded their account for the ſame at the eſchequer, and there paied the monie: Iuſtices haue bene aſſigned afterward to enquire vpon their doings, which iuſtices haue taken raunſomes and fines of the taxers and other, by colour of their commiſſions, to the great oppreſſion and empoueriſhing of them: the king will that from henceforth they ſhall be taxed after the old maner, and not otherwiſe.

Chap.7. Men of armes. Item where as commiſſions haue bene awarded to certaine people of ſhires, to prepare men of armes, and to conueie them to the king into Scotland, or Gaſcoine, or elſe where at the charge of the ſhires: The king hath not before this time giuen no wages to the ſaid preparers and conueiers nor ſouldiors, whome they haue brought, whereby the commons of the counties haue bene at great charge and much empoueriſhed: The king will that it ſhall be ſo doone no more.

Chap. 8. Shiriffes. Beaw-pleader. Item where as ſome of the realme hath greeuouſlie complained, that they be greeued by ſhiriffes, naming themſelues the kings approuers, which doo take monie by extortion for beawpleader: The king will that the ſtatute of Marlebridge ſhall be obſerued and kept in this point.

Chap.9. Franchiſes. Item the king will that cities, burrowes, and franchiſed townes, ſhall enioy their franchiſes, cuſtomes, and vſage as they ought and were woont to doo.

Cap. 10. Requeſts. Item where as archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, abbeſſes and prioreſſes, hath bene before this time ſore greeued by the kings deſires and his progenitors, which hath deſired them by great threats, for their clerkes and other ſeruannts, for great penſions, prebends, churches, and corrodies, ſo that they might nothing giue nor doo to ſuch as had doone them ſeruice, nor to their freends, to their great charge and damage: The king graunteth that from henceforth he will no more ſuch thinges deſire, but where he ought.

Cap. 11. Enditers. Item the commons dooth greeuouſlie complaine, that when diuers perſons aſwell clerkes as laie people, hath bene endited before the ſhiriffes in their turnes, and afterward be deliuered by enqueſt procured before the iuſtices: after their deliuerance they doo ſue in the ſpirituall court againſt ſuch enditers, ſurmiſing againſt them that they haue defamed them, to the great damage of the enditers, therefore manie of the people in the ſhires be in feare to endite ſuch offenders: The king will that in ſuch caſe euerie man that feeleth himſelfe greeued thereby, ſhall haue a prohibition formed in the chauncerie vpon his caſe.

Cap. 12. Alienation. Fine. Item where as diuers people of the realme, complaine them ſelues to be greeued by that that landes and tenements, which be holden of the king in cheefe, and aliened without his licence, haue bene ſeiſed heretofore in the kings hands, and holden as forfeit: The king ſhall not hold them as forfeite in ſuch caſe, but will and graunt that from henceforth of ſuch lands and tenements ſo aliened, there ſhall be a reaſonable fine taken in the chauncerie by due proces.

Cap. 13. Purchaſe. Item where as diuers haue complained that they be greeued by reaſon of purchaſing of lands and tenements, which haue bene holden of the kings progenitors that now is, as of honors, and the ſame landes and tenements haue bene taken into the kings hands, as though they had bene holden in cheefe of the king, as of his crowne: The king will, that from henceforth no man be greeued by anie ſuch purchaſe.

Chap. 14 Quarels.

Item becauſe the king deſireth that common right be miniſtred to all perſons, aſwell poore as rich: he commaundeth and defendeth, that none of his chauncellers, nor of his houſe, nor none of his other miniſters, nor no great man of the realme by himſelfe, nor by other, by ſending of letters nor otherwiſe, nor none other in this land great nor ſmall, ſhall take vpon them to maintaine quarels nor parts in the countrie, to the let and diſturbance of the common lawe.

Chap. 15 Writings.

Item where as manie in this realme in the time of the kings father that now is, by meanes of his falſe and euill councellers, haue men excited by duces to binde themſelues by writing to come to the king with force and armes when ſoeuer they ſhould be ſent for, vpon paine of life and limme, and to forfeite all that euer they might forfeite: by vertue of which writings diuers of this land haue bene often deſtroied: The king conſidering that ſuch writings were made to the kings diſhonor, ſithens that euerie man is bounde to doo to the king, as to his liege lorde, all that pertaineth to him without anie maner of writing: will that from henceforth no ſuch writing be made. And that ſuch as be made, by the ſight of the chaunceller and treſurer ſhall be ſhewed to the king, and the king ſhall cauſe all ſuch as be made againſt right and reaſon to be cancelled.

Chap. 16 Iuſtices of peace.

Item for the better keeping and maintenance of the peace: The king will that in euerie countie good men and lawfull, which be no maintainers of euill nor barretors in the countrie, ſhal be aſſigned to keepe the peace.

Cap. 17. Enditements.

Item the king commaundeth that the ſhiriffes and bailiffes of franchiſes, and all other that take enditements in their turnes, or elſe where, where as they ought to be made: ſhall take ſuch enditement by role endented, whereof the one part ſhall remaine with the enditers, and the other part with him that taketh thenqueſt. So that the enditements ſhall not be embeſiled as they haue bene in times paſt. And ſo that one of the enqueſt may ſhew the one part of the indentures to the iuſtices, when they come to make deliuerance.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made of Northampton, in the ſecond yeare of the reigne of king Edward the third.

OUr ſouereigne lord king Edward the third after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Northampton at the iii. weekes of Eaſter in the ſecond yeare of his reigne, deſiring that the peace of his land, and his lawes and ſtatutes ordained and vſed before this time may be kept and maintained in all points, to the honor of God and of holie church, and to the common profit of the people, by the aſſent of the prelats, earles, barons, and other great men, and all the communaltie ſommoned to the ſame parliament: hath ordained and eſtabliſhed in the ſaid parliament theſe things vnderwritten in forme folowing.

Chap. 1. Charter.

FIrſt that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt be obſerued in all points.

Chap. 2. Charter of pardon. Oier and terminer.

Item whereas offenders haue bene greatlie encouraged, becauſe that charters of pardon haue bene ſo ſwiftlie graunted in times paſt of manſlaughters, robberies, felonies, and other treſpaſſes againſt the peace: It is ordained and enacted, that ſuch charters ſhall not be graunted, but onelie where the king may doo it by his oth, that is to ſaie, where a man ſlaieth an other in his owne defence, or by miſfortune. And alſo they haue bene encouraged becauſe that the iuſtices of gaoldeliuerie, and of oier and terminer, haue bene procured by great men, againſt the forme of the ſtatute made in the xxvii. peare of the reigne of king Edward graundfather to our ſouereigne lord the king that now is. Wherein is conteined, that iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes, if they be lay men, ſhal make deliuerance. And if the one be a clerke, and the other a laie man: that the laie iudge with an other of the countrie aſſociat to him, ſhall deliuer the gaols: wherefore it is enacted, that ſuch iuſtices ſhall not be made againſt the forme of the ſaid ſtatute. And that the aſſiſes, atteints, and certifications be taken before the iuſtices commonlie aſſigned, which ſhould be good men and lawfull, hauing knowledge of the law, and none other, after the forme of an other ſtatute made in the time of the ſaid king Edward the firſt. And that the oiers and terminers ſhall not be graunted, but before iuſtices of the one bench or the other, or the iuſtices errants, and that for great hurt or horrible treſpaſſes, and of the kings eſpeciall grace, after the forme of the ſtatute thereof ordained in the time of the ſaid graundfather and none otherwiſe.

Chap. 3. Force and armes.

Item it is enacted that no man great nor ſmall of what condition ſo euer he be, except the kings ſeruants in his owne preſence, and his miniſters in executing of the kings preceps or of their office, & ſuch as be in their companie aſſiſting them, and alſo vpon a crie made for armes to keepe the peace, and the ſame in ſuch places where ſuch acts happen, be ſo hardie to come before the kings iuſtices, or other of the kings miniſters dooing their office, with force and armes, nor bring no force in a fraie of the peace, nor to go nor ride armed by night nor by day in faires, markets, nor in preſence of the iuſtices or other miniſters, nor in no part elſe where, vpon paine to forfeite their armour to the king, and their bodies to priſon at the kings pleaſure. And that the kings iuſtices in their preſents, ſhiriffes, and other miniſters in their bailiwikes, lordes of franchiſes and their bailiffes in the ſame, and maiors and bailiffes of cities and boroughes within the ſame cities and boroughes, and boroughholders, and wardens of the peace within their wardes, ſhall haue power to execute this acte. And that the iuſtices aſſigned at their comming downe into the countrie, ſhall haue power to enquire how ſuch officers and lordes haue exerciſed their offices in this caſe, and to puniſh them whom they finde that haue not doone that that pertained to their office.

Chap. 4. Shiriffes. Bailiffes. Item becauſe the peace cannot be well kept without good miniſters, as ſhiriffes, bailiffes, and hundreders which ought to doo execution as well of the kings priuities as of other things touching our ſoueraigne lorde the king ⁊ his people: It is ordained ⁊ eſtabliſhed that the ſtatute made in the time of king Edward father to the king that now is, at Lincolne, conteining that ſhiriffes, hundreders, and bailiffes ſhall be of ſuch people, as haue lands in the ſame ſhires or bailiwikes: ſhall be obſerued in all points after the forme thereof. And that ſhiriffes and bailiffes of fee ſhall cauſe their counties and bailiwikes to be kept by ſuch as haue lands therein.

Chap. 5. Writs. Item where it was ordained by the ſtatute of Weſtminſter ſecond, that thoſe that will deliuer their writs to the ſhiriffe, ſhall deliuer them in the full countie or in the rier countie, and that the ſhiriffe or vnderſhiriffe ſhall thereupon make a bill: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed that at what time or place in the countie, a man dooth deliuer anie writ to the ſhiriffe or vnderſhiriffe, that they ſhall receiue the ſame writs, and make a bill after the forme contained in the ſame ſtatute, without taking anie thing therefore. And if they refuſe to make a bill, other that be preſent ſhall ſet to their ſeales. And if the ſhiriffe or vnderſhriffe doo not returne the ſaid writs, they ſhall be puniſhed after the forme contained in the ſame ſtatute. And alſo the iuſtices of aſſiſes ſhall haue power to enquire thereof at euerie mans complaint, and to award damages, as hauing reſpect to the delay and to the loſſe and perill that might happen.

Chap. 6. Peace. Item as to the keeping of the peace in time to come: it is ordained and enacted that the ſtatutes made in times paſt with the ſtatute of Wincheſter ſhall be obſerued and kept in euerie point. And where it is contained in the end of the ſaid ſtatute of Wincheſter, that the iuſtices aſſigned ſhall haue power to enquire of the defaults, and to report to the king in his parliament, and the king to remedie it, which no man hath yet ſeene: the ſame iuſtices ſhall haue power to puniſh the diſobeiers and reſiſters.

Chap. 7. Oyer and terminer. Item as to the puniſhment of felonies, robberies, manſlaughters, treſpaſſes, and oppreſſions of the people committed in times paſt: it is accorded that our ſoueraigne lorde the king ſhall aſſigne iuſtices in diuers places of his land within the kings bench and elſe where, as it was doone in the time of his ſaide graundfather of great men of the land, which be of great power, with ſome of the iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, with other learned men in the law, to enquire as well at the ſuite of the partie, as at the kings ſuite, and to heare and determine all maner of felonies, robberies, manſlaughters, theft, oppreſſions, conſpiracies, and greeuances doone to the people againſt the law, ſtatutes, and cuſtomes of the land, as well by the kings miniſters, as by other what ſo euer they be, and that as well within franchiſes as without. And alſo to enquire of ſhiriffes, coroners, vnderſhiriffes, hundreders, bailiffes, conſtables, and all other miniſters within liberties ⁊ without, and of their vnderminiſters. And to heare and determine at the kings ſuite and alſo the parties. And our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and all the great men of the realme in the full parliament, hath taken vpon them to maintaine and keepe the peace. And they and theirs to ſaue the kings iuſtices, and aide them where they come, ſo that the iudgement and executions be not let, but executed. And that the offenders be not hid by them nor maintained priuilie nor apertlie. But the entent of the king and of his counſell is not, that by this acte anie preiudice ſhould enſue to the great men of the land hauing liberties, nor to the citie of London, nor to other cities, nor burghes, nor to the fiue ports in the right of their franchiſe.

Chap. 8. Seale. Item it is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that it ſhall not be commaunded by the great ſeale nor the little ſeale, to diſturbe or delay common right. And though ſuch commaundements doo come: the iuſtices ſhall not therefore ceaſe to doo right in anie point.

Chap. 9. Staple. Item it is enacted, that the ſtaples beyond the ſea ⁊ on this ſide, ordained by kings in times paſt, and the paines thereupon prouided, ſhall ceaſe: And that all marchants ſtrangers and priuie may go and come with their marchandiſes into England after the tenure of the great charter, and that writs be thereupon ſent to all the ſhiriffes of England, and to maiors and bailiffes of good townes where neede ſhall require.

Chap. 10 Pardon. Item where as king Edward, father to the king that now is, did pardon his pople of iſſues and amerciaments, that were forfeite till the xx. yeare of the reigne of his father, graundfather to the king that now is: The king for eaſe of his people, hath pardoned all the fines that haue bene made in the chauncerie for to haue writs till the xx. yeare aforſaid.

Chap. 11 Common bench. Item where as by remouing of the common bench, the pleas haue often times abiden without day, to the great hurt and perill of diſheriſon of diuers: It is enacted that from henceforth the iuſtices, before that the common bench be remoued, ſhall be warned by a time, ſo that they may atorne the parties by ſuch time that they ſhall not leeſe their proces.

Cap. 12. Shiriffes. Item where as all the counties in England were in old time aſſeſſed to a certaine ferme, and then were all the hundreds and wapentakes in the ſhiriffes hands rated to this ferme: And afterward were approwers ſent into diuers counties, which did encreaſe the fermes of ſome dreds and wapentakes: And after that, the kings at diuers times haue graunted to manie men, part of the ſame hundredes and wapentakes for their olde fermes onelie. And nowe late the ſhiriffes be wholie charged of the encreaſe, which amounteth to a great ſumme, to the great hurt of the people, and diſheriſon of the ſhiriffes and their heires: It is ordeined, that the hundreds and wapentakes let to ferme by the king that nowe is, be it for terme of life or otherwiſe, which were ſometime annexed to the fermes of the counties where the ſhirifes be charged: ſhalbe ioined againe to the counties. And that the ſhiriffes and their heires haue allowance for the time that is paſt. And that from henceforth, ſuch hundreds & wapentaks ſhal not be giuen nor ſeuered from the counties.

Hundreds and wapentakes let to ferme

Cap. 13. Treſpaſſe.

Item it is accorded and enacted, that like proces ſhall be made of treſpaſſe done in the time of king Edwarde father to the king that nowe is: as of treſpaſſe done in the time of the king that nowe is.

Chap. 14

Meaſuring of clothes.

Item it is enacted by our ſouereigne lorde the king & his counſell, that from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming forward, all clothes in ſuch places where they ſhall be put to land, ſhall be meaſured by the kings aulnegeours in the preſence of the maior and bailiffes where there is a maior and where no maior is, in preſence of the bailiffes of the ſame places, that is to ſaie: the length of euerie cloth of raie, by a line of ſeuen yards, foure times meaſured by the lyſt, and the breadth of euerie raie cloth ſixe quarters of meaſure by the yarde. And of coloured clothes the length ſhall be meaſured by the backe by a line of ſixe yardes and an halfe, foure times meaſured, and the breadth ſixe quarters and an halfe meaſured by the yarde without defoiling the clothes. And that the maior and bailiffes where a maior is, or the bailiffes where no maior is, of the townes or places where ſuch clothes ſhall come, ſhall bee redie to make proofe what time they ſhall bee required by the meater, without taking anie thing of the marchantes. And clothes which bee of the ſaide aſſiſe, ſhall bee marked by the maior and bailiffes where a maior is, or by the bailiffes where there is no maior as well as by the aulnegour. And that all the clothes which ſhall bee found defectiue of the ſame aſſiſe, ſhall be forfeit to the king and priſed at their true value in the preſence of the ſaid maior and bailiffes. And to remaine with the aulnegours by indenture betwæne them to anſwere to the king of the ſaid clothes ſo forfeit. And that the maior and bailiffes ſhall deliuer the indentures made of ſuch clothes forfeit, euerie yeere into the eſchequer the morowe after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell, for to charge the ſaid alnegour. And at the ſame time ſhall the aulnegour bee put to anſwere at the eſchequer of the ſaide forfeitures. It is in the kinges minde and his counſelles that this act ſhall extend to ſuch clothes as ſhall come into the land after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell. And this act ſhall be publiſhed and proclaimed throughout the realme, ſo that no marchant priuie nor ſtranger ſhalbe ſuppriſed by this ſtatute.

Chap. 15

Faires.

Item it is eſtabliſhed, that it ſhall be commanded to al the ſhirifes of England, and elſe where, where néed ſhall require to crie & publiſh within liberties and without, that all the lords which haue faires, be it for yéelding certeine ferme for the ſame to the king, or otherwiſe: ſhal hold the ſame for the time that they ought to holde it, and no longer, that is to ſaie, ſuch as haue them by the kinges charters granted to them, for the time limitted by the ſaid charters. And alſo they that haue them without charter, for the time that they ought to holde them of right. And that euerie lord at the beginning of his faire ſhal there doe crie & publiſh, howe long the faire ſhal endure, to the intent that marchants ſhall not be at the ſame faires ouer the time ſo publiſhed, vpon paine to be græuouſlie puniſhed towardes the king. Nor the ſaid lords ſhall not hold them ouer the due time, vpon payne to ſeiſe the faires into the kings handes, there to remaine till they haue made a fine to the king for the offence, after it be duely founde that the lordes helde the ſame faires longer then they ought, or that the marchants hath ſitten aboue the time ſo cried and publiſhed.

Chap. 16 Enqueſts and iuries.

Item where as in a ſtatute made at Yorke in the time of the father of our ſouereigne lord the king that nowe is, it is conteined that enqueſtes and iuries, which be, and ſhall be hereafter to bee taken, requiring no great examination, ſhal be taken before one iuſtice of the place where the plea is, aioining to him one diſcret man of the countrie knight or other, ſo that a certaine daie be giuen in the benche, and a certeine daie and place in the countrie, in the preſence of the parties, if the demandant praie the ſame. And alſo the enqueſtes and iuries in plea of lande which require great examinations, ſhall be taken in the countrie in the ſaide forme, before two iuſtices of the bench: It is accorded and enacted that all ſuch enqueſtes, which are to bee taken hereafter in plea of lande, ſhall be taken as well at the requeſt of the tenant as of the demandant. All other proces according to the ſaid ſtatute in ſuch caſe ſaued and kept.

Cap. 17. Deceit.

Item it is enacted that a writ of diſceite ſhall be maintainable, and holde as wel in the caſe of garniſhment, touching plea of lande where ſuch garniſhment is giuen, as in caſe of ſummons in plea of land. Dated at Northampton.

A ſtatute made the fourth yeere of king Edward the third.

AT the parliament ſummoned at Weſtminſter, the mundaie next after the feaſt of ſaint Katerine, in the fourth yéere of the reigne of king Edwarde the thirde after the conqueſt, theſe thinges vnderwritten, at the requeſt of the commons bee eſtabliſhed and enacted by our ſouereigne lorde the king, his prelates, earles, and barons, and other of the ſame parliament, which thinges our ſouereigne lord the king will to be publiſhed and ſurelie obſerued in all his counties of England.

Chap. 1. Charters. FIrſt it is accorded that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſtes, and all other ſtatutes made as well in the time of the kings progenitors, as in the kings time that nowe is, be kept and mainteined in all points.

Chap. 2. Gaile deliuerie. Iuſtices of peace. Item it is ordeined that good and diſcréete perſons other then of the places, if they maie be founde ſufficient, ſhall be aſſigned in all the ſhires of England to take aſſiſes, iuries and certifications and to deliuer the iayles. And that the ſaide iuſtices ſhall take the aſſiſes, iuries, and certifications, and deliuer the iayles at the leaſt thrée times a yéere, and more often if néede be. Alſo there ſhall bee aſſigned good and lawfull men in euerie countie to kéepe the peace. And at the time of the aſſignementes mention ſhall bee made that ſuch as ſhall bee indited, or taken by the ſaide wardens ſhall not be let to mainpriſe by the ſhiriffes, nor by none other miniſters, if they bee not mainpernable by the lawe. Nor that ſuch as ſhall be indited ſhall not be deliuered but at the common law. And the iuſtices aſſigned, to deliuer the iailes, ſhall haue power to deliuer the ſame iailes of thoſe that ſhall be endited before the wardens of the peace. And that the ſaide wardeines ſhall ſende their enditementes before the iuſtices, and they ſhall haue power to enquire vpon ſhiriffes, iaylours and other in whoſe warde ſuch endited perſons ſhall be, if they make deliuerance or let to mainpriſe anie ſo indited, which be not mainpernable and to puniſh the ſaide ſhiriffes, iailours and other doing againſt this act.

Chap. 3. Takers & purueiors. Item where as the people hath bene greatlie gréeued becauſe that corne, heie, litture, beſtaile, and other maner of vittaile and goods of the people, hath bene taken in times paſt, as well by the takers and purueiors for the kinges houſe, as by other, for which no paiment was made, and becauſe alſo the takers and purueiors for the kings houſe, the quéenes houſe, and their children, hath taken corne at a leſſe value then it was worth, and alſo hath taken twentie one quarters of corne for twentie quarters, becauſe they meaſured euerie buſhell by heape, and alſo the takers and purueiors of heie and litture for the ſaid houſes, haue in times paſt made burdens of heie and litture at their owne willes, aſſeaſing euerie burden at an halfepenie: where it was worth more then two pence or thrée pence. And alſo aſſeaſed the cartes of heie and litture at a leſſe price, then they were worth: It is agréede that no perſon great nor ſmall of what eſtate or condition ſo euer hee bee, the takers and purueiors for the kinges houſe, the queenes, and their children onelie except, ſhall take anie corne, litture, or heie, nor beſtaile, vittailes nor none other goods or cattels from anie man, nor make carriage againſt the will of them to whom ſuch goods and carriage ſhall be. And that the ſaide takers and purueiors for the ſaide houſes, ſhall take them by meaſure according as is vſed throughout the realme. And that all the corne, heie, litture, beſtaile, and all other vittailes and thinges, what ſo euer they be that ſhall be taken for the ſaide houſes, ſhall bee from hence forth preiſed at the verie value by the conſtables and other good men of the townes where ſuch taking ſhall be. But the preiſers ſhall not be conſtreined by threats or dures to ſet anie price, other then their othes will. And that of all things which ſhall be taken for the ſaid houſes of the king, of the quéene, and of their children, the paiments be made before the king depart out of the verge.

Chap. 4. Item it is enacted that the article conteined in a ſtatute made in time of king Edward grandfather to our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, in the xxviii. yéere of his reigne, touching ſuch takings, be kept and mainteined in all points. The forme of which article enſueth in theſe wordes. Firſt of all becauſe one great greefe is in this realme, whereof riſeth infinite harmes, that is to ſaie: The king and his miniſters of his retinue, as well aliens as denizens to make their priſes where they go through the realme, and take the goods both of clarkes and laie people, without paieng therefore, or elſe leſſe then the true value: It is ordeined that from henceforth none ſhall take anie priſe throughout the realme, but onelie the kinges takers and purueiors for his houſe, and they ſhall nothing take but onelie for the ſame houſe. And of the priſes which they make in the countrie for meate or drinke, or other neceſſaries for the kinges houſe, they ſhall paie in hande, or elſe agrée with them from whom ſuch thinges ſhall be taken. Purueiors And that all the kinges takers purueiors and buiers, from henceforth haue their warrant with them, vnder the kinges great ſeale or ſmall ſeale, conteining their power, and the thinges whereof they ſhall make their priſe and purueiance, which warrant they ſhall ſhewe to them of whom they make their priſes, before they take anie thing. And that thoſe takers purueiors and buiers ſhall take no more, then ſhall bee néedefull for the king, and his houſe, and of his children. And that they take nothing for ſuch as be at wages, nor none other. And they ſhall anſwere in the kings houſe, and in the wardrobe whollie of all, and in none other place to make their larges or deliuerie of things taken for the king. And if anie taker of the kinges houſe by warrant, hath made anie priſe or liuerie, otherwiſe then is aforeſaide, the trueth ſhall bee enquired vpon complaint made to the ſtewarde or treaſurer of the kings houſe, and if anie thereof be attainted, amends ſhal be incontinentlie made to the partie plaintiffe, and he to be baniſhed the kings ſeruice for euer, and to remaine in priſon at the kings pleaſure. And if anie make anie priſe without warrant, and carie it awaie againſt his will, from whom the goods be taken: he ſhall be arreſted incontinentlie by the towneſhippe where the priſe was made, and brought to the next iaile. And if he be thereof attainted, it ſhall be done of him as of a theefe, if the quantitie of the goods that require.

Chap. 5. Pardon. Item our ſoueraigne lorde the king of his good grace hath pardoned to the knightes, and to all other of his realme, all the fines late made to him becauſe to bee diſpenſed of their going into Gaſcoine. And alſo the graunt that was made by the knights of the counties, for euerie towne an armed man. And the graunt made by the citizens and burgeſſes for the cities and burghes at the parliament of Wincheſter. And our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king will, that recogniſances made for the ſame cauſe, ſhall be adnulled and damned. And that the ſaid knights nor the people of the cities, burghes, and townes ſhall not be from henceforth charged by the ſaid graunts, but acquited of all. So that alwaies by reaſon of the ſaid pardon they ſhall be the more readie and of better will to graunt a couenant aide to the king, when he ſhall require them or haue to do thereof.

Chap. 6. Religious perſons.

Item it is accorded that the ſtatute late made and affirmed at Karlile, that religious perſons ſhould make no carriage beyond the ſea, ſhall be maintained, kept, and obſerued in all points

Chap. 7. Treſpas.

Item where as in times paſt executers haue not had actions for a treſpas done to their teſtators, as of the goods and cattels of the ſame teſtators carried away in their life, and to ſuch treſpaſſes haue hitherto remained vnpuniſhed: It is enacted that the executers in ſuch caſes ſhall haue an action againſt the treſpaſſers, and recouer their damages, in like maner as they, whoſe executors they be, ſhould haue had if they were in life.

Chap. 8. Paſſages.

Item where as before this time a horſeman was wont to haue his paſſage ouer the ſea from the port of Douer for ii. s. and a footeman for vi. d. and now late the keepers of the paſſage, and the paſſengers haue taken more, to the great damage of the people: It is agreed that at the ſame port, and all other paſſages of this land, aſwell in freſh waters as in armes of the ſea, they that do paſſe ſhall from henceforth pay as they were wont to paie in olde time, and of more ſhall they not be charged, nor the paſſengers nor keepers of the paſſage ſhall take no more. And be it commaunded to the conſtable of Douer, that he cauſe this article to be kept in his bailiwike, vpon the perill that thereto pertaineth. And if he finde anie offending this acte, he ſhall puniſh him at euerie mans ſuite that will thereof complaine, and do right. Be it alſo commaunded to the bailiffes of the places where ſuch paſſages be, that they ſhall do in like maner. And the iuſtices of aſſiſes in the counties ſhall haue power to enquire, if anie offend this ſtatute, and to puniſh them, and do right therein, aſwell at the kings ſuite, as at the ſuite of the partie.

Chap. 9. Shiriffes and bailiffes.

Item it is accorded that no ſhiriffe, bailiffe of hundred, wapentake, nor of franchiſe nor vndereſchetours ſhall be from henceforth, except he haue lands ſufficient in the places where they be miniſters, whereof to aunſwere the king and his people, in caſe that anie man complaine againſt them, as it was ordained an other time at the parliament holden at Lincolne, in the time of the kings father that now is, that is to ſay, in the ix. yeare of his reigne.

Cap. 10. Shiriffes and iaylers.

Item where as in times paſt ſhiriffes and iailers of iailes, would not receiue theeues, perſons appealed, endited or found with the maner, taken and attached by the conſtables and towneſhips without taking great fines and raunſomes of them for their receipt, whereby the ſaid conſtables and towneſhips haue bene vnwilling to take theeues and felons becauſe of ſuch importune charges, and the theeues and felons the more encouraged to offend: It is enacted that the ſhiriffes and iailers ſhall receiue and ſafelie keepe in priſon from henceforth ſuch theeues and felons, by the deliuerie of the conſtables and towneſhips, without taking anie thing for their receipt. And that the iuſtices aſſigned to deliuer the iailes, ſhall haue power to heare their complaints, that will complaine vpon the ſhiriffes and iailers in ſuch caſe, and moreouer to puniſh the ſhiriffes and iailers if they be found giltie.

Cha. 11. Maintainers, beaters, and conſpirators.

Item where in times paſt diuers people of the realme, aſwell great men as other, haue made aliances, confederacies, and conſpiracies to maintaine parties, pleas, and quarels, whereby diuers haue bene wrongfullie diſherited, and ſome raunſomed and deſtroied, and ſome for feare to be maimed and beaten, durſt not ſue for their right nor complaine, nor the iurers of enqueſts giue their verdits, to the great hurt of the people & diſclaunder of the law and commune right: It is accorded that the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, and the iuſtices of aſſiſes when ſo euer they come to hold their ſeſſions, or to take enqueſts vpon niſi prius, ſhall enquire here and determine, aſwell at the kings ſuite, as at the ſuite of the partie of ſuch maintainers, beaters, and conſpirators. And alſo of them that commit champertie, and of all other things contained in the ſaid article, as well as iuſtices in eire ſhould do, if they were in the ſame countie. And that that can not be determined before the iuſtices of the one bench or the other, vpon the niſi prius for ſhortnes of time, ſhall be aiourned into the places whereof they be iuſtices, and there be determined as right and reaſon ſhall require.

Champertie.

Cha. 12.

Wines.

Item becauſe there be more tauerners in the realme, than were wont to be, ſelling aſwell corrupt wines, as holſome, and haue ſold the galon at ſuch price as they themſelues would, becauſe there was no puniſhment ordained for them, as hath bene for them that haue ſould bread and ale, to the great hurt of the people: It is accorded, that a crie ſhall be made, that none be ſo hardie to ſell wines, but at a reaſonable price, regarding the price that is at the ports from whence the wines came, and the expences, as in cariage of the ſame from the ſaid ports to the places where they be ſold. And that aſſaie be made of ſuch wines. ii. times euerie yeare, once at Eaſter, and an other time at Michaelmas, and more often if neede be, by the lordes of the townes and their bailiffes, and alſo by the maior and bailiffes of the ſame townes. And all the wines that ſhall be found corrupt, ſhall be powred out, and the veſſels broken. And the channceller and treſurer, iuſtices of the one bench and the other, and iuſtices of aſſiſe, ſhall haue power to enquire vpon the maiors, bailiffes, and miniſters of townes, if they doo not according to this ſtatute. And beſides that to puniſh as reaſon ſhall require.

Cap. 13. Charter of Pardon. Item becauſe diuers charters of pardon, haue bene graunted of felonies, robberies, and manſlaughters, againſt the forme of the ſtatute late made at Northamton, conteining that no man ſhould haue ſuch charters out of the parliament, whereby ſuch miſdoers haue bene the more bold to offend: It is enacted, that from henceforth the ſame ſtatute ſhall be kept and maintained in all points.

Cap. 14. Parliament. Item it is accorded, that a parliament ſhall be holden euerie yeare once, or more often if neede be.

Cap. 15. Hundreds wapentakes. Item becauſe ſhiriffes haue before this time let hundreds and wapentakes in their bailiwikes, to ſo high ferme, that the bailiffes may not leuie the ſaid ferme, without dooing extortion and dures to the people: It is ordained, that the ſhiriffes ſhall from henceforth let their hundreds and wapentakes for the old ferme, and not aboue. And that the iuſtices aſſigned, ſhall haue power to enquire of the ſaid ſhiriffes, and puniſh them that ſhall be found offending this ſtatute.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the v. yeare of king Edward the third.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the morow after ſaint Michaell, in the v. yeare of the reigne of king Edward the third after the conqueſt: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aſſent of his prelats, earles, barons, and other great men of the realme there aſſembled, to the honor of God and of holie church, and at the requeſt of his commons, haue graunted and eſtabliſhed theſe thinges vnderwritten, which he will to be kept and maintained for euer.

Chap. 1. Charters. FIrſt it is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt ſhall be kept and firmelie maintained.

Chap. 2. Purueiors. Item where in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, at the parliament there ſommoned after the feaſt of ſaint Katherine, in the fourth yeare of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that now is, amongſt other thinges there enacted, it is conteined vpon the greeuances which the purueiors of the kings houſe, the queenes, and of their children, did to the people in outrageous meaſures of corne, and voluntarie taking of hey, litture, and other thinges prouided by the ſaid purueiors, that the takers and purueiors of corne for the ſaid houſes ſhould take them by meaſure rated, according as hath bene vſed through the realme. And that all the corne, hey, litture, beſtaile, and all other vittels and thinges to be taken for the ſame houſes, ſhould be taken at the true value by the conſtables and other good people of townes where ſuch priſes be, and that the priſers be not enforced by threates and dures, to aſſeſſe anie other price than their othe will. And in the ſame ſtatute is one article rehearſed, which was made in the time of king Edward graundfather to the king that now is, where certaine paines be limited againſt thoſe that late made purueiance for the ſaide houſes, which paines not regarded, the ſaid purueiors haue not let to make outrageous and vnlawfull priſes againſt the tenure of the ſaide ſtatute. To the honor and profite of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, and for the peace and quietnes of his people, and for to refraine and puniſh the enormities of thoſe that haue committed ſuch outrages, to the kings, the queenes and their childrens great diſclaunder: It is enacted, that the takers and purueiors for the ſaid houſes, ſhall make their purueiance by the conſtables and foure diſcreete men of the townes, where ſhall be ſuch priſes and purueiances, thereto ſworne and without manace, as in the ſaide ſtatutes is contained. And that alſo betwixt the purueiors and them whoſe goods ſhall be taken, in the preſence of the conſtables and preiſers, tailes ſhall be made and ſealed with the purueiors ſeale. By which tailes ſatiſfaction ſhall be made to them, from whome ſuch goods be taken. And if anie taker or purueior for the ſaid houſes, doo take in anie other maner, he ſhall be incontinentlie arreſted by the towne, where ſuch taking was made, and brought to the next taile. And if he be thereof attainted, it ſhall be doone of him as of a theefe, if the quantitie of the goods the ſame require. And from henceforth it ſhall be contained in the commiſſions of ſuch takers and purueiors, be they vnder the ſmall ſeale or the great, the forme and the paine contained in this ſtatute. And that in euerie caſe, where enqueſts be to be taken before the ſteward and marſhall of the kings houſe: that ſuch enqueſts be taken by men of the countrie thereabout, and not by men of the kings houſe, except it be of contracts, co-

Enqueſts.

uenants

tenants, or treſpaſſes made by men of the kinges houſe of either part, and that in the ſame houſe, according to an other ſtatute thereof made in the time of the ſaide Edwarde the grandfather. And in caſe where anie will complaine of error made in time of the ſaide king, before the ſaide ſtewarde and marſhall, the plaintiffe ſhall haue a writ to remoue the recorde and the proces before the king in his place, and there the errour ſhal be redreſſed. And likewiſe ſhall it be done in euerie other caſe, where anie man will complaine him of errour, done before the ſame ſteward and marſhall of the kings houſe. Error.

Chap. 3. Religious men. Item it is agreed, that the ſtatute made at Karlile, in the time of king Edwarde the kinges grandfather that nowe is, wherein is conteined that religious men ſhall make no cariage out of the realme, ſhall be holden, kept, and mainteined in all points.

Chap. 4. Shiriffes, vndereſchetors &c. Item it is enacted that no ſhiriffe, vndereſchetour, bailiffe of franchiſes, wapentakes, hundreds nor tithinges ſhall from henceforth bee, except he haue lands ſufficient in the ſame countie, whereof to anſwere the king and his people, if anie man will complaine.

Chap. 5. Faires. Item where it is conteined in the ſtatute made at Northamptom, in the ſeconde yéere of the reigne of the king that nowe is, that the lordes which haue faires by charters or otherwiſe, ſhall holde them during the time that they ought to doe, and no longer, vpon paine to ſeiſe ſuch faires into the kinges handes: And that euerie lorde at the beginning of his faire do crie and proclaime therein howe long the faire ſhall endure. And in the ſame ſtatute is no certeine puniſhment ordeined againſt the merchants if they ſell after the time: It is accorded that the ſaide marchantes after the ſaide time, ſhall cloſe their boothes and ſtalles without putting anie maner of ware or marchandize to ſell there. And if it bee founde that anie marchant from henceforth ſell anie ware or marchandize at the ſaide faires, after the ſaide time, ſuch marchant ſhall forfeite to our ſouereigne lorde the king, the double value of that that is ſolde. And euerie man that will ſue for our ſouereigne lorde the king ſhall be receiued, and alſo haue the fourth part of that that is loſt at his ſuite.

Chap. 6. Iuries. Item where as iurours haue the leſſe doubted to bee periured, by reaſon of the long delaies that haue bene in attaintes, before the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, and before other iuſtices: It is enacted that no eſſoine of the kings ſeruice, nor protection ſhall be from henceforth allowed in ſuch iuries, no more then in aſſiſes of nouell diſſeiſin. And that fiue daies by the yere be giuen before the iuſtices of the common bench in the ſaide iuries at the leaſt. And that a Niſi prius be as well giuen in ſuch writs as in other.

Chap. 7. Attaint. Item where as it is conteined in a ſtatute late made at Weſtminſter, in the firſt yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is after his coronation, that attaintes ſhould be granted in writs of treſpas: It is accorded & eſtabliſhed that writs of attaint ſhall bee from henceforth graunted as well in pleas of treſpaſſe moued without writ, as by writ before iuſtices of record: if the damages iudged do paſſe xl.s. And this ſtatute ſhall holde place as well of enqueſtes taken in times paſt as to be taken in time to come.

Chap. 8. Baile. Marſhall. Item where as perſons endited of felonies, robberies, and theft, in times paſt haue remoued the ſame enditement before the king, and there yéelded them ſelues, And the marſhalles of the kinges bench haue bene incontinentlie let to bayle. And afterward haue done manie euill déedes, and lyen in a waite to ſlea and euill entreate their enditours. And alſo perſons appealed of felonie, after the exigende awarded, haue yéelded them ſelfe before the king, and haue bene let to bayle by the ſaide marſhalles: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed that ſuch endites and appeles ſhall be ſafelie and ſurelie kept in priſon, as belongeth after the charge, as the ſayd marſhalles ſhall haue of the iuſtices. And if anie marſhall doe otherwiſe, at the complaint of euerie man that will complaine: the iuſtice ſhall doe him right during the terme. And that in the ende of the terme, the ſaide marſhalles ſhall chooſe before the ſaide iuſtices, before they depart the places, in what towne they will kéepe ſuch pryſoners at their perill. And in the ſame towne they ſhall allowe to them houſes to kéepe ſuch pryſoners at their owne coſtes and charges, and there they ſhall kéepe them in pryſon, and ſhall not ſuffer them to goe wandering abroade, nor by bayle nor without bayle. And if anie ſuch pryſoner bée founde wandering out of pryſon by bayle or without bayle, and that be founde at the kinges ſuite, or at the ſuite of the partie: The marſhalles which ſhall be thereof founde guiltie, ſhall haue halfe a yeeres impriſonment. And beſides that to bee raunſomed at the kinges will. And the iuſtices ſhal thereof make enquirie when they ſée time. And as to the marſhalles, It ſhall be done within the verge that that reaſon will. And in caſe that the marſhalles ſuffer by their aſſent ſuch priſoners to eſcape, they ſhall be at the lawe as before this time they haue bene. And the king intendeth not by this ſtatute to loſe the eſcape where he ought to haue the ſame.

Chap. 9. Attachment. Item it is enacted, that no man from henceforth ſhall be attached by anie accuſation, nor foriudged of life nor of limme, nor his landes, tenementes, goods nor cattelles ſeiſed into the kinges handes, againſt the forme of the great charter and the lawe of the land.

Chap. 10. Iurors. Item it is accorded, that if anie iuror, in aſſiſes iuries or enqueſtes, take of the one partie or of the other, and be thereof duelie attainted, that hereafter he ſhall not be put in anie aſſiſes, iuries or enqueſtes, and neuertheleſſe he ſhall be commaunded to priſon, and further raunſomed at the kinges will. And the iuſtices before whom ſuch aſſiſes, iuries and enqueſtes ſhall paſſe, ſhall haue power to inquire and determine, according to this ſtatute.

Chap.11 Item where in times paſt ſome perſons appealed or endited of diuers felonies in one countie, or oulawed in the ſame countie, haue bene dwelling, or receiued in an other countie, whereby ſuch felonous perſons indited and outlawed haue bene incouraged in their miſcheefe, becauſe they may not be attached in an other countie. It is enacted, that the iuſtices aſſigned to heare and determine ſuch felonies, ſhall direct their writ to all the counties of Englande where neede ſhall be, to take ſuch perſons indited.

Enditements.

Chap.12 Item it is eſtabliſhed and ordeined, that in caſe where the plaintiffe ſhal recouer damages, and he againſt whom the damages be recouered, be outlawed at the kings ſuite. That no charter of pardone ſhall be graunted of this outlawrie, except the chauncellour be certified, that the plaintiſe is ſatiſfied of his damages. And in caſe that a man be outlawed by proces before his appearance, no ſuch charter ſhall be graunted, except the chauncellour be certified that ſuch perſon outlawed hath yeelded him ſelfe to the priſon before the iuſtices of the place, from whence the writ of Exigende iſſued, that is to ſaie, if from the kings bench, then he ſhall yeelde him in the ſame place: And if from the common bench, then hee ſhall yeelde him ſelfe there. And if from the iuſtices of oyre and terminer, whiles the ſame iuſtices do ſit, he ſhall yeelde him before them. And if they be riſen, then he ſhall yeelde him in the kinges bench before the iuſtices. And the recorde with the proces to be remoued before them by writ, and the ſaide iuſtices before whom, they ſhall ſo yeelde them, ſhall cauſe the partie plaintiffe to be warned to appeare before them at a certeine daie, at which daie if the warning be duelie witneſſed, and the plaintiffe appeare vpon his warning, then they ſhall pleade vpon the firſt originall writ, as though no outlagarie had bene pronounced. And if the plaintiffe come not, he that is outlawed ſhall be deliuered by vertue of his charter. And it is to be vnderſtanded, that all ſuch charters be of the grace of the king, as before they haue bene.

Charter.

Outlawry.

Chap.13 Item where as diuers being duelie outlawed, haue auoided the outlagaries pronounced againſt them, by reaſon of impriſonments, vntruelie witneſſed by ſhiriffes and other, which haue no recorde: It is enacted, that if anie from henceforth will defete anie outlagarie pronounced vpon him by ſuch witneſſing, that he ſhall yeeld him ſelfe to the priſon, and then the iuſtices of the kings bench ſhall cauſe the partie, at whoſe ſuite the outlagarie was pronounced, to be warned to be before them at a certeine day, at which daie if the partie will veriſie that the witneſſing is vntrue, his auerment ſhall be receiued. And in like maner the kings ſerieant or his atturnie or other that wil ſue for the king, ſhalbe receiued to haue the ſame auerment againſt ſuch witneſſing, in caſe where ſuch outlagarie is pronounced at the kings ſuite.

Outlawrie

Auerment.

Chap.14 Item where as in the ſtatute made at Wincheſter, in the time of king Edward grandfather to the king that nowe is, it is conteined, that if anie ſtraunger paſſe by the countrie in the night, of whom anie hath ſuſpition, he ſhall bee areſted and deliuered to the ſhiriffe, and remaine in warde till he be duelie deliuered. And becauſe there hath bene diuerſe manſlaughters, felonies and robberies done in times paſt, by people that be called Roberdeſemen, waſtes, and drawlaches: It is accorded that if anie man haue anie euil ſuſpition of ſuch, be it by daie or by night, they ſhalbe incontinentlie arreſted by the conſtables of the townes. And if they bee arreſted within franchiſes, they ſhall be deliuered to the bailiffes of the franchiſe. And if in the gildable, they ſhall be deliuered to the ſhiriffes, and kept in priſon till the comming downe of the iuſtices of the iayle deliuerie, and in the meane time the ſhiriffes or bailiffes of the fraunchiſes ſhall inquire of ſuch arreſtes, and at the comming of the ſaide iuſtices, returne their enqueſtes before them, with that that they haue found, and the cauſe of the takings with the bodies, and that the iuſtices ſhall procéede to the deliuerance of ſuch perſons arreſted after the lawe. And in caſe that the ſhiriffes or bailiffes of the fraunchiſes haue not inquired of ſuch arreſtes, they ſhall be amercied, and neuertheleſſe the iuſtices ſhall make enquirie and further proceed to the deliuerance as before is ſaide.

Nightwalkers.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Yorke in the ix. yeere of king
Edward the third.

Where as before this time in manie parliamentes, and nowe at this preſent parliament ſummoned at Yorke, on the morowe after the Aſſention, in the ix. yeere of the reigne of king Edwarde the thirde after the conqueſt, It was ſhewed to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, by the knights of the ſhires, citizens of the cities, and burgeſſes of the boroughes, which commeth for the commons of the ſayde ſhires, cities and boroughes, that in diuerſe cities boroughes and other places of his realme, great dures and greeuous damage was done to him and his people, by ſome people of cities, boroughes, ports of the ſea, and other places of the ſaide realme, which in long time paſt hath not ſuffered nor yet will ſuffer marchantes ſtraungers, nor others which doe carie and bring in by ſea or by lande, wines, auoyr de poys, and other liuinges and vittailes, with diuerſe other thinges, to bee ſolde neceſſarie and profitable for the king, his prelates, earles, barons, and other noble men and the commons of his realme, to ſell or deliuer ſuch wines, liuings, vittailes nor other things, to anie other then to them ſelfe of the ſame cities, boroughes, portes of the ſea, or other places where ſuch wines, liuings, vitailes, and other things to be ſolde, ſhall be brought or caried, by reaſon whereof, ſuch ſtuffe aforeſaide is ſolde to the king and to his people, in the handes of the ſayde citizens,burgeſſes,and other people denizens,more deerer than they ſhould be, if ſuch merchants ſtrangers,and other which bringeth ſuch things into the realme, might freely ſell them to whom they would, to the great dammage of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and of his prelates, earles,barons,and other nobles of his realme,& greeuous oppreſſion of his commons, whereupon the ſaide knightes, citizens and burgeſſes for them, and the commons deſired our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king in his ſaid parliament by their petition, that for his profit and the commoditie of his prelates,earles,barons,nobles and commons of his realme,it may pleaſe him without further delay, vpon the ſaid greuances and ourage to prouide remedie.

Chap. 1

OUR ſoueraigne lord the king, deſiring the profit of his people, by the aſſent of his prelates, earles,barons,and other nobles of his realme,ſummoned at his parliament, and by the aduiſe of his counſel being there, vpon the ſaid things diſcloſed to him and found true, to the great hurt of the ſaid prelates,earles, barons, and other nobles of his realme, & oppreſſion of his commons, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed that all merchants ſtrangers and denizens,and all other and euerie of them of what eſtate or condition ſo euer they be, that will buy or ſell corne,Wines,auer de poys, fleſh,fiſh,and all other liuings and victuals, wolles, clothes, and all other things vendible,from whence ſo euer they come by forreines or denizens, at what place ſo euer it be, citie, borough, towne,port of the ſea, faire, market,or elſe where within the realme,within franchiſe or without: maie freely without interruption ſell them to what perſons it ſhall pleaſe them as well to forreines as to denizens. Except alwaies the enimies of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and of his realme. And if haply anie diſturbance be done to anie merchant ſtranger or denizen, or anie other for the ſale of ſuch things in anie citie,borough,town,port of the ſea,or other place which hath franchiſe,and the maiors and bailifes,or other which haue the rule of ſuch franchiſe, being required by the ſaid merchants or other,thereof to prouide remedie,and doth not, and be thereof attainted, the franchiſe ſhall be ſeiſed into the kings hands. And neuertheleſſe he and the other which hath done this diſturbance againſt this ſtatute,ſhall be bound to yeeld and reſtore to the ſaid merchant his double dammages which he hath thereby ſuſteined. And if ſuch diſturbance or interruption be done to ſuch merchants, or to other in ſuch townes or places where no franchiſe is. And the lord if he be preſent, or his bailife, conſtable, or other ruler of the ſaide townes and places, in the abſence of the ſaid lords, being therein required to do right, and doth not, and thereof be attainted, they ſhall yeelde to the partie plaintife his double dammages as afore is ſaid. And the diſturbers in the one caſe and the other, as well within the franchiſe as without, if they be attainted, ſhall haue one yeeres impriſonment. And neuertheleſſe to be raunſommed at the kings will. Alſo it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed that none alien or denizen vpon the ſame peine ſhall not be troubled, but that he may freely buy ſuch things aforeſaide, in the ſaide places and carrie them where pleaſeth him, to his owne vſe, or to the profit of the king, or of the great men, or commons of the realme. Sauing that ſuch merchants aliens, ſhall carrie no Wine out of the ſame realme, as is conteined in their charter. And it is enacted that the things aforeſaide, ſhall be ſurely obſerued and kept in euerie citie, borough, towne, port of the ſea, and other place within the realme, notwithſtanding charters of franchiſe granted to them to the contrarie, nor vſage nor cuſtome nor iudgement giuen vpon their charters,vſages,or cuſtomes that they can alledge. Which charters, vſages,and cuſtomes if anie be, our ſoueraigne lord the king,his prelates, earles, barons, great men,and the commons aforeſaid holdeth them of no force nor effect, as things graunted, vſed or accuſtomed,to the derogation of the king and of his prelates, earles, barons, and great men of this realme,and to the oppreſſion of the commons. Saued alwaies to the king and to other, the cuſtomes due of the ſaid merchandiſes. It is alſo ordeined and prouided,that the chauncellor,treaſurer,& the Iuſtices aſſigned to hold the kings pleas,where they come, ſhall inquire of ſuch diſturbances and greeuance,& the ſame to puniſh according as is before ordeined. And neuertheleſſe the king ſhall aſſigne by commiſſion of his great ſeale certaine perſons, where and when ſhall pleaſe him,to enquire of ſuch diſturbances and greuance,and the ſame to puniſh as afore is ſaid.

Merchāts ſtrangers.

Franchiſe.

Cap. 2.
Nonpleuin.

Item at the requeſt of the commons aforeſaid,made at the ſaid parliament: our ſoueraigne lord the king for the eaſe of his people,by the aſſent of the prelates,earles,barons,and other great men, and the commons aforeſaid, hath put out nonpleuin of land, which hath beene accuſtomed in the time of his progenitors and his owne time, and the paine alſo that was wont to enſue in caſe the land was not pleuied in due time: Alſo it is enacted that none ſhall loſe his land from henſforth becauſe of nonpleuin. And that this ſtatute hold place as well in pleas yet hanging, wherein is no iudgement giuen,as in time to come.

Cap. 3.

Item at the requeſt of the ſaid commons made to our ſoueraigne lord the king in his ſaid parliament: It is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aſſent of his prelates,earles,barons, and other great men,and the commons aforeſaid, that in a writ of debt brought againſt diuers executors,the ſame executors,nor none of them ſhall haue but one eſſoine before apparance,that is to ſaie,at the ſommons or attachement, nor after apparance they ſhall haue but one eſſoine,as the teſtator ſhould haue, ſo that al the executors do repreſent the perſon of their teſtator as one perſon. It is alſo enacted that though the ſhirife do anſwere at the ſommons that ſome of them haue nought where he may be ſommoned: yet there ſhall be an attachment awarded vpon him. And if the ſhirife anſwere,that he hath nought whereby he may be attached: a great diſtreſſe ſhall be awarded,ſo that at the great diſtreſſe returned vpon them,he or they that do firſt apeere in the court, ſhal anſwer to the pleintife. And although ſome of them hath appeered in the court & make default at the daie, that the great diſtreſſe is returned vpon the other: yet neuertheleſſe, he or they ſhall be put to anſwere that firſt appeered, at the great diſtreſſe returned. And in caſe the iudgement paſſe for the pleintife, he ſhall haue his iudgement & execution againſt them that haue pleaded, according to the law heretofore vſed, & againſt all the other named in the writ, of the goods of the teſtator, aſwel as if they had al pleaded. And it is to be vnderſtanded, that if anie in ſuch caſe will ſue after the law that hath beene vſed heretofore: he may freely do it notwithſtanding this ſtatute.

Executors

Eſſoine.

Chap. 4. Deedes Franchiſe. Item where as in times paſt manie haue been oftentimes delaied of their action, aſwel in aſſiſes & other pleas of land, as in contracts, couenants, & treſpaſſes, by reaſon that the tenants or defendants haue put in barre a releas, quite claime, or other eſpecial deed, made within a franchiſe within the bounds of the realme, where the kings writ runneth not: It is enacted & eſtabliſhed, that when anie ſuch deeds be put forth in barre of anie action, bearing date in a place within ſuch franchiſe, although there be witneſſes of the ſame franchiſes named in the ſame deedes, if the ſame deeds be denied: proces ſhalbe made into the ſame county, where the plea ſhalbe moued to haue the enqueſt of the countrie, & the witneſſes: & if the witneſſes come not at the great diſtres returned, then for the abſence of the witneſſes, the iuſtices ſhal not let to proceed to the taking of the enqueſt, aſwell as if ſuch deede did beare date in the ſame ſhire where the plea was moued, and that the witneſſes were of the ſame countie.

Chap. 5. Records & proceſſes. Item at the requeſt of the ſame commons our ſoueraigne lord the king by the ſaid aſſent hath ordeined & eſtabliſhed, that iuſtices of aſſiſes, gaoldeliuerie, & of oyer & terminer, ſhal ſend al their records & proceſſes, determined & put in execution, to the eſchequer at Michaelmas euerie yeere once, to be deliuered there, & the treaſurer and chamberlaines which for the time ſhal be, hauing the ſight of the commiſſions of ſuch iuſtices, ſhal receiue the ſame records & proceſſes of the ſaid iuſtices vnderneath their ſeales, & keep them in the treaſurie as the maner is. So that the iuſtices alwaies do firſt take out the eſtretes of the ſaid records & proceſſes againſt them to ſend to the eſchequer as they were wont before.

The Statute of money made at Yorke in the ix. yeere of King Edward the third.

EDward by the grace of God king of England &c. To the ſhirif of N. greeting. Becauſe we haue perceiued, that diuerſe people beyond the ſea do indeuor themſelfe to counterfait our good ſterling money of England, & to ſend into England their weake money in deceit of vs, & derogation and oppreſſion of our people, if remedie be not the ſooner prouided: we willing to preuent & let al ſuch deceites, dammage, & oppreſſions, & that our good money be encreaſed in our realm, & other countries within our power, to the profit of vs & our ſubiects, by the aſſent of the prelats, earls, barons, & other great men of our realm, at our parliament holden at York, the morow of the aſſention laſt paſt ther aſſembled, haue ordeined and eſtabliſhed theſe things vnderwritten.

Chap. 1 Money & plate. FIrſt it is prouided, that from henſforth no religious man, nor other, ſhall carrie anie ſterling out of the realme of England, nor ſiluer in plate, nor in veſſel of gold nor of ſiluer, vpon peine of forfeiture of the money, plate, or veſſel, that he ſhall ſo carrie without our eſpecial licence.

Cap. 2. Falſe money. Item that no falſe money nor counterfait ſterling be brought into our realme, nor elſwhere within our power, vpon peine of forfeiture of ſuch money. Prouided alwaies that al maner people, of what realne or dominion they be of, may ſafely bring to the exchanges, and to no place elſe, bullion, ſiluer in plate, veſſel of ſiluer, and all maner money of ſiluer, of what value ſo euer it be, ſo that it be no falſe money, & ſterling counterfait, & there they ſhall receiue good and conuenient exchange.

Cap. 3. Halfpence and ferthings. Item that no ſterling halfepenie nor farthing be molten, for to make veſſel or anie other thing by goldſmithes nor other, vpon forfeiture of the money ſo molten, and that the goldſmith or other which hath ſo molten ſuch money ſhall be committed to priſon, there to remaine till he hath yelden vnto vs the one halfe of that that he hath ſo molten, notwithſtanding anie charter or franchiſe graunted or vſed to the contrarie.

Cap. 4. Black money. Item that all maner of blacke money, which haue beene commonly currant of late in our realme and obeiſance, be vtterlie excluded, ſo that none ſuch ſhal be currant after a moneth next after the cry thereof made, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame money.

Cap. 5. Suite. Item euerie man that will ſue for vs againſt thoſe that commit anie fraud againſt this ordinance, ſhalbe thereto receiued. And he to haue the fourth penie of that that ſhall be ſo atchiued at his ſuite to our profit.

Cap. 6. Othe. Item that the maiors and bailifes in euerie port, where merchants and ſhips be, ſhall take an othe of the merchants and maiſters of the ſhips going and comming againe, that they ſhall do no fraud againſt this prouiſion in anie point.

Cap. 7. Exchange. Item that the tables of exchange ſhall be at Douer, and in other places, where and when it ſhall pleaſe vs and our counſell to make exchanges. And that the wardeins of ſuch tables ſhall make ſuch exchanges by the teſtimonie of controllers which we ſhall put to them.

Cap. 8. Pilgrims. Item that no pilgrim ſhall paſſe out of our realme to the parties beyond the ſea, but onely to Douer, vpon peine of a yeres impriſonment.

Cap. 9. Item that good and ſtrait ward be made in all places vpon the ſea coſtes in hauens, and els where anie ariuall is by good men and lawfull thereto ſworne, that in our name they ſhall make diligent ſearch, that no man of what eſtate or condition he be, ſhall carie out of the realme ſterling money, ſiluer, or plate, nor in veſſell of gold, nor of ſiluer, without our licence, nor ſhall not bring into our ſaid realme and power anie falſe money and counterfeit ſterling, as afore is ſaid vpon the paines and forfeitures aforeſaid. And that the money, plate, or veſſell ſo forfeit, be deliuered at the exchanges by indenture, whereof the one part ſhall remaine with the ſerchers, and be deliuered at the eſchequer, and thereby the warden of the exchange ſhall be charged of that that he hath receiued.

Money and plate.

Falſe money.

Cap. 10. Serchers.

Item the ſerchers ſhall haue of our gift the fourth penie for their labour, of aſmuch as they ſhall find ſo forfeit. And if anie ſuch ſerchers make anie releaſe, or do diſpence with anie, and thereof be atteined, they ſhall forfeit all their goods.

Cha. 11. Hoſtelers.

Item the hoſtelers in euerie port where anie paſſage is, ſhall be ſworne, to ſerch their geſtes in the ſame maner, as the ſerchers do, and they to haue the fourth penie of that that they ſhall find ſo forfeit to vs, as the ſerchers ſhould haue. And it is our entent and meaning, that the ſaid ſerchers ſhall haue power to ſearch the hoſtries, and to inſtruct them ſelues of the hoſtelers acts. And in caſe ſuch hoſtelers be found defectiue in anie article aforeſaid, they ſhall be puniſhed, and that they ſhall runne in the ſaid forfeitures. Wherefore we do commande firmelie, enioyning that incontinentlie vpon the ſight of theſe letters, all the ſaid points and articles be cried and publiſhed in cities, boroughs, marchant townes, and all other places through your bailiweeke, aſwell within franchiſe as without where it ſhall ſeeme to you conuenient to be done.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the x. yeer. of king Edward the third.

BEcauſe our ſoueraigne lord the king, Edward the third, after the conqueſt, which ſoueraignely deſireth the maintenance of his peace, and ſauegard of his people, hath perceiued at the complaint of the prelates, earles, barons, & alſo at the ſhewing of the knights of the ſhires, & his commons by their petition put in his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the mondaie, next after Lent, in the x. yeere of his raigne, diuers oppreſſions and grieuances done to his ſaid people. And namelie by murtherers, robbers, theeues, rauiſhers of women, and other felons: Coueting to obuent the malice of ſuch felons, and for to ſee a couenable remedie, hath ordeined & eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the ſaid prelates, earles, barons, and other nobles of his realme, and at the requeſt of the ſaid knights, and commons, for the quietnes and peace of his people, that the articles vnderneth written be kept and maintained in all points.

Chap. 1. Charters.

FIrſt it is accorded and eſtabliſhed that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, and alſo the ſtatutes made in the time of the kings progenitours, and alſo in his owne time, be kept, holden, and firmelie maintained, aſwell by the great men as the ſmall, and the rich men as the poore.

Chap. 2. Charters of pardon.

Item where as murtherers, robbers, and other felons be greatly encouraged to offend, by reaſon the charters of pardon of manſlaughter, robberie, felonies, and other treſpaſſes againſt the peace, haue bene ſo lightly granted before this time: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed by our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aſſent of his prelates, earles, and barons, and at the requeſt of the ſaid knights, and commons, that no ſuch charters from henceforth ſhall be granted by our ſoueraigne lord the king, againſt the forme of the ſtatute late made at Northampton, the ſecond yeere of his raigne.

Cha. 3. Charters.

And as to charters granted in times paſt, It is accorded and eſtabliſhed by our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the ſame aſſent, and at the requeſt aforeſaid, that all ſuch which haue ſuch charters, ſhall come before the ſhirifes and coroners of the counties, where the felonies be done, betweene this and the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming, and euery of them ſhall find before the ſaid ſhirifes and coroners of the counties, where the felonies be done, his good and ſufficient mainpernours, for whom the ſaid ſhirifes & coroners will anſwere, that they from henceforth ſhall beare them ſelues well and lawfullie. And the mainpriſes ſhall be ſealed with their ſeales, and returned in the chancerie at the xv. of the ſaid feaſt of ſaint John. And they that will aide them ſelfe by ſuch charters, and haue not found mainpriſe, as aboue is ſaid, or after the mainpriſe found, beare them ſelues otherwiſe againſt the peace, then they ought, their charters ſhall be holden for none. And in caſe that our ſoueraigne lord the king grant anie ſuch charters in time to come, that within three moneths after the making of the ſame, they that haue the ſaid charters, ſhall come and finde before the ſaid ſhirifes and coroners of the ſaid counties, where the felonies be done, ſuch mainpriſe, and alſo as before is ſaid of their good bearing. And be the ſaid mainpriſes ſealed and returned in the chancerie within three weekes after the end of the ſaid three monethes. And if they that ſhall haue ſuch charters will in time to come aide themſelues thereby, and haue not found ſuch mainpriſes, or after ſuch mainpriſes found, do beare them otherwiſe againſt the peace then they ought, their charters ſhall be holden for none, as afore is ſaid.

Good abearing.

Mainpriſe.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of Purueiors for the kings houſe, and of other articles made at Weſtminſter the ſame tenth yeere.

THis be the things accorded in the parliament of our ſoueraigne lord king Edward the third after the conqueſt, holden at Weſtminſter, the mondaie next after the halfe of lent, in the x. yeere of his raigne, by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, of the aſſent of the prelates, earles, barons, & alſo at the requeſt of the knights of the ſhires, and the commons by their petitions put in the ſaid parliament.

Chap.1. Purueiours.

FIrſt it is accorded, that for to repreſſe the malice of the purueiours of the kings, queenes, and their childrens houſes, and of other dureſſes by them done to the ſaid people, by their outrageous takings for the ſame houſes, and otherwiſe than is contained in the article in a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the v. yeere of the kings raigne that now is, in forme as hereafter followeth, the ſame ſtatute ſhall be from henceforth publiſhed, kept, and holden in all points. Where as in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, at the parliament ſommoned there after the feaſt of Saint Catherine, in the iiii. yeere of the kings raigne that now is, amongſt other things there accorded and eſtabliſhed, it is contained, that vpon the grieuances, which the purueiours of the kings, queenes, and there childrens houſes did to the people, in outrageous meaſure of corne, and alſo in wilfull tailing of hey, litture. &c. prouided by the ſame purueiours. Be it eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid purueiours and takers of corne for the ſaid houſes of the king, and queene, ſhall take the ſame by the meaſure ſtriked, according as is vſed throughout the realme. And that all the corne, hey, litture, and beſtaile, and all other vitaile, and things whatſoeuer they be, to be taken for the ſame houſes ſhall be taken at the true valure by the conſtables and other good people of the townes, where ſuch takings ſhall be made, without that that by manace or dures the takers ſhall be driuen to ſet other price than their othe will. And where as in the ſame ſtatute an article was rehearſed, which was made in the time of the good memorie of the king grandfather to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, where certaine peines be conteined againſt thoſe, which do vnduelie make purueiance for ſuch houſes, for which peines the purueiours of the ſaid houſes haue not let to make outrageous and vndue takings, againſt the tenor of the ſaid ſtatutes: To the honour and profite of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and for the quietnes and tranquillitie of his people, and for to reſtraine, and alſo to puniſh the miſdemeanor of them that haue made ſuch outrages, in ſlaunder of the king, the queene his companion, and their children: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that the takings and purueiances ſhall be made for the ſaid houſes, by takings made by the conſtables & foure diſcreete men of the townes, where ſuch takings and purueiances ſhalbe made, ſworne, and without manace, as in the ſaid ſtatutes is conteined. And that betwixt the purueiours, and thoſe whoſe goods ſhalbe taken, in the preſence of the conſtables, and preiſers, tailes ſhalbe made, ſealed with the ſeales of the takers of the things ſo taken, by which tailes contentation ſhall be made to them, of whom the things ſhalbe ſo taken. And if anie purueiour or taker for the ſaid houſes do otherwiſe, he ſhalbe incontinentlie arreſted by the towne, wher the taking ſhall be made, & brought to the next iayle. And if he be therof attainted there, be it done of him as of a thiefe, if the quantitie of the goods the ſame require. And from henceforth be it conteined in the commiſſions of ſuch takers and purueiours, be they vnder the great ſeale or the ſmall, the forme and the peine conteined in this ſtatute.

Chap.2. Enqueſts.

Item in euerie caſe, where enqueſts be to be takin before the ſteward or marſhal of the kings houſe, the ſame enqueſts ſhall be taken by people of the countrie thereabout, & not by people of the kings houſe, except it be of contracts, couenants, or treſpaſſes made by people of the ſame houſe, according to the ſtatute thereof an other time made, in the time of the ſame king the grandfather.

Cha. 3. Error.

Item in caſe where a man will complaine of error, made before the ſaid ſteward & marſhall, the plaintife ſhall haue a writ, to make the record and the proces to come before the king in his place, and there the error ſhall be redreſſed. And ſo be it done in euerie caſe, where a man will complaine of error made before the ſaid ſteward and marſhall of the kings houſe.

Chap.4. Horſes.

Item it is accorded, for the great grieuances that the kepers of the kings great horſes haue done to the people, as our ſoueraigne lord the king hath perceiued by the ſhewing of the ſaid commons, that purueiances from henceforth to be made for the ſaid horſes, as long as they do ſoiourne in anie parties, ſhalbe made by the ſhirifes of the counties, where the ſaid horſes ought ſo to ſoiourne and not by other. And that the commiſſions made afore this time to ſuch keepers, ſhall be from henceforth of none effect and vtterlie repealed. And that the purueiances to be made by the ſaid ſhirifes in this caſe, ſhall be deliuered to the ſaid keepers by indentures.

Chap. 5.

Item it is accorded, that certaine people ſhall be aſſigned to here and determine all the offences done by the ſaid keepers, aſwell at the ſuite of the king, as of the partie. How be it this is holden for no ſtatute as it appeareth by the rolle.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the xi. yeere of king Edward the third.

Chap.1. Wolles.

IT is accorded by our ſoueraigne lord the king, his prelates, earles, and barons, with the aſſent of the commons in the parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter, the mondaie next after the feaſt of S. Matthie the Apoſtle, in the xi. yere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king, that no marchant forreine or denizen, nor none other, of what eſtate or condition that hee bee, vpon peine of forfeiture of life & of member, & of as much as he maie forfeit towards our ſoueraigne lord the king, ſhall bring or cauſe to be brought, by him ſelfe nor by other, priuilie nor apertlie from henceforth anie wolles out of the realme, till by the king and his counſell it be thereof otherwiſe prouided.

Item

Cap.2. Cloth.

Item it is accorded, that no man nor woman great nor ſmall of Englande,Irelande, nor Wales,nor of our ſoueraigne lord the kings power in Scotland, of what eſtate or condition he be,the king,queéne, and their children onlie except,ſhall were no cloth, which ſhall be bought after the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming,other than is made in Englande, Irelande, Wales,or Scotland within the kings power,vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth, & further to be puniſhed at the kings wil. And that in the ſaid lands of England,Ireland,Wales, & Scotland within the kings power,a man may make the clothes as long and as ſhort as a man will.

Cap.3. Outlandiſh clothes.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed,that no merchant forreine nor denizen, nor none other,after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michael,ſhall bring nor cauſe to be brought priuily nor apertly, by himſelfe nor by other into the ſaid lands of England,Ireland,Wales,and Scotland within the kings power, any clothes made in any other places, than in the ſame, vpon the forfeiture of the ſaid clothes,and further to be puniſhed at the kings will.

Cap.4. Furres.

Item it is accorded,that no man nor woman of the ſaid lands of England,Ireland, Wales, or Scotland within the kings power,of what eſtate or condition that he be, the king, queéne, and their children, the prelates,earles,barons,knightes,and ladies, and people of holie church, which may expend by yeere an C.li.of their benefices at the leaſt,to the verie valure,onelie except, ſhall were no furre in his clothes,that ſhall be bought after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michael,vpon the forfeiture of the ſaid furre. And further to be puniſhed at the kings will.

Cap.5. Clothworkers.

Item it is accorded,that all the clotheworkers of ſtrange lands, of whatſoeuer countrey they be,which will come into England,Ireland,Wales,and Scotland within the kings power, ſhall come ſafely and ſurelie, and ſhall be in the kings protection and ſafeconduit, to dwell in the ſame lands choſing where they will. And to the intent the ſaid clotheworkers ſhall haue the greater wil to come and dwell here: Our ſoueraigne lord the king will graunt them franchiſes as manie, & ſuch as may ſuffiſe them.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter in the xiiii.yeere of King Edward the third.

TO the honor of God,and of holie church,by the aſſent of the prelates,earles, barons, and other aſſembled at the parliament,holden at Weſtminſter, the wedneſday next after middle Lent,in the xiiii.yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde king Edward the third of England and the firſt yeére of his reigne of Fraunce. The king for the peace,and quietnes of his people,aſwel great as ſmall, doth graunt and eſtabliſh the things vnderwritten,which he wil to be holden & kept in al points perpetually to endure.

Cap.1. Franchiſes.

FIrſt that holie church haue her liberties in quietnes,without interruption or diſturbance. And that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt be holden in all points. And that the citie of London and all other cities and boroughes of the realme of England, haue all their franchiſes & cuſtomes,which they haue reaſonably had and vſed in times paſt.

Cap.2. Pardon.

Item in aſmuch as the king hath great compaſſion of that, that the people of his realme, by the cauſe of euil times of warre of Scotland,Fraunce,and of Gaſcoigne,and of the great coſtes and aydes that they haue done to him in ſundrie wiſe,for the cauſes aforeſaid and other, and willing to his people to do grace,whereby they may the better aide him, and the rather to be releeued and comforted of their greuance:at the requeſt of his people of England, hath releaſed & pardoned to his people,aſwell to the great as ſmall,of what eſtate or condition that they be, all maner of chattels of felons & fugitiues,eſcapes of theéues,fines and amerciaments,iſſues,forfeit,amerciaments of murders,all maner of treſpaſſes of the foreſt, aſwel of ſowing their ground, as of vert & veniſon,waſt, & euerie other treſpas done within the foreſt,iudged or to be iudged, reliues, and eſcuages,till the time that the king that now is ſhall paſſe towardes Brabant. And alſo aide to make our ſonne knight,and to marrie our daughter for all our time.

Cap.3. Pardon.

Item it is aſſented,accorded,and ſtabliſhed,that all maner of dettes,accomptes, & arrerages of fermes and accomptes,in anie maner due to the king,aſwell of the time of his progenitors,as of his owne time,till the beginning of the x.yere of his reigne of Englande, be pardoned and releaſed,to all great and ſmall of the realme of England,and to euerie of them, and wholie extinct. And that the debtes to be determined at the eſchequer before the time of king Edward that nowe is, and alſo the debtes to be determined at the ſame eſchequer, in his time, of the olde dettes due before his time, be extinct,pardoned,and releaſed for euer. So alwaies that the determinations made of the dettes due to the king,and riſing of his owne time ſhall ſtand in their force. And that the ſhiriffes,eſchetors, fermors of the manors,taxers,cuſtomers,vitailers, and other receiuers of the kings goods or money,in time of the king that now is,which yet be in life,ſhall anſwere of the goods,and of the money which they haue leuied and receiued to the kings vſe, without that that they ſhall be in other maner charged,but only of that that they haue receiued. But the heires executors,and land tenants of ſuch miniſters and receiuers,which be dead,ſhall be quitely diſcharged of all manner of accompts and debtes that the king can demaund, by occaſion of the leuyings and receiptes aforeſaid, till the beginning of the ſaid x.yere. And it is the kings mind, that ſuch as do owe him debtes of anie loane, & will accompt with the king,that the ſame ſumme of loane ſhall be allowed to the king in their accompt, and charged vpon them, as thing receiued by the kings hand,not withſtanding this ordinance.

Item

Cap.4. Engleſcherie.

Item becauſe manie miſchiefes haue happened in diuers countries of England, which had no knowledge of preſentment of Engleſcherie, whereby the commons of the counties were often amerced before the Iuſtices in eyre, to the great miſcheef of the people: It is aſſented, that no iuſtice errant, ſhall put in anie article, oppoſition, preſentment of Engleſcherie, againſt the commons of the counties, nor againſt anie of them, but that Engleſcherie and the preſentment of the ſame, be wholie out ⁊ void for euer. So that no perſon by this cauſe be from henſforth impeched.

Cap.5. Delayes. Parliament. Othe.

Item becauſe diuerſe miſchiefes haue happened, of that that in diuerſe places, aſwell in the Chauncerie, as of the kings bench, the common bench, and in the eſchequer, the iuſtices aſſigned ⁊ other iuſtices to heare and determine deputed, the iudgements haue béene delaied, ſometime by difficultie, and ſometimes by diuers opinions of the iudges, and ſometime for ſome other cauſe: It is aſſented, eſtabliſhed, and accorded, that from henſforth at euerie parliament ſhall be choſen a prelate, ii. earles and ii. barons, which ſhall haue commiſſion and power of the king, to heare by petition deliuered to them, the complaints of all thoſe that will complaine them of ſuch delaies or greeuances made, and they ſhal haue power to do come before them at Weſtminſter, or els where where the places or anie of them ſhall be, the tenor of records, and proceſſes of ſuch iudgements, ſo delayed, and to cauſe the ſame iuſtices to come before them, which ſhall be then preſent to heare their cauſe and reaſon of ſuch delaies. Which cauſe and reaſon ſo hearde, by good aduiſe of themſelſe, the chauncellor, treaſurer, the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, ⁊ other of the kings councell, as manie, and ſuch as to them ſhall ſéeme conuenient, ſhall procéede to take a good accord, and make a good iudgement. And according to the ſame accord ſo taken, the tenor of the ſaid record, togither with the iudgement, which ſhall be accorded, ſhall be remaunded before the iuſtices, before whom the plea did depend. And that they go haſtelie to giue iudgement, according to the ſame record. And in caſe it ſéemeth to them, that the difficultie be ſo great, that it may not wel be determined, without aſſent of the parliament, the ſaid tenor or tenors ſhal be brought by the ſaid prelates, earles and barons in the next parliament, ⁊ there ſhall be a finall accord taken, what iudgement ought to be made in this caſe. And according to this accord it ſhall be commaunded to the iudges, before whom the plea did depend, that they ſhall procéede to giue iudgement without delaie. And to begin to do remedie vpon this ordinance: it is aſſented, that a commiſſion and a power be made to the archbiſhop of Caunterburie, the earles of Arundel and Huntington, the lord of Wake, ⁊ the lord Rauſe Baſſet, to endure till the next parliament. And though the miniſters haue made an othe before this time, yet neuertheleſſe to remember them of the ſame othe: It is aſſented, that aſwel the Chauncellor, treaſurer, keper of the priuie ſeale, the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, the chauncellor, barons of the eſchequer, as iuſtices aſſigned, and al they that do meddle in the ſaid places vnder them, by the aduiſe of the ſaid Archbiſhop, earles ⁊ barons, ſhall make an othe wel ⁊ lawfullie to ſerue the king ⁊ his people. And by the aduiſe of the ſaid prelates, earles ⁊ barons, be it ordeined to encreaſe the number of the miniſters when néede ſhall be, and them to diminiſh in the ſame maner. And ſo when officers ſhall be newlie put in office as is aforeſaid, they ſhall be ſworne in the ſame maner.

Cap.6. Miſpriſio.

Item it is aſſented, that by the miſpriſion of the clerks of euerie place, no proces ſhalbe adnulled or diſcontinued, by miſtaking in writing one ſyllable or one letter too much or too litle, but as ſoone as the thing is perceiued, by challenge of the party or in other maner, it ſhalbe haſtily amended in due form, without giuing auantage to ẏ partie that chalengeth the ſame becauſe of ſuch miſpriſion.

Cap.7. Shirifes.

Item becauſe that ſome ſhirifes haue their bailiwikes for terme of yeeres, of the kinges graunt, ⁊ ſome do ſo much truſt to tarrie in their office by procurement, that they be encouraged to do manie oppreſſions to the people, ⁊ euil to ſerue the king ⁊ his people: It is aſſented ⁊ eſtabliſhed, that no ſhirife ſhall tarrie in his bailiwike ouer a yeere, ⁊ then another conuenient be ordeined in his place, that hath land ſufficient in his bailiwike, by the chancellor, treaſurer, and chiefe baron of the eſchequer, taking to them the chiefe iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, if they be preſent. And that ſhall be done yéerely in the morrow of all ſoules, at the Eſchequer.

Cap.8. Eſchetors. Coroners.

Item where as ſometime there were no more but ii. eſchetors in England, that is to ſaie, one eſchetor on this ſide Trent, ⁊ another beyond, wherby the king ⁊ the people were worſe ſerued, than in the time when there were diuers eſchetors, ⁊ of leſſe eſtate: It is aſſented ⁊ accorded, that from henſforth there ſhalbe as manie eſchetors aſſigned, as were in the time when the king that now is, did take the gouernance of this realme vpon him. And that the ſame eſchetors be choſen by the chauncellor, treaſurer, and chiefe baron of the eſchequer, taking to them the chiefe iuſtices of the one bench and the other, if they be preſent, in maner as is aforeſaid of ſhirifes. And that no eſchetor tarrie in his office aboue a yéere. And that no coroner be choſen, vnleſſe he haue land in fee ſufficient in the ſame countie, whereof he may anſwere to all maner of people.

Cap.9. Hundreds and wapentakes let to ferme

Item where as manie miſchiefes be happened through the realme, of that that ſhirifes haue let the hundreds ⁊ wapentakes to an higher ferme, than they do yeld to the king, ⁊ the fermors do let the ſame to other at more higher and greater ſummes, in ſuch maner, that by the high letting and enhancing of the fermes, and by the great number of bailifes errants, out riders, and other whom the ſhirifes, bailifes, and hundreders do put in, the people be in diuers maners charged and grieued: It is aſſented and accorded, that from henſforth all the wapentakes and hundreds, which be ſeuered from the counties, ſhalbe reioyned to the ſame counties, as before this time hath béene ſtabliſhed by another ſtatute. And that the ſhirifes holde the ſame in their owne handes, and put in ſuch bailifes and hundreders, hauing lands within the ſame bailiweekes and hundreds, for whome they will aunſwere. And if they will let anie hundreds, bailiweekes, or wapentakes to ferme they ſhall let the ſame at the ancient ferme, without anie thing encreaſing, And that the king and his people be ſerued by ſuch bailifes and hundreders and their vnderbailifes, in auoiding for euer the outriders and other, which in diuers counties before this time haue notoriouſlie deſtroyed the people. And that no bailife errant be but in the counties, where bailifes errants haue bene in times paſt, in time of the kings graundfather that now is. And that there be no more but one bailife errant in one countie. And it is aſſented that all other, of what eſtate or condition they be, which haue bene bailifes or hundreders in fee, if they the ſame will holde in their owne hands, then they ſhall put in ſuch bailifes, for whom they will anſwere. And if they will let the ſame to ferme to other, then they ſhall let the ſame at the ancient ferme, without anie thing encreaſing, as afore is ſaid, and the iuſtices of the one bench and the other, the barons of the eſchequer, and the iuſtices aſſigned ſhall haue power to enquire of all thoſe, that come againſt this ordinance, at all times that they come into the countrie, and to doe ſuch puniſhment as to them ſhall ſeeme conuenient to be done, according to the lawe and reaſon. And if the ſhirifes or their fermours bee found in default in anie point againſt this ordinance, and thereof be atteinted, the hundreds and wapentakes, where ſuch defaultes ſhall be found, ſhall be taken into the kings handes, and let to other by the ſaid iuſtices, and to commaund them to priſon, there to remaine till they haue made fine & raunſome to the king according to the quantitie of the treſpas. And neuertheleſſe they ſhal anſwere to the king of the whole ferme. And that the lords, which hold hundreds or wapentakes in fee, ſhal ſet ſuch bailifs, which be ſufficient to anſwer the king & his people. And if their bailifs do againſt this ordinance, they ſhalbe called to anſwere. And if they be attainted, they ſhall haue ſuch puniſhment as the law of the land requireth in ſuch caſe, & they ſhalbe out of their bailiweekes for euer, and other ſufficient put in their places by the ſame lords.

Bailiſe errant.

Chap.10

Gayles.

Item in the right of the gaoyles, which were wont to be in the ward of the ſhirifes, and annexed to their bailiweekes: It is aſſented and accorded, that they ſhall be reioyned, to the ſhirifes, and the ſhirifes ſhall haue the cuſtodie of the ſame gayles, as before this time they were wont to haue: And they ſhall put in ſuch keepers, for whom they will anſwere. And if it happen that the keeper of the priſon or vnderkeeper, by too great dures of impriſonment, and by peine make anie priſoner, that he hath in his ward, to be come an appellour againſt his will, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall haue iudgement of life and of member. And that the kings iuſtices, before whom ſuch caſe ſhall happen, ſhall enquire vpon the truth: And if they finde by enqueſt thereupon taken, that anie keeper or vnderkeeper hath done the ſame, he ſhall be thereof arraigned: and if he bee found guiltie, he ſhall haue iudgement of life and of member, as afore is ſaid.

Cap. 11.

Clerke.

Item it is aſſented and eſtabliſhed, that euerie clerke, which ſhall be deputed to receiue recogniſances in cities and boroughes according to the ſtatute marchant, ſhall abide in proper perſon to do his office according as is conteined in the ſtatute of Acton Burnell. And that he haue lands ſufficient in the ſame countie whereof he maie anſwere to all perſons if he offend. And if anie other be in the ſame office, he ſhall be remoued, and an other conuenient ſet in his place.

Chap.12

Meaſures and weights.

Item where as it is conteined in the great charter, that one meaſure & one weigh be throughout England, and alſo it is conteined in a ſtatute made in the time of king Edward, graundfather to the king that now is, that none ſhall ſell by the buſhell, if it be not marked with the kings ſeale, and that it be according to the ſtanderd: And alſo it is conteined, that he which ſhall be attainted for hauing double meaſure, that is to ſay, one greater to buie, and an other leſſe to ſell, ſhall be impriſoned as falſe, and grieuouſlie puniſhed, which things haue not bene holden nor vſed after the ſaid eſtabliſhment, to the great griefe of the people: It is aſſented and accorded, that from henceforth one meaſure and one weight ſhall be throughout the realme of England. And that the treaſurer do to be made certaine ſtandards of buſhels, galons, of weights of auncel, and ſend the ſame into euerie countie, where ſuch ſtanderds be not ſent afore this time. And thereupon ſhalbe aſſigned two good and ſufficient perſons in euerie countie, and more according as the countie in greatnes requireth, to ſuruey aſwell within franchiſes as without, that the meaſures and the weights be according to the ſtandard. And that they haue power to enquire heare and determine, and to puniſh all thoſe that ſhalbe found therof guiltie. And that the ſhirifes at their commandements receiue and reteine them in priſon till they haue made fine to the king. And euerie perſon that will complaine of ſuch as do offend in buying or ſelling, ſhalbe heard aſwell for the king as for them ſelfe. And that the ſaid aſſignes ſhall deliuer their eſtreits euerie yeere in the morowe of S. Michaell at the eſchequer, and take for their expenſes the fourth part of that that they may leuie, and anſwere to the king of the three partes. And of that that maie not be leuied before their profer, the fourth part ſhal be allowed to them at the eſchequer, and the three partes leuied to the kings vſe. And it is not the kings mind, but that the clerke of the market ſhall do his office where he wil, according as he was wont to do in times paſt. Nor that the lords of franchiſes ſhal not be out of their franchiſes by the occaſion of this ordinance.

Clerke of the market.

Cap.13.

Eſchetours.

Item where as in the great charter it is conteined, that after the death of the anceſters, which hold of the king in chiefe, and whoſe heires be within age, that the king ſhall keepe the lands without waſt and deſtruction, and reſtore them whollie to the heires when they come to their full age. And againſt God and right, and the ſaid eſtabliſhment, the eſchetours and other, to whome the landes

Waſt. Gardeines

lands of ſuch heires haue bene committed, haue done waſt and deſtruction, to the great miſchiefe aſwell of the heires of earles, barons, and other great men, as of other which hold of the king in chiefe. And neuertheleſſe the ſaid eſcheters haue not had conſcience to doe ſuch deſtructions, and ſcarcelie haue anſwered the king: wherefore it is aſſented and ſtabliſhed, that from henceforth after the death of euerie perſon which holdeth of the king in chiefe, that the eſchetours ſhall do to be ſeiſed into the kings hands the lands, as pertaineth, without doing waſt in houſes, woods, parkes, ponds, and other extortions, which maie fall to the damage of the heire. And haſtlie after the Diem clauſit extremum, deliuered to him, to returne the ſame by a good and true extent in the chancerie: after which returne if it be found that the heire is within age, and the next friends of the heire, to whom the inheritance can not diſcend, ſhall come and offer them to take the ſaid landes, yeelding the valure to the king till the age of the heire as farre forth as other will yeelde without fraude, by accord betwixt the chancellour and the treaſurer, they ſhall haue a commiſſion to keepe the ſaid lands by good and ſufficient ſuretie till the age of the ſaid heires, and to anſwere the king of the valure. And it is not the kings intent, that by this ſtatute he be for cloſed to haue an action of waſt againſt ſuch gardeins and fermours, as he and his anceſters haue had before this time. And that the heires, when they came to their age ſhall haue their action by writte of waſt againſt ſuch gardeins and fermours.

Cap.14.

Search. Seale.

Item where as before this time in caſe that a man hath demanded by petition in the parliament certaine lands and tenements, which be in the kings hands, and to the ſame petitions, haue bene anſwered in the ſame parliament, chancerie, or in the kings bench, that the king will, that a writ be ſued to the treaſurer and chamberlaines of the eſchequer to ſearch charters, minuments, and other remembrances, which maie him auaile, whereby he maie be aduiſed to make anſwere, to which writs commonlie the treaſurer and chamberlaines haue anſwered, that they haue ſearched, but not by ſearch, and would not anſwere, that they haue fullie ſearched, and nothing found, nor that they can no more finde, but that that they haue ſent, wherby by the lawe afore this time vſed, a man hath not had cauſe to put them, which be for the king to anſwere, and in ſuch maner the demandants haue bene greatlie delaied, to their great miſchiefe: wherefore it is aſſented, that after that the foure writs be returned, whether that minument or remembrance be found for the king or not, that then in the parliament, chancerie, or in the kings bench, or in the common bench, they which ſhall ſue for the king, ſhall be put to anſwere, and to defend the lands and tenements ſo demaunded againſt the king, to the beſt that they can or maie, according to the lawe, ſo an other time that euerie of the foure writs be deliuered to the treaſurer and to the chamberlaines fortie daies before the daie of the returne. And that by commaundement of the great ſeale nor priuie ſeale no point of this ſtatute ſhall be put in delaie, nor that the iuſtices, of whatſoeuer place it be, ſhall let to do the common lawe by commandement which ſhall come to them, vnder the great ſeale or priuie ſeale.

Chap.15

Charter of pardon.

Item whereas by diuers ſtatutes made before this time in diuers parliaments it was aſſented, that no charter of pardon of the death of a man ſhould be made by the king, but in caſe where he maie do it keeping the oth of his crowne, which ſtatutes haue not bene holden, but charters haue bene granted without number to diuers theeues and manſlaiers, to the euill example and feare of good people and lawfull: whereby the theeues and offenders be conforted to do their robberies and manſlaughters, and the ſame do from daie to daie, and the more be encouraged to do the ſame, becauſe of hope lightlie to haue their charters of pardon: It is aſſented, ſtabliſhed, and accorded, that no charter of pardon of the death of a man, nor of other felonie, ſhall be from henceforth granted to anie man, but in caſe where the king maie the ſame doe ſauing the othe of his crowne, as it is conteined in the ſtatutes made before this time. And if anie charter be from henceforth granted againſt the ſaid ſtatutes, the ſame ſhall be holden for none.

Cap. 16.

Enqueſts. Niſi prius Pleas.

Item where as before this time it was eſtabliſhed, the enqueſts and iuries, which be to be taken aſwel of the kings bench as of the common bench, ſhould be taken before one or two iuſtices of the ſame place, as it is conteined in the ſaid eſtabliſhment, and now it is notoriouſlie ſeene and knowne, that diuers enqueſts & iuries haue bee taken and yet be in diuers counties of England, where no iuſtice did come, to the great miſchiefe of the parties that do ſue, and alſo of the good people of the countrey which be impanelled: wherefore it is aſſented and eſtabliſhed, that whoſoeuer demaundeth the Niſi prius in the kings bench as wel at the ſuite of the defendant as the plaintife, as before this time hath ben done by the forme of the ſtatute, the Niſi prius ſhall be granted before anie iuſtice of the place where the plea dependeth, if anie of the ſame place maie wel go into thoſe parties. And if not, then the Niſi prius ſhall be granted before anie iuſtice of the common bench, at a certaine daie, which maie be accorded, and to deliuer or ſend the tenour of the record to him vnder the ſeale of the chief iuſtice of the place, at which daie he ſhall take the enqueſt, and returne the verdit vnder his ſeale, with the writ, the tenour, and the panell, which ſhall be receiued in the kings bench, and there enrolled, and thereupon iudgement giuen according to the verdict of the ſame enqueſt. And the ſaid iuſtice of the common bench ſhall haue power to record defaultes and nonſuites, as farforth as if the Niſi prius had bene granted before anie iuſtice of the kings bench. After which defaultes ſo recorded & returned in the kings bench, the iuſtices ſhall go to giue iudgement vpon the ſame record. And in the ſame maner be it done of all the pleas, which be or ſhall be in the common bench, whereof the enqueſts and iuries be or ſhall be taken in the countrey by Niſi prius. And if none of the iuſtices of the ſame place go, the Niſi prius ſhall be granted before anie iuſtice of the kings bench, and do as afore is ſaid of the iuſtices of the common bench. And the tenour of the record ſent to the ſame iuſtice, he ſhall haue like power as afore is ſaid of the iuſtices of the common bench, which be aſſigned to take enqueſts and iuries of the kings bench. And if it happen that none of the iuſtices of the one bench nor the other maie come in the countrie, where enqueſts or iuries be to be taken, then the Niſi prius ſhalbe granted before the chiefe baron of the eſchequer, if he be a man of the law, and he ſhall haue ſuch power as the iuſtices of the one bench and the other haue by this ſtatute. And in caſe that none of the iuſtices of the one bench nor the other, nor the chiefe baron of the eſchequer, being a man of the law, do not come in the countrie where the enqueſts & iuries be or ſhalbe taken by the Niſi prius: then the Niſi prius ſhalbe granted before the iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes in thoſe parties. So alwaies that one of the ſaid iuſtices aſſigned be iuſtice of the one bench or the other, or the kings ſeriant ſworne. And the ſame iuſtices ſhall haue ſuch power as afore is ſaid, of the iuſtices of the one bench & of the other. And if the one partie demaund the tenour of the record to haue with him, to deliuer to the iuſtices, before whom the Niſi prius is granted, for to eſchue that no fraud nor damage be done to the other partie, nor to the people of the enqueſts: an other tenour of the ſame record ſhalbe deliuered to the other partie, if he the ſame require. And where as it is an other time ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices before whom the Niſi prius hath bene granted in pleas of aſſiſes, of darreine preſentment, & Quare impedit, ſhould haue power to giue the iudgements in the countrie vpon the verdict of aſſiſe & of enqueſt, and vpon nonſuites and defaultes: It is aſſented, that the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, the chiefe baron of the eſchequer, and the iuſtices aſſigned, before whom the Niſi prius is granted by this ſtatute ſhall haue power to giue the iudgements in the countrie, & to returne the ſame according as is conteined in the ſtatute of Yorke thereupon made.

Iudgement.

Cap. 17. Iuriſutrum.

Item it is aſſented and ſtabliſhed, that parſons, vicars, wardens of chapels and prouoſts, wardens & prieſts of perpetuall chanteries, ſhall haue their writs of Iuriſutrũ of landes & tenements, rents, & poſſeſſions annexed & giuen perpetually in almes to vicarages, chapels, or chaunteries, & recouer by other writs in their caſe as farforth as parſons of churches or prebendaries.

Cap. 18. Vouchee.

Item becauſe that the demandants in plea of land haue bene often delaied of that that the tenants haue vouched to warrantie a dead man, againſt which voucher the demandants before this time might not be receiued to auerre, that the vouchee is dead, to their great delaie and miſchiefe: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that from henceforth, if the tenant vouch to warrantie a dead man, and the demandants will auerre, that the vouchee is dead, or that there is none ſuch, their auerment ſhalbe receiued without more delaie.

Cap. 19. Purueiance.

Item it is aſſented, that the purueiances, which ſhall be made for the kings houſe and the Queenes, where they do abide and paſſe through the countrie, ſhalbe made by warrant and power giuen to them, which ſhall make the purueiances: In which ſhalbe expreſſely conteined, that they ſhall take nor buie nothing, vnleſſe it be by promiſe made betwixt the buier and the ſeller, and by the agreement of the ſellers. And if anie will anie thing take by colour of his commiſſion againſt this ordinance, none ſhall be bound to obey him no more then if he had no commiſſion. And of that that ſhalbe ſo bought and purueied, paiment ſhalbe made to the ſeller before that the king paſſe out of the verge. And of great purueiances to be made, as of fleſh, fiſh, and other vitailes for the kings warres, and for to vitaile the caſtels and townes in Scotland & England, and other places, certaine marchants or other good people ſhalbe deputed by the treſurer, to make the ſaid purueiances, without commiſſions, and without the kings or others power. So that the people nor none of them be put to ſell anie thing againſt their will. And that no commiſſion be made to the keepers of the kings horſes, but be it onelie commaunded to the ſhirife, that he make purueiance by him and by his, of the iſſues of his bailiweeke. And the number of the horſes, for which he ſhall make ſuch purueiance ſhalbe conteined in the ſaid commaundement. And that no purueiaunce be made ouer this number. Sauing that the chiefe keper haue an haukeney, and that he take goode heede, that the countrie be not charged of more than ſhall kepe the horſes, but for euery horſe a knaue, without bringing women, pages, or dogges with them. And if more be found abiding in charge of the countrie, they ſhall be brought to the priſon, there to remaine till the king hath ſent his will. And in the ſame maner be it commanded to the ſhiriſes, that they make their purueiances for the kings dogges of the iſſues of their bailiweekes where they dwell. And that ſuch purueiances be made by none other but by the ſhiriſes. And be it conteined in his commandement the number of the dogges, for which he ſhall make purueiance, ouer which number no purueiance ſhalbe made, ſo that they liue of their certaine, without charging the countrie. And if anie finde him grieued againſt this ordinance, he ſhall haue his recouerie againſt the ſhirife of ſuch grieuances done to him.

Marchants. Purueiours. Horſes. Dogges.

Cap. 20.

Item the grants, releaſes, and pardons of the ſaid chattels of felons and fugitiues, and manie other things vnderwritten, which the king hath granted to the prelates, earles, barons, and all the commons of his realme for the eaſe of them perpetuallie to endure, the ſaid prelates, earles, barons, and all the commons of the realme, willinglie of one aſſent and good will, hauing regard to the will that the king their liege lord hath towards them, and to the great trauailes that he hath made and ſuſteined aſwell in his warres of Scotland, as againſt the parties of France and other places, and to the good will which he hath to trauaile to keepe his realme, & maintaine his warres, Subſidie.

and to purchaſe his rights: They haue granted to him the ix.lambe, the ix.fléeſe, and the ix. ſheafe, to be taken by two yéeres then next to come. And of cities and boroughs the verie ix. part of all their goods and cattels, to be taken and leuied by lawfull and reaſonable taxe by the ſame two yéeres, in aid of the good kéeping of this realme, aſwell by land as by ſea, and of his warres, as well againſt the parties of Scotland, the parties of France, Gaſcoine, and elſe where. And in right of marchants foreines, which dwell not in cities nor boroughs, and alſo of other people that dwell in foreſts, and waſtes, and all other that liue not of their gaine nor ſtore, by the good aduiſe of them which ſhalbe deputed taxers, ſhall be ſet lawfully at the valure to the fiftéene without being vnreaſonablie charged. And it is not the intent of the king, nor of other great men, nor the commons, that by this grant made to the king of xv. the poore boraile people, nor other that liue of their bodilie trauaile, ſhall be compriſed within the taxe of the ſaid fiftéene, but ſhall be diſcharged by the aduiſe of them which be deputed taxers, and of the great men which be deputed ſurueiours.

Taxers.

Chap.21

Cuſtome.

Aide.

Subſidie.

Plate of ſiluer.

Wolles cocketted.

Item though the commons of the realme did pray the king, that he would by aſſent of the parliament grant and ſtabliſh, that neuer ſhould bee taken more cuſtome of a ſacke of wolle then halfe a marke, nor of leade nor tinne, lether nor wolfelles, but the olde cuſtome: Neuertheleſſe the king praieth the prelates, earles, barons, and all the commonaltie, for the great buſineſſe which he hath now in hand as they well know, that they would grant to him ſome aide vpon the wolles, lether, wolfelles, and other marchandiſes, to endure for a ſmall ſeaſon, whereupon deliberation had, the ſaid prelates, earles, barons, and commons of his realme hath granted to him fortie ſhillings to be taken of euerie ſacke of woll, ⁊ fortie ſhillings of euerie thrée hunderd wolfelles, and xl.s. of euerie laſt of lether and other marchandiſes that paſſe beyond the ſea after the rate. And to begin at the feaſt of Eaſter, in the xiiii. yéere of his raigne, and to endure till the feaſt of Pentecoſt, then next following. And from that feaſt till the feaſt of Pentecoſt then next following into a yéere. And for this grant the king by the aſſent of the prelates, earles, barons, and all other aſſembled in his parliament, hath granted, that from the feaſt of Pentecoſt which commeth into one yéere, he nor his heires ſhall not demaund aſſeſſe, nor take, nor ſuffer to be taken more cuſtome of a ſacke of woll of anie Engliſhman, but halfe a marke onlie. And vpon the wolfelles and lether the old cuſtome. And the ſacke ought to conteine xxvi. ſtones, and euerie ſtone xiiii.li. And that euerie man that ſhippeth wolles ouer the ſea, Engliſhman or other, reſeant inhabiting or repairing in England, ſhall find good and ſufficient ſuretie to the cuſtomers before his paſſing, to bring againe of euerie ſacke of woll, plate, of ſiluer, to the valure of two markes at his firſt returne or repairing. And to bring the ſame plate to the kings exchange, and there to receiue his money. And that none cocket wolles, but in the name of him that ſhall be owner of the ſame. And if any be found otherwiſe cocketted, they ſhall be taken in the kings hands as forfeit. And this ſtabliſhment lawfullie to be holden and kept, the king hath promiſed in the preſence of the earles, barons, ⁊ other in his parliament, no more to charge, ſet, or aſſeſſe, vpon the cuſtome, but in the maner as afore is ſaid. In the ſame maner the prelates, earles, and barons, haue promiſed lawfullie, as much as in them is, that they ſhall procure the king, as much as they maie, to hold the ſame. And that they ſhall in no wiſe aſſent to the contrarie, if it be not by aſſent of the prelates, earles, barons, and commons of the realme, and that in full parliament. And for the more greater ſuretie, ⁊ to giue cauſe to all to eſchew, to counſell to the contrarie of this ordinance, The prelates haue promiſed to giue ſentence vpon all them that come againſt the ſame in anie point.

Here beginneth an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the ſaid xiiii. yeere of king Edward the third.

Chap.1.

Aide.

EDward by the grace of God. ⁊c. To all them. ⁊c. gréeting. Know yée, that where as the prelates, earles, barons, and commons of our realme of England, in our preſent parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the wedneſday next after the ſondaie of middle Lent, the xiiii. yere of our raigne of England, and the firſt of France, haue granted to vs of their good grée and good will, in aid of the ſpéede of our great buſineſſe, which we haue to do, aſwell on this ſide the ſea as beyond, the ix. ſheafe, the ix fléeſe, and the ix. lambe, to be taken by two yéeres next comming, after the making of the ſame, and the citizens and burgeſſes of boroughes the verie ix part of all their goods, and the foreine marchants and other, which liue not of gaine nor of ſtore of ſhéepe the xv. of their goods lawfully to the valure: we willing to prouide to the indempnitie of the ſaid prelates, earles, barons, and other of the commonaltie, and alſo of the citizens, burgeſſes, and marchants aforeſaid, will and grant for vs and our heires, to the ſame prelates, earles, barons, ⁊ commons, citizens, burgeſſes, and marchants, that the ſame grant, which is ſo chargeable ſhall not an other time be had forth in example, nor fall to their preiudice in time to come, nor that they be from henceforth charged nor grieued to make anie aide, or to ſuſteine charge, if it be not by the common aſſent of the prelates, earles, barons, and other great men, and commons of our ſaid realme of England, ⁊ that in the parliament: And that all the profites riſing of the ſaid aide, and of wardes and mariages, cuſtomes and eſchetes, and other profites riſing of the ſaid realme of England, ſhall be ſet and diſpended vpon the maintenance of the ſafegard of our ſaid realme of England, and of our warres of Scotland, France, and Gaſcoyne, and in no place elſe where during the ſaid warres.

Cap.2. Marchants ſtrangers.

Item where as it is contained in the great charter, that all marchants ſhall haue ſafe and ſure conduct, to go out of our realme of England, and to come and abide and go through the realme of England, aſwell by water as by land, and to buie and ſell, paieng their rights and cuſtomes, but in the time of warre: we at the requeſt of the prelates, earles, barons, and commons, will and graunt for vs and for our heires and ſucceſſors, that all marchants denizens and forrens, except thoſe which be of our enemitie, may without let, ſafelie come in the ſaid realme of England, with their goods and marchandiſes, and ſafelie tarie and ſafelie returne, paieng the cuſtomes, ſubſidies, and other profits reaſonablie thereof due. So alwaies that franchiſes and free cuſtomes reaſonablie graunted by vs and our aunceſters to the citie of London and other cities, burghes, and good townes of our realme of England be to them ſaued.

Franchiſes.

Here beginneth the ſtatute for the clergie made at Weſtmiſter the xiiij. yeare of king Edward the third.

EDward by the grace of God. &c. greeting. &c. Know ye, that where as in the firſt article of the great charter it is contained, that the church of England be free, and haue all hir rights entirelie and franchiſes not blemiſhed, and alſo in all the whole ſtabliſhments made as well in the times of our progenitors, as in our owne time, the ſame article is often ratified and confirmed. Neuertheles in our parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the wedneſday next after the ſonday of middle lent, it is ſhewed to vs by the reuerend father in God, John archbiſhop of Canterburie, primat of all England, and the other prelates and clergie of our realme, how ſome oppreſſions and greeuances be doone in diuers maners by ſome our ſeruants to people of holie church, againſt the franchiſe of the great charter, and the ſtabliſhments aforeſaid, which oppreſſions they ſhew in petition, praieng vpon the ſame remedie. Wherefore we, their petition ſeene and regarded, and thereupon deliberation had with the piers of our realme, and other of our councell, and of the realme ſommoned to our ſaid parliament, and hauing regard to the great charter, and to other ſtatutes aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid prelates and clergie, which haue much aided vs, and daylie doo, by thaſſent and accord of the ſaid piers, and of all other ſommoned and being in our ſaid parliament, haue graunted and doo graunt for vs and our heires and ſucceſſors to the ſaid prelates and clergie, the things vnderwriten perpetuallie to endure.

Clergie.

Cap.1. Seale.

FIrſt that none by vs, nor by other commiſſion of the great ſeale nor of the ſmall, nor without commiſſion, ſhall take nothing of corne, hey, beaſtes, cariage, nor other goods of archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors, abbeſſes, prioreſſes, perſons, vicars, or of other people of holie church nor without, againſt the agreement and will of the owners of the ſame goods. And we doo defend, that from henceforth no ſuch commiſſions vnder the great ſeale nor the ſmall, ſhall in anie wiſe go forth for anie priſes to be made. For we doo take the ſaid prelats and clergie, with their poſſeſſions, goods, and catalles into our eſpeciall protection and defence. Alſo we graunt for vs & our heires, that we ſhall not from henceforth charge anie of the prelats or clergie, nor their houſes to receiue geſtes, nor ſoiourners of Scotland nor of other countrie, nor our horſes nor dogs, fawcons nor other haukes of ours nor others againſt their gree and will. Sauing alwaies to vs the ſeruices, which be due to vs of right of them which owe to vs the ſame ſeruices, to ſuſtaine and receiue dogs, horſes, or hawkes.

Prelates. Clergie.

Dogs, Horſes, Hawkes.

Cap.2

Item becauſe of the temporalties being in our hands, or in the handes of our aunceſters by reaſon of archbiſhopriches, biſhopriches, or other prelacies voide, and alſo becauſe of other lands, tenements, fees, and aduowſons being in our hands, and in the hands of our aunceſters, by nonage of heires, it hath bene vſed before this time, that exception of plenartie ſhould hold no place againſt vs, nor againſt anie of our aunceſters, no more, in caſe where ſuch preſentments ſhould be deuolute to vs in an others right, than if they had bene in our owne right or in the right of our crowne, whereby manie perſons and prebendaries were out of their churches, prebends, and benefices, which they had long time holden, to their great miſchiefe and impoueriſhment: we will and graunt for vs and for our heires, to voide ſuch miſchiefes, that from henceforth we nor our heires, ſhal not make collation, or preſentment to anie church, prebend, chappell, or other benefice, by the occaſion of ſuch voidances of prelacies, or of the lands of infants within age, or of others common or to come in our hands, or in the hands of our heires, if we or our heires doo not make our collations or preſentments within three yeares after that ſuch benefices doo ſo of deede become voide. And that of ſuch churches and other benefices, of which clerkes be in poſſeſſion, and haue had poſſeſſion by a yeare before the making of this ſtatute, we nor our heires ſhall haue none action nor reaſon to preſent to ſuch benefices ſo full. And we will not, that anie man be holden to aunſwere to anie writ of Quare impedit, taken in our name in ſuch caſe, if the collation or preſentment be not made within iii. yeares after the voidance as afore is ſaid. And of ſuch voidances common in the time of our aunceſters, no collation nor preſentment ſhall be from henceforth made by vs nor by our heires, but of anie action to take of ſuch voidances we be wholie & quitelie forcloſed.

Plenartie.

Preſentments.

Quare impedit. Collation.

Cap.3. Temporalties of biſhops.

Item we will and graunt for vs and for our heires, that from henceforth we nor our heires ſhall not take, nor doo to be taken in our hands the temporalties of archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, priors or other of what eſtate or condition they be, without a true and iuſt cauſe, according to the law of the land and iudgement thereupon giuen.

Cap.4. Eſchetors.

Item becauſe that in the petition of the ſaid prelats and clergie, it is contained, that eſcheters and other keepers, in time of vacation of archbiſhopriches, biſhopriches, and other prelacies

Waſte.

Voidances

haue done great waſte and deſtruction in the ſame in times paſt: we will and graunt for vs and for our heires, that at all times from henceforth, when ſuch voidances ſhall happen, that our eſchetors, and the eſchetors of our heires, which for the time ſhall be, ſhall enter and do to be well kept the ſaid voidances, without doing waſte or deſtruction in the manours, parkes, ponds, or woods. And that they ſell no vnderwood, nor hunt in the parkes or warrens, nor fiſh in the ponds nor frée fiſhings, nor ſhall take no fine of the tenants frée nor bond: but ſhall kéepe and ſaue as much as pertaineth to the ſaid voidances without doing harme or any maner of oppreſſion. And if the deane and chapiter of churches cathedrall, priors, ſupriors, prioreſſes, ſuprioreſſes, and couents of prelacies, abbeies, or priories, whoſe voidance pertaineth to vs and our heires, will render to vs and our heires the value of the ſaid voidances, as other will reaſonablie yéeld, than the chaunceller and the treſurer ſhall haue power to let to the ſaid deane and chapiter, prior or ſupprior, prioreſſe or ſupprioreſſe and couent, the ſaid voidances by good and ſufficient ſuretie, ſo that they ſhall haue the ſame before all other, yéelding to vs the value, according as ſhall be found by remembrances of the eſchequer, or by enqueſt to be taken vpon the ſame if néede be, without making fine. And in caſe they will not accord to yéeld the value, nor finde ſuch ſuretie, than the chaunceller and treſurer ſhall do to be ordained the good kéeping of ſuch voidances by eſchetors or other ſufficient kéepers, to aunſwere the king of that that to him pertaineth reaſonablie without doing waſte or deſtruction, or other thing which may turne in diſheriſon of the churches, whereof ſuch voidances ſhall happen.

Chap. 5.

Vacations

Eſchetors.

Item holie to ſhew the affection and good will, which we haue to that that pertaineth to God and to holie church: we will, and by theſe preſent letters do graunt full power to our ſaid chanceller and treſurer, which taking to them other of our councell, ſuch as to them ſhall ſéeme beſt to be taken, by good information of the remembrances of theſchequer and other informations as to them beſt ſhall ſéeme, ſhall let the vacations of archbiſhopriches, biſhopriches, abbeies, priories, and other houſes, whoſe voidances pertaineth to vs, to the deane and chapiter, prior, or ſupprior, prioreſſe, or ſupprioreſſe and couent, to yéelde a certaine of euerie vaidance by the yeare, quarter, or moneth, during the vacations, according as to them beſt ſhall ſéeme, without making anie fine. And that no eſchetor nor other miniſter in the time of vacations, ſhall haue cauſe nor matter to enter, or thereof to medle to do anie thing, which ſhall be in preiudice of the churches, whereof ſuch voidances ſhall happen. Sauing to vs and our heires the knights fées, aduowſons of churches, eſchetes, wardes, mariages, reliues and ſeruices of the ſaid fées. In witnes whereof we haue made theſe our letters patents. Dated at Weſtminſter the xvi. day of Aprill, the xiiii. yeare of our reigne of England, and the firſt of Fraunce.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made in the ſaid xiiij. yeare, that the realme of England ſhould not be ſubiect to Fraunce.

England.

EDward by the grace of God, king of England and Fraunce, and lord of Ireland, to all thoſe which theſe letters ſhall heare or ſée, gréeting. Know ye, that where as ſome people do thinke, that by the reaſon that the realme of Fraunce is deuolute to vs as right heire of the ſame, and for aſmuch as we be king of Fraunce, our realme of England ſhould be put in ſubiection of the king and of the realme of Fraunce in time to come, we hauing regard to the eſtate of our realme of England, and namelie that it neuer was, nor ought to be in ſubiection nor in the obeiſance of the kings of Fraunce, which for the time haue bene, nor of the realme of Fraunce. And willing to prouide for the ſuretie and defence of the ſaid realme of England, and of our liege people of the ſame: will and graunt and ſtabliſh for vs and for our heires and ſucceſſors, by aſſent of the prelats, earles, barons, and commons of our realme of England, in this our preſent parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter, the wedneſday next after the ſonday in middle lent, the xiiii. yeare of our ſaid reigne of our realme of England, and the firſt of Fraunce, that by the cauſe or colour of that that we be king of Fraunce, and that the ſaid realme to vs pertaineth, as afore is ſaid, or that we do vs to be named king of Fraunce in our ſtile, or that we haue changed our ſeales or our armes, nor for commaundements, which we haue made, or from henceforth ſhall make as king of Fraunce, our ſaid realme of England, nor the people of the ſame, of what eſtate or condition they be, ſhall not in anie time to come be put in ſubiection nor in obeiſance of vs nor of our heires nor ſucceſſors as kings of Fraunce, as afore is ſaide, nor be ſubiect nor obedient but ſhall be frée and quite of all maner of ſubiection and obeiſance aforeſaid, as they were wont to be in the time of our progenitors kings of England for euer. In witnes of which thinges. &c. Dated at Weſtminſter. &c. the xiiii. yeare of our reigne of England, and the firſt of Fraunce.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xv. yeare of king Edward the third.

OUr ſoueraigne lord king Edward the third after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter at the xv. of Eaſter, deſiring that the peace of his land and the lawes and ſtatutes before this time ordained, be maintained and kept in all points, to the honor of God & of holie church, & to the common profit of his people, by aſſent of the prelats, earls, barons, and other great men, & of all the commonaltie of the realme of England, ſommoned to the ſaid parliament hath ordained & ſtabliſhed in the ſame parliament the articles vnderwritten, which he will & graunt for him and for his heires, that they be firmelie kept and holden for euer.

Chap.1. Franchiſes. Charter.

FIrſt it is accorded and aſſented, that the franchiſe of holie church and the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, and the other ſtatutes made by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king and his progenitours, peeres, and the commons of the land, for the common profit of the people, be firmelie kept and mainteined in all points. And if anie thing be from henceforth made againſt the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, it ſhall be declared in the next parliament, and by the peeres of the realme it ſhall be duelie redreſſed. And if anie, of what eſtate or condition he be, do anie thing, to the contrarie, ſhall ſtand to the iudgement of the peeres in the next parliament, and ſo from parliament to parliament, aſwell of franchiſes vſed, as of them which ſhall be now granted by our ſoueraigne lord the king or his progenitours to holie church, to the peeres of the land, to the citie of London, and to other cities and boroughs, and to them of the fiue ports, and to the commins of the land, and all their franchiſes and free cuſtomes ſhalbe maintained in all points, without anie thing doing to the contrarie. And that the writtes demanded to haue allowance of charters of franchiſes and cuſtomes, charters of pardons, of debts, and of all other things granted by the king and by his progenitours before this time, be freelie granted without diſturbance before all maner iuſtices or other miniſters where it needeth to haue allowance, and they ſhall be made quite at the eſchequer or els where.

Chap.2. Peeres.

Item where as before this time the peeres of the land haue bene arreſted and impriſoned, and their temporalties lands and tenements, goods and cattels ſeiſed in the kings hands, and ſome put to death without iudgement of their peeres: It is accorded and aſſented, that no peere of the land officer nor other becauſe of his office nor of things touching his office, nor by other cauſe ſhall be brought in iudgement to loſe his temporalties, lands, tenements, goods and cattels, nor to be arreſted nor impriſoned, outlawed, exiled, nor forjudged, nor put to anſwere, nor to be iudged, but by award of the ſaid peeres in the parliament. Sauing alwaies to our ſoueraigne lord the king and his heires in other caſes the lawes rightfullie vſed and by due proces, and ſaued alſo the ſuite of the partie. And if per caſe anie peere will of his agreement elſwhere anſwere or be iudged, but in the parliament, that the ſame ſhall not turne in preiudice of the other peeres, nor of himſelfe in anie other caſe. Except if anie of the peeres be ſhirife or fermer of fee, or hath bene officer, or hath receiued money, or other cattels of the king, becauſe of which office or receipt he is bound to accompt, that the ſame ſhall accompt by himſelfe or by his atturney in places accuſtomed, ſo that the pardons before this time made in the parliament ſhall ſtand in their force.

Cha. 3. Clerkes.

Item becauſe that the points of the great charter be blemiſhed in diuers maners, & leſſe well holden then they ought to be, to the great perill and ſlaunder of the king, & damage of his people, eſpeciallie in aſmuch as clerkes, peeres of the land, and other free men be arreſted and impriſoned, and out of their goods and cattels, which were not appealed nor endited, nor ſuite of the partie againſt them affirmed: It is accorded and aſſented, that from henceforth ſuch things ſhall not bee done. And if anie miniſter of the king, or other perſon, of what condition he be, do or come againſt anie point of the grat charter, or other ſtatutes, or the lawes of the land, he ſhall anſwere in the parliament aſwell at the kings ſuite as at the ſuite of the partie, where no remedie nor puniſhment was ordeined before this time, as farforth where it was done by commiſſion or commandement of the king as of his owne authoritie, notwithſtaiding the ordinance made before this time at Northampton, by aſſent of the king, the prelates, earles, barons, & the comminaltie of the land, in this preſent parliament is repealed & vtterly adnulled. And that the chancellour, treaſurer, barons, & chancellour of the eſchequer, the iuſtices of the one bench & of the other, iuſtices aſſigned in the countrie, ſteward & chamberlaine of the kings houſe, keeper of the priuie ſeale, treaſurer of the wardrobe, controllers, and they that be chiefe deputed to abide nigh the kings ſonne duke of Cornwall, ſhall be now ſworne in this parliament, and ſo from henceforth at all times that they ſhalbe put in office, to keepe & maintaine the priuileges & franchiſes of holie church, & the points of the great charter & the charter of the foreſt, & all other ſtatutes, without breaking any point.

Charter.

Franchiſes.

Cap.4. Officers.

Item it is aſſented, that it anie of the officers aforeſaid, or controllers, or chiefe clerke in the common bench, or in the kings bench, by death or by other cauſe be out of his office, that our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the accord of the great men, which ſhalbe found moſt nigheſt in the countrie, which he ſhall take towards him, and by the good counſell which he ſhall haue about him, ſhall put an other conuenient in the ſaid office. Which ſhalbe ſworne after the forme aforeſaid. And that in euery parliament, at the third daie of the ſame parliament, the king ſhal take in his hands the offices of all the miniſters aforeſaid. And ſo ſhall they abide foure or fiue daies, except the offices of iuſtices of the one place or the other, iuſtices aſſigned, barons of the eſchequer. So alwaies that they and all other miniſters be put to anſwere to euerie complaint. And if default be found in anie of the ſaid miniſters, by complaint or other maner, and of that be attainted in the parliament, he ſhalbe puniſhed by iudgement of the peeres & out of his office, and an other conuenient put in his place. And vpon the ſame our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king ſhal do to be pronounced to make execution without delay according to the iudgement of the ſaid peeres in the parliament.

Cap.5. Ordinaries. Vſurers.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the king and his heires ſhall haue the coniſance of the vſurers dead. And that the ordinaries of holie church haue the coniſance of vſurers on life, as to them appertaineth to make compulſion, by the cenſures of holie church for the ſinne, to make reſtitution of the vſurers taken againſt the lawes of holie church.

Cap.6.

Item it is accorded, that the miniſters of holie church for money taken for redemption of cor-

Miniſters of holy church. porall penance, nor for proue and accompt of teſtaments, or for trauaile taken about the ſame, nor for ſolempnitie of mariage, nor for other things touching the iuriſdiction of holie church, ſhall not be impeached nor arreſted, nor driuen to anſwere before the kings iuſtices nor other miniſters: and thereupon the miniſters of holie church ſhall haue writtes in the chancerie to the iuſtices and other miniſters at all times when they the ſame will demaund.

Here beginneth the reuocation of the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid xv. yeere.

EDward by the grace of God, &c. To the ſhirife of Lincolne greeting. Where as at our parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter in the xv. of Eaſter laſt paſt, certaine articles expreſſelie contrarie to the lawes and cuſtomes of our realme of England, and to our prerogatiues and rights royall were pretended to be granted by vs by the maner of a ſtatute, we conſidering how that by the bond of our othe, we be bound to the obſeruance and defence of ſuch lawes, cuſtomes, rights, and prerogatiues, and prouidentlie willing to reuoke thoſe things, which be ſo Reuocation. improuidentlie done, to a due ſtate, councel and treatiſe thereupon had with the earles, barons, and other wiſe men of our ſaid realme. And for becauſe we neuer conſented to the making of the ſaid ſtatute, but as then it behoued vs, we diſſimuled in the premiſſes by proteſtations of reuocation of the ſaid ſtatute, if in deede it ſhould proceede, to eſchue the dangers which by the denying of the ſame we feared to come, foraſmuch as the ſaid parliament otherwiſe had bene without anie expedition in diſcord diſſolued, and ſo our earneſt buſineſſe had likelie bene, which God prohibit, in ruine. And the ſaid pretenſed ſtatute we promiſed then to be ſealed. It ſeemed to the ſaid earles, barons, and other wiſe men, that ſithence the ſaid ſtatute did not of our free will proceede, the ſame ſhould be voide, and ought not to haue the name nor ſtrength of a ſtatute. And therefore by their counſell and aſſent we haue decreed the ſaid ſtatute to be voide, and the ſame in aſmuch as it proceeded of deede, we haue brought to bee annulled, willing neuertheleſſe that the articles conteined in the ſaid pretenſed ſtatute, which by other of our ſtatutes, or of our progenitours kings of England, haue bene approued, ſhall according to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute in euerie point as conuenient is, be obſerued. And the ſame we do onelie to the conſeruation and reintegration of the rights of our crowne, as we be bound, and not that we ſhould in anie wiſe aggrauate or oppreſſe our ſubiects, whom we deſire to rule by lenitie and gentleneſſe. And therefore wee doe commaund thee, that all theſe things thou do to be openlie proclaimed in ſuch places within thy bailiweeke, where thou ſhalt ſee expedient. Witneſſe my ſelfe at Weſtminſter the firſt daie of October, the xv. yeere of our reigne.

Here beginneth an other ſtatute made the ſaid xv. yeere.

IT is to be remembred, of the conditions which the great men and the commons demanded, for the grant that they made to our ſoueraigne lord the king, for the ix. lambe fleeſe and ſheefe of the ſecond yeere.

Chap. 1. Subſedie. Sackes of wolle. FIrſt, that that is gathered and leuied of the xx. thouſand ſackes of woll, an other time granted to our ſoueraigne lord the king, in maner to haue recompence of the ſame of the ix. of the ſecond yeere, ſhall be recouped and allowed to the counties, where the wolles be leuied, and the perſons paide, and the commiſſions of the twentie thouſand ſackes repealed.

Chap. 2. Lambes and fleeſes. Item that the fleeſes and lambes leuied of this ſecond yeere, be accompted before them, which ſhalbe deputed to gather the ſaid wolles, which ſhall be good men and lawfull of the countrie, and that the value of the ſaid lambes and fleeſes leuied, be recouped and allowed in the number of the ſackes now granted, and that the remnant of the three things to be gathered of this ſecond yeere, nothing ſhalbe leuied, but wholie releaſed. And vpon the ſame, letters patents vnder the great ſeale ſhalbe deliuered to the knights of the ſhires, without anie thing to be paide.

Chap. 3. Wolles. Item that the wolles in euerie countie, be gathered by good men of the countrie, and deliuered to the kings receiuers of the ſackes in the counties where they ſhall be gathered, according to the weight ordeined by the ſtatute, that is to ſay, xiiii. pound for the ſtone, and xxvi. ſtones for the ſacke, without other encreaſe. And that none be charged to yeeld thereupon accompt to the king, but onlie the kings receiuers. And that in euerie countrie there be aſſigned two great and good men, to heare and determine the complaints of them, which will thereof complaine vpon the ſaid collectors and receiuers &c. at the places and daies of the counties.

Chap. 4. Ninth. Item that the prelates, earles, barons, knights, and other great men of euerie countrie, which ſhalbe bound to paie the ix. according to the grant thereupon made, ſhalbe apportioned after their rate to the charge granted of the ſaid wolles. And in caſe that anie of the prelates or great men aforeſaid, or other will not paie according as ſhalbe apportioned, the names of ſuch and their portions ſhall be deliuered to the ſaid receiuers, and by them to the chancerie, and ſo much ſhall be allowed to the countie. And he that ſhalbe found diſobedient, ſhalbe diſtreined to pay the treble of the portion, whereto he was ſet.

Chap. 5. Wolles. Item that no marchant, nor other, buie nor carie wolles out of the land betwixt this and the feaſt of Saint Michael next comming, to the intent that the king be ſerued of that that to him is granted. And that after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael, euerie marchant of the realme, and other may freelie ſell and buie, and paſſe the ſea with their marchandiſes of wolles, & all other things, paying the cuſtomes of old time vſed, according to the ſtatutes before this time made at the laſt parliament ment holden at Weſtminſter in midle lent. And that they which haue wolles, ſhall be bound to ſell, according to the ſort and price of the countrie, to accompliſh the wolles graunted to the king, and they which ſhall be collectors, ſhall be ſufficient people of the ſame counties, choſen now in full parliament. And they ſhall be changed by no maner commaundement.

Cap.6.
Queenes gold.
Baronie.

Item that the queenes gold ſhall not run in demaund, by reaſon of this graunt. And that cities and burghes and all religious perſons, which holden by baronie, ſhall be bound to come to the parliament. And they that haue catals without gaining, ſhall be charged with the commons. And that the religiouſes and other people of holie church, for the lands and poſſeſſions purchaſed and appropried, not taxed with the taxe vſed of diſmes, ſhall be charged in this contribution with the commons. And that he which ſhall be found giltie of paſſage, ſhall be at the forfeiture of the double value of the wolles. And that the takers may take the wolles, in what part they ſhall be found out of ſaintuarie, after the ſort and the price of Notingham. And as to that which is behind of the ix. of the yeare paſt, the king ſhall doo to be aſſigned ſome of his owne, with good people of the counties, to take informations by all the waies that they can or may, of the true value of the ix. in euerie pariſh. And according to theſe informations the ix. ſhall be leuied.

Woolles.
Takers.
Ninth.

Chap.7
Petitions.

Item that the petitions, ſhewed by the great men and the commons, be affirmed according as they be graunted by the king, that is to ſaie, ſome by ſtatute, and the other by charter or patent, and deliuered to the knights of the ſhires, without anie thing paieng. And that it pleaſe the king, to performe the grace which he hath promiſed to the great men, in right to be attached and impriſoned now in this parliament. And they that haue made fines, ſhall ſtand at their fines or at the common law, at their owne choice.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made the xviij yeere of king Edward the third, for declaration of exigends.

Exigends.

IT is accorded & ſtabliſhed, that from henceforth of them which be or haue bene receiuers of the kings monie, or of his wolles, which they take of the people, & the ſame carie away, or deteine, ſo that our ſouereigne lord the king may not be thereof ſerued: And of them which bring wolles to the parties beyond the ſea, without being coketted, or paieng cuſtome or ſubſidie, whereto they be aſſeſſed, and of cuſtomers and finders, which ſuffer the ſame to the kings damage, of lay miniſters which receiue the kings monie, and the ſame retaine: Alſo of conſpirators, confederators, and maintainers of falſe quarels: Alſo of them that bring rowtes in the preſence of the iuſtices, or other the kings miniſters, or elſe where in the counties in affraie of the people, ſo that the law may not be done, aſwell of them which bring the ſame, as of them which come in their companie, or as of them which bring falſe monie in diſceite of the people, againſt all thoſe, in caſe they may not be found, or brought in, to anſwere, by attachment or diſtreſſe, for the profit of our ſouereigne lorde the king, the exigend ſhall be giuen and ſued, and not againſt other.

Here beginneth an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ſaid xviij. yeare.

IT is to be remembred, that at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the munday next after the vtas of the holie Trinitie, the yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is of England, the xviii. and of Fraunce the v. manie thinges were ſhewed in full parliament, which were attempted by the partie aduerſarie to our ſouereigne lorde the king, of Fraunce, againſt the truce late taken in Britaine, betwixt our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king and him: And how that he enforceth himſelfe aſmuch as he may, to deſtroy our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king, and his allies, ſubiects, lands, and places, and the tongue of England. And that was praied by our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king of the prelats, great men, and commons, that they would giue him ſuch councell and aide, as ſhould be expedient in ſo great neceſſitie. And the ſaid prelats, great men, and commons, taking good deliberation and aduiſe, and openlie ſeeing the ſubuerſion of the land of England, and the kings great buſines, which God defend, if haſtie remedie be not prouided, haue counceled iointlie and ſeuerallie, and praied with great inſtance our ſouereigne lord the king, that he would make him as ſtrong as he might to paſſe the ſea, in aſſurance of the aide of God and of his good quarell, effectuallie this time to make an end of his wars, or by way of peace or elſe by force. And that for letters, words, nor for faire promiſes, he ſhall let his paſſage, till he ſee the effect of his buſines. And for this cauſe the ſaid great men doo graunt, to paſſe and to auenture them with him: And the ſaid commons doo graunt to him, for the ſame cauſe vpon a certaine forme ii. quinzimes of the communaltie, and ii. diſmes of the cities and boroughes, to be leuied in maner as the laſt quinzime graunted to him, was leuied, and not in other maner: And to be paied by ii. yeares, at the feaſtes of all Saintes, and of Eaſter next folowing, for the firſt yeare. And in that, that our ſouereigne lorde the king doth paſſe the ſea, to pay at the ſame termes to the quinzime and diſme of the ſecond yeare, and not in other maner. So that the monie leuied of the ſame, be diſpended in the buſines ſhewed to them in this parliament, by the aduiſe of the great men thereto aſſigned. And that the aides beyond Trent, be put in defence of the North. And our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, for this cauſe, and in eaſe of the ſaid commons, and of all his faithfull ſubiects of England, by thaſſent of the prelates, great men, and commons, hath graunted of his good grace theſe thinges vnderwritten.

Quinzimes.
Diſmes.
Aides.

Chap. 1. Enquiries Enditements. FIrſt that the commiſſions of the new enquires ſhall ceaſe and be holie adnulled. And that writs be thereupon made of the iuſtices to ſurceaſe. Sauing the enditements of felonies and treſpaſſes doone againſt the peace, of woolles caried out of the realme, without paieng cuſtome or ſubſidie, and of other the kings goods, or of monie receiued or retained, by them which haue had commiſſion vnder the kings ſeale, and alſo of falſe monie brought within the realme, begone before the ſame iuſtices, named in the ſaid commiſſions, ſhall be determined in the kings bench, or before other iuſtices thereto aſſigned: and the exigends iſſued, and outlagaries pronounced, for other cauſes aforeſaid, ſhall ceaſe and be holie adnulled. And thereupon ſhall there be made writs as manie, and ſuch as ſhall be requiſite.

Chap. 2. Iuſtices of peace. Item that ii. or iii. the beſt of reputation in the counties, ſhall be aſſigned keepers of the peace by the kings commiſſion. And at what time neede ſhall be, the ſame with other wiſe and learned in the lawe, ſhall be aſſigned by the kings commiſſions, to heare and determine felonies and treſpaſſes doone againſt the peace in the ſame counties. And to doo puniſhment reaſonablie according to lawe and reaſon, and the maner of the deede

Chap. 3. Woolles. Sea. Item that the ordinances made before this time, vpon the taking of ſorts of woolles in euerie countie, be holie adnulled and defeated. And that euerie man, aſwell ſtranger as priuie, from henceforth may buie woolles, according as they may agree with the ſeller, as they were woont to doo before the ſaid ordinances. And that the ſea be open to all maner of marchants, to paſſe with their marchandiſes, where ſhall pleaſe them,

Chap. 4. Weights and meaſures: Item that the commiſſions to aſſaie meaſures and weights be repealed and wholie adnulled. And that from henceforth no ſuch commiſſion ſhall go out. And that it be demaunded to the treſurer and barons of the eſchequer, to doo come before them ſuch commiſſioners, to yeeld account to the king, notwithſtanding that they aledge, that they be iuſtices, and ought not to yeelde account. And if anie will vpon them complaine, he ſhall be heard. And thereupon writs ſhall be made to the ſhiriffes, to make proclamation, that they which will complaine vpon ſuch commiſſioners, ſhall come to the eſchequer, and there to complaine, and amends ſhall be to them made.

Chap. 5. Exigends. Item that no exigend ſhall from henceforth go out, in caſe where a man is endited of treſpas, and it be not againſt the peace, or of thinges which be conteined in the declaration, madein this caſe at the laſt parliament, holden at Weſtminſter.

Cap. 6. New monie. Item that no man be compelled to take the new monie & gold and ſiluer which our ſouereigne lord the king hath ordained, to go in paiment at a certaine price, within the ſumme of xx. s. And alſo that monie of gold and ſiluer be made in the citie of Yorke, and elſe where the king will it ordaine, in the maner as it is made in the towre of London. Exchanges. And exchanges ſhall be ordained in the good townes, according as it beſt ſhall ſeeme to our ſouereigne lorde the king, for the profit of him, and his people. And that it be ordained in a certaintie, what thing ſhall be giuen in exchange of euerie peece of gold.

Chap. 7 Purueiors. Item that the ſtatutes made vpon the purueiances, to be made for the houſes of the king, the queene, and their children, wherein is contained, that they ſhall not buie nor take nothing, vnles it be by the agreement of the ſellers, and by promiſe made betwixt the buiers and the ſellers. Marſhall and ſteward. And alſo that the ſtatutes made of the eſtate of the ſteward and marſhall of the kings houſe, and what pleas they ſhall hold and determine before them in the marſhalſie, ſhall be holden and kept in all their points. Which ſtatutes our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king hath doone to be tranſcribed, and ſent to the ſteward and marſhall of his houſe, and to the treſurer of the wardrobe, and writs with them, to keepe and maintaine the ſame in all points. Souldiars. And that men of armes, hoblers, and archers, choſen to go in the kings ſeruice out of England, ſhall be at the kings wages, fro the day that they depart out of the counties, where they were choſen, till their comming againe.

Here beginneth the ſtatute for the clergie, made at Weſtminſter the ſaid xviij. yeare.

EDward by the grace of God &c. greeting. Know ye, that at our parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the monday next after the vtas of the holie Trinitie, the yeare of our reigne of England the xviii. & of Fraunce the v. amongſt other things ſhewed, aſſented, & accorded in the ſaid parliament, there were ſhewed aſſented & accorded theſe thinges vnderwritten.

Chap. 1. FIrſt where as manie things haue bene attempted, by the partie our aduerſarie of Fraunce, againſt the truce late taken in Britaine, betwixt vs and him, and how that he enforceth himſelfe, aſmuch as he may, to deſtroie vs, and our allies, ſubiects, lands, and places, and the tongue of England: And thereupon we praied the prelats, great men, & the commons, that they would giue vs ſuch counſell and aide, as ſhould need in ſo great neceſſitie. And the ſaid prelats, great men, & commons, hauing thereof good deliberation and aduiſe, and ſeeing openlie the ſubuerſion of the land of England, and of our great buſines, which God defend, if ſpeedie remedie be not prouided: haue counſelled iointlie and ſeuerallie, and with great inſtance praien vs, that in aſſurance of the aide of God, and our good quarell, we ſhould make vs as ſtrong as we might, to paſſe the ſea, & by all the good means that we might, at this time to finiſh our wars. And that for letters, words, nor faire promiſes, we ſhould not let our paſſage, till we did ſee the effect of our buſines. And for this cauſe, the great men aforeſaid graunted to paſſe, & to auenture themſelues with vs. Diſme. And the ſaid prelats and procurators of the clergie, haue graunted to vs for the ſame cauſe, a triennall diſme, to be paied at certaine daies, that is to ſay, of the prouince of Canterburie, at the feaſts of the purification of our Ladie, and of ſaint Barnabe the apoſtle: And of the pꝛouince of Yoꝛke, at the feaſts of ſaint Luke, and the natiuity of ſaint John Baptiſt. And we foꝛ this cauſe, in maintenance of the eſtate of holie church, and in eaſe of the ſaide pꝛelates, and all the clergie of England, by aſſent of the great men, and of the commons, do grant of our good grace the things vnderwritten, that is to ſaie, that no archbiſhoppe noꝛ biſhoppe ſhall bee impeached befoꝛe our iuſtices becauſe of cryme, vnleſſe we eſpeciallie doe commaunde them, till an other remedie be thereof oꝛdeined. Pꝛelates.

Chap. 2. Clerke.

Item if anie clarke be arraigned befoꝛe our iuſtices, at our ſuite, oꝛ at the ſuite of the partie, and the clarke holdeth him to his clergie, alleadging that hee ought not befoꝛe them thereupon anſwere, and anie man foꝛ vs, oꝛ foꝛ the partie maketh a ſuggeſtion, that hee hath married two wiues, oꝛ one widowe, that vpon the ſame the iuſtices ſhall not haue coniſance noꝛ power to trie the begamie by enqueſtes, oꝛ in other maner: but it ſhall be ſent to the ſpirituall court, as hath bene done in caſe of baſterdie, and till the certification be made, by the oꝛdinarie, the partie in whom the bigamie is alleadged, by the woꝛdes afoꝛeſaide oꝛ in other maner, ſhall abide in pꝛiſon, if he be not mainpernable. Bigamie.

Chap. 3. Clergie. Moꝛtmayn.

Item if pꝛelates, clarkes beneficed, oꝛ religious folke, which haue purchaſed landes, and the ſame haue put to moꝛtmaine, bee impeached vpon the ſame befoꝛe our iuſtices, and they ſhewe to vs a charter of licence, and pꝛoces thereupon made by enqueſt of Ad quod dampnum, oꝛ of our grace, oꝛ by fine, they ſhal be fréelie let in peace, without being further impeached foꝛ the ſame purchace. And in caſe they can not ſufficientlie ſhewe, that they haue entred by due pꝛoces, after licence to them granted in generall, oꝛ in ſpeciall, that they ſhall be well receiued to make a conuenient fine. And that the inquire of this article, ſhall whollie ceaſe, accoꝛding to the accoꝛd compꝛiſed in this parliament.

Chap. 4. Purueiances.

Item that the ſtatutes touching the purueiances of vs, and of our ſonne, made in times paſt by vs and our pꝛogenitoꝛs, foꝛ people of holie church, be holden in all points. And that in the commiſſions to bee made vpon ſuch purueiances, the fées of holie church ſhall bee excepted in euerie place, where they be found.

Chap. 5. Pꝛohibitiõ

Item that no pꝛohibition go out of the Chauncerie, but in caſe where we haue the coniſaunce, and of right ought to haue.

Cap. 6. Spiritual iudges. Eyꝛe.

Item where as commiſſions be newly made to diuers iuſtices, that they ſhall make inquiries vpon iudges of holie church, whether they made iuſt pꝛoces oꝛ exceſſiue, in cauſes teſtamentoꝛie and other, which notoꝛiouſlie perteineth to the coniſance of holie church, the ſaid iuſtices haue enquired and done to be endited iudges of holie church, in blemiſhing of the franchiſe of holy church, that ſuch commiſſions be repealed, and from henceforth defended. Sauing the article in Eyꝛe, ſuch as ought to be.

Chap. 7. Clergie. Diſmes.

Item where as writs of Scire facias, haue bene granted, to warne pꝛelats religiouſes and other clarkes, to anſwere of diſmes in our Chancerie, and to ſhewe if they haue anie thing, oꝛ can anie thing ſaie, wherefoꝛe ſuch diſmes ought not to be reſtoꝛed to the ſaide demandantes, and to anſwere as well to vs, as to the partie of ſuch diſmes, that ſuch writs from henceforth be not graunted. And that the pꝛoces hanging vpon ſuch writs, bee adnulled & repealed. And that the parties be dimiſſed from the ſeculer iudges of ſuch maner of pleas. Sauing to vs our right, ſuch as we and our anceſters haue had, and were wont to haue of reaſon. In witneſſe whereof, at the requeſt of the ſaid pꝛelats, to this pꝛeſent letters we haue ſet our ſeale. Dated at London the viii. daie of Julie, the yéere of our reigne of England the xviii. and of Fraunce the v.

Here followeth the oth of the iuſtices made the ſame xviii. yeere.

Othe.

YE ſhall ſwere, that well and lawfullie ye ſhall ſerue our ſoueraigne loꝛde the king, and his people in the office of iuſtice, and that lawfullie ye ſhall councell the king in his buſineſſe, and that ye ſhall not councell, noꝛ aſſent to anie thing, which may turne him in damage oꝛ diſheriſon, by anie maner waie oꝛ colour. And that ye ſhall not know the damage oꝛ diſheriſon of him, wherof ye ſhall not do him to be warned by your ſelfe oꝛ by other, and that ye ſhall do euen lawe and execution of right, to all his ſubiects rich and poꝛe, without hauing regard to anie perſon. And that ye take not by your ſelfe noꝛ by other pꝛiuilie noꝛ apertlie, gift noꝛ rewarde of golde noꝛ ſiluer, noꝛ of anie other thing, which maie turne to your pꝛofite, vnleſſe it bee meate oꝛ dꝛinke, and that of ſmall valure, of anie man, that ſhall haue anie plea oꝛ pꝛoces hanging befoꝛe you, as long as the ſame pꝛoces ſhall ſo be hanging, noꝛ after foꝛ the ſame cauſe: And that ye take no fée, as long as ye ſhall be iuſtice, noꝛ robes of anie man great oꝛ ſmal, but of the king himſelfe. And that ye giue none aduiſe, noꝛ councell, to no man great noꝛ ſmall, in no caſe where the king is partie. And in caſe that anie, of what eſtate oꝛ condition they bee, come befoꝛe you in your ſeſſions, with foꝛce & armes, oꝛ otherwiſe againſt the peace, oꝛ againſt the foꝛme of the ſtatute therof made, to diſturbe execution of the common law, oꝛ to manace the people, that they maie not purſue the law, that ye ſhal do their bodies to be arreſted, & put in pꝛiſon: And in caſe they be ſuch, that ye maie not arreſt them, that ye certifie the king of their names, of their miſpꝛiſion haſtily, ſo that he maie therof oꝛdeine a couenable remedie: And that ye by your ſelfe, noꝛ by other, pꝛiuilie noꝛ appertlie, maintaine anie plea oꝛ quarell hanging in the kings court oꝛ elſe where in the countrie: and that ye denie to no man common right, by the kings letters, noꝛ none other mans, noꝛ foꝛ none other cauſe, Foꝛce and armes.

and in caſe anie letters come to you, contrarie to the lawe, that ye doe nothing by ſuch letters, but certifie the king thereof, and go forth to do the lawe, notwithſtanding the ſame letters. And that ye ſhall do and procure the profit of the king, and of his crowne, with all things where yee maie reaſonablie do the ſame. And in caſe ye be from hence forth found in default in anie of the points aforeſaid, ye ſhalbe at the kings will of bodie, lands, and goods, thereof to be done as ſhall pleaſe him, as God you helpe and all his ſaints.

Here beginneth the oth of clarkes of the Chauncerie, made at Weſtminſter the ſame yeere.

Othes. Clarkes of the chauncerie. YE ſhall ſwere, that well and lawfullie ye ſhall ſerue our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and his people, in the office of clarke of the Chauncerie, to which yée bée attitled: And yée ſhall not aſſent nor procure the kinges diſheriſon, nor perpetuall damage to your power, nor yee ſhall do nor procure to be done, anie fraude to anie mans wrong, nor thing that toucheth the keeping of the ſeale, and yee ſhall lawfullie councell in the thinges that toucheth the king, when ye ſhall be thereto required. And the councell which ye knowe touching him, yée ſhall councell. And if ye knowe the kinges diſheriſon or perpetuall damage or fraude to be done vpon thinges, which touch the ſeale, yee ſhall put your lawfull power to redreſſe and amende the ſame. And if yee can not the ſame doe, then ye ſhall certifie the Chaunceller or other, which maie doe the ſame to be amended to your intent. Clarkes of courſe. And for the clarkes of courſe ſhall be added. And ye ſhall not bring, nor to your knowledge ſuffer to bee brought anie writs, which yée make out of the courte, not ſealed, thereof to doe execution, nor ſhall recorde anie atturneie by writtes nor without writtes, without eſpeciall licence, if yée haue not lawfullie examined the partie, and the atturneie in proper perſon, or at the leaſt, him that ſhall make the atturneie in proper perſon, nor ye ſhall deliuer no writ, which ſhall be of commandement to the examiners, nor to the ſeale, before that the ſame writ be ſent to you by the commander, which thereof hath power, vnleſſe it be to the Chaunceller, or to one of the maſters, which commaunded you to make the writtes. And all the writtes that ye ſhall make, yee ſhall deliuer them to the examiners by your owne hande, or by one compaignion which is ſworne to the king, if ye your ſelfe bee out of the court, becauſe of ſickneſſe or other cauſe neceſſarie, ſo that ye can not the ſame do. And that no writ written of an other mans hand be deliuered to the examiners, vnder your name, as yours, nor no name ſhall yee put vpon your writs, but your owne, as God you helpe, and all his ſaints.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xv. yeere of king Edward the third.

EDwarde by the grace of God, &c. to the ſhiriffe of Stafforde, gréeting. Becauſe that by diuerſe complaintes made to vs, we haue perceiued that the lawe of the lande, which we by our othe be bounde to maintaine, is the leſſe well kept, and the execution of the ſame diſturbed manie times by maintenance and procurement, as well in the courte as in the countrie, wee greatlie mooued of conſcience in this matter, and for this cauſe deſiring as much for the pleaſure of God and eaſe and quietnes of our ſubiects, as to ſaue our conſcience, and for to ſaue and kéepe our ſaide oth, by the aſſent of the great men, and other wiſe men of our councell, we haue ordeined theſe things following.

Chap. 1. Letters. Iuſtice. FIrſt we haue commaunded all our iuſtices, that they ſhall from hence forth doe euen lawe and execution of right to all our ſubiectes rich and poore, without hauing regarde to anie perſon, and without letting to do right for anie letters or commandement, which maie come to them from vs, or from anie other or by anie other cauſe. And in that anie letters writtes or commandementes come to the iuſtices, or to other deputed to doe lawe and right according to the vſage of the realme, in diſturbance of the lawe, or of the execution of the ſame, or of right to the parties, the iuſtices and other aforeſaide ſhall procéede and holde their courtes and proceſſes where the pleas and matters be depending before them, as if no ſuch letters, writs or commandements were come to them. And they ſhall certifie vs and our councell of ſuch commaundementes, which be contrarie to the lawe, as afore is ſaide. And to the intent that our iuſtices ſhoulde doe euen right to all people in the maner aforeſaide, without more fauour ſhewing to one then to other, wée haue done our ſaide iuſtices to bée ſworne, that they ſhall not from hence forth, as long as they ſhall bée in the office of iuſtice, take fée nor robe of anie man, but of our ſelfe. Fee & robe. And they ſhall take no gift nor reward by them ſelſe nor by other priuilie nor apertlie of anie man that hath to do before them by anie waie, except meate and drinke, and that of ſmall value, and that they ſhall giue no councell to great man nor ſmal in caſe where we be partie, or which doth or maie touch vs in anie point, vpon paine to bée at our will bodie landes and goods, to doe thereof as ſhall pleaſe vs, in caſe they doe contrarie. And for this cauſe wée haue increaſed the fées of the ſame our iuſtices, in ſuch maner that it ought reaſonablie to ſuffice them.

Chap. 2. Barons of the eſchequer. In the ſame maner we haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed in the right of the barons of the eſchequer, and we haue expreſlie charged them in our preſence, that they ſhall doe right and reaſon to all our ſubiectes great and ſmall. And that they ſhall deliuer the people reaſonablie and without delaie of the buſineſſe which they haue to do before them, without vndue tarrying, as hath beene done in times paſt.

Cap. 3. Iuſtices aſſigned. Item we haue ordeined, that all they which ſhall be Iuſtices aſſigned by commiſſion, to heare and determine, and ſuch as ſhal be aſſociate to them, And alſo Iuſtices of aſſiſes to be taken in the countrie, and of gayle deliuerie, and ſuch as ſhall be aſſigned & aſſociate to them, ſhall make firſt ſuch an othe in certaine points, according as to them ſhall bee enioyned by our councell in our chauncerie, before that anie commiſſion be to them deliuered.

Chap. 4. Maintenance. Item we haue commaunded and vtterlie defended, that none of our houſe, nor of them that be about vs, nor other, which be towardes our deere beloued compagnion the Queene, or our ſonne prince of Wales, or towardes our courts, nor prelates, earles, barons, nor other great nor ſmall of the land, of what eſtate or condition they be, ſhall not take in hand quarels other then their own, nor the ſame maintaine by them nor by other, priuily nor appertly, for gift, promiſe, amitie, fauor, doubt or feare, nor for none other cauſe, in diſturbance of the law, and hinderance of right & reaſon, vpon the peines aforeſaid, but that euerie man may be free to ſue for & defende his right in our courts and els where, according to the law. And we haue ſtraitly commaunded our ſaide ſonne, & diuers earles and other great men, being before vs, that they on their behalfe ſhall do to bee kept this ordinance without default, and that they ſuffer none, which be towardes them to attempt againſt this ordinance by anie waie.

Chap. 5. Bearers. Mainteners. Item becauſe we be enformed, that manie bearers and maintainers of quarels and partes in the countrie, be maintained and borne by lords, whereby they be the more encouraged to offende, and by procurement, couin, and maintenance of ſuch bearers in the countrie, manie people bee diſherited, and ſome delayed and diſturbed of their right, and ſome not gyltie, conuict and condemned, or otherwiſe oppreſſed, in the vndoing of their eſtate, and in the notorious deſtruction of our people: we haue commaunded and do commaund, that all the great men from henceforth ſhall voide from their retinue, fees, and robes, all ſuch bearers and mainteiners in the countrie, without ſhewing to them anie ayde, fauor or comfort in anie maner. And moreouer we haue ordeined to do come before vs at a certeine daie, or before them whome wee ſhall depute of our councell, ſuch bearers and maintainers of diuers counties, and them do to be diligently examined and charged, that they from henſforth void them of ſuch maintenances or other procurements making in the countrie in dammage of our people. And that vpon greeuous peines which to them ſhall be ſhewed.

Cap. 6. Iuſtices of aſſiſes. Item we will and haue ordeined, that the Iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes, ſhall haue commiſſions ſufficient of ſuch things, to enquire. And that they ſhall enquire in their ſeſſions of ſhirifes, eſchetors, bailifes of franchiſes, and their vnderminiſters, and all other, and alſo of mainteinors, common embracers, and iurors in the countrie .s. of the giftes, rewardes, and other profits, which the ſaide miniſters do take of the people to do their office, and that that perteineth to their office, and for araying of panels, putting in the ſame ſuſpect iurors, and of euill fame. And of that that the mainteiners, embracers, and iurors in the countrie do take giftes, rewardes & wages of the parties, whereby great greefe commeth daily to the people, in ſubuertion of the lawe, and diſturbance of common right. And to puniſh all them which thereof ſhall be found guilty, according as law and reaſon requireth, aſwell at our ſuite as at the parties. And thereupon we haue charged our chauncellor and treaſurer to heare the complaints of all them, which will complaine, and to ordeine that ſpeedie remedie be thereof made. Chanceller Treaſurer. Wherefore we do commaund, that thou do the ſaid points openly to be publiſhed within thy bailiwike, to the intent that they, which feele them therein greeued, in the forme aforeſaide may purſue for remedie according to the ſaid ordinance, & that the people may perceiue our intent and will in this behalfe, and the deſire that we haue, that euen right be done to all our ſubiects, aſwell pore as rich, and that the offenders be reſtrained & puniſhed. Dated at Weſtminſter the vii. daie of May, the yeere of our reigne of England the xx. and of Fraunce the vii.

Here beginneth the Statute of Laborers made the xxiii. yeere of King Edward the third.

Chap. 1. EDwarde by the grace of God, &c. to the reuerend father in Chriſt William by the ſame grace archbiſhop of Caunterburie, primate of all Englande, greeting. Becauſe a great parte of the people, and eſpeciallie of workemen and ſeruaunts late died in peſtilence, manie ſeeing the neceſſitie of maiſters, and great ſcarcitie of ſeruaunts, will not ſerue, vnleſſe they may receiue exceſſiue wages, and ſome rather willing to begge in ydleneſſe, than by labour to get their liuing: Wee conſidering the greeuous incommodities, which of the lacke eſpecially of ploughmen and ſuch labourers may heereafter come, haue had thereupon deliberation and treatie with the Prelates and the Nobles and wiſe men aſſiſting vs, of whoſe mutuall counſell it is ordeined, that euerie man and woman of our Realme of Englande, of what condition hee bee, free or bonde, able in bodie, and within the age of three ſcore yeeres, not liuing in merchandize, nor exerciſing anie craft, nor hauing of his owne whereof he may liue, nor proper lande, about whoſe tillage hee may himſelfe occupie, and not ſeruing anie other, if hee in conuenient ſeruice (his eſtate conſidered) bee required to ſerue, hee ſhall bee bounden to ſerue him which ſo ſhall him require, And take onely the wages, liuerie, meede, or ſalarie, Laborers.

which were accuſtomed to be giuen in the places where he oweth to ſerue, the xx. yere of our reigne of England, or v. or vi. other common yéeres next before. Prouided alwaies, that the lords be preferred before other in their bondmen or their land tenants, ſo in their ſeruice to be reteined. So that neuertheleſſe the ſaid lords ſhall reteine no more than be neceſſarie for them. And if anie ſuch man or woman, being ſo required to ſerue, will not the ſame do that proued by ii. true men before the ſhirife or the bailifes of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, or the conſtables of the towne where the ſame ſhall happen to be done, he ſhall anon be taken by them or anie of them and committed to the next gayle, there to remaine vnder ſtraite kéeping, till he find ſuretie to ſerue in the forme aforeſaid.

Cap. 2. Laborers departing from their ſeruice.

Item if anie repar, mowar or other workman or ſeruant, of what eſtate or condition that hée be, retained in anie mans ſeruice do depart from the ſaid ſeruice without reaſonable cauſe or licence, before the terme agréed, he ſhall haue peine of impriſonment. And that none vnder the ſame peine preſume to receiue or to retaine anie ſuch in his ſeruice.

Cap. 3. Seruants.

Item that no man paie or promiſe to paie to anie ſeruant anie more wages, liueries, meede, or ſalarie, than was wont, as afore is ſaid. Nor that anie in other manner ſhall demaunde or receiue the ſame, vpon peine of doubling of that that ſo ſhall be paied, promiſed, required, or receiued, to him which thereof ſhall féele himſelfe grieued purſuing for the ſame. And if none ſuch wil purſue, then the ſame to be applyed to anie of the people that wil purſue. And ſuch purſuite ſhall be in the court of the lord of the place where ſuch caſe ſhall happen.

Chap. 4. Lords of townes or manors.

Item if the lords of the townes or manors preſume in anie point to come againſt this preſent ordinance either by them, or by their ſeruants, than purſuite ſhall be made againſt them in the counties, wapentakes, tithings, or ſuch other our courts, for the treble peine paide or promiſed by them or their ſeruants in the forme aforeſaid. And if anie before this preſent ordinance hath couenanted with anie ſo to ſerue for more wages, he ſhall not be bound by reaſon of the ſame couenant, to paie more than at another time was wont to be paide to ſuch perſon. Nor vpon the ſaide peine ſhall preſume anie more to pay.

Chap. 5. Artificers.

Item that ſadlers, ſkinners, white tawers, cordwainers, tailors, ſmithes, carpenters, maſons, tylars, ſhipwrightes, carters, and all other artificers and worke men ſhall not take for their labor and workemanſhip aboue the ſame that was wont to be paide to ſuch perſons the ſaid xx. yere and other common yéers next before, as afore is ſaide, in the place where they ſhall happen to worke. And if anie man take more, he ſhall be committed to the next gayle, in the manner as afore is ſaide.

Cap. 6. Vitailers. Vitails.

Item that bochers, fiſhmongers, hoſtelers, bruers, bakers, pulters, and all other ſellers of all maner vitaile, ſhall be bound to ſell the ſame vitaile for a reaſonable price, hauing reſpect to the price that ſuch vitailes be ſold at, in the places aioyning. So that the ſame ſellers haue a moderat gaines & not exceſſiue, reſonably to be required according to the diſtance of the place from whence the ſaide vitailes be carried. And if anie ſell ſuch vitailes in anie other manner, and thereof bee conuict in the manner and forme aforeſaid, he ſhall paie the double of the ſame that he ſo receiued, to the partie damnified, or in default of him, to anie other that will purſue in this behalfe: And the maiors and bailifes of cities, boroughes, merchant townes, and of the portes of the ſea and other places, ſhall haue power to enquire of all and ſinguler which ſhall in anie thing offende the ſame: And to leuie the ſaid peine to the vſe of them, at whoſe ſuite ſuch offenders ſhall be conuict.

Maiors. Bailifes.

And in caſe that the ſame maiors and bailifes be negligent in doing execution of the premiſſes, & thereof be conuict before our Iuſtices, by vs to be aſſigned: than the ſame maiors & bailifs ſhall be compelled by the ſame Iuſtices to paie the treble of the thing ſo ſolde, to the partie damnified, or to anie other in default of him that will purſue. And neuertheleſſe towardes vs they ſhall be gréeuouſlie puniſhed.

Cap. 7. Beggars.

Item becauſe that manie valiant beggers, as long as they may liue of begging, do refuſe to labor, giuing themſelfe to idleneſſe and vice, and ſometime to theft and other abhominations: None vpon the ſaid peine of impriſonment ſhall, vnder the colour of pitie or almes, giue any thing to ſuch, which may labor, or preſume to fauor them towardes their deſires, ſo that thereby they may be compelled to labor for their neceſſarie liuing. Wherefore our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, the xxiiii. daie of Iune, the xxiii. yeere of his raigne, hath commaunded to all the ſhirifes of England by diuers writs, that they ſhall do openly to be proclaimed and holden, all and ſinguler the premiſſes in the counties, boroughes, merchant townes, ſea portes, and other places in their bailiwikes, where to them ſhall ſéeme expedient: And that they doe thereof due execution, as afore is ſaid.

Shirifes.

Cap. 8.

Subſequentlie our ſoueraigne lord the king perceiuing by the common complaint, that his people, for ſuch exceſſiue ſtipend liueries and prices, which to ſuch ſeruants laborers and workemen were conſtrainedly payed, be oppreſſed, and that the diſme and quinzime to him attaining might not be payed, vnleſſe remedie were therefore prouided: Regarding alſo the coactions and manifeſt extortions, and that there was no man, which againſt ſuch offenders did purſue for the ſaide commoditie ſo ordeined to be obtained: wherefore it was conſonant, that that thing which was ordeined to be applyed to ſingular vſes, ſeing that the ſame perſons did not nor would not purſue, ſhould be conuerted to a publique and common profit, by the aduiſe of his councell, hath ordeined, that all and ſinguler workemen, ſeruants, and artificers, as well men as women, of what

Workmen. Seruants. Artificers.

ſoeuer eſtate oꝛ condition they be, taking moꝛe foꝛ their labours, ſeruices, and woꝛkemanſhip then they were wont to take the ſaid xx. yeere, & other yeres afoꝛeſaid, ſhould be aſſeſſed to all the ſame ſumme, which they ſhall receiue ouer and aboue, with other ſummes as well foꝛ the time paſt, when the ſtipend wages, liueries, and pꝛices were augmented, as foꝛ the time then to come. And that the ſaide whole ſumme receiued ouer and aboue, ſhoulde bee leuied of euerie of them, and gathered to the kinges vſe, in alleuiation of euerie of the townes, whereof the ſaide artificers, ſeruants, and labourers be, towardes the paimentes of the ſummes of the diſme and quinzime yet running, whereunto the ſame townes oꝛ people of the ſame were aſſeſſed. So that alwaies, the ſame diſme and quinzime ended, all the ſame monie, liueries, and pꝛices, oꝛ the value of the ſame liueries, which (as afoꝛe is ſaid) ſhould be ouer and aboue receiued of them and euerie of them, ſhould be leuied and gathered by them, whom the king will thereto aſſigne, to the kings vſe, in alleuiation and ſuppoꝛtation of the realme of Englande. And that they which foꝛ the ſame to ſerue, oꝛ the ſaide ſummes ſo by them ouer and aboue receiued, and befoꝛe aſſeſſed to paie, and their craftes and woꝛke to exerciſe do refuſe, they ſhall be incontinentlie arreſted by the taxers and collectoꝛs of the ſaide diſme and quinzime, oꝛ anie of them, in euerie of the ſaid townes deputed to execute the pꝛemiſſes, oꝛ by the bailiffes of the places, oꝛ conſtables of the townes, when they be thereof certified, & committed to the gaile, there to remaine till they haue founde ſuertie to ſerue, & ſhall paie that that they ſhall aboue receiue, accoꝛding to the ſame oꝛdinances, oꝛ till the king ſhall ſome other thing therof demaund. And alwaies it is the intent of the king and of his councell, that accoꝛding to the firſt oꝛdinance it ſhoulde bee lawfull, and ſhall bee lawfull to euerie man, to purſue againſt all exceeding the ſame, oꝛ not obeieng to the ſame, and the thing recouered to be aplied to his owne vſe. And therefoꝛe our ſaide ſouereigne loꝛde the king hath commaunded all archbiſhops and biſhops, that they doe to bee publiſhed the pꝛemiſſes in all places of their dioceiſes, commaunding the curates and other ſubdioceiſans, that they compell their parochiens to labour, accoꝛding to the neceſſitie of the time, and alſo their ſtipendiarie pꝛeeſtes of their ſaid dioceiſes, which doe nowe exceſſiuelie take, and wil not, as it is ſaid, ſerue foꝛ a competent ſallarie, as hath bene accuſtomed, vpon paine of ſuſpenſion and interdiction. And that in no wiſe ye omit the ſame, as ye loue vs and the common wealth of our realme. Dated the daie and yeere afoꝛeſaid.

Curats. Stipendiary pꝛeeſtes.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of Labourers made the xxv. yeere of king Edward the third.

Seruants

Where as late againſt the malice of ſeruants, which were idle, and not willing to ſerue after the peſtilence, without taking exceſſiue wages, it was oꝛdeined by our ſouereigne loꝛd the king and by aſſent of the pꝛelates, earles, barons, and other of his councell, that ſuch maner ſeruants, as well men as women, ſhoulde be bounde to ſerue, receiuing ſallarie and wages accuſtomed in the places where they ought to ſerue, in the xx. yeere of the reigne of the king that now is, oꝛ fiue oꝛ ſixe yeeres befoꝛe, and that the ſame ſeruants refuſing to ſerue in ſuch maner ſhoulde bee puniſhed by impꝛiſonment of their bodies, as in the ſaide ſtatute is moꝛe plainelie conteined: wherevpon commiſſions were made to diuerſe people in euerie countie to enquire and puniſh all them which come againſt the ſame. And nowe foꝛ as much as it is done the king to vnderſtande in this pꝛeſent parliament, by the petition of the comminaltie, that the ſaide ſeruantes, hauing no regarde to the ſaide oꝛdinance, but to their eaſe and ſinguler couetiſe, do withdꝛawe them ſelfe to ſerue great men and other, vnleſſe they haue liuerie and wages to the double oꝛ treble of that that they were woont to take, the twentie yeere and befoꝛe, to the great damage of the great men, and impoueriſhing of all the ſaid comminaltie, where of the ſaid comminaltie pꝛaieth remedie. Wherefoꝛe in the ſame parliament, by aſſent of the ſaide pꝛelates, earles, barons, & other great men of the ſame comminaltie there aſſembled, to refraine the malice of the ſaide ſeruantes, be oꝛdeined and eſtabliſhed the thinges vnderwꝛitten.

Chap. 1. Wages of laboꝛers.

First that carters, ploughmen, dꝛiuers of the plough, ſhepheardes, ſwineheardes, deies, and all other ſeruantes, ſhall take liueries and wages, accuſtomed the ſaide twentie yeere, oꝛ foure yeeres befoꝛe, ſo that in the countrie, where wheate was wont to be giuen, they ſhall take foꝛ the buſhell tenne pence, oꝛ wheate at the will of the giuer, till it be otherwiſe oꝛdeined. And that they be alloweed to ſerue by an whole yeere, oꝛ by other vſuall termes, and not by the daie. And that none paie in the time of ſarcling oꝛ heie making but a penie the daie. And a mower of medowes foꝛ the acre fiue pence, oꝛ by the daie fiue pence. And reapers of coꝛne in the firſt weeke of Auguſt two pence, and the ſeconde three pence, and ſo till the ende of Auguſt, and leſſe in the countrie where leſſe was woont to bee giuen, without meate oꝛ dꝛinke, oꝛ other courteſie to bee demaunded, giuen, oꝛ taken. And that all woꝛkemen bꝛing openlie in their handes to the marchant townes their inſtrumentes, and there ſhall bee hired in a common place and not pꝛiuie.

Mower. Reyer.

Chap. 2. Thꝛeſhers.

¶ Item that none take foꝛ the thꝛeaſhing of a quarter of wheate oꝛ rie ouer ii.d.ob. and the quarter of barlie, beanes, peaſe, and otes i.d.ob. if ſo much were woont to be giuen, and in the country, where it is vſed to reape by certeine ſheeues and to thꝛeſh by certeine buſhelles, they ſhall take no moꝛe noꝛ in other maner then was wont the ſaide xx. yeere and befoꝛe. And that the ſame ſeruauntes be ſwoꝛne two times in the yeere befoꝛe loꝛdes, ſtewardes, bailiffes, and conſtables of euerie towne,

Seruants ſwoꝛne.

to holde and doe this ordinaunces. And that none of them goe out of the towne, where hee dwelleth in the winter, to ſerue the ſommer, if he maie haue ſeruice in the ſame towne, taking as before is ſaide. Sauing that the people of the counties of Stafforde, Lancaſter, and Derbie, and people of Crauen, and of the marches of Wales and Scotlande, and other places, maie come in time of Auguſt, and labour in other counties, and ſafelie returne, as they were wont to doe before this time. And that thoſe, which refuſe to make ſuch oth, or to performe that that they be ſworne to, or haue taken vpon them, ſhall be put in the ſtockes by the ſaide lordes, ſtewards, bailiffes, and conſtables of the townes by three daies or more, or ſent to the next gaile, there to remaine, till they will iuſtifie them ſelues. And that ſtockes bee made in euerie towne by ſuch occaſion betwixt this and the feaſt of Pentecoſt.

Stockes.

Chap. 3. Carpenters. Maſons. Tilers. Thatchers Mudwall makers.

Item that carpenters, maſons, and tilers, and other workemen of houſes, ſhall not take by the daie for their worke, but in maner as they were wont, that is to ſaie. A maſter carpenter.iii.d. and an other ii.d. A maſter free maſon iiii.d. and other maſons iii.d. and their ſeruantes i.d.ob. tylers iii d. and their knaues i.d.ob. and other couerers of ferne and ſtrawe iii.d. and their knaues i.d. ob. plaſterers and others workers of mudwalles, and their knaues, by the ſame maner, without meate or drinke.s. from Eaſter to ſaint Michaell. And from that time leſſe according to the rate and diſcretion of the iuſtices, which ſhoulde be thereto aſſigned. And that they that make cariage by land or by water, ſhall take no more for ſuch cariage to be made, then they were wont the ſaide xx.yeere, and iiii.yeeres before.

Chap. 4. Cordwainers. Shoomakers.

Item that cordwainers and ſhoomakers, ſhall not ſell bootes nor ſhooes, nor none other thing touching their myſterie, in anie other maner then they were wont the ſaid xx.yeere.

Chap. 5. Artificers ſworne.

Item that goldſmithes, ſadlers, horſeſmithes, ſporriers, tanners, corriers, tawers of lether, taylers and other workemen artificers and labourers, and all other ſeruants here not ſpecified, ſhall be ſworne before the iuſtices, to doe and vſe their craftes and offices in the maner as they were wont to do the ſaide xx. yeere, and in the time before, without refuſing the ſame becauſe of this ordinance. And if anie of the ſaide ſeruants labourers workemen or artificers after ſuch othe made come againſt this ordinance, he ſhall be puniſhed by fine and ranſome and impriſonment after the diſcretion of the iuſtices.

Chap. 6. Stewards Bailiffes. Conſtables

Item that the ſaide ſtewards, bailiffes, and conſtables of the ſaid townes, be ſworne before the ſame iuſtices, to inquire diligentlie by all the good waies they maie, of all them that come againſt this ordinance, and to certifie the ſame iuſtices of their names at all times, when they ſhall come into the countrie to make their ſeſſions, ſo that the ſame iuſtices in certification of the ſame ſtewardes, bailiffes, and conſtables, of the names of the rebelles, ſhall doe them to bee attached by their bodie, to be before the ſaide iuſtices, to anſwere of ſuch contempts, ſo that they make fine and raunſome to the king, in caſe they bee attainted. And moreouer to bee commaunded to priſon, there to remaine, till they haue founde ſuertie, to ſerue, and take, and doe their worke, and to ſell thinges vendible in the maner aforeſayde. And in caſe that anie of them come againſt his oth, and be thereof attainted, he ſhall haue impriſonment of fortie daies. And if he bee an other time conuict, hee ſhall haue impriſonment of a quarter of a yeere, ſo that at euerie time, that he offendeth and is conuict, he ſhall haue double paine. And that the ſame iuſtices, at euerie time they come into the countrie, ſhall inquire of the ſaide ſtewardes, bailiffes, and conſtables, if they haue made a good and lawfull certificate, or anie conceale for gift, procurement, or affinitie, and puniſh them by fine and raunſome, if they bee founde guiltie. And that the ſame iuſtices haue power to enquire and make due puniſhment of the ſaide miniſters, labourers, workmen and other ſeruantes. And alſo of hoſtlers, harbergers, and of thoſe that ſel vittailes by retaile, or other things here not ſpecified, as well at the ſuite of the partie, as by preſentment, and to heare and determine, and put the thinges in execution by the exigend after the firſt capias if neede be, and to depute other vnder them, as manie and ſuch as they ſhall ſee beſt for the keeping of the ſame ordinance. And that they, which will ſue againſt ſuch ſeruantes, workmen, labourers, and artificers, for exceſſe taken of them, and they be thereof attainted at their ſuite, they ſhall haue againe ſuch exceſſe. And in caſe that none will ſue, to haue againe ſuch exceſſe, then it ſhall be leuied of the ſaide ſeruants, labourers, workmen, and artificers, and deliuered to the collectors of the quinzime, in alleuiation of the townes where ſuch exceſſes were taken.

Puniſhment of oth breaking.

Hoſtelers. Vittailers.

Chap. 7. Shiriffes. Conſtables Bailiffes. Iailors. Clarkes of iuſtices &c.

Item that no ſhiriffes, conſtables, bailiffes, and iailers, the clarkes of the iuſtices, or of the ſhiriffes, nor other miniſters what ſo euer they bee, take anie thing for the cauſe of their office of the ſame ſeruantes, for fees, ſuite, of priſon nor in other maner, and if they haue anie thing taken in ſuch maner, they ſhall deliuer the ſame to the collectors of diſmes and quinzimes, in aide of the commons, for the time that the diſme and quinzime doeth runne, as well for the time paſt, as for the time to come. And that the ſaide iuſtices enquire in their ſeſſions, if the ſaide miniſters haue anie thing receiued of the ſame ſeruants, and that that they ſhall finde by ſuch enqueſtes, that the ſayde miniſters haue receiued, the ſame iuſtices ſhall leuey of euerie of the ſayde miniſters, and deliuer to the ſayde collectors, together with the exceſſe and fines and raunſomes made, and alſo the amerciaments of all them which ſhall be amercied before the ſayde iuſtices, in alleuiation of the ſaide townes, as afore is ſayde. And in caſe the exceſſe founde in one towne, doeth exceede the quantitie of the quinzime of the ſame towne, the remnaunt of ſuch exceſſe ſhall bee leuied and paied by the ſayde collectors, to the next poore townes, in ayde of their quinzime, Iuſtices.

by

Fines.

by aduiſe of the ſaide Juſtices. And that the fines and raunſomes, exceſſes and amercements of the ſaide ſeruants laborers and artificers, for the time to come running of the ſaide quinzime, be deliuered to the ſaide collectors, in the forme aforeſaide, by indentures to be made betwixt them and the ſaide Juſtices, ſo that the ſame collectors may be charged vpon their accompt by the ſame indentures, in caſe that the ſaid fines, ranſomes, amercements, and exceſſes be not paide in ayde of the ſaid quinzime. And ſeſſing the ſaid quinzime, it ſhalbe leuyed to the kings vſe, and aunſwered to him by the ſhirifes of the counties.

Cap. 8. Juſtices. Seſſions.

Item that the ſaid Juſtices make their ſeſſions in all the counties of Englande at the leaſt iiii. times a yéere, that is to ſaie, at the feaſt of the Annuntiation of our Ladie, Saint Margaret, Saint Michaell, and Saint Nicholas. And alſo at all times that ſhall néede, according to the diſcretion of the ſaide Juſtices. And that thoſe that ſpeake in the preſence of the ſaide Juſtices, or other things doe in their abſence or preſence, in encouraging or maintenance of the ſaide ſeruants labourers or artificers againſt this ordinance, ſhall be greeuouſely puniſhed by the diſcretion of the ſame Juſtices. And if anie of the ſaide ſeruaunts labourers or artificers doe flee from one countie to another, becauſe of this ordinance, that the ſhirifes of the counties, where ſuch fugitiue perſons ſhall be found, ſhall doe them to be taken, at the commaundement of the Juſtices of the counties, from whence they ſhall flee, & bring them to the chiefe gayle of the ſame countie, there to abide till the next ſeſſions of the ſame Juſtices. And that the ſhirifes returne the ſame commaundements before the ſame Juſtices at their next ſeſſions. And that this ordinance be holden and kept, aſwell in the citie of London, as in other cities and boroughes, and other places throughout the land, aſwell within Fraunchiſes as without.

Seruants. Laborers. Artificers. Shirifes.

Heere beginneth the Statute made of thoſe that be borne beyond the ſea, made at Weſtminſter the ſaid xxv. yere of king Edward the third.

OUR ſoueraigne lord the king, at his parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter, at the vtas of the purification of our ladie, the yéere of his reigne of England the xxv. and of France the xii. conſidering the great miſcheefes and dammage, which haue happened to the people of his realme of England, becauſe that ſtatutes made and ordeined before this time, haue not beene holden and kept, as they ought to be, as becauſe of the mortall peſtilence that late reigned, and willing to prouide quietnes & common profit for his ſaid people, by the aſſent of the prelates, earles, barons, and other great men, and all the commons of his ſaid realme, ſommoned to the ſaid parliament, hath ordeined, and ſtabliſhed theſe things vnderwritten .s. becauſe the people be in ambiguitie and doubt, if the children borne in the parties beyond the ſea, out of the kings liegeance of England, ſhould be able to demaund anie inheritance within the ſame liegeance or not, whereof a petition was put into the parliament late holden at Weſtminſter, the xvii. yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, and was not at the ſame time wholie aſſented: Our ſoueraigne lord the king willing that all doubtes and ambignities ſhould be put away, and the lawe in this caſe declared, and put in a certeintie, hath charged the ſaide prelates, earles, barons, and other wiſe men of his councell, aſſembled in this parliament, to deliberate vpon this point: which of one aſſent haue ſaide, that the lawe of the crowne of England is, and alwayes hath beene ſuch that the children of the kings of Englande, in what ſo euer parties they be borne, in England or els where, be able and owe to beare the inheritance after the death of their aunceſters. Which law our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, the ſaide prelates, earles, barons and other great men, and all the commons aſſembled in this parliament do approue and affirme for euer. And in the right of other children borne out of the liegeance of Englande, in the time of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, they be of one minde accorded, that Henrie ſonne of John de Beaumond, Elizabeth daughter of Guy de Bryone, and John ſonne of Rauſe Daubeney, and other, which the king will name, which were borne beyond the ſea, out of the liegeance of England, ſhall be from henſforth able to haue and enioy their inheritance after the death of their aunceſters, in all parties within the liegeance of England, as well as thoſe that ſhould be borne within the ſame liegeance of England. And that all children inheriters, which from henceforth ſhall be borne within the liegeance of the king, whoſe fathers and mothers at the time of the birth be and ſhall be at the faith and liegeance of the king of England, ſhall haue and enioy the ſame benefices and auantages, and haue and beare the inheritance within the ſame liegeance, as the other inheriters aforeſaide in time to come, ſo alwaies that the mothers of ſuch children paſſe the ſea by the licence and willes of their huſbandes. And if it be alledged againſt anie ſuch borne beyond the ſea, that he is baſtarde, in caſe where the biſhop oweth to haue coniſance of baſtardie, it ſhall be commaunded to the biſhop of the place, where the land demaunded is, to certifie the kings court, where the plea thereof hangeth, as of old times hath béene vſed in the caſe of baſtardie, alledged againſt them which were borne in England.

Children borne out of the liegeance of England.

Baſtardie.

Here beginneth the Statute for the clergie, made at Weſtminſter the ſaid xxv. yeere.

OUR ſoueraigne lord the king, ſeing and examining by good deliberation the petitions & articles deliuered to him in his parliament, holden at Weſtminſter in the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie, the yéere of his raigne of England the xxv. and of France the xii. by the honoble fathers in God Simon archbiſhop of Caunterburie and other biſhops of his prouince, vpon and for certaine greuances, which they alledged to be don to holie church and to the clergie, againſt the priuileges of holie church, and then they praied, that a couenable remedie might be thereof ordeined to the reuerence of God and of holie church: by thaſſent of his parliament for him and his heires, willeth and graunteth the points vnderwritten.

Cap. 1. Preſentments. Prelate. FIrſt, that all the priuileges and franchiſes graunted heretofore to the ſaid clergie, be confirmed and holden in all points. And as touching preſentments to be made by our ſoueraigne lord the king, or anie of his heires to a benefice of holie church, in anothers right by old title: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, to the honor of God and of holie church, willeth and graunteth, of the aſſent of the parliament, that from henſforth he nor none of his heires ſhall not take title to preſent to anie benefice in anothers right of anie time of his progenitors. Nor that anie prelate of his realme be bounden to receiue anie ſuch preſentment to be made, nor to do thereof execution, nor no Juſtice of the one place or the other, may not nor ought not to hold plea, or giue iudgement vpon anie ſuch preſentment to be made: But that the ſaid king and his heires be barred of al ſuch preſentments in an others right, fallen or to fall of all his time, and of the time to come.

Cap. 2. Preſentment. Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xiiii. yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, amongeſt other things then graunted to the prelates of holie church, it was ordeined, that the king ſhould not take title to preſent to anie benefice in anothers right, but of the voidances, which ſhould happen of ſuch benefices within iii. yeeres next before his preſentment, which thing ſeemeth verie preiudiciall to the king and his heires: It is accorded in this preſent parliament, that the ſaid ordinance, as to this point, ſhalbe holden for none. But neuertheleſſe, that all the other articles conteined in the ſaid ordinance & graunt then made to holie church, ſhall ſtand in their force.

Cap. 3. Item where as before this time our ſoueraigne lord the king hath taken title to preſent, at the ſuggeſtion of manie clerkes, where the title hath not bene true, and by ſuch preſentments & iudgements thereupon giuen, the clerkes haue beene receiued by the ordinaries of the places, againſt God and good faith, and in depreſſion of them which had thereof a good and true title to the ſaide benefices, the king will and graunteth, that at what time hee ſhall make collation or preſentment from henſforth to anie benefice in anothers right, that the title, whereupon he groundeth himſelf, ſhall be well examined that it be true. And at what time before iudgement the title bee found by good information vntrue or iniuſt, the collation or preſentment thereof made, ſhall bee repealed. And the patron or the poſſeſſor, which ſhall ſhewe and proue the falſe title, ſhall haue thereupon writs out of the chauncerie as manie as to him ſhall be needefull. Collation.

Cap. 4. Item whereas the ſaid prelates haue greeuouſlie complained, praying thereof remedie, of that that aſwell the ſeculer clerkes and chapleines as monkes and other people of religion, haue bene drawen and hanged by award of the ſecular Juſtices, in preiudice of the franchiſes, and in oppreſſion of the iuriſdiction of holie church: It is accorded & graunted by the ſaide king in his parliament that all manner clerkes, aſwell ſeculer as religious, which ſhall be from henſforth conuict before the ſeculer Juſtices aforeſaid, for anie maner treaſons and felonies touching other perſons than the king himſelfe or his royall maieſtie, ſhall from henſforth freelie haue and enioy the priuilege of holie church, and ſhall be without anie impechment or delay deliuered to the ordinaries demaunding them. And for this graunt the ſaid archbiſhop promiſeth to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, that vpon the puniſhment and ſaufegard of ſuch clerkes offenders, which ſo ſhall be deliuered to the ordinaries, he ſhall thereof make a conuenient ordinance, whereby they ſhall be ſaufelie kept and duely puniſhed, ſo that no clerke ſhall take courage ſo to offendē for default of correction. Clerks offenders.

Cap. 5. Clerks arrained. Item whereas clerkes arraigned of felonie before ſeculer Juſtices, which challenged their clergie, and were demaunded by the ordinarie of the place, haue beene often before this time remaunded to the gayle by the ſaid Juſtices, ſurmyſing to them, that other things be to be ſaide againſt them, neuertheleſſe becauſe the common lawe is, that a clerke in ſuch caſe ought not to be remaunded to the gayle, but ought to be maintenant, arraigned of all, or otherwiſe deliuered to the ordinarie: It is accorded, that this point be kept by all maner of Juſtices and iudges ſeculer throughout our realme.

Cap. 6. Prelates. Item where as the temporalties of archbiſhops and biſhops haue beene oftentimes taken into the kings hands, for contempt done to him vpon writs of Quare non admiſit, and for diuers other cauſes, whereof the ſaid prelates haue prayed the king, that no ſuch taking ſhall from henſforth be made, ſith they be piers of the land: The king will and graunteth in the ſame parliament, that all the Juſtices, which from henſforth ſhall giue iudgements againſt anie prelate of the lande in ſuch caſe or like, that they in ſuch caſe may freelie receiue, and from henſforth ſhall receiue for the contempt ſo iudged, a reaſonable fine of the partie ſo condemned, according to the quantity of the treſpas, and after the qualitie of the contempt incontinentlie at the time of the iudgement, if the partie offer the ſame, or otherwiſe after the iudgement, at what time the partie will offer him ſelfe. And if it neede, the chancellor and the treaſurer, ſhall be called to the receipt of the ſaid fines.

Cap. 7. Item becauſe that manie preſentments to diuers benefices of holie church, as well of the patronage of lay people as of people of holie church, which were voide by vi. monethes, whereof the collation of ſuch benefices by lapſe of time was deuolute & of right perteining to the ordinaries of the places, were recouered by the king by iudgements, thereof giuen of the aſſent of the ſaide patrones, in deceipt of the ſaid collations ſo made reaſonablie by the ſaid ordinaries: In which pleas the ordinaries, nor their clerkes, to whom they did giue ſuch benefices, were not receiued to ſhewe nor defend their right in this behalfe to defend and counterplede the kings right ſo claimed, which is no reaſonable thing: wherefore the king, by the aſſent of his ſaid parliament, will and graunteth for him and his heires, that when archbiſhops, biſhops, or other ordinaries haue giuen a benefice of right deuolute to him by laps of time, and after the king preſenteth and taketh the ſuite againſt the patrone, which percaſe will ſuffer that the king ſhall recouer without action tried, in deceipt of the ordinarie or the poſſeſſor of the ſaid benefices, that in ſuch caſe, and all other caſes like, where the kings right is not tryed, the archbiſhop or biſhop, ordinarie or poſſeſſor, ſhall be receiued to counterplede the title taken for the king, and to haue his aunſwere, and to ſhewe and defend his right vpon the matter, although that hee claime nought in the patronage in the caſe aforeſaide.

Laps. Patron.

Ordinaries.

Cap. 8. Prelates. Coniſance. Challenges.

Item where as the ſaid prelates haue ſhewed and praied remedie, vpon that that the ſaid ſeculer Iuſtices do vſurpe and accroche to them conyſance of voidance of benefices of right, which conyſance and the diſcuſſing thereof attaineth to the Iudges of holie church, and not to the laye Iudge: The king will and graunteth, that the ſaide Iuſtices ſhall from henceforth receiue ſuch challenges made or to be made by anie prelate of holie church in this behalfe, and moreouer thereof ſhall do right and reaſon.

Cap. 9. Ordinaries.

Item becauſe that the kings Iuſtices do take enditements of ordnaries, and of their miniſters of extortions and oppreſſions, and impeche them, without putting in certaine, wherein, or whereof, or in what manner they haue done extortion: The king will, that his Iuſtices ſhall not from hencefoorth impeche the ordinaries, nor their miniſters, becauſe of ſuch enditements of generall extortions, or oppreſſions, vnleſſe they ſaye and put in certaine, in what thing, and of what, and in what manner the ſaide Ordinaries or their miniſters haue doone extortion and oppreſſion.

Here beginneth the Statute of clothes made the ſaide xxv. yeere.

Chap. 1. Clothes.

ITem it is accorded and aſſented in the ſame parliament, that all manner of clothes vendible, which ſhall be ſolde for whole clothes in England, in whoſe handes of the merchants of the realme of Englande, or other of the ſame realme, they bee founde, ſhall bee meaſured by the kings aulnegeour and his deputies in all cities, boroughes, and other townes within franchiſes and without, as well in the citie of London as els where. And that all the clothes which ſhall bee found of leſſe meaſure by a yarde, than of the aſſiſe conteined in the ſtatute of Northampton, by which it is ordeined, that the length of euerie cloth of ray, ſhall be meaſured by a lyne of vii. yardes iiii. times meaſured by the liſt. And the breadth of euerie clothe of ray vi. quarters of the meaſure by the yarde, and of couloured clothes the length ſhall be meaſured by the backe by a lyne of vi. yardes and a halfe. iiii. times meaſured, and the bredth vi. quarters and a halfe meaſured by the yarde, without defoyling the clothes, ſhall be forfeit and arreſted to the king. And that the aulnageour deliuer the ſame to the kings wardrobe by indenture, not withſtanding anie fraunchiſe, vſage, or priuiledge made to cities, boroughes, or to anie perſons of the realme of Englande to the contrarie. And the kings aulnegeour ſhall be ſworne to doe his office well and lawfully. And in caſe he thereof be found in default, and thereof be attainted before the kepers of the faires and maiors and bailifes of the places where the cloth ſhall be bought, or before anie other, whome our ſoueraigne lorde the king ſhall thereto aſſigne, ſhall haue the priſon of one yéere, and be raunſomed at the kings will, and put out of his office for euer. And the aulnegeour ſhall aunſwere aſwell for his deputies as for him ſelfe. And alſo it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that euerie buyer of ſuch cloth or other that will ſue, that the ſaide aulnegeour hath done anie fraud or deceipt in his office, and the falſitie be notoriouſly proued and knowen at his ſuite, ſhall haue the one halfe of that that ſo ſhall be forfeit, or the price, of the kings gyfte, and the king the other halfe. And that euerie buyer of ſuch cloth, after that he hath agréede of the price with the ſeller, may fréely meaſure the cloth at his will, to aſſay if it be of the aſſiſe or not, before that he hath payed his money, although the aulnegeours ſeale be put to the ſame. And if the buyer find anie default after the buying, he ſhall ſhewe the ſame default to the maiors and baylifes of the place, or to the kéepers of the faire or market, and if default be found notoriouſly before them, the cloth ſhall be forfeit to the king, and ſeiſed in the kings handes by the ſaide Maiors and bailifes, or kéepers of the faire or market, and ſhall remaine in their cuſtodie. And the ſame Maiors and Bailifes or kéepers, ſhall certifie to the Chauncellor, of the ſame forfeiture, at the ſuite of the buyer or of other, which will ſue, without anie thing taking of him. And the Chancellor in this certification ſhall ſende a writ to the ſaide Maiors and Bailifes or kéepers, to deliuer to him, which ſo hath ſued, the one halfe of the forfeiture, and to ſaue the other halfe to the kings vſe. And if the Maior, Bailifes, or kéepers, refuſe to doe execution of this accorde, in the manner aforeſaide, they ſhall be puniſhed by fine and raunſome when they ſhall be thereof attainted, aſwell at the kings ſuite as the parties. And that this article beginne to holde place the firſt daye of September next comming, ſo that the marchauntes and other, which haue clothes to ſell, may fréely deliuer them of the clothes that they haue in their handes

Aulnegeor.

Ray cloth.

Maiors. Bailifes.

Chancellor

in the ſame time.

Chap. 2.

Merchāts ſtrangers. Denizen. Vitaile.

Item whereas it is conteined in a ſtatute made at Yorke, in the ninth yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, that all merchants, aliens, and denizens, and all other, & euerie of them, of what eſtate or condition they were, which would buy or ſell Wyne, corne, auoyr de poys, fleſh, fiſh, and all other liuings and vitailes, clothes, chaffer, wolles, merchandizes, and other things vendible, fro what partie they come, by forreines or by denizens, to what place ſo euer it be, borough, towne, porte of the ſea, faire, market, or other place within this realme, within franchiſe or without, may fréely and without diſturbance ſell the ſame to whome pleaſe them, as well to forreines as to denizens, except the kings enimies: It is accorded by our ſoueraigne lorde the king, the prelates, Earles, Barons, and other great men, and the commons in this preſent parliament, that the ſaide ſtatute in all points and articles conteined in the ſame, be holden, kept, and mainteined. And that if anie ſtatute, charter, letter, letter patent, proclamation, or commaundement, vſage, allowance or iudgement be made to the contrarie, the ſame ſhall be openly repealed, voide, and holde for none. And moreouer that euerie merchant and other, of what condition that he be, alien, or denizen, that bringeth Wines, fleſh, fiſh, or other vitailes, clothes, woolfells, auoyr de poys, or anie other manner merchaundizes or chaffer to the citie of London, or other cities, boroughes, and good townes of Englande, or porte of the ſea, may freely and without challenge or impechement of anie ſell in groſſe or at retaile, or by parcels at his will to all manner people that will buye the ſame, notwithſtanding anie franchiſes, graunts or cuſtomes vſed, or anie other thing done to the contrarie, ſithens that ſuch vſages and franchiſes be to the common preiudice of the king and his people. And that no Maior, Bailife, catchepole, miniſter, nor none other ſhall meddle with the ſale of anie manner of vitaile vendible, brought to cities, boroughes, or other townes, nor faire nor market, but onely he to whome the vitailes be, and that proclamation be thereof made of newe in all the counties of Englande, and in the citie of London, and in all other cities, boroughes, good townes, portes of the ſea, and other places within the realme of Englande, where néede ſhall be. And that the king thereupon do to be aſſigned his Iuſtices at all times that ſhall pleaſe him, and if néede be to enquire of all thoſe that ſhall come againſt this ordinance, or doe anie thing againſt the ſame, and to puniſh them according to the peine conteined in the ſame ſtatute made the ſaide ix. yere. And that euerie perſon that will ſue againſt anie ſuch, ſhall haue a writ in the Chauncerie to attache him as a diſturber of the common profit, to cauſe him to come, thereof to make aunſwere in the kings court.

Cap. 3.

Forſtallers

Item it is accorded, that the forſtallers of wines, and all other vitailes, wares, and merchandizes, that come to the good townes of England by land or by water, in dammage of our ſoueraigne lorde the king and of his people, if they be thereof attainted at the ſuite of the king, or of the partie, before Maior, Bailife, or Iuſtices thereto aſſigned, or els where in the kings court, and if they be attainted at the kings ſuite by enditement, or in other manner, the things forſtalled ſhall be forfeit to the king, if the buyer thereof hath made grée to the ſeller. And if he hath not made grée of all, but by arneſt, the buyer ſhall incurre the forfeiture of as much as the forſtalled goods forfeit do amount to, after the value as he bought them, if he haue whereof. And if he haue not whereof, then he ſhall haue ii. yéeres impriſonment and more at the kings will, without being let to mainpriſe or deliuered in other manner. And if he be attainted at the ſuite of the partie, the partie ſhall haue the one halfe of ſuch things forſtalled and forfeit, or the price, of the kings gifte, and the king the other halfe.

Cap. 4.

Milles. Weares. Shirifes.

Item where as the common paſſages of boates and ſhippes in the great riuers of Englande be often times annoyed by the inhauncing of milles, weares, ſtankes, and kydels in great dammage of the people: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that all ſuch milles, weares, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kydels, which be leuied and ſet vp in the time of king Edwarde the kings graundfather and after, whereby the ſaide ſhippes and boates be ſo diſturbed, that they may not paſſe in ſuch riuers as they were wont, ſhall be out and pulled downe without being releuied. And thereupon writtes ſhall be ſent to the Shirifes of the places where néede ſhall be, to ſuruey and enquire, and to doe thereof execution. And alſo the Iuſtices ſhall bee thereupon aſſigned at all times that ſhall be néedefull.

Here beginneth the Statute of purueiors, made at Weſtminſter the ſaid xxv. yeere of King Edward the third.

AT the parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter in the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie, the yere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord king Edward the thirde after the conqueſt of Englande, the xxv. and of Fraunce the xii. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king by the aſſent of the prelats earles, barons, and all the commonaltie of his realme of England, ſommoned to the ſaide parliament, to the honor of God and holie church, and in amendment of his ſaid realme, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed the things vnderwritten.

Chap. 1.

Takers. Purueiors

FIrſt for as much as great and outragious dammage and gréeuance hath béene doone to the people by the takers and purueiours of vitailes for the houſes of our ſoueraigne lord the king, the Quéene, and their children: It is accorded and aſſented in the ſaide parliament, that the takers of corne for the ſaide houſes, ſhall take the ſame by meaſure ſtriked, according as is vſed through

Conſtable.

through the land. And that ſuch corne, hey, litture, beſtale and all other vitailes, and things, which ſhall be taken for the ſaid houſes, ſhall be taken by the verie valure, by the conſtable and other good people of the townes where ſuch taking ſhall be made, without that that the praiſers by manace or duces ſhall be driuen to ſet anie other price then their othe will, and as commonlie renneth in the next markets. And that betwixt the purueiours and them, whoſe goods ſhall be taken, in the preſence of the conſtables and preiſers, tailes be made incontinentlie, without that that the people, whoſe goods ſhall be taken, ſhall be drawne or trauailed elſe where, and the ſame tailes ſealed with the ſeales of the takers of the things ſo taken, by which tailes gree ſhall be made to them whoſe goods ſhall be ſo taken. And if anie purueiour or taker for the ſaid houſes do in anie other maner, he ſhall be maintenant arreſted by the towne where the taking ſhall be made, and brought to the next gaoyle, and if he be thereof attainted, it ſhall be done of him as of a theefe, if the quantitie of the goods the ſame require, according as in a ſtatute made in the time of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is the v. yeere of his raigne, and in an other ſtatute made in the time of the kings granfather vpon ſuch takings, is conteined more at the full. And that from henceforth in the commiſſions of ſuch takers and purueiours, the intent and peine limitted in this ſtatute, ſhall be conteined. And that no commiſſion be made, but onelie vnder the kings great ſeale or priuie ſeale. Nor that no man be bound to obey anie ſuch commiſſions, other or in other maner then is aforeſaid. And that the ſame ſtatute take place in all points againſt euerie taker and purueiour of euerie maner of vitaile in euerie part of the realme, of what condition ſoeuer he be.

Seale.

Chap. 2.

Treaſons in diuers caſes.

Item where as diuers opinions haue bene before this time, in what caſe treaſon ſhall be ſaid, and in what not: The king, at the requeſt of the lordes and of the commons, hath made a declaration in the maner as hereafter foloweth. That is to ſaie, when a man doth compaſſe or imagin the death of our ſoueraigne lord the king, or of my ladie his queene, or of their eldeſt ſonne and heire: or if a man doth violate the kings companion, or the kings eldeſt daughter vnmaried, or the wife of the kings eldeſt ſonne and heire: or if a man doe leuie warre againſt our ſoueraigne lord the king in his realme, or be adherent to the kings enemies in his realme, giuing to them aid and comfort in the realme or elſe where, and thereof be probablie atteinted of open deed by people of their condition. And if a man counterfeit the kings great or priuie ſeale, or his money: and if a man bring falſe money into this realme, counterfeit to the money of England as the money called Luſhburgh, or other like to the ſaid money of England, knowing the money to be falſe, to marchandiſe or make paiment, in deceite of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king and of his people: And if a man ſlea yͤ chancellour, treaſurer, or the kings iuſtices of yͤ one bench or the other, iuſtices in Eyre, or iuſtices of aſſiſe, and all other iuſtices aſſigned to heare and determine, being in their places doing their offices. And it is to vnderſtand, that in the caſes aboue rehearſed it ought to be iudged treaſon, which extendeth to our ſoueraigne lord the king and his royall maieſtie. And of ſuch treaſon the forfeiture of the eſchetes perteineth to our ſoueraigne lord, aſwell of the landes and tenements holden of other, as of himſelfe. And moreouer there is an other maner of treaſon, that is to ſay, when a ſeruant ſleyeth his maſter, or a wife her huſband, or when a man ſeculer or religious ſleyeth his prelate, to whom he oweth faith and obedience. And of ſuch treaſon the eſchetes ought to perteine to euerie lord of his owne fee. And becauſe that manie other like caſes of treaſon maie happen in time to come, which a man cannot thinke nor declare at this preſent time: It is accorded, that if anie other caſe ſuppoſed treaſon, which is not aboue ſpecified, doth happen before anie iuſtices, the iuſtices ſhall tarie without going to iudgement of the treaſon, till the caſe be ſhewed and declared before the king and his parliament, whether it ought to be iudged treaſon or elſe felonie. And if percaſe anie man of this realme ride armed couertlie or ſecretlie with men of armes againſt anie other, to ſlea him or robbe him, or to take him, or reteine till hee hath made fine or raunſome, or to haue his deliuerance, it is not the minde of the king nor his councell, that in ſuch caſe it ſhall be iudged treaſon, but ſhall be iudged felonie or treſpaſſe according to the lawes of the land of olde times vſed, and according as the caſe requireth. And if in ſuch caſe or other like, before this time anie iuſtices haue iudged treaſon, and for this cauſe the lands and tenements haue come into the kings hands as forfeit, the chiefe lords of the fee ſhall haue the eſchetes of the tenements holden of them, whether that the ſame tenements be in the kings handes or in others, by gift or in other maner. Sauing alwayes to our ſoueraigne lord the king the yeere and the waſte, and the forfeitures of cattels, which perteine to him in the caſes aboue named. And that writtes of Scire facias be granted in ſuch caſe againſt the land tenants without other originall, and without allowing anie protection in the ſaid ſuite. And that of the lands, which be in the kings hands, writtes be granted to the ſhiriffes of the counties, where the lands be, to ſet them out of the kings hands without other delaie.

Eſchetes.

Felonie.
Treſpas.

Cap. 3.

Enditour.

Item it is accorded, that no enditour bee put in enqueſts vpon the deliuerances of the enditees of felonies or treſpaſſe, if hee bee chalenged for the ſame cauſe by him which is endited.

Chap. 4.

Attachment.

Petition.

Item where as it is conteined in the great charter of the franchiſes of England, that none ſhall be impriſoned nor out of his freeholde, nor of his franchiſes nor free cuſtome, but it be by the law of the land: It is accorded, aſſented, & ſtabliſhed, that from henceforth none ſhall bee taken by petition or ſuggeſtion made to our ſoueraigne lord the king or to his councell, vnleſſe it bee by enditement or preſentment of his good and lawfull neighbours where ſuch déedes be done, in due maner or by proces made by writ originall at the common law. Nor that none be out of his franchiſes, nor of his fréeholdes, vnleſſe hee bee duelie brought in anſwere and forjudged of the ſame by waie of lawe. And if any thing be done againſt the ſame, it ſhall be redreſſed and holden for none.

Cap. 5. Executors of executors.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that executors of executors ſhall haue actions of debts, accompts, and of goods caried awaie of the firſt teſtators, and execution of ſtatutes marchants and recogniſances made in court of record to the firſt teſtator in the ſame maner as the firſt teſtator ſhould haue, if he were in life, aſwell of action of the time paſt, as of the time to come, in all caſes, where iudgement is not yet giuen betwixt ſuch executors of executors: But that the iudgements giuen to the contrarie in times paſt ſhall ſtand in their force. And that the ſame executors of executors ſhall anſwere to other of as much as they haue recouered of the goods of the firſt teſtators, as the firſt executors ſhould do, if they were in full life.

Cap. 6. Taker. Wood. Timber.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that no taker of wood nor of timber to the kings vſe for worke, nor for to make other thing, ſhall cut or caſt downe the trées of anie man growing about or within his houſe. And if any do to the contrarie, he ſhall make grée to the partie of his treble damage and to haue one yéeres priſon and to be forjudged of his office.

Cap. 7. Foreſter.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that no foreſter nor kéeper of foreſt or chaſe nor none other miniſter, ſhall make or gather ſuſtenance nor none other gathering of vitailes nor other thing, by colour of their office, againſt anie mans will within their bailiwéeke nor without, but that that is due of olde right.

Cha. 8. Men of armes.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that no man ſhall be conſtrained to finde men of armes, hoblers, nor archers, other then thoſe which hold by ſuch ſeruices, if it be not by common aſſent and grant made in the parliament.

Chap. 9. Auncel weight. Sacke of wolle.

Item where as great damage and deceit is done to the people, by that that diuers marchants vſe to buie and wey wolles and other marchandiſes by a weight, which is called Auncell: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that this weight called Auncell, betwixt buyers and ſellers ſhall be wholie put out. And that euerie ſale and buying be by the balance, ſo that the balance be euen and the wolles and other marchandiſes euenlie weyed by right weight, ſo that the ſacke of woll wey no more but xxvi. ſtones, and euerie ſtone to wey fourtéene pound. And that the beame of the balance do not bowe more to the one part then to the other. And that the weight be according to the ſtanderd of the eſchequer. And if anie buier do the contrarie, he ſhall be grieuouſly puniſhed, as well at the ſuite of the partie, as at the kings ſuite.

Cap. 10. Meaſures. Purueiours. Franchiſes.

Item where as it is conteined in the great charter, that one meaſure ſhall be throughout England, which charter hath not bene well kept nor holden in this point in times paſt: It is accorded and aſſented, that all the meaſures, that is to ſay, buſhell, halfe buſhell, pecke, galon, pottell, and quart through England within the franchiſes and without, ſhalbe according to the kings ſtanderd. And the quarter ſhall conteine eight buſhels by the ſtanderd and no more. And euerie meaſure of corne ſhall be ſtriked without heape, ſauing the rents and fermes of lords, which ſhal be meaſured by ſuch meaſures as they were wont in times paſt. And the purueiours of the king of the quéene, & all other ſhall make their purueiances by the ſame meaſures, ſtriked in the ſame maner, and at all times that ſhall be néedfull. And our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall aſſigne certaine iuſtices in euerie countie to enquire, heare and determine, vpon the points aforeſaid, and vpon the ſame to do puniſhment according to the treſpaſſe, as well at the parties ſuite as at the kings. So alwayes that all maner of franchiſes be ſaued to the lords in all points without blemiſh to be made in anie maner.

Cap. 11. Aide.

Item it is aſſented, that reaſonable aide to make the kings eldeſt ſonne knight, and to marie his eldeſt daughter, ſhall be demaunded and leuied after the forme of the ſtatute thereof made, and not in other maner, that is to ſay, of euerie fée holden of the king without meane twentie ſhillings and no more, and of euerie twentie pound of land holden of the king without meane in ſocage twentie ſhillings and no more.

Cap. 12. Exchanges. Exchangers.

Item it is accorded, that it ſhall bee lawfull for euerie man to exchange golde for ſiluer, or ſiluer for golde, or for golde and ſiluer, ſo that no man hold the ſame as exchanged, nor take no profite for making of ſuch exchange, vpon paine of forfeiture of the money ſo exchanged, except the kings exchangers, which take profite of ſuch exchange, according to the ordinance before made.

Cap. 13. Money.

Item it is accorded, that the money of golde and ſiluer, which now runneth, ſhall not be impaired in weight nor in allay, but as ſoone as a good wey may be found, that the ſame be put in the ancient eſtate, as in the ſterling.

Cap. 14. Felonie. Capias. Shirife.

Item it is accorded, that after that anie man be endited of felonie before the iuſtices in their ſeſſions to heare and determine, it ſhall be commanded to the ſhirife, to attach his bodie by writte or by precept which is called a Capias, and if the ſhirife returne in the ſaid writte or precept, that the bodie is not found, an other writ or precept of Capias ſhall be incontinentlie made, returneable at thrée wéekes after, and in the ſame writte or precept it ſhall be compriſed, that the ſhirife ſhall do to be ſeiſed his cattels, and ſafelie to kéepe them till the day of the writte or precept returned. And if the ſhirife returne, that the bodie is not found, & the enditie commeth not, the exigend ſhall be awarded, and the cattals ſhall be forfeit, as the law of the crowne demaundeth. But if he come and yeeld him, or be taken by the ſhiriſe, or by other miniſter, before the returne of the ſecond Capias, then the goods and cattals ſhall be ſaued.

Cap.15. Takers of ſheepe. Purueiors.

Item for aſmuch as the takers and buyers of the kings prices, do take ſhéepe from the people betwixt Eaſter and the feaſt of ſaint Iohn baptiſt with their wolles, and preiſe the ſame at a ſmall price, and after ſend them to their owne houſes, and do them to be ſhorne to their own profit, in diſceipt of the king, and great oppreſſion of the people: It is accorded, that no ſuch taker purueior nor buyer ſhall take anie ſhéepe before the time of ſhearing, but aſmuch as may reaſonably ſuffice till the time of ſhearing. And after that time they ſhall take as manie ſhéepe ſhorne, and not other, that maie reaſonablie ſuffice them for the time to come. And if anie taker, purueior, or buyer of the realme, do againſt the ſame, and be thereof attainted at the ſuite of the king or of the partie, it ſhall be done of him as of a théefe or a robber. And the peine ſhall be conteined in euerie commiſſion of ſuch purueiors.

Cap.16. Nontenure.

Item it is accorded, that by the exception of Nontenure of parcell, no writ ſhall be abated, but for the quantitie of the Nontenure which is alledged.

Cap.17. Proces.

Item it is accorded, that ſuch proceſſe ſhall be made in a writ of Dette and Detinue of cattals, and taking of beaſtes by writ of Capias, and by proceſſe of exigend, by the ſhirifes returne, as is vſed in a writ of accompt.

Cap.18. Villenage. Villaines.

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that notwithſtanding adiournement made in Eyre by writ of Libertate probanda purchaſed in fauour of villeines to delay the lordes of their actions of ſuch villeines, the ſame lordes ſhall bee receiued to alledge the exception of villenage againſt their villaines in all writtes, whether that the ſaide writtes of Libertate probanda were purchaſed by diſceipt or in other manner. And that the lordes maie ſeaſe the bodies of their villaines, aſwell as they might before that the writtes of Libertate probanda were ordeined or purchaſed.

Cap.19. Protections. Dette.

Item for as much as our ſoueraigne lord the king hath made before this time diuers protections to diuers people, which were bounden to him in anie manner of dette, that they ſhould not be impleaded of the dettes which they owed to other, till they had made grée to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, of that that to him was due by them, by reaſon of his prerogatiue, and ſo during ſuch protections, no man durſt implede ſuch debtors: It is accorded and aſſented, that not withſtanding ſuch protections, the parties which haue actions to their debtors, ſhall bee aunſwered in the kings court by their debtors. And if iudgement be thereupon giuen for the plaintife or demaundant, the execution of the ſame iudgement ſhall bee put in ſuſpenſe till grée bee made to the king of his debte. And if the creanſours will vndertake for the kings debte, they ſhall bee thereto receiued. And further they ſhall haue execution againſt the debtours of the debte due to them, and alſo ſhall recouer againſt them as much as they ſhall paye to the Kinge for them.

Cap.20. Moneiors. Money.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the moneyours and other wardeines and miniſters of the money, ſhall receiue plate of gold and ſiluer by the weight. And in the ſame manner ſhall deliuer the money when it ſhall be made by weight, and not by number, without anie tarying.

Cap.21. Butteler. Maiors. Bailiſes. Takers.

Item where as before this time the kings buttelers and their deputies, were wont to take and dailie do take much more Wine by coulor of their office, to the kings vſe, than they ſhall néede, whereof the worſt they deliuer to the kings vſe, and the beſt in great number they reteine to them ſelfe, to ſell and make thereof their profit, and ſometime they releaſſe to merchants that that they haue taken of them for fines and giftes, which they take of the ſame merchauntes by extortion, to the great dammage and impoueriſhment of the ſaid merchaunts: It is accorded, that the Stewardes of the kings houſe, and Treaſurer of the wardrobe, ſhall ſende to all the portes of Englande, where wynes be to be taken to the kings vſe, the certaine number, which the Butteler ſhall take in euerie parte, ſo that nothing be taken ouer this number. And that the Maior and Bailiffes of the ſaide portes, certifie the ſaide Stewarde and treaſurer of the number of all the Tonnes ſo taken by the Butteler or his lieuetenant, vnder the ſeale of the ſaide Maior and Bailiſes by indentures made betwixt them and the takers of the ſaide wines. And in caſe that it be founde, that the Butteler or his lieuetenant, take more, or take rewarde of anie, or delaie anie by colour of his office as by arreſt, he ſhall make grée to the partie of the double, and ſhall be out of his office, and ſhall haue impriſonment, and alſo be raunſomed at the kings will. And the king ſhall aſſigne his Iuſtices, when ſhall pleaſe him, to enquire vpon theſe things. And the Butteler ſhall aunſwere aſwell for his deputies as for him ſelfe, where they be not ſufficient.

Cap.22. Prouiſions. Prouiſors.

Item becauſe that ſome do purchaſe in the court of Rome prouiſions, to haue Abbeies, and Priories in England, in deſtruction of the realme, and of holie religion: It is accorded, that euerie man that purchaſeth ſuch prouiſions of Abbeies or Priories, that he and his executors and procurators, which doe ſue and make execution of ſuch prouiſions, ſhall be out of the kings protection. And that a man may do with them, as of enimies of our ſoueraigne lorde the king and his realme. And he that offendeth againſt ſuch prouiſors in bodie or in goods, or in other poſſeſſions, ſhall be excuſed againſt all people, and ſhall neuer be impeched nor gréeued for the ſame at anie mans ſuite.

Cap.23.
Lombards

Item where as much people of the realme, which haue made contracts with Lombardes, that be named of the companies dwelling in the ſame realme, which Lombardes after that that they haue made their obligations to their creanſours, haue ſoudenlie eſcaped out of the realme without agreement made to their ſaid creanſours, in deceipt and great dammage of the people: It is accorded and aſſented, that if anie merchant of the companie, knowledge him ſelfe bounde by the maner, that the companie ſhall anſwere of the det. So that another merchant, which is not of the companie, ſhall not be thereby gréeued nor impeched.

Here beginneth the Statute of prouiſours of benefices made at Weſtminſter the ſaide xxv. yeere.

WHere as late in the parliament of good memorie of Edwarde king of Englande, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, the xxv. yéere of his reigne, holden at Kaerlyle, the petition heard, put before the ſaide graunfather and his counſell by the commonaltie of his ſaid realme, conteining, that where as the holie church of Englande was founded in the eſtate of prelacie within the realme of England by the ſaid graundfather and his progenitors, and the Earles, Barons, and other nobles of his ſaide realme and their aunceſters, for them to enforme the people of the lawe of God, and for to make hoſpitalities, almes, and other workes of charitie in the places where the churches were founded, for the ſoules of the founders, their heires, and of all chriſten, & certeine poſſeſſions as much in fées, landes, rents, as in aduowſons, which doe extende to a great valure, were aſſigned by the ſaide founders to the prelates and other people of the holie church of the ſaide realme, to ſuſteine the ſame charge, and eſpecially of the poſſeſſions which were aſſigned to archbiſhops, biſhops, abbots, priors, religious and all other people of holie church, by the kings of the ſaide realme, Earles Barons, and other great men of his realme, the ſame kings, Earles, Barons, and other nobles, as lords and aduowées, haue had and ought to haue the cuſtodie of ſuch voidances and the preſentments and the collations of the benefices being of ſuch prelacies. And the ſaid kings in times paſt were wont to haue the greateſt parte of their councell, for the ſauſegarde of the realme when they had néede, of ſuch prelates and clerkes ſo aduaunced: The Biſhop of Rome, vſurping the ſeignories of ſuch poſſeſſions and benefices, doeth giue and graunt the ſame benefices to aliens, which did neuer dwell in Englande, and to Cardinalles, which might not dwell héere, and to other as well aliens as denizens, as if he had beene patrone, or aduowée of the ſaide dignities and benefices as he was not of right, after the lawe of Englande, whereby if they ſhoulde be ſuffered, there ſhoulde vnneathe be anie benefice within a ſhort time in the ſaide realme, but that it ſhoulde be in the handes of aliens and denizens by vertue of ſuch prouiſions, againſt the good will and diſpoſition of the founders of the ſame benefices. And ſo the elections of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other religious ſhoulde faile, and the almes, hoſpitals, and other workes of charitie, which ſhould be done in the ſaide places, ſhoulde be withdrawen, the ſaide graundfather and other lay patrons, in the time of ſuch voidances ſhoulde loſe their preſentments, the ſaid councell ſhoulde periſh, and goods without number ſhould be carried out of the realme, in adnullation of the eſtate of the holie church of Englande, and diſheriſon of the ſaide graundfather, and of the Earles, Barons, and other nobles of the ſaide realme, and in offence and deſtruction of the lawes and rightes of his realme, and to the great dammage of his people, and in ſubuercion of all the eſtate of his ſaide realme, and againſt the good diſpoſition and will of the firſt founders: By the aſſent of the Earles, Barons, and other nobles, and of all the ſaide commonaltie, at their inſtances and requeſtes, the dammage and gréeuances aforeſaide conſidered, in the ſaide full parliament it was ordeined, that the ſaide oppreſſions, gréeuances, and dammage in the ſame realme from henceforth ſhould not be ſuffred in anie maner. And nowe it is ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lorde the king in this preſent parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the vtas of the Purification of our Ladie the xxv. yére of his reigne of Englande, and of Fraunce the xii. by the greuous complaintes of all the commons of his realme, that the gréeuances and miſchieues aforeſaide doe daily habound, to more greater dammage and deſtruction of all his realme, more than euer were before, s. that now late the biſhop of Rome, by procurement of clerkes and otherwiſe, hath reſerued and doth daily reſerue to his collation generally and eſpecially, aſwell archbiſhopriches, biſhopriches, abbeies, and priories, as all other dignities and other benefices in England, which be of the aduowrie of people of holie church, & giue the ſame aſwell to aliens as to denizens, & taketh of al ſuch benefices the firſt fruits, & manie other profits & a great part of the treaſure of the realme is carried away and diſpended out of the realme, by the purchaſers of ſuch graces, & alſo by ſuch priuie reſeruations manie clerkes auanced in this realm, by their true patrones, which haue peaceably holden their auauncements by long time, be ſoudainly out: whereupon the ſaide commons haue praied our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, that ſith the right of the crowne of England, & the law of the ſaid realm is ſuch, that vpon the miſchiues & damage, which happeneth to his realm, he ought & is bounden of the accord of his ſaid people in his parliament, thereof to make remedy, & law in voiding the miſchiefes & dammage, which thereof commeth, that it may pleaſe him thervpon to ordeine remedie: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, ſéeing the miſchieues and dammage before named, and hauing regard to the ſaid ſtatute, made in the time of his ſaide graundfather, and to the cauſes conteined in the ſame, which ſtatute holdeth alwayes his force, and was neuer defeated

Prouiſors.

Biſhop of Romes vſurped power.

Collation.

Reſeruatiõ

defeated nor admulled in anie point, and by ſo much he is bounden by his othe to do the ſame to be kept as the law of his realme, though that by ſufferance and negligence it hath bene ſithence attempted to the contrarie, and alſo hauing regard to the grieuous complaints made to him by his people in diuers his parliaments holden heretofore, willing to ordeine remedie for the great damage and miſchiefes, which haue happened and dailie do happen to the church of England by the ſaid cauſe: By the aſſent of all the great men and the commonaltie of his ſaid realme, to the honour of God and profite of the ſaid church of England, and of all his realme, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the free elections of archbiſhops and biſhops, and all other dignities and benefices electiue in England, ſhall holde from henceforth in the maner as they were granted by the kings progenitours, and founded by the anceſters of other lords. And that all prelates and other people of holie church, which haue aduouſons of anie benefices of the kings gift, or of anie of his progenitours, or of other lords and donours, to do deuine ſeruices and other charges thereof ordeined, ſhall haue their collations and preſentments freelie in the maner as they were enfeoffed by their donours. And in caſe that reſeruation, collation, or prouiſion be made by the court of Rome of anie archbiſhopricke, biſhopricke, dignitie or other benefice, in diſturbance of the elections, collations, or preſentations afore named, that at the time of the voydance that ſuch reſeruations, collations, & prouiſions, ought to take effect, our ſoueraigne lord the king & his heires ſhall haue and enioy for the ſame time the collations to the archbiſhopprickes and other dignities electiſe, which be of his aduourie, ſuch as his progenitours had before that free election was granted, ſithence that the elections were firſt granted by the kings progenitours vpon a certaine forme and condition, as to demaund licence of the king to chuſe, and after the election to haue his royall aſſent, and not in other maner. Which conditions not kept, the thing ought by reaſon to reſort to his firſt nature. And if anie ſuch reſeruation, prouiſion, or collation be made of anie houſe of religion of the kings auowrie, in diſturbance of the free election, our ſoueraigne lord the king and his heires ſhall haue for that time the collation to giue this dignitie to a conuenient perſon. And in caſe that collation, reſeruation, or prouiſion be made to the court of Rome of anie church, prebend, or other benefices, which be of the aduourie of people of holie church, whereof the king is aduowee peramont immediat, that at the ſame time of the voydance, at which time the collation, reſeruation, or prouiſion ought to take effect as afore is ſaid, the king & his heires thereof haue the preſentment or collation for that time. And ſo from time to time whenſoeuer ſuch people of holie church ſhall be diſturbed of their preſentments or collations by ſuch reſeruations, collations, or prouiſions, as afore is ſaid: Sauing to them the right of their aduowſons and their preſentments, when no collation or prouiſion of the court of Rome is thereof made, where that the ſaid people of holie church ſhall or will to the ſame benefices preſent or make collation. And that their preſentées may enioy the effect of their collations or preſentments. And in the ſame maner euerie other lord, of what condition that he be, ſhall haue the collations or preſentments to the houſes of religion, which bee of his aduowrie and other benefices of holie church, which be pertaining to the ſame houſes. And if ſuch aduowées do not preſent to ſuch benefices within the halfe yéere after ſuch voydances, nor the biſhop of the place do not giue the ſame by lapſe of time within a moneth after the halfe yéere: that then the king ſhal haue thereof the preſentments & collations, as he hath of other of his own aduowrie. And in caſe that the preſentées of the king, or the preſentées of other patrones of holie church, or of their aduowées, or they to whom the king or ſuch patrones or aduowées aforeſaid haue giuen benefices, perteining to their preſentments or collations, be diſturbed by ſuch prouiſours, ſo that they maie not haue poſſeſſion of ſuch benefices by vertue of the preſentments or collation ſo to them made, or that they which be in poſſeſſion of ſuch benefices, be impeached vpon their ſaid poſſeſſions by ſuch prouiſours, then the ſaid prouiſours, their procuratours, executors, & notaries ſhall be attached by their bodie, & brought in to anſwere. And if they be conuict, they ſhall abide in priſon without being let to mainpriſe or baile, or otherwiſe deliuered, till that they haue made fine and ranſome to the king at his will, and gree to the partie that ſhall féele him ſelfe gréeued. And neuertheleſſe before that they be deliuered, they ſhall make full renunciation, and finde ſufficient ſuretie, that they ſhall not attempt ſuch things in times to come, nor ſue no proces by them nor by other againſt anie man in the court of Rome, nor in no part elſe where, for anie ſuch impriſonments or renunciations, nor anie other thing depending of them. And in caſe that ſuch prouiſours, procuratours, executors and notaries be not found, that the Exigend ſhall runne againſt them by due proces, and that writtes ſhall go forth to take their bodies in what parts that they be found, aſwell at the kings ſuite as at the ſuite of the partie. And that in the meane time the king haue the profits of ſuch benefices ſo occupied by ſuch prouiſours, except abbeis priories, and other houſes, which haue colleges or couents. And in ſuch houſes the colleges and couents ſhall haue the profits. Sauing allwayes to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and to all other lords, their olde right. And this ſtatute ſhall haue place as well of reſeruations, collations, & prouiſions made and granted in times paſt againſt al them, which haue not yet obteined corporall poſſeſſions of the benefices granted to them by the ſame reſeruations, collations, and prouiſions, as againſt all other in time to come. And this ſtatute ought to holde place and to begin at the ſaid vtas, Election.

Aduowſon.

Collation.

Reſeruation.

Aduowrie.

Prouiſions.

Aduowee.

Preſentee.

Prouiſours.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of the forme of leuying of the xv. made the ſame xxv. yeere.

Where as our ſoueraigne lord the king, the prelates, earles, barons, and other people aſſembled at his parliament, holden at Weſtminſter in the feaſt of S. Hillarie, the yeere of the raigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king of England the xxv. and of France the xii. hath granted to the commons of the realme of England, in aide of the diſme and quinzime, which the ſaid commons haue granted to our ſoueraigne lord the king, for the ſpeede of his warres of France, and defence of his realme of England, for three yeeres next enſuing, all the fines, iſſues forfeit, amerciaments, and all other profites, which be or ſhall be leuied or taken of labourers, artificers, regratours, vitailers, hoſtelers, and all maner of workemen, & of ſeruants, in all points fullie as is conteined in the ſtatute thereof made at the laſt parliament, holden at Weſtminſter at the vtas of Candelmas, the yeere aforeſaid, from the feaſt of Eaſter laſt paſt, till the laſt terme of the parliament of the diſmes and quinzime aforeſaid. And further if anie thing be behind of the ſaid fines, amerciaments, & other profites aforeſaid, of the making of the ſaide ſtatute, that is not paide to the commons in aide of their diſme and quinzime, renning before this time, in ſommons whereof the king is not anſwered: that then the ſaid commons ſhall haue that that is behinde in aide of their diſme and quinzime triennall granted at this parliament. And the ſaid commons prayeth our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the great men, that commiſſions of laborers be made to certaine people in euerie countie, named by the ſaid commons in this parliament, to enquire and do right according to the ſaid ſtatute. And that the ſame iuſtices take reaſonable wages euerie one after his eſtate, of the iſſues and profites riſing of their ſeſſions. And that the iuſtices do to be deliuered their eſtreites to the collectors of the ſaid diſme and quinzime, in the counties where they ſhalbe by indenture. And that the eſtretes thereof deliuered at the eſchequer, ſhalbe deliuered to the ſaid iuſtices: and that they do the ſame to be deliuered out of their cuſtodie to the ſaid collectors. And the ſame iuſtices before their riſing in euerie ſeſſions ſhall do to be affered the amerciaments as perteineth. And when they ſhall be affered, all the eſtretes and all the profites of their ſeſſions, at the end of euerie ſeſſions, ſhall be put in a certaine ſumme, in the preſence of the ſaid iuſtices and collectors, and of the knights, and ſerieants of the beſt of the countrie. And be it apporcioned of the ſame ſumme by the othes of good and lawfull knights, and other of euerie hundred in the forme as hereafter followeth, that is to ſaie, of euerie hundred there ſhall be certaine people choſen before the ſame iuſtices, as manie as ſhall neede, ſworne to ſhew and to ſay of euerie towne of the hundred, and of euerie hamel, the waſtes, miſchieues, and impoueriſhments of the ſame, aſwel of franchiſes as without, without conciling or fauouring anie man. And the ſumme when it ſhall be ſo put in certeine, ſhalbe apporcioned at the end of euerie ſeſſions betwixt the ſaid townes and hamlets, by the aduiſe of the ſaid iuſtices, and by the othe of the collectors and other aboue named, according to the eſtate of the ſaid townes and hamlets and their miſchiefe, and according as their neceſſitie demaundeth. So that to euerie towne and hamlet the porcion ſhall be allotted, and put in certaine, and the cauſe of the ſame before the ſaid iuſtices, and put in their record and recouped in part of paiment of the olde taxe of the ſaid townes and hamlets. And that the remnant of the ſaid taxe, of the ſaid townes and hamlets, be leuied by the ſaid collectors, beſide the eſtretes deliuered to them by the ſaid iuſtices, according to the ſaid apporcioning & no more vpon peine to loſe the treble to the parties, of whom the things ſhall be leuied, and which thereof feeleth them grieued, and to be raunſomed at the kings will. And that the ſaid iuſtices haue power to heare and determine aſwel at the ſuite of the partie as at the kings ſuite, of the collectors, vndercollectors, taxers, and all other miniſters, and all other which ſhall do or come againſt the ſaid ordinances, and to make thereupon readie puniſhment. And that all the profits riſing of ſuch puniſhments in anie maner, which ſhall be iudged before the ſaid iuſtices, of ſuch laborers, workemen, and artificers, or becauſe of them, ſhall be in aide of the commons, for to beare the charge of their diſme and quinzime aforeſaid. And that it be conteined in the commiſſions thereof made, that all miniſters of lords of franchiſes and their bailiſes, ſhall be attendant to the ſaide iuſtices vpon a grieuous paine. To which things aforeſaid: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and the prelates, earles, barons, and other great men, being in the ſaid parliament, haue fullie giuen their aſſent. So alwaies that by occaſion of anie point aforeſaid, the leuying nor the paiment of the ſaid diſme and quinzime triennall, ſhall in no wiſe be delayed at anie of the termes aforeſaid.

Diſme and quinzime.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of prouiſours made at Weſtminſter the xxvij. yeere of king Edward the third.

Our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aſſent and praier of the great men and the commons of his realme of England, at his great councell holden at Weſtminſter, the monday next after the feaſt of S. Matthew the Apoſtle, the xxvii. yeere of his raigne of England, and of France the xiiii. in amendement of his ſaid realme, & maintenance of the lawes and vſages, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed theſe things vnderwriten.

Chap. 1.

Conisance. Court.

FIrſt becauſe it is ſhewed to our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the greeuous and clamarous complaints of the great men and commons aforeſaide, how that diuers of the people be and haue bene drawen out of the realme to aunſwere of things, whereof the conisance pertaineth to the kings court: And alſo that the iudgements giuen in the ſame courte be impeched in an other court, in preiudice and diſheriſon of our ſouereigne lorde the king and of his crowne, and of all the people of his ſaide realme and in the vndoing and deſtruction of the common lawe of the ſame realme at all times vſed. Whereupon good deliberation had with the great men and other of his ſaid counſell, it is aſſented and accorded by our ſouereigne lorde the king, and the greate men and commons aforeſaide, that all the people of the kings liegeance, of what condition that they be, which draweth anie out of the realme in plea, whereof the conisance pertaineth to the kings courte, or of things whereof iudgements be giuen in the kings courte, or which doo ſue in an other courte to defeate or impeach the iudgements giuen in the kings courte, ſhall haue day, containing the ſpace of ii. monethes, by warning to be made to them in the place where the poſſeſſions be, which be in debate, or elſe where, where they haue landes or other poſſeſſions, by the ſhiriffes or other the kings miniſters, to be before the king and his counſell, or in his chauncerie, or before the kings iuſtices in his places of the one bench or the other, or before other the kings iuſtices, which to the ſame ſhall be deputed, to aunſwere in their proper perſons to the king of the contempt doone in this behalfe. And if they come not at the ſaide day in their proper perſon to be at the lawe, they, their procurators, attourneis, executors, notaries, and maintainers ſhall from this day forth be put out of the kings protection, and their landes, goodes, and cattels forfeite to the king. And their bodies, where ſo euer they may be found, ſhall be taken and impriſoned, and raunſomed at the kings will. And vpon the ſame a writ ſhall be made to take them by their bodies, and to ſeaſe their lands, goods, and poſſeſſions into the kings hands. And if it be returned, that they be not found, they ſhall be put in exigend and outlawed.

Prouiſors. Protection.

Prouided alwaies, that at what time they come before that they be outlawed and will yeeld them to the kings priſon, to be iuſtified by the law, and to receiue that that the courte ſhall award in this behalfe, that they ſhall be thereto receiued. The forfeiture of the lands, goods, and catalles abiding in their force, if they doo not yeeld them within the ſaid two moneths, as afore is ſaid.

Chap. 2.

Charter of pardon. Suggeſtion.

Item becauſe our ſouereigne lord the king hath often graunted charters of pardon of felonies, by feined and vntrue ſuggeſtions of diuers people, whereof much euill hath chaunced in times paſt, and for to eſchue ſuch euill: It is accorded and aſſented by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and all his ſaid counſell, that from henceforth in euerie charter of pardon of felonie, which ſhall be graunted at anie mans ſuggeſtion, the ſaid ſuggeſtion, and the name of him that maketh the ſuggeſtion, ſhall be compriſed in the ſame charter. And if afterwarde the ſame ſuggeſtion be found vntrue, the charter ſhall be diſalowed and holden for none. And the iuſtices, before whome ſuch charters ſhall be alledged, ſhall enquire of the ſame ſuggeſtion, and that aſwell of charters graunted before this time, as of charters, which ſhall be graunted in time to come. And if they finde them vntrue, then they ſhall diſalow the charters ſo alledged. And ſhall moreouer thereof doo as the lawe demaundeth.

Chap. 3.

Vittels.

Item for the great and outrageous dearth of vittels, which hoſtelers, herbergers, and other regraters of vittels make through the realme, to the great damage of the people paſſing through the realme: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices learned in the law, which be good and conuenient, ſhall be newlie choſen to enquire of the deedes and outrages of ſuch hoſtelers, regraters, laborers, and all other compriſed in the ſtatute an other time thereof made, and them to puniſh, and moreouer to doo right to the king and his people, ſauing alwaies to euerie lord and other, their franchiſes in all points.

Chap. 4.

Aulnageour. Aulnage.

Item where as the great men and the commons haue ſhewed to our ſouereigne lord the king, how diuers marchants, aſwell forrens as denizens, haue withdrawen them and yet doo withdrawe them, to come with clothes into England, to the great damage of the king and of all his people, becauſe that the kings aulnageour ſurmiſeth to the marchants ſtrangers, that their clothes be not of aſſiſe, that is to ſay, the colored cloth of the length of xxvi. yeardes meaſured by the creaſt, and of the breadth of vi. quarters and an halfe. And the cloth of ray, of the length of xxviii. yardes meaſured by the liſt, and of the breadth of vi. quarters, and the ſame areſt as forfeite to our ſouereigne lord the king, and haue praied our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, that it may pleaſe him, to releaſe and put out ſuch forfeitures in eaſe of his people, for a conuenient recompence to be made to him. Of the other part our ſouereigne lord the king, vpon ſuch condition hearing their ſupplication, hath releaſed and excluded him of all the ſaide forfeitures, and he will and graunteth for him & for his heires, that there ſhall be no clothes forfeite, although they be not of the ſaide aſſiſe, but the kings aulnageour ſhall meaſure the cloth and marke the ſame, by which marke a man may knowe how much the cloth containeth. And of aſmuch as the cloth, which is bought for cloth of aſſiſe, ſhall be found to be leſſe then the aſſiſe, allowance or abatement ſhall be made to the buier in the paiment, which he ſhall make for the ſame cloth, after the quantitie of the price for which the cloth was bought, & the aulnageour ſhall take for euerie cloth ſo meaſured, which is of aſſiſe, that is to ſay, of the ſeller an halfepennie, and of halfe a cloth a farthing, for his office and no more, nor they ſhall take nothing of the clothes which be leſſe than of the halfe cloth. And that he nothing medle of the aulnage of anie cloth, but onelie of clothes which be to be ſould. And for ſo much as the ſaide lordes and commons haue graunted to the king a ſubſidie of euerie cloth, which is to be ſould, to take of the ſeller ouer the cuſtomes thereof due, that is to ſay, of euerie cloth of the ſaid aſſiſe, wherein there is no graine iiii. d. and of euerie halfe ſuch cloth ii. d. and of euerie cloth of aſſiſe of ſcarlet vi. d. & of euerie halfe ſuch cloth iii. d. & of euerie cloth of halfe graine of aſſiſe v. d. and of euerie halfe ſuch cloth ii. d. ob. And that euerie cloth paſſing the halfe cloth of aſſiſe by iii. yeardes and more, which is no cloth whole of aſſiſe, and alſo of euerie cloth paſſing the whole cloth by iii. yeardes and more, it ſhall be taken after the rate of the ſubſidie, which is to be paied for the whole cloth of the ſame ſort. So alwaies, that of no cloth which containeth not halfe a cloth, nor of clothes, which a man maketh to his owne vſe, to clothe him and his meinie, nor of cloth ſealed with the ſeale of the collector of the ſaide ſubſidie, of which the ſame ſubſidie was once paied by the ſeller, to whoſe hands that ſuch clothes ſhall come afterward to ſell, or in other maner, nothing of the ſaide ſubſidie ſhall be paied nor demaunded. And that ſuch maner of clothes which be put to ſale before that they be ſealed with the ſaide ſeale, ſhall be forfeite to the king, and taken into his hand by the ſaide collector or aulnageour, or by the deputie of one of them, or elſe by the bailiffes of the towne where ſuch cloth vendible not ſealed ſhall be found.

Subſidie paid for cloth.

Seale.

Chap. 5. Foreſtalling of wines.

Item it is aſſented and accorded that defence and proclamations ſhall be made, that no Engliſh marchant ſhall engroſſe nor foreſtall wines in Gaſcoine, nor take them by the way of buieng of no Gaſcoine, nor of other, for to pay in England, for anie greater ſumme than wines be commonlie ſould in Gaſcoine, becauſe of preſt in perill of the ſea, or by anie other colour, vpon paine of life and of member, and of forfeiture of the wines and of all their other goods and cattels to the king, and of forfeiture of all their lands and tenements to the chiefe lords. And the chiefe lordes ſhall haue a writ of eſchete in ſuch caſe.

Chap. 6. Butler. Wines.

Item that all marchants Gaſcoines and other ſtrangers may ſafelie bring their wines into England, to what port that ſhall pleaſe them and to doo thereof their profits. So alwaies that the kings butler may make purueiance of wines of aliens when neede ſhall be, making paiment for the ſame wines within xl. daies, in the maner as hath bene vſed in old time.

Chap. 7. Marchant Engliſh. Vintage. Burdeaux. Baion. Wines.

Item that no Engliſh marchant, nor none of his ſeruants, nor other for them, ſhall go into Gaſcoine, there to abide, nor ſhall haue none other there dwelling, to make bargaine or buieng of wines by anie colour, before the time of the vintage, that is to ſay, before that common paſſage be made to ſeeke wines there. And that none buie nor bargaine by him ſelfe, nor by other, anie wines but onelie in the ports of Burdeaux and Baion, vpon the paines and forfeitures next aforeſide. And if anie be there found doing againſt the ſame, he ſhall be taken and arreſted by the ſteward of Gaſcoine, or the conſtable of Burdeaux, and the bodie ſent into England to the tower of London. And that the ſame ſteward certifie the king in his chauncerie of the names of ſuch arreſted, and of their maiſters and felowes alſo with all the deede.

Cap. 8. Wines. Gaugeour.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that all wines red and white, which ſhall come into the ſaide realme, and into the landes of Wales and Ierland, to ſell, ſhall be well and lawfullie gauged by the kings gaugeours, or their deputies. And if anie doo ſet diſturbance or debate, and will not ſuffer the ſame to be gauged, he ſhall forfeite the ſaide wines, and ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment, and raunſomed at the kings will. And if default be found in the gaugeour, that he or his deputie be not redie to doo his office, when he ſhall be required, or that he doo fraude or diſceite, in doing his office to the damage of the buier or of the ſeller: he ſhall pay to the partie greeued his treble damages, and loſe his office, and be puniſhed by impriſonment, and raunſomed at the kings will. And in caſe that leſſe be found in the tunne or pipe, than ought to be of right, after the aſſiſe of the tunne, the valour of aſmuch as ſhall lacke of ſuch tunne or pipe, ſhall be allowed and deducted in the paiment.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of the ſtaple made at Weſtminſter the ſaide xxvii. yeare.

EDward by the grace of God. &c. to all our ſhiriffes, maiors, bailiffes, miniſters, and other our faithfull people, to whom theſe preſent letters ſhall come, greeting. Whereas good deliberation had with the prelats, dukes, earles, barons, and great men of the counties, that is to ſay, of euerie countie one for all the countie, and of the commons of cities and burghes of our realme of England ſommoned to our great counſaile holden at Weſtminſter the monday next after the feaſt of ſaint Mathew the apoſtle, the xxvii. yeare of our reigne of England, and of Fraunce the xiiii. for the damage which hath notoriouſlie come aſwell to vs & to the great men, as to our people of our realme of England and of our lands of Wales and Ireland, becauſe that the ſtaple of woolles, lether, wolfelles of our ſaid realme and lands hath bene holden out of our ſaide realme and lands. And alſo for the great profits which ſhould come to the ſaide realme and lands if the ſtaple were holden within the ſame and not elſe where: to the honor of God and in releefe of our realme and lands aforeſaid, and for to eſchewe the perils that may happen of the contrarie in time to come, by the counſell and common aſſent of the ſaide prelates, dukes, earles, barons, knightes, and commons aforeſaide, we haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed the thinges vnderwritten.

Chap. 1

FIrſt that the ſtaple of wolles, lether, wolfelles and lead growing and comming forth within our ſaid realme & lands, ſhall be perpetuallie holden at the places vnderwritten, that is to ſaie, for Englande at Newcaſtle vpon Tine, Yorke, Lincolne, Norwich, Weſtminſter, Canterburie, Cyceſter, Wincheſter, Exeter, and Briſtowe. For Wales at Kaermerdin, and for Irelande at Deuelin, Waterforde, Corke, and Droghda, and not elſe where. And that all the ſaide wolles as well olde as newe, wolfelles, lether, & lead, which ſhall bee brought out of the ſaide realme and land ſhall be firſt brought to the ſaide ſtaples. And there the ſaide woll and lead betwixt marchant and marchant, and marchant and others to be lawfullie weighed by the ſtandard. And that euerie ſacke and ſarpler of the ſame wolles ſo weighed, bee ſealed vnder the ſeale of the maior of the ſtaple. And that all the wolles ſo weighed and ſealed at the ſtaple of Yorke, Lincolne, Norwich, Weſtminſter, Caunterburie and Wincheſter. And alſo lether, wolfelles and lead, which ſhall come there (The cuſtomes of the ſtaple thereof paied) ſhall be witneſſed by bill, ſealed with the ſeale of the maior of the ſtaple, and brought to the portes vnderwritten, that is to ſaie, from Yorke to Hull, from Lincolne, to ſaint Botolfe, from Norwich to great Yermouth, from Weſtminſter to London, from Caunterburie to Sandwich, from Wincheſter to Southamton. And there the ſaid wolles and lead ſhal be an other time weighed by our cuſtomers aſſigned in the ſame parties. And all the wolles and lead brought to the ſaid portes of Newcaſtell, Chicheſter, Exeter, Briſtow, Kermerdin, Deuelin, Waterforde, Corke, and Droghda, where the other ſtaples be holden, ſhall be but once weighed by the ſtanderd betwixt marchaunt and marchant, or marchant and other in preſence of our cuſtomers there. And an indenture ſhall be made betwixt the maior of the ſtaple being in the port of the ſea and our cuſtomers there of all the wolles and lead ſo weighed and alſo of all the lether and wolfelles which ſhall come to the ſaide ſtaples to paſſe there, and the ſame wolles and lead, and alſo the lether and wolfelles cuſtomed and coketted, and the cuſtomes thereof due payed to our ſaide cuſtomers in all the ſaide portes, that is to ſaie, of denizens for the time that they haue paſſed, halfe a marke of a ſacke of woll, halfe a marke of CCC. wolfelles, a marke of a laſt of lether. And of aliens x.s. of a ſacke of woll x.s. of CCC. wolfelles, and xx.s. of a laſt of lether, and three pence of euerie ſoowe of lead, then the ſaide marchaundizes ſhall bee brought by marchauntes ſtraungers, which haue bought the ſame, and not by Engliſh men Welſh men nor Iriſh men, to the parties beyonde the ſea out of our ſaide realme and landes, to what parties it ſhall pleaſe the ſaide marchaunts ſtraungers. And that the ſaide maior and cuſtomers ſhall delaie no man willinglie for gaine, nor for ſuch cauſe, nor in other maner ſhall anie thing take of anie perſon to doe that that pertaineth to their office, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to paie to the partie the double of that that they haue ſo taken, and alſo of that that the partie ſhall be indamaged becauſe of ſuch taking or delaie, and moreouer to be raunſomed at our will, but ſhall holde them content of that that they dyd take in certaine to doe there office. And that the maior of the ſtaple and the cuſtomers take an othe of all the marchauntes, which ſo ſhall paſſe with wolles, lether, wolfelles and lead, that they ſhall holde no ſtaple beyonde the ſea of the ſame marchaundizes.

Staple.

Maior of the ſtaple. Cuſtomers

Chap. 2.

Item to repleniſh the ſaid realme and lands of money and of plate, of gold and of ſiluer, and of marchaundizes of other landes, and for to giue courage to marchauntes ſtraungers to come with their wares and marchaundiſes in to the realme and landes aforeſaide: We haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all marchauntes ſtraungers, which be not of our enmitie, of what lande or nation that they be, maie ſafelie and vnder our protection and ſafeconduct come and dwell in our ſaide realme and landes where they will, and thither to returne with their ſhippes, wares, and all maner marchaundizes, and freelie ſell their marchaundizes at the ſtaple and elſe where within the ſame realme and landes, to anie that will buie them, paieng the cuſtomes thereof due. And more to aſſure the marchauntes ſtraungers, and other bringing goods and marchaundizes within the ſayde realme and landes, wee will and graunt for vs and for our heires and ſubiectes, that nothing ſhall bee taken ouer the cuſtomes aforeſayde, nor taken of them to our vſe by colour of ſale, nor in other maner, againſt their will, nor by the miniſters of vs or of our heires, nor by the miniſters of anie of the prelats, dukes, earles barons, lords nor ladies, nor of none other great nor ſmall. And if anie miniſter, or other by colour of his office, or in other maner take anie thing of them againſt their agreement, he ſhall be incontinentlie arreſted by the maiors and bailiffes of the place, if it be out of the ſtaple, or by the maior or miniſters of the ſtaple, if it be within the ſtaple. And ſpeedie and readie proces ſhall be made againſt him from daie to daie, and from houre to houre, according to the lawe of the ſtaple, and not at the common lawe, as well out of the ſtaple as within at euerie mans complaint that ſo ſhall be greeued. And if he be thereof attainted, hee ſhall paie to the marchant the double value of that that hee hath taken, and as much to vs. And that no commiſſion bee made to take ſuch prices of the ſayde marchantes, and if anie commiſſion be made it ſhall be holden for none.

Marchaunts ſtrangers. Safe conduct.

Staple lawe.

Chap. 3.

Marchantes Engliſh & ſtrangers.

Item we will and grant, that all marchauntes as well aliens as denizens, maie buie wolles, lether, wolfelles and lead, through our realme and landes without couin or colluſion to abate the price of the ſaide marchaundizes. So alwaies that they bring the ſame to the ſtaples. And that no mar-

Wolles, lether, wolfelles, ⁊c.
Staple.

marchant Engliſh, Welſh, noꝛ Iriſh, ſhall carie anie maner of woolles, leather, woolfelles, oꝛ lead, out of the ſaide realme and landes, vpon paine of life and member, and of foꝛfaiture of the ſayde marchandiſes, and of all their other goods and cattelles againſt vs, and of foꝛfeiture of all their landes and tenementes againſt the chéefe loꝛdes. And the chéefe loꝛdes ſhall haue a wꝛit of eſchete on the caſe. And that no ſtraunge marchauntes by couin betwixt them and Engliſh, Iriſh oꝛ Welſh marchantes, ſhall bꝛing the ſaide wares and marchandiſes of England, Iriſh, oꝛ Welſh marchantes, in part oꝛ in all. Noꝛ that no marchant Engliſh, Iriſh, noꝛ Welſh, noꝛ other make couin oꝛ colluſion with marchants ſtraungers, to carie their wolles, lether, wolfelles oꝛ lead to the parties beyonde the ſea, out of the realme and landes afoꝛeſayde, vnder the name of marchants ſtraungers, noꝛ ſhall ſende noꝛ holde their ſeruauntes, oꝛ other their atturneies in the parties beyond the ſea, out of our ſaid realme and landes foꝛ to ſell oꝛ to ſuruey the ſale of their ſaid wolles, lether, wolfelles and lead there, oꝛ to receiue the monie comming of the ſale of the ſaide wolles, lether, wolfelles and lead. Noꝛ that no Engliſhman, Iriſhman, noꝛ Welſh man, by him ſelfe noꝛ by other, take paiment of golde noꝛ of ſiluer, noꝛ of other thing in recompence oꝛ commutation, oꝛ in the name of paiment in the parties beyonde the ſea out of the realme and landes afoꝛeſaide, of marchandiſes ſolde in Englande, Irelande, oꝛ in Wales touching the ſtaple, but all ſuch paiment ſhall be made in golde oꝛ in ſiluer oꝛ marchandiſe in Englande, Irelande, oꝛ Wales, where the contract was made, vpon the foꝛfaitures and paines next afoꝛeſaide. Noꝛ that the marchants ſtraungers noꝛ denizens make betwixt them priuilie noꝛ apertlie anie companie oꝛ confederacie in fraude oꝛ diſceite of this oꝛdinance, noꝛ that none mainteine the ſame foꝛ gaine, noꝛ in other maner to doe anie ſuch fraude oꝛ diſceite, vpon the ſame paines and foꝛfeitures. And alwaies it is to be vnderſtanded, that euerie Engliſhman, Iriſhman oꝛ Welſhman maie fréelie bꝛing their owne wolles, lether, wolfelles ⁊ lead to the ſtaple to ſell there without being compelled to ſell them in the countrie. And that euerie marchant that ſhall ſell his wolles at the ſtaple, be bounde to warrant the packing of the ſame wolles.

Chap. 4.
Staple.
Carier.
Takers.
Vierge.
Steward.
Marſhall.
Maior of the ſtaple.

Item foꝛ as much as no ſtaple maie be pꝛofitable foꝛ vs and our ſaide realme and landes, vnleſſe it be frée: We will and graunt foꝛ vs and foꝛ our heires, foꝛ the maintenance of the ſaide ſtaple, that all maner of people maie come with their cariage and goods to the ſtaple, and from the ſame returne fréelie without being diſturbed by pꝛiſes of vs oꝛ of anie other. Sauing to vs and to our heires all maner of pꝛices roiall, of all maner of cariages and vittailes thꝛough all our ſayde realme and landes of olde times due and vſed of right, as haue bene made by vs our aunceſters in times paſt. And euerie carier returning from the ſtaple, ſhall haue a bill vnder the ſeale of the maioꝛ of the ſtaple, whereby it maie be knowne, that hee ſerueth the ſtaple, conteining the iournies that him néedeth foꝛ his returne to the houſe, which bill ſhalbe fréelie granted to him. And the ſame maioꝛ ſhall be ſwoꝛne that hee ſhall make no ſuch bill foꝛ none other then which ſerueth the ſtaple. And if anie ſuch carier, cart, ſhippes, beaſtes, oꝛ other thing, which ſerueth foꝛ cariage of that that perteineth to the ſtaple, be taken, and be within the vierge out of the ſtaple, hue and crie ſhall be leuied vpon the takers, and the takers ſhall be maintenant taken by people of the towne, where the pꝛice was made, oꝛ by people of an other towne, if they be lacking, and bꝛought befoꝛe the ſteward and marſhall of our houſe. And there readie puniſhment ſhall be made of them, accoꝛding as the déede requireth. And if anie ſuch pꝛice be made out of the vierge, hue and crie ſhall be leuied, and the takers ſhall bee taken and arreſted by the towne, where ſuch pꝛices ſhall be made, oꝛ by other townes néere, if they be lacking, and bꝛought to the next gaile, and there to be done of them as of théeues, if the déede the ſame require. And in caſe that the people of ſuch townes be negligent, and will not purſue and arreſt ſuch takers, as befoꝛe is ſaid, the iiii. townes next ſhall anſwere of the damages that may be found befoꝛe them, whom we ſhall thereto aſſigne, that the plaintiffes haue incurred by their default, if they can not reaſonablie excuſe them ſelfe thereof. And if ſuch pꝛices bee made in a place, where that the ſtaple is, the takers ſhall bee arreſted by the maioꝛs and miniſters of the ſtaple, and right done to the plaintiffes by the ſaide maioꝛs and miniſters. So alwaies that if ſuch pꝛice be made at the ſtaple, and the ſtaple be within the vierge, and the takers arreſted be of our houſe, then right ſhall be done of them by the maioꝛs and miniſters of the ſtaple. And the ſteward and marſhall of our houſe, oꝛ the ſtewardes lieutenant ſhall be thereto called, if they will be there, to ſée that right be done of the ſaide takers accoꝛding to the lawe of the ſtaple. And in caſe they come not, the maioꝛ and miniſters of the ſtaple ſhall pꝛocede in the pꝛoceſſe, and doe iuſtice accoꝛding to the lawe of the ſtaple, notwithſtanding the not comming of the ſtewarde oꝛ marſhall, oꝛ lieutenant afoꝛeſaide.

Chap. 5.
Coniſance.
Maioꝛ.

Item in caſe that our bench oꝛ common bench, oꝛ iuſtices in Eyꝛe, oꝛ iuſtices of Aſſiſe, oꝛ the place of the marſhalſie, oꝛ anie other iuſtices come to the places, where the ſaide ſtaples bee, the ſaide iuſtices noꝛ ſtewardes noꝛ marſhalles, noꝛ other of the ſaid places, ſhall haue no coniſaunce there of that thing that perteineth to the coniſaunce of the maioꝛ and miniſters of the ſtaple.

Chap. 6.
Marſhall.
Liuerie.

Item we will and defend, that no marſhall noꝛ other miniſter of our houſe noꝛ of others, ſhall make liuerie noꝛ medle them in the places where the ſtaples be holden and kept, of the houſes where the ſaide marchauntes oꝛ their meinie, oꝛ wolles oꝛ other marchaundizes of the ſtaple bee lodged, noꝛ enter in to the ſame to doe their office there, noꝛ take anie thing thereof to ſpare anie, vpon the paine to make grée to the partie, at whoſe ſuite he ſhall be attainted, of the quatreble of that that the plaintiffe ſhall be endamaged, and further ſhall be gréeuouſlie puniſhed againſt vs.

Item

Cap.7.
Licence.
Priuilege.

Item we will and graunt, that no licence nor priuilege to make paſſage by Engliſhmen, Iriſhmen, or Welſhmen of wolles, lether, wolfelles or lead out of the ſaide realme and lands, ſhall be graunted by vs nor by our heires againſt this ordinance. And if anie be graunted to the contrarie, they ſhall be holden for none. And they ſhall giue no warrantie, nor excuſe to them, which ſhall doo to be paſſed the ſaide marchandiſes, that they ſhall not incurre the paines and forfeitures contained in the ſaide article.

Cap.8.
Maior of the ſtaples.
Conſtables of the ſtaple
Iuriſdiction.

Item we haue ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the maiors and conſtables of the ſtaples, ſhall haue iuriſdiction and coniſance within the townes where the ſtaples ſhall be, of people and of all maner of thinges touching the ſtaple. And that all marchants comming to the ſtaple, their ſeruaunts and meinie in the ſtaple, ſhall be ruled by the law marchant, of all thinges touching the ſtaple, and not by the common lawe of the land, nor by vſage of cities burghes nor other townes, and that they ſhall not impleade nor be impleaded before the iuſtices of the ſaid places in plea of debt, couenant, and treſpas touching the ſtaple, but ſhall impleade all perſons, of whom they will complaine, aſwell ſuch as be not of the ſtaple, as thoſe that be of the ſtaple, which ſhall be there found. And in the ſame maner they ſhall be impleaded onelie before the maior and iuſtices of the ſtaple, which ſhall be thereto deputed, of all maner of pleas and of actions, whereof the coniſance, pertaineth to the miniſters of the ſtaple. So alwaies that all maner of contracts and couenants made betwixt marchant and marchant or other, whereof the one partie is a marchant or miniſter of the ſtaple, whether the contract or couenant made be within the ſtaple or without, ⁊ alſo of treſpaſſes doone within the ſtaple to marchants or to miniſters of the ſtaple by other, or by anie of them to other: the partie plaintiffe ſhall chooſe whether he will ſue his action or quarell before the iuſtices of the ſtaple by the lawe of the ſtaple, or in other place at the common law: And he ſhall be thereto receiued. So alwaies that in the pleas touching anie of our houſe, the ſteward or his lieutenaunt, and the marſhals of our houſe ſhall be with the maior of the ſtaple, to ſée that right be doone to the parties, as before is ſaide, if they will be there. But pleas of land and of freehold ſhall be at the common lawe. And if marchants or their people being in the ſtaple, becauſe of the ſame doo felonie or be ſlaine, robbed, or maimed by anie perſons, the maior of the ſtaple and other couenable ſhall be aſſigned iuſtices, to heare and determine the ſaid felonies ⁊ maihems within the ſtaple without delay, according to the common lawe. And if anie ſuch felon or treſpaſſer be taken and deteined within anie franchiſe, to whom ſoeuer the ſame be, becauſe of ſuch felonie or maihem doone within the ſtaple, it ſhall be maintenant commanded by writ, to make the ſaid felon, or him that did the maihem to come before the ſaid iuſtices, to doo right of him in the forme aforeſaid: And if they that haue ſuch priſoners in warde, will not deliuer them, they ſhall incurre the paine of an C. li. towards vs. And neuertheles they ſhall deliuer the bodie in the forme aforeſaid. And in caſe that anie enditement be made out of the ſtaple of felonies or treſpaſſes doone by people of the ſtaple, or by other to them within the ſtaple, the ſame enditement ſhall be ſent before the ſaid maior, and them which ſhall be aſſigned iuſtices with him, to doo right in this partie. And if plea or debate be made before the maior of the ſtaple, betwixt the marchants or miniſters of the ſame, and thereupon to trie thereof the trouth an enqueſt or proue is to be taken: we will that if the one partie and the other be a ſtranger, it ſhall be tried by ſtrangers. And if the one partie and the other be denizens, it ſhall be tried by denizens. And if the one partie be denizen and the other an alian, the one halfe of the enqueſt or of the proue ſhall be of denizens, and the other halfe of alians.

Steward of the kings houſe.

Felonie or maihem doone within the ſtaple.

Enditement.

Enqueſt.

Cap.9.
Staple.
Maior of the ſtaple.
Seale.
Recogniſance.

Item to the intent that the contracts made within the ſtaple ſhall be the better holden, and the paiments redelie made: we haue ordained and ſtabliſhed, that euerie maior of the ſaid ſtaples ſhall haue power to take recogniſances of debts, which a man will make before him, in the preſence of the conſtables of the ſtaple or one of them. And that in euerie of the ſaide ſtaples be a ſeale ordained, remaining in the cuſtodie of the ſaide maior of the ſtaple, vnder the ſeales of the ſame conſtables. And that all obligations, which ſhall be made vpon ſuch recogniſances, be ſealed with the ſaid ſeale paieng for euerie obligation of an C. li. and within, of euerie pound an halpenie. And of euerie obligation aboue an C li. of euerie pound a farthing. And that the maior of the ſtaple, by vertue of the ſame letters ſo ſealed, may take and hold in priſon the bodies of the debtors after the terme incurred, if he be found within the ſtaple, till they haue made grée to the crediter of the debt and damages. And alſo arreſt the goods of the ſaide debtors found within the ſaide ſtaple, and deliuer the ſaide goods to the ſaid creditors by true eſtimation or to ſell them at the beſt that a man may, and deliuer the monie to the creditors till the ſumme due. And in caſe that the debtors be not found within the ſtaple, nor their goods to the ſumme of the debt, the ſame ſhall be certified in the chauncerie vnder the ſaide ſeale, by which certification a writ ſhall be ſent to take the bodies of the ſaid debtors, without putting them to mainepriſe. And to ſeaſe their lands and tenements, goods and cattels. And the writ ſhall be returned in our chauncerie, with the certification of the value of the ſaide lands and tenements, goods, and cattels. And thereupon due execution to be made from day to day in the maner as it is contained in the ſtatute marchant, ſo that he, to whome the debt is due, haue eſtate of fréehold in the lands and tenements, which ſhall be deliuered to him by vertue of the ſame proces, and recouerie by writ of Nouell diſſeiſin, in caſe if he be out. And that the debter haue no aduantage of the quarter of a yeare that is contained in the ſaid ſtatute marchaunt.

Chauncerie.

Execution.

Statute marchant.

chant. And in caſe that no creditor will haue letters of the ſaide ſeale, but will be at the faith of the ſaide debtor, if after the terme incurred he demaunded the debt, the debtor ſhall be vpon the faith.

Cap. 10. Auoyr de pois Staple. Weight. Meaſure. Yarde. Balance. Woolles.

Item becauſe we haue perceiued, that ſome marchants doo buie auoyr de pois, woolles and other marchandiſes by one weight: and ſell by an other, and make alſo diſceitefull draughts vpon the weight. And alſo vſe falſe meaſures and yeardes in great diſceite of vs and of all the commons and of lawfull marchants: We will and ſtabliſh, that one weight, one meaſure and one yard be through all the land, aſwell out of the ſtaple as within. And that woolles, and all maner auoyr de pois, be weied by the balance, ſo that the tongue of the balance be euen without bowing to the one ſide or to the other, and without putting hand or foote, or other touch making of the ſame. And that he that dooth againſt the ſame, to the damage of the ſeller, ſhall forfaite to vs the valour of the marchandiſe ſo weighed & meaſured. And the partie that will complaine him, ſhall haue the quatreble of that that he ſhall be indamaged. And the treſpaſſour ſhall haue one yeares impriſonment, and be raunſomed at the kings will. And thereupon iuſtices ſhall be aſſigned to enquire of ſuch treſpaſſes at all times that ſhall be needefull, and to doo right aſwell at our ſuite as at the ſuite of other that thereof will complaine.

Cap. 11. Marchants. Wines. Staple. Forſtalling.

Item we haue ordained, that all marchants, aliens, and denizens, and other, that doo bring wines, and other wares and marchandizes, what ſo euer they be to the ſtaples, cities burghes, and good townes, or to ports of the ſea within our ſaide realme and landes, may ſafelie and without chalenge and impechment of anie ſell them in gros or at retaile, or by percels at their will, to all maner of people that will buie the ſame. And that no marchant, priuie nor ſtranger, nor other of what condition that he be, go by land nor by water againſt ſuch wines, wares, or marchandiſes comming into our ſaide realme and lands, in the ſea nor elſe where, to foreſtall or buie them, or in other maner to giue earneſt vpon them, before that they come to the ſtaple, or to the port, whereby they ſhall be diſcharged, nor enter in the ſhips for ſuch cauſe, till the marchandiſes be ſet to land to be ſould, vpon the paines and forfeitures contained in the ſame third article aforeſaide.

Cap. 12. Marchants. Woolles. Lether. Wolfelles.

Item that no marchant priuie nor ſtranger, nor other, ſhall bring out of our realme of England woolles, lether, wolfelles to Berwike vpon Twede nor elſe where, nor into Scotland, nor that no man, marchant nor other of what condition that he be, ſell his woolles, wolfelles, nor lether, to anie man of Scotland, nor to none other to bring into Scotland, vpon the paines and articles contained in the ſaid third article.

Cap. 13. Marchant robbed on the ſea.

Item we will and graunt, that if anie marchant priuie or ſtranger be robbed of his goods vpon the ſea, and the goods ſo robbed come into anie parties within our realme and landes, and will ſue for to recouer the ſaide goods, he ſhall be receiued to proue the ſaide goods to be his owne by his marks, or by his cart or coket, or by good and lawfull marchants priuie or ſtrangers. And by ſuch proues the ſame goods ſhall be deliuered to the marchants, without making other ſuite at the common lawe. And in caſe that anie ſhips going out of our ſaide realme and landes, or comming to the ſame, by tempeſt or other miſfortune breake vpon the ſea bankes, and the goods come to the land, which may not be ſaid wrecke, they ſhall be maintenant without fraude or male engine deliuered to the marchants, to whom the goods be, or to their ſeruants, by ſuch proue as before is ſaide, paieng to them that haue ſaued and kept the ſame, couenablie for their trauell, that is to ſay, by the diſcretion of the ſhiriffes and bailiffes or other our miniſters in the places gildable, where other lordes haue no franchiſe, and by the aduiſe and aſſent of iiii. or vi. of the beſt or moſt ſufficient diſcreete men of the countrie. And if that be within the franchiſe of other lordes, than it ſhall be doone by the ſtewards and bailiffes, or wardens of the ſame franchiſes, and by the aduiſe of iiii. or vi. diſcreete men of the countrie, as afore is ſaide, without anie delaie.

Ships periſhed on the ſea.

Cap. 14. Marchants. Plate of ſiluer. Billets of golde. Monie. Bullion. Exchange. Staple. Olde ſterling.

Item we haue ordained, that all marchants priuie and ſtrangers, may ſafelie carie and bring within our ſaid realme and landes, plate of ſiluer and billets of gold, and all other maner of golde, and all monie of golde and ſiluer, to our bullion, or to our exchanges, which we ſhall doo ordaine at our ſtaples and elſe where, taking there monie of our coine of golde and ſiluer couenablie to the valure. And if anie will take good monie of golde and ſiluer of other coine than of ours in paiment, he ſhall take the ſame without impeachment, ſo that none be thereunto compelled, if he will not take it of his good will. Prouided alwaies, that no monie haue common courſe within our ſaide realme and landes, but the monie of golde and ſiluer of our coine. And that none carie out of our ſaide realme and landes the olde ſterling, nor other monie, but our newe monie of golde and ſiluer, except the marchants ſtrangers, that bring to our ſaide realme and landes anie maner of monie, and there will employ this monie within our realme and landes: whome we will that they may recarie into their countrie all this monie, or aſmuch as ſhall remaine thereof not emploied without impechment. So alwaies that good and lawfull ſearch be thereof made in the ports and other places, where anie arriuall is. And that all the monie, that euerie marchant ſtraunger ſhall bring within our ſaide realme and landes ſhall be put in writing by the ſearchers, to the intent that no marchant ſhall carie more beyond the ſea, than he brought into the ſame realme and landes. Prouided alwaies, that no miniſter nor other, by colour of ſuch ſearch, ſhall make impechment or diſturbance to anie marchant ſtranger to greeue him vnduelie. And that all the falſe monie, that maie be found by ſerch, or in other maner eſpied within the ſame our realme and landes, in diſceits of our good monie, ſhall be forfeited to vs, according to the ordinances an other time thereof made.

Chap. 15
Wolles.
Lether.
Felles.
Lead.
Bailiffes.
Mariners
Staple.
Indenture

Item we wil, that they that haue wolles, lether, felles, and lead in the countrie betwixt the places where the ſtaples be, and the ſea, and the ſame will doe carie to the ſtaple by freſh waters, or by armes of the ſea, ſhall make indentures betwixt them and the bailiffes of the townes, where they put them in ſhip, teſtifieng howe much wolles, lether, felles, and lead is ſo put in ſhip. And the bailiffes of the places ſhall take an oth and ſufficient ſuertie, for which they will anſwere, of them and the mariners, which ſhall go with the ſame wolles, leather, felles, and lead, to the ſtaple, and no partie elſe where. And there ſhall diſcharge before that they doe enter the ſea. And that the bailiffes ſend maintenant the one part of the indenture, conteining the ſuertie & the quantitie of the wolles, leather, wolfelles, and lead, to the maior of the ſtaple, at their coſtes, that owe the goods, by ſome man, for whom they will anſwere. And if anie maior, bailiffe, or other miniſter of the places, where ſuch marchandizes ſhall be charged, ſuffer the ſaide marchandizes to paſſe in other maner, as well the maiors and bailiffes, and miniſters aforeſayde, as the marchauntes, which the ſame ſhall charge, ſhall incurre the paynes and forfeitures conteined in the ſayde thirde article.

Chap 16
Houſes to high let.
Staple.

Item that in euerie towne, where the ſtaple ſhall be holden, ſhall be ordeined certeine rewes and places, where the wolles and other marchandizes ſhall be put. And becauſe that the lordes or wardeines of the houſes and places (ſeeing the neceſſitie of marchants) do ſet percaſe their houſes at to high ferme: We haue ordeined, that the houſes, which be to be leſſed in ſuch maner ſhal be ſet at a reaſonable ferme, according to the ordinance of the maior and conſtables of the ſtaple, & of iiii. diſcrete men of the beſt of the towne, where the ſtaple is, which ſhall be ſworne in the preſence of the ſaid maior and conſtables, to make a lawfull taxe, ſo that for default of houſes, the ſtaple ſhall not be impeached. And that no man, that bringeth wolles or other marchandizes there, bee diſturbed to lodge the ſame wolles and marchandizes in the houſes, which they haue ſo hired.

Chap. 17
Marchant ſtranger.
Lawe of Marque.
Proclamation.

Item that no marchaunt ſtranger bee impeached for an others treſpaſſe, or for an others debt, whereof he is not debter pleadge nor mainpernour. Prouided allwaies, that if our liege people marchantes or other, be indamaged by any lords of ſtrange landes or their ſubiectes, and the ſaide lordes (duelie required) faile of right to our ſaide ſubiectes, we ſhall haue the lawe of Marque, & of taking them againe, as hath bene vſed in times paſt, without fraude or male engine. And in caſe that debate do riſe (which God defende) betwixt vs and anie lords of ſtrange lands: We will not that yͤ people & marchants of the ſaid lands be ſudenly ſubdued in our ſaid realme & lands becauſe of ſuch debate, but that they be warned, and proclamation thereof publiſhed, that they ſhall voide the ſaid realme and lands with their goods freelie within xl. daies after the warning and proclamation ſo made. And that in the meane time, they be not impeached nor let of their paſſage, or of making their profit of the ſame marchandizes, if they will ſell them. And in caſe that for defaulte of winde or of ſhip, or for ſickneſſe, or for other euident cauſe, they may not voide our ſaid realme and lands within ſo ſhort time, then they ſhall haue other xl. daies or more if neede bee, within which they may paſſe couenablie, with ſelling their marchandize, as afore is ſaid.

Chap. 18
Marchants ſtrangers.
Wolles.
Lether.
Felles.
Lead.
Cuſtome.
Treaſurer.
Barons del eſchequer.

Item becauſe we do well perceiue, that marchants ſtrangers do not come ſo commonlie into Irelande, nor into Wales, for to marchandiſe as they doe into Englande, we will of our ſpeciall grace, that it ſhalbe lawfull to the people of Ireland & Wales, which may not deliuer their wolles, lether, wolfelles, and lead, in Ireland & in Wales, to all marchantes ſtrangers, to come with their ſaid marchandiſes, after that that they be cuſtomed and coketted in Ireland and in Wales, to anie of our ſtaples in Englande, which them ſhall pleaſe, bringing their cokettes, witneſſing their marchandiſes, which they ſhall diſcharge at the ſtaples in England: ſo that they, when they ſhall come to the ſtaples in England, or they that bought their ſaid marchandiſes of them, ſhall not paie an other time cuſtome nor ſubſidie for the ſaide marchaundiſes ſo cuſtomed in our ſaide landes of Ireland and Wales. And our treaſurer, and the barons of our eſchequer of England, ſhall be certified two times by the yeere at the leaſt, that is to ſaie, at Eaſter and Michaelmas how much wolles, lether, wolfelles and lead, ſhall paſſe out of the ſaid land of Ireland, & of the cuſtome thereof paied. And in caſe that the marchants, or other people of Ireland or of Wales, after that that they be in the ſea with their ſaide marchandiſes, doe paſſe to anie place, other then to the ſtaples in Englande, they ſhall incurre the paines and forfeitures in the ſaid third article.

Chap. 19
Marchant.
Treſpas of ſeruants.
Law marchant.
Spedie right.

Item that no marchant nor other, of what condition that he be, ſhall loſe or forfeite his goodes nor marchandiſes for the treſpaſſe and forfeiture of his ſeruant, vnleſſe hee do it by the commaundement or procurement of his maſter, or that hee hath offended in the office, in which his maſter hath ſet him, or in other maner, that the maſter be holden to anſwere for the deede of his ſeruant by the lawe marchant, as elſe where is vſed. And becauſe that marchantes maie not often long tarie in one place for leuing off their marchandiſes: we will and graunt, that ſpeedie right bee to them done from daie to daie and from houre to houre, according to the lawes vſed in ſuch ſtaples, before this time holden elſe where at all times, when they will them complaine of anie, or that anie will complaine of them, ſo that the marchantes be not by malice delaied for defaulte of ſpeedie remedie.

Chap.20
Marchants ſtrangers. Protection
Speedie iuſtice.

Item becauſe we haue taken all the marchantes ſtraungers in our ſaide realme and landes, into our ſpeciall protection,& moreouer graunted to do to them ſpeedie remedie of the greeuances, if anie be to them done: We haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie outrage or greeuance be done to them in the countrie out of the ſtaple, the iuſtices of the place, where ſuch outrages ſhall be done, ſhall do ſpeedie iuſtice to them after the lawe marchant from daie to daie and from houre to houre, without ſparing anie man, or to put them to ſue at the common lawe. And if anie man be conuict, that he hath greeued the marchants, ſo taken in our protection, he ſhal be puniſhed againſt vs for the contempt done to vs, in as much as ſhal be iudged to the marchants for their damages. And to the ſaid marchants ſtrangers their double damages ſhall be iudged.

Chap.21
Staple. Maior del ſtaple.
Conſtable of the ſtaple.
Priſon. Maiors. Shiriffes. Bailiffes. Lorde.

Item becauſe that the ſtaples maie not long holde, nor the ordinances thereof made and to be made, be kept, if good executors and iuſtices be not ſtabliſhed to make thereof good and readie execution: We haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that in euerie towne, where the ſtaple is ordeined, a maior, good, lawfull and ſufficient ſhall be made and ſtabliſhed, hauing knowledge of the lawe marchant to gouerne the ſtaple, and to doe right to euerie man after the lawes aforeſaide, without fauour, ſparing, or greefe doing to anie. And in euerie place, where the ſtaple is ſhall bee two couenable conſtables nowe at his beginning put by vs, to doe that perteineth to their office, as in other ſtaples is accuſtomed, and when they ſhall be deade, or changed, then other ſhall be choſen by the communaltie of the marchantes of the ſaid places. And that no maior holde the office ouer the yeere, vnleſſe he be newlie choſen by the communaltie of the marchantes, as well of ſtrangers as of denizens. And that the ſaide maior and conſtables haue power to keepe the peace, and to arreſt offendors in the ſtaples for debt, treſpaſſe, or other contract, and them to put in priſon and puniſh after the lawe of the ſtaple. And a priſon ſhall be ordeined for the ſafe keeping of them that ſo ſhall be impriſoned. And the maiors, ſhiriffes, and bailiffes of the townes, where the ſtaple is, or ioyning to the ſtaple, ſhall be attending to the maior and miniſters of the ſtaple, to doe execution of their commandements, vpon paine of greeuous forfeiture: and one lorde or other of the moſt ſufficient in the countrie, where the ſtaple is, ſhall be aſſigned to be aide to the maior and miniſters of the ſtaple, to iuſtifie the rebels, which by the ſaide maior and miniſters can not be iuſtified, and to mainteine and counſell them when neede ſhall be, to good gouernance of the ſtaple, and to redreſſe at euerie mans complaint that that ſhall be done amiſſe by the ſaide maior or miniſters, or other, and to do right to the complainants in this behalfe. And that the ſame maior and conſtables do not nor ordeine anie thing contrarie to this ordinances, nor make interpretation nor exception to them, otherwiſe then the words do purport, but if there be anie thing, that is doubted, it ſhal be ſhewed to our councell, and there declared by good aduiſe.

Chap.22
Staple Mainpernours. Correctors in the ſtaple

Item we haue ordeined, that in euerie place, where the ſtaple ſhall be holden, there ſhall be a certeine number of correctors, as well of ſtraungers as of priuies, good people, ſufficient, and learned of ſuch miſterie, lawfully to make and record the bargaines betwixt the buiers and the ſellers, as hath bene vſed in other ſtaples holden in other places, and that they finde ſufficient mainpernors before maior and conſtables of the ſtaple, lawfullie to doe that perteineth to their office: and if they be found in default, they ſhall paie to him that is indamaged, as much as his loſſe ſhall amount to, ſo that they medle them not of anie maner of marchandize for the time that they ſhall abide in the office. And that no man be conſtrained to haue corrector vnleſſe he will of his gre, nor to paie anie thing to anie corrector, vnleſſe he medle of his bargaine at his requeſt.

Chap.23
Porters. Packers of woll. Winder of woll. Staple. Correctors Marchantes ſworne. Maior & conſtable ſworne.

Item that a certaine number of porters, packers, winders, workers, and other labourers of wooles, and all other marchandiſes be ſufficientlie ordeined for the place where the ſtaple is, and they and the correctors and all maner of offices of the ſtaple, beſides the conſtables, ſhall be ſworne before the maior of the ſtaple, that they lawfullie ſhall doe their office, without fraude or male engine. Alſo all marchants aliens and denizens, comming to the ſaide ſtaples becauſe of marchandize, ſhall be ſworne before the ſame maior and conſtables, that they ſhall be iuſtified by the ſame maior and conſtables, according to the lawe and vſage of the ſtaple, and ſhall mainteine as much as in them is the ſtaple and the lawes and vſages of the ſame with out fraude or male engine. And the maior and conſtables ſhall be ſworne in the chauncerie, to doe lawfullie that that perteineth to them.

Chap.24
Marchants ſtrangers. Maior & conſtables.
Chauncellour.

Item we will and ordeine, that the marchants ſtraungers ſhall choſe two marchantes ſtrangers, whereof the one towardes the South, and the other towardes the North, ſhall be aſſigned to ſit with the maior and conſtables of the ſtaples, where ſome of thoſe perſons choſen ſhall come, to heare the plaintes touching marchantes aliens, that ſhall be moued before the ſayde maior and conſtables, at all times that anie of the ſaide perſons choſen will be there, and to ſee that plaine right be done to the ſaide marchantes aliens, ſo that the ſaide maior and conſtables ſhall not ceaſe to goe forth in their proces, in caſe that thoſe perſons choſen come not there. And in caſe that debate riſe betwixt them, vpon the diſcuſſing of anie plea or quarell: the tenour of the ſame plea or quarell ſhall be ſent before the chauncellor, and other of our councell, to be determined there without delaie. And alſo ſixe perſons ſhall be choſen, that is to ſaie, foure aliens, whereof two ſhall be of Almaine, and two of Lombardie, and two of Englande, which ſhall be diſcreete men, and woorthie of faith, and ſhall ſweare, that they ſhall well and lawfullie do their office, that is to ſaie, that when and at what time anie queſtion or debate ſhall riſe or come amongſt marchauntes of anie vnreaſonable wolle, or vndue packing according to the couenants made betwixt the ſellers and the buiers,that the ſaide perſons, oꝛ foure of them, may befoꝛe the maioꝛ of the ſtaple ⁊ the officers,by their othe, ſaie and amende as reaſon will:and thereupon credence ſhall be giuen to them,without anie contradiction.

Othe.

Chap.25 Confederacie. Conſpiracie. Couin. Staple.

Item we haue oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed,that no marchant, noꝛ other, ſhall make confederacie, conſpiracie, couine, imagination oꝛ murmur, oꝛ male engin in anie point that maie turne in impechment, diſturbance, defeiſaunce, oꝛ diſtreſſe of the ſaide ſtaples, oꝛ of anie thing that to them perteineth, oꝛ maie perteine, and if anie doe, and thereof be attainted befoꝛe the maioꝛ and miniſters of the ſtaples,oꝛ other,whom we ſhall thereto aſſigne, ſhall incurre the paines and foꝛfeitures conteined in the ſaid third article.

Chap.26 Charter. Marchandiſes. Letters. Othe.

Item where as it is conteined in the charter of our grandfather, granted to the marchantes ſtrangers,and by vs confirmed,that of marchandiſes, which they ſhall bꝛing in to our ſaid realme and landes,and whereof iii.d. of the pounde ought to be paied by the ſaide marchantes ſtraungers, accoꝛding to the ſame graunt, faith and credence ſhall bee giuen to them vpon the valure of the ſaide marchaundiſes by letters, which they may ſhewe of the ſame goodes of their loꝛdes and compaignions. And if they haue no letters, they ſhall bee beleeued by their othe in this behalfe. And nowe late it is done vs and our councell to vnderſtande, by the complaint of the ſaide marchants,that albeit they haue letters teſtifieng the valure of their marchandiſes, the ſhiriffes, maioꝛs, bailiffes, and miniſters of manie places doe conſtraine them to ſweare foꝛ the ſaide marchandiſes, againſt the foꝛme of their ſaide charter, and neuertheleſſe after the othe made, enſeale their barelles, fardles, and bales, foꝛ which they haue made their othe, and the ſame let lie foure oꝛ fiue daies ſo enſealed, befoꝛe that they will ſee the ſame, and ſo they take awaie from the ſaide marchants the ſale of their goods,to their great damage: We not willing,that the marchantes ſtraungers,that come with their marchandiſes into our ſaide realme and lands, foꝛ the common pꝛofit of the ſame, ſhall be in ſuch maner greeued, will,graunt,and ſtabliſh,that the ſaide charter be holden and that the barelles,fardelles, ⁊ bales ⁊ the other goods of the ſaid marchaunts, foꝛ which they haue ſhewed their letters, that be not ſuſpicious, oꝛ made the othe as is conteined in the ſame charter, maintenant after the othe made, oꝛ ſuch letters ſhewed, their goods ſhall be deliuered to them without delaie, thereof to doe their pꝛofit, without anie thing taking of them ouer the cuſtome of thꝛee pence of the pound, ſo that the ſhiriffes,maioꝛs,bailiffes oꝛ other miniſters ſhall medle no moꝛe of the ſame goods vpon pain of impꝛiſonment,and to pay to the partie greeued by this cauſe his quatreble damages, and as much to vs, and vpon the ſame,right ſhall be done in our chauncerie at euerie mans complaint.

Marchants ſtrangers. Cuſtome. Chauncery

Chap.27 Wolles. Lether. Wolfelles. Wolles.

Item we haue oꝛdeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed, that all thoſe that ſhall be conuict that they haue bꝛought wolles, lether, and wolfelles to the parties beyond the ſea, againſt the defence and pꝛoclamation thereof made befoꝛe the making of this oꝛdinance, ſhall be iudged to pꝛiſon,and incurre the foꝛfeiture of the ſame wolles,lether,⁊ wolfelles ſo paſſed,⁊ of all their other goods ⁊ cattelles,and moꝛeouer be ranſomed at our will.

Chap.28 Franchiſe. Cuſtome. Priuiledge Exemptio.

Item we will,graunt,and oꝛdeine,that all the ſaid thinges be fermelie kept and holden in all points,notwithſtanding fraunchiſe,cuſtome,pꝛiuiledge,exemption, iudgements,oꝛ other graunts made to cities, boꝛoughs, townes, communalties, people of ẏ 5. poꝛts, ⁊ other poꝛts oꝛ anie other ſinguler perſons. And in caſe that anie thing be to be amended,added,changed,oꝛ withdꝛawne of anie of the ſaid points in time to come by a true cauſe, we will,that the ſame be done by deliberation and aduiſe of the great men ⁊ other of our counſel in the parliament. Sauing in other things to the pꝛelates, dukes, earles, barons, and other loꝛdes, their faires, markets, hundꝛeds, wapentakes, leetes, iuriſdictions, courtes, franchiſes and pꝛiuiledges, and all other thinges to them perteining in the places where the ſtaples be and ſhall be, and elſe where, as farfoꝛth as they had them befoꝛe that the ſtaples were oꝛdeined.

Here beginneth the ordinances of the fees of the maiors and conſtables of the ſtaple.

FOꝛ as much as the ſtaple is nowe of late oꝛdeined, to abide perpetuallie in Englande, and at the beginning there was no euidence in certeine, by which a man might aſſigne oꝛ limit in certeine that that the maioꝛs and conſtables in the places, where the ſtaples be oꝛdeined, ought to take by yeere in certeine foꝛ their trauaile, but it was then aſſented by the loꝛdes and commons,that of euerie ſacke ſhould be leuied, eight pence foꝛ the firſt yeere,and deliuered to the ſayde maioꝛ and conſtables in the places where the ſaide ſtaples be aſſigned, which firſt yeere paſſed out at the gule of Auguſt laſt paſt. And nowe commeth as much wolles,oꝛ well nigh as much, to the poꝛt of London, as doe in all the other ſtaples thꝛough the realme, and to ſome of the other ſtaples commeth as much of wolles, as to two oꝛ thꝛee of the other ſtaples, ſo that to one ſtaple commeth moꝛe, and to an other leſſe,ſo that the maioꝛ and conſtables of ſome place take too much and in ſome places too little, and the peole be verie much charged to paie eight pence of a ſacke (as afoꝛe is ſaid) hauing regarde to the ſumms of the wolles,that paſſeth ouer the ſea.And all the time that the ſaid ſtaple was abiding beyond the ſea, he that is choſen maioꝛ by the marchants of Englande dyd take a certaine by yeere. And alſo it were reaſon that it ſhoulde be ſo in Englande: and that in a reaſonable maner, euerie man accoꝛding to his trauaile, and that the people ſhoulde not be ſo much charged: Wherefoꝛe it is oꝛdeined by the king and the great men, and by the aduiſe of Staple. Fees for officers of the ſtaple.

all the counſaile, that no more ſhall be leuied of a ſacke but foure pence in no part from the gule of Auguſt laſt paſt hitherto, nor from henceforth. And that the foure pence of the ſacke in euerie place where the ſtaple is, ſhall be put in a boxe, and ſealed with the ſeales of the maior and conſtables, to the intent that the ſaide maior and conſtables maie be thereof paied of their certeine, that they ſhall take. And if at the ende of the yeere more be founde in the boxe, then the fees of the ſayde maior and conſtables ſhall amount vnto, it ſhall bee ſafelie kept, to paie & performe the fees of the maiors & conſtables, in other ſtaples where the foure pence will not therto ſuffice. And if anie thing remaine in the ſaid boxes, after yͤ fees paied, the ſame ſumme reſidue, ſhalbe ſaued to the common profit of the marchauntes of the ſtaple for the yeere to come, and for to paie for the weightes made of newe, and alſo for paimentes and other thinges neceſſarie touching the ſtaple. And as much as is leuied in all the places, where the ſtaples be, ouer the ſaide ſumme of foure pence, of the ſacke, after the ſaide gule of Auguſt laſt paſt, ſhall be rebailed and reſtored to the vſes aforeſaide. And the fees of the maior and conſtables be ordeined and limitted in the forme as followeth, that is to ſaie, the maior of the ſtaple of Weſtminſter ſhall take C. li. and euerie of the conſtables there tenne markes. The maior of Yorke, Kinſtone vpon Hull, Norwich, and Wincheſter, euerie of them xx. li. and euerie of the conſtables of the ſaide places a hundred ſhillings, the maior of Newcaſtell vpon Tine, Chicheſter, and of Exeter tenne pounde, and euerie of the conſtables of thoſe places fiue markes. And if anie of the maiors and conſtables aboue named refuſe the office, he ſhal paie to the companie as much as his fee ſhal amount to. And proclamation of the ſame was made through England the ſixt daie. &c.

Boxe.

Weights.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xxviii. yeere of king Edward the third.

OUr ſoueraigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the mundaie next after the feaſt of ſaint Marke the Euangeliſt, the yeere of his reigne of Englande the twentie eight, and of Fraunce the fifteenth, to the honour of God and of holie church, and for the common profit of him and his people, by the aſſent of the prelates, the prince, dukes, earles, barons, and the commons of his realme there aſſembled, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed the pointes vnderwritten.

Chap. 1. Charter.

FIrſt that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, and all other ſtatutes before this time made and vſed, be kept and mainteined in all pointes.

Chap. 2. Marches of Wales.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that all the lords of the marches of Wales, ſhall be perpetuallie intending and annexed to the crowne of England, as they and their anceſters haue bene al times paſt, and not to the principalitie of Wales, in whoſe hands ſo euer the ſame principalitie be, or hereafter ſhall come.

Chap. 3. Proceſſe of lawe.

Item that no man, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhalbe out of land nor tenement, nor taken nor impriſoned, nor diſherited, nor put to death without being brought in anſwere by due proceſſe of the lawe.

Chap. 4.

Item becauſe that the eſchetours and other the kings miniſters, by the kinges commaundement from his Chauncerie, haue bene charged at the eſchequer of the fermes and rentes, of the landes and tenementes, which were taken into the kinges handes by the death of the tenauntes, which helde of him, to the heires and other, to whom the ſaide landes and tenementes ought to deſcende, reuert, or remaine, whereof the termes of paymentes were to come after ſuch liuerie made, for the rate and portion of the time that the ſame lands and tenementes were in the kinges handes: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that of manours, cities, boroughes, townes, hundreds, franchiſes, and all other landes and tenementes, whereof profit doeth ariſe from time to time through the yeere, as of milles, herbage, tolle, pleas and profites of courtes, and all ſuch iſſues and profits, euerie eſchetour and other miniſter, which hath ſeaſed ſuch landes and tenementes to the kinges vſe, ſhall be holden to anſwere to the king for the rate and portion of the time, according to the olde courſe in the eſchequer. And that of ancient fermes, and rentes, which be to be paied at certaine termes, as rent ſeckque & rent ſeruice, whereof no profit riſeth, till the daie of paiment, ſuch fermes and rentes ſhall bee paied to them, which haue liuerie out of the kinges hande, at the termes of paiments of the ſaide fermes and rentes, which followeth after ſuch liuerie made aſwell of the time paſt as of the time to come.

Eſchetours. Milles. Herbage. Tolle.

Rent ſecke. Rent ſeruice. Liuerie.

Chap. 5. Iron. Labourers

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that yron made in Englande, and yron brought into Englande and there ſolde, ſhall not be brought out of the realme of Englande, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double to the king, and the iuſtices aſſigned ſhall haue power to enquire of labourers. And the other iuſtices whom the king will thereto aſſigne, ſhall haue power to enquire of them that ſell the yron at to deere a price, and to puniſh them, after the quantitie of the treſpaſſe.

Chap. 6. Coroners. Fraunchiſes.

Item it is ordeined and accorded, that all coroners of the counties ſhall be choſen in the full counties, by the commons of the ſame counties of the moſt conuenient and moſt lawfull people that ſhall be founde in the ſaide counties, to do the office, ſaued alwaies to the king and to other lords, which owe to make ſuch coroners, their ſeignories and franchiſes.

Chap. 7. Shiriffe.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſhiriffes of the counties ſhall be remoued euerie yeere out of their office, ſo that no ſhiriffe, that hath bene in his office by a yeere, ſhall abide in the ſame

Commiſſiõ

ſame office the yéere next folowing. And that no commiſſion be made to him thereof, or renewed for the ſame yéere following.

Chap. 8. Attaint. Treſpas.

Item it is accorded, that the writ of Attaint ſhall be graunted from henceforth, as well vpon a bill of treſpas, as vpon a writ of treſpas, of enqueſtes, which be to be taken in time to come, without hauing regard to the quantitie of the dammages.

Chap. 9. Shirifes.

Item becauſe that the people of the realme haue ſuffred manie euils and miſchiefes, of that that ſhirifes of diuers counties, by vertue of commiſſions and generall writtes graunted to them at their owne ſuite, for their ſinguler profit to gaine of the people, haue made and taken diuerſe enqueſtes, to doe endite the people at their will, and haue taken fine and raunſome of them to their owne vſe, and haue deliuered them, without that that ſuch perſons endited were brought before the kings Iuſtices to haue their deliuerance: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed for to eſchewe all ſuch euils and miſchieues, that all ſuch commiſſions and writtes before this time made, ſhall be vtterly repealed, and that from henceforth no ſuch commiſſions nor writtes ſhall be granted.

Commiſſions.

Cap. 10. Maior. Shirifes. & Aldermen of London. Penaltie. Franchiſe.

Item becauſe that the errours, defaultes, and miſpriſions, which be notoriouſly vſed in the citie of London for default of good gouernance of the Maior, of the ſhirifes, and the aldermen, can not be inquired nor founde by people of the ſame citie: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide Maior, ſhirifes, and aldermen, which haue the gouernance of the citie, ſhall redreſſe and correct the defaultes, errours, and miſpriſions aboue named, and the ſame duely puniſh from time to time, vpon a certaine peine, that is to ſaye, at the firſt default a thouſande markes to the king, and at the ſeconde default two thouſande markes, and at the thirde default, that the franchiſe and the liberties of the citie be taken into the kings hande. And be it begon to enquire vpon them at ſaint Michaell next comming, ſo that if they make not due redreſſe as afore is ſaid, it ſhall be enquired, if their defaultes by enqueſtes of people of forreine counties, that is to ſaye, of Kent, Eſſex, Suſſex, Hertforde, Buckingham and Berk: as well at the kinges ſuite as others that will complaine. And if the Mayor, Shirifes, and Aldermen be by ſuch enqueſts, thereto aſſigned, endited, they ſhall be made to come by due proceſſe before the kings Iuſtices, which ſhall be to the ſame aſſigned out of the ſaide citie, before whome they ſhall haue their aunſwere aſwell to the king as to the partie. And if they put them in enqueſtes, the ſame enqueſtes ſhall be taken by forreine people as afore is ſaide. And if they be atteinted, the ſaide peine ſhall incurre and be leuied of the ſaide Maior, Shirifes and aldermen for default of their gouernance. And neuertheleſſe the plaintifes ſhall recouer their treble dammages againſt the ſaide Maior, Shirifes, and aldermen. And becauſe that the ſhirifes be parties to this buſines, the conſtable of the tower, or his lieutenant, ſhall ſerue in the place of the ſhirifes, to receiue the writtes, as well originals of the chauncerie as iudicials, vnder the ſeale of the Iuſtices, to do thereof execution in the ſaide citie. And proces ſhall be made by attachement and diſtreſſe, and by exigend if néede be, ſo that at the kings ſuite the exigende ſhall be awarded after the firſt Capias returned, and at the thirde Capias returned, at the ſuite of the partie. And if the Maior, ſhirifes, and aldermen haue lands or tenements out of the citie, proces ſhall be made againſt them by attachements and diſtreſſes in the ſame counties, where the landes or tenementes be. And that euerie of the ſaide Maior, ſhirifes, and aldermen that will, may aunſwere before the ſaide Iuſtices particulerly for him ſelfe, as well at the perill of other, which be abſent, as of him ſelfe. And this ordinance ſhall be holden firme and ſtable, notwithſtanding anie manner franchiſes, priuileges, or cuſtomes. And that this ordinance extend to all cities and boroughes of the realme, where ſuch defaultes or miſpriſions be vſed, and not duely corrected nor redreſſed. Sauing that the enqueſtes ſhall be taken by forreine people of the ſame countie, where ſuch cities or boroughes be. And that the peine of thoſe of the ſaid boroughes and townes, which ſhall be thereof attainted, ſhal be iudged by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, which ſhall be thereto aſſigned.

Inqueſtes. Forreine counties.

Priuileges Cuſtome.

Cap. 11. Marchants aliens.

Item becauſe that great clamour and gréeuous complaintes be made, as well by aliens as by denizens, that merchauntes and other paſſing through the realme of Englande with their merchandiſes and other goods, be ſlaine and robbed, and namely now more than they were wont, whereof remedie hath not beene made to the complainants: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the profit, which may come to the ſaide realme by comming and abyding of merchants aliens in the ſame realme, and the dammage and miſchiefe, which to them and other is done daily by ſuch manſlaughters and robberies, and willing to prouide for the ſuretie and indempnitie of merchants and other aforeſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of all his parliament, to the intent that merchants aliens ſhall haue the greater will and courage to come in to the ſaide realme of Englande, and that remedie from henceforth bee ſpeedely made to ſuch merchauntes and other robbed according to the fourme conteined in the ſtatute late made at Weſtminſter, that is to ſaye, that ſolempne crye bée made in all counties, hundredes, and markets, faires, and all other places, where ſolempne aſſemblie of people ſhall be, ſo that none by ignorance ſhall excuſe him, that euerie countrie from henceforth be ſo kept, that immediatly after felonies & robberies done, freſh ſuit be made fro towne to towne, & fro countrie to countrie, and enqueſtes if néede be, ſhall be alſo taken in the townes by him, which is ſoueraigne of the towne, and after in hundredes, fraunchiſes, and in the countie, and ſometime in two, thrée, or foure counties, in caſe when felonies ſhall be don in the marches of the counties, ſo that the offenders may bee attainted. And if the countrey doe not aunſwere of ſuch manner offenders,

Solempne crye.

Freſh ſuit. Inqueſtes.

Peine.

Hundred.
Robberie.

the peine ſhall be ſuch, that euerie countrie, that is to ſaie, the people dwelling in the countrie, ſhall aunſwere of the robberies done, and of the dammages, ſo that all the hundred, where the robberie ſhall be done, or the franchiſes, which be within the precinct of the ſame hundred, ſhall aunſwere of the robberie done. And if the robberie be done in the deuiſes of ii. hundredes, both hundreds ſhall aunſwere, likewiſe in the fraunchiſes. And longer terme ſhall not the countrie haue after the robberie or felonie done, than fourtie daies, within which them behoueth to make gree of the robberie, or of the offence, or that they aunſwere of the bodies of the offenders.

Cap. 12.

Purueiors
Purueiance
Taile.

Item becauſe that the meane people of the realme, and diuerſe other, which haue complained of the greeuances done to them, of that that the purueyours of our ſoueraigne lord the king, the Queene, and of the prince, and of other, haue taken of them their goods, liuinges, and vitailes, and thereof haue deliuered them tailes, aſſigning to them a day and place to receiue their payement at forreine places and farre of, where they diſpended the valour of the thing ſo taken of them, or the double, before that they haue receiued their payment, and oftentimes haue fayled of all: The king willing to prouide a remedie againſt ſuch greeuances, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, for the quietneſſe and eaſe of his people, that of all purueyances, which be or ſhall be made to his vſe, or to anie others vſe, within the ſumme of twentie ſhillings paiment ſhall be thereof made incontinently vpon the purueiance made, without deliuering anie tayle for anie day or place elſe where to be thereof aſſigned. And that of other purueiances made to the ſumme of twentie ſhillings and aboue, payment ſhall be made within a quarter of a yeere than next following, after ſuch purueiances made, at certaine daies and places, according as it may be moſt for the eaſe and leſſe trauaile of the people.

Cap. 13.

Merchãt.
Wolles.
Staple.
Enqueſt.
Denizen.
Alien.
Ships
Forſtalling

Warrãtiſe.
Packing of wolles.

King.

Mariners

Earneſt.

Cuſtome.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that all the ordinances made in the great councell holden at Weſtminſter, the Mondaie next after the feaſt of Saint Matthewe the Apoſtle laſt paſt, togither with certeine declarations and additions made in this preſent Parliament, bee firmely kept and holden for a ſtatute to endure for euer, which declarations and additions followeth in this manner. Where as it is conteined in the ſaide ordinances that euerie merchant, that ſelleth his Wolles at the ſtaple, ſhall be holden to warrant the packing of the ſame wolles, or if plea or debate be mooued before the Maior of the ſtaple, betwixt the merchants or miniſters of the ſame, and thereupon to trye the trueth thereof approoued enqueſt ſhall bee taken, and if the one partie and the other be denizen, it ſhall be tryed by denizens, and if the one partie be denizen and the other alien the halfe of the enqueſt or of the prooue ſhall be of denizens and the other halfe of aliens. And alſo that no merchant, priuie nor ſtranger, nor other, of what condition that he bee ſhall goe by lande nor by Water againſt ſuch ſhippes charged with Wines, wares, or other merchandizes comming into the realme of Englande, nor other landes of the king, in the ſea nor elſe where, for to forſtall, buy, or in other manner giuing them earneſt before that they come to the ſtaple, or to the port where they ſhall be diſcharged, nor enter the ſhippes for ſuch cauſe, till the merchandiſes be ſet to lande for to ſell: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the warrantie of packing of wolles for diuers miſcheefes, which the commons haue thereof perceiued, ſhall wholie be out. And that no man be holden to make ſuch warrantie vnleſſe it be by couenant made by deede enſealed. Alſo that no man, other than a merchant denizen or alien, that knoweth not the lawes and vſages of the ſtaple, vſed before that the ſaid ordinances of the ſtaple be made, ſhall be charged by the ſame lawes and vſages, till they be declared in the parliament. And that in all manner of enqueſtes and proues, which be to be taken or made amongeſt aliens and denizens, be they marchants or other, aſwell before the Maior of the ſtaple, as before anie other Juſtices or miniſters, although the king be partie, the one halfe of the enqueſt or proue ſhall be of denizens, and the other halfe of aliens, if ſo manie aliens be in the towne or place where ſuch enqueſt or proue is to be taken, that be not parties, nor with the parties in contractes, pleas, or other quarels, whereof ſuch enqueſtes or proues ought to be taken: and if there be not ſo manie aliens, than ſhall there be put in ſuch enqueſtes or proues as manie aliens as ſhall be founde in the ſame townes or places which be not thereto parties nor with the parties as afore is ſaide, and the remnant of denizens, which be good men and not ſuſpicious, to the one partie nor to the other. And that no manner ſhip, which is ſtraight towardes Englande or els where, bee compelled to anie porte of Englande, nor here to byde againſt the will of the maiſters and marriners of the ſame, or of the merthaunts, to whome the goods bee, and if ſuch come of their gree, or bee driuen by tempeſt or other miſfortune or miſchiefe to anie porte in Englande, and the maiſters, mariners, or merchauntes of the ſame ſhippes will ſell or deliuer parte of their merchaundiſes with their good will, it ſhall be lawfull for euerie man to buy ſuch merchaundiſes freelie without impechement, in the porte where ſuch ſhippes ſhall come, albeit the ſaide merchaundizes be not put to lande for to ſell, ſo alwayes that no merchaunt nor other ſhall goe by lande nor by water againſt ſuch ſhippes charged of merchaundiſes, to foreſtall the ſame merchaundiſes, or to giue them earneſt by waye of foreſtalling, vpon the peines contained in the thirde article of the ſaide ordinances, ſo that the maiſters, marriners, and merchauntes, after that they haue ſo ſolde that that pleaſeth them of their ſaide goodes, and payed thereof the cuſtome, maie freely departe and goe with their ſhippes and all the remnaunt of their goodes where as pleaſe them without cuſtome thereof to bee payed. And that none, of what condition that hee bee, by arte nor engine make nor ſet diſturbaunce to anie Shippe charged with merchan-marchaundiſes to come to anie port of England, but to the port where the maſters, mariners, and marchantes will firſt of their free will arriue, nor after that they haue arriued, ſhall medle of the ſale of the ſame marchaundiſes, nor diſturbe the marchauntes nor their ſeruantes, that they maie not the ſame by their owne handes.according as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme for their profite, ſell and deliuer their marchaundiſes, at what time and to whom ſhall them beſt pleaſe. And if anie ſet diſturbance, hee ſhall incurre a greeuous forfeiture againſt the king, according to the quantitie of the treſpaſſe.

Chap.14
Wolles.
Staple.

Item it is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that ſhewing of wolles ſhall be made at the ſtaple euerie daie of the weeke, except the Sundaie and ſolemne feaſtes of the yeere. And that no ſhewing nor ſale of wolles be made within three miles about the ſtaple, but onelie at the ſtaple, vpon the paine conteined in the third article of the ordinance of the ſtaple. Sauing alwaies that euerie lord and other man than a merchant, maie freelie lodge, ſhew and ſell his wolles, which be of his owne growing, in his owne houſe or other place where pleaſeth him.

Chap.15
Staple bounded.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtaple of Weſtminſter ſhall begin his bounde at Temple barre, and extende to Tutehill. And alſo in other cities and townes, where ſtaples be, the boundes of the ſame ſtaples ſhall bee within the walles, where the cities and townes be walled or encloſed, and in the cities or townes, which be not walled nor encloſed, the boundes of the ſaide ſtaples ſhall be through all the citie or towne.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xxxi. yeere of king Edward the third.

TO the honour of God and of holie church, it is accorded by our ſouereigne lorde the king, the prelates, earles, barons, and all the communaltie of the ſayde realme of Englande, in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Mundaie next after the weeke of Eaſter, the yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lorde king Edwarde of Englande xxxi. and of Fraunce the xvii.

Chap.1.
Charter.

FIrſt that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, be firmelie kept holden and executed in all pointes.

Chap.2.
Marchants
Wolles.

Item where as at the greeuous complaint of the commons of the realme of Englande it was ſhewed, that the marchauntes, which buie wolles in faires and markets and other places by couin and conſent betwixt them doe abate the price of wolles, and vſe other weight then is ordeined by the ſtatute before this time, in anoiance of the people: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that proclamation be made through the realme, that no marchant doe ſuch couine, vpon a greeuous forfeiture. And if anie doe againſt the ſame after the proclamation, the king ſhall aſſigne his iuſtices to enquire at the ſuite of the partie of all that doe ſuch couine, and to heare and determine for the king and for the partie. And that certeine balances and weightes of ſacke, halfe ſacke, and quarter, pounde, halfe pounde, and quarter, according to the ſtandarde of the eſchequer, be ſent to all ſhiriffes of Englande betwixt this and the Natiuitie of ſaint Iohn next comming, ſo that they (ſuch balaunces and weightes receiued) ſhall make open proclamation through all their counties, that euerie man that will haue ſuch balances, and weightes, ſhall come to the ſhiriffe before Michaelmas, to make their balaunces and weightes according to the ſayde ſtandarde at their coſtes, without anie thing giuing to the ſhiriffe for to haue aſſaie or example of the ſaid balances and weightes, and that from henceforth none ſhall ſell nor buie by other weight. And if anie do againſt the ſame, he ſhall be puniſhed by fine at the kings will.

Proclamation.
Couin.
Balaunces.
Weightes.
Shiriffes.

Chap. 3.
Eſchequer.
Eſtretes.
Fugitiues.
Felons.

Item if anie man or towne be charged at the eſchequer by eſtretes of the iuſtices, of the cattelles of the fugitiues and of felons, and will alleage in diſcharge of him an other, which is chargeable, hee ſhall be heard, and right done to the other.

Chap.4.
Probate of teſtaments

Item where as the miniſters of biſhops and other ordinaries of holie church take of the people greeuous and outragious fines for the probate of teſtamentes, and for the acquitance thereof to bee made, the king hath charged the archbiſhop of Caunterburie and the other biſhops, that they thereof make amendement, and if they doe not, it is accorded, that the king ſhall doe to bee enquired by his iuſtices, of ſuch oppreſſions and extortions, to heare them and determine as well at the kinges ſuite as at the ſuite of the partie, as in olde times hath bene vſed.

Chap. 5.
Tunnes of wine.
Gaugeour

Item where as it is ordeined by a ſtatute, that the tonnes of wine ought to conteine a certayne number of galons, according to the olde gauge, and nowe they bee diminiſhed for defaulte of the gaugeours office euill vſed, to the great damage of the people: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the ſayde ſtatute ſhall bee holden and kept in all poyntes. And moreouer if anie ſell tonne or pipe of wine not gauged, that the ſayde ſeller ſhall forfeite the ſame wine, or the valour, to the king.

Chap.6.

Item where as by a ſtatute late made it was ordeined, that the iſſues, fines, and amerciamentes of ſeruantes artificers and other woorkmen, iudged before iuſtices of labourers, ſhoulde be to the king after the three yeeres of the triennall quinzime then graunted to the king by the commons of the realme: It is accorded and aſſented, that the lordes of fraunchiſes, which haue iſſues, fines, and amerciamentes of labourers by point of charter or in other maner, ſhall from hence forth haue the ſayde fines, iſſues, and amerciamentes that to him perteineth, as long as the iuſtice of labourers doe endure, ſo alwaies that the ſayde lordes make

Fines.
Amerciaments.
Labourers
Charter.

contribution to the paiment of the fees of ſuch iuſtices of labourers, according to the rate of the profites that they do take.

Chap.7.
Statute of labourers.
Wolles.
Lether.
Felles.
Staple.

Item it is accorded, that the ſtatute of labourers bee as well holden in the citie and the ſuburbes of London, and in the fiue portes, and all maner other fraunchiſes, as elſe where in Englande. And that the king aſſigne his iuſtices to enquire, heare, and determine of thoſe that haue brought wolles, lether and wolfelles to the parties beyonde the ſea, and thereof haue done couin and exceſſe, and otherwiſe attempted againſt the ordinaunces and the forme of the ſtatute of the ſtaple.

Cap.8.
Wolles.
Lether.
Wolfelles.
Sacke of woll.
Stone of woll.
Staple.
Cuſtome.
Subſidie.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, for the common profit and eaſe of the people, that euerie marchaunt and other, as well alien as denizen, maie bring to the parties beyonde the ſea, which bee of the kinges amitie, wolles, lether, and wolfelles from the fiſt daie of Maie next comming to the feaſt of ſaint Michael next enſuing, paieng for euerie ſacke l.s. & for CCC. wolfelles. l. s. and for the laſt of lether C. ſhillinges, for the cuſtome and ſubſidie of the ſame. And that no marchant nor other, that buieth wolles, ſhall make other refuſe of wolles, then was wont to be made in times paſt, that is to ſaie, of cote, gare, and villaine fleeſes, and that euerie ſacke conteine twentie ſixe ſtones: and euerie ſtone fourteene pounde, according to the weight of the ſtandarde of the eſchequer, and no more nor leſſe. And that all the wolles, felles, and lether bought in the countrie, ſhall be brought to the ſtaples, and there ſhall abide at the leaſt fifteene dayes. And thoſe that maie not there be ſold or deliuered within the fifteene daies, ſhall be brought to the ports ordeined for the ſtaples, to paſſe from thence to the parties aforeſaid, paieng the cuſtomes and ſubſidies aforeſaide. And that no wolles vendible ſhall be lodged, ſhewed, nor ſolde within three miles of the ſtaple, but in the ſame ſtaple, ſauing that euerie lorde and other man then marchant, maie freelie lodge ſhewe and ſell his wolles, which be of his owne growing, in his owne houſe and elſe where, where ſhall pleaſe him.

Chap.9.
Paſſage of wolles.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the chaunceller and treaſurer, which for the time ſhall be, by the aduiſe of other of the kings counſell, ſhall haue power to deferre the terme of paſſage of wolles, when they ſee that neede is.

Chap.10
Vitailes.
Fiſher.
Boucher.
Pulter.

Item becauſe that the fiſhers, bouchers, pulters and other ſellers of vitailes in the citie of London, by colour of ſome charters, and by euill interpretation of ſome ſtatutes made in auantage of the people, that euerie man maie freelie ſell his vitalles without diſturbance, without that that anie maior, ſhiriffe or miniſter ought to medle of the ſale: It is accorded and aſſented, that euerie man, that bringeth vitailes, whatſoeuer they be, into the citie, by land or by water, maie freelie ſell the ſame to whom ſhall pleaſe him, without being interrupted or impeached by fiſher, boucher, pulter, or anie other. And that the maior and aldermen of the citie maie rule and redreſſe the defaultes of fiſhers, bouchers, and pulters, as they do of thoſe that ſell bread ale or wine, notwithſtanding charters of fraunchiſes, and ſtatutes, cuſtomes or other priuiledges made or vſed to the contrarie. And that the ſaid maior and aldermen do and put the ſame in execution, vpon the paine late ordeined touching the citie of London, ſo that puniſhment of ſuch bee not made becauſe of anie ſinguler profit.

Chap 11
Inteſtate.
Adminiſtratour.
Ordinarie.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that in caſe where a man dieth inteſtate, the ordinaries ſhall depute the next and moſt lawfull freendes of the dead perſon inteſtate to adminiſter his goods, which deputies ſhall haue an action to demaunde and recouer as executors of the debtes due to the ſayde deade perſon inteſtate in the kinges courte for to adminiſter and diſpende for the ſoule of the dead, and ſhall anſwere alſo in the kings courte to other, to whom the ſayd dead perſon was holden and bounde, in the ſame maner as executors ſhall anſwere, And they ſhall be accomptable to the ordinaries, as executors be in the caſe of teſtament, as well of the time paſt as in the time to come.

Chap.12
Errour.
Eſchequer.
Chanceller.
Treaſurer.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that in all caſes touching the king or other perſons where a man complaineth of errour made in the eſchequer, the Chaunceller and Treaſurer ſhall doe to come before them in anie chamber of councell nigh the eſchequer, the recorde and proceſſe out of the eſchequer, taking to them the iuſtices and other ſage perſons, ſuch as to them ſeemeth to be taken. And ſhall alſo doe to bee called before them the barons of the eſchequer, to heare their informations, and the cauſes of their iudgements, and thereupon ſhall duelie examine the buſines, and if anie errour be founde, they ſhall correct and amende the rolles, and after ſende them into the eſchequer for to make thereof execution as perteineth.

Cap. 13.
Charter of pardon.
Clarkes conuict.

Item our ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the good aydes of the commons of his realme often made to him, and the grauntes and diuerſe charges, which they haue ſuffered becauſe of warres and other aduerſities, which before this time hath happened: In releefe of the ſayde commons he hath pardoned and releaſed to them all the eſcapes of theeues and of felons, & of cattels of felons of fugitiues before this time fallen, which be not yet iudged before the iuſtices or put in eſtretes, and alſo all the amerciamentes not offered, whereof the comminaltie of the countie, hundred, or towne ought or might in common and not particularlie againſt the king or his heires in the eyer of the iuſtices hereafter for all the time paſt bee charged and as much as perteineth to the king of eſcapes, cattelles, and amerciamentes aforeſaide, except the eſcapes of clarkes conuict out of the priſon of the prelates, their ordinaries. And thereupon hath graunted to the communaltie of euerie countie a charter of this pardon quite of the fee of the Quinzime.

ſeale which to him pertaineth, for which pardon and releaſe the ſaide commons haue graunted to our ſoueraigne lord the king a quinzime yerely to be leuied and gathered in the manner as the laſt quinzime graunted to the king was leuied, and to be paide at the feaſtes of ſaint Michaell and Eaſter next comming by euen portions. And our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king hath graunted to the ſaide commons that for the ſaid quinzime ſo graunted no geld ſhall be demaunded nor leuied to the vſe of the Queene, but that the ſaide commons ſhall be thereof whollie diſcharged: And alſo the king hath graunted, that ſuch eſcapes and cattailes being in the handes of the kings miniſters and of other ſinguler perſons, which be in life, ſhall be iudged before the keepers of the peace in euerie countie of England by preſentment, as well as before Iuſtices in eyre, and the eſtreates ſhall be made by indenture betwixt them and the collectors of the quinzime, deliuered to the ſame collectors, to leuie to the vſe of the commons in aide of their paiment of the ſaide quinzime, ſo that the ſame collectors make thereof diſtribution amongeſt the townes after the neceſſitie of euerie of the ſame, and ſurueying and ordinance of the ſame iuſtices.

Cap. 14. Eſcape. Clerks conuict.

Item it is accorded, that the eſcape of théeues and felons, and the cattailes of felons and of fugitiues, and alſo eſcapes of clerkes conuict out of their ordinaries priſon from henceforth to be iudged before anie othe kings iuſtices ſhall be leuied from time to time, as they ſhall fall, aſwell of the time paſt as of time to come.

Cap. 15. Shirifes turne.

Item where as in the great charter it is conteined, that no ſhirife nor his bailife ſhal make his turne by hundredes, but two times in the yéere, in a place due and accuſtomed, that is to ſaye, once after Eaſter, and another time after Michaelmas. And nowe diuerſe of the commons haue gréeuouſly complained them, that ſome ſhirifes make their tournes often times in lent, when the people ought to intende deuotion and other workes of charitie for remedie of their ſoules, and ſometime after the gule of Auguſt, when euerie man almoſt is occupied about the cutting and entring of his corne, whereby the people perceiueth them much gréeued and diſeaſed: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, deſiring the quietnes of his people, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euery ſhirife from henceforth ſhall make his turne yerely one time within the moneth after Eaſter, & another time within the Moneth after the feaſt of ſaint Michael, and if they holde them in other manner that then they ſhall loſe their turne for the time.

Here beginneth the Statute of Hearring, made at Weſtminſter the ſaide xxxi. yere of King Edward the third.

FOr as much as the commons of the realme of England, at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Monday next after the wéeke of Eaſter, the yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde king Edward the third of England xxxi. and of Fraunce xviii. haue complained them to our ſoueraigne lord the king, that becauſe that the people of great Yermouth do encounter the fiſhers bringing hearring to the ſaide towne in the time of the faire, and doe buy and foreſtall the hearring, before that they come to the towne: And alſo the hoſtelers of the ſame towne that lodgeth the fiſhers comming there with their hearring, will not ſuffer the ſaide fiſhers to ſell their ſaide hearring, nor meddle of the ſale thereof, but ſell them at their owne will, as déere as they will, and giue to the fiſhers that pleaſeth them, whereby the fiſhers doe withdrawe them to come there. And ſo is the hearring ſet at much greater dearth than euer it was, to the great dammage of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, of the lordes and of all the people. Wherefore our ſoueraigne lord the king, ſeeing the miſchieues in this behalfe, by the aſſent of the great men and all the commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed remedie vpon the ſaide miſchieues in the fourme as followeth.

Chap. 1. Hearring.

FIrſt that no hearring be bought nor ſold in the ſea, till the fiſhers be come in to the hauen with their hearring, and that the cable of the ſhip be drawen to the land.

Chap. 2. Fiſhers. Hearring. Yermouth Hoſtelers.

Item that the fiſhers be frée to ſell their hearring to all that commeth to the faire of great Yermouth, without anie diſturbance of their hoſtelers, or anie other. And when the fiſhers will ſell their merchaundiſes in the porte, they ſhall haue their hoſtelers with them, if they there will be, and in their preſence and the preſence of other merchants openly ſhall ſell their merchaundiſes. And that euerie man claime his part for the taking after the rate of the ſame merchaundiſes ſo ſolde. And the ſaide ſale ſhall be made from the ſunne riſing till the ſunne going downe and not before nor after, vpon forfeiture of the ſame merchaundiſes. And that the ſaide fiſhers be frée to buy their vitailes and that that them néedeth, where ſhall pleaſe them. And that none hoſtelers nor other, buy anie for to hang in their houſes by couine nor in other manner, at an higher price the laſt, than xl. ſhillings, but leſſe, in as much as he may, according as he may agrée with the ſeller. And that none hoſtelers nor none of their yomen, nor none other whatſoeuer he be, comming to the ſaide faire, ſhall not goe by lande nor by ſea to foreſtall hearring priuily nor appertly, but the hearring ſhall come fréely vnſolde vnto the hauen. Nor that none make buying of freſh hearring in the hauen of Yermouth betwixt the feaſtes of ſaint Michael and ſaint Martine, vpon peine of impriſonment at the kinges will, and to forfeit all the hearring ſo bought. And that no veſſell called Pyker of London, nor of none other place, ſhall enter in the ſaide hauen to abate the faire in dammage of the people, vpon the peine of forfeiture of their veſſell, and all their cattailes found within. And that all the hoſtelers be ſworne before the Wardeines of the ſaide faire, and enioyned vpon a great forfeiture to the king, to receiue their

Forſtalling Faire of Yermouth

Pyker.

Hundred of herring. Laſt of herring. Kyrkeley. Barons of the v. ports. Bailifes of Yermouth their hoſtes well and couenablie, and to aide and eaſe them reaſonably, taking of euery laſte that ſhall be ſolde to other merchants than to the ſaide hoſtelers .xl.d. And that of hearring ſold to the ſame hoſtelers to take in their houſes, the ſame hoſtelers ſhall take nothing, and that becauſe of the profits, which they ſhall haue of vitayles ſolde to their ſaid hoſtes; and of the auauntage that they haue more than other of carriage of hearring ſo by them bought and ſolde in their houſes. And that the hoſtelers, becauſe of this ordinance, do not refuſe their hoſtes, but receiue them and intreat them in good and freely manner, as they haue done before this time. And that they for the auantage of xl.d. the laſt, take vpon them for the paiment of all the hearring that ſhall be ſold by their aſſent to anie perſons. And the hundred of hearring ſhall be accompted by vi. ſcore, and the laſt by x. thouſande. And that the merchants of Yermouth, of London, and elſe where, ſell the thouſand of hearring to the people after the rate of the price of the laſt. And that the people of Yermouth ſell the laſt of red hearring, bought for xl. ſhillings freſh within xl. dayes, for halfe a marke of gayne, and not aboue. And that the people of London, at ſuch faire ſhall bring the laſt from Yermouth to London for one marke of gaine and not aboue. And alſo two laſtes of ſhotten hearring freſh ſhall be ſolde for the price of the rate of the buying of a laſt of full hearring. And ſo of more and leſſe after the ſame rate, and of ſhotten hearring red the two laſtes ſhall be ſold dearer of a marke than the laſt of hearring full red. And that becauſe the carriage of a laſt of ſhotten hearring draweth to as much as the laſt of full hearring, and ſo of more and leſſe according to the ſame rate. And that the ſhippes called the Pykers, ſhall freely buy freſh hearring and all other merchandiſes of fiſhers in Kyrkeley, and elſe where vpon the coaſtes of the ſea, without impechement or diſturbance of the hoſtelers of Yermouth or of anie other. So alwayes that no more hearring be diſcharged in the roade of Kyrkely of the fiſhers ſhippes, but as much as may reaſonablie ſuffiſe to the charge of the Pykers that thither commeth for the ſame cauſe. And that the fiſhers be compelled to bring all the remnant of their hearring to the ſaide faire to ſell there. So that none ſell hearring in no place about the hauen of Yermouth by ſeuen myles, except in three townes of Yermouth, that is to ſaye, Eſton, Weſton, and Southon, vnleſſe it be hearring of their owne fiſhing. And our ſoueraigne lorde the king will, that the Barons of the fiue portes ſhall doe to be kepte and gouerned the ſaide faire according to the compoſition late made betweene them and the people of the towne of Yermouth, confirmed by the kinges graundefather. And that the ſame Barons and Bailifes of great Yermouth doe to be kepte this preſent ordinances in all pointes, and to be cryed in euerie Sondaie betweene Saint Michaell and Saint Martin, vpon peine to loaſe their fraunchiſe, and to bee puniſhed at the kings will. And that the people of Yermouth ſuffer the ſaide Barons of the fiue portes to gouerne and rule the ſaide faire after the purport of the ſaide compoſition, and due execution to be made of this ordinance, vpon the peine laſt aforeſaid. And theſe ordinances in the right of buying and ſelling of hearring ſhall be holden in all the townes of England, where hearring is taken and ſeched, vpon the peines aforeſaid.

Chap. 3. Chauncellor. Treaſurer. Stockfiſh. Salmon. Wines. Fiſher.

Item it is accorded by our ſoueraigne lord the king, the great men, and all the commons in this preſent parliament, that the Chauncellor and treaſurer, taking to them Iuſtices and other of the kings councell, ſuch as to them ſhall ſeeme, ſhall haue power to ordeine remedie of the buying and ſelling of ſtockefiſh of ſaint Botulfe, and ſalmon of Barwike, and of wines & fiſh of Bryſtuyt and els where, to the intent that the king and the people may be the better ſerued, & haue better market than they haue had before this time, and that the ordinances by them made in this partie be firmely holden.

Here beginneth the ordinance of ſiſh made the ſame xxxi. yeere.

Chap. 1. Shippes. Blakeney. Fiſh.

FIrſt it is ordeined, that all the ſhippes called Doggers and landſhips, perteining to the hauen of Blakeney, and of the bankes holden, that is to ſay, the Suytor, the Wyneton, Clay, Salthous, Shyringham, and Crowmyer, ſhall deliuer and diſcharge their fiſh within the hauen of Blakeney onely betwixt Beuorde and Hogflete, and in none other place, vpon peine of impriſonment at the kings will, and forfeiture of the ſame fiſh. And that the ſame fiſh be not deliuered nor brought out of the ſhippe to anie houſe nor elſewhere, before that the lord of the ſhippe, wherein the ſaid fiſh is charged, and the merchant that ſhall buy the fiſh, be agreede of the price of the ſame by a cleere day.

Chap. 2. Fiſher. Loychfiſh. Orgeys.

Item that no fiſher nor lorde of anie ſhip nor none other ſet hand vpon anie fiſher within the ſhip for to trye, choſe, or empeyre the fiſh, but onely the buyar or his attourney, vpon the ſayde peine. And that no fiſh called Loychfiſh, be choſen or tryed but onely in three partes, that is to ſaye, Lob, Lyng, and Cod. And that euerie of the ſame three ſortes of Lob, Lyng, and Cod bee good and couenable, as in olde time hath beene vſed. And in caſe that no Orgeys, that is to ſaye, fiſh greater than Lob, be founde in the ſhippe called a landſhip in the hundred of Lob, Lyng, and Cod, the maiſters and mariners ſhall haue of euerie hundred of Lob, Lyng, and Cod (the hundred accompted to vi. ſcore) twentie Orgeys, if there be ſo manie, and if there be leſſe, the maiſters and mariners ſhall haue all the Orgeys. And if there be more, the ouerplus aboue ſix ſcores to euerie hundred ſhall bee put to the ſhip bought in amendement of the price of the ſame to the profit of the buyer. And alſo by the aduiſe of the merchauntes and buyers of the lordes comming to the faire of Blakeney, and of the lords of the ſhippes a price ſhall be ſet at the beginning, Dogge fiſh.

beginning, and aſſeſſed vpon the fiſh of doggerfiſh, before that anie ſale be made, which price ſhall be holden during the faire. And that the ſaid fiſh be ſold at ſuch a price openlie and not by coun priuilie. And that no lord of ſhips, mariners, nor other lodge nor do to be lodged in their houſes priuilie nor appertlie fiſh in the mud, nor fiſh ſecched, for to ſel againe an other time at retaile, but al ſuch fiſh ſhall be ſold reſonablie within the ſaid bounds at the faire and price aforeſaid, vpon the ſame peine. And that no man buie nettes, hookes, nor other inſtruments perteining to fiſhing in the countie of Norfolke but lords maſters and mariners of ſhips, that vſe the miſterie of fiſhing, and which haue to do of ſuch things, vpon peine of impriſonment, and to be ranſomed at the kings will, and to forfeit the things ſo bought. And that no lord of ſhip mariner nor other make impechment, nor be rebell in anie point againſt this preſent ordinance. Nor that no mariner nor fiſher becauſe of this ordinance, let not nor refuſe to go in fiſhing, as before times they were wont to do, nor diſturbe couenant made betwéene marchant and lord of ſhip, vpon peine of impriſonment, and to be ranſomed at the kings will. And that vpon the ſame a writ be ſent to the ſhirife of Norfolke, that at euerie mans complaint, that will ſue for the king or for him ſelfe againſt thoſe that in anie point commeth againſt this ordinance, he ſhall do the ſame rebelles and treſpaſſours to be attached, and them deteine in priſon till the king and his councell haue ordeined of them that right requireth after the quantitie of their treſpaſſe.

Nettes. Hookes.

Mariner.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the xxxiiij. yere of king Edward the third.

These be the things, which our ſoueraigne lord the king, the prelates, lords, and the commons haue ordeined in this preſent parliament, holden at Weſtminſter the ſondaie next before the feaſt of the conuerſion of Saint Paule, to be holden and publiſhed openlie through the realme.

Chap. 1.

Firſt that in euerie countie of England ſhall be aſſigned for the kéeping of the peace, one lord, and with him, thrée or foure of the moſt valiant men in the countie, with ſome learned of the law, and they ſhall haue power to reſtraine the offenders, riotours, and all other baratours, and to purſue, arreſt, take and chaſtiſe them according to their treſpaſſe and offence. And do to be impriſoned and duelie puniſhed according to the lawe and cuſtomes of the realme, and according to that that to them ſhall ſéeme beſt to do by their diſcretions and good aduiſement: and alſo to enforme them and to enquire of all thoſe that haue bene pillers and robbers in the parties beyond the ſea, and be now come againe, and goeth wandring, and will not labour as they were wont in times paſt, and to take and arreſt all thoſe, that they maie find by enditement or by ſuſpection, and to put them in priſon, and to take of all them that be not of good fame, where they ſhalbe found, ſufficient ſuretie and mainpriſe of their good bearing towards the king and his people, and the other duelie to puniſh, to the intent that the people be not by ſuch riotours or rebels troubled nor endamaged, nor the peace blemiſhed, nor marchants nor other paſſing by the high waies of the realme diſturbed, nor put in the perill which maie happen of ſuch offenders. And alſo to heare and determine at the kings ſuite, all maner of felonies and treſpaſſe done in the ſame countie, according to the lawes and cuſtomes aforeſaid. And that writtes of oyer and determiner be granted according to the ſtatutes thereof made, but that the iuſtices, which ſhalbe thereto aſſigned, be named by the court, and not by the partie. And the king will, that all generall enquiries before this time granted within anie ſegniories for the miſchiefes and oppreſſions, which haue bene done to the people, by ſuch enquiries ſhall ceaſe openlie & be repealed. And that fines, which be to be made before iuſtices for a treſpas done by any perſon by reaſonable and iuſt hauing regard to the quantitie of the treſpaſſe, and the cauſes whereupon they be made.

Iuſtices of peace.

Pillers. Robbers.

Enquiries

Fines.

Cap. 2. Takings. Purueiours.

Item it is accorded, that takings ſhall not be from henceforth made by other then the purueiours of the king, of the quéene, and of the prince their eldeſt ſonne, and that if anie other mans purueiours make ſuch takings, it ſhall be done of them as of people which do without warrant. And their déede iudged as a thing done againſt the peace and the lawe of the land. And ſuch as do not in the maner aforeſaid, ſhall be duelie puniſhed.

Chap. 3. Purueiances. Purueiours.

Item of purueiances made to the vſe of the quéene and of the prince of pultrie and of other ſmall things, paiment ſhall be made in hand vpon the taking. And of other great purueiances within the moneth or vi. wéekes in the counties where they ſhall be taken. And that the number of ſuch purueiours be abridged in as much as conuenientlie maie for the aide and quietnes of the common people.

Cap. 4. Shirifes. Panels. Coroners. Enqueſt.

Item becauſe that ſhirifes and other miniſters often do array their panels in all maner of enqueſts of people procured and moſt farre of, of the counties, which haue no knowledge whereof the enqueſt ſhal be taken: It is accorded, that ſuch panels ſhall be made of the next people, which ſhall not be ſuſpect nor procured. And that the ſhirifes, coroners and other miniſters, which doth againſt the ſame, ſhall be puniſhed before that the iuſtices take the ſaid enqueſt, according to the quantitie of their treſpaſſe, as well againſt the king as againſt the partie for the quantitie of the damage which he hath ſuffred in ſuch maner.

Cap. 5. Meaſures. Weights. Iuſtices of peace.

Item it is accorded, that they which ſhall be aſſigned to kéepe the peace ſhall haue power of meaſures and alſo of weight, according to the ſtatute thereof made the xxv. yéere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king, wherin is conteined the forme that followeth. Where as verie great damage damage and diſceite is done to the people, by ſo much that diuers marchants vſe to buie and wey wolles and other marchandiſes by a weight that is called Auncell: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that this weight called Auncell betwixt the buyer and the ſeller ſhall be wholly put out. And that euerie man ſell and buie by the ballance, ſo that the balances be euen, and the wolles and other marchandiſes euenlie weyed by right weight. And that the ſacke of woll wey no more but twentie and ſixe ſtones, and euerie ſtone ſhall wey fourtéene pound, and that the beame of the balance ſhall not bowe neither to the one part nor to the other. And that the weight be according to the ſtanderd of the eſchequer. And if anie buyer doe againſt the ſame, he ſhall be grieuouſlie puniſhed, aſwell at the ſuite of the partie as at the kings ſuite.

Auncel weight. Balance. Wolles. Sacke of wolle. Weights and meaſures.

Chap. 6. Meaſures. Buſhell. Standerd. Purueiours. Iuſtices. Proclamation.

Item where as it is conteined in the great charter, that one meaſure be vſed through the realme, which charter hath not bene holden well in this point before this time: It is accorded and aſſented, that all the meaſures, that is to ſaie, buſhell, halfe buſhell, pecke, galon, pottell, and quart through England within franchiſes and without, ſhall be according to the kings ſtanderd. And the quarter ſhall conteine eight buſhels by the ſtanderd and no more. And euerie meaſure of corne ſhall be ſtriked without heape, ſauing the rents and fermes of lords, which ſhall be meaſured by ſuch meaſure as they were wont in times paſt. And the purueiours of the king, the quéene, and of all other, ſhall make their purueiances by the ſame meaſures ſtriked and in the ſame maner. And that at all times, when néede ſhall be, the king ſhall aſſigne certeine iuſtices in euerie countie of England, to enquire heare and determine vpon the points aforeſaid, and ſo make puniſhment thereupon according to euerie treſpaſſe, aſwell at the ſuite of the partie as at the kings ſuite. So alwayes that all maner of franchiſes be ſaued to the lordes in all points, which things the king will that they ſhall be cried in euerie countie within franchiſe and without betwixt this and the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, to the intent that they be holden and kept in all points. And that the ſaid kéepers of the peace enquire and puniſh all thoſe, whom they ſhall finde to haue done againſt the ſaid ſtatute after the ſaid proclamation made. And alſo the ſaid proclamation ſhall be made in cities, boroughes, and townes enfranchiſed, that the ſaid articles be holden and kept in all points, vpon the peines conteined in the ſtatute made the xxviii. yéere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, touching the citie of London and other cities and boroughs of the realme. And if they kéepe not the ſaid articles, the king in their default ſhall do the ſame ſtatute, made of the ſame peines, to be put in execution againſt them.

Cap. 7. Attaint.

Item it is accorded againſt the falſhod of iurours, that euerie man, againſt whom they paſſe, maie haue the attaint aſwel in plea reall as perſonall. And that the attaint be granted to the poore people, which will affie, that they haue nothing thereof to make fine, ſauing their countenance without fine, and to all other by eaſie fine.

Cha. 8. Iurours. Enqueſt.

Item in euerie plea, whereof the enqueſt or aſſiſe doth paſſe, if anie of the parties will ſue againſt anie of the iurours, that they haue taken of his aduerſarie, or of him, for to ſaie their verdict, he ſhall be heard, and ſhall haue his plaint by bill maintenant before the iuſtices, afore whom they did ſweare, and that the iurour be put to anſwere without anie delaie, and if they pleade to the countrey, the enqueſt ſhall be taken maintenant. And if anie man other then the partie will ſue for the king againſt the iurour, it ſhall be heard and determined as afore is ſaid. And if the iurour be attainted at the ſuite of other then the partie, and maketh fine: the partie that ſueth ſhall haue halfe the fine. And that the parties to the plea ſhall recouer their damages by taxing of the enqueſt. And that the iurour ſo attainted haue the priſon of one yéere, which impriſonment ẏ king granteth, that it ſhall not be pardoned for no fine. And if the partie will ſue by writ before other iuſtices, he ſhall haue the ſuite in the forme aforeſaid.

Cap. 9. Laborers. Mainpriſe. Shirife. Iaylour. Workmen and laborers. Carpenters. Maſons

Item it is accorded in this preſent parliament, that the ſtatute of laborers of old times made, ſhall ſtand in all points, except the pecuniar peine, which from henceforth is accorded, that the laborers ſhall not be puniſhed by fine and ranſome. And it is aſſented, that the ſaid ſtatute ſhall be enforced in puniſhment of laborers in the forme following, that is to ſaie, that the lords of townes maie take and impriſon them by fiftéene daies if they will not iuſtifie them ſelfe. And then to ſend them to the next gaoyle, there to abide till they will iuſtifie them by the forme of the ſtatute. And that the ſhirife iaylour nor other miniſter ſhall not let them to no mainpriſe nor baile, and if hee do, he ſhall paie to the king ten pound, and to the partie a hundreth ſhillings, nor that the ſhirife, iaylour nor other miniſter ſhall take no fée nor porterage of priſon, nor at his entring nor at his going out, vpon the ſame peine. And that aſwell carpenters and maſons be compriſed of this ordinance as all other laborers, ſeruants and artificers. And that the carpenters and maſons take from henceforth wages by the daie, and not by the wéeke, nor in other maner. And that the chiefe maſters of carpenters and maſons take foure pence by the daie, and the other thrée pence or two pence according as they be worth. And that all alliances and couines of maſons and carpenters, and congregations, chapters, ordinances, and othes betwixt them made, or to bee made, ſhall bee from henceforth voyde and whollie adnulled, ſo that euerie maſon and carpenter, of what condition that hée bée, ſhall be compelled by his maſter to whom he ſerueth, to doe euerie worke that to him perteineth to doe, or of frée ſtone or of rough ſtone. And alſo euerie carpenter in his degrée. But it ſhal be lawful to euerie lord or other, to make bargaine and couenant of their worke in groſſe with ſuch laborers and artificers when pleaſe them, ſo that they performe ſuch workes well and lawfullie according to the bargaine or couenant with them thereof made.

Cap. 10. Artificers. Shiriffes. Laborers. Burning in the forehead. Wages.

Item of laborers and artificers that abſent them out of their ſeruices in an other towne or an other countie, the partie ſhall haue the ſuite before the iuſtices, and that the ſhiriffe take him at the firſt day as is contained in the ſtatute, if he be found, and doo of him execution as afore is ſaide, and if he returne, that he is not found, he ſhall haue an exigend at the firſt day, and the ſame purſue till he be outlawed, and after the outlagarie, a writ of the ſame iuſtices, ſhall be ſent to euerie ſhiriffe of England, that the partie will ſue, to take him, and to ſend him to the ſhiriffe of the countie where he is outlawed, and when he ſhall be there brought, he ſhall haue there impriſonment, till he will iuſtifie himſelfe, and haue made gree to the partie, and neuertheles for the falſitie he ſhall be burnt in the forhead with an yron made and formed to this letter F. in token of falſitie, if the partie greeued the ſame will ſue. But this paine of burning ſhall be put in reſpit till ſaint Michaell next enſuing, and then not executed, vnles it be by the aduice of the iuſtices. And the yron ſhall abide in the cuſtodie of the ſhiriffe. And that the ſhiriffe and ſome bailiffe of the franchiſe be attending to the plaintiffe to put this ordinance in execution, vpon the paine aforeſaid. And that no laborer, ſeruant, nor artificer ſhall take no maner of wages the feſtiuall daies

Cap. 11. Iuſtices of laborers. Maiors. Bailiffes.

Item if anie laborer, ſeruant, or artificer abſent himſelfe in anie citie or borowgh, and the partie plainetine come to the maior and bailiffes, and require deliuerie of his ſeruant, they ſhall make him deliuerie without delaie. And if they refuſe to doo the ſame, the partie ſhall haue his ſuite againſt the maior and bailiffes before the iuſtices of laborers. And if they be thereof attainted they ſhall pay to the king ten poundes, and to the partie one hundered ſhillings.

Cap. 12. Forfeiture. Eſcheter.

Item where as the commons haue complained them of eſcheters, which by colour of their office haue ſeiſed much lands & tenements as forfeite to the king for treaſon ſurmiſed in dead perſons, which were neuer attainted in their liues, the king thereof hath good regard, but becauſe he & his progenitors haue bene ſeaſed of the forfeitures of wares of all times, the king will not extrude him ſelfe of ſuch right, whereof he found his crowne ſeaſed, & his right will continue of ſuch forfeitures fallen in his time and in the time of his father, in the maner as hath bene vſed, neuertheleſſe of his ſpeciall grace, he will and graunteth, that of ſuch forfeitures fallen in the time of his graundfather and all his progenitors before, as ſone as an enqueſt ſhall be thereof returned in the chauncerie by eſcheter or other, which hath power to enquire, that the tenant ſhall not be out of his poſſeſſion, but ſhall be warned by Scire facias to be at a certaine day to aunſwere to his Scire facias if he will. And if anie ſuch forfeiture be now or ſhall be ſeaſed of the ſame time, that the kings hand ſhall not be out thereof, ſo alwaies that in all other caſes of forfeiture of treaſon of dead perſons not attainted or iudged in their liues, their heires nor their land tenants ſhall not be impeched nor chalenged, nor of none other forfeiture, except the forfeitures in olde times iudged after the death of the perſons by preſentment in eire or in the kings bench, as of felons of themſelfe and other.

Cap. 13. Eſcheters. Enqueſtes

Item it is accorded, that euerie eſcheter ſhall take his enqueſtes of his office of good people and lawfull, which be ſufficientlie inherit and of good fame, and of the ſame countie where the enquire ſhall be, and that the enqueſts ſo taken be endented betwixt the eſcheters and the iurers. And if it be otherwiſe doone, that ſuch enqueſts be holden for voide. And the king will, that ſuch enqueſts be taken in good townes openlie and not priuilie.

Cap. 14. Eſcheter. Trauers. Chauncerie.

Item it is accorded, that where lands or tenements be ſeaſed into the kings hand by office of the eſcheter, containing that the kings tenant made thereof alienation without the kings licence, or that the kings tenant by knights ſeruice died ſeaſed of the lands and tenements aforeſaid in his demeane as of fee, and his heire within age, and after the cauſe certified into the chauncerie, and he whoſe lands be ſeaſed come into the chauncerie, and will trauerce the office, which was firſt taken by the kings commaundement, and that the ſaide lands be not ſeiſable: he ſhall be thereto receiued: and if it be found by the ſecond office for the partie, both the two offices ſhall be ſent into the kings bench, and there tried according to the lawe.

Cap. 15. Alienation

Item it is accorded, that the alienations of lands and tenements made by people, which hold of king Henrie great graundfather to the king that now is, or of other kinges before him, to hold of themſelfe, that the alienations ſhall ſtand in their force, ſauing alwaies to our ſoueraigne lorde the king his prerogatiue of the time of his graundfather his father and of his owne time.

Cap. 16. Noclaime. Repeale per ſt: 4. H. 7. 24.

Item it is accorded, that the plea of Nonclaime of fines, which from henceforth be to be leuied, ſhall not be taken nor holden for anie barre in time to come.

Cap. 17. Marchants. Ireland.

Item it is accorded, that all the marchants, aſwell aliens as denizens, may come into Ireland with their marchandiſes, and from thence freelie to returne with their marchandiſes and vitailes without fine or raunſome to be taken of them, ſauing alwaies to the king his auncient cuſtomes and other deuoiers.

Cap. 18. Ireland.

Item that the people of England, aſwell religious as other, which haue their heritage and poſſeſſions in Ireland, may bring their corne, beaſtes, and vittels to the ſaide land of Ireland, and from thence to recarie their goods and marchandizes into England freelie without impechment, paieng their cuſtomes and their deuoiers to the king.

Cap.19. Cuſtome. Canuas. Subſidie.

Item becauſe that marchants aliens, and denizens by an euill cuſtome riſen of late, haue bene conſtrained to paie cuſtome and ſubſidie for their canuas, with which their woolles be packed: It is accorded, that ſuch canuaces with their corners, ſhall from henceforth be allowed to them without paieng cuſtome or ſubſidie for the ſame.

Cap.20. Paſſage of corne.

Item it is accorded, that the paſſage of corne ſhall be defended in all the ports of England, ſo that none haue licence nor warrant to paſſe with ſuch corne in anie wiſe, vnles it be to Calis or Gaſcoine, or to other ſpeciall places, which it behoueth that the king doo to be warned of the corne of England, and that at his owne ordinance.

Cap.21. Paſſage of woolles.

Item where as in the parliament late made vpon the ordinance of the ſtaple in England it was ordained, that marchants aliens ſhould bring woolles and other marchandiſes of the ſtaple ouer the ſea, and that no marchant denizen ſhould make paſſage of them. And after by the aſſent of the king and of his counſeile for certaine encheſons, paſſage was graunted of the ſaid marchandiſes of denizens, and thereupon proclamation made and ſent to the cuſtomers to diuers ports, to ſuffer them to paſſe till a certaine time, paieng the cuſtomes and ſubſidies as aliens, and becauſe that the ſaide marchants deniſens doubteth them to be impeched in time to come for their marchandiſes, which they haue ſo paſſed by vertue of ſuch graunt and proclamation, for aſmuch as they were made out of the parliament: The king willing to prouide for their ſuretie in this behalfe, hath ratified and confirmed in this preſent parliament the paſſage that they haue made of woolles and of their other marchandiſes to the parties beyond the ſea, after the graunt and proclamation aforeſaide. And graunteth to them ſuch paſſage from henceforth without chalenge or impechment of anie, ſo alwaies that they pay the ſaide cuſtome and ſubſidie till ſaint Michaell next comming, as they haue paied before this time after that the ſaid ſubſidie was graunted.

Cap.22. Hawkes Shiriffes.

Item it is accorded in this preſent parliament, that euerie perſon, which findeth Fawcon, Tercelet, Laner, or Laneret, or other Fawcon that is loſt of their lorde, that maintenant he bring the ſame to the ſhiriffe of the countie. And that the ſhiriffe make proclamation in all the good townes in the countie, that he hath ſuch an hawke in his cuſtodie. And if the lorde, which loſt the ſame, or anie of his meinie commeth to chalenge him and proueth reaſonablie that the ſame is his lordes, let him pay for the coſtes, and haue the fawcon. And if none come within foure monethes to chalenge him, that then the ſhiriffe haue the fawcon, making grée to him that did take him, if he be a ſimple man, and if he be a gentleman and of eſtate to haue the fawcon, that then the ſhiriffe redeliuer to him the fawcon, taking of him reaſonable coſts for the time that he had him in his cuſtodie. And if anie man take ſuch fawcon, and the ſame conceale from the lord, whoſe it was, or from his fawconers, or who ſo euer taketh him from the lord, & thereof be atteinted, ſhall haue impriſonment of two yeares, and yeeld to the lorde the price of the fawcon ſo concealed, and caried away, if he haue whereof, and if not, he ſhall the longer abide in priſon.

Here beginneth the ordinance made of hearring in the xxxv. yeare of king Edward the third.

Herring.

THough that late at the procurement of ſome, doing vs and our councell to vnderſtand, that becauſe that the hoſtes of our towne of great Yermouth, which lodgeth the fiſhers comming there with their hearring in the time of the faire, will not ſuffer the ſaid fiſhers to ſell their hearings, nor to medle with the ſale of the ſame, but ſell them at their owne will as déere as they will, and giue the fiſhers that plaſeth them, ſo that the fiſhers doo withdraw them ſelues to come there, and the hearring was ſet at greater dearth than it was before. Amongſt other thinges it was ordained by vs and our councell that the ſaide fiſhers of herring ſhould be frée to ſell their herring to all people that will come to the ſaide faire of great Yermouth, without anie diſturbance of their hoſtes or anie other. And when the ſaide fiſhers would ſell their marchandiſes in the porte, they ſhould haue their hoſtes with them, if they would be there, and in their preſence, and in the preſence of other marchants, openlie ſhould ſell their marchandiſes to whom them pleaſed. And if other marchants preſent would haue parte of the ſaid marchandiſes, euerie of them ſhould haue for his parte vpon the taking, after the rate of the ſame marchandiſes ſo ſoulde. And the ſaide ſale ſhall be made from the ſunne riſing till the ſunne going downe, and not before nor after. And that no hoſtelers nor other, buie herring to hang in his houſe by couin nor in other maner at an higher price the laſt than xl. s. Neuertheles becauſe it is ſhewed to vs, and to our councell by petition in this preſent parliament, that the ſale of herring is much decaied, and the people greatlie endamaged by the points aforeſaid, that is to ſay, that manie marchants comming to the faire aſwell laborers and ſeruants as other doo bargaine herring, and euerie of them by malice and enuie encreaſe vpon other, and if one profer xl. s. an other will profer x. s. more, and the third lx. s. and ſo euerie ſurmounteth other in the bargaine, and ſuch profers extend to more than the taking of the herring, vpon which the fiſhers profered it to ſell at the beginning: and when that euerie man claimeth his part of the herring for the price accorded, he ſhall haue his part and the herring ſhall be ſo deuided amongſt them, that the fiſher is ſo much gréeued and delaied in the gathering of his ſiluer, that he ſhould demaund of ſo manie perſons, that he leeſeth his marte and the aduantage of his fiſhing. And alſo in that that no freſh herring is put to ſale but from the ſunne riſing till the ſunne going downe, and not before nor after, which is to the great loſſe of fiſhers, and appairing of the hearring, and damage of the people that ſhall buie the ſame, for the fiſhing is more by night then by daie, and often it chanceth, that the fiſhers be ſo long and ſo charged, that they come to the towne after the ſunne going downe or litle before, ſo that they maie not ſell their herring in the time for ẏ ſame limitted, ſo that they muſt abide all ẏ night & the daie after vpon the ſale of their herring, & loſe manie martes & profits of their fiſhing. We perceiuing the miſchiefes and grieuances aforeſaid, by the aduiſe and aſſent of our parliament will and grant, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie man, of what condition that he be marchant or other, to buie herring openlie and not priuilie at ſuch price as maie be agréed betwixt him and the ſeller of the ſame herring. And that no man enter in bargaine vpon the buying of herring til he that firſt commeth to bargaine ſhal haue an end of his bargaine gréeable to the ſeller, and that none encreaſe vpon other during ẏ firſt bargaine, vpon peine of forfeiture againſt vs the double of his profer, but euerie man ſhall haue ẏ herring ſo bought according to the bargaine thereof made. And that euerie fiſher maie deliuer and ſell his herring and fiſh at euerie mart, when he commeth to ẏ ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, without anie diſturbance or impechment: notwithſtanding anie ordinance made to the contrarie before this time.

Hoſtelers.

Herring.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the xxxvi. yeere of king Edward the third.

TO the honour and pleaſure of God, and amendement of the outrageous grieuances and oppreſſions done to the people, & in reliefe of their eſtate, king Edward at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the xv. of S. Michael, the xxxvi. yéere of his raigne, at the requeſt of his commons by their petitions deliuered to him in the ſaid parliament, by aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and other great men in the ſaid parliament aſſembled hath granted for him and his heires for euer the articles vnderwritten.

Chap. 1. Charter.

FIrſt that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt and the other ſtatutes made in his time, and in the time of his progenitours, be well and ſurelie holden and kept in all points.

Chap. 2.

Item for the grieuous complaint, which hath bene made of the purueiours of vitailes of the houſes of the king, the quéene, their eldeſt ſonne, and of others lords and ladies of the realme, the king of his owne will with out motion of the great men or commons, hath granted and ordeined in eaſe of his people, that from henceforth no man of the ſaid realme ſhall haue anie taking, but onelie him ſelfe and the quéene his companion. And moreouer of the aſſent aforeſaid it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that vpon ſuch purueiances from henceforth to be made for the houſes of the king and the quéene, readie paiment ſhall be made in hand, that is to ſay, the price for which ſuch vitailes be ſold commonlie in the markets about. And that the heinous name of purueiour bee changed and named buyer. And if the buyer maie not well agrée with the ſeller of that that hee ſhall néed, then the takings which ſhall be made for the ſaid houſes, ſhall be made by the viewe, teſtimonie, and appreciation of the lords or their bailifes, conſtables and foure góod men of euerie towne, & that by indenture to be made betwixt the buiers and the ſaid lords or bailifes, conſtables and foure men conteining the quantitie of their takings, and of the price, and what perſons. And that the takings be made in a couenable and eaſie maner without dureſſe, compulſion, manace, or other vilanie. And that the takings and buyings be made in ſuch places, where greateſt plentie is, and that in a couenable time. And that no more be taken then ſhall be néedefull in the ſeaſon for the ſaid two houſes. And that the number of the buyers be miniſhed in aſmuch as well maie. And that ſuch be buiers which be ſufficient to anſwere to the king and his people, and that none of them haue deputie, and that the commiſſions be ſealed with the great ſeale, and euerie halfe yéere reſtored in the chancerie and other newlie made. And that in the ſaid commiſſions be compriſed all the matter and maner of their takings and buyings. And that the ſame commiſſions be made vpon the end of the ſaid parliament, and then all the other commiſſions of purueiours heretofore made be wholy repealed. And that no man be bound to obey to the buyers of other lords againſt their grée and will, nor to the buyers of the ſaid houſes, vnleſſe they make readie payment in hand as before is ſaid. And that no man be put in contempt becauſe of diſobedience made in this behalfe. And that the takings of all maner of corne and malt for the ſaid two houſes be meaſured by meaſure according to the ſtanderd ſtriked and not by heape. And for the cariages of the ſaid corne and malt, and for al maner of takings and buyings to be made for the ſaid two houſes, readie paiment be made in hand in the ſame maner as for the takings and buyings aforeſaid. And that there be no more cariage taken then néedeth and ſhall be neceſſarie in this behalfe. And if anie buyer after the new commiſſions made, make anie takings or buying, or taking of cariage in other maner then is compriſed in their ſaid commiſſions, he ſhall haue puniſhment of life and of member, as in other ſtatutes is ordeined of purueiours.

Purueiour. Buier.

Takings.

Commiſſion.

Corne.

Cariage.

Cap. 3. Buyers of vitailes. Takers of cariages.

Item that no buyers of vitailes, nor takers of cariages, take nor receiue of anie, one or other, anie thing for ſparing to be made, nor ſhall not charge nor grieue anie man by occaſion of ſuch takings, buyings, and cariages for hatred, euill will procuring, and if he do, and be therof atteinted, at the ſuite of the partie, he ſhall yéeld to the partie his treble damage, and ſhall haue impriſonment of two yéeres, and alſo be ranſomed at the kings will, and after forſwere the court. And if the partie will not ſue, he that will ſue for the king ſhall haue the third penie of that that ſhalbe recouered for his labour. And neuertheleſſe the buyer and taker ſhall haue the peine as before is Takings.

ſaid in the ſame article. And that euerie buyer for his accompt ſhall declare and deuide ſeuerallie all the takins and buyings of euerie countie, towne, village, and perſon.

Chap.4. Buyers of vitailes. Takers of cariage. Commiſſion. Oyer and terminer. Chancerie. Certificat. Horſes.

Item to reſtraine the malice of buyers of vitailes and takers of cariages, commiſſions ſhall be made to two good men and lawfull of euerie countie, and the third ſhall be of the kings houſe, named in the ſame commiſſions, ſo that if anie of the thrée come not, that the two ſhall procéede to enquire of the behauiour and acts of the ſaid buiers and takers. And how much the ſame buiers haue taken and bought, & how much cariage the ſaid takers haue taken ſeuerallie of euerie towne or ſinguler perſons. And to heare and determine the contempts, outrages, and treſpaſſes, done in this behalfe, aſwell at the kings ſuite as at the ſuite of euerie man that will complaine of them. And for information to be made to the ſaid iuſtices of the things aforeſaid the ſtewards, treaſurer and controller of euerie of the ſaid two houſes, ſhall aſſemble and call before them al the clerks and other officers whatſoeuer they be, of euerie office of the ſaid two houſes, and ſhall ſee the receipts of the parcels prouided in the countrie and diſpended in the ſaid two houſes. And at euerie quarter or halfe yéere they ſhall certifie in the chancerie, the parcels taken in euerie towne, and of euerie perſon, & the chancellour ſhall ſend this certification to the iuſtices, which ſhal be ſo aſſigned. And if it be found in the countrie by euidence of their indentures or in other maner, that they haue taken more then they haue deliuered into the ſaid two houſes, and that they haue not paid for that that they haue taken, at the ſuite of the partie, or at the kings ſuite, he ſhall haue peine of life and of member, as afore is ſaid. And that this ordinance extend & hold place aſwel againſt the purueiours for the great horſes of the ſaid two houſes, as againſt the buiers and takers before named.

Cap. 5. Horſes. Purueiour. Forgoer. Hunters. Faulconers. Seriants at armes.

Item that no man of the ſaid two houſes, hold more of the ſaid horſes in yͤ liuerie, where theſe houſes ſhalbe, then is ordeined by a ſtatute of the kings houſe. And if anie do otherwiſe, if the horſes found ouer the number limitte to him by the ſtatute, it ſhall be done as the ſaid ſtatute will. And that no man of ſuch houſes, of what eſtate or condition that he be, haue purueiour or forgoer, to make anie purueiance or taking for anie man of the ſaid two houſes, but that they or their people buie that that them néedeth, of them that will ſell the ſame of their good agréement and paie readilie in hand, according as they maie agrée with the ſellers: And if they do otherwiſe, ſuch puniſhment ſhalbe made vpon them, as afore is ſaid of the buiers. And that hunters, faulconers, ſerieants at armes, and all other, which be at wages, or perteining to the ſaid two houſes, ſhall haue the ſame penance, if they come againſt the ſame.

Chap. 6. Taking. Lords.

Item that no lord of Englend, nor none other of the ſaid realme, of what eſtate or condition that he be, except the king and the quéene, ſhall make anie taking by him or anie of his ſeruants, in anie maner, of anie vitailes, but ſhall buie the ſame that them néedeth of ſuch as will ſell the ſame of their good grée, and for the ſame ſhall make readie paiment in hand according as they maie agrée with the ſeller. And if the people of lords, or of other, do in other maner, & thereof be attainted, it ſhalbe done of them ſuch puniſhment of life & of member, as is ordeined of the buiers.

Cap.7. Staple. Maior del ſtaple. Recogniſance.

Item though it be ordeined by the ſtatute of the ſtaple, that the maiors and conſtables of the ſaid ſtaples ſhall haue iuriſdiction and coniſance within the townes, where the ſtaples be, of the people and of all maner of things touching the ſtaple, and of felonies, maimes and treſpaſſe done within the ſtaple: It is accorded and aſſented, that the ſaid maiors and conſtables ſhall haue coniſance onelie of debts couenants, and contracts, and all other pleas touching marchandiſe and ſuretie of marchandiſe betwixt marchants, which be marchants knowne, and proceſſe of felonies, and of all other pleas, aſwell within the ſtaple as without ſhall be at the common lawe as they were before the making of the ſtaple, and notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatute. Sauing alwaies, that the marchants aliens (be they plaintifs or defendants) maie ſue their plaints and quarels aſwell of treſpaſſe as of other what they will, before the maior of the ſtaple by the lawe of the ſtaple, or elſwhere at the common lawe, as is conteined in the ſaid ſtatute of the ſtaple. And that the king and all other lords within their ſeigniories, haue and enioy their franchiſes iuriſdictions & priuileges, as they had before the ſame ſtatute made, ſo alwayes that the maior of the ſtaple haue power to take recogniſances of debts of euery perſon (be he marchant or other) in yͤ ſame maner as is conteined in the ſame ſtatute of the ſtaple.

Cap.8. Prieſts ſalarie.

Item the king, at the prayer of the commons, ſhewing to him by petition, how that prieſts be become verie ſkant after the peſtilence, to the great grieuance and oppreſſion of the people, hath ſpoken to the archbiſhop of Canterburie and yͤ other biſhops, being in the parliament, to ſet thereupon a couenable remedie, which archbiſhops and biſhops at the motion of the king & of the great men ſaid in yͤ ſame parliament that they haue thereupon ordeined in certeine, that is to ſay, that the peine of pariſh prieſts by anie maner colour receiuing aboue ſixe markes, and other yéerelie ſinging, and not entending the cure of ſoules, taking aboue fiue markes, without the biſhops diſpenſation and ſuſpention of their office if they within the moneth make not reſtitution to the vſe of the church, in which they ſing, of that that they haue aboue receiued. And the peine of people of holie church, giuing aboue ſixe markes or fiue markes to pariſh prieſts, or other yéerely ſinging as afore is ſaid, is to paie the double of that that they do exceſſiuelie paie, to be conuerted to the vſe of almes at the arbitrement of the dioceſan of the place. And al maner prieſts, intending their proper ſeruice, as yéerely ſinging, ſhall ſerue yͤ pariſhes, & be attending to the cure of ſoules, as he by the ordinaries of the place, or by them to whom he atteineth, ſhall be required, vpon peine of ſuſpention of their office, which they ſhall incurre vpon the déede, if they within the twentie daies after that they ſhall be required, be not obedient to ſuch requeſts. And that no prieſt paſſing from one dioceſſe to an other, ſhall be erceiued there to ſing diuine ſeruice, vnles he ſhew to the dioſeſan of the place letters commendatorie of the biſhop, in whoſe dioces he laſt before dwelled. Wherefore the king by the aſſent of the great men and commons hath ordained, that if anie ſecular man of the realme pay anie more than v. markes to anie prieſt yearelie in monie or in other thinges to the valour, or if he pay to ſuch prieſt, retained to abide at his table, aboue two markes for his gowne and his other neceſſaries (his table accounted to xl. s.) and thereof be attainted, he ſhall pay to the king fullie as much as he paied to the ſaid prieſt.

Chap. 9. Chauncerie.

Item if anie man féeleth himſelfe greeued contrarie to anie of the articles aboue written, or other contained in diuers ſtatutes, come into the chancerie, or anie for him, and thereof make his complaint, he ſhall maintenant there haue remedie by force of the ſaide articles and ſtatutes without elſe where purſuing to haue remedie.

Cap. 10. Parliament.

Item for maintenance of the ſaid articles and ſtatutes, and redreſſe of diuers miſchiefes and gréeuances, which dailie happeneth, a parliament ſhall be holden euerie yeare, as an other time was ordained by a ſtatute.

Cap. 11. Woolles.

Item the king by the aſſent aforeſaid, hauing regard to the graunt that the commons haue graunted now in this parliament of wolles, lether and wolfelles to be taken for thrée yeare: will and graunt, that after the ſaide terme paſſed, nothing be taken nor demaunded of the ſaide commons, but onelie the auncient cuſtome of halfe a marke, nor that this graunt now made, or which hath bene made in times paſt, ſhall not be had in example nor charge of the ſaide commons in time to come. And that the marchant denizens may paſſe with their wolles aſwell as the forrens, without being reſtrained. And that no ſubſidie, nor other charge, be ſet nor graunted vpon the wolles by the marchants, nor by none other from henceforth, without the aſſent of the parliament.

Parliament.

Cap. 12. Iuſtices of peace. Seſſions.

Item that in the commiſſions of iuſtices of the peace, and of laborers, expreſſe mencion be made, that the ſame iuſtices make their ſeſſions foure times by the yeare, that is to ſay, one ſeſſion within the vtas of the Epiphanie, the ſecond, within the ſecond wéeke of lent, the third betwixt the feaſt of Penthecoſt and of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, the iiii. within the viii. daies of ſaint Michaell.

Cap. 13. Eſchetors.

Item for the greeuous complaint that the king hath now heard of his people vpon his eſchetors and of their euill behauiour: he will and hath ordained of the aſſent aforeſaid, that landes ſeaſed into his hands becauſe of warde ſhall be ſafelie kept without waſte or deſtruction. And that the eſchetor haue no fée of wood, fiſh nor of veniſon nor other thing, but ſhall aunſwere to the king of the iſſues & profits yearelie comming of the ſaide lands without dooing waſte or deſtruction, and if he doo otherwiſe and thereof be attainted he ſhall be raunſomed at the kings will and yéelde to the heire the treble damages at his owne ſuite aſwell within age as of full age, and his friendes as long as he is within age ſhall haue the ſuite for him aunſwering to the ſaide heire of that that ſhall be ſo recouered. Alſo of other lands ſeaſed into the kings hands by enqueſt of office taken before the eſchetors this ordinance & penance ſhall holde place againſt the eſchetors. And if there be anie man that will put, chalenge, or claime to the lands ſo ſeaſed, that the eſchetor ſend thenqueſt into the chancerie within the moneth after the landes ſo ſeaſed. And that a writ be deliuered to him to certifie the cauſe of his ſeiſin into the chauncerie, and there he ſhall be heard without delay to trauers the office or otherwiſe ſhew his right, and from thence ſent before the king to make a finall diſcuſſion without attending other commaundement. And that in caſe that anie come before the chaunceller and ſhew his right, by which ſhewing by good euidences of his auncient right and good title, the chaunceller by his good diſcretion and aduice of councell (if it ſéeme expedient to him to haue councell) ſhall let and deliuer the lands ſo in debate to the tenant, yéelding thereof to the king the valour, if it pertaine to the king in the maner as he and the other chauncellers before him haue doone in times paſt of their good diſcretion, ſo that he finde ſuretie, that he ſhall doo no waſte nor deſtruction, till it be iudged. And that the ſaide eſchetors take ſuch enqueſts in the good townes and of good people, and that openlie and by indentures to be made betwixt the ſaide eſcheters and them of the enqueſt, as an other time was ordained by a ſtatute. And if anie eſcheter doo to the contrarie of this ſaide ordinance, he ſhall haue two yeares impriſonment, and moreouer to be raunſomed at the kings will.

Chauncellor. Enqueſts.

Cap. 14. Fines. Amerciaments.

Item becauſe that the intent of the lordes and commons is declared in this preſent parliament, that the communalties of euerie towne of the realme ſhall haue the fines and amerciaments, and all other profits of all maner artificers, ſeruants, and other laborers, and that the ſame be paied to the collectors of the triennall quinzim, an other time graunted to the king for the ſpace of thrée yeares, in aduantage of the commons, in diſcharge of the quinzim: It is ordained in his parliament, that all the monie of fines and amerciaments of profits, aſwell ſuch as be leuied, as which be to be leuied due of the ſaide thrée yeares, ſhall be leuied to the vſe of the commons, and diſtributed betwixt them, notwithſtanding the wordes in an other ſtatute, which be contrarie to this declaration and ordinance. And that the collectors of the ſaide monie, ſhall not be bounden to yéelde thereof account at the eſchequer, but that the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie haue power to heare their account, and compell them to make full diſtribution.

Cap. 15.

Item becauſe it is often ſhewed to the king by the prelates, earles, dukes, barons, and all the comcommunaltie, of the great miſchieues, which haue happened to diuers of the realme, of that that the lawes, cuſtomes, and ſtatutes be not commonlie holden and kept in the ſame realme, becauſe that they be pleaded, ſhewed, and iudged in the french tongue, which is much vnknowen in the ſaide realme, ſo that the people, which impleadeth or be impleaded in the kings court, and the courts of other, haue no knowledge nor vnderſtanding of that that is ſaide for them or againſt them by their ſerieaunts and other pleaders, and that reaſonablie the ſaide lawes and cuſtomes the rather ſhall be perceiued and knowne and better vnderſtoode in the tongue vſed in the ſaide realme, and by ſo much euerie man of the ſaide realme may the better gouerne himſelfe without offending the lawe, and the better keepe, ſaue, and defend his heritage and poſſeſſions, and in diuers regions and countries, where the king the nobles and other of the ſaid realme haue bene, good gouernance and full right is doone to euerie perſon, becauſe that their lawes and cuſtomes be learned and vſed in the tongue of the countrie: The king deſiring the good gouernance and tranquilitie of his people, and to put out and eſchue the harmes and miſchieues which doo or may happen in this behalfe, by the occaſions aforeſaide, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, by the aſſent aforeſaid, that all plees, which be to be pleaded in anie of his courts before anie of his iuſtices, or in his other places, or before anie of his other miniſters, or in the courts and places of anie other lordes within the realme, ſhall be pleaded, ſhewed, and defended, aunſwered, debated, and iudged, in the Engliſh tongue, and that they be entered and enroled in Latine. And that the lawes and cuſtomes of the ſame realme, termes, and proceſſes be holden and kept, as they be and haue bene before this time, and that by the auncient termes and formes of the declarations, no man be preiudiced, ſo that the matter of the action be fullie ſhewed in the demonſtration and in the writ. And it is accorded by the aſſent aforeſaide that this ordinance and ſtatutes of pleading, beginne and holde place at the xv. of ſaint Hillarie next comming.

Pleading in the Engliſh tongue.

The pardon made in the ſame parliament.

EDward by the grace of God. &c. to all that. &c. greeting. Know ye that we haue receiued the petition deliuered to vs by the commons of our realme in this preſent parliament in the forme as foloweth.

To their moſt redoubted ſoueraigne lord the king praien the ſaid commons, that where as they haue praied him to be diſcharged of all maner of articles of the eire, except plees of land of Quo waranto, treaſons, robberies, and all other felonies, for the which a man ſhall beare paine of life and member, which petition ſeemeth to his counſell to be preiudiciall to him, and in diſheriſon of his crowne, if it were ſo generallie graunted: his ſaide commons not willing nor deſiring to demaunde thinges of him, which ſhould fall in diſheriſon of him or of his crowne perpetuallie, as of eſchetes of land or of tenements by anie cauſe, wardes, mariages, fees, and aduowſons, ſerianties, rents, ſeruices, ſeignories, landes amortiſed without licence, nor fines for treſpas of purchaſing of lands holden of him as of his crowne, and aliened without licence nor of fines offered in certaine and not refuſed before anie of his iuſtices, for purpreſtures made vpon him aſwell in landes as in waters, franchiſes accroched, treaſure found, debts & accounts due to him after the pardon made to his ſaide commons by ſtatutes late made, nor other articles whatſoeuer they be, which ſhould fall in diſheriſon of him or of his crowne perpetuallie, but of treſpas, meſpriſion, negligences, or ignorances, or anie other thinges doone, fallen or happened before this preſent parliament, and of all articles of the eire, whereof the puniſhment ſhall lie in fine or in raunſoune or other pecuniar paines, impriſonments, amerciaments of the commons or of townes, or of anie ſinguler perſons, aſwell the kings miniſters as other at the kings ſuite, eſcapes of felons, catailes, of felons and fugitiues fallen ſith the laſt parliament made to his commons of them and not leuied nor iudged, or in charge of the freeholde of them that neuer treſpaſſed, as heires or land tenaunts, of coroners, ſhiriffes, eſcheters, aſwell the kings miniſters as other, and all other people. Sauing to the king the debts and accounts due to him now at this preſent, of theſe thinges before named, that it may pleaſe his excellent highnes, hauing regard to the great charges, trauels, and miſchiefes, which his poore commons haue in his time, and to which charge he hath now required them of thoſe thinges before named, to doo pardon generallie to his ſaid commons till this preſent parliament, ſo that all the thinges and articles afore named for anie maner thing doone in time paſt nothing be required, nor none of the people, kings miniſter nor other, of what condition that he be, be put to aunſwere impechſhed, moleſted, nor greeued by anie maner colour, imagination, or interruption, but all maner of treſpaſſe, miſpriſions, negligences or ignorances, and all other thinges before named be repealed and wholie pardoned. Sauing alwaies the ſuite of the parties, which will them complaine. And that people atteinted at the ſuite of the parties haue impriſonment, in caſe where it is giuen by the lawe, notwithſtanding the pardon of fines and raunſomes as afore is ſaide. And where as the commons haue an other time required, and yet they pray, that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, and all other ſtatutes before this time made be firmelie kept and holden in all pointes of all thinges, which be to fall, or which ſhall happen hereafter, aſwell for the kings profite, as for the quietnes of his people. And that all the articles of the eire be ſent to the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie, to publiſh and notifie them to the commons, to the intent that they may haue knowledge of the ſaid articles, ſo that they may the better gouerne & beare them, and Pardon.

Charter.

Eire.

eſchew the perils and puniſhment of the ſaide articles, that then at what time it ſhall pleaſe their ſaide redoubted lorde, that they ſhall make his ſeſſions and enquiries, according as ſhall ſeeme of him and his councell that beſt is to be doone for the profite of him and of his people. And the intent of his ſaide commons is not by the ſame pardon that the king ſhall not doo to be inquired of the gréeuances and oppreſſions doone to the people by his purueiors, or the purueiors of other before this time, whereof great clamour hath bene made in this preſent parliament. And that it may pleaſe his gratious highnes, to make charters of the ſame pardons, containing the ſaide pardons, to all the counties of England, and to all ſeuerall parſons that will demaunde the ſame, to purſue without fine or fée paieng for the ſeale. And that the forme of the ſame charters be made before the departing of the lordes from the parliament. And that the ſaide forme be ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lord the king and to his councell, and to the other lords. We conſidering the great charges: which our ſaide commons haue ſuſtained, and the great good that they haue doone to vs oftentimes, of our ſpeciall grace and by the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, and barons, and the commons being in the ſaide parliament haue graunted to our ſaide commons for all times paſt a full pardon according to the forme of their ſaide petition. Sauing alwayes to vs and to our heires, our right in time to come in the maner as we haue before this time graunted and pardoned. And we will and graunt, that by vs and our heires, our iuſtices, nor none other of our miniſters, no man be impeched nor put to aunſwere, nor proceſſe made of anie point contained in our ſaid pardon. In witnes whereof to this our letters patents we haue ſet our ſeale, giuen at Weſtminſter the xiii. day of October the xxxvi. yeare of our reigne.

Purueiors

Here beginneth the ſtatute made of Weſtminſter the xxxvij. yeare of king Edward the third.

KIng Edward, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fryday in the vtas of ſaint Michael, the xxxvii. yeare of his reigne, at the requeſt of the commons, and of the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and other great men there aſſembled, hath ordained the thinges vnderwritten in the forme as foloweth.

Chap. 1. Charter.

FIrſt that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, and the ſtatutes and ordinances made in times paſt, and ſpecialie the ſtatutes made at the laſt parliament be holden and kept and dulie executed according to the forme and effect of them.

Chap. 2.

Item for the great miſchiefes which often haue happened, and dailie doo come, of that the eſchetors, ſhiriffes, and other the kings miniſters doo ſeiſe the lands, goods, and catals of manie, ſurmiſing that they be outlawed, where they be not outlawed, becauſe that they beare ſuch names as thoſe which be outlawed, for default of good declaration of the ſurname: It is ordained, that if anie complaine him in ſuch caſe, he ſhall haue a writ of Idemptitate nominis, in the maner as hath bene vſed in the times paſt. And if anie mans lands, goods, or catals, be ſeaſed in ſuch caſe by eſchetor, ſhiriffe, or other miniſter, he ſhall finde ſuretie before the miniſter, which hath the warrant to ſeiſe, to aunſwere to the king of the valour of ſuch lands, goods, and catals, in caſe that he may not diſcharge him, without taking anie thing of the partie, And if ſuch miniſter doo not the ſame, and thereof be attainted, the partie ſhall haue the ſuite againſt ſuch miniſter, and recouer his double damages, and neuertheles he ſhall be gréeuouſlie amerced towardes the king.

Idemptitate nominis

Eſchetor. Shiriffe.

Chap. 3. Pultrie.

Item for the great dearth that is in manie places of the realme, of pultrie, it is ordained, that the price of a yong capon ſhall not paſſe iii. d. and of an olde iiii. d. of an henne ii. d. of a pullet i. d. of a gooſe iiii. d. and in places where the prices of ſuch vittailes be leſſe, they ſhall holde, without being inhaunced by this ordinance. And that in the townes and markets of Vpland they ſhall be ſould at a leſſe price, according as may be agréed betwixt the ſeller and the buier. And iuſtices ſhall be thereupon aſſigned by commiſſion to put the thing duelie in execution.

Chap. 4. Clerke of the remembrance, and clerke of the pipe.

Item becauſe that many people acquit by iudgement in the eſchequer in one place, be greatlie gréeued and indamaged in other offices and places of the ſaid eſchequer, of the ſame thinges, whereof they be ſo acquit, to the great miſchiefe of the people: It is ordained, that one clerke of the remembrance be titled to ſit againſt the clerke of the pipe to ſée the diſcharges made in yͤ pipe, and to imbreuiat the ſame in the remembrance, to ceaſe all maner of proceſſe thereupon made. And alſo that the ſummons of the pipe be withdrawen according as the parties by proceſſe be diſcharged. And in whom ſoeuer anie default be willinglie found, the treaſurer by the kings commaundement ſhall duelie puniſh the ſame.

Treſurer del eſchequer.

Chap. 5. Marchants grocers.

Item for the great miſchieues, which haue happened aſwell to the king as to the great men and commons, of that that the marchants called grocers, doo ingroſſe all maner of marchandiſes vendible: and ſodainelie doo enhaunce the price of ſuch marchandiſe within the realme, putting to ſale by couin and ordinance made betwixt them called the fraternitie & gild of marchants, the marchandiſes, which be moſt déere, and kéepe in ſtore the other, till the time that dearth or ſkarcitie be of the ſame: hath ordained that no Engliſh marchant ſhall vſe no ware nor marchandiſe by him nor by other, nor by no maner of couin, but onelie one, which he ſhall choſe betwixt this and the feaſt of Candlemas next comming. And ſuch as haue other wares or marchandiſes in their hands, than thoſe that they haue choſen, may ſet them to ſale before the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint Iohn next enſuing. And if anie doo to the contrarie of this ordinance in anie point, and be thereof attainted in the maner as hereafter foloweth, he ſhall forfeite againſt the king the marchandiſe, which he hath ſo vſed againſt this ordinance: And moreouer ſhall make a fine to the Commiſſion.

Surueiors

king according to the quantitie of the treſpas. And how this ordinance ſhal be put in execution, it is ordained, that good people & lawfull of euerie marchandiſe ſhall be choſen & ſworne, to ſurueie that this ordinance be holden and executed, that is to ſaie, two marchants in euerie marchandiſe in euerie towne & burghe, & two marchants of euerie countie, and redreſſe the defaults, & of that that they may not redreſſe, they ſhall certifie the chaunceller and yͤ kings councell. And commiſſions ſhall be made to certaine people, to whom and when it ſhall pleaſe the king to aſſigne, to enquire in cities, burghes & counties where neede ſhall be, aſwell of treſpaſſers in this behalfe, as of ſurueiors, in caſe that they be negligent, or of couin with the treſpaſſers, by the oth of ſixe men ſworne: and moreouer to make proceſſe for to heare & determine dailie, & to puniſh the treſpaſſers & ſurueiors, that is to ſay, the treſpaſſers according as is aboue ordained, & the ſurueiors according to yͤ diſcretion of the iuſtices, & that by the iurie of xii. in caſe they will put them ſelfe vpon yͤ countrie of their accuſement. And who ſoeuer will ſue for the king in ſuch caſe, ſhall be thereto receiued, and ſhall haue the fourth pennie of the forfeiture of him that ſo ſhal be attainted at his ſuite.

Chap. 6.
Artificers. Handie craft.

Item it is ordained, that artificers handicraft people, ſhall holde them euerie one to one miſterie, which he will choſe betwixt this and the ſaid feaſt of Candelmas. And ii. of euerie craft ſhall be choſen to ſurueie, that none vſe other craft than the ſame which he hath choſen, and that iuſtices be aſſigned to enquire by proceſſe, to heare and determine in this article, as is ordained in the article before ſaide, ſauing that the treſpaſſers in this article ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment of halfe a yeare, and moreouer to make fine and raunſome according to the quantitie of the treſpas. And the ſurueiors by the diſcretion of the iuſtices, as before. But the intent of the king and of his counſell is, that women, that is to ſay, brewers, bakers, carders, and ſpinners, and workers aſwell of woolle as of linen cloth and of ſilke, brawdeſters, and breakers of woolle, and all other that doo vſe and worke handie workes, may freelie vſe and worke as they haue doone before this time, without anie impechment, or being reſtrained by this ordinance.

Chap. 7.
Goldeſmithes. Sterling.

Marke
Surueiors
Aſſaie.
White veſſell.

Item it is ordained, that goldeſmithes aſwell in London as elſe where within the realme, ſhall make all maner of veſſell and other worke of ſiluer well & lawfullie of the allay of good ſterling. And euerie maiſter goldſmith ſhall haue a marke by himſelfe, and the ſame marke ſhall be knowen by them which ſhall be aſſigned by the king to ſurueie their worke & allay. And that the ſaid goldſmithes ſet not their marke vpon their workes, till the ſaid ſurueiors haue made their aſſaie, as ſhall be ordained by the king & his councell, & after the aſſaie made, the ſurueiors ſhall ſet their marke, and afterwarde the goldſmith his marke, for which he will aunſwere. And that no goldeſmith take for veſſell white and full for the weight of a pound, that is to ſay, of the price of ii. markes of Paris weight, but xviii. d. as they doo at Paris. And that no goldſmith making white veſſell, ſhall medle with gilding, nor they that doo gild, ſhall not medle to make white veſſell. And they which ſhall be ſo aſſigned in euerie towne, ſhall make their ſearches as oftentimes as ſhall be ordained. And for that that ſhall be in the default of the goldſmithes, they ſhall incurre the paine of forfeiture to the king the valour of the metall, which ſhall be found in default.

Chap. 8.
Seruants fare and apparell.

Item for the outrageous and exceſſiue apparell of diuers people, againſt their eſtate and degree, to the great deſtruction and impoueriſhment of all the land: It is ordained, that gromes aſwell ſeruants of lords as they of miſteries & artificers, ſhall be ſerued to eate and drinke once a day of fleſh or of fiſh, & the remnant of other vittailes, as of milke, butter, & cheeſe, & other ſuch vittailes, according to their eſtate. And that they haue clothes for their veſture or hoſing, whereof yͤ whole cloth ſhall not exceede ii. markes, & that they weare no cloth of higher price, of their buyeng nor otherwiſe, nor nothing of golde nor of ſiluer embrowdered, aimeled, nor of ſilke, nor nothing pertaining to the ſaide things. And their wiues, daughters, and children of the ſame condition in their clothing and apparaile, and they ſhall weare no vailes paſſing xii. d. a vaile.

Chap. 9.
Handiecraftesmens apparell.

Item that people of handiecraft, & yomen, ſhall not take nor weare cloth of an higher price for their veſture or hoſing than within xl. s. the whole cloth by way of buyeng nor otherwiſe, nor ſtone, nor cloth of ſilke nor of ſiluer, nor girdle, knife, button, ring, garter, nor owche, riban, chaines, nor no ſuch other thinges of gould nor of ſiluer, nor no maner of apparell imbrowdered, aimeled, nor of ſilke by no way. And that their wiues, daughters and children be of the ſame condition in their veſture & apparell. And yͭ they weare no vaile of ſilke, but onelie of yarne made within the realme, nor no maner of furre, nor of budge, but onelie lambe, conie, catte, and fox.

Cap. 10.
Eſquiers and gentlemens apparell.

Item that eſquiers & all maner gentlemen, vnder the eſtate of a knight which haue no land nor rent to the valour of an hundred pounds by yeare, ſhall not take nor weare cloth for their clothing or hoſing, of an higher price than within the price of iiii. markes and an halfe the whole cloth be way of buyeng nor otherwiſe, and that they weare no cloth of golde nor of ſilke nor ſiluer, nor no maner clothing imbrowdered, ring, buttons, nor owche of golde, riban, girdle, nor none other apparell, nor harneis, of golde nor of ſiluer, nor nothing of ſtone, nor no maner of furre, and that their wiues, daughters, and children be of the ſame condition, as to their veſture and apparell, without anie turning vp or purfle. And that they weare no maner of apparell of gold or ſiluer, nor of ſtone, but that eſquiers, which haue lands or rent to the valour of ii. C. marks by yeare and aboue, may take and weare clothes of the price of v. markes the whole cloth, and cloth of ſilke and of ſiluer, riban, girdle, and other apparell reaſonablie garniſhed of ſiluer. And that their wiues, daughters, and children may weare furre turned vp of miniuer, without ermins or letuſe, or anie maner of ſtone but for their heads.

Chap. 11 Citizens apparel, hauing goods to the value of D li.

Item that marchants citizens and burgeſes, artificers, people of handie craft as well within the citie of London as elſe where, which haue clerelie goods & cattels to the value of v.C.pounds, and their wiues and children, may take and weare in the maner as the eſquiers & great men, which haue land or rent to the value of C.li.by yeere. And that the ſame marchants citizens and burgeſes, which haue clerelie goods and cattels to the value of M.li. and their wiues and children maie take and weare in the maner as eſquires and gentlemen, which haue land and rent to the value of ii.C.li.by yere. & that no grome, yoman nor ſeruant of marchant, artificer, or people of handicraft ſhall not weare otherwiſe in apparell then is aboue ordeined of yomen of lords.

Chap. 12 Knightes apparel.

Item that knights, which haue lande or rent within the value of ii. C.li. ſhall take and weare cloth of vi. markes the whole cloth for their veſture, and of none higher price. And that they weare not cloth of gold, nor clothes, mantell, nor gowne furred with miniuer nor of armins, nor no apparell browdered of ſtone nor otherwiſe, and that their wiues, daughters, and children be of the ſame condition. And that they weare no turning vp of armins, nor of letuſes, nor no maner of apparell of ſtone, but onelie for their heads. But that all knights and ladies, which haue lande or rent ouer the value of iiii.C.marke by yeere, to the ſumme of M.li. ſhall weare at their pleaſure, except armins and letuſes, and apparell of pearle and ſtone but onelie for their heads.

Chap. 13 Clarkes.

Item that clarkes, which haue degree in anie church cathedrall, collegiall, or ſcholes, or clarke of the king, that hath ſuch eſtate that requireth furre, ſhall do and vſe according to the conſtitution of the ſame. And all other clarkes, which haue ii.C.markes of land by yeere, ſhall weare and doe as knights of the ſame rent. And other clarkes within the ſame rent, ſhall weare as the eſquires of C.li. of rent. And that all thoſe, aſwell knights as clarkes, which by this ordinance maie weare fur in the winter, in the ſame maner ſhall weare liding in the ſomer.

Chap. 14 Carters, ploughmen, &c.

Item that carters, ploughmen, driuers of the plough, oreherds, kowherdes, ſhepherdes, deyars and all other keepers of beaſtes, threſhers of corne, and all maner of people of the eſtate of a grome, attending to huſbandrie, and all other people, that haue not xl.s. of goods, nor of cattelles ſhall not take nor weare no maner of cloth but blanket and ruſſet woll of xii. pence, & ſhall weare the girdels of linen according to their eſtate, and that they come to eate and drinke in the maner as perteineth to them, and not exceſſiuelie. And it is ordeined, that if anie weare or do contrarie to anie of the points aforeſaide, that hee ſhall forfeite againſt the king all the apparell that hee hath ſo worne againſt the forme of this ordinance.

Chap. 15 Cloth makers. Drapers.

Item to the intent that this ordinance, for the taking and wearing of clothes bee mainteined and kept in all pointes without blemiſh, it is ordeined, that all the makers of clothes within the realme, & well men as women, ſhal conforme them to make their clothes according to the price limit by this ordinance. And that all the drapers ſhall buie and puruey their ſorts according to the ſame price. So that ſo great plentie of ſuch clothes be made and ſet to ſale in euerie citie, borough & marchant towne & elſe where within the realme, that for default of ſuch clothes the ſaid ordinance be in no point brokin. And to that ſhall the ſaide clothmakers & drapers be conſtrained by anie maner waie that beſt ſhall ſeeme to the king and his councell. And this ordinance of newe apparell ſhall begin at Candelmas next comming.

Chap. 16 Wines.

Item it is ordeined, that the ſtatute made of wines the ſaide xxvii. yeere be holden and kept in all points, except the puniſhment of landes and tenementes and of life and member, which puniſhment is repealed in this preſent parliament, as well of time paſt as of time to come. Moreouer it is ordeined, that euerie yeere it ſhall be ſent to the maior and conſtable of Burdeaux, to Rochell, and to all other townes and ports in Gaſcoine and elſe where which be of the liegeaunce of our ſoueraigne lord the king, out of which yͤ wines come into England, to be certified of the price of the wines and in other coſts, and of the couchours Engliſh againſt the forme of the ſtatute. And by this certification of the couchers againſt the ſtatute they ſhall bee put to anſwere, if the bodie bee ſent as is contained in the ſtatute. And if he denie the certification, it ſhall be tried by marchants vſing thoſe parties & other people which beſt haue thereof knowledge. And if the bodie be not ſent, that certification ſhalbe ſent into the kings bench, or before other iuſtices according as ſhall need. And there proceſſe be made by Capias and exigend, or tried by Miſe, as afore is ſaide.

Chap. 17 Villenage.

Item it is ordeined, that no writ be abated by exception of knowledge of villenage, if the demaundant or plaintiffe will auerre that he that alledged the exception was free the day of the writ purchaſed.

Chap. 18 Charter. Suggeſtion.

Item though that it be conteined in the great charter, that no man be taken nor impriſoned, nor put out of his free hold, without proceſſe of the lawe neuertheles diuers people make falſe ſuggeſtion to the king himſelfe, aſwell for malice as otherwiſe, whereof the king is often greeued, and diuers of the realme, put in damage, againſt the forme of the ſame charter: Wherefore it is ordeined, that all they that make ſuch ſuggeſtions, bee ſent with the ſuggeſtions before the chaunceller, treaſurer and his councell, and that they there finde ſuertie to purſue their ſuggeſtions, and incur the ſame paine that the other ſhoulde haue had if he were attainted, in caſe that his ſuggeſtion bee found euill. And that then proceſſe of the lawe be made againſt them, without being taken or impriſoned againſt the forme of the ſaid charter and other ſtatutes.

Chap. 19 Hawkes. Shiriffe.

Item where it was an other time ordeined, that euerie perſon that findeth anie fawcon, tercelet, laner, & laneret, or anie other hawke that is loſt of his lorde, that maintenant he ſhal bring him to yͤ ſhiriffe of the countie. And that the ſhiriffe make proclamation in all yͤ good townes of the countie that he hath ſuch an hawke in keeping. And if the lord which hath loſt him, or anie of his meinie come to chalenge him, & proue reaſonablie, that it is his lordes, let him pay for his coſtes and haue the hawke, if none come within foure moneths for to chalenge him, then the ſhiriffe ſhall haue the hawke, making gree to him that did take him, if he be a ſimple man, and if he be a gentleman of eſtate, to haue the hawke, the ſhiriffe ſhall redeliuer to him the hawke, taking of him reaſonable coſtes for the time that he had him in his keeping. And if anie man hath taken ſuch hawke, and the ſame conceale from the lorde, to whom the hawke is, or from his falconers, or if anie take him awaie from the lord, & thereof be attainted, he ſhall haue ii. yeeres impriſonment, & yeeld to the lorde the price of the hawke, ſo concealed or taken awaie, if he haue whereof, & if he haue not, he ſhall the longer abide in priſon: Notwithſtanding this ordinance, the offenders doubt but little to offende in this behalfe. Wherefore it is ordeined, and by ſtatute ſtabliſhed in this preſent parliament, that if anie ſteale anie hawke, and the ſame carie away, not doing the ordinance aforeſaide, it ſhall bee done of him as of a theefe that ſtealeth a horſe or other thing.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xxxviii. yeere of king Edward the third.

OUr ſoueraigne lorde the king Edward, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the vtas of ſaint Hillarie, the xxxviij. yeere of his reigne, of the aſſent of his prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and commons of his realme there aſſembled, hath made and ordeined the things vnderwritten.

Chap. 1. FIrſt that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, & the other ſtatutes made as well in his time as in the time of his progenitors, be holden and kept and duelie executed in all points.

Chap. 2. Marchants. Item to that that was ordeined at the laſt parliament of liuing & of apparell, & that no Engliſh marchant ſhoulde vſe but one marchaundiſe: It is ordeined, that all people ſhall be as free as they were all times before the ſaide ordinance, and namelie as they were in the time of the kinges graundfather, and his other good progenitors. And alſo that all maner of marchauntes, as well aliens as denizens, maie ſell and buie all maner of marchandiſes, and freelie carie them out of the realme, paieng the cuſtomes and ſubſidies thereof due except that the Engliſh marchauntes ſhall not paſſe out of the realme with wolles nor wolfelles. And that none carie out of the realme golde nor ſiluer in plate nor in monie, ſauing the vitailers of fiſh, that fiſheth hearring and other fiſh, and they that bring fiſh within the realme in ſmall veſſels, that medle not of other marchandiſes, and that according to the arbitrement of the chauncellor.

Wolles, & wolfelles. Gold, ſiluer & plate. Fiſhers. Chauncelor.

Chap. 3. Fines. Item it is accorded, that all the fines to be taken before anie iuſtices, ſhall be in the preſence of the pledges, and that the pledges knowe the ſumme of their fine before their departing.

Chap. 4. Penall bonds in the iii perſon. Item where as diuerſe people be bounde in an other court out of the realme by inſtrumentes and in other maner: It is accorded that all penall bondes in the thirde perſon be voyde and holden for none.

Chap. 5. Attachment London. Item where as much people bee greeued and attached by their bodie in the citie of London, at the ſuite of people of the ſame citie, ſurmiſing to them, that they be debters, & that will they proue by their papers, where as they haue no deede nor tale: It is aſſented, that euerie man be receiued to his lawe by people ſufficient of his conditon againſt ſuch papers, and the Creanſour ſhall take ſuertie by an other waie if he will, without putting the partie to pleade to the enqueſt, if he will not of his owne gree.

Chap. 6. Staple. Wolles, lether, wolfelles. Item where as it was in an other time ordeined in the ſtatute of the ſtaple that no Engliſh man ſhould paſſe the ſea with wolles, lether, nor wolfelles by him nor by other, vpon paine of forfeiture of life and member, lands, tenements, goods and cattelles: It is accorded, that the forfeiture of life and member ſhall be wholie out: And that no man be impeched becauſe of ſuch forfeiture of life and member, as well of times paſt as of the time to come. And the forfeiture of landes and tenements, goods and cattells ſhall ſtand in their force.

Chap. 7. Staple. Item it is aſſented, that the ſtaple ſhall bee in Englande. And that the ſtatute of the ſtaple made the ſaide twentie ſeuen yeere, with the declarations, additions and modifications thereof made, be holden and kept, notwithſtanding anie graunt, licence, or other ſtatute or ordinance made afterward.

Cap. 8. Shippes. Cuſtoms. Item where as the ſhips of diuerſe people of the realme be arreſted & holden forfeite, becauſe of a little thing put in their ſhip not cuſtomed, whereof the lordes of the ſame ſhips be ignorant: It is accorded & aſſented, that no lorde ſhall loſe his ſhippe from the xv. daie of Februarie next comming forth, for ſuch a ſmall thing put within the ſhippe not cuſtomed without his knowledge.

Chap 9. Complaint. Item as to the article made at the laſt parliament, of thoſe that make greeuous complaintes to the king himſelfe: It is aſſented, that if he that maketh the complaint, can not proue his intent againſt the defendant by the proceſſe limit in the ſame article, he ſhalbe commanded to priſon, there to abide till he hath made gree to the partie of his damages, and of the ſclaunder that he hath ſuffered by ſuch occaſion, and after ſhall make fine and raunſome to the king. And the point conteined in the ſame article, that the plaintiffe ſhall incurre the ſame paine, which the other ſhould haue, if he were attainted, ſhall be out, in caſe that his ſuggeſtion be found vntrue.

Suggeſtiõ.

Chap. 10. Wines. Item as to the marchants of wines, and of thoſe that paſſe the ſea to ſerch wines in Gaſcoine, for the diuerſitie of opinions of diuerſe: It is aſſented, that the ſtatutes and ordinances thereupon made ſhall ſtand in their force.

Item

Cap. 11. Wines. Gaſcoine.

Item the king will of his grace and ſufferance, that all marchants denizens, that be not artificers, ſhall paſſe into Gaſcoine to ſeeke wines there, to the intent that by this generall licence, greater plentie may come, and greater market may be of wines within the realme. And that the Gaſcoines and other aliens may come into the realme with their wines and freelie ſell them without anie diſturbance or impechment. Alwaies ſaued to the king, that it may be lawfull to him, when ſo euer it is aduiſed to him or his councell, to ordaine of this article in the maner as beſt ſhall ſeeme to him for the profit of him and his commons.

Cap. 12. Iurers. Imbraceours. Iuſtices. Office.

Item as to the article of iurers, in the xxxiiii yeare, it is aſſented and ioined to the ſame, that if anie iurers in aſſiſes ſworne, and other enqueſts to be taken betweene the king and partie, or partie and partie doo anie thing take by them or by other, of the partie plaintiffe or defendant, to ſay their verdit, & thereof be atteinted by proceſſe contained in the ſame article, be it at the ſuite of the partie that will ſue for himſelfe, or for the king, or anie other perſon, euerie of the ſaide iurers ſhall pay x. times aſmuch as he hath taken. And he that will ſue, ſhall haue the one halfe, and the king the other halfe. And that all the imbracers to bring forth or procure ſuch enqueſts in the countrie, to take gaine or profit, ſhall be puniſhed in the ſame maner and forme as the iurers. And if the iurer or imbracer ſo attainted, haue not whereof to make grée in the maner aforeſaide, he ſhall haue the impriſonment of one yeare. And the intent of the king, of great men, and of the commons is, that no iuſtice nor other miniſter ſhall enquire of office, vpon anie of the pointes of this article, but onelie at the ſuite of the partie, or of other, as afore is ſaide.

Here beginneth the ſtatute of prouiſours made at Weſtminſter the ſaid xxxviii yeare of king Edward the third.

Citations. Court of Rome. Prouiſions.

TO nouriſh, loue, peace and concord betwéene holie church and the realme, and to appeaſe and ceaſe the gerat hurt and perils, and importable loſſes and gréeuances, that haue bene doone and happened in times paſt, and that ſhall happen hereafter, if the thing from henceforth be ſuffered to paſſe, becauſe of perſonall citations and other that be paſt before this time, and commonlie dooth paſſe from day to day out of the court of Rome by feined and falſe ſuggeſtions and propoſitions, againſt all maner of perſons of the realme, vpon cauſes, whoſe coniſance and finall diſcuſſing pertaineth to our ſoueraigne lord the king and his roiall court, and alſo of impetrations and prouiſions of benefices and offices of holie church, pertaining to the gift, preſentation, donation, and diſpoſition of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other lay patrons of his realme, as of churches, chappels, and other benefices appropried to cathedrall churches, abbeies, priories, chaunteries, hoſpitals, and other poore houſes, and of other dignities, offices, and benefices occupied in the times paſt, and preſented by diuers and notable perſons of the ſaide realme, for which cauſes and diſpenſing thereof, the good auncient lawes, vſages, cuſtomes, and franchiſes of the ſaide realme haue bene and be greatlie appeired, blemiſhed, and confounded the crowne of our ſoueraigne lord the king miniſhed, and his perſon falſelie defamed, the treaſure and riches of his realme caried away, the inhabitants and ſubiects of the realme impoueriſhed and troubled, the benefices of holie church waſted and deſtroied, diuine ſeruices, hoſpitalities, almes déede, and workes of charitie withdrawen and ſet apart, the commons and ſubiects of the realme in bodie and goods trauailed.

Chap. 1.

Our ſoueraigne lord the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the vtas of ſaint Hillarie, the xxxviii. yeare of his reigne, hauing regard to the quietnes of his people, which he chiefelie deſireth to ſuſtaine in tranquillitie & peace, to gouerne according to the lawes, vſages, and franchiſes of his land, as he is bound by his oth made at his coronation, folowing the waies of his progenitors, which for their time made certaine good ordinances and prouiſions againſt the ſaide gréeuances and perils: which ordinances and prouiſions, and all the other made in his time, and eſpeciallie in the xxv. and xxvii. yeare of his reigne: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aſſent and expreſſe will and concorde of the dukes, earles, barons, and the commons of his realme, and of all other whom theſe thinges toucheth, by good and meere deliberation and auiſement, hath approued, accepted, and confirmed: ſauing the eſtate of the prelates and other lords of the realme, touching the libertie of their bodies, ſo that by force of this ſtatute their bodies be not taken. Ioining to the ſame hath prouided and ordained, that all they, which haue obtained, purchaſed, or purſued ſuch perſonall citations or other in anie times paſt, or hereafter ſhall obtaine, purchaſe, or purſue ſuch like, againſt him or anie of his ſubiects, and alſo all they that haue obtained or ſhall obtaine in the ſaide court, deanries, archdeaconries, prouoſties, and other dignities, offices, chappels, or benefices of holie church, pertaining to the collation, gift, preſentation, or diſpoſition of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, or of other lay patron of his ſaid realme, and alſo all like perſons, obtainers of churches, chappels, offices, or benefices of holie church, penſions or rentes amortiſed and appropried to churches cathedrall or collegiall, abbeies, priories, chaunteries, hoſpitals, or other poore houſes, before that ſuch appropriations, amortiſements, be voide & adnulled by due proceſſe, alſo all they which haue obtained in the ſame court, dignities, offices, hoſpitals, and anie benefices of churches, which be occupied at this preſent ſeaſon by reaſonable title by anie perſons of the ſaid realme, if ſuch impetrations be not fullie executed, or ſhall obtaine hereafter like benefices, whereby preiudice, damage, or impechment hath bene or may be doone hereafter to him or to his ſaide ſubiects, in perſons, heritages, poſſeſſions, rightes or anie goodes, or to the lawes, vſages, cuſtomes, franchiſes, and liberties of his ſaide realme and of his crowne, alſo all their maintenours, councelers, abbettors, and other aiders and fautours wittinglie aſwell at the ſuite of the king as of the partie, or other whatſoeuer he be of the realme, finding pledges and ſuretie to purſue againſt them: in this caſe all the ſaide perſons defamed and violentlie ſuſpect of ſuch impetrations, purſuits, or greeuances by ſuſpection, ſhall be arreſted and taken by the ſhiriffes of the places and iuſtices in their ſeſſions, deputies, bailiffes and other the kings miniſters, by good and ſufficient mainpriſe, repleuin, baile, or other ſuretie (the ſhorteſt that may be) and ſhall be preſented to the king and his counſell, there to remaine and ſtand to right, to receiue what the lawe will giue them. And if they be atteinted or conuict of anie of the ſaide thinges, they ſhall haue the paine compriſed in the ſtatute made in the xxv. yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lorde the king, which beginneth, Where as late in the parliament, &c.

Chap. 2. Attachment. Warning.

Item if anie perſon defamed or ſuſpect of the ſaid impetracions, proſecutions, or greeuances, or interpriſes, be they out of the realme or within, and may not be attached nor arreſted in their proper perſons, and doo not preſent them before the king or his counſell within two monethes next after that they be thereupon warned in their places (if they haue anie) in anie of the kings courts, or in the counties, or before the kings iuſtices in their ſeſſions, or otherwiſe ſufficientlie to aunſwere to the king and to the partie, to ſtand & be at the lawe in this caſe before the king and his councell, ſhall be puniſhed by the forme and maner compriſed in the ſtatute made in the ſaide ſeuen and twentie yeare of this kings reigne, which beginneth. Our ſouereigne lorde the king of the aſſent &c. and otherwiſe as to the king and his counſell ſhall ſeeme to be doone, without anie grace, pardon, or remiſſion to be made by the king, without the will & aſſent of the partie, which ſhall proue him to be greeued, & without making to him due ſatiſfaction in this caſe.

Chap. 3.

Item it is accorded that none other ſubiect of the ſaid realme, keeping and ſuſtaining theſe ordinances, ſhall incurre anie forfeiture of life and member, of lands, of heritage, nor of goods againſt the king nor none other perſon, nor loſe eſtate nor fauour becauſe of the ſaide thinges ordained, nor his heires may not nor ought not to be reproued, defamed, nor impeched by anie of the ſaid cauſes at anie time hereafter. And if anie perſon, of what ſoeuer eſtate or condition that he be, by anie maner, attempt, or doo a thing againſt the ſaid ordinances, or anie thing compriſed in them, the ſame perſon ſhall be brought to aunſwere in the maner as afore is ſaid, and if he be thereupon attainted or conuicte, he ſhall be put out of the kings protection, and puniſhed after the forme of the ſaide ſtatute made the ſaide xxvii. yeare.

Protection.

Chap. 4. Attaint.

Item if anie perſon maliciouſlie or falſelie make anie purſuite againſt anie perſon of the ſaid realme, for cauſe compriſed in theſe preſent ordinances, and thereof be dulie attainted, ſuch plaintife ſhall be dulie puniſhed at the ordinance of the king and his councell, and neuertheleſſe he ſhall make gree and amends to the partie greeued by his purſuite. And to the intent that the ſaide ordinances, and euerie of the ſame, for the eaſe, quietnes, and wealth of the commons be the better ſuſtained, executed and kept, and that all thoſe that haue offended or ſhall offend againſt theſe ordinances, by proſecutions, accuſations, denunciations, citations, or other proceſſe made or to be made out of the ſaid realme or within, or otherwiſe againſt anie maner perſon of the ſaid realme, be the more couenablie and ſpeedilie brought in aunſwere, to receiue right according to their deſert: The king, the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, nobles, and other commons, clerkes, and lay people be bound by this preſent ordinance to aide, comfort, and to councell the one and the other, and as often as ſhall neede, and by all the beſt meanes that may be made of worde and of deede, to impeach ſuch offenders and reſiſt their deedes and enterpriſes, and without ſuffering them to inhabit, abide, or paſſe by their ſeignories, poſſeſſions, lands, iuriſdictions, or places, and be bound to keepe and defend the one and the other from all damage, vilonie and reproofe, as they ſhould doo their owne perſons, and for their deede and buſines, and by ſuch maner, and as farforth as ſuch proſecutions or proceſſe were made or attempted againſt them in eſpeciall generall or in common.

Reſiſtance.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xlij. yeare of king Edward the third.

Chap. 1. Charter.

AT the parliament of our ſouereigne lorde the king, holden at Weſtminſter the firſt day of May the xlii. yeare of his reigne: It is aſſented and accorded, that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt be holden and kept in all points, and if anie ſtatute be made to the contrarie, that ſhall be holden for none.

Chap. 2. Pardon.

Item it is aſſented, that the pardon which the king made to his commons the xxx. yeare, be holden in all pointes, and if anie feele himſelfe greeued againſt the forme of the ſame, he ſhall haue a writ in the chauncerie to allow the points of the ſaide pardon.

Chap. 3.

Item of the requeſt of the commons by their petitions put forth in this parliament, to eſchew the miſchieues and damage doone to diuers of his commons by falſe accuſers, which oftentimes haue made their accuſements more for vengeance & ſingular profit, than for the profit of the king or of his people, which accuſed perſons, ſome haue bene taken and cauſed to come before the kings counſell by writ and otherwiſe vpon greeuous paine againſt the lawe: It is aſſented and accorded, for the good gouernance of the commons, that no man be put to aunſwere without preſentment before iuſtices, or thing of record, or by due proceſſe, and by writ originall according to the olde lawe of the land. And if anie thing from henceforth be done to the contrarie, it ſhall be voide in the lawe, and holden for errour.

Preſentment.

Errour.

Chap.4. Enquiries. Commiſſions. Iuſtices. Eſchetorſhip.

Item becauſe that commiſſions haue bene made and granted in diuerſe counties, at the procurement of certeine perſons, to enquire of certaine articles which commiſſioners haue made their enquiries in ſecrete places, and by people not ſufficient, and of their couin, more to their priuate profit then for the kings aduantage or of his people: It is aſſented and accorded, that from henceforth in all enquiries within the realme, commiſſions ſhall bee made to ſome of the iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, or iuſtices of aſſiſe, or iuſtices of the peace, with other of the moſt worthie of the countrie, as well for the kings profit as the commons, ſauing in the office of eſchetourſhip or thing that toucheth the ſame office.

Chap. 5. Eſchetor.

Item where as it is conteined in the ſtatutes ordeined for the common profite, of eſchetours, that none ſhall be eſchetour, vnleſſe he haue ſufficient lande, whereof he maie anſwere to the king and to his people: It is aſſented that no eſchetour ſhall be made, vnleſſe he haue xx. li. of land at the leaſt, or more in fee. And that they doe their offices in proper perſon. And if anie other bee, he ſhall be out.

Chap.6. Labourers and artificers. Commiſſion.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the ſtatute and ordinance made of labourers and artificers, be holden and kept and duelie executed. And therevpon commiſſions ſhall be made to the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie, to heare and determine the pointes of the ſaid ſtatute, and to award damages at the ſuite of the partie, according to the quantitie of the treſpas.

Chap.7. London. Vittailes.

Item it is accorded, that they of London and none other, ſhall ſell at retaile vitailes onlie, and that of the kings ſpeciall grace, till the next parliament, vpon condition, that it be well ruled and gouerned in the meane time to the common profit. And it is the kings minde, that no preiudice be done to aliens, which haue fraunchiſes by the kings charters.

Chap. 8. Wines Gaſcoines. Golde and ſiluer. Engliſhman. Ships.

Item it is aſſented and accorded, for the profit of the realme that no Engliſhman ſhall paſſe into Gaſcoine, to ſeech wines there, but they ſhall be brought into Englande by the Gaſcoins and other aliens, and therevpon defenſe ſhall bee made through the realme. And that no Engliſhman put in the hands of the ſaide Gaſcoines or aliens, nor thither ſende golde nor ſiluer nor other marchandiſes, thereof to buie wines to the vſe of Engliſhmen, vpon forfeiture of the golde and ſiluer or marchaundiſes ſo put in their handes or ſent. And that all the ſhippes of Englande and of Gaſcoine that commeth into Gaſcoine, ſhall be firſt freighted to bring wines into Englande before all other, and that no Engliſhman bargaine nor buie ſuch wines comming into Englande, before that they be put to lande, according to the forme of the ſaid ſtatutes thereof made. And it is ordinance ſhall hold place from the gule of Auguſt next enſuing forward. And that no warrant be made to anie Engliſhman to the contrarie.

Warrant:

Chap.9. Greene ware. Eſtretes.

Item where as the greene ware is ſent to the ſhiriffes, to leuie the kings debtes, the ſhiriffes miniſters do leuie the ſame by rolles and other remembraunces, and do not ſhew the eſtretes vnder the ſeale of the eſchequer, ſo that that is once lenied, commeth an other time in demaunde, becauſe that they doe not charge them fullie of that that is leuied, in diſceipt of the king and impoueriſhment of his people: It is ordeined and aſſented, that a man ſhall ſee the eſtretes ſealed, and that the ſame, which is paied, be totted, and the ſame eſtretes ſent to the ſhiriffes vpon the receit. And if anie ſhiriffe or miniſter do to the contrarie, hee ſhall be holden to anſwere to the partie, which thereof will him complaine, and yeelde his treble damages, and make fine to the king. And that he haue his ſuite as well before iuſtices of the peace, as before other iuſtices. And that the ſhiriffes he holden to accompt by the ſame eſtretes ſo totted, and by none other, and the ſame eſtretes ſhall not bee doubled by the ſhiriffes, but the copie of the eſtretes, in howe much they touch the franchiſes of lordes, ſhall be deliuered to the bailiffes of the fraunchiſes vnder the ſeale of the ſhiriffe And that the ſame bailiffes yeelde their accounte in the eſchequer by the ſame copies ſo deliuered. And alſo that no ſhiriffe vnderſhiriffe, nor ſhiriffeclarke abide in his office aboue a yeere, as it is ordeined of ſhiriffes by the ſtatute.

Shiriffes. Iuſtices of peace. Bailiffes of franchiſes.

Chap.10 Enfantes borne beyond the ſea.

Item vpon the petition put in the parliament by the commons, deſiring that infants borne beyond the ſea within the ſegnories of Caleis and elſe where, within the landes and ſegnories that perteine to our ſoueraigne lorde the king beyond the ſea, be as able and enheritable of their heritage in Englande, as other infants borne within the realme of England: It is accorded, that the common lawe and the ſtatute vpon the ſame point an other time made be holden.

Cap. 11.

Item for as much as diuerſe miſcheeues haue happened, becauſe that the panels of enqueſts, which haue bene taken before iuſtices by writ of Scire facias and other writs, haue not beene returned before the ſeſſions of the iuſtices at the Niſi prius and otherwiſe, ſo that the parties might not haue knowledge of the names of the perſons, which ſhoulde paſſe in the enqueſt, whereby diuerſe of the people haue bene diſherited: It is ordeined, that no enqueſt, but aſſiſes and deliueraunces of gayles, be taken by writ of Niſi prius, nor in other maner, at the ſuite of anie great or ſmall, before that the names of all that ſhall paſſe in the enqueſtes be returned in the courte. And that the ſhiriffes arraie the panels in aſſiſes foure daies, at the leaſt before the ſeſſions of the iuſtices, vpon paine of xx. li. ſo that the parties maie haue the viewe of the panels, if they the ſame demaunde. And as to the returne or anſwere of the bailiffes of fraunchiſes, they ſhall make their anſwere to the ſhiriffes ſixe daies before their ſeſſions, vpon the ſame paine. And in all maner of panels arraied by the ſhiriffes or bailiffes within fraunchiſe, Enqueſt. Niſi prius. Shiriffes. Bailiffes of franchiſes. Panels arraied.

ſhall be put the moſt ſubſtanciall people and worthie of faith, and not ſuſpect, which haue beſt knowledge of the trueth and moſt nigheſt.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xliii. yeere of king Edward the third.

Chap. 1. EDwarde by the grace of God, &c. to the ſhiriffes of Staffoꝛde greeting, &c. Where as late it was ordeined for the profite of the realme and eaſe of the marchauntes of Englande, that the ſtaple of wolles, wolfelles and lether ſhoulde be holden at Calies, and there it hath bene ſith the firſt daie of March, the thirtie ſeuen yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, and nowe becauſe that the peace an other time taken betweene the realmes of Englande and Fraunce is by the Frenchmen broken, and great perill might come to the goods of the realme there being and comming by the ſea to the ſame ſtaple out of Englande, if the ſame ſtaple were there continued, and thereupon the prelates, great men, and commons ſeeing the miſcheeues and perils which may happen to the goods and marchaundiſes, in this partie praie to the king in this preſent parliament holden at Weſtminſter at the vtas of the holie Trinitie, the fourtie three yeere of his reigne, thereupon to ordeine remedie: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, hauing thereupon full deliberation and aduiſement with great counſell, hath ordeined, that the ſtaples of Caleis, &c. ſhall be wholie put out, and the ſtaples of wolles, wolfelles and lether of the realme of Englande, ſhall bee holden in the places vnderwritten, that is to ſaie, at Newcaſtell, Kingſton vpon Hull, ſaint Botulfe, Yarmouth, Queneſburge, Weſtminſter, Cicheſter, Wincheſter, Exceſter, and Briſtowe. And the ſtaples of Irelande and of Wales ſhall be in the places where they were firſt ordeined. And moreouer it is ordeined, that all marchantes aliens and denizens maie freelie goe through Englande, Irelande, and Wales and buie and ſell wolles, wolfelles, and lether and all other marchandiſes at their will, without impechment or diſturbance, ſo that no wolles, wolfelles, nor lether ſhall paſſe out of the realme of Englande, Ireland, nor Wales, till they be brought to the ſtaples, and there weighed, coketted and cuſtomed. And that all the wolles that ſhall bee brought to the ſtaples at Weſtminſter, and Wincheſter, ſhall bee betwixt marchant and marchant, or marchants and other lawfullie weighed by the ſtandard. And euerie ſacke and ſarpler of the ſame wolles ſo weighed, ſealed vnder the ſeales of the maior of the ſtaple and of the conſtables, or maior and one of the conſtables. And alſo that all the wolles ſo weighed, and ſealed at the ſtaples, and lether and wolfelles that there ſhall come (the cuſtomes of the ſtaples thereof paied) ſhall be witneſſed by bill enſealed of the ſeales of the maior of the ſtaple & conſtables, or maior and one of the conſtables, and broght from Weſtminſter to the port of London, and from Wincheſter to the port of Southampton. And there the ſaide wolles ſhall be an other time weighed in the preſence of our cuſtomers & controllers aſſigned in the ſame ports. And an indenture ſhall be made betweene the maior of the ſtaple and the conſtables, or maior and one of the conſtables being in the ſaid ports, and our cuſtomers there, of all the wolles ſo weighed, and alſo of the lether and wolfelles, which ſhall come to the ſame ſtaple to paſſe there. And the ſame wolles, lether, wolfelles and all other wolles, well and lawfullie weighed, cocketted, and cuſtomed in the other portes and ſtaples aforeſaid, ſhall be brought out of the ſaid realme and landes by aliens, to what parties ſhall pleaſe them at their will, and not by denizens. And if anie denizen doe againſt the ſame, he ſhall incurre the forfeiture of the wolles, lether, and wolfelles ſo paſſed, and of impriſonment of his bodie by three yeeres, and moreouer be raunſomed at the kinges will. And thee ſhippe charged with the ſame marchaundiſes, to whom ſo euer hee bee, ſhall bee forfeite to the king.

Staples.

Marchants aliens.

Wolles wolfelles and lether.

Maior of the ſtaple.

Cuſtomers Cõtrollers.

Deniſen.

Shippe.

Chap. 2. Item where as in the parliament holden in the xlii. yeere, it was ordeined, that no Engliſhman ſhoulde paſſe into Gaſcoine to ſeech wines there, but that the wines ſhoulde be brought into England by the Gaſcoines and other aliens, and though that the ſaid ordinance hath bene by aſſay profitable to all the realme, neuertheleſſe at the requeſt of his deere beloued ſonne the prince, which hath often times complained, that his ſubſidies and cuſtomes of wines in his principalitie of Guion haue bene abridged and miniſhed, becauſe that Engliſhmen doe not come there to buie wines as they were wonte, and by ſo much a great part of the wines be not ſolde: The king will and graunteth, of the aſſent of the prelats, great men and commons, that all Engliſh men, Iriſhmen, & Welſhmen, that be not artificers, maie freelie paſſe into Gaſcoine, to ſech wines there, finding ſufficient ſuertie before his paſſage before ẏ maior, or bailiffes, where no maior is, of ẏ towne or port, where he ſhall paſſe, that he ſhall buie in Gaſcoine an hundred tunnes of wines and not leſſe of his proper goods and of others, and bring the ſame into Englande, Wales, or Irelande, and to no place elſe where. And if it bee otherwiſe done by anie Engliſhman, Welſhman, or Iriſhman, the wines and ſhippes, bringing the ſame wines, ſhall bee forfeite to the king, and euerie of them ſhall haue one yeeres impriſonment, and more ouer be raunſommed at the kings will. And if anie Engliſhman paſſe into Gaſcoine without finding ſuch ſuertie, hee ſhall incurre the forfeiture of all his goodes to the king. And the ſaide ſuerties ſhall be certified and returned in the kinges Chauncerie, by the ſaide maior and bailiffes, or by the bailiffes where no maior is, two times by yeere, that is to ſaie, at the vtas of Candelmas, and at the gule of Auguſt. And if anie maior or bailiffe ſuffer anie Engliſhman to paſſe till hee haue founde ſuch ſuertie, or they doe not certifie in the Chauncerie in the maner as is afore ſayde, they ſhall haue

Wines.

Gaſcoines

Maior.

Bailiffe.

Shippes.

Chauncery

Gaſcoines

one yéeres impriſonment of their bodie, and moreouer be raunſomed at the kings will. And it is not the minde of the king, the great men, nor of the commons, that the ordinance made of the ſaid wines, the ſaid xliii. yéere be repealed or adnulled, but ſhall abide in ſuſpence till a man may ſee what profit or dammage this preſent graunt hereafter ſhall do in the realme. And the king wil that the Gaſcoignes and their ſeruants, and all other, when ſo euer pleaſe them, may come with their wines into England, Wales and Ireland as fréely and in the maner as it was ordeined in the ſaid xliii. yéere, or in anie time before.

Chap. 3.

Botyler. Embracerie. Wines.

Item for as much as the great men and commons of the realme before this time and nowe in this preſent parliament haue greuouſly complained, of that the kinges botyler and his lieutenants in diuers places and portes of the realme, haue embraced and taken by colour of their office for the houſe and expenſes of the king, and by ſuch colour haue arreſted the wines of merchants brought into the ſaide realme, and holden them ſo long in arreſt, that the great men and commons and other of the realme may not thereof make their purueiance, nor merchants their profit, and often times by ſuch colour haue embraced and taken of them ſo manie tonnes of wine aboue that was néedefull for the king, that they haue commonly ſold the ſame, and thereof made their ſinguler profit as much as other merchants and vinteners in the realme, to the great dammage of the ſaid merchants and other, whereupon the king deſiring to ordeine remedie, of the aſſent of the great men and commons in this preſent parliament hath ordeined, that the botyler nor none of his lieutenants, ſhall not buy, embrace nor take by colour of their office nor in other maner to their proper vſe nor of others, more wines for the houſe & expences of the king than they haue in commaundement, vpon peine of impriſonment of their bodies, and to be raunſomed at the kings will, and as much as they ſhall take by force of the ſaid warrant, ſhall be taken within x. dayes, and (that done) the merchants of the ſaid wines may, and it ſhall be lawful to them of the remenant of the ſaid wines an other time to make their profit, notwithſtanding any arreſt made vpon ſuch wines by the botyler or anie of his lieutenants aforeſaid.

Chap. 4.

Pardon of vert and venyſon.

Item becauſe that the commons of the ſaid realme haue praied the king, that it may pleaſe him, to pardon them of his ſpeciall grace all the treſpaſſes done in the forreſtes in times paſt: The king hauing regard to the great aides, which his ſaide commons haue often times done to him, and the charges which they in ſundrie manners haue ſuſteined, of his ſpeciall grace hath releaſed and pardoned to his ſaid commons, and to euerie of them, euerie maner of treſpas of vert and veniſon done before this time in his forreſtes, and the price and forfeiture of vert, and alſo all the fines, amerciaments, and ranſomes made or to be made by this cauſe. And if anie of the ſaid commons at this time be arreſted, impriſoned, or let to mainprice for ſuch cauſe, they ſhall be incontinently releaſed and deliuered frée and quite, and their mainpernors alſo, except expreſſely the Juſtices, agiſtours, chiefe kéepers of forreſts, parkes and chaces, as well in fée as otherwiſe, and all forreſters, and verdours: regardours and agiſtours, lieutenants of kéepers, vnderforreſters and all their ſeruants and ſellers of woods and vnderwoods, and all other miniſters of the kings forreſtes, parkes and chaces, whom the king will not to be compriſed in this pardon. And therfore we commaund thée, that thou do the ſaide ordinances to be cryed & publiſhed in cities, boroughes, & portes of the ſea, and all other places within the bailiwike as well within franchiſe as without, in places where to thée ſhall ſéeme conuenient, and the ſame do to be firmely holden and kept according to the forme and tenor of the ſame. Dated, &c.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter the xlv. yeere of King Edward the third.

Chap. 1.

Charter.

AT the parliament ſommoned at Weſtminſter, the Monday in the firſt weeke in Lent, the xlv. yéere of the reigne of king Edward the third: It is ordeined, that the great charter & the charter of the forreſt be holden and kept in all points.

Chap. 2.

Weares. Milles. Stankes. Kydels.

Item where as in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter in the xxv. yere of the king that nowe is, amongeſt other things it was ordeined, that becauſe the common paſſage of ſhippes and boates in the great riuers of England, were often diſturbed by the leuying of weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes and kydels, which were leuied and ſet vp in the time of the kings graundfather, in great dammage of the people: It was accorded and ſtabliſhed, that all the weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes and kydels, which were leuied and ſet vp in the time aforeſaid, and after in ſuch riuer whereby the ſhippes and boates were diſturbed, that they might not paſſe, as they were wont, ſhall be cut and wholly pulled downe without releuing. And thereupon writtes ſhall be made and ſent to the ſhirifes of places, where ſhall be néedefull, to ſuruey, enquire, and to make thereof execution, and alſo that the iuſtices be thereupon aſſigned at all times that néede ſhall require. And now at the grieuous complaint of the great men and the commons made in this preſent parliament, complaining by their petition, that the ſaid ſtatute is not duely executed nor kept, according to the tenor of the ſame: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaide ſtatute in this point be holden & kept after the effect of the ſame. Joyning thereto, that if anie ſuch anoniances be done, it ſhalbe pulled down by due proceſſe conteined in the ſaid ſtatute, & he that ſhal releuie ſuch annoiance, & thereof be duely attainted, he ſhal incurre the peine of an C. markes to the king, to be leuied by eſtretes out of the eſchequer. And ſuch law ſhall holde of the annoiance made by enhauncing of ſuch weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes and kydels, as by the newe leuying.

Anoiances

Chap.3. Item at the complaint of the ſaid great men and commons, ſhewing by their petition, that where as they ſell their great wood of the age of xx. yéeres or of greater age, to merchants to their own profit, or in aide of the king in his warres, perſons and vicars of holie church do implead and drawe the ſaide merchants in the ſpirituall court for the tythes of the ſaide wood in the name of this worde called Silua ſedua, whereby they cannot ſell their woodes to the verie valour, to the great dammage of them and of the realme: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that a prohibition in this caſe ſhall bee graunted, and vpon the ſame an attachement as it hath beene vſed before this time.

Silua ſedua. Prohibition. Attachment.

Chap.4. Impoſitiõ. Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that no impoſition or charge ſhall be put vpon wools, wolfelles, and lether, other than the cuſtome and ſubſidie granted to the king, in no partie, without the aſſent of the parliament, and if anie be, it ſhall be repealed and holden for none.

Here beginneth the Statutes made at Weſtminſter the xlvii. yeere of King Edwarde the thirde.

Chap. 1. Ray clothes. Cloth of colour.

FIrſt it is accorded, that the clothes of Ray to be made in Englande ſhall haue the length of xxviii. yardes meaſured by the liſt, and the breadth of vi. quarters, and the cloth of colour, of the length of xxvi. yardes meaſured by the back, and the breadth of vi. quarters, at the leaſt, and that the halfe cloth, be it of colour or of ray, ſhall holde the length and breadth aforeſaide after the rate. And if anie cloth be put to ſale after the gule of Auguſt, that is not of the ſaide aſſiſe, it ſhall be forfeit to the king, in whoſe hands ſo euer it be founde, ſauing the clothes, which people make for their owne vſe, or for their meinie, or to ſell to leſſe people, which ſhall not be forfeit, although they be not of ſuch meaſure.

Chap. 2. Scottiſh grote. Item it is accorded, that the Scottiſh grote ſhall be currant for the valour of iii.d. and of leſſe money, according to the quantitie. And if percaſe this Scottiſh money be impeyred, the money ſo impeyred ſhall be ſet at a leſſe price, after the quantitie of the impeiring.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter the L. yeere of King Edward the thirde.

BY the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and other aſſembled at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the xv. of ſaint Hillarie, the yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is of England the l. and of Fraunce the xxxvii. the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king much deſiring, that the peace of his land be well kept, and his faithfull ſubiectes in quietneſſe and tranquillitie mainteined, hath for ſo much made and ſtabliſhed certeine ordinances, and alſo graunted certeine graces and pardons to his commons of England in the fourme as hereafter followeth, which ordinances, pardons and graces he will, that to the honour of God and of holy church, and quietneſſe of the ſame his people, they be firmely kept and holden in all pointes.

Chap. 1. Liberties. FIrſt it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that holy church haue all her liberties and franchiſes in quietnes without impechement or other diſturbance.

Cap.2. Charter. Item that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt bee firmely holden and kepte in all pointes.

Cap.3. Item our ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the great charges and loſſes, which his ſaide people hath had and ſuffred in times paſt, aſwell by the warres, as otherwiſe by the peſtilence of the people, moreyne of the beaſtes, and the fruites of the land, commonly failed by euill yéeres in times paſt, whereof our ſoueraigne lord the king hath great compaſſion, and for ſo much willing in this parliament now this preſent yéere to do them greater grace than euer he did before, for as much as this yéere is rightfully the yéere of his iubilie, or the yéere of grace of his rigne aforeſaid accompliſhed, whereby his ſaid commons may the better recomfort themſelfe, & thereby haue the greater courage to do well hereafter, and alſo our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king hauing in memorie, how that in the yéere of his reigne of England the xxxvi. which was the l. yéere of his birth, he made a grace and pardon to his ſaid commons of England, pardoning them of all eſcapes of felons and cattals of felons and fugitiues, treſpaſſes, negligences, miſpriſions, ignorances, & many other articles of the eyre and other things fallen and chaunced within the ſame realme of England, whoſe puniſhment lieth in fine or in raunſome, or in other pecuniar peines, or impriſonment, or in amerciament of the commons of townes or of ſinguler perſons, or in charge of their fréehold, that neuer treſpaſſed, as heires, or landtenants, of eſchetours, ſhiriffes, or coroners at the kings ſuite, willing and graunting an other time, that the ſame his commons ſhould be thereof vtterly diſcharged till the xiii. day of October, the ſaide xxxvi. yéere, at which date the ſame pardon was made, as more plainly is conteined in the ſame: Will and graunteth to the honour of God, which ſo long hath ſuffred him to reigne ouer the ſame his people in proſperitie, that the ſame his commons of England, and euerie ſinguler perſon of the ſame of what eſtate or condition that they be, as well ſmall as great, ſhall haue now & enioy all ſuch graces and pardons of all things compriſed within the ſaide pardon fallen or chaunced from the ſaide xiii. day of October, till the beginning of this preſent l. yéere. And moreouer our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king hath pardoned and releaſed to his ſaide commons, all manner of giftes, alienations, and purchaſes made by them or anie of them, of landes and tenementes holden of him in chiefe, without the kings licence, and all maner of entries, if they haue made anie in their heritage after the death of their anceſters, without ſuing them out of the kings hands by due proceſſe, till the beginning of the ſame fiftie yéere except thoſe tenements, which be aliened into mortmaine, and thoſe tenements alſo, which now be ſeaſed into the kings hands becauſe of alienations and entries, and hath whollie pardoned and releaſed all fines, amercements, iſſues, forfeites, reliefes, and eſcuages made, fallen or chanced within the ſame realme of England. And alſo all maner of debts and accompts till the fortie yéere of his raigne. And alſo all maner of actions and demaundes, which he hath or maie haue by him ſole, or els ioyntly with other perſons, againſt any of his ſaid commons, aſwell for the cauſe of the ſame debts and accompts, as otherwiſe becauſe of paſſage of wolles, lether, and wolfelles or other marchandiſes to the parties beyond the ſea, againſt the defenſes and ordinances thereof made, aſwell priuilie and in the name of the marchants, or by colour of letters patents granted at Drodagh or elſwhere beyond the ſea, as by anie other waie for theſe cauſes, and aſwell of the time of Walter of Charlton and his felowes late fermours of the ſubſidie and cuſtomes, as in other times till the fortie yéere of his ſaid raigne of England, except all the debts that be iudged by ſeaſon of lands or tenements, or to be determined in other maner, and except the debts that be now at this time due to him by anie that haue bene ſhirifes, eſchetours, collectours of cuſtomes and ſubſidies, diſmes and quinzimes, fermours of manours, vitailers, and other that haue bene in great offices with our ſoueraigne lord the king in times paſt, which be yet in plaine life. And alſo our ſoueraigne lord the king hath generallie pardoned them the ſuite of his peace, for all maner of felonies done or committed before the beginning of the ſaid fiftie yéere, with the outlagaries if anie be in them by ſuch encheſons pronounced. Except alwaies treaſons, murders, common thefts, and alſo rapes of women. But alwayes it is the kings minde, that ſir William Wikam biſhop of Wincheſter ſhall nothing enioy of the ſaid graces, grants and pardons, nor in no wiſe be compriſed within the ſame, nor that none ſhall enioy anie thing of the ſaid graces or pardons of felonies, vnleſſe they purſue their charters in eſpeciall betwixt this and the Natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt next comming.

Pardon.

Cha. 4. Conſultation. Prohibition.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed of the ſaid aſſent, that where as a conſultation is once duelie granted vpon a prohibition made to the iudge of holie church, that yͤ ſame iudge maie procéede in the cauſe by vertue of the ſame conſultation, notwithſtanding anie other prohibition therevpon to him deliuered. Prouided alwayes, that the matter in the libel of the ſaid cauſe be not engroſſed, enlarged, nor otherwiſe changed.

Cap. 5. Holy church. Liberties. Colluſion.

Item becauſe that complaint is made to our ſoueraigne lord the king by the clergie of his ſaid realme of England, that aſwell diuers prieſts, bearing yͤ ſwéete bodie of our lord Ieſu Chriſt to ſicke people, and their clerkes with them, as otherwiſe diuers other perſons of holie church, whiles they attend to diuine ſeruices in the churches, churchyards, & other places dedicate to God, be ſundrie times taken and arreſted by authoritie royall, and commandement of other temporall lords, in offence of God and of the liberties of holie church, and alſo in diſturbance of deuine ſeruices aforeſaid: the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, who would be ſore diſpleaſed, if anie did in ſuch maner, will and granteth, and defendeth vpon his grieuous forfeiture, that none do the ſame from henceforth, ſo that colluſion or feined cauſe be not found in anie of the ſaid perſons of holie church in this behalfe.

Chap. 6. Giftes made by colluſion.

Item becauſe that diuers people inherite of diuers tenements, borowing diuers goods in money or in marchandiſe of diuers people of the realme, do giue their tenements and cattels to their friends, by colluſion thereof to haue the profits at their will, and afterward do flée to the franchiſe of Weſtminſter or S. Martins the graund of London, or other ſuch priuileged places, and there do liue a great time with an high countenance, of an other mans goods and profit of the ſaid tenements and cattels, till the ſaid creditours ſhall be bound to take a ſmall parcell of their debt, and releaſe the remnant: It is ordeined and aſſented, that if it maie be found, that ſuch giftes bee ſo made by colluſion, that the ſaid creditours ſhall haue execution of the ſaid tenements and cattels as if no ſuch gift had bene made.

Chap. 7. Wollen clothes.

Item it is ordeined and defended by our ſoueraigne lord the king, that no wollen clothes ſhall be brought in to no partie out of the realme of England, before that they be fulled, nor that no ſubſidie be thereof demaunded nor paide, before that they be fulled.

Chap. 8. Subſidie. Aulnage. Clothes called Friſeware.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no ſubſidie nor aulnage ſhall be paide, leuied nor demaunded of clothes called friſeware, which be made in Ireland, or otherwiſe in England of Iriſh wolle brought within the realme of England, becauſe that thoſe clothes do not conteine the length and breadth ordeined by the ſtatute, and for ſo much they ought not to be compriſed in the ſtatutes late made of rate clothes and coloured clothes.

Thus endeth the ſtatutes made in the time of the noble king Edward the third.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at VVeſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the raigne of king Richard the ſecond, after the conqueſt of England.

RIchard by the grace of God king of England and of France and lord of Ireland to the ſhirife of Northamton, gréeting. Know thou that to the honour of God and reuerence of holie church for to nouriſh peace, vnitie and concord in all the parties within our realme of England (which we doe much deſire) by the whole aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, and barons, of this our realme at the inſtance & eſpeciall requeſt of the commons of our realme aſſembled at our parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xv. daie of S. Hillarie, in the firſt yéere of our raigne, we haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed certaine ſtatutes in amendement and reléeſe of this our ſaid realme, in maner and forme following.

Chap. 1.
Charter.

FIrſt it is agréed and ſtabliſhed, that holie church ſhall haue and enioy all her rights, liberties, and franchiſes wholy and without blemiſh. And that the great charter, which at the requeſt of the ſaid commons was read in the ſaid parliament, & alſo the charter of the foreſt, & all other good ſtatutes and prouiſions made in the time of the progenitours of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, and not repealed: ſhalbe obſerued and firmelie kept in all points.

Chap. 2.
Peace.
Iuſtice.

Item our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, greatlie deſiring the tranquillitie and quietnes of his people, will and ſtraitlie commandeth, that the peace within his realme of England be ſurely obſerued and kept, ſo that all his lawfull ſubiects maie from henceforth ſafelie and peaceablie go come and dwell after the law and vſage of the realme. And that iuſtice and right be indifferentlie miniſtred to euerie of his ſaid ſubiects.

Chap. 3.
Purueiours.
Prelates.
Clerkes.

Item that the ſtatutes late made in the time of the noble king Edward grandfather to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is for purueiours and buyers ſhall be firmelie obſerued and kept in all points. And alſo becauſe that prelates and clerkes maie not thereof commence their ſuites againſt anie by waie of crime (as the ſaid ſtatutes requireth) all prelates and clerkes ſhall from henceforth haue their actions againſt all ſuch purueiours and buiers, by action of treſpaſſe, and recouer their treble damage.

Cha. 4.
Quarel.
Maintenance.

Item is is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, and the king our ſoueraigne lord ſtraitly commandeth, that none of his councellours, officers, or ſeruants, nor none other perſon within the realme of England, of whatſoeuer eſtate or condition they be, ſhall not from henceforth take nor ſuſteine anie quarell by maintenance, in the countrie nor elſwhere, vpon a grieuous paine, that is to ſay, the ſaid counſellers and the kings great officers vpon a peine, which ſhalbe ordeined by the king himſelfe, by the aduiſe of the lords of his realme, and other leſſe officers and ſeruants of the king, aſwel in the eſchequer & al his other courts as of his owne meinie, vpon peine to loſe their offices and ſeruices, and to be impriſoned, and from thence to be ranſomed at the kings will euerie of them after their degrée, eſtate, and deſert. And all other perſons through the realme, vpon peine of impriſonment, and to be ranſomed as the other aforeſaid.

Cap. 5.
Eſchequer.
Debt.
Tailes.
Clerke deſchequer.

Item it is ordeined, that all ſtatutes and ordinances made before this time, of officers of the eſchequer, be holde and firmelie kept in all points. And moreouer it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that at what time anie debts be paide, and the tailes thereof made, reioyned and allowed in the ſaid eſchequer, that this debt ſhall neuer renne in demande, & if it ſo happen that after the ſame allowance made there, anie clerke of the eſchequer make anie writte or proceſſe, for to proue the ſame debt of new, and that duelie proued, the ſame clerke ſhall loſe his office, and haue impriſonment, till he hath made grée to the partie by ſo much as he is endamaged, if anie will ſue, by the diſcretion of the treaſurer and the barons of the eſchequer.

Chap. 6.
Villaines.
Landtenants.
Booke of Domeſdaie.
Iuſtices of peace.

Item at the grieuous complaint of the lords and commons of the realme, aſwell men of holie church as other, made in the parliament of that that in manie ſegniories & parties of the realme of England the villaines and landtenants in villenage, which owe ſeruices and cuſtomes to their lords, haue now late withdrawne, and do dailie withdrawe their ſeruices and cuſtomes due to their ſaid lords, by comfort and procurement of other their counſellers, mainteiners, & abbetters in the countrie, which hath taken hyer and profite of the ſaid villaines and landtenants, by colour of certeine exemplifications made out of the booke of Domeſdaie of the manours & townes where they haue bene dwelling, and by vertue of the ſame exemplifications, and their euill interpretations of the ſame, they affirme them to be quite and vtterlie diſcharged of all maner ſeruage, due aſwell of their bodie as of their ſaid tenures, and will not ſuffer anie diſtreſſe or other iuſtice to be made vpon them, but do manace the miniſters of their lords of life and of member, and (which more is) gathereth them ſelfe together in great routes, and agréen by ſuch confederacie, that euerie one ſhall aide other to reſiſt their lords with ſtrong hand: and much other harme they do in ſundrie maner, to the great damage of their ſaid lords, and euill example to other to begin ſuch riotes: ſo that if due remedie be not the rather prouided vpon the ſame rebelles, greater miſchiefe (which God prohibit) maie thereof ſpring through the realme: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that yͤ lords which féelen them ſelues grieued, ſhall haue ſpeciall commiſſions vnder yͤ great ſeale to the iuſtices of peace, or to other ſufficient perſons, to enquire of all ſuch rebels, and of their offences, and their counſellers, procurers, maintainers, and abbetters, and to impriſon all thoſe that thereof ſhall be endited before them, aſwell for the time paſt, as for the time to come, without deliuering them out of priſon by mainpriſe, baile, or otherwiſe, without aſſent of their lordes, till they thereof be attainted or acquite. And that the ſame iuſtices haue power to heare and determine aſwell at the kings ſuite as at the ſuite of the partie. Prouided alwayes, that if the ſaid villaines or land tenants, rebelles, be thereof attainted at the ſuite of the ſaide lordes, they ſhall in no wiſe be deliuered, till they haue made a fine to the king, and alſo they to haue the aſſent of their lordes aforeſaid. And as to the ſaide counſellers, procurers, mainteiners and abbettors, ſuch proceſſe and in like maner ſhall be made of them, which thereof ſhall be attainted, ſo that they be in no wiſe deliuered from priſon, till they haue made fine to the king, and grée to the lordes ſo greeued, according as their eſtate and the quantitie of their offence doth require, if the ſame lordes will ſue againſt them by writte or by bill, ſauing alwaies, as to the ſaid fines, the fraunchiſes and liberties of lordes, which haue fines and amerciaments of their tenants. And as the ſaide exemplifications made and purchaſed as afore is ſaide, which were cauſed to come in the parliament, and to be declared in the ſaide parliament, that the ſame may not nor ought to auaile or holde place to the ſaide villaines or landtenants, as to the franchiſe of their bodies, nor to change the condition of their tenure and cuſtomes of olde time due, nor to do preiudice to the ſaide lordes, to haue their ſeruices and cuſtomes as they were wont of olde time. And it is ordeined, that vpon this declaration, the ſaid lordes ſhall haue letters patents vnder the great ſeale, as many and ſuch as they ſhall néede, if they the ſame require.

Exemplifications.

Chap. 7. Retinue. Liuerie.

Item becauſe that diuerſe people of ſmall gariſon of lande or rent or other poſſeſſions doe make great retinue of people, aſwell of eſquyers as of other, in manie parties of the realme, giuing to them hattes and other liuerie of one ſuite by yeere, taking againe towardes them the valour of the ſame liuerie, or percaſe the double valour by ſuch couenant and aſſurance, that euerie of them ſhall maintaine other in all quarels be they reaſonable or vnreaſonable, to the great miſchiefe and oppreſſion of the people: It is ordeined and aſſented, that the ſtatutes and ordinances made in ſuch caſe before this time be kept and duely executed. And moreouer the king doth ſtraitly defende, that from hence footh no ſuch liuerie be giuen to anie man for maintenance of quarels, nor other confederacies, vpon paine of inpriſonment and gréeuous forfeiture to the king. And the Iuſtices of aſſiſes ſhall diligently enquire of all them that gather them togither in fraternities by ſuch liuerie to do maintenance, and they which thereof ſhall be found guiltie, ſhall be duely puniſhed euerie man after the quantitie of his deſert.

Maintenance.

Fraternities.

Chap. 8. Protectiõ.

Item it is aſſented, that from hence foorth no protection with the clauſe of Volumus be allowed before anie Iudge for vitailes taken or brought vpon the voyage or ſeruice, whereof the protection maketh mention, nor alſo in plées of treſpas, or of other contract made or perpetrate after the date of the ſame protection.

Chap. 9. Maintenance.

Item becauſe it is complained to the king, that manie people of his ſaid realme aſwel great as ſmall hauing right and true title aſwel to lands, tenements, and rents, as in other perſonall actions, be wrongfully delayed of their right and actions, by that that the occupiers or defendants be maintained and ſuſteined in their wrong: do commonly make giftes and feoffements of their lands and tenements, which be in debate, and of their other goods and cattals, to lordes and other great men of the realme, againſt whome the ſaide purſuants for great manace that is made to them may not nor dare not make their purſuites: And alſo on the other part, complaint is made to the king, that oftentimes manie people do diſſeiſe other of their tenements, and anone after the diſſeiſin done, they make diuers alienations and feoffementes, ſometime to lordes and great men of the realme, to haue maintenance, and ſometime to manie perſons, of whoſe names the diſſeiſies can haue no knowledge, to the intent to deferre and delay by ſuch fraudes, the ſaid diſſeiſies and the other demaundants and their heires of their recouerie, to the great noyance and oppreſſion of the people: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that from hence foorth no gift or feoffement of lands, tenements, or goods be made by ſuch fraude and maintenance. And if anie be in ſuch wiſe made, they ſhall be holden for none and of no value. And the ſaide diſſeiſies ſhall from henceforth haue their recouerie againſt the firſt diſſeiſors, aſwell of the landes and tenements, as of their double dammages, without hauing regarde to ſuch alienations, ſo that the diſſeiſies commence their ſuites within the yéere next after the diſſeiſin done. And it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſame ſtatute ſhall holde place in euerie other action in plée of lande, where ſuch feoffements be made by fraude or colluſion, to haue their recouerie againſt the firſt ſuch feoffour. And it is to wite, that this ſtatute oweth to be vnderſtand, where ſuch feoffours thereof taken the profites.

Gifts of lands by fraud. Alienation. Diſſeiſies. Feoffements. Fraud. Colluſion.

Cap. 10. Pardon.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king, deſiring the quietnes of his people, will and graunteth, of the aſſent aforeſaid, that the general pardons and graces, wich the noble king Edward, grandfather to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, made to his people of England in the l. yéere of his reigne, ſhall holde place, and be allowed in the eſchequer aforeſaide and els where, for all people compriſed within the ſame pardons and graces, aſwell of ſhippes, vitailes, artillarie, armour, and veſſels, not expreſſed ſpecially in the ſame, as of al debtes and accompts & other things there compriſed in generall.

Cap. 11. Shirife.

Item it is ordeined, that none that hath béene ſhirife of anie countie by an whole yéere, ſhall be within iii. yéeres next enſuing choſen againe, or put in the ſame office of ſhirife, if there be other ſufficient in the ſaid counties of poſſeſſions and goods to anſwere to the king and his people.

Cap. 12. Flete. Warden de Flete. Priſoner. Reconiſance.

Item where as diuers people, at the ſuit of the partie commaunded to the priſon of the Flete by iudgement giuen in the kings courts be often times ſuffered to go at large by the wardeine of the ſaid priſon, ſometime by mainpriſe or by baile, and ſometime without anie mainpriſe with a baſton of the Fléete, and do go in the countrie about their merchandiſes and other their buſines, and be long out of priſon nightes and daies, without their aſſent, at whoſe ſuite they be iudged, & without their grée, thereof made: Whereby a man can neuer come by his right and recouerie againſt ſuch priſoners, to the great miſchiefe and noyance of manie people: It is ordeined and aſſented, that from henceforth no Warden of the Fleete ſhall ſuffer anie priſoner there being by iudgement at the ſuite of the partie, to go out of priſon by mainpriſe, baile, or by baſtone, without making grée to the ſaid parties of that whereof they were iudged, vnleſſe it be by writte or other commaundement of the king, vpon peine to loſe his office, and the kéeping of the ſaide priſon. And moreouer, if anie ſuch Wardeine from henceforth be attainted by due proceſſe, that he hath ſuffred or let ſuch priſoner to go at large againſt this ordinance, then the pleintifes ſhal haue their recouerie againſt the ſame Wardeins, by writ of debt. And alſo it is ordeined, that if anie at the ſuite of the partie iudged to an other priſon for debte, treſpas, or other quarell and will confeſſe him ſelfe voluntarily and by a feyned cauſe debter to the king, and by ſo much to be iudged to the ſaide priſon of the Flete, there to haue greater ſuite of priſon than elſwhere, and ſo to delaye the partie of his recouerie, the ſame recogniſance ſhall be there receiued, and if he be not debtor to the king of record, his bodie ſhal incontinently, be remaunded to the priſon where he was before, there to remaine till he hath made grée to the ſaid partie, and the ſame grée made, he ſhall be immediatly ſent againe to the Fleete, there to abide, till he hath made grée to the king of his recogniſance aforeſaide.

Cap. 13. Tithes. Liberties. Obligatiõ. Dureſſe. Enditements. Procurors Enditors. Iuſtices.

Item the prelates and clergie of this realme doth greatly complaine them, of that that people of holy church, purſuing in the ſpirituall court for their tythes and their other cauſes, which of right ought and of olde times were wont to perteine to the ſame ſpirituall court, and that the iudges of holie church, hauing coniſance in ſuch cauſes, and other perſons thereof medling according to the lawe, be maliciouſly and vnduely by this cauſe endited, impriſoned, and by ſecular power horribly oppreſſed and alſo enforced with violence by others and greeuous obligations, and manie other manners vnduely compelled to leue and ſeaſe vtterly of the thinges aforeſaide, againſt the liberties and franchiſes of holie church: Wherefore it is aſſented, that all ſuch obligations, made or to be made by dureſſe of violence, ſhall be of no valour. And as to thoſe that by malice do procure ſuch enditementes, and to be the ſame enditours, after that the ſame endities be ſo acquit, ſuch procurors ſhall haue and incurre the ſame peine that is conteined in the ſaide ſtatute of Weſtminſter ſeconde, of thoſe which procure falſe appeales to bée made. And the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes or other Iuſtices, before whome ſuch endytées ſhall bée acquyt, ſhall haue power to enquire of ſuch procurours and endytours, and duely to puniſh them after their deſert.

Cap. 14. Tythes. Auerment.

Item it is accorded, that at what time that anie perſon of the holye church be drawen in plée in the ſeculer court for his owne tythes taken, by the name of goods taken away, and he which is ſo drawen in plée maketh an exception, or alledgeth that the ſubſtance and ſuite of the buſineſſe is onelie vpon tithes, due of right and of poſſeſſion to his church, and to an other his benefice: that in ſuch caſe the generall auerment ſhall not be taken without ſhewing ſpecially, howe the ſame was his lay cattall.

Cap. 15. Holy church. Fraud. Colluſion.

Item becauſe that the prelates do complaine them ſelfe, that aſwell beneficed people of holie church, as other be arreſted and drawen out as well of cathedrall churches as of other churches and their churchyardes, and ſometime whiles they be intending to diuine ſeruices, and alſo in other places, although they be bearing the bodie of our lorde Ieſus Chriſt to ſicke perſons, and ſo arreſted and drawen out, be bound and brought to priſon, againſt the libertie of holy church: It is ordeined, that if anie miniſter of the king or other, do arreſt anie perſon of holie church, by ſuch manner, and thereof be duely conuict, he ſhall haue impriſonment, and thereof be raunſomed at the kings will, and make grée to the parties ſo arreſted. Prouided alwaies, that the ſaide people of holie church ſhall not holde them within the churches or ſanctuaries by fraude or colluſion in anie manner, And therefore wée commaund, that thou doe all the ſaide ſtatutes to be cryed, &c.

Here beginneth the Statutes made at Glouceſter, the ſecond yeere of King Richard the ſecond.

OUr ſoueraigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at Glouceſter the Wedneſday next after the feaſt of Saint Luke, the ſecond yéere of his reigne, amongeſt other things there aſſented and accorded, hath made certeine ſtatutes and ordinances, as wel for the common profit of the realme, as for the maintenance of the peace of his ſaid realme, in the forme following.

Chap. 1. FIrſt becauſe that before this time in the time of the noble king Edward, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lord the King that now is, in his parliaments holden at Yorke & Weſtminſter, & alſo in this preſent parliament, great compleint hath béene made to our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde, of that that in manie cities, boroughes, ports of the ſea, & other places within the realme of England, great damages and outrageous grieuances haue bene and yet be done to the king and to all his realme by the citizens, burgeſſes and other people of cities, boꝛoughes and other townes and places afoꝛeſaid, which haue not ſuffreed, noꝛ yet will ſuffer, marchants ſtrangers, noꝛ other, that do bꝛing, carie, oꝛ conuey by ſea oꝛ by land wines, auoir de poys, ſuſtenance vitailes oꝛ other things vendible, pꝛofitable, and neceſſarie, aſwell foꝛ the king, his pꝛelates and loꝛds, as foꝛ all the commonaltie of his land, to ſell, oꝛ deliuer the ſaid wines, ſuſtenance, vitailes, noꝛ other things vendible, to anie other then to them of the ſame cities, boꝛoughes, poꝛtes of the ſea, and other places, to which ſuch wines, ſuſtenance, vitailes oꝛ other things vendible were and be bꝛought, caried oꝛ conueied and by ſo much thoſe things haue bene and yet be ſolde and ſet to the king, to his loꝛdes, and to all his people, by the hands of the citizens, burgeſſes and other people deniſens, to the great and exceſſiue dearth ouer that they ſhould haue bene, if the marchants ſtrangers and other, which bꝛing ſuch things into yͤ realme, might fréelie haue ſold them to whom they would: noꝛ alſo would not, noꝛ yet will ſuffer the marchants ſtrangers, that commeth oꝛ would come within the realme to buie wolles and other marchandiſes growing within the ſame realme, to go, trauaile, and marchandiſe, oꝛ abide fréely as they were wont to do, to the great damage of the king, of the pꝛelates, of the loꝛds, and of al the realme, and againſt the common pꝛofit, and againſt the ſtatutes and oꝛdinances therof made in times paſt in the ſaid two parliaments: Our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king conſidering cléerelie the conuning of marchants ſtrangers within the realme, to be verie pꝛofitable foꝛ many cauſes to all the realme, by the aſſent of the pꝛelates, dukes, earles, barons, and of the commons of his realme, hath oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that al marchants aliens, of what realmes, countries, oꝛ ſegnioꝛies, that they come, which be of yͤ amitie of yͤ king ⁊ of his realme, may from henceforth ſafelie and fréely come within the realme of England, ⁊ in all maner cities, boꝛoughs, poꝛtes of the ſea, feires, markets oꝛ other places within the ſame realme, within franchiſe ⁊ without ⁊ abide with their goods and all maner marchandiſes vnder yͤ ſafegard ⁊ pꝛotection of yͤ king, as long as ſhall pleaſe them, without diſturbance oꝛ denying of anie perſon. And that as well thoſe marchants aliens ⁊ denizens ⁊ euerie of them, that wil buie oꝛ ſel coꝛne, fleſh, fiſh, ⁊ al maner other vitailes and ſuſtenance, and alſo all maner of ſpiceries, fruite, furre, and all maner of ſmall wares, as ſilke, gold wire, oꝛ ſiluer wier, couerchiefes, ⁊ other ſuch ſmall wares, may from henceforth freelie and without denying oꝛ anie maner diſturbannce as wel in the citie of London as in all cities, boꝛoughs poꝛtes of the ſea, feires, markets, and other places within the realme, ſell and buie in groſſe ⁊ by percels to whom and of whom them pleaſe, denizen oꝛ foꝛeine, except the kings enemies. And except that all maner of wines, aſwell ſwéete as other ſhall be ſold by yͤ ſaid ſtrangers in groſſe and by whole veſſels, as they be bꝛought into the realme, and not at retaile by anie in the ſaid cities, boꝛoughs, and other townes, franchiſed, but onelie by the inhabitants ⁊ frée men in the ſame. And as to all other great wares, as cloth of golde and of ſiluer, ſilke, ſendall, naparſe, linen cloth, canuas and of other ſuch great wares, and alſo all maner of other great marchandiſes, not aboue expꝛeſſed, whatſoeuer they be from henceforth as well aliens as denizens, as well in the citie of London as in other cities, boꝛoughs, poꝛtes of the ſea, townes, feires, markets, and elſewhere through the ſaid realme, within franchiſe and without maie ſell the ſame in groſſe to euerie perſons foꝛeine oꝛ denizen that will buie the ſame fréely and without anie denying, except to the kings enemies, aſwell by the bale, cloth, oꝛ by the whole péeces at their pleaſure, and not at retaile, vpon peine of foꝛfeiture of the ſame marchandiſes, but onely the citizens and burgeſſes in their owne cities ⁊ boꝛoughes, ⁊ other good townes franchiſed, to whom and to none other ſtrang marchant of their franchiſe they may ⁊ it ſhalbe lawfull to them without impechment to vnfolde, vndo ⁊ cut in the ſame their pꝛoper cities and boꝛoughes, the great marchandiſes, and other great wares afoꝛeſaid, ⁊ aſwell the ſame as wines and their marchandiſes, there to ſell in groſſe and at retaile at their pleaſure, paying all the cuſtomes and ſubſidies due, notwithſtanding anie ſtatutes, oꝛdinances, charters, iudgements, allowances, cuſtomes, and vſages made oꝛ ſuffered to the contrarie: which charters and franchiſes, if anie there be, they be vtterly repealed and adnulled, as a thing made, vſed oꝛ granted againſt the common pꝛofite oꝛ oppꝛeſſion of the people. Sauing alwayes to pꝛelates and loꝛds of the realme whollie their liberties and franchiſes, that they maie make their puruciances and buyings of vitailes and of other their neceſſaries, as they were wont to do in old time, and ſauing that the oꝛdinances made befoꝛe this time of the ſtaple of Caleis be holden in their foꝛce and vertue. And it is not the kings minde, that the marchants ſtrangers and denizens, that will buie and ſell their wolles wolfelles, wares, clothes, iron, and other marchandiſes at feires and markets in the countrie, ſhould be reſtrained oꝛ diſturbed by this ſtatute, to ſell oꝛ buie fréelie in groſſe oꝛ at retaile, as they were wont to do heretofoꝛe. And if ſo happen, that from henceforth diſturbance be made to anie marchant alien oꝛ denizen, oꝛ other vpon the ſale of ſuch things, in citie, boꝛough, towne, poꝛt of the ſea, oꝛ other place that hath franchiſe againſt the fourme of this oꝛdinance, and the maioꝛ, bailifes, oꝛ other that haue the kéeping of ſuch franchiſe, required by the ſaid marchants oꝛ other in their name thereof to make remedie, do not the ſame, and thereof be attainted, the franchiſe ſhall be ſeaſed into the kings hands. And neuertheleſſe, they that haue done ſuch diſturbance againſt this ſtatute, ſhall be holden to reſtoꝛe and yéeld to the plaintife his double damages that he hath ſuffred by this occaſion. And if ſuch diſturbance bee made to ſuch marchants, oꝛ to other in townes oꝛ places where no franchiſe is, and the loꝛd, if hée be pꝛeſent oꝛ his bailife, conſtable, oꝛ other wardeine of the ſaid townes and places, in abſence of Marchants ſtrangers.

Vitailes.

London.

Wines.

Marchandiſes.

Charters.
Franchiſes.
Liberties.
Purueiance.
Staple of Caleis.

Maior.
Bailiſe.

Lord.
Conſtable.
Diſturber.

Chancellour. Treaſurer. Iuſtices.

of the lords thereof required to do right, and do not, and therof be duelie attainted, they ſhal yéeld to the plaintiffe his double damages, as afore is ſaid, and the diſturbers in the one caſe and the other, aſwell within franchiſes as without, if they bee attainted ſhall haue one yéeres impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the kings will. And it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the chancellour, treaſurer, and iuſtices aſſigned to holde pleas of the king in the places where they come, ſhall diligentlie enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances and do puniſhment according as afore is ordeined. And neuertheleſſe the king ſhall aſſigne by commiſſion certaine people, where and when ſhall pleaſe him to enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances and to puniſh the offenders in this partie, as before is ſaid.

Cap. 2. Forſtallers.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute made in the time of king Edward the grandfather the xxv. yéere of his raigne, of forſtallers of wines, vitailes, wares, and marchandiſes, which come to the good townes within the realme by land or by water, ſhall be holden and firmelie kept in all points and put in due execution for the common profite of the ſaid realme.

Cap. 3. Marchants ſtrangers.

Staple of Caleis.

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that all marchants of Jene, Venice, Cateloigne, Aragon, and of other realmes, lands and countries towards the weſt, being of the kings amitie, that will bring to Hampton or elſwhere within the realme carrackes, ſhips, galleis, or other veſſels charged or diſcharged, maie fréelie ſell their marchandiſes to whom pleaſe them by the maner as afore is ſaid, and there recharge their veſſels of wolles, lether, wolfelles, tinne & of other marchandiſes of ẏ ſtaple, and fréelie bring them into their countrie towards the weſt, paying at the portes where they charge them, all maner of cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and other deuoyrs of Caleys, aſmuch as they ſhould paie if they ſhould bring the ſame marchandiſes to ẏ ſtaple of Caleis, ſo that they find ſufficient ſuretie, that they ſhall bring the ſame ſo towards the weſt, and to no place elſwhere towards the Eaſt, but to the ſtaple of Caleis, if percaſe they will go, vpon peine of the forfeiture ordeined before this time.

Cap. 4.

Mariners. Admirall.

Serieants at armes. Maſters of ſhippes

Item becauſe that diuers mariners, after that they be arreſted and reteined for the kings ſeruice vpon the ſea in defence of the realme, and thereof haue receiued their wages perteining, doe flée out of the ſaid ſeruice without licence of the admirals or of their lieutenants, to the great damage of the king and his realme, and hinderance of the ſaid voiages: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed that all thoſe mariners, which from henceforth ſhall do in ſuch maner, & that truely found & proued before the admirall or his lieutenant, ſhall be holden to reſtore to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king the double of that they haue taken for their wages, & neuertheleſſe ſhall haue one yéeres impriſonment without being deliuered by mainpriſe, baile, or by other waie. And the king will and commaundeth to all ſhirifes, maiors, and bailiffes within franchiſes and without, that at the certification of the ſaid admirals or their lieutenants, by their letters thereof to be made, teſtifying the ſaid proue, ſhall incontinent without tarying make an other commandement of the king our ſoueraigne lord, to take & attach all fugitiue mariners by their bodie, within their bailiwéekes within franchiſes and without, and put them in priſon there to abide in good and ſure kéeping, till they haue made grée to the king as afore is ſaid, and thereof haue a ſpeciall commandement of our ſoueraigne lord the king of their deliuerance. And like puniſhment ſhall be made of ſeriants of armes, maſters of ſhips, and all other that ſhall be attainted by enquirie before the admirall or his lieutenant aforeſaid, that they haue anie thing taken of the ſaid mariners for to ſuffer them to go at large out of the ſaid ſeruice, after that they haue bene arreſted for the ſame ſeruice.

Cap. 5. Newes. Meſſages

Item of counterfeiters of falſe newes, and of horrible and falſe meſſages of prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and other nobles and great men of the realme, and alſo of the chancellour, treaſurer, clerke of the priuie ſeale, ſteward of the kings houſe, iuſtice of the one bench or of the other, and of other great officers of the realme, of things which by the ſaid prelates, lords, nobles, & officers aforeſaid were neuer ſpoken, touched, nor thought in great ſlaunder of the ſaid prelates, lords and officers, whereby debates and diſcords might riſe betwixt the ſaid lordes and commons (which God forbid) and whereof great perill and miſchiefe might come to all the realme, & quicke ſubuerſion and deſtruction of the ſaid realme, if due remedie be not prouided: It is ſtraitlie defended vpon grieuous peine, for to eſchewe the ſaid damages and perils, that from henceforth none be ſo hardie to find, ſay, or to tell anie falſe newes, meſſages, or other ſuch falſe things of prelates, lords, and of other aforeſaid, whereof diſcord or anie ſlaunder might riſe within the ſame realme, and he that doth the ſame, ſhall incurre and haue the peine an other time ordeined thereof by the ſtatute of Weſtminſter firſt, which will, that he be taken and impriſoned, till he haue found him, of whom the word ſhould be moued.

Chap. 6.

Item becauſe that our ſoueraigne lord the king hath perceiued, as well by many complaints made to him, as by the perfite knowledge of the thing, that as well diuers of his liege people in ſundrie parties of the realme, as alſo the people of Wales in the countie of Hereford, and the people of the countie of Cheſter, with the counties ioyning to Cheſterſhire, ſome of them claiming to haue right to diuers lands, tenements and other poſſeſſions, and ſome eſpying women and damoſels vnmaried, and ſome deſiring to make maintenance in their marches do gather them together to a great number of men of armes and archers, to the maner of warre, and confederate them ſelfe by othe and other confederacie, not hauing conſideration to God, nor to the lawes of holie church nor of the land, nor to right, nor iuſtice, but refuſing and ſetting apart all proceſſe of the law, do riſe in great routs in diuers parties of England, and take poſſeſſion, and ſet them in diuers maners, lands, and other poſſeſſions of their owne authoritie, and hold the ſame long with ſuch force, doing manie maner apparelments of warre, and in ſome places do rauiſh women and damoſels, and bring them into ſtrange countries, where pleaſe them, and in ſome places lying in awaite with ſuch routes do beate and maime, murder and ſlea the people, for to haue their wiues and their goods and the ſame women and goods reteine to their owne vſe, and ſome time take the kings liege people in their houſes, and bring and hold them as priſoners, and at the laſt put them to fine and raunſome, as it were in a land of warre, and ſome time come before the iuſtices in their ſeſſions in ſuch guiſe with great force, whereby the iuſtices be afeard and not hardie to do the lawe, and do manie other riots and horrible offences, whereby the realme in diuers parties, is put in great trouble, to the great miſchiefe and grieuance of the people, and the hurt of the kings maieſtie, and againſt the kings crowne: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, deſiring ſoueraignelie the peace and quietnes of his realme, and his good lawes and cuſtomes of the ſame, and the rights of his crowne to be mainteined and kept in all points, and the offenders duelie to be chaſtiſed and puniſhed (as he is ſworne at his coronation) by the aſſent of all the lords and peeres being in this parliament, hath defended vpon the perill that belongeth, that none be ſo hardie from henceforth to do anie thing that ſhall be in affraie of the people againſt the peace. And moreouer it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute of Northampton, made in ſuch caſe in ÿ time of the ſaid grandfather, be holden and kept in all points. And alſo it is aſſented, that certaine ſufficient and valiant perſons, lords or other, ſhall be aſſigned by the kings commiſſion in euerie countie through the realme, where as ſhall neede, which ſhal haue power by their commiſſion, that as ſoone as they know, or that they be crediblie certified of anie aſſemblies, routes or ridings of offenders, baratours, and other ſuch riotours in their marches, in affraie of the people, and againſt the peace, to arreſt them incontinent without tarying for enditements or other proces of the lawe, by their bodie, and to bring their captaines and heads, and ſend them to the next iayle, with the cauſe of their arreſt cleerelie and diſtinctlie put in writing, there to abide in priſon in ſure keeping, till the comming of the iuſtices into the countrie, without being deliuered in ÿ meane time by mainpriſe, baile, or in other maner. And all the lords being in the parliament be charged by the king, and they haue of their good gree and free will lawfullie promiſed to be in aide, to their power, to the ſaid commiſſioners, if neede be, and be required to keepe and do to be kept by them and theirs this ordinance in as much as toucheth them, and without hauing regard to anie perſon for amitie, alliance, or otherwiſe. And our ſoueraigne lord the king will and commandeth to all his iuſtices, hauing power at their making deliuerance, that readie iuſtice and puniſhment be done vpon al perſons that ſhall be attainted of ſuch riots and offences, to euerie man according as the caſe requireth, and in ſuch maner that the ſame puniſhment be an example to other.

Peace. Statute of Northāpton.

Aſſemblies. Routes.

Cha. 7. Item of laborers it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ordinance thereof made in the time of the ſaid grandfather, which beginneth, Becauſe a great part of the people, be affirmed and holden for a ſtatute. And that as well this ſtatute as all other ſtatutes and ordinances made of artificers, ſeruants and laborers before this time, be firmelie kept and put in due execution.

An other ſtatute made the ſaid ſecond yeere.

TO the honour of God and of holie church, and for the common profite of the realme of England, our ſoueraigne lord king Richard, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xv. of Eaſter, the ſecond yeere of his raigne, of the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and of other great men, and the commons of his realme ſummoned to the ſaid parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed in ÿ ſame parliament, for the quietnes of his ſaid people the ſtatutes and ordinances following, perpetuallie to endure in his ſaid realme.

Chap. 1. Franchiſes. Charter. FIrſt that holie church haue and enioy her franchiſes and liberties in all points in as ample maner, as ſhe them had in the time of his noble progenitours kings of England, and that ÿ great charter and the charter of the foreſt, and the good lawes of the land, be firmelie holden and kept and put in due execution.

Cap. 2. Aſſemblies. Routes. Item it is aſſented, that the article compriſed in the ſtatute laſt made at Gloceſter of aſſemblies, ridings and routes of offenders in the countrie, which beginneth Item becauſe that our ſoueraigne lord the king, &c. which article ſeemeth to the ſaid commons verie grieuous, at the praier of the ſame commons be vtterlie repealed and adnulled, the ſtatute of Northampton being alwayes in his force. And it is aſſented, that they which be taken and impriſoned by vertue of anie words compriſed in the ſaid article, without other enditement ſhall be vtterlie deliuered.

Cap. 3. Debt. Item in caſe of debt, where the debtours make feined giftes and feoffements of their goods and lands to their friends and other, and after withdrawe them ſelfe, and flee into places of holie church priuileged, and there holde them a long time, and take the profite of their ſaid landes and goods ſo giuen by fraude and colluſion, whereby their creanſours haue bene long and yet bee delayed of their debts and recouerie, wrongfullie and againſt good faith and reaſon: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that after that the ſaid creanſours haue thereof brought their writtes of debt, and thereupon a Capias awarded, and the ſhiriſe ſhall make his returne, that he hath not taken the ſaid perſons, becauſe of ſuch places priuileged, in which they be or ſhall be entred, then after ſuch returne made, an other writte ſhall be granted and made to the ſhiriſe, in which writte ſhall be compriſed, that proclamation be made openlie at the gate of the place ſo priuileged, where ſuch perſons be entred, by fiue weekes continuallie, euerie weeke once, that the ſame perſon be at a certaine daie, compriſed in the ſame writte, before the kings iuſtices, there to anſwere to the plaintife of his demaunde, and vpon this writte returned by the ſaid ſhirife, that proclamation is made in ỹ ſaid forme, if the ſaid perſons called, come not in proper perſon nor by atturney, iudgement ſhall be giuen againſt them vpon the principall for their default And out of the ſame iudgement execution ſhall be made of their goods and lands, being out of the place priuileged, as well that is to ſay, of thoſe lands and goods ſo giuen by colluſion, as of anie other out of the ſame franchiſe, after that ſuch colluſion or fraude be duelie found in the ſame maner as that ought to haue bene, if no demiſe had bene thereof made, notwithſtanding the ſame demiſe. But it is not the kings minde, that by vertue of this ſtatute anie man be barred of his ſuite againſt ſuch debtours by the common courſe of the lawe, before this preſent ſtatute vſed.

Proclamation.

Place priuileged. Colluſion.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the third yeere of the raigne of king Richard the ſecond.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the mondaie next after the feaſt of S. Hillarie, the third yéere of king Richard the ſecond, of the aſſent of the lords and other in the ſaid parliament, our ſaid ſoueraigne lord hath done to be made certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme following.

Chap. 1. Franchiſe. FIrſt it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that holie church haue and wholie enioy her franchiſe and liberties by the maner as ſhe hath had and enioyed them in the time of the kings noble progenitours, and that the good lawes and cuſtomes of the realme, and the ſtatutes made before this time and not repealed, be holden and firmelie kept and put in due execution.

Cap. 2. Wollen clothes. Item becauſe that the commons do greatlie complaine them to be grieued, in that that where as in the time of the kings noble grandfather it was ordeined for ỹ common profit of the realme, that all the wollen clothes from thenceforth to be made in England, which ſhould be ſet to ſale, ſhould conteine a certaine meaſure in length and bredth, vpon a certaine peine compriſed in the ſaid ſtatute, neuertheleſſe diuers people through the realme, not hauing regard to the ſaid ſtatute, make now diuers wollen clothes vendable, which do not conteine the meaſure nor the aſſiſe ordeined by the ſame ſtatute, and which worſe is, do ſubtillie to be tacked and ſet together with thred diuers péeces of ſuch clothes, & afterward by couin betwixt them and the kings aulnegers, to hide and colour the falſehode, do procure the ſaid aulneger to put the ſeale ordeined vpon the ſame clothes to the entent and that by ſo much the buiers ought to beléeue, that ſuch clothes ſo ſealed be ſufficient clothes, and whole conteining the ſaid aſſiſe, for elſe they had not bene ſealed, as they ſaie, in great diſceit of the people, and miſchiefe to the ſaid buiers as well denizens as ſtrangers: It is accorded and aſſented, that the ſtatutes made of the ſaid clothes before this time, and not repealed, be kept and duelie put in execution. And moreouer it is aſſented, that if anie of the ſaid aulnagers, or of the collectours of the ſubſidie of the ſaid clothes, do from henceforth ſet his ſeale to anie ſuch cloth ſo ſowed in diſceit, the ſame cloth ſhall be forfeit to the king, in whoſe hands ſoeuer it be found, and alſo the aulneger or collectour thereof found guiltie, ſhall forfeit his office. And if he haue put the ſame ſeale to anie other cloth vendable, that is not of ỹ ſaid aſſiſe, the ſame aulneger or collectour ſhall forfeit to the king the valure of the ſame cloth ſo ſealed in diſceit of the people, together with his ſaid office. And neuertheleſſe for the ſaid falſitie he ſhall haue one yéeres impriſonment, and thereof be raunſomed at the kings will. And this ſtatute ſhall begin to holde place at the natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt next comming and not before.

Aulneger. Seale. Collectour

Cap. 3. Item becauſe that our ſoueraigne lord the king hath perceiued, as well by the complaints of his faithfull liege people and by their clamour by diuers petitions thereof deliuered in diuers parliaments before this time, as otherwiſe by the perfect knowledge and experience of the déede, how the churches cathedrall and collegiall, abbeis, and priories, and other benefices of his realme, which were late founded and richlie indowed by his noble progenitours, in which diuers dignities, offices, perſonages, chanonries, prebends and other benefices were ſolempnelie and deuoutlie ordeined and ſtabliſhed of the aſſent of the aforeſaid progenitours of our ſoueraigne lord the king and of other their noble founders, which did giue to the ſaid paſtours of the ſame churches, abbeis, priories and of other great places, the aduowſons of the ſame benefices, to the intent that the ſame benefices ſhould be giuen to honeſt and conuenient perſons of the realme, to ſerue and honour God diligentlie, and alſo to holde hoſpitalities, and to enforme and teach the people, and to do other noble things perteining to the cure of ſoules, after ỹ eſtate and qualitie of the ſaid benefices, and ſo was it done in all times paſt after the foundation of the ſame, till now late, that by the informations, inſtigations, and procurements of ſome of the kings liege people, the ſame benefices haue bene giuen againſt the will of the founders to diuers people of an other language, and of ſtrange lands and nations, and ſometimes to the vtter enemies of the king and of his realme, which neuer made reſidence in the ſame, nor can not, maie not, nor will not in ſuch wiſe beare nor do the charges of the ſame benefices, as in hearing confeſſions, preaching, nor teaching the people, kéeping hoſpitalitie, nor accompliſhing the other things neceſſarie to the gouernance of the ſame benefices, but onelie thereof haue and take the emoluments and temporall profites, not hauing regarde to the ſpirituall cure, nor to other charges to the ſame benefices perteining or belonging, Benefices.

longing, but notoriouſlie ſuffer the noble buildings in olde times there made, when the ſame benefices were occupied by Engliſhmen, wholie to fall to decaie, whereby the diuine ſeruice is greatlie miniſhed, the cure of ſoules neglecte and left, the clergie enfeebled, the treſure of the ſaid realme caried to the hands of aliens, and all the eſtate of holie church brought to leſſe reuerence than before it was wont to be, and though that in the time of the ſaide graundfather certaine ordinances, ſtatutes, and compoſitions were made and affirmed, wholie to put out, or at the leaſt to reſtraine the ſaid miſchiefes in this behalfe, neuertheleſſe the ſaid aliens not hauing regard to the ſame, doo not reſtraine to take and receiue ſuch benefices within the ſaid realme, but by the comfort, aide, and great ſuccor, which they haue had of the kings liege people, that be their fermours, procuratours, and atturneies in this behalfe, and in euerie parte of the ſaid realme, doo enforce them ſelfe from day to day more and more to accept the greateſt dignities and benefices within the ſaid realme, and by diuers cautelous maners, much preiudiciall to the ſame realme if that were ſuffered, whereby the ſaid miſchiefes doo dailie increaſe, and much more will increaſe, if due remedie be not the rather prouided. Our ſoureigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and common aſſent of all the lordes temporall, being in this parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that none of the kings liege people, nor other perſon, of what ſoeuer ſtate or condition that he be, ſhall not take nor receiue within the ſaid realme of England, procuracie, letter of atturneie, nor ferme, nor other adminiſtration by indenture, nor in none other maner, of any perſon of the world, of any benefice within the ſaid realme, but onelie of the kings liege people of the ſame realme, without the ſpeciall grace and expreſſe licence of our ſaide ſoureigne lorde the king, by the aduice of his counſell. And if anie before this time haue accepted of anie aliens ſuch procuracies, fermes, or adminiſtration, that they ſhall vtterlie leaue them within xl. daies after publication of this ordinance. And that none of the ſaide liege people, nor other, that may be found in the ſaide realme, ſhall enioy by vertue of ſuch procuracie, ferme, or adminiſtration, gould, ſiluer, nor other treaſure nor commoditie out of the ſaid realme by writ of eſchaunge, by marchandiſe, nor in other maner, to the profit of the ſaid aliens, without like licence of the king by the aduiſe of his ſaid councell. And if anie doo the contrarie in anie point contained in this ordinance, he ſhall incurre the paine & puniſhment contained in the ſtatute of prouiſors, made in the time of the kings graundfather, the xxviii. yeare of his reigne, by the ſame proces compriſed in the ſaid ſtatute, and by warning to be made to them in their benefices or other their poſſeſſions within the realme. And if they be out of the ſaide realme, and not beneficed nor hauing poſſeſſion within the ſame realme where they may be warned, then a writ ſhall be made in the chauncerie, grounded vpon this ordinance to the ſhiriffe of London, or to the ſhiriffe of the countie, in which they were or ſhall be borne, at the kings ſuite, returnable in the one bench or the other: by which writ it ſhall be commaunded, that proclamation be made openlie, that they be before the iuſtices in the bench, where the writ is returnable, at a certaine day compriſed in the ſame writ, containing the ſpace of halfe a yeare, to aunſwere vpon the matters compriſed in the ſaid writ, and after this writ returned, the iuſtices ſhall proceede againſt them according to the forme aboue ordained. And it is aſſented by the king in the ſame parliament, by the aſſent aforeſaid, that no biſhop nor other perſon of holie church, through the realme, ſhall medle by way of ſequeſtration nor in anie other maner of the fruites of ſuch benefices, giuen or to be giuen to the ſaid aliens, to the profite of the ſame aliens, vpon the perill that belongeth. Dated. &c.

Procuracie.

Aliens.

Prouiſors.

Shiriffe.

Proclamation.

Biſhops.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Northampton the iiij. yeare of the reigne of king Richard the ſecond.

Chap. 1.

RIchard by the grace of God. &c. to the ſhiriffe of Nottingam, greeting. The commons of our relme of England haue prayed vs by their petition deliuered to vs at our preſent parliament holden at Northampton containing, how manie wines of diuers maners be often times brought within the land, which doo often paſſe without gauging, becauſe that the ſtatutes thereupon made in the time of our graundfather (whom God aſſoile) doo not make expreſſe mencion of all maner wines and of other licors, to the great damage of the lordes and commons of the ſame realme, which be oftentimes deceiued in their buiengs, becauſe they can not without gauge haue rightfull knowledge how much the ſame veſſell will containe, that it may pleaſe vs, for the profite of vs & our realme more openlie to declare yͤ ſame ſtatutes, in ſuch maner that all maner of wines and other licours gaugeable brought within the realme may be compriſed in the ſame ſtatutes: We conſidering the ſaide ſupplication to be profitable for vs the lordes and commons of the ſame realme, will and graunt by the aſſent of the prelates and lordes aforeſaid, that the ſtatutes thereupon made (as it is ſaid) be holden, kept & put in due execution. And moreouer we declare, and of the aſſent aforeſaid will and graunt, that aſwell all maner veſſels of ſweete wines, of the Rine, and of other wines, as other veſſels of vineger, oile, honie, and of all other licours gaugeable, which from henceforth ſhall come within this realme of England, or within our lands of Wales & Ireland, ſhal be well and lawfullie gauged by our gaugeours thereto aſſigned or their deputies. And if anie ſet debate or diſturbance, and will not ſuffer the wines or other licours aforeſaid to be gauged he ſhall incur the paine ordained by the ſaide other ſtatutes. And in the ſame maner the gaugeours ſhall incurre the paine compriſed in the ſame ſtatutes, if default be from henceforth found in them or in their deputies in this behalfe.

Wines.

Gauging.

Veſſels.

Gaugeours.

Chap. 2. Item conſidering the great aides, which the clergie and the commons of the ſame realme haue doone to vs of their freewill in our great neceſſities before this time, and ſpeciallie now in this preſent parliament, we willing for ſo much and for the great charges which they haue had and ſuffered by the warres and other maner to doo them grace and releefe on the other part, haue of our ſpeciall grace at their praier releaſed and pardoned to the clergie and commons, and to euerie ſinguler perſon of our ſaid realme, as much as to vs pertaineth, for all maner eſcapes of felons Pardon. made and fallen before the date of theſe preſents, as well of clerkes conuict out of the ordinaries priſons, as of other priſoners and felons, except the eſcape iudged before this time.

Prouided alwaies, that if anie of the ſaid eſcapes were made fraudulentlie by couin or of the aſſent of the keepers of the ſaide priſoners, that the ſame eſcapes ſhall not be compriſed within this our grace by anie way. And that he that will enioy this our grace and pardon, ſhall thereof purſue to haue his charter in our chauncerie in due forme. And therefore we commaund. &c. Dated at Northampton the iiii. day of Nouember the iiii. yeare of our reigne.

Here foloweth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the v. yeare of the reigne of king Richard the ſecond.

RIchard by the grace. &c. to the ſhiriffe of Nottingam greeting. Know thou, that to the reuerence of God and of holie church, and for to nouriſh peace, vnitie, and quietnes of good accorde in all parties of our realme of England, and eſpeciallie for the good gouernance of the ſame realme (which we doo ſouereignelie deſire) of the aſſent of the prelates, lordes and commons aſſembled at our parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morow of all ſoules laſt paſt, we haue doone to be made certeine ordinances and ſtabliſhments as well for the amendment of the ſaide gouernance as for the common profite of the realme in the forme folowing.

Chap. 1. FIrſt it is aſſented and accorded that holie church haue and enioy all hir liberties and franchiſes wholie. And that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt and all other good ſtatutes and Charter. Purueiors. ordinances made before this time and not repealed, and eſpeciallie the ſtatutes of purueiors late made in the time of the noble king Edward our graundfather be holden kept and put in due execution after the forme and effect of the ſame.

Chap. 2. Item for the great miſchiefe which the realme ſuffereth and long hath doone, of that, that gould and ſiluer as well in monie, veſſell, plate and iewels as otherwiſe by exchanges made in diuers maners, is caried out of the realme, ſo that in effect there is no maner of thing thereof left. which if that it ſhould long be ſuffered, ſurelie it ſhould be lightlie the deſtruction of the ſame realme (which God prohibit:) It is aſſented and accorded, and the king defendeth to all maner of people marchants, clerkes and other as well ſtrangers as denizens of what eſtate or condition they be, vpon paine of aſmuch as they may forfeite, that none of them vpon the ſaide paine Gould. Siluer. Plate. priuilie nor apertlie ſend nor bring nor doo to be ſent or brought out of the ſaide realme any gould or ſiluer in monie bullion, plate, or veſſell, nor by eſchanges to be made, nor in other maner but the wages of Caleis and of other the kings fortreſſes beyond the ſea, and eſpeciallie excepted the prelates, lordes, and other of the ſame realme, to whom ſometime it behoueth neceſſarilie to Eſchanges. make paiments beyond the ſea, that of the ſame paiments onelie they may make eſchanges in England by good and ſufficient marchants for to pay beyond the ſea, and firſt ſpeciall leaue and licence had of the king as well for the eſchangers as for the perſon which ought to make the paiments, containing expreſlie the ſumme which ſhall be ſo eſchanged. And it is aſſented that the marchants that ſo ſhall make eſchanges ſhall be diligentlie examined and ſworne in their proper perſons as often as they ſhall haue the ſaide licence, that they ſhall not ſend beyond the ſea anie maner of golde nor ſiluer vnder the colour of the ſame eſchange. And if after procla- Lordes. mation of this ordinance any perſon be from henceforth duely atteinted that he hath doone to be ſent or caried beyond the ſea anie goulde, or ſiluer, againſt this defence and ordinance, he ſhall forfeit to the king the ſame ſumme ſo caried or ſent. And the king our ſoueraigne lorde of his roiall ma- Paſſage. ieſtie defendeth the paſſage vtterlie of all maner of peaple as well clerkes as other in euerie port Marchants. and other towne and place vpon the coſte of the ſea, vpon paine of forfeiture of all their goods, except onelie the lordes and other great men of the realme, and true and notable marchants, and the kings ſouldiors. And euerie perſon other is before excepted, which after publication of Souldiors this ordinance made, ſhall paſſe out of the ſaide realme without the kings ſpeciall licence (which licence the king will and commaundeth that it be not from henceforth made but onelie in one of Licence. the ports vnder written, that is to ſay, London, Sandwich, Douer, Southampton, Plimmouth, Dertmouth, Briſtowe, Yermouth, ſaint Botulph, Kingſton vpon Hull, Newcaſtell vpon Tine, and the other portes and paſſages towardes Ireland and the iles pertaining to the realme of England) ſhall forfeite towardes the king as much as he hath in goodes as Maiſters of ſhips. aboue is ſaide and neuertheles the maiſter or mariner of the ſhippe or of other veſſell in which he ſhall carie ouer beyond the ſea, anie perſon but ſuch onelie as be before except, without Mariner. the ſaide licence, and thereof be conuict duelie he ſhall forfeite the ſaide veſſell to the king. And the king commaundeth all wardens and ſearchers of the portes and paſſages through Searchers England, that they ſhall from henceforth diligentlie vſe their office and make good and ſtraight ſearch, And if anie ſearchers or warden of the portes and paſſages through the ſaid realme by negligence or in other maner do or ſuffer wittinglie to be done in anie point the contrarie of the ſaid two articles touching the money of gold or ſiluer and yͤ ſaid paſſages of people, and thereof be duely conuict, he ſhall forfeit to the king his ſaid office and all his goods, and his bodie ſhall be committed to priſon there to abide by an whole yéere without redemption. And therupon who ſo euer eſpieth and proueth duelie that anie thing be done againſt the intent of the ſaid two laſt articles, whereby the ſaid forfeiture ought to fall vpon anie perſon he ſhall haue halfe of the ſame forfaiture for his labour of the kings gift.

Wardeine of a port.

Money.

Cap. 3.
Nauie.
Shippes.
Marchandiſe.

Item to encreaſe the nauie of England which is now greatlie diminiſhed it is aſſented and accorded that none of the kings liege people do from henceforth ſhip anie marchandiſe in going out or comming within the realme of England in anie port but onely in ſhippes of the kings liegeance. And euerie perſon of the ſaid liegeance which after the feaſt, of Eaſter next enſuing (at which feaſt this ordinance ſhall firſt begin to hold place) do ſhip anie marchandiſe in anie other ſhippes or veſſels vpon the ſea then of the ſaide liegeance, ſhall forfeite to the king all his marchandiſes ſhipped in other veſſels where ſo euer they be found hereafter or the valure of the ſame: of which forfeitures the king will and granteth that he that duelie eſpieth and duelie proueth that anie perſon hath anie thing forfeited againſt this ordinance, ſhall haue the third part for his labour of the kings gift.

Cap. 4.
Wines.

Item as to wines of Gaſcoigne, Rochell, Oſey and of Spaine, and wines of the Rine it is ordeined & aſſented that no Engliſhman that will from henceforth paſſe the ſea for the ſaid wines and to bring them in anie partie within yͤ ſame realme ſhall not nor maie not ſell his wines within the ſame realme, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame or the price vnder limitted, that is to ſay, the tunne of the beſt wine of Gaſcoine, of Oſey or of Spaine. C.s. and other tunnes of common wines of the ſame countries for leſſe price, according to the valure, as for vii. markes. vi. markes and an halfe, and vi. markes, and the tunne of other ſuch wine at a leſſe price, according to the valure as for v. markes and an halfe, v. markes, iiii. markes and an halfe, and iiii. markes: and pipes and other veſſels of leſſe quantitie of the ſame wines ſhalbe ſold at the ſaid prices after the rate of the tunnes and the goodnes of the wine. And as to the retaile of the ſaid tunnes of wines of Gaſcoine, of Oſey, and of Spaine, brought within the realme by engliſhmen, the gallon of yͤ beſt wine ſhal not be ſold within the ſaid realme (vpon peine to forfeit all the veſſel & wine to the king) aboue vi. d. and within, according to the valure, and the galon of the beſt wine of Rochel at iiii. d. & within according to the valure. And as to the riniſh wines brought within the ſame realme, becauſe the veſſels and the galons of the ſame do not conteine anie certaine meaſure: It is accorded & aſſented that the galon of the beſt riniſh wine (nor in groſſe nor at retaile) be ſold in anie partie within the ſaid realme by the ſaid engliſhmen, aboue vi. d. vpon the ſame peine. Alſo it is aſſented, that if anie engliſhman refuſe and will not ſel in groſſe his wines ſet to ſale for the ſaid prices before limitted, but will kéepe them onelie to ſel them at retaile or in other maner aboue the ſame price before limitted in fraude and againſt the forme of this ordinance and the maior and bailiefes and other gouernours of the citie, borough, towne, or other place within whoſe power or iuriſdiction the ſaid wines ſhall be found, be it within franchiſe or without ſhall haue power by this ſame ordinance, after that the buier according to this ordinance hath reaſonably profered money for the ſame wines once or two times to the ſeller of the ſame wines, to make deliuerance of the ſame wines being in bargaine to the ſaid buiers, and ſhall deliuer to them the ſame in déede as ſoone as they ſhalbe thereunto required for the price afore ordeined. And if anie of the ſaid maior, bailiefes, or other gouernours, after that they ſhall be thereof duelie required, refuſe to do the ſame and make not the ſaid deliuerance, and that duelie proued, he ſhall forfeit to the king the valure of the ſaid wines ſo bought. And the kings minde is not to reſtraine the tauernes and other ſellers of wines, carying the ſame into the countrie by cartes, or in other maner by this ordinance, but that they maie enhance the price of their wines for the coſtes of their cariage to be made by them reſonablie, according as hath bene ordeined in times paſt: which ordinance ſhall be duelie kept and put in execution. And eſpeciallie no more ſhall be from henceforth enhanced vpon the galon of wine for the cariage of fiftie miles than one halfepenie onelie. And likewiſe where greater or leſſe cariage is to be made then by fiftie miles, it ſhalbe vpon yͤ galon of wine after the rate and not aboue, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame wines. And this ordinance of wines ſhall begin to hold place as ſoone as anie new wines ſhall be brought within the ſaid realme. Alſo the king defendeth, that no maner of ſwéete wine nor clarret from henceforth after the natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming, ſhall be ſold at retaile in anie partie within this realme of England within franchiſe or without vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame. And the king will that he that ſhall eſpie and duelie proue or do to be proued, that anie hath ſold anie maner of wines ſwéete or claret at retaile or otherwiſe, or offended or forfeited after the termes aboue limitted againſt the forme of theſe ordinances of wines in anie point, whereby he ought by the forme of the ſame anie thing forfeite to the king, he ſhall haue the one halfe of the ſame forfeiture for his labour of the kings gift.

Riniſh wine.

Maior.
Bailifes.

Swéete wines.

Cap. 5.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king perceiuing that manie lords and gentlemen of his realme of England, and other with them, in the rumour and inſurrection of villaines and of other offenders, which now of late did traitorouſlie riſe by aſſemblies in outragious number in diuers parties of the realme, againſt God, good faith, and reaſon, and againſt the dignitie of our ſoueraigne lord the king and his crowne, and the lawes of his lands, made diuers puniſhments vpon the ſaid villaines ⁊ other traitours without due proces of the law, ⁊ other wiſe then the lawes and vſages of the realme required, although they did it of no malice prepenſed, but onelie to appeaſe and ceaſe the apparant miſchiefe, conſidering the great diligence ⁊ loyaltie of the lordes ⁊ gentlemen in this behalfe, which were not learned of ẏ ſaid lawes ⁊ vſages, ⁊ though at that time they had bene learned, a man might not vpon thoſe puniſhments haue taried the proces of the lawe of their good diſcretions. And willing therefore to do them grace, according as they haue ẏ ſame greatlie deſerued, of the aſſent aforeſaid hath pardoned and releaſed to the ſaid lords ⁊ gentlemen, ⁊ all other being in their aide at the ſame déede, and to euerie of them, aſmuch as to him thereof perteineth, or to him ⁊ to his heires maie pertaine, ſo that hereafter for what ſo euer thing that is done by them vpon the ſaid puniſhments in reſiſtance, they ſhalbe neuer impeched nor grieued in bodie, goods nor their heritages ⁊ poſſeſſions by anie way by our ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires or miniſters, nor none other in time to come, but vtterlie ſhalbe thereof quite for euer by this grant and ſtatute without hauing thereof other ſpeciall charter or pardon.

Pardon.

Chap. 6.

Manumiſſions.

Dureſſe.

Entries.

Riot and rumour.

Item it is ordeined, that all maner manumiſſions, obligations, releaſes, ⁊ other bonds made by compulſion, dureſſe, ⁊ manace, in the time of this laſt rumour ⁊ riot againſt ẏ lawes of ẏ lande and good faith, ſhalbe wholly adnulled ⁊ holden for voide. And they that haue done to be made, or do yet withold ſuch manumiſſions, obligations, releaſes, bonds and other déedes ſo made by dureſſe, ſhalbe ſent before the king ⁊ his councell, thereof to anſwere there of their deede, and further ſhall be conſtreined to make deliuerie ⁊ reſtitution of ẏ ſaid déedes to them that made ẏ ſame againſt their good gree with the copies of the ſame, if percaſe they haue thereof made any before, an other time to vſe or renewe the effect of ẏ ſame if they maie. And likewiſe it is accorded, that all entries made in lands or tenements, and alſo all feſſements made in the time of the ſaid rumour by compulſion and manace or otherwiſe with force of people againſt the lawe, ſhalbe voide ⁊ holden for none. And the king ſtraitlie defendeth to all maner of people, vpon peine of as much as they may forfeit againſt him in bodie and goods, that none from henceforth make nor begin againe anie maner riot and rumour nor other like. And if anie the ſame do, and that duelie proued, it ſhall be done of him as of a traitour to the king and to his ſaid realme.

Chap. 7.

Entrie into lands.

Item the king defendeth, that none from henceforth make anie entrie into anie lands and tenements, but in caſe where entrie is giuen by the lawe, and in ſuch caſe not with ſtrong hand, nor with multitude of people, but onelie in peaceable and eaſie maner. And if anie man from henceforth do to the contrarie, and thereof be duelie conuict, he ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment of his bodie, and thereof raunſomed at the kings will.

Chap. 8.

Déedes. Miniments.

Item touching the charters, releaſes, obligations and other déedes, and miniments, brent, deſtroyed, or otherwiſe cloyned in the ſame rumour, it is aſſented, that they which thereof féele them grieued, ſhall put their petitions diſtinctlie made vpon their matter ſpeciallie before the king and his councell, betwixt this and the natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt next comming at the furtheſt, and there make ſufficient proofe of the ſaid miniments ſo loſt, and of the forme and tenor of the ſame, and that done ſuch remedie ſhall thereof be prouided for them at euerie mans compleint as beſt ſhall ſéeme in the caſe, ſauing the lawe.

Chap. 9.

Eſchequer

Barons del eſchequer.

Item becauſe that grieuous complaint hath oftentimes bene made vpon the officers of the eſchequer, of that that the heires, executors, occupiers of goods and landtenants of diuers perſons, which haue bene impeched in the ſaid eſchequer of debts, accompts, and other demaundes, and which although they haue offred them there to ſhew or pleade for their diſcharge of thoſe impechments according to the lawe, they haue not bene alwayes thereunto receiued heretofore, without hauing expreſſe commandement by writte or letter of the great ſeale or priuie ſeale, to the great diſeaſe, miſchiefe, and delay of the ſaid perſons impeched and none aduantage to the king: It is ordeined and aſſented that the barons of the ſaid eſchequer ſhall from henceforth haue full power to heare euerie anſwere of euerie demaunde made in the ſame eſchequer, ſo that euerie perſon that is impeched or impechable of anie cauſe by himſelfe or by anie perſon, ſhall be from henceforth receiued in the ſame eſchequer to pleade, ſue, and haue his reaſonable diſcharge in this behalfe, without tarying or ſuing anie writte or other commandement.

Cap. 10.

Eſchequer

Accompt.

Item becauſe that great miſchiefes haue happened in times paſt to diuers perſons, as well to lords of the realme as other, which were reteined or aſſigned to ſerue our ſoueraigne lord the king by indentures, or without indentures in his warres and his meſſages or in other maner, ⁊ for the ſame cauſes receiue certaine ſummes of money at the receite of the ſaid eſchequer or els where by aſſignement, which ſummes haue bene put vpon them in the rolles of ẏ ſaid eſchequer, as money receiued by way of lone, and for ſo much the ſame ſummes ſhould renne in demaunde vpon them at ẏ eſchequer as a cléere debt, although the ſaid perſons ſo reteined their heires, executors, occupiers of their goods or landtenants after their death haue demaunded to be receiued to accompt of ẏ ſummes receiued, that hath not bene granted to them, but they haue bene conſtrayned to purſue their grant by ẏ great or priuie ſeale directed to the treaſurer ⁊ barons there, wherby it was commanded to the treaſurer and barons to accompt with them in this partie: which warranties oftentimes haue bene denied, becauſe that the kings officers newly made per caſe had no knowledge of ſuch reteining made before their time: and ſometime haue bene granted, but not ſo fullie as reaſon ⁊ the caſe required: and for as much as the ſame warrant would, that ẏ accompt ſhould not be receiued but onely of ẏ ſumme ſo receiued of lone, where as a greater ſumme percaſe was

Retainer. Couenant. Barons del eſche-quer. Warrant.

was due to them of reaſon, to the great miſchiefe and hinderance of the ſaide perſons: It is ordained and aſſented, that of all people, which from henceforth ſhall be retained or aſſigned to ſerue the king, their couenants ſhall be put in writing, and ſent to the eſchequer, there to remaine of recorde, ſo that at what time that anie perſon ſo retained, his heires, or executers, occupiers of the goods or landtenaunts come to account thereof at the eſchequer, they ſhall be thereto receiued, and haue due allowance in their account according to the continue of their couenant, if percaſe anie repeale or countermaundment be made of ſuch retinue of anie perſon after that his couenants be put in writing and ſent to the ſaide eſchequer, ſo that by the ſight of the ſame repeale, and of the couenants before, there ſent, the barons of the ſaide eſchequer ſhall doo right to the partie according as the lawe and reaſon demaundeth. And if anie thing be due vnto them by the ſame account, that thereof by certification of the ſame eſchequer, the treſurer and the chamberleines ſhall make paiment or aſſignement to them without tarieng or ſuing other warrant or commaundement of the great or priuie ſeale in this behalfe.

Cap. 11. Eſchequer. Account.

Item it is ordained and aſſented, that the accounts in the eſchequer ſhall be more ſhortlie heard, made and engroſſed, than they were wont heretofore. Sauing alwaies that the parcels of the ſame accounts be made as fullie as they were made in times paſt, and that by ordinance to be made by the barons of the ſaide eſchequer, there to endure of recorde for euer.

Cap. 12. Clerkes. Account. Barons del eſche-quer.

It is ordained and aſſented, that two clerkes be aſſigned to make parcels of the accountes in the ſame eſchequer, to them that will that demaunde, and they ſhall be ſworne, that they ſhall doo no falſitie in their office, and ſhall take for their labor of them, to whome they ſerue reaſonablie, according to the ordinance of the barons of the ſaide eſchequer.

Cap. 13. Accounts of Nihil.

Item it is ordained and aſſented, that yͤ accounts of Nihil in the eſchequer, ſhal be wholie out, or if anie ſuch accounts ought there to abide the accountants maintenant after their oth made in the ſaide eſchequer ſhall be examined by the barons there, if they ſhould or ought to aunſwere the king of anie thing in this behalfe. And if it be found by their ſaide oth that they ought not, than by the ſame their oth they ſhall be diſcharged to yeelde other account before anie auditor. The kings right alwaies ſaued.

Cap. 14. Clerke of the pipe. Remembrancers. Eſchequer. Seale. Scedule.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the clerke of the pipe, and the remembrancers of the eſchequer ſhall be ſworne, that from terme to terme they ſhall ſée (whiles the ſaide eſchequer ſhall be open) all the writs of great ſeale or of priuie ſeale, which ſhall be ſent to the ſaide eſchequer the ſame terme for the finall diſcharge of anie perſon of the realme of anie demaund running to the ſaide eſchequer, and that euerie of them, to whome it perteineth, ſhall doo due execution of the ſaid commaundement. And alſo it is ordained & aſſented, that the ſaid two remembrancers ſhall be ſworne of their part, that euerie terme from henceforth they ſhal make a ſcedule of all the perſons that ſhall be diſcharged in their offices by iudgement or in other maner in the ſame terme of anie demaundes in the ſame eſchequer, containing the maner of the ſame diſcharges, & to deliuer the ſame ſcedule to the ſaid clerke of the pipe the ſame terme, to the intent that the ſame clerke of the pipe doo thereof diſcharge the ſaide parties in the great roule. Alſo the ſaide clerke of the pipe ſhall be ſworne, that he from terme of terme ſhall require the ſame ſcedules, and the ſame ſcedules by him ſo receiued, he ſhall diſcharge the ſaide parties in the maner aforeſaid. And in the ſame maner the ſaide clerke of the pipe for his part ſhall doo to be certified in writing to the ſaide remembrancers of all ſuch diſcharges which ſhall be made in his office, to the intent that a man diſcharged in one place be diſcharged in all other places of the ſaide eſchequer.

Cap. 15. Liuerie. Account. Eſchequer. Recorde. Remembrancer.

Item though that manie times heretofore diuers perſons haue had liuerie of their lands and tenements out of the kings hands by iudgement giuen for them in the kings bench or elſewhere, and of the ſame iudgements after haue procured to ſend the tenure of the recordes and proceſſes thereof made by writ of Mittimus, into the ſaide eſchequer, to the entent for to diſcharge them of the accounts demaunded of them vpon the ſame tenements, neuertheleſſe the officers of the ſame eſchequer would not in times paſt diſcharge the ſaid perſons thereof, before that the ſame recordes and proceſſe were worde by worde newlie entered in the eſchequer, and thereupon new proceſſe made, and new iudgement there an other time giuen, to the great domage and delay of the parties, without profite to the king: It is therefore ordained and aſſented, that from henceforth after that ſuch recorde, or the tenour of the ſame, ſhall come into the ſaide eſchequer by the kings commaundement (as it is ſaid) that the remembrancer, in whoſe office ſuch accounts ſhall be demaunded, ſhall maintenant cauſe the ſuite to ceaſe in this behalfe by wordes to be entered vpon the indorſement of the writ touching the tenour of the recorde of the ſaide iudgement, without making new iudgement or proceſſe further in this partie.

Cap. 16. Commiſſion. Recorde. Eſchequer.

Item it is aſſented, and the king ſtraitelie defendeth, that from henceforth nothing ſhall be giuen for making of a commiſſion in the ſaide eſchequer for the fée of the clerke which ſhall make the ſame, aboue ii s. onelie, nor for the recorde of a Niſi prius with the writ, but ii. s. onelie as afore this time was wont to be done and vſed.

Here beginneth an other ſtatute made the ſame fiſt yeere.

FOr the common profit of the realme of England diuers ordinances & ſtabliſhments haue bene made by our ſoueraigne lorde the king, the prelates, lordes, and commons of his ſaide realme, being in this preſent parliament holden at Weſtminſter the tueſday next after the feaſt of ſaint John Portlatine the v. yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Richard the ſecond, in the forme folowing.

Chap. 1.

Marchants ſtrangers.

FIrſt it is accorded and aſſented in the parliament, that all maner of marchants ſtrangers, of what ſoeuer nation or countrie they be, being of the amitie of the king and of his realme, ſhall be welcome, and freelie may come within the realme of England and elſewhere within the kings power, as well within franchiſe as without, and there to be conuerſant, to marchandie, and tarie as long as them liketh, as thoſe whom our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king by the tenour hereof taketh into his protection and ſafegarde, with their goods, marchandiſes, and all maner familyars. And for ſo much the king will and commaundeth, that they and euerie of them be well, friendlie, and marchantlike intreated and demeaned in all parties within his ſaide realme and power with their marchandiſes and all maner goods, and ſuffered to go and come, and into their proper countrie peaſiblie to returne without diſturbance or impechment of anie.

Chap. 2.

Woolles. Lether. Wolfelles.

Item it is aſſented and accorded in the parliament, that the paſſage of woolles, lether, & wolfelles be open to all maner of marchants and other, as well forens denizens, that will buie the ſame and readilie pay in hand for the ſame the cuſtomes, ſubſidies & deuoyrs of Calies due from henceforth to yͤ feaſt of ſaint Michaell next come twelue moneth, in ſuch maner, that in the meane time they and none other may ſhip and coket the ſame in ports within the realme accuſtomed, and from thenſe to carie and bring them towardes what parties they will choſe beyond the ſea, without impediment or impechment, except to the realme of Fraunce. And moreouer of the aſſent aforeſaid our ſouereigne lord the king will and graunteth to all thoſe marchants and other, which betwixt this and the xv. of ſaint Martine next enſuing, ſhall pay before in hand the ſubſidies, cuſtomes, and deuoyrs for the woolles, lether, and wolfelles, which they will paſſe and doo to be caried beyond the ſea betwixt the firſt day of September next comming, and the ſaide feaſt of ſaint Mighell next come twelue moneth, his pardon and releaſe of halfe a marke of euerie ſacke of woolle, halfe a marke of euerie CCxl. wolfelles, and alſo of their lether after the rate, vpon their ſaide paiments ſo to be made before hand (as it is ſaide) & therewithall they & euerie of them ſhall haue freelie the paſſage of yͤ ſame their woolles, lether, & wolfelles at large where and when they will, as aboue is ſeide, before yͤ feaſt of ſaint Michaell aforeſaid without anie maner impechment or impediment. But the kings minde is, that they, which will not pay the ſubſidies of their woolles, lether, & wolfelles before the ſaide xv. they ſhall pay wholie the cuſtomes, ſubſidies, & deuoyrs of their woolles, lether, & wolfelles to be paſſed beyond the ſea, without hauing remiſſion of the ſaide halfe marke by anie way. And the king promiſeth, and it is accorded and aſſented by all the eſtates of the parliament, that againſt this graunt and ordinance, nor againſt thoſe perſons, which ſo ſhall pay before hand and before the ſaide xv. their ſubſidies, cuſtomes, and deuoyrs, and ſhall haue therefore the ſaide paſſage of their woolles, lether, and wolfelles, and releaſe of the ſaid halfe marke (as is ſaide) no repeale, reuocation, countermaundement, impediment, nor other thing ſhall be made by our ſouereigne lorde the king, his counſell, his miniſters, nor none other, which may turne or ſound in diſturbance of their couenant or paſſage aforeſaid by anie way of the world. And the king will and graunteth, at the requeſt of his commons, that the monie comming of the ſubſidie of the ſaide woolles, lether, and wolfelles graunted at the laſt parliament, be wholie applied vpon the defence of the realme of England, and the keeping and gouernance of his townes and fortreſſes beyond the ſea, after the good aduiſe of the lordes of the realme and other wiſe men of the kings counſell.

Marchants. Cuſtomes leſſed.

Chap. 3.

Mariners Subſidie.

Item vpon the profer, which hath bene made in the parliament by the mariners of the weſt, to make an armie vpon the ſea, to endure from this time till the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming in ii. yeares, the lordes and commons being in this parliament haue graunted to the king a ſubſidie of ii. s. to take of euerie tunne of wine, and of a leſſe veſſell after the rate, to be brought within the realme of England, and alſo vi. d. of the li. to take and receiue of all maner of other marchandiſes to be brought out and comming within the realme aforſaide, as well (that is to ſay) of all maner of woollen clothes, as of anie other marchandiſes, except woolles, lether, and wolfelles, ouer the cuſtomes & ſubſidies thereof due before this graunt from the xxi. day of May this preſent yeare, till the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming, and from the ſame feaſt by ii whole yeares next enſuing. So alwaies that the monie thereof comming be wholie applied vpon the ſafe keeping of the ſea, and no partie elſewhere. And at the requeſt of the commons the king will that ſir John Philpot knight be receiuer and keeper of the monie riſing of the ſaide ſubſidie, from the towne of Southampton towardes the north, & that John Polimond and Thomas Beaupenie be receiuers and keepers of the ſaid ſubſidie in the towne of Southampton, and from thenſe towardes the weſt by the kings letters patents thereof to be made to the ſaide perſons in due forme. And alſo certaine ſufficient perſons ſhall be aſſigned by the king to be controllers to the ſaide collectors. And the people being in the ſaide armie, ſhall haue wholie all their gaines and profits, to be departed betwixt them during the ſaide armie aboue ſaide: And the admirals and other of the ſaid armie, ſhall be aſſured to ſaue the kings friends and allies without domage to be doone to them or to anie of them by anie way, and if they doo, and that be duelie proued, they ſhall binde them vpon a greeuous paine thereof duelie to make amendes.

Bootie.

Chap. 4.

Item the king will and commaundeth, and it is aſſented in the parliament, by the prelates, lordes, and commons, that all ſinguler perſons, and communalties, which from henceforth ſhall haue the ſommons of the parliament, ſhall come from henceforth to the parliaments in the maner as they be bounden to do and hath bene accuſtomed within the realme of England of olde times. And euerie perſon of the ſame realme, which from henceforth ſhall haue the ſaid ſommons (be he archbiſhop, biſhop, abbat, prior, duke, earle, baron, baneret, knight of the ſhire, citizen of citie, burgeis of burgh, or other ſinguler perſon or communaltie) doe abſent him ſelfe, and come not at the ſaide ſommons (except hee maie reaſonablie and honeſtlie excuſe him to our ſoueraigne lorde the king) he ſhall be amercied, and otherwiſe puniſhd, according as of olde times hath bene vſed to be done, within the ſaid realme in the ſaid caſe. And if anie ſhiriffe of the realme be from henceforth negligent in making his returnes of writtes of the parliament, or that hee leaue out of the ſaide returnes anie cities or boroughes, which be bound and of olde times were wont to come to the parliament, he ſhalbe puniſhed in the maner as was accuſtomed to be done in the ſaid caſe in the ſaid time paſt.

Parliament.

Shiriffes.

Chap. 5.

Item for as much as it is openly knowne, that there be diuers euil perſons within the realme, going from countie to countie, & from towne to towne in certeine habits vnder diſſimulation of great holines, and without the licence of the ordinaries of the places or other ſufficient authoritie, preaching dailie, not onlie in churches & churchyards, but alſo in markets, feires, & other open places, where a great congregation of people is, diuerſe ſermons conteining hereſies & notorious errours, to the great embleamiſhing of the chriſtian faith, and deſtruction of the lawes, and of the eſtate of holie church, to the great perill of the ſoules of the people, and of all the realme of Englande, as more plainelie is founde and ſufficientlie proued before the reuerende father in God, the archbiſhop of Canterburie, and the biſhops and other prelates maſters of diuinitie, and doctors of Canon and of Ciuile, and a great part of the clergie of the ſaide realme ſpeciallie aſſembled for this cauſe: which perſons doe alſo preach diuerſe matters of ſclaunder, to engender diſcorde and diſſention betwixt diuerſe eſtates of the ſaide realme as well ſpirituall as temporall, in exciting of the people, to the great perill of all the realme: which preachers cited or ſummoned before the ordinaries of the places, there to anſwere of that, whereof they be impeached, will not obey to their ſummons and commaundementes, nor care not for their monitions nor cenſures of the holie church, but expreſlie diſpiſe them: And moreouer by their ſubtill & ingenious wordes doe drawe the people to heare their ſermons, and do mainteine them in their errours by ſtrong hande and by great routes: It is ordeined and aſſented in this preſent parliament, that the kings commiſſions be made and directed to the ſhiriffes and other miniſters of our ſoueraigne lord the king, or other ſufficient perſons lerned, and according to the certifications of the prelates thereof to be made in the Chauncerie from time to time, to arreſt all ſuch preachers, and alſo their faitours, mainteinours, and abbettors, and to holde them in arreſt and ſtrong priſon, till they will iuſtifie them according to the lawe and reaſon of holie church. And the king will and commandeth, that the chauncellour make ſuch commiſſions at all times, that he by the prelates or anie of them ſhall be certified and thereof required, as is aforeſaide.

Preachers

Chauncellor. Commiſſion.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the vi. yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

TO the laude and honour of almightie God, and of our holie mother the church, and to the commoditie and profit of the realme of England, and of the communaltie of the ſame: Our ſoueraigne lord Richarde by the grace of God king of England and of Fraunce, and lorde of Irelande, by the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and commons of the ſaide realme of Englande, in his parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the vtas of ſaint Michael, the ſixt yeere of his reigne, hath done to be made and ſtabliſhed certaine ſtatutes, ordinances, remiſſions and pardons in the forme following.

Chap. 1. Charter. Puruelours.

FIrſt it is ordeined and accorded, that our holie mother the church of England, haue all her liberties whole and vnhurt, and the ſame fullie enioy and vſe. And that the great charter, and the charter of the forreſt, and the ſtatutes of puruelours for the kinges houſe, and for others, and all ſtatutes and ordinances before this time made and not yet repealed, bee fermelie obſerued, in all their articles, and put in due execution according to the effect of the ſame.

Chap. 2. Debt Account.

Item to the intent that writs of debt & account, and all other ſuch actions bee from henceforth taken in their counties, and directed to the ſhiriffes of the counties where the contracts of the ſame actions did riſe: It is ordeined and accorded, that if from henceforth in pleas vpon the ſame writs it be declared, that the contract thereof was made in an other countie then is conteined in the originall writ, that then incontinentlie the ſame writ be vtterlie abated.

Chap. 3. Nuſaunce. Vicountiles.

Item it is ordeined and accorded, that all writs of Nuſaunces, commonlie called Vicountiles, ſhall be from hence forth made at the election of the plaintiffe in the nature of olde times vſed, or elſe in the nature of aſſiſes determinable before the kings iuſtices of the one bench or the other, or before the iuſtices of aſſiſe in the countie of the place aſſigned or to be aſſigned.

Chap. 4. Enrollements.

Item it is accorded, that all inrollementes of déedes and other minimentes in the rolles of the Chauncerie of either bench and the eſchequer of our ſoueraigne lorde the king before this time enrolled, and afterwarde by traitours to the king and his realme in the inſurrection late made within the ſame realme ſeditiouſlie moued, torne and rent, or otherwiſe imbeſiled, ſhall be in a due forme exemplified vnder the kinges great ſeale without fee of the ſeale thereof to bee paied, Exemplification. paied, and that the ſame exemplifications ſo had, be of the ſame effect and ſtrength in all things, as the ſame deedes and miniments ſhould haue bene, if they were had whole and vnhurt.

Chap. 5. Iuſtices of aſſiſes. Item it is accorded, that the iuſtices aſſigned and to bee aſſigned, to take aſſiſes and deliuer the gayles, ſhall from hence forth holde their ſeſſions in the principall and cheefe townes of ſinguler of the counties, where the ſhire courtes of the ſame counties be holden, and hereafter ſhall be holden.

Chap. 6 Rape. Item againſt offendors and rauiſhers of ladies, and the daughters of noble men, and of other women in euerie part of the ſaid realme nowe a daies offending more violentlie, and much more then they were wont: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that whereſoeuer, and whenſoeuer ſuch ladies daughters & other women aforeſaid be rauiſhed, and after ſuch rape, doe conſent to ſuch rauiſhers, that as well the rauiſhers, as they ẏ be rauiſhed & euerie of them, be from hence forth diſabled, & by the ſame deed be vnable to haue or chalenge all heritage, dower or iointfeffement after the death of their huſbandes & anceſters. And that incontinentlie in this caſe the next of the blood of thoſe rauiſhers, or of them that bee ſo rauiſhed, to whom ſuch heritage, dower, or iointfeffement ought to reuert, remaine or fal, after ẏ death of the rauiſher, or of her that is ſo rauiſhed, ſhal haue title incontinently, that is to ſaie, after the rape, to enter vpon the rauiſher, or her that is rauiſhed, and their aſſignes and land tenants in the ſame heritage dower or iointfeffement, & the ſame to hold in ſtate of heritage. And that the huſbandes of ſuch women, if they haue huſbandes, or if they haue no huſbands in life, that then the fathers or other next of their blood haue from henceforth ẏ ſuit to purſue, and may ſue againſt the ſame offendors & rauiſhers in this behalfe. And to haue them thereof conuict of life & of member, although the ſame women after ſuch rape do conſent to the ſaid rauiſhers. And further it is accorded, that the defendant in this caſe ſhall not be receiued to wage battell, but that the trueth of the matter bee thereof tried by inquiſition of the countrie. Sauing alwaies to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and to other lords of the ſaid realme, all their eſchetes of the ſaid rauiſhers, if peraduenture they be thereof conuict.

Chap. 7. Sweete wine. Item though it were late ordeined in the parliament of the ſaid king, holden at Weſtminſter in the morowe of all ſoules, the fift yeere of his reigne, that no ſweete wines in his ſaide realme ſhoulde be in anie wiſe ſolde at retaile after the feaſt of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt laſt paſt, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, yet of the aſſent aforeſaide it is ordeined and accorded, that the ſame ſweete wines maie be ſolde in euerie place within the ſaide realme, at the price that wines of Gaſcoine and Rine ſhall happen to be ſolde, & not aboue, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, notwithſtanding the ſaid firſt ordinance.

Cap. 8. Shippes. Item though late in the ſame parliament it was ordeined, that none of the kinges liege people, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhould in anie wiſe ſhip anie marchandiſes or goods to be caried out of the realme of England, or to be brought within the ſame realme, in anie ſhips, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid goods and marchandiſes or the value of the ſame, except in ſhips of the kings liegeance: Yet of the aſſent afore ſaid it is ordeined and graunted, that the ſaide ordinaunce onelie haue place, as long as ſhippes of the ſaide liegeaunce in the parties where the ſame marchantes ſhall happen to dwell be founde able and ſufficient: ſo that then they ſhall be bounde to freight the ſame ſhips of the kings liegeaunce with their marchandiſes vnder the paine aforeſaide before all other ſhips. And otherwiſe it ſhall be lawfull to the ſame marchants, to hire other ſhippes conuenient, and there to freight them with their goods and marchandiſes, notwithſtanding the ſaid firſt ſtatute.

Chap 9. London Vitayler. Item it is ordeined, that neither in the citie of London, nor in other cities, boroughes, townes, or ports of the ſea, through the realme, anie vittailer ſhall haue, exerciſe, nor in no wiſe occupie anie iudiciall office, but in ſuch towne where none other perſon ſufficient maie be founde to haue the ſame office. In the which caſe, yet the ſame iudge for the time that he ſhall ſtande in the ſaide office, ſhall vtterlie ceaſe and abſteine himſelfe and his from the exerciſe of vitaling, vpon paine of forfeiture of his vittailes ſo ſolde.

Cap. 10. Aliens. London. Fiſhe. Vittailes. Item it is ordeined and accorded, that all maner foreines and aliens, being of the amitie of the king and of his realme, and comming within the ſaide citie of London, and other cities, boroughs and townes within the ſaid realme, as well within liberties as without, with fiſh and all maner of other vitatiles, there tarieng, and going againe to their owne countries ſhall from hence forth be vnder the ſafegard and the eſpeciall protection of the king. And there it ſhall be lawfull to them and euerie of them, and by the ſtength of this preſents they maie from hence forth cut their fiſhes and vittailes aforeſaide, without impeachment or denying of anie man, or in peeces, and in part in all at retaile or in groſſe as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme, to ſell and make their profite, anie charters, ſtatutes, ordinances, priuiledges, or cuſtomes made or had to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Chap. 11 London. Hoſtes. Forſtalling. Embracerie. Fiſhar. Vitayler. Item it is ordeined, that all maner hoſtes, as well in the citie of London & the towne of great Yarmouth, Scardeburghe, Winchelſeie and Rie, as alſo in certeine other townes & places vpon the coaſt of the ſea and elſe where, through all the ſaid realme, as wel within liberties as without, ſhal from hence forth vtterly ceaſe & be amoued from their noiance & wicked deedes & forſtallings. And in eſpeciallie they be inhibit by our ſoueraigne lorde the king, that they nor none of them (vpon the paine that belongeth) ſhall anie further intromit to embrace hearring or anie fiſh or other vittailes, vnder the colour of anie cuſtome, ordinance, priuiledge, or charter before made or had to the contrarie (which by tenour of this preſents be vtterly repealed) or priuilie or appertly doe or procure to be done anie impediment to anie fiſhers or vitailers, denizens or aliens, being of the kings amitie, whereby they or anie of them be compelled to ſell their fiſh or other vitailes, but where and when and to anie perſon who ſo euer they will within the ſaide realme at their pleaſure. And moreouer it is ſpecially inhibite to all and ſinguler the ſaid hoſtes, that none of them, vpon the paine aforeſaid, intromit from henceforth of buing, ſelling, or conuenting anie maner ſeafiſh freſh, to the vſe of anie fiſhmonger or other citizen of the ſaid citie of London. And likewiſe it is inhibite to all fiſhmongers and other citizens of the ſame citie of London, that none of them (vpon the ſame peine) farre from the ſame citie nor néere to the ſame, from henceforth buy anie ſea fiſh freſh, nor of the freſh water to ſell againe in the ſame citie, except eles, freſh luces and pykes, which ſhall be and remaine in common as wel to denizens as forreines to buy or ſell, ſo that neuertheleſſe the denizens ſhall in no wiſe let the forreins within the ſame citie, to ſell ſuch fiſh, as often as they ſhall bring or cauſe to be brought the ſame fiſhes to the ſaid citie.

Fiſh. Fiſhmonger.

Cap. 12. Maior of London. Othe. Vitailers.

Item it is ordeined, that euerie mayor of London for the time being ſpecially amongeſt other things ſhall be charged in his othe, to be giuen to him at the kings eſchequer, that he ſhal hold and do to be holden and kept the ordinance of fiſhmongers and vitailes (as is aforeſaide) made within his bailiwike, and the ſame (all fauour ſet aparte) do from time to time to be put in due execution. And likewiſe the Maiors and baſlifes, and all other gouernors of cities, boroughes and townes, and of ſuch vitailers in euerie place through the ſaide realme within liberties & without, in euerie of their othes vpon their new creation to be giuen in their offices, ſhall from henceforth be charged in eſpeciall, that they ſhall do ſuch ordinance of vitailers to be holden and firmely kept in their bailiwikes as much as to them and euerie of them perteineth.

Cap. 13. Pardon.

Item at the ſupplication and inſtance of the commons of the ſaid realme, the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king of his ſpeciall grace, and of the aſſent aforeſaid, and to the intent that the ſame commonaltie from henceforth may the more feruently abide in the loue, faith, & obedience of the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king and of his heires, and peaceably beare them ſelfe in all parties through the ſaid realme, hath pardoned and remitted to all and ſinguler his liege people & ſubiects, of whatſoeuer eſtate, degrée or condition they be: Except all thoſe whoſe names an other time in the parliament of this king the v. and vi. yéere of his reigne were deliuered by the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde to be excepted from all grace, as principall beginners, abbettors, and procurers of the inſurrection, late traiterouſly made within this realme, whereof they be arrayned, & alſo iii. other perſons citizens of London, which now in the parliament be in eſpecial arrained for that (that is to ſay) that one of the ſame citizens did firſt and principally let William Walworth, late Maior of London and certaine other the kings faithfull people to ſhut the gates of the ſaide citie againſt the commonalties of Kent and Eſſex, then traiterouſly aſſembled in the ſaide inſurrection, that they ſhould haue none entrie into the ſaid citie, & to defend the ſame citie from the ſaid traitors. And the other ii. of the ſaide iii. citizens were arrained, of that that they ſhoulde haue ben the firſt & chiefe counſellers of the ſame traitors, that they ſhoulde come to and enter the ſaid citie, & leaders of the ſame traitors within the ſaid citie: And all other fully being in the ſame caſe of the iii. citizens or anie of them. And alſo all & ſinguler perſons of the town of ſ. Edmondes Bury likewiſe excepted, the ſuite of his peace & as much as to him perteineth or may perteine for treaſons and felonies in the ſaid inſurrections, betwixt the firſt daie of May, the iiii. yéere of his reigne, & the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſ. Iohn the Baptiſt than next following, in anie manner of wiſe done or committed, whereof they were endyted, arrained or appealed, & alſo outlagaries, if any in them or in anie of them were by theſe occaſions promulgate, & hath graunted, & by this preſents doth graunt to them & euerie of them, by the tenor of theſe preſents, his firme peace: ſo neuertheleſſe that they ſtand right in the kings court, if anie againſt them or anie of them wil ſpeke of the premiſſes or of anie of them Alſo the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king hath pardoned and remiſed to the commons of his ſaid realme, and to euerie ſinguler perſon of the ſame realme (except before excepted) as much as to him perteineth or may pertaine, for all treſpaſſes in anie maner of wiſe done or committed in the ſame realme, before the xxiiii. day of October this preſent yéere, except al treſpaſſes by certeine officers of the king and of other lordes and great men of the ſaid realme, and alſo by certeine mainteiners of quarels and all iurors, and alſo ſpecially except ſuch treſpaſſes don before the ſaid xxiiii. day of October in anie wiſe concerning landes or tenements. And by the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king it is ordeined and graciouſly graunted, that the ſaid grace, remiſſions, and pardons ſhalbe auailable to euerie of the kings liege people, except before excepted, as though euery of them had or ſhould obtein therof the kings ſpecial charter.

Inſurrection.

Here beginneth another Statute made at Weſtminſter the ſame vi. yeere.

RIchard by the grace of God, &c. Knowe yée that in the parliament laſt holden at Weſtminſter we did to be made certeine ſtatutes, ordinances and pardons to ſuch effect as followeth, rehearſing the beginning of the laſt parliament, with the confirmation of the liberties of the church, of the great charter and the charter of the forreſt, and the ſtatutes of puruei-ors for the kings houſe.

Chap. 1.

Item where as our ſoueraigne lord the king in his parliament ſummoned at Weſtminſter, the Monday in the vtas of ſaint Michael the vi. yere of his reigne, of his eſpecial grace did pardon and remiſe to all and ſinguler his liege people and ſubiects, of whatſoeuer eſtate, degrée, or condition they were (except certeine citizens of London and other, of whome ſpeciall mention is made in the ſaid pardon) the ſuite of his peace, ⁊ whatſoeuer thing to the ſaide King perteined or might perteine, for all manner treaſons and felonies done or committed in the time of the inſurrection than lately within the ſaide realme of England ſtyrred, whereof they were endyted, arrained, or appealed, as in the ſame parliament is more fully conteined: The ſaid our ſoueraigne lorde the king, at the inſtant ſupplication of the commons of his ſaid realme, made in this preſent parliament, as a benigne lorde, hauing compaſſion of his ſubiectes, cléerely perceiuing that in howe much more graciouſly he would do by them, ſo much the more tranquillitie ſhould grow betwixt his ſaide ſubiectes, of the aſſent aforeſaid will and graunteth, that the ſaid grace, pardon, and remiſſion in the ſaide parliament, that is of treaſons and felonies done and committed in the ſaid inſurrection (as afore is ſaide) ſhall in all things extend to all and ſinguler his liege people and ſubiects, as well of London as other before excepted from the ſaid grace, ſuch onely except whoſe names ſpecially in the ſaide parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morrowe of all ſoules, in the v. yéere of his reigne, were by the ſame king deliuered to be excepted from the ſaid grace. So that all and ſinguler perſons of the ſaide realme, of what eſtate, degrée or condition they be (none of them except, but the perſons whoſe names be deliuered in the ſaide parliament the ſaide v. yéere) ſhall take full benefit of the ſame grace, pardon, ⁊ remiſſion, by force of theſe preſents, as though euerie of them had or ſhould obteine vpon the ſame the kings ſpeciall charter, and alſo as they ſhould take if no exception thereof were made of them in the ſaide firſt grace or pardon. How be it the kings minde is not, but that the men of ſaint Edmondes burie ſhall be thereof holden to purſue ſpecially for the kings charters of pardon, and further to finde ſufficient ſuretie of their good bearing, as well againſt our ſoueraigne lorde the king and his people, as againſt the abbey of Burie, according to the ordinance thereof an other time made in the kings councell.

Pardon.

Cap. 2. Inſurrection.

Item for peace and tranquillitie to be nouriſhed ⁊ augmented throughout the ſame realme, and to ceaſe ſtrife and contentions: It is ordeined and accorded, that if anie perſon feele himſelfe by occaſion of anie treſpas done in the ſame inſurrection to be gréeued or damnified, and for the ſame peraduenture doeth purpoſe to make his ſuite againſt the ſaide treſpaſſours, that the ſame perſon begin the ſame ſuite (if he ſée it expedient for him) before the xv. of ſaint Iohn next comming, or els (the ſaide xv. being paſt) he ſhall be excluded from the ſame ſuite and occaſion thereof for euer.

Cap. 3. Purgatiõ.

Item as to the quarels or ſuites of treſpaſſes done in the ſaide inſurrection, commenced before anie of the kings Iuſtices, or before the ſaide xv. to be commenced: It is likewiſe ordeined and accorded, that if they, againſt whom ſuch ſuites be taken, or before the ſaide xv. ſhall be taken, come before iudgement, and will thereof purge or acquite them ſelfe by iii. or iiii. good and conuenient men, and not ſuſpect, thereunto ſworne before the Iuſtices, where the plea ſhall be thereof hanging, that is to ſay, that they came not willingly in the place pretenſed for the cauſe of anie euil, nor did no harme, but onely by the compulſion of other, they ſhall be thereto receiued by the Iuſtices and iudges aforeſaid, and ſuch purgation made by the ſaid witneſſes, than they ſhall depart thereof vtterly quyte, ⁊c.

Here beginneth the Statutes made at Weſtminſter the vii. yeere of King Richard the ſecond.

RIchard by the grace of God, ⁊c. to the ſhirife of Yorke gréeting: Know thou that at our parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Monday next before the feaſt of all ſaints laſt paſt to the honor of God and of holie church, and for the common profit of the realme, of the aſſent of the prelates, lordes and commons being at the ſaid parliament we haue done to be made certeine ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme following.

Chap. 1. Franchiſes.

FIrſt it is aſſented and accorded, that holie church haue and enioy all her liberties and franchiſes as wholie as ſhe hath had and enioyed them in the time of the kings noble progenitors.

Chap. 2. Charter.

Item that the great charter and the charter of the forreſt, and all other good ſtatutes and ordinances made before this time and not repealed ſhall be holden and kept and put in due execution according to the effect of the ſame.

Chap. 3. Foreſt. Iurie.

Item at the greeuous complaint which is nowe made of the miniſters of the forreſt, it is aſſented and accorded, that no manner of Iurie ſhall be from henceforth compelled by anie miniſter of the forreſt to trauaile from place to place out of the places where their charge is giuen to them againſt their grée, nor by malice, nor by manace or other dureſſe conſtrained to ſaye their verdit of a treſpas done in the forreſt otherwiſe than their conſcience will clerely enforme them, but they ſhall ſay their verdictes vpon their charge in the places where this charge is giuen them as aboue is ſaide.

Chap. 4. Foreſt.

Item it is aſſented, that no man be taken nor impriſoned by any miniſter of the forreſt without due enditement or by mainouerie or treſpaſſing in the forreſt: nor alſo ſhall not be conſtrained to make anie obligation or raunſome to anie miniſter of the forreſt by anie manner againſt their grée and the aſſiſe of the forreſt. And if anie doe againſt this ordinance in anie point, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall pay to the partie damnified their double dammages and fine and raunſome to the king for his offence.

Chap. 5. Roberdeſmen. Dꝛawlatches. Iuſtices. Vacabōds. Faitours.

Item it is oꝛdeined and aſſented, that the ſtatutes made in the time of king Edwarde grandfather of our ſouereigne loꝛde the king that nowe is of Roberdſmen and Dꝛawlatches be fermelie holden and kept. And moꝛeouer it is oꝛdeined and aſſented to reſtraine the malice of diuers people, faitoꝛs and wandꝛing from place to place running in the countrie moꝛe abundantlie then they were wont in times paſt, that from hencefoꝛth the iuſtices of aſſiſes in their ſeſſions. the iuſtices of peace and the ſhiriffes in euerie countie ſhall haue power to enquire of all ſuch vacabondes and faitours and of their offences, and vpon them to do that the lawe demandeth. And that as well the iuſtices and ſhiriffes, as the maioꝛs, bailiffes, conſtables and other gouernours of townes and places where ſuch faitours and vacaboundes ſhall come, ſhall from hencefoꝛth haue power to examine them diligentlie and to compell them to find ſuerty of their good bearing by ſufficient mainpernours, of ſuch as be diſtreinable, if anie default be founde in ſuch faitours and vacaboundes. And if they can not finde ſuch ſuertie they ſhall be ſent to the next gaile, there to abide till the comming of the iuſtices aſſigned foꝛ the deliuerance of the gailes, who in ſuch caſe ſhall haue power to do vpon ſuch faitoures and vacabounds ſo impꝛiſoned that that thereof to them beſt ſhall ſeeme by the lawe.

Chap. 6. Statute of Wincheſter. Shiriffe. Pꝛoclamation.

Item foꝛ the greeuous miſcheeues and complaintes that doe dailie happen of robberies, thefts, manſlaughters, burning of houſes, and ridinges in routes, and great companies in euerie part of the realme: It is oꝛdeined and aſſented, that the ſtatute of Wincheſter (the tenour whereof is ſent by our ſouereigne loꝛde the king this yeere laſt paſt into euerie countie of Englande to be pꝛoclaimed) be holden and kept in all pointes and put in good and haſtie execution at the complaint and purſuite of euerie man that feeleth him greeued againſt the tenour of the ſame. And to the intent that no man ſhall excuſe him ſelfe by ignoꝛance of the ſame ſtatute it is alſo aſſented that euerie ſhiriffe of England, ſhall be bound from hence foꝛth in pꝛoper perſon to make pꝛoclamation of the ſame ſtatute foure times in a yeere in euerie hundꝛed of his bailiwike, ⁊ by his bailiffes in euerie market as well within liberties as without.

Chap. 7. Iuroꝛs. Niſi pꝛius.

Item againſt the miſcheefe, that happeneth to diuerſe people of the realme, which be impanelled and returned befoꝛe the iuſtices and barons of the eſchequer, in which caſe becauſe that the enqueſts is not purſued to the ende by thoſe that be parties, but put in dailie from yeere to yeere, the iurours doe greatlie loſe and ſome much moꝛe then the valoure of their land is by yeere, to their great impouertiſhing and deſtruction: It is accoꝛded that from hence foꝛth in all maner of pleas where a Niſi prius is grantable of office after the great diſtreſſe returned ⁊ iii. times ſerued befoꝛe the iuſtices againſt the iurours, and therevpon the parties demanded, if anie of the ſaide parties will purſue, oꝛ if the parties refuſe to haue a wꝛit of Niſi prius in the caſe, then at the ſuite of anie of the iuroꝛs that is pꝛeſent, a wꝛit of Niſi prius ſhall be made ⁊ granted. And that as well in the eſchequer as elſe where, and therevpon the quarell ſet at an ende without delaie accoꝛding as the caſe requireth and the lawe demaundeth.

Chap. 8. Purueioꝛs

Item it is accoꝛded ⁊ aſſented, that the ſtatutes of purueioꝛs made befoꝛe this time be firmelie holden and kept, and put in good and due execution, ioining to the ſame, that if the ſeruantes of other loꝛdes and ladies which be not compꝛiſed in the ſaide ſtatute do from hence foꝛth take in anie partie within the realme vittailes oꝛ cariages to the vſe of their loꝛdes and ladies otherwiſe then they thereof maie agree with the owners and ſellers of the ſame by paiment thereof to be made redilie in hand, that the ſame ſeruants ſhall incurre the paine compꝛiſed in the ſaid ſtatutes of purueioꝛs, and neuertheleſſe the partie endamaged by ſuch ſeruants (if he will) ſhall haue his ſuite at the common lawe.

Chap. 9. Clothes. Aulnegeours. Eſchequer

Item vpon miſcheefe, which dailie happeneth vpon the falſitie and diſceite, which is founde in clothes vendible as well coloured as raie clothes, againſt the aſſiſe thereof oꝛdeined befoꝛe this time, it is oꝛdeined and aſſented, that all the ſtatutes thereof made in times paſt, with the ſtatutes made of aulnegeours and collectours of the ſubſidie of the ſaide clothes be holden kept and put in due and good execution: Ioining to the ſame, that he, which from hence foꝛth ſhall eſpie and pꝛoue defaulte in anie ſuch cloth ſet to ſale, againſt the aſſiſe thereof oꝛdeined of the ſaide clothes, and againſt the foꝛme of the ſaide ſtatutes, ſhall haue the third part of euerie ſuch cloth defectiue foꝛ his labour, by the deliuerie of the ſhiriffes, if they bee pꝛeſent, oꝛ of the loꝛdes of the faires and markets and other places, where ſuch clothes ſhall be found defectiue, oꝛ of their ſtewards oꝛ bailiffes, oꝛ of the conſtables of the townes and places afoꝛeſaide by indenture betwixt them duelie to bee made, which indentures ſhall be euerie yeere from the feaſt of ſaint Michael deliuered in the eſchequer, by them which ſo ſhall make the ſaide deliuerie to the effect there to charge the aulnegeours and collectoꝛs afoꝛeſaid, by whom ſuch defaultes ought to haue bene ſearched, coꝛrected and amended, and be not, but commonlie mainteined and concealed in all parties, foꝛ which thirde part that perteineth to the king, as his foꝛfeiture, by foꝛce of the ſtatutes made in times paſt, the aulnegeours and collectoꝛs afoꝛeſaid in euerie countie and place, where ſuch clothes defectiue ſhal be found, foꝛ the paine againſt the ſaide offences and concealement ſhall make gree of their owne monie to our ſouereigne loꝛde the king in his eſchequer of the valure of the ſame third part. So that as well of the ſame third part as of the remnant of the ſaid cloth the king ſhall be wholie anſwered at his ſaide eſchequer.

Chap. 10 Aſſiſe de nouel diſſeiſin

Item it is oꝛdeined and aſſented, that an aſſiſe of Nouell diſſeiſin ſhall bee from hence foꝛth granted and made of rent behinde due of tenements being in diuers counties, to be holden in the confine of the counties, with in which the tenements be. And therevpon the aſſiſe taken and tried by people of the ſaid counties in the ſame maner as is done of a common of paſture being in one countie, & appendant to tenements in an other county. And that as wel of diſſeiſins done in times paſt as of diſſeiſins yet to be done, and that writs therevpon at the ſuite of the plaintiffes be made from henceforth in the chauncerie without anie maner of contradiction in a due forme.

Chap.11 Fiſhers. Vinteners. Vittailers. Wines.

Item where as late in diuerſe parliaments holden at Weſtminſter the v. and vi. yeere of our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king, diuerſe ordinances and ſtatutes of fiſhers of London and of other vittailers were made: and alſo of vinteners and of the ſale of wines, and therevpon the ſame ordinances and ſtatutes with the paines in them conteined were publiſhed and proclaimed throughout the realme, as in the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinances more plainely may appeare: neuertheleſſe for certeine cauſes at the requeſt of the commons of England therevpon ſpeciallie made: It is aſſeated and agreed, that the ſame ordinances & ſtatutes of fiſhers, vinteners and vittailers made in the yeeres aforeſaid, ſhall be wholie adnulled and repealed, and ſhall loſe their effect & ſtrength: neuertheleſſe ſauing to the king all the forfeitures of wines for the time paſt that to him perteineth by vertue of the ſame ordinances and ſtatutes: Prouided alwaies, that all the vinteners and vittailers as well fiſhers as other comming with their vittailes to the citie of London, ſhall be from henceforth vnder the gouernance and rule of the maior and aldermen of the ſaid citie for the time being, as in times paſt it hath bene vſed. London.

Chap.12 Procuracy. Benefice.

Item where as late in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the third yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, at the requeſt of the commons, and by the aſſent of the lords temporall it was ordeined & aſſented, and vpon a greeuous paine defended, that no ſubiect of the king nor other perſon, of what eſtate or condition he were, ſhould take neither receiue from thenceforth within the realme of England procuracy, letter of atturneie, ne ferme, ne none other adminiſtration by indenture, or in anie other maner, of no perſon concerning anie benefice of holy church within the realme, but onelie of the kings ſubiects of the ſame realme, without the ſpeciall grace and expreſſe licence of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, vpon a certeine paine conteined in the ſame ſtatute: It is aſſented and agreed by the ſame lords and commons, that the ſame ſtatute ſhall keepe his force & effect in al points. And more ouer it is alſo aſſented, that if any alien haue purchaſed, or from hence forth ſhall purchaſe any benefice of holy church, dignitie or other thing, & in his proper perſon take poſſeſſion of the ſame, or occupie it him ſelfe within the realme, whether it be to his owne proper vſe, or to the vſe of anie other, without eſpeciall licence of the king, ſhall be compriſed within the ſame ſtatute, and moreouer ſhall incurre all paines and forfeitures in all points as is before ordeined by an other ſtatute made the xxv. yeere of the noble king Edward the third, grandfather to our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, concerning them that purchaſe prouiſions of abbeies or priories. And to the intent that ſuch licences ſhall not be from hence forth made, the king will and commandeth to all his ſubiects & other, that they ſhall abſteine them from henceforth to praie him for anie ſuch licence to be giuen: And alſo the king him ſelfe will abſteine to giue anie ſuch licence during the warres, except to the cardinall of Naples, or to ſome other ſpeciall perſon, to whom the king is holden for an eſpeciall cauſe. Prouiſion. Licence.

Chap.13 Harneis. Launcegay.

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, and alſo the king doth prohibit, that from hence forth no man ſhall ride in harneis within the realme, contrarie to the ſtatute of Northampton therevpon made, neither with launcegaie within the realme, the which launcegaies be prohibited and clearelie put out within the ſaide realme, as a thing prohibited by our ſouereigne lorde the king, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaide launcegaies, armours, and other harneis, in whoſe handes or poſſeſſions they be founde, that beare them within the realme contrarie to the ſtatutes and ordinances aforeſaide without the kings ſpeciall licence.

Chap.14 Premunire facias. Chauncellor. Atturneie.

Item in writs of Premunire facias it is aſſented and agreed, that they, againſt whom ſuch writs be ſued and who at this time be out of the realme, and be of good fame, and haue made their generall atturneies before their departing, that the Chaunceller of England for the time being by the aduiſe of the iuſtices, may graunt, that the ſame perſons maie appeare to anſwere, to do and to receiue that thing, which the lawe demaundeth by their generall atturneies aforeſaide, as well as in other cauſes & quarels. And thoſe perſons, which from henceforth ſhall paſſe by the kings licence, and be of good fame, that at their requeſt the Chaunceller, by the aduiſe of the iuſtices, maie graunt to them to make their generall atturneies in the chauncerie, by the kings patent before their paſſage, to anſwere as well in the ſaide writs of Premunire facias, as in other writs and plaintes, in which caſe expreſſe mencion ſhall be made at all times of the writs and plaintes of Premunire facias. And this patent ſo made, the ſaide atturneies from henceforth in abſence of their maſter may anſwere for them and make other atturneies vnder them, before anie iudge of the realme, to doe and receiue in the ſaide cauſe as much as in anie other caſe or matter, not withſtanding anie ſtatute made to the contrarie heretofore.

Chap.15 Maintainers. Champertours.

Item for the greeuous complaint that is made of mainteiners of quarels and champartours it is ordeined and aſſented, that the ſtatutes thereof made in the firſt and fourth yeere of king Edwarde, graundfather to our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, and alſo in the firſt yeere of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is ſhall be holden and kept, and duelie executed in all pointes.

Chap.16

Item it is aſſented, and the king ſtraitlie defendeth, that from henceforth no perſon, alien nor denizen, of whatſoeuer eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall carrie nor ſend, nor do to be carried nor ſent by land nor by ſea out of the realme of England, to anie parties of Scotland, priuily nor appertly, any manner of armour, corne, malt or other vitailes, or anie other refreſhing, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame vitailes, armours, and other things aforeſaide together with the ſhippes, veſſels, cartes, and horſes, which ſhall bring or carrie the ſame, or of the verie valour of the ſame, except ſo it be that the king do giue his ſpeciall licence to the contrarie. And to the intent that theſe ordinances be duely kept and put in due execution, it is alſo aſſented, that he which after proclamation thereof made, eſpye and prooue that anie hath offended or forfeit in anie point againſt the fourme of this ordinance ſhall haue the thirde parte of the ſaide forfeitures wholly to his owne vſe.

Scotland. Armour. Corne. Vitaile. Licence.

Cap. 17. Mainpriſe. Superſedeas. Mainpernors.

Item it is aſſented and accorded, that in writtes of debt, treſpaſſe, and accompt, and in all other caſes, where mainpriſe and writtes of Superſedeas be grauntable, that if the perſons compriſed come not before the Judges at the day compriſed in the ſame mainpriſe, and by ſo much the plaintife is put to delay and loſſe, the ſaid mainpernors ſhall be anſwerable to the plaintifes of a certaine ſumme of ſiluer to be limitted by the diſcretion and aduiſe of the ſaide Judges, hauing conſideration to the qualitie and quantitie of the dammages of the parties and of the things in demaund. And this ordinance of mainpernours ſhall endure in aſſay till the next parliament only. And therefore we commaund you, &c. Dated &c.

Here beginneth the Statutes made at Weſtminſter the viii. yeere of King Richard the ſecond.

TO the honour of God, & at the requeſt of the commonaltie of the realme of England made to our ſoueraigne lorde the king in his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the morrow of Saint Martin, the viii. yeere of his reigne: the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, of the aſſent of the prelates, great men, and commons aforeſaid, hath done to be made in the ſame parliament a certeine ſtatute for the common profit of the ſaide realme, & eſpecially for the good and iuſt gouernance and due execution of the common lawe in the fourme following.

Chap. 1. Liberties. Charter. Puruiors.

FIrſt it is ordeined and enacted, that holy church haue all her liberties. And that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt, the ſtatutes of purueyors and labourers, and al other ſtatutes and ordinances heretofore made and not repealed, ſhall be holden and obſerued and put in due execution according to the fourme and effect of the ſame.

Cap. 2. Juſtice.

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that no man of the lawe ſhall be from henceforth Juſtice of aſſiſes, or of the common deliuerance of gayles in his owne countrie. And that the chiefe Juſtice of the common bench be aſſigned amongeſt other to take ſuch aſſiſes and deliuer gayles, but as to the chiefe Juſtice of the kings bench it ſhall be as for the moſt part of an C. yeeres laſt paſt was wont to be done.

Cap. 3. Juſtices. Counſaile. Barons del eſchequer.

Item whereas late in the time of the noble king Edwarde, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, it was ordeined, that Juſtices as long as they ſhoulde be in the office of Juſtices, ſhould not take fee nor robe of anie except of the king, and that they ſhould not take gift nor rewarde by them nor yet by other, priuilie nor appertly of anie man which ſhoulde haue anie thing to doe afore them in anie wiſe, except meate and drinke of ſmall valour. And that they ſhould not giue counſell to anie great or ſmall in things or affaires, where the king is partie, or which in anie wiſe touche the king, vppon a certeine peine conteined in the ſaide ordinance. And in the ſame manner it is ordeined of the barons of the eſchequer, as in the ſaide ordinance is more plainly conteined: (The ſaide ordinance being rehearſed in the parliament) it is ordeined and aſſented, that no Juſtice of the kings benche nor of the common bench, nor none of the barons of the eſchequer, as long as they ſhall be in the office of Juſtice or barons, ſhall take from henceforth robe, fee, pencion, gift, nor rewarde of anie but of the king, except rewarde of meate and drinke, which ſhall be of no great valour. And that from henceforth they ſhall giue no counſell to anie great or ſmall in things or affaires, wherein the king is partie, or which in anie wiſe touche the king, and that they be not of anie mans counſell in anie cauſe, plea or quarel, hanging the plea before them or in other of the kings courtes or places, vpon peine of loſſe of their office, and making to the king fine and raunſome.

Cap. 4. Entring of pleas. Raſing of rolles. Verdict.

Item at the complaint of the ſaide commonaltie, made to the king in the parliament, of that that great diſheriſon in times paſt was done of the people, and might be done by the falſe entring of pleas, raſings of rolles, and changing of verdictes: It is accorded and aſſented, that if anie Judge or clerke be of ſuch default (ſo that by the ſame default there enſueth diſheriſon of anie of the parties) ſufficiently conuict before the king and his councel by the manner and forme, which to the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king and his councell ſhall ſeeme reaſonable, and within two yeeres after ſuch default made, if the partie grieued be of full age, and if he be within age, than within two yeeres after that he ſhall come to his full age, he ſhall be puniſhed by fine and raunſome at the kings will, and ſatiſfie the partie, and as to the reſtitution of the inheritance deſired by the ſaide commons, the partie grieued ſhall ſue by writ or otherwiſe according to the lawe, if he ſee it expedient for him.

Here

Here beginneth the Statutes made at Weſtminſter the ix. yeere of King Richard the ſecond.

OUr ſoueraigne lord the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Monday next after the feaſt of ſaint Luke, the ix. yeere of his reigne, of the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, marqueſſes, earles, barons and commons at the ſame parliament aſſembled, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed the things vnderwritten.

Chap. 1. Shiriffes. Eſchetors. Purueiors Barons del eſcheſquer.

FIrſt it is accorded and aſſented, that all the ſtatutes made by the parliament in the times of the kings noble progenitors, and in his owne time, as well of ſhiriffes, vnderſhiriffes, eſchetors and clerkes of ſhiriffes, as of purueiors, and all other good ſtatutes and ordinances not repealed by parliament, ſhall be firmely holden and kept, and due execution thereof done, according to the effect of the ſame, except the ſtatute of the Iuſtices and barons of the eſchequer made at the laſt parliament, which becauſe it is verie hard and needeth declaration the king will that it be of no force till it be declared by parliament.

Cap. 2. Villaines. Neifes. London.

Item where as diuers villaines and neifes, as well of great lordes as of other people as well ſpirituall as temporall, do flye within cities, townes and places enfranchiſed, as the citie of London and other like, and feine diuers ſuites againſt their lordes, to the entent to make them free by the aunſwere of lords: It is accorded and aſſented, that the lords nor other, ſhall not be forbarred of their villaines becauſe of their anſwere in lawe.

Cap. 3. Attaint. Errour. Othe.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that if the tenant for terme of life, tenant in dower, tenant by the curteſie of England, or tenant in taile after poſſibilitie of iſſue extinct be impleded, & plead to an enqueſt, and loſe by the othe of xii. or that they loſe by default or in other manner, that he, to whom the reuertion of the tenements ſo loſt perteineth at the time of ſuch iudgement giuen, his heires and his ſucceſſors ſhall haue an action by writ of attaint to attaint the ſame othe, if they will aſſigne the ſame othe to be falſe: and alſo by writ of error, if error be found in the recorde of ſuch iudgement, as well in the life of ſuch tenants that ſo do loſe, as after their death. And if ſuch iudgement erronious be reuerſed, or ſuch falſe othe be founde, that the tenant that did loſe by the firſt iudgement, if he be in life, ſhall be reſtored to his poſſeſſion of the tenements ſo loſt, with the iſſues in the meane time, and the partie purſuing to the arrerages of the rent if anie be dewe of the ſame tenements. And if ſuch tenant be dead at the time of the iudgement giuen vpon ſuch writtes of attaint and of error, that reſtitution of the ſaide tenements be made to the partie purſuing, with the iſſues after the death of the ſaid tenant, togither with the arrerages of the rent, if anie to him were due in the life of the tenant.

Prouided neuertheleſſe, that although the tenant, which ſo did loſe by the firſt iudgement, be in life, and the partie purſuing will alledge, that the ſame tenant was of couine, and of the aſſent of the demaundant, which recouered, that ſuch tenements ought to be loſt, that reſtitution of the ſame tenements be made, to the ſame partie purſuing, with the iſſues and arrerages, as afore is ſaide. Sauing to ſuch tenant his action by writ of Scire facias out of the ſame iudgement ſo reuerſed or giuen, or writ of atteint, if he will trauerſe the couin and aſſent aforeſaide, and otherwiſe not. And that this ſtatute holde place of iudgements to be giuen in time to come. And alſo of two iudgements late giuen in the kings bench in two pleas of error, the one betwixt Edmond Fraunces and Ideyn his wife demaundants, and Robert Weſtby and other tenants of certeine tenements in Oxenford, and in the ſuburbes of the ſame towne, and the other betwixt the ſaid Edmond and Ideyn demaundants, and Richard Cornewayl & Iſabel his wife tenants of certeine tenements in the ſame towne, of which tenementes the reuertion at the time of the ſaid two iudgements giuen, did perteine to the maiſter and ſcolers of the colledge of the vniuerſitie hall in Oxenforde, as it is ſaid, ſo that the maiſter and ſcolers may haue and do their ſuite by writ of attaint or of error of the ſame iudgements, as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme, according to the forme of this ſtatute.

Cap. 4. Ordinarie.

Item where as a plea is moued betwixt partie and partie in the kings court, which do diſcend to an iſſue vpon ſuch point, that is to ſaie if the matter being in plea touch anie priour, be he perpetuall, or datiſe and remouable at the will of his abbot ſoueraigne, the one of the parties will alledge in declaration of ſuch perpetuitie, that ſuch priour was preſented by his ſoueraigne to the ordinarie, and by him receiued, inſtitute, and induct: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that in ſuch caſe, when the partie diſcendeth to ſuch iſſue, that a writ be ſent to the ordinarie of the place, to certifie if ſuch priour be perpetuall or datiſe and remouable, as before, and that the matter be iudged according to the certification, and that this ſtatute be of force betwixt the parties, as well where ſuch priour is not partie, as where he is partie, and as well in pleas hanging, as in pleas hereafter to be commenſed.

Cap. 5. Prieſtes.

Item at the reuerence of God and of holy church it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that prieſtes & other people of holy church, taken in the marſhalſey of the kings houſe, ſhall paie ſuch fees as lay people pay reaſonably and no more.

Here beginneth the Statutes made at Weſtminſter the x. yeere of King Richard the ſecond.

KNowe ye, that at the reuerence of God, and for to nouriſh peace, vnitie, and good accord in all parties within the realme of Englande, and ſpecially for the common profite and eaſe of our people and good gouernance of the ſame, our realme of England, which we ſoueraignely deſire, of the aſſent of the lordes and commons aſſembled in our parliament holden at Weſtminſter the firſt day of October laſt paſt, wee haue done to bee made a ſtatute, as well for the amendement of the ſaide gouernaunce, as for the common profite of the ſaide realme in the fourme following.

Chap. 1.

Where as our ſoueraigne lorde the king perceiueth, by the greuous complaint of the lordes and commons of his realme, in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that his profits, rents, and reuenues of his realme, by ſinguler and in ſufficient counſell and euill gouernance, as well of ſome late his great officers, as of diuers other perſons being about his perſon be ſo much withdrawen, waſted, eloyned, giuen, graunted, aliened, deſtroyed and euill diſpended, that he is ſo much impoueriſhed and voide of treaſure and goods, and the ſubſtance of the crowne ſo much diminiſhed and deſtroyed, that his eſtate and the eſtate of his houſe may not honourably be ſuſteined as perteineth, nor the warres, which dailye haboundeth enuiron his realme, mainteined nor gouerned without great and outragious oppreſſions and importable charges of his ſaide people, and alſo that the good lawes, ſtatutes, and cuſtomes of his ſaid realme (which he is bounden to holde and obſerue) be not nor haue not beene duely holden nor executed, not full iuſtice nor right done to his ſaid people: whereby manie diſheriſons and diuers great miſchiefes and dammages be happened, as well to the king as to his ſaid people and to all his realme: Whereof he to the honor of God, and for the weale of him and of his realme, and for the quietnes and reliefe of him and of his people (who haue beene in diuers manners greatly charged before this time) willing with the grace of God againſt ſuch miſchiefes to prouide a good and due remedie, hath of his free will, and at the requeſt of the lords and commons aforeſaid, ordeined made and aſſigned his great officers, that is to ſay, the chauncellor, treaſurer and keeper of his priuie ſeale, ſuch as he holdeth good, ſufficient, and lawfull for the honor and profit of him and of his realme. And moreouer of his authoritie royall, certeine knowledge, good gree and free will, and by the aduiſe and aſſent of the prelates, lordes and commons aforeſaide in the full parliament, in aide of good gouernance of his realme, and good and due execution of his ſaid lawes, and in reliefe of the eſtate of him and his ſaide people in time to come, vpon the full truſt that he hath of good aduiſement. wit and diſcretion of the honorable fathers in God William archbiſhop of Caunterburie, and Alexander Archbiſhop of Yorke, his deere vncles Edmund duke of Yorke, and Thomas duke of Glouceſter, the honourable fathers in God, William biſhop of Wincheſter, Thomas biſhop of Exceſter, and Nicholas abbot of Waltham, and his welbeloued and faithfull Richarde earle of Arandell, John lord of Cobham, ſir Richard Leſcrop, & John Deuoreux, hath ordeined, aſſigned, and deputed them by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, to be of his great and continuall councell from ſaint Edmundes euen the martyr by a whole yere next following, after the date of the ſaid letters patents, to ſuruey and examine with the ſaid great officers, that is to ſay, the chanceller, treaſurer, and keeper of his priuie ſeale as well the eſtate and gouernance of his houſe and of all his courtes and places, as of all his realme, and of all his officers and miniſters, of what ſo euer eſtate, degree, or condition they be, as well within the ſaide houſe as without, and to enquire and take information by all the wayes which to them beſt ſhall ſeeme, of all the rents reuenues and profits that to him partaineth and be due, and ought to pertaine and be due, as well within the realme as without, in anie maner way or condition, and of all maner giftes, grants, alienations, and confirmations, made by him of landes, tenements, rents, annuities, profites reuenues, wardes, marriages, eſchetes, forfeitures, franchiſes, liberties, voidances of archbiſhopriches, biſhopriches, abbeies, priories, fermes of houſes and poſſeſſions of aliens, and of all other poſſeſſions, ſummes of money, goods and catals, and of all other things, and to what perſons, and for what cauſe, and how, and in what manner, and namely of thoſe perſons, the which haue taken without deſert, and alſo of all manner reuenues and profites aſwell of his ſaide realme, as of landes, ſeignories, cities, townes, caſtels, fortreſſes, and all manner his other poſſeſſions, as well on this ſide the ſea as beyonde, and of the profites and emoluments of his money and bullions, and of the taking of priſoners, townes, and places, ſhips, caracks, goods, and raunſomes of warre by land and by ſea, and of benefices and other poſſeſſions of cardinals, rebels, and all other aliens, and alſo of carrying of money out of the realme by the collectors of the pope, procurators of the cardinals, Lumbardes, and other perſons as well aliens as denizens, & of the emolimentes and profits coymming and riſing of the cuſtomes and ſubſidies of wolles, leather and wolfelles, & of ſmall cuſtomes and other ſubſidies of clothes, wines and all other merchandiſes, and of diſmes, and quinzimes, and of all other ſubſidies and charges graunted by the clergie and commons, and alſo of the receites, profits, and paiments of the hanapar of his chauncerie, and of all other his receites from the time of his coronation till nowe, and of fees, wages, and rewardes of officers and miniſters more and leſſe, alſo of annuities and other rewardes, and alſo giftes and grants made to anie perſons by him and by his father and his graundfather in fee, or for terme of life, or in any other manner, and if gree or paiment be to them thereof made, and by whome, and how, and in what manner, and alſo howe much they haue releaſed or giuen to officers or other to haue their paiments, and to what perſons howe and in what manner, and of landes, tenements, rent, reuenues, and forfeitures, bargained and ſolde to the preiudice and dammage of him and of his crowne, and by whome, and to whome, howe, and in what manner, and of the ſale or bargaine

Chauncellor
Treaſurer.
Keeper of the priuie ſeale.

of taſkes and patents of ſinguler profit as well in the time of his ſaid grandfather, as in his owne time, and howe, and by what perſons, and alſo of all his iewels and goods, which were his ſaide grandfathers at the time of his death, and what, and of what price or valor, and where they be become, and howe and in what manner, and of all cheuiſances in anie wiſe made to his vſe by anie manner perſons, and of all loſſe and dammages which he hath had and ſuſteined by the ſame, and by what perſons howe and in what manner, and of charters of pardons generall and eſpeciall, and alſo of the ſummes and paiments and manner of the expences as wel of his ſaid houſe as for the ſaluation and defence of his realmes, landes, ſeignories, townes, caſtels, fortreſſes, and other places on this ſide the ſea, and beyonde, done and receiued by anie perſons as wel ſouldiers as other, and by anie manner waye, and howe and in what manner, and howe much they haue giuen to haue their paiments, and of the concealements of his rightes and profits, and by whome, howe, and in what manner, and of mainteinors and takers of quarels, embracers of enqueſtes, and of officers and miniſters made by brocage and of their broggers, and of them that haue taken the ſaide brocage, and how and in what manner, and alſo of all the defaultes and offences that be done as well in his ſaide houſe and his other courtes and places aforeſaide, as in all other places within his realme of Englande by anie maner perſons, whereby the profite of him and of his crowne hath béene empaired and diminiſhed, or the common lawe diſturbed or delayed, or other dammage to him happened: giuing and committing by the ſame of his royall authoritie, and by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, to the ſaide counſellers and to ſixe of them, and to the ſaide greate officers, full power and auctoritie generall and ſpeciall, to enter his ſaid houſe and all the offices of the ſame, and all his other courtes and places as often as them pleaſe, and to doe come before them (where and when them pleaſeth) the rolles, recordes, and other munimentes and euidences, ſuch as them liketh; and all the defaultes, waſtes and exceſſes founde in his ſaide houſe, and alſo all the defaultes and miſpriſions founde in the other courtes, places officers and miniſters aforeſaide, and in all the other articles and pointes aboue named and euerie of them, and alſo all the other defaultes, miſpriſions, exceſſes, falſities, deceiptes, extortions, oppreſſions, dammages, and gréeuances done in preiudice, dammage, and diſtreſſe of him and of his crowne and the eſtate of his realme in generall or ſpeciall aboue not ſpecified nor expreſſed, to amende, correct, repaire, redreſſe, reforme, and put in due and good eſtate and ſtabliſhment, and alſo to heare and receiue all manner of complaintes and quarels of all his lieges, which will ſue and compleine them as well for our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king as for them ſelfe, before the ſaide counſellors and officers, of all manner of dureſſes, oppreſſions, iniuries, wrongs, and miſpriſions, which may not be well amended nor determined by the courſe of the common lawe of the lande before vſed, and thereof to giue and make good and due remedie and recouerie, as well for our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, as for his ſaide liege people, and all the things aforeſaid and euerie of them fully to diſcuſſe, and finally to determine, and thereof to make full execution according as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme, for the honor and profit of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king and of his eſtate and reintegration of the right and profits of his ſaide crowne, and better gouernance of the peace and lawes of this lande, and reliefe of his ſaid people: willing alſo that if diuerſitie or variance of opinion riſe or happen betweene the ſaide counſellers and officers, that the iudgement and opinion of the greater partie haue force & hold place, as in the ſaide letters patents is fully conteined: Whereupon our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing that the corrections and redreſſes of the defaultes and miſpriſions aforeſaide may be for the profite of him and of his ſaide realme in the forme aforeſaide, put in due execution without being broken or diſturbed by anie, of the aſſent of the lordes and commons of his ſaide realme in this preſent parliament hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euerie one of his ſaide lieges greater or leſſe, of what ſo euer eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall be attending and obedient in howe much that toucheth the articles aforeſaide and euerie dependencie thereon, to the ſaide counſellers and officers in the forme aforeſaide. And that euerie perſon that ſhall be iudged before them as conuict of anie of the defaultes or miſpriſions aforeſaide, ſhall take and receiue without debate making ſuch correction as ſhall be iudged to him by the ſaide counſellers and officers in the forme aforeſaide. And that no perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be greater nor leſſe, ſhall giue to the king priuily nor appertly, councell, exhortation or motion, whereby the king ſhoulde repeale their power within the time aforeſaide, in anie point, or do anie thing contrarie of his ſaide graunt, or of anie of the ſaide articles. And if anie perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be, do againſt the ordinance and ſtabliſhment aforeſaide, or procure or doe anie thing in anie maner, whereby the ſaide councellers be diſturbed in anie point vpon the exerciſe of their ſaid power, or which exciteth or procureth our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king to do or commaund anie maner thing, wherby the power of the ſaid counſellers & officers, or the execution of their ſaid iudgement, & awards to be made in the ſame, be in anie point aforeſaid defeated, & that duly proued by good & true witneſſes, which be notoriouſly holden of good fame and condition, not ſuſpected, couenably examined before the king and the counſellers and officers aforeſaid, any of the iuſtices of the one bench or the other taken to them, or other diſcrete and learned in the law, ſuch as pleaſe the ſaid counſellers & officers, ſhal haue ſuch penance: that is to ſaie, at the firſt time that he ſhalbe ſo conuict, he ſhal forfeit al his goods & cattals to the king, & neuertheles he ſhall be impriſoned at ỹ kings wil, & if anie ſuch perſon be duely attainted in ỹ forme aforeſaid, of counſel, exe

excitation or motion giuen to the king, or of doing the contrarie of his ſaid grant, as afore is ſaid, albeit the king doth nothing by ſuch counſell, excitation, or motion, yet he ſhall haue ſuch penance as afore. And if it happen (which God defend) that he ſo beare him afterward, that he be an other time attainted (as afore) of anie of the ſaid defautes or miſpriſions, then the ſame perſon ſo conuict or attainted, ſhall haue at the ſecond time the penance of life and of member. Sauing alwayes the dignitie pontificall and priuilege of holie church and clericall in all the things aforeſaid. And that this ſtatute holde force and effect during the ſaid commiſſion onelie. And therefore we commaunde thee, that thou do the ſaid ſtatute openlie to be cried and publiſhed in cities, boroughs, townes, faires, markets, and other notable places within thy bailiweeke within franchiſe & without, according to the tenor and forme of the ſame. Dated &c.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xi. yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

OUr ſoueraigne lord the king hartilie deſiring, that the peace of his land be well holden and kept, and his faithfull ſubiects nouriſhed and gouerned in quietnes and tranquillitie in al parties within his realme of England, to the honour of God and for the cauſes aforeſaid, of the aſſent of the lords and commons of his realme of England, aſſembled at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morowe of the Purification of our Ladie the xi. yéere of his raigne, doth make and ſtabliſh certaine ſtatutes and alſo doth grant certaine graces and pardons in the forme vnder written.

Chap. 1.

FIrſt our ſoueraigne lord ẏ king amonſt other petitions & requeſts to him made by ẏ commons of his realme in the ſaid parliament, hath receiued one petition in the forme following.

Petit. 1.

The commons praying, that where as at the laſt parliament for cauſe of the great and horrible miſchiefes and perils, which an other time were fallen by euill gouernance, which was about the kings perſon by all his time before, by Alexander late archbiſhop of Yorke, Robert de Veere late duke of Ireland, Michael de la Pole late earle of Suffolke, Robert Treſiliam late iuſtice, and Nicholas Brembre knight, and other their adherents and other, whereby the king and all his realme were verie nigh to haue bene whollie vndone and deſtroyed, and for this cauſe, and for to eſchewe ſuch perils and miſchiefes for the time to come, a certaine ſtatute was made in the ſame parliament and a commiſſion to diuers lords for the weale honour and ſafegard of the king, his regalie, and of all the realme. The tenor of which commiſſion and ſtatute hereafter followeth.

RIchard by the grace of God king of England & of France and lord of Ireland, to all them that ſhal ſee or heare theſe letters greeting. We haue certainlie conceiued by ẏ grieuous complaint of ẏ lords, & commons of our realme in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that our profits, rents, and reuenues of our ſaid realme. &c. and ſo forth, as in the ſtatute next going before til theſe words.

That the iudgement and opinion of the greater partie haue force and hold place, & then thus, Commanding and charging all prelates, dukes, earles, barons, ſteward, treaſurer, and controller, and all other officers of our houſe, iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, and all our other iuſtices, barons and chamberlaines of the eſchequer, ſhirifes, eſchetours, maiors, bailifes, and all our other officers, miniſters, and liege people, that they be attending, obedient, counſelling, and aiding as often and by the maner as our ſaid counſellours and officers ſhall do them to wit, on our behalfe. In witnes whereof we haue done to be made theſe our letters patents. Dated vnder our great ſeale at Weſtminſter the xix. daie of Nouember, the x. yéere of our raigne.

WHere as our ſoueraigne lord the king perceiueth &c. as in the ſame laſt ſtatute in the x. yéere till the end of the ſame ſtatute, and then thus. And thereupon the ſaid Alexander, Robert, Michael, Robert, and Nicholas & their ſaid adherents, ſéeing that their ſaid euill gouernance ſhould be perceiued, and they by the ſame cauſe the lightlier to be puniſhed by good iuſtice to be done, and alſo their euill déedes and purpoſes before vſed to be diſturbed by the ſaid lords aſſigned by commiſſion, as afore, made, conſpired, and purpoſed diuers horrible treaſons and euils againſt the king and the ſaid lords ſo aſſigned, and againſt all the other lordes and commons, which were aſſenting to the making of the ſaid ordinance and commiſſion, in deſtruction of the king his regallie and all his realme: whereupon Thomas duke of Glocceſter the kings vncle, and ſonne to king Edward, whom God aſſoyle, Richard earle of Arundell, and Thomas earle of Warwike, perceiuing the euill purpoſes of the ſaid traitours, did aſſemble them in forcible maner for the ſafegard of their perſons, to ſhew and declare the ſaid treaſons and euill purpoſes, and thereof to ſet remedie, as God would and came to the kings preſence, affirming againſt the ſaid fiue traitours appealed of high treaſon by them done to the king and to his realme, vpon which appeale ẏ king our ſoueraigne lord adiourned ẏ ſaid parties till this preſent parliament, & did take them in his ſafe protection, as in the record made vpon ẏ ſame appeale fully appeareth. And afterward in great rebellion, and againſt the ſaid protection, ẏ ſaid traitours with their ſaid adherents & other aforeſaid, continuing their euil purpoſe, ſome of them aſſembled a great power to haue deſtroyed ẏ ſaid duke & earles appellants, and other the kings lawful liege people, and to accompliſh their treaſons & euil purpoſes aforeſaid. Whereupon the ſaid duke of Glocceſter, Henrie earle of Derbie, the ſaid earles of Arundel and Warwike, and Thomas earle Marſhall ſéeing the open deſtruction of the king & of al his realme, if the ſaid euill purpoſed traitours & their adherents were not diſturbed, which might not otherwiſe haue bene done but with ſtrong hand, for the weale and ſafegard of the king our ſoueraigne lord, and of all his realme, did aſſemble them forcible, and rode and purſued till they had diſturbed the ſaid power, gathered by yͤ ſaid traitours and their adherents aforeſaid, which fiue traitours be attaint in this preſent parliament of the treaſons and euils aforeſaid at the ſuite and appeale of the ſaid duke of Glouceſter, earles of Darbie, Arundel, Warwike, and Marſhall: That it would pleaſe our redoubted ſoueraigne lord the king to accept, approue and affirme in this preſent parliament, all that was done in the laſt parliament, as afore, & as much as hath bene done ſince yͤ ſaid laſt parliament by force of the ſtatute ordinance or commiſſion aforeſaid, and alſo all that the ſaid duke of Glouceſter, earle of Arundel and of Warwike did, and all that the ſame duke and earles and the ſaid earles of Darbie and Marſhal or anie of them did, or anie other of their companie, or of their aide, or of their adherents, or of anie of them, or touching the aſſemblies, ridings, appeales, and purſuites aforeſaid, as a thing made to the honour of God, ſaluation of the king, maintenance of his crowne, and alſo of the ſaluation of all his realme: and alſo to ordeine and ſtabliſh, that the ſaid duke of Glouceſter, earles of Darbie, Arundell, Warwike, and Marſhall, nor none of them, nor none of ſuch as haue bene of their retinue or companie, force, aide, or counſell, or of anie of them, in the things aforeſaid, nor none other perſon for anie thing aforeſaid, ſhall be impeched, moleſted or grieued at the ſuite of the king nor of the partie, nor in other maner becauſe of any aſſemble, riding, beating, leuying of penons, or of baners, diſcomfeture, death of a man, impriſonment of anie perſon, taking, leading awaie, or detenue of horſes or of other beaſts, taking or carying of goods, harneſſe, armour, cattels and other moueable goods, burning of houſes or of other poſſeſſions or goods, aſſaute, batterie, robberies, theftes, comming or tarying with force and armes, or armed in the kings preſence at the parliament or councell or els where, riſing of people, or exciting the people to riſe forcible againſt the peace by letters, commiſſions or anie other deedes, or of anie other thing that maie be ſurmiſed by them or anie of them, or ought or purpoſed to haue bene done from the beginning of the world touching anie of the ſaid matters before the end of this preſent parliament by anie imagination, interpretation or other colour, but ſhall be quite and diſcharged for euer, except that the king be anſwered of all the goods and cattels that were to them, which be attainted in this preſent parliament, or to anie of them, and which goods and things were taken by any perſon the firſt day of Januarie laſt paſt or after hetherto: We conſidering the matter of the ſaid petition to be true, & at yͤ requeſt of our ſaid commons in this partie, to be to yͤ honour of God and profite of vs and our realme, of the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and all other of this preſent parliament do grant the requeſt of the ſaid commons in al points after the forme of their ſaid petition. And moreouer of the aſſent aforeſaid we will and grant for the great quietnes of our ſaid realme, though that the ſaid duke or earles appellants or anie other of their companie, retinue, force, aide, councell, or adherence or anie of them haue taken, led away, or witholden any of our iuſtices, or any other our miniſters in diſturbance of execution of the lawe of our realme of England, or in other maner, or that they haue taken anie maner perſon traitour to vs or to our realme or other perſon, and the ſame haue voluntarilie ſuffred to go at large or eſcape beyond yͤ ſea from the xiiii. daie of Nouember laſt paſt, till yͤ end of this preſent parliament, that they nor none of them be for this cauſe impeched, moleſted, nor grieued by anie maner way at yͤ ſuite of vs, our heires nor none other partie, but thereof they ſhalbe quitte & diſcharged for euer, nor that they nor any of them be in any wiſe moleſted, grieued nor impeched at yͤ ſuite of vs, our heires nor of other partie for any thing done at any time for to attaine to their purpoſe againſt yͤ ſaid appeals or any of them, or againſt any other perſon for this cauſe, nor for other thing or deede to affirme yͤ ſame purpoſes til the end of this preſent parliament, but thereof ſhalbe quit & diſcharged for euer.

Protection.

Cap.2. Moreouer we haue receiued an other petition deliuered to vs in this preſent parliament by the ſame commons in the forme following.

Petit.ii. Item that no perſon, that hath bene about yͤ kings perſon, nor none other perſon, ſhalbe impeched, moleſted, nor grieued by appeale, accuſement, or in other maner, becauſe of euill gouernance or euill counſell about yͤ kings perſon in anie time before yͤ end of this preſent parliament, or becauſe of any other thing then hath bene declared in this preſent parliament for treaſon or miſpriſion. except thoſe that be attainted or iudged in this preſent parliament. and except John Ripon clerke. Henrie Bowete clerke, William Monkton clerke, John Lancaſter knight, Henrie Ferers knight, Richard Clifford clerke. Richard Metford clerke, John Lincolne of Grimeſby clerke, Nicholas Slake clerke, John Holcotes Eſquire, Nicholas Southwel, James Luſtrake, Henrie Clarke of Clakſtede. Simkin of Shiringham, John Fitzmartin clerke, William Cheſterton perſon of Ratleſden, frier Richard Roughton of the order of friers minors. and Thomas his brother, & all they that be beyond the ſea with the other traitours, and all other that will go to them hereafter. Item that none, which hath bene of the retinue, companie, force, aide, councell, aſſent, or adherence of them that be attainted or iudged in this preſent parliament, or of any of them (except thoſe before excepted) be impeached, moleſted nor grieued at the ſuite of the king nor other partie. nor in other maner. becauſe of anie aſſemble, riding. beating, leuying of penons or of baners, diſcomfiture, death of a man impriſonment of any perſon. taking leading away, or witholding of horſes or other beaſts, taking or carying of goods, harneys, armour, cattels or other moueables, burnings of houſes or of other poſſeſſions or of any goods. aſſaute, baterie, robberies, theftes, comming and tarying with force and armes, or armed in the kings preſence at the parliament,councels,or els where, reiſing of people, or exciting of the people to riſe forcibly and againſt the peace,by letters, commiſſions,or other deedes againſt the entent or purſuite of the ſaid duke of Glouceſter,earles of Darby,Arundell,Warwike and Marſhall , which intent and purſuite be declared by their appeale in this preſent parliament, or of anie other thing that may be ſurmiſed that they or anie of them ought to haue done or purpoſed to haue done from the beginning of the world, touching anie of the matters againſt the intent and purſuite aforeſaide declared in the ſaide appeale. Which petition of the aſſent aforeſaide we haue graunted in all pointes, and thereof we will and graunt full pardon and remiſſion to them and euerie of them, to whom it perteineth,according to the continue of the ſame petition.

Cap.3.

Alſo we haue receiued two other petitions deliuered to vs in the ſame parliament by the ſame commons in the forme following.

Petit.iii.

Item that the appeales,purſuites,accuſements, proceſſe, iudgements, and executions made and giuen in this preſent parliament be approued, affirmed,and ſtabliſhed as a thing duely made for the weale and profit of the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and of all the realme , notwithſtanding that the lordes ſpirituall and their procurators did abſent them out of the parliament at the time of the ſaide iudgements giuen, for honeſtie and ſaluation of their eſtate, as is conteined in a proteſtation by the ſame lordes ſpirituall and procurators deliuered in this preſent parliament. And that by imagination, interpretation, or anie other motion, none of the ſame bee reuerſed , broken, or adnulled in anie manner. And who ſo euer that make purſuite to breake, adnull , or reuerſe anie of the ſaide points , which purſuite is of recorde , he ſhall be iudged and haue execution as a traitor and enimie of the king and his realme. Prouided alwayes, that this acceptance, approbation, affirmance and ſtabliſhment touching the aſſemblies, appeales, purſuites, accuſements, proceſſe, iudgements and executions aforeſaide , haue and holde force and vertue in this caſes ſo fallen and happened or declared onely , and that they bee not drawen in example nor in conſequencie in time to come, nor that the ſaid commiſſion made at the laſt parliament , be drawen in example nor conſequencie hereafter , but as much as is done touching the ſaide matters ſhall ſtande firmely for the time that is paſt,ſince that they were ſo profitable to the king and ſuſtinance and maintenance of his crowne, and ſaluation of all the realme, and made of ſo great neceſſitie. And though that diuers points be declared for treaſon in this preſent parliament , other than were declared by ſtatute before, that no iuſtice haue power to giue iudgement of other caſe of treaſon,nor in other maner,than they had before the beginning of this parliament.

Petit.iiii.

Item that none of the traitors atteinted by the appeale aforeſaid,or accuſements of the commons, which be yet in liſe, ſhall be reconciled nor reſtored to the lawe by pardon nor in other maner, ſauing the grace and pardon which is made in this preſent parliament, and if anie do purſue to reconcile them,or to make them to haue pardon, or to reſtore them to the common lawe in any maner, and the ſame be duely and openly by record proued, he ſhall be iudged and haue execution as a traitor, and enimie of the king and of the realme : and if anie charter of pardon, or licence to repaire into England, or other graunt be made to the ſaid traitors or anie of them to be reſtored to the common lawe, or to abide in England, or in other place than is limit to them in this preſent parliament , that all ſuch charters and grauntes be voide and of no valour. And if anie of the ſaide traitors come againe, or holde him in Englande or els where within the power and ſeignorie of the king or anie of his lieges by anie way, or if anie of the ſaid traitors,which be limit to abyde in certine places be found out or paſſe the place to him limit,as afore is ſaide , it ſhall be done of him as of a traitor and enimie of the king and of the realme. Which petitions we of the aſſent aforeſaid haue graunted in all points, and we will that the ſame our graunt ſhall ſtand firme and ſtable according to the continue of the ſaid petitions without blemiſh for euer.

Chap. 4.
Forfeiture.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed,that in the right of the ſame forfeitures of thoſe that be iudged in this preſent Parliament before the xx.day of this preſent moneth of March , that the king haue the forfeiture of all the caſtels, ſeignories, reuerſions, landes,tenementes, fees, auowſons, franchiſes,liberties and all other poſſeſſions, which were to Alexander late archebiſhop of Yorke, Robert de Weere late duke of Ireland, Mighel de la Pole late earle of Suffolke, Robert Treſylian knight, Nicholas Brembre knight, Iohn Blake, and Thomas Vſke, or to anie of them the firſt day of the laſt Parliament , which was the firſt daie of October , the tenth yeere of the king that nowe is , or after hitherunto, and which anie other had of the gifte , graunt or feoffement of the ſaide archbiſhop of Yorke, duke of Ireland, earle of Suffolke, Robert Treſylian , Nicholas Brembre, Iohn Blake , and Thomas Vſke , or of anie of them , or of the gift graunt or feoffement of anie other by bargaine or in other manner to the vſe of the ſame archbiſhop of Yorke, duke of Irelande, earle of Suffolke, Robert Treſylian, Nicholas Brembre, Iohn Blake, and Thomas Vſke, or of anie of them,the ſaid firſt day of the laſt Parliament or afterward hitherto ſhall be forfait to the king . And that all the goods and cattals, which were to the ſaide archbiſhop of Yorke , duke of Irelande , earle of Suffolke, Robert Treſyllan , Nicholas Brembre , Iohn Blake, and Thomas Vſke, or anie of them,the xvii. day of Nouembre laſt paſt , or after hitherto,ſhall be alſo forfeit to the king . And if anie of the ſaid archbiſhop,duke, earle, Robert, Nicholas,Iohn and Thomas haue dimiſſed them of anie of their goods & cattals by colour of any feined gift or ſale, or paiment of debt not due, or in other maner by fraud or colluſion , after the ſaid firſt daie of the laſt Parliament till the ſaid xx.day of March, ſuch goods and cattals ſhall be forfeit to the king. And alſo that all the lands, tenements, reuerſions, fees auowſons, franchiſes, liberties, & all other poſſeſſions, which were to R. Belknap, John Holt, John Cray, and William Burgh knightes, or to anie of them the firſt day of Auguſt laſt paſt or after hither vnto, and which anie other had of the gift, graunt or feoffement of the ſaide Robert Belknap, John Holt, John Cray, and William Burgh, or of anie of them, or of the gift, graunt, or feoffement of anie other by bargaine or in other manner to the vſe of the ſame Robert Belknap, John Holt, John Cray, and William Burgh or of anie of them, the ſaide firſt day of Auguſt, or after hithervnto, ſhall be forfeit to the king. And that all the goods and cattals which were to the ſaide Robert Belknap, John Holt, John Cray, and William Burgh, or to anie of them the vi. day of the ſaide moneth of Marche, on which day they were iudged, or afterward hithervnto, ſhall be alſo forfeit to the king. And if anie of the ſaide Robert Belknap, John Holt, John Cray, and William Burgh haue dimiſſed them of anie of their goods and cattals, by colour of anie feined gift or ſale, or paiment of anie debt not due, or in other manner by fraude or colluſion after the ſaid firſt day of Auguſt till the ſaid vi. daie of March, ſuch goods and cattals ſhall be forfeit to the king. And alſo that all the lands and tenements, reuerſions, fées, auowſons, franchiſes, liberties, and all other poſſeſſions, which were to Roger Fulthorp knight, and John Lokton, or anie of them, the xxv. day of the ſaid moneth of Auguſt or afterwarde hithervnto, & which anie other had of the gift, graunt, or feoffement of the ſaide Roger Fulthorp, and John Lokton, or anie of them, or of the gift, graunt or feoffement of anie other by bargaine or in other manner to the vſe of the ſame Roger and John, or of anie of them, the ſaid xxv. day of Auguſt or afterward hithervnto, ſhal be forfeit to the king, and that all the goods and cattals, which were to the ſaid Roger and John or to anie of them the vi. day of the ſaid moneth of March, at which day they were iudged, & afterward hithervnto, ſhall be alſo forfeit to the king. And if anie of the ſaid Roger Fulthorp, and John Lokton, haue them dimiſſed of anie of their goods and cattals by colour of feined gift or ſale, or payment of any debt not due, or in other maner by fraud or colluſion after the ſaid xxv. day of Auguſt till the ſaid vi. day of March, ſuch goods and cattals ſhall be forfeit to the king.

Cap. 5. Forfeiture

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the king ſhall haue the forfeiture of all the caſtels, ſeignories, reuerſions, lands, tenements, fées, auowſons, franchiſes, liberties and all other poſſeſſions, which were to T. biſhop of Chicheſter, Simon Burley knight, John Beachaump of Holt knight, James Berners knight, and John Saleſburie knight, alſo iudged in this parliament, or which were to anie of them, the ſaid firſt daie of October, the ſaide x. yéere, or which anie other had of their gift, graunt, or feoffement, or of anie of them, or of the gift, graunt, or feoffement, of anie other by bargaine, or in other manner to their vſe, or to the vſe of anie of them the ſaide firſt daie of October, or after, till the daie that they were iudged in this parliament, and that all the goods and cattals, which they or anie of them had the xvii. day of Nouember laſt paſt or after, till the ſaid daie of their iudgement, ſhall be alſo forfeit to the king, and if anie of them hath dimiſſed him of his goods and cattals by colour of anie fained gift or ſale, or paiment of debt not due, or in other manner, by fraud and colluſion, after the ſaide firſt daye of October, the ſaide x. yéere, till the day that they were iudged in this preſent parliament, they ſhall be alſo forfeit to the king, and if anie rent charge be demaunded of the ſaid caſtels, ſeignories, landes, and tenements in demeane or reuerſion ſo forfeit, as afore is ſaide, and the ſaide rent were graunted not to the intent to be payed by the grauntor effectually, nor after the purport of the ſaide graunt, that in ſuch caſe the ſaid caſtels, ſeignories, landes and tenements ſo forfeit, ſhall be thereof diſcharged, and ſuch graunt of no valor. And moreouer it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that proclamation ſhall be made in the counties, that euerie perſon, that hath anie of the goods and cattals ſo forfeit as afore is ſaide, or to whoſe handes ſuch goods and cattals ſhall come, that he within ii. monethes after the proclamation ſo made, ſhall come and certifie the ſame to the kinges councell, and if he do not, and be thereof duely attainted, he ſhall be holden to aunſwere to the king, and the ſame goods and cattals ſo concealed or the price of the ſame, and beſides that, as much as the ſame goods and cattals ſo concealed be woorth, and he ſhall alſo haue one yéeres impriſonment. Prouided alwaies that if anie of the ſaide perſons adiudged, bee or were ſeaſed or in poſſeſſion of any caſtels ſeignories, landes, tenements, reuerſions, fees, aduowſons, fraunchiſes, liberties, or other poſſeſſions by feoffement, gift, or graunt of anie perſon, to the vſe and profit of anie other, than to the vſe and profit of the ſaide perſons adiudged or of anie of them; that ſuch caſtels, landes, tenementes, reuerſions, fees, aduowſons, franchiſes, liberties and anie other poſſeſſions ſhall in no manner be forfeite, nor that this ordinance or ſtabliſhment of forfeiture ſhall extende to them. And moreouer it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the king ſhall haue all the ſaide forfeitures, as well within franchiſes as without: Sauing the right of the lordes of the ſaide franchiſes, if anie right to them perteine in this behalfe. And it is not the intent of the king, nor of the lordes and commons of the Parliament, that by force of this Statute the iſſues in tayle, or they in reuerſion or in remainder, or Weomen of their heritage or ioynture with their huſbandes of giftes, grauntes, and feoffementes made before the ſaide time limitte of forfeiture, ſhall bee barred or forcloſed of their right, when their time ſhall come according to the common lawe.

Cap. 6.

Item that all manner of ſeignories, lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices, goods, and poſſeſſions, & all maner cattals forfeit to the king, becauſe of iudgements giuen againſt the perſons adiudged

in Forfeitures.

in this parliament, and alſo al other lands and tenements, eſchetes, forfeitures, wards, mariages, and other profites which be or ſhall come in the kings hand by anie cauſe, ſhall abide wholy in the kings hand, during the warres to acquite his debts, and in aide to mainteine his eſtate, and alſo in eaſe & ſupportation of his poore commons of the realme, notwithſtanding anie warrant or grant made to anie before this time, and that no great man nor ſmall in the kings houſe, nor about the kings perſon, nor no other of what eſtate or condition that he be, priuilie nor appertlie be ſo hardie to take of the kings gift anie of the ſaid ſeignories, lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices, goods, poſſeſſions, eſchetes, forfeitures, wardes, mariages, caſtels or profites, or anie other profites and reuenues, during the warres (as afore) vpon peine to forfeite the double to the king, and repeale of the ſame thing ſo demanded, and to be ranſomed and impriſoned at the kings will, except offices and bailiwékes, benefices and aduancements of holie church. And except that that the king hath giuen in this preſent parliament: ſo that in the right of the forfeitures iudged in this preſent parliament, if anie pretend to haue right or intereſt to the ſame, he ſhall ſue to the councell, if him ſo liketh, and right ſhalbe done to him: and that the kings great officers, by aduiſe of other lords of the councell, ſhall haue power to ſell parcell of the ſaid forfeitures by their diſcretion, and that the gift and grant to be made vpon ſuch ſale ſhalbe firme and ſtabliſhed.

Chap. 7. Vitailes.

Aliens. Denizen.

Wines.

Marchandiſe.

Item where as by a ſtatute made at Yorke the ix. yere of king Edward the third it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all marchants aliens and denizens, and all other, and euerie of them, of what eſtate and condition they be, which will buie or ſell corne, wine, auoir de poys, fleſh, fiſh, and all other vitailes, woll, clothes, wares, marchandiſes and all other things vendable, from whence ſo euer they come by forreines or by denizens, to what place that it be, be it citie borough, towne, port of the ſea, faire, market, or other place within the ſame realme, within franchiſe or without, maie fréelie and without diſturbance ſell the ſame to whom pleaſe them, as well to forines as denizens, except to the enemies of the king and of his realme, and if percaſe diſturbance be done to anie marchant alien or denizen or other, vpon the ſale of ſuch things in citie, borough, towne, port of the ſea, or other place, which hath a franchiſe, and the maior, bailiefes or other that haue the kéeping of the ſaid franchiſe be required by the ſaid marchants or other thereof to make remedie, and do not, and thereof be attainted, the franchiſe ſhalbe taken into the kings hand, and neuertheleſſe he and other, which haue done this diſturbance, ſhall be holden to reſtore to the ſaid marchant his double damages, which he hath ſuſteined by this occaſion, and if ſuch diſturbance to ſuch marchant or to other in townes or places where no franchiſe is, and the lord, if he be preſent or his bailife, conſtable or other warden of the ſaid townes or places, in abſence of the lords thereof required to do right, do not, and therefore be duelie attainted they ſhall yéeld to the plaintife his double damages, as afore is ſaid, and the diſturbers in the one caſe & the other aſwell within franchiſe as without, if they be attainted ſhall haue impriſonment of one yéere, and neuertheleſſe be raunſomed at the kings will. And that no alien nor denizen vpon the ſame peines, be diſturbed, but that hee maie fréelie buie the things aboue named in the places aforeſaid, and carie the ſame where pleaſeth him to his owne vſe, or to the king, the great men and of the people of the realme, except that the marchants aliens ſhall bring no wines out of the realme, as it is conteined in their charter, and that the ſaid things be holden kept and performed in euerie citie, borough, towne, port of the ſea, and other places within the ſaid realme, notwithſtanding anie charter of franchiſe to them granted to the contrarie, nor vſage, cuſtome, nor iudgement giuen vpon their charters, vſages nor cuſtomes, which they may allege, which charters, vſages and cuſtomes (if anie there be) the ſaid king the grandfather, the prelates, earles, barons and great men and commons aforeſaid holde of no force, as things granted, vſed, and accuſtomed to the damage of the king, the prelates, earles, barons, and great men of his realme, and oppreſſion of the commons. Sauing alwaies to the king and to other, the cuſtomes due of the ſaid marchandiſes. And alſo that the chancellour, treaſurer, and iuſtices aſſigned to holde the pleas of the king in places where they come, ſhall inquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances, and do puniſhment according as is before ordeined. And neuertheleſſe the king ſhall do to be aſſigned by commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, certaine people, where and when it ſhall pleaſe him, to enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances, and do puniſhment, as afore is ſaid. And after by a ſtatute made the xv. yéere of king Edward the third, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute, made the ſaid ix. yéere, in all points and articles conteined in the ſame, ſhould be holden, kept, and maintained. And if anie charter, letter patent, proclamation, or commandement vſage allowance or iudgement were made to the contrarie, the ſame ſhould be vtterlie repealed, auoyded and holden for none. And moreouer that euerie marchant or other, of what condition that he be, aſwell alien as denizen, which ſhall bring wines, fleſh, fiſh or other vitailes, clothes, felles, or auoyr de poys, or anie other wares and marchandiſes, to the citie of London, or to other cities, boroughes, & good townes of England or port of ẏ ſea, maie fréelie & without chalenge or impechment of anie, ſell in groſſe or at retaile or by percels at his will, to all maner people that will buie ẏ ſame, not withſtanding anie grant, franchiſe or cuſtome vſed, or anie other maner thing done to ẏ contrarie, ſince that ſuch franchiſes & vſages be in common preiudiſe of the king & of all his people. And that no maior, bailiffe, catchpoll, miniſter nor other ſhall medle of ẏ ſale of anie maner of vitailes vendable, caried or brought to cities, boroughs, nor other townes, nor faire, nor market, but onelie he to whom the vitailes ſhalbe. And alſo that proclamation be therof made of new in all ẏ counties of England, and in the citie of London. London, and in all the other cities, boroughes and good townes and portes of the ſea, and elſe where within the realme of England, where it ſhall be needefull. And that the ſaid king the grandfather ſhall thereupon do to be aſſigned his iuſtices at all times that ſhall pleaſe him and ſhall be neceſſarie to enquire of all them that ſhall ſell or any thing do to the contrarie, and to puniſh them according to the peine conteined in the ſame ſtatute, made the ſaid ix. yeere. And that euerie man that will ſue againſt anie, ſhall haue a writte of the chancerie to attach him by his bodie, as a diſturber of the common profite, and to make him come to anſwere thereof in the kings court, as by the ſame ſtatutes plainelie appeareth: Our ſoueraigne lord the king ſeeing cleerelie that the ſaid ſtatutes, if they were holden and fullie executed, ſhould much extend to the profite and weale of all the realme hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons great men, nobles and commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid ſtatutes ſhall be from henceforth firmelie holden, kept, maintained and fullie executed in all ẏ points & articles of the ſame, notwithſtanding anie ordinance, ſtatute, charter, letters patents, franchiſe, proclamation, commandement, vſage, allowance, or iudgement made or vſed to the contrarie. And that if anie ſtatute, ordinance, charter, letters patents, franchiſe, proclamation, commaundement, vſage, allowance or iudgement be made or vſed to the contrarie, it ſhall be vtterlie repealed, auoyded, and holden for none.

Chap. 8. Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed that all the annuities and other things giuen or granted by our ſoueraigne lord the king, or by his father, or grandfather to anie maner perſons with the clauſe: Quouſque pro ſtatu ſuo aliter duxerimus ordinandum, ſhall be whollie voide and of no force, if the ſame perſons haue accepted afterward anie other things of the king and of his ſaid father or grandfather.

Chap. 9. Impoſitions. Item that no impoſition nor charge be put vpon wolles, lether, or wolfelles other then the cuſtome and ſubſidie granted to the king in this preſent parliament, and if anie be, the ſame ſhall be repealed and adnulled as it was an other time ordeined by ſtatute, ſauing alwayes to the king his ancient right.

Cap. 10. Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that neither letters of the ſignet nor of ẏ kings ſecret ſeale ſhall be from henceforth ſent in damage or preiudice of the realme nor in diſturbance of the lawe.

Cap. 11. Item where as late in a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the vi. yeere of the kings raigne that now is, amongſt other things it was ordeined and accorded that the iuſtices aſſigned and to be aſſigned to take aſſiſes and deliuer iayles ſhould holde their ſeſſions in the chiefe and principall townes of euerie countie, that is to ſay, where the ſhire courtes of the ſame counties is or hereafter ſhalbe holden: Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering how the ſaid ſtatute is in part preiudiciall and grieuous to the people of diuers counties of England, will and grant of the aſſent aforeſaid, at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, that the chancellour of England for the time being ſhal haue power thereof to make remedie by aduiſe of the iuſtices from time to time when neede ſhall be notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatutes.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Canterburie the xij. yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

FOr the common profite and vniuerſall weale of all the realme of England our ſoueraigne lord the king at his parliament holden at Canterburie the morow after the natiuitie of our ladie the xii. yeere of his reigne, of the aſſent by the lords and commons there aſſembled, hath made certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme following.

Chap. 1. FIrſt it is accorded and aſſented that holie church haue all her liberties and franchiſes. And that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt and all other ſtatutes & ordinances made in times paſt and not repealed ſhall be duelie holden and firmelie kept.

Chap. 2. Clerke of the rolles. Othe. Ambition. Item it is accorded that the chancellour, treaſurer, keeper of the priuie ſeale ſteward of the kings houſe, the kings chamberlaine, clerke of the rolles the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, barons of the eſchequer, and all other that ſhall be called to ordeine, name or make iuſtices of peace, ſhirifes, eſchetours, cuſtomers, controllers, or anie other officer or miniſter of the king ſhalbe firmelie ſworne, that they ſhall not ordeine, name, nor make iuſtices of peace, ſhirife, eſchetour, cuſtomer, controller nor other officer nor miniſter of the king for anie gift or brocage, fauour or affection, nor that none, which purſueth by him or by other priuilie or appertlie to be in any maner office, ſhalbe put in the ſame office, or in anie other, but that they make all ſuch officers and miniſters of the beſt, and moſt lawfull men and ſufficient to their eſtimation and knowledge.

Chap. 2. Artificers. Iuſtices of peace. Maiors. Conſtables Stockes. Laborers. Item it is accorded and aſſented, that all the ſtatutes of artificers, laborers, ſeruants and vitailers, made as well in the time of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is as in the time of his noble grandfather (whom god aſſoile) not repealed, ſhall be firmelie holden and kept, and duelie executed. And that the ſaid artificers, laborers, ſeruants and vitailers be duelie iuſtified by the iuſtices of peace as well at the ſuite of the king as of the partie, according as ẏ ſaid ſtatutes require. And that the maiors, bailifes, & ſtewards of lords, & conſtables of townes, do duelie their offices touching ſuch artificers, ſeruants, laborers and vitailers. And that a paire of ſtockes be in euerie towne to iuſtifie the ſame ſeruants and laborers as is ordeined in the ſaid ſtatutes. And moreouer it is ordeined and aſſented, that no ſeruant nor laborer be he man or woman ſhall depart at the end of his terme out of the hundred, rape, or wapentake where he is dwelling, to ſerue or Letter.

Seale.

dwell elſe where, oꝛ by colour to go from thenſe in pilgrimage, vnles he bꝛing a letter patent containing the cauſe of his going, and the time of his returne, if he ought to returne, vnder the kings ſeale, which foꝛ this intent ſhall be aſſigned and deliuered to the keeping of ſome good man of the hundꝛed, rape, wapentake, citie, oꝛ boꝛough, after the diſcretion of the iuſtices of peace to be kept, and lawfullie to make ſuch letters when it needeth, and not in anie other maner, by his owne oth. And that about the ſame ſeale there ſhall be wꝛitten the name of the countie and ouerthwart the ſaid ſeale, the name of the hundꝛed, rape, oꝛ wapentake, citie oꝛ boꝛough. And alſo if anie ſeruant oꝛ laboꝛer be found in any citie oꝛ boꝛough oꝛ elſewhere comming from anie place, wandering without ſuch letter, he ſhall be maintenant taken by the ſaid maioꝛs, bailiffes, ſtewardes oꝛ conſtables, and put in the ſtockes, and kept till he hath found ſuretie to returne to his ſeruice, oꝛ to ſerue oꝛ labour in the towne from whence he came, till he haue ſuch letter to departe foꝛ a reaſonable cauſe. And it is to be remembꝛed, that a ſeruant oꝛ laboꝛer may freelie depart out of his ſeruice at the end of his terme, and to ſerue in an other place, ſo that he be in a certaintie with whom, and ſhall haue ſuch a letter as afoꝛe, but the meaning of this oꝛdinance is not, that anie ſeruants, which ride oꝛ go in the buſines of their loꝛdes oꝛ maiſters, ſhall be compꝛiſed within the ſame oꝛdinance foꝛ the time of the ſame buſines. And if anie beare ſuch letter, which may be found foꝛged oꝛ falſe he ſhall haue impꝛiſonment of xl. daies foꝛ the falſitie and further till he hath found ſuretie to returne oꝛ ſerue oꝛ labour as afoꝛe is ſaid. And that none receiue ſeruant oꝛ laboꝛer going out of their hundꝛed, rape, oꝛ wapentake, citie, oꝛ boꝛough without letter teſtimoniall, noꝛ with letter teſtimoniall aboue one night, except it be foꝛ cauſe of ſickenes oꝛ other cauſe reaſonable, oꝛ which will & may ſerue and labour there by the ſame teſtimoniall, vpon a paine to be limit by the iuſtices of peace. And that as well artificers and people of miſterie, as ſeruants & appꝛentiſes, which be of no great auoyꝛ, & of which craft oꝛ miſterie a man hath no great neede in harueſt time, ſhall be compelled to ſerue in harueſt, to cut, gather, and bꝛing in the coꝛne. And that theſe ſtatutes be duelie executed by maioꝛs, bailiffes, ſtewards, & conſtables of townes, vpon paine to be limit and iudged by the ſaid iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions. And that no man take aboue a pennie foꝛ the making, ſealing, and deliuering of ſuch letter.

Bailiffes.
Stewards.

Chap. 4.
Seruants.

Item becauſe that ſeruants and laboꝛers will not, noꝛ by a long ſeaſon, would ſerue and labour without outrageous and exceſſiue hier, & much moꝛe then hath bene giuen to ſuch ſeruants and laboꝛers in anie time paſt, ſo that foꝛ ſcarſitie of the ſaide ſeruants and laboꝛers, the huſbands and land tenants may not pay their rents, noꝛ vnnethes liue vpon their lands, to the great damage and loſſe as well of the loꝛds as all the commons: Alſo becauſe that the hiers of the ſaide ſeruants and laboꝛers haue not bene put in certaintie befoꝛe this time, It is accoꝛded & aſſented that the bailiffe foꝛ huſbandꝛie ſhall take by yeare xiii. s. iiii. d. and his clothing once by yeare at the moſt. The maiſter hine x. s. the carter x. s. the ſhepherd x. s. the oxherd vi. s. viii. d. the cowherd vi s. viii. the ſwineherd vi. s. a woman laboꝛer vi. s. a day vi. s. a dꝛiuer of the plough vii. s. at the moſt. And euerie other laboꝛer and ſeruant accoꝛding to his degree, and leſſe in the countrie where leſſe was wont to be giuen without clothing curteſie oꝛ other reward by couenant. And that no ſeruannt of artificer noꝛ vitteler within citie, boꝛough, noꝛ other towne ſhall take moꝛe than the ſeruants and laboꝛers aboue named after their eſtate, without veſture, curteſie oꝛ other reward by couenant as afoꝛe is ſaid, and if anie giue oꝛ take by couenant moꝛe then is aboue ſpecified, at the firſt time that they ſhall be thereof attainted, as well the giuers as the takers ſhall pay yͤ valour of the exceſſe ſo giuen oꝛ taken, & at the ſecond time of their atteinder the double valour of ſuch exceſſe, and at the third time the treble valoure of ſuch exceſſe, & if the taker ſo atteinted haue nothing thereof to pay the ſaid exceſſe, he ſhall haue xl. dayes impꝛiſonment.

Chap. 5.
Seruant at huſbandꝛie.

Item it is oꝛdained and aſſented that he oꝛ ſhe, which vſe to labour at the plough, and cart, oꝛ other labour oꝛ ſeruice of huſbandꝛie, till they be of yͤ age of xii. years, that from thenceforth they ſhall abide at yͤ ſame labour, without being put to anie miſterie oꝛ handiecraft. And if anie couenant oꝛ bond of appꝛentiſe be from henceforth made to yͤ contrarie, yͤ ſame ſhalbe holden foꝛ none.

Chap. 6.
Seruant of huſbandꝛie.

Item it is accoꝛded & aſſented that no ſeruant of huſbandꝛie oꝛ laboꝛer noꝛ ſeruant oꝛ artificer noꝛ of vitailer ſhall from henceforth beare anie bucklar, ſwerd noꝛ dagger vpon foꝛfeiture of the ſame, but in the time of warre foꝛ defence of the realme of England, and that by the ſuruieing of the arreiers foꝛ the time being, oꝛ trauailing by yͤ countrie with their maſter oꝛ in their maſters meſſage, but ſuch ſeruants & laboꝛers ſhall haue bowes & arrowes, and vſe the ſame the ſundayes and hollidayes, & leaue all plaieng at tenice oꝛ foteball, & other games called coytes, dice caſting of the ſtone, kailes, and other ſuch impoꝛtune games. And that the ſhiriffes, maioꝛs bailiffes, and conſtables ſhall haue power to arreſt, and ſhall arreſt all doers againſt this ſtatute, and ſeiſe the ſaid bucklars, ſwerds, and daggers, and keepe them till the ſeſſions of the iuſtices of peace, and the ſame pꝛeſent befoꝛe the ſame iuſtices in their ſeſſions, togither with the names of them that did beare the ſame. And it is not the kings minde, that anie pꝛeiudice be done to the franchiſes of loꝛdes touching the foꝛfeitures due to them.

Bowes.
Arrowes.
Tenis play.
Footeball.
Swerdes.
Daggres.

Chap. 7.
Beggers.

Item it is accoꝛded & aſſented, that of euerie perſon that goeth begging, and is able to ſerue oꝛ labour, it ſhall be done of him as of him that departeth out of the hundꝛed & other places afoꝛeſaid, without letter teſtimoniall as afoꝛe is ſaid, except people of religion, and heremits hauing letters teſtimoniall of their oꝛdinaries, and that the beggers impotent to ſerue, ſhall abide in the cities and townes where they be dwelling, at the time of the pꝛoclamation of this ſtatute, and if the people of cities or townes will not or may not ſuffice to finde them that then the ſaid beggers ſhall draw them to other townes within the hundreds, rape, or wapentake or to the townes where they were borne, within xl. daies after the proclamation made, and there ſhall continuallie abide during their liues, and that of all them that go in pilgrimage as beggars, and be able to trauaile, it ſhall be doone as of the ſaid ſeruants and laborers, if they haue no letters teſtimoniall of their pilgrimage vnder the ſaid ſeales. And that the ſcholers of the vniuerſities that go ſo begging, haue letters teſtimoniall of their chaunceller vpon the ſame paine.

Pilgrimage.
Scholars.

Chap. 8. Item it is ordained and aſſented, that they that faine them ſelfe men trauaile out of the realme & there to be impriſoned, ſhall bring letters teſtimoniall of the captaines where they were abiding, or of the maiors or bailiffes where they arriued. And the ſame maiors and bailiffes ſhall enquire of ſuch people where and with whom they haue dwelled, and in what place their dwelling is in England. And that the ſame maiors and bailiffes make them letters patents vnder the ſeale of their office, teſtifieng the day of their arriuall, and alſo witneſſing where they haue bene, as they haue ſaid. And that the ſaid maiors & bailiffes cauſe them to ſweare, that they ſhall hold their right way towardes their countrie, except that they haue letters patents vnder the kings great ſeale to doo otherwiſe. And if anie ſuch trauailed man be found without ſuch letter as afore is ſaid, it ſhall be doone of him as of the ſaid ſeruants and laborers, and alſo this ordinance ſhall be entended of men trauailed that go begging through the countrie after their arriuall.

Letters teſtimoniall.
Maiors.
Bailiffes.
Trauailed man.

Chap. 9. Item it is ordained and aſſented, that the ordinances aforeſaid of ſeruants and laborers, beggers, and vacabonds, ſhall hold place and be executed as well in cities and boroughes, as in other townes and places within the realme, as well within the franchiſes as without, and that the ſhiriffes, maiors, bailiffes, and keepers of the iayles ſhall be holden and charged to receiue the ſaid ſeruants, laborers, beggers, & vacabonds, & to keepe them in the priſon in the forme aforeſaid without letting to mainpriſe or in baile, and without fee or anie other thing taking of them by them ſelfe or by anie other, as long as they be ſo impriſoned, or at their entrie, or at their going forth, vpon paine to pay an C. s. to our ſoueraigne lord the king.

Seruants.
Shiriffes.
Maiors.
Bailiffes.
Keepers of iayles.

Cap. 10. Item it is ordained and agreed, that in euerie commiſſion of the iuſtices of peace, there ſhall be aſſigned but vi. iuſtices, with the iuſtices of aſſiſes and that the ſaid vi. iuſtices ſhall hold their ſeſſions in euerie quarter of the yeare at the leaſt, and by three daies if neede be, vpon paine to be puniſhed after the aduice of the kings councell, at the ſuite of euerie man that will complaine: and they ſhall enquire diligentlie among other thinges touching their offices, if the ſaid maiors, bailiffes, ſtewardes, conſtables, and iaylers, haue duelie doone execution of the ſaid ordinances of ſeruants and laborers, beggers and vacabonds, and ſhall puniſh them that be puniſhable by the ſaid paine of a hundred s. by the ſame paine, and they that be found in default, and which be not puniſhable by the ſame paine ſhall be puniſhed by their diſcretion. And euerie of the ſaid iuſtices ſhall take for their wages iiii. s. the day for the time of their ſaid ſeſſions, and their clerke ii. s. of the fines and amerciaments riſing and comming of the ſame ſeſſions by the hands of the ſhiriffes. And that the lordes of franchiſes ſhall be contributorie to the ſaide wages after the rate of their part of fines and amerciaments aforeſaid. And that no ſteward of anie lord be aſſigned in anie of the ſaid commiſſions. And that no aſſociation ſhall be made to the iuſtices of the peace after their firſt commiſſion. And it is not yͤ intent of this ſtatute, that the iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, nor the ſeriauntes of the lawe, in caſe that they ſhall be named in the ſaid commiſſions, ſhall be bound by force of this ſtatute, to hold the ſaid ſeſſions iiii. times in the yeare, as the other commiſſioners, the which be continuallie dwelling in the countrie, but that they ſhall doo it when they may beſt intend it.

Commiſſion.
Iuſtices of peace.
Shiriffes.
Lordes of franchiſes.
Steward.
Aſſociation.
Iuſtices of the one bench and the other.
Seriaunts at lawe.

Cap. 11. Item where as it is contained as well in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter primer, as in the ſtatute made at Glouceſter, the ſecond yeare of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, that none be ſo hardie to inuent to ſay or to tell anie falſe newes, meſſages, or ſuch other falſe thinges, of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons and other nobles and great men of the realme, and alſo of the chaunceller, treaſurer, clerke of the priuie ſeale, the ſteward of the kings houſe, the iuſtice of the one bench or of the other, and other great officers of the realme, and he that ſo dooth, he ſhall be taken and impriſoned, till he hath found him, of whome the worde ſhall be moued: It is accorded and agreed in this parliament, that when anie ſuch is taken and impriſoned and may not finde him, of whome the word ſhould be moued, as before is ſaid, that he be puniſhed by the aduiſe of the counſell, notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatutes.

Falſe newes.
Meſſages

Cap. 12. Item in the right of the leuieng of the expenſes of the knights comming to the parliaments of the commons of the counties, it is accorded and aſſented that yͤ ſaid leuieng be made as it hath bene vſed before this time. Ioining to yͤ ſame that if anie lorde or anie other man ſpirituall or temporall, haue purchaſed anie lands or tenements or other poſſeſſions that were woont to be contributorie to ſuch expenſes before the time of the ſaid purchaſe, that the ſame landes, tenements and poſſeſſions, and the tenements of the ſame, be contributorie to the ſaid expenſes, as the ſaide lands tenements and poſſeſſions were woont to doo before the time of the ſame purchaſe.

Knightes of the ſhires.
Expenſes

Cap. 13. Item for that that ſo much doong and other filth of the iſſues & intrailes as wel of beaſtes killed as of other corruptions be caſt & put in diches riuers & other waters, and alſo within manie other places, within, about, and nigh vnto diuers cities, boroughes, and townes of the realme & the ſuburbes of them, that the aire there is greatlie corrupt and infect and manie maladies and Ordeurs caſt into diches.

other intollerable diſeaſes doe dailie happen as well to the inhabitantes & alſo dwellers in the ſaide cities,boroughes,townes and ſuburbes as to other thither repairing and paſſing to the great anoiance,domage and perill of the inhabitantes, dwellers, repairers, and paſſers aforeſaide: It is accorded and aſſented that proclamation be made as well in the citie of London as in other cities, boroughes & townes through the realme of Englande, where it ſhall be needfull as well within the fraunchiſes as without, that all they which do caſt and put anoiances,doung,iſſues intrailes and other ordure in ditches,riuers,waters and other places aforeſaide, ſhall cauſe them vtterlie to be remoued, auoided & caried awaie betwixt this and the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next enſuing after the ende of this preſent parliament,euerie one vpon paine to loſe and to forfeite to our ſouereigne lord the king xx.li. And that the maiors and bailiffes of euerie ſuch citie,borough or towne, and alſo the bailiffes of the fraunchiſes ſhal compel the ſame to be done vpon like paine, & if any feele himſelfe greeued that it be not done in the maner aforeſaid,& wil thereon complaine him to the chaunceller after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michael he ſhall haue a writ to make him of whom he will ſo complaine to come in the chauncerie there to ſhewe why the ſaide paine ſhoulde not be leuied on him. And moreouer proclamation ſhall be made,as well in the citie of London as in other cities,boroughs and townes as afore, that none of what condition ſo euer he bee, doe to bee ſet or throwne from henceforth anie ſuch anoiances, iſſues,dounge,intrailes, nor none other ordure in the ditches, riuers,waters and other places aforeſaide,and if anie doe, he ſhall be called by writ before the chanceller at his ſuite that will complaine, and if he be found guiltie, he ſhall be puniſhed after the diſcretion of the chaunceller.

Maiors. Bailiffes. London. Chanceller.

Chap.14 Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that the clothes of raie and coloured clothes, to be made and wrought at Briſtowe,and in the counties thereabout, ſhall be of the meaſure an other time ordeyned by a ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the xlvi. yeere of king Edwarde, grandfather of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, that is to ſaie,the clothes of raie of the length of xxviij. yerdes meaſured by the liſt, and v. quarters of breadth, and that the coloured cloth be of xxvi. yerdes of length meaſured by the backe, and vi. quarters of breadth at the leaſt, and that the halfe cloth, be it of raie or of colour, conteine in length after the rate, and in breadth as the clothes of raie and colour,vpon the paine conteined in the ſame ſtatute.

Clothes of raie. Coloured cloth.

Chap.15 Item that no liege man of the king, of what eſtate or condition that he be, great or litle, ſhall paſſe ouer the ſea, nor ſende out of the realme of England by licence nor without licence, without ſpeciall leaue of the king him ſelfe, to prouide or purchaſe for him benefice of holie church with cure or without cure in the ſaide realme, and if anie doe,and by vertue of ſuch prouiſion accept by him or by anie other anie benefice of the ſame realme,that at that time the ſame prouiſour ſhall be out of the kinges protection, and the ſame benefice voide, ſo that it ſhall bee lawfull to the patron of the ſame benefice, as well ſpirituall as temporall, to preſent to the ſame an able clarke at his pleaſure.

Prouiſion.

Chap.16 Item it is ordeined and aſſented,that the ſtaple be remoued from Middelborough to Caleis,ſo that it ſhall be at Caleis the firſt daie of December next comming.

Staple.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the xiii.yeere of the reigne of king Richard the ſecond

In the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the mundaie next after the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie the thirteene yeere of the reigne of king Richarde the ſeconde after the conqueſt, our ſayde ſoueraigne lorde the king to the honour of God and holie church, & for the common profit of his liege people of his realme, of the aſſent of the prelates and lordes temporall and commons being in the ſame parliament,hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed the things vnderwritten.

Chap. 1. Firſt where as it is ordeined by a ſtatute made the xxv. yeere of the reigne of king Edwarde,the grandfather of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, that at what time that the king ſhall make collation or preſentment to anie benefice in an others right, that the title vpon the which he groundeth him ſelfe be well examined that it bee true, and at what time before iudgement giuen the title be founde by good information, vntrue and not iuſt, the collation or preſentment ſhall be in deede repealed, and notwithſtanding the ſame ſtatute ſome of the kinges preſentees, by fauoure of the ordinaries bee inſtitute and induct in benefices of holie church without due proceſſe, the parties not warned nor called, and ſome time taken by falſe enqueſtes fauourablie, and the incumbentes in ſuch maner put out: It is ordeined and aſſented,that the ſaide ſtatutes be fermelie holden and kept. And moreouer our ſouereigne lorde the king, at the reuerence of God and holie church will and graunteth, that if he preſent to anie benefice that is full of anie incumbent, that the preſentee of the king ſhall not be receiued by the ordinarie to ſuch benefice, till the king hath recouered his preſentment by proces of the lawe in his owne courte, and if anie preſentee of the king be otherwiſe receiued, and the incumbent put out without due proceſſe, as afore is ſaide, the ſaide incumbent ſhall begin his ſuite within a yeere after the induction of the kinges preſentee at the leaſt.

Collation. Preſentment. Preſentee. Ordinarie.

Chap.2. Item becauſe that the commons doe make a greeuous complaint, that the court of the conſtable and the marſhalles hath encroched to him and dailie doeth encroche,contractes, couenants, treſpaſſes, debtes, and detinues and manie other actions pledable at the common lawe, in great preiudiſe

preiudice of our ſouereigne lorde the king and of his courtes, and to the great greeuance and oppreſſion of people: Our ſouereigne lorde the king therefore willing to ordeine a remedie againſt the preiudices and greeuances afore ſaide, hath declared in this parliament by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, the power and iuriſdiction of the ſaide conſtable in the forme that followeth. To the conſtable it perteineth to haue cogniſaunce of contractes touching deedes of armes and of warre out of the realme, and alſo of thinges that touch warre within the realme, which maie not be determined nor diſcuſſed by the common lawe, nor other vſages and cuſtomes to the ſame matters perteining, which other conſtables heretofore haue duelie and reaſonablie vſed in their time. Ioining to the ſame, that euerie plaintiffe ſhall declare plainelie his matter in his petitiun afore that anie man be ſent for to anſwere thereunto. And if anie will complaine, that anie plea be commenced before the conſtable and marſhall, that might be tried by the lawe of the lande, the ſame complaint ſhall haue a priuie ſeale of the king without difficultie direct to the ſaid conſtable, and marſhall, to ſurceſſe in that plea, till it be diſcuſſed by the kings councell, if that matter ought and of right perteineth to that court, or otherwiſe to be tried by the common lawe of the realme of England, and alſo that they ſurceſſe in the meane time.

Conſtable. Marſhall.

Priuie ſeale.

Chap. 3. Court of the ſteward and Marſhall.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the court of the ſtewarde and marſhall of the kinges houſe, nor alſo the iuriſdiction of them, ſhall not paſſe the ſpace of xii. miles to be counted from the lodging of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king.

Chap. 4. Clarke of the market.

Item at the requeſt of the ſaide commons it is ordeined & aſſented, that the clarke of the market of the kings houſe, ſhall do his office well and duelie. And that all falſe meaſures and weights ſhall be burned after the forme of the ſtatute. And that the ſaide clarke take no common fine, but that euerie perſon, which is found in default touching the ſame office, be puniſhed according to his deſeruing, and that he ſhall not ride but with ſixe horſes at the moſt, and that he ſhall not tarie in no towne nor other place no longer then the neceſſitie of his deede ſhall require, and if he doe anie thing contrarie to this ſtatute, and be thereof duelie conuict, he ſhall paie to the king at the firſt time that he ſhall be ſo conuict, an C. s. and at the ſeconde time x. li. and at the thirde time xx. li.

Chap. 5.

Item for as much as a great and common clamour & complaint hath bene often times made before this time, and yet is, of that that the admirals and their deputies holde their ſeſſions within diuerſe places of this realme as well within fraunchiſe as without accroching to them greater power then belongeth to their office in preiudice of our ſouereigne lorde the king and the common lawe of the realme, and great bleamiſhing of diuerſe fraunchiſes, and in deſtruction and impoueriſhing of the common people. It is accorded and aſſented that the admirals and their deputies do not medle from henceforth, of anie thing done within the realme, but onelie of a thing done vpon the ſea, as it hath bene vſed in the time of the moſt mightie prince king Edward, graundfather of our ſouereigne lord the king that nowe is.

Admirall.

Chap. 6. Seriaunt at armes.

Item at the greeuous complaint made by the commons of the king in this parliament of exceſſiue and outragious number of ſeriauntes of armes and of manie great extorcions and oppreſſions done by them to the people. Our ſouereigne lord the king therefore will that they ſhall be all diſcharged and that of them and of other there ſhall bee taken of good and ſufficient perſons to the number of thirtie and no more from henceforth. And moreouer the king defendeth that they medle of anie thing that toucheth not their office. And that they doe none extorcion nor oppreſſion to the people vpon paine to loſe the office, and to make a fine and raunſome at the kings pleaſure & full gree to the partie.

Chap. 7. Steward. Iuſtices of peace.

Item where as it is conteined in the laſt ſtatute made at Canterburie, that no ſteward of any lorde, ſhall be aſſigned in the commiſſion of the iuſtice of peace, neuertheleſſe for certeine cauſes ſhewed in this parliament: It is accorded & aſſented, that iuſtices of peace ſhall be made of newe in all the counties of England, of the moſt ſufficient knights, eſquiers, and gentlemen of the lawe of the ſaid counties, notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatute. And that the ſaid iuſtices be ſworne to keepe and put in execution all the ſtatutes and ordinances touching their offices.

Chap. 8.

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that the ſtatutes and ordinances made in the laſt parliament holden at Canterburie, as well of ſeruants labourers artificers and vittailers as of all other things, except the exception in the next article before touching the iuſtices of peace, and alſo all other ſtatutes and ordinances made before this time, and not repealed, ſhall be fermelie kept and duelie executed, but for as much as a man can not put the price of corne and other vittailes in certeine, it is accorded and aſſented, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie in ii. of their ſeſſions to be holden betwixt the feaſt of Eaſter and ſaint Michaell, ſhall make proclamation by their diſcretion after the dearth of vittailes, howe much euerie maſon, carpenter, tiler and other craftiemen, workmen, and labourers by the daie, as well in harueſt as in other times of the yeere, after their degree, ſhall take the daie with meate and drinke, or without meate and drinke, betweene the two ſeſſions before ſaide, notwithſtanding the ſtatutes thereof heretofore made: and that euerie man obeie to ſuch proclamations from time to time as a thing done by ſtatute. And in the right of vittailers it is accorded, that they ſhall haue reaſonable gaines, after the diſcretion and limmitation of the ſaide iuſtices, and no more, vpon paine to be greeuouſlie puniſhed after the diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices where no paine is limited in certeine before this time of the ſaide vittailers. And that ſhiriffes, ſtewardes of lordes of fraunchiſes, maiors and bailiffes, and all other that haue aſſiſe of bread and ale to keepe, for the correction of the ſame, ſhal take no amerciament

Corne. Vittailes. Iuſtices of peace.

ment nor fine for no default touching the aſſiſe, for the which a man or a woman by the law ought to haue bodilie penance, according as it is an other time ordained by ſtatute, but they ſhall iudge them to the ſame bodilie penance as the default requireth and ſhall doo due execution thereof. And that maiors, bailiffes, and ſtewards of franchiſe, and all other that haue the order and furueieng of vitailes in cities, boroughes, marchant townes and elſewhere, where vitailes be sould in the realme, ſhall put the ſtatute, made the xxv. yeare of the reigne of king Edward, graundfather of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, which beginneth, Becauſe a great part of the people, touching the eſtate of vitailers and hoſtelers, and other ſellers of vitailes in due execution. And that no hoſteler make horſebread in his hoſtrie nor without, but bakers ſhall make it, and the aſſiſe thereof ſhall be kept, and that the weight be reaſonable after the price of the corne in the market, and that the ſame hoſtelers ſhal ſell hey and otes after a reaſonable price, ſo that they take not but one halfpenie ouer the common price in the market.

Hoſtelars. Horſebread

Chap. 9. Meaſure. Weight.

Item it is ordained and accorded, that one meaſure and one weight be through all the realme of England, as in the great charter and all other good ſtatutes and ordinances thereof made is more plainelie contained. And euerie man that ſhall be conuict that he hath or vſeth anie other meaſure or weight ſhall haue impriſonment of halfe a yeare, and make gree to the partie greeued to the double of his loſſe, except it be in the countie of Lancaſter, becauſe that in that countie it hath alwaies bene vſed to haue greater meaſure than in any other partie of the realme. And that none buie nor ſell wolle at no more weight then at xiiii. pound the ſtone, vpon paine to paie the double to him that feeleth him greeued, ⁊ to make fine and raunſome to the king after yͤ quantitie of the treſpas. And that no denizen nor forein make none other refuſe of wools but cot, gare, and villaine. And that no marchant nor other man buie his wools by theſe words, good packing, nor by like wordes, vpon paine, that is to ſay, the broker to haue impriſonment of halfe a yeare, and the buier to make a fine to the king after the quantitie of the treſpas, and the partie that feeleth him greeued ſhall haue double damages of that that he hath ſuffered by the ſaid occaſion. And that none ſhall make wolles to be cokketted but in the name of him to whom the wools be, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, as it hath bene an other time ordeined by ſtatute.

Woolles.

Good packing.

Cap. 10. Cloth. Cogware. Kendall cloth.

Item although it be ordained by diuers ſtatutes, that all maner of clothes of ray and of colour ſhall be of a certaine length and bredth compriſed within the ſame ſtatutes, neuertheles for as much as it hath bene a common cuſtome to make certaine clothes in diuers counties of England, called cogware ⁊ Kendall cloth, of the bredth of three quarters of a yeard, whereof ſome be of the price of xl. d. ⁊ ſome of v. s. ⁊ sould at Cogmen out of the realme, and alſo to poore and meane people within the realme, of the wich clothes a great part is made of the worſt woll within the realme, that may not well ſerue for none other clothes: It is accorded and aſſented, that from henceforth it ſhall be lawfull to euery man to make ſuch maner of clothes of the length and bredth as it hath bene vſed before this time, notwithſtanding anie ſtatute made to the contrarie. Prouided alwaies that the makers and workers of ſuch clothes ſhall not make them of no better woll than they were wont to doo. And alſo it is aſſented, that all ſuch clothes as be arreſted by force or colour of the ſaid ſtatutes or anie of them, ſhall be diſarreſted and redeliuered.

Cap. 11. Clothes.

Item for aſmuch, as diuers plaine clothes that be wrought in the counties of Somerſet, Dorſet, Briſtow ⁊ Glouceſter, be tacked and folded togither and ſet to ſale, of the which clothes a great part be broken, brouſed, and not agreeing in the colour, nor be not according in bredth nor in no maner to the part of the ſame clothes ſhewed outwards, but be falſelie wrought with diuers wolles, to the great diſceite, loſſe, and damage of the people, in ſomuch that the marchants that buie of the ſame clothes, ⁊ carie them out of the realme to ſell to ſtrangers, be manie times in point of be ſlaine, and ſometime impriſoned, and put to fine and raunſome by the ſame eſtrangers, ⁊ their ſaid clothes burnt or forfeite becauſe of the great diſceite and falſitie that is found in the ſame clothes, when they be vntacked and opened, to the great ſlaunder of the realme of England: It is ordained and aſſented, that no plaine cloth tacked nor folded ſhall be ſet to ſale within the ſaid counties, but that they be opened, vpon paine to forfeite them, ſo that the buiers may ſee them, and know them, as it is vſed in the countie of Eſſex. And that the workers, weuers, and fullers, ſhall put to their ſeales to euerie cloth that they ſhall worke, vpon a certaine paine to be limited by the iuſtices of the peace, and that this ordinance beginne to hold place at the feaſt of ſaint John Baptiſt next folowing. Prouided alwaies that after that the marchants haue bought the ſame clothes for to carie them out of the realme, they may take them and fold them at their pleaſure for the more eaſier cariage of them.

Weuers. Fullers.

Cap. 12. Shoomakers. Cordwainers. Tanner.

Item for as much as diuers ſhoomakers ⁊ cordwainers vſe to tanne their lether, and ſell the ſame falſelie tanned, and alſo make ſhooes and bootes of ſuch lether not well tanned, and ſell them as deere as they will, to the great diſceite of the poore commons: It is accorded and aſſented, that no ſhoomaker nor cordwainer ſhall vſe the craft of tanning, nor tanner the craft of ſhoomaking, and he that dooth contrarie to this acte, ſhall forfeite to the king all his lether ſo tanned, and all his bootes and ſhooes ſo wrought, and ſhall be raunſomed at the kings pleaſure, notwithſtanding anie charter or patent made to the contrarie, which if there be anie, the king will that they be vtterlie adnulled and holden for none.

Cap. 13. Artificers. Laborers. Hunting.

Item for aſmuch, as diuers artificers, laborers and ſeruants, and gromes, keepe grehoundes and other dogges, and on the hollidaies when good chriſtian people be at church hearing the diuine time ſeruice, they go hunting in parkes, warens, and coningyerdes of lordes and others, to the great deſtruction of the ſame, and at the time vnder ſuch colour, they do make their aſſemblies conuentions & conſpiracies for to riſe and diſobeie their liegeance: It is ordained & aſſented, that no maner of artificer, laborer nor other lay man, which hath not landes or tenements to the value of xl. s. by yeare, nor no prieſt nor other clerke, if he be not auaunced to the value of x. li. by yeare, ſhall haue nor keepe from henceforth anie grehound, hound, nor other dogge for to hunt, nor they ſhall not vſe firrets, heies, nettes harepipes nor cordes, nor other engines for to take or deſtroy déere, hares, nor conies, nor other gentlemans game vpon paine of one yeares impriſonment, and that the iuſtices of peace haue power to enquire and ſhall enquire of the offenders in this behalfe, and puniſh them by the paine afore ſaid.

Grehound. Hound. Dogge. Firrets. Haies. Hares pipes.

Cap. 14. Recogniſance. Eſchequer.

Item for aſmuch as diuers recogniſances and other bonds be now of late begun and made in the eſchequer of double, for the ſuretie of debts and fermes of our ſouereigne lord the king, otherwiſe then it is was wont to be doone heretofore, to the great diſeaſe of manie of the people: It is accorded and aſſented by our ſouereigne lord the king, and all the lordes of the parliament, at the requeſt of the commons, that no ſuch recogniſance nor other bond of the double be made nor taken in the eſchequer from this time forth. And that all ſuch recogniſances and other bonds, which be made at this preſent time, be vtterlie cancelled and adnulled. Prouided alwaies that the king haue ſufficient ſuretie of his dutie in the maner accuſtomed.

Cap. 15. Caſtels. Iayles.

Item it is ordained and aſſented, that the kings caſtels and iayles, which were wont to be ioined to the bodies of the counties, and be now ſeuered, ſhall be reioyned to the ſame counties.

Cap. 16. Protectiō.

Item becauſe that much people be delated as well in actions reall as in actions perſonall by protection with the clauſe of Volumus, becauſe that manie people, as well ſuch as be not able to be retained in warre as other by the teſtimoniall of the gouernors of marches, captaines of garriſons and other, do purches diuers protections, with Clauſe de volumus, and with Clauſe Quia profecturus. &c. after that a plée be commenced againſt them, to the intent to delay the ſame plea, more then for the kings ſeruice, where as ynough of other ſufficient (that be not impleaded) may be found of do the king ſeruice in ſuch caſe, and often do dwell in the countrie without going to their ſaid ſeruice to the great damage of the purſuants and diſturbance of common right. It is therefore ordained and aſſented, that no protection, with Clauſe de profecturus be allowed in anie plée, whereof the ſuite is commenced, before the date of the protection, if it be not in the viage that the king himſelfe goeth, or other viages roiall, or in the kings meſſages for buſines of the realme, but they that be impleaded ſhal make their atturneies for to anſwere for them in ſuch plées, or elſe they ſhall tarie them ſelfe if they will: howbeit it is not the intent of the making of this ſtatute, but that the protention with clauſe Quia moratur, be allowed in all caſes, as they haue bene before this time. And if anie tarie in the countrie, without going to their ſeruice for the which he is retained, ouer a conuenient time after that he hath anie protection, or repaire from the ſame ſeruice, if the chanceller be thereof duelie informed, he ſhall repeale ſuch protection, as it hath bene vſed before this time.

Cap. 17. Tenaunts.

Item becauſe that when tenaunts for terme of life, tenauntes in dower, or by ẏ law of England, or in taile after poſſibilitie of iſſue extinct, be impleded, they be often of the couin of the demaundants, that the tenements demaunded againſt them ſhall be recouered, and they will not pray in aide, nor vouch to warrantie them in the reuertion, but plead in chiefe ſuch a plea, whereby they know well the tenements ſhall be loſt, in diſheriſon of them in the reuertion: It is accorded and aſſented, that if anie ſuch tenaunt be impleded, & he in the reuertion come into the court, & praieth to be receiued to defend his right at ẏ day that the tenant pledeth to ẏ action or before, he ſhal be receiued to pleade in chiefe to the action, without taking any delay by voucher, aidepraier, nonage, or any other delay, ſo that after ſuch receite he ſhall haue no maner delay by protection, eſſoine of the kings ſeruice, common eſſoins, nor anie other delay, but that ẏ buſines be haſted in as much as it may be by the lawe, and that daies of grace be giuen by ẏ diſcretion of the iudges betweene the demaundant & him that is receiued in ſuch caſe, without giuing the common day in plea of land, if the demaundant will not aſſent, to the intent that ẏ demaundants be not too much delaied, becauſe they muſt pleade with two aduerſaries, & in the right of plées that be now depending in ſuch caſe, they in the reuertion ſhall be receiued in the maner as before is ſaid, at the next day that the parties haue in court, although the ſame parties haue pleaded in chiefe before this time. Prouided alwaies that they in the reuertion, which pray to be receiued (as before is ſaide) ſhall finde ſuretie of the iſſues of the tenements demaunded for the time that the ſame demaundants be delaied after the ſaid plea, determined betwéene the demaundants and tenauntes, if the iudgement paſſe for the demaundant againſt them in the reuertion aforeſaid, as well where the receite is counterpleaded, as where it is graunted.

Voucher. Aidepraier Delay.

Suretie.

Cap. 18. Lincolne.

Item becauſe that vpon the gréeuous complaint of the reuerend father in God the biſhop of Lincolne, and the deane and the chapter of the church of our ladie of Lincolne, made by their petition to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and to the lordes in this preſent parliament. the maior and the bailiffes of the citie of Lincolne by commaundement of the king and the aſſent of the lordes were commaunded and charged by writte, to be before the king and his councell in the ſame parliament at a certaine day with ſufficient inſtruction and information of all the matter compriſed in the ſame petition with ſufficient power and authoritie vnder the common ſeale of the ſaide citie, for to anſwere for them, and the communaltie of the ſaide citie, vpon all things conteined in the ſame petition, and further for to do and receiue that that ſhall be ordeined by the king, and his councell in that behalfe, vpon a certeine paine limitted in the ſame writ, the tenour of which petition, conteining the greeuances done to the ſaide biſhop and chapter by the people of the citie of Lincolne, by colour of their fraunchiſe, was ſent to the ſame maior and bailiffes cloſed within the ſaide writ: and though the ſaide maior and bailiffes at the date conteined in the ſame writ came before the king and his councell in the parliament aforeſaide, yet they did not bring any ſufficient warrant for the communaltie of the ſaide citie, as they had in commandement by the ſaide writ, and vpon that our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aſſent of the prelates & other lordes in the ſame parliament being, by default of the maior, bailiffes, and commons aforeſaide, in that partie, hath proceeded and examined the ſaide petition and the greeuances therein conteined. And alſo becauſe that a common clamour hath bene, that manie of the kings lieges often haue ſuffered diuerſe iniuries in the ſaid citie, for cauſe that of freeholdes within the ſame citie, treſpaſſes, contracts & other things riſing within the ſame citie, triable by aſſiſe, iurie, or enqueſt hath bene tried by people of the ſame citie, and be ſo fauorable one to an other, that they doubt not to make falſe othes, & that becauſe ẏ they be incouraged, for as much as they haue not bene before this time conuict by forens, by colour of their fraunchiſe: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing for the cauſes aforeſaid, to prouide a remedie, for the quietnes of the ſaid church, and full right to be done as well to the ſaid biſhop, deane, and chappiter, and their ſucceſſours, as to all other in time comming, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed in that behalfe, that in the aſſiſes, iuries, and all other inqueſts that ſhalbe taken betweene partie and partie, before the ſaid maior and bailiffes of the ſame citie for the time being, if anie of the parties feeleth them greeued of a falſe oth made by ſuch aſſiſe, iurie, or inqueſt, the attaint ſhall be graunted to him, and the recorde ſent into the kings bench, or into the common place. And alſo that the ſhiriffe enpanell the iurie of ſuch attaint of forreines of the ſaide countie, without ſending to the fraunchiſe of the ſaid citie, and that the iuſtices ſhall take the ſame iurie of the ſame forreines, not withſtanding anie fraunchiſe graunted to the ſame citie, or other vſage to the contrarie.

Iurie.

Othe.
Attaint.

Chap. 19
Salmonſewes.

Item where as it is conteined in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter ſeconde, that ſalmonſewes ſhall not be taken nor deſtroied by nets, nor by other ingines, at the mildammes, from the middes of Aprill till the Natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, vpon a certeine paine limitted in the ſame ſtatute: It is accorded and aſſented, that the ſaid ſtatute be fermelie holden and kept. Ioining to the ſame, that ſalmonſewes ſhall not be taken during the ſaide time, at mildammes nor in other places vpon the ſame paine. And that no fiſher nor garthemnan nor none other, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhal from henceforth put in the waters of Thamiſe, Humbre, Ouſe, Trent, nor no other waters of the realme by the ſaid time, nor in anie other time of the yere, anie nets called ſtalkers, nor other nets nor engins whatſoeuer they be, by the which the frie or the breede of the ſalmons lampreies or anie other fiſh mate in anie wiſe be taken or deſtroied vpon the paine aforeſaide. And alſo where as it is conteined in the ſame ſtatute, that all the waters, in the which ſalmons be taken within the realme, ſhall be put in defence as to the taking of ſalmons, from the Natiuitie of our Ladie vntill ſaint Martins daie: It is ordeined & aſſented, that the waters of Lonwire, Merſe, Ribbill, & all other waters in the countie of Lancaſter be put in defenſe, as to the taking of ſalmons, from Michaelmas daie to the Purification of our Ladie, and in no other time of the yere, for cauſe that ſalmons be not ſeaſonable in the ſaid waters in the time aforeſaid, & in the parties where ſuch riuers be, there ſhall be aſſigned and ſworne good and ſufficient conſeruators of this ſtatute, as it is ordeined in the ſaide ſtatute of Weſtminſter, and that they ſhall puniſh the offenders after the paine conteined in the ſame ſtatute, without anie fauour thereof to be ſhewed.

Garthman.

Salmon.
Lampreies.

Chap. 20
Pilgrimes.
Marchants.
Souldiers.

Item for certeine cauſes ſhewed in this parliament the king will and command by the aſſent of the lords in this parliament, that all pilgrimes & all other people, except notorious and knowne marchants, and alſo ſouldiours and men of armes that will paſſe by the ſea out of the realme, ſhal paſſe at the ports of Douer or Plimmouth and not elſe where, without eſpeciall licence of the king himſelfe, but they that will paſſe toward Irelande, ſhall paſſe at Liuerpole, Cheſter, Briſtowe, or elſe where, where ſhall pleaſe them.

Here beginneth an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ſaide xiii. yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

Chap. 1.

OUr ſoueraigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the mundaie next after the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie, the xiii. yere of his reigne, hearing the greeuous complaint of his commons in the ſame parliament of the outragious miſcheeues and domages, which haue happened to his ſaide realme, by the reaſon that treaſons, murders, and rapes of women be commonlie done and committed, and that the more, for as much as charters of pardon haue bene lightlie graunted in ſuch caſes: the ſaide commons praieng our ſoueraigne lorde the king that ſuch charters be not graunted, to whom the king hath anſwered, that he will ſaue his libertie and regalite, as his noble progenitors haue done heretofore, but for to norish the more quietneſſe and peace within his realme, of the aſſent of the great men and nobles, being in the ſame parliament hee hath graunted, that no charter of pardon from hence forth ſhall bee allowed before anie iuſticer for murder or for the death of a man ſlaine by a waite, aſſaulte, or malice prepenſed, treaſon,

Charters of pardon.

treaſon or rape of a woman, vnleſſe the ſame murder, death of the man ſlaine by a waite, aſſaulte, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, rape of the woman, be ſpecified in the ſame charter, and if a charter of the death of a man be alleadged before anie iuſtices, in which charter it is not ſpecified, that he of whoſe death anie ſuch is arrained, was murdered or ſlaine by a waite, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, the ſame iuſtices ſhall enquire by a good enqueſt of the viſne where the dead was ſlaine, if he were murdered or ſlaine by waite, aſſaulte, or malice prepenſed, and if they finde, that he was murdered or ſlaine by a waite, aſſaulte, or malice prepenſed, the charter ſhall be diſalowed, and further it ſhall be done as the lawe demaundeth. And if anie praie to the king for a charter of pardon for murder, death of a man ſlaine by a waite, aſſaulte, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a woman, if the chamberlaine endorſe or cauſe to be endorſed ſuch bill, he ſhall ſet the name of him that praieth ſuch charter vpon the ſame bill, vpon paine of a M. markes, and if the vnderchamberlaine indorſe ſuch bill, he ſhall doe likewiſe, vpon paine of fiue C. markes, and that none other then the chamberlaine or vnderchamberlaine, indorſe nor doe to be indorſed anie ſuch bill, vpon paine of a M. markes, and that ſuch bill be ſent and directed to the keper of the priuie ſeale. And that no warrant of the priuie ſeale be made to haue ſuch charter, vnleſſe the keeper of the priuie ſeale haue ſuch bill indorſed or ſigned by the chamberlaine or vnderchamberlaine, as afore is ſaide. And that no charter of pardon, of treaſon nor of other felonie, paſſe the chauncerie without warrant of the priuie ſeale, but in caſe where the chaunceller maie graunt it of his office without ſpeaking thereof to the king. And if he, at whoſe praier anie charter of pardon for murder, death of man ſlaine by a waite, aſſaulte or malice prepenſed, treaſon or rape of a woman, be graunted, if he be an archbiſhop or duke, he ſhall paie to the king a M. li. and if he be biſhop or earle, he ſhall paie to the king a M markes, and if he be an abbat or prior, baren or barenet, he ſhall paie fiue C. marks, and if he be a clarke, bacheler or other of leſſe eſtate, of what ſo euer condition that he be, he ſhall paie to the king ii. C. markes, and haue one yeeres impriſonment.

Priuie ſeale.

Chap. 2.

Item where as the noble king Edwarde, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter at the vtas of the Purification of our Ladie, the xxv. yere of his reigne did to be rehearſed the ſtatute made at Carleile in the time of king Edward, ſonne of king Henrie, touching the eſtate of the holie church of England, the ſaid graundfather of the king that now is, by the aſſent of the great men of his realme, being in the ſame parliament, holden the ſaid xxv. yeere, to the honour of God and of holie church, and of all his realme, did ordeine & ſtabliſh, that the free elections of archbiſhopricks, biſhopricks, and all other dignities and benefices electiue in England, ſhoulde hold from henceforth in the maner as they were granted by his progenitours, and by the anceſters of other lordes founders. And that all prelates and other people of holie church, which had aduowſons of anie benefices of the gift of the king or of his progenitours, or of other lordes and donours, ſhoulde freelie haue their collations and preſentments, and thereupon a certeine puniſhment was ordeined in the ſame ſtatute for them which accept anie benefice or dignitie contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid xxv. yere, as afore is ſaid, which ſtatute our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath done to be recited in this preſent parliament at the requeſt of his commons in the ſame parliament: The tenour whereof is ſuch as hereafter followeth. Where as late in the parliament of good memorie of Edward king of Englande, &c. rehearſing the whole ſtatute made the ſaide xxv. yeere, and then thus: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, of the aſſent of the great men of his realme, being in this preſent parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all archbiſhopricks, biſhopricks and other dignities and benefices electiue, and all other benefices of the holie church, which ſhall beginne to be voide in deede the xxix. daie of Ianuarie, the xiii. yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, or after, or which ſhall be voide in time to come within the realme of Englande, the ſaide ſtatute made the ſaide xxv. yeere ſhall be fermelie holden for euer and put in due execution from time to time in all maner points. And if any make any acceptation of anie benefice of holie church, contrarie to this ſtatute, and that duelie proued, and be beyonde the ſea, he ſhall abide exiled and baniſhed out of the realme for euer, his landes and tenements, goods and cattels forfeite to the king: and if he be within the realme, he ſhall be alſo exiled and baniſhed as afore is ſaid, and ſhall incurre the ſame forfeiture, & take his waie, ſo that he be out of the realme within vi. weekes next after ſuch acceptation. And if anie receiue anie ſuch perſon baniſhed comming from beyond the ſea, or being within the realme after the ſaide vi. weekes, knowing thereof, he ſhall be alſo exiled and baniſhed, and incurre ſuch forfeiture as afore is ſaide. And that their procuratours, notories, executours, and ſommonours haue the forfeiture and paine afore ſaide. Prouided neuertheleſſe that all they, to whom the biſhop of Rome, or his predeceſſours haue prouided anie archbiſhopricke, biſhopricke or other dignitie, or other benefices of holie church, of the patronage of people of holie church, becauſe of anie voidance before the ſaid xxix. daie of Ianuarie, and thereof were in corporall poſſeſſion before the ſame xxix. daie, ſhall haue and inioy the ſaide archbiſhopricks, biſhopricks, dignities and other benefices peaſiblie for their liues, notwithſtanding the ſtatutes and ordinances afore ſaide. And if the king ſende by letter or in other maner to ẏ court of Rome, at ẏ excitation of any perſon, or if anie other ſende or praie to the ſame courte, whereby anie thing is done contrarie to this ſtatute touching anie archbiſhopricke, biſhopricke, dignitie or other benefice of holie church within the ſaide realme, if he that maketh ſuch excitation or praier be a prelate of holie church, he ſhall paie to the king the valure of his temporalties of one yeere, and if he be a temporall lorde, he ſhall paie

Elections of biſhopricks Prelates.

to the king the value of his lands and poſſeſſions vnmoueable of one yeere. And it is the intent of this ſtatute, that of all dignities and benefices of holie church, which were voide in déede the ſaide xxix. daie of Ianuarie, which be giuen, or to whom it is prouided by the biſhop of Rome before the ſame xxix. daie, that they to whom ſuch giftes or prouiſions be made maie fréelie of ſuch giftes and prouiſions ſue execution without offence of this ſtatute. Prouided alwaies, that of no dignitie or benefice, which was full the ſaide xxix. daie of Ianuarie, no man becauſe of anie collation, gift, reſeruation and prouiſion, or other grace papall, not executed before the ſaide xxix. daie, ſhall not ſue thereof execution vpon the paines and forfetures conteined in this preſent ſtatute.

Chap. 3. Prouiſors. Prelate.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie man bring or ſende within the realme or the kings power anie ſummons, ſentence, or excommunication againſt anie perſon, of what condition that he be, for the cauſe of making motion, aſſent or execution of the ſaide ſtatute of prouiſors, he ſhall be taken, arreſted, and put in priſon, and forfet all his landes and tenements goods and cattels for euer. And moreouer incurre the paine of life and of member. And if anie prelate make execution of ſuch ſummons, ſentences or excommunications, that his temporalties be taken and abide in the kings hands till due redreſſe and correction be thereof made. And if anie perſon of leſſe eſtate then a prelate, of what condition that he be, make ſuch execution, he ſhall be taken, arreſted, and put in priſon and haue impriſonment, and make fine and raunſome by the diſcretion of the kings councell.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the xiiii. yeere of the reigne of king Richard the ſecond

FOr the reliefe and increaſe of the common profit of the realme of Englande, and of the landes of Wales & Ireland, which hath bene in diuers maners greatlie hindered in times paſt, our ſoueraigne lord the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morow of ſaint Martin, the xiiij. yéere of his reigne, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed of the aſſent of his ſaid parliament the things vnderwritten.

Chap. 1. Staple. Butter. Cheeſe.

FIrſt that the ſtaple be remoued from Caleis into Englande, ſo that it be in Englande the munday next after the feaſt of the Epiphanie at the furtheſt. And that it be holden in the places conteined in the ſtatutes of the ſtaple made in the xxvij. yere of the kings grandfather that now is, and in none other place. And that the ſaid ſtatute be firmelie and ſurelie holden and duelie executed in all points, with the additions vnderwritten, notwithſtanding anie declaration or ſtatute made hereafter to the contrarie, that is to ſaie, that euerie perſon alien, of what degrée or condition that he be, that bringeth anie marchandiſe into England, ſhall finde ſufficient ſureties before the cuſtomers in the port where the marchandiſe ſhall be brought, to buie other marchandiſe to the value of halfe the ſaide marchandiſes ſo brought at the leaſt, as wolles, lether, wolfelles, lead, tinne, butter, chéeſe clothes or other commodities of the land.

Chap. 2. Eſchange. Staple. Butter. Cheeſe.

Item that for euerie eſchange that ſhall be made by marchantes to the court of Rome or elſe where, that the ſaide marchantes be fermelie and ſurelie bounden in the chauncerie, to buie within thrée monethes after the ſaide eſchange made, marchandiſe of the ſtaple, as wolles, lether, wolfels, lead or tinne, butter or chéeſe, clothes or other commodities of the lande to the value of the ſumme ſo enchanged, vpon paine of forfeture of the ſame.

Chap. 3. Staple.

Item that in euerie port and place, where the ſtaple ſhall be, the maiors, conſtables, brokers, and all other officers and miniſters of the ſtaple ſhall bee ſworne firſt to the king and after to the ſtaple.

Chap. 4. Wolles. Staple. Denizen. Iuſtices of peace.

Item to kéepe the price of wolles the better, that no denizen of Englande, ſhall buie no wolles but of the owners of the ſhéepe and of the tythes, except in the ſtaple, And that no denizen regrate wolles nor other marchandiſes of the ſtaple priuilie nor apertlie, vpon payne to forfeite the value of the thing regrated. And that the iuſtices of peace in the countrie haue power to inquire, and ſhall inquire from time to time of ſuch Engliſhgratours and of the weightes of the ſtaple, and puniſh them by the payne aforeſayde. And that no Engliſh man buie anie woll of anie perſon, but for him ſelfe or for his owne vſe, as to ſell at the ſtaple, and for to make cloth.

Chap. 5. Denizen.

Item that no denizen bring wolles, lether, wolfelles, nor lead out of the realme of Englande to the parties beyonde the ſea, vpon payne of forfeture of the ſame, but onelie ſtraungers.

Chap. 6 Marchantes ſhips.

Item that all marchants of the realme of Englande ſhall freight in the ſaide realme the ſhips of the ſaide realme, and not ſtrange ſhips, ſo that the owners of the ſaid ſhips take reaſonable for the freight of the ſame.

Chap. 7. Tinne. Dertmouth.

Item that the paſſage of tinne out of the realme ſhall be at the port of Dertmouth, and in no place elſe.

Chap. 8. Eſchequer. Gauging.

Item that none of the kinges liege people be from henceforth diſtreined impeached moleſted nor greeued in the eſchequer nor elſe where, for nongauging of wines of Rine, nor for anie forfeture of the ſame for that cauſe, otherwiſe then hath bene done of olde times.

Chap 9. Marchants ſtrangers.

Item that marchants ſtrangers, reparing into the realme of Englande, ſhall be well and curteouſlie and rightfullie intreated and gouerned in the ſaide realme, to the intent that they ſhall haue the greater courage to repaire into the ſame.

Cap. 10.
Cuſtomer. Controler. Ships. Sercher. Weier. Patent.

Item that no cuſtomer nor controller haue anie ſhips of their owne nor medle of the freight of ſhips, and that to eſchewe as well the damage of our ſouereigne lorde the king of his cuſtomes, as the loſſe of the marchants reparing to the port as wel aliens as denizens, and that no cuſtomer, controller, ſercher, weier, or finder haue anie ſuch office for terme of life but onelie as long as ſhall pleaſe the king, notwithſtanding anie patent or graunt made to anie to the contrarie. And if anie ſuch patent or graunt for terme of life be made to anie of anie ſuch office in time paſt, the king will that it be vtterlie repealed and voide and of no force nor valure.

Chap. 11
Iuſtices of peace. Shiriffe.

Item that in euerie countie be aſſigned eight iuſtices of peace, as is conteined in the ſtatute of Caunterburie, ouer the lordes aſſigned in this parliament. And that the eſtretes of the ſaide iuſtices be doubled, and the one part deliuered by the ſaide iuſtices to the ſhiriffe, to leuie the monie thereof riſing, and thereof to paie to the iuſtices their wages by the hand of the ſayd ſhiriffe by indenture betwixt them thereof to bee made. And that the ſhiriffes haue allowance in their accompt in the eſchequer by the ſame indenture. And that no duke, earle, baron, nor barenet, albeit they be aſſigned iuſtices of the peace, and holde their ſeſſions with the other eight iuſtices, ſhall take anie wages for the ſaide office. And that the iuſtices put their names in the eſtretes together with the number of the daies of their ſeſſions, to the intent that the ſhiriffes may knowe, to whom to paie wages, and to whom not, and the barons of the eſchequer, to whom to allowe and to whom not, and that the ſeales be made for the ſeruauntes and deliuered in to the keeping of ſome good man of the countrie after the purport of the ſayde ſtatute of Caunterburie, which ſtatute with the modification of the ſame made at the laſt parliament, and the ſtatute of weightes and meaſures, and al other good ſtatutes and ordinances made heretofore and not repealed, ſhal be holden and kept, and put in due execution.

Barons del eſchequer.

Chap. 12
Grote of Scotland. Monie.

Item that the grote of the monie of Scotlande runne in the valure onelie of two pence Engliſh. And the halfe grote of Scotlande of a penie Engliſh. And the i. d. of Scotlande of an ob. Engliſh. And the ob. of Scotlande of a farthing Engliſh. And if the monie of Scotlande bee impeired, that the valure thereof bee abridged after the rate, and that commiſſions bee made through the realme to inquire of them that haue brought or ſent the monie of Englande into Scotlande, to make bullion or monie of Scotlande, in preiudice and damage of the king and his realme.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the xv. yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

IN the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morowe of Alſoules, the fifteenth yeere of the reigne of king Richarde the ſeconde after the conqueſt, our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king by the aſſent of the ſaide parliament hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed certeine thinges in the forme following.

Chap. 1.

FIrſt that all the good ſtatutes and ordinances made before this time and not repealed be firmelie holden and kept.

Chap. 2.
Forcible entrie.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the ordinances and ſtatutes made and not repealed of them that make entries with ſtrong hande into landes and tenementes or other poſſeſſions, and them holde with force. And alſo of all thoſe that make inſurrections or great ridings, ryotes, routes, or aſſembles in diſturbance of the peace of the common lawe, or in affraie of the people ſhall bee holden and kept and fullie executed: Ioined to the ſame, that at all times, that ſuch forcible entries bee made, and complaint thereof commeth to the iuſtices of peace, or to anie of them, that the ſame iuſtices or iuſtice take ſufficient power of the countie, and goe to the place where ſuch forcible entrie with force is made: and if they finde anie that holdeth ſuch place forciblie after ſuch entrie made, they ſhall be taken and put in the next gaile, there to abide conuict by the recorde of the ſame iuſtices or iuſtice, till they haue made fine and raunſome to the king. And that all they of the countie, as well the ſhiriffe as other, ſhall attende to the iuſtices to goe and aſſiſt them to arreſt ſuch offenders, vpon paine of impriſonment. and to make fine to the king. And in the ſame maner it ſhall be done of them that make ſuch forcible entries in benefices or offices of holie church.

Chap. 3.
Admirall.

Item at the great and greeuous complaint made to our ſouereigne lorde the king in this preſent parliament, of that that the admiralls and their deputies doe encroche to them diuers iuriſdictions, fraunchiſes, and manie other profites perteining to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, and to other lordes, cities and boroughes, other then they were wont or ought to haue of right to the great oppreſſion and impoueriſhment of all the commons of the lande, and hinderance and loſſe of the kinges profites, & of manie other lordes, cities and boroughes through the realme: It is declared, ordeined, and ſtabliſhed, that all maner of contractes, plées and quarelles, and all other thinges riſing within the bodies of the counties as well by lande as by water, and alſo of wrecke of the ſea, the admiralles courte ſhall in no wiſe haue coniſaunce, power nor iuriſdiction: but that all ſuch maner of contractes, plees, and quarels, and all other things riſing within the bodies of the counties, as well by lande as by water, as afore, and alſo wrecke of the ſea ſhall be tried, determined, diſcuſſed, and remedied by the lawes of the land, and not before nor by the admirall nor his lieutenant in no wiſe. Neuertheleſſe of the death of a man. and of maihem done in great ſhips being and lading in the mainſtreame of the great riuers, onelie bineath the bridges of the Wrecke.

the ſame riuers nigh to the ſea, & in none other places of the ſame riuers, the admirall ſhall haue coniſance, and to arreſt the ſhippes in the greatflotes for the great voiages of the king and of the realme. Sauing alwaies to the king all manner forfeitures and profits thereof comming, and he ſhal haue alſo iuriſdiction vpon the ſaid flotes during the ſaid voiages only, ſauing alwaies to the lords cities and boroughes their liberties and franchiſes.

Cap. 4. Meaſure. London. Maiors Bailifes.

Item where as it is ordeined by diuers ſtatutes, that one meaſure of Corne, Wine, and Ale, ſhould be throughout the realme, and that viii. buſhels ſtriked make the quarter of corne. Neuertheleſſe becauſe that no peine is thereupon ordeined in the ſaid ſtatutes, diuers people of diuers cities, boroughes, townes, and markets, will not take neither buy in the ſaide cities, boroughes, townes, markets, ne in no other place, but after ix. buſhels for the quarter: and if they cannot buy in that manner, they arreſt it as forfeit, to the great dammages and oppreſſion of all the people, & manifeſtly againſt the ſtatutes aforeſaid: It is ordeined and aſſented, that the ſaid ſtatutes ſhalbe firmely kept & holden, as wel in the citie of London as in anie other place throughout the realm, & that as well by water as by land, notwithſtanding anie vſage or cuſtome in times paſt vſed to the contrarie. And that none from henceforth do buy in the citie of London, ne in no other place, no manner corne nor malt, but after viii. buſhels the quarter, according to the purport of the ſaide ſtatutes, vpon peine of forfeiture of all the corne or malt ſo bought, ſauing to the king the ſaid forfeiture, except franchiſes royall, to whom the king of his eſpeciall grace hath graunted the ſame forfeiture, & that as well the Maior & ſhirifes of London, as the Maiors & bailifes of other cities, boroughes, townes, & markets (if they do not thereof full & due execution) ſhall incurre like peine, as well at the ſuite of the king as of the partie, or anie other perſon that wil ſue for the king.

Cap. 5. Religious. Mortmaine. Churchyardes.

Item where as it is conteined in the ſtatute De religioſis, that no religious ne other, what ſo euer he be, do buy or ſell, or vnder colour of gift, or terme, or anie other maner of title, receite of anie man, or in anie maner by craft or engine of anie maner cauſe to be appropriate vnto him any lands or tenements vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame, whereby the ſaid lands & tenementes in anie maner might come to mortmaine. And if anie religious or anie other, come againſt the ſaid ſtatute by arte or engine in anie maner, that it be lawfull to the king, and to other lordes, in the ſaid lands and tenements to entre, as in the ſaid ſtatute doth more fully appeare. And now of late by ſubtil imagination and by art and engine ſome religious perſons, vicars, and other ſpirituall perſons, haue entred in diuers lands and tenements, which be adioyning to their churches, and of the ſame lands by ſufferance and aſſent of the tenants haue made churchyardes, and by bulles of the biſhop of Rome, haue dedicate and hallowed the ſame, and in them do make continually parochiall burying without licenſe of the king and of the chiefe lordes, therefore it is declared in this parliament, that it is manifeſtly within the compas of the ſaid ſtatute. And moreouer it is agreed and aſſented, that all they that be poſſeſſed by feoffement or in anie other way, to the vſe of religious perſons, or other ſpirituall perſons of lands and tenements, fees, auowſon, or anie maner poſſeſſions, to the intent to amortiſe them, whereof the ſaid religious & ſpirituall perſons take the profits, that betweene this and the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming, they ſhall cauſe them to be amortiſed by the licence of the king and of the lords, or els that they ſhall ſel them and aliene them to ſome other vſe, betwene this and the ſaide feaſt, vpon peine to be forfeit to the king and to the lords according to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute of religious, as lands purchaſed by religious people. And that from henceforth no ſuch purchaſe be made ſo that ſuch religious or other ſpirituall perſons take thereof the profites, as afore is ſaide, vpon peine aforeſaid. And alſo that the ſame ſtatute extende and be kept of all landes, tenements, fees, auowſons, and other poſſeſſions purchaſed or to be purchaſed to the vſe of guildes or fraternities. And moreouer it is aſſented, for as much as the Maiors, bailifes, and commons of cities, boroughes, and other townes that hath a perpetual commonaltie and others, which haue offices perpetuall, be as perpetuall as people of religion, that from henceforth they ſhall not purchaſe to them and to their commons or office, vpon the peine conteined in the ſtatute De religioſis. And alſo of that that others be poſſeſſed, or hereafter ſhall purchaſe to their vſe: and they thereof take the profites, it ſhall be done in like maner as afore is ſaid of people of religion.

Guildes. Fraternities. Comminaltie.

Chap. 6. Appropriation. Vicar.

Item becauſe that diuers dammages and diſeaſes often times haue happened and daily happen to the parrochians of diuers places by the appropriation of benefices of the ſame places: It is agreed & aſſented, that in euery licence from henceforth to be made in the chancerie of appropriation of anie pariſh church, it ſhall be expreſly conteined and compriſed, that the dioceſan of the place, vpon the appropriation of ſuch churches, ſhall ordeine according to the valure of ſuch churches, a conuenient ſumme of money to be paid and diſtributed yerely of the fruites and profits of the ſame churches, by thoſe that ſhall haue the ſaid churches in proper vſe and by their ſucceſſors to the poore parochians of the ſaid churches, in aide of their liuing and ſuſtenance for euer, and alſo that the vicare be well and ſufficiently endowed.

Chap. 7. Scotland. Armor. Vitailes.

Item where as it is ordeined by the ſtatute made the vii. yere of our ſoueraigne lord the king, that from thenceforth no perſon alien or denizen, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall take or carrie, or cauſe to be taken or carried by land or by ſea out of the realm of England, to any parties of Scotland priuily or apertly, anie maner of armor, corne, malte or other vitaile, or anie other refreſhing, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame vitailes, armors, and other things aforeſaide, together with the ſhippes, veſſels, cartes, or horſes that beare or carrie them, or elſe the verie valour of them, whereupon our ſoueraigne lord the king, at the requeſt of the commons, and by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords, hath declared in this parliament, the ſaide ſtatute in ſuch maner, that it was not his intent at the making of the ſaide ſtatute, ne yet is, that they that haue carried or taken, or from hencefoorth ſhall take or carrie vitailes or merchandiſes to the towne of Berwike vpon Twede, which is the kings towne, and of his ligeance, ſhall incurre that paine of the ſaide ſtatute, ne ſhall not be bound to pay cuſtomes and ſubſidies graunted to our ſoueraigne lorde the king of merchandiſes that be or ſhall be carried out of the realme. Prouided alway, that they that take anie cloth, vitailes, or other merchandiſes out of the ſaid towne of Berwike, to anie parties of the kings friendes, ſhall paie the ſubſidies, cuſtomes, and other dueties thereof due to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and if they do carrie to anie parties of the kings enimies, they ſhall incurre the peine of the ſaid ſtatute.

Barwike.

Chap. 8.
Tinne.
Dartmoth
Merchāts
Caleys.

Item where as it was ordeined at the laſt parliament, that the paſſage of tinne out of the realme ſhould be at the port of Dartmouth, and no place elſe: It is agréede, that the ſaid ordinance be adnulled, and that betwéene this and the feaſt of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming, all merchants denizens and aliens ſhall be at large, to lade tinne in ſhips and other veſſels, to carrie out of the realme in what hauen they will chooſe within the realme, and to what partie it pleaſe them. And after the ſaid feaſt they ſhall repaire to Caleys for the time that the reſort of woll ſhall be there, paying alwaie the cuſtomes, ſubſidies and deuoyers thereof due before the paſſage of the ſaide tynne.

Chap. 9.
Staple.
Recogniſance.
Maior del ſtaple.

Item whereas it is conteined in the ſtatute of the ſtaple, to the intent that the contracts made within the ſtaple ſhould be the better kept, ⁊ the paiments readely made, that euerie Maior of the ſtaple haue power to take recogniſance of dettes, that anie man will make before him in the preſence of the conſtables of the ſtaple or one of them. And that in euerie of the ſaide ſtaples be one ſeale ordeined to remaine in the cuſtodie of the ſaid Maior, vnder the ſeales of the ſaid conſtables: it is agréede ⁊ aſſented that the ſaid ſtatute be firmly kept ⁊ holden. And that no Maior of the ſtaple take or receiue anie recogniſance of dette contrarie to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute, vpon peine to pay to the king the moitie of the ſumme recogniſed before him.

Cap. 10.
Clothes of Gylford.
Fullar.

Item at the compleint of the commons made in the parliament, becauſe that of old times diuers clothes were made in the towne of Gilford, ⁊ other places within the counties of Surrey, Suſſex, and South, called clothes of Gylford, which were of good making ⁊ of good value, ⁊ did beare a great name. And now becauſe that fullers ⁊ other of the ſame countrey, do vſe to buy the clothes of the ſaid countreys before that they be fulled ⁊ performed, ⁊ in making, for couetouſnes to haue the ſaid clothes of greater meaſure ouer the common aſſiſe that late was vſed, doe drawe the clothes more longer ⁊ more large than they were wont or ought to be, to the great impairing of the ſaid clothes, ⁊ great diſceit of the people. For to eſchewe ſuch dammages ⁊ diſceites in time to come, it is agréed and aſſented, that from hencefoorth no fuller nor other perſon whatſoeuer he be, ſhal buy within the ſaid townes ⁊ counties any cloth, before the ſame cloth be fulled ⁊ fully performed in his nature, ⁊ alſo ſealed vnder ẏ ſeal therto ordeined, vpon pein of forfeiture of ẏ ſame.

Cap. 11.
Gyrdlers.
Charters.

Item it is agréed ⁊ aſſented, that al the gyrdlers of the realme, that worke gyrdles garniſhed with white mettal, may worke vſe and continue their ſaid craft, that is to ſaie, to garniſh the gyrdels with white mettal, as of olde times it hath béene vſed, notwithſtanding anie charters or patents made or graunted to the contrarie. And if anie charters or patents be made to the contrary, that they ſhall be voide and of no force.

Cap. 12.
Appearāce
Chancellor

Item at the gréeuous compleint of the commons made in the parliament of that that diuers of the kings ſubiects be cauſed to come before the counſailes of diuers lordes, ⁊ ladies, to anſwere for their frée hold, and for diuers other things, real and perſonall, that ought to be ordered by the lawe of the land, contrarie to the eſtate and right of our ſoueraigne lord the king ⁊ of his crowne and in diminiſhing of the common lawe: It is agréede and aſſented, that from hencefoorth none of the kings ſubiectes be compelled, neither by no way conſtrained to come ne to appeare before the councell of anie lorde or ladie, to anſwere for his fréehold, ne for anie thing touching his fréeholde, nor for any other thing reall nor perſonall, that belongeth to the lawe of the land in anie manner. And if anie find them ſelfe gréeued in time to come contrary to this ordinance and agréement, he may compleine to the Chancellor for the time being.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Winton the xvi. yere of King Richard the ſecond.

OUR ſoueraigne lord the king Richard the ſecond, after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Wincheſter in the vtas of S. Hillary, the xvi. yere of his reigne, hath ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed by the aſſent of his ſaid parliament, certein things in the forme following.

Chap. 1.
Merchāts

FIrſt where as by the ſtatute at Yorke the ix. yere of the reigne of king Edwarde grandfather of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all merchants aliens and denizens, and all other and euerie of them of what condition that they be, which will buy or ſell corne, wines auoyr de poys, fleſh, fiſh, and all other liuinges and vitailes, clothes, wolles, wares, merchandiſes, and all other things vendable, from whence ſoeuer they come by forreins or by denizens, to what place that it be, be it in citie, borough, towne, port of the ſea, faire, market, or other place within the ſame realme, within franchiſe ⁊ without, may fréely ⁊ without diſturbance ſell ẏ ſame to whom them pleaſe, as wel to forreines as to denizens, except ẏ enemies of the king and of his realme, and after by an other ſtatute made the xxv. yeere of the ſaide grandfather, it was ordeined and accorded that the ſaide ſtatute made the ſaide ix. yeere, ſhoulde be holden, kept, and mainteined in all points. And moreouer that euerie marchant and other, of what condition that he be, as well alien as denizen that bringeth wines, fleſh, fiſh, or other maner of vittailes, clothes, felles, or auoir de pois, or other wares or marchandiſes to the citie of London or other cities, boroughes, and good townes of Englande, or port of the ſea, may freelie and without challenge or impeachment of anie, ſell them in groſſe or retaile or by parcels at his pleaſure, to any people that will buie them notwithſtanding anie fraunchiſe, graunt, or cuſtome vſed, or anie other maner of thing made to the contrarie, and that without diſturbance or impediment of anie, vpon certeine paines conteined in ẏ foreſaid ſtatutes. And afterward in the xi. yere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king it was alſo ordeined & ſtabliſhed, by the ſtatutes made the ſame yere, that theſe two ſtatutes aforeſaid ſhould be holden, kept, mainteined, & fullie executed in all pointes and articles of the ſame, notwithſtanding any ſtatute ordinance charter letter patent fraunchiſe proclamation commandement vſage alowance or iudgement made or vſed to the contrary, as in the ſaid ſtatutes is more fullie conteined: Neuertheles forasmuch as it ſeemeth to our ſouereigne lord the king, that the ſaid ſtatutes, if they ſhall be fullie holden & executed, ſhall extend to the great hinderance & damage as wel of the ſaid citie of London, as of other cities, boroughes, & townes of the realme, it is ordeined & aſſented, that no marchant ſtranger ſhall alien, ſell at retaile, nor buie, nor marchandie within the realme with an other ſtrange marchant alien, to ſell againe, nor that no ſtranger marchant alien ſhall ſell to retaile within the ſame realme, nor ſhall not put to ſell no maner of wares nor marchandiſes, except liuings & vitailes, & alſo that all aliens ſhall ſell wines by whole veſſels, and ſpicerie by whole veſſels, and bales, and in no other maner. And that no maner of ſpicerie, after that it be brought into the realme, ſhal be brought out of the ſame realme by alien nor by denizen, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame. And moreouer the king will that the ſaide ſtatutes in all articles and points ſhall be fermelie holden and kept.

Vitailes. London.

Aliens.

Wines. Spicery. Deniſen.

Chap. 2. Apperance. Bonde.

Item where as at the laſt parliament it was accorded & aſſented, that none of the kings liege people from henceforth ſhould be bound compelled nor conſtrained by no meanes, to come nor to appeare before anie lordes or ladies councell, there to anſwere of his freeholde, nor of thing which touch freehold, nor of none other thing reall nor perſonall, which belongeth to the law of the lande in anie wiſe, as by the ſtatute thereof made more fullie appeareth, it is accorded and aſſented that the ſaid ſtatute ſhall be firmelie holden and kept, and if anie lorde or ladie, or other of the kings liege people, do to the contrarie, they ſhall incurre the paine of xx.li. to the king.

Chap. 3. Weights & meaſures. Clarke of the market

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that all the weights and meaſures through the realme ſhalbe according to the ſtandard of the eſchequer, after the forme of the ſtatutes therof made: And alſo the king will, that the clarke of the market ſhall haue all his meaſures and weights readie according to the ſtandard of the eſchequer, & ſignes & markes of the ſigne of the eſchequer to that ordeined, & the ſame weights & meaſures ſo ſigned and marked, to carie and bring with him at all times that he ſhall make the aſſaie of weights and meaſures in anie part within the realme: and that he nor none other of the kinges liege people ſhall vſe none other meaſure nor weight, vpon the paines conteined in the ſtatutes thereof made before this time.

Chap. 4. Liuerie of companie. Iuſtices of peace.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that no yoman, nor no other of lower eſtate then an eſquier, from henceforth ſhall not vſe nor beare no liuerie, called liuerie of companie, of anie lorde within the realme, if he be not meintall and familiar continuallie dwelling in the houſe of his ſaide lorde, and that the iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to inquire of them, which do the contrarie, and them to puniſh according to their diſcretion.

Chap. 5. Preſentment.

Item where as ẏ commons of ẏ realme in this preſent parliament haue ſhewed to our redouted ſouereigne lord the king, greeuouſlie compleining, that for as much as the ſaid king and al his liege people ought of right & of old time were wont to ſue in ẏ kings court, to recouer their preſentmentes to churches, prebendes, and other benefices of holie church, to the which they haue right to preſent, the coniſance of plee of which preſentment belongeth onelie to the kings court of the olde right of his crowne vſed in the time of his progenitors kings of Englande. And when iudgement ſhall be giuen in the ſame court vpon ſuch a plee, and preſentment, the archbiſhops, biſhops & other ſpirituall perſons which haue inſtitution of ſuch benefices within their iuriſdictions, be bound and haue made execution of ſuch iudgementes by kings commandementes of all the time aforeſaide, without interruption for an other laie perſon may not make ſuch execution, and alſo be bound of right to make execution of manie other of the kings commandements, of which right the crowne of England hath bene peaſiblie ſeaſed, as wel in the time of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king that nowe is, as in ẏ time of all his progenitors til this daie. But now of late diuers proceſſes be made by the biſhop of Rome, and cenſures of excommunication vpon certeine biſhops of England, becauſe that they haue made execution of ſuch commandementes, to the open diſheriſon of the ſaide crowne, and diſtruction of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his law & all his realme, if remedie be not prouided. And alſo it is ſaid, & a common clamor made, that the biſhop of Rome hath ordeined and purpoſed to tranſlate ſome prelats of the ſame realme, & ſome out of the realme, & ſome out of one biſhopricke into an other within the ſame realme without the kinges aſſent & knowledge, and without the aſſent of the prelats, which ſo ſhal be tranſlate, which prelats be much profitable and neceſſarie to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king & to al his realme: by which tranſlations (if they were ſuffred) the ſtatutes ſhould be defeted & deſtroied, & his ſaid liege perſons of his councell without his aſſent, and againſt his will, withdrawne & gotten out of his realme, & the ſubſtance & treaſure of the realme ſhalbe borne awaie, & ſo the realme deſtitute as well of counſell as of ſubſtance, to the finall deſtruction of the ſame realme. And ſo the crowne of Englande, which hath bene ſo free at all times, that it hath bene in ſubiection to no realme, but immediatly ſubiect to God & to none other in all things touching ẏ regalie of the ſame crowne, ſhould be ſubmitted to ẏ biſhop of Rome, and the lawes & ſtatutes of the realme by him defeted & deſtroied at his will, in perpetual deſtruction of the king our ſouereigne lord, his crowne & his regalie, and of all his realme, which God defende. And moreouer the commons aforeſaide ſaie, that the ſaid thinges ſo attempted be clerelie againſt the kings crowne & his regalie, uſed & approued of the time of all his progenitors, wherefore they & all the liege commons of the ſame realme wil be with our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king and his ſaide crowne & his regalie in the caſes aforeſaid, and in all other caſes attempted againſt him his crowne & his regalie in all points to liue and to die. And moreouer they praie the king & him require by way of iuſtice, that he would examine all the lords in the parliament as well ſpiritual as temporall ſeuerally, & all the ſtates of the parliament, how they thinke of the caſes aforeſaid, which be ſo openlie againſt the kings crowne, and in derogation of his regalie, and howe they will be in the ſame caſes with our ſouereigne lorde the king, in upholding the rights of his ſaide crowne and regalie, whereupon the lordes temporall ſo demanded, haue anſwered euerie one by him ſelfe, that the caſes aforeſaide be clerelie in derogation of the kings crowne and of his regalie, as it is well knowne, and hath bene of a long time knowne, and that they will be with the ſame crowne & regalie in theſe caſes ſpecially & in all other caſes which ſhalbe attempted againſt the ſame crowne & regalie in all points with all their power. And moreouer it was demanded of the lords ſpirituall there being, and of the procurators of other being abſent, their aduiſe & will in all theſe caſes: which lords, that is to ſaie, the archbiſhops, biſhops, and other prelates being in the parliament ſeuerallie examined, making proteſtations, that it is not their minde to denie nor affirme that the biſhop of Rome maie not excommunicate biſhops, nor that hee maie make tranſlations of prelates after the lawe of holie church, anſwered and ſaide that if anie executions of proceſſes made in the kings court (as before) be made by anie, and cenſures of excommunication to be made againſt anie biſhop of England, or anie other of the kings liege people, for that that they haue made execution of ſuch commandementes. And that if anie executions of ſuch tranſlations be made of anie prelates of the ſame realme, which prelates be verie profitable and neceſſarie to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king and to his ſaide realme, or that the ſage people of his councell without his aſſent and againſt his will be withdrawen and eloined out of the realme, ſo that the ſubſtance and treaſure of the realme maie be deſtroied, that the ſame is againſt the king and his crowne, as it is conteined in the petition before named. And likewiſe the ſame procurators euerie one by him ſelfe examined upon the ſaide matters, hath anſwered and ſaide in name, and for their lordes, as the ſaid biſhops haue ſaide and anſwered, and that the ſaide lordes ſpirituall will and ought to bee with the king in theſe caſes lawfully in mainteining of his crowne, & in al other caſes touching his crowne and his regalie, as they be bound by their liegeance. Whereupon our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, by the aſſent aforeſaid, and at the praier of his ſaide commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie purchaſe or purſue, or doe to be purchaſed or purſued in the court of Rome, or elſe where anie ſuch tranſlations, proceſſes, and ſentences of excommunications, bulles, inſtrumentes, or anie other things, which touch the king, againſt him, his crowne and his regalie or his realme, as is aforeſaide, and they which bring within the realme or them receiue, or make thereof notification or anie other execution within the ſame realme or without, that they, their notaries, procurators, mainteinors, abbettors, fautors and counſellers ſhall be put out of the kings protection, and their lands and tenements, goods and cattels forfeit to the king, and that they be attached by their bodies, if they maie be founde, and brought before the king and his councell, there to anſwere to the caſes aforeſaide, or that proceſſe be made againſt them by Premunire facias in maner as it is ordeined in other ſtatutes of prouiſors, and other which doe ſue in anie other courte in derogation of the regalie of our ſouereigne lorde the king.

Biſhop of Rome.

Prelates.

Premunire facias.

Chap. 6.

Charter of pardon.

Chamberlaine.

Item where as in an article of a ſtatute made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the munday next after the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie, the xiij. yeere of the king that nowe is, it was ordeined and granted, that no charter of pardon then ſhoulde be allowed before anie iuſtices for murder, death of man ſlaine by a waite, aſſaulte or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of woman if it were not ſpecified in the ſame charter: And if anie charter of the death of man were alledged before any iuſtices, in which charter was not ſpecified, that he of whoſe death any ſuch was arraigned, was murdered or ſlaine by a waite, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, the iuſtices ſhall inquire by a good enqueſt of the viſne where the dead perſon was ſlaine, if he were murdred or ſlaine by a wait, aſſault, or malice prepenſed: and if they finde, that he was murdered or ſlaine by a waite, aſſaulte, or malice prepenſed, the charter ſhall be diſalowed, and moreouer doe as the lawe ſhall require: Which things our ſouereigne lord the king wil & grant, that they ſhalbe fermely holden & kept. And moreouer by ẏ aſſent of the lords in this preſent parliament, & at the praiers of his commons hath ordeined & granted that the remnant of the ſaid article ſhalbe whollie out, repealed & adnulled, that is to ſay, if any pray to the king for a charter of pardon for murder, death of man ſlaine by a waite, aſſault or malice prepenſed, or rape of a woman, if the chamberlaine indorce or do to be indorced ſuch bill, he put the name of him that prayeth for ſuch a charter vpon the ſame bill vpon peine of a M. markes, & if yͤ vnderchamberlaine indorſe ſuch bil, he ſhal do likewiſe, vpon peine of CCCCC marke. And that none other, but the chamberlaine or the vnderchamberlaine, ſhall indorce or doe to be indorſed anie ſuch bill, vpon peine of a M. markes. And that no warrant of priuie ſeale ſhall be made to haue a charter, except that the keper of the priuie ſeale haue ſuch bill indorſed or ſigned by the chamberlaine or vnderchamberlaine as afore. And that no charter of pardon of treaſon or of other felonie ſhall paſſe the chauncerie without warrant of priuie ſeale, but in the caſe where the chauncellor may that graunt of his office, without ſpeaking thereof to the king. And that he, at whoſe prayer anie charter of pardon for murder, death of man ſlaine by a waite, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a woman ſhall be granted, if he were an archbiſhop or a duke, he ſhould pay to the king M. li. if he were a biſhop or an earle, he ſhould pay to yͤ king a M. marks, and if he were an abbot, prior, baron or baronet, he ſhould pay to the king CCCCC. markes, & if he were a clerke, bacheler, or other of leſſe eſtate, of what condition that he be, he ſhall pay to the king CC. markes, and ſhall haue a yéeres impriſonment, becauſe that the ſaide commons of the realme ſithens haue perceiued great gréeuance of the ordinance aforeſaid, for as much as manie people for malice haue indyted diuerſe perſons for murder, death of a man ſlaine by a waite, aſſault, & malice prepenſed, and treaſon, where of trueth there was no ſuch cauſe, to the entent that no man ſhould be bold to praie to the king our ſoueraigne lord for ſuch charter.

Priuie ſeale.
Chancellor

Here beginneth the Statutes made at Weſtminſter the xvii. yeere of the reigne of King Richard the ſecond.

These be the things ordeined and ſtabliſhed by our ſoueraigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xv. daie of ſaint Hillarie, the xvii. yéere of his reigne, by the aſſent of the ſaid parliament, which he will and commaund, that they ſhall be firmely holden and kept after the purport of the ſame.

Chap. 1.
Halfepenie
Farthing.
Money.

First where it was ordeined by the noble king Edwarde, graundfather to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, the tenth yéere of his reigne, that no ſtarling halfepenie nor farthing ſhall be molten for veſſell, nor other thing thereof to be made by the goldſmith nor other, vpon peine of forfeiture of the money ſo molten, and impriſonment of the founder, til he haue yelden to the king the halfe of that that he hath ſo molten: notwithſtanding anie charter or franchiſe graunted or vſed to the contrarie: It is accorded and aſſented, that the ſaid ordinance ſhall be firmely holden & kept. And moreouer it is ordeined and aſſented, that no grote nor halfegrote ſhall be molten by no man to make veſſell or other thing thereof, vpon the ſame peine. And that no gold nor ſiluer of Scotland, nor of other lands beyond the ſea, ſhall renne in no maner of paiment within the realme of England but ſhall be brought to the bullyon, there to be molten in the coyne of Englande, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame, and of impriſonment, fine, and raunſome of him which doeth contrarie. And that no man ſhall bring nor ſend anie Engliſh money into Scotland for to change the ſame in money, or for Scottiſh money, vpon the peine next aforeſaid.

Grote.
Golde.
Siluer.
Scotland.

Chap. 2.
Clothes.
Carſeys.

Item that euerie man of the realme may make and put to ſale & ſell clothes, as well kerſeies as other, of ſuch length and breadth as him pleaſe, paying the aulnage, ſubſidie & other deuoyers, that is to ſay, of euerie peece of cloth after the rate: notwithſtanding anie ſtatute ordinance, proclamation, reſtraint, or defence made to the contrarie. And that none ſhall ſell nor put to ſale anie clothes before that they be meaſured by the kings aulneger, and ſealed with the ſeale to that ordeined, vpon the peines conteined in the ſtatutes thereof made, and that no man ſhall put, meddle, cauſe, nor mak other diſceit in the clothes of kerſeies, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame.

Aulneger.

Cap. 3.
Single Worſtede.
Caleys.

Item that the marchants and workers of clothes, called ſingle worſted, may bring boltes of ſingle worſted to what parties that them pleaſeth (except to the kings enimies) paying the cuſtomes and ſubſidies thereof due, without paying the deuoyers of Caleys: notwithſtanding anie ſtatute, ordinance, proclamation, inhibition, commaundements, or charters, liberties, vſages or priuileges, graunted or to be graunted to the burgeſes of Caleys, or to the marchants of the ſtaple of Caleys, or to anie other made or to be made to the contrarie: And that the obligations and ſureties taken before this time for the deuoyers of Caleys ſhall be reſtored and deliuered. Prouided always, that vnder the colour of the ſaide boltes of ſingle worſted, they ſhall bring no double worſteds, nor halfe double, nor worſteds ray nor motley, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame.

Cap. 4.
Malt.
London.

Item that the malt which ſhall be made in the counties of Huntingdon, Cantbrige, Northhampton, and Bedford, which ſhall be ſold and brought to the citie of London, to vitaile the kings houſholde and other lordes houſholdes and gentiles there dwelling and repairing. And alſo for ſuſtenance of all the people of the ſaide citie, ſhall be well and couenably ſifted, incleanſed, and purified before the ſale of the ſame, from duſt and all other filth, ſo that the buyers may haue viii. buſhels of cleane malt for the quarter. And that the Maiors, bailifes, and wardens of townes & places where ſuch malt ſhall be ſold, ſhall haue power at euerie mans ſuite that will complaine to ſée and ſearch the ſaid malt. And if default be found thereof, to make due redreſſe.

Maiors.
Bailifes.
Wardeins

Chap. 5.
Sercher.
Gaugeor.
Aulneger.
Collector.
Controller

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no ſercher, gaugeor of Wines, aulnegeour, fynder, nor wayer of Wolles or anie other marchaundizes, collector of anie cuſtomes and ſubſidies, or controllers ſhal haue eſtate in his office for terme of life or of yeeres: but that the ſaide offices ſhall remaine in the kinges handes vnder the gouernance of the treaſurer for the time being, with the aſſent of the councell when néede is. And if anie charters or letters patentes be made to the contrarie, they ſhall be clerely adnulled, void, and of none effect.

Cap. 6.
Suggeſtiõ.
Chancellor.

Item for as much as people be compelled to come before the kings councell, or in the chauncerie by writtes grounded vpon vntrue ſuggeſtions, that the Chauncellor for the time being maintenant after that ſuch ſuggeſtions be duely founde and proued vntrue, ſhall haue power to ordeine and awarde dammages after his diſcretion, to him which is ſo trauailed vnduely as afore is ſaide.

Cap. 7.
Corne.

Item the king at the requeſt of the commons to him made in this preſent parliament, hath graunted licence to all his liege people of his realme of Englande to ſhip and carrie corne out of the ſaid realme, to what parties that pleaſeth them, except to his enemies, paying the ſubſidies & deuoiers thereof due: notwithſtanding anie ordinance proclamation or anie defence made before this time to the contrarie: Neuertheleſſe he wil, that his councel may reſtraine the ſaid paſſage when they ſhall thinke beſt for the profit of the realme.

Chap. 8.
Villaines.
Riot.
Rumor.
Aſſemblies
Shirifes.

Item where as at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the tenth yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, for as much as villaines, & other offenders of late haue riſen by aſſemblies and outragious number in diuers parties of the realme againſt the kings dignitie and his crowne, and the lawes of his lande: It was ſtraitly defended by the king to all manner of people, that none from henceforth ſhould make or begin againe ſuch ryot or rumor, nor other like. And if anie man did, and that duely proued, he ſhould be taken as a traitor to the king and his realme. Neuertheleſſe a greeuous complaint was made to our ſoueraigne lord the king in this preſent parliament, that diuerſe people, not hauing conſideration to the ſaid defence, as well in the counties of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and elſe where in England, haue made ſuch aſſemblies in outragious number, to accompliſh their malice, againſt the kings peace, his crowne, his dignitie, and the lawes of his land: Wherefore our ſoueraigne lorde the king in this preſent parliament hath defended to all the liege people, as well lordes as other, of what ſo euer eſtate that they be, that none ſhall make ſuch aſſemblies, riot, or rumor againſt the peace in no wiſe: And if anie ſuch aſſemblie be begonne, as ſoone as the ſhirifes and other the kings miniſters, may thereof haue knowledge, they with the ſtrength of the countie and countrey, where ſuch caſe ſhall happen, ſhall ſet diſturbance againſt ſuch malice with all their power, and ſhall take ſuch offenders, and them put in priſon till due execution of the lawe be of them made. And that all lordes and other liege people of the realme, ſhall be attending with all their ſtrength and power to the ſhirifes and miniſters aforeſaid.

Chap. 9.
Salmon ſewes.
Fiſher.
Garthmã.
Nettes.
Lampraies
Conſeruators.
Iuſtices of peace.
Weares

Item where it is conteined in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter ſecond, that ſalmon ſewes ſhal not be taken nor deſtroyed by nettes nor by other engins at the mill ſtankes from the middes of Aprill til the natiuitie of ſaint Iohn the Baptiſt, vpon a certeine peine limitted in the ſame ſtatute: And where as by a ſtatute made the xiii. yéere of the king that now is, it was ordeined, that the ſaide ſtatute of Weſtminſter ſeconde ſhould be firmely holden and kept, ioyning to the ſame, that ſalmon ſewes ſhould not be taken at the milles ſtankes nor elſewhere, vpon the ſame peine. And that no fiſher nor garthman nor none other, of what eſtate or condition that he were ſhoulde not put from henceforth in the waters of Thamys, Humbre, Ouſe, Trent, nor none other water of the realme, by the ſaid time, nor by none other time of the yéere, anie nettes called ſtalkers nor other nettes nor ingines, whereby the frye or broode of ſalmons, lampreys, or of anie other fiſh may in any wiſe be taken or deſtroyed vpon the peine aforeſaid: And alſo it was rehearſed in the ſaid ſtatute, made the ſaid xiii. yéere, that where it is conteined in the ſame ſtatute of Weſtminſter, that all the waters, in which ſalmons be taken in the realme, ſhall be put in defence as to the taking of ſalmons from the day of the Natiuitie of our Lady till ſaint Martins day. It was ordeined and aſſented in the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid xiii. yéere, that the waters of Lone, Wyre, Merſee, Rybbill, and all other waters in the countie of Lancaſter, ſhould be put in defence as to the taking of ſalmons from the day of ſaint Michael till the day of the Purification of our Lady, and in none other time of the yéere, becauſe that ſalmons be ſeaſonable in the ſaid waters by the time aforeſaid: And that in the parties where ſuch riuers be, good and ſufficient conſeruators of the ſaid ſtatute, made the ſaid xiii. yéere, ſhould be aſſigned & ſworne, as it was ordeined in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter. And that they ſhould puniſh the offenders, vpon the peine conteined in the ſame ſtatute of Weſtminſter, without making anie fauour thereof: which ſtatutes haue not béen hitherto duly executed for default of good conſeruators, as our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king hath perceiued by complaint to him made in this preſent parliament: wherefore it is accorded & aſſented, that the Iuſtices of the peace in all the counties of England, ſhall be conſeruators of the ſaid ſtatutes in the counties where they be iuſtices: And that they and euery of them at all times when they may attend, ſhall ſuruey the offences & defaults attempted againſt the ſtatutes aforeſaid. And alſo ſhal ſuruey & ſearch all the weares in ſuch riuers, that they ſhall not be verie ſtraite for the deſtruction of ſuch fry & broode, but of a reaſonable widenes after the old aſſiſe vſed or accuſtomed: And that the ſame Iuſtices, or anie of them which ſhall find default or miſpriſion againſt the ſtatutes aforeſaid ſhall make due puniſhment of them, which be found in default after the content of the ſame ſtatutes. And that the ſame iuſtices ſhal put good & ſufficient vnderconſeruators of the ſame ſtatutes vnder them which ſhall be ſworne to make like ſuruey, ſearch and puniſhment without anie fauour thereof to be ſhewed. And moreouer that the ſame Iuſtices in their ſeſſions ſhall enquire as well of their office, as at the information of the vnder conſeruatours aforeſaid, of all treſpaſſes, miſpriſions, and defautes made againſt anie of the points aforeſaid, and ſhall cauſe them which be thereof endited to come before them. And if they be thereof conuict, they ſhall haue impriſonment, and make fine after the diſcretion of the ſame iuſtices. And if the ſame be at the information of anie of the vnder conſeruatours aforeſaid, the ſame vnder conſeruatour ſhall haue the halfe of the ſame fine. And for as much as it is granted to the citizens of London by the kings progenitours, that they maie remoue & take all the weares in the waters of Thamis and Medoway, and that they ſhall haue the puniſhments thereof pertaining to the king: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, in this preſent parliament, by the aſſent aforeſaid, hath granted that the maior or warden of London for the time being, ſhall haue the conſeruation of the ſtatutes aforeſaid. And ſhall make thereof due execution and like puniſhment as afore is ordeined of the iuſtices of the peace, in the ſaid water of Thames, from the bridge of Stanes to London, and from thence ouer the ſame water, and in the ſaide water of Medeway as farre as it is granted to the ſaid citizens, as afore is ſaid.

London.

Cap. 10. Théeues. Commiſſion of peace.

Item for as much as théeues notoriouſlie defamed and other taken with the maner, by their long abiding in priſon after that they be arreſted, be deliuered by charters & fauourable enqueſtes procured, to the great hinderance of the poople: It is accorded and aſſented that in euery commiſſion of the peace through the realme, where néede ſhall be, two men of lawe of the ſame countie where ſuch commiſſion ſhall be made, ſhalbe aſſigned to go and procéede to the deliuerance of ſuch théeues and felons, as often as they ſhall thinke it expedient.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter the xx. yeere of King Richard the ſecond.

The king at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the feaſt of S. Vincent, the xx. yere of his raigne, by the aſſent of the prelates, lords, and commons of his realme of England aſſembled in the ſame preſent parliament, for the quietneſſe and tranquillitie of his people, hath made certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme which followeth.

Chap. 1. Armour. Launcegayes.

Firſt where as in a ſtatute made the vii. yéere of the raigne of the king that now is, it is ordeined and aſſented that no man ſhall ride armed within the realme againſt the forme of the ſtatute of Northampton thereupon made nor with Launcegayes within the ſame realme. And that the ſaid Launcegayes ſhall be vtterlie put out within the ſaid realme as a thing defended by the king, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame Launcegayes armours or anie other harneis in the hands and poſſeſſion of them that beare them from henceforth within the ſame realme againſt the ſame ſtatutes and ordinances, without the kings ſpeciall licence. Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the great clamour made to him in this preſent parliament, becauſe that the ſaid ſtatute is not holden, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed in the ſame parliament, that the ſaid ſtatutes ſhal be fullie holden and kept, and duelie executed: and that the ſaid Launcegayes ſhall be cléere out, vpon ẏ peine conteined in the ſaid ſtatute of Northampton, & alſo to make fine and raunſome to the king. And moreouer that no lord, knight, nor other, litle nor great, ſhall go nor ride by night nor by daie armed, nor beare ſallet nor ſkull of yron nor other armour, vpon the peine aforeſaid: ſaued and except the kings officers and miniſters in doing their offices. And moreouer the king will and hath ordeined, that the ſtatute made the firſt yéere of his raigne of liueries of hattes ſhall be holden and kept, vpon the peine conteined in the ſame ſtatute, and vpon peine to be impriſoned and make fine and raunſomee to the king.

Liuerie hattes.

Cap. 2. Liuerie. Juſtices of peace.

Item that no varlets called yomen, nor none other of leſſe eſtate then eſquire, ſhall vſe nor beare no ſigne of liuerie called liuerie of companie of anie lord within the realme, vnleſſe he be meniall & familier or continuall officer of his ſaid lord. And that the iuſtices of the peace ſhal haue power to enquire of them which do to the contrarie, & them to puniſh according to their diſcretion.

Cap. 3. Lord.

Item the king will and defend, that no lord nor other of the countrey litle nor great, ſhall ſit vpon the bench with the iuſtices to take aſſiſes in their ſeſſions in the counties of England, vpon great forfeiture to the king and hath charged his ſaid iuſtices, that they ſhall not ſuffer the contrarie to be done.

Chap. 4. Shipps.

Item where as it is conteined in a ſtatute of the late king Edward graundfather to the king that now is, the xxviii. yéere of his raigne, that no maner of ſhip, which is freighted toward England or elſe where, ſhall be compelled to come to anie port of England, nor there to tarie againſt the agréement of the maſters and mariners of the ſame, or of the marchants to whom the goods be: And if ſuch ſhips come of their agréement, or be driuen by tempeſt or other infortunite or miſchiefe to anie port of England, and the maſters and mariners, or marchants of the ſame ſhippes, will ſell or deliuer part of their marchandiſes with their good will, it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon to buie ſuch marchandiſes fréelie without impechment in the port where ſuch ſhips ſhall come: albe it the marchandiſes be not put to ſale to the land. And that the maſters, mariners, and marchants, after that that they haue ſo ſold that that them pleaſeth of their ſaid goods, and the cuſtoms thereof paide, maie fréelie depart and go with their ſhips, and all the remenant of their goods, where it pleaſe them, without paying thereof cuſtome. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king for the quietnes and eaſe of his people, wil that the ſaid ſtatute ſhall be holden and kept in all points and duelie executed, notwithſtanding anie ordinance or vſage to the contrarie.

Marchandiſe. Mariners.

Cap. 5. Takers.

Item for as much as the commons haue made complaint, that manie great miſchiefes extortions and diſeaſes be made by diuers people of euill condition, which of their owne authoritie take and do to be taken royally horſes and other things and beaſts out of their waines, cartes, and houſes, ſaying and imagining that they be to ride in haſtie meſſages and buſines, where of truth they be in no wiſe priuie of no buſineſſe or meſſage, but all onelie in diſceit and ſubtiltie by ſuch colour and imagination do take horſes, and the ſaid horſes ſo haſtelie do ride and euill entreat, hauing no maner of conſcience or compaſſion in this behalfe, ſo that the ſaid horſes become all loſt and foundred, paying no maner of thing nor penie for ẏ ſame, nor giuing them anie maner of ſuſtenance: And alſo that ſome ſuch maner of people changing and varying their names, do take & ride ſuch horſes, and them being to an other place, ſo that they, to whom they belong, can neuer after by no meanes, ſee, haue againe nor know their ſaid horſes where they be, to the great miſchiefe, loſſe deſtruction, and hinderance of the kings poore people, their huſbandrie, and of their liuing: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing for the quietnes and eaſe of his people to make remedie thereof, will and hath ordeined, that none from henceforth ſhall take no ſuch horſe nor beaſt in ſuch maner againſt the agreement of them to whom they be. And if anie that do, & haue no ſufficient ſigne nor authoritie of the king, he ſhalbe taken & impriſoned till he hath made due agreement to ẏ partie.

Chap. 6. Pardon.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king hath aſſented and granted of his ſpeciall grace, by aſſent and accord of all lords ſpirituall and temporal, and of al the commons in this preſent parliament, to Robert Belknape, John Holt, and William Burgh knights of the bath, and dwelling in Ireland, that they ſhall come againe into England, there to dwell for terme of their liues. And that they ſhall be perſons able to the common lawe as the kings liege people, without being thereof impeched, notwithſtanding the ſtatute thereof made the xi. yeere of the raigne of our ſaid soueraigne lord the king. Sauing alwaies againſt them, all the other points conteined in the ſaid ſtatute.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xxi. yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

IT is to vnderſtand, that our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the grace of God king of England and of France, and lord of Ireland, at his parliament ſommoned and begun at Weſtminſter vpon the mondaie next after the feaſt of the exaltation of the holie croſſe, and from thence adiourned to Shrewſburie at the xv. of S. Hillarie then next enſuing, and there ended, to the honour of God and holie church, and for ſaluation and ſuretie of his realme and good gouernauce of his people, of the aſſent and accord of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and commons of his realme there aſſembled, hath made certaine ſtatutes and ordinances hereafter following.

Chap. 1.

FIrſt that holie church, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and all cities and boroughes and other commonalties of the realme, haue and enioy their liberties and franchiſes from henceforth, as they haue reaſonably had & enioyed in time of his noble progenitours kings of England.

Cap. 2. Commiſſion.

Item where as the commons of the parliament haue ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lord the king how in ẏ parliament holden at Weſtminſter ẏ firſt daie of October, in the x. yeere of his raigne, Thomas duke of Gloceſter, and Richard earle of Arundell, traitours to the king and his realme, and his people by falſe imagination and compaſſing, cauſed a commiſſion to be made by ſtatute, direct to them ſelues and other perſons at their denomination, for to haue the rule of the king and the realme, as well within the kings houſe as without in the kings ſegnories, beyond the ſea, as it is conteined in the ſaid commiſſion, the tenor whereof doth followe.

RIchard by the grace of God king of England and of France, and lord of Ireland, to all them that theſe preſent letters ſhall ſee or heare ſendeth greeting, we haue certainlie knowne by the grieuous complaint of the lords and the commons. &c. as it appeereth in the x. yeere, rehearſing al the ſaid commiſſion, ſo that the ſaid commiſſion & the ſaid ſtatute, touching the ſame commiſſion, ſeemeth to the ſaid commons to be preiudicial to the king and to his crowne, and vſurpation of the regallie and royall power, and that the ſaid duke of Gloceſter & earle of Arundell did ſend a great man and peere of the realme in meſſage to our lord ẏ king, who of their part ſaid, that if he would not grant and aſſent to the ſaid commiſſion and ſtatute, he ſhould be in great perill of his life, and ſo as well the ſaid commiſſion as the ſaid ſtatute touching the ſaid commiſſion, were made by conſtraint and compulſion, and againſt the agreement of the king and his will: Wherefore the ſaid commons prayeth our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, that the ſaid commiſſion, and ſtatute touching the ſame commiſſion, with all their dependants be repealled and vtterlie adnulled, as a thing done traitorouſlie and againſt his regallie his crowne and his dignitie. Whereupon our ſoueraigne lord the king, of the aſſent of all the lords ſpirituall, and the proctours of the clergie, at the requeſt of the ſaid commons here hath repelled the ſayde ſtatute in this article, and the ſayde commiſſion and all the peines and dependantes of the ſame vtterlie to be adnulled for euer, for the cauſes aforeſaid. And moreouer that the king of the aſſent of all the ſaide lordes and commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no ſuch commiſſion neither ſuch like, be from henceforth purchaſed, purſued, nor made: And he that purchaſeth purſueth or procureth to be made anie ſuch commiſſion, or anie like in time comming, priuilie or appertlie, or vſe iuriſdiction or power by vertue of anie ſuch commiſſion, and of the ſame be duelie conuict in the parliament, he ſhall be adiudged for a traitour, and that of high treaſon done againſt the king and his crowne. And the king ſhall haue the forfeiture of his lands tenements, poſſeſſions and all other hereditaments, to him and to his heires as well holden of himſelfe as of other.

Chap. 3. Treaſon.

Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that euerie man, which compaſſeth or purpoſeth the death of the king, or to depoſe him, or to render vp his homage or liege, or he that raiſeth people, and rideth againſt the king to make warre within his realme, and of that be duelie attainted and iudged in the parliament, ſhall be iudged as a traitor of high treaſon againſt the crowne. And he for him and his heires ſhall forfeite all the landes, tenements, and poſſeſſions, liberties and all other hereditaments, which he hath or anie other hath to his vſe, or had the day of the treaſon done, as well in fee taile as in fee ſimple to the king and to his heires, aſwell ſuch landes holden of other as of himſelfe for euer and alſo ſuch poſſeſſion as other haue to his vſe. And that this ſtatute ſhall extend and holde place as well to them which be iudged or attainted for theſe iiii. points of the ſaide treaſon in this preſent parliament, as of them which ſhall be iudged or attainted in the parliament in time to come of anie of the iiii. pointes of treaſons aforeſaide. And it is not the minde of the king, nor of the lordes, nor the aſſent of the commons aforeſaide, that if anie ſuch, which forfeiteth in the maner aforeſaid, be infeffed in anie land, tenement, or poſſeſſion to others vſe, that that ſhall be comprised in the ſame forfeiture.

Chap. 4. Treaſon.

Item the king, by the aſſent aforeſaid hath ordained and ſtabliſhed that if anie, of what eſtate or condition that he be, doo procure or counſell to repeale, abate, reuerſe, or adnull, anie of the iudgements giuen againſt anie ſtatutes or ordinances made in the ſame parliament or anie parcell of the ſame in anie wiſe, and that duelie proued in the parliament, that he ſhall be iudged and haue execution as a traitor to the king and to the realme. To which ordinances and ſtatutes well and lawfullie to be holden and kept, the lordes of the realme, as well ſpirituall as temporall be ſworne and haue made othes before the king, as it appeareth in the rule of the parliament.

Chap. 5. Othe. Prelates. Liuerie.

Item moreouer our ſoueraigne lorde the king for the more ſuretie in time comming, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the othe of the ſaide lordes ſhall be put of recorde in the parliament rolle. And that it be enrolled in the chauncerie, ſo that the ſucceſſours of all the prelates, vpon the forfeiture of their fealtie for their temporalties before that they haue liuerie of the ſame out of the chauncerie, ſhall make the ſame othe in all times to come. And alſo that all the heires of the ſaide lordes temporall in time to come, at the making of their homage or fealtie, before that they haue poſſeſſion of their landes out of the chauncerie, ſhall make ſuch an othe.

Chap. 6. Treaſon.

Item the king, at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, by the aſſent aforeſaid for the more ſuretie of him and of his realme of England, and alſo of his people in time to come, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the iſſue males of ſuch perſons foriudged now begotten, ſhall not come to the parliaments nor to the councels of the king nor of his heires, nor ſhall not be of the kings councell nor of his heires, ſauing alwaies that the iſſues females of the ſaide perſons foriudged, and their iſſues, which haue other ſtrange fathers, ſhall not be endamaged by this ſtatute.

Chap. 7. Treaſon.

Item the king hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all the annuities, fees, corrodies, and all other charges made or graunted by them or anie of them that be iudged traitors in the ſame parliament, after the day of the treaſons doone, ſhall be voide adnulled and holden for none.

Chap. 8. Treaſon.

Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the king ſhall haue the preſentment, giftes, and collations of all the benefices, whoſe auowſons were to the perſons attainted in the ſaid parliament, of euerie voidance fallen after the treaſons of the ſaide perſons doone and begoone except the benefices, of which the owners or incumbentes haue ratifications of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, which owners the king will that they ſhall enioy their ſaid benefices. And ſauing alwaies that they, which be in by way of purmutation with ſuch benefices that they haue thereof ratification if they will purſue.

Chap. 9. Cheſter. Principalitie of Cheſter.

Item our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, for the great charitie and affection that he hath in the countie of Cheſter, and to the gentils of the ſame, and for aſmuch as the king himſelfe before that he did take the hie dignitie of king, and his honorable father before him, and other his noble progenitors, haue bene earles of the ſaid countie of Cheſter, and for the great honor of his eldeſt ſonne, if God ſend him anie, & of his other heires, which ſhall haue the ſame ſeignorie hereafter, by the aſſent & accord of all the lordes ſpirituall and temporall & at the praier of the ſaid commons hath ordained and ſtabliſhed for him & his heires, that the ſaid countie of Cheſter ſhall be the principalitie of Cheſter, from henceforth named and holden the principalitie of Cheſter, with all the liberties and franchiſes thereof had and vſed, and in the ſame maner as it hath bene before, when he was named earle of Cheſter, for euer. And moreouer the king of his certaine ſcience, and by the aſſent & accorde aforeſaid, and for the increaſe and honor of the ſtate of princes, which ſhall be there, & for the eaſe, concorde, and tranquillitie of his liege people of the ſaide principalitie and of the counties of Flint and Shropſhire, and of the ſeignories, which be ioining to the ſame, hath graunted ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the caſtle of Lions, with the ſeignorie of Bromfield and Yale to the ſaide caſtell belonging: the caſtle of Chike, with the ſeignorie of Chirkeland to the ſaide caſtell belonging: The caſtell of Oſwaldſtreete, with the towne well walled with ſtone, and the hundred, and eleuen townes to the ſaide caſtell belonging: The caſtell of Iſabell, with the ſeignorie to the ſame belonging to the caſtell of Dalilay, with the apurtenaunces in the countie of Shropſhire and the reuertion of the ſeignorie of Cleue, with all their appurtenances, which Edwarde earle of Rutlande holdeth for terme of his life, all which townes, caſtels and ſeignories aforeſaid were to Richard late earle of Arundell, and which by force of the iudgement giuen againſt the ſaid earle in the ſaid parliament, be forfeite to our ſouereigne lord the king, ſhall be from henceforth annexed, vnited, and incorporat to the ſaid principalitie of Cheſter and ſhall wholie abide and remaine to the ſame principalitie, as parcell and a member of the ſame for euer, without being giuen, ſould, aliened, ſeuered, or departed from the principalitie to anie perſon by anie way hereafter. And that no gift nor graunt at anie time hereafter be made of the ſaide principalitie, nor of the caſtels, ſeignories, and townes, aforeſaid to no perſon, but all onelie to the kings eldeſt ſonne, which ſhall be prince there, if it pleaſe the king to make him. And that the ſaide eldeſt ſonne, which ſhall haue the ſaid principalitie, ſhall haue alſo the ſaid caſtels, ſeignories, and townes as vnited and annexed to the ſame principalitie, without being ſeuered or departed from the ſame in time to come, ſo that the ſaid reſiaunts land tenaunts & all the inhabitants within the ſaid caſtels, ſeignories, and townes, ſhall haue, vſe, and enioyne, all their auncient lawes, rightes, and cuſtomes, thereof old time reaſonablie had and vſed. Saued and reſerued alwaies to our ſouereigne lord the king his regalie, libertie, and franchiſe, and the rightes of his crowne. Prouided alwaies that the ſaide principalitie and the ſeignories aforeſaid, ſhall haue and enioy the ſame lawes, liberties, and cuſtomes,, vſages, rightes, and franchiſes, of old time in the ſame reaſonablie had and vſed, as plainelie and wholie as it was had and vſed before the beginning of the ſame parliament: The name of the countie of Cheſter chaunged into the name of the principalitie of Cheſter, and thannexion and vnion of the ſaid caſtels, ſeignoies, and townes, to the ſame notwithſtanding.

Chap.10 Caſtell. Shiriffewike of Wincheſter.

Item at the requeſt of the commons, and by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall aforeſaid, it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the caſtell and ſhiriffewike of Wincheſter: which Thomas late earle of Warwike did hold in fee, and which by force of yͤ iudgement giuen againſt the ſaide earle in the ſaide parliament be ſeaſed into the kings handes as forfeite, with tournes and hundreds rentes and ſalthouſes, as well in Worceſter and in the Wich as elſewhere, and all other profites and thinges to the ſaide caſtell and ſhiriffewike pertaining and belonging in anie wiſe or colour, as fullie and wholie as the ſaide earle before the ſaid forfeiture had, ſhall be abiding and remaining to our ſouereigne lord the king and to his heires for euer, without being giuen or graunted to anie, or to be ſeuered from his crowne at anie time hereafter.

Chap.11 Shiriffewike of Eſſex.

Item in the ſame maner, that all the hundreds, tenours, courts, liberties, and franchiſes, which Thomas late duke of Glouceſter did hold in the countie of Eſſex of the gift and graunt of the king, and of king Edward his graundfather, which were of old time annexed and ioyned to the ſhiriffewike of Eſſex, as parcell of the ſame, and which now by forfeiture of the ſaide duke, be in the kings hands as forfeite, ſhall be abiding and remaining to the king and to his heires ioyned annexed and vnited, to the ſhiriffewike of Eſſex, as parcell of the ſame for euer, without being giuen or graunted to anie, or to be ſeuered or departed from the ſame ſhiriffewike at anie time hereafter.

Chap.12 Treaſon. Parliament.

Item the lordes, which were appellaunts in the ſaide parliament, that is to ſay, Edward duke of Aumarle, Thomas duke of Surreie, Iohn duke of Exceter, Iohn marques of Dorcet, Iohn earle of Saliſburie, Thomas earle of Glouceſter, and William earle of Wiltſhire, praied to the king reciting and ſhewing, how certaine lords, which be conuicted and attainted, that is to ſay, the duke of Gloceſter and the earles of Arundell and Warwike aſſembled at Heringey, forcible and in great number in the maner of warre, made barriers betwixt the king and them, that the kings liege people might not approch to the king to ſuccour him, and ſo came in ſuch forcible maner to his palace of Weſtminſter, arraied in maner of warre, that the king might not than reſiſt them without great perill of his bodie and diſtruction of his people: So that by cohercion and compulſion the ſaide duke and earles made the king to ſummon a parliament at Weſtminſter the morow after the Purification of our ladie, the xi. yeare of his reigne, which parliament ſo begun the ſaid duke and earles in ſuch forcible maner continued to the end, and in the ſame did giue manie diuers iudgements, as well of death of man as otherwiſe, vpon diuers of the kings liege people, and did giue iudgement of forfeitures, of lands, tenements, goods, and catels, whereof they be conuict of hie treaſon, and alſo for certaine queſtions, which were demaunded by the king touching his eſtate and regalie, of certaine of his iuſtices than at Notingham the ſame yeare. And for their aunſweres of the ſame giuen to the king vpon the ſame queſtions, the ſame iuſtices were foriudged of their liues and iudgement giuen againſt them of forfeture of their lands, tenements, goods, and cattels, the ſaid duke and earles made diuers ſtatutes and ordinances in the ſaid parliament at their will: whereupon the ſaid apellants, conſidering the ſummons of the ſaide parliament to be made expreſſelie againſt the right of the kings crowne, and contrarie to the libertie and franchiſe of his perſon and roiall eſtate, willing to acquite them to the king as his faithfull liege people, praied him that the ſaide parliament be adnulled and clearelie holden for none. And that all the iudgements, ordinances, and ſtatutes made and giuen in the ſaide parliament, and all thinges depending vpon the ſame, ſhall be adnulled and reuoked and holden for none. as a thing done without autoritie, and againſt the will and libertie of the king, and the right of his crowne. And that the landes, tenements, fees, and aduowſons, and all other poſſeſſions ſeaſed by colour of the ſaide iudgements, ſhall be reſtored and deliuered to them which were ſo iudged, to them & to their heires. And alſo the ſaide commons praied to the king, as the ſaid appellants prayed and ſaid, that their intent was to haue prayed likewiſe: And thereupon the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the procurers of the clergie ſeuerallie examined, aſſented expreſſelie, that the ſaid parliament, and all the ſtatutes, iudgements, ordinances, and all other things thereof made and followed, ſhall be voide and adnulled and of no force nor valure, and reſtitution made as afore is ſaid. And alſo as well the lords ſpirituall and temporall and the procurers of the clergie, as the ſaid commons were ſeuerallie examined of the ſaid queſtions, and of the anſweres of the iuſtices aforeſaid, the tenor whereof followeth in this maner.

MEmorandum that the xxv. daie of the moneth of Auguſt, the xi. yéere of the raigne of king Richard the ſecond, at the caſtell of Notingham before our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, Robert Treſilian chiefe iuſtice, Robert Belknape chiefe iuſtice of the common bench, Iohn Holte, Roger Fulthorpe and William Burgh knights, fellowes of the ſaid Robert Belknape, and Iohn Lokton, one of the kings ſerieants at the lawe, being perſonallie required in preſence of the lords & other witneſſes vnder written by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, in the faith and legeance by which they be firmelie bounden to the ſaid king, that they ſhould truelie anſwere to certaine queſtions vnder written, and before them recited, and vpon the ſame by their diſcretions to ſay the lawe.

The firſt queſtion.

FIrſt it was enquired of them, whether the ſame new ſtatute and ordinance, and the commiſſion made in the laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter, be hurtfull to the kings royall prerogatiue.

The anſwere.

Where vnto all of one mind anſwered, that they be hurtfull, and ſpeciallie becauſe they were againſt the kings will.

The ſecõd queſtion.

Item it was enquired of them, how they ought to be puniſhed, which procured the ſaid ſtatute, ordinance, and commiſſion to be made.

The anſwere.

Where vnto with one aſſent they anſwered, that they deſerue to be puniſhed by the capitall peine, that is to ſay, of death, vnleſſe the king in this partie of his grace will pardon them.

The thirde queſtion.

Item it was enquired, how they ought to be puniſhed, which excited the ſaid king to conſent to the making of the ſaid ſtatute, ordinance and commiſſion.

The anſwere.

Where vnto of one minde they ſaid, that vnleſſe the king would giue them his pardon, they ought to be puniſhed by the capitall peine.

The iiii. queſtion.

Item it was enquired of them, what peine they deſerued, that compelled the king to conſent to the making of the ſaid ſtatute, ordinance, and commiſſion.

The anſwere.

Whereunto by one aſſent they gaue anſwere, that as traitours they ought to be puniſhed.

The v. queſtion.

Item how they ought to be puniſhed, that did interrupt the king, ſo that he might not exerciſe thoſe things that perteineth to his regallie and prerogatiue.

The anſwere.

Whereunto of one aſſent it was anſwered, that they ought to be puniſhed as traitours.

The vi. queſtion.

Item it was enquired of them, whether that after that the buſineſſe of the realme and yͤ cauſe of the aſſemble of the parliament were by yͤ kings commandement diſcloſed and declared in the parliament, and other articles limitted by the king, vpon which the lords & commons of the realme ought to procéede in the ſame parliament, if the lords and commons would in anie wiſe procéede vpon other articles, and in no wiſe vpon the articles limitted by the king, till the king had anſwered to the articles expreſſed by them: notwithſtanding that they were by the king enioyned to the contrarie, whether the king in this caſe ought to haue the rule of the parliament, and in déede to rule, to the intent that vpon the articles limitted by the king they ought firſt to procéede or not, before they procéeded anie further.

The anſwere.

To which queſtion of one minde they anſwered, that the king in this partie ſhould haue the rule, and ſo in order one after an other in all other articles touching the parliament, till the end of yͤ parliament. And if anie do contrarie to this rule of yͤ king, he ought to be puniſhed as a traitor.

The vii. queſtion.

Item whether the king, whenſoeuer it pleaſeth him might diſſolue the parliament, and commaunde his lords and commons to depart from thence or not,

The anſwere.

Whereunto it was of one minde anſwered, that he maie. And if anie would procéede in the parliament againſt the kings will, he is to be puniſhed as a traitour.

The viii. queſtion.

Item it was enquired, ſince that the king, whenſoeuer him pleaſed might remoue his officers or iuſtices, and to iuſtifie and puniſh them for their offences, whether the lords and commons might, without the kings will, impech the ſame officers and iuſtices vpon their offences in the parliament or not.

The anſwere.

To which queſtion it was by one minde anſwered, that they might not. And he that doth contrarie is to be puniſhed as a traitour.

The ix. queſtion.

Item it was enquired, how he is to be puniſhed that moued in the parliament, that the ſtatute ſhould be ſent for whereby Edward the ſonne of king Edward, great graundfather to the king that now is, was an other time endited in the parliament, by thenſpection of which ſtatute, the ſaid new ſtatute or ordinances and commiſſion were conceiued in the parliament.

The anſwere.

To which queſtion of one accord they anſwered, that as well he that ſo moued, as the other which by force of the ſame motion brought the ſaid ſtatute into the parliament houſe, be as criminous and traitours worthie to be puniſhed.

The x. queſtion.

Item it was enquired of them, whether the iudgement giuen in our parliament holden at Weſtminſter againſt the earle of Suffolke, were erronious and reuocable or not.

To

The anſwere.

To which queſtion of one aſſent they ſaid, that if the ſame iudgement were now to be giuen, the ſame iuſtices and ſerieant aforeſaid would not giue the ſame, becauſe it ſeemed to them that the ſame iudgement is reuocable as erronious in euerie part. In witneſſe whereof the iuſtices and ſerieant aforeſaid to this preſent haue ſet their ſeales. Theſe men being witneſſes, the reuerend fathers the lords Alexander archbiſhop of Yorke, Robert archbiſhop of Dublinde, Iohn biſhop of Durham, Thomas biſhop of Cheſter, Iohn biſhop of Bangore, Robert duke of Ireland, Michael earle of Suffolke, Iohn Ripon clerke, and Iohn Blake. Dated the daie, place, moneth, and yéere aforeſaid.

Which queſtions and the anſweres of the ſame, as well before the king and the lords, as before the commons were read and perceiued, and it was demaunded of all the ſtates of the parliament, how they thought of the anſweres aforeſaid: and they ſaid, that they thought, that the ſaide iuſtices made, and gaue their anſweres duely and lawfullie, as good and lawfull liege people of the king ought to do. And in the ſame maner ſir Thomas of Skelton learned in the lawe, & William Hankeford, and William Brenchley the kings ſerieants demaunded by the king of their aduiſe in this behalfe, ſaid that the anſweres were good and lawfull. And that they would haue giuen the ſame anſweres, if the ſayde queſtions hath beene demaunded of them. And my lord William Thirning chiefe Iuſtice of the common benche, ſayde that the declaration of treaſon not declared, belongeth to the parliament. But if he were a lord or a peere of the parliament, if he had bene demanded, he would haue ſaid in the ſame maner. And in like maner ſaid my lord William Rikehyll iuſtice of the common place, and after the comming of my lord Walter Clopton chiefe iuſtice, he ſaid in like wiſe. Wherefore the ſaid anſweres be iudged & affirmed for good and ſufficient in the ſaid parliament. Whereupon the king by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the procuratours of the clergie, and the ſaid commons, and by aduiſe of the Iuſtices and ſerieauntes aforeſayde, there being, it was awarded and iudged, ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid parliament holden the ſaid xi. yéere, ſhall be cléerely adnulled and holden for none, as a thing made without authoritie and againſt the will and libertie of the king & the right of his crowne. And that all the iudgements ſtatutes, and ordinances made in the ſame, with all thinges depending vpon the ſame, ſhall be reuoked and adnulled, reuerſed, and cléerely repealed and holden for none. And that all lands, tenements, fées, auouſons, and all other poſſeſſions ſeaſed as forfeite by colour of the ſaid iudgements, ſhall be reſtored and deliuered to them which were iudged or put out, to their heires, and to them that haue in other maner cauſe of action or title of right in this behalfe, with all maner of liberties and fraunchiſes and priuiledges, as farforth and wholie as they had at anie time, with reſtitution of goods & cattels. But our ſoueraigne lord the king, by aduiſe of the ſaide lords and commons, conſidering how the king for recouere & reliefe of his liege people, which were ſo iudged or put out and to make them to haue reſtitution of their eſtates and landes, tenements, fées, auouſons, and other poſſeſſions aforeſaid, hath had and ſupported great and exceſſiue coſts and expenſes, it ſéemeth to the king and to all the lords that touching the ſaid reſtitution it ſhalbe a competent ſatiſfaction to the ſaid perſons foriudged and put out, and to their heires to haue reſtitution of their goods and cattelles, or of the iſſues and profites of the ſaid landes and tenementes taken in the meane time. And moreouer as to them, which haue bought and purchaſed of the king much of the lands and tenements aforeſaid, ſome in demeane, and ſome in reuerſion, for certaine ſommes to be paid to the king he hath charged his councell to enquire by their aduiſe of the valour of the ſayd lands and tenements ſo ſolde, and howe much the buiers thereof haue taken in the meane time: and thereupon trete and make with them ſuch end as good faith and conſcience requireth: and thereupon it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that al they which wil purſue for the reſtitution aforeſaid, or for their recouery in this behalfe, ſhal haue a writ of Scire facias retournable in the chauncerie, as often and ſuch as they ſhall thinke néedefull, or take any other action at the common law if they will, and that they may ſue againſt them which be tenaunts of the fréehold, the monday next after the ſaid xv. yéere of ſaint Hyllary, & that their recouery be good and effectuall againſt them, notwithſtanding any alienations or demiſes made ſince the ſaid monday, or againſt other tenaunts at their election. And that no protection be alowed in this caſe, nor no delay by nonage, nor reſtraint nor aidpraier, but by aidpraier of ẏ king. And that the ſaid kéeper of the priuie ſeale ſhal make thereof letters of Procedendo, without purſuing or ſpeaking to the king, or other delaie, without doing waſt or deſtruction in the meane time.

Cap. 12.

Parliament.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king at the inſtaunce of the ſaide lords appellants, & by aſſent of other lords of the parliament, conſidering how it was iudged by all the eſtates of the parliament that the anſwere made by Robert Treſilian and other his ſayde companions the kings Iuſtices at Notingham, the ſayde xi. yéere, vpon a certaine queſtion of them demanded, as it appeareth aboue, touching Mychaell de la Pole late erle of Suff. was iuſt good and lawfull: And that the ſayd iudgement giuen againſt the ſayd earle in the ſayde parliament, the ſayd x. yéere of our ſayde ſoueraigne lorde the king, was erronious and reuocable, as before it appeareth, hath by the aſſent of the parliament awarded, iudged, & alſo ſtabliſhed, that the ſayd iudgement giuen againſt the ſaid earle in the ſaid parliament, the ſaid x. yéere, ſhalbe repealed, reuerſed, and cleerly adnulled, in like maner and forme as the iudgements giuen againſt the ſaid earle and other iudged in the ſaid parliament, holden the ſaid xi. yéere, were reuerſed and adnulled in the ſame parliament determined at Shrewſburie. And that al the lands & tenements, rents, fées, and aduowſons, & all other poſſeſſions, which were to the ſaid earle, and ſeaſed as forfeite by colour of the ſaid iudgement in the ſaide parliament the ſaide x. yeare, with all maner of liberties franchiſes and priuileges, as far forth and as wholie as the ſaide earle had them at anie time before, ſhould be reſtored to the heires of the ſaide earle, without hauing anie iſſues or profites of the ſame in the meane time: and that the ſaide heires haue their ſuite and recouerie in the ſame maner as before.

Cap. 14. Pardon.

Item where as the commons ſhewed to the king in the ſame parliament, how the ſaide xi. yeare, at the time that the lordes that be atteinted, gathered them in great number forciblie with manie people, and came to Ratecote bridge, where manie robberies, theftes, felonies, treſpaſſes, outrages, and ryots were done, by which, great miſchiefe & trouble may come to the people hereafter, whereof they pray (to eſchew ſuch miſchiefes & troubles) that it would pleaſe the king to ordaine & ſtabliſh in the ſaide parliament, that all actions and ſuites of the partie, for all robberies, theftes, felonies, treſpaſſes, outrages, and rightes done by them, which roſe in the companie of the ſaid lordes at that time, & by that occaſion, be extinct for euer: Whereupon ẏ king by aduiſe of the eſtates of ẏ parliament hath ordained & ſtabliſhed, that all the ſaid actions & ſuites ſhould be clearelie extinct and adnulled, without hauing thereof anie remedie in anie wiſe in time to come.

Cap. 15. Pardon generall.

Item our ſouereigne lorde the king in the ſaide parliament conſidering the great affection and loue to him ſhewed by his people, and their good port and the great tendernes and diligence that they haue had for ſaluation of his realme eſtate and right of his crowne: And alſo for conſideration of the graunt that they haue made at this time of their good will, more than they haue done to anie of his progenitors before this time, that is to ſay, the ſubſidie of the wolles, lether and wolfelles, for terme of his life, and a diſme and quinzime, and an halfe to be paide in maner compriſed in their ſaid graunt, and willing of his roiall benignitie to prouide the quietnes, peace, and tranquillitie of his ſaide people, and that they ſhould haue the greater cauſe & courage to do well, to the beſt of their power in time to come, hath pardoned and releaſed to all his liege people of England, of whatſoeuer ſtate or condition they be, and to euerie of them, all maner of eſcapes of felonies, catalles of fugitiue perſons and felons, treſpaſſes, negligences, miſpriſions, ignorances, and all other articles of the eire and other thinges fallen or chaunced within the realme of England, whereof the puniſhment lieth in fine or in raunſome or in other pecuniar paines or otherwiſe impriſonment, amercements of commons or of townes, of ſingular perſons, or charge of fréehold of them which neuer treſpaſſed as heires or tenaunts of lands, of eſchetors, ſhiriffes, or coroners, and ſuch other. And alſo hath pardoned and releaſed all maner of giftes alienations and purchaſes made by them of lands tenements or anie other poſſeſſions holden of him, in chiefe without the kings licence, and all maner of entries made in their heritages purchaſes or otherwiſe in part or in whole after the death of their aunceſter, or of anie other without purſuite or due proceſſe thereof made, till the thurſday the laſt day of the moneth of Ianuarie the laſt day of the ſaid parliament, except thoſe landes, tenements, and poſſeſſions, which be aliened into mortmaine without licence roiall. And alſo hath thence wholie pardoned and releaſed all maner of fines, amerciaments, iſſues, forfeites not iudged nor determined made fallen or happened within the ſame realme of England before the ſaid thurſday. And alſo hath pardoned them generallie the ſuite of his peace for all maner treaſon and felonies made or done before the ſaide thurſday, and the vtlagaries if anie by this occaſion be in them pronounced except murders and rapes of women, and common théeues endited the thurſday, and that be pernours, and they which be appealed of the death of man at the ſuite of the partie, and except them which haue compaſſed and purpoſed the kings death. Prouided alwaies that none ſhall haue benefite of this pardon for treaſon nor felonie, if he purſue not a charter of pardon. Prouided alſo that they that ride and gathered them forciblie againſt the king, the xi. yeare of his reigne, with the lordes which be now iudged and conuict, ſhall haue no benefit of this acte at this time, if they purſue not a charter of pardon in this behalfe betwixt this & the feaſt of ſaint Iohn the Baptiſt next comming. And the king our ſouerigne lord, vpon ẏ graunt of this grace & pardon ſo made to his liege people at this time, made an open declaration by his owne mouth. So that if the lordes and commons of the realme, which ſhal come to ẏ parliaments in time to come do put or make any let or diſturbance contrarie to the graunt of the ſaide ſubſidie of wolls, lether, and wolfelles ſo graunted to him for terme of his life, that then the ſaid grace and pardon ſhall be voide and clearelie adnulled.

Cap. 16.

Item it is to be remembred, that where as the king at the requeſt of the ſame parliament making to them diuers petitions, as well for ſpeciall perſons as other not redde nor aunſwered, and which for ſhortnes of time may not well be determined during the time of the parliament, it is ordained and aſſigned by autoritie and aſſent of the ſaide parliament, that Iohn duke of Lancaſter, Edmund duke of Yorke, Edmund duke of Ammerle, Thomas duke of Surreie, Iohn duke of Exceſter, Iohn marques of Dorſet, Roger earle of March, Iohn earle of Saliſburie, and Henrie earle of Northumberland, Thomas earle of Glouceſter, Thomas earle of Wincheſter, and William earle of Wiltſhire, or vi. of them, Iohn Huſſeie, Henrie Gréene, Iohn Ruſſhell, Henrie Chelmeſwike, Robert Tey, & Iohn Goloſre knightes comming for the commons of the realme to the ſaide parliamint, or iii. of them, ſhall examine, aunſwere and plainelie determine all the ſaide petitions and the matters contained in the ſame, as they ſhall thinke beſt by their good aduiſe and diſcretion in this behalfe by autoritie of the ſaid parliament, as it appeareth more plainelie in the rolle of the ſaide parliament: Our ſouereigne lorde the king by the aſſent

Cordwainers.
Tanner.

aſſent of the dukes of Lancaſter, Yorke, Ammerle, Surreie, and Exceſtre, and of the ſaid marques, and of the ſaid earles of March, Saliſburie and Glouceſter and the ſaid John Huſſeie, Henrie Grœne, and John Ruſſhell by vertue and authoritie to them committed in the parliament, hath receiued and heard certaine petitions, and thereupon made certaine ordinances and ſtatutes folowing, that is to ſay, whereas in a ſtatute made in the parliament of our ſouereigne lorde the king holden at Weſtminſter the xiii. yeare of his reigne was contained that no ſhœmaker nor cordwainer ſhould not vſe the miſterie of tanning, nor no tanner ſhould vſe the miſterie of cordewainer nor ſhœmaker, vpon a certaine paine compriſed in the ſame ſtatute. And notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatute and paine manie cordwainers and ſhœmakers dœ yet vſe the miſterie of tanner(as is aforeſaid) in contempt of the king and in great diſceite and impoueriſhment of the commons, becauſe that due execution is not thereof made: whereupon the king will and hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by the aſſent aforeſaid, that the ſaide ſtatute ſo made be holden and kept, and duelie executed with the paines of the ſame in all points notwithſtanding anie repeale, ſtatute, or ordinance made to the contrarie.

Cap. 17.

Item at the grœuous complaint of the commons ſhewed how the ſtaple was limited to remaine at Caleis, and that all the wœlles, wœlſelles, lether, leade, tinne, chœſe, butter, and honie, paſſing out of the realme of England, and of the lands of Ireland and Wales, had recourſe to the ſaid place of Caleis and no place elſewhere, certaine perſons by their ſuggeſtion haue purchaſed licences to carie wœlles and other marthandiſes aforeſaid toward what parties that pleaſeth them beyond the ſea, where as they that haue no ſuch licences ought to abide at the ſaid place of Caleis, to the great profite of them that be licenced, & damage of them which haue no licence, and deſtruction of the ſaid ſtaple, to the great damage of the mint, cunage and cuſtomes of Caleis. The king by the aſſent aforeſaid will, ordaineth, and ſtabliſheth, that the ſtatute thereof made be holden and kept, as to the great marchandiſes, that is to ſay, wœlles, lether, wœlſelles, tinne, and lede, all onelie without graunting anie licence the to contrarie, but by the ſpeciall licence of the king himſelfe: and if anie ſuch licence be graunted it ſhall be repealed.

Cap. 18.
Caleis.
Beaken.

Item where as manie workes being about the towne of Caleis, which in ſaluation and defence of the ſame towne and the marches there, nœde daylie to be maintained and repaired, there be two great workes moſt neceſſarie of all to be ſuſtained and ſupported, that is to ſay, the beakins before the port there, and the place called paradiſe, which is nigh to the ditches of the ſame towne, which ditches by the concourſes and rages of the ſea, be alwaies fœbled and impaired, as well of ſtones caſt out of the ſtuffing of the ſame, as alſo of timber, ſo that if they be not haſtilie amended, made, and repaired, the ſaid port is likelie to be deſtroied and vndone for euer: and the ſaide place of paradiſe is now ſo ruinous and fœble, that if it be not newlie made and ſufficientlie maintained and kept, it is likelie that in that default the walles of the ſame towne in this behalfe in ſhort time by the great aboundant concourſes of the ſea, ſhall be clearelie decaied, in deſtruction and vndoing of the ſaide towne, to the great damage of the king and of his realme of England, which God defend: Againſt which perils alwaies to ſet ſufficient remedie, it is all onelie at the kings coſtes and expences, and ſhall be verie great and grœuous charge, if a conuenient ordinance thereof be not prouided. Wherefore our ſouereigne lord the king by the aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all maner of ſhips accuſtomed to come to the ſaide port out of the countrie of England (fiſher boates all onelie except) ſhall bring with them all their laſtage of gœd ſtones conuenient for the ſtuffing of the ſaid beakins, in making their reaſonable deliuerance from time to time at their comming thither to the treaſurer, which for the time ſhall be there, or to other miniſters thereto by him ordained, vpon the paine of ii. d. for the weight of euerie tunne. and as much at the ſaid ſhips be of portage. And that all maner of ſhips entering as the ſaide place of paradiſe there to reſt, ſhall pay at euerie their entrie there xiiii. d. ſterling, and thereupon it ſhall be lawfull to them, if they will there tarie for xiiii. dayes with as manie nights than next enſuing, without paieng thereof more for their ſaide entrie. And alſo in caſe that the foreſaid ſhips or botes, tarie ouer the xiiii. dayes and nightes aforeſaide, than they ſhall pay for euerie day and night a penie, and for the day alone a halfepenie, and for the night alone a halfepenie. And moreouer it is ordained, that no maner of perſon ſhall preſume to tie anie maner of ſhip nor bote by cable, corde, nor otherwiſe to the timber nor ſtones of the ſaid beakins nor paradiſe, nor alſo of the new key otherwiſe called the wharfe at the ſide of the ſaide porte of the towne of Caleis, vpon paine of xl. pence to be leuied of the ſhip or bote, which ſo ſhall be found tied. And alſo that the treſurer, which there for the time ſhall be, ſhall haue full power for him and for his deputies, to leuie and receiue the monie of the paines aforeſaid incurred and riſing, and thereof to make paiment according as ſhall be nœdefull in his ſaid office, by the vertue and controllement of the kings controller there.

Ships.
Laſtage.

Cap. 19.
Weares.
Milles.
Stankes.
Stakes.
Kiddles.

Item where as by ſir Edward, late king of England, graundfather to our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, the xxv. yeare of his reigne, for as much as common paſſages of ſhips and botes in the great riuers of England, where oftentimes troubled by the leuieng of weares, mils, ſtankes, and kiddles, to the great damage of the people. It was accorded and ſtabliſhed, that all ſuch weares, mils, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kiddles, which were leuied and ſet vp in the time of king Edward, ſonne to king Henrie, and ſence in ſuch riuers whereby the ſhips and botes be troubled, and that they can not paſſe as they were wont to dœ, ſhall be out and pulled downe for euer, without being relieued. And that writs thereupon ſhall be ſent to the ſhiriffes of the places where neede ſhall be, to ſurueie and enquire, and to make thereof execution. And alſo that the iuſtices ſhall be thereupon aſſigned at all times when neede ſhall enquire. And after at the greeuous complaint of the great men and of the commons made in the parliament of the ſaide king Edward yͤ graundfather, the xlv. yeare of his reigne, complaining by their petition, that the ſaid ſtatute is not duelie executed nor kept after the effect of yͤ ſame, it was ordained & ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute in that point ſhould be holden and kept after the effect of the ſame. Ioining there vnto that if anie ſuch noiſance be made, it ſhall be pulled downe by due proces contained in the ſaid ſtatute. And he which doth the ſaid noiſance to be releuied, and thereof be duelie attainted, ſhall incurre the paine of a C. markes to the king, to be leuied by the eſtrete of the eſchequer. And that ſuch lawe ſhall holde of noyſances by the enhaunſing of ſuch weares, mils, ſtankes, and kiddles, as by new leuieng, as in the ſaide ſtatutes more fullie appeareth. And now at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, ſhewing by their petition, that the common paſſages of ſhippes and botes in the great riuers of England. And alſo medowes and paſtures and errable lands ioyning to the ſaide riuers, be greatlie troubled, drowned, waſted, and deſtroied by the outragious enhaunſing and ſtraiting of weares, mils, ſtankes, and kidles of olde time made and leuied before the time of the ſaide king Edward, ſonne to king Henrie, whereof great damages and loſſes hath oftentimes happened to the people of the realme, and dailie ſhall happen if remedie thereof be not prouided: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed by the aſſent aforeſaid, that the ſaide ſtatutes in all their articles ſhall be fermelie holden and kept, and alſo duelie executed, with the paines, and after the effect of the ſame: ioining to the ſame that commiſſions ſhall be made in due forme to ſome ſufficient perſons to be iuſtices in euerie countie of England where neede ſhall be to ſurueie and alſo keepe the waters and great riuers there, and the defaultes to correct and amend, and to make due execution of the ſaid ſtatutes after the effect of the ſame, as well by their ſurueieng, aduiſe, and diſcretion, as by enqueſtes thereof to be taken within franchiſe and without. And when neede thereof ſhall be to heare and determine the thinges aforeſaide. And moreouer to ſurueie the weares, mils, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidlels of olde time made and leuied before the ſaide time of king Edward, ſonne to king Henrie. And ſuch as they ſhall finde too much enhaunced or ſtraited, to correct or pull downe and amend, in the maner and forme aforeſaid, ſauing alwaies reaſonable ſubſtances of the ſaide weares, mils, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidles aforeſaid of olde time ſo made and leuied. And if anie ſuch noyſances of weares, mils, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidles of the paſſages and ſtretes of olde time made and leuied, be iudged or awarded by the ſaid iuſtices to be corrected and amended, he that hath the freehold thereof, ſhall make thereof execution at his coſtes, within halfe a yeare after knowledge thereof to him made, vpon paine of an hundred markes to be paide to the king by eſtretes of the eſchequer, and he that doth them to be releuied or enhaunced or ſtraited againſt the ſaide iudgement, and thereof duelie conuict, ſhall incurre the paine of an C. markes to he paied to the king by the eſtretes of the eſchequer aforeſaid. And in caſe that anie feeleth himſelfe greeued by execution or otherwiſe in this behalfe againſt right and reaſon, he ſhall purſue and haue right and remedie.

Item the king by the ſame aſſent of the ſaid lordes and knightes ſo aſſigned by the ſaid auctoritie of parliament, will and hath ordained, that euerie perſon that procureth or purſueth to repeale or reuerſe anie of the ſaide ſtatutes or ordinances made by the king, by the aſſent of the ſaid lordes and knightes aſſigned, by power and auctoritie of parliament, and that duelie proued in the parliament, he ſhall be iudged and ſhall haue execution as a traitor to the king and to the realme, in like maner as they which purſue or procure to repeale the ſtatutes and ordinances made during the time of the ſaide parliamont. Cap. 20. Treaſon.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made in the firſt yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the fourth.

HEnrie by the grace of God king of England and of Fraunce, and lorde of Ireland, to the honour of God and reuerence of holie church, for to nouriſh, vnitie, peace, and concord of all parties within the realme of England: And for the reliefe and recouerie of the ſame realme, which now late hath bene miſcheuouſlie put to great ruine, miſchiefe, and deſolation, of the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and at the inſtance and ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of the ſame realme, aſſembled at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the feaſt of ſaint Feith the virgin, the firſt yeare of his reigne: hath made, ordained, and ſtabliſhed, ceratine ordinances and ſtatutes in forme as hereafter foloweth.

Chap. 1. Charter. FIrſt, that holie church haue and enioy all hir rightes, liberties, and franchiſes, entirelie and without enblemiſhing: And that the great charter, and the charter of ſhe foreſt, and all the other good ordinances and ſtatutes made in the time of his noble progenitors and not repealed: be firmelie holden and kept in all pointes. And that the peace within his realme be holden and kept, ſo that all his lawfull liege people and ſubiects may from henceforth ſafelie & peacibl̄ie go, come, and dwell, after the lawfull vſages of the ſame realme. And that good iuſtice and euen right be doone to euerie perſon.

Chap. 2. Lorde.

Richard the ſecond.

Item that no lord ſpirituall nor temporall nor other perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be, which came with our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is into the realme of England, nor none other perſons, whatſoeuer they be, than dwelling within the ſame realme, and which came to the king in aide of him to purſue them that were againſt the good entent of our ſouereigne lord the king and the common profite of the realme, in which purſuite Richard late king of England the ſecond, after the conqueſt was purſued, taken, & put in ward, and yet remaineth in ward, be impeched, greeued, nor vexed, in priſon nor in goods in the kings court nor in none other court for the purſuite of the ſaid king, taking and witholding of his bodie, nor for the purſuite of anie other, taking of perſons and catals, or of the death of a man, or anie other thing done in the ſaid purſuite, from the day that the ſaid king that now is arriued, till the day of the coronation of our ſaid ſouereigne lord king Henrie. And the intent of the king is not ẏ offenders, which committed treſpaſſes or other offences out of the ſaide purſuite, without ſpeciall warrant ſhould be aided, nor haue anie auauntage of this ſtatute, but that they be thereof aunſwerable at ẏ law.

Chap. 3. Parliament.

Item where as the munday next after the feaſt of the exaltation of the holie croſſe, the xxi. yeare of the reigne of the ſaid late king Richard, a parliament was ſommoned and holden at Weſtminſter, and from thence aiourned to Salop, at which towne a certaine power was committed by auctoritie of the parliament to certaine perſons to proceede vpon certaine articles and matters compriſed in the rolle of the parliament thereof made, as by the ſame rolle may appeare, in which parliament, and alſo by auctoritie aforeſaid diuers ſtatutes, iudgements, ordinances, and ſtabliſhments were made ordained and giuen erroneouſlie and dolefullie, in great diſheriſon and finall deſtruction and vndoing of manie honorable lordes and other liege people of the realme, and of their heires for euer: Our ſouereigne lorde the king conſidering the great miſchieues aforeſaid, by the aduiſe and aſſent of all the lordes ſpirituall, and temporall, and of all the communaltie, hath iudged the ſaid parliament, holden the ſaid xxi. yeare, and the auctoritie thereof giuen (as afore is ſaid) with all the circumſtances and dependents thereupon to be of no force nor valoure. And that the ſame parliament, with the auctoritie aforeſaid, and all the circumſtances and dependents thereupon, be wholie reuerſed, reuoked, voided, vndone, repealed, and adnulled for euer.

Chap. 4 Parliament.

Item it is accorded, aſſented, and ſtabliſhed, that the parliament holden the xi. yeare of the ſaide late king Richard, be firmelie holden and kept after the purport and effect of the ſame, as a thing made for the great honor and common profite of this realme.

Chap. 5. Lordes.

Item it is ordained and aſſented, that the lordes and other which were foriudged in the ſaide parliament, holden the ſaide xxi. yeare or by auctoritie of the ſame, which now be in life, and the heires of the lordes and other that be dead, ſhall be wholie reſtitute & reſtored to their names, all maner of inheritaments, and poſſeſſions, reuerſions, fees, auowſons, offices, liberties, & franchiſes, as entirelie as the ſaide lords & other which be in life, or the lordes & other which be dead, aunceſters of the heires, or the feoffes of ẏ ſaid lords or other aforeſaid, or other feoffes to their vſe, were at the time of the iudgement giuen againſt them, the ſaid xxi. yeare, by entrie, without other ſute thereof to be made, or liuerie to be had of the ſame: Sauing alwaies that the ſaid lordes or the other aforeſaid, ſhall haue nothing of the iſſues taken in the meane time. And as to the goods and catals, which were to the ſaid lords, or the other perſons aforeſaid, ſo foriudged, whereof the king is not aunſwered, & be in the handes of the ſhiriffes, eſchetors, or other officers, miniſters, or anie other, and concealed by them. The king will and graunteth, that the ſame lords and other which now be in life, and the executors and adminiſtrators of them that be dead, ſhall haue thereof deliuerie and reſtitution. And that the ſhiriffes, eſchetors, officers, and miniſters, ſo occupieng the ſaid goods and catals by ſuch concealement, be puniſhed for the ſame concealement.

Chap. 6. Giftes. Graunt.

Looke 6. of H. 4. ca. 2.

Petition.

Letters patents.

Item to the intent that our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king in time to come ſhall not be diſceiued in his grauntes & gifts, annuell or in fee, or in anie offices by him to be giuen, made or graunted, he will by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, be counſeled by the wiſe men of his councell in thinges touching the eſtate of him and of his realme, ſauing alwaies his libertie. Alſo he hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by the aſſent aforeſaid, that all they, which from henceforth doo demaund of the king lands, tenements, rents, offices, annuities, or anie other profites, ſhall make expreſſe mention, in their petitions, of the value of the thing ſo to be demaunded, and alſo of that that they haue had of the kings gift, or of other his progenitors or predeceſſors before. And in caſe they make not ſuch mention in their ſaid petitions, and that duelie proued, the kings letters patents thereof made, ſhall not be auailable, nor of no force nor effect, but wholie reuoked, repealed, and adnulled for euer, to the puniſhment of them which ſo hath doone diſceite to the king, as they that be not worthie to enioy the effect and benefite of the letters patents to them graunted in this behalfe.

Chap. 7. Liuerie. Looke in the next parliament ca. 1.

Item to eſchew maintenance, and to nouriſh loue, peace and, quietnes of all parties through the realme: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the king and his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons aforeſaid in the full parliament, that no lorde of what eſtate or condition ſoeuer he be, ſhall vſe nor ordaine anie liuerie of ſigne of companie, to no knight, eſquier, nor yeman, within the realme aforeſaid: Sauing alwaies that our ſouereigne lorde the king ſhall giue onelie his honorable liuerie to his lordes temporall, whom ſhall pleaſe him: Sauing alſo that our ſaide ſouereigne lorde ſhall giue his honorable liuerie to his knightes and eſquiers meniall: and alſo to his knights and eſquiers, which be of his retenue and doe take of him their yeerelie fee for terme of life. Moreouer it is accorded and aſſented by the king, his lordes and commons aforeſaid, that the knights & eſquiers ſhall not in anie wiſe weare their ſaid liueries in their countries or counties where they be reſeaunt or dwelling, nor in none other place within the realme out of the kings preſence. And if anie lord do the contrarie, and that duelie prooued, he ſhall make fine and raunſome at the kings will. And if anie knight or eſquire doe the contrarie, and bee thereof duelie attainted, he ſhall loſe his ſaide liuerie, and forfet his fee for euer. And that no yeman take nor weare anie liuerie of the king, nor of none other lorde vpon paine of impriſonment, and to make fine and rounſome at the kinges will: prouided alwaie that the conſtable and marſhall of England for the time being, in their retinue of knights and eſquiers, maie weare the ſaid liuerie of the king vpon the borders and marches of the realme in time of warre: prouided alſo, that all they that will trauaill and paſſe ouer into the parties beyond the ſea, to ſeeke honour may weare the ſame liuerie in thoſe parties without being thereof anie wiſe greeued or impeched. Moreouer it is accorded and aſſented that no archbiſhop, biſhop, abbat, nor prior, nor none other man of holie church, or temporall, of what eſtate or condition he be within the ſaide realme, ſhall giue anie liuerie of cloth to anie man, but onelie to his meniall ſeruantes and officers, or to them that be of his councell, as well ſpirituall as temporall, learned in the one lawe or the other, vpon paine to make fine and raunſome at the kings will And this ſtatute or ordinance ſhall beginne to holde place from the feaſt of Candlemas next to come.

Conſtable of England.

Marſhall of England.

Chap.8.

Item at the greeuous complaint of the ſaid commons, made in the ſaide parliament, how manie of the kinges liege people, which haue bene ſeiſed and poſſeſſed of lands and tenements by their right and title till the laſt comming of our ſouereigne lord the king into England, that vpon ſuggeſtion made to him, the ſaid landes and tenementes hath bene granted to diuers perſons, and letters patents thereof made, ſo that by colour of ſuch grants and letters patentes, the tenantes and true owners of the ſaid tenements in diuers counties de diſſeiſed and put out of the ſame, to their great damage, and againſt the courſe of the common lawe: Our ſouereigne lord the king conſidering the miſcheeues aforeſaid, and willing therevpon to ordeine due remedie, by the aduiſe & aſſent of the lords & commons aforeſaid, hath ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that in caſe any lands or tenementes be granted by the kings patent, without title found by enqueſt or otherwiſe, there where the kings entrie is not giuen by the lawe: They that be put out or diſſeiſed of their free hold, ſhall haue a ſpeciall aſſiſe of the chancellers grant, without other ſuite to be made to the king in that behalfe, and if the perſons hauing the kings letters patents, do praie in aide, a writ of Procedendo ſhalbe granted by the ſaide chanceller, without making other ſuite to the king. And in caſe that they which bee put out or diſſeiſed, do recouer againſt the perſons hauing ſuch patentes: that then they which be ſo put out or diſſeiſed, ſhall recouer their treble damages. And that this ordinance and ſtatute holde place as well after the kings arriuall into England as in time to come.

Letters patents.

Aſſiſe.

Procedendo.

Chap 9.

Item where as amongſt other ſtatutes and ordinances made in the xi. yeere of the ſaide late king Richard, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the great officers of the ſaid late king, by the aduiſe of all other lords of the councell, ſhould haue power to ſell parcel of the forfetures of them that were foriudged in the parliament, holden the ſaid xi. yere, by their good diſcretion, & that the giftes and grants to be made vpon ſuch ſales, ſhoulde be ferme and ſtable: Our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, conſidering howe diuers ſales haue bene made by force of the ordinance and ſtatute aforeſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the giftes & grants ſo made by vertue of the ſale aforeſaid onely, ſhall ſtand in their force & vertue, notwithſtanding any giftes and grantes made to the contrarie, and that they which will ſue to haue a confirmation of their purchaſe made in this behalfe, ſhall thereof haue a confirmation, paieng the fines and fees thereof due.

Forfeture.

Giftes.

Chap.10

Item where as in the ſaide parliament, holden the ſaid xxi. yere of the ſaide late king Richard, diuers paines of treaſon were ordeined by ſtatute, in as much that there was no man, which dyd know how he ought to behaue him ſelfe to do, ſpeake or ſaie for doubt of ſuch paines: It is accorded & aſſented by the king the lords & commons aforeſaide, that in no time to come anie treaſon be iudged otherwiſe, then it was ordeined by the ſtatute in the time of his noble grandfather king Edward the third, whom God aſſoile.

Treaſon.

Chap.11

Item where as the ſaid commons by their petition haue ſhewed in the ſame parliament, how the ſhirifes of counties within the realme, be charged with the ancient ferme of the ſame counties there where as a great parcell of the profites of the ſame be giuen diuerſlie to lordes and other the kings liege people, ſo that the ſame ſhiriffes can not paie their ferme without doing extortion in the ſaid counties, in great oppreſſion and hinderance as well of the ſaide ſhiriffes, as of the inhabitants of the ſaid counties: Our ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the miſcheeues aforeſaide, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords and commons aforeſaide, hath ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that from henceforth the ſhiriffes of the counties of Eſſex and Hertforde in ſpeciall, and the ſhiriffes of other counties aforeſaide, for the time being, ſhall account at the eſchequer, and haue allowance by their oth of the iſſues of the ſaid counties, as well after the date of their patentes made to them by the ſaid late king Richard, as for all times to come. And if anie ſhiriffe from henceforth doe anie extortion to the people, and be thereof attainted, he ſhall bee duelie puniſhed for the ſame extortion at the kings will.

Shiriffes.

Extortion.

Account.

Chap. 12

Weares. Milles. Stankes. Stakes. Kidels.

Item where as by ſir Edward late king of England, grandfather of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, the xxv. yeere of his reigne, becauſe that the common paſſage of ſhippes and botes in the great riuers of England were oftentimes diſturbed, by the leuieng, of weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidels, in great damage of the people, it was accorded, that all ſuch weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidels, which were leuied and ſet vp in the time of king Edward, ſonne to king Henrie, and afterward in ſuch riuers, wherby the ſhips and botes be diſturbed, ſo that they can not paſſe as they were wonte, ſhall be auoided, and for euer pulled downe, neuer to bee leuied againe. And that writs be therevpon ſent to the ſhiriffes of places where neede ſhall be, to ſurueie and inquire, & to make thereof execution. And alſo that iuſtices be therevpon aſſigned at all times when neede ſhall require. And after at the greeuous complaint of the great men and the commons, made in the parliament of the ſaid king Edward the grandfather, the xlv. yeere of his reigne, complaining by their petition, that the ſaide ſtatute was not duelie executed nor kept after the effect of the ſame, it was accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute in this point be holden and kept after the effect of the ſame, added to the ſame, that if any ſuch noiſaunce be pulled downe by due proceſſe conteined in the ſaid ſtatute he that will do the ſaid noiſaunce to be releuied, and thereof be duely attainted, ſhall incurre the paine of a hundred markes towardes the king, to bee leuied by the eſtretes in the eſchequer. And like lawe to be holden of a noiſance made by the enhaunſing of ſuch weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidels, as by newe leueing, as in the ſame ſtatutes more fullie doeth appeare, and nowe at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, ſhewing by their petition, that the common paſſages of ſhips and botes in the great riuers of Englande, and alſo medowes and paſtures, and lands ſowed adioining to the ſaid riuers, be greatlie diſturbed, drowned, waſted, and deſtroied, by outragious enhaunſing and ſtraiting of weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidels, in olde times made and leuied before the time of the ſaide king Edwarde, ſonne of king Henrie, whereof great damage and loſſe hath come to the people of the realme, and dailie will come if remedie be not thereof prouided: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed by the aſſent aforeſaid, that the ſaide ſtatutes be in all their articles holden and fermelie kept, and duelie executed, with all the paines, and after the effect of the ſame ioined thereto, that commiſſions be made in due forme to ſufficient perſons to be iuſtices in euerie countie of England, where neede ſhall be, to ſurueie and keepe the waters and great riuers there, and to correct and amende the defaultes, and to make due execution of the ſaid ſtatutes, after the effect of the ſame, as well by their ſurueie aduiſe and diſcretion as by enqueſtes thereof to be taken within fraunchiſe and without, ſo and when need ſhall be, and to heare and determine the things aforeſaide. And moreouer to ſurueie the weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidels, in olde times made and leuied before the ſaide time of king Edward, ſonne of king Henrie. And them that they finde to much enhaunced or ſtraited, to correct, pull downe, and amende in the maner & forme aforeſaide: Sauing alwaies a reaſonable ſubſtance of weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes & kidels aforeſaide, ſo in olde times made & leuied. And if anie ſuch noiſaunces of weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kidels, of paſſages and ſtraitinges in olde time made and leuied be iudged and awarded by the ſaide iuſtices to bee pulled downe and amended, he that hath the free holde of the ſame, ſhall make thereof execution at his owne coſtes within halfe a yeere after notification to him thereof to be made, vpon paine of an hundered markes to be paied to the king by eſtretes in the eſchequer, and he that doeth them to be releuied or enhaunced or ſtraited againſt the ſaide iudgement, and thereof be duelie conuict, ſhall incurre the paine of an hundered markes to be paied to the king by eſtretes in the eſchequer aforeſaide. And in caſe that anie feeleth him ſelfe greeued by execution or other way in this behalfe againſt right and reaſon, ſhall purſue and haue right and reaſon.

Noiſance.

See. 12. E. 4 cap. 4.

Chap. 13

Sercher. Gauger. Alnegour. Weier of wolles. Cuſtomer. Controller. This ſtatute is confirmed. 4 of H. 4 cap. 20

Item where as in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xvii. yere of the ſaid late king Richard, it was amongſt other things ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no ſercher, gauger of wines, alnegour, finder or weier of wolles, or anie other marchandiſe, collectors of all maner cuſtomes and ſubſidies, nor controllers haue eſtate in his office for terme of life or yeeres, but that the ſame office remaine in the kings hands vnder the gouernance of the treaſurer for the time being, with the aſſent of the councell when neede ſhalbe. And if anie charters or letters patents be made contrarie, they ſhall be voided and of none effect: It is accorded and aſſented, that the ſaide ſtatute be fermelie holden and kept, and put in due execution. Ioined to the ſame, that cuſtomers and controllers in euerie port of England ſhall be reſident vpon their offices in proper perſons without making any deputie or lieutenant in their names.

Chap. 14

Appeale.

Item for many great inconueniences & miſcheeurs that hath often times happened by manie appeales made within the realme of England before this time, it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed from henceforth, that all the appeales to be made of things done within the realme, ſhall bee tried and determined by the good lawes of the realme, made and vſed in the time of the kings noble progenitors: and that all the appeales to be made of things done out of the realme: ſhall be tried and determined before the conſtable and marſhall of Englande for the time being, and therevpon it is accorded and aſſented, that no appeales be from hence forth made, or in anie wiſe purſued in the parliament in anie time to come.

Chap. 15

Item where as by a ſtatute made in the time of king Edward, grandfather of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, the xxviij. yeere of his reigne it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that becauſe the errors, defaultes and miſpriſions, which were notoriouſlie vſed in the citie of London for default of good gouernance of the maior, ſhiriffes, and aldermen, might not be enquired nor found by people of the ſame citie. That the maior, ſhiriffes, and aldermen, which had the gouernance of the citie ſhoulde redreſſe and correct the defaults errors and miſpriſions aforeſaide, and the ſame duelie to puniſh from time to time vpon a certaine paine, that is to ſay, at the firſt default a thouſand markes to the king, and at the ſecond default two thouſand markes, and at the third default that the franchiſe be taken into the kings hand, and be it begun to enquire of them at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next enſuing: So that if they make not due redreſſe as before is ſaide, It ſhall be enquired of their defaultes by enqueſtes of forren counties, that is to ſay, Eſſex, Suſſex, Hertford, Buckingham, and Berke, as well at the kings ſuite as of others that will complaine. And if the maior, ſhiriffes, & aldermen be by ſuch enqueſtes endited: they ſhall be made to come by due proces before the kings iuſtices, which ſhall be thereto aſſigned out of the citie before whome they ſhall haue their aunſwere as well at the ſuite of ẏ king as of the partie. And if they put them ſelfe in enqueſtes, the ſame enqueſtes ſhall be taken for forren people as afore is ſaide, and if they be attainted, the ſaid paine ſo incurred ſhall be leuied of the ſaide maior, ſhiriffes, and aldermen for default of their gouernance. And nouertheles the plaintiffes ſhall recouer their treble damages againſt the ſaide maior, ſhiriffes, and aldermen. And becauſe that the ſhiriffes of London be partie to this buſines, the conſtable of the tower or his lieutenant, ſhall be miniſter in ſtead of the ſhiriffes, to receiue the writs as well originals of the chauncerie as iudicials, vnder the ſeales of the iuſtices, to doo thereof execution in the ſaide citie, and proceſſe ſhall be made by attachments, diſtreſſe, and exigend if neede be, ſo that at the kings ſuite the exigend ſhall be awarded after the firſt capias returned, & at the third capias returned, at the ſuite of the partie, & if the maior, ſhiriffes, and aldermen haue lands and tenements out of the ſaid citie, proceſſe ſhall be made againſt them by attachment and diſtreſſes in the ſame counties where the lands and tenements be, and that euerie of the ſaid maior, ſhiriffes, and aldermen, which commeth before the ſaide iuſtices, ſhall aunſwere ſingularlie for himſelfe, as well at the parill of other, which be abſent as of himſelfe. And that this ordinance be holden ferme and ſtable, notwithſtanding anie maner franchiſes, priuileges, or cuſtomes. And that this ordinance ſhall extend to other cities and boroughes of the realme, where ſuch defaults or miſpriſions be vſed, and not duelie correct nor redreſſed: ſauing that the enqueſtes be taken by people of the ſame countie, where ſuch cities and boroughes be. And that the paine of them of ſuch cities, boroughes, and townes, which ſhall be thereof attainted, be iudged by diſcretion of the iuſtices, which ſhall be thereto aſſigned: Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the good & lawfull behauiour of ẏ maior, ſhiriffes, & aldermen, & of all the communaltie of ẏ ſame citie of London towardes him, & by ſo much willing to doo eaſe & mitigation of the paines aforeſaid, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the paines aforeſaid, aſwell of the thouſand marke & of ẏ ii. M. marke, & of the ſeiſin of the franchiſe, compriſed in ẏ ſaid ſtatute, ſhall not be limit in a certaintie, but that the paine in this caſe be by the aduiſe and diſcretion of the iuſtices thereto aſſigned, as other cities & boroughes be within the realme, and that the remanent of the ſame ſtatute, & the proceſſe thereof ſtand in their force.

Maior. Shiriffes of London. Gouernance.

Peine.

Cap. 16. Marchants. London. Packing of cloth.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that the marchantes of London from henceforth ſhall be as free to packe their clothes & quite of the ſame packing, as the other marchants, or other ſtrangers within the ſame citie, or within other cities and boroughs within the realme be, and if anie letters patents be made to the contrarie, they ſhall be vtterlie repealed, adnulled, and holden of no force nor vertue.

Cap. 17. Forren. Alien. Protectiõ.

Item where as in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, in the firt yeare of the ſaide late king Richard, amongſt other thinges it is ordained and accorded, that euerie forren and alien, being of the kings amitie and of the realme, and comming within the citie of London and other cities, boroughes and townes within the ſaid realme as well within franchiſe as without, with fiſh and all maner other vitailes there dwelling and returning, ſhall be from henceforth vnder the ſafegard and ſpeciall protection of the king. And that it ſhall be lawfull to them and euerie of them to cut their fiſhe and vitailes aforeſaide by peeces, and the ſame to taile and retaile in part or in all, or in groſſe, as to them ſhall beſt ſeeme to ſell, and thereof to doo their profite without impechment or contradiction of anie, notwithſtanding anie ſtatutes, charters, ordinances, priuileges, or cuſtomes made or had to the contrarie, Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the ſame ſtatute to be verie profitable by manie waies, if they were put in execution, by the aſſent of his lordes and the commons aforeſaide, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide ſtatute be firmelie holden, kept, and duelie executed after the forme and effect thereof, notwithſtanding the letters patents late grraunted to the contrarie to parſons of London by the ſaide late king Richard vpon his laſt paſſage toward Ireland.

London.

Cap. 18. Court of Cheſter.

Item vpon the greeuous clamour and complaint made to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king in this preſent parliament, of manie murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, & other riotes and offences, which before this time hath bene doone by people of the countie of Cheſter to diuers of the kings liege people in diuers counties of England: the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, & of his commons aforeſaid, hath ordained & ſtabliſhed, that if anie perſon of the countie of Cheſter reſiant or dwelling within the ſame countie, of what eſtate or condition he be, doo commit anie murder or felonie in any place out of the ſaid countie, proceſſe ſhall be made againſt him by the common law, till the exigend in the counties where ſuch murder or felonie was done: And if he flée from thence into the countie of Cheſter, and be outlawed and put in exigend for ſuch murder or felonie: the ſame outlawrie or exigend ſhall be certified to the officers and miniſters of the ſame countie of Cheſter, and be the ſame felon taken by the ſame officers or miniſters, and his lands and tenements, goods & catals, being within the ſame countie of Cheſter, ſeiſed as forfeite into the hands of the prince, or of him that ſhall be lord of the ſame countie of Cheſter for the time, & the king ſhall haue the yeare & day and the waſte. And the other lands and tenements, goods, and catals, of ſuch felon being out of the ſaid countie of Cheſter, ſhall remaine wholie to the king, and to the other lordes, hauing thereof franchiſe, as forfeite. And if anie perſon of the ſame countie of Cheſter, reſiaunt or dwelling in the ſame, make anie batterie or other treſpas in anie place out of the ſaid countie of Cheſter, proceſſe ſhall be made againſt him by the common lawe till the exigend in the counties where ſuch batterie or treſpas is done. And if he flie from thence to the ſaid countie of Cheſter, and be outlawed for ſuch batterie or treſpas, the outlawrie ſhall be certified to the officers and miniſters of the ſaide countie of Cheſter. And the ſame perſon ſhall be taken by the ſame officers or miniſters. And his goods and catals being within the ſame countie of Cheſter, ſhall be ſeiſed into the hands of the prince, or of him which ſhall be lorde of the ſaid countie of Cheſter for the time. And his other goods and catals being out of the ſaide countie of Cheſter, ſhall remaine wholie to the king and to other lordes aforeſaid as forfeite in the ſame countie as afore is ſaid.

Cap. 19. Cloth. Seale. Item in eaſe and reliefe of the poore common people of the realme, our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid: hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that from the feaſt of ſaint Michaell laſt paſt, during thrée yeares then next folowing, no cloth of karſey, Kendall cloth, friſe of Couentrie, Cogware nor none other cloth ſtreite, nor remnant of England, nor cloth of Wales, whereof the doſen excéede not the valure of xiii. s. iiii. d. be in anie wiſe ſealed of no ſeale little nor great, nor no ſubſidie paied of the ſaid clothes during the time aforeſaid.

Cap. 20. Pardon. Item at the inſtance and praier of the ſaide commons, by their petition made in this preſent parliament: Our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king of his ſpeciall grace hath releaſed and pardoned generallie to all his liege people of England the ſuite of his peace that to him perteineth for all maner treaſons and felonies by them done or committed before the xix. day of Nouember, the firſt yeare of his reigne, except murder and rape of women whereof they be endited, arraigned, or appealed. And alſo the outlawries, if anie in them be pronounced by the ſame occaſion. And hath graunted to them thereof his ferme peace, ſo that none of his ſaid liege people be a common théefe before the ſaide xix. day endited, nor that he be no prouour nor appealed of the death of anie man at the ſuite of the partie, nor taken with the manour, nor that he hath broken the kings priſon before the ſaide xix. day, nor that he hath not bene at the murder of Thomas late duke of Glouceſter, vncle to our ſouereigne lord the king, and ſo that he ſtand to right in the kings court, if anie will ſpeake againſt him of the thinges aforeſaid, or of anie of them: ſo that alwaies all they which will enioy the benefite of this pardon, ſhall purſue their charters in ſpeciall betwixt this and the feaſt of all ſaintes next enſuing.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made the ſecond yeare of king Henrie the fourth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the vtas of ſaint Hillarie, the ſecond yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the fourth: The ſame our ſouereigne lord the king, by þͤ aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, and barons, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons aſſembled at this preſent parliament hath done to be ordained and ſtabliſhed certaine ſtatutes and ordinances in forme folowing.

Chap. 1. Charter. FIrſt that holie church haue hir rightes and liberties: and that all the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and all the cities, boroughes, and townes enfranchiſed, haue & enioy all their liberties & franchiſes, which they haue duelie vſed, and which they haue of the graunt of his noble progenitors and predeceſſors kings of England. And that the great charter & the charter of the foreſt, and all the other good ordinances and ſtatutes made in his time, and in the time of his noble progenitors not repealed be fermelie holden and kept in all points: and that all his liege people and ſubiects may fréelie and peaciblie in his ſure and ſafe protection, go and come to his courtes, to purſue the lawes, or defend the ſame, without diſturbance or impediment of anie. And that full iuſtice and right be done as well to the poore as to the rich in his courtes aforeſaid.

Chap. 2. Petition. Item where as in the laſt parliament of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, amongſt other thinges it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all they which from henceforth ſhall demaund of the king lands, tenements, rentes, or fées, annuities, or anie other profites, ſhould make expreſſe mention in their petitions of the value of the thing ſo to be demaunded, and alſo of that that they haue had of the gift of the king, or of anie of his progenitors or predeceſſors before, and in caſe they did not make ſuch mention in their ſaid petitions, and that duelie proued, the kings letters patentes ſhoulde not be auailable to them, nor of no force nor effecte, but wholie reuoked, repealed, and adnulled for euer, to the puniſhment of them which had done ſuch diſceite to the king, as they that be not worthie to enioie the effect and benefit of the letters patents to them granted in this behalfe: Our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king conſidering, that a great part of the ſaid ſtatute is verie hard for his liege people, and for ſo much willing thereof to prouide remedie, of his owne will, and certeine knowledge hath granted to doe grace and pardon to thoſe that wil purſue, of as much as they haue miſtaken them ſelfe in their ſuite againſt the forme of the ſaid ſtatute. And moreouer the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king, to exclude all ambiguities in this behalfe, becauſe that the ſame ſtatute is verie obſcure, & hath neede of declaration, ſpeciallie for eaſe and buitnes of his people, wil and granteth, that all they which from henceforth do ſue to the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king, to haue of him anie grace or yeerelie gift, or in fee or otherwiſe, ſhall make expreſſe mencion in their petition, of howe much they haue had of the gift and graunt of the noble king Edward, graunfather to our ſouereigne lord ẏ king, or of Richard late king, or of Edward late prince of Wales, or of John late duke of Lancaſter, father of our ſouereigne lorde the king, or of ẏ king him ſelfe, & of none other progenitour or predeceſſour of ẏ ſame our ſouereigne lorde. And he that maketh not ſuch mencion in his petition, his letters patents made to him at the ſame time by our ſouereigne lord the king, ſhall be of no force nor effect. And moreouer as to the words that is to ſaie (other profits) compriſed in the ſaid ſtatute, our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king hath declared and granted, that of no profites, giftes, goodes, or cattals, or anie other things granted or giuen by the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king to anie, to the valure of C.li. or within, except wardes and mariages, of which the king will that he, which ſo ſhall ſue to him, ſhall make expreſſe mention in his petition of the valure of the ſame, none ſhal incurre the paine compriſed in the ſaid ſtatute. And it is not the kings minde, that for anie confirmation or licence made to anie by our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king, of anie liberties, fraunchiſes, annuities, or anie other things granted by any of his progenitors or predeceſſors or other perſon, and not ſpecified in anie petition, ſo to be demaunded otherwiſe then aboue is declared, none ſhall incurre the paine of the ſaide ſtatute. And as to the other articles compriſed in the ſame ſtatute, our ſaid ſouereigne lorde will, that they be fermelie holden and kept and put in due execution.

Giftes.

Letters patents.

Chap. 3.

Prouiſion.
Prouiſour.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie prouiſion be made by the biſhop of Rome to anie perſon of religion, or to anie other perſon, to be exempt of obedience regular, or of obedience ordinarie, or to haue anie office perpetuall within houſes of religion, or as much as one regular perſon of religion or two or more haue in the ſame, that if ſuch prouiſors from henceforth do accept or inioie anie ſuch prouiſion: They ſhall incurre the paines compriſed in the ſtatute of prouiſors, made in the xiii. yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

Chap. 4.

Item for as much as our ſouereigne lord the king, vpon greeuous complaint to him made in this parliament, hath perceiued that the religious men of the order of Cyſteaux in the realme of Englande, hath purchaſed certeine bulles, to be quite and diſcharged to paie their diſmes of their landes, tenementes, and poſſeſſions, let to ferme or plowed and occupied by other perſons, then by them ſelfe, in great preiudice & derogation of the libertie of holie church, and of manie liege people of the realme: Our ſouereigne lorde the king willing therevpon to ordeine remedie, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and at the inſtance & requeſt of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the religious perſons of the order of Cyſteaux ſhall ſtand in the eſtate ẏ they were before the time of ſuch bulles purchaſed. And that as well they of ẏ ſaid order, as all other religious & ſeculars, of what eſtate or condition that they be, which doe put the ſaide bulles in execution, or from hence forth doe purchaſe other ſuch bulles of newe or by colour of the ſame bulles purchaſed doeth take aduantage in anie maner: proceſſe ſhall be made againſt them and euerie of them by garniſment, of two monethes by writ of Premunire facias. And if they make default, or be attainted, then they ſhall incurre the paines and forfeitures conteined in the ſtatute of prouiſors, made the xiii. yeere of the ſaid king Richard.

Order of Cyſteaux.

Premunire facias.

Chap. 5.

Item where as in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, in the v. yeere of the ſaid king Richard, amongſt other things it is conteined, how that it was aſſented, accorded, and defended, by the ſaide late king, to all maner of people marchants, clarkes, and other, as well ſtrangers as denizens, of what ſo euer eſtate or condition they ſhould be, vpon paine of as much as they might forfeit, that none of them, vpon the ſaid paine, priuilie nor apertlie ſhoulde ſende nor bring, nor do to be ſent or brought out of the ſaid realme of Englande anie gold or ſiluer in monie, bullion, plate, veſſell, nor by exchange to be made, except the wages of Caleis & other the kings fortreſſes beyond the ſea, except in ſpeciall prelates, lordes, and other compriſed in the ſame ſtatute, without ſpeciall leaue & licence therevpon firſt had, as by the ſame ſtatute maie more fullie appeare: Our ſouereigne lord the king for to obuent the ſubtiltie of them that will do fraude or diſceit to him in this behalfe, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if from henceforth anie ſercher of the king may finde golde or ſiluer in coine or in maſſe in the keeping of anie that is paſſing or vpon his paſſage in anie ſhip or veſſell, for to go out of anie port, hauen, or crike of the realme, without the kings ſpeciall licence. That golde or ſiluer ſhall be forfeit to the king, ſauing his reaſonable expenſes, which he ſhall be bound to confeſſe & diſcouer incontinentlie, after that he that to do, be warned & charged by the ſame ſercher, or elſe al the ſaid mony ſo concealed, ſhalbe forfet to the king. Prouided alwaies, that the marchants ſtrangers, that doe ſell their marchandiſe within the realme of Englande, and the one halfe of the mony of England receiued for the ſame marchandiſes, do imploie vpon other marchandiſe of the realme: may freelie carie out fro the ſame the other halfe of the ſaid monie by the kings licence according to the ſtatute thereof made.

Money.
Bullion.
Plate.

Sercher.
Golde.
Siluer.

Marchãt ſtrangers.

Chap.6
Money of golde and ſiluer of Flanders and Scotland, &c.
Caleis.
Marchants.

Item for the great diſceite that is in the monie of gold and ſiluer of Flaunders and Scotland that doth commonlie runne in paimentes made in diuers parties of the realme, to the great damage of the king and of his people: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the monie of gold and ſiluer of the coine of Flaunders and of all other lands and countries beyond the ſea, and alſo of the land of Scotland, ſhall be voided out of the realme of England, or put to coine to the bullion within the ſame realme, betwixt this and the feaſt of Chriſtmas next enſuing, vpon paine of forfeture of the ſame. And that all the marchants and other at Caleis, which do receiue anie ſuch golde or ſiluer of the coine of Flaunders or of other landes and countries beyonde the ſea, or of the lande of Scotlande, ſhall put the ſame to bullion at Caleis, without bringing it in coine within the realme of England, and if the marchants, or anie other from hence forth bring anie ſuch monie within the realme of Englande, they ſhall forfet the ſame monie to the king. And moreouer it is accorded, that a good ⁊ conuenient ſerch be made as well at Caleis as on this ſide the ſea in euerie port and other places vpon the bringing of the monie aforeſaide.

Chap.7.
Verdict.

Item where as vpon a verdict found before anie iuſtice in aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin, mordaunceſter, or anie other action, the parties before this time hath bene adiourned vpon difficultie in lawe vpon the matter ſo founde: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if the verdict paſſe againſt the plaintife, that the ſame plaintife ſhall not be nonſued.

Chap.8.
Chirographer.
Extortion.

Item vpon the greeuous complaint made to our ſouereigne lord yͤ king by the commons in this preſent parliament, howe that the office of the Cirographer in the common bench of the king is let to ferme, to which office apperteineth for making and writing of euerie fine leuied in the ſaid bench, iiij.s. and no more, and notwithſtanding the ſame fee, the fermours of the ſame office will deliuer no fine to anie without giuing to them other iiij.s. or more by extortion, to the great damage and impoueriſhment of all the kings liege people: our ſouereigne lord the king, willing in this behalfe to prouide remedie, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſupplication of the ſaide commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the Cirographer nor his fermour, deputie, or lieutenant for the time being, ſhal from henceforth take no more then iiij.s. for anie fine leuied in the court. And if the ſaid fermour, lieutenant, or deputie, take anie more then iiij.s. for a fine as before is ſaid, he ſhall loſe his office, and be foriudged the court, and haue one yeeres impriſonment, and paie to the partie greeued his treble damages. And the partie greeued ſhall haue his ſuite before the iuſtices of the ſaid bench.

Chap 9.
Commiſſions.

Item where as late in the time of king Richard diuers perſons were aſſigned at diuers times by commiſſions of the ſaide king Richard, to enquire, ⁊ to do after the purport of their commiſſion within the realme of England, and now proceſſe is made as well in the chauncerie as in the eſchequer againſt the ſaide commiſſioners, to certifie the inquiſitions and other thinges before them taken by vertue of the ſaid commiſſions, where as ſome of the ſaide commiſſioners in the purſuite of the ſaide king Richarde were rifled and pilled of the ſaid inquiſitions and other things before them taken by force of their ſaid commiſſions (and alſo of their proper goods) and ſome of the ſaid commiſſioners by the commandement of ſir William le Scrope, ſometime treaſurer of England, did deliuer all their inquiſitions and other things ſo taken before them to the ſaid treaſurer, ſo that the commiſſioners haue nothing in their cuſtodie to certifie to the ſaide courtes. Whereupon our ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the miſcheeues aforeſaid, and by ſo much willing to doe grace to ſuch commiſſioners: by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the praier of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed that none of the ſaid commiſſioners ſo rifled or pilled, nor none that deliuered their inquiſitions and other thinges taken before them to the ſaide late treaſurer, ſhall in no wiſe be charged to make thereof anie certification in anie courte of the king, but ſhall be thereof by their oth clearclie diſcharged.

Chap.10
Clarke of the crowne of yͤ kings bench.
Extortion.

Item becauſe that complaint is made to our ſouereigne lord the king by the ſaide commons, howe the clarke of the crowne of the kinges bench, where as lxxx. or C. men be indited of one felonie, or of one treſpas, and all they plead to an iſſue, as not guiltie, the ſaide clarke ought not to take for the Venire facias, nor for the entring of the plea, more then ii.s. the ſaid clarke doth take for euerie ſuch name by extortion ii.s. in great oppreſſion of the people. Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, willing to ſaue his ſaid people of ſuch extortions and iniuries, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaide lords ſpirituall and temporal, and at the praier of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid clarke of the crowne ſhall take no more then hath bene duelie vſed of olde times. And moreouer our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king hath charged the iuſtices of the kings bench, that no extorcion be done in this behalfe to the bench aforeſaide.

Chap.11
Admirall.

Item where as in the ſtatute made in Weſtminſter, the xiij. yeere of the ſaid king Richard, amonges other things it is conteined, that the admirals and their deputies ſhall not entermedle from henceforth of anie thing done within the realme, but onelie of a thing done vpon the ſea, according as it hath bene duely vſed in the time of the noble king Edward, grandfather to the ſaide king Richard. Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king will and granteth that the ſaid ſtatute be firmely holden and kept, and put in due execution. And moreouer the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall ⁊ temporall, and at the praier of the ſaide commons, hath ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed, that as touching a paine to be ſet vpon the admirall or his lieutenant, that the ſtatute ⁊ the common lawe be holden againſt them, and that he that feeleth him ſelfe greeued againſt the forme of the ſaide ſtatute, ſhall haue his action by writ grounded vpon the caſe againſt gainſt him that doth ſo purſue in the admirals court, and recouer his double damages againſt the purſuant, & the ſame purſuant ſhall incurre the peine of x. li. againſt the king for the purſuite ſo made, if he be atttainted.

Cap. 12. Walſhmā borne. Purchaſe.

Item it is ordeined & eſtabliſhed, that from henceforth no Walſhman whole borne in Wales, and hauing father and mother borne in Wales, ſhall purchaſe lands & tenements within the town of Cheſter, Salop, Bridgenorth, Ludlow, Leomynſter, Hereford, Glouceſter, Worceſter, nor other marchant townes ioyning to the marches of Wales, nor in the ſuburbes of the ſame, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame lands & tenements to the lords of whome ſuch lands or tenements be holden in chiefe. And alſo that no ſuch Walſhman be from henceforth choſen or receiued to be citizen or burgeſſe in anie citie borough or marchant towne, and that ſuch Walſhmen, which now be in anie ſuch citie, borough, or franchiſed towne, being citizens or burgeſſes, ſhall find ſufficient ſuretie, and put a good caution of their good bearing, as well towardes our ſoueraigne lorde the king and his heires of his realme of England, as for to holde their loyaltie to the gouernours of ſuch cities, boroughes, or townes for the time being, in ſaluation of the ſame cities, boroughes, or townes, if the ſame Walſhmen will dwell therein, ſo that none of them from henceforth be receiued nor accepted to no office of Maior, bailife, chamberlaine, conſtable, or warden of yͤ portes or of the gayle, nor to the common councell of ſuch cities, boroughes or townes, nor that he be in no wiſe made other occupier or officer in yͤ ſame, nor that none of the ſaid walſhmen from henceforth beare anie maner armor within ſuch citie, borough, or marchant towne, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame armor, and impriſonment till they haue made fine in this behalfe.

Cap. 13.

Item where as the ſaid Richard late king of Englande, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, and adiourned towards Salop, the xxi. yeere of his reigne, by a ſtatute did pardon & releaſe to all his liege people of England, of whatſoeuer eſtate or condition they were, and to euery of them al maner eſcapes of felons, catals of fugitiues and of felons, treſpaſſes, negligences, miſpriſions, ignorances, & all other articles of the Eyre, & all other things falen or chanced within the realme of England, the puniſhment whereof ſhould lye in fine or in raunſom, or in other pecuniar peines, or otherwiſe impriſonment or amercementes of the commons of townes or of ſinguler perſons or in charge of their freehold, that neuer offended as heires or landtenants, of eſchetours, ſhirifs, or coroners, or other ſuch officers, & alſo hath pardoned & releaſed to them al maner of gifts, alienations or purchaſes made by them or by anie of them, of lands tenements or other poſſeſſions holden of him in chiefe without the kings licence, and all maner of entrees made into their enheritances, purchaſes, or otherwiſe in parte or in all, after the death of their aunceſters, or of anie other, without ſuite or due proceſſe thereof made, till the thurſday the laſt day of the ſaid parliament, except thoſe landes, tenements, and poſſeſſions, which be aliened into mortmaine without the licence royal. And alſo hath wholly pardoned and releaſed to them all manner of fines, amercements, iſſues, forfeits not adiudged nor determined, made, fallen or chaunced within the ſame realme before the ſaid thurſday: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king by the aduiſe and aſſent of all the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & at the ſpeciall requeſt & prayer of the ſaid commons, wil & granteth, that all his liege people and euery of them may haue vſe & enioy the priuilege & benefite, of the ſaid pardon and ſtatute, notwithſtanding that the ſaid parliament, made the ſaid xxi. yeere, and all the ſtatutes made in the ſame, and al the circumſtances and dependencies of the ſame parliament, be vtterly adnulled, reuoked, and repealed in the parliament of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that now is, holden at Weſtminſter the firſt yeere of his reigne.

Pardon.

Cap. 14. Purueior.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatutes of purueiours, made before this time, be holden and kept, and put in due execution, ioyned to the ſame, that from henceforth no purueiour nor buyer make anie purueiance or buying for the kings houſe of anie thing to the value of xl.s. or within, vnleſſe he make readie paiment in hand, vpon peine to loſe his office, and to pay as much to the partie grieued.

Cap. 15. Catholike faith.

Item where as it is ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lorde the king on the behalfe of the prelates and cleargie of his realme of England in this preſent Parliament, that although the catholike faith builded vpon Chriſt, and by his Apoſtles and the holy church ſufficiently determined, declared, & approued, hath beene hitherto by good and holy and moſt noble progenitors of our ſoueraigne lord the king in the ſaide realme amongeſt all the realmes of the worlde, moſt deuoutly obſerued, & the church of England by his ſaide moſt noble progenitours and aunceſters, to the honor of God and of the whole realme aforeſaide, laudably endowed, and in her rightes and liberties ſuſteined, without that that the ſame faith or the ſaid church was hurt or greeuouſly oppreſſed, or elſe perturbed by anie peruerſe doctrine or wicked hereticall or erronious opinions: Yet neuertheleſſe dyuerſe falſe and peruerſe people of a certeine new ſect, of the faith of the ſacraments of the church, and the authoritie of the ſame damnably thinking, and againſt the law of God and of the church vſurping the office of preaching, do peruerſly and maliciouſly in diuers places within the ſaid realme, vnder the colour of diſſembled holineſſe, preach and teach theſe dayes openly and priuily diuers newe doctrines and wicked, hereticall and erronious opinions, contrarie to the ſame faith and bleſſed determinations of the holie church. And of ſuch ſect and wicked doctrine and opinions they make vnlawfull conuenticles and confederacies, they holde and exerciſe ſcholes, they make and write bookes, they do wickedly inſtruct and informe people, and as much as they may excite and ſtirre them to ſedition and inſurrection, and maketh great ſtrife & diuiſion among the people, and other enormities horribly to be hearde daylie doe perpetrate and committe, in ſubuerſion of the ſaide Catholike faith and doctrine of the holie church, in diminution of Gods honor, and alſo in deſtruction of the eſtate rightes and liberties of the ſaide church of Englande, by which ſecte and wicked and falſe preachinges, doctrines, and opinions of the ſaide falſe and peruerſe people, not only moſt greateſt perill of the ſoules, but alſo many more other hurtes, ſlaunders, & perils, (which God prohibite) might come to this realme, vnleſſe it be the more plentifully and ſpeedely holpen by the kinges maieſtie in this behalfe, namely, whereas the dioceſans of the ſaide realme can not by their iuriſdiction ſpirituall, without ayde of the ſaide royall maieſtie, ſufficiently correct the ſaide falſe and peruerſe people, nor reſtraine their malice, becauſe the ſaide falſe and peruerſe people doe goe from dyoceis to dyoceis, and will not appeare before the ſaide dioceſans, but the ſame dioceſans and their iuriſdiction ſpirituall, and the kayes of the church with the cenſures of the ſame, doe vtterly contemne and deſpiſe, and ſo their wicked preachings and doctrines doeth from daie to daie continue and exerciſe, to the hatred of right and reaſon, and vtter deſtruction of order and good rule. Upon which nowelties and exceſſes aboue rehearſed. The prelates and cleargie aforeſaide, and alſo the commons of the ſaide realme being in the ſame parliament, praying our ſoueraigne lorde the king, that his royal highnes would vouchſafe in the ſaide parliament to prouide a conuenient remedie, the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king graciouſly conſidering the premiſſes, and alſo the lawdable ſteppes of his ſaid moſt noble progenitors and aunceſters, for the conſeruation of the ſaide catholike faith, and ſuſtentation of Gods honor, and alſo the ſafegarde of the eſtate, rightes and liberties of the ſaide church of England, to the laude of God, and merite of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, and proſperitie and honour of all his ſaide realme, and for the eſchewing of ſuch diſſentions, diuiſions, hurtes, ſlaunders, and perils, in time to come, and that this wicked ſect, preachings, doctrines and opinions ſhoulde from henceforth ceaſe and be vtterly deſtroyed, by the aſſent of the ſtates and other diſcrete men of the realme, being in the ſaid parliament, hath graunted, ſtabliſhed, and ordeined from henceforth firmely to be obſerued, that none within the ſaide realme or anie other dominions, ſubiect to his royall maieſtie, preſume to preach openly or priuily, without the licence of the dioceſan of the ſame place firſt required and obteined, curates in their owne churches, and perſons hetherto priuileged, and other of the canon lawe graunted, onely except. Nor that none from henceforth anie thing preach, holde, teache or inſtruct openly or priuily, or make or write anie booke contrarie to the catholike faith or determination of the holy church, nor of ſuch ſect & wicked doctrines and opinions ſhall make anie conuenticles, or in anie wiſe holde or exerciſe ſcholes. And alſo that none from henceforth in anie wiſe fauour ſuch preacher, or maker of anie ſuch and like conuenticles, or holding or exerciſing ſcholes, or making or writing ſuch bookes, or ſo teaching, informing or exciting the people, nor anie of them mainteine or anie wiſe ſuſteine. And that all and ſinguler hauing ſuch bookes or anie writings of ſuch wicked doctrine and opinions, ſhal really with effect deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered all ſuch bookes & writings to the dyoceſan of the ſame place, within xl. days, fro the time of the proclamation of this ordinance and ſtatute. And if anie perſon or perſons, of whatſoeuer kind, eſtate, or condition that he or they be, from henceforth do or attempt againſt the royal ordinance & ſtatute aforeſaid in the premiſſes or in anie of them, or ſuch bookes in the forme aforeſaid do not deliuer, then the dyoceſan of the ſame place in his dioceis, ſuch perſon or perſons in this behalfe defamed or euidently ſuſpected and euery of them may by the authoritie of the ſaid ordinance and ſtatute cauſe to be arreſted, and vnder ſafecuſtodie in his priſons to be deteined, till he or they of the articles layd to him or them in this behalfe, do canonically purge him or them ſelfe, or els ſuch wicked ſect, preachings, doctrines, & hereticall & erronious opinions do abiure, according as the lawes of ẏ church doth require, ſo that ẏ ſaide dioceſan by himſelfe or his commiſſaries do openly and iudicially proceede againſt ſuch perſons ſo arreſted, and remaining vnder his ſafe cuſtodie to all effect of the lawe, and determine that ſame buſineſſe according to the canonicall decrées within thrée monethes after the ſaide arreſt, anie lawfull impediment ceaſſing. And if anie perſon in anie caſe aboue expreſſed, be before the dyoceſan of the place or his commiſſaries canonically conuict: then the ſame dyoceſan may doe to be kept in his priſon the ſaid perſon ſo conuict for the maner of his default, and after the qualitie of the offence according and as long as to his diſcretion ſhall ſéeme expedient, and moreouer to put the ſame perſon to the ſecular court (except in caſes where he according to the canonicall decrée ought to be left) to paye to our ſoueraigne lorde the king his pecuniar fine, according as the ſame fine ſhall ſéeme competent to the dyoceſan, for the manner and qualitie of the offence, in which caſe the ſame dyoceſan ſhall be bounde to certifie the king of the ſame fine in his eſcheker by his letters patentes ſealed with his ſeale to the effect that ſuch fine by the kings authoritie may be required and leuied to his vſe of the goods of the ſame perſon ſo conuict, And if anie perſon within the ſaide realme and dominions, vpon the ſaid wicked preachings, doctrines, opinions, ſcholes, and hereticall and erronious informations or anie of them be before the dyoceſan of the ſame place or his commiſſaries ſententially conuict, and the ſame wicked ſect, preachings, doctrines and opinions, ſcholes & informations, do refuſe duely to abiure, or by the dyoceſan of the ſame place or his commiſſaries after the abiuration made by the ſame perſon pronounced fall into relaps, ſo that according to the holy canons he ought to be left to ẏ ſecular court, wherupon credence ſhalbe giuen to ẏ dyoceſan of the ſame place, or to his commiſſaries in this behalf, then ẏ ſhirif of ẏ countie of the ſame place, and maior and ſhirifes or ſhirife, or maior and bailiefes of the citie, towne and borough, of the ſame countie next to the ſame dioceſan or the ſaid commiſſaries, ſhall be perſonallie preſent in preferring of ſuch ſentences, when they by the ſame dioceſan or his commiſſaries ſhall be required: and they the ſame perſons and euerie of them, after ſuch ſentence promulgate, ſhall receiue: And them before the people in an high place do to be burnt, that ſuch puniſhment maie ſtrike in feare to the mindes of other, whereby no ſuch wicked doctrine and heriticall and erronious opinions, nor their authours and fautours in the ſaid realme and dominions againſt the catholique faith, chriſtian lawe, and determination of the holie church (which God prohibite) be ſuſteined or in anie wiſe ſuffered, in which all and ſinguler the premiſes concerning the ſaid ordinance and ſtatute, the ſhirifes, maiors and bailiefes, of the ſaid counties, cities, boroughs, and townes, ſhall be attending, aiding and ſupporting, to the ſaid dioceſans and their commiſſaries.

Preaching

Cap. 16.
Walſhmen.

Item where as vpon the grieuous complaint made to our ſoueraigne lord the king by the commons in the parliament, how the people of Wales, ſometime by daie and ſometime by night, commeth within the counties ioyning vpon the marches of Wales, and doeth take diuers diſtreſſes of horſes, oxen, kyne, ſhéepe, ſwine, and other their goods to a great number, and the ſame doeth leade, driue, and carie awaie to the ſeigniories where they be reſiant, and there witholdeth them till grée be made at their will, and that as well of them that haue not offended, as of them that haue offended, and alſo the ſaid people of Wales doeth dailie arreſt the people of the ſaid counties comming with their marchandiſes or other their goods and cattals, and affirmeth plaints againſt them of debts, couenants, treſpaſſes, and other actions, whereof they be nor parties nor pledges, to the entent to grieue them by diuers and outragious amercements and coſtes, to the great inpoueriſhing and vtter vndoing of the people of the ſaid counties: Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the miſchiefes aforeſaid, and willing thereupon to prouide remedie, by the aſſent and aduiſe of the ſaid lords, and at the requeſt of the commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie people of the ſaid counties be arreſted and grieued, as afore is ſaid, maintenant letters teſtimonials ſhall be made, reciting their grieuance, directed to the gouernours or ſtewards, where ſuch offenders be reſiant with their goods or cattals receiued in Wales, vnder the ſeales of the ſhirifes of the ſaid counties, or of the maiors and bailiefes of the cities and boroughes, or ſtewardes of franchiſes, where ſuch people ſo grieued be dwelling, to the entent that the ſaid gouernours or ſtewardes ſhall do to bee deliuered to them their diſtreſſes goods and cattals, ſo taken or arreſted. And if they make not deliuerie of ſuch diſtreſſes, goods, or cattals ſo taken or arreſted, within ſeuen dayes after requeſt ſo to them made, then it ſhall be lawfull to the engliſh people ſo grieued, to arreſt all men that commeth with the goods and cattals of them of the ſeigniories of Wales, where ſuch offenders be inhabiting or reſiant, and the ſame to retaine, till that full agréement be made to the ſaid parties grieued with their myſes, coſtes and expenſes, together with their diſtreſſes, goods, and cattals aforeſaid.

Letters teſtimonials

Diſtreſſe.

Cap. 17.
Walſhmen.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie walſhmen from henceforth do enter in the counties ioyning to the ſame in the realme of England, and in the ſame do burne, kill, rauiſh, or commit anie other felonie or treſpaſſe, whereof he is attainted within the realme of England by the lawes of the ſame realme by outlagarie or abiuration, and repaireth into Wales, and abideth there: that vpon the certification, and records to be made by the iuſtices of our ſoueraigne lord the king in England, before whom they ſhalbe ſo conuict, vnder their ſeales to the lords and miniſters where ſuch felons ſhall be found in Wales, finall execution be made vpon the ſame felons by the ſame lords or miniſters, and that vpon a grieuous paine.

Cap. 18.
Lords.
Marchers.
Wales.

Item it is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the lords of the marches of Wales ſhall ordeine and ſet ſufficient ſtuffing and ward in their caſtels and ſeigniories of Wales, to the entent that in time to come no loſſe, riot, nor damage come of our ſoueraigne lord the king or to his realme, nor to none of his liege people by their tenants, reſiants, nor none other Walſhmen in their defaut, as hath come and be done for defaut of good gouernance in time paſt.

Cap. 19.
Walſhmen.
Wales.

Item it is ordeined, that no whole engliſhman by thrée yeeres next following ſhall be conuict at the ſuite of anie Walſhman within Wales, except it be by the iudgement of engliſh iuſtices, or by the iudgement of whole engliſhmen burgeſſes, or by enqueſts of boroughes townes and engliſhmen of the ſeigniories where ſuch engliſhmen be arreſted.

Cap. 20.
Walſhman.
Purchaſe.
Vide ſuperius Cap. xii.

Item it is accorded and aſſented, that from henceforth no Walſhman be receiued to purchaſe lands nor tenements within England, nor within the boroughes nor engliſh townes of Wales, vpon peine to forfeite the ſame purchaſes to the lords, of whom the ſaid lands and tenements be holden, as ſuch eſtate which the ſaid purchaſer had in the ſame, nor that no Walſhmn ſhall be accepted burgeſſe, nor to haue anie other libertie within the realme, nor within the boroughs and townes aforeſaid.

Cap. 21.
Liuerie.

Item where as at the laſt parliament it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no lord, of what eſtate or condition he were, ſhould vſe nor giue anie liuerie of ſigne of companie, to no knight, eſquire, nor yeman, within the realme aforeſaid, ſauing alwayes that our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhould giue onelie his honorable liuerie to the lords temporall, whom pleaſed him. And ſauing alſo that the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhould giue his honorable liuerie to his menials knights and eſquires, and alſo to his knights and eſquires which be of his retinue, and take of him their annuell fée for terme of life, and moreouer it was accorded and aſſented by the king the lords and the commons aforeſaid, that the ſaid knights and eſquires ſhould in no wiſe weare their ſaid liueries in their countrey or counties where they ſhould be reſiant & dwelling, nor els where within the realme out of the kings preſence, and if anie lord did the contrarie, and that duelie proued, hée ſhould make fine and raunſome at the kings will: and if anie knight or eſquire did the contrarie, and thereof were duelie attainted, he ſhould loſe his ſaid liuerie and forfeite his fée for euer. And that no yeman ſhould take or weare anie liuerie of anie lord, vpon peine of impriſonment, and to make fine and raunſome at the kings will, prouided alwaies, that the conſtable and marſhall of England for the time being, in their retinue of knights and eſquires maie weare the ſaid liuerie of the king vpon the bords and the marches of the realme in time of warre. Prouided alſo that all thoſe that ſhall trauaile or paſſe the ſea to ẏ parties beyond the ſea, to acquire honour, maie weare the ſame liuerie in thoſe parties without being thereof in anie wiſe grieued or appeached, as in the ſtatute thereof made more fullie is conteined: Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the ſame ſtatute to be verie expedient and neceſſarie, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſame ſtatute ſhall be firmelie holden and kept, ioyned there to, that the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, and the iuſtices of aſſiſes and of the peace, haue power and authoritie to enquire, heare, and determine in this caſe by record in their preſence, or by enquirie to be made from time to time, and that the dukes, earles, barons, and banarettes of the realme maie weare the ſaid liuerie in their countrey and els where. And alſo that the ſaid knights and eſquires maie weare the ſaid liuerie in going from the kings houſe and returning to the ſame. Prouided alwayes that the ſame knights and eſquires weare not the ſame liuerie in their counties or countrey where they bee reſiant or dwelling, vpon the paine conteined in the ſaid ſtatute. Moreouer it is accorded, that the prince maie giue his honorable liuerie of ſigne to the ſaid lordes and to his meniall gentlemen. And that the ſaid lords maie weare the ſame as they weare the kings liuerie, and that the menials of the prince maie alſo weare the ſame as the kings menials, & in the forme, and vpon the peines aforeſaid.

Cap. 22.
Suite.
Forfaiture

Item where as in the ſtatute made the xi. yéere of the ſaid king Richard amongſt other things it is conteined, that no man ſhould purſue anie thing contrarie to the ſame that then was ordeined or iudged, touching them againſt whom the iudgement of forfeiture was giuen in the ſame parliament, vpon the paine of the ſame forfaiture compriſed in the ſame ordinance: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no man be grieued nor endamaged by anie ſuite made or to be made to the contrarie of the ſaid ordinance, and that euerie man be frée and at large to purſue to haue grace and remedie without any empediment, notwithſtanding the ordinance aforeſaid.

Cap. 23.
Marſhal of the kings houſe.

Item where as the marſhall of the marſhalſie of the court of our ſoueraigne lord the kings houſe in the time of king Edward, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, was wont to take the fées as hereafter foloweth, that is to ſay, of euerie perſon that commeth by Capias to the ſaid court iiii.d. and if he be let to mainpriſe till his day ii.d. more, and of euerie perſon which is impleaded of treſpaſſe, and findeth two mainpernours to keepe his daie till the end of the plea, to take for that cauſe two pence of the defendant, and of euerie perſon committed to priſon by iudgement of the ſteward, in whatſoeuer maner the ſame be foure pence of euerie perſon deliuered of felonie, of euerie felon let to mainpriſe by the court foure pence, which fées were wont to be taken and paid in full court, as the king hath wel perceiued by the complaint of the ſaid commons thereof made in the ſaid parliament: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, to auoide all ſuch dureſſes and oppreſſions to be done to his people, againſt the good cuſtomes & vſages made and vſed in the time of his progenitours, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſupplication of the ſaid commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if the ſaid marſhall, or his miniſters vnder him, take other fées then aboue is declared, that the ſame marſhall & euerie of his ſaid miniſters ſhal loſe their offices and paie treble damages to ẏ partie grieued, and that the partie grieued haue his ſuite before the ſteward of the ſaid court for the time being. Alſo it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no ſeruitour of billes that beareth a ſtaffe of the ſame court, ſhall take for euerie mile from ẏ ſame court, til the ſame place where he ſhall do his ſeruice, no more then i.d. and ſo for xii. miles xii.d. and for to ſerue a Venire facias xii. &c. or a Diſtringas out of the ſame court, the double. And if anie of the ſaid ſeruitours of billes do the contrarie, he ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment, and make a fine to the king after the diſcretion of the ſteward of the ſame court, and alſo be foriudged the court, and the ſame ſheward ſhall haue power to make proclamation at his comming to the ſaid court in euerie countrey from time to time of all the articles aforeſaid, and thereof to make puniſhment as afore is ſaid.

Fées.

Cap. 24.
Accompt.

Item where as the commons complaining, haue ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lord the king in the parliament, how that in time of the ſaid late king Richard the xxiii. yeere of his raigne, it was commanded through out the realme, and to certaine people of the realme charged vpon their liegeance, to come to the duke of Yorke, then being lieutenant of England, to go and tarie with him at the kings wages, and now certaine proceſſes be made out of the eſchequer againſt the ſaid people, for the ſommes of money then taken by them for their ſaid trauaile and abiding with the lieutenant aforeſaid, to the great dammage of their eſtates: It is ordeined & ſtabliſhed by the king and the lords, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, that the ſame commons and euerie of them, and euerie ſhirife of England then being, may accompt before the barons of the eſcheker by their othe of the ſaid ſummes ſo receiued, and to be therof diſcharged by their othe, without ſuing other warrant. And that they and euery of them haue due allowance of that that they or anie of them haue expended and payed for wages in ryding and tarying with the ſaide lieutenant, to the ſumme by them or anie of them receiued.

Here followeth the Statute made at Weſtminſter in the fourth yeere of King Henrie the fourth.

TO the reuerence of God and of holy church, and for the common wealth and profit of all the realme of England, our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the eſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons aſſembled at the parliament, holden at Weſtminſter the morrowe after the feaſt of ſaint Michael, the fourth yeere of his reigne, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed certeine ſtatutes and ordinances by the maner as followeth.

Chap. 1.

FIrſt that holie church haue all her liberties and franchiſes. And that the lordes ſpirituall & temporall, and all the cities, boroughes and townes franchiſed haue and enioy all their liberties and franchiſes, which they haue had of the graunt of the progenitors of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, kings of England, and of the confirmation of the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king. And that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt, and all the good ordinances and ſtatutes made in the time of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and in the time of his progenitors not repealed, be firmly holden and kept.

Charter.

Chap. 2. Clergie.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king hauing in remembrance the entier hearts, & the great naturall loue that the clergie of England hath borne to him, & alſo the great charges, which the ſame clergie hath had and ſuſteined for his honor and profit after the time of his coronation, and by ſo much willing to be gracious lord to them in their affaires, by the aſſent of the ſaid lords, and at the eſpeciall prayer and requeſt of the ſaid commons, will & graunteth, that the ſtatutes made the xxv. yeere of king Edward, grandfather to our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, touching the clergie of England, be entierly holden & kept, & put in due execution. And moreouer the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering that the words and termes (that is to ſay) Inſidiatores viarũ and depopulatores agrorum, compriſed in the petition deliuered to him in this parliament by the clergie of England, hath not béene commonly vſed in Enditements, arrainments, appeales, nor in other impechements in the time of his ſaid grandfather, nor in the time of his other noble progenitors, & willing by ſo much to auoid ſuch nouelties for the great quiet and ſuertie of his people, by the aſſent of the lords and commons of the ſame parliament will and granteth, and hath ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid words & termes ſhall not be from henceforth vſed nor put in enditements, arrainements, appeales, nor anie other impechements. Nor that by force of anie ſuch word or terme anie clerke religious or ſecular, nor none other of the kings liege people, ſhall be from henceforth arrained, appealed, impeached, nor gréeued before anie ſecular Judge: But our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde will well, that his Juſtices may take and receiue before them enditementes, arrainementes, and appeales of felonies, bearing in them the effect of the ſaide wordes and termes, if anie perſon of ſuch felonies ſhall be hereafter indited, arrained, or appealed, and if percaſe, in time to come anie clerkes religious or ſeculer, ſhall be endited, arrained, or appealed, and their enditementes, arrainmentes, and appeales do beare the effect of the ſaide wordes, Inſidiatores viarum, and depopulatores agrorum, or other wordes purporting like effect: yet neuertheleſſe ſuch clerkes ſhall haue and enioy the priuilege of holy church, and ſhall be deliuered to the ordinaries them demaunding, or their deputies, without anie empechement or delay.

Inſidiatores viarũ. Depopulatores agrorum.

Cap. 3. Clergie.

Item by the ſame aſſent our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king will and graunteth and hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the ſtatutes ordinances and grauntes, made or graunted by his noble progenitours or predeceſſors kings of England, to the clergie of England, for the conſeruation of their liberties and priuileges, and for the conſeruation of the liberties and muniments of holie church, not reuoked, be firmely holden, obſerued and kept, and put in due execution according to their forme and effect. And thereupon the archebiſhop of Caunterburie for himſelfe, and for all other biſhops of his prouince hath promiſed to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, that if from henceforth anie clerke ſecular or religious, that is conuict of treaſon that toucheth not the king him ſelfe nor his royall maieſtie, or that he be a common théefe, and for ſuch notoriouſly holden and reputed, and for the ſame cauſe percaſe as clerke conuict be from henceforth deliuered to anie ordinarie: that the ſame ordinarie ſhall keepe him ſafely and ſurely, and according to the effect of a conſtitution prouinciall to be made by the ſaide archebiſhop and other biſhops vpon the contenue forme & effect of the letters of Simon late archbiſhop of Caunterburie, bearing date the xii. Kalendes of Marche. M. CCC. li. ordeining and putting in the ſame conſtitution certeine paines by them to be limit by their diſcretion. And that no ſuch clerk conuict of ſuch treaſon, or that he be a common théefe as afore is ſaide, after he be deliuered, ſhall make no purgation againſt the purport of the ſaide conſtitution, which conſtitution ſhall be Clerks.

Conſtitution.

Purgatiõ.

ſhewed to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king before this next Parliament, to the entent that if it ſéemeth to his high diſcretion, that the ſaide conſtitution ſhall not bee a conuenient remedie in this caſe, that then it may be treated and prouided of other remedie by the manner as perteineth.

Cap. 4. Giftes and grauntes.

Item where as before this time manie giftes and graunts haue béen made to diuers perſons, aſwell of the reuenues of the right of the crowne of England, as of wardes, mariages, lands and tenements, and other diuers commodities, without good deliberation thereof had, as the ſaide commons haue ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lord the king in the parliament: The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing thereof to prouide remedie, hath declared, that his intent is to reſtraine to make anie ſuch giftes or grauntes, ſauing onely to ſuch perſons, which the ſame deſeruen, and as beſt ſhall ſéeme to the king and his councell. And ſith it is the deſire of al the eſtates of the realme, that nothing ſhould be ſo demaunded of the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, he will, that all thoſe that make anie ſuch demaundes of him, contrarie to this ſtatute, ſhall be puniſhed by the aduiſe of him and of his councell, and that he that maketh ſuch demaund, ſhall neuer haue the thing ſo demaunded.

Chap. 5. Shirife.

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that euerie ſhirife ſhall abide in proper perſon within his bailiwike, for the time that he ſhall be ſuch officer, and that he ſhall not let the ſaide bailiwike to ferme to anie man for the time that he occupieth ſuch office, and that the ſaide ſhirife be ſworne from time to time to doe the ſame in eſpeciall, amongeſt other articles compriſed in the othe of the Shirife.

Chap. 6. Clothes. London. Seale.

Item where as before this time, to auoide the diſceit which hath béene vſed in clothes ſolde in London, vnder the name and colour of clothes made in London and the ſuburbes of the ſame, there was ordeined a ſeale of lead for to ſeale ſuch clothes made in the ſaide citie and ſuburbes, til nowe of late that for the ſingular profit of certeine perſons, the ſame ſeale of lead hath béene excluded, to the great dammage of the people, and great ſlaunder to the citie and ſuburbes: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, to obuent ſuch ſubtiltie and diſceit, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that one ſufficient man ſhall be aſſigned by the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king to ſeale the ſaide clothes, which ſhall be wrought, wouen, and fulled in the ſaide citie and the ſuburbes of the ſame, with a ſeale of lead, as in old times was vſed in the ſame citie and ſuburbes, and that no ſuch cloth ſo wrought, wouen, and fulled, within the ſame citie and ſuburbes, be in anie wiſe ſolde or bargained, nor ſet to ſale, vnleſſe it be ſealed with a ſeale of lead, as before is ſaid. And the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall haue the forfeiture of the clothes ſolde contrary to this ſtatute, if anie be.

Cap. 7. Maintenance.

Item where as in the ſtatute made the firſt yéere of king Richarde it was ordeined, that where diuerſe perſons did diſſeiſe other of their frée holde, and made feoffements to diuers people to haue maintenance, aſwell as to make the diſſeiſies to be ignorant againſt whome they ought to take their writte, that the diſſeiſies in ſuch caſe might take their writte againſt them, which thereof ſhall take the profites, ſo that the diſſeiſies commence their ſuite within the yéere next after the diſſeiſin, and that the ſame ordinance ſhoulde holde place in euerie other action or plée, where ſuch feoffements be made by fraude or colluſion, to haue their recouerie againſt ſuch feoffours if they thereof take the profites: our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king thinking the ſaide ſtatute to be verie miſchieuous and hurtfull to his people, becauſe of the ſhortneſſe of the time, by the aſſent of the ſaide lordes and at the requeſt of the commons aforeſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that ſuch diſſeiſies ſhall haue their action againſt the firſt diſſeiſour, during the life of the ſame diſſeiſour, ſo that ſuch diſſeiſour thereof take the profits at the time of the ſuite commenced. And as to other writtes in plée of lande, the demaundant ſhall commence his ſuite within the yéere againſt him which is tenant of the frée holde at the time of the action growen to him, ſo that ſuch tenant thereof take the profites at the time of ſuch ſuite commenced notwithſtanding the ſaide ſtatute.

Diſſeiſin.

Cap. 8. Forcible entree.

Item where as daily the great men of the realme doe make forcible entrées into other mens landes, and put out the poſſeſſors of the ſame, claiming ſometime in their owne right, where their entrée is not lawfull, and ſometime in an others right, where they haue nothing in reuerſion in right nor in demeane, nor there is no affinitie nor coſinage betwixt them and thoſe in whoſe right they haue entred, and alſo take their goods and cattals in manner of robberie, ſo that offentimes they be in ſuch manner put out, and of their goods and cattals ſpoyled, that they haue nought to purſue for their right, and ſo by ſuch forcible entrées and maintenance the land tenants and poſſeſſors be vtterly diſherited and deſtroyed: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, minding to doe euen right to all his liege people aſwell the ſmall as the great, and that his lawes be duely executed, at the gréeuous complaint of the ſaide commons, by the aduiſe and aſſent of all the lordes aforeſaide, for to puniſh and chaſtice ſuch ryotes and forcible entrées ſo made, and hereafter to be made againſt the lawes of the land, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie man great or ſmall, of what eſtate or condition that he be, make anie ſuch forcible entrée in his owne right or to his owne vſe, or in an others right, or to anothers vſe by way of maintenance, or take or carrie away any goods after ſuch forcible entrée from the poſſeſſour of the frée holde: that if the partie gréeued, or other lawfull man will make affiance in his name, that the entrée was made in ſuch forcible manner, That the Chancellor of Englande for the time being, ſhall haue

Maintenance.

Chancellor

power by his diſcretion to grant a ſpeciall aſſiſe in this caſe to the partie grieued, of whatſoeuer valure the tenements be, without ſuing to the king. And if ſuch diſſeiſour be attainted of ſuch diſſeiſin made in ſuch forcible maner, he ſhall haue one yeeres impriſonment, and yeeld to the partie grieued his double damages: And if he be conuict by the ſame aſſiſe, that he hath taken or caried awaie anie goods or cattals of ſuch diſſeiſies: the iuſtices of the ſame aſſiſe ſhall haue power for to heare and determine as well for our ſoueraigne lord the king as for the partie, of the goods and cattals ſo caried away, and to award to the ſame partie ſo grieued his damages: And that in euerie ſuch eſpeciall aſſiſe be named one of the ſame iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, or the chiefe baron of the eſchequer, if he be a man of the law. And that hereafter no writ of Superſedeas be granted to the contrarie of ſuch eſpeciall aſſiſes.

Diſſeiſin.

Aſſiſe.

Chap. 9.
Commiſſions.

Item becauſe that manie commiſſions be made or directed to diuers perſons of the realme, ſometime to enquire and certifie, ſometime to enquire heare and determine, and ſometime to ſeiſe lands and tenements, goods and cattals, which commiſſions neuer came to the hands of the ſaide commiſſioners whereupon writtes iſſued out of the eſchequer of our ſoueraigne lord ẏ king, to diſtraine ſuch commiſſioners their executors heires and landtenants, ſometime to yeeld the eſtretes of the fines, iſſues and amerciaments, which perteineth to our ſoueraigne lord the king becauſe of the ſaid commiſſions, ſometime to certifie that which is found before them by enqueſt, and ſometime to accompt of certaine thinges conteined in the ſaid commiſſions, to the great damage and inquietation of manie the kings liege people: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, for the eaſe and quietnes of his people willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, by the aſſent aforeſaid will, and hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the chancellour of England for the time being, ſhall vſe his power as he hath done tofore this time in this caſe. And in other caſes the ſame chancellour, calling to him ſuch iuſtices as him ſhall pleaſe, or the chiefe baron of the eſchequer if neede be, ſhall haue power by authoritie of parliament, to prouide remedie from time to time by their diſcretion.

Chancellour.

Cap. 10.
Halfepence.
Farthings.
Goldſmith.

Item for the great ſcarcitie that is at this preſent within the realme of England of halfe pence and farthings of ſiluer: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the third part of all the money of ſiluer, which ſhall be brought to the bullion, ſhall be made in halfepence and farthings, and that of this third part the one halfe be made in halfepence, and the other halfe in farthings, and the ſame to do and performe be the coyner ſworne in eſpeciall. And that no goldſmith nor other perſon whatſoeuer he be, do to be molten anie ſuch halfepence or farthings, vpon peine to pay to the king the quatreble of that that ſo ſhall be molten againſt the forme of this ſtatute.

Cap. 11.
Weares.
Stakes.
Kidels.

Item becauſe that by weares, ſtakes, and kidels, being in the water of Thames and of other great riuers through the realme, the common paſſage of ſhippes and botes is diſturbed, and much people periſhed, and alſo the yong frie of fiſh deſtroyed and againſt reaſon waſted and giuen to ſwine to eate, againſt the pleaſure of God, and great damage of the king and his people: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, minding to prouide a due remedie for the ſaid miſchiefes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes aforeſaid, and at the prayer of the ſaid commons, will and granteth, that the ſtatutes thereof made be holden and kept, and put in due execution: Ioyned to the ſame, that commiſſions be made to certaine iuſtices and other in euerie countie of the realme, where ſhall be needefull to enquire of all that that is conteined in the ſaid ſtatute, and to puniſh the offenders of the ſame ſtatute by fine according to their diſcretion, ſaued alwayes and reſerued to the king our ſoueraigne lord the paines compriſed in eſpeciall in the ſaid ſtatutes, and that the eſtretes of ſuch fines be deliuered by the ſaid iuſtices to the ſhiriffes in euerie countie by indenture, and that the ſaid ſhiriffes paie the iſſues and profites riſing of the ſaide eſtretes to euerie of the ſaid iuſtices, for euerie daie that he ſhall trauaile to exerciſe the ſaid commiſſion foure ſhillings and that the ſaid ſhiriffes haue thereof due allowance from time to time in the eſchequer.

Commiſſions.

Shiriffe.

Cap. 12.
Appropriation.

Item it is ordeined, that the ſtatute of appropriations of churches, and of the endowment of vicars in the ſame, made the xv. yeere of king Richard the ſecond, be firmelie holden and kept, and put in due execution, and if any church bee appropried by licence of the ſaid king Richard, or of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, after the ſaid xv. yeere, againſt the forme of the ſaid ſtatute, the ſame ſhalbe duely reformed after the effect of the ſame ſtatute betwixt this and the feaſt of Eaſter next comming. And if ſuch reformation be not made within the time aforeſaid, that the appropriation and licence thereof made be voide and vtterlie repealed and adnulled for euer, except the church of Hadenham in the dioceſſe of Elie, which for to eſchewe diuers damages diſcords and debates, that haue bene before this time betwixt the biſhop of Elie and the archdeacon of Elie, vpon the exerciſe of their iuriſdiction (as it was openlie declared by the ſame biſhop in preſence of the king and of the lords of the parliament) late appropried by the licence of the king our ſoueraigne lord to the archdeacon and his ſucceſſours, to do diuine ſeruices, keepe hoſpitalitie, and to ſupport other charges as pertaineth. Moreouer it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the vicarages voide, annexed or appropried, and the licences thereof had after the firſt yeere of the ſaid king Richard, how well ſo euer that they which haue vnited, annexed, or appropried ſuch vicarages, be in poſſeſſion of the ſame vicarages, or by vertue of ſuch licences maie in anie wiſe be in poſſeſſion of ẏ ſame in anie time to come, they ſhalbe vtterly void reuoked, repealed adnulled & diſappropried for euer: and that from henceforth in euerie church ſo appropried, a ſecular, perſon be ordeined vicar perpetuall, canonicallie inſtitute & induct in the ſame, and coueuablie endowed by ẏ diſcretion of the ordinarie, to do deuine ſeruice, and to enforme the people, and to kéepe hoſpitalitie there (except the church of Hadenham aforeſaid.) And that no religious be in anie wiſe made vicar in anie church ſo appropried or to be appropried by no waie in time to come.

Vicarages.

at

Cap. 13. Men of armes. Archers. Wales. Eſcuage.

Item it is ordeined, that the ſtatute made the firſt yéere of king Edward graundfather to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, containing that none ſhalbe diſtrained to go out of the counties, but onelie for the cauſe of neceſſitie of ſodaine comming of ſtrange enemies into the realme, and the ſtatute made the xviii. yéere of the ſaid graundfather, that men of armes hoblers and archers choſen to go in the kings ſeruice out of England, ſhall be at the kings wages from the daie they to depart out of the counties, where they were choſen. And alſo the ſtatute made the xxv. yéere of the ſaid graundfather, that no man be compelled to finde men of armes hoblers nor archers, other then thoſe which do holde by ſuch ſeruice, vnleſſe it be by the common aſſent and grant made in the parliament: ſhall be firmelie holden and kept in all points, ſo that alwaies by force or colour of yͤ ſaid ſupplication, nor of anie ſtatute therupon to be made, yͤ lords nor one other that haue lands and poſſeſſions in the countrey of Wales, or in the marches thereof, ſhall in no wiſe be excuſed of their ſeruice ⁊ deuoirs due of their ſaid lands ⁊ poſſeſſions, nor of anie other deuoires or things whereto they or anie of them be bound to our ſoueraigne lord the king, how much that the ſame lordes and other haue of other landes and poſſeſſions within the realme of England. Nor that the lords or other, of what eſtate or condition that they be, which hold by Eſcuage or other ſeruice due to the king, anie lands or poſſeſſions within the ſaid realme, be no wiſe excuſed to do the ſeruices and deuoires due of their ſaid landes or poſſeſſions: Nor that the lordes knights, eſquires, nor other perſons, of what eſtate or condition they be, which hold and haue of the grant or confirmation of our ſoueraigne lord the king landes, poſſeſſions, fees, annuities, penſions, or other yéerelie profits, be not excuſed to do their ſeruice to our ſoueraigne lord the king in ſuch maner as they are bounden becauſe of the landes, poſſeſſions, fees, annuities penſions or profits aforeſaid.

Cap. 14. Laborers. Carpenter. Maſon. Tiler. Plaiſterer.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no laborer be reteined to worke by the wéeke, nor that no laborers, carpenters, maſons, tylers, plaiſterers, dawbers, couerers of houſes, nor none other laborers ſhall take anie hier for the holie daies, nor for the euens of feaſts, where they do not labor but till the houre of none, but onelie for the halfe daie, vpon the peine that ſuch laborer, carpenter, maſon, tyler, plaiſterer, dawber, couerer of houſes, or anie other laborer that taketh contrarie to this ſtatute, ſhall paie to the king for euerie time that he ſo doth the contrarie xx. s.

Cap. 15. Marchants ſtrangers. Denizens. Money.

Item it is ordeined, that all yͤ marchants ſtrangers and denizens, which bring marchandiſes into this realme of England, and the ſame do ſell within the realme, and receiue engliſh money for the ſame, that they ſhall beſtowe the ſame money vpon other marchandiſes of England, for to bring the ſame out of the realme of England, without carying anie golde or ſiluer in coyne, plate, or maſſe, out of the ſaid realme, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame, ſauing alwayes their reaſonable coſts.

Cap. 16. Money. Gold. Siluer. Plate.

Item where as in diuers ordinances and ſtatutes made before this time, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no man, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall bring no money, nor do to bee brought gold nor ſiluer in money plate nor in veſſell out of the realme of England, without ſpeciall licence of our ſoueraigne lord the king: and becauſe the ſame ſtatutes and ordinances be verie profitable and auailable for him, and for all his realme, if they were put in due execution: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords aforeſaid, and at the eſpeciall prayer of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ordinances and ſtatutes be holden and kept, and put in due execution. And if anie perſon of what eſtate or condition that he be, bring or ſend, or do to be brought or ſent, gold or ſiluer in money, veſſell, or in plate, out of the ſaid realme, without the kings eſpeciall licence, except for his reaſonable expenſes, as afore is ſaid. And he that can eſpie the ſame, vpon a full and lawfull certification thereof to be made to the barons of the eſchequer of our ſoueraigne lord the king, ſhall haue the third part of ſuch thing ſo eſpied for his trauaile to endure to the next parliament.

Cap. 17. Friers. Chancellour.

Item it is ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed, that no frier of the foure orders, that is to ſay, frier Minours, Auguſtines, Preachers, and Carmelites, from henceforth ſhall take nor receiue anie infant into their ſaid order, vnleſſe he be entred into the age of xiiii. yéeres, without the aſſent of his father and mother, or other his next friends of bloud, or other his friends or tutours, in whoſe ward or cuſtodie ſuch infant ſhall be continuallie conuerſant ⁊ abiding. And that no ſuch frier of none of the ſaid orders, bring, embeſell, nor eloigne, nor do to be brought, embeſelled, nor eloigned by him ſelfe nor by none other, ſuch infant, out of the place where he ſhall be ſo firſt taken or receiued, to anie other place, by an whole yéere next enſuing ſuch taking or receit into the ſaid order. And if anie ſuch infant be ſo taken, receiued, or witholden againſt the will of his ſaid father and mother, or of his other friends or tutours aforeſaid, or if he be brought imbeſiled or eloigned from the place where he ſhall be ſo firſt taken or receiued, to anie other place, and the ſame fathers or mothers, or other his friends or tutours aforeſaid hath made requeſt to the maſter prouinciall, warden or prior of the ſame order, in the place where the ſaid infant is or ſhall be ſo taken, receiued, or witholden, and they will not make deliuerie of yͤ ſame infant to his ſaid father or mother, or other his friends and tutours aforeſaid: The ſame father or mother, or other friends or tutours aforeſaid, ſhall ſue to the chancellour of England for the time being, and the ſame chancellour ſhall haue power by authoritie of parliament, to ſend for the miniſters or prouincials of the ſaid foure orders, warden or prior of the place where ſuch infant ſhall ſo be taken, receiued, or witholden from time to time, and them to puniſh after the diſcretion of the ſaid chancellour, and according as the caſe requireth in this behalfe. And to the entent that this ſtatute and ordinance ſhall holde place for euer: Frier John Zouch, miniſter of the order of the friers minours in Englande, Frier William Pikeworth, prouinciall of the order of the friers Preachers in Englande: Frier William de Welle, prouinciall of the order of the friers Auguſtines in England. Frier Stephan of Padington, prouinciall of the order of the friers Carmelites in England, being in the proper perſons before the king and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of the realme in the full parliament, leying their right hands on their breſts, made an othe and promiſed in the ſame parliament, to holde, keepe, obſerue, and performe the ſtatute and ordinance aforeſaid, for them and their ſucceſſours for euer.

Cap. 18.
Atturney.

Item for ſundrie damage and miſchiefes that haue come before this time to diuers people of the realme, by the great nomber of atturneis, ignorant and not learned in the law as they were wont to be before this time: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that al ẏ atturneis ſhalbe examined by the iuſtices, and by their diſcretions their names to be put in the rolle, and they that be good ⁊ vertuous, and of good fame, ſhall be receiued and ſworne, well and truely to ſerue in their offices, and eſpeciallie that they make no ſuite in a foreine countie. And the other atturneis ſhalbe put out by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, and that their maſters, for whom they were atturneis, be warned to take others in their places, ſo that in the meane time no damage nor preiudice come to their ſaid maſters. And if anie of the ſaid atturneis do die or ceaſe, the iuſtices for the time being by their diſcretion ſhal make an other in his place, which is a vertuous man and learned ⁊ ſworne in the ſame maner as afore is ſaid. And if anie ſuch atturney be hereafter notoriouſlie found in anie defaut of record or otherwiſe, he ſhall forſwere the court, and neuer after be receiued to make anie ſuite in anie court of the king. And that this ordinance be holden in the eſchequer after the diſcretion of the treaſurer, and of the barons there.

Cap. 19.
Steward.
Atturney.

Item it is ordeined, that no ſteward, bailiſe, nor miniſter of lords of franchiſes, which haue returne of writtes, be atturney in anie plea within the franchiſe or bailiweeke, whereof he is or ſhall be officer or miniſter in anie time to come.

Cap. 20.
Cuſtomers.
Controler.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute made in the firſt yeere of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, of that that the cuſtomers and controllers in euerie port of England ſhall abide vpon their offices in their proper perſons, without making anie deputie or lieutenant in their names, be firmelie holden and kept in all points: Ioyned to the ſame, that they ſhall be ſworne to do the ſame from time to time vpon peine of impriſonment, and to paie to ẏ king C.li. if they do the contrarie. Alſo it is accorded and aſſented, that the lieutenant of the kings chief boteler, and the ſercher, ſhall be reſident in the ſame maner, ⁊ vpon the ſame peine of C.li. the one halfe to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him that wil ſue for ẏ ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king againſt ſuch cuſtomers, controllers, lieutenant, or ſercher not reſident. And that euerie cuſtomer from henceforth, vpon the yeelding of his accompt in the eſchequer, be ſworne by his othe, to anſwere lawfullie to the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, without fraude or male engine, of all maner profites and commodities for the paiment of anie aſſignement, be it by taile or in anie other maner. And that all maner marchandiſes entring in the realme of England, or going out of the ſame ſhall be charged and diſcharged in the great portes of the ſea, ⁊ not in creekes and ſmall arriuals, vpon peine to forfeite all the marchandiſe ſo charged or diſcharged to our ſoueraigne lord the king, except veſſels and marchandiſes arriuing in ſuch litle creekes and arriuals by cohercion of tempeſt of the ſea.

Boteler.
Sercher.
Othe.
Marchandiſes.

Cap. 21.
Serchers.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſerchers in euerie port of England ſhalbe charged and ſworne, that they ſhall not let to farme their offices of ſerching, nor occupie the ſame by a deputie. And that from henceforth they take of no maſters of ſhips for their office of ſerching no ſiluer nor money for their welcome and farewell, nor none other thing for the ſame, as it hath bene taken and leuied before this time, otherwiſe then ſhall be ordeined to them for their office by our ſoueraigne lord the king, and that no ſercher be hoſte to no marchant nor mariner. And in caſe that anie ſercher doth contrarie to this ſtatute, and that duelie proued, the ſame ſercher ſhall be out of his office for euer, and make fine and raunſome at the kings will.

Cap. 22.
Collation.

Item where as it was ordeined by the ſtatute made the xxv. yeere of king Edward, graundfather to our ſoueraigne lord the king, that if the king make collation or preſentment to anie benefice in an others right: that the title, whereupon he groundeth him, ſhould be well examined, that it be true ⁊ at whatſoeuer time before iudgement giuen the title be found by good information vntrue and vniuſt, the collation or preſentment thereof made, ſhall be repealed and adnulled. And moreouer in a ſtatute made afterward in the time of king Richard, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if the king preſent to anie benefice that is full of anie incombent, that the kings preſentee ſhall not be receiued by the ordinarie, till the king hath recouered his preſentment by proceſſe of the lawe in his owne court, and if anie preſentee of the king be otherwiſe receiued, and the encombent out without due proceſſe as afore is ſaid, the ſame encombent ſhall commence his ſuite within a yere after the induction of the kings preſentee. Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the great miſchiefe of the encombent in this behalfe, hath ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed by the aſſent afore-

Incombent.

Benefice. ſaid, that if anie ſuch encombent be out of his benefice without due pꝛoceſſe in the maner afoꝛeſaid, that the ſaid encombent ſo out without proces maie be at large and ſue foꝛ his remedie by the ſaid ſtatute, and begin his ſuite in this caſe at what time ſhall pleaſe him within the yeere oꝛ after at his will, and that aſwell foꝛ the time paſt as foꝛ the time to come, notwithſtanding the terme ſo limitted by the ſaid ſtatute.

Cap. 23. Plea real. Iudgement. Item where as well in plea reall as in plea perſonall after iudgement giuen in the courts of our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king, the parties be made to come vpon grieuous paine ſometime befoꝛe the king him ſelfe, ſometime befoꝛe the kings counſell, and ſometime in the parliament, to anſwere thereof of new, to the great impoueriſhing of the parties afoꝛeſaid, and in the ſubuertion of the common lawe of the land: It is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that after iudgment giuen in the courtes of our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king, that parties and their heires ſhall be thereof in peace till the iudgement be vndone by attaint oꝛ by erroꝛ (if there be erroꝛ) as hath bene vſed by the lawes in the time of the kings pꝛogenitours.

Cap. 24. Aulnage. Item where as late in the time of king Richard the ſecond it was oꝛdeined by a ſtatute, that the aulnage of clothes thꝛough the realme ſhould not be ſet to farme, to the great damage of our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king yeerelie: It is oꝛdeined and accoꝛded in the ſaid parliament, that the ſaid aulnage maie be ſet to farme with empꝛowement after the aduiſe of the treaſurer of England foꝛ the time being, and of the barons of the eſchequer, notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatute made to the contrarie.

Cap. 25. Vitailers. Hoſtelers. Item it is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute of vitailers and hoſtelers, and other ſellers of vitailes, made the xiii. yeere of the ſaid king Richard, be holden and kept and put in due execution, and if anie hoſteler do to the contrarie, and that duelie pꝛoued, the ſame hoſteler ſhall from time to time incurre the paine of the treble value of the bꝛead made by him in his houſe oꝛ els where contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute, and alſo the ſame hoſteler ſhall incurre the quatreble value of that that he hath taken ouer an halfepenie of euerie buſhell of otes aboue the common pꝛice in the market, and that aſwell at the ſuite of the king as of the partie.

Cap. 26. Walſhmen. Wales. Item it is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that no Engliſhman liege to our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king, be conuict by anie Walſhmen within franchiſe oꝛ without in anie countie, hundꝛed, oꝛ court within the land of Wales, of whatſoeuer eſtate, but by Engliſhmen and of the next venue, and people of good fame and not pꝛocured, noꝛ that the engliſh burgeſſes, which haue maried Walſhwomen, haue franchiſes with the engliſh burgeſſes.

Cap. 27. Wales. Rimer. Minſtrel. Item to eſchew manie diſeaſes and miſchiefes, which hath happened befoꝛe this time in the land at Wales, by manie waſters, rimers, minſtrels, and other vacabonds, It is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that no waſter, rimer, minſtrell, noꝛ vacabond be in anie wiſe ſuſteined in the land of Wales, to make commoꝛthies oꝛ gathering vpon the common people there.

Cap. 28. Congregation. Wales. Item it is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that no congregations be made noꝛ ſuffred to be made by the Whalſhmen in anie place of Wales, foꝛ to make oꝛ take anie counſell, vnleſſe it be foꝛ an euident and neceſſarie cauſe, and by licence of the chiefe officers and miniſters of yͤ ſame ſeignioꝛie, where ſuch thing ſhalbe done, and in the pꝛeſence of the ſame officers and miniſters, vpon paine of impꝛiſonment and to make fine and raunſome at the kings will.

Cap. 29. Armour. Item it is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that from henceforth no man be armed noꝛ beare defenſible armour to marchant townes churches noꝛ congregations in the ſame, noꝛ in the high waies, in affray of the peace oꝛ the kings liege people, vpon peine of impꝛiſonment, and to make fine and raunſome at the kings will, except thoſe which be lawfull liege people to our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king.

Cap. 30. Vitaile. Armour. Wales. Conſtable. Item it is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that no engliſhman noꝛ Walſhman of what eſtate oꝛ condition that he be, ſend oꝛ being by colour of marchandiſe oꝛ otherwaie, anie vitaile oꝛ armour to anie parties of Wales, without the ſpeciall licence of our ſoueraigne loꝛd the king oꝛ of his counſell, vnleſſe it be foꝛ ſtuffing oꝛ enſtoꝛing of caſtels and engliſh townes, vpon peine of foꝛfaiture of the ſame vitailes and armour, and that in euerie part of the marches of Wales & townes of the marches, there be engliſh conſtables foꝛ to enquire, ſearch, and arreſt all ſuch vitailes and armour, and the ſame conſtables foꝛ their trauaile ſhall haue the firſt part of ſuch foꝛfaitures ſo by them found.

Cap. 31. Walſhman. Defence. Item it is oꝛdeined, and ſtabliſhed, that no Walſhman ſhall haue caſtel, foꝛtreſſe, noꝛ houſe defenſiue of his owne noꝛ of other to keepe, otherwiſe then was vſed in the time of king Edward conquerour of Wales, vpon paine of foꝛfaiture of the ſame. Except biſhops and other tempoꝛall loꝛds foꝛ their owne bodies.

Cap. 32. Walſhman. Wales. Item it is oꝛdeined, that no Walſhman be made iuſtice, chamberlaine, chancellour, treaſurer, ſhirife, ſteward conſtable, of caſtel, receiuer, eſchetour, coꝛoner, noꝛ chiefe foꝛeſter noꝛ other officer, noꝛ keeper of the recoꝛds, noꝛ lieutenant in anie of the ſaid offices in no part of Wales, noꝛ of the counſell of anie engliſh loꝛd, notwithſtanding anie patent made to the contrarie with this clauſe (non obſtante quod ſit wallicus natus) except biſhops in Wales, and of thoſe and other whom the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd hath found his good and lawfull liege people he will to be aduiſed by his counſell.

Cap. 33. Wales. Item foꝛ the moꝛe ſufficient cuſtodie of the land of Wales, and to the intent that a man maie haue the better knowledge of the condition of the people there: It is oꝛdeined and ſtabliſhed, that the garriſons of the caſtels and walled townes there, be purueied and ſtored ſufficientlie of valiant Engliſh perſons ſtrangers to the ſeigniories where the ſaide caſtels be ſet, and not of anie man mixt of the ſaid parties or ſeigniories in Wales, or the marches of the ſame, till the ſaide land of Wales be otherwiſe iuſtified and appeaſed for the time to come.

Cap. 34. Walſhwoman. Wales. Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no Engliſhman maried to anie walſhwoman of the amitie or aliauns of Owen ap Gleindour, traitor to our ſoueraigne lorde, or to anie other walſhwoman after the rebellion of the ſaide Owen, or in that time to come marieth himſelfe to anie walſhwoman, be put in anie office in wales or in the marches of the ſame.

Cap. 35. Shoomaker. Cordwainer. Item where as in the ſtatute made the thirteenth yeere of king Richard the ſecond amongſt other thinges it was ordained, that no ſhoomaker, nor cordwainer, ſhould vſe the miſterie of tanner, and that he which did contrarie, ſhould forfeite all the lether ſo tanned, and all the bootes ſo wrought, and moreouer to be raunſomed at the kings will. And becauſe that our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath perceiued, that there is great damage and diſceite diuerſlie by colour of the ſaide ſtatute, as by the petition of the commons deliuered to him in the ſame parliament it may appeare: The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaide lordes, and at the praier of the ſame commons, will and hath ordained, that the ſhoomakers and cordwainers may tanne lether as they haue vſed in time paſt, notwithſtanding anie ſtatute made to the contrarie, ſo that the lether, which ſhall be hereafter tanned, aſwell by the tanners as by the ſhoomakers and cordwainers aforeſaid, be aſſaied and marked with a marke of yron thereto to be limitte by the maior or bailiffes, conſtable or chiefe wardens, of the towne where ſuch lether ſhall be wrought, or by anie their deputie, to doo the ſame by his othe, before that ſuch lether be ſould or ſet to ſale, or ſet to anie workemanſhip. Lether. And if anie lether be ſould or ſet to ſale, or ſet to anie workemanſhip againſt the forme aforeſaid, that then it ſhall be forfeite to the king. And that this ſtatute be put in aſſaie and hold place till the next parliament.

Here foloweth the ſtatute made the fiſt yeare of king
Henrie the fourth.

FOr to remedie and recouer diuers miſchieues, damages, and greeuances, ſhewed to our ſoueraigne lorde the king in his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morow of ſaint Hillarie, the fiſt yeare of his reigne: The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons of his realme of England, commen to the ſaide parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed diuers ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme as foloweth.

Chap. 1. Firſt that none of the maners, landes, or tenements, whereof ſir Henrie Percie, or ſir Thomas Percie earle of Worceſter, or other traitors, which were at the battaile of Shrewſburie againſt our ſoueraigne lorde the king and their liegeaunce, were ſeiſed, or anie of them was ſeiſed iointlie with other or onelie by them ſelfe, of the feffement of other to an others vſe, or for the great truſt that people which them did enfeffe, had to them to doo and performe their will, and whereof they were not enfeffed to be enherite, but to performe the will of their feffours in anie parcell of the ſame maners, landes, or tenements, how well that ſuch feffements be made by fine or otherwiſe, without ſhewing a deede prouing the condition, ſhall be in anie wiſe forfeite to our ſoueraigne lorde the king. Feffement. And if anie giftes or grauntes be made by our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king of the ſaide maners, landes, or tenementes, or anie parcell of the ſame, or otherwiſe: that ſuch giftes or grauntes be wholie voide for euer and of no valour, and that our ſoueraigne lorde the king haue the forfeiture of the landes and tenements of the ſaide ſir Henrie and ſir Thomas, and of the other traitors aforeſaid, which they or anie of them were was by them ſelfe or ſeuerallie enheritable by diſcent or by rightfull purchaſe, or whereof other were enfeffed iointlie with them, or other onelie to their vſe by fine or anie other maner, whatſoeuer it were.

Chap. 2. Theeues. Prouours. Item becauſe that diuers common and notorious theeues be indited of diuers felonies, murders, and rapes, in diuers countries, and vpon the ſame aſwell before the kings iuſtices as before the king himſelfe arrained of the ſame felonies, and for ſafegard of their liues they become prouours to ſuch entent that in the meane time by brocage grauntes and giftes to be made to diuers perſons, to purſue and haue their charters, and then after their deliuerance they become more ſtrong notorious theeues than they were before: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that if anie perſon of what eſtate or condition that he be, man or woman, pray or purſue, or doo to be praied or purſued from henceforth for anie ſuch theefe, ſo attainted by his owne confeſſion, to haue anie charter of pardon, that the name of him or hir that purſueth ſuch charter, be put in the ſame charter, making mention, that the ſame charter is graunted at his or hir inſtauns. Charter. And if he to whom ſuch charter is graunted, after his deliuerance becommeth a theefe againe, that the ſame perſon which did ſo purſue for his charter, ſhall incurre the paine of C. li. to be leuied to the kings vſe.

Chap. 3. Watch. Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the watch to be made vpon the ſea coſte through the realme, ſhall be made by the number of people in the places and in maner and forme as they were wont to be made, and that in the ſame caſe the ſtatute of Wincheſter be holden & kept, and that in the commiſſions of the peace hereafter to be made, this article be put in, that the iuſtices of peace haue power thereof to make inquiſition in their ſeſſions from time to time, and to puniſh them which be found in default after the tenour of the ſaide ſtatute.

Iuſtices of peace.

Chap. 4 Multiplication.

Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that none from henceforth ſhall vſe to multiplie golde or ſiluer, nor vſe the craft of multiplication, and if anie the ſame doo, that he incurre the paine of felonie in this caſe.

Chap. 5. Cutting of tongues. Putting out of eies.

Item becauſe that manie offenders doo daylie beate, wound, impriſon and maime diuers of the kings liege people, and after purpoſelie cut their tongues, or put out their eies: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that in ſuch caſe the offenders that ſo cutteth tongues or put out the eies of anie of the kings liege people, and that duelie proued, and found, that ſuch deede was doone of malice prepenſed, they ſhall incurre the paine of felonie.

Chap. 6. Parliament.

Item becauſe that Richard Chedder eſquier, which was come to this preſent parliament with Thomas Broke knight, one of the knights choſen to the ſame parliament for the countie of Somerſet, and meiniall ſeruant with the ſaid Thomas, was horriblie beaten, wounded, blemiſhed, and maimed, by one John Sauage: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that for ſo much as the ſame horrible deede was doone within the time of the ſaide parliament, that proclamation be made, where the ſame horrible deede was doone, that the ſaide John appeare and yeeld him in the kings bench within a quarter of a yeare after the proclamation made, and if he doo not, the ſame John Sauage ſhall be attainted of the ſaid deede, and pay to the partie greeued his double damages, to be taxed by the diſcretion of the iudges of the ſaide bench for the time being, or by enqueſt if neede be, and alſo he ſhall make fine and raunſome at the kings will. Moreouer it is accorded in the ſame parliament, that likewiſe it be doone in time to come in caſe like.

Chap. 7. Marchants ſtrangers.

Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all the marchants ſtrangers, of what eſtate or condition that they be, comming, dwelling, or repairing within the realme of England, ſhall be entreated or demeaned within the ſame realme, in the maner forme, & condition, as the marchants denizens be or ſhall be entreated or demeaned in the parties beyond the ſea, vpon paine to forfeite to the king all the goods and catals of ſuch marchants ſtrangers, and vpon peine of impriſonment of the bodie of ſuch marchants ſtrangers.

Chap. 8. Debt. Suite.

Item to eſchew diuers miſchieues, which haue bene and be from day to day aſwell within the citie of London as within other cities and other places within the realme of England, of that that diuers feined ſuites of debt hath bene taken, aſwell by people of the ſaide cities as of other places againſt diuers people ſurmiſing them by their ſaide ſuite, that they ought to haue accounted before auditors aſſigned of diuers receites, duties, and contracts had betwixt them, and that they were found in arrerages vpon the ſame account in diuers great ſummes, ſurmiſing by the ſame ſuites ſometime their apprentiſes, and ſometime other of their ſeruaunts to be the auditors, where there was neuer receipt nor dutie betwixt ſuch parties, and where the ſaide apprentiſes or ſeruauntes did nothing know of ſuch account, to the entent to make them, againſt whom ſuch ſuites were taken, to put them in enqueſt in the ſame ſuites, and to put them from the waging of their lawe in ſuch caſe. By reaſon whereof, by ſuch fauorable enqueſts taken thereupon of the neighbors of thoſe that hath taken ſuch ſuites, hath bene condemned in manie great ſummes, to the great impoueriſhing and deſtruction of them: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices in the kings courte and other iudges, before whom ſuch ſuites and actions ſhall be ſued and taken, in all ſuch caſes in cities and burghes, ſhall haue power to examine the attourneis and other whome pleaſe them, and thereupon to receiue the defendants to their law, or to trie the ſame by enqueſt after the diſcretion of the iuſtices and iudges aforeſaide.

Chap. 9. Gould and ſiluer. Cuſtomers Controllers. Marchants aliens.

Item for the better keeping of gould and ſiluer within the realme of England, and for the encreaſe of the commodities of the ſaide realme: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatutes thereof made at the laſt parliament ſhall be holden and kept and put in due execution, ioyned to the ſame, that the cuſtomers and controllers of our ſoueraigne lord the king in all the portes of England ſhall take ſufficient ſuerties for all maner marchandiſes brought by the marchants aliens and ſtraungers, comming and repairing to the ſaid portes, to the intent that the monie taken for the ſaid marchandiſe ſhall be emploied vpon the commodities of the realme: ſauing their reaſonable coſtes as in the ſame ſtatute is more fullie contained. And moreouer it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide marchauntes aliens and ſtraungers ſhall ſell their ſaide marchaundiſes ſo brought within the ſaide realme, within a quarter of a yeere next after their comming into the ſame, and alſo that the monie which ſhall be deliuered by exchange in England, be emploied vpon the commodities of the realme within the ſame realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame moneie. And that no marchant alien nor ſtranger ſell no maner of marchandiſe to an other marchant alien or ſtranger, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame marchandiſe. And alſo it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that in euerie citie, towne, and porte of the ſea in England, where the ſaide marchants aliens or ſtrangers be or ſhall be repairing, ſufficient hoſtes ſhall be aſſigned to the ſame marchants by the maior, ſhiriffes or bailiffes of the ſaide cities, townes, and portes of the ſea. And that the ſaid marchauntes aliens and ſtrangers ſhall dwell in none other place, but with their ſaide hoſtes ſo to be aſſigned, and that the ſame hoſtes ſo to be aſſigned, ſhall take for their trauaile in the maner as was accuſtomed in olde time.

Cap. 10. Conſtables of caſtels. Impriſonment. Iayles.

Item becauſe that diuers conſtables of caſtels within the realme of England be aſſigned to be iuſtices of the peace by commiſſion of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and by colour of the ſaid commiſſions they take people, to whom they beare euill will, and impriſon them within the ſaid caſtels, till they haue made fine and raunſome with the ſaid conſtables for their deliuerance: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that none be impriſoned by anie iuſtice of the peace, but onelie in the common iayle, ſauing to lords and other, (which haue iayles) their franchiſe in this caſe.

Cap. 11. Diſmes.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the farmours and all maner occupiers of the maners, lands, tenements, and other poſſeſſions of aliens, ſhall paie and be bound to paie all maner of diſmes thereof due to parſons and vicars of holie church, in whoſe pariſhes the ſame manours, lands, tenements, and poſſeſſions be ſo aſſeſſed and due, as the lawe of holie church requireth, notwithſtanding that the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, or other poſſeſſions be ſeaſed into the kings hands, or notwithſtanding anie prohibition made or to be made to the contrarie.

Cap. 12. Statute marchant.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that when anie ſtatute marchant is certified into the chancerie, and thereupon a writ awarded to the ſhirife and returned into the common place, and the ſtatute there once ſhewed, that how ſo euer the proceſſe after the ſame ſhewing bee diſcontinued, that at what time the partie ſueth to haue the proces recontinued, & to haue execution of the ſtatute marchant aforeſaid, that the iuſtices of the bench where the ſtatute was once ſhewed, maie vpon the ſame record make and award full execution of the ſtatute marchant, without hauing the ſight or ſhewing thereof an other time after, and that this ſtatute holde place of all ſtatutes marchants not fullie executed at this time.

Cap. 13. Gilding on copper and laton.

Item where as manie vnlawfull artificers, imagining to deceiue the common people, to dailie make lockes, rings, beades, candleſtickes, harneis for girdels, hiltes, chalices, and ſword pomels, pouderboxes, and couers for cuppes, of copper and of laton, and the ſame ouergilteth and ſiluereth like to gold or ſiluer, and the ſame ſelleth and putteth in gage to manie men, not hauing full knowledge thereof for whole golde, to the great deceite, loſſe, and hinderance of the common people, and the deſtruction of golde and ſiluer: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no artificer nor other man what ſo euer he be, from henceforth ſhall gilt nor ſiluer anie ſuch lockes, rings, beades, candelſtickes, harneis for girdels, chalices, hiltes nor pomels of ſwords, pouderboxes, nor couers for cuppes made of copper or laton, vpon paine to forfaite to the king a hunderd ſhillings at euerie time that he ſhalbe found giltie, and to make gree to the partie grieued for his damages, but that (chalices alwayes excepted) The ſaid artificers maie worke or do to be wrought ornaments for the church of copper and laton, and the ſame gilt or ſiluer, ſo that alwayes in the foote, or in ſome other part of euerie ſuch ornament ſo to be made, the copper and the laton ſhalbe plaine to the intent that a man maie ſee whereof the thing is made, for to eſchew the deceite aforeſaid.

Cap. 14. Fines.

Item where as manie feete of fines of lands and tenements within the realme of England remaining in the kings treaſurie, and the notes of ſuch fines remaining in the common bench, haue bene before this time embeſiled and other feete and notes of fines falſely counterfait and ſet in their places by deceit and falſite of ſome, whereby many people of the realme haue bene greatlie endamaged before this time, and maie be diſherited in the time to come: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the writtes of couenant, and all other writtes whereupoon fines ſhall be leuied in time to come, with the writs of Dedimus poteſtatem if anie be, with all knowledges and notes of the ſame, before that they be drawen out of the common bench by the cyrographer, ſhalbe enrolled in a rolle, to be of record for euer, to remaine in the ſafe cuſtodie of the chiefe clerke of the common bench, and of his ſucceſſours, for the old fee of xxii.d. accuſtomed to be paid to the chiefe clerke for the entring of the concord of euerie fine, without paying anie more, to the entent that if the notes in the cuſtodie of the cyrographer, or the fines be embeſiled, a man maie haue recourſe to the ſaid rolle to haue execution, as he ſhould haue if the fines were not embeſiled, and that all the writtes of couenant, and all other writtes, whereupon fines haue bene leuied in times paſt, ſhall be alſo of record. And moreouer of all the fines that were now late embeſiled in the treaſurie of our ſoueraigne lord the king by perſons vnknowne, if the notes and the ſame writtes of couenant of ſuch fines embeſiled remaining in the cuſtodie of the cyrographer maie be found, that than to the partie ſhewing part of the fines embeſiled, ſuch notes and writtes of couenants ſhal remaine of record as farforth as the ſame fines ſhould haue bene, if no embeſiling thereof had bene made.

Clerke.

Chirographer.

Cap. 15. Pardon.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king of his ſpeciall grace, by aſſent of all the lords ſpiritual and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, hath pardoned to all his liege people and ſubiects of his realme of England, and of the countrey of Wales, and of the marches of Scotland, the ſuite of the peace that to him pertaineth againſt them and anie of them, for all maner treaſons, inſurrections, rebellions, and treſpaſſes done and perpetrate before the xiiii. daie of Ianuarie, which was the firſt daie of this preſent parliament, except thoſe that be impriſoned or in ward becauſe of treaſon, and except murders, rapes of women, counterfeters of the kings ſeale, makers of falſe money, that be corporallie witholden in priſon, or let at mainpriſe or in baile, and alſo the outlagaries, if anie of them be pronounced by the ſame occaſion. And alſo our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king hath pardoned to all his liege people and ſubiects of the realme, countrey and marches aforeſaid, and to euerie of them, which at this preſent time he is or adherent to his enemies and rebels, that will come againe and obey to their liegeance within fortie daies next after the proclamation of this foreſaid grace & pardon made, at the ſuite of the peace for all maner of inſurrections, rebellions, felonies, treſpaſſes and miſpriſions done & perpetrate by them or anie of them before their yéelding or comming into their liegeance And alſo the outlagaries, if anie of them be pronounced by the occaſion thereof, ſo that they of the countrey of Wales do yéeld them ſelfe to our ſoueraigne lord the king, or to the prince of Wales, or to the duke of Yorke, or to their lieutenants or deputies. And that they of the marches of Scotland do yéeld them ſelfe to our ſoueraigne lord the king, or to John, ſonne to the ſaid king, warden of the ſaid Eaſtmarches, or to the earle of Weſtmerland, warden of the Weſtmarches towardes Scotland, or their lieutenants or deputies. Prouided alwaies, that William Serle, Thomas Ward of Trumpington, which doth pretend and feine him to be king Richard, ſhall not haue nor enioy anie aduantage by this grace and pardon, but that they be expreſſelie excepted out of the ſaid grace and pardon.

Here followeth the ſtatute made at Couentrie in the vi. yeere of king Henrie the fourth.

Chap. 1. Prouiſion. Firſt fruites.

FOr the grieuous complaints made to our ſoueraigne lord the king by his commons of this parliament, holden at Couentrie, the vi. daie of October the vi. yéere of his raigne, of the horrible miſchiefes and dampnable cuſtome, which is introduct of new in the court of Rome, that no parſon abbot nor other ſhould haue prouiſion of anie archbiſhopricke or biſhopricke, which ſhall be voide, till that he hath compounded with the popes chamber to paie great & exceſſiue ſummes of money, aſwell for the firſt fruites of the ſame archbiſhopricke or biſhopricke, as for other leſſe ſeruices in the ſame court, and that the ſame ſummes or the greater part thereof be paide before hand, which ſummes paſſe the treble or the double at the leaſt, of that that was accuſtomed of old time to be paid to the ſaid chamber and otherwiſe, by the occaſion of ſuch prouiſions, whereby a great part of the treaſure of this realme hath bene brought and caried to the ſaid court, and alſo ſhalbe in time to come, to the great impoueriſhing of the archbiſhops and biſhops within the ſame realme and elſwhere within the kings dominions, if conuenient remedie be not for the ſame prouided: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, to the honour of God, aſwell to eſchew the damage of his realme, as the perils of their ſoules, which owen to be aduanced to anie archbiſhoprickes and biſhoprickes within the realme of England, and els where within the kings dominions out of the ſame realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the great men of his realme, in the parliament hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed that they and euerie of them that ſhall paie to the ſaid chamber or otherwiſe for ſuch fruites and ſeruices greater ſummes of money, than hath bene accuſtomed to be paid in old time paſſed: They and euerie of them ſhall incurre the paine of the forfeiture of as much as they maie forfeite towardes the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king.

Cap. 2. Petition. Letters patents.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the firſt yéere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is amongſt other things it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all thoſe which from that time forth ſhould demaunde of the king lands, tenements, rents, offices, annuities, or anie other profites, ſhould make expreſſe mencion in their petition of the value of the thing ſo to be demaunded, and alſo of that that they haue had of the kings gift, or of anie of his progenitours and predeceſſours before him, and in caſe they made not ſuch mention in their ſaid petitions, and that duelie proued, the kings letters patents thereof made ſhould not be auailable nor of no force nor effect, but whollie reuoked, repealed, and adnulled for euer, in puniſhment of thoſe which had done ſuch deceit to the king, as they which ſhall not be worthie to enioy the effect and benefite of the kings letters patents to them granted in this behalfe: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid hath ordeined and declared in the ſame parliament, that the Quéene nor the kings ſonne, nor none of them be conteined in the ſaid ſtatute, nor reſtrained by the ſame to demaunde and receiue of the kings gift anie lands tenements or other poſſeſſions, but that they and euerie of them haue and enioy all that that they or anie of them haue the gift or grant of the king at this preſent, and that they and euerie of them maie demaund and receiue of the kings gift or grant hereafter without being moleſted or grieued by vertue of the foreſaid ſtatute.

Cap. 3. Accompt.

Item where as diuers of the ſhirifes, eſchetors, aulnegers, cuſtomers, controlers, and other the kings officers, accomptable in manie parties of the realme, do defraude and deceiue our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king yeerelie in their vnlawfull and vntrue accompt, conceling and receiueth to their owne vſe the greater part of that that rightfullie perteining due to the king, to his great damage and loſſe: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that maintenant after euerie finall accompt giuen and made by the officers and cuſtomers aforeſaid, before the barons of the eſchequer, the tenour of the accompt of euerie of the ſaid officers from time to time ſhall be ſent into the counties, where the ſame accomptants be officers, together with commiſſions directed to the moſt lawfull and diſcréete perſons, for to enquire and certifie the profites which the ſaid accomptants haue receiued within the ſaid counties in his name, to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king by them in the maner aforeſaid vpon their ſaid accompts, or deceitfullie conceled and reteined to their proper vſe and profite. And in caſe that the ſaid accomptants be attainted of their ſaid fraudes and deceites, they ſhall incurre to our ſouereigne lorde the king the paine of the treble of the ſame, whereof they ſhall be ſo conuict, and their bodies to priſon, till they haue made fine and raunſome to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, after the diſcretion of his iudges.

Chap. 4.
Marchants aliens.

Item where as in the laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter amongſt other thinges it was ordained, that the marchants aliens and ſtrangers ſhould ſell their marchandiſes within a quarter of a yeere next after the comming thereof into the realme: Our ſouereigne lorde the king ſeeing the ſaide ordinance hurtfull and miſchieuous, as well for himſelfe and his realme, as for the ſaide marchants aliens and ſtrangers by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ordinance be vtterlie voide and adnulled for euer. And that the ſame marchants aliens and ſtraungers be at their liberall diſpoſition to ſell their marchandiſes in the manner as they did before the making of the ſaide ordinance: Sauing alwaies the franchiſes and liberties of the citie of London. And alſo prouided alwaies, that the ſaide marchantes, aliens and ſtrangers ſhall not carie nor doo to be caried out of the realme anie marchandiſes brought within the ſame realme by the marchants aliens, and ſtrangers aforeſaid.

London.

Here foloweth the ſtatute made in the ſeuenth yeare of king Henrie the fourth.

OUr ſouereigne lorde the king at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the firſt day of March, the vii. yeere of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in the ſame parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed diuers ordinances and ſtatutes in the forme as foloweth.

Chap. 1.

Firſt that holie church haue all hir liberties and franchiſes, and that all the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and all the cities, burghes, and townes franchiſed, haue and enioy all their liberties and franchiſes, which they haue of the graunt of the kings progenitors, and of the confirmation and graunt of our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is. And that the great charter and the charter of the foreſt, and all the ordinaunces and ſtatutes made in the time of our ſouereigne lorde the king, and in the time of his progenitors, not repealed, to be fermelie holden and kept, and duelie executed in all points. And that the peace within the realme be holden and kept, ſo that all the kings liege people and ſubiects may from henceforth ſafelie and peaciblie go, come, and abide, according to the lawes and vſages of the ſame realme, and that good iuſtice and euen right be doone to euerie perſon, ſauing to the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king his regaly and prerogatiue.

Charter.

Chap. 2.

Item at the requeſt and of the aſſent of the ſaide lordes and commons, in the ſaide parliament, it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the inheritaunce of the crowne and of the realmes of England and Fraunce, and of all the other dominions pertaining to our ſouereigne lorde the king beyond the ſea, with all the appurtenaunces, be ſet and remaine in the perſon of the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king, and in the heires of his bodie begotten: and in eſpeciall at the requeſt and of the aſſent aforeſaide, it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, pronounced, decreed, and declared, that my lorde the prince Henrie eldeſt ſonne to our ſouereigne lorde the king, be heire apparaunt to the ſame our ſouereigne lorde, to ſucceede him in the ſaide crowne, realmes, and dominions, to haue them with all the appurtenaunces after the deceaſe of the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, to him and his heires of his bodie begotten. And if he die without heire of his bodie begotten, then all the ſaide crowns, realmes, and dominions, with all the appurtenaunces ſhall remaine to the lorde Thomas, ſecond ſonne of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, and to the heires of his bodie begotten. And if he die without iſſue of his bodie, than all the ſaide crowne, realmes, and dominions, with all the appurtenaunces, ſhall remaine to the lorde Iohn, the third ſonne of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, and to the heires of his bodie begotten. And if he die without heire of his bodie begotten, that then all the foreſaide crowns, realmes, and dominions, with all the appurtenances ſhal remaine to the lord Humfrey, the fourth ſonne of our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king, and to the heires of his bodie begotten.

Remainder.

Chap. 3.
Iſſues.
Amercements.
Greene ware.

Item where as diuers people of the realme doo loſe iſſues, fines, annd amercementes in the courte of our ſouereigne lorde the king, at the ſuite of anie partie, and alſo iſſues and amercementes in enqueſtes and iuries, wherein they be empanelled betwixt partie and partie in the ſaide courte, whereupon the bailiffes of the ſhiriffes and their receiuers, and the bailiffes of franchiſes and their receiuers, which gather the greene ware, doo leuie the ſame iſſues, fines, and amercements by eſtretes ſent to them and deliuered out of the place where they were forfeit, by obſcure and ambiguous wordes containing the ſomme ſo loſt, not making mention by expreſſe wordes the cauſe of the loſſe, nor the day of the terme, nor betwixt what parties, nor the nature of the writte, in which the ſame iſſues, fines, and amercements were loſt, ſo that the ſaide miniſters doo leuie the ſumme two or three times, and ſometime the double ſumme contained in their eſtretes, to the great greefe and impouriſhing of all the people: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices and iudges, before whom ſuch iſſues or amercements be or ſhall be forfeite in time to come, ſhall charge the clerkes of the eſtretes in the places where ſuch iſſues and amercements be or ſhall be forfeite by their othe to be made, and that they make the rolles of the eſtretes of ſuch iſſues and amercementes diſtinctlie by expreſſe worde of the cauſe of the loſſe, of the terme of the yeare, and the nature of the writ, and betwixt what parties ſuch iſſues and amerciaments be or ſhall be loſt, aſwell in the kings ſuite as in the ſuite of the partie, and that the ſtatute made in the time of king of Edward the third, the xlii. yeare of his reigne, for gathering of greene waxe, be holden and kept in all points.

Chap. 4. Iaylors. Item becauſe that when people being debtors be condemned to their creditors by due proces of the law, and committed to priſon, that is to ſay to the iailes of the marſhallſeie, kings bench, fleete, and other priſons in diuers cities, burghes, and townes within the realme, The wardens of the iailes and priſons aforeſaid, of their owne auctoritie doo let the ſaide debtors to go at large at their will, and where as by a ſtatute it was ordained, that if anie iayler doo let ſuch priſoner to go at large by mainpriſe or in baile that then the perſon, to whome the priſoner is condemned, ſhall haue his action and recouerie againſt the ſaide iayler: The ſame wardens doo purchaſe to them ſelfe the kings protections, whereby the ſaid creditors by the ſame protections be delaied and deferred from their duetie and rightfull recouerie aſwell againſt the ſaid wardens of the ſaide iayles, as againſt the ſaid priſoners, to the great damage and preiudice of the common people, and derogation of the common law: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no protection be auailable nor allowed in ſuch caſe. Protectiõ.

Chap. 5. Feffement. Item it is ordained, and ſtabliſhed, that none of the caſtels, manours, landes, tenements, fees, aduowſons, nor no parcell of the ſame, whereof Henrie Percie, late earle of Northumberland, and Thomas late lorde of Bardolfe, were ſeaſed or anie of them was ſeaſed iointlie with other, or onelie by them ſelfe, or of anie of them onelie by himſelfe, of the feffement of other to an others vſe, or for the great truſt that their feffours had to them to doo or performe their wils, and whereof they were not enfeffed to be inherit to their owne vſe, but to performe the wils of their feffours, or the wils of the feffours of their feffours, howſoeuer ſuch feffinents be made by fine or otherwiſe, without ſhewing anie deede prouing the condition, ſhall be in anie wiſe ſeiſed into the hands of our ſouereigne lord the king nor forfeite to him, & if anie gifts or grauntes be made by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king of the ſaid caſtels, manours, landes, tenements, fees, or auowſons, or of anie parcell thereof, to ferme or otherwiſe, ſuch giftes or grauntes ſhall be wholie voide, and of none effect for euer. Prouided alwaies, that our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king haue the forfeiture of the caſtels, manours, landes, tenements, fees, and auowſons, of which the ſaide late earle of Northumberland, or of the ſaide lorde of Bardolfe, or anie of them were or was by them ſelfe or ſeuerallie inheritable by diſcent, or by rightfull purchaſe, or of which anie other were infeffed iointelie with them or other onelie to their vſe by fine or in anie other maner.

Chap. 6. Diſmes. Item it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no perſon religious nor ſecular, of what eſtate or condition that he be, by colour of anie bulles containing ſuch priuileges, to be diſcharged of diſmes pertaining to pariſh churches, prebends, hoſpitals, or vicarages, purchaſed before the firſt yeare of king Richard the ſecond, or after not executed, ſhall put in execution anie ſuch bulles ſo purchaſed, or anie ſuch bulles to be purchaſed in time to come. And if anie ſuch religious or ſecular perſon from henceforth by colours of ſuch bulles doo trouble anie perſons of holie church, prebendaries, keepers of hoſpitals, or vicars, ſo that they can not take nor enioy the diſmes due or pertaining to them of their ſaid benefices, that then ſuch diſturbour ſhall incurre like proceſſe and paine as is ordained by the ſtatute made againſt them of the order of Ciſteaux, in the ſecond yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king.

Chap. 7. Arow heads. Item where as manie arowſmithes doo make manie fautie heades for arrowes and quarels, not well nor lawfullie nor defenſiblie, to the great ieopardie and diſceite of the people and of the whole realme: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all the heads for arowes and quarels after this time to be made, ſhall be well boilied or braſed and hardened at the pointes of ſteele, and if anie of the ſaide ſmithes doo make the contrarie, they ſhal forfeite all ſuch heds and quarels to the king, and ſhall be alſo impriſoned and make a fine at the kings will, and that euerie arowhead and quarell be marked with the marke of him that made the ſame. And the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie of England, and alſo the maior and ſhiriffes, and bailiffes of cities and burghes within the ſame cities and burghes ſhall haue power to enquire of all ſuch diſceitefull makers of heds and quarels, and to puniſh them as afore is ſaide. Iuſtice of peace.

Chap. 8. Prouiſions. Item to eſchew manie diſcentions, diſcordes and debates, and diuers other miſchieues likelie to riſe and grow by the cauſe of manie prouiſions made and to be made by the pope, and alſo by the cauſe of the licences graunted vpon the ſame by the king our ſouereigne lord: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no licence or pardon ſo graunted before this time nor to be graunted in time to come, ſhall not be auailable to anie benefice full of anie encumbent at the day of the date of ſuch licence or pardon graunted.

Chap. 9. London. Item where as at the greeuous complaint made by the commons it is ſhewed, how that in olde time it was vſed & accuſtomed, that aſwell the clothmakers and clothſellers, of whatſoeuer place of the realme they were, repairing and hauing recourſe of the citie of London, as other marchants with diuers marchandiſes, as wine, yron, oyle, and waxe, and other thinges pertaining to marchandiſe, exerciſing, repairing, and hauing recourſe to the ſaide citie, hath bought and ſoulde in groſſe, aſwell with aliens as with denizens, of the clothes and other marchandiſes aforeſaide, at their will and pleaſure, paieng in this behalfe onelie the cuſtomes and other deuoiers thereof reaſonablie due, and neuer in all the ſaide time were diſturbed, or in anie maner let, to ſell or buie in groſſe with marchantes aliens or denizens of ſuch clothes and marchandiſes at their will and pleaſure, but onelie to retaile, and nowe late as well the ſame clothmakers as other the marchantes aforeſaide, by the maior, ſhiriffes, aldermen, drapers, and marchantes of London be dailie diſturbed and let to ſell and buie in the maner afore ſaide, as well in groſſe as in retaile, and greeuouſlie and continuallie conſtreined to ſell their ſaid clothes and marchandiſes onelie to the marchauntes and inhabitantes of the ſaide citie, to the ſinguler profite and aduantage of them of London, and as well of the damage and loſſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of the realme, as of the ſaide clothmakers and marchants ſo greeued, and an euident enſample and occaſion to ſuch clothmakers and marchantes ſo greeued, to withdrawe them ſelfe from the ſaid citie from henceforth, if remedie be not rather prouided in this behalfe: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that as well the clothmakers and clothſellers as other marchants, with their ſundrie marchandiſes, as of wine, yron, oile, and ware, and other thinges perteining to marchandiſe, ſhall be free to ſell in groſſe their clothes, yron, oile, and ware, and other their marchandiſes, as well to al the kings liege people, as to the citizens of London, notwithſtanding any fraunchiſe or libertie graunted to the contrarie.

Marchants.

Clothmakers.
Clothſellers.

Cap. 10.
Clothes of raie.

Item where as in diuers parliamentes of king Edwarde the thirde, graundfather of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, it was ordeined, that the cloth of raye ſhoulde be in length xxviij. yardes, and in breadth vi. quarters, and the whole coloured cloth in length xxvi. yardes meaſured by the creaſt, and in breadth vi. quarters and a halfe, to the intent that the one whole cloth and the other watered & rowed ſhould be in length xxiiij. yardes, and nowe the makers of the ſaide clothes doe make them ſubtillie, ſo that the cloth vnneth conteineth xxi. or xxii. yardes, and of leſſe breadth by much then it ſhoulde be, in diſceite and great dammage of the common people of the realme: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the whole coloured cloth ſhall conteine in length xxviij. yardes, and the cloth of raie as much meaſured without defoiling the clothes, and in breadth as before is ordeined by the ſtatute. And if the clothmakers from hence forth make their clothes of leſſe length or breadth, that then the ſame makers ſhall forfeite the clothes, which by the aulnegour ſhall be found of leſſe length or breadth. And that the aulnegour take the ſame and deliuer them to the wardrobe, to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king.

Clothmakers.
Aulnagour.

Chap. 11
Commiſſion.

Item where as manie of the kings liege people be aſſigned by his commiſſions, to do and performe the contenue of the ſame, ſome to heare and determine, ſome to inquire and certifie, and otherwiſe, whereby the ſame commiſſioners bee greeuouſlie diſtreined by proceſſe out of the eſchequer, by reaſon of the ſaide commiſſions, and by that occaſion doe loſe great iſſues, where the ſaide commiſſioners were neuer knowing of ſuch commiſſions, nor the ſame commiſſions neuer came to their hands, to the great damage and diſeaſe of manie of the kings ſubiects: It is ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that the barons of the eſchequer ſhal haue power to receiue the oth of ſuch commiſſioners of their excuſe and diſcharge of the receite or occupacion of the ſaide commiſſions, and alſo that the ſame barons and the iuſtices of the one bench and the other, ſhall haue power by writ of Dedimus poteſtatem, to receiue ſuch othes in the countrie, and that the ſame iuſtices ſhall thereof certifie the ſaide barons in the eſchequer from time to time, and that vpon the ſame the ſaide barons ſhall diſcharge the ſaide commiſſioners, and in likewiſe it ſhall be done for the heires executors or land tenants of the ſame commiſſioners. Prouided allwaies that ſuch othes be not taken but in the caſe of commiſſions of oier and determiner, and of inquirie and certifieng onelie.

Othe.
Commiſſioners.

Chap. 12

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that none of the manors, landes, or tenementes, whereof John earle of Saleſburie which was beheaded at Cyrceſtre, or ſir Tomas Blount, and all other, which were taken at Cyrceſtre and brought to Oxenforde, or other that were iudged traitours in anie other place within the realme of Englande, after the comming of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king into the ſaide realme, were ſeiſed or anie of them was ſeiſed iointlie with other, or onely by them ſelfe of the feffement of other, to an others vſe, or for the great confidence that their feffours had in them, to doe and performe their will, and whereof they were not enfeffed to bee enherites, but to performe the will of their feffours, nor no part of the ſame manors, landes, or tenementes, howſoeuer ſuch feffementes be made by fine or otherwiſe, without ſhewing a deede prouing the condition: ſhall be in anie wiſe forfet to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, and if anie giftes or grantes be made by our ſaide ſouerſigne lorde the king of the ſaide manors, lands, or tenementes, or of anie parcell thereof, to ferme or otherwiſe ſuch giftes or grauntes ſhall be vtterlie voide for euer and of none effect. Prouided allwaies, that our ſouereigne lord the king haue the forfeiture of the manors, landes and tenements, whereof the ſaide late earle of Saleſburie, or the ſaide ſir Tomas, and the other aforeſaide, or anie of them, were or was by them ſelfe or ſeuerallie enheritable by diſcent or by rightfull purchas, or whereof other were enfeffed iointly with them, or other onelie to their vſe by fine or in other maner.

Feffement.

Chap. 13
Proceſſe erronious.

Item where as manie of the kings liege people be outlawed, and manie waiued by erronious proceſſe, and be ſo impotent in their bodies by diuers maladies and infirmities, that they may not come in their proper perſons before the king in his bench, there to make their ſuite to reuerſe ſuch erronious proceſſe: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euerie iuſtice of the one bench and of the other, and alſo the cheefe baron of the eſchequer, ſhall haue power to examine the ſame perſons hauing ſuch maladies and diſeaſes openlie knowne, and thervpon may the ſame iuſtices and the baron

Attourney
Capias ad ſatiſfac.

baron and euery of them by their diſcretion, record their atturneie in this caſe. Prouided alwaies that in the writ of Capias de ſatisfaciendum, the common lawe ſhall hold place.

Cap.14.

Liuery of Cloth, and of hattes.

Item where as it is ordeined by the ſtatute made the firſt yere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, that no archbiſhop, abbat, nor prior, nor none other man of holie church, nor temporall perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be, within the realme of Englande, giue no liueries of cloth to anie, but onelie to his meinialles and officers, and to thoſe that bee of their councell as well ſpirituall as temporall, learned of the one lawe or the other, vpon paine to make fine and raunſome at the kinges will: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that as well that ſtatute, as the ſtatute of liuerie of hats, made in the time of king Richard the ſeconde, be holden and fermelie kept, and put in due execution, ioined to the ſame, that if anie knight, or anie other perſon of leſſe eſtate, do giue anie ſuch liuerie of cloth or of hats, againſt the forme of the ſaide ſtatutes, that he ſhall incurre the paine of a C.s. for euerie ſuch liuerie of cloth or of hattes, to bee paide to the king as often as hee ſhall doe contrarie to this ſtatute or ordinaunce, and that hee, which receiueth anie ſuch liuerie of cloth or of hattes, ſhall likewiſe incurre the paine of xl. s to be payed to the king as afore is ſaide, and hee that will ſue in this caſe, ſhall haue the one halfe of ſuch paines for his labour. And that the ſame paines be in no wiſe pardoned. Moreouer it is ordeined, that no congregations nor companie be made of ſuch liuerie of cloth nor of hattes at the proper coſtes of the congregation or companie, vpon paine of euerie man of the ſame congregation or companie, that doeth contrarie to this ordinance or ſtatute, to paie to the king xl.s. The gildes and fraternities, and alſo the people of myſteries of cities and boroughes within the realme, that be founded or ordeined to a good intent or purpoſe onelie except. And the iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes ſhall haue power to enquire from time to time in their ſeſſions of the matters aforeſaide, and the ſame to certifie in the kinges benche. Prouided alwaies that in the time of warre it ſhall bee lawfull to lordes, knightes, and eſquiers, which trauellen in ſuch warre, to giue their liuerie of clothing or of hattes, ſuch and in ſuch wiſe, as beſt to them ſhall ſeeme for the time of ſuch warre, without being anie wiſe vexed or inquieted in this behalfe by force or vertue of this ſtatute.

Cap.15.

Parliament.

Election of knights for ẏ ſhire.

Item our ſouereigne lorde the king at the greeuous complaint of his commons of the vndue election of the knightes of the counties for the parliament, which bee ſome time made of affection of ſhiriffes and other wiſe, againſt the forme of the writtes directed to the ſhiriffes, to the great ſlaunder of the counties, and hinderance of the buſineſſe of the communaltie in the ſaide countie: Our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing therein to prouide remedie, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that from hence forth the elections of ſuch knights ſhalbe made in the forme as followeth (that is to ſaie) at the next countie to bee holden after the deliuerie of the writ of the parliament, proclamation ſhall be made in the full countie of the daie and the place of the parliament, and that, all they that be there preſent, as well ſutors duelie ſummoned for the ſame cauſe, as other, ſhall attend to the election of their knightes for the parliament, and then in the full countie they ſhall proceede to the election freelie and indifferentlie, notwithſtanding anie praier or commandement to the contrarie. And after that they be choſen, the names of the perſons ſo choſen (be they preſent or abſent) ſhall be written in an indenture vnder the ſeales of all them that did choſe them, & tacked to the ſaid writ of the parliament, which indenture ſo ſealed and taked ſhall be holden for the ſhiriffes returne of the ſaide writ, touching the knights of the ſhires. And in the writs of the parliament to be made hereafter, this clauſe ſhall be put: Et electionem tuam in pleno comitatu tuo factam, diſtincte & aperte ſub ſigillo tuo & ſigillis eorum qui electioni illi interfuerint, nos in Cancelaria noſtra ad diem & locum in breui content. certifices indilate.

Cap.16.

Annuitie.

Item where as late vpon a ſuggeſtion made to our ſouereigne lorde the king in this parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the vtas of ſaint Hillarie, the fourth yeere of his reigne, by the commons then being in the ſaid parliament, that where as diuerſe perſons, which had in conſideration of their good ſeruice, as well of the graunt of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, as of the grauntes of king Edwarde, graundfather of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, and of king Richarde his laſt predeceſſour, certaine annuities to be taken for terme of their liues, of the iſſues and reuenewes of diuerſe counties of Englande, by the handes of the ſhiriffes of the ſayde counties for the time being, and that other perſons of a later time, by vertue of letters patentes to them graunted by ſome of the ſaide kinges, of certaine ſummes to bee taken of the iſſues of the ſaide counties for terme of life or in other maner in ſurcharging of the ſaide counties, by fauour or pardon hath bene paied, the firſt grauntees ſet a part, or manie of them not paied, to their great wrong, and againſt right and reaſon, and likelie to the diſheriſon of the ſaide firſt grauntees: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that they, which haue letters patentes effectuall and of force, being of the elder date, ſhall be firſt paied, according to effect of the ſame, and of the ſufficient graunts therevpon made. Sauing to our ſouereigne lorde the king the profers made or to bee made in his eſchequer, and ſauing that that is graunted to the queene and the kinges ſonne. And if anie ſhiriffe, cuſtomer, or anie other paie to anie hauing letters patents of a later date, and leaue anie other hauing letters patentes of an elder date vnpaied, except thoſe which before bee excepted, that hee which ſo doeth, be not excuſed nor diſcharged againſt them that haue their letters patentes of the elder date, nor diſcharged out of the eſchequer, till he hath made gree to the partie according to lawe and reaſon, and dammages after the diſcretion of the barons of the eſchequer.

Cap. 17.

Laborers.

Huſbandry.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the good ſtatutes made in the time of king Edwarde, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, the xxv. yeere of his reigne, and the ſtatutes made at Cant. in the time of king Richard late king of England, the xii. yere of his reigne, touching laborers, artificers, and other ſeruants of huſbandrie, ſhall be holden and kept in all points, and put in due execution, and where as in the ſtatutes made at Canterb. amongeſt other articles it is conteined, that he or ſhe that vſeth to labour at the plough or carte, or other labour or ſeruice of huſbandrie, till he be of the age of twelue yeeres, that from the ſame time foorth he ſhal abyde at the ſame labour, without being put to anie myſterie or handycraft, and if anie couenant or bonde be made from that time foorth to the contrarie, it ſhall be holden for none. Notwithſtanding which article, and the good ſtatutes afore made through all parties of the realme, the infants borne within the townes and ſeignories of vpland, whoſe fathers and mothers haue no land nor rent, nor other liuing, but onely their ſeruice or myſterie, be put by their ſaide fathers & mothers and other their freendes to ſerue and bounde apprentices to diuers craftes within the cities and boroughes of the realme, ſometime at the age of twelue yeeres, ſometime within the ſaide age, and that for the pride of clothing and other euil cuſtomes that ſeruants do vſe in the ſame, ſo that there is ſo great ſkarcitie of laborers and other ſeruants of huſbandrie, that the gentlemen and other people of the realme be greatly impouriſhed for the cauſe aforeſaid: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king conſidering the ſaide miſchiefe, and willing thereupon to prouide remedie, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no man nor woman, of what eſtate or condition they be, ſhall put their ſonne or daughter, of what ſo euer age he or ſhee be, to ſerue as apprentice, to no crafte nor other labour within anie citie or borough in the realme, except he haue land or rent to the value of twentie ſhillings by the yeere at the leaſt, but they ſhall be put to other labours, as their eſtates doth require, vpon paine of one yeeres impriſonment, and to make fine and raunſome at the kings will. And if anie couenant be made of anie ſuch enfant, of what eſtate that he be, to the contrarie, it ſhall be holden for none. Prouided alwayes that euerie man or woman, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall be free to ſet their ſonne or daughter to take learning at anie manner ſchoole that pleaſeth them within the realme, and that from henceforth euery perſon that will make his ſonne or daughter apprentice to anie craft within citie or borough, that hee bring to the Maior or bailifes of the ſaide citie or borough a bill ſealed vnder the ſeales of two Iuſtices of peace of the countie, where ſuch enfant is borne, Teſtifying the valor of the lands or rentes of his ſaide father and mother, as afore is ſaide. And that no man nor woman receiue anie apprentice contrarie to this ordinance, vpon paine to pay to the king C. ſhillings, aſwell at the kinges ſuite as of euery perſon that will complaine, as well before the Iuſtices of peace as in anie other court of the king. And he that will ſue in this behalfe ſhall haue the one halfe for his labour, and the king the other halfe. And that in euerie leete be it in the kings hande, or of anie other the kings liege man, once in the yeere all the labourers and artificers dwelling in the ſame leete ſhall be ſworne, to ſerue and take for their ſeruice after the forme of the ſaide ſtatutes. And if they refuſe that to doo, they ſhall be put in the ſtockes within the towne where they be taken by three dayes without bayle or mainpriſe, till they will make gree, and from thence they ſhall be ſent to the next gayle. And that euery town or ſeignorie that faileth of their ſtockes, ſo that they be not made before the feaſt of Eſter next comming, ſhall incurre againſt the king the paine of C. s. to be leuied and paide in aide of the quinzime to be granted hereafter.

Apprentice.

Iuſtice of peace.

Stockes.

Cap. 18.

Pardon.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that none of the lords ſpirituall nor temporall, knights nor eſquiers of the realme, nor none other perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall not be in anie wiſe grieued, moleſted, inquieted, nor endammaged, for anie of them, or for their iourneying or purſuite made with the king at his commaundement, for to chaſtice and puniſh the riots & inſurrections, which hath bene diuerſly made at ſundrie ſeaſons within the realme, after the comming of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king into the ſame realme, but that they and euery of them be thereof vtterly quite, releaſed, pardoned, and diſcharged for euer.

The Statute made at Glouceſter in the ninth yeere of king Henrie the fourth.

BEcauſe that diuers complaints haue been made to our ſoueraigne lord the king by the commons of this realme, in the parliament holden at Glouceſter, the xx. day of October, the ix. yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde king Henry the fourth after the conqueſt, The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king willing to remedie the ſaide complaintes, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the inſtance and requeſt of the ſaide commons hath done to be ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuers ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme as followeth.

Cap. 1.

Firſt that holy church haue all her liberties and franchiſes, and that all the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and other the kings liege people, hauing liberties and franchiſes, and all cities and boroughes of the realme, haue and enioy all their liberties and franchiſes, which they haue of the grauntes of the progenitors of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and of his owne graunt or confirmation, except the fraunchiſe now late graunted to the ſcholers of the vniuerſitie of Oxford, and that the great charter & the charter of the forreſt, and all other good ſtatutes made before this time and not repealed ſhall ſtand in their force.

Cap. 2.
Kendall.
Cloth.
Seale.
Aulnage.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no cloth called Kendall, whereof the doſen paſſeth not vi.s.viii.d. ſhall not be ſealed with none of the kings ſeales, nor aulnage great nor little be paide for the ſame. And that the owners to ſuch clothes may fréely ſell the ſame clothes not ſealed without forfeiting anie thing to the king for the ſame, notwithſtanding anie ſtatute or ordinance made to the contrarie.

Cap. 3.
South Wales.
Felonies.

Item touching felonies and robberies done within anie ſeignorie of South Wales it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the people of the countrie, where ſuch felons be borne, receiued, or dwelling, ſhall take the ſame felons and bring them to the gayle of the ſame countrey, where they ſhall be taken, or els they ſhall be charged and make ſatiſfaction of the felonies and robberies aforeſaid to the parties, and that by the ordinance and award of the lord of the ſame ſeignorie.

Cap. 4.
Felons.
Wales.
Diſclaime.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no theefe nor felon in Wales openly knowen, be not ſuffred to diſclaime out of the ſeignorie where the felonie was done, and that ſuch manner of diſclaiming be vtterly eſchewed and put out. And that aſwell the ſaide theeues openly knowen as other theeues, be put to anſwere as priuie to the enditementes or accuſements in the ſame ſeignories where the theeues be taken, without being deliuered by diſclaiming, or by letters of marque in anie maner.

Cap. 5.
Aſſiſe de nouel diſſeiſin.
Colluſion and fraud.

Item where as diuers people doeth often times ſue aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin or other writtes of plée of land at the common lawe, the lands tenements & rents being within franchiſed townes of auncient demeane againſt certeine perſons, and doth to be named alſo in all their ſaide aſſiſes and writtes, the Maior and bailifes and commonaltie of the franchiſes, and the lords and bailifes within auncient demeane aforeſaide, whereas of truth they be not diſſeiſors nor tenants of the ſaid lands tenements or rents ſo being in plée, but named by colluſion and fraude, to voide and exclude the ſaid Maiors, bailifes, and commonaltie, and the ſaide lordes and bailifes of auncient demeane of their franchiſes and liberties, coniſance and iuriſdiction of their court before them. It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed that in ſuch aſſiſes and writtes purchaſed or ſued from henceforth or at this preſent hanging betwixt anie parties before anie ſuch Juſtices at the common law in which ſuch Maior, bailifes, and commonaltie, or lordes or bailifes of auncient demeane be named, That ſuch Juſtices ſhall firſt enquire by the ſaid aſſiſe in the countrie, whether the ſaid Maior, bailifes, and commonaltie, or lordes or bailifes of auncient demeane (if they that require before ſuch Juſtices) be diſſeiſors or tenants in ſuch caſe, or be named by colluſion and fraude, as afore is ſaide. And if it be founde that they be not diſſeiſors nor tenants of the ſaid landes, tenements, or rents, but acquite before the ſame Juſtices, and found that they be named by colluſion and fraude in the forme aforeſaid, that in ſuch caſe the Juſtices ſhall doe the ſaid writtes of aſſiſes, or other writtes purchaſed in the forme aforeſaid, to be abated and adnulled, & that the ſaid plaintife or plaintifes be in the gréeuous mercie of the king, notwithſtanding that other tenants or diſſeiſors be named or found in ſuch aſſiſes or writtes.

Cap. 6.
Clothes of Raye.

Item where as in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ſeuenth yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the clothes of Ray ſhoulde conteine in length xxviii. yardes meaſured by the liſt, and in bredth vi. quarters. And if the makers of the ſaid clothes from that time foorth ſhould make their clothes of leſſe length or breadth, they ſhoulde forfeit their clothes which ſhould be founde by the aulnegeour of leſſe length or breadth, as in the ſaide ſtatute is more fully conteined. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the ſaide ſtatute in this behalfe verie gréeuous and preiudiciall, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lordes, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons hath ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that the makers of the ſaid clothes of Ray, and the ſellers of the ſame, ſhall be as frée in the making and ſelling of the ſame as they were before the ſaid parliament holden at Weſtminſter. And that the ſaide ſtatute made in the ſaid parliament, touching this matter, be wholly adnulled and repealed, and of no force nor valor. And moreouer our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king of his eſpeciall grace hath pardoned to the makers of the ſayde Raye clothes, and the ſellers of the ſame, the forfaiture and all that that to him pertaineth, or in any maner may pertaine by occaſion thereof.

Cap. 7.
Foreins x. & xv. taxe.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all maner foreynes, hauing landes or tenementes, goodes and catals, within any townes at the day of the graunt of any dyſme or quynzyme, or of any other taxe, although they leade away their beaſtes, or cary away their goodes and cattals out of the ſame towne after the day of the ſayd graunt, that the ſame foreyns and euery of them, ſhalbe contributorie with the inhabitantes of ſuch townes to euery ſuch dyſme, xv. or taxe. And that the collectours of the ſame dyſme quynzyme or taxe for the time being, within ſuch townes, ſhall haue power by authoritie of their office, to taxe and aſſeſſe ſuch foreyns according to the quantitie of their goodes, catals, and poſſeſſions beyng in the ſayde townes at the day of the graunt of the ſayde dyſmes, quinzyme, or taxe, and for the ſame ſummes, where to they be aſſeſſed or taxed, to dyſtreine in euerie place within the countie, aſwell before that our ſayde ſoueraigne Lorde the king be anſwered of the hole ſummes that attaineth to the ſayde townes as after, prouided alwayes that no man or woman be two times charged for any ſuch beaſtes, goodes, nor catals in anie wiſe by occaſion thereof.

Cap. 8.
Money.

Item our ſaide ſoueraigne Lorde the king conſidering howe that the money of his Realme of Englande is in diuerſe waies conueied out of the ſame realme to the courte of Rome in exchange by prouiſours for prouiſions purchaſed of the pope, and tranſlations of archbiſhopricks and biſhopricks, to the great impoueriſhing of the ſame realme, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by the aſſent aforeſaide, that all the ſtatutes and ordinances made againſt prouiſours tranſlations of archbiſhopricks and biſhopricks, their executours, procuratours, notaries, fautours, mainteiners and receiuers, as well in the times of king Edwarde the thirde and king Richarde the ſeconde, as in the time of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, with all the paines and additions to the ſame, ſhall be from hence forth fermelie holden and kept in all pointes, the moderation of the ſaid ſtatutes made before this time to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king notwithſtanding. And that from henceforth all the electons of all archbiſhopricks, biſhopricks, abbeies, priories; deanries, and other dignities, or anie other elections be free without being in anie wiſe interrupted by the ſaide pope, or by commandement of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king. Prouided alwaies that our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king haue as freelie his liberties and prerogatiues as any of his noble progenitors hath had before this time, & as he him ſelfe had at the time of the making of this ſtatute. And alſo the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath pardoned all them that haue purchaſed prouiſions or tranſlacions of archbiſhopricks or biſhopricks, purchaſed and executed and not executed before this firſt daie of December, and all their procuratours, notaries, fauteurs and executours, all maner of treſpaſſes, contempts, forfetures and miſpriſions, done by them or anie of them concerning the ſaide purchaſes, ſo that they maie put their grace in execution, as well by them ſelfe as by their procuratours, notaries, and executours aforeſaide.

Prouiſours.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xi. yeere of king Henrie the fourth.

BY the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſprituall and temporall, and at the great inſtance and praier of the commons, being in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xv. of ſaint Hillarie, the xi. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fourth. The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king hath ordeined diuerſe ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme as followeth.

Chap. 1

Knights of the ſhire. Shiriffe.

FIrſt where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, there was ordeined and ſtabliſhed by a ſtatute for the conſeruation of the liberties and fraunchiſes of the election of the knightes of the ſhires vſed through the realme a certeine forme & maner of the election of ſuch knights, as in the ſaid ſtatute more fullie is conteined and for as much as in the ſame ſtatute no paine is ſet in eſpeciall vpon the ſhiriffes of the counties, if they make anie returneies to the contrarie of the ſame ſtatute. It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes, ſhall haue power to enquire in their ſeſſions of aſſiſes, of ſuch returnes made, and if it be founde by enqueſt and due examination before the ſame iuſtices, that anie ſuch ſhiriffe hath made or hereafter ſhall make anie returne contrarie to the tenoure of the ſaide ſtatute, that then the ſame ſhiriffe ſhall incurre the paine of a C. li. to be paide to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and moreouer that the knights of the counties ſo vnduelie returned, ſhall loſe their wages of the parliament of old time accuſtomed.

Chap. 2.

Hoſtelers.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no man, which holdeth a common hoſtrie in anie citie or borough of England, ſhall be cuſtomer, controller, finder nor ſercher of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and that to eſchewe the dammage and loſſe, which thereof may happen by the fauour that ſuch common hoſtlers may or will doe to marchauntes and other their hoſtes in their ſayde offices.

Chap. 3.

Iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices aſſigned and to be aſſigned, to take aſſiſes by commiſſion of our ſoueraigne lord the king in the counties of the realme, from henceforth ſhall do to be deliuered fullie in the kings treaſurie all the records of aſſiſes of nouell diſſeiſin, of Mortdaunceſter, and of certifications, with all the appurtenances and appendantes before them determined euerie ſeconde yeere, that the plee thereof be determined and iudgement giuen without more delaie, and that the recordes and proceſſe of plees reall and perſonall, and of aſſiſes of nouell diſſeiſin, of mortdaunceſter, and certifications, and of other, wherof iudgement is giuen & enrolled with things touching the ſame, ſhall in no wiſe be amended nor impaired by newe entring of the clarkes, or by the recorde or thing certified in witneſſe or commandement of anie iuſtice in anie thing after that ſuch iudgement or ſuch plees be giuen and enrolled.

Chap. 4.

Seruants. Vnlawfull games.

Item where as in the ſtatute made at Cant. the xii. yeere of the reigne of king Richarde, amongſt other things it was accorded and aſſented, that the ſeruants and labourers of huſbandrie, and labourers and ſeruants of artificers, and of vitailers, ſhoulde haue bowes & arrowes, and vſe the ſame the ſundaies & other feſtiuall daies, and vtterlie leue plaieng at the balles as well handball as foteball, and other games called coites, dice, bowling, and kailes, and other ſuch vnthriftie games, and that the ſhiriffes maiors, bailiffes, and conſtables, ſhall haue power to arreſt all that do contrarie, as in the ſaid ſtatute is more fullie conteined. Our ſoueraigne lord the king wil, that the ſaid ſtatute be fermelie holden & kept. Ioined to the ſame, that euerie ſuch labourer or ſeruant, that doth contrarie to the ſame ſtatute, ſhall haue impriſonment by vi. daies. And the maiors and ſhiriffes, or the maiors and bailiffes of cities and boroughes and the conſtables in other townes, ſhal haue power to put this ſtatute in execution fro time to time, & if they do not thereof execution, the ſame maiors and ſhiriffes, or maiors and bailiffes aforeſaid, ſhall pay to the king for euerie default xx.s. and the conſtables or conſtable of euerie towne that doeth not like execution of this ſtatute, ſhall pay for euerie their or his default vi.s.iiii.d. and that the iuſtices of aſſiſes ſhall haue power to enquire in this caſe in their ſeſſions from time to time, of them that do contrarie to this ſtatute, and thereof to certifie in the chauncerie.

Chap. 5. Galihalfpens. Money.

Item becauſe that Galihalpens do commenlie runne in the realme for paiment, in derogacion of the kings crowne, and in great diſceit of the common people. It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide Galihalfpens ſhall neuer bee currant in paiment nor in other maner within the realme of Englande vpon paine of forfeture thereof. And moreouer that the Galihalfpens, in whoſe handes ſo euer they be founde within the realme, ſhall be forfeit to our ſouereigne lorde the king, after the two monethes next enſuing the proclamation of this ſtatute. And alſo the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king will, that all the ſtatutes and ordinaunces made before this time by him or by his noble progenitors not repealed, as well of monie of Scotlande as of the monie of other realmes and partes beyonde the ſea, bee holden and kept and put in due execution.

Chap.6. Coloured cloth. Raie cloth. Aulnegeour. Seale.

Item where as by the ſtatute made the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euerie whole coloured cloth made within the realme, ſhoulde conteine by aſſiſe the length of xxviij. yardes by the creaſt, and euerrie doſen of cloth of the length of xiiij. yardes by the creaſt, and the raies meaſured by the liſt, ſhoulde conteine the ſame length and certeine perſons aulnegours thereto aſſigned through the realme, ſhoulde take their charge in the eſchequer, well and lawfullie without fraude to ſearch and ſurueie ſuch clothes, and doſeins, that euerie of them in his nature doe conteine the length and the breadth as the ſtatute requireth. The ſame aulnegours hauing power and authoritie by our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, duelie to doe their office, and with the ſeale of their ſaide office therethereto aſſigned, to ſeale all the ſaide clothes and doſeins holding their length and breadth, after the forme of the ſaide aſſiſe, ſo that the people hauing whereof they may be ſure, that by the warrant of the ſame ſealing, their clothes and doſeins aforeſaide ſhall holde their length and breadth after the forme of the ſaide ſtatute notwithſtanding which ſtatute certeine people namelie in the Weſt parties, making ſuch maner clothes, which doe not holde their ſaide aſſiſe as well in raies as in full cloth, and in eſpeciall where the whole coloured cloth ought to conteine the length of xxviij.yardes, it holdeth not but xxiij. yardes, and where the doſein of cloth ought to holde xiiij. yardes, it holdeth not but eleuen yardes, and for to conceale the diſceite of the meaſure, the ſaide people, ſo making ſuch clothes and doſeins, doe the ſame to be plited and tacked together maintenant after they be made. And when the aulnegours ſeeth the clothes ſo taked together, they doe ſeale them without making anie more ſearch or ſurueieng of the ſame clothes, to the great diſceite and hinderance as well of the lordes as the commons of the realme. Our ſoureigne lorde the king willing to prouide remedie for the miſchéeues aforeſaide, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaide lordes, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that a newe ſeale, hauing a ſigne and marke differing from the olde ſeale of the ſaide office of aulnegour, ſhall be made and deliuered to the ſaide aulnegours, and after that the ſame ſeale ſo newlie to be made, be deliuered to the ſaide aulnegours proclamation ſhall be made openlie in the Weſt parties and other places through the ſaid realme, that no perſon making ſuch maner clothes and doſeins in the ſame Weſt parties nor elſe where within the realme of England, be ſo hardy to tacke and plite together ſuch maner clothes, before that the aulnegour hath duelie made his ſearch and ſurueing of the ſame clothes, that they holde their length and breadth ordeined by the ſaide ſtatute, vpon paine of forſeiture of the ſame, and that the ſaide aulnegour after that ſhall ſet the new ſeale of his office to the ſaide clothes and doſeins, ſauing alwaies that the clothes and doſeins of the colour of raie, which be enſealed with the ſaid old ſeale, after the proclamation made, may haue their courſe to bee ſolde without anie inpediment, impeachment, or reſtreint, vpon them to bee made by the ſaide aulnegours or anie other officers, betwixt the daie of the ſaide proclamation, and the feaſt of ſaint Peter ad vincula next comming. And in caſe that anie alnegour in doing his ſaide office doe contrarie to this ſtatute, and thereof be duelie attainted, that hee at the firſt time that he ſhall be ſo attainted, ſhall loſe x.li. and at the ſecond time xx.li. to be leuied and paied to the vſe of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king of all his landes and tenementes, goods and catals, in whoſe hands ſo euer they be. And at the thirde time his bodie arreſted, and all his goods and catals at the kings will. And moreouer the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king will, that euerie perſon that will ſue for the king or for himſelfe, ſhall haue the ſuite to attaint ſuch aulnegours ſo doing againſt this ſtatute. And the ſame partie purſuing ſhall haue for his labour the fourth part of the paine of x.li. or xx.li. aforeſaide, according as the caſe ſhall happen, ſauing to lords and other their fraunchiſes, if they haue anie in this caſe.

Chap.7. Cuſtome. Marchants aliens.

Item where as our ſouereigne lord the king hath had the cuſtome and ſubſidy in the forme conteined in the graunt of his commons. and amongſt other of euerie cloth of ſcarlet, & of other cloth of whole greine, a certeine cuſtome. Now ſo it is, that certeine marchantes aliens dwelling in the citie of London and other townes, haue taken and do holde great houſes, in which they be ſole inhabitants. and do buie ſometime as in a yeere a thouſand or two thouſand clothes of fine white or more, and doe die the ſame of their owne graine in ſcarlet, or in ſangwein, or in other colours of whole graine or halfe graine, and afterwarde do the ſame clothes to be cut to ſmall péeces of v. or vi. yardes or more or leſſe, and thereof make diuers garments, and packe the ſame in their ſaide houſes, and in the ſame packes ſubtilly do packe fine woll golde and ſiluer in plate, or ſometime they put ſuch wolle gold and ſiluer in barels and other veſſels, and bring the ſame out of the realm without paying anie cuſtome or ſubſidie for the ſame, vnder ẏ colour of ſuch garments ſo made, becauſe that ſuch garments be not cuſtomable, ⁊ ſo our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by ſuch marchants aliens, ſo dwelling alonein their houſes, is daily defrauded and greatly deceiued of his cuſtomes ⁊ ſubſidie, to his great damage and preiudice in this behalfe: It is therefore ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed, that al marchantsaliens from henceforth ſhall pay the cuſtomes and ſubſidies aſwell for ſuch garments after the rate, that is to ſay, if iiii. v. or vi. ſuch garments do conteine one cloth of whole graine. That then they ſhal pay the cuſtom ⁊ ſubſidie as for a whole cloth of ſcarlet, if leſſe, leſſe: or if more, more, as alſo of grayned clothes and all other clothes of wolle. And moreouer it is accorded and aſſented in the ſaid parliament, that commiſſions ſhal be made to certeine perſons, to enquire if the ſaid aliens haue anie thing don or attempted to the contrarie of the ſaid ſtatutes made before this time in this caſe, and thereof to certifie in the kings chauncerie.

Wolle. Golde and ſiluer.

Fraude.

Cap. 8. Item where as in the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the xiiii. yéere of king Richarde the ſeconde, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that for euery exchange, which from that time foorth ſhould be made by merchantes to the court of Rome, or els where, that the ſaide marchantes ſhoulde be firmely and ſurely bounde in the Chauncerie, to buy within thrée monethes next after the ſaid exchange made, marchaundizes of the ſtaple, as Wolle, leather, Wolfelles, lead, tynne, butter, cheeſe, cloth, or other commodities of the lande, to the value of the ſumme ſo exchanged, vpon forfeiture of the ſame: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide ſtatute bee firmely holden and kept, and put in due execution. Added thereto, that the Chauncellor of Englande for the time being, ſhall from xv. dayes to xv. dayes ſende the eſtretes of the writtes of exchanges into the eſchequer of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and that the treaſurer and barons of the ſaide eſchequer haue power by authoritie of Parliament to examine the Cuſtomer in this caſe, and to puniſh them that ſhall be founde guiltie againſt the forme of the ſaide ſtatute, according to the contenue of the ſame.

Exchange. Marchandiſes of the ſtaple.

Cuſtomer.

Cap. 9. Item becauſe that nowe late enqueſtes were taken at Weſtminſter of perſons named by the Iuſtices, without due returne of the ſhirife, of which perſons ſome were outlawed before the ſaid Iuſtices of recorde, and ſome fled to ſanctuarie for treaſon, and ſome for felonie, there to haue refuge, by whome as well manie falſe offenders were endited, as other lawfull liege people of the king not guyltie, by conſpiracie, abetement, imagination of other perſons for their eſpeciall auantage and ſingular lucre, againſt the courſe of the common lawe vſed and accuſtomed before this time: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, for the great eaſe and quietneſſe of his people, will and graunteth, that the ſame enditement ſo made, with all the appurtenances to the ſame be reuoked, and adnulled, for euer voyde and holden for none. And that from henceforth no inditement be made by anie ſuch perſons, but by enqueſtes of the kings lawfull liege people, in the manner as was vſed in time of his noble progenitors, returned by the ſhirifes or bailifes of fraunchiſes without anie denomination to the ſhirifes or bailifes of fraunchiſes before made by anie perſon of the names, which by him ſhoulde be empaneled, except it be by the miniſters of the ſaide Shirifes or bailifes of fraunchiſes ſworne and knowen to make the ſame, and other miniſters to whome it perteineth to make the ſame according to the laws of Englande. And if anie Enditement be made hereafter in anie point to the contrarie: that the ſame Enditement be alſo voyde, reuoked, and for euer holden for none.

Enditement.

Enqueſtes.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, in the xiii. yeere of King Henrie the fourth.

The Tweſday, being on the morrowe of all ſoules, the xiii. yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lorde king Henrie the fourth: The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons being in the ſaide parliament, holden at Weſtminſter, hath done to be ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuerſe ordinances and ſtatutes in the forme as followeth.

Chap. i. First that holy church haue all her liberties and fraunchiſes. And all the cities and boroughes of the Realme haue and enioy all their liberties and fraunchiſes, which they haue of the graunt of our ſoueraigne lorde the kings progenitors, or of his owne graunt or confirmation. Except the franchiſe nowe late graunted to the ſcholers of the vniuerſitie of Oxenford. And that the great charter, and the charter of the forreſt, and all other good ſtatutes made before this time, and not repealed, ſhall ſtande in their force.

Chap. 2. Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatutes made in the eight yéere of king Richard the ſeconde, wherein be conteined theſe wordes which followen.

Item it is agréede and ordeined, that no man of the lawe ſhall be from henceforth Iuſtice of aſſiſe or of the common deliuerance of gayles in his owne countrie. And that the chiefe iuſtice of the common bench be aſſigned amongeſt other iuſtices, to take ſuch aſſiſes ⁊ to deliuer gayles: But as to the chiefe iuſtices of ẏ kings bench it ſhall be don as hath béen accuſtomed for the moſt part of an hundred yeres laſt paſt, ſhal be holden ⁊ kept, notwithſtanding any ſtatute or ordinance made to the contrarie. And that no chiefe Iuſtice of the kings bench be in anie wiſe hereafter made iuſtice to take aſſiſes in anie countie within the realme of England, but onely in the countie of Lancaſter. And that this ſtatute hold place and be in force as long as ſhall pleaſe the king for ſaluation of his prerogatiue.

Iuſtice of aſſiſe or gayle deliuerie.

Cap. 3.

Liuerie.

Item where as in the ſtatute made the firſt yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, it was ordeined, that no archbiſhop, biſhop, abbot, nor prior, nor none other man of holie church nor temporall, of what eſtate or condition that he were, ſhoulde giue anie liuerie of cloth to anie perſon, but onely to his menials and officers, and to thoſe which be of his councel as well ſpirituall as temporall learned in the one lawe and the other, vpon paine to make fine and raunſome at the kings will, and after in the ſtatute made the vii. yeere of the ſame our ſaide ſoueraigne Lorde the king, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that as well the ſaid ſtatute as the ſtatute of liuerie of hattes, made in the time of king Richard the ſeconde, ſhould be firmely holden & kept, and put in due execution: Ioyned to the ſame, that if anie knight or anie other perſon of leſſe eſtate, do giue anie ſuch liuerie of cloth or of hattes againſt the forme of the ſaide ſtatutes, that he ſhall incurre the paine of an hundred ſhillings, for euerie ſuch liuerie of cloth or of hattes, to be payde to the king as often as he doth the contrarie to the ſame ſtatute or ordinance. And that he that receiueth anie ſuch liuerie of cloth or of hattes, ſhall likewiſe incurre the paine of fourtie ſhillings, to be paide to our ſoueraigne lord the king as afore is ſaide. And he that will ſue ſhall haue the one halfe of ſuch paines for his labor and trauaile, and that ſuch paines be in no wiſe pardoned. And moreouer that no congregation nor companie in anie wiſe make anie ſuch liuerie of cloth or of hattes at their owne coſtes, vpon the paine that euery man of the ſame congregation or companie, that doth in anie wiſe the contrarie of the ſaid ordinances ant ſtatutes, ſhall pay to our ſoueraigne lord the king xl.s. Except onely the guildes and fraternities, and alſo people of craftes within cities and boroughes in the realme of England, which be founded and ordeined to a good intent and purpoſe. And the Iuſtices of aſſiſes ſhall haue power to enquire from time to time in their ſeſſions of the matters aforeſaid, and the ſame to certifie in the kings bench. Prouided alwayes that in time of warre it ſhall be lawfull to the lords, knightes, and eſquiers, and all other gentilmen, which trauailen for our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king in ſuch warre to giue their liuerie of clothing or of hattes: ſuch and in ſuch guiſe as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme for the time in ſuch warre, without being anie wiſe moleſted, greeued, or inquieted in this behalfe by force of the ſaide ordinance or ſtatute: Our ſoueraigne lorde king Henrie the fourth that nowe is, conſidering the ſaide ordinances and ſtatutes verie profitable for the eaſe and quietneſſe of him and all his realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons will and graunteth, that the ſaide ſtatutes be holden and kept, and put in due execution after the forme and effect of the ſame.

Iuſtices of aſſiſe.

Cap. 4.

Clothes of Ray and couloured.

Item where as in diuers ſtatutes made before this time, aſwell in the time of king Edward graundfather of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that now is, as in the time of king Richarde late king of England, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that clothes of Ray & couloured clothes ſhoulde conteine a certeine length and breadth, as in the ſaid ſtatutes is more fully conteined, and in the parliament of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that now is, the vii. yeere of his reigne, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the couloured cloth ſhould conteine in length xxviii. yardes, and the cloth of Raye as manie, meaſured without defoiling the clothes, and that the cloth of Raye ſhould hold in breadth vi. quarters, and the couloured cloth in breadth vi. quarters and an halfe, to the intent that the one cloth and the other watered and rowen, ſhould be of the length of xxiiii. yardes, vpon paine that the makers of ſuch clothes ſhould forfeit ẏ ſame clothes, which by the aulnegeour ſhould be found of leſſe length or breadth. And that the aulnegeour ſhould take them, & the ſame deliuer at the wardrobe to the kings vſe. And alſo by another ſtatute, made the xi. yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, for to auoid the great fraude and diſceit of aulnegeours through the realme, diuers ordinances, ſtabliſhments, and puniſhments were made and ordeined in this caſe, as in the ſaide ſtatutes more plainly doth appeere: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatutes, made in the ſaid vii. and xi. yeere of his ſaide reigne, be firmely holden and kept, and put in due execution.

Aulnageor.

Chap. 5.

Cuſtomer.
Controller
Gaugeor.
Serchceour

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatutes made of cuſtomers comptrollers, lieutenants of the chiefe boteler, and of ſerchers, the firſt and fourth yeeres of our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king that now is, be kept and holden. And moreouer, that all maner of cuſtomers and comptrollers gawgeors of wine and ſerchers through the realme, ſhall be continually reſident and abiding vpon their offices, and in eſpeciall at the time of the charge and diſcharge of ſhips & veſſels entring in the portes of England, and paſſing out of the ſame: ſo that no ſuch officer, after the time aboue named, be abſent from his ſaid office by three weekes at the moſt, vpon paine to loſe his ſaid office, vnleſſe he be commaunded and charged in eſpeciall of records, to be in the kinges courtes or otherwiſe in the kings ſeruice of record, as afore is ſaide.

Chap. 6.

Galyhalfepence.

Item where as in the ſtatute made the xi. yeere of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, it was ordeined, that galihalfepence from henceforth ſhould not ren in paiment, nor in other maner within the realme of England, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, and moreouer that the ſame gallihalfepence, in whoſe hands they might be found within the ſaid realme, ſhould be forfait ſait to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, and alſo that the ſtatutes and ordinances made by our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king or his noble progenitors, aſwell of the money of Scotlande as of other realmes and parties beyond the ſea, ſhoulde be holden and kept, and put in due execution: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king conſidering the great diſceit, aſwell of the ſaide galyhalfepence as of the money of other realmes beyond the ſea, will that the ſame ſtatutes be firmely holden and kept, and put in due execution in all points.

Money.

Cap.7. Riot. Iuſtices of peace. Shirife.

Item it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie ryot, aſſemble, or rout of people againſt the lawe be made in anie parties of the realme, that the iuſtices of peace, thrée, or two of them at the leaſt, and the ſhirife or vnderſhirife of the countie, where ſuch ryot, aſſemble, or rout ſhall be made hereafter, ſhall come with the power of the countie (if néede be) to arreſt them, and ſhall arreſt them, and the ſame Iuſtices and Shirife or vnder Shirife, ſhall haue power to recorde that that they ſhall finde ſo done in their preſence againſt the lawe. And that by the recorde of the ſame Iuſtices and ſhirife or vnderſhirife, ſuch treſpaſſors and offenders ſhall be conuict in the maner and forme as is conteined in the ſtatute of Forcible entrees. And if it happen that ſuch treſpaſſers and offenders be departed before the comming of the ſaide Iuſtices and ſhirife or vnderſhirife, or that the ſame Iuſtices, thrée or two of them ſhall diligently enquire within a moneth after ſuch ryot, aſſemblée or rout of people ſo made, And thereof ſhall heare and determine according to the lawe of the lande. And if the trueth may not be founde in the manner as afore is ſaid, than within a moneth then next following the Iuſtices thrée or two of them, and the ſhirife or vnderſhirife aforeſaide, ſhall certifie before the king and his councell all the déede and circumſtances thereof, which certificat ſhall be of like ſtrength and force, as the preſentment of xii. vpon which certificat the ſaide treſpaſſers and offenders ſhall be put to anſwere, and they which ſhall be founde guiltie ſhall be puniſhed after the diſcretion of the king and his councell. And if ſuch treſpaſſers and offenders do trauerſe the matter ſo certified: the ſame certificat & trauerſe ſhall be ſent into the kinges benche, there to be tryed & determined as the lawe requireth. And if the ſame treſpaſſers & offenders do not come before ẏ king & his councell in the kings bench at the firſt commandement then ſhal be made another commandement directed to the ſhirife of the countie, to take the ſaid treſpaſſers & offenders, if they may be found, & bring them at a certeine daie before ẏ king & his ſaid councell in the kings bench. And if they cannot be found, ẏ ſhirife or vnderſhirife ſhall make proclamation in his full countie next enſuing the deliuerie of the ſaide ſeconde commaundement, that they come before the king & his ſaide councell in the kings bench or in the chauncerie, in time of vacation within thrée wéekes then next following. And in caſe ẏ ſame offenders come not as afore is ſaid, & the proclamation made & returned, they ſhall be conuict & attainted of the ryot, aſſemblée or rout aforeſaide, notwithſtanding anie article or ordinance made to the contrarie. And moreouer that the Iuſtices of peace dwelling moſt nigheſt in euerie countie, where ſuch ryot of people ſhall be made hereafter, together with the ſhirife or vnderſhirife of the ſame countie, and alſo the Iuſtices of aſſiſes for the time that they ſhall be there in their ſeſſions, in caſe that any ſuch ryot, aſſemble or rout be made in their preſence, ſhall do execution of the ſame ſtatute, euery one vpon paine of an hundred pounde to be payde to the king as often as they ſhall be founde in default of execution of the ſame ſtatute.

Forcible entre.

Proclamation.

Thus endeth the Statutes of king Henrie the fourth.

Here beginneth the Statutes made at VVeſtminſter in the firſt yeere of king Henrie the fifth,

OVR ſoueraigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the thirde wéeke of Eaſter, the firſt yéere of his reigne, by the aduiſe of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons of this realme, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuers ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme following.

Chap.1. Knightes of the ſhires.

Firſt that the ſtatutes of the election of the knightes of the ſhires to come to the parliament be holden and kept in all pointes: adioyning to the ſame, that the knightes of the ſhires, which from henceforth ſhall be choſen in euery Shire, be not choſen, vnleſſe they be reſiant within the Shires where they ſhall be ſo choſen the daie of the date of the writte of the ſommons of the Parliament. And that the Knightes and Eſquiers and other, which ſhall be chooſers of the knightes of the ſhires, be alſo reſiant within the ſame ſhires in manner and forme as is aforeſaide. And moreouer it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the citizens and burgeſſes of the cities and boroughes, bee choſen men citizens and Burgeſſes reſiant, abyding, and frée, in the ſame Cities and Boroughes, and none other in anie wiſe.

Burgeſſes of parliament.

Chap. 2. Weares. Milles & Stankes.

Item becauſe that great complaint hath béene made to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king in this preſent parliament, of that that the ſtatutes made in the time of his noble progenitours kings of Englande, of the leuying and ſtraiting of Weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, and kydels, be not kepte, according to the forme and effect of the ſame ſtatutes, to great dammage of the people of the realme of England: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons will and graunt, that the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinances be ſurely holden and kept, and put in due execution.

Cap. 3.

Conſpiracie.

Forging of falſe deeds.

Item where as manie of the kings liege people, which haue manners, landes and tenements by purchaſe or by diſcent of inheritance, or in anie other manner, entending to be in peace & reſt in their ſaid tenures as they were wont to be, diuerſe euil diſpoſed perſons, ſome of their owne head, and ſome by falſe conſpiracie and couin, ſubtilly imagin & forge of newe diuers falſe deedes and muniments, and them do openly to be pronounced, publiſhed, and red, to trouble and change the lands of good people of the countrie, and to vndoe and trouble the poſſeſſions and titles of the ſaide kings liege people by the which imagination and falſitie manie of the aforeſaide liege people be troubled and vexed, and at all times abyding in doubt of their poſſeſſions and eſtate: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king willing to puruey a remedie in this caſe, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the partie ſo greeued ſhall haue his ſuite in that caſe, and recouer his dammages, and the partie conuict ſhall make fine and raunſome at the kings pleaſure.

Cap. 4.

Bailife of ſhirife.

Shirifes clerke.

Vnderſhirife.

Item for as much as the kings liege people dare not purſue or complaine of the extortions and of the oppreſſions to them done by the miniſters of ſhirifes, that is to ſaye by vnderſhirifes, clerkes of ſhirifes, receiuers, and bailifes of ſhirifes, becauſe that the ſaide vnderſhirifes, clerkes, receiuers, and bailifes, be continually from yeere to yeere dwelling with the ſhirifes enterchangeably out of one office into another: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that they that be bailifes of ſhirifes by one yeere, ſhall be in no ſuch office by iii. yeeres next following, except bailifes of ſhirifes, which be inherite in their office. And that no vnderſhirife, ſhirifes clerke, receiuer, nor ſhirifes bailife be atturney in anie of the kings courts, during the time that he is in office with anie ſuch ſhirife.

Cap. 5.

Originals writtes.

Addition.

Clerkes of the chauncerie.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that in euery originall writ of actions perſonals, appeals, and enditements, in which the exigend ſhall be awarded in the names of the defendants, in ſuch writs originall, appeales, & enditements, addicions ſhalbe made of their eſtate or degree or myſterie, and the townes, hamlets, or places, and the counties where they were or be conuerſant. And if by proces vpon the ſaide originall writs, appeales, or enditements, in the which the ſaide additions be omitted, anie vtlagaries be pronounced, that they be cleerely voide and holden for none. And that afore theſe vtlagaries pronounced, the ſaid writtes and enditements ſhal be abated by the exception of the partie where as in the ſame the ſaide addicions be omitted: Prouided alwayes that though the ſaide writtes of addicions perſonals be not according to the recordes and deedes by the ſurpluſage of the additions aforeſaid, that for this cauſe they be not abated: And that the clerks of the chauncerie, vnder whoſe names ſuch writs ſhall go foorth written, ſhall not leaue out or make omiſſion of the ſaid additions as is aforeſaid, vpon paine to be puniſhed, and to make a fine to the king by the diſcretion of the chauncellor, And the ordinance ſhall begin to holde place at the ſuite of the partie from the feaſt of ſaint Michael next enſuing forward.

Cap. 6.

Wales.

Quarell.

Item where as in the time of this rebellion of Wales manie of the kings lawfull liege people as well Engliſhmen as Walſhmen haue beene in diuers parties of Wales vpon the correction of rebels, there by the commaundement of the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king and his councell, at the which time ſome of the ſaid rebels aſwell on horſebacke as on foote, found armed in making of warre againſt their faith and liegeance were ſlaine, and ſome maymed, beaten, wounded, taken & impriſoned, their goods and catals carried away by the ſaid liege people for the cauſe aforeſaide, as it was well lawfull, according as by our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king and his councell afore this time hath beene ordeined in this behalfe, and that notwithſtanding manie of the ſaide rebels being yet aliue, and other next of bloud to theſe rebels ſo dead with their friendes now dayly make quarels and great purſuite againſt the ſaide faithfull liege people, dwelling or reſeant in theſe parties, and in the ſhires being next to Wales ſurmiſing in them, that they ſuch things as is aforeſaide, to them ſelues or to their coſins or freends falſely haue done, by the which they demaunde of the ſaide faithfull liege people high amendes, threatening that they otherwiſe would be of that auenged, where by the ſaide faithfull liege people be manie times ſore and grieuouſly vexed in manie parties & lordſhips of Wales ſome of them by enditements, accuſements or impechementes, and ſome by menaſſes diſtreſſes taken, and ſome by their bodie taken and impriſoned, vntill that they haue made gree to them in this behalfe, or that they woulde them excuſe of the death of ſuch rebelles ſo ſlaine by one aſſache, after the cuſtome of Wales, that is to ſaie by the othe of three hundred men, and of all ſuch other treſpaſſes afore ſpecified them acquite: To the great dammage and deſtruction of the ſaide faithfull liege people, and euill example in time to come: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that ſuch quarell, action, and demaunde be not made from hencefoorth by art nor by engine, to anie of the faithfull liege people, by anie of them, which haue beene rebels, nor by their adherents, be he coſin, alye, or friend, nor by anie other, vpon paine to paye to the partie greeued his treble dammages, and to be impriſoned by two yeeres after that that he be conuict: And moreouer to make fine and raunſome in this behalfe before that he be deliuered out of priſon.

Item

Cap. 7. Aliens frenchmen. Benefice.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the time of king Richard the ſecond, the xiii. yéere of his raigne, it was ordeined, that none alien frenchman ſhould haue nor enioy anie benefice within this realme for certaine cauſe, which might come or happen, but that they ſhould be deliuered and voyded for euer out of the realme before a certaine time in the ſaid ordinance limit, as in the ſame is plainelie contained. And that at what time that anie priories aliens conuentuell or anie other benefice or office due by the kings title do voide by yͤ departing or death of the ſaid priors and other occupiers, that than there ſhould be during the warres, honeſt Engliſh perſons put in their place to accompliſh the diuine ſeruice, and none of the enemies aforeſaid. And notwithſtanding the ſaid ordinance, the ſaid aliens frenchmen, by euill imagination and brocage to continue the euill miſchiefes of the ſaid ordinance, purchaſe the kings letters patents to be denizens and the kings liege people, and ſweare the ſame to continue, to the entent to occupie and enioy the ſaid benefices, and ſo yet occupie manie benefices againſt the ſaid ordinance, whereby theſe aliens frenchmen be encreaſed, in deſtruction of the kings liege people, and beare away out of the realme great treaſure of the kings and of the realmes: and the kings counſell diſcloſe to the enemies of France, to the great damage of the king and his realme: Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the ſaid miſchiefes, will that the ſaid ordinances be firmelie holden ⁊ kept, and put in due execution, except the priors aliens conuentuall, and alſo all other priors which haue inſtitution and induction, ſo that they be catholique, and that they ſhall finde ſuretie, not to diſcloſe nor cauſe to be diſcloſed the counſell nor the ſecrets of the realme.

Cap. 8. Iriſhmen, and Iriſh clerkes beggers.

Item for the quietnes and peace within the realme of England, and for the encreaſe and enſtoring of the land of Ireland, it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed in this preſent parliament, that all Iriſhmen and Iriſh clerkes beggers, called chamberdekens, be voided out of the realme, betwixt the feaſt of S. Michael next comming, and yͤ feaſt of all Saints next following, vpon paine to loſe their goods, and to be impriſoned at the kings pleaſure, except ſuch as be graduates in the ſcholes, and ſergeauntes and apprentices of the lawe, and ſuch which bee enheritours in England, and religious perſons profeſſed, and except alſo the marchants borne in Ireland of good name, and their apprentices nowe dwelling in England ⁊ them with whome yͤ king will diſpence. And that all the Iriſhmen which haue benefices or offices in the land of Irland, ſhall dwell vpon their offices or benefices for the defence of the land of Ireland, aforeſaid.

Chap. 9. Caleyes.

Item for as much as in the time of the noble king Edward the third, and of king Richard the ſecond, all the reuenues, profites, and commodities of the lands, tenementes fiſhing cuſtomes, and all other profites, to the ſaid kings belonging, in the towne and marches of Caleyes, it was ordeined to be leuied by the treaſurer of Caleys for the time being in ſupportation of the charges of the ſame towne ⁊ marches, ⁊ ſince which time a great part of them haue bene reſtreined by vertue of the ſayde letters patentes to diuerſe captaynes and many other perſons as well by the ſaid king Richard as by our redoubted ſoueraigne lord king Henry the fourth father of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, to them thereof made, whereby ſome by colour of ferme not reaſonable, and other without any thing thereof yéelding, to the great damage of the realme of England, and hinderance of the paimentes for the ſuſtentation of the ſaid towne ⁊ marches to be done. And alſo for aſmuch as diuerſe offices of the collectors of money comming of the ſaid reuenues, cuſtomes, profites, and commodities, which the ſaid treaſurer of Caleys in the time aforeſaid ordeyned and aſſigned to ſufficient perſons, for whom he would anſwere, to tarie and to be remoued according as to him ſhall beſt ſéeme to the kings profite, haue bene afterward againſt the ancient ordinances and the ſtatute in the parliament thereof made, by diuers letters patents to diuers perſons aſwell by the ſaid king Richard as by our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie aforeſaid, to them thereof made for terme of their liues and otherwiſe occupied, and by colour of their ſaid letters patents ſome of them (as it is ſaid) do the more negligentlie their ſeruices, without being iuſtified by the treaſurer aforeſaid, To the great damage and hinderance of the paiments aforeſaid in times paſſed: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing to eſchew ſuch damages in time to come, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, will and hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the letters patents made to captaines and other perſons what ſo euer they be, as well of all maner of rents, lands, tenements, cuſtomes, fiſhings and all other reuenues profits and commodities in the ſaid towne and marches, as of the offices of collectours of all rents, cuſtomes, reuenues, profites, and commodities to them thereof made before this time againſt the ordinances aforeſaid, be whollie reuoked and adnulled and that the ſaid reuenues, profites and commodities, be reſumed into the hands of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and put vpon the ſuſtentation of the paiments and charges to the ſaid towne and marches belonging. Prouided alwaies that my lord Thomas duke of Clarence, brother of our ſoueraigne lord the king, be not reſtrayned by this ordinance and ſtatute of anie of his poſſeſſions in the ſaid marches. And that no captaines of caſtels there be put out of their ſaid caſtels nor kéeping of the ſame by force of this ordinance and ſtatute.

Letters patents.

Cap. 10. Meaſure. Buſhel. Purueiour.

Item where as in the time of the kings noble progenitours it was ordeined, that one meaſure of corne ſhould be through all the realme of England, that is to ſay, viii. buſhels for the quarter, and that euerie buſhel ſhall conteine viii. galons, by force of which ordinances ſuch meaſure hath bene vſed, with a buſhell of yͤ ſaid quarter heaped. And notwithſtanding yͤ ſaid good ordinances and vſages, the purueiours of corne, aſwell for the houſe of the father of our ſoueraigne lord the king, as for the houſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king which now is, haue taken before this time for the ſaid houſes continuallie ix.buſhels of wheate, and of other corne for the quarter, & that manie times be meaſure not ſealed, and alſo not ſtriken againſt the will of the ſellers of the ſame, and without due price ſet vpon the ſame after the law of the land, and alſo cauſe the ſellers to carie the ſaid corne to what place that pleaſeth them, without paying for the cariage, and the marchants and citizens of London do vſe to take of euerie ſeller for the quarter of wheate ix. buſhels by the meaſure, vſed with in the ſaid citie, called the fate, with a buſhel ſet vpon the ſaid fate, & yet make the ſellers to paie a halfepenie for the meaſuring of euerie quarter, and take for a quarter of otes x. buſhels, whereby the buiers of the corne in the countrey will not buie nor take for the quarter of corne but in the ſaine maner, as the ſaid purueiours and they of the ſaid citie vſe to take, to the great hinderance and perpetuall deſtruction of the comonaltie aforeſaid. It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the ſaid good ordinances be firmelie holden and kept after the effect of the ſame. And that no purueiour of our ſoueraigne lord the king, nor none other, ſhall vſe hereafter to buie nor to take anie corne by other meaſure, but viii.buſhels ſtriked for the quarter, and that none be otherwiſe holden to deliuer for the quarter but viii.buſhels ſtriked, as it is aforeſaid, and alſo that the paiment be made in hand for the cariage. And that if anie purueiour of our ſoueraigne lord the king or anie other perſon, buie or take anie corne otherwiſe, or by other meaſure but viii.buſhels ſtriked for the quarter, as in the ſaid ordinances is conteined, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall haue one yéeres impriſonment, and paie to the king an hundred ſhillings, and to the partie that féeleth him ſelfe grieued and other hundred ſhillings, and that as often as anie of them be thereof attainted, and that the partie which will ſue, haue an action grounded vpon the caſe: and that the iuſtices of the peace haue power to enquire and holde plea of all theſe things aforeſaid, and vpon that make puniſhments as aforeſaid, aſwell at the ſuite of the king as of the partie; and that from henceforth nothing be taken for the meaſuring of ſuch corne in anie wiſe.

Iuſtices of peace.

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Leiceſter in the ſecond yeere of king Henrie the fifth.

OUr ſoueraigne lord the king, at his parliament holden at Leiceſter, the laſt daie of April, the ſecond yéere of his raigne by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporal, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons of his realme in the ſame parliament aſſembled, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuers ordinances declarations and ſtatutes made in the forme and maner as followeth.

Chap. 1.
Hoſpitall.

FIrſt for aſmuch as manie hoſpitals within the realme of England, founded aſwell by the noble kings of this ſame realme and lords and ladies both ſpirituall and temporal, as by diuers other eſtates, to the honour of God & of his glorious mother, in aide & merite of yͤ ſoules of yͤ ſaid founders, to the which hoſpitals the ſame founders haue giuen a great part of their mouable goods for the edifications of the ſame, and a great part of their lands and tenements, therewith to ſuſteine impotent men and women, lazars, men out of their wittes and minde, and poore women with childe, and to nouriſh, relieue, and refreſh other poore people in the ſame, be now for the moſt part decayed, and the goods and profites of the ſame by diuers perſons as well ſpirituall as temporall withdrawen and diſpended in an other vſe, whereby manie men and women haue died in great miſerie for defaute of aide, liuing, and ſuccoure, to the diſpleaſure of God, and perill of the ſoules of ſuch maner of ſpenders: The king our ſoueraigne lord, conſidering the meritorious and deuoute entents of the founders aforeſaid, and the inſolent gouernances in the ſame, hath by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that as to the hoſpitals, which be of yͤ patronage and foundation of the king, to ordinaries by vertue of the kings commiſſions to them directed, ſhall enquire of the maner and of the foundation of the ſaid hoſpitalles, and of the gouernance and eſtate of the ſame, and of all other matters neceſſarie and requiſite in this behalfe, and the inquiſitions thereof taken, ſhall certifie in the kings chancerie. And as to other hoſpitalles, which be of an other foundation and patronage then of the king, the ordinaries ſhall enquire of the maner of the foundation, eſtate and gouernance of the ſame, and of all other matters and things neceſſarie in this behalfe: and vpon that make thereof correction and reformation after the lawes of holie church, as to them belongeth.

Ordinaries.

Cap. 2.
Condemnation.

Item for as much as manie men haue bene condempned in the courts of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and in the courtes of his progenitours, aſwell within the citie of London as in other cities and boroughes within the realme of England, & by the vertue of ſuch condempnations haue bene committed to the priſon of our ſoueraigne lord the king, there to remaine vntill they haue made grée to the plaintifes, againſt whom they were condempned: after by their ſuggeſtion made in the chancerie of our ſoueraigne lord the king, they haue had diuers writs called Cerciorari and Corpus cum cauſa, out of the chancerie of our ſoueraigne lord the king, directed to the ſhirifes or to the wardens or kéepers of the priſons, where ſuch men condempned be holden, to haue their bodies with the cauſe of the impriſonment of the men condempned aforeſaid in the chancerie, at the daies conteined in the ſaid writs. After which writs, together with the bodie & the cauſe of the condempnation returned in the chancerie aforeſaid, the ſaid men ſo condempned haue bene deliuered in the chancerie aforeſaid by baile or by mainpriſe, or larged without baile or mainpriſe, againſt the aſſent and will of the ſaid plaintifes, and without anie grée made to the ſaid plaintifes of the ſummes, in the which they be condemned, againſt the lawe of the lande, and ſo remaine the ſaide plaintifes without remedie, in hinderance of the ſtate of ſuch plaintifes, and in defeating of the iudgements giuen or rendred in the courts aforeſaide: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing herein to prouide a remedie, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the aforeſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie ſuch writte of Cerciorari or Corpus cum cauſa, be graunted or ſhall be graunted at anie time hereafter, & vpon the ſaid writ, that the priſoner, which is ſo holden in priſon, be condemned by iudgement giuen againſt him, that incontinent he ſhall be remaunded where he ſhall remaine continually in priſon, after the law and cuſtome of the land, without being let to go by baile or by mainpriſe againſt the will of the ſaide plaintifes, vntil gree be made to them of the ſummes ſo adiudged.

Cerciorari. Corpus cum cauſa.

Cap. 3.

Item for as much as diuers of the kings liege people be daily cyted to appeare in the ſpirituall court before ſpirituall iudges, there to anſwere to diuers perſons, as well of things which touch freehold, det, treſpas, couenants and other things, whereof the conuſance perteineth to the court of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, as of matrimonie & teſtament, & when ſuch perſons ſo cyted appeare, & demaund a libell of that that againſt them is ſurmiſed to be informed, to giue their anſwer there, or otherwiſe purchaſe a writte of our ſoueraigne lord the king, of prohibition, according to their caſe, which libell to them is denied by the ſaide ſpirituall Iudges, to the entent that ſuch perſons ſhould not be ayded by anie ſuch writte, againſt the lawe, and to the great dammage of ſuch perſons ſo impleaded: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the prayer and inſtance of the ſaide commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that at what time the libell is grauntable by the lawe, that it be graunted and deliuered to the partie without anie difficultie.

Libel.

Cap. 4. Laborers.

Item for aſmuch as the ſeruants and laborers of the ſhires of the realme of England do flee from countie to countie, becauſe they will not be iuſtified by the ordinances and ſtatutes by the law vpon them made, to the great dammage of the gentils, and of other, to whome they ſhoulde ſerue, becauſe that the ſaide ordinances and ſtatutes vpon them made be not executed in euerie ſhire: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing in this caſe to prouide a remedie, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute of labourers, made at Canterburie, and all other good ſtatutes of laborers, made and not repealed, be firmely holden and kept, and put in due execution. And moreouer that the Iuſtices of peace haue power to ſende their writtes for ſuch fugitiue laborers to euery ſhirife of the realme of England, and to make ſuch proces as the ſtatute requireth, to bring them before them, to anſwere to our ſoueraigne lorde the king and to the parties, of the contemptes and treſpaſſes made or done againſt the ordinances and ſtatutes aforeſaide, in like manner as the Iuſtices haue power to ſende to euery ſhirife for the theeues before them indited. And alſo that all the ſtatutes and ordinances of laborers ſeruants and artificers before this time made and not repealed, be exemplified vnder the great ſeale, and ſent to euerie ſhirife of the realme of England, thereof to make proclamation in full countie, and after this proclamation ſo made, that euery ſhirife ſhal cauſe the ſaide exemplification to him directed, to be deliuered to the Iuſtices of the peace in his countie named in the Quorum, or to one of them, to remaine with ſuch Iuſtices, which be or ſhall be for the better putting of the foreſaide ſtatutes and ordinances in due execution. And in ſhires where diuers commiſſions of the peace be made, there ſhall be ſo manie exemplifications of the ſtatutes & ordinances aforeſaid made, as be commiſſions of the peace in the ſame ſhires, & ſent to the ſhirifes to make proclamation, and to deliuer the ſame as is aforeſaide: And that the Iuſtices of the peace in euery ſhire named of the Quorum, be reſeant within the ſame ſhire, except lords named in the commiſſion of the peace: & alſo except the Iuſtices of the one bench & of the other, the chiefe baron of the eſchequer, ſergeants at the law, & the kings atturney, for the time that the ſame Iuſtices, chiefe baron, ſergeants at the law, & the kings atturney, be attending & occupied in yͤ kings courts, or otherwiſe in ſome other place occupied in the kings ſeruice, make their ſeſſions foure times by the yeere, that is to ſaie in the firſt weeke after the feaſt of Saint Michael, and the firſt weeke after the Epiphanie, and in the firſt weeke after the clauſe of Eſter, and more often if need be. And that the ſame Iuſtices holde their ſeſſions throughout the realme of England in the ſame weeke euery yeere from henceforth: And alſo that the Iuſtices of peace from henceforth haue power to examine aſwell all manner of laborers ſeruants & their maiſters, as artificers by their othes, of all things by them done contrary to the ſaide ordinances and ſtatutes, and vpon that to puniſh them vpon their confeſſion, after the effect of the ſtatutes and ordinances aforeſaide, as though they were conuict by enqueſt: And that the ſhirife in euery ſhire of the realme of England ſhall do well and duely his office in this behalfe, vpon paine to loſe & to forfait to our ſoueraigne lorde the king xx. li.

Iuſtices of peace.

Seale. Shirife.

Commiſſion of peace.

Seſſions.

Cap. 5.

Item for as much as by the commons of yͤ countie of Northumberland, greuous complaints haue beene made to our ſoueraigne lord the king in this preſent parliament, of that that manie murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, and diuers other offences, to many of the faithfull liege people of the ſame countie, by people dwelling in the ſame countie within the franchiſe of Tyndale and Examſhire, where the kings writtes renneth not, now of late haue beene perpetrated, otherwiſe than haue beene done or knowen before this time, To ſo many perils of the ſaide liege people of our ſoueraigne lord yͤ king, that without due remedy in this behalfe prouided they dare no longer there dwell, becauſe that ſuch offenders be ſo fauoured by ſuch franchiſes: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie perſon of the ſaide franchiſes of Tyndale and Examſhire, reſiant or dwelling in the ſame, of what eſtate or condition that he be, do anie murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, or robberies, or conſent to do them out of the ſaid franchiſes of Tyndale and Examſhire, proceſſe ſhall be made againſt him by the common law, vntil he be outlawed: And that after ſuch outlagarie pronounced and returned, the Juſtics, before whome ſuch outlagarie is returned, ſhall make thereof certification to ſuch miniſter or miniſters of the ſaide franchiſes, as to them beſt ſhall ſéeme in this behalfe according to their diſcretion. And ſuch felon ſhall be taken by ſuch miniſter or miniſters, and his lands and tenementes, goods and cattals being within the ſame franchiſe ſeaſed into the handes of the lordes of the ſame franchiſes of Tyndale and Examſhire for the time being, as forfait. And that the other landes and tenementes, goods and cattals of ſuch felons, being out of the ſame franchiſes, ſhall wholly remaine to the king and to other lordes, hauing thereof franchiſe, as forfeite. Sauing alwayes to the king the forfeitures of ſuch murderers, traitors, manſlayers, robbers, and other offenders, and of other things which to him do belong as of the right of his crowne.

Franchiſe. Tyndale. Examſhire

Cap. 6.
Trewes.
Saufeconduit.
Treaſon.
Conſeruator.
Admirall.

Item for as much as before this time diuers people, compriſed within trewes made aſwell by our ſoueraigne lorde the king, which now is, as by his noble father, and alſo diuers other people hauing ſaufconduites aſwell of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, as of his noble father, haue béene ſome ſlaine robbed, and ſpoyled, by the kings liege people and ſubiectes, aſwell vpon the maine ſea as within the portes and coaſtes of the ſea of England, Ireland, & of Wales, whereby the ſaide trewes and ſaufeconduites haue béene broken and offended, to the great diſhonor and ſlander of the king, and againſt his dignitie: And the ſaide manſleers, robbers, ſpoylers, and offenders of the ſaid trewes and the kings ſaufeconduites, as is afore declared, haue béene by diuers of the kings liege people and ſubiects within the coaſtes of diuers counties receiued, abetted, procured, concealed, hyered, ſuſteined, and mainteined: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the prayer of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and declared, that ſuch manſlaughter, robberie, ſpoiling, breaking of trewes and ſaufeconduits, and voluntarie receite, abettement, procurement, conceling, hyering, ſuſteining, & mainteining of ſuch perſons, to be done in time to come by anie of the kings liege people and ſubiects within the realme of England, Ireland, and Wales, or vpon the maine ſea, ſhall be adiudged & determined for high treaſon done againſt the kings crowne and his dignitie: And in euery port of the ſea be made & aſſigned from henceforth by the king, by his letters patents, one lawful man called a conſeruatour of the trewes and the kings ſaufeconduites, which ſhall haue xl.li. of land by yéere at the leaſt: And that the ſaid conſeruator haue power and authoritie by the ſaid letters patents, & alſo by commiſſion of the admirall of England to enquire of all ſuch treaſons and offences to be done againſt the trewes and the kings ſaufeconduits vpon the maine ſea, out of the bodie of the counties, & out of the franchiſes of the v.ports of the king, as the admirals of the kings of England before this time reaſonably after the olde cuſtome and lawe vpon the maine ſea vſed, haue done or vſed. And alſo that the ſaide conſeruator haue like and the ſame power, to puniſh all them, which be or ſhall be endited or accuſed before him as wel at the kings ſuite as at the parties, of anie thing to be done againſt the trewes and the kings ſaufeconduits vpon the maine ſea, out of the bodie of the countie and liberties of the realme of England, and out of the ſaide franchiſe of the v. portes, by ſuch proceſſe, examination, proues, determination, iudgement, and execution, as admirals of the kings of England before this time reaſonablie according to the olde cuſtome and lawe vpon the maine ſea vſed, haue done or vſed. Except that the determination of the death of man in this behalfe, and the execution of the ſame, ſhall be allwayes reſerued to the ſaide admirall, or to his generall lieutenant, out of the ſaide franchiſes of the v. portes. And that the ſaide conſeruatour haue full power and authoritie to enquire, as well within the liberties and fraunchiſes as without, by men inhabiting within the bodie of the countie and libertie where the ſaide port is, of all ſuch treaſons and offences to be done againſt the trewes and the kinges ſaufeconduites, within the bodie of the countie and libertie where the ſaide porte is, and to make againſt thoſe perſons before him ſo endited, ſuch proces as héere followeth, that is to ſaye, by Capias and exigend, which ſhall as well go into the counties, of which ſuch men ſo endited bee ſuppoſed to be, as into the counties where ſuch enditementes be taken, which Capias and Exigend aforeſaide, in both counties, ſhall be returned at one daye, and that the firſt Capias in bothe counties haue daye of returne by a moneth at the leaſt. And in caſe that the Capias and Exigend be awarded in this behalfe, that the names and ſurnames of ſuch perſons ſo endited, and the towne and the countie and myſterie whereof they be, ſhal be ſpecified and declared in the enditements and proceſſes of the ſame: And that the ſaid conſeruator haue full power to heare at euery mans ſuite, which will complaine before him ſelfe or his lieutenant, of anie offence done to the partie againſt the ſaide trewes and ſaufeconduites. And that two men learned in the law be named and aſſociat in euery commiſſion of our ſoueraigne lord the king, to be made to ſuch conſeruator, and that yͤ ſaide conſeruator, & the ſaid men learned in the law, in the commiſſion to him aſſociat & aſſigned, haue ful power & authoritie to make deliuerance, according to the law & vſage of the land, of ſuch men ſo endited before the ſaid conſeruator of things ſo to be done within yͤ bodie of the countie or libertie where the

ſaide

ſaid port is, againſt ẏ ſaid trewes & the kings ſafeconduits, & to determine ſuch ſuits commenced at anie mans ſuite, which wil complaine before the ſaid conſeruatour, of any offence to him done againſt the ſaid trewes and ſafeconduites, & thereof to make due redreſſe & remedie. And that the ſaid two men to the ſaid conſeruatour ſo aſſociat, be aſſiſting and attending to the ſaid conſeruatour to make the deliuerances and determinations in the maner and forme aforeſaid, when they be by the ſaid conſeruatour reaſonablie required. And that the ſaid conſeruatour, and the ſaid two men of lawe, be ſworne, that they nor none of them ſhall take fee, gift, hire, wages, reward, or brocage, of anie other then of the king in any wiſe in this behalfe, in diſturbance of due execution and puniſhment of ſuch traitours and offenders aforeſaid. And that the ſaid conſeruatour ſhall be reſiant in the port and places where he ſhall be conſeruatour aſſigned as is aforeſaid. And euerie conſeruatour ſhall take yeerelie for the ſaid office xl.li. of ẏ king at the leaſt, & that they be ſworne, that if anie perſon, of what eſtate or condition ſo euer he be, procure, excite, or abet, to do anie thing contrarie to this ordinance and othe aforeſaid, that euerie of them ſhall make due relation to our ſoueraigne lord the king, or to the chancellour of England for the time being, as ſpeedely as he wel may, without concelement in anie point, vpon peine of impriſonment, and to make finee & raunſome at the kings pleaſure. And that the ſaid conſeruatour haue a ſeale of our ſoueraigne lord the king ordeined for the ſaid office. And that the maſter of the ſhip, barge, or balingar, or other veſſels in the ſaid port be ſworne, and the owner alſo (if he be preſent) before the ſaid conſeruatour, before that he paſſe out of the ſaid port, that he ſhal not attempt to do anie thing againſt the ſaid trewes, & the kings ſafe conduites. And alſo that the ſaid conſeruatour ſhal do to be enrolled of record before him, aſwell the names of ſuch owners and maſters, as the names of their ſhip, barge, balingar, or other veſſell, together with the number of the mariners in the ſame being. And if they take anie thing of the kings enemies, or of anie other, they ſhall do to be brought ſuch things taken into the port, & thereof make full enformation to the ſaid conſeruatour, before that they thereof make diſcharge or ſale. Except that by force of winde tempeſt, or of enemies, or ſome other reaſonable cauſe ſuch ſhip, barge, balingar or other veſſell ought to enter into another port for the ſaluation of the ſame veſſell, or other cauſe reaſonable. And that then they ſhall make full enformation to the ſaid conſeruatour, or to the conſeruatour of the port, in which the ſaid veſſels arriue or enter of the ſaid taking, and of the quantitie of the ſame taking, a letter teſtimoniall vnder the ſaid ſeale of the aforeſaid conſeruatour, by the which the conſeruatour of the ſaid port, whereof the veſſel or veſſels ſhall go out, maie haue notice of the quantitie and alſo of the value of the goods and cattals ſo taken. And if anie owner or maſter of anie ſhip or other veſſell, go out of anie port of the realme of England, or diſcharge his ſhip or veſſell againſt the forme of this ordinance, that ſuch ſhip or veſſel, together with the thing taken in the ſame duelie made, be forfaite to the king, and the bodie of the owner or maſter of ſuch ſhip or veſſel committed to priſon, there to remaine vntil he hath made fine and raunſome to the king. Prouided alwayes that no owners of ſhips, going out of anie port ſhall make no fine nor raunſome nor haue impriſonment of bodie, if the ſame owners be not in the ſame ſhip at the time of the offence done againſt this ordinance. And the ſaid admirall ſhall haue the forfaitures in all caſes out of the ſaid franchiſe of the fiue portes aforeſaid, as he hath had and hath bene accuſtomed of right to the office of the admirall of England, before the making of this ordinance. And that all ſuch conſeruatours to be made within the ſaid fiue portes, haue the ſame authoritie and power by the kings letters patents and commiſſion of the warden of ẏ ſame portes for the time being, to enquire of ſuch offences to be done vpon the maine ſea within the franchiſes of the fiue portes out of the bodie of the counties, and to puniſh all them ſo endited or accuſed, which ſhalbe before the ſaid conſeruatour of the ſame offences by like proceſſe, examination, proues, determination, iudgement, and execution, as the ſaid admiralles reaſonablie according to the olde cuſtome and lawe vpon the ſea vſed, haue done and vſed out of the ſaid franchiſe of the fiue portes, except that the determination of the death of a man in this behalfe, and the execution of the ſame, be within the ſame franchiſe of the fiue portes reſerued to the ſaid warden, or to his generall lieutenant there. And that the ſame warden haue all the forfaitures there in all ſuch caſes as he hath had and haue bene accuſtomed of right to the office of the warden of the fiue portes aforeſaid before this time. And that the ſaid conſeruatours and euerie of them, haue power to make full execution of this ordinance in the forme aforeſaid. And this ordinance ſhall holde place and force, to do or attempt anie thing againſt this ſame ordinance, after the proclamation of this ordinance and declaration made.

Seale.
Maſters of ſhippes.
Letter teſtimoniall.
Fiue portes.
Warden of the fiue portes.

Cap. 7.
Hereſie.
Lollardrie.

Item for as much as great rumours, congregations and inſurrections, here in the realme of England by diuers of the kings liege people, aſwell by them which were of the ſect of hereſie commonlie called lollardrie, as by other of their confederacie, excitation, and abettement, now of late were made, to the intent to adnull, deſtroy, and ſubuert the chriſtian faith, and the law of God & holie church within this ſame realme of England, & alſo to deſtroy the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king & al other maner of eſtates of the ſame realme of England, as wel ſpiritual as temporal, and alſo all maner of policie, and finallie the lawes of the land: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, to the honour of God, and in conſeruation and fortification of the chriſtian faith, and alſo in ſaluation of his royall eſtate, and of the eſtate of all his realme, willing againſt the malice of ſuch heretikes and lollardes to prouide a more open remedie and puniſhment than hath bene had and vſed in the caſe heretofore, ſo that for feare of the ſame lawes and puniſhment, ſuch hereſies and lollardries may the rather ceaſe in time to come, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the praier of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed: that firſt the chancellour, treaſurer, iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, iuſtices of peace, ſhirifes, maiors, and bailiefes of cities and townes, and all other officers, hauing gouernance of people, which now be or hereafter for the time ſhall be, ſhall make an othe in taking of their charges and occupations, to put their whole power and diligence, to put out and do to be put out, ceaſe, and deſtroy all maner of hereſies and errors, commonly called lollardries, within the places where they exerciſe their offices and occupations from time to time with all their power, and that they aſſiſt the ordinaries & their commiſſaries, and them fauour and maintaine as often as they or anie of them to that ſhalbe required by the ſame ordinaries or their commiſſaries ſo that when ẏ ſaid officers & miniſters trauaile or ride to arreſt anie lollard, or to make aſſiſtance at the inſtance and requeſt of the ordinaries or their commiſſaries by vertue of this ſtatute, that the ſame ordinaries and commiſſaries ſhall paie for their coſtes reaſonably.

Othe.

And that the kings ſeruices, to the which the ſame officers be firſt ſworne, be preferred before all other ſtatutes for the libertie of holie church and the miniſters of the ſame, and in eſpeciall for the correction and puniſhment of the heritikes and lollards before this time made and not repelled being in their force. And alſo that all perſons conuict of hereſie, of what eſtate, condition, or degrée that they be, by the ſaid ordinaries or other commiſſaries left to the ſeculer power according to the lawes of holie church, ſhall loſe and forfeite all their lands and tenements, which they haue in fee ſimple in ẏ maner as followeth, that is to ſay that the king haue all the lands and tenements, which the ſaid conuicts haue in fée ſimple, and holden of him immediatly as forfait, and that the other lords, of whom the lands & tenements of ſuch conuicts be holden immediatlie after that the king is ſo ſeaſed & anſwered of the yéere the date and the waſt, haue liuerie out of the kings hands of the lands & tenements aforeſaid of them ſo holden, as it hath bene vſed in the caſe of Attainder of felonie, except the lands and tenements which be holden of the ordinaries or their commiſſaries, before whom anie ſuch perſons impeched of hereſie be conuict, which lands and tenements entirely ſhall remaine to the king as forfait. And moreouer that all the goods and cattals of theſe perſons ſo conuicted, be forfait to our ſoueraigne lord the king. ſo that no perſon conuict of hereſie, and left to the ſeculer power after the lawes of holy church, ſhal forfait his lands before that he be dead. And if anie ſuch perſon ſo conuict, be enfeffed be it by fine, by déed, or without deede, in lands or tenements rents or ſeruices in fée or otherwiſe, or hath anie other poſſeſſions or cattals by gift or grant of anie perſon or perſons to an others vſe, then to the vſe of ſuch conuicts, that the ſame lands nor tenements, rents nor ſeruices, nor ſuch other poſſeſſions, nor cattals ſhalbe forfait to our ſoueraigne lord the king in no wiſe.

Iuſtices of peace.

And moreouer that ẏ iuſtices of the kings bench, and iuſtices of peace, & iuſtices of aſſiſe, haue full power to enquire of all them which hold any errors or hereſies, as lollards, and which be their mainteners, receituours fauorers and ſuſteiners, common writers of ſuch bookes, aſwell of the ſermons as of their ſcoles conuenticles, congregations, and confederacies. And that this clauſe be put in commiſſions of the iuſtices of ẏ peace.

Shirife.

And if any perſons be endited of anie points aforeſaid, ẏ ſaid iuſtices ſhall haue power to award againſt them a Capias, & the ſhirife ſhalbe bound to arreſt the perſon or perſons ſo endited as ſoone as he maie them finde by him or by his officers.

Coniſance of Hereſie.

And for aſmuch as the coniſance of hereſie, errors, and lollardries belongeth to the iudges of holie church and not to ẏ ſeculer iudges, ſuch perſons endited ſhalbe deliuered to the ordinaries of the places or to their commiſſaries, by indentures betwixt them to be made, within x. daies after their arreſt, or ſooner if it may be therof to be acquite or conuict by the lawes of holie church, in caſe that theſe perſons be not endited of an other thing, whereof the coniſance belongeth to ẏ ſeculer iudges and officers, in which caſe, after that that they be acquite or deliuered before the ſeculer iudges of ſuch things to the ſeculer iudges belonging, they ſhalbe ſent in ſafegard to the ſaid ordinaries or to their commiſſaries, and to them deliuered by indentures, as before to be acquite or conuict of ſuch lollardries, errors, or hereſies as is aforeſaid, after the lawes of holie church, and that within the terme aforeſaid. Prouided alwaies that ẏ ſaid enditements be not taken in euidence, but for enformation before the ſpirituall iudges againſt ſuch perſons ſo endited, but that the ordinaries commence their proces againſt ſuch perſons endited in the ſame maner as though no enditement were, hauing no regard to ſuch enditements.

Mainpriſe.

And if anie be endited of hereſie, error, or lollardrie, and taken by the ſhirife or other officer, he ſhall be let to mainpriſe within the ſaid x. daies by good ſuretie, for whom the ſaid ſhirifes or other officers will anſwere, ſo that the ſaid perſon or perſons, which were ſo endited, be readie to be deliuered to the ſaid ordinaries or to their commiſſaries before the end of the ſaid ten daies, if he maie by anie meanes for ſicknes. And euerie ordinarie ſhall haue ſufficient commiſſaries or commiſſarie dwelling in euerie countie in a place notable, ſo that if anie ſuch perſon ſo endited be taken, that the ſaid commiſſaries or commiſſarie maie be warned in the notable place where hee dwelleth, by the ſhirife or ſome of his officers, to come to the kings iayle in the ſame countie, there to receiue the ſame perſon ſo endited by indentures as before. And that in the enqueſt in this caſe to be taken, the ſhirifes and other officers, to whom it belongeth ſhall do to bee empanelled good and ſufficient perſons, not ſuſpected nor procured, that is to ſay, that euerie of them which ſhall be ſo empanelled in ſuch enqueſt, haue within ẏ realme of England an hundred ſhillings of lands, tenements, or of rent by yéere vpon paine to loſe to ẏ kings vſe ten pound and they which ſhalbe empanelled in ſuch enqueſtes in Wales, euerie of them ſhall haue to the value of xl. s. by yere. And if anie ſuch perſon be arreſted, be it by the ordinarie or by the kings officers or miniſters, and eſcape or breake the priſon before that he be acquit before the ordinarie, the goods, and catals, which he had the day of ſuch arreſt, ſhall be forfeite to the king and his landes and tenements, which he had the ſame day, ſeaſed alſo into the kinges hands the king ſhall haue the profites thereof from the ſaide day vntill he be yeelden to the priſon from which he eſcaped. And that the foreſaid iuſtices haue full power to enquire of all ſuch eſcapes, breaking of priſon, and alſo of landes and tenements goodes and catals of ſuch perſons ſo endited. Prouided alſo, that if anie ſuch perſon endited doo not returne to the ſaide priſon, and dieth not conuict, it ſhall be lawfull to his heires to enter into the lands and tenements of their aunceſter, without anie other purſute making to the king for this cauſe, and the all they which haue liberties and franchiſes roiall in England, as in the countie of Cheſter the countie and libertie of Durham, and other like, and alſo all the lords which haue iuriſdiction and franchiſes roiall in Wales, where the kings writtes doo not ren, haue power to execute and put in due execution theſe articles in all pointes by them or by their officers, in like maner as the iuſtices and other the kings officers before declared ſhould doo.

Chap. 8.

Riote. route. &c.

Iuſtices of peace.

Shiriffe.

Commiſſion.

Coroners.

Some bookes haue xx. li.

Item where as it is contained in the ſtatute, made the xiii. yeare of the noble king Henrie, father to our ſoueraigne lorde the king that now is amongſt other thinges, that if anie riote aſſemble or route of people againſt the lawe be made in anie parte of the realme, then the iuſtices of ẏ peace, three or two of them at the leaſt & the ſhiriffe or vndershiriffe of the countie, where ſuch riote, aſſemblie, or route ſhould be made hereafter, ſhould come with the power of the ſaid countie, if neede were, to arreſt them, and them ſhould arreſt, and the ſame iuſtices, ſhiriffe, or vndershiriffe, ſhould haue power to recorde that that they found ſo doone in their preſence againſt the lawe, and that by recorde of the ſame iuſtices ſhiriffe or vndershiriffe ſuch treſpaſſours or offenders ſhould be conuict in maner & forme as is contained in the ſtatute of forcible entres. And if it happen, that ſuch treſpaſſours or offenders were departed before the comming of the iuſtices, ſhiriffe, or vndershiriffe, that the ſame iuſtices three or two of them ſhall diligentlie enquire within a moneth after ſuch riote, aſſemblie, or rout of people ſo made, and the ſame heare and determine according to the lawe of the lande. And if the trueth might not be found in maner as afore is ſaide, then within a moneth then next enſuing, the ſaide iuſtices three or two of them, and the ſhiriffe or vndershiriffe ſhall certifie before the king and his counſell all the deede and circumſtance of the ſame, which certificat ſhall be of like force as the preſentment of twelue men, vpon which certificat the ſaide treſpaſſours and offenders ſhall be put to aunſwere, and they which be found giltie ſhould be puniſhed according to the diſcretion of the king and his counſell. And moreouer that the iuſtices of peace, dwelling neereſt in euerie countie where ſuch route, aſſemblie, and riote of people ſhoulde be made hereafter, together with the ſhiriffe or vndershiriffe of the ſame counties, and alſo the iuſtices of aſſiſes for the time that they ſhall be in their ſeſſions, in caſe that anie ſuch riote be made in their preſence, ſhall make execution of this ſtatute euerie one of them vpon paine of an hundred poundes to be paied to the king as often as they ſhall be found in default of execution of the ſame ſtatute. And for aſmuch as manie riotes, routes, and aſſemblies, haue bene made in diuers partes of the realme, ſince the making & proclamation of the ſame ſtatute, becauſe that the ſame ſtatute hath not been put in due execution, as our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath perceiued by diuers and greeuous complaints to him made in this preſent parliament. The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing hereof to prouide a better remedie, by the aduiſe & aſſent aforeſaid, and at the praier of the ſaid commens, hath ordained & ſtabliſhed, that if default be found in the ſaid ii. iuſtices of the peace or iuſtices of aſſiſes, and the ſhiriffe or vndershiriffe of the countie, where ſuch riot, aſſemblie, or route ſhould be made, touching ẏ execution that they ought to make by vertue of the ſaid ſtatute, and whereof the ſaide ſtatute maketh mention, that then at ẏ inſtans of the partie greeued, the kings commiſſion ſhall go out vnder his great ſeale, to enquire aſwell of the trueth of the caſe, and of the originall matter for the partie complainaunt, as of the defaute or defautes of the ſaide iuſtices, ſhiriffe, or vndershiriffe, in this behalfe ſuppoſed, to be directed to ſufficient and indifferent perſons at the nomination and by the aduiſe of the chaunceller of the realme of England. And that the ſaide commiſſioners incontinent ſhall ſend into the chauncerie the enqueſtes and matters before them in this behalfe taken and founde. And moreouer that the coroners of the ſame countie for the time being, in which countie ſuch riote aſſemblie or route ſhall be made, ſhall make the panell vpon the ſaide commiſſion returnable for the time that the ſhiriffe ſo ſuppoſed in defaute ſtand in his office, which coroners ſhall returne no perſons but onelie ſuch which haue landes, tenements, or rentes, to the value of x. li. by yeere at the leaſt. And alſo that the ſame coroners ſhall returne vpon euerie of the ſaid perſons empanelled at the firſt day, when iſſues be to be loſt xx. s. at the leaſt, and at the ſecond day xl. s. at the leaſt, and at the third day C. s. at the leaſt, and at euerie day after the double at the leaſt, which iſſues ſo returned becauſe of non apparance of ſuch perſons empanelled, ſhall be adiudged as forfeite to the king, and leuiable to his vſe. And if defaut be found in the ſaide coroners touching the returne of ſuch perſons to be empanelled, or touching the returne of ſuch iſſues as afore is ſaid, that euerie of them ſhall pay to the kings vſe fortie poundes. And if it happen that the ſaide ſhiriffe ſo reputed in defaute, be diſcharged of his office at the time that ſuch commiſſion ſhall go out of the chauncerie, that then the new ſhiriffe of the ſame countie, his ſucceſſour mediate or immediate for the time being, and not the coroners of the ſame countie, ſhall make the panell vpon this commiſſion, returnable in maner & forme as the ſaide coroners ſhould doo in time when the ſhiriffe ſo reputed in defaute ſtoode in his office. And that the ſame new ſhiriffe ſhall incurre like paine of fortie poundes againſt the king, if anie defaute in him be founde touching the returne of the other perſons by him empanelled, which haue not landes, tenements, or rentes, to the value of ten poundes by yeere, or of returning ſuch iſſues as the ſaide coroners be aboue charged to returne, as the ſaid coroners be, to loſe againſt the king in this behalfe. And that the chaunceller of England for the time being, as ſoone as he may haue knowlege of ſuch riote, aſſemblee, or route, he ſhall doo to be ſent the kings writ to the iuſtices of the peace, and to the ſhiriffe or vnderſhiriffe of the countie, where they be ſo made, that they ſhall put the ſtatute thereof made in execution, vpon the paine contained in the ſame. And though that ſuch writte come not to the ſaide iuſtices, ſhiriffe, or vnderſhiriffe, they ſhall not be excuſed of the paine aforeſaid, if they make not execution of the ſaid ſtatute. Prouided alwaies that the iuſtices and other officers aforeſaide, ſhall doo their offices aforeſaide at the kings coſts in going, tarieng, and returning, in dooing their ſaide offices, by paiment thereof to be made by the ſhiriffe of the ſame countie for the time being by indentures betwixt the ſhiriffe and the ſaide iuſtices and other officers aforeſaide to be made of the paiment aforeſaide: whereof the ſaide ſhiriffe vpon his account in the eſchequer, may haue due allowance. And that ſuch riotours attainted of great and heinous riots, ſhall haue one whole yeeres impriſonment at the leaſt, without being let out of priſon by baile, mainepriſe, or in anie other maner during the yeere aforeſaide. And that the riotours attainted of petie riotes, ſhall haue impriſonment as beſt ſhall ſeeme to the king and to his counſell. And that the fines of ſuch riotours attainted, ſhall be by the ſaide iuſtices encreaſed and put in greater ſummes than they were woont to be put in ſuch caſes before this time, in aide and ſupportation of the coſtes of the iuſtices and other officers aforeſaid in this behalfe. And that the kings liege people, being ſufficient to trauaile in the countie where ſuch routes, aſſemblees, or riotes be, ſhall be aſſiſtent to the iuſtices, commiſſioners, ſhiriffe, or vnderſhiriffe of the ſame countie when they ſhall be reaſonablie warned to ride with the ſaide iuſtices, commiſſioners, and ſhiriffe, or vnderſhiriffe, in aide to reſiſt ſuch riotes, routes, and aſſemblees, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to make fine and raunſome to the king. And that the bailiffes of franchiſes ſhall doo to be empaneled ſufficient people, as before, vpon paine to loſe to the king fortie poundes, in caſe that ſuch ſufficient perſons may be found within the ſame franchiſes. And that like ordinances and paines ſhall holde place and take effect in cities, boroughes, and other places, and townes infranchiſed, which haue iuſtices of the peace within the cities, boroughes, townes, and other places aforeſaide. And that this ſtatute ſhall begin to holde place incontinent after the proclamation thereof made.

Bailiffes of franchiſes.

Chap. 9.

Item for aſmuch as great and greeuous complaintes haue bene made to our ſouereigne lord the king, by the commons in this preſent parliament, of diuers murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblees of people in great number, in maner of inſurrection, and of diuers other rebellions and riotes, and after ſuch offences the ſaide felons and offenders flee, and withdrawe them to diuers woods and ſecrete places and vnknowen and elſewhere, to the intent and purpoſe to auoide the execution of the common lawe, and that they ſhoulde not be brought to aunſwere, whereupon our ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the aforeſaid complaint, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall in the ſame parliament aſſembled, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, that if anie perſon in time to come, come into the chancerie, and make complaint duelie, that anie ſuch felon or offender as afore is ſaide, flee or withdrawe them to anie ſuch place or elſewhere, to the intent aforeſaid, vpon ſuch a complaint a bill ſhall be ſufficientlie made for the king, and the chaunceller of England for the time being after ſuch a bill to him deliuered, if he may be duelie enformed, that ſuch a bill containe trouth, ſhall haue power to make according to his diſcretion, a writ of capias at the kings ſuite, directed to the ſhiriffe of the countie or counties where the ſaide murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, and other offences be ſuppoſed by the ſaide bill to be doone and perpetrate, returnable in the ſaide chauncerie at a certaine day. And if the perſons in the ſaide writ contained, be taken by the ſaid ſhiriffe, or yeeld them in the ſame chauncerie, that than ſuch perſons ſhall be put in warde or keeping, or to mainepriſe, after the diſcretion of the chaunceller. And moreouer be it commaunded to enquire of ſuch offences, and vpon that ſhall be doone as the law requireth. And if the ſhiriffe returne at the day of the capias returnable, that the perſons in the ſame compriſed for anie of theſe cauſes aforeſaid, may not be by him taken. and the ſame perſons doo not yeelde them in the ſaid chauncerie, that then the ſaide chaunceller ſhall doo to be made a writ of proclamation, directed to the ſaide ſhiriffe, returnable in the kings bench at a certaine day, that he ſhall make proclamation in two counties, that the perſons named in the ſaide writ, ſhall come at the ſaide day in the bench aforeſaid, there to aunſwere to the matter compriſed within the ſaide bill, vpon paine to be conuict of the matter compriſed in the ſaid bill. And that in euerie ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall be contained the ſubſtance of the matter compriſed within the ſaide bill, and if they come not at the day of ſuch proclamation returned, then ſhall they be holden and adiudged for conuict and attainted as afore is ſaide. And if they come at the proclamation, be it of them enquired and doone in maner as aboue is ſaide. Prouided alwaies, that if the ſuggeſtions

Bill.
Chaunceller.
Capias.

Writ of proclamation.
Shiriffe.

ons of ſuch riotes be witneſſed to the chaunceller of England by letters ſealed vnder the ſeales of two iuſtices of peace at the leaſt, and the ſhiriffe of the countie, where ſuch riots ſhall be made, before that yͤ writ of Capias be graunted, in which writ of Capias the matter, which is compriſed within the ſame bill, ſhall be as well expreſſed as in the writ of proclamation thereof to be made: And if ſuch caſe happen in the countie palatine of Lancaſter, or elſe where in anie franchiſe, where there is a chaunceller and a ſeale, that then the chaunceller of England ſhall doe to be written or ſent by the kinges writ to the chaunceller of ſuch countie or fraunchiſe, all the ſuggeſtion in the ſaide bill compriſed, commanding him to make ſuch execucion as in the ſaide article is compriſed, ſo that alwaies that the kings writ ſhall not runne out of the chauncerie of Englande in ſuch a countie or fraunchiſe, otherwiſe then hath bene vſed in time paſt. And that this ordinance ſhall ſtande in his force vntill the ende of the next parliament.

Here beginneth an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ſame ſecond yeere.

OUr ſoueraigne lord the king at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the mundaie next after the vtas of ſaint Martin, the ſeconde yeere of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons of his realme then there aſſembled, hath ordeined, made, and ſtabliſhed diuerſe ordinances and ſtatutes in the forme following.

Chap. 1. Juſtices of peace.

First that the iuſtices of peace from henceforth to be made within the counties of England, ſhall be made of the moſt ſufficient perſons dwelling in the ſame counties, by the aduiſe of the chaunceller and of the kings councell, without taking other perſons dwelling in forein counties to occupie ſuch office, except the lords and the iuſtices of aſſiſes nowe named and to be named by the king and his councell. And except alſo the kings chiefe ſtewards of the lands and ſeigniories of the duchie of Lancaſter in the North parties and in the South, for the time being.

Chap. 2. Pariſh preeſtes.

Item where as it is conteined in the ſtatute, made the xxxvi. yere of king Edward the third after the conqueſt, that no pariſh preeſt nor yéerely preeſt ſhould take but v. markes, or vi. at the moſt for their wages by yeere, where the pariſh preeſtes which nowe be, will not ſerue but for x. li. xii. markes or x. markes by yeere at the leaſt, againſt the forme of the ſaid ſtatute, to the great damage of the kings liege people, as he hath perceiued by the complaint of the commons of his land, The king willing for the ſame to prouide remedie in eaſe of his ſaide commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no yerely chappeleine within the realme ſhal take from henceforth more for his whole wages by yeere, that is to ſaie, for his bord, apparell, and other neceſſaries, but vij. markes, nor the pariſh preeſts, which be or ſhall be retained to ſerue cures, ſhall take from henceforth for their whole wages by yeere, that is to ſay, for the things aforeſaid but viii. markees, vnleſſe it be by licence of the ordinarie, ſo that the whole ſumme paſſe not ix. markes.

Chap. 3. Enqueſt. Jurours.

Item the king conſidering the great miſcheeues & diſheriſons, which dailie happen through out al the realme as wel in caſe of death of a man as in caſe of free hold & in other caſes, by them which paſſe in enqueſtes in the ſaide caſes, which be common iurours and other, which haue but little to liue vpon, but by ſuch enqueſt, and which haue nothing to loſe, becauſe of their falſe othes, whereby they offend their conſcience the more largelie, and willing thereof to haue correction and amendement, hath ordeined & ſtabliſhed, by yͤ aſſent of the lords & commons aforeſaide, that no perſon ſhal be admitted to paſſe in anie enqueſt vpon triall of the death of a man, nor in anie enqueſt betwixt partie and partie in plee reall nor in plee perſonall, whereof the debt and damages declared amount to xl. markes, if the ſame perſon haue no landes or tenementes of the yeerelie valoure of xl. s. aboue all charges of the ſame, ſo that it be chalenged by the partie, that anie ſuch perſon ſo empanelled in the ſame caſes haue not lands or tenements of the yeerely value of xl. s. aboue the charges as afore is ſaide.

Chap. 4. Goldſmiths.

Item for as much as the goldſmithes of Englande of their couine and ordinance will not ſell the things of their miſtery gilt, but at the double price of the weight of the ſiluer of the ſame, which ſeemeth to the king verie outragious and to exceſſiue a price. The king for the eaſe of his people, willing to remedie the ſame, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the goldſmithes of Englande ſhal gilt no ſiluer wares then of the allaie of the Engliſh ſtarling, and that they take for the pound of Troie gilt but xlvi. s. viii. d. at the moſt, and of greater weight & leſſe according to the quantitie and rate of the ſame ſumme. And that which ſhall be by them guilt from henceforth, be of a reaſonable price and not exceſſiue. And if anie goldſmith do contrarie to this ſtatute, he ſhall forfet to the king the valure of the thing ſo ſold.

Chap. 5. Wales.

Item for as much as ſithence the rebellion of the Walſhmen nowe late reformed, manie of the rebels of Wales, with other their adherents, with force & armes in the maner of warre, ſometimes by daie and ſometimes by night, haue comen into the counties of Salop, Herefords, and Glouceſter, and in other places bordering vpon the ſame countries, and in diuerſe woodes and other places there hid and lodged, haue traiterouſlie & felonouſlie taken manie of the kings faithfull liege people, ſome in riding about their marchandiſes & doing their other buſines, and ſome in their houſes, where they were abiding, doing their workes and thier huſbandrie in Gods peace and the kinges, and thoſe the kinges liege people ſo taken, haue brought out of their countrie to diuerſe parties of Wales, and them haue kept and withholden with them in the mountaines

of

Iuſtices of peace.

of thoſe parties of Wales by halfe a yéere, ſometime more and ſometime leſſe, till they haue ranſomed ſome of the ſaide liege people to an C.li. and ſome more after their rate, in like maner as is vſed in time of warre, to the great damage and miſcheefe of the people of the ſaid counties & countries, & to an euill example, if it be not the rather remedied, as the king by the greeuous complaint of the commons hath perceiued. Our ſouereigne lorde yͤ king, willing againſt al ſuch offenders to ordeine a due puniſhment, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices of peace within the counties of England aſſigned for the time, ſhall haue power to enquire, here, and determine all maner of ſuch treaſons and felonies, as well at the kinges ſuite as at the parties: So that in caſe that ſuch offenders will not appeare before the ſaide iuſtices, to anſwere as the lawe requireth in this behalfe, till they be according to the cuſtome of the realme outlawed, then the ſame iuſtices ſhall certifie by their letters vnder their ſeales, the officers of the ſeigniories, in which ſuch outlawes be withdrawen abiding or reſiaunt, of the outlagarie vpon them ſo pronounced. And that the ſame officers vpon that certificacion, take the bodies of thoſe outlawes, and doe execution vpon them in the ſame ſeigniorie, as the lawe demaundeth without fine or raonſome in this behalfe to be made.

Chap. 6.

Staple.

Hampton.

Berwike.

Marchants. Tinne.

Wolles. Felles. &c.

Item where as in the parliament holden the firſt yéere of king Henrie the fourth, father to the king that nowe is, by the aduiſe of the lordes and commons in the ſame aſſembled, it was ordeined and aſſented, that the ſtaple of wolles, lether, wolfelles, lead, and tinne, ſhoulde be wholie at Caleis, Sauing alwaies, that all the marchants of Ieane, Venice, Cateloigne, Aragon, and of other realmes, landes, and countries, toward the Weſt, being of the kings amitie, that would bring to Hampton or elſe where within the realme, carikes, ſhips, galeis, or other veſſels charged or diſcharged, might freelie ſell their marchandiſes to whom pleaſed them, and there to recharge all their ſaide veſſels of wolles, lether, wolfelles, lead, and tinne, and of other marchandiſes of the ſtaple, and freelie bring them into their countrie towardes the Weſt, after the forme of the ſtatute thereof made the ſeconde yéere of king Richarde the ſeconde after the conqueſt. And ſaued alſo to the burgeſis and marchauntes of the towne of Berwike vpon Twede and to the reſiaunts and inhabitantes in the ſame, that they may buie wolles, lether, and wolfelles, as well of the growing of Tindale and other places within the realme of Scotlande, and other of the growing of Englande, that is to ſaie, of all that place betwixt the waters of Twede and Coket, as of the growing of other parties within the realme of Scotlande: And the ſame wolles, felles, and lether, to bring to the port of the ſaid towne of Berwike, and to carie them to foreine parties, or ſet them to ſale in the ſaide towne of Berwike, according to the forme and effect of an ordinance thereof made the firſt yeere of the ſaide king Richarde. And nowe ſo it is, that certeine marchauntes, as well of the yles of Ierneſey and Gerneſey, as marchantes of the parties of Britaine, and Guion, do buie in diuerſe places of Cornewall whole tinne not molten, and the ſame carie and ſende to be ſold into diuers parties of Fraunce, Normandie, Britaine, Guion, and elſe where then to the ſayd ſtaple, and alſo diuerſe other marchants as well denizens as ſtrangers, doe buie and ſende molten tinne, called ſhotin tinne, out of the realme to the parties of Flaunders, Holande, Selande, and to other parties beyonde the ſea, then to the ſaide ſtaple, againſt the forme of the ſaide ordinaunce ſo late made, to the great fraude, loſſe, and damage to the king, as of his cuſtomes, and to the hinderance of all the repairers to the ſame ſtaple, as the king is thereof certified by the motion of his commons nowe preſent: The king conſidering the ſame ordinaunce to be neceſſarie and profitable for him and the ſaide ſtaple, will, graunteth, and commandeth, that the ſame ſhall ſtand in his force, and moreouer the king by the aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and of his commons here aſſembled in this parliament, will and ordeineth, that no wolles, felles, lether, lead, nor tinne, whole or molten, called ſhoten tinne, nor none other marchaundiſe of the ſtaple, from henceforth ſhall be ſent nor caried to anie parties beyond the ſea, vnleſſe they be firſt brought to the ſaide ſtaple after the forme of the ſaide ordinance made the firſt yeere of king Henrie, vpon paine of forfaiture of all the marchaundiſes in ſuch maner ſent or caried out of the realme, vnleſſe it bée by the kinges licence, and except thoſe perſons, places, and thinges, which be excepted in the ſaid ordinance made in the ſaide firſt yere of the ſaide king Henrie for the time that the perſons of the places ſo excepted be of the kinges amitie, and that in the forme conteined in the ſame ordinance. And moreouer that euerie man (except thoſe before excepted) which ſhall ſend or carie anie ſuch marchandiſes of the ſtaple out of the realme of England in time to come, ſhall finde good & ſufficient ſuertie to the king before his cuſtomers of the place where the ſame marchandiſes ſhall be taken and cuſtomed within the ſame realme, before that he depart with the ſame marchandiſes, that he ſhall firſt bring or ſende them to the ſaide ſtaple in the forme aforeſaid, vnleſſe he haue the kings licence, as afore is ſaide.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the third yeere of king Henrie the fifth.

Gallihalfe pens.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the mundaie next after the feaſt of all ſaintes, the thirde yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the fifth, a ſtatute was made by the king our ſouereigne lord, of the aſſent of all the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons of Englande there aſſembled, for the common profite and weale of all the realme, that is to ſaie, that galihalfpens, and the monie called Suſkine and Dotkine and all maner

Scottiſh moneie of ſiluer, ſhall be put out, and not to be currant hereafter for anie paiment in the realme of England. Ioyned to the ſame, that proclamation be made through all the counties of England within franchiſes and without and elſewhere, that all that haue gallichalfepence ſuſkins or dotkins, ſhall bring them to the kings eſchaunges betwixt this and the feaſt of Eaſter next enſuing, there to be broken, & that that is founde good ſiluer, there to be ſtricken & coined in Engliſh halfepence. And all they which after the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter doo make coine, buie, or bring into the realme of England anie galiehafepence, ſuſkins, or dotkins, to ſell them, or to put them in payment in the ſame realme, and thereof be attainted, they ſhall be iudged as felons of our ſouereigne lorde the king, and ſhall forfeite all their lands and tenements, goods, and catals. And that the lordes, of whom ſuch lands and tenements be holden, ſhall haue and enioy the forfeitures as in other caſes of felonie. And if anie of the kings liege people or other perſon put galiehalfepence, ſuſkins, or dotkins in paiment, or them receiue in paiment within the realme of England, and thereof be duelie attainted, they ſhall forfeite at euerie time that they make ſuch payments or receite C. s. whereof our ſouereigne lorde the king ſhall haue the one halfe, and he that will ſue for the king thereof to atteint them, ſhall haue the other halfe, and that aſwell the iuſtices of peace within all the counties of England, as maiors and bailiffes within cities & burches, and ſtewards of lordes in their view of frankplege, ſhall haue power to enquire by good enqueſts to be taken before them of all the matters aforeſaid. And that the ſaid maiors and bailiffes, after the ſaide enqueſtes before them taken, ſhall ſend the ſame inquiſitions before the iuſtices of peace of the counties, in which the ſaid cities and burghes be. And that the ſaide iuſtices of the peace of the counties haue power, aſwell of the ſaid inquiſitions ſo taken before ſuch maiors and bailiffes, and ſent before the ſaid iuſtices (as afore is ſaid) as vpon other inquiſitions before the ſame iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions to be taken touching the ſaide maters, to make proceſſe, and to awarde the Capias and exigend, and to heare and determine all the matters according to their diſcretion, as in other caſes of felonies and treſpaſſes hath bene vſed before this time.

Suſkin a Dotkin. Moneie.

Iuſtice of peace.

Maiors. Bailiffes. Stewards

Here foloweth an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ſame third yeare.

OUr ſouereigne lorde the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the monday the firſt day of March, the third yeare of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons aſſembled in the ſame parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed diuers ordinaunces and ſtatutes in the forme as foloweth.

Chap. 1.

Firſt that holie church haue all hir liberties and franchiſes, and that the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and other the kings liege people hauing liberties and franchiſes, and all the cities and burghes of the realme haue and enioy all their liberties and franchiſes, which they haue had of the grauntes of the kings progenitors, and of the confirmation of the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, or his owne graunt: Except alwaies thoſe franchiſes and liberties, which be repealed in this preſent parliament, and thoſe that be repealed by the common lawe.

Chap. 2.

Item for aſmuch as there be diuers abbots, priors, and other religious perſons, whereof ſome be of the kings foundation, & ſome of the foundation of other lordes of the realme of England, dwelling aſwell within the countie of Lancaſter, as in the countie of Yorke, whereof ſome haue poſſeſſions within the wapentakes of Staineclife wapentake and friendleſſe wapentake in Crauen in the countie of Yorke, and ſome not, againſt whom diuers perſons dailie by abbettement and procurement of the bailiffes approuers of the courtes of the ſaide wapentakes, and the ſtewardes that holde plees in the ſaide courts, and of fermours of the profites and reuenues of the ſaide courtes faine and procure by them and other of their couin and aſſent, diuers plaintes, plees, of debt, and treſpas, and other plees againſt them in the courtes of the ſaide wapentakes, and there where as the ſame abbotes and priors come to the ſaide courtes, for the defence of ſuch wrongfull pleintes and plees, and praien and profer to the ſtewardes and bailiffes of the ſaid courtes to make their attourneis in ſuch plees: the ſaid ſtewardes & bailiffes the ſame refuſe, and will not receiue ſuch atturneis of ſuch abbots and priors in anie plee of debt or treſpas nor in anie other plee, and that moreouer the ſame ſtewards and bailiffes of their owne auctoritie doo amerce the ſaid abbots & priors for euerie pleint at the firſt time xii. d. and at euerie other time for euerie of the ſaid pleintes x. d. and xx. d. & more, at their owne will, to the great damage and greeuance of the ſaid abbots and priors and againſt reaſon and the common law of the land: the king hath ordained remedie of the ſaide greeuances, that all ſuch abbots and priors, and their ſucceſſors and euerie of them, ſo vexed and to be vexed in the ſaide courtes, may make their generall atturneis or atturneie, that is to ſay euerie of them vnder the common ſeale of his houſe, to gaine and loſe in euerie maner of plee of debt & treſpas, and in anie other plee moued or to be moued in the ſaide courtes and in all other courtes within the ſaide wapentakes. And that the ſtewardes and bailiffes in the ſaid courtes receiue the ſaid atturneis ſo made and named without anie contradiction. And if the ſame ſtewardes or bailiffes refuſe to receiue anie ſuch atturneis or atturneie, ſo made and named to be made or to be named, that then the ſtewardes and bailiffes at euerie time of ſuch refuſall of ſuch atturneis, ſhall forfeite and incurre the paine of ten poundes to our ſouereigne lorde the king. And that the ſaide abbots and priors, or their ſucceſſors in the ſaide courtes, nor none of them, be in anie wiſe amerced

Some bookes be x. s. & xx. s.

Atturneie.

for anie nonſuite or defaute otherwiſe than ſecular perſons. And that this ordnaunce ſtand in his force for all the yeere next folowing, and till the parliament in the ſame yeere next folowing.

Chap. 3. Britons.

Item where as diuers Britons be now late comen within the realme, ſome of them abiding about the queenes perſon in hir houſe, and ſome nigh the ſaide houſe and elſewhere within the ſaid realme, for to heare, know, and perceiue the ſecretnes of the realme, and the ſame to diſcouer to Britons, which be the greateſt enemies of the king and of his realme, and for to carie away the moneie and iewels out of the ſaide realme, in great preiudice and damage to the king and to all his realme, as our ſouereigne lorde the king by the greeuous complaint of his commons is inſtructed: The ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king will and hath ordained, that all ſuch Britons dwelling in the queenes houſe, and other abiding nigh to the ſame houſe and elſewhere, not made denizens, ſhall be voided out of the realme. And that proclamation be made, that the ſaide Britons doo voide out of the realme betwixt this and the feaſt of ſaint Iohn the baptiſt next comming, and that vpon paine of life and of member.

Chap. 4. Prouiſiōs

Item where as in the time of king Henrie the fourth, father to our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, the ſeuenth yeere of his reigne to eſchew manie diſcordes and debates and diuers other miſchieues, which were likelie to riſe and happen, becauſe of manie prouiſions then made or to be made by the pope, and alſo of licence thereupon graunted, by the ſaide late king, amongſt other thinges it was ordained ⁊ ſtabliſhed, that no ſuch licence or pardon ſo graunted before the ſame ordinance, nor afterward to be graunted, ſhould be auailable to anie benefice full of anie encumbent at the day of the date of ſuch licence or pardon graunted: Neuertheleſſe diuers perſons, hauing prouiſions of the pope of diuers benefices in England and elſewhere and licences royall to execute the ſaid prouiſions, haue by colour of the ſame prouiſions, licences, and acceptations, of the ſaide benefices, ſubtillie excluded diuers perſons of their benefices, in which they haue bene incumbents by a long ſeaſon of the collation of the verie patrons ſpirituall to them duelie made to their entent, to the finall deſtruction ⁊ eneruation of the eſtates of the ſame incumbents. The king willing to voide ſuch miſchieues, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all the incumbents of euerie benefice of holie church, of the patronage collation or preſentation of ſpirituall patrons, may peaciblie and quietlie enioy their ſaid benefices, without being inquieted, moleſted, or anie wiſe greeued by anie colour of ſuch prouiſions, licences, and acceptations. And that all the licences and pardons vpon and by ſuch prouiſions made in anie maner, ſhall be voide and of no valour. And if anie feele himſelfe greeued, moleſted, or inquieted, in anie wiſe from henceforth by anie, by colour of ſuch prouiſions, licences, pardons, or acceptations, that the ſame moleſtours, greeuours, and inquietours, and euerie of them, haue and incurre the paine ⁊ puniſhments contained in the ſtatutes of prouiſours before this time made, and that by proceſſe of Premunire facias formed vpon the caſe. And that the partie, which ſhall ſue by the ſame writ, ſhall recouer his treble damages, if the defendants named in the ſame writ or anie of them be conuict in this partie.

Incumbent.

Chap. 5.

Item where as by the ſtatute made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xiii. yeere of king Richard the ſecond, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that in aſſiſes, iuries and in all other enqueſtes, which from henceforth ſhould be taken betwixt partie and partie, before the maior and bailiffes of the citie of Lincolne, which for the time ſhould be, if anie of the parties then did complaine him of falſe othes made by ſuch aſſiſes, iuries, or enqueſtes, that the attaint ſhould be graunted to him, and the recorde ſhould be ſent by writ into the kings bench, or into the common bench. And that the ſhiriffe ſhould array the panell of the iurie of ſuch attaint of forens, without ſending to the franchiſe of the ſaid citie. And the iuſtices ſhoulde take the ſame iurie of the ſame forens, notwithſtanding anie franchiſe graunted to the ſaide citie, or anie other vſage to the contrarie: Neuertheleſſe for aſmuch as ſir Henrie late king of England, father to our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, the one and twentie day of Nouember, the thirteene yeare of his reigne, by his letters patents amongſt others, graunted to the maior and communaltie of the ſaide citie, that the name of bailiffes of the ſame citie ſhould be tranſlate into the name of ſhiriffes, and that the ſame citie, ſuburbes, and the precinct of the ſame, except the caſtel of Lincolne and the walles and ditches of the ſame, ſhould for euer be called the countie of the citie of Lincolne: diuers people be and haue bene in ambiguitie, whether a man that will complaine of a falſe othe, made in the countie of the ſaid citie after by force of the ſaide ſtatute ſhould haue a writ of atteint directed to the ſhiriffe of the countie of Lincolne, to be arraied by people of the ſame countie, or not, and alſo of other articles and pointes of the ſaide ſtatute: The king willing to put out all maner ambiguities and doubtes in this partie, hath ordained, graunted, and ſtabliſhed, that in aſſiſes iuries, and all other enqueſtes, which be and ſhall be taken betwixt partie and partie before the maior ⁊ bailiffes, or before the ſhiriffe of the countie of the citie of Lincolne, which for the time is and ſhall be, or anie of them, if anie of the ſaid parties doo complaine of a falſe othe made by ſuch aſſiſes, iuries, and enqueſtes, a writ of atteint ſhall be graunted to him, directed to the ſhiriffe of the ſaide countie of Lincolne for the ſame time being, and the ſame recorde ſhall be ſent by a writ into the kings bench, or into the common bench. And that the ſhiriffe of the countie of Lincolne, which for the time ſhall be, ſhall arraie the panell of the iurie of ſuch atteint of people of the countie of Lincolne, and that the iuſtices of the king and Atteint.

Lincolne.

Othe.

of his heires, ſhall take the ſame iurie of the people of the countie of Lincolne, after the intent and effect of the ſaide ſtatute, notwithſtanding the ſaide letters patentes, or anie thing therein conteined, or anie poſſeſſion or other thing by force of the ſame letters had or made, or anie fraunchiſe graunted or to be granted to the citizens of the ſaid citie, or to their ſucceſſors, or other vſage to the contrarie, in that that the ſaid citie of Lincolne is ſo made incorporate.

Chap. 6. Treaſon. Clipping, waſhing and filing of money.

Item becauſe that before this time great doubt and ambiguitie hath bene whether that clipping, waſhing, and filing of the monie of the lande ought to be iudged treaſon or not, for as much as mention thereof is made in the declaration of the articles of treaſon, made in the parliament holden the xxv yeere of king Edward the third: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing to auoide ſuch ambiguitie or doubt, & to put the ſame in a certeintie, hath declared in this preſent parliament, that ſuch clipping, waſhing, and filing, ſhall be iudged for treaſon and they that ſo do clip, waſh, and file the monie of the lande, ſhall be iudged traitors to the king & to the realme, and ſhall incurre the paine of treaſon.

Cap. 7. Clipping &c. Money. Iuſtices of aſſyſes. Iuſtices of peace.

Item where as counterfaiting, clipping, waſhing, and other falſitie of monie of the lande, is much more vſed and dailie doth more abounde then it was wont, becauſe that the puniſhment of the ſame perteineth not to anie iudges of the realme, but to the kinges iuſtices before him ſelfe, or by ſpeciall commiſſions thereto aſſigned, and verie likelie deſtruction of the monie may inſue, vnleſſe haſtie execution and remedie be prouided, as the king by the greeuous complaint of his commons hath perceiued: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing to remedie the ſame hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the kinges iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes in all the counties of Englande, ſhall haue power by the kinges commiſſions to heare and determine in their ſeſſions, as well of the counterfaiting, and of the bringing of ſuch falſe monie into the realme, as of clipping, waſhing, and euerie other falſitie of the ſaide monie. And that the iuſtices of peace through the realme, ſhall haue power by the kinges commiſſions, to enquire of all ſuch matters, and therevpon to make proceſſe by Capias onelie againſt thoſe, which before them ſhall be thereof endited.

Chap. 8. Probate of teſtaments.

Item where as the commons of the realme haue often times in diuerſe parliamentes complained, of that that diuerſe ordinaries doe take for the probate of a teſtament and other thinges perteining to the offices in this behalfe ſometime xl.s. or lx.s. and ſometime more, againſt right and law, and otherwiſe then was wont to be paied for them in the time of king Edward the third, that is to ſaie ii.s.vi.d. or v.s. at the moſt, whereby the teſtament of the teſtator maie not be executed according to the laſt will of the ſame teſtator, to the great damage and hinderance of the common wealth: The king willing for the wealth and eaſe of his people to voide ſuch oppreſſion, and to prouide remedie in the caſe, hath ordeined, that none ordinarie ſhall take from henceforth, for the probate of anie teſtament with the inuentorie, and for the other things apperteining to the ſame, no more then was accuſtomed and vſed in this partie in the time of the ſaide king Edward the third, vpon paine to yeelde to him that feeleth him greeued the treble ſo receiued, if hee will ſue by the courſe of the law, ſo that all maner of executors ſhall yeeld their accounts to the ordinaries wholie of the teſtators goods. And that this ordinance ſtand in his force till the end of the yeere next comming, and moreouer till the parliament the ſame yeere next enſuing.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the fourth yeere of king Henrie the fifth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xix. daie of October, the fourth yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fifth after the conqueſt, The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, of the aſſent of the prelates, dukes, earles, barons, and at the eſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons aſſembled in the ſame parliament, hath done to bee ordeined & ſtabliſhed certeine ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme as followeth.

Cap. 1. Charter.

FIrſt that the great charter, and the charter of the foreſt, and all other ſtatutes and ordinances made in his time, and in the time of his noble progenitors kings of England, and not repealed, ſhalbe fermelie holden and kept in all points.

Chap. 2. Shirifes.

Item that al the ſhirifes of England ſhal haue allowance vpon their accompts by their othes of things caſuall, as of eſtretes that ſowne not nor runne not in ferme nor in demand. But of all ſuch things that ſowne or runne in yerely fermes or yerely demands, they ſhalbe charged againſt the king, as the ſhirifes haue bene charged in this caſe in times paſt.

Chap. 3. Paten makers.

Item that the patenmakers in the realme of England from henceforth ſhal make no patens nor clogs of timber called aſpe, vpon paine to paie to the king C.s. at euerie time that the ſaid patenmakers make any patens or clogs of the ſaid timber. And that euerie man that will ſue for the king, ſhall haue the one halfe of the paine ſo forfet, ſo that the fletchers through the realme ſhall ſell their arrowes at a more eaſe and reaſonable price from henceforth then they were wont.

Cap. 4. Seruaunts wages.

Item where as in a ſtatute made at Canterbrigge, in the time of king Richard the ſecond, the twelft yeere of his reigne, certeine wages ordeined by the yeere for bailiffes and other ſeruaunts of huſbandrie, and alſo for other ſeruauntes and laborers, as well within cities and boroughes as elſe where through the realme: and that if anie giue or take by couenant by the yeere more then is ſpecified in the ſaid ſtatute, that at the firſt time that they be thereof attainted, as well the giuers as the takers ſhall paie the exceſſe ſo giuen, & at the ſecond time the double of the exceſſe ſo giuen:

and for as much as the geuers, when they haue bene ſworne before the iuſtices of peace, will in no wiſe preſent ſuch exceſſes, to eſchewe their owne puniſhments, to the great loſſe of the king, as of his fines and amerciaments for the conſealing, and greeuous damage to the lordes and other people of the realme, becauſe of the non due puniſhment of the defaults of ſeruants & laborers aforeſaide, as the king hath perceiued by the complaint of his commons: The ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath ordeined, that the paine of the giuer ſhall bee out in this partie, and that the paine conteined in the ſaide ſtatute ſhall run onelie vpon the taker. And that this ordinance holde place and force till the feaſt of ſaint Michael next comming, ond then till the ende of two yeeres then next enſuing.

Chap. 5.
Marchants aliens.
Hoſtes.

Item where as in a ſtatute made in the time of king Henrie the fourth, the v. yere of his reigne, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the marchantes aliens, of what eſtate or condition they be, comming, abiding, or reſeaunt within the realme of England, ſhould be entreated and demeaned within the ſame realme, in the ſame forme, maner, and condition, as the marchantes denizens be or ſhall be entreated or demeaned in the parties beyonde the ſea, and in none other maner, vpon paine to forfeite to the king all the goods and cattals of the ſaide marchantes aliens. And alſo it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, in the time of the ſaid late king Henrie amongſt other things by ſtatute, that in euerie citie, towne, and port of the ſea of England, where the ſaid marchantes aliens or ſtraungers be or ſhall be repairing, ſufficient hoſtes ſhall be aſſigned to the ſame marchantes by the maior, ſhiriffe, or bailiffes of the ſaide cities townes and ports of the ſea. And that the marchantes aliens and ſtrangers ſhall not be abiding in other places, but with the ſaide hoſtes ſo to be aſſigned: And that the ſame hoſts ſo to be aſſigned, ſhall take for their labour in the ſame maner as was accuſtomed of olde time. And for as much as our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath perceiued, that the ſame ſtatutes haue not bene put in due execution: he will and granteth, that the ſame ſtatutes ſhall be fermelie holden and kept in all points, and put in due execution from henceforth, according to the contenue of the ſame.

Chap. 6.
Ireland,
Iriſh nation.
Promotion
Collation.
Lieutenant in Ireland

Item where as it was ordeined in the time of the kings noble progenitors, by a ſtatute made of the lande of Irelande, that none of the Iriſh nation ſhoulde be choſen by election to an Archbiſhop, biſhop, abbat, or prior, nor in none other maner receiued nor accepted to anie dignitie or benefice within the ſame land, & nowe late manie ſuch Iriſh people, by force of certeine letters of licence to them made by the kings lieutenantes there, to accept and receiue ſuch dignities and benefices, be promoted and auanced to archbiſhops and biſhops within the ſaide land, which alſo make their collations to Iriſh clarkes of the dignities and benefices there againſt the forme and effect of the ſaide ſtatute: And where as they bee ſaide peries of the parliament in the ſame lande, they bring with them to the parliamentes and councelles holden there, Iriſh ſeruantes, whereby the priuities of the Engliſh men within the ſame lande haue bene and bee dailie diſcouered to the Iriſh people, rebels to the king, to the great perill and miſcheefe of the kinges lawfull liege people in the ſame lande: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, deſiring for the ſame to prouide remedie, for the ſuertie of his faithfull ſubiectes, by the aſſent of the lordes aforeſaide, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, will and graunteth, that the ſaide ſtatute ſhall ſtande in his whole force, and well and duly be kept and fully executed vpon his greeuous indignation. And moreouer he hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by the aſſent and requeſt aforeſaide, that if anie ſuch archbiſhops, biſhops, abbats, or priors, of the Iriſh nation, rebels to the king, haue in times paſt made, or from henceforth ſhall make anie collations or preſentments to benefices of holie church in the ſaid land of Irelande, againſt the forme of the ſame ſtatute, or bring with them anie Iriſh rebels amongſt the Engliſhmen to the parliaments, councels, or other aſſemblies, within the ſame lande, to knowe the priuities and ſtates of the ſaide Engliſhmen, and the ſame to diſcouer to the ſaide rebels, that then maintenant from time to time all their temporalties ſhall be ſeaſed into the kinges handes, there to remaine till they haue made fines to the king in this partie. And alſo that all the lieutenants of the king and of his heires in the ſaide land of Irelande be vtterlie defended and reſtrained from henceforth, to haue anie maner power to giue or to grant anie ſuch benefices or pardons in the caſe to Iriſh perſons not Engliſh. And that all ſuch licences not executed, made and granted by the kinges lieutenantes in the ſame lande before this time, and alſo to bee granted by them hereafter, ſhall be voide and of no force nor valoure.

Chap. 7.
Trewes.
Saufeconduites.
Treaſon.

Item where as our ſoueraigne lorde the king hath heard and conceiued at the greeuous complaint of his commons of his realme, in this parliament, of that that becauſe of a ſtatute made at his parliament holden at Leceſter the laſt daie of Aprill, the ſecond yeere of his reigne, in which ſtatute is conteined, that the breaking of trewes and of ſafeconduites, and willing receite, abettement, procurement, councell, hiering, ſuſteining, and mainteining or breakers of trewes and of the kings ſaufconduites, to be made for his liege people from henceforth within the realme of Englande and Irelande, and of the countrie of Wales, vpon the maine ſea, ſhall be iudged and determined for high treaſon done againſt the crowne and the kings dignitie, becauſe of which ſtatute the kinges ſubiectes be ſo much greeued againſt the trewes, that they dare not prouide remedie by waie of act, for as much as the kings enimies as well of the parties beyonde the ſea as in the realme of Scotlande, haue thereof taken great courage to greeue the kings faithfull liege people, in ſleaing ſome of them, and in taking ſome of them priſoners, and alſo taking their goods and cattals againſt the tenour of the trewes, as well vpon the maine ſea, as vpon the marches of Scotlande, whereof the ſaide commons haue humbly beſeeched our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king, to ordeine remedie. The king willing as well in this caſe as in other to prouide for the indempnitie of his liege & faithfull ſubiects, hath declared in this preſent parliament, that of all attemptes made by his enimies vpon any of his faithfull liege people, againſt the tenour of anie trewes taken before this time, wherein is no expreſſe mencion made, that all marques & repriſels ſhall ceaſe, the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king wil grant marque to al them yͤ feeleth them ſelfe in this caſe greeued in due forme. And our ſaid ſouereigne lord yͤ king ſhall make reparaile to all his liege people that feele them greeued againſt the tenour of anie trewees which betwixt him & any of his enemies ſhall be newlie taken here after. And to the greater comfort of his ſaid faithfull liege people, the intent that they maie the more readilie and without long delaie haue remedie in this caſe. The ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king will, that if he or they that feele them greeued againſt the tenour and forme of ſuch trewes within the realme of England, out of the ſaide marches of Scotlande, or vpon the ſea, or in the parties beyonde the ſea, ſhall complaine to the keeper of the priuie ſeale, which for the time ſhall be, who after ſuch complaint hard and perceiued, thereof ſhall make to the partie complainant (if hee the ſame require) letters of requeſt vnder the priuie ſeale in a due forme, and if after ſuch requeſt made the partie required, doe not make within a conuenient time due reſtitution and ſatiſfaction to the partie greeued, then the chaunceller of Englande for the time being, ſhall doe to be made to ſuch partie greeued (if hee that demaunde) letters of marque vnder the great ſeale in a due forme. And as for remedie to be ordeined to the kings liege people and ſubiectes, that feele them greeued in the realme of Scotlande or in Englande, at the marches ioyning to Scotlande, againſt the forme of ſuch trewes as afore is ſaide, our ſouereigne lorde the king ſhall giue power by commiſſion to the wardens as well of the Eaſt marches as of the Weſt marches towardes Scotlande, and to euerie of them, to heare the complaintes of all them his liege people and ſubiectes, which ſo ſhall be greeued, and to doe therevpon to bee made requeſt by letters to bee deliuered to him, which hath done or ſhall doe ſuch greeuaunce, or to the wardeines of the marches, or conſeruatour of the trewes of the partie of Scotlande, if he may the ſame well doe, or otherwiſe to make proclamation in open places vpon the marches, that hee or they, which haue done ſuch greeuaunces againſt the trewes, ſhall make due reſtitution or ſatiſfaction to the partie greeued. And if they doe not within a conuenient time, that at the inſtaunce of euerie of the kinges liege people and ſubiectes, which thereof feeleth or ſhall feele him greeued in ſuch caſe, letters of marque bee giuen in due forme vnder the ſeales of the ſayde wardens, or vnder his ſeale, to whom the complaint ſhall be made de in this caſe without anie difficultie.

Letters of marque.

Wardens of the marches.

Chap. 8. Pardon.

Item our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, for his ſpeciall grace, by the aſſent of all the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons being in this parliament, hath releaſed and pardoned to all his liege people, and to euerie of them, all maner fines, iſſues and amerciamentes, and all other forfeitures paines pecuniar debtes and demaundes, to the ſumme of twentie ſixe ſhillinges eight pence and vnder, till the xix. daie of October, which was the firſt daie of this parliament, fallen determined or to bee determined. Alſo hee hath pardoned all maner fines and amerciamentes of and for all maner treſpaſſes, offences, miſpriſions, contemptes, conſpiracies, confederacies, negligences, ignorances, concealementes, and diſceites, done or perpetrate before the ſaide ninteenth daie, for which anie fine or amerciament is or ſhall be aſſeſſed in time to come to the ſayde ſumme and vnder. And alſo cattalles of fugitiues and fellons, waiſes and ſtrayes, and the cattalles of thoſe that be outlawed, and cattalles of fellons of them ſelfe, which to the king perteineth, or which for anie of the ſaide cauſes in anie maner maie perteine, before the ſaide xix. daie, to the ſumme aforeſaide and vnderneath forfeite, and of outlagaries, if anie in the kinges liege people or anie of them by ſuch encheſon be pronounced. Prouided alwaies that none enioie the benefite of this pardon, which is or ſhall be charged or chargeable ouer the ſaide ſumme, for the cauſes aforeſaide or anie of them. And moreouer our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king of his ſpeciall grace hath releaſed and pardoned to his ſaide ſubiects, the ſuite of his peace, which to him againſt them perteineth becauſe of anie treaſon done or perpetrate by them or anie of them before the ſaide xix. daie of October, for breaking of the kinges trewes and ſafeconduites. And alſo the outlagaries, if anie againſt them or anie of them be pronounced by ſuch encheſons. And alſo the king will, that euerie of his ſaide liege people, as well of the countie palatine of Lancaſter or elſe where within the realme of England, ſhall enioie this pardon without ſuing charter or writ in this behalfe.

An ordinance made the fifth yeere of king Henrie the fifth.

Henrie king, &c. to the ſhiriffe of Yorkeſhire greeting. Knowe thou that in our parliament laſt holden at Weſtminſter it was ordeined and graunted, that all our liege people, as well religious as ſecular and euerie of them, might till the next parliament make their atturneies, where atturneies doe lie in their proper perſons, in anie plee of debt, treſpaſſe, or other contract moued or to bee moued in anie wapentakes, hundreds, and courte barons through the realme, before the ſtewardes there or their deputies, to winne or to loſe in the ſame plees. And if anie ſuch ſtewardes refuſe to admit ſuch atturneies, then they and euerie of them at euerie time of ſuch refuſall, ſhall forfet to vs fortie ſhillings And therefore we command thee, that thou doe the ſaid ordinance in all places of thy countie, where ſhall be moſt expedient & neceſſarie, openlie to be proclaimed and obſerued, according to the forme and effect of the ſame, witnes John duke of Bedforde protector of England, at Weſtminſter the xvi. daie of Januarie, the fifth yeere of ourreigne.

Atturney.

Here followeth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the vii. yeere of king Henrie the fifth.

Countie of Lancaſter.

Appeales.

Inditements.

Forging of vntrue charters.

HEnrie king of Englande, &c. to his chaunceller in the countie palatine of Lancaſter greeting. Know ye that for as much as diuerſe men of malice and enemitie, and for gaine and vengeaunce, haue often cauſed to be indited and appealed diuerſe of our true liege people of treaſons or felonies in the countie of Lancaſter, pretending by thoſe appeales and inditementes, that the ſayde treaſons or felonies were committed in a certeine place, where of truth no ſuch place is had in the ſayde countie, where the ſayde appeale and enditement is made, to the great dammage and perill of ſuch our liege people, conſidering that ſome ſo appealed and endited, dare not appeare before the iuſtices in their proper perſons, to aunſwere thereof for feare of beating, maihemning, or ſleeing, of them by the conſpiratours or procurours of the ſame appeales and enditementes, as by the commons of the realme of Englande in our laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter, by their petition there exhibit, greeuouſlie complaining, was ſhewed. It is ordeined in the ſame parliament, by the aſſent of the prelates and great men of the ſame realme, there being, at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, for the common profite and quietneſſe of the people of the ſame realme, that euerie iuſtice, which hath power to heare and determine ſuch treaſons and felonies within the ſayde countie, by the othe of twelue men, of whom euerie ſhall haue free holde in the ſame countie to the yeerely value of C.s. aboue all charges, before that the exigende be awarded without allegation of the partie, as well in the parties abſence as his preſence, ſhall enquire of office, whether anie ſuch place be in the countie where ſuch appeales or enditements be made or not. And if it be founde, that there is no ſuch place within the ſame countie, then ſuch appeales and enditementes, and the proceſſe thereof made or to be made, ſhall be voide and holden for none. And that in ſuch caſe the enditours aforeſaide be puniſhed by impriſonment fine and raunſome, by the diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices. And that this preſent ordinance and remedie extende as well to appeales and enditementes not determined, taken before this time, as to appeales & enditementes to be taken hereafter. And if anie exigende from henceforth be awarded, before that ſuch inquiſition of office (as afore is ſaide) be taken, that that the ſame exigende and the awarding thereof be likewiſe voide and holden for none. Prouided that this preſent ordinance haue ſtrength and extende onelie vntill the next parliament. And alſo knowe ye that in the ſayde parliament, of the aſſent and requeſt aforeſayde, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that in writs to be purchaſed againſt thoſe that forge or make vntrue charters or minimentes, and them proclaime or cauſe to be read, like proceſſe ſhall bee made by Capias and Exigende, as in writs of treſpaſſe. And therefore we command you, fermelie inioyning, that ye emmediatlie after the ſight thereof, doe this ſtatute and ordinance openlie to bee prolaimed in the places within the ſame countie, where ſhall bee moſt expedient and neceſſarie, as well within the liberties as without, and that alſo ye doe all and ſinguler our iuſtices, hauing power to heare and determine felonies and treaſons within the ſayde countie, fullie to be inſtructed, and without delaie to bee certified of the ſayde ordinance and ſtatute by our letters conteining the tenoure of the ſame, witneſſe, &c. the xvi. daie of December, the ſeuenth yeere of our reigne. And by petition in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſeconde daie of December, the eight yeere of the ſame king, a like writ was made, ſauing that the Teſte of the laſt writ was, witneſſe Humfrie duke of Glouceſter protector of Englande at Weſtminſter the tenth daie of Januarie, the eight yeere, &c.

Here enſueth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the viii. yeere of king Henrie the fifth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſeconde daie of December, the eight yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fifth. The ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, of the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons aſſembled in the ſame parliament, hath done to be ordeined and ſtabliſhed certeine ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme following.

Chap. I. FIrſt for as much as by the grace of God a finall peace was late taken betwixt the king our ſouereigne lorde and the king of Fraunce his father in ſuch forme, that our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king ſhall be named heire and regent of the realme of Fraunce, during the life of his ſayde father, and ſhall haue the gouernaunce of the ſame. And after the death of his father, the ſayde realme and the crowne of Fraunce ſhall remaine to our ſouereigne lorde the king, and to his heires for euer. It is verie likelie, that for the good gouernaunce as well of the realme of Fraunce as of this realme of Englande, our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king ſome time ſhall be on this ſide the ſea, and ſome time beyonde the ſea, according as beſt ſhall ſeeme to his ſage diſcretion for the better gouernaunce of the one realme and the other, Therefore it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if in time to come our ſaid ſoueraigne lord yͤ king, being beyond the ſea, cauſe to ſommon his parliament in this realme by his writs vnder the (Teſte) of his lieutenant, which now is or which for the time ſhall be, and after the ſommons of ſuch parliaments gone out of the chauncerie, our ſoueraigne lord the king arriue in this realme, that for ſuch arriuall of the ſame our ſoueraigne lord, ſuch parliament ſhall not be diſſolued, but in the ſame afterwarde our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall proceede without new ſommons of the ſame.

Parliament.

Cap. 2. Wolles. Bullion. Tinne.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euery marchant ſtranger buying wolles in England to bring them to the Weſt parties or els where, not comming to the ſtaple, there to be ſolde, ſhall bring to the maiſter of the mynt of the Tower of London of euery ſacke, one ounce of bullyon of golde, and in the ſame manner of iii. peeces of tynne, one ounce of bullyon of gold, or the valour in bullion of ſiluer, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame wolles and tynne, or the valour of the ſame to the king.

Chap. 3. Gilding of mettal.

Item that none from hencefoorth ſhall gylt anie ſhethes nor mettal but ſiluer, and the ornaments of holy church. Nor ſhall ſiluer no mettall but knightes ſpurres, and all the apparell that pertaineth to a baron and aboue that eſtate, vpon paine of forfeiture to the king. x. times as much as the thing ſo gylt is of valour, and ſhall haue alſo one yeeres impriſonment. And the Iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to enquire thereof, and that to determine. And he that will ſue for the king in this partie, ſhall haue the third part of the ſaide pecuniar paine. Prouided that this laſt ordinance ſhall begin to hold place at the feaſt of Eſter next comming.

Iuſtices of peace.

Here beginneth the Statute made at Weſtminſter the ix. yeere of king Henrie the fifth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſecond day of May, the ninth yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fifth, the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, of the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons aſſembled in the ſame parliament to be ordeined and ſtabliſhed certeine ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme following.

Made.

Cap. 1. Appeales. Inditements.

FIrſt that the ſtatute made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the vii. yeere of the reigne of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, touching appeales and enditementes, ſtande in his force and hold place till the next parliament to be holden after the kings returne from beyond the ſea into England.

Cap. 2. Countie of Lancaſter.

Item it is ordeined, that none of the kings liege people, againſt whome an Exigend ſhall be awarded, or outlawed at the kings ſuite from hencefoorth or at the ſuite of the partie in the countie of Lancaſter, ſhall forfait anie of his goods or cattals, lands or tenements in other counties, but only ſuch goods and cattals, lands and tenements, which the ſaide outlawes haue in the ſame countie of Lancaſter. Prouided alwayes that the ſtatute made the firſt yeere of king Henry the fourth, againſt the people of the countie of Cheſter, which do many manſlaughters, murders, robberies, batteries, treſpaſſes and other riotes and offences to diuers the kings liege people, ſhall ſtande in his force, notwithſtanding this preſent ordinance. And that this ordinance ſtand in this force till the parliament which ſhalbee firſt holden after the kings returne into Englande from beyonde the ſea.

Countie of Cheſter.

Cap. 3.

Item where as the taking of aſſiſes hath long ſeaſed throughout the realme, becauſe of an ordinance made by the king at his ſecond paſſage towardes the parties of Normandie, and by his councell, The king conſidering the diſeaſes and dammage, which manie of his liege people haue had and ſuſteined by the ſame ceaſſing, hath commaunded, that his Iuſtices ſhall holde the aſſiſes through his realme by the maner accuſtomed. And for to eſchue the diſheriſons of ſuch perſons, as now ſhall paſſe in this preſent voyage of the king our ſoueraigne lord (whom God ſpeede) and alſo of ſuch perſons as abide in the kings ſeruice in the parties of Normandie and Fraunce, It is ordeined and prouided, that in euery protection with the clauſe Volumus, to be made for any of the ſame perſons, in the clauſe of the exception conteined in yͤ ſame, omiſſions ſhall be made of theſe wordes Aſſiſe noue diſſeiſin. And that all ſuch protection be allowable and allowed for them and euery of them, in all the kings courts and elſewhere, where ſuch protection is ſet forth for anie ſuch perſon, in all plees of aſſiſes, as well of nouel diſſeiſin as of freſh force, without difficultie, prouided alwaies, that the iudgements to be giuen from hencefoorth in ſuch aſſiſes, arrayned or to be arrayned, ſhall not be preiudiciall to anie of the ſaide perſons ſo abyding in the kings ſeruice beyonde the ſea, (as afore is ſaide) which haue anie thing in reuerſion or in remainder in the lands or tenements, whereof ſuch aſſiſes be or ſhall be arrained, if they that haue in reuerſion or remainder in ſuch lands and tenements, be not named in the ſame aſſiſes, but that they be againſt them all voide. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the parliament that ſhall be firſt holden after the kings next returne into England. And if this ordinance touching the ſaid perſons ſo abyding in the kings ſeruice beyond the ſea, and alſo touching the ſaide perſons which haue paſſed and ſhall paſſe in the ſaide voyage, be not ſufficient for the eaſe and ſuretie of them, It is accorded and alſo aſſented, that the lords of the kings councell for the time being ſhall haue full power by authoritie of this parliamant, to ſet, ordeine, and prouide ſufficient remedie. for the eaſe & ſuretie of all the ſame perſons, as for them and euery of them ſhall ſeeme to the ſaid lords moſt auailable and expedient in the caſe, according to their good aduiſe and diſcretions.

Aſſiſes.

Protectiō.

Iudgement.

Cap. 4.

Item where as it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed in the ſtatute made the xiiii. yeere of king

Miſpriſiõ in writing one letter or ſillable.

Edward the third, that for miſpriſion of the clerke in anie place, the proceſſe or the plée ſhould not be adnihilat nor diſcontinued by miſtaking in writing one letter or ſillable too much or too little, but as ſoone as the thing is perceiued by challenge of the partie, or in other manner, it ſhoulde be haſtily amended in a due forme without giuing aduantage to the partie that challengeth the ſame becauſe of ſuch miſpriſion. The king conſidering the diuerſitie of opinions, which haue béne vpon the ſaid ſtatute, and to put the thing in more open knowledge, hath now declared and ordeined by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that the Iuſtices, before whome ſuch plée or records be made or ſhall be depending, aſwell by adiournement, as by way of error or otherwiſe, ſhall haue power and authoritie to amend ſuch record and proceſſe, as afore is ſaid, after the forme of the ſame ſtatute, aſwell after the iudgement in anie ſuch plée, record, or proceſſe, giuen, as before iudgement giuen in ſuch plée, record or proceſſe, as long as the ſame record and proceſſe is before them, in the ſame manner as the Iuſtices had power to amend ſuch record and proceſſe before iudgement giuen, by force of the ſaid ſtatute made in the time of the ſaid king Edwarde. And that this ordinance endure till the parliament that ſhall be firſt holden after the returne of our ſoueraigne lord the king into England from beyond the ſea.

Cap. 5.
Shiriſe.
Eſchetor.

Item where as by the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xiiii. yéere of king Edward the third, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no ſhiriſe ſhould abyde in his bailiwike aboue one yéere, and that then another conuenient ſhould be ſet in his place, which ſhould haue landes ſufficient within his bailiwike, And that no eſchetor ſhould tarrie in his office aboue a yéere. And where as alſo at the time of the making of the ſaide ſtatute diuers vaylant and ſufficient perſons were in euery countie of England, to occupie and gouerne the ſame offices well towardes the king and all his liege people, for as much that as well by diuers peſtilences within the realme of England, as by the warres without the realme, there is not now ſuch ſufficiencie, It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the king, by authoritie of this parliament, may make the ſhiriſes and eſchetors through the realme at his will, vntill the ende of foure yéeres, except in the counties where certeine perſons be inherite in ſuch manner offices. The ſaide terme to begin at the next election of ſuch officers, notwithſtanding the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid xiiii. yéere, or anie other ſtatute or ordinance made to the contrarie. And that the ſame officers be perſons ſufficient and of good fame. And that the ſhiriſes haue due allowance from yéere to yéere during the ſame terme in their accompts, and alſo pardons, that is to ſaye, ſuch as néede to haue ſuch pardons, and that by the aduiſe of the kings councell, and as reaſon and conſcience requireth.

Cap. 6.
Caleys.
Mynt.
Coynage.

Item the king, for the eaſe of the merchants and other reſiant and abyding at Caleys, and alſo to the encreaſe of his money, will and hath ordeined, that his mynt and alſo his coynage ſhal be had and vſed within the ſame towne of Caleys, as long as ſhall pleaſe the king, ſauing to him that that to him of right perteineth of the mynt and coynage aforeſaid.

Chap. 7.
Tyndale.
Examſhire
Franchiſe.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Leiceſter, the laſt day of Aprill, the ſecond yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, at the gréeuous complaint made to him there by certeine of his commons, of that that manie murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, and other offences were done to diuers the kings liege people, dwelling within the franchiſes of Tyndale and Examſhire, by fauour of the franchiſe, where the kings writ doth not renne, To the great miſchiefe and peril of the ſaide liege people, It was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie perſon of the ſame franchiſes, reſiant or abyding within the ſame, of what eſtate or condition that he be, committe anie murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, or conſent to do the ſame out of the ſaid franchiſes, proceſſe ſhoulde be made againſt him by the common lawe, till he were outlawed, and that after ſuch outlagarie pronounced and returned, the iuſtices, before whome ſuch outlagarie ſhall be returned, ſhould thereof make certification to ſuch miniſters and miniſter of the ſaide franchiſes, as to them beſt ſhoulde ſéeme in this behalfe according to their diſcretion. And ſuch felon ſhall be taken by ſuch miniſter or miniſters, and his lands and tenementes, goods and cattals being within the ſame franchiſes, ſeiſed into the hands of the lordes of the ſame franchiſes for the time being as forfait. And that the other lands and tenements, goods and cattals of ſuch felons out of the ſame franchiſes, ſhall wholly abide to the king and to other lords hauing thereof franchiſes as forfait. Sauing alwayes to the king the forfeitures of ſuch murderers, traitors, manſleers, robbers and all other offenders, and of other things which to him perteine as of the right of his crowne. And for as much as like murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, conſentes, and offences, by diuers perſons theeues and fellons called intakers and outparters, dwelling within the fraunchiſe of Rydeſdale, in which fraunchiſe the kinges writte doth not renne as it is ſaide, haue béene done nowe of late in diuerſe places in the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, and elſewhere out of the ſame franchiſe of Rydeſdale, by fauour and ſuccour of the ſame franchiſe, whereof no redreſſe towardes them hath béene had by the lawes heretofore vſed, to the great miſchiefe, perill, and dammage to the people ſo greeued, as our ſoueraigne lorde the king by the gréeuous complaint to him made in this preſent parliament hath fully perceiued. Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing to remedie the ſame, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed in the ſame parliament, that ſuch proceſſe, certification, and execution ſhall be made from henceforth againſt ſuch murderers, manſleers, robbers, conſenters, and offenders, abyding or reſiant within the ſaide franchiſe of Rydeſdale, becauſe of their offences done out of the ſaide franchiſe of Rydeſdale. And alſo ſuch manner forfeitures ſhall runne in all pointes, as well towardes our ſouereigne lorde the king, as againſt all other perſons, as it was ordeined for the ſaide offenders of Tindale and Examſhire, by the ſaide ſtatute made at Leiceſter, and according to the forme and equitie of the ſame ſtatute. Sauing alwayes to the king, that that to him perteyneth in this behalfe, as of the right of his crowne.

Rydeſdale.

Chap.8. Scholers. Oxenford.

Item becauſe that manie clarkes and ſcholers of the vniuerſitie of Oxenforde, vnknowen, armed and arraied in the maner of warre, haue oftentimes diſſeaſed and put out diuerſe perſons of their landes and tenementes in the counties of Oxenforde, Berk. and Bukk. and alſo haue hunted with dogges and grehounds in diuers wareins, parkes, and foreſtes in the ſame counties, as well by daies as by nightes, and taken deere, hares, and conies, and moreouer threatning the keepers of the ſame of their liues, and alſo with ſtrong hande haue taken clarkes conuict of felonie by due proceſſe of the lawe out of the warde of the ordinaries, & thoſe priſoners haue brought with them and let goe at large, as the king by open complaint to him made in this parliament hath conceiued: our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, willing vpon the ſame to ſet remedie, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that due proceſſe ſhall be made againſt ſuch ſcholers wrongdoers, for their offenſes, as the lawe and alſo the ſtatutes of the lande require, according to the caſe, till they come to anſwere, or elſe bee outlawed. And if any ſuch ſcholer be ſo outlawed, then the iuſtices, before whom ſuch outlagarie ſhall be returned, ſhall certifie the chaunceller of the ſaide vniuerſitie for the time being of the ſame outlagarie. And that the ſame chaunceller, vpon ſuch certification had, ſhall doe to be baniſhed maintenaunt and without difficultie, ſuch outlawes out of the ſame vniuerſitie, vpon the payne that perteineth. And that this ordinaunce endure till the next parliament to bee holden after the kinges returne from beyonde the ſea into Englande.

Vniuerſity Chaunceler.

Chap.9. Collector.

Item for as much as the abbates and priors of the realme of England haue had and ſuſteined great damage, loſſes, coſtes, and diſſeaſes before this time, by that that they haue bene aſſigned by the archbiſhops and biſhops of the ſame realme of Englande, to gather the diſmes graunted to the kinges of Englande by the clergie, verie farre from their houſes, and alſo in diuerſe dioceſis and counties, as they haue ſhewed to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king by their petition deliuered in this preſent parliament: The king our ſouereigne lord, hauing thereto conſideration, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no abbat nor prior within the realme of England, ſhalbe by anie archbiſhop or biſhop from henceforth ordeined to bee collector of anie diſmes or ſubſidies, out of the ſame countie where he is dwelling or conuerſant. And this ordinance ſhall ſtande in his force till the parliament, which ſhall be firſt holden after the kinges returne from beyonde the ſea into England.

Chap.10. Newcaſtel. Chaudren. Keles. Sea coles.

Item where as of euerie chawdren of ſea coles, which be or ſhal be ſolde to people not fraunchiſed in the port of the towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine ii. d. be due to the king of cuſtome, and in the ſame port be certeine veſſelles called keles, by which ſuch coles be caried from the lande to the ſhips in the ſaid port. And euerie of the ſaide keles ought to be of the portage of xx. chaudrens, and according to the ſame portage the cuſtome is thereof taken to the kings vſe: There be nowe certein people, that now of late haue made ſuch keles of the portage of xxii. or xxiii. chaudrens, whereof the cuſtome hath bene taken according to the portage of xx. chawdrens onelie in diſceite of the king, as he hath perceiued by complaint in this preſent parliament. It is therefore ordeined and ſtabliſhed againſt ſuch diſceit, that all the keles, which nowe be and hereafter ſhall be in the ſaide port, ſhall be meaſured by certeine commiſſioners thereto to be aſſigned by the king, and marked of what portage they be, before that anie cariage be made by the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture to the king all the veſſels called keles, by which anie ſuch coles ſhalbe caried, before that they be marked in the maner aforeſaide.

Chap.11. Money. Golde.

Item to voide the diſceites and perilles, which long haue continued within the realme by waſſhers, clippers, & counterfeters of the monie of the realme of Englande, to the great damage and miſcheefe of all the people of the ſame realme: The king by the aduiſe and aſſent of all the lordes & commons aſſembled in this parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that from Chriſtmaſſe euen next comming, none of the kinges liege people ſhall receiue anie monie of Engliſh golde in paiment, but by the kings weight therevpon ordeined. And for as much as a great part of the golde nowe currant in paiment, is not of rightfull weight, nor of good allaie, the ſame ſhall be ſent to the coine to the intent that it ſhal be newlie coined of iuſt weight and of good allaie. And becauſe that ſhalbe to the great loſſe and coſtes of the kings ſubiects, vnles it pleaſe him to relieue them in this caſe: Our ſouereigne lord the king of his ſpeciall grace hath remiſed and pardoned to all his liege people, which betwixt this and the ſaide feaſt of Chriſtmaſſe, ſhall doe to bee coined of newe at the kings coinage within the tower of London their monie of golde, that is not of iuſt weight nor of good allaie, that is to ſaie, all that to him perteineth for this newe coinage of ſuch golde, as afore. Sauing alwaies to the maſter of the mint, & to other officers of the ſame, that which to them reaſonablie perteineth.

Chap.12. Rocheſter bridge.

Item it is ordeined, that all the writtes to be purchaſed by the wardens of the new bridge of Rocheſter and their ſucceſſours, or by other againſt them to be purchaſed, ſhall be maintained and ſuſteined by the law of England. And although that the ſaid wardens or anie of them be remoued or expulſed from their ſaid office, or do die, hanging the ſaid writtes, neuertheleſſe the ſame writs ſhall ſtand and be good and effectuall in the lawe for euer.

Here followeth an other ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ſame ix. yeere.

Chap.1
Money.
Gold and Siluer.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the firſt daie of December, in the ninth yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fifth, it is ordeined by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons there aſſembled, that all the ſtatutes and ordinaunces, which haue bene made in the time of the kinges noble progenitors, touching the good and lawfull gouernance of his monie of golde and ſiluer, not repealed, be well and firmelie kept and holden in all pointes.

Chap.2.
Eſchange,
Money.
Coynage.

Item the king in as much as he conuenientlie maie, ſhall doe to be ordeined his eſchaunges of the monie of golde and ſiluer in the citie of London and elſe where in the realme, for the eaſe of his people, which ſhall be holden in open places in high ſtreetes. And that all they that will come to the tower of London, there to haue monie of newe coined, they ſhall haue monie coined, and thereof ſhall be deliuered within eight daies, according to the very valure of that ẏ they ſhall bring thither, paieng the ſeignowrage and cunage of golde after the rate of fiue ſhillings for the pound of the tower, and for the ſeignowrage and cunage of ſiluer fifteene pence for the pounde and no more. And that they that will not approch the tower to doe the ſame, but will be thereof deliuered at the eſchaunges, ſhall paie for the eſchaunge after the rate of a penie for the noble, and for the halfe noble an halfepenie, and for the fourth part of the noble a farthing, with the ſignowrage and coinage, as afore is ſaid.

Chap.3.
Money.
Eſchangers.

Item that the maſters and workers of the monie, and alſo the ſtraungers in all places where monie ſhall be coined, made, or chaunged, ſhall be holden to deliuer and paie all that that ought to perteine to them for ſuch eſchaunge of good and lawfull monie of Englande, by and of iuſt weight, or by the number, of the election of him which ſhall receiue the ſame without anie delaie of difficultie. And if percaſe it happen that anie notable defaulte in the weight of the monie, or in the allaie be found (which God defende) vpon the deliuerie or paiment to bee made at the ſaid tower, or at the eſchaunges aforeſaide, that then it ſhall be well lawfull to euerie perſon that ſhall finde ſuch default, before that he depart the place where the ſame ſhal receiue. And that the maſter, or the chaungers be holden to deliuer to him ſufficient monie for the ſame, without delay, to to melt that that ſo ſhall be found defectiue.

Chap.4
Eſchange.
Gold and ſiluer.
Money.

Item that they which ſhall be wardeines and ſuruciours and miniſters of the eſchaunges out of the tower, ſhall be holden and bounden to bring all the golde and ſiluer that they ſhall receiue by waie of eſchaunge, or ſhall buie by colour of their office, to the tower of London, there to be molten ⁊ made in monie, in augmentation ⁊ encreaſe of the monie, for the profite of the realme and eaſe of the people, without being ſold aliened or put to anie other vſe.

Chap. 5.
Minte.
Caleys.

Item that the kings mint be coined and made at Caleis, in the maner as it hath bene made and gouerned at the tower of London.

Chap.6.
Money.

Item that all the monie of golde and ſiluer that ſhall be made at the tower of London and at Caleis, or elſe where within the realme of Englande, by authoritie roiall, ſhall be made of as good allaie and good weight as it is nowe made at the tower.

Chap.7.
Weight of ẏ noble ⁊c.

Item that the king doe to bee ordeined good and iuſt weight of the noble halfenoble and farthing of gold, with the rates neceſſarie to the ſame, for euerie citie, borough, and market towne of the realme, to be deliuered by the chauncellier of Englande to them that will haue them, to the intent that they be not deceiued by falſe counterfaitors, and them that vſe falſe weight in diſceite of the people

Chap.8
Iuſtices of peace.
Shiriffes.
Eſchetors.
Weights.

Item that the iuſtices of peace, ſhiriffes, eſchetors, and other perſons to be aſſigned by the king, ſhall haue power by commiſſion to enquire of all falſifiers and counterfaiters of falſe weights, ⁊ to take them and impriſon, and in priſon to holde them without mainpriſe, till they bee acquite or attainted, and if they bee attainted, their bodies ſhall abide in pryſon till they haue made fines and raunſomes after the diſcretion of the ſayde iuſtices. And that the ſame iuſtices haue power thereof to enquire, heare, and determine, as often as to them ſhall ſeeme neceſſarie.

Cap.9.
Eſchange.
Staple.
Merchants.

Item where as in an other ſtatute, made the foureteenthe yeere of king Richarde the ſeconde, it was ordeined, that for euerie eſchaunge that ſhall be made by marchantes in the courte of Rome, or elſe where, that the marchantes be fermelie and ſuerlie bounden in the chaunceric, to buie within three monethes after the eſchaunge made, marchaundiſes of the ſtaple, as wolles, lether, wolfelles, lead, or tinne, butter, cheeſe, or clothes, or other commodities of the lande, to the valure of the ſumme ſo eſchanged, vpon forfeiture of the ſame: And ſuch marchantes ſaide in this preſent parliament, that they dare not binde themſelfe to obſerue the effect of the ſame ſtatute, becauſe that within three monethes after ſuch eſchaunges made, they can not buie ⁊ make ſhipping to paſſe ſuch marchaundiſes to the parties beyonde the ſea (as afore is ſayde) to the valure of the ſumme ſo chaunged: And alſo for defaulte of ſuch chaungers there ought to bee made ſuch eſchaunge, ⁊ by diuerſe colours and ſubtilties the kinges monie ſhall be of great likely hoode priuilie caried to the parties beyonde the ſea, and ſuch marchandiſes (as afore) ſhall not bee bought by ſuch marchauntes chaungers, to the great damage of the king and of his people and the realme, if in this preſent parliament remedie be not prouided: Therefore it is ordeined in this preſent parliament, for the profite of the king and of his realme, that all marchantes that ſhall make ſuch eſchanges at the ſaide court of Rome or els where, and euery of them, ſhall be bounde perſonally in the ſaide chauncerie by recogniſance, to buy within nyne monethes after the ſame eſchanges made like marchandiſes and commodities as afore is ſaide, to the valour of the ſummes ſo changed, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame, notwithſtanding the ſaide ſtatute made the ſaide xiiii. yéere. And that all the ordinances aforeſaide ſhall endure till the parliament next to be holden.

Cap. 10. Collectors of xv. and x. Item where as diuers collectors of diſmes and quinſimes graunted to the king of temporall goods, haue béene aſſigned in euerie countie of the realme, and ſome of them haue purpoſed lawfully to yéeld their accompt, and ſome not, ſo that when the kings writs haue iſſued to the ſhirifes to cauſe the ſaid collectors to come to the eſchequer, there for to accompt, the honeſt true men haue commen and brought the rate of their gathering, and the other by brocage and ſubtiltie haue abſented them, and will not come and pay their rate there, and ſo the lawfull may not be diſcharged, but wholly charged of the ſummes, which their companions abſent, ought to haue payde, and alſo oftentimes put in priſon, and their lands and tenements ſeaſed into the kings hands, till they had payed to the king the rate of the gathering of their compaignions, to the great miſchiefe & deſtruction of manie of the kings lawful ſubiectes, as the king hath conceiued at ẏ gréeuous complaint of the commons made here in this preſent parliament: Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, hath ordeined, that the collectors of ſuch diſmes and quinſimes, ſhall haue recouerie by action of Det againſt their compaignions, of the ſummes which they haue ſo paid, & ſhall pay for them, with their double dammages. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the parliament, which ſhall be firſt holden after the returne of the king our ſoueraigne lord into England.

Thus endeth the Statutes made in the time of king Henrie the fifth.

Here beginneth the Statute made at VVeſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the raigne of king Henrie the ſixth.

At the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Monday next before the feaſt of ſaint Martin, the firſt yere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king, Henrie the vi. The ſame king by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance & requeſt of the commons of the realme of England, being aſſembled in this preſent parliament, hath ordeined & ſtabliſhed diuers ordinances and ſtatutes in the forme following.

Chap. 1. Money. Eſchange. Firſt, it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, for the profit of the king and the eaſe of his people, that the lords of the kings councell for the time being, may aſſigne by authoritie of the ſaid parliament, maiſters and workemen to make money of golde and ſiluer, to hold the eſchanges of money, aſwell in the citie of Yorke as in the towne of Briſtow, and alſo in as manie places as to the ſaid lords ſhal ſéeme neceſſarie, after their góod aduiſe and diſcretion, anie ſtatute or ordinance made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Chap. 2. Purueiors. Shirife. Item that all the ſtatutes and ordinances made of purueyours and buyers, and not repealed, be kept and executed in all points, and alſo proclaimed in all counties through the realme by the kings commaundement. And that euery ſhirife of the realme of England, after that he hath receiued the ſaid ſtatutes therof to make proclamation by ſuch commaundement, he ſhall proclaim them euery yere iiii. times through his bailiwike, vpon peine to paye to the king at euery time that he thereof faileth C.s. And that vpon the ſame peine euery of the ſaid ſhirifes ſhal deliuer the ſaid commaundement to his ſucceſſor immediatly by indenture to be made betwixt them, whereby he may make like proclamation for the time that he is in the ſaide office, for the eaſe and ſuertie of the people. Proclamation. And that euery ſuch ſucceſſor, after ſuch commaundement by him receiued, ſhall make ſuch proclamations foure times in the yere, and ſhal make ſuch deliuerance of the ſaid commaundement to his ſucceſſor, as aboue is ſaid, vpon the paine aforeſaid.

Cap. 3. Item foraſmuch as diuers manſlaughters, murders, rapes, robberies, and other felonies, ryotes, conuenticles, and diuers other offences nowe late haue béene done in diuers counties of the realme of England, by people borne in the countrey of Ireland, repairing to the towne of Oxenford, and there reſiant and dwelling vnder the iuriſdiction of the vniuerſitie of Oxenforde, to the Oxenforde great feare of all manner of people of the realme of Englande dwelling there about, as by the commons of the ſame realme aſſembled in the ſaide parliament it was greeuouſly complayned: Our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aſſent aforeſaide, and at the requeſt of the ſame commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all people borne in Ireland, ſhall bee voided out of the realme within a moneth next after proclamation made of this ordinance, vpon peine to loſe their goods, and to be impriſoned at the kings will. Except graduates in the ſcholes, and men hauing benefice of holy church in England, and men of the lawe in England, and thoſe which be inherite in England, Iriſh people. and thoſe that haue father and mother being Engliſh people, religious perſons profeſſed, marchants, burgeſſes, & other inhabitants within cities or boroughs of góod fame, which can finde ſuretie of their good bearing, and Iriſh women married to Engliſh men, and Iriſh men married to Engliſh women, which be of good fame. And that all theſe Iriſh people, which haue benefices or offices in the lande of Ireland, ſhall abide there vpon their benefices and offices, vpon paine to loſe & forfait the profites of their benefices and offices, for the defence of the lande of Ireland aforeſaide, according to the ordinance made in the time of king Henrie the fifth, the firſt yere of his reigne. And that the graduates and beneficed men ſhall finde ſuretie of their good bearing, and that they take not vpon them the principalitie of anie hall or hoſtell, but to dwell amongeſt the Engliſh ſcholers vnder the principalitie of other. Moreouer, that theſe ſcholers of Ireland, which be no graduates, and be of the kings obeiſance, ſhall finde ſuretie of their good bearing, in the manner as the ſaide graduates ſhould do after the manner and forme aforeſaid. And that all the ſcholers of Ireland, being nowe in England, which will here dwell, euery of them ſhal bring to the chaunceller of England for the time being, before the feaſt of Saint Iohn next comming, letters vnder the ſeale of the lieutenant or Iuſtices of Irelande, teſtifying that they be of the kings obeyſance. And of them that bringeth not ſuch letters betwixt this and the ſaide feaſt of ſaint Iohn baptiſt, it ſhall be done as of rebels to our ſoueraigne lorde the king. And that from the ſaide feaſt of ſaint Iohn forward, no perſons borne in Ireland ſhall enter the realme of England to dwell in the ſaid vniuerſitie of Oxenford or of Cambridge, or els where within the realme of England, vnleſſe he bring to the ſaide chauncellor of Englande ſuch letters teſtimonials, vpon peine to be puniſhed as a rebell to our ſoueraigne lord the king.

Ireland.

Scholers.

Letters teſtimonials.

Cap. 4.
Maiſter of the mint
Eſchange.
London.

Item though it hath bene wel ordeined in times paſt, that he that ſhall be maiſter of the mynt ſhall in no wiſe holde the kings eſchange: Neuertheles our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons aforeſaid, will and graunteth, that the maiſter of the mynte at the tower of London, which nowe is, and which for the time ſhall be, may haue and holde the kings eſchange in the citie of London, till the parliament nexte to be holden, ſo that the ſame maiſter do to be ſent to the mynt all that that ſhal come to the eſchange in plate or in maſſe, to be coyned from time to time, vntill the ſaid parliament, taking for the eſchange of the noble in the ſaid eſchange i.d.ob. onely.

Cap. 5.
Gaines of warre.
Gage.

Item at the ſupplication of the ſaid lordes and capitaines that be in life, which haue endented with the gracious king Henry, father to the king that nowe is in all his warres, and alſo the executors of them that be commaunded to God, which haue endented with the ſaide king the father, made by their petition, deliuered in this parliament: The king by the aſſent of all his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and alſo of all the commons being in this parliament, will and graunteth, that the thirdes and the thirde of the thirde of all manner of gaines, gayned by way of warre, perteining to the ſaide king the father, the day of his death, aſwell of priſoners taken as of other gaines of warre, may be deducted and rebated by lawfull accompt in the kings eſchequer, for the ſummes of the wages to them due by the ſaid king the father, according to the effect of the indentures thereof made. Prouided alwayes that if of that which vpon the ſaide accompt found due by the ſaide accomptants aboue the ſaid wages, payment be made by them vpon the ſame accompt, then the ſaide ſuppliants their executors, heires or landtenants after the ſaide accompt and gree made, ſhall be thereof quite and diſcharged for euer. And moreouer the king will and hath ordeideined of the ſaide aſſent, that all they, to whome the ſaide king the father hath deliuered gages, Iewels, and other things, ſhall be before the kings councell before the feaſt of ſaint Iohn baptiſt next comming, with the ſame things and iewels. And in caſe they be not ſatiſfied of their duties, or within halfe a yeere after the ſame feaſt, then they after the ſaide halfe yeere ſhall haue all the ſaide iewels and things in peace and without impechement of the king, paying to the king all that that the ſame Iewels and things ſhall be founde of greater valour, than that wherefore they were put in gage, vnleſſe they bee auncient iewels of the crowne. And that they and their heires, landtenants and executors and euerie of them, ſhall be of the ſame iewels and thinges, which be not auncient iewels of the crowne, quite and diſcharged againſt the king after the halfe yeere for euer.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, in the ſecond yeere of King Henrie the ſixth.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xx. day of October, the ſeconde yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the vi. after the conqueſt, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons of England being in the ſame parliament, certeine ordinancs, declarations and ſtatutes were made and ſtabliſhed to the honour of God, and for the wealth of the king, and of his realme, in the forme following.

Chap. 1.

FIrſt, that holy church, and all the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and all other the kings people hauing liberties and franchiſes, and alſo all the cities and boroughes, ſhall haue and enioy all their liberties and franchiſes well vſed & not repealed, nor by the common law repealable.

Chap. 2.
Hoſpitall.
Thraue.

Item where as the hoſpitall of ſaint Leonard of Yorke, which is of the foundation of the late progenitors of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, late kings of England, and of his patronage, in the firſt foundation of the ſame was endowed by the ſaide progenitors of the king of a thraue of corne to be taken yerely of euerie plough earing within yͤ counties of York, Cumberland, Weſtmerland & Lancaſter, within the prouince of Yorke, of which thraues the maſter & brethren of the ſaid hoſpitall, & their predeceſſors haue bene ſeaſed of the time, whereof runneth no memorie, as parcell of the the firſt foundation of the ſaid hoſpitall, and the ſame they haue leuied and gathered at the feaſt of Saint Martin in winter euerie yeere till now late that diuers people of the ſaid counties, within the prouince aforeſaid, hath witholden the ſame thraues, whereof the ſaid maſter and brethren haue no ſufficient nor couenable remedie at the common lawe, to the great damage of the ſaid hoſpitall, and open ſubtraction of the ſuſtenance of the ſaid maſter and brethren, if remedie be not for them prouided, as complaint was thereof made in the ſaid parliament, The king conſidering the premiſſes, of the aſſent and requeſt aforeſaid hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid maſter and brethren, and their ſucceſſours for the time being, maie leuie, gather, and take the ſaid thraues within the prouince aforeſaid, in the places where they ought of right and were wont after the cuſtome and vſage had in the ſame places heretofore. And alſo that the ſame maſter and ſucceſſours for the time being, ſhall from time to time haue actions by writtes or plaints of debt or detinue at their pleaſure, againſt all them and euerie of them that deteineth the ſame thraues, ſo of right due to the ſaid hoſpital, or anie part of them, for to recouer the ſaid thraues againſt them & euerie of them with their damages in this behalfe. Prouided alwaies that yͤ parties, with whom the ſaid maſter & brethren or their predeceſſours be accorded for ſuch thraues by compoſitions made & ſealed betwixt them, ſhal of no more be charged then is compriſed within yͤ ſame compoſitions, for the poſſeſſions that the ſaid parties had at the time of yͤ making of the aforeſaid compoſitions.

Cap. 3.

Atturney.

Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that John duke of Bedford, vncle to our ſoueraigne lord the king, which is beyond the ſea in the parties of France in the kings ſeruice, in all maner of pleas moued and to be moued againſt anie perſon or perſons of lands and tenements, the reuercion or remainder whereof is to the ſaid duke ioynt or ſeuerall to his owne vſe, he ſhall be by his atturney or atturneis receiued to defend his right. And in the ſame maner ſhall haue and enioy al maner benefites and aduantages, as if he were preſent in his proper perſon. And that this ordinance extend aſwell to receites of reuertions and remainders to be purchaſed & gotten to the ſaid duke ioyntlie or ſeuerallie to his owne vſe, as to receites of reuercions and remainders, which he now hath, as long as he ſhalbe in the kings ſeruice beyond the ſea.

Cap. 4.

Staple.

Caleys.

Berwike.

Marchandiſe of the ſtaple.

Shoten tinne.

Marchants.

Item where as the noble king Edward the third did ordeine his ſtaple to be at Caleys, & that the whole repaire of wolles, wolfelles, lether, lead, tinne, butter, cheeſe, and other marchandiſe, except wollen clothes, and red herring paſſing out of the realme of England, & his lands of Wales and Ireland, and his towne of Berwike vpon Twede, ſhould be at the ſaid towne of Caleys. And after at a parliament holden in the firſt yeere of king Henrie the fourth it was ordeined, that the ſtaple of wolles, wolfels, lether, lead, & tinne, ſhould be wholie at Caleis. Sauing that marchants of Jeane, Venice, Cateloigne, Aragon, and other realmes lands and countreys towards the weſt, being of the kings amitie, maie ſhip at Hampton in carrakes, ſhippes, galeys, and other veſſels, wolles, wolfels, lether, lead, tinne, and other marchandiſes of the ſtaple, and bring them into their countrey towards the Weſt, after the forme of the ſtatute therof made in the ſecond yeere of king Richard the ſecond after the conqueſt. And alſo ſauing to the burgeſſes and marchants of Berwike vpon Twede certaine beneſice to bring the wolles of the growing betwixt the waters of Twede and Coket, to the ſaid place of Berwike, and to ſhippe them towardes what parties it ſhall pleaſe them beyond the ſea. And alſo where as the ſaid ſtatutes in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the ſecond yeere of the raigne of king Henrie the fifth, father to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, were confirmed, and moreouer it was ordeined in the ſame parliament, that no wolles, wolfelles, lether, lead, tinne whole or founded, called ſhoten tinne, nor none other marchandiſe of the ſtaple, whatſoeuer it were ſhould from henceforth be ſent or brought to anie parties beyond the ſea, except they were firſt caried to the ſaid ſtaple, after the forme of the ſaid ordinance made the ſaid firſt yeere, vpon peine of forfaiture of all yͤ marchandiſes in ſuch maner ſent or brought out of the ſaid realme, vnleſſe it be by the kings licence. And except all perſons, goods, & things, which be except in the ſame ordinance, made yͤ ſaid firſt yeere, as in yͤ ſaid ſtatutes is more fullie contained. Neuertheleſſe yͤ lether & founded tinne, called ſhoten tinne, bought and prouided here in England, haue not bene brought to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys, after the forme of the ſaid ſtatutes, but doth paſſe into Flanders, Holand, and Sealand, to the great damage & deminiſhing of the cuſtomes and ſubſidies due to the king, if they were brought to the towne of Caleis, The king willing to eſchew this damages & diminution, by the aduiſe and requeſt aforeſaid, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all the ſtatutes thereof made and not repealed, be holden and kept, and put in due execution. And that the whole repaire of wolles, wolfelles, lether, lead, whole tinne and ſhoten tinne, and all other marchandiſes pertaining to the ſtaple, paſſing out of the realme of England, and of the countreys of Wales and Ireland, be at the ſaid place of Caleys, and at none other place beyond the ſea, as long as the ſaid ſtaple ſhalbe at Caleis, vpon paine of forfaiture of the verie value of the marchandiſes, which ſhall paſſe elſwhere but to the parties towards the Weſt, named in the ſaid ſtatutes thereof made. And that no licence from henceforth be granted to the contrarie, except for wolles, felles, and lether of Northumberland, Weſtmerland, Cumberland, and the biſhopricke of Durham, ſauing yͤ kings prerogatiue. Prouided alwaies that if any marchants vnder colour of any licence ſhip any wolles of the growing of any partie of Yorkeſhire, or of anie other countrey of the realme, except of the growing of yͤ ſame parties of Northumberland, Weſtmerland, merland, Comberland, and the biſhopricke of Durham, they ſhall forfaite to the king the valure of all the wolles ſo ſhipped, and alſo they ſhall loſe the benefite of the ſame licence. And, he that the ſame eſpieth, and thereof giueth knowledge to the treaſurer of England for the time being, ſhall haue the fourth part of the forfaiture ſo by him notified.

Cap. 5. Cuſtome.

Item becauſe that a new ſhipping is found in the pill of Foddray in the countie of Lancaſter, out of which pill and of other créekes within the realme much wolles be brought to Ernemoth in Sealand, and to manie other places beyond the ſea, without cuſtome or ſubſidie thereof duelie paying to the king, and the marchants come to Diuelin in Ireland, and there take their cockets, and paie for euerie ſtone of woll to their proper vſe ii.d. as the king hath bene thereof credibly enformed in the ſaid parliament, to the kings great deceit and fraude, It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed that if anie perſon bring or cauſe to be brought anie wolles or wolſelles not cuſtomed out of the realme, to other places then to the ſaid ſtaple, he ſhall forfait to the king the valure of the marchandiſes ſo ſhipped, and his bodie to priſon, till he hath made and paid a fine and raunſome. And that he that thereof giueth knowledge to the treaſurer of England for the time being, and the treſpaſſour for the ſame duelie conuict, ſhal haue ẏ fourth part of ẏ forfaiture due to ẏ king in this behalfe.

Staple.

Cap. 6. Mint. Money.

Item where as by king Henrie the fifth it was ordeined, that a mynt of golde & ſiluer ſhould be holden within the towne of Caleys, whereby great ſubſtance of money of gold and ſiluer hath bene brought within the realme, which money by diuers perſons hath bene and is dailie caried out of the ſame to Burdeux, Flanders, and other places againſt the ſtatute in olde times made and purueied in this behalfe, as hath bene grieuouſly complained in this parliament, It is ordeined and aſſented, that the ſame ſtatute be holden and kept, and put in due execution. And moreouer it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that no golde nor ſiluer ſhall be caried out of the realme, contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute, vnleſſe it be for paiment of warres and the kings ſouldiours beyond the ſea, vpon peine of forfaiture of the valure of the ſumme of money ſo caried out of the realme, to be leuied of him that the ſame ſhall bring, carie, or ſend out of the ſame realme. And that he that the ſame eſpieth, & thereof giueth knowledge to the counſell, or to the treaſurer of England, ſhall haue the fourth part of the forfaiture ſo due to the king. Except the raunſomes for fines of Engliſh priſoners taken and to be taken beyond the ſea, & the money that the ſouldiers ſhall carie with them for their reaſanable coſtes, and alſo for horſes, oxen, ſhéepe and other things bought in Scotland, to be brought and caried to the parties adioyning, ſo that the money to be ſent for the fines of the ſaid priſoners, or to be caried by the ſaid ſouldiers to the parties beyond the ſea, be not made without the kings ſpeciall licence. And becauſe it is ſuppoſed, that the money of golde of the realme is caried out of the ſame by marchants aliens, It is ordeined & ſtabliſhed, that the marchants aliens ſhall finde ſuretie in the chancerie, euerie companie for them of their companie, that none of them ſhall bring out of the realme no gold nor ſiluer againſt the forme of the ſaid ſtatute vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame golde or ſiluer, or the valure of the ſame. And if anie of them do the contrarie, and that duelie proued, and he ſo doing be gone ouer the ſea, then the pledges of his companie ſhall paie to the king the ſaid forfaiture, whereof he that the ſame hath eſpied, and thereof giuen notice to the treaſurer, or to the kings counſell, ſhall haue the fourth part as afore is ſaid.

Gold ſiluer.

Marchants aliens.

Cap. 7. Cordwayners. Tanners.

Item becauſe that the lether tanned by cordwayners, vſing the miſterie of tanners, and alſo much of the lether tanned by the tanners, is ſo deceitfullie tanned, that the bootes, ſhooes, and other neceſſaries thereof made, be in a ſmall ſeaſon waſted and deſtroyed, becauſe of the euill tanning of the ſaid lether, to the great deceit and loſſe of the commonaltie of the realme, It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie cordwayner dwelling in the realme of England, vſe the miſterie of tanner, during the time that he vſeth the miſterie of cordwayner, that he ſhall forfait to the king for euerie hide by him, or by anie other to his vſe tanned vi.s. viii.d. And that if the cordwayners finde anie notorious defaute in the lether, tanned by the ſaid tanners, or to be tanned, that the tanner of the ſame lether ſo defectiue ſhall forfait to the king in the ſame maner for euerie hide ſo defectiue vi.s. viii.d. And that he that will ſue ſhall haue the one halfe for his labour, and the king the other halfe. And that the iuſtices of the one bench and of the other, iuſtices of aſſiſes, iuſtices of peace, the iuſtices of Cheſter and Lancaſter, and maiors of cities and boroughes, hauing power as iuſtices of peace, ſhall haue power to enquire heare and determine the articles and matters aforeſaid, aſwell at the kings ſuite as the parties, or to attaint them by examination, aſwell, at the ſuite of the king as of the partie, by the diſcretion of the iuſtices and maiors aforeſaid. And that this ordinance & ſtatute begin to hold place & be put in execution at the feaſt of Chriſtmas next comming.

Lether.

Iuſtices of peace.

Cap. 8. Iriſh people.

Item where as it is ordeined in ẏ laſt parliament amongſt other things, that all people borne in Ireland, ſhalbe voyded out of the realme within a moneth next after proclamation made of the ſaid ordinance, vpon paine to loſe their goods and to be impriſoned at the kings will, except certaine perſons in the ſame ordinance excepted, and that the graduates and beneficed men ſhould finde ſuretie of their good bearing, and that they ſhould not take vpon them the principalitie of anie hall or hoſtell, but to abide amongſt other engliſh ſcholers vnder the principalitie of other, and alſo that thoſe ſcholers of Ireland, that be not graduates, and be of the kings obeyſance, ſhall find ſuretie of their good bearing in the maner as the ſaid graduates ſhall do in the forme aforeſaid, And that all the ſcholers of Ireland, being els where in England, that will here abide, ſhall bring euerie of them by himſelfe to the chancellour of England for the time being, before the feaſt of S. Iohn baptiſt laſt paſt, letters vnder the ſeale of the lieutenant or iuſtices of Ireland, witneſſing that that they be of ẏ kings obeiſance. And that of them that bring not theſe letters before ẏ ſaid feaſt of ſaint John, it ſhall be doone as of rebels to ẏ king. And from this feaſt of ſaint John forward, no perſon borne in Ireland, ſhall enter the realme of England to abide in the vniuerſitie of Oxenford or Cambridge, or elſewhere within the realme of England, vnles he bring to the ſaide chaunceller ſuch letters teſtimoniall, vpon paine to be puniſhed as rebels to the king. And for aſmuch as in the ſaide ordinances no mention was made, before whom nor in what maner the ſuertie of good bearing as before, ſhall be found, It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the chauncellers of the vniuerſities of Oxenford & Cantebridge for the time being, euerie of them within his iuriſdiction, ſhall take the ſuerties, to be taken of ſcholers within the ſame vniuerſities, and certifie the ſame into the kings chauncerie. And that the iuſtices of peace within the counties, and maiors and bailiffes within cities and burghes enfranchiſed, haue power to take before them ſuch maner ſuertie of good bearing, and to doo execution againſt them which ſhall abide or doo againſt the ſaid ordinances from henceforth.

Scholers of Ireland

Chauncellers of the vniuerſities.

Iuſtices of peace.

Chap. 9.
Monie.

Item it is ordained, that proclamation be made through all the counties of England within franchiſes and without, and within cities, townes, burghes, and elſewhere, that all the monie called blankes ſhall be wholie out and voided out of the realme before the feaſt of ſaint John baptiſt next comming. And moreouer, that no man after the ſaid feaſt, pay or receaue for payment in anie maner within the ſaid realme, the ſaid moneie called blankes, vpon the ſame paine contained and ordained by a ſtatute made the third yeere of king Henrie, father to our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the king, againſt all them that pay or receiue for payment the moneie called galiehalfepence, ſuſkins, and dotkins within the realme.

Cap. 10.
Courtes.

Item to the intent that the better and more ſure gouernaunce be had within the courtes of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, to his profite, and eaſe of his people, which haue to purſue and to doo in the ſame, It is ordained & ſtabliſhed, that all the officers made by the kings letters patents roiall within the ſaid courtes, which haue power and autoritie by vertue of their offices of olde times accuſtomed to make clerkes and miniſters within the ſame courtes, ſhall be charged and ſworne to make ſuch clerkes and miniſters, for whome they will aunſwere at their perill, which be ſufficient faithfull and intending to that pertaineth of them in the buſines, aſwell of the kings buſines as of his people.

Letters patents.

Cap. 11.
Meaſures

Item where as in old time it was ordained and lawfullie vſed, that tunnes, pipes, tercians, hoggeſheds of Gaſcoine wine, barels of herring and of eeles and buts of ſamon comming by way of marchandiſe into this land, out of ſtrange countries, and alſo made in the ſame land, ſhould be of certeine meaſure that is to ſay, the tunne of wine CC. lii. galons, the pipe C. xxvi. galons, the tercian lxxxiiii. galons, the hoggeſhed three ſcore and three galons, the barell of herring and of eeles xxx. galons fullie packed, the but of ſamon lxxxiiii. galons fullie packed: Neuertheles by imagination and ſubtiltie now late, ſuch veſſels haue bene of much leſſe meaſure to the great diſceite and loſſe of the king and of his people, whereof eſpeciall remedie was praied in this parliament: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no man, after the end of twelue monethes of the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhall bring into the realme of England, of what countrie ſo euer it be, nor make within the ſame realme tunne of wine, except it containe of the Engliſh meaſure CC. lii. galons, the pipe C xxvi. galons, and ſo after the rate, the tercian & the hoggeſhed of Gaſcoine wine, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame wine. Nor barell of herring nor of eeles, vnles they containe xxx. galons fullie packed, nor butte of ſamon, vnles he containe lxxxiiii. galons fullie packed, nor kinderkins, tercians, & firkins, of herring, nor of eeles, nor of ſamon, but after the rate fullie packed, after the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John ẏ baptiſt next comming, vpon paine of forfeiture of ẏ ſaid herring, eeles, & ſamon, ſo brought or made contrarie to this ordinaunce, in what citie, burghe and towne of the realme, or in anie partie of England that ſuch defaultes be found, to the lord of the ſame towne. And that he that will ſue and proue the ſaid defautes, ſhall haue the fourth part of the ſame forfeiture. And the iuſtices of peace in all the counties of England, and maiors and bailiffes, hauing power to enquire of the peace, ſhall enquire here and determine all the ſame defautes. And that this ordinance extend and haue ſtrength, aſwell within the countie of Cheſter, as elſewhere.

Tunne of wine.

Iuſtices of peace.

Cap. 12.
Mint.
Moneie.
Maiſter of the mint

Item to the intent that the more bullion may be brought to the mint, and the greater plentie of white moneie to be made and currant within the realme, for the eaſe and profite of the communaltie of the ſame, it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the maiſter of the mint ſhall keepe his allay in the making of white moneie, according to the forme of his indenture. And that the ſame maiſter receaue of euerie perſon, that ſhall bring anie ſiluer to the mint, the ſame moneie at the true valour as it is worth, according to the ſame allay, vpon paine to pay to the partie his double damages. And alſo to the intent that this ordinance may the better and more iuſtlie be obſerued, it is ordained, that the kings aſſaier, which is a perſon indifferent betwixt the maiſter of the mint and the marchant, and alſo the controller of the mint ſhall be preſent, when anie ſuch bullion of ſiluer is brought to the mint, to the intent that the ſaide aſſaier may rightfull ſet the valour of the ſame according to the lawe, in caſe of variance betwixt the maiſter and the marchant, and the controller to controlle aſwell ſiluer, which is brought to the ſaide mint, as brought out of the ſame, euerie two dayes faithfullie and indifferentlie to doo their deuoyr, without taking anie rewarde other than the fee, which they ſhall take of the king, vpon the paine to yeeld double Allay.

Bullion.

Controller of the mint damages

Changer.

damages as afore is ſaid. And that the aſſaier and controller be credible ſubſtantiall and expert men, hauing perfit knowlege in the miſterie of gouldſmithes and of the mint. And alſo that nother the maiſter of the mint, nor the changer for the time being, ſell nor doo to be ſould, nor alien to none other vſe but to the coine, no maner of gould nor of ſiluer wrought or vnwrought, coined or not coined, or bullion which is brought to the mint, or to the exchange, but applie the ſame onelie to the moneie according to the forme of the ſaide indenture, vpon the paine contained in the ſame indenture. And that the ſame maiſter of the mint cauſe to be ſtricken from time to time halfe nobles, farthings of gould, grotes, halfegrotes, pence, halfepence, and farthings, for the eaſe of the people, according to the tenour of the indenture made betwixt the king and him, vpon the paine contained in the ſame, ſo that the common people may haue recourſe to the exchange for ſmall gould and white moneie as they reaſonablie ſhall néede.

Cap. 13.
Moneie.
Siluer.
Maiſter of the mint.

Item for aſmuch as great ſkarſitie of white moneie is within the realme, becauſe that ſiluer is bought and ſould not coined at the price of xxxii. s. the pound of Troy, where as the ſame pound is no more of valour at the coine then xxxii. s. (abated for the coinage xii. d. it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, for the increaſe of white moneie, that no man, of what eſtate or condition that he be within the realme, ſhall buie or ſell no ſiluer in plate, péece, nor in maſſe, being as good of allay as the ſterling, aboue xxx. s. the pound of Troy, ouer the faſhion, vpon the paine of forfeiture of the double valour of aſmuch as he buieth or ſelleth contrarie to this ordinance. And that the one halfe be forfeite to the kings vſe, and the other halfe to the vſe of him that will ſue and proue the ſame forfeiture. Prouided alwaies that they which go to the coine, may haue and take of the maiſter of the ſame coine, according as is lawfullie contained in the indentures thereof made betwixt the king and him. And alſo the maiſter of the ſaide mint, for the time being, may take and deliuer as is contained in the ſaid indentures without taking more for the eaſe and profite of the common people.

Cap. 14.
Gouldſmith.
Jeweller.
Touch.
Sterling.
London.
Juſtices of peace.
Maiſter of the mint.

Item that no gouldſmith nor worker of ſiluer within the citie of London, ſell no workemanſhip of ſiluer, vnles it be as fine as the ſterling, except the ſame néede ſowder in the making which ſhall be allowed according as the ſowder is neceſſarie to be wrought in the ſame. And that no gouldſmith nor ieweller, nor none other that worketh harneis of ſiluer, ſhall ſet anie of the ſame to ſell within the citie, before that it be touched with the touch, and alſo with a marke or ſigne of the workeman of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double, as afore is ſaide. And that the marke and ſigne of euerie gouldſmith be knowen to the wardens of the craft. And if it may be found, that the ſaid kéeper of the touch, touch anie ſuch harneis with the Leopards hed, except it be as fine in allay as the ſterling, that then the kéeper of the touch for euerie thing ſo proued, not as good in allay as the ſaid ſterling, ſhall forfeite the double valour to the king, and to the partie as is aboue recited. And alſo it is likewiſe ordained in the citie of Yorke, New caſtell vpon Tine, Lincolne, Norwich, Briſtow, Saliſburie, and Couentrie, that euerie ſhall haue diuers touches, according to the ordinances of the maiors, bailiffes, or gouernours of the ſame townes. And that no gouldſmithes, nor other workers of ſiluer, nor kéepers of the ſaide touches within the ſame townes, ſhall ſet to ſale nor touch anie ſiluer in other maner than is ordained before within the citie of London, vpon paine of the ſaide forfeiture. And moreouer that no gouldſmith nor other worker of ſiluer within the realme of England, where no touch is ordained, as afore is ſaide ſhall worke anie ſiluer, except it be as fine in allay as the ſterling, and that the gouldſmith or worker of the ſame ſiluer, ſet vpon the ſame his marke or ſigne, before he ſet in to ſalue. And if it be found, that it is not as fine as the ſterling, that then the worker of the ſame ſhall forfeite the double valour in maner and forme as afore is recited within the citie of London. And that iuſtices of peace, maiors, and bailiffes, and all other hauing power as iuſtices of peace, ſhall here, inquire, and determine, by bill, pleint, or in other maner, all that doo contrarie to the ſaide ordinances, and thereof to make due execution by their diſcretions. Prouided alwaies that if the maiſter of the mint that now is, or which for the time ſhall be offende or haue offended in his office of the ſaide mint, that then he be corrected and iuſtified according to the forme of the ſaide indentures.

Cap. 15.
Nets.
Frie of fiſh
Trinkes.

Item it is ordained, that the ſtanding of nets and engins called trinkes, and all other maner nets, which be and were wont to be faſtened and hanged continuallie day and night by a certaine time in the yéere, to great poſtes botes and ancres ouerthwart the riuer of Thamis and other riuers of the realme, which ſtanding is a cauſe and an occaſion of as great and aſmuch deſtruction of the brood and frie of fiſh, and diſturbaunce of the common paſſage of veſſels, as be the weares, kidels, or anie other engins, be wholie defended for euer. And that euerie perſon that ſetteth or faſteneth them from henceforth to ſuch poſtes, botes, or ancres, or like thing, continuallie to ſtand as afore is ſaide, and be duelie thereof by the courſe of yͤ lawe conuicte, he ſhall forfeite to the king one hundred ſhillings at euerie time that he is ſo proued in default. Prouided alwaies, that it ſhall be lawfull to the poſſeſſours of the ſaide trinkes, if they be of aſſiſe, to fiſh with them in all ſeaſonable times, drawing and conueieng them by hand as other fiſhers doo with other nets, and not faſtning or tacking the ſaid nets to the poſtes, botes, and ancres, continuallie to ſtand as afore is ſaide. Sauing alwaies to euerie of the kings liege people their right title and enheritance in their fiſhings in the ſaide water.

Here

Here beginneth the ſtatutes made at Weſtminſter the third yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

OUr ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons aſſembled in this parliament, holden at Weſtminſter the laſt daie of Aprill, the third yéere of his reigne, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed certaine ordinances and ſtatutes to the honour of God and for the weale of his realme in the forme following.

Cap. 1. Maſons.

FIrſt where as by yͤ yéerelie congregations & confederacies made by the maſons in their generall chapters and aſſemblies, the good courſe and effect of the ſtatutes of laborers be openlie violate and broken, in ſubuertion of the lawe, and to the great damage of all the commons. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, by yͤ aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the eſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that ſuch chapters and congregations ſhall not be from henceforth holden. And if anie ſuch be made, they that cauſe ſuch chapters and congregations to be aſſembled and holden, if they thereof be conuict, ſhall be iudged for felons. And that all the other maſons that come to ſuch chapters and congregations be puniſhed by impriſonment of their bodie, and make fine and raunſome at the kings will.

Cap. 2. Shéepe. Wolles. Caleys.

Item becauſe that diuers perſons do dailie bring out of the realme great number of ſhéepe with fléeſe into Flanders and other countreys beyond the ſea, and there they ſheare them, and ſell aſwell the ſame ſhéepe as the wolles of the ſawe to men of the ſame countrey, ſo that by ſuch perſons the ſhéepe within the ſame countrey of Flanders and other parties in ſhort time be likelie to be greatlie increaſed and multiplied, to the great deceit, loſſe, and damage of our ſoueraigne lord the king of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies of the ſaid wolles, and alſo to the great hinderance of all the realme, and diminution and abatement of the price of wolles aſwell at the ſtaple of Caleys as here in England, vnleſſe remedie be prouided in this behalfe, Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduiſe and aſſent, and requeſt aforeſaid, hath ordeined and granted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be, from henceforth be ſuffered to ſhip within the realme of England any ſhéepe fléeſed or ſhorne into the ſaid countrey of Flanders, or to anie other parties beyond the ſea, except it be to vitaile yͤ towne of Caleys and the marches thereof. And that euerie man that maie be eſpied, which vnder colour of vitailing of the ſame towne and marches of Caleys, paſſeth into anie other places then to the ſame towne and marches, with anie ſhéepe fléeſed or ſhorne, except he haue the kings licence, ſhall forfaite to the king the ſame ſhéepe, or the valure thereof, as oftentimes as he ſhall be found therein defectiue.

Cap. 3. Cuſtomer.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if anie cuſtomer, collectour, or controller of the kings cuſtomes, of cockets of clothes, of ſubſidies, of tunnage or pondage in anie port or place of England, be duelie attainted or conuict at the kings ſuite of falſe conceling of the kings cuſtome, or ſubſidie, duelie entred and paied by anie marchant, that then the ſaid cuſtomer, collectour, or controller, ſo duelie attainted or conuict by the lawe, ſhall loſe and forfaite to the king the treble valure of the marchandiſes ſo duelie cuſtomed, and make fine and raunſome. And he that will ſue, ſhall haue the third part for his labour.

Cap. 4. Staple. Caleis. Chancellour of England.

Item where as by a ſtatute made in the time of the noble king Edward the third it was ordeined, that yͤ ſtaple and yͤ marchandiſes of the ſtaple ſhall be brought to Caleis, amongſt which marchandiſes it was ordeined by the ſame ſtatute, that butter and chéeſe ſhould be marchandiſes of the ſtaple, by which ordinances diuers perſons of the realme of England haue had great damage, becauſe that the ſaid butter and chéeſe be ſo tender marchandiſes, that they maie not tarie their marchants, as our ſoueraigne lord the king hath perceiued by the grieuous complaint of his ſaid commons: The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing to prouide remedie in this behalfe, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that he that will bring butter and chéeſe to anie other parties then to the ſaid ſtaple, ſhal ſue to the chancellour of England for the time being, to haue licence in this partie. And that the ſame chancellour haue power to make to him ſuch licences vnder the kings great ſeale, if it like him ſo to do by his diſcretion.

Cap. 5. Ley the riuer. Commiſſion. Chancellour of England.

Item where as in the laſt parliament it was granted, that a commiſſion for the water called the ley, one of the great riuers, which extendeth from the towne of Ware till yͤ water of Thames, in the counties of Hertford, Eſſex, and Middleſex, to ſuruey, redreſſe, and amend all the defautes in the ſaid water, for the paſſage of ſhippes and botes, as in the ordinances and ſtatutes of the kings noble progenitours is conteined: And foraſmuch as the ſame commiſſion was directed to diuers great men lords and other perſons, which thereto might not attend, It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed that the chancellour of England ſhall haue power to grant ſuch commiſſions at all times néedefull, to ſuch indifferent perſons dwelling thereabout, which thereto beſt can and may entend to enquire, redreſſe, and amend all the defautes being in the ſaid water, aſwell by diuers trenches made out of the ſaid water, as of al other maner ſtankes, kidels, weares or milles, being or made to the annoyance of the paſſage of botes in the ſaid water, according to the purport and tenour of the ſtatutes in this caſe prouided and ordeined.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Leiceſter, the fourth yeere of King Henrie the ſixth.

These be the ordinances and ſtatutes made by our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of his realme, in his parliament holden at Leceſter, the xviii. daie of Februarie, the fourth yéere of his raigne being to the honour of God and for the weale, profite, and eaſe of his realme.

Cap. 1.
Shirifes.

First where a grieuous complaint hath bene made to the king by his commons in this parliament, that where diuers writtes at the ſuite of the parties be ſeuerallie directed to ſhirifes of the realme, to take diuers perſons by their bodies, the ſame ſhirifes, after the writtes to them ſo directed, take great ſummes of money of the parties, which be ſo purſued for their mainpriſe: And moreouer the ſaid ſhirifes do take great ſummes of money, to imbeſill the kings writtes in diuers caſes, to the great impediment and hinderance of the parties purſuing, To the great oppreſſion and impoueriſhing of the common people of the realme: And where as writtes be directed to the ſaid ſhirifes, to impanell diuers perſons to paſſe in enqueſts betwixt parties, and to returne and certifie their names in the kings courtes the ſame ſhirifes do returne and certifie by vertue of the ſaid writtes, the names of diuers men empanelled, without anie warning thereof made to them, to their great loſſe and damage: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euerie ſhirife for the time being, ſhall returne the writtes to him directed in the kings courts, at ſuch daies as they be returnable. And that the ſame ſhirifes in reaſonable time warne all yͤ perſons impanelled, to paſſe in enqueſts in yͤ kings courtes, that they maie appéere at ſuch daies as they haue by yͤ kings writs. And if anie ſhirife do the contrarie of anie of yͤ ſaid articles, then the partie that féeleth themſelfe grieued, maie ſue by bill or writ vpon his caſe againſt the ſhirife, aſwell in the eſchequer as in anie other of the kings courtes, in which ſuites if the ſhirife by conuict, the partie that ſueth ſhall recouer in the ſame ſuite his double damages. And that the iuſtices of peace, ſtewards of léetes and hundreds, haue power to enquire of ſuch miſpriſions and defautes of the ſaid ſhirifes, and to certifie their ſaide enquiries before the iuſtices of deliuerance, ſo that they maie put the ſaide parties to aunſwere: vpon which anſwere if they be found guiltie, they ſhall make fine and raunſome to the king. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the next parliament. And as to the letting to mainpriſe, the ſtatutes made in times paſt and not repealed, being in their owne force, ſhall be holden and kept in all points.

Panels.

Iuſtices of peace.

Cap. 2.
Aſſiſes.

Item where as at yͤ parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſecond daie of Maie, the ix. yéere of the raigne of king Henrie the fifth, father to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, becauſe that the taking of aſſiſes was generallie ceaſed through the realme, by reaſon of an ordinance made by the ſaid late king, our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the diſeaſes & damage, which manie of his liege people haue had and ſuſteined by the ſame ceaſing, commaundeth, that the iuſtices ſhall hold the aſſiſes through the realme in the maner accuſtomed. And for to eſchew the diſheriſon of perſons, which then were paſſed and ſhould paſſe in the voyage of the ſaid late king, and alſo of the perſons which were abiding in the ſeruice of the ſaid king in the parties of Normandie & of France, it was ordeined and prouided, that in euerie protection with the clauſe (Volumus) to be made for any of the ſame perſons, there ſhould be in the clauſe of exception conteined in the ſame, omiſſion of theſe words, Aſſiſe noue diſſeiſin. And that all thoſe protections ſhould be alowable and alowed for them and euerie of them in all the kings courtes and other places, where ſuch protections be ſet forth for any ſuch perſons in all pleas of aſſiſes aſwel of nouel diſſeiſin as of freſh force, without anie difficultie. Prouided alwayes that the iudgements to be giuen from henceforth in ſuch aſſiſes arrained or to be arrained, ſhall not be preiudiciall to anie perſons ſo abiding in the kings ſeruice beyond the ſea, as afore is ſaid, which haue anie thing in reuercion or in remainder in lands or tenements, whereof ſuch aſſiſes were or ſhould be arrained, if they which had in reuercion or in remainder in ſuch lands or tenements, ſhould not be named in the ſame aſſiſes, but that they ſhould be againſt them wholly voide. And this ordinance ſhal indure till yͤ parliament, which ſhalbe firſt holden after the next returne of the ſaid late king into England. And if the ſame ordinance touching the ſaid perſons ſo abiding in the kings ſeruice beyond the ſea, & alſo touching the ſaid perſons which then were paſſed or ſhould paſſe in the ſaid voyage, were not ſufficient for the eaſe and ſuretie of them: It was alſo accorded and aſſented, that the lords of the kings counſell for the time being, ſhould haue full power by authoritie of yͤ ſaid parliament, to ſet, ordeine, & prouide ſufficient remedie for the eaſe and ſuretie of all yͤ ſame perſons, as for them & euery of them ſhould ſéeme to the ſaid lords moſt expedient & auailable in the caſe, after their good aduiſe and diſcretions, which ordinance is determined by the death of the ſaid late king: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the good and gréeable ſeruice, which manie of his faithfull ſubiects haue done to him, and daily doth in the parties beyond the ſea, in yͤ companie of his déere vncle yͤ regent of France duke of Bedford, and of his deputies in the parties of France, and for ſo much willing for their eaſe and ſuretie likewiſe to ordeine and prouide in this caſe: of the aſſent and aduiſe of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and alſo of the commons in this parliament aſſembled, hath ordeined, that the ſaid ordinance made the ſaid ix. yéere ſhall ſtand as a ſtatute and lawe effectuall & auailable in all points for all perſons which now be and hereafter ſhall be abiding in the kings ſeruice in the companie of the ſaid regent, or of his deputies in the parties of France and of Normandie, to endure from the the firſt day of June, the fourth yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, till the end of three yeeres then next folowing. Prouided alwaies that all the entrees to be made after the ſaid firſt day of June, ſhall not be compriſed in this preſent ordinaunce. And that none, which ſhall make ſuch entrees after the ſaide firſt day of June, ſhall haue anie benefite of the ſame ordinannce.

Protection.

Chap. 3.

Miſpriſio of the clerke.

Sillable.

Item where as at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſecond day of May, the ninth yeere of the reigne of king Henrie, father of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, it was rehearſed, how that at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xiii. yeere of king Edward the third, it was ordained by the aucthoritie of the ſaid parliament, that for miſpriſion of the clerke, in whatſoeuer place it be, no proceſſe of plee ſhould be vndone nor diſcontinued by ouerſight in writing a letter or ſillable too much or too little: but as ſoone as the thing were perceiued by chalenge of the parties, or in other maner, it ſhould be haſtelie amended in due forme, without giuing auauntage to the partie that chalengeth the ſame, becauſe of ſuch miſpriſion: The ſaid late king Henrie, conſidering the diuerſitie of opinions, which men had vpon the ſaide ſtatute, and for to put the thing in more open knowledge, did declare and ordaine by aucthoritie of the ſaid parliament, holden the ſaid ninth yeere, that the iuſtices, before whom ſuch plee or recorde is made or ſhalbe depending, aſwell by adiournement as by way of errour or otherwiſe, ſhall haue power & aucthoritie to amend ſuch recorde and proces, aſwell after iudgement giuen as before, by force of the ſaide ſtatute made in the time of the ſaide king Edward, which ordinance ſhould endure till the next parliament, which ſhould be firſt holden after the returne of the ſaide king Henrie the father into England from beyond the ſea, and which now is determined by the death of the ſaide late king Henrie the father: our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaide ſtatute, and the effect of the ſame, made the ſaid ninth yeere, ſhall hold ſtrength, force, and effect, in euerie recorde and proceſſe of the ſame, aſwell after iudgement giuen vpon a verdict paſſed, as vpon a matter in lawe pleaded, as a ſtatute auailable and effectuall in law to endure for euer. Prouided alwaies that this ſtatute doo not extend to recordes and proceſſes to the parties of Wales, nor to the recordes and proceſſes, whereby anie perſon is or ſhall be outlawed at anie mans ſuite.

Wales.

Chap. 4.

Knightes.

Item our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all the writs, ſuites, and proceſſes, which all the knightes that were made knightes by the king in the time of this parliament holden, haue depending, and which euerie of them hath depending, not determined, be good and effectuall, not abatable by the lawe, becauſe that they be made knightes, or becauſe that anie of them is made knight.

Chap. 5.

Corne caried out of the realme.

Item where as the noble king Richard the ſecond after the conqueſt, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fifteenth day of ſaint Hillarie, the ſeuenteenth yeere of his reigne, at the eſpeciall requeſt of the commons of the ſame parliament did graunt licence to all his liege people of his realme of England, to ſhip and carie corne out of the ſaid realme, to what parties them pleaſed, except to enemies, paieng the ſubſidies and deuoyrs thereof due, notwithſtanding anie ordinance, proclamation, or defence, made before to the contrarie. Neuertheleſſe the ſame late king, willing that his counſell might reſtreine the ſaide paſſage when to them ſeemed needefull for the profite of the realme: Our ſouereigne lorde the king, at the eſpeciall requeſt of the commons of this preſent parliament, and by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, will and graunteth, that the ſaide ſtatute be holden and kept in all pointes, ſo that his counſell may reſtreine the ſaide paſſage when to them ſhall ſeeme neceſſarie for the profite of the realme.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ſixt yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

OUr ſouereigne lord the king at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xv. of ſaint Michell, the vi. yeere of his reigne, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the commons of his realme, in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, hath doone to be made certeine ſtatutes and ordinances to the honor of God and for the weale and eaſe of his people in the maner and forme folowing.

Chap. 1.

Inditement. Conſpiratus.

Firſt becauſe that diuers of the kings faithfull ſubiects by falſe imagination couin & conſpiracie of certaine offenders, be endited before our ſouereigne lord yͤ king in his bench of diuers felonies and treaſons by ſuſpect iurours, hired and procured to the ſame by confederacie & couin of yͤ ſaid conſpirators, by force of which enditements a capias is awarded to yͤ ſhiriſe of the countie, where the ſaide bench is returnable within two or foure dayes, at which day if the partie ſo endited come not, & exigend is awarded, whereby the goods and catals of ſuch perſons endited be forfeite to our ſouereigne lord the king, to yͤ finall deſtruction of diuers of yͤ kings faithfull ſubiects, as the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king hath conceiued by the greeuous complaint of yͤ ſaid commons made to him in the ſaid parliament: Our ſaid ſouereigne lord yͤ king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordained by the aduiſe & aſſent of the ſaid lords, yͭ before that anie exigend be awarded againſt ſuch perſons endited before the king in his ſaid bench, writs of capias ſhalbe directed, aſwell to the ſhiriffe or ſhiriffes of yͤ countie, whereof they be named in the enditements, the ſame capias hauing the ſpace of ſixe weekes at the leaſt or longer time by the diſcretion of the Exigend.

iuſtices, if the caſe that require, before the returne of the ſame, which writs ſo returned, the iuſtices ſhall proceede in the maner as they haue doone before this time, and if anie exigend be awarded, or anie oulagarie pronounced hereafter againſt ſuch perſons endited, before the returne of the ſaide writs, the ſame exigend ſo awarded, with the outlagarie thereof pronounced, ſhall be voide and holden for none. And this ordinance ſhall endure as long as ſhall pleaſe the king.

Chap. 2. Aſſiſes. Panell. Copie.

Item becauſe that diuers of the kings liege people in times paſt haue bene diſherited, becauſe that in ſpeciall aſſiſes the tenauntes and defendaunts might not haue knowledge nor copie of the panell of them that be empanelled to paſſe in the ſaid aſſiſes, to enforme them of their right and titles before the day of the ſeſſion that the aſſiſes ſhall be demaunded: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, willing thereof to prouide remedie, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that ye panels of the aſſiſes ſhall be arraied, and a copie indented of the ſame by the ſhiriffe deliuered to plaintiffes, tenauntes, and defendaunts, ſix dayes at the leaſt before the ſeſſion of the iuſtices, if they the ſame demaund. And as to the returne or aunſwere of the bailiffes of franchiſes, they ſhall make their returnes or aunſweres to the ſhiriffes of ſuch ſpeciall aſſiſes ſix dayes before the ſeſſion in the maner as afore. And that vpon paine of fortie poundes to be paied by the ſaide ſhiriffes or bailiffes to the king, as often as they or anie of them doo contrarie to this ordinance or ſtatute.

Chap. 3. Seruaunt of huſbandrie. Iuſtices of peace. Artificers. Maiors. Bailiffes.

Item where as it was ordained in the parliament holden at Cantebridge, the twelfe yeere of king Richard the ſecond, how much euerie ſeruaunt of huſbandrie ſhall take by the yeere for his ſeruice, and if anie doo contrarie to the ſame ordinance, and thereof be attainted, that he ſhall pay, that is to ſay, aſwell the giuer as the taker the exceſſe ſo giuen or taken, and at the ſecond defaute of their atteindre, the double valour of ſuch exceſſe, and at the third defaute, the treble valour, and if the ſaide taker haue not whereof he may pay the ſaid exceſſe, that then he ſhall haue impriſonment of fortie daies. And alſo by an other ſtatute made at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the thirteene yeare of the ſaid late king, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie of England, in their ſeſſions holden betwixt ye feaſt of Eaſter and ſaint Michaell, make proclamation by their diſcretion, according to the derth of vitailes, how euerie maſon, carpenter, tiler, or anie artificers working by the day, aſwell in Auguſt as in other times of the yeere, after their degree, ſhal take the day with meate and drinke betweene the ſaid ſeſſions, as a thing by the ſtatute: which ſtatutes be not kept nor put in execution, that is to ſay the firſt ſtatute, becauſe that the puniſhment in the ſame is two hard vpon the maiſters of ſuch ſeruauntes, for aſmuch as they ſhall be deſtitute of ſeruaunts, if they ſhould not paſſe the ordinance of the ſtatute, & the ſecond ſtatute, becauſe that no paine is limitt againſt him that doth contrarie to the ſame ſtatute: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordained by auctoritie of this parliament, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie for the time being, and the maior of the citie of London for the time being, and the maiors and bailiffes in euerie citie burghe, or towne, ſhall haue ſuch power and auctoritie to make proclamation in their full ſeſſions once by yeare, and ſo in euerie burghe & market towne within their iuriſdiction, how much euerie ſeruant of huſbandrie ſhall take for his ſeruice by the yeere than next folowing, & that they make two times proclamation in two ſeſſions, by them to be holden betwixt the feaſt of Eaſter & ſaint Michaell, & in euerie burghe & market towne, how much euerie artificer & workeman ſhal take by the day, & by the weeke with meate & drinke, or without meat or drinke, aſwell in Auguſt as other times of ye yeere. Prouided alwaies that if anie be retained by the weeke for huſbandrie or other labour, that he ſhall take nothing for the feſtiuall dayes in ſuch weeke, nor for the halfe dayes for the euens of ſuch feaſtes. And that euerie proclamation ſo to be made, be holden as a thing ordained by ſtatute. And if anie ſeruant, artificer, or workeman doo ye contrarie of ſuch proclamation ſo to be made, and be thereof attainted at the kings ſuite, he ſhall forfeite to the king euerie time the valour of his wages, and if he haue not whereof to make gree to the king, he ſhall haue impriſonment of fortie dayes without being let to baile or mainepriſe in anie maner. And that the iuſtices of peace, maiors, and bailiffes aforeſaid, than for the time being, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to heare & determine ſuch offences, aſwell at ye kings ſuite by ſuggeſtion ſurmiſed, as at the ſuite of the partie in ſuch caſe greeued, and thereupon to make and awarde writs of capias as oftentimes as to them ſhall ſeeme well to be doone, againſt ſuch ſeruants artificers and workemen, at euerie perſons ſuite that feeleth him in ſuch caſe greeued or moleſted, returnable before them ſelfe, or before anie other iuſtices of peace or maiors and bailiffes for the time being, at a certaine day in their ſeſſions, at which day if anie ſuch ſeruant, artificer, or workeman come before the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or before maiors, or bailiffes by force of ſuch writs, or in anie other maner, that then the ſame iuſtices of peace, maiors, or bailiffes for the time being. ſhall haue full power and auctoritie to examine by their diſcretion and knowledge, aſwell ſuch ſeruauntes, artificers, and workemen, as their maiſters, how much ſuch ſeruauntes artificers and workemen doo take by the yeere, by the day, and by the weeke. And if they finde by ſuch examination, or by plee betwixt the ſame ſeruaunts, artificers, workemen and their maiſters, the contrarie to be doone of ſuch proclamations ſo to be made, that the ſaide ſeruauntes, artificers, and workemen, and laborers ſhall be puniſhed in the forme aforeſaide. And they ſhall yeeld to the partie greeued his double damages. And if anie of them depart or voide into an other countie, that then it be lawfull to the ſaide iuſtices of peace, maiors, & bailiffes, for the time being, to make and graunt writs of capias as manie and ſuch as be requiſite, directed to the ſhiriffes of the counties where ſuch ſeruantes artificers and workemen be fled, to take their bodies, returnable before them at what time ſhall pleaſe them, ſo that if they come by ſuch proceſſe, they ſhall be put in priſon till they finde ſufficient ſuertie well to ſerue their ſaide maiſters. And that this ſtatute begin to hold place, as to the puniſhment of ſuch ſeruaunts retained by the yeere or by the halfe yeere, after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell next comming, for the offences in this behalfe done by them after the ſaid feaſt. And that all the maiors and bailifies, which be wardens of the peace in anie cities, townes, or burghes, of the realme for the time being, ſhall haue like power correction & execution of the ſaide ordinance ſo to be made, and of all ſtatutes of laborers within the ſaid townes, cities, and burghes, as the iuſtices of peace haue in their counties. And moreouer that the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie, & the maiors and bailiffes in euerie ſuch citie burghe or towne, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to make proclamation and execution of and in the premiſſes as afore is ſaide. And this ordinaunce ſhall endure till the next parliament.

Chap. 4. Knightes of ſhires.

Item where it was ordained and ſtabliſhed in the ſeuenth yeere of king Henrie the fourth, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that now is, that knightes of the ſhires for the parliament ſhould be choſen in the maner and forme folowing, that is to ſay, at the next countie to be holden after the deliuerie of the writ of the parliament, proclamation ſhall be made in the full countie of the day and place of the parliament. And that all they that there be preſent, aſwell ſutors duelie ſommoned for this cauſe as other, ſhall entend to the election of their knightes for the parliament. And than in full countie they ſhall go to the election freelie and indifferentlie, notwithſtanding anie praier or commaundement to the contrarie. And that after that they be choſen, whether ſuch perſons choſen be preſent or abſent, their names ſhall be written in indentures vnder the ſeales of all the chooſers, and annexed to the ſaid writte of the parliament, which indenture ſo ſealed and tacked, ſhall be holden for the returne of the ſaid writ, as to the knightes of the ſaid ſhires. And alſo in the writtes of the parliament hereafter to be made, this clauſe ſhall be put in the maner as foloweth, Et electionem tuam in pleno comitatu tuo factam, diſtincte & aperte ſub ſigillo tuo & ſigillis eorum qui electioni illi interfuerint, nos in cancellaria noſtra ad diem & locum in breui contentos certifices indilate. And for aſmuch as in the ſame ſtatute no paine was ordained nor ſpeciallie put vpon the ſhiriffes of the countie, if they make their returne contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute: It was ordained and ſtabliſhed the xi. yeere of the ſaide king Henrie the fourth, that the iuſtices of aſſiſes ſhould haue power to enquire in their ſeſſions of aſſiſes of ſuch returnes made, and if it be found by enqueſt and due examination before the ſame iuſtices, that anie ſuch ſhiriffe hath made or hereafter make anie returne againſt the tenour of the ſaid ſtatute, that the ſame ſhiriffe ſhould incurre the paine of an C. li. to be paied to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king. And moreouer, that the knightes ſo vnduelie returned ſhall loſe their wages of the parliament in olde times accuſtomed, to the great miſchieues of the ſhiriffes and knightes of the ſhires, which be forbarred and out of their aunſwere againſt ſuch enqueſtes of aſſice taken before the ſaid iudges, becauſe of the ſtatutes and ordinances aforeſaid: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all ẏ knightes of the ſhiree, choſen for this preſent parliament, and the ſhiriffes of the ſame counties, againſt whom anie enqueſtes or offices of vndue election be found before the iuſtices of aſſiſes, ſhall haue their aunſwere and trauers againſt ſuch enqueſtes of office taken. And alſo all the knightes from henceforth ſo to be choſen, and the ſhiriffes that ſhall make ſuch elections, ſhall haue their aunſwere and trauers againſt ſuch enqueſtes and offices before anie iuſtices of aſſiſes from henceforth to be taken, and the ſaide knightes and ſhiriffes ſhall not be endamaged againſt our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king or his ſucceſſours by anie ſuch enqueſt taken or to be taken, till they be duelie conuict by the forme of the lawe.

Shiriffes.

Chap. 5. Commiſſions of ſewers.

Item our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaide conſidering the great damage and loſſes, which now late be happened by the great riſing of waters in diuers parties of the realme, and that much greater damage is verie likelie to enſue, if remedie be not haſtelie prouided, hath ordained and graunted, that by ten yeeres next enſuing, ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhall be made to diuers perſons by the chauncellor of England for the time being, to come in all parties of the realme, where ſhall be needefull, according to the forme as hereafter foloweth.

Henrie by the grace of God king of England. &c. to his welbeloued & faithfull A. B. C. & D. greeting. Know ye, that where as the walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, cauſceis, & weares by the coaſt of the ſea and marſh, within the coaſtes and limits of Lindeſey in the countie of Lincolne, by rage of the ſea flowing and reflowing, and trenches of freſh waters by diuers places deſcending to the ſea, be ſo decaied and broken that manie ineſtimable damages for de faute of reparation of the ſame walles, ditches, gutters, bridges, cauſceis, and weares, in times paſt haue happened there, and yet it is to be dread, that much more hurt within ſhort time ſhall happen, vnles haſtie conuenable remedie be for the ſame prouided: we, for aſmuch as by reaſon of our regall dignitie be bounden, to the ſafegard of our realme round about, willing in this behalfe conuenient haſtie remedie to be adhibit, haue aſſigned you. &c. of which &c. we will to be one our iuſtices to ſuruei e the ſaid walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, cauſceis, weares, and trenches, and to enquire by the othe aſwell of knightes as other good and lawfull men of the ſaide countie, aſwell within liberties as without, by whom the trouth of yͤ matter may be beſt knowen by whoſe defaute ſuch damages haue there happened: And who holdeth lands and tenemets, or hath anie comen of paſture or fiſhing in thoſe parties, or elſe in anie wiſe haue or may haue the defence, profit and ſafegard, aſwell in perill nigh, as from the ſame farre off, by the ſaide walles ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis and weares, and alſo hurt or commoditie by the ſame trenches, and there to diſtreine all them for the quantitie of their lands and tenements, or by the number of acres, or by the carues, for the rate of the portion of their tenure, or for the quantitie of their comen of paſture or fiſhng, together with the bailiffes of liberties and other places of the counties and places aforeſaide, to repaire the ſaide walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, and weares, in the places neceſſarie, and the ſame or other as often and where ſhall be needfull to make of new, and to clenſe the ſaid trenches in places neceſſarie, & if need be to make new: So that no tenauntes of lands or tenements, nor anie, hauing comen of paſture or fiſhing, rich, or poore, nor other of what condition ſtate or dignitie, which haue or may haue defence, commoditie, and ſafegard by the ſaid walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, or weares, or alſo anie hurt by the ſaid trenches, whether they be within liberties or without (ſhall in anie wiſe be ſpared in this behalfe, and for agiſtments vpon the ſea bankes, for ſaluation of the ſaide parties, according to yͤ number of the acres or perches by you. &c. of whom. &c. we will to be one, newlie to number, and as aften and where ſhall neede, of new to make, and to depute certaine diligent and true keepers for the ſaid ſaluation, and to heare the account of the collectours of the moneie, which ſhall happen to be leuied for this cauſe, and to be put in the reparation and amendment of the ſaid walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, and weares, and ſtopping of the ſaid trenches, and to diſtraine by you. &c. of whom. &c. we will to be one, or by other, whome ye ſhall thereto depute, for the arrerages of ſuch collection, as often as ſhall be, and as ye ſhall thinke needefull, and to make and ordaine neceſſarie and couenable ſtatutes & ordinances for the ſaluation & conſeruation of the ſaid ſea bankes and marches, and the parties adioining, according to the lawes & cuſtomes of Romneie marſh, and to heare & determine according to the lawe and cuſtome of our realme of England, & the cuſtome of Romneie marſh all & ſingular the premiſſes, aſwell at our ſuite as the ſuite of anie other that will complaine before you in this behalfe, and for to take & put in the ſaid workings and reparations as manie ditchmakers & other workemen and laborers for the ſaid workemanſhip & reparations as may ſuffice for a competent wages to them in his behalfe to be paied, for the great and haſtie neceſſitie inſtant. And therefore we commaund you, that at certaine dayes and places, which you &c. of whom &c. we will to be one, thereto ſhall prouide, ye ſhall ſuruete the ſaide walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, weares, and trenches. And all and ſingular the premiſſes doo and accompliſh, and heare and determine in the forme aforeſaid, ſo that for defaute of reparation of the ſaide walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, and weares, and ſtopping of the ſaid trenches, no hurt nor perill ſhall in anie wiſe happen, and that ye compell all them, whom ye ſhall finde negligent or rebell in reparation or making of their portions, haſtilie to make and amend the ſame. by diſtreſſes & amerciaments and other waies and meanes which to you ſhall beſt ſeeme for ſuch defautes, and that ye doo all thinges which by you ſhall happen to be ordained in this behalfe aſwell within liberties as without, fermelie to be obſerued, dooing therein as to iuſtices pertaineth according to the law and cuſtome of our realme of England; ſauing to vs the amerciaments and other things thereof to vs pertaining, we haue alſo commaunded our ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie, that at certaine dayes and places, which you &c. of whom. &c. we will to be one, ſhall doo him to know he ſhall doo to come before you. &c. of whom. &c. we will to be one, ſo manie and ſuch good and lawfull men of his bailiwike, aſwell within liberties as without, by whome the trouth of the matter in the premiſſes may beſt be knowen and enquired. In witnes whereof. &c. witnes. &c.

Chap. 6. Melcome port. Staple.

Item it is ordained by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that euerie marchant, aſwll denizen as alien, may freelie and ſafelie ſhip wolles, lether, wolfelles, and other marchandiſes of the ſtaple, in the port of Melcombe, in the countie of Dorſet, and from thence to bring them to the ſtaple of Caleis. paieng the cuſtomes and ſubſidies due to the king. And that no marchant be impeched, moleſted, nor greeued, by the king nor his heires for anie ſhipping of the marchandiſe aforeſaid in the ſaide porte, anie ſtatute ordinance or proclamation made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the eight yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

TO the laud and honor of almightie God, and of the holie mother the church, our moſt noble chriſtian ſoueraigne lord Henrie by the grace of God king of England and Fraunce, and lorde of Ireland, in his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morow after ſaint Matthew the apoſtle, the eight yeere of his reigne by the aduiſe and aſſent of the prelates and great men of his realme of England, and at the ſpeciall requeſt and aſſent of the commons of the ſame realme being in the ſaid parliament, hath ordained certaine ſtatutes and ordinances for the common profit of the ſaide realme, and ſpeciallie for the good and holſome gouernaunce and due execution of the lawe to be had in the ſame, in the forme folowing.

Chap. 1.

Firſt for aſmuch as the prelates and clergie of the realme of England, called to the conuocation, uocation, and their ſeruantes and familiers that come with them to ſuch conuocation, oftentimes and commonlie be arreſted, moleſted, and inquieted, Our ſayde ſouereigne lorde the king, willing gratiouſlie in this behalfe to prouide for the ſecuritie and quietneſſe of the ſayde prelates and clergie, at the ſupplication of the ſame prelates and clergie, and of the aſſent of the great men and commons aforeſaide, hath ordeined and ſtatuted, that all the clergie from henceforth to be called to the conuocation by the kinges writ, and their ſeruantes and familiers, ſhall for euer hereafter fullie vſe and enioy ſuch libertie or defence in comming, tarieng, and going, as the great men and communaltie of the realme of England, called or to be called to the kings parliament, do enioye and were wont to enioy, or in time to come ought to enioye. Prelates. Clergie.

Chap.2. Item becauſe that the kings moſt deare vncle, the king of Denmarke, Norwey and Sweueland, as the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king of his intimation hath vnderſtand, conſidering the manifold and great loſſes, perils, hurts and damage, which haue late happened as well to him and his, as to other foreins and ſtraungers, and alſo friendes & ſpeciall ſubiects of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king of his realme of Englande, by the going in, entring, and paſſage of ſuch forein and ſtraunge perſons into his realme of Norwey and other dominions, ſtreites, territories, iuriſdictions, and places, ſubdued and ſubiect to him, ſpeciallie into his Iles of Fimmarke and elſe where, as well in their perſons as their thinges and goodes, for eſchewing of ſuch loſſes, perilles, hurtes and damages, and that ſuch like (which God prohibit) ſhould not hereafter happen, our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king hath ordeined and ſtatuted, that all and ſinguler ſtraungers, as well Engliſhmen & other, willing to applie by ſhip and come into his realme of Norwey and other dominions, ſtraites, territories, iuriſdictions, Iles and places aforeſaid, with their ſhips, to the intent to get or haue fiſh, or anie other marchandiſes or goods, ſhall applie and come to his towne of Northbarum, where the ſaide king of Denmarke hath ſpeciallie ordeined and ſtabliſhed his ſtaple for the concourſe of ſtraungers, and ſpeciallie of Engliſhmen, to the exerciſe of ſuch marchandiſes, graunting to the ſaide Engliſhmen, that they ſhall there inioy in and by all thinges the ſame fauour priuileges and prerogatiues, which they of the hanſe did inioy. Therefore our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king, willing the loue affinitie & amities to be fermelie obſerued, which betwixt his ſaid vncle and his noble progenitors of good memorie, their realmes, landes, dominions, ſtreites, territories, iuriſdictions, and their ſaid places, and the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king, and his noble progenitors of famous memorie, his great men, ſubiects, realmes, landes, and dominions, hath bene of olde times hetherto continued, nor nothing by our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king or his people to be attempted or done, whereby ſuch amities, by reaſon of anie diſſentions enemities or diſcordes might be broken, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporal, and of the commons of his ſaid realme of England, aſſembled in this preſent parliament, hath ordeined, prohibiting that none of his liege people nor ſubiects of his realme of England, by audacitie of their follie, preſume to enter the realmes, lands dominions, ſtreites, territories, iuriſdictions and places of the ſayde king of Denmarke, againſt the ordinances prohibition and enterdiction of the ſame his vncle aboue remembred, and in contempt of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of all their moueable goods, and impriſonment of their perſon at the kings will. Norwey. Denmarke

Chap.3. Commiſſions of ſewers. Item our ſouereigne lord the king, conſidering how that at yͤ laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the vi. yeere of his reigne, he did ordeine and graunt by authoritie of the ſaid parliament, that ſeuerall commiſſions of ſewers ſhould be made to diuers perſons by the chaunceller of England for the time being to bee named in all parties of the realme, where ſhall bee needefull, vnder a certeine forme in the ſaide ordinance and graunt conteined, by which ordinance and graunt the ſaid commiſſioners had no power nor authoritie, to doe performe nor execute the thinges compriſed within the ſaide commiſſions, and therefore it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed by authoritie of this parliament, that all ſuch commiſſioners ſhall haue power to doe ordeine and execute the ſtatutes ordinaunces and other thinges to be made according to the effect and purport of the ſayde commiſſions.

Chap.4. Liuerie of cloth or hats. Item where as it is ordeined by diuerſe ſtatutes made in the times of the kings noble progenitors, that no knight, nor none other of leſſe eſtate ſhoulde giue anie liuerie of clothes or hats to other then to his meinialles, and his officers and men learned in the one lawe or the other, vpon the paine of a C.s. to be leuied of the giuer, and xl.s. of the taker, as often as they doe the contrarie, and he that woulde ſue ſhoulde haue the one halfe of the paine after that that they thereof be duelie conuict, and that the iuſtices of aſſiſes, and iuſtices of peace in euerie countie of Englande ſhoulde haue power fro time to time in their ſeſſions to enquire of the ſaide matters, and them to heare and determine, as in the ſayde ſtatutes and ordinances fullie appeareth, which ſtatutes and ordinaunces haue not bene duelie kept, becauſe that they that doe contrarie to the ſayde ſtatutes and ordinaunces, before the ſayde iuſtices maie not be endited, for great maintenaunces in this behalfe, Our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing to expell ſuch maintenaunces, hath ordeined by the auctoritie aforeſayde, that the ſayde iuſtices ſhall haue power by the ſame auctoritie, as well at the kinges ſuite as the parties, to awarde writtes of attachment and diſtreſſe againſt all them, which from henceforth doe the contrarie of the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinaunces, in the counties where they holde their ſeſſions, directed to the ſhiriffes of the ſame counties, returnable before the ſame iuſtices or iuſtice for the time being in their ſeſſions And if the ſayde ſhiriffes returne, that they againſt whome ſuch writtes iſſued, haue nothing, then a Capias and Exigend ſhall be awarded againſt them in the maner as ſhall be done againſt them that be endited before iuſtices of peace of treſpaſſes done with force and armes againſt the kings peace. And if they appeare at anie of the ſaide writs, the ſaide iuſtices ſhall haue power by authoritie aforeſaide to examine them of the matters aforeſaide, And they whom they finde by examination, that haue done the contrarie of the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinances, ſhall incurre the paine compriſed in the ſame ſtatutes, that is to ſaie, the giuer a C.s. and the taker xl.s. as often as they doe the contrarie, in the maner and forme as they ought if they were by enqueſt duelie before the ſaide iuſtices conuict, ſo that the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinances extende them (as to examination) to liueries for to be giuen againſt the forme of the ſaid ſtatutes thereof made before this time, after the feaſt of Chriſtmaſſe next comming, Prouided that the ſaide ordinances extende as well in the counties of Cheſter and Lancaſter by the examination and proces as afore is ſaid, of the iuſtice of Cheſter or his lieutenant there, as by examination of the iuſtices of the countie of Lancaſter, ſo to be made againſt all them which ſhall do the contrarie of the ſaide ordinaunces in time to come. Prouided alſo that all the ſtatutes and ordinaunces before made and not repealed of liueries of clothes by lordes giuen or to be giuen againſt the forme of the ſame ſtatutes, ſhall ſtand in their force. And that this ſtatute extende not as to the execution of examination to the maior ſhiriffes of London, for the time that they ſhall be officers, ſerieauntes of the lawe at the time that they take the ſame eſtate vpon them, and them that doe commence in the vniuerſities within the realme of Englande at the time of their commencement, nor to them which for the time aforeſaide ſhall take anie ſuch liueries of them. And alſo that all thoſe that ſhall take anie ſuch liueries of clothes or of hattes of anie lorde ſpirituall or temporall, or of anie great ladie in or of Englande, againſt the forme of the ſaide ſtatutes, they ſhall be likewiſe examined and puniſhed in the maner as that take ſuch liueries of knightes or other of leſſe eſtate as before. Prouided alwaies that in the time of warre it ſhall be lawfull to the lordes, knights and eſquiers, that do trauaile in ſuch warre, to giue their liueries of clothing or of hats to their ſouldiers, and in ſuch wiſe as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme. And that it ſhalbe lawfull to ſuch ſouldiers to take and weare ſuch liueries of clothing or of hats for the time of ſuch warre, without being in anie wiſe moleſted in this partie by force or vertue of the ſame ſtatutes. And that moreouer, if anie perſon, of what eſtate or condition he be, after the ſaid feaſt of Chriſtmas, as of his owne authority & proper coſts do buie or weare for his clothing anie clothes or hats called liueries, of the ſort or of ſuite of anie lord, ladie, knight, eſquier, or other perſon, for to haue ſupportation ſuccour or maintenance in anie quarell or in anie other maner, if he be thereof duely conuict by examination or otherwiſe, before by the ſtatutes declared, he ſhall incurre the paine before limit of them that take liueries of lordes or other perſons aforeſaid, and moreouer ſhall haue a whole yeeres impriſonment without being let to baile or maineprize, for their falſitie and ſubtill imagination in this partie.

Chap. 5.

Weight, meaſure.

Auncell, weight.

Balaunce.

Wollen yarne.

Item where as by the great charter of the liberties of the realme of England, and by a ſtatute made the xxv. yeere of king Edwarde the thirde, it was ordeined, and by a ſtatute made and the xiij. yeere of king Richarde the ſeconde confirmed, that one weight and one meaſure ſhoulde be through all the realme of Englande, as well out of the ſtaple as within, And in the ſame ſtatute of the ſaide noble king Edward, it is conteined, that the weight called auncell, for the great damage and ſubtill diſceites done by the ſame meaſure to the common people, ſhall be vtterlie left and ſet apart, and the wolles and all other maner of marchandiſes, and all other thinges lieng in weight, bought or ſolde ſhall be weighed by the ballaunce, ſo that the tongue of the ballaunce doe not incline more to the one partie then to the other, with weightes ſealed and according to the ſtanderd of the eſchequer. And he that doth contrarie to the damage of the ſeller, ſhall forfeit to the king the value of yͤ goods ſo weighed or meaſured. And that the partie complainaunt haue his quatreble damages. And by the ſayd ſtatute of the ſayd noble king Richard it was added, that the offender ſhall be impriſoned by two yeeres, and make fine and raunſome at the kinges will. And that the iuſtices of peace ſhoulde haue power to enquire of the ſayde defaultes, as well at the kinges ſuite as the parties. Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by authoritie of this parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatutes and ordinaunces aforeſayde ſhall be fermelie kept and holden, and ſtraitlie executed. And moreouer for to eſchewe diuerſe great miſcheeues: which haue happened within the realme of Englande by the ſayde auncell, and ſpeciallie for to deſtroie the falſitie of the regratours of yarne, called Iourne choppers, it is ordeined by our ſayde ſoueraigne lorde the king, by authoritie aforeſayde, that in euerie citie borough and towne of the realme of Englande, a common balaunce ſhall be with common weightes ſealed, and according to the ſtanderd of the eſchequer, vpon the common coſtes of the ſaide citie borough or towne, in the keping of the maior or conſtable of the ſame, to which balaunce and common weight, all the inhabitantes of the ſame citie borough or towne, that haue not ſuch weights, & other that haue, if they wil, may freelie weigh without any thing paieng, taking neuertheleſſe of forens for euery draught within the weight of xl.li. a farthing, and for euerie draught betwixt xl.li. and hundred, an halfepenie, and for euerie draught betwixt C.li. and a thouſand pounde, a penie at the moſt, whereof the weights ſhall be mainteined, and the officer lawfullie weighing, rewarded by the diſcretion of the chiefe of the citie borough or towne, according to his attendance to the ſaide occupation be it more or leſſe. And that no man buie yarne of woll called wollen yarne, vnleſſe he will make cloth thereof, nor vſe weight nor meaſure, nor other thing in the place of weight or meaſure, that is not ſealed according to the ſaide ſtandard, nor ſet one thing to the ſame by the way of taking or hiding, or in anie other maner that may encreaſe the meaſure or weight, or let the balaunce to haue his naturall courſe, vpon the forfeiture and paine aforeſaide. And that the iuſtices of peace, maiors, bailiffes, and ſtewardes of franchiſes, haue power by auctoritie aforeſaid to examine the treſpaſſours in this caſe, and for to enquire in eſpeciall of all offenders againſt this ordinance, and to doo execution againſt them that be found defectiſe, by enqueſtes or by examination to be made by the ſaide iudges of officers in this caſe in the maner as afore is ſaid. And that this ordinance be holden and obſerued from the feaſt of Eaſter next enſuing for euer. And that euerie citie, vpon paine of x. poundes euerie burghe vpon paine of C.s. and euerie towne, where a conſtable is, vpon paine of xl.s. haue a common balaunce with weightes according to the ſaid ſtandard, within two monethes after proclamation made of this ordinance, which paine ſhall be leuied to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, as often as they ſhall be defectiſe after the ſaid proclamation.

Chap. 6.

Bils.

Burnings of houſes.

Item for aſmuch as our ſouereigne lord the king, at the greeuous complaint to him made by the commons of this realme of England in the full parliament hath conceiued, that diuers great miſchieues and ſubtill felonnies and roberies now late haue bene doone in the towne of Cantebridge, and in other places in the countie of Cant. and Eſſex, and in other places of the realme of England, by people offenders vnknowen, which make diuers bils, directed to diuers people of the ſame townes, counties, and other places of the realme of England, commaunding them to put diuers great ſummes of moneie in certaine places, where the ſaide offenders might lightlie carie the ſame away, without being taken or perceiued, certifieng in the ſaid bils, that if they put not the ſame moneie in the places by the ſaide billes aſſigned at a certaine day, that the ſaide offenders would doo the greateſt & moſt outrageous vengeance that they might to all them that would not ſet ſuch ſommes there. And for becauſe that ſuch ſommes haue not bene put in diuers places, according to the purport of the ſame bils, manie houſes & goods and catals of diuers perſons haue bene felonouſlie and traitorouſlie at Cantebridge and elſewhere in the counties and places aforeſaid, burnt and vtterlie deſtroied, whereby, the people and the townes, counties, and other places aforeſaid be greatlie inpoueriſhed, and in point to he finallie deſtroied. The ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordained by auctoritie of this parliament, that all ſuch burnings of houſes of anie perſon, ſhall be iudged high treaſon. And that this ordinance extend aſwell in ſuch burnings made after the firſt day of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king till this time, as to burnings to be made in time to come. Sauing alwaies to all lordes and other perſons their liberties and franchiſes as hath bene doone and vſed before this time, in caſe of forfeiture of felonie.

Chap. 7.

knightes of the ſhires.

Shiriffes.

Item whereas the elections of knightes of the ſhires to come to the parliaments of our ſouereigne lorde the king, in manie counties of the realme of England now late haue bene made by verie great outrageous & exceſſiue number of people, dwelling within the ſame counties of the realme of England, whereof the moſt partie was of the people of ſmall ſubſtance & of no valour, whereof euerie of them pretended a voice equiualent, as to ſuch elections to he made with yͤ moſt worthie knightes and eſquiers dwelling within the ſame counties, whereby manſlaughters, riots, batteries, and diuiſions amongſt the gentlemen & other people of the ſame counties ſhall verie likelie riſe and be, vnles due remedie be purueied in this behalfe. Our ſouereigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath prouided, ordained, and ſtabliſhed, by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that the knightes of the ſhires to be choſen within the ſame realme of England, to come to the parliaments hereafter to be holden, ſhall be choſen in euerie countie of the realme of England by people dwelling & reſiant in the ſame counties, whereof euerie one ſhall haue free land or tenement to the valour of xl. s. by yeere at the leaſt, aboue all charges. And that they yͭ ſhall be ſo choſen, ſhall be abiding & reſiaunt within the ſame counties. And ſuch as haue the greateſt number of them that may expend xl. s. by yeere and aboue, as afore is ſaide, ſhall be returned by the ſhiriffes of euerie countie knightes for the parliament by indentures inſealed betwixt the ſaide ſhiriffes & the ſaid choſers ſo to be made. And euerie ſhiriffe of the realme of England ſhall haue power by the ſaid auctoritie to examine vpon the holie euangeliſts euerie ſuch choſer, how much he may expend by yeere, and if anie ſhiriffe returne knightes, to come to the parliament, contrarie to the ſaid ordinance, the iuſtices of aſſiſes in their ſeſſions of aſſiſes, ſhall haue power by auctoritie aforeſaid, thereof to enquire. And if by enqueſt the ſame be found before the iuſtices, and the ſhiriffe thereof be duelie attainted, that then yͤ ſaid ſhiriffe ſhall incurre the paine of C. li. to be paid to our ſouereigne lord the king, And alſo that he haue impriſonment by a yeere without being let to mainepriſe or baile. And that the knightes for the parliament returned contrarie to the ſaid ordinaunce, ſhall looſe their wages. Prouided alwaies that he that may not expend xl. s. by yeere, as afore is ſaid, ſhall in no wiſe be chooſer of the knightes for the parliament And that in euerie writ that ſhall hereafter go forth to the ſhiriffes, to chooſe knightes for the parliament, mention be made of the ſaide ordinance.

Chap. 8.

Laborers.

Item where as in the laſt parliament a good & notable ſtatute was ordained of laborers ſeruaunts artificers and workemen how much they and euerie of them ſhould take by the yeere, halfeyeere, day, or weeke, and of other thinges compriſed in the ſame ſtatute & ordinaunce, which now be expired, becauſe that they were not ordained to endure but to the next parliament then after to be holden. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering that the ſaide ſtatute and ordinance was in other time made for the weale and come profit of the realme of England, and that they ſhould be much profitable to the ſame realme, if they might endure and be obſerued, hath ordained by autoritie of this parliament, that the ſaide ſtatute and ordinance be holden and kept, and put in due execution till the king hath otherwiſe declared his will in the full parliament.

Chap. 9.

Forcible entrees.

Item where as by the noble king Richard late king of England after the conqueſt the ſecond, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the morow after Alſoules, the xv. yeere of his reigne, amongſt other thinges it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatutes and ordinances made and not repealed of them that make entrées with ſtrong hand and armes into anie lands, tenements, or other poſſeſſions, and them holde in with force and armes, and of them that make inſurrections, riotes, routes, ridings, and aſſembles in diſturbance of the kings peace, or of the common lawe in affraie of his people, ſhould be holden and fullie executed. And moreouer it is ordained by the ſame ſtatute, that at all times that ſuch forcible entrées be made, and complaint thereof come to the iuſtices of peace, or anie of them, that the ſame iuſtices or iuſtice ſhall take the power of the countie, and go to the place where ſuch force is made. And if they finde anie holding ſuch place forciblie after ſuch entrie made, they ſhould be taken and put to the next iayle, there to abide conuict of the recorde of the ſame iuſtices or iuſtice, till they haue made fine and raunſome to the king: And that all the people of the countie, aſwell ſhiriffes, as other, be attending to the ſaid iuſtices, and to enforce them for to arreſt ſuch offenders, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to make fine and raunſome to the king: And that in the ſame maner be doone of them that make forcible entrées into benefices or offices of holie church, as in the ſame ſtatute is contained more at the full: And for aſmuch as the ſaide ſtatute doth not extend to entrées in tenements in peaſible maner, and after holden with force, nor if the perſons which enter with force into anie lands or tenements, be wholie remoued and voided before the comming of the ſaid iuſtices or iuſtice, as before, nor no paine ordained, if the ſhiriffe doo not obeie the commaundements and precepts of the ſaide iuſtices, for to execute the ſaide ordinance, whereby manie wrongfull and forcible entrées be dailie made in lands & tenements by ſuch as haue no right, and alſo diuers giftes feffements and diſcontinuances ſometimes made to lordes and other puiſant perſons and extortioners within the ſaid counties, where they be conuerſant, to haue maintenance, and ſometime to ſuch perſons as be vnknowen to them ſo put out, to the intent to delay and defraud ſuch rightfull poſſeſſours of their right and recouerie for euer, to the finall diſheriſon of diuers of the kings faithfull liege people, and likelie daylie to encreaſe, if due remedie be not prouided in this behalfe: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained, that the ſaide ſtatute, and all other ſtatutes of ſuch entrées or alienations made in times paſt, ſhall be holden and duelie executed: Ioyned to the ſame, that from henceforth, where anie doth make ſuch forcible entrée in landes, tenements, or other poſſeſſions or them holde forciblie, after complaint thereof made within the ſame countie where ſuch entrée is made, to the iuſtices of peace or to one of them by the partie greeued, that the iuſtices or iuſtice ſo warned within a couenable time, doo the ſaid ſtatute dulie to be executed: and that at the coſtes of the partie ſo greeued. And moreouer though that ſuch perſons making ſuch entrées be preſent, or elſe voided before the comming of the ſaid iuſtices or iuſtice, maintenant the ſame iuſtices or iuſtice in ſome good towne next to the tenements ſo entred, or in ſome other conuenient place after their diſcretion, ſhall haue autoritie and power to enquire by the people of the ſame countie, aſwell of them that make ſuch forcible entrées in lands and tenements, as of them which the ſame hold with force. And if it be found before anie of them, that anie doth contrarie to this ſtatute, then the ſaid iuſtices or iuſtice ſhall doo the lands or tenements ſo entred or holden, as afore, to be reſeaſed, and put the partie ſo put out in full poſſeſſion of the ſame lands or tenements ſo entred or holden as before. And if anie perſon after ſuch entrée in lands or tenements holden with force, make a feoffement or other diſcontinuance to anie lorde or other perſon, to haue maintenance, or to tole and defraude the poſſeſſor of his recouerie in anie wiſe, if after in aſſiſe or other action thereof to be taken or purſued before iuſtices of aſſiſes or other the kings iuſtices, whatſoeuer they be, by due enquire thereof to be taken, the ſame feffements and diſcontinuances may be duelie proued to be made for maintenance, as afore is ſaide, that then ſuch feffements or other diſcontinuances, ſo (as before) made, be voide and holden for none. And alſo when the ſaide iuſtices or iuſtice make ſuch enquiries, as before they ſhall doo their warrants and preceps to be directed to the ſhiriffe of the ſame countie, commanding him of the kings behalfe, to cauſe to come before them and euerie of them ſufficient and indifferent perſons, dwelling next aboute the landes ſo entered, as afore to enquire of ſuch entrées, whereof euerie man, which ſhall be empanelled to enquire in this behalfe, haue land or tenement of the yéerelie value of fortie ſhillings by yeere at the leaſt, aboue repriſes, and that the ſhiriffe returne iſſues vpon euerie of them at the day of the firſt precept returnable twentie ſhillings, and at the ſecond day fortie ſhillings, and at the third time an hundred ſhillings, and at euerie day after the double. And if anie ſhiriffe or bailiffe within a franchiſe hauing returne of the kings writte, be ſlacke, and make not execution duelie of the ſaide precepts to him directed, to make ſuch enquiries, that he ſhall forfeite to the king xx. li. for euerie defaute, & moreouer ſhall make fine & raunſome to the king. And that aſwell the iuſtices or iuſtice aforeſaid, as the iuſtices of aſſiſes & euerie of them at their comming into the countrie to take aſſiſes, haue power to heare

Maintenance.

heare and to determine ſuch defaults and negligences of the ſayde ſhiriffes and bailiffes and euerie of them, as well by bill at the ſuite of the partie greeued for him ſelfe, as for the king to ſue by enditement onelie to be taken for the king. And if the ſhiriffe or bailiffe be duelie attainted in this behalfe by enditment or by bill, that he which ſueth for him and for the king, haue the one moite of the forfeiture of xx. li. together with his coſtes and expenſes, and that the ſame proceſſe bee made againſt ſuch perſons endited or ſued by bill in this behalfe, as ſhoulde be againſt perſons endited or ſued by writ of treſpaſſe with force and armes againſt the peace of our ſouereigne lord the king. And moreouer, if anie perſon be put out or diſſeaſed of anie landes or tenementes in forcible maner, or put out peaſiblie and after holden out with ſtrong hand and armes againſt the iuſtice of peace, or after ſuch entrie anie feffement or diſcontinuance in anie wiſe thereof bee made to defraude and take awaie the right of the poſſeſſor, that the partie greeued in this behalfe haue aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin, or a writ of treſpaſſe againſt ſuch diſſeiſor. And if the partie greeued recouer by aſſiſe or by action of treſpaſſe, and it bee founde by verdit or in anie other maner by due forme in the lawe, that the partie defendant entred with force into the lands and tenementes, or them after his entre did holde with force, that the plaintiſe ſhall recouer his treble damages againſt the defendant. And moreouer that he make fine and raunſome to the king. And that maiors iuſtices or iuſtice of peace, ſhiriffes and bailiffes of cities and boroughes, hauing fraunchiſe, haue in the ſaide cities, townes, and boroughes, like power to auoide ſuch entries, and in other articles aforeſayde riſing within the ſame, as the iuſtices of peace and ſhiriffes in counties and countries aforeſaide haue. Prouided alwaies that they which keepe their poſſeſſions with force in anie landes and tenements, whereof they or their aunceſters, or they whoſe eſtate they haue in ſuch landes or tenements, haue continued their poſſeſſions in the ſame by three yeres or more, be not endamaged by force of this ſtatute.

Chap.10
Enditement.
Appeale.

Item our ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering howe diuerſe perſons for their ſinguler vengeaunce and not of right, maliciouſlie by ſubtill imagination haue done and procured diuerſe of his faithfull liege people falſelie to be endited and appealed of diuerſe treaſons fellonies and treſpaſſes before iuſtices of the peace, and other commiſſioners iuſtices, and other hauing power to take enditementes or appeales in diuerſe forren counties liberties and fraunchiſes of Englande, at which the ſayde lieges bee not, nor at anie time were conuerſaunt nor dwelling: By force of which enditementes and appeales, and the proceſſes vpon them made in the ſayd counties fraunchiſes and liberties, the ſayde perſons ſo endited, haue beene and dailie bee put in exigende, and after outlawed, and therevpon their goodes and cattalles landes and tenementes forfeite, and they in great ieopardie of their liues, where as the ſaide perſons ſo endited appealed or put in exigende or outlawed, had neuer knowledge of ſuch enditementes, appeales, exigendes, and outlawries, which falſite and malice dailie doeth abounde and encreaſe in diuerſe counties, liberties, and fraunchiſes of Englande, in great hinderaunce loſſe and perpetuall diſtruction of manie of his ſaide faithfull and innocent liege people, and verie likelie to increaſe hereafter, if couenable remedie be not ordeined and prouided in this behalfe: And therefore the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, of his ſpeciall grace, and by the authoritie of this parliament, for eaſe and tranquillitie of his faithfull lieges of this realme, hath done to be ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that vpon euerie enditement or appeale, by the which anie of the ſaide lieges, dwelling in other counties then there where ſuch enditemente or appeale is or ſhall be taken of treaſon fellonie and treſpaſſe, to be taken hereafter before iuſtices of the peace, or before anie other, hauing power to take ſuch enditementes or appeales, or other commiſſioners or iuſtices in anie countie fraunchiſe or libertie of Englande, before anie exigende awarded vpon anie enditement or appeale in the forme aforeſaide to be taken, that maintenaunt after the firſt writ of Capias, vpon euerie ſuch enditement or appeale awarded and returned, that an other writ of Capias be awarded, directed to the ſhiriffe of the countie, whereof he which is ſo indited, is or was ſuppoſed to bee conuerſant by the ſame enditement, returnable before the ſame iuſtices or commiſſioners, before whom he is indited or appealed, at a certeine daie, conteining the ſpace of three monethes from the date of the ſaide laſt writ, where the counties bee holden from moneth to moneth, and where the counties be holden from vi. weekes to vi. weekes, he ſhall haue the ſpace of foure monethes, vntill the daie of the returne of the ſame writ, by which writ of ſeconde Capias be it conteined and commanded to the ſame ſhiriffe, to take him which is ſo endited or appealed by his bodie, if hee maie bee found within his bailewike, and if he maie not be found within his bailiwike, that the ſaid ſhiriffe ſhall make proclamation in two counties before the returne of the ſame writ, that hee which is ſo endited or appealed, ſhall appeare before the ſayde iuſtices or commiſſioners in the countie, libertie, and fraunchiſe, where he is endited or appealed, at the daie conteined in the ſaid laſt writ of Capias, to anſwere to our ſouereigne lorde the king, or to the partie of the felonie, treaſon, or treſpaſſe, whereof he is ſo endited or appealed, after which ſeconde writ of Capias ſo ſerued and returned, if he which is ſo endited or appealed, come not at the daie of the ſame writ of Capias returned, the exigend ſhalbe awarded againſt ſuch perſons endited or appealed and euerie of them. And if anie exigende hereafter be awarded in anie ſuch enditment or appeale, againſt the forme aforeſaid, or any outlagarie be vpon that pronounced, as well the exigend ſo awarded, as the outlagary vpon that pronounced and euerie of them, ſhall be holden for none and voide, and that the partie, vpon whom ſuch exigende againſt the forme aforeſaide, is awarded, or outlagarie pronounced, be not endamaged nor put to loſſe of his goods or cattals lands or tenementes nor of his life. Prouided alwaies that the ſtatute made in the laſt parliament of proceſſes to be made in ſuch caſe before the king in this bench ſtande in his force. And moreouer the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king hath graunted by authoritie aforeſaide, that euerie perſon endited or appealed in the forme aforeſaide, from henceforth after that he be duelie acquit by verdict, that he ſhall haue a writ and action vpon his caſe againſt euerie procurour of ſuch inditementes or appeales. And like proceſſe ſhall be vpon and in the ſame writ, as in a writ of treſpaſſe done with force and armes. And if ſuch procurour be attainted in this behalfe, that the plaintiffe ſhall recouer his treble damages. Prouided alwaies that this ordinance ſhall not extende to inditementes or appeales taken or to be taken within the countie of Cheſter. Prouided alſo, that if anie of the ſaide lieges, or anie of their heires, be or ſhall be appealed or endited of felonie or treaſon, and at the time of the ſame felonie or treaſon ſuppoſed, he is and was conuerſaunt within the countie, whereof the enditement or appeale maketh mention, that like proceſſe be made againſt ſuch indited perſon or appealed, as hath bene vſed alwaies before this time.

Countie of Cheſter.

Chap.11
London.

Item it was ſhewed to our ſaide ſouereigne lorde the king by the ſaide commons for the maior and aldermen and commons of the citie of London, that where as among other fraunchiſes, liberties, and cuſtomes to them by the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king and his noble progenitours graunted and confirmed, it is conteined, that the maner and forme of taking apprentices within the ſayde citie of olde time vſed and continued, be kept and obſerued: And where as it is alſo there vſed by the cuſtomes of the ſame citie of time out of minde continued and approued in the ſame, that euerie perſon, which were not of villeine eſtate or condition, but of frée eſtate and condition, maie put him ſelfe his ſonne or his daughter to be apprentice to anie free man of the ſame citie, to learne his craft or myſterie, and that likewiſe euerie frée man of the ſaide citie maie take euerie ſuch perſon ſonne or daughter to be his apprentice, without impeachment, till nowe of late the ſaid maior aldermen & commons be & haue bene gréeuouſlie vexed and inquieted, by colour of an article of the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fourth, rehearſing by generall wordes, that no man nor woman put their ſonne nor daughter to bee apprentice within anie citie or towne of the realme of Englande, except that he haue land or rent to the value of twentie ſhillings by yere, and that by witnes vnder the ſeales of the iuſtices of peace: nor that none ſhall receiue a prentice to the contrarie, vpon gréeuous paine limitted in the ſayde ſtatute. Our ſouereigne lorde the king conſidering the great hinderaunce which by the ſayde article might returne to the ſayde inhabitauntes of the ſayde citie, if they ſhoulde be by the ſame reſtrained of their ſayde liberties and cuſtomes: and howe in the beginning of the ſame ſtatute it is conteined, that the ſaide citie of London haue and enioye all her liberties, fraunchiſes and cuſtomes, that bee not contrarie to the ſayde article, and alſo conſidering the entire affections and great kindneſſe done and ſhewed to our ſayde ſouereigne lorde the king in all his buſineſſe by the citizens of the ſayde citie of London, and to encourage them the more to ſuch affections and kindneſſe hereafter, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſayde hath ordeined, by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that the ſaide auncient maner, forme and cuſtome, of putting and taking apprentices: vſed and continued in the ſaide citie of London, bee from hence forth kept and obſerued as long as it ſhall pleaſe our ſayde ſouereigne lorde the king, without being for that impeached, or to incurre the payne conteined in the ſayde ſtatute.

Apprentice.

Chap.12
Error.

Item the king hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, by the authoritie of this parliament, that for error aſſigned or to be aſſigned in anie record, proceſſe, or warrant of atturneie, originall writ or indiciall, panell, or returne, in anie places of the ſame raſed or enterlined, or in anie addition ſubſtraction or diminution of words, letters, titles, or parcell of þ letters founde in any ſuch record, proces, warrant of atturneie, writ, panell, or returne, which raſings, enterlinings, addition, ſubſtraction, or diminution, at the diſcretion of the kings iudges of the courtes and places, in which the ſayde recordes and proceſſe by writ of error or otherrwiſe be certified, do appeare ſuſpected, no iudgement nor record ſhall be reuerſed nor adnulled. And that the kings iudges of the courtes and places, in which anie recorde, proceſſe, worde, plée, warrant of atturneie, writ, panell or returne, which for the time ſhall be, ſhall haue power to examine ſuch record, proces, worde, plée, warrant of atturneie, writ, panell, and returne by them and by their clarkes, and to reforme and amende them in affirmaunce of the iudgementes of ſuch recordes and proceſſes, all that that to them in their diſcretion ſéemeth to bée miſpriſion of the clarke in ſuch recordes, proceſſes, worde, plee, warrant of atturneie, writ, panell, and returne, except appeales, enditementes of treaſon, and of felonies, and the outlagaries of the ſame, and the ſubſtance of the proper names, ſurnames, and additions, left out in originall writtes and writtes of Exigende, according to the ſtatute an other time made the ſeconde yeere of king Henrie, father to our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, and in other writs conteining proclamation, ſo that by ſuch miſpriſion of clarke no iudgement ſhalbe reuerſed nor adnulled. And if anie record, proces, writ warrant of atturneie, returne or panell be certified defectiue, otherwiſe then according to the writing, which thereof remaineth in the treaſurie courtes or places, from whence they be certified, the parties in affirmance of the iudgementes of ſuch recordes and proces, ſhall haue auauntage to alleadge variance betwixt the ſame writing and the ſaide certificate. And the found & certified, that ſame variance ſhalbe by the Miſpriſion of the clarke.

ſaide

ſaid iudges reformed and amended according to the firſt writing. And moreouer it is ordeined, that if any record, or parcel of the ſame writ, returne, panel, proces, or warrant of attorney, in the kings courtes of chauncery, eſchequer, the one bench or the other, in his treaſurie, be willingly ſtolen, taken away, withdrawen, or auoyded by anie clerke or other perſon, becauſe whereof any iudgement be reuerſed, that ſuch ſtealar, taker away, withdrawer, and auoider, their procurators, counſellers, and abbettors thereof endited, and by proces thereupon made thereof duely conuict, by their owne confeſſion or by enqueſt to be taken of lawfull men, whereof the one halfe ſhall be of the men of anie court of the ſame courtes, and the other halfe of other, ſhall be iudged for felons, and ſhall incurre the peine of felonie. And that the iudges of the ſaid courts of the one bench or of the other, haue power to heare and determine ſuch defaults before them, and thereof to make due puniſhment, as afore is ſaide. Prouided alwaies that if anie ſuch recorde, proces, writte, or warrant of atturney, panell, or returne, or parcell of the ſame, be nowe or hereafter ſhall be exemplified in the kings chauncerie vnder the great ſeale, and ſuch exemplification there of recorde inrolled, without anie raſing, in the ſame place in the ſame exemplification and the inrolment of the ſame, that an other time for anie error aſſigned or to be aſſigned in the ſaid record, proces, writ, warrant of atturney, panel or returne in anie letter, worde, clauſe, or matter of the ſame varying or contrarie to the ſaide exemplification and the inrollement, there ſhall be no iudgement of the ſaid recordes and proces reuerſed nor adnulled.

Cap. 13.

Item for aſmuch as our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aſſent of his ſage counſell doeth purpoſe, with the ayde of God, to paſſe into his realme of Fraunce, the ſame our ſaide ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and alſo of the commons of this preſent parliament, to eſchew the diſheriſons of all perſons, which be or ſhalbe reteined with our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, to abide in his ſeruice, in the parties beyond the ſea: hath ordeined and prouided, that euery protection to be made with the clauſe of Volumus, for anie of the ſame perſons, there ſhall be conteined in the clauſe of exception in the ſame omiſſion of theſe words, Aſsiſis noue diſſeiſine. And that all theſe protections be allowable and allowed for them and euery of them in all the kings courts and elſewhere, where ſuch protections be put forth for anie ſuch perſon, in al plées of aſſiſes as well of nouel diſſeiſin as freſh force without anie difficultie. Prouided alwayes that the iudgements to be giuen from henceforth in ſuch aſſiſes arrained or to be arrained, be not preiudiciall to anie of the ſaide perſons ſo abyding in the kings ſeruice beyond the ſea, as afore is ſaid, which haue anie thing in reuerſion or in remainder in ſuch lands or tenements, whereof ſuch aſſiſes be or ſhal be arrained, if they which haue in reuerſion or in remainder in ſuch lands or tenements, be not named in the ſame aſſiſes, but that they be againſt them all void. And that this ſtatute ſhall endure for two yéeres next following, if the ſame our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king abyde ſo long in the parties beyond the ſea. Prouided alſo, that all the entrées made or to be made after the firſt day of this preſent parliament, be not compriſed in this preſent ordinance. And that none, which hath made or ſhall make anie ſuch entrées after the ſaid firſt daie of this parliament, haue anie benefite of the ſame ordinance.

Protectiō.

Entrée.

Cap. 14.

Item for as much as great & gréeuous complaint hath beene made to king Henrie late king of England, father to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, at his parliament holden at Leiceſter, the ſecond yeere of his reigne, by the commons of his parliament aforeſaid, of diuers murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblées of people in great number in maner of inſurrections, and of diuers other rebellions and ryots: and after ſuch offences the ſaide felons and offenders flye and withdrawe them to diuers woods and ſecrete places vnknowen and els where, to the intent and purpoſe to auoide the execution of the common lawe, and that they ſhould not be brought to anſwere after the proces of the common lawe: whereupon the ſaide late king, conſidering the aforeſaide complaint, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, in the ſame parliament aſſembled, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, at the requeſt of the ſaid commons that if anie hereafter come into the chauncerie and make complaint duely, that anie ſuch felon or offender, as aforeſaid, hath fled or withdrawen him to anie ſuch place or els where, to the entent aforeſaide, vpon ſuch complaint a bill ſhall be ſufficiently made for the king, and the chauncellor of England for the time being, after ſuch bill to him deliuered, if he may be duely informed, that ſuch bill conteineth trueth, ſhall haue power by his diſcretion to make a writ of Capias at ẏ ſuit of our ſoueraigne lord the king, directed to the ſhirif of the countie or counties, where the ſaid murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, & other offences be ſuppoſed by the ſaid bill to be done & committed, returnable in the ſaide chauncerie, at a certeine daie. And if the perſons conteined in the ſaide writ be taken by the ſaide ſhirife, or yéeld them in the ſame chauncerie, that then ſuch perſons be put in priſon or to mainpriſe after the diſcretion of the chaunceller. And moreouer it ſhall be commaunded to enquire of ſuch offences, and vpon that ſhall be done as the lawe requireth. And if the ſhirife returne at the day of the Capias returnable, that the perſons in the ſame compriſed, for anie of the ſame cauſes aforeſaid, may not be taken by him, nor the ſame perſons do not yeld them in ẏ ſaid chauncerie: that then ẏ ſaid chaunceller ſhall do to be made a writ of proclamation, directed to the ſhirife, returnable in the kings bench at a certeine daie, that he make proclamation in two counties, that the perſons named in the ſaid writte come at the ſaide daie in the aforeſaid bench, there to anſwere to the matter compriſed in the ſaid bill, vpon peine to be conuict of the matter compriſed within the ſaid bill. And in euery ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall be con-

Bill.
Chancellor of Englād.

teined the ſubſtance of the matter compriſed within the ſaide bill. And if they come not at the day of ſuch proclamation returned, then they ſhall be holden and adiudged for conuict and attainted as afore is ſaid. And if they come at the proclamation, it ſhall be enquired of them & done in the manner as afore is ſaid. Prouided that ẏ ſuggeſtions of ſuch ryots be witneſſed to the chauncellor of England by letters ſealed vnder the ſeales of two Juſtices of the peace at the leaſt, and the ſhirife of the countie, where ſuch ryots ſhall be, before that ſuch writ of Capias be graunted. In which writ of Capias, the matter which is compriſed within the ſame bill, ſhall be as well expreſſed as in the writ of proclamation thereof to be made. And if ſuch a caſe happen in the countie palantine of Lancaſter, or elſwhere in franchiſes, where there is a chauncellor and a ſeale, that then the ſaide chauncellor of England do to be written or ſent by the kings writ to the chauncellor of ſuch countie or franchiſe, all the ſuggeſtion in the ſaid bill compriſed, commaunding him to make ſuch execution as in the ſaide article is compriſed. So alwayes that the kings writ out of chauncerie of England ſhall not renne in ſuch countie or franchiſe, otherwiſe than hath béene vſed in time paſſed, & that the ſaid ordinance ſhall ſtand in his force till the ende of the next parliament. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the diuers other murders, manſlaughters, robberies, bateries, aſſemblies of people in great number in manner of inſurrections, and diuers other rebellions & ryots haue béene made in diuers counties of the realme, ſince the making of the ſaide ſtatute, not puniſhed, becauſe that the ſaid ſtatute holdeth no force but till the end of the parliament then next folowing, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that the ſaid late ſtatute ſhall now be kept and firmely holden for a ſtatute for euer, aſwell of murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblées of people in great number, in maner of inſurrections, & diuers other rebellions and ryots made and committed before the beginning of this preſent parliament as in time to come. Prouided alwayes, that it be witneſſed by two Juſtices of the peace of the counties where ſuch ryots ſhal be ſuppoſed, that the common fame & voice renneth in the ſame counties of the ſame ryots, before that the writ of Capias ſhall be awarded. Prouided alſo, that if anie ſuch caſe happen in the ſaid countie palantine of Lancaſter, or els where in a place enfranchiſed, where there is a chauncellor & a ſeale, that then the ſaid chauncellor of ſuch countie or place infranchiſed for the time being after complaint to him duely made and witneſſed by a Juſtice, or the lieutenant of a Juſtice & ſhirife of ſuch countie palantine or place enfranchiſed for the time being, in the forme aforeſaid, ſhall haue like power to award a Capias and a writ of proclamation aforeſaid as the ſaid chauncellor of England hath.

Cap. 15.
Miſpriſiõ.
Error.

Item it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the kings Juſtices, before whome anie miſpriſion or default be or ſhall be founde, be it in anie recordes and proceſſes, which nowe be or ſhall be hanging before them, as well by way of Error as otherwiſe, or in the returnes of the ſame made or to be made by ſhirifes, coroners, bailifes of franchiſes or anie other, by miſpriſion of the clerkes of anie of the ſaid courts of the king, or by miſpriſion of the ſhirifes, vnderſhirifes, coroners, the clerks or other officers clerkes, or anie other miniſters, in writing one letter or one ſillable too much or too little, ſhall haue power to amende ſuch defaultes and miſpriſions by their diſcretion, and by examination thereof by the ſaide Juſtices to be taken, where they ſhall thinke néedefull. Prouided that this ſtatute doe not extende to the recordes and proceſſes in the parties of Wales, nor to the proceſſes and recordes of outlagaries of felonies and treaſons, and the thinges depending vpon the ſame.

Cap. 16.
Eſchetors.

Item to eſchue the dolours, greeuances and diſheriſons, which dayly do happen to manie of the kings liege people by the eſchetors, of that that they do take enqueſtes to enquire before them as well by vertue of the kings writtes as of their offices, fauourably and not duely by people not empanelled nor returned to them by the ſhirifes of the counties, & rather for their ſinguler gayne, and for the diſheriſon of the kings liege people, than for the profit of the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, and alſo becauſe that the landes and tenements of manie of the kinges liege people be ſeiſed into the kings handes vpon ſuch enqueſtes, and other let by the chauncellor or treaſurer to ferme, before that the enqueſtes be returned in the chauncerie of our ſoueraigne lorde the king. It is ordeined by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that no eſchetour nor commiſſioner take in anie wiſe anie enqueſt to enquire, but of people returned and empanelled by the ſhirifes in the countie, within which he is eſchetour or commiſſioner. And if anie eſchetour or commiſſioner take enqueſtes of people, which be not empanelled nor returned by the ſhirife, as is aforeſaide, and thereof by examination or otherwiſe at the ſuite of the partie, which for him ſelfe or for the king or anie other perſon, which will ſue, be duely conuict, for euerie enqueſt ſo taken, that he incurre the paine and forfeiture of fourtie poundes, to be payed, that is to ſay, the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to the partie gréeued, at whoſe ſuite he ſhall be conuict. And that no landes nor tenements ſeiſed into the kings handes, vpon ſuch enqueſtes taken before the eſchetours or commiſſioners, be not in anie wiſe let nor graunted to ferme by the chauncellor or treaſurer of Englande, or any other the kings officer, till the ſame enqueſtes and verdictes be fully returned in the chauncerie, or in the eſchequer, but all ſuch landes and tenements ſhall entirely and continually remaine in the handes of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, vntill the ſaide enqueſts and verdictes be returned, and by a moneth after the ſame returne, if it be not ſo that he or they which féele them gréeued by the ſame enqueſtes, or putting out of their landes and tenements, come into ẏ chauncery, & them profer to trauerſe the ſaid inqueſts, & them offer to take the ſame lands or tenements to farme. And if they ſo do, that then the ſame lands or tenements be committed to them, if they ſhew good euidence, prouing their trauers to be true, after the forme of the ſtatute made the xxxvi. yeere of king Edward the third after the conqueſt, to hold, vntill the iſſue taken vpon the ſame trauers be found and diſcuſſed for the king or for the partie, finding ſufficient ſuretie to ſue the ſaid trauers with effect, and to render and pay to our ſoueraigne lord the king the yeerely value of the lands, whereof the trauers ſhall be ſo taken, if it be diſcuſſed for the king. And if anie letters patents of anie of the lands or tenements be made to the contrarie to anie other perſon, or let to farme within the ſaid moneth, after the ſaid moneth of returne, they ſhalbe voide and holden for none. And that the eſchetours and commiſſioners vpon paine of the forfaiture of twentie pound to be paid, that is to ſay, the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to the partie, at whoſe ſuite he ſhalbe conuict, returne the enqueſts before them taken in to ẏ chancerie of our ſoueraigne lord the king, or into the eſchequer, within a moneth next after the taking of the ſame, and euerie man, which will ſue for the king, ſhall haue the ſuite in this behalfe. Prouided alwayes that this ſtatute begin and take effect & force in the feaſt of Eaſter next comming to endure for euer, and not before.

Enqueſtes

Cap. 17. Staple of Caleys.

Item where as in ẏ time of the kings noble progenitours, for ẏ proſperitie, profit, & wealth of the realme of England, & for the ſuſtentation of the towne of Caleys, it hath bene ordeined by diuers ſtatutes & ordinances, that the ſtaple ſhould be wholly at the ſaid towne of Caleys, & in none other place beyond the ſea, that is to ſay, that all ẏ wolles, wolfels, lether, lead, & tinne, and all other marchandiſes paſſing out of the ſaid realme, & out of the lands of Wales & Ireland, ought whollie to paſſe & repaire to the ſaid ſtaple, & to none other place, vpon paine of ẏ forfaiture of the ſame, except ſuch marchandiſes, which in the ſaid ſtatutes & ordinances be expreſſed and excepted, as in the ſame is more fully conteined, the which ſtatutes & ordinances, the ii. yeere of our ſoueraigne lord ẏ king that now is, were approued, affirmed, & ordeined duely to be executed. Neuertheleſſe aſwell vnder colour of exceptions in the ſaid ſtatutes and ordinances conteined, as by colour of licences granted by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord ẏ king to diuers perſons, a great quantitie of wolles, wolfels, lether, lead & tinne, & many other marchandiſes haue bene continually from time to time, & yet be caried and conueied out of the realme, and of the ſaid lands of Wales & Ireland, into Flanders, Holand, Seland, Brabant, & other parties, not reſorting to the ſaid ſtaple, as they ought to do, wherfore our ſoueraigne lord the king is defrauded of the cuſtomes & ſubſidies, which ought to amount to notable ſummes to his increaſe, if he thereof were duely anſwered & content, and more ouer the kings mint at Caleys is like to be voide, deſolate, & deſtroyed, and the commodities alſo of ẏ marchandiſes of the ſaid realme, for the ſaid cauſes, within ſhort time to be greatly hindered, if remedie be not prouided in this behalfe. Our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering the premiſſes, and willing in this caſe to prouide a remedie, of the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, by the authoritie of the ſaid parliament, hath ordeined, that no perſon ſhip nor do to be ſhipped from henceforth no maner of wolles, wolfels, lether, lead, nor tinne, whole nor ſhoten, nor ẏ ſame carie nor conuey out of any parties of the ſaid realme, nor out of the lands of Wales nor Ireland, to none other parties beyond the ſea, but all onely to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys, vpon paine of forfaiture of ẏ double valure of the marchandiſes ſo caried or conueyed to any other parties then to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys, & alſo vpon paine of impriſonment of his bodie for the ſpace of two yeeres without baile or mainpriſe. And he which can ſpie anie perſon from henceforth, which offending or doing in any wiſe contrarie to this ordinance, & the ſame offence do preſent to the treaſurer of England for the time being, & the treſpaſſour thereof duely conuict, or if ſuch treſpaſſour confeſſe before the treaſurer & the barons of the eſchequer ſuch treſpaſſes by him done, that then he ſhalbe conuict by his owne confeſſion. And the preſenter ſhall haue for his labour the third part of the forfaiture of the marchandiſes caried or conueied againſt this ordinance. Sauing alwayes that the marchants of Ianes, Venice, Tuſkaine, Lumbardie, Florence and Cateloigne, may ſhip wolles, wolfels, lether, lead, and tinne in their ſhips, galeys, carrackes, and other veſſels, and to bring the ſame into their countrey towards the Weſt, in the maner accuſtomed before this time. Sauing alſo to the burgeſſis of the towne of Berwike vpon Twede the priuiledges and benefites to them before this time granted, as in diuers ſtatutes thereof made is fullie conteined, notwithſtanding this ordinance.

Berwike.

Cap. 18. Staple of Caleys.

Item our ſoueraigne lord the king conſidering certaine articles enſuing, to be conceiued and deſired, aſwell for the profite and wealth of him and his realme vniuerſall, as for the good politike gouernance and ſupportation of his ſtaple of Caleys, by aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & alſo of the commons being in this preſent parliament. by authoritie of the ſame, hath granted the ſame articles to be kept and obſerued, to begin at the feaſt of the Purification of our Ladie next after the beginning of the ſaid parliament, vntill the feaſt of the Annunciation of our Ladie then next following, & from ẏ ſame feaſt of the Annunciation to endure til ẏ end of three yeeres then next following after the forme following, that is to ſay. Firſt that the ordinance & appointment of late made to the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys vpon the wolles, wolfels, & tinne be ſurely kept and obſerued in all theſe v. points following, that is to ſay, that ẏ price of the ſaid wolles, wolfels, and tinne, be not abated, but augmented and put to greater encreaſe and aduantage. Item that ẏ whole paiment be made in hand for the ſaid wolles, wolfels, and tinne, in gold and ſiluer without ſubtiltie or colluſion. Item that the bullion be brought to the mint to Caleys, that is to ſay for euerie ſarpler of wolles, whereof the weight of the ſacke is ſold for xii. markes. Sixe pound, x. markes

Bullion.

v.li.viii.markes.iiii.li. And of the wolſelles after the rate, to be forged in the kings coyne. Item that euerie man that ſhall ſell or do to be ſold anie wolles or wolſels at the ſaid ſtaple of Caleys, ſhall make a lawful and equall particion of the money of the ſame with them which haue ẏ wolles or wolſels of the ſame countrey from whence the wolles or wolſels be, and with whom he is ioyned and aſſociat to make particion, without fraude or male engine. Alſo that at all times the marchants ſellers ſhall make acquitances to the marchants buiers, to be ſealed vnder the ſeale to that ordeined within the ſaid ſtaple, to the intent that no marchant ſeller ſhall from henceforth lend anie maner of money to anie marchant by him receiued of the wolles or felles, but that the ſame money maie be brought within the realme without ſubtiltie or fraude.

Cap. 19.

Staple of Caleis.

Mariner.

Maior of the ſtaple.

Item for aſmuch as oftentimes diuers maner ſtrangers of diuers parties of Flanders, Holland, Sealand, and Brabant, in diuers portes and crekes of the realme take in their ſhippes and veſſels, wolles, wolſels, and other marchandiſes of the ſtaple, which be truſſed in tunnes, pipes, barels, ſackes, fardels and otherwiſe, and the ſame priuilie do put and conceale in their veſſels vnderneth wood, wheate, otes, rie, and in other maner, and ſo carie them into diuers parties beyond the ſea, to the kings great preiudice in diminiſhing of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and to the damage of all the liege people of his realme. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing to eſchue the ſaid preiudices, and againſt ſuch ſubtilties to prouide remedie, hath ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no mariner ſtranger nor other mariner, that is likewiſe owner and maſter of anie ſhip or veſſell, ſhall take nor receiue within England, Wales, nor Ireland in his ſhip or veſſell anie maner of wolles, wolſels, nor other marchandiſes of the ſtaple, nor carie the ſame out of the realme to anie other parties beyond the ſea, but onelie to the ſtaple of Caleis, except ſuch which by the ordinance made, ſhall paſſe ouer the ſtraites of Marrok, and that vpon paine of forfaiture to ẏ king of ſuch ſhips and goods ſo found defectiue, as of the goods the the ſaid mariners being in the ſame ſhips or veſſels. And that the maior of the ſtaple for the time being, ſhall haue power and authoritie to make due ſerch in this partie. And the ſhips, goods, and mariners, if any be thereof found defectiue, for to be preſented and deliuered to the kings councell in England, by iuſt relation thereof to be made by the ſaid maior or his deputie, he hauing for his reward the third part of ẏ forfaitures by him preſented and taken in the maner aforeſaid.

Cap. 20.

Dwellers in Caleis.

Item for aſmuch as the king is enformed, that certaine perſons continuallie inhabiting in the towne of Caleys, with marchants aliens of their affinitie and conſent, for their ſingular lucre, do imagine by ſubtil meanes to diminiſh the price of the commodities of this realme, which heretofore haue bene and yet be greatlie vſed, In ſo much that when the marchants aliens ought to haue repaired to the ſaid towne for to buie wolles & wolſels, they haue bene returned and withdrawne by the ſaid inhabitants, ſo that the poore men haue bene let to ſell their goods, and for great miſchiefe they muſt of neceſſitie ſell their goods to the ſaid inhabitants of Caleys, which will not buie the ſame but greatly within their price, to the great hurt and hinderance of the ſellers, and abatement of the price of the ſaid commodities, The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing thereupon to prouide remedie, for his profite and the auaile of his realme hath ordeined by the ſaide authoritie, that from henceforth no marchant continuallie inhabiting within the ſaid towne of Caleys, ſhall be ſuffered to buie beyond the ſea anie maner of wolles, wolſels, lether, lead, nor tinne, nor other marchandiſe pertaining to the ſtaple, vpon peine of forfaiture of the ſame, as often as it may be proued.

Cap. 21.

Newcaſtel

Berwike.

Scotland.

Item for aſmuch as great noyſe runneth amongſt men of Newcaſtel and Berwike, that if they ſhould bring their wolles to the ſtaple of Caleys, they ſhould be vndone and deſtroyed, where the contrarie is troth, and manie be proued, as the king is enformed (for the maior of the ſtaple and his companions will giue to the ſaid men of Newcaſtle & Berwike for the quantitie of their wolles and wolſels, likewiſe as the king one yeere with an other hath bene anſwered of the cuſtome and ſubſidie of the ſame, and as much as they haue bene ſold for in Flanders or in other places where they do repaire, to be paid at reaſonable termes in golde and ſiluer to be brought into this realme, where not one penie commeth by them now:) The ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering that by the licences of the ſaid men of Newcaſtel and Berwike, great hinderance commeth to him of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and abatement of the price of the commoditie of the realme, hath ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that their ſaid licences ſhall be repealed. And if anie of euill will ſell or carie anie wolles or wolſels, lether, lead, or anie other marchandiſe of the ſtaple in defraude of the king, or hinderance of the commoditie of his realme, into Scotland, that he ſhall forfait the ſame goods, with the double valure, & his bodie to priſon by the ſpace of a yeere.

Cap. 22.

Wolles.

Stranger.

Wolpacker.

Winding of wolles.

Item for as much as great hinderance commeth to the king of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies by them that do clacke and force the good wolles of the realme, for to carie them out of the ſame into ſtrange countreys, It is ordeined, that no ſtranger ſhall do to be forced, clacked, nor barded, no maner of wolles, to carie them out of the realme, vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame wolles with the double valure of the ſame, and of impriſonment of his bodie. And that no wolpacker ſhal make within the realme but good and due packing, nor that no man make no inwinding within ẏ fleeſe of wolles at the winding of his wolles, nor put in the ſame lockes, peltwoll, tarre, ſand, earth, graſſe, nor no dirt. And if anie do, he that feeleth him grieued ſhall haue his action at the common lawe of treſpaſſe and deceit.

Cap. 23.

Weauers.

Item for as much as the weauers within this realme be and heretofore haue bene accuſtomed, that when they haue wrought a cloth neere the end, to cut away to their ſinguler aduantage the thred, which remaineth vnwouen, and call the ſame thrummes, & to the great diſceit of the owners of the ſame clothes they ſell the ſame thrummes to ſuch perſons, which bring the ſame into Flaunders and other places, albeit that the king thereof haue no profit of cuſtome nor ſubſidy, for vnder the colour of ſuch thrummes diuers perſons aſwell ſtrangers as denizens do engroſſe and gather in diuers parties of the ſaid realme great quantitie of wollen thread, called wollen yarne, and the ſame do bring to the ſaid ſtrange parties, and thereof make good clothes, ſo that vnder this ſubtill colour the king is yerely greatly defrauded of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, which ought to riſe to him, if they were fully wrought within the ſaid realme, or els if they were not wrought, but in Wolles brought to the ſtaple of Caleys, wherefore it is ordeined, that no man ſhall cary nor bring out of the ſaide realme no manner of thrummes, nor wollen yarne vnder colour of thrummes, vpon peine to forfeit the double valor of the ſame.

Thrummes. Wollen yarne.

Cap. 24. Item for aſmuch as merchants aliens now late haue taken in cuſtome that when they ſell anie of their marchandiſes to anie perſon within the realme, they wil not demaund nor receiue for anie paiment for the ſame anie manner of ſiluer, as they were wont, but onely gold nobles halfe nobles and farthings, which from time to time they do carrie out of the realme into other ſtrange countreys, where they be changed to their encreaſe, and forged in other coynes, ſo that they gaine in the alay of euery noble.xx.d. againſt the tenor of the ſtatutes thereof made, to the great preiudice of the king and of his whole realme. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordeined, that no marchant alien ſhall conſtraine nor bynde anie of the kinges liege people, by promiſe couenant nor liege to make him payment in gold for anie maner of det, which to him may be due, nor refuſe to receiue paiment in ſiluer for anie manner of ſuch duetie or dette, vpon the paine of the double valour of the ſame. And alſo to eſchue the great loſſes, which diuers perſons of this realme of England haue had, & alſo be likely ſo for to haue for their loanes made of their marchaundiſes to marchants aliens, which haue fled with the ſame and dayly take ſanctuaries, It is ordeined, that no Engliſhman ſhall ſell within this realme, nor do to be ſolde from henceforth to anie marchant alien, anie manner of marchandiſes, but onely for readie payment in hand, or els in marchandiſes for marchandiſes to be paide and contented in hande, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame.

Marchant alien. Payment.

Cap. 25. Item for certeine great and notable cauſes concerning the honor of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, & the common weale of all his realme. It is ordeined by authoritie of this parliament, that the Maior of the ſtaple of Caleys, which now is, ſhall ſtand in his office of Maior of the ſame ſtaple, till the feaſt of our Ladie next enſuing, & from the ſaid feaſt till the end of two yeres then next following fully to be fulfilled, notwithſtanding anie ſtatute or ordinance made to the contrary.

Cap. 26. Item it is ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, that in all writs of aſſiſes, and of actions perſonel, ſued or to be ſued before the king in his bench, Iuſtices of the common place, or anie other the kings Iuſtices for the time being, of anie lands or tenements, or of anie thing being and ryſing within anie ſeigniorie, franchiſes, or auncien demeane, whereof the coniſance or iuriſdiction ought to perteine to anie lordes, Maiors, bailifes, citizens, burgeſſes, or communaltie of ſuch ſeignories, franchiſes or auncien demeane, that then if anie defendant in anie ſuch aſſiſe or other actions perſonal make anie default, to put out, exclude, and expell the aforeſaide lordes, Maiors, bailifes, citizens, burgeſſes, or commonaltie of their coniſance or franchiſe, that the Iuſtices, at the requeſt of the ſaide lords, Maiors, bailifes, citizens, burgeſſes, or comminaltie, ſhall make enquire by the aſſiſe, where ſuch exception is alleged in aſſiſes, and in actions perſonals by enqueſt to be taken before the Iuſtices, if ſuch defaults ſhall be found as afore is ſaide, or not. In which aſſiſe and enqueſt ſo to be taken as well the plaintifes as the lords, Maiors, bailifes, citizens, burgeſes, and commonaltie may haue their challenge. And if it be found by ſuch aſſiſes or enqueſtes, ſo to be taken, that ſuch defaultes ſhall be made by colluſion, to put out and exclude the ſaid lordes, Maiors, bailifes, citizens, burgeſes, or commonaltie of their franchiſes, liberties, conuſances, or iuriſdiction, that in ſuch caſes the ſaid writtes ſhall be abated, and the plaintifes ſhall be in the kings mercie, by conſideration that is ordeined by the ſtatute made the ninth yeere of the reigne of king Henrie, graundfather to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, that if anie Maior, bailife, commonaltie, or lord of auncien demeane, be named in writtes of aſſiſes by colluſion, to put them out of their coniſance or iuriſdiction in this behalfe, that the Iuſtices firſt ſhall enquire by the aſſiſe of the countrey of ſuch colluſion, if the ſaid lordes, Maiors, bailifes, or commonaltie the ſame require. And if it be found by ſuch inquiſition, that they be ſo named by colluſion, that then the writte ſhall abate.

Cogniſance. Iuriſdiction. Challenge.

Cap. 27. Item for as much as the commons of the realme of England being in the ſame parliament, at the inſtance and ſpeciall requeſt of the faithfull liege people of our ſoueraigne lord the king, the bailifes, burgeſſes, and comminaltie of the towne of Tewkeſburie, within the countie of Glouceſter, haue made to our ſoueraigne lorde the king a verie grieuous complaint in the ſame parliament, that where as the ſaid town of Tewkeſburie is adioyning to the riuer of Seuerne, within the ſaide countie of Glouceſter which ryuer is common to all the liege people of our ſoueraigne the king, to carrie and bring within the ſtreame of the ſaide riuer in boates, trowes, and otherwiſe, all manner of marchandiſe and other goods and cattals to Briſtowe, and to euerie partis adioynidg to the ſame riuer, in the which riuer diuers perſons of the ſaid towne of Tewkeſburie often times and nowe of late, haue charged their proper veſſels and trowes with wheat, rye, and other corne & goods, to the valour of v hundred pounds, and ſo the ſame veſſels & trowes ſo charged haue conueyed in the ſame ryuer towardes the ſaide towne of Briſtowe by the coaſtes of the forreſt of Deane, within the ſaid countie of Glouceſter, ioyning to the ſaide ryuer, there haue commen great multitude of people and routs of the commons of the ſame forreſt, and of the hundredes of Blediſlowe and Weſburie, with great ryot and force in manner of warre, as enimies of a ſtrange land, and with force haue ſpoyled the ſame perſons of the ſaid veſſels, and taken of them all their corne and goods within the ſame veſſels, and the ſame perſons haue manaced and threatened to, if they made anie reſiſtance or anie ſuite, quarell, or complaint for the ſame, to the great hinderance, loſſe, and impoueriſhment of the ſaid perſons, and oppreſſion of all the countrey there adioyning. And afterwarde the ſame our ſoueraigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of his councell, ſent his letters of priuie ſeale, directed to diuers perſons of the ſaide forreſt, to make open proclamation that no man of the ſaid forreſt ſhould be ſo hardie to inquiet or diſturbe his people to paſſe by the riuer with all manner of corne, goods & cattals, or anie other marchandiſe, vpon the paine of treaſon, after which proclamation ſo made, the ſaid treſpaſſors came to the ſaide ryuer with more greater routes and ryots than euer they did before, not eſteeming nor regarding the ſaide letters of priuie ſeale, and there ſpoyled at diuers times eight trowes of wheat, ryefloure, and diuers other goods and cattals, and the people of the ſame trowes did throwe ouer the borde, and diuers of them drowned, and the ſternes of the ſaide trowes did cut away, and did threaten the owners of the ſaide goods and cattals, and alſo the people of the ſaide trowes, that they ſhoulde not be ſo hardie to carrie no manner of vitaile by the ſaide ſtreame much nor little, for lorde nor for ladie: And that they woulde hewe all to peeces the ſaide boates, if they came an other time by the coaſtes of the ſaide forreſt of Deane, for the which ryot and rebellion no perſon of the ſaide towne of Tewkeſburie, nor of the countrey adioyning, dare not carrie anie corne nor other goods nor cattals in the ſaide ryuer, nor purſue to haue remedie for ſuch oppreſſions and greeues to them done, for as much as the ſaide forreſt of Deane and hundredes be very large, and the people inhabiting and reſiant in the ſame, verye wylde and nigh adioyning to the countrey of Wales. And all the commons of the ſame forreſt and hundredes of one affinitie and confederacie in malice and ryot, not pondering nor regarding the lawe, nor the officers and miniſters of the ſame, nor caring of the proceſſe nor the puniſhment of the lawe of the lande, in ſo much that they will not obey but at their owne will, anie miniſter of the kinges lawes, nor execution of the ſame, nor the officers nor miniſters of the lawe of the ſaide countie dare not in anie wiſe come into the ſaide forreſt, to execute anie matter or proces of the lawe againſt the will and entent of the commons of the forreſt and hundred aforeſaide. Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, hauing tender reſpect and conſideration of the ſaide miſchiefes, and alſo conſidering the inconueniences, which be like to enſue and followe vppon the ſame, and vppon that willing to reſiſt the malice of ſuch tranſgreſſours and offenders, and to prouide haſtie and couenable remedie for his ſaide faithfull liege people ſo greeued in this behalfe, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, being in this preſent parliament, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaide commons there aſſembled, hath ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that in euerie ſuch caſe hereafter to come, or els had or chaunced this laſt yeere paſſed, the ſhirife of the ſaide countie, or the bailifes of the towne of Glouceſter for the time being, or one of them, vpon peine of forfeiture of twentie poundes to be leuied of their landes, goods, and cattals, to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, make proclamation at the ſaide towne of Glouceſter, within foure daies next after notification made to them or to anie of them by the perſons ſo endammaged, or by anie other in their names, of ſuch iniuries & treſpaſſes done, that the ſaide treſpaſſors & offenders ſhall reſtore in the ſame towne of Glouceſter, within fifteene dayes after the ſaide proclamation to the ſaide perſons ſo endammaged, their ſaide corne and marchandiſes, goods and cattals ſo taken, or the verie value of the ſame, with reaſonable amends for their dammages of ſuch takings. After which proclamation if the ſaide treſpaſſors do not reſtore the ſaide corne and marchaundiſes, goods and cattals, or the valour of the ſame, to the parties ſo grieued in the forme aforeſaide, with reaſonable amends for their dammages, nor that the ſaide treſpaſſours be not brought to the kings priſon to the caſtell of Glouceſter for the ſaide treſpaſſes by the officers of the ſaide forreſt and hundredes, or by the commonalties of the ſame, to be demeaned in ſuch caſe by the king and his councell, that then by conſideration of the ſtatute of Wincheſter put for the robberie of anie perſon. which giueth an action for him, which is robbed, againſt the hundred, within which the ſame robberie is done, after the forme of the ſame ſtatute, the ſaide commonalties ſhall be charged of the ſame corne and marchaundiſes, goods and cattals ſo taken, or of the verey value of the ſame. to the parties ſo greeued, to ſatiſfie them of their dammages for the ſame taking. And that the ſaide parties ſo endammaged and greeued, may haue their generall actions of dett againſt the ſaide commonalties of the ſaide forreſt and hundred, of the ſumme of money, to which the value of the corne, marchaundiſes, goods and cattals ſo taken doe extende.

Tewkeſburie. Seuerne.

Foreſt of Deane.

And although the ſaide commonalties be no commonalties corporate, yet they ſhall haue proces in ſuch actions of dette by ſommons, attachementes, and diſtreſſe, as if he were to haue an action of det at the common law, ſo that if the ſaid commonalties make defaulte at the ſecond diſtres in ſuch actions, that then the party, which ſhal ſue, ſhal haue iudgement to recouer his det againſt the Comminaltie incorporate.

ſaid commonalties, after the ſuppoſell of their goods, in the forme aforeſaid, with his reaſonable damages and expences. And whatſoeuer iſſue triable by enqueſt in the ſaid foreſt and hundreds ſhall happen to be taken in ſuch actions, it ſhall be tried by enqueſt of the bodie of the ſaid countie out of the ſame foreſt and hundreds. And that the goods and catals of euerie ſingular perſon of the ſaid commonalties for their time being, ſhall be had, taken, and holden in lawe conuict, as the common goods and cattals of the ſame commonalties, touching the returne ſeruing and all executions of writtes, proceſſes, and iudgements in and of the ſaid actions. And that euerie ſingular perſon of the ſaid foreſt and commonalties haue power by authoritie of the ſaid parliament, to attach and arreſt the ſaid treſpaſſours by their bodies, aſwell within the ſaid foreſt as without. And them ſo arreſted to commit to the ſaid priſon. And that the keeper of the ſame priſon vpon peine of fortie pound, to be leuied of his goods and cattals lands and tenements, to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, ſhall ſafelie keepe euerie perſon ſo committed to his cuſtodie, till the time that the king or his councell hath ordeined and prouided their deliuerance of record. And if the goods or cattals of anie ſinguler perſon or perſons of the ſaid foreſt and hundreds, being not guiltie of the ſaid roberies, happen to be put in execution becauſe of anie ſuch actions and iudgements, that then the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo being not guiltie, maie haue their ſpeciall action of debt or treſpas vpon their caſe of the goods and cattals ſo put in execution, againſt the ſaid treſpaſſours, to recouer their damages, aſwell for the value of the goods or cattals ſo put in execution, as for their damages and coſtes which happened to be had becauſe of ſuch actions of debt, and they ſhall haue ſuch proceſſes in the ſaid actions of debt or treſpas, as is to be had in the ſaid actions of debt for the ſaid perſons ſo endamaged and ſpoyled.

Cap. 28.
Bridges. Water of Burford.
Way.

Item the king conſidering the great eaſe and profite, which ſhould come to his people by the making of two bridges, that is to ſay, one ouer the water of Burford, and an other ouer the water of Culhamford, in the high way extending from the towne of Abyndon to Dorceſter, in the countie of Oxenford, and by the enlarging, enhauncing, and repairing of the way betwixt the ſaid waters and bridges of the breadth of iiii. perches and viii. ynches, betweene the ditchys of the ſame way, and alſo by the planting and ſetting of certaine trees called poplers and willowes vpon the bankes of the ſaid ditches, for the reparation of the ſame wayes when ſhall be needefull: It is ordeined by the aſſent aforeſaid, that the ſaid bridges and paſſages ouer the ſame, and alſo the ſaid way betweene the ſaid bridges, of the bread aforeſaid, ſhal be and remaine for euer as bridges, paſſages, and a way to all that ſhall paſſe there, aſwell on horſebacke as on foote and otherwiſe, and with all maner of cariages. And that it be lawfull to all the kings liege people to repayre, enhance, and newly to edifie and ſcoure the ſaid bridges, way, paſſages, and ditches in the breadth aforeſaid, and new trees there to plant, and to caſt in the ſaid ditches, clay, marle, grauell, and to digge earth, and to take the ſame, and to cut the branches and buds of the ſame trees in times conuenient, to repaire the ſame, as often as ſhall pleaſe them, without impechment of anie. Sauing alwayes the kings right. And ſauing the abbot of Abindon and his couent and their ſucceſſours, their liberties within the ſaid bridges, paſſages, waters, and ditches, as they were wont, ⁊ all their fiſhing in the ſaid water aboue the ſaid bridges and in the ditches.

Cap. 29.
Maior of the ſtaple.
Enqueſts.
Iurours.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xxviii. yeere of king Edward the third, amongſt other things in fauour and liberties of the marchants ſtrangers, repairing into the realme of England, it was ordeined, that if a plea or debate be moued before the maior of the ſtaple, amongſt the marchants or miniſters of the ſame, and for to trie the troth thereof an enqueſt or proue is to be taken, if the one partie and the other be ſtrange, it ſhould be tried by ſtrangers: And if the one partie and the other be denizens, it ſhould be tried by denizens: And if the one partie be denizen and the other an alien, the one halfe ſhould be of denizens, and the other halfe of aliens: And moreouer that in all enqueſts and proues, which ſhall be taken and made betwixt aliens and denizens, be they marchants or other, aſwell before the maior of the ſtaple, is before anie other iudges or miniſters, although our ſoueraigne lord the king be partie, the one halfe of the enqueſts of proue ſhould be of denizens, ⁊ the other halfe of aliens, if there be ſo manie aliens in the towne or place where ſuch enqueſt or proue is to be taken, that be not parties, nor with the parties in contracts, pleas, or other quarels, whereof ſuch enqueſts or proues ought to be taken and if there be not ſo manie aliens, then ſo manie aliens ſhall be put in ſuch enqueſt or proue as ſhalbe found in the ſame places or townes, which be not parties thereunto, nor with the parties, as before is ſaid, and the remenant of denizens, which be good men and not ſuſpect of the one partie nor of the other. Sithens which ordinance the ſaid marchants aliens haue bene alwayes demeaned ⁊ ruled aſwell in the ſaid ſtaples as in other of the kings courtes, after the forme of this ordinance till now late they haue bene therof reſtrained ⁊ impeched by colour of an other ſtatute made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſecond yeere of king Henrie father of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, by which ſtatute for the great miſchiefes, damages, and diſherisons, which daily do happen through the realme, aſwel in caſe of the death of a man as in caſe of freehold ⁊ other caſes, by them that paſſe in enqueſts in yͤ ſaid caſes, which were common iurours ⁊ other, which had but litle or nought to liue vpon, but by ſuch enqueſts, ⁊ which had nothing to loſe becauſe of their falſe othes, whereby they do the more lightly offend their conſciences. And for amendement ⁊ correction thereof to be had, it was ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed, that no perſon be admitted to paſſe in any enqueſt, triall of yͤ death of a man, nor in no enqueſt betwixt partie ⁊ partie in plea reall

Marchants aliens.

reall or perſonall, whereof the debt and the damages declared do amount to xl. markes, except the ſame perſon haue lands and tenements to the yéerelie value of fortie ſhillings aboue all charges, becauſe of which reſtraint and impechment ſo made to diuers marchants aliens, many of yͤ ſame marchants aliens haue withdrawne, and dailie do withdrawe them and eſchew to come & be conuerſant on this ſide the ſea. And likely it is, that all the ſame marchants aliens will depart out of the ſame realme of England, if the ſaid laſt ſtatute be not more openlie declared, and the ſaid marchants aliens ruled, gouerned, and demeaned in ſuch enqueſts according to the firſt ordinance aforeſaid, to the great diminiſhing of the kings ſubſidies, and grieuous loſſe and damage of all his ſaid realme of England: our ſoueraigne lord the king, conſidering the premiſſes, and how that it was not the mind of the ſaid late king, nor of the lords ſpirituall and temporall of the ſaide parliament, to hinder or preiudice the ſaid firſt ordinance by the ſaid laſt ſtatute, and that the ſaid laſt ſtatute was made becauſe of the miſchiefes and diſheriſons that happened by the falſe othes of the common iurours of the realme of England, as it appeareth by expreſſe wordes of the ſame ſtatute, and how that the ſaid marchants aliens be not common iurours, nor inhabiting within the ſaid realme, nor maie not purchaſe nor enioy anie lands or tenements in the ſame without the kings ſpeciall licence: And the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king willing for ſo much to prouide for the weale and profite of him and all his realme, and for to eſchewe the damages and inconueniences, which maie lightlie happen in this partie, and alſo to giue to the ſaid marchants aliens the greater courage and talent to come with their wares & marchandiſes into this realme, of the aduiſe & aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, being in this preſent parliament, hath declared the ſaid laſt ſtatute, made in the time of his father, to be in no wiſe preiudiciall to the ſaid firſt ordinance, nor extend but onely to the enqueſts to be taken betwixt denizen and denizen, and not to the other enqueſts and proues aforeſaid. And the ſaid firſt ordinance to be effectual and ſtand in his force, and to be put in due execution, according to the forme of the ſame, notwithſtanding the ſayd laſt ſtatute, or that that the aliens haue no landes or tenements to the valure of fortie ſhillings by yéere, according to the continue of the ſame laſt ſtatute and ordinance.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the ninth yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

AT the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the friday next before the feaſt of S. Hillarie, the ix. yéere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, diuers ſtatutes and ordinances were made and ordeined, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of the realme aſſembled in the ſaid parliament in the forme following.

Prorogation.

Cap. 1. FIrſt conſidering how that in all the counties of England the dayes of the aſſiſes of Nouell diſſeiſin and of Niſi prius then were prefixed verie likelie to be holden during the high court of the ſaid parliament, in which court of parliament manie of the kings liege people were by his commandement, of which manie were plaintifes and manie defendants in the ſame aſſiſes and Niſi prius, and in the ſaid aſſiſes and Niſi prius the ſame plaintifes and defendants were likely to be diſherited, if remedie were not prouided in this behalfe: And for ſo much by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lords, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons, It is ordeined by authoritie of the ſaid parliament, to prorogue all maner of aſſiſes and Niſi prius before prefixed, till certaine daies by the chancellour of England for the time being, after the third day of March, the ſaid ix. yeere to be limitted. And the daies ſo by the ſaid chancellour to be limit, haue relation in lawe to the daies of aſſiſes and Niſi prius then ſo prefixed, in ſuch wiſe, that by this prorogation the ſame aſſiſes and Niſi prius, ſhall not be holden nor reputed nonſuch, nor diſcontinued. And that in euerie of the ſaid counties proclamations be made by the ſhirifes xv. dayes before the ſaid dates, ſo by the chancellour to be limit, to the intent that the plaintifes and defendants, and all other, which haue to do in the ſaid aſſiſes and Niſi prius, may keepe their daies to be limit in the ſame proclamations ſo to be made. Which proclamations ſhall haue the effect and force of attachments, without that that it behoueth to make anie new attachments for the ſame.

Clothes ſold for dayes to ſtrangers.

Cap. 2. Item where as in yͤ parliament holden at Weſtminſter the viii. yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king amongſt other articles it is contained, to eſchew the great loſſe and damage, which diuers perſons of this realme haue had, and were likely to haue for their lones made of their marchandiſe to marchants aliens, which haue fled away with the ſame, and daily take ſanctuaries. It was ordeined, that no Engliſhman ſhould ſell nor cauſe to be ſold from henceforth to anie marchant alien, anie maner of marchandiſe but onely for readie paiment of money or otherwiſe in marchandiſe for marchandiſe, to be paid and contented in hand, vpon peine of forfaiture of yͤ ſame: becauſe of which ordinance the engliſh marchants haue not ſold, nor can not ſel nor vtter their clothes to marchants aliens, whereby the king hath loſt his ſubſidies & cuſtomes, which he ought to haue had, if the ſaid clothes had bene ſold as they were and were wont heretofore: and engliſh marchants, clothworkers, and other the kings liege people in diuers parties of his realme anoyed and indamaged: where vpon at the ſupplication of the ſaid commons, and by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, it is ordeined, that the engliſh marchants maie ſell their clothes to marchants aliens for readie paiment in money or otherwiſe in marchandiſe for marchandiſe, to be paid and contented in hand, or vpon lone of paiment to be made in money or marchandiſe from vi. moneths to fiue monethſ next enſuing after ſuch buyings and bargaines made without giuing thereof further daie of paiment, vpon paine of forfaiture of the ſame: notwithſtanding the ſaid ordinance. And this ordinance ſhall endure as long as ſhall pleaſe the king. Prouided alwayes that al other articles contained in the ſaid ordinance, made in the ſaid viii. yeere, ſhall ſtand in their force.

Cap. 3. Owen of Gleyndour.

Item conſidering the great inſurrections, rebellions, and horrible treaſons imagined & committed by Owen of Gleyndourdie of Wales, againſt the royall maieſtie of king Henrie, grandfather of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, whereof he was endited (as it appeareth in an enditement made before Thomas late earle of Arundell, Iohn Durley, and Thomas Lee, by the commiſſion of the ſaid grandfather to enquire with other of all maner of treaſons, inſurrections, and enemies of the ſame king the grandfather, as in the ſaid commiſſion is more fully contained:) And thereupon the ſaid enditement of high and heynous treaſons brought into the kings bench at Weſtminſter, and proces thereof made, till the ſame Owen after proclamation made in fiue counties was outlawed, and after in the full parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the fourth yeere of the ſame king the grandfather, was called & named of record traitour to yͤ ſaid king the grandfather, aſwel by ſtatute as by yͤ letters patents of yͤ ſaid king yͤ grandfather: And for the horribilitie of his ſo manie treaſons, it was ordeined by ſtatute in the ſame parliament, that no Engliſhman maried to anie Welſhwoman of the amitie and aliance of the ſaid Owen traitour to the king, ſhould be put in office in Wales, nor in the marches: And alſo conſidering how the ſaid Owen and his adherents were excepted in manie generall graces and pardons granted by the ſaid king the grandfather to his liege people at diuers times, becauſe of the inſurrections, rebellions, and horrible treaſons aforeſaid, for the weale of all the realme, and for repreſſion of all ſuch horrible treaſons from henceforth to be compaſſed, of the aſſent of the lords and commons aforeſaid it is ordeined & ſtabliſhed, by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that all maner of enditements, inquiſitions, proceſſes, records, iudgements, ordinances, and ſtatutes made and expreſſed, taken, had, purſued, or declared againſt the ſaid Owen, be affirmed, authoriſed, and ſtabliſhed for lawe by authoritie of this preſent parliament, and by the ſame authoritie ſhall be effectual and ſufficient in the lawe, for to bind and conclude for euer, all that be heyres or of the blood of the ſaid Owen, notwithſtanding anie defaute or miſpriſion had in this partie, or any error in writing or in leuing out of the name or place, or the endorcement of the ſaid commiſſion, or of negligence adding or leuing out more or leſſe then behoueth, or anie other defaute in the ſaid enditements, inquiſitions, records, or iudgements notwithſtanding, ſo that this preſent ordinance be not preiudiciall to any of the heires or of the blood of the ſaid Owen, as to anie lands in taile.

Cap. 4. Outlagaries.

Item becauſe that before this time outlagaries haue bene pronounced in diuers of the kings liege people, aſwell before the ſtatute of additions made at Weſtminſter, the firſt yeere of king Henrie the v. as after, becauſe of which outlagaries the bodies of ſuch people hauing ſuch and like names, as they had which were outlawed in deede, haue bene taken and impriſoned, and their goods and cattals for this cauſe ſeaſed by the eſchetours of the king and of his noble progenitours. And although that by the common lawe of the realme a writte of Idemtitate nominis hath bene maintenable for the ſame perſon, which in the forme aforeſaid was moleſted & grieued, neuertheleſſe if any perſon of the ſaid lieges, hauing like name, as any other perſon of the ſame liege people, which was outlawed in deede, had made his executors & died, often it happeneth, that by malice & ſubtill imaginations the goods & cattals of the ſaid teſtator, which had the ſame name as he had which was outlawed in deed, were ſeaſed & eſcheted to the hands of our ſoueraigne lord the king & of his progenitours, in hinderance of execution of the teſtament of euerie ſuch teſtatour, for the doubt which hath bene, that anie executors may by the common lawe haue a writ of Idemptitate nominis or not: Wherefore to take away and remoue all ſuch ambiguities and doubts in this caſe hereafter, of the aſſent and aduiſe aforeſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons, it is ordeined & ſtabliſhed by authoritie of this parliament, that a writ of Idemptitate nominis may be granted & giuen, good and maintenable for the executors of euerie teſtatour, aſwell of the ſame effect as the ſame action of Idemptitate nominis was maintenable before this parliament for anie perſon him ſelfe, which was or might haue bene moleſted or grieued becauſe or colour of any ſuch outlagarie. And this ordinance haue relation and force by authoritie aforeſaid for the executors of euerie teſtatour, aſwell of euerie outlagarie pronounced in any perſon at any time before this parliament, as of all maner of outlagaries to be pronounced in anie perſon in time to come.

Idemptitate nominis.

Executour

Cap. 5. Seuerne.

Item for as much as the riuer of Seuerne is common to all the kings liege people, to carie and recarie within the ſtreame of the ſaid riuer, to Briſtowe Gloceſter and Worceſter, and other places ioyning to the ſaid riuer, all maner of marchandiſes and other goods and cattals, aſwell in trowes and botes as in the flotes commonlie called dragges, in euerie partie ioyning to the ſaid riuer: within which riuer diuers Welſhmen and other perſons dwelling in diuers places ioyning to the ſaid riuer, haue now late aſſembled in great number, arrayed in maner of warre, and taken ſuch dragges, and them haue hewed in peeces, and with force and armes beaten the people, which were in ſuch dragges, to the intent that they ſhould hyer of the ſaid Welſhmen and other perſons for great ſummes of money, botes and other veſſels for cariage of ſuch marchandiſes and other goods & cattals, to an euill example & great impoueriſhment of the ſaid liege people, if remedie be not haſtilie prouided: It is ordeined by authoritie of this parliament, that the ſaid liege people of the king may haue and enioy their free paſſage in the ſaid riuer, with flotes and dragges, and all maner of marchandiſes and other goods and cattals at their will, without diſturbance of anie. And if anie be diſturbed of his frée paſſage in the ſaid riuer, the partie grieued ſhall haue his action according to the courſe of the common lawe.

Dragges.

Cap.6. Weights. Dorceſter. Item it is ordeined and aſſented, that by force of the ſtatute made in the laſt parliament, of weights, according to the ſtandard of the eſchequer to be had in euerie citie, borough and towne within the realme, the burgeſes of the borough of Dorceſter ſhal not be diſturbed of their right, to vſe their weying by xii. mile about the ſame borough, vſing allwayes ſuch weights as in the ſaid ſtatute be expreſſed. And that no right nor title of weying growe to any by force of the ſame laſt ſtatute in diſturbance of the right of the ſaid burgeſſes of the ſaid borough of Dorceſter.

Cap. 7. Shirifes turne. Item for the great miſchiefes and importable oppreſſions dailie done to the kings liege people within the countie of Hereford, by encrochments and extorcions done by the ſhirifes of the ſaide countie for the time being, late begun and wrongfullie continued, becauſe that the ſhirifes in their turnes and other places after their turnes holden and amended, in which other places they haue no power nor authoritie by their office to take anie inquirie or enqueſt, do take diuers enquiries enqueſts of office and enditements of laborers, artificers, and other diuers things ordeined by ſtatute to be enquired before the iuſtices and commiſſioners of the peace, where as in no maner they pertaine to be inquired by ſuch ſhirifes in their turnes, nor otherwiſe, nor in other places before them: And which ſhirifes by force of ſuch inquiries enqueſts of office and inditements vnduelie and vnlawfullie taken before them in their turnes and elſewhere, and for the not comming of the ſaid liege people to the ſaid turnes, the ſaid ſhirifes do wrongfullie take to their owne vſe of diuers of the ſame liege people fines and amerciaments of x. li. and other great ſummes, in oppreſſion, vndoing, and deſtruction of manie poore people of the ſaid lieges, if haſtie remedie be not prouided in this partie: In conſideration of which miſchiefe it is ordeined by authoritie of this parliament, that no ſhirife nor vnder ſhirife of the ſaid countie from henceforth, by colour of his office, ſhall take anie enquirie, enditement, or enqueſt of office in his turne, which ought not by the law to be taken in his turne, nor that he by colour of his ſaid office take anie inquirie, enqueſt of office, or enditement in anie other place, after the ſaid turne holden, and ended, nor that he take of anie of the kings liege people anie fines or amerciaments, for anie thing or cauſe that pertaineth not to his turne or office, nor no ſuch heinous nor grieuous amerciament of anie of ẏ ſaid lieges, againſt reaſon for not comming to the ſaid turne, or to an other place, or for other cauſe by colour of his ſaid office, vpon paine of x. li. by him to be paid to our ſoueraigne lord the king his heires and ſucceſſours, as oftentimes as ſuch ſhirife or vnder ſhirife therof or of anie article of the ſame be duely conuict at the ſuite of the king or of the partie grieued, which ſhall ſue aſwell for the king as for him ſelfe. And that the plaintife in ſuch caſe haue the halfe of the ſaid ſumme, together with his double damages to his owne vſe. And that the partie in this caſe grieued haue power by the ſame authoritie, to ſue in this partie againſt ſuch ſhirifes and vnderſhirifes aſwell for the king as for him ſelfe as before is ſaid. And that the iuſtices of peace of the ſame countie for the time being, haue power and authoritie to enquire, heare, and determine ſuch miſpriſions and offences, aſwell at the kings ſuite as at the parties, which will ſue for the king and for him ſelfe. And this ordinance ſhall endure by iii. yéeres next comming.

Countie of Hereford.

Cap. 8. Cheeſe. Item where as it hath bene of olde times accuſtomed in all the counties of England, that al the chéeſes, which ought to be ſold by the weye, ſhould be weyed by the Auncel, and becauſe that at the laſt parliament holden at Weſtminſter it was ordeined, that the ſaid Auncels, becauſe of the great deceit of the ſame, ſhould be deſtroyed, and other weights touching ſhould be in this partie ordeined: And it is ſo that the poore people of the realme be greatlie deceiued by the ſaide weights touching, becauſe that they haue no knowledge how manie pounds the weye of chéeſe doth conteine by the ſaid weights touching: And therefore to the intent that the ſaid poore people ſhall not be in this partie deceiued, as they haue bene after the ſaid laſt parliament, It is ordeined by authoritie of this parliament, that the weight of a weye of chéeſe may conteine xxxii. cloues, that is to ſay euerie cloue viii. li. by the ſaid weightes touching.

Weight of a weye of cheeſe.

Cap. 9. Weares & Milles. &c. Item where as it was ordeined by a ſtatute made in the time of king Edward the third, the xxv. yéere of his raigne, that all the weares, milles, ſtankes, ſtakes, pyles, and kydels, which were ſet in the great riuers of England, in the time of the lord Edward ſometime king of England, ſonne of king Henrie, and after, whereby ſhippes and botes be diſturbed, that they can not paſſe as they were wont to paſſe, ſhould be remoued and pulled downe. And afterward in the parliament of king Henrie, father of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, holden ẏ firſt yéere of his raigne, it was ordeined, that aſwel ẏ ſaid ſtatute made ẏ ſaid xxv. yeere, as an other ſtatute made in ẏ time of the ſaid noble king Edward ẏ third, the xlv. yéere of his raigne, in al their articles ſhall be firmely holden & obſerued, Ioyning to ẏ ſame commiſſions ſhalbe made to ſufficient perſons, to be iuſtices in euerie countie of England, where it ſhalbe néedefull, to ſuruey & keepe all the waters & great riuers within the realme, & to correct & amend the defautes, & to make due execution of the ſaid ſtatutes according to their effect, aſwell by their ſurueying, aduiſement, and diſcretion, as by inquiſitions within liberties and without, therof to be taken when it ſhall be néedefull, and all the premiſſes to heare and determine. And notwithſtanding all the ſaid ſtatutes, and manie other ſtatutes made for the conſeruation of the ſaid great riuers, there is ſo great number of ſhelfes within the riuer of Ley, which is in the counties of Eſſex, Hertford and Middleſex, which runneth from the bridge of the towne of Ware, to the riuer of Thamis, which ſhelfes be made & commen by force and courſe of the ſaid water of Ley that ſhips and botes may not paſſe by the ſaid water of Ley, as they ought, becauſe that no power nor auctoritie is giuen by anie ſtatute heretofore made, how nor in what maner the ſame ſhelfes may be remoued, as by a petition deliuered in this parliament by the commons of the ſame it was fullie declared, whereupon, by aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and alſo at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, it is graunted and ordained, that the chaunceller of England for the time being, may aſſigne certaine ſufficient commiſſioners, which ſhall haue power by auctoritie of this parliament, to remoue and caſt all the ſaid ſhelfes out of the ſaid riuer of Ley, vpon the bankes of the ſame riuer, ſo that anie may be found, that will take vpon him to doo the ſame, without excluding of anie mans right. And in caſe that anie credit or ſhift of anie ſummes of moneie be or might be made, to put out and amoue the ſaide ſhelfes, that then the commiſſioners of the ſaide riuer for the time being, by them and by their deputies, may by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, take and gather of euerie ſhip and bote freited, paſſing or comming in the ſaid riuer foure pence, for the repaiment of the ſaid credits made or to be made, and for the conſeruation of the ſaid riuer without ſuch ſhelfes, till the end of thrée yeeres next folowing.

River of Ley.

Chaunceller of England.

Cap. 10.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xv. day of March, the third yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fift, a ſtatute was ordained in the forme as foloweth: Item for aſmuch as there be diuers abbotes, priors, whereof ſome be of the kings foundation, and ſome of the foundation of other lordes, dwelling aſwell within the countie of Yorke as in the countie of Lancaſter, wherof ſome haue poſſeſſions within the wapentakes of Staineclife, wapentake, and Frendles wapentake in Crauen in the ſaid countie of Yorke, and ſome not, againſt whome diuers perſons dailie by abbetment and procurement of the bailiffes approuers of the courtes of the ſaide wapentakes, and of the ſtewardes that hold pleas in the ſaide courtes, and of fermours of the profites and reuenewes of the ſaide courtes, doo faine and procure by them and other of their couin and aſſent, diuers plaintes and pleas of debt and treſpaſſe, and other diuers plées in the courtes of the ſaid wapentakes. And where the ſame abbots and priors come to the ſaide courtes to defend them of ſuch wrongfull pleintes and plées, and praien and profer to the ſtewardes and bailiffes of the ſaide courtes to make their atturneis in ſuch plées, the ſaide ſtewardes and bailiffes the ſame refuſe, and will not receiue ſuch atturneis of ſuch abbots and priors, in anie plée of debt or treſpaſſe, nor in anie other plée. And moreouer the ſame ſtewardes and bailiffes of their owne auctoritie doo amerce the ſaide abbots and priors, at the firſt time for euerie of the ſaid pleintes ten ſhillings or twentie ſhillings, or more at their will, to the great domage and hinderance of the ſaid abbots and priors, and againſt reaſon and the common lawe of the land. The king hath ordained in remedie of the ſaide greeuances, that all ſuch abbots and priors and their ſucceſſours and euerie of them, ſo vexed in the ſaide courtes, may make their atturneis or atturneie generall, that is to ſay, euerie of them vnder the common ſeale of his houſe, to gaine and loſe in euerie plée of debt and treſpaſſe, and other plée moued or to be moued in the ſaide courtes, and in all other courtes within the ſaide wapentakes. And that the ſtewardes and bailiffes of the ſaide courtes receiue the ſaid atturneis ſo made and named without anie contradiction. And if the ſame ſtewards or bailifes refuſe to receiue anie ſuch atturneis, ſo made & named, or to be made and named, that then the ſaid ſtewards and bailiffes at euerie time of ſuch refuſall of ſuch atturneis, ſhall forfeite and incurre the paine of x. li. to the king. And that the ſaide abbots and priors or their ſucceſſours in the ſaide counties nor in anie of them, ſhall be amercied for anie nonſuite or defaute in none other maner than ſecular perſons. And that this ordinance ſtand in his force for all the yeere next comming, and till the parliament the ſame yéere next enſuing, after the determination of which ſtatute, becauſe that it was not ordained to endure but for a certaine time now determined and paſt, the miſchieues and greeuances aforeſaide doo remaine yet not remedied, and daylie aboundeth and encreaſeth more than euer they did, and moreouer the ſaide ſtewards and bailiffes will now receiue none other plée nor aunſwere of the ſaide abbots and priors in the ſaide courtes, but onelie to wage their lawe, to the intent that they ought of neceſſitie to appeare before them in their proper perſons, to their great vexation and greeuances: wherefore the ſaide miſchieues and greeuances conſidered, for the comfort and releeſe of the ſaid abbots and priors, and of other religious perſons aforeſaid, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and alſo at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons, it is ordained, that the ſaide ſtatute, made the ſaid third yéere, be holden and obſerued as good and effectuall, as long as it ſhall pleaſe the king.

Atturneis.

Cap. 11.

Item where as by a ſupplication deliuered in this preſent parliament by the commons of the ſame, it was declared by Margaret dutcheſſe of Clarence, Iohan dutcheſſe of Yorke ſiſters, and amongſt other heires to Edmond late earle of Kent, Richard duke of Yorke, Richard earle of Saliſburie, and Alice his wife, Rafe earle of Weſtmerland, Iohn lorde of Tiptoft and of Powes, and Ioyous his wife, and Henrie Gray coſins and other of the heires of the ſaide Edmond late earle, as in the ſame ſupplication is ſuppoſed, that is to ſay the ſaid duke, ſonne to Anne daughter to Alianour, an other of the ſiſters of the ſaid Edmond, The ſaide Alice daughter to Alianour an other ſiſter of the ſaide Edmond, the ſaide Rafe ſonne to Eliſabeth an other ſiſter of the ſaide Edmond, the ſaide Ioyouſe daughter to the ſaide Alianour mother of Anne,

Supplication.

And yͤ ſaid Henrie Gray ſonne to Iohan daughter of the ſame Alianour, that where as Alianour wife to Iames lord of Audeleie, pretending, calling, and affirming hir ſelfe daughter and heire to the ſaid Edmond late earle of Kent, and begotten and borne in mariage pretenſed, had betwixt him and Cuſtance late wife to Thomas lorde Diſpenſer, where by the ſaid ſupplication it is ſuppoſed, that the ſaid Alianour, wife to the ſaide Iames is baſtard, and neuer was anie mariage made, had, nor ſolemniſed betwixt the ſaid Edmond and Cuſtance, but the ſaide Edmond (by the ordinance, will, and agréement of king Henrie the fourth, graundfather of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, after great notable and long ambaſſade had and ſent to the duke of Millaine, for a mariage to be had betwixt the ſaide Edmond and Luce, ſiſter to the ſaide duke of Millaine) did take to wife and openlie and ſolemnelie maried to the ſaide Luce at London. The ſaid Cuſtance then liuing and being there preſent, not claiming the ſaid Edmond to hir husband, nor no dower after his deceaſe, which mariage betwixt the ſaide Edmond and Luce ſo had and ſolemniſed, continued without anie interruption of the ſaid Cuſtance, or of anie other, during the life of the ſaid Edmond, as diuers lordes and other credible and notable perſons of the ſaide realme haue well in their remembraunce: And how after the deceaſe of the ſaid Edmond, the ſaid Luce was endowed of his lands, as his lawfull wife, containing thereof hir eſtate peaſiblie all hir life. Neuertheles the ſaid Alianour, the wife of Iames, vpon great ſubtiltie, proceſſe imagined, priuie labour and other meanes and coloured waies, to the intent that ſhe ought to be certified mulier by ſome ordinarie, in caſe that baſtardie ſhould be alleged in hir perſon, hath brought (as it is ſaide) in examination before certaine iudges in the ſpirituall courte, not informed nor hauing knowledge of the ſaid ſubtiltie imagined proceſſe priuie labour and coloured waies, certaine ſuborned proues and perſons of hir aſſent and couin, depoſing for hir, that the ſaide Alianour the wife of Iames, was begotten within mariage had and ſolemniſed betwixt the ſaide Edmond and Cuſtance, the ſaide dutcheſſes, the duke of Yorke, earle of Saleſburie, Alice, earle of Weſtmerland, Iohn, the lorde of Tiptoſt, Ioyouſe, and Henrie, nor none of them thereof warned nor witting, till long time after the ſaide depoſition ſo made, whereof the ſaide ſuppliants doo doubt them to be gréeued and impeched of their inheritance had by the ſaide Edmond, by other ſubtiltie and labour in the temporall lawe to be laboured and wrought by the ſaide lorde of Audeleie and Alianour his wife. As if they will take anie action againſt anie perſons of their aſſent and couin or otherwiſe, to cauſe ſuch perſons of ſuch aſſent and couin to take an action againſt them (as it is ſuppoſed that they entend to doo) In which action by the couin and aſſent aforeſaide, baſtardie ought to be alleged in the perſon of the ſaide Alianour, wife of Iames, and thereupon by the aſſent and couin an iſſue to be taken, and a writte to be ſent to ſome ordinarie (where it pleaſe them) not aduertiſed of the ſaide ſubtiltie, aſſent, and couin, to certifie if the ſaide Alianour the wife of Iames, be mulier or not, before which ordinarie the ſame Alianour, wife of Iames, will allege and proue hir ſelfe mulier by the ſaide depoſitions of the ſaide ſuborned proues. And then the partie had as aduerſarie againſt the ſaide lorde of Audeleie and Alianour his wife, in the ſaide action, taken or to be taken by aſſent and couin aforeſaide, will allege no proofe nor matter, nor make anie defence before the ſaid ordinarie againſt the ſame lorde of Audeleie and Alianour his wife but ſuffer the matter before the ſaid ordinarie to procéede according to the minde of the ſaid lorde of Audeleie & Alianour his wife. So that it is verie likelie, that the ſame ordinarie will certifie the ſaid Alianour wife of Iames mulier, which certificat ſo had and made, ought by the lawe of England to diſherit the ſaid dutcheſſes, duke of Yorke, earle of Saleſburie, Alice, earle of Weſtmerland, Iohn, lord of Tiptoſt, Ioyouſe, and Henrie and their iſſue for euer of the whole inheritance aforeſaid, whereupon the premiſſes tenderlie conſidered, and for to eſchew ſuch ſubtill diſheriſons, aſwell in the ſaide caſe as in other caſe like in time to come, by the aduiſe and aſſent of all the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and alſo at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaide commons in this parliament aſſembled, it is ordained and ſtabliſhed by auctoritie of this parliament, that if the ſaide Alianour, the wife of Iames be certified mulier in anie courte before this time, that no maner certificat, heretofore made for the ſaid
Certificat. Alianour wife of Iames, ſhall in anie wiſe put to preiudice indamage nor conclude anie perſon or perſons but him or his heires that was partie to the plée. And that from henceforth all iudges of or in the courtes, where anie plée is or ſhall be depending taken or moued in which plées ſo de-
Baſtardie. pending taken or moued baſtardie is or ſhall be alleged againſt anie perſon partie to the ſame
Ordinarie. plée, and thereupon an iſſue ioined, which by the lawe ought to be certified by the ordinarie, that the iudges or one iudge of or in the courtes, where the ſaide plée is or ſhall be depending taken or moued, before the time that anie writ of certificat paſſe out of the ſame courte to the ordinarie, to certifie vpon the iſſue ſo ioined or to be ioined, ſhall make a remembraunce vnto the ſeales or his ſeale, at the ſuite of the demaundaunt or tenaunt plaintiffe or defendaunt in the plée, in which the baſtardie is or ſhall be alleged, reciting the iſſue that is ioined in the ſame plée of baſtardie, and certifieng to the chaunceller of the king of England for the time being, to the intent that thereupon proclamation be made in the ſaid chauncerie by thrée monethes, once in euerie moneth, that all perſons pretending anie intereſſe to obiect againſt the partie, which pretendeth him ſelfe to be mulier, that they ſue to the ordinarie, to whome the writte of certificat is or ſhall be directed, to make their allegations and obiections againſt the partie, which pretendeth him to be mulier, as the lawe of holie church requireth. And the ſaide chaunceller

Proclamation.

ler hauing notice of the ſaide remembrance and iſſue ioyned and required by the ſaide demaundant or tenant plaintife or defendant hauing the ſaid remembrance, to make the ſaid proclamation as afore is ſaid, the ſame chancellour for the time being ſhall do make proclamation in ẏ forme aforeſaid, And the proclamation ſo made ſhall certifie in the court, where the ſaid plea, in which the baſtardie is alledged an other time ſhall be depending. And that the iudges of or in the court, where the ſame plea is or ſhall be depending taken or moued, before anie proclamation ſo to bee made in the chancerie, make one time ſuch proclamation openlie in the ſame court, And alſo an other time when the proclamation ſhall be certified by the chancellour of England and made in the forme aboue rehearſed. And then the ſaid iudge ſhall award the ſaid writ of Certificat to the ordinarie to certifie vpon the iſſue ſo ioyned or to be ioyned. And if anie writ of Certificat be made or granted before that all ẏ proclamations in ẏ forme aforeſaid be made ⁊ certified, that then the ſaid writte of Certificat and the certificat of the ordinarie thereupon made or to be made, ſhall be void in lawe, and of none effect, And if anie writte before this time be directed to anie ordinarie to certifie, if the ſaid Helianour wife of Iames be baſtarde or not, and at this time not certified, if it be certified hereafter by vertue of the ſaid writ, that the ſame certificat of the ſaid ordinarie ſo made be voyde and of none effect.

Here beginneth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the tenth yeere of king Henrie the ſixt.

OUr ſoueraigne lord the king, at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xii. daie of May, the x. yéere of his raigne, to the honour of God, and for the weale of him and of his realme, and for the tranquillitie and eaſe of his people, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons in the ſame parliament aſſembled, hath done to be ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed diuers ſtatutes and ordinances in the forme following.

Cap. 1.
Maior ⁊ conſtables of the ſta-ple.

FIrſt where as it is granted to the maior and conſtables of the ſtaple of Caleys by the charters of the kings noble progenitours, and by him confirmed, that they ſhall haue power to take and record all recogniſances of debts before them made by anie perſon. And therefore great ambiguities were if the recogniſances before the ſaid maior and conſtables made beyond the ſea, ſhould be effectuall and executorie in all points within the realme of England, as the recogniſances made before the maior and conſtables of ẏ ſtaple of Weſtminſter be. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to take away all ſuch ambiguities, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that all the recogniſances of debts before the ſaid maior and conſtables of Caleys, made or to be made by anie perſons beyond the ſea, ſhall be as effectuall and executorie, and of ſuch force in all points within the realme, and in the ſame forme executorie, as the ſaid recogniſances made before the ſaid maior and conſtables of the ſtaple of Weſtminſter, or before anie other maiors or conſtables of the ſtaple within the ſaid realme be.

Cap. 2.
Knights of ſhires.

Item where as at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morowe of S. Matthew the Apoſtle, the viii. yéere of the king that now is, it was ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that the knights of all counties within the realme of England to be choſen to come to the parliaments hereafter to be holden, ſhould be choſen in euerie countie by people dwelling and reſiant in the ſame, whereof euerie one ſhall haue fréeholde to the value of fortie ſhillings by yéere at the leaſt aboue all charges, vpon a certaine paine contained in the ſame ſtatute, not making expreſſe mencion in the ſame that euerie man that ſhall be choſer of anie ſuch knights ſhall haue fréehold to the value of fortie ſhillings at the leaſt aboue all charges within the ſame countie, where ſuch choſer with other like ſhall make ſuch election or elſwhere, And for ſo much our ſoueraigne lord the king willing to make plaine declaration of the ſaid ſtatute, by the aduiſe ⁊ aſſent aforeſaid, ⁊ at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid commons, hath ordeined that the knights of all the counties within the ſaid realme to be choſen to come to the parliaments hereafter to be holden, ſhall be choſen in euerie countie by people dwelling and reſiant in the ſame, whereof euerie man ſhall haue fréehold to the value of fortie ſhillings by yéere at the leaſt aboue all charges within the ſame countie, where anie ſuch choſer will medle of anie ſuch election.

Cap. 3.
King of Den-marke.

Item becauſe that our ſoueraigne lord the king, at the grieuous complaint to him made in this parliament by ẏ commons of his realme of England being in this parliament is informed, that manie of his faithfull liege people be greatly impoueriſhed vndone ⁊ in point to be deſtroied by the king of Denmarke and his lieges, which be of the amitie of the king our ſoueraigne lord, becauſe that they do daily take of his ſaid faithfull ſubiects their goods, ſo that they haue taken of marchants of Yorke and Kingſton vpon Hull goods and marchandiſes to the value of fiue M. li. within a yéere, and of other lieges and marchants of the realme of England goods and cattals to the value of xx. M. li. whereof they haue no remedie of the ſaid king of Denmarke, nor of none other, for aſmuch as none of them commeth within the realme of England, nor nothing haue in the ſame realme of England, and that the goods be taken out of the ſame realme, The king willing to prouide remedie for his ſaid liege people, hath ordeined ⁊ ſtabliſhed, that if the goods of anie of the ſaid his lieges be or ſhall be taken by the ſaid king of Denmarke or anie of his ſaid lieges, the kéeper of the priuie ſeale for the time being, ſhall haue power to make to the partie grieued letters of requeſt vnder the priuie ſeale, without anie other purſuite to be made to anie, for reſtitution to be had of the goods ſo taken and to be taken. And if reſtitution be not made by ſuch letters, the king our ſoueraigne lord by the aduiſe of his counſell ſhall prouide to the partie grieued his conenable remedie according as the caſe requireth.

Priuie ſeale.

Cap.4. Outlaw. Fyliſar. Item becauſe that diuers of the kings liege people before this time haue bene outlawed and greatly vexed and diſeaſed in diuers ſuites, aſwell before the king in his bench as in the common bench, in the records of which ſuites the entries haue bene made, that the plaintifes in the ſame ſuites: obtulerunt ſe in propria perſona ſua, where yͤ ſame plaintifes neuer appeared ſo ſuch ſuites, nor neuer had knowledge of the ſame, in great miſchiefe of the ſaid liege people, if remedie be not prouided in this partie. Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that no maner Fyliſar, Exigenter, nor none other officer from henceforth ſhall make ſuch entrie in anie maner ſuite, except that the plaintife in the ſame ſuite, before that ſuch entrie be made, do appeare in his proper perſon before ſome of the ſaid iuſtices of the place, where the plea is or ſhall be depending. And there hée ſhall be ſworne vpon a booke, that he is the ſame perſon, in whoſe name the ſaid ſuite is ſued, or that ſome other credible perſon of the kings counſell make ſuch othe for him. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the next parliament.

Cap.5. Caleis. Beakons. Paradiſe. Item where as by a ſtatute made the xxi. yéere of king Richard yͤ ſecond, for two great works verie neceſſarie alwayes to be ſuſteined and ſupported about the towne of Caleys, and the marches there, that is to ſay the beakons before the port there, and the place called Paradiſe, which is nigh to the ditches of the ſame towne, it was ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all maner of ſhips accuſtomed to come to the ſaid port out of England (the fiſhers botes onelie except) ſhall bring with them all their laſtage of good ſtones, couenable for the ſtuffing of the ſaid beakons, thereof making reaſonable deliuerance from time to time at their comming there to the treaſurer, which for the time ſhall be, or to other miniſters thereto by him ordeined, vpon paine of two pence for yͤ weight of euerie tunne, and aſmuch as the ſaid ſhips ſhall be of portage. And that all maner of ſhippes entring to reſt at the ſaid place of Paradiſe, ſhall pay at euerie their entrie there foure pence ſterlings. And thereupon it ſhall be lawfull to them (if they will) to tarie there by foure daies with as manie nights then next following, without paying anie more for their ſaid entrie. And in caſe that they abide longer then foure daies and nights aforeſaid, then they ſhall pay for euerie day and night one penie, and for the onely day an halfe penie and for the onely night an halfe penie. And moreouer that no maner of perſon preſume to faſten anie maner ſhip or bote by cable, corde, or otherwiſe to the timber nor to the ſtones of the ſaid beakons nor paradiſe, nor to the new key, otherwiſe called the wharfe at the ſide of the ſaid port of Caleys, vpon paine of xl d. to be leuied of the ſhip, which ſo ſhall be found faſtened. And that the ſaid treaſurer, which for the time ſhall be, ſhall haue full power by him and his deputies to leuie and receiue the money of the ſaid paynes incurred and riſing. And thereof to make payment according as ſhall néede in his office by the view and controlement of the kings controller there, which ſtatute amongſt other things made in the ſame parliament, was reuoked and adnulled in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the firſt yéere of king Henrie the fourth to the great damage and hinderance of the ſaid workes, and to the grieuous and importable coſtes of the king, if remedie be not haſtely prouided. And for ſo much our ſoueraigne lord the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the ſaid lords ſpirituall and temporall, and alſo of the ſaid commons being in this parliament, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute, made the ſaid xxi. yéere, be from henceforth an eſtatute effectuall, holden and kept and put in due execution for euer, according to the tenour of the ſame.

Cap.6. Inditement. Appeale. Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the viii. yéere of the raigne of the king that now is, it was ordeined, that vpon euerie enditement or appeale, by the which anie of the kings liege people, dwelling in other ſtrange ⁊ diuers counties than where ſuch enditement or appeale is or ſhalbe taken of treaſon, felonie, or treſpas, to be taken hereafter before iuſtices of peace, or other iuſtice hauing power to take ſuch enditements or appeales, or other commiſſioners or iuſtices in any countie franchiſe or libertie of England, before any exigend awarded vpon any enditement or appeale in yͤ forme aforeſaid to be taken, that maintenant after yͤ firſt writ of Capias vpon euerie ſuch enditement or appeale awarded ⁊ returned, that an other writ of Capias ſhalbe awarded, direct to the ſhirife of the countie, whereof he that is ſo endited or appealed is or was ſuppoſed to be conuerſant by yͤ ſame enditement or appeale, returnable before the ſame iuſtices commiſſioners, before whom he is endited or appealed at a certaine day containing yͤ ſpace of iii. moneths of yͤ date of the ſame writ, ⁊ the returne of the ſame, as by the ſame ſtatute plainly appeareth, by which clauſe of yͤ ſame ſtatute, that is to ſay, returnable before yͤ ſame iuſtices or commiſſioners, before whom he is endited or appealed, ſome do thinke that yͤ writ of Capias ordeined by yͤ ſaid ſtatute, which ſhalbe directed to the ſhirife, whereof he that is ſo endited or appealed is or was ſuppoſed to be conuerſant by yͤ ſame enditement or appeale, ſhalbe returned before the ſame iuſtices or commiſſioners, or other, before whom the enditement or appeale was taken, ⁊ not elſe where: And imagining to defraude ⁊ to deſtroy yͤ ſaid ſtatute, do ſue to remoue ſuch enditements and appeales out of the hands of the iuſtices or commiſſioners aforeſaid in the kings bench ⁊ elſe where by Cerciorari and otherwiſe, vnknowne to yͤ parties ſo endited, and thereupon ſue the proces vſed at the common lawe before the making of the ſaid ſtatute, in the kings bench and elſe where after the remouing, to the great impoueriſhing and vexation of the kings faithfull ſubiects, wherefore the ſame our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the aduiſe and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaide commons, by auctoritie aforeſaid, hath ordained, that the ſaid ſtatute be holden and kept and put in due execution in all pointes. Joyned to the ſame, that if anie ſuch enditements, taken or to be taken before anie iuſtices of peace, or before anie other hauing power to take ſuch enditements or appeales, or other iuſtices or commiſſioners in anie countie, franchiſe, or libertie of England, ſhall be remoued before the king in his bench or elſewhere by certiorary or otherwiſe, that then after ſuch remouing before anie exigend awarded vpon anie ſuch enditement or appeale in the forme aforeſaide taken or to be taken, that maintenaunt after the firſt writ of Capias vpon euerie ſuch enditement or appeale awarded and returned, that an other writ of Capias be awarded, directed to the ſhiriffe of the countie, whereof he that is ſo endited or appealed is or was ſuppoſed to be conuerſaunt by the ſame enditement or appeale, returnable before the king in his bench at a certaine day, containing the ſpace of three monethes or foure, of the date of the ſaid laſt writ of Capias, according to the maner and forme that iuſtices of peace and other in the ſaid firſt ſtatute contained ought to haue doone before ſuch remouing after the making of the ſaid firſt ſtatute. And if anie ſuch exigend be hereafter awarded vpon anie ſuch enditement or appeale, after ſuch remouing againſt the forme aforeſaide, or anie outlagarie thereupon pronounced, aſwell the ſame exigend ſo awarded, as the outlagarie thereupon to be pronounced, and euerie of them, ſhalbe holden for none and voide, according as in the ſaid firſt ſtatute is more fullie contained.

Chap. 7.
Staple of Caleis.

Item where as by a ſtatute it was ordained, that all the wolles, wolfelles, hides, leade, and tinne, and diuers other marchandiſes paſſing out of the realme of England, the lands of Ireland, Wales, and Berwike vpon Twede, ought to repaire to the ſtaple of Caleis, and to none other place beyond the ſea, to be ſould vnder the gouernance of the maior and conſtables of the ſaid ſtaple, vpon certaine paines contained in the ſaide ſtatute, which paines be ſo eaſie and not doubted, that manie take in cuſtome to carie and doo daylie to be caried out of the realme and landes aforeſaid by diuers meanes and waies, a great ſubſtance of woolles, wolfelles, hides, leade, and tinne, and other marchandiſes, which ought to repaire to the ſaid ſtaple, into Scotland, and into Flaunders, Holland, Seland, and Brabant, without cuſtome or other charge thereof paieng, as is paied for woolles repairing to Caleis: And alſo by the ſaide woolles and marchandiſes ſo caried to the ſaide parties, there commeth no moneie into this realme of England, nor the ſame realme is in no wiſe encreaſed, nor the mint at Caleis ſuſtained: And moreouer the ſame wolles and marchandiſes be ſould in the ſaid parties at ſo little a price or valour, that the marchants aliens be ſo greatlie enſtored of the ſame, that they come not to Caleis for to buie woolles and wolfelles, as they were accuſtomed to doo, to the great loſſe and damage of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the vniuerſall damage of his realme, and great hinderaunce of the vtterance of the commodities of the ſaid realme, repairing and being at the ſaid towne of Caleis, as the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king hath conceiued at the greeuous complaint to him made by the marchants and commons of the realme in this preſent parliament aſſembled: Our ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the greeuous loſſes and damages aforeſaid, hath ordained, that the valour of all ſuch goods ſo found, caried or to be caried to the ſaid parties, except thoſe woolles and wolfelles, which by our ſouereigne lord the king be or ſhall be licenced, if there be anie forfeite, whereof the ſame our ſouereigne lord the king ſhall haue the one halfe, and the perſon that eſpieth and proueth the ſame by the diſcretion of the treaſurer and the barons of the eſchequer, ſhall haue the other halfe. And that euerie man haue power by auctoritie of the ſame parliament to make ſuch ſearch in euerie place, where it ſhall be needefull

Here foloweth the ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the xi. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the vi.

OUr ſouereigne lord the king at his parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eight day of July, the eleuenth yeere of his reigne, to the reuerence of God, and for the weale of the people of his realme, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of his realme in his ſaide parliament aſſembled, by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed certaine ſtatutes, declarations, and ordinances in the forme folowing.

Chap. 1.
Stewes.

Firſt for aſmuch as our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king, at the greeuous complaint to him made by his ſaid commons in the ſame parliament, hath conceiued, that diuers perſons of great pouertie, without conſcience and of an euill gouernance, now and late dwelling in a place ſuſpecte called the Stewes in the borough of Southwerke, in the countie of Surreie, aſwell by receite of common women, theeues, manquellers, and auowterers, as by murders and priuie robberies, aſwell by themſelfe as by manie other there herberged without pitie, loialtie, & good conſcience there doone, haue ſodainelie come of great riches, by the which they haue purchaſed great liuings of landes and tenements, to great yeerelie valours, becauſe of their ſufficiencie of freehold ſo purchaſed, they haue bene returned by the ſhiriffe of the ſaide countie and other bailiffes in enqueſtes, aſwell for felonie and treſpas betweene the king & the partie, and partie and partie, as in aſſiſes and other plees of land before the kings iuſtices in his courtes, and before the ſtewards and marſhall of his houſe, whereby diuers diſheritances and wrongfull condemnations of manie lawfull lieges of our ſouereigne lord the king haue bene had, and manie murders and notorious theeues haue bene ſaued, great murders and roberies concealed and not puniſhed, and how the ſame perſons ſuſpect inhabit them in common hoſteries and tauerns in the highway of the ſame borough, there receiuing theeues, common women, and other miſdoers, in like maner as they did in the ſaid ſuſpect place of the ſtewes: Our ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the premiſſes, and that ſuch people without conſcience be defamed, and may not of reaſon be entending to beare witnes of trouth there where trouth ſhould be enquired, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that if anie ſuch perſon be returned by anie ſhiriffe, bailiffe, or other miniſter of our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king in the ſaid countie of Surreie, or by anis officer before the ſteward and marſhall of our ſouereigne lord the kings houſe, aſwell for the king as for the partie, at all times from henceforth he may be chalenged, and the chalenge in that partie allowed for the cauſe beforeſaid. And alſo for to auoide murders, robberies, and auowtries that might by likelihood happen, it is ordained, that no ſuch perſon, which alſo hath dwelled at the ſaide ſtewes, be ſuffered to hold anie common hoſterie nor tauerne in other place within the ſaide borough of Southwerke, but onelie at the ſaid ſtewes. And that the iuſtices of peace in the ſame countie ſhall haue power to enquire of all them that holde hoſteries and tauernes, and them to puniſh by fine and raunſome, and by impriſonment of their bodies, after the diſcretion of the ſaide iuſtices.

Chalenge.

Hoſtrie.
Tauerne.
Southwerke.

Chap. 2.
Aſſiſe de no. diſſeiſi.

Item where as diuers perſons oftentimes doo ſue aſſiſes of Nouell diſſeiſin before iuſtices aſſigned againſt diuers perſons, and by craft and colluſion, for to haue their writs of their ſaid aſſiſes direct to the coroners of the counties, where the tenements be, for to make execution of the ſaide writs, doo name in their ſaide aſſiſes the ſhiriffe of the ſame countie one of the diſſeiſors, where he is not nor neuer was diſſeiſour nor tenaunt of the tenements in demaund, whereby often times, the ſaide aſſiſes be awarded by the defaute of the tenauntes which haue no knowledge of thoſe aſſiſes, inſomuch that they found not anie aſſiſe againſt them of the ſhiriffe in the file, nor haue no ſuſpection of anie ſuch aſſiſe taken againſt the ſhiriffe and them: Our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, of the aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaide, hath ordained, that in all ſuch aſſiſes purchaſed at this time hanging or heareafter to be purchaſed betwæne anie perſons whatſoeuer they be, before anie ſuch iuſtices, in which aſſiſes anie ſuch ſhiriffe be named diſſeiſour, if the tenauntes in the ſaid aſſiſes or anie of them will auerre, that the ſaid ſhiriffe is not nor neuer was diſſeiſour nor tenaunt of the tenements in demaund but was named diſſeiſour by colluſion, the auerment ſhall be receiued. And if it be found by the ſaide aſſiſe, that the ſaid ſhiriffe be not nor neuer was diſſeiſour nor tenaunt of the tenements, but was named diſſeiſour by colluſion, then the ſaid iuſtices ſhall doo to be abated the ſaid writ purchaſed or to be purchaſed in the forme aboueſaid. And that the plaintiffes or plaintiffe be in the greuous mercie of the king.

Shiriffe.

Colluſion.

Chap. 3.
Diſſeiſin.

Item where as by a ſtatute made the fourth yéere of the reigne of king Henrie, graundfather of our ſouereigne lorde the king that now is, amongſt other things it was ordained, that the diſſeiſies haue their actions againſt the diſſeiſours, during the liues of the ſame diſſeiſours, ſo that ſuch diſſeiſours thereof take the profits at the time of the ſuite commenced, as in the ſame ſtatute is contained more at large, the which ſtatute after the opinion of manie hath bene entended in writs of aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin onelie. And as great miſchieſe is it to the parties demaundants in other writs ſued and grounded vpon nouell diſſeiſin, as in aſſiſe: Wherefore our ſouereigne lorde the king, willing all maner of opinions and doubtes in that partie to ceaſe, hath ordained by the aſſent and auctoritie aforeſaide, that in all maner of writtes grounded vpon nouell diſſeiſin, the diſſeiſies ſhall haue their recoueries, if they will, by ſuch writs againſt the diſſeiſours or their feffées, aſwell as they ſhall haue in aſſiſe of nouell diſſeiſin, ſo that the ſame diſſeiſours or their feffæs, againſt whom the writ ſhall be brought, thereof take the profits at the time of the writ purchaſed, notwithſtanding anie gifts or feffements made to other perſons for to delay the demaundants.

Nouell diſſeiſin.

Chap. 4.

Item our ſouereigne lorde the king, by the gréeuous complaint of his commons, conſidering the great miſchiefes had within the realme and yet not remedied, and alſo the great demage and diſinheritaunce that commeth by the vſuall periurie of iurours empanelled in enqueſtes, aſwell in the courtes of our ſouereigne lorde the king as of other, the which periurie aboundeth and encreaſeth darlie more than it was wont, for the great gifts that ſuch iurours take of the parties in pleæs ſued in the ſaid courtes, In ſomuch that the greater partie of people that haue to ſue in the ſaide courtes, leue their ſuites for the miſchieſe aforeſaid, and namelie for cauſe of the delaies that be in the writtes of attaintes, for that that in times paſt in writtes of attaintes, when the graund iurie had appered in courte, and were readie to paſſe, one of the tenauntes or defendants, or of the petit iurours named in ſuch writtes, ſometime haue pleaded falſe and faint pleæs, which were not triable by the graund iurie of the attaint, and by that cauſe delaied the taking of ſuch graunde iuries till ſuch pleæs were tried: And after ſuch pleés tried and founde for the plaintiffe an other of the iurours, tenauntes, or defendauntes might pleade an other ſuch falſe and faint plée after the laſt continuance in the ſame attaintes: And ſo euerie of the defendauntes, iurours, or tenauntes after other might pleade ſuch falſe and faint plee, and delaie the graund iurie, when it was readie to paſſe: And though that all ſuch falſe and faint pleés were found againſt them, which pleaded, no paine was giuen to them by the common lawe: For cauſe of Iurours.

Periurie.

Attaint.

Faint plee.

of which delaies the graund iuries in attaintes haue beene often greeuouslie vexed and trauailed, and the plaintiffes in ſuch attaintes put to ſo great coſtes, and thereby impoueriſhed, that they might not ſue forth their ſaide ſuites, wherefore the iurours be the more encouraged to be periured & make their falſe ſerementes in ſuch caſes: Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, willing vpon that to prouide remedie at the requeſt of the ſaide commons, and by the aſſent of the lordes aboue ſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the parties plaintiffes in all ſuch attaintes ſhall recouer their damages and coſtes againſt all ſuch tenauntes, iurors, and defendantes, which they haue ſuſteined in that behalfe. And that this ſtatute extende as well to writs of attaintes nowe hanging, as to writs of attaintes to be purchaſed hereafter.

Chap. 5.

Reuerſion.

Waſte.

Item becauſe that diuerſe people in times paſt haue let their landes and tenementes to diuerſe perſons, that is to ſaie, ſome for terme of life or of an other mans life, and ſome for terme of yeeres, the ſayde tenauntes haue oftentimes let and graunted their eſtate, which they had in the ſame lands and tenements, to manie perſons, to the intent that they in the reuertion, that is to ſay, their leſſours their heires or their aſſignes, ought not to haue anie knowledge of their names, and afterwarde the ſayde firſt tenauntes continuallie occupie the ſayde landes and tenementes, and thereof take the profites, to their proper vſe, and in the ſayde landes and tenementes do waſte & deſtruction to the diſheritance of them in the reuertion: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that they in the reuertion in ſuch caſe maie haue and mainteine a writ of waſte againſt the ſayde tenauntes for terme of life, of an other life, or for yeeres, and ſo recouer againſt them the place waſted, and their treble damages for the waſte ſo by them done, as they ought haue done for the waſte done by them before the ſaide graunt and leaſe of their eſtate. Prouided alwaies that this ordinaunce hold not place, but where the firſt tenauntes before the leaſe and graunt of their ſaid eſtates in the maner and forme aboue ſayde, were puniſhable of waſte, and alſo where after the ſayde graunt and leaſe the ſaide firſt tenauntes of the ſaide landes and tenementes take the profites at the time of the waſte done to their owne proper vſe. And this ordinaunce doe extende as well to waſte by ſuch tenauntes done before this ordinaunce as after.

Chap. 6.

Enditement.

Proceſſe.

Commiſſion of the peace.

Item our ſouereigne lorde the king, conſidering the great loſſes and damages, which oftentimes haue come and be likelie to come hereafter, as well to him ſelfe as to manie of his lieges, for that that where as well diuerſe enditementes and ſuites for our ſouereigne lorde the king, as other ſuites betweene partie and partie haue beene taken before diuerſe iuſtices of the peace, aſſigned by diuerſe commiſſions of our ſaide ſouereigne lord the king in diuerſe counties of England, and diuerſe plees and proceſſes vpon thoſe enditementes haue often bene made, and hanging before the ſame iuſtices not determined, the which plees and proceſſes bene often diſcontinued by making of newe commiſſions of the peace in thoſe counties, to the great loſſe of our ſayde ſouereigne lorde the king and of his ſubiectes, in delaie of the ſame plees and ſuites, and of the deliuerance of his ſayde ſubiectes. And vpon that, our ſouereigne lord the king willing to prouide remedie, of the aſſent and auctoritie aboue ſaide, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that all ſuch plees ſuites and proceſſes from hence forth to be taken and to be made before iuſtices of the peace in anie countie of Englande, the ſaide plees & proceſſes in ſuch ſuites to be done, ſhall not be diſcontinued by ſuch newe commiſſions of the peace to be made, but thoſe plees and proceſſes ſhall ſtand in their ſtrength. And the iuſtices in the ſame newe commiſſions ſo aſſigned, after that they ſhall haue the records of the ſame plees and proceſſes before them, ſhall haue power and auctoritie to continue the ſaid plees and proceſſes, and the ſame plees and proceſſes, and all that depend vpon them, to here and finallie to determine, as the other iuſtices might and ought to haue done, of and in the ſame, if no newe commiſſion had bene made.

Chap. 7.

Countie of Herford.

Shiriffes turns.

Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fridaie next before the feaſt of ſaint Hillarie, the ninth yeere of our ſouereigne lorde the king that nowe is, for the great miſcheeues and intollerable oppreſſions done to his lieges of the countie of Herforde, by encrochinges and extortions done by the ſhiriffes of the ſaide countie for the time being late begun and wrongfullie continued, for that the ſaide ſhiriffes in their turnes, and in other places after their turnes holden & ended, in ẏ which other places they haue no auctoritie nor power by their office to take anie enquirie or enqueſt, they haue taken diuerſe inquiries, enqueſtes of office, and enditements of laborers, craftesmen, & other diuerſe things ordeined by ſtatute to be enquired before iuſtices & commiſſioners of the peace, and that in no maner belong nor perteine to bee inquired by ſuch ſhiriffes in their turnes, nor in anie other place before them, and the which ſhiriffes by force of ſuch enquiries enqueſtes of office and enditementes not duelie nor lawfullie taken before the ſaide ſhiriffes in their turnes & without, & for the not comming of the ſaid liege people to the ſaide turnes, the ſaide ſhiriffes did take wrongfullie to their proper vſe of diuerſe of the ſaide liege people fines and amerciaments of x.li. and other great ſummes, in great oppreſſion vndoing & diſtruction of manie poore people of the ſaid lieges, if remedie ſhould not be haſtelie prouided in that behalfe, by conſideration of which miſchiefe it was ordeined by the auctoritie of the ſaide parliament, that no ſhiriffe nor vnderſhiriffe of the ſayde countie, from the ſayde fridaie then forwardes, by colour of his office, ſhoulde take anie enquirie, enqueſt of office, or enditement in his turne, that ought not by the lawe to be taken in his turne, nor that he by colour of his office ſhould take anie enquirie, enqueſt of office, or enditement, in anie other place after his turne holden and ended, nor that he ſhould take of anie of the ſaid lieges of our ſouereigne lord the king anie fines or amerciamentes for anie thing or cauſe that doe not belong to his turne or office, nor anie ſuch heinous or greeuous amerciament of anie of the ſaid lieges againſt reaſon or defaulte of comming to the ſaid turne or to other place, or for other cauſe by colour of his office, vpon paine of fortie poundes by him to bee paied to our ſoueraigne lorde the king, his heires and ſucceſſours, as often as ſuch ſhiriffe or vndershiriffe thereof or of anie article thereof bee duelie conuict at the ſuite of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, or of the partie greeued that will ſue as well for the king as for himſelfe. And that the partie that will ſue in ſuch caſe haue the halfe of the ſayde ſumme togither with his double damages to his proper vſe. And that the partie in this caſe greeued haue power by the auctoritie of the ſayde parliament to ſue in this behalfe againſt ſuch ſhiriffes and vndershiriffes, as well for the king as for him ſelfe as before is ſaide. And that the iuſtices of peace of the ſame countie for the time being, haue power and auctoritie to enquire, heare and determine ſuch miſpriſions and offences, as well at the ſuite of our ſoueraigne lorde the king as of the partie that will ſue for the king and for him ſelfe. And that this ordinaunce endure for thrée yeeres then next enſuing: Our ſoueraigne lorde the king, conſidering the ſayde ordinaunce to be profitable for him and his people of the ſayde countie, hath ordeined by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that the ſaide ordinaunce ſhall ſtand in his force and effect for thrée yeeres next enſuing.

Chap. 8. Item where as in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the firſt yeere of king Henrie, father of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, it was ordeined, that all the ſtatutes and ordinaunces made of meaſures of corne ought to bee fermelie holden and kept, after the effect
Purueiours. of the ſame, and that none of the purueiours of the king, nor of other, ought not afterward from that time forth to buie nor take anie corne by other meaſure, but eight buſhelles ſtriked for the quarter, and that none ſhoulde bee founde otherwiſe to deliuer for the quarter but eight buſhelles ſtriked for the quarter, as before is ſaide, and alſo that paiment ſhall be made incontinentlie for the cariage of the ſame, and that if anie purueiour of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, or of other perſon, from hence forth do buie or purueie anie corne otherwiſe or by other meaſure, then by eight buſhelles ſtriked for the quarter, as before is ſaide, and that be attainted, he ſhall haue one yeeres impriſonment, and ſhall paie to the king an hundred ſhillings, and to the partie that feeleth him greeued an hundred ſhillinges, and that as often as anie of them ſhall bee thereof attainted, and that the partie that will ſue, ſhall haue thereof an action grounded vpon the caſe.
Iuſtices of peace. And that the iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power to enquire and to holde plée of all the things aforeſaide, and vpon that to make puniſhment as well at the ſuite of the king as of the partie. And that from henceforth nothing ſhoulde bee taken for the meaſuring of ſuch corne in anie maner.
And notwithſtanding the ſaide ordinaunces and ſtatutes, as well the bakers and all other marchantes and buiers within the fraunchiſe of the citie of London, as the kinges purueiours of corne, and all other marchauntes and common buiers of corne in manie other cities, townes, boroughes, and counties of England continuallie from daie to daie doe buie and take nine buſhels for the quarter, that is to ſaie, the bakers, buiers, and marchantes within the citie and fraunchiſes
London. of London, by a veſſell called the fat, which conteineth viii. buſhels of corne, with an other buſhell of corne put to that for a quarter, and make the ſellers of the ſame corne againſt their will to paie one halfepenie for the meaſuring of euerie quarter: and all the other purueiours buiers and marchantes of corne ix. buſhels rated for the quarter, againſt the forme of the ſaide ordinance and ſtatutes, and in contempt of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, for becauſe the ſaide ordinaunces and ſtatutes be not proclaimed nor put in execution, nor the ſaide paines and forfeitures limit by the ſaid ſtatutes leuied after the effect of the ſame ſtatute: Our ſoueraigne lord the king, willing the ſame ſtatutes and ordinaunce to be duelie holden and kept, by the aſſent and auctoritie aboue ſaide hath ordeined, that as well the ſaide ſtatutes as the ſtatutes of weightes and meaſures, made at the parliament of our ſoueraigne lorde the king that nowe is, the viii. yeere of his reigne, be proclaimed as well in the citie of London as in all other cities boroughes and counties of England, and put in due execution after the forme and effect of the ſame. Ioining to the ſaide ſtatute, made the Buſhel. ſaide viii. yéere, that in euerie citie, borough, and towne of the realme there ſhall be a common buſhell ſealed, and according to the ſtanderd of the eſchequer, in the ſame maner and forme, and vpon
Balance. the paine as in the ſame ſtatute is ſpecified. And a common balance to be in euerie ſuch citie, borough, & towne. And that the maior of the citie of London, & all other maiors of all other cities, and boroughs of England, where there is a maior, & all bailiffes of cities & boroughes, where there is no maior, & all iuſtices of peace of euery countie of England for the time being, ſhal haue full power, to put all the ſtatutes & ordinaunces aforeſaid in due execution, and to heare & determine all the defaultes miſpriſions, offences, and treſpaſſes againſt the forme and effect of the ſaide ſtatutes and ordinaunces, done or to be done, or committed as well at the ſuite of the king as of the partie, that in ſuch caſe féeleth him ſelfe greeued, and of anie other of the kinges liege people, which in this behalfe will ſue for the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and that as well by examination of the parties or anie of them, after the diſcretion of the ſaide maiors, bailiffes, and iuſtices of peace, as by iſſues to bee tried by inquiſitions duelie to be taken and other plées and proceſſes of the law of the land. And that as well the partie greeued as anie other liege man of our ſoueraigne lord the king, that will ſue for the king, ſhall haue the ſuite in that caſe at his will. And that he that is ſo attainted of anie defaulte, miſpriſion, offence, or treſpaſſe done againſt the ſaid ſtatute, made the ſaid [illegible] yeere, ſhall paie to him, at whoſe ſuite he is thereof attainted, an C.s. and his reaſonable coſtes
of

of his ſaide ſuite, and to the king another C.s. And that as well the Maior of London for the time being, after that he is choſen Maior and ſworne within the ſaid citie at his firſt comming to the eſchequer before the treaſurer of England and the barons of the kings eſcheker, as euery of the ſaid other Maiors and bailifes in their othes to be made for their ſaide offices, ſhall be charged and ſworne to do, keepe and execute all the ſtatutes aboue ſaide. And that all the Maiors and bailifes of cities and boroughes of the realme, accomptable in the ſaid eſcheker, do yerely accompt in the ſaid eſcheker of the profits and forfeitures that may or ought to perteine to our ſoueraigne lorde the king by the forme of the ſaid eſtatutes. Sauing alwayes to lordes, cities and boroughes their libertie and franchiſes, graunted to them by our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, or anie of his progenitors, not reuoked, repealed, nor adnulled. And ſauing alwayes that the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaide firſt yeere of king Henrie the fifte, and all other ſtatutes of meaſures and weightes afore made ſtand in their force.

Accompt.

Chap. 9.
Cloth.

